Mate?

"What's wrong with him?" Rita asked.
"I'll talk to him, don't worry." Liam said and left.

I didn't know what was happening. Why did he leave after hearing about my mate? Did I offend him again? But I didn't do anything.

I was worrying about Arnan when Victor said.
"Don't worry Rose. He'll be fine. Maybe something came up and he had to go."
"Yeah maybe." I replied.

"No. I know him, he would never do that unless someone offends him. Did you do something unusual Rose?" Lina asked while looking shy at me.
"No, I didn't do anything," replied immediately.
Lina rolled her eyes and started to talk with Rita.
"Don't worry, maybe he is disturbed by something." Alise said
I nodded. A few minutes later I said.
"I need to go to the washroom, excuse me."
"Washroom is outside the left corner." Rita said.
"Thank you." I smiled at her and said.
Alise looked at me and asked.
"Do you want me to come with you?"
"No, I'll be back soon." I replied and left.
I was searching for the washroom. Rita said left corner so I went there.

When I reached the corner I heard murmuring, someone was talking.
Then I saw Liam & Arnan standing beside the gents' washroom. Arnan was smoking and Liam was saying something to him. Right opposite them was the lady's washroom. I stopped there and couldn't go far.

"Fuck mate, the cane because Victor told her to come. It's not her fuck." Liam said. "That girl Alise she cursed? So what if Victor told her, that doesn't mean she had to come. She could deny him easily. Does anybody want her there? The answer is no, a big NO." Arnan replied.
"Please buddy calm down. She looks like a good girl." Liam said.
"What did you say? Good girl? You know how much I dislike her right? She is such a weakling. Whenever she is around I feel disgusted." he said angrily.

I was shocked. He was disgusted by me? Why? We only had one conversation. After that day I didn't even try to talk with him. Why he is feeling disgusted? Am I too weak? Is it that bad to be an omega? I was feeling numb. I felt heartbroken. A tear rolled up from my eyes to my cheeks then I realized I was crying.
Then I did what I always do, run.
I ran from there as fast as I could before they watched me.

I was crying. I didn't know how could I go home with my current situation. I was afraid mom would see me like that. But I had to go home. I didn't want to stay here anymore. I sent a message to Rosa that I was leaving.
She called me and asked me what was happened but I didn't tell her anything.

When I went home it was already night.
When I entered I saw mom was sleeping on the couch. I felt bad for her.
"Mom, wake up I'm back." I said.
"Rose you are back? Why do you come late? Are you okay? What happens to your eyes?" She said.
"I'm okay mom. I'm just feeling sleepy. Please go to your room and sleep peacefully." I hugged her and said.
She looked confused but didn't say anything more.

I went to my room and lay down on the bed without changing my clothes.
I felt awful. I didn't know why he was hating me? Disgust was a very heavy statement that I couldn't take it. I thought about what my mom told me. I should stay away from him.

I contacted my Wolf with our mind links.
"Next week we will find our mate. I hope he will accept us without being disgusted, Rosalia." I said to her.
"Don't cry, Rose. He will never feel disgusted. He is born to be us. We will be happy after finding our mate." My wolf.
I silently cried and didn't know when I fell asleep.

Time flew so fast.
Tomorrow is my birthday. After the club incident, I always ignored Arnan. I didn't cross his path again. I stayed away from him. But the feelings inside my heart for him kept been growing deeper. Why did I feel like this for him? He is a stranger to me, he insulted me twice. How many times he insulted me behind my back in front of the friends I didn't even know.

But I still think about him. I was not like that, I was better than that. But one thing was strange, my wolf also liked him, attracted to him. I was just hoping that everything will be fine soon. Maybe tomorrow my life will be changed. I will be happy in my life forever and forget about him.

