This further exacerbated the unease among the members of the base camp.
In fact, Levi Garrison has been idle all the time.
He said that Ning Jinye and other 80 people were sent to the Siberia Super Spiritual Vessel in batches for body quenching.
Afterwards, special training was also conducted separately, dedicated to building a group of elite troops.
However, this situation is unclear to everyone, including Levilia and Zoey Lopez.
Xiao Feng also realized a strong sense of crisis.
During this time, Xiao Feng also devoured the spiritual energy and the power of the enemy masters frantically.
The cultivation realm has been greatly improved again.
However, what Xiao Feng is most worried about is Gong Qianqiu.
Because he got the exact information, Qianqiu Sect and Xuan Ming united to deal with the Zhenmo Division, so Gong Qianqiu's life was worrying.
So Xiao Feng used various means to start practicing Gong Qianqiu, but he got no reply.
"Could it be that Qianqiu is looking for a place to hide?"
"That's right, it must be the case. Xuan Ming and the others are powerful, and they can obtain their location based on communication tools."
Xiao Feng thought of this and sent a few messages to Gong Qianqiu.
"Qianqiu, you can rest assured that I am strong enough."
"If Qianqiu Sect goes to war with Zhen Mosi, I will stand by your side unswervingly."
"With me, no one can hurt you."
After Xiao Feng sent it, he continued to frantically devour the spiritual energy of heaven and earth, and he wanted to continue to improve his strength.
Mass grave.

Inside the Qianqiu Church General Altar.
Xiao Feng sent information continuously, and changed direction to remind Gong Qianqiu of one thing.
Soon after, his identity will be announced to the world, and then Xiao Feng's chess piece will really be useless.
"If you don't use Xiao Feng to backstab Levi Garrison now, when will you wait?"
The corners of Gong Qianqiu's mouth rose slightly, and his murderous aura was suddenly released.
Gong Qianqiu seriously thought about various feasible plans.
Xiao Feng was Levi Garrison's most important first disciple.
If you want him to do something like a 'rebellious' thing like a backstab, you have to take a strong medicine.
A lot of work has been done in the early stage of sowing discord.
Otherwise, Xiao Feng could not have sent a message some time ago, saying that he had shot at Ning Jinye.
If it wasn't for Levilia to stop it in time, it is very likely that Phoenix and others would also be injured.
This shows that the previous provocation foreshadowing has already paid off.
But these people are only Levi Garrison's subordinates after all, and Xiao Feng does not have such a big psychological burden.
"It seems that I can only use Xiao Feng's feelings for me to start."
"It may be feasible to frame Levi Garrison and seriously injure himself, and it may even have miraculous effects."
Gong Qianqiu's thoughts ran fast, trying to make the plan as foolproof as possible.
"But now Xiao Feng's strength is far from enough!"

Gong Qianqiu was a little bit in trouble, after all, even he didn't have enough super spiritual veins to devour and improve.

Where can the wealthy give Xiao Feng this waste?
“Sect Master, I have a method that may work.”
Some time ago, Master Bone searched everywhere for super spiritual veins to no avail.
“Oh? Talk about it.”
Gong Qianqiu said with great interest.
Advertisement
The bone master said solemnly: “Sect Master, I have seen an evil method in ancient books, it is called Heart Demon Yin.” “Use special materials to refine evil pills, and at the same time cooperate with specific cultivation methods, and then deliberately guide them.”
“It is possible to draw out the deeply hidden demons, not only to greatly increase the strength, but also to greatly change this person’s personality.” “As long as the time is ripe and the spellcaster’s skill detonates, the recruiter can make extraordinary moves.”
Advertisement
“Oh? And this kind of evil art?”
Gong Qianqiu was very surprised, this was just tailor-made for Xiao Feng!
“It’s just that it takes time to refine the evil pill, and what we lack most is time.”
Master Bone said with a smile: “Teacher, I have practiced this pill a long time ago. I used three pills for the test, and now I have the last one left.”
When talking, Master Bone took out a small porcelain bottle in his arms, opened the cork, and there was a purple pill inside.
“Okay, Master Bone, you have made a great contribution to Qianqiu’s teaching.” Gong Qianqiu praised the porcelain bottle.
All is ready except for the opportunity.
Gong Qianqiu made up his mind and immediately made an appointment with Xiao Feng.
After receiving the message from Gong Qianqiu, Xiao Feng was overjoyed and came to meet him at the fastest speed.

“Qianqiu, you’re finally willing to see me.” As soon as they met, Xiao risk wept with joy.
Gong Qianqiu resisted the nausea and said softly: “The situation is special during this time, so I cut off contact with the outside world.”
“Understand, after all, the combined strength of Xuan Ming and Qianqiu Sect is too strong.”
When Xiao Feng spoke, he wanted to hug Gong Qianqiu and solve the pain of lovesickness during this time.
However, Gong Qianqiu took a few steps back to avoid it.
“Xiao Feng, now is not the time for children to love each other.”
“According to reliable information, Xuan Ming and Qianqiu Sect will attack Zhen Mo Si soon.
How can you protect me with your current strength?”
“Xiao Feng, listen to me, as long as we get through this difficulty, we can truly be together.”
Gong Qianqiu deliberately made an eager look.
Xiao Feng suddenly felt ashamed and felt that he was too impatient.
“Qianqiu, are you looking for me today?” Xiao Feng asked in confusion.
Gong Qianqiu pretended to be mysterious and said: “I got a secret technique from the ancient book of Zhenmosi, and supplemented by medicinal pills, people’s cultivation base can be greatly increased in a short time.”
“I have tested it myself, and there is absolutely no problem, so I thought of telling you about this exercise.”
While speaking, Gong Qianqiu deliberately released his breath.
“Qianqiu, you are so kind to me.”
Xiao Feng was so grateful.
Xiao Feng has no doubts about Gong Qianqiu’s words.
Especially the breath released by Gong Qianqiu is indeed much stronger than the last time we met.
If it hadn’t used some kind of secret technique to improve, it would never have reached this level.
Gong Qianqiu winked and said, “You are my man, I am not good to you and who is good to you?”
Xiao Feng was overwhelmed with joy, and he was so moved.

“Take this medicine pill, and then quickly run the exercises I teach you for fifty weeks.”
“It may be a little painful in the early stage, you must persevere.”
“Otherwise it will fall short.”
After Gong Qianqiu finished speaking, he handed the evil pill over.
Xiao Feng took the evil pill without any hesitation, and then practiced according to Gong Qianqiu’s statement.
At the beginning, Xiao Feng didn’t feel much, but as time went on, he felt more and more that his veins were swollen.
It’s just that I think of Gong Qianqiu’s words and continue to insist on practicing.
It didn’t take long for Xiao Feng to enter a state that was almost on the verge of going crazy.
It’s just that Xiao Feng didn’t notice it himself, and he felt the strong aura surging. He instinctively thought that the secret technique played a role.
And Gong Qianqiu clearly saw that a purple-black light appeared on the edge of Xiao Feng’s eyes.
“Continue to practice, and then you will be able to use it completely for me.”
The corner of Gong Qianqiu’s mouth flashed a smile of successful conspiracy.
the other side.
After some deliberation, Tian Si and the young master felt that they should join hands with Levi Garrison to deal with Qianqiu Sect and Xuan Ming.
After all, Zhen Mosi and Levi Garrison are not bloody enemies.
At most, it was a battle of anger that was once suppressed by Levi Garrison.
Regarding this matter, it can be settled separately after the fact.
Today’s biggest enemies are still Qianqiu Sect and Xuanming.
Jointly with Levi Garrison will also have a greater grasp.
It is best to eradicate Xuan Ming, Duguxiao and others in one fell swoop, so as to avoid future troubles forever.
After unanimous approval, Tian Si, Xie Huanyu and others went directly to the base camp to find Levi Garrison.

When everyone came to the periphery of the base camp, they were discovered by Phoenix and others who were in charge of patrolling.
"Young Master of the Sky Sect is here, why don't you wait to welcome me?"
Tiansi shouted Luck, his voice was like a thunderbolt from the blue, only the eardrums of the base camp patrol personnel were sore.
Phoenix and the others frowned. Although the arrogance of the other party was very unpleasant, she also knew that they had arrogance.
Quickly report the information to Zoey Lopez and Levilia.
Now that Levi Garrison's whereabouts are unknown, the base camp is temporarily in charge of Zoey Lopez.
And Levilia is the strongest fighting force in the current base camp.
In fact, there is no need to report, Levilia and Zoey Lopez and other cores of the base camp rushed over.
Zoey Lopez came down to the front of Tiansi under the escort of everyone.
"What's your reason for coming here?"
Zoey Lopez asked in a deep voice.
The members of the base camp were ready to fight, and the swords were drawn for a while.
Tian Si glanced at the crowd, but did not find Levi Garrison's figure.
In particular, although the strength of these people in front of them is much stronger than that of ordinary monks, there is absolutely no way to compare them with them.
"Where is Levi Garrison? You people are not worthy of a direct dialogue with the young master!"
Tian Si spoke with a condescending tone.
Xie Huanyu glanced at everyone, and said proudly: "Seeing your little strength, I really regret coming over to discuss cooperation."
"On their level, I'm afraid they can only act as cannon fodder." Xie Yunzong snorted coldly and agreed.
Phoenix and the others clenched their fists, and they could clearly feel the contempt of each other.