"Rose some downsters." My mom yelled.
"Coming, mom." I said.
When I went downstairs mom said.
"Alpha Michael just called me."
"Alpha Michael? The former head Alpha? Why mom?" I was surprised.
"He wants us to go to the pack house and celebrate your birthday." She said happily.
"What? Celebrate my birthday? But why did he want to celebrate my birthday? I remember I told him no. We are not that close with his family." I asked my mom.
"What are you saying, Rose? Your dad was very close to him. It's just after your dad died I don't want to go to the pack house and meet with everyone because it will remind me of your dad. I was sad and broken. But how long? And he told me that your dad died by accident so he doesn't want you to feel sad on your 20th birthday. It's the day when you will find your mate after all." she said.
"Mom I don't feel good about it. I don't want to celebrate either. And what if my mate is not from this pack?" I said.
"It's ok, you can wait but you have to celebrate honey, it's your day. I couldn't deny the former Alpha. he is a very respectful person. He already told everyone to come." She said.
"But mom."
Before I completed mom told me,
"Now get ready its already dark. We'll leave soon. we'll celebrate your birthday at midnight. Call Alice to come. Now go!hurry." She said.

I went to my room. I felt uncomfortable about all of this. What if Arnan though I was impudent.
But what should I do? His father invited us by himself so it was not my fault anyway.

Then I got ready. I wear a cute white long dress. My mom brought it for me to wear on my birthday. Three weeks before. I was very excited about this birthday and my mate. But now I wasn't feeling happy because I know I couldn't get whom I want.

I went downstairs and meet mom.
"My Princess is looking so good. If your father was alive, he would be very happy to see you." She got emotional.
I controlled my tears and hugged her.
"It's okay mom. I believe that he is happy by watching us happy from far away." I said to her and stroked her hair.
"Yeah, let's go now. Don't want the birthday girl to be late." She smiled.

Mom and I got in the car and left for the former Alpha to receive us.
When we went to the pack house I was surprised.
It was still the same. I came here with my dad when I was little. But after so many years it felt the same.

We sand inside and saw it was simply decorated. Did they decorate this for me?
There were some people I didn't know and some I know. Alise came and hugged me.
"It's your birthday my girl. Happy birthday." She screamed.
"Thank u alot bitch for that, Alice." I said and everyone laughed.
"Hey, birthday girl." Victor said.
"Hello." I said.
I saw Rita and Lina. Then nodded to me and I nodded back.
"Rose Lin. You are a big girl now. I couldn't even recognize you." Former Luna, Rivana said when she and Alpha Michael came to us.
"Thank you." I thanked her.
"Your daughter is beautiful just like you. Selena" She told my mother.
"Yes, you are right, Rivana." Alpha Michael said.
"It's been a long time since we met! I'm grateful that both of you arranged the party for my daughter." My mom said.
"What are you saying? Your husband was my best friend. I can't forget how he fought to save me, my life is indebted to him" He said sadly.

I was impressed by them. They were humble. Because in every war so many beta and gamma died by saving their Alpha but nobody look at a dead.

"It's time to cut your cake," Alice said.
"But without our mate? Alpha how can we start the celebration?" Lina asked.
"And the Alpha's beta is not here too." Rita said.

"It's okay. I'm still here so no need to wait for them to start the celebration. Maybe they got lost. Anyway the cake will come back soon don't worry." Alpha Michael said.
I nodded to him and cut the cake. Everybody was clapping and cheering for me. I was happy. I bet a piece of cake to my mom and Alice and hugged them. Everyone was wishing me, cheering me.

But suddenly I smelled a very strong scent. My heartbeat was so fast that I had to take deep breaths. The Scent of Rain & Dark Chocolate was driving me crazy. I started to walk and follow the scent. I knew whose scent was that. But why was the scent pulling me and I couldn't breathe.

I ran towards the end of the pack house. I saw Liam was coming to me.
"Happy Birthday to you Rose, sorry I'm late." Liam said with a smile.
"It's okay. Thanks. Liam." I said while looking for the one whose scent was making me insane.
"I'm going inside, are you coming? Liam asked.
"I'll come back soon I just want to get some fresh air." I said.
"Okay, be careful," Liam said. He was looking very nervous.
I nodded and he left.

I felt someone approaching me and the smell got closer and closer. I couldn't think straight.
My wolf started to roar.

When I felt someone behind me I turned around and saw him. He was so close to me! I looked into his eyes. His eyes were glowing dark red.

"Mate."
My wolf said and started to howl happily.

I was so shocked and happy. But how was that possible?

I whispered while looking into his eyes,

"MATE?"

She can't be my mate

Arnan P.O.V

I came back to my university today. I had to drop out because I was injured in the last war. There were so many fighter wolves who died in the war. I couldn't save them. My dad almost died but his gamma saved him. His gamma was one of his close friends. At the end of the day, a friend saved another friend. My

Liam, my beta called me and asked me where I was. I told him about the entrance and my friends came to pick me up.
Girls were screaming and shouting after watching me. I couldn't understand those girls. What was so hot about?
"Welcome back." Liam and Victor said.
Victor was my Theta.
"My nieces! you, buddy." Henry and Jack said.
Henry was my Delta and Jack was my Gamma.
All were powerful wolves.

"Yeah. Now don't believe like we don't meet every day." Liam said while raising my brows.
"Oh yes, I forgot we meet and work every day, Alpha." Liam said and we all laughed together.
"Let's go to the class." Victor said and we nodded and left for our class.

After the class, we went to the cafeteria to have breakfast. As we reached there, girls started to scream again and boys were looking afraid.
I really don't understand those girls. First, their parents wanted to grab my attention, and now their daughters. Now.
Suddenly, I felt a deep mix scent of Rose and lavender. What smell was this? It was so deep that I almost lose my sanity.
In front of the crowd of girls, I wanted to find the owner of the scent.
"Let's sit at our table." Liam said and we started to walk.
That scent started to come closer and closer. I stopped walking and looked everywhere for the person.
And then my eyes stopped on another pair of eyes. My wolf growned and said,
"Mate"
After hearing what my wolf said I narrowed my eyes at her.
Because I realized that she was an omega. How could an omega be my mate?
I looked away from her eyes and walked back to my friends.
I could sense her. how she talked with her friend and kept looking at me.
So interested in me, huh? I thought.

After all the classes I went to the parking lot. I was leaving in my car and talking with my friends when I saw that girl come with her friend there.
Her friend went to get her car when she stood at the entrance. And again she started to peek at me. What's wrong with her? Why did she always stare at me? What a shameless girl!
Her friend came in a car and she left with her.
That day I learned she was my father's gamma's daughter. I called her mother to get some information about her because where was she when it was my 20th birthday?
Her mother told me about her. Her name was Rose, and she was with humans for four years. What a weak girl.
The next day Rose called me by my name. How dared she? She wanted to know about many things but I told her to stay away from me and left.
She didn't come across me for two weeks after that conversation. I was happy about that. And was getting stronger day by day. I didn't want her close to me otherwise I didn't know what will I do.
My wolf PV. yelled at me.
"Arnan, stop ignoring her. She is our mate. Why are you doing this? I need her. I want to protect my omega."
"Oh please, you want to protect her? Being a traditional you want to take an omega as your mate? Are you for real?" I said.
I skipped my mind links and didn't listen to him.
When it was Liam and Rilea's anniversary party, I felt her scent. She came with vector and joined my group on gamma. I thought she had minimum shame but no, she sat beside me shameleslly. Her scent gave me red trouble. When she talked about her birthday next week and about finding her mate, I got so angry that I had to leave there.

When I came back I saw she had left already.
Good for her. I didn't want to see her face anymore.

After another week, my dad said he wanted to celebrate Rose's birthday at our pack house because he felt guilty about her dad. Her dad saved him and I appreciate that always. But that didn't mean I like her. I was the Alpha's son, but he who saved my dad. Her father was a fighter but she was a weak omega.
I didn't like the idea but couldn't say anything to my dad.
I was turning bad tight late because I knew the mate thing will reveal soon to her. She will know about me. And I didn't want that drama. So I went there late with Liam.
Liam knew everything about me because he was my best friend. I told him everything. He tried to make me understand the mate bond because he already had a mate. And I'm the head alpha of Cranton blood pack. I could not reject my mate. But I didn't want to listen those excuses. I had already Lina. She could be a perfect and powerful Luna for me and my pack. She was my girlfriend for a reason. She rejected a head alpha and lived all the pain for me. That much power she had. She will be my Luna and it's decided.

When I went close to my pack house I smelt the scent of rose and lavender.
There she was standing at the entrance outside. I saw her back, she was wearing a long white dress.
She had a good figure. But didn't have a good rank.
I just close to her and stood right behind her. She felt someone behind her so she turned and looked at me.
My wolf screamed inside me, "Mine."
He was trying to take over me. My eyes were glowing red.
She was shocked while looking into my eyes and whispered,

"MATE?"

know should I the..