Levilia also frowned tightly, but still resisted the anger that was about to burst out.
Zoey Lopez was naturally very angry, but she heard a key word from the other party – cooperation.
"Don't be impulsive, let's listen to what these people have to say."
Sound transmission appeased everyone, turned around and said to Xie Huanyu:
"Presumably Your Excellency is the young master of the Sky Sect."
"Since your Excellency is here to discuss cooperation, you should also follow the most basic etiquette, right?"
Zoey Lopez said in a deep voice.
"Courtesy?"
Xie Huanyu laughed on his back, as if he had heard a big joke.
"Can you handle the etiquette of this seat?"
Zoey Lopez's face changed slightly, she really wanted to turn her face.
But there is no Levi Garrison in the base camp, and the other party is the power of Kunlun Ruins.
If they really do it, these people on their own side will probably suffer annihilation.
In particular, Qianqiu Jiao and Xuan Ming are coveting together.
United Tiansi and others are indeed the best choice.
After all, I used to worry that Tiansi would target the base camp!
"These people are so arrogant!"
"It's just arrogant. If the boss (Master) is here, how dare they?"
"But given the current situation, it is really beneficial to be able to join forces with them."
Although everyone in the base camp was filled with righteous indignation, they were defeated by the cruel reality.
It's just that this kind of cooperation is too uncomfortable.
"Of course I can."
Just as everyone was in a dilemma, a steady voice came from the far end.
"The boss is back."
"Master is finally back."
"See if these guys dare to be arrogant?"
The crowd instantly had the backbone.
After a while, Levi Garrison flashed over.

Xie Huanyu and others narrowed their eyes, but after some exploration, their expressions returned to normal.
Because they found that Levi Garrison's strength was not much stronger than others.
Anyway, it can't be compared with several geniuses in Kunlun Ruins.
"Are you Levi Garrison?"
Xie Huanyu asked jokingly.
Levi Garrison nodded and asked, "Are you here to discuss cooperation?"
Advertisement
"That's it!"
Xie Huanyu said noncommittally: "More precisely, it is to give you a chance to live."
"Oh? How do you say this?"
Levi Garrison deliberately made a puzzled expression.
Advertisement
Xie Huanyu said solemnly: "Xuanming and the powerhouses of the Taixu Shenzong have allied with Qianqiu Sect. If you fight alone, you will definitely be dead."
"But if you belong to this throne, even Xuan Ming and others will have some scruples and dare not act rashly."
"Of course, more importantly, you will also get a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity."
"What chance?"
Levi Garrison asked curiously.
A smile appeared on Xie Huanyu's face, and he said, "After this is done, I can take you to the Kunlun Ruins and join the Sky Sect."
"From then on, I've been with this seat, and I'll make sure you eat spicy food."
Xie Huanyu seemed to have an aloof attitude, as if it was the alms of the upper class to the bottom class.
"Being able to tide over the difficulties and taking the opportunity to enter the Kunlun Ruins sounds really tempting!"
Advertisement
Levi Garrison said very excitedly.
Xie Huanyu was overjoyed, and the negotiation was much easier than he thought.

“So I refuse to cooperate!”
Levi Garrison said suddenly after turning around.
ha?
Xie Huanyu didn’t react for a while.
Levi Garrison was very interested in the conditions he offered just now!
Xie Yunzong, Tian Si and others were also a little confused.
“Levi Garrison, are you kidding me?”
Tian Si couldn’t help but say.
Levi Garrison said solemnly, “I never joke with people other than my friends. Are we familiar with each other?”
What the hell!
Tian Si almost couldn’t hold back the foul language in public.
This guy is just so annoying.
Xie Huanyu’s face also became gloomy, and he said coldly: “Levi Garrison, do you know that you missed the opportunity to reach the sky in one step?”
“Are you sure it’s not a chance to ascend to heaven?”
Levi Garrison sneered twice and continued: “Don’t the so-called cooperation just want to use us as cannon fodder?”
“you……”
The corner of Xie Huanyu’s mouth twitched, and when Levi Garrison exposed his thoughts in public, he felt disgraced.
“Don’t regret it!” Xie Huanyu waved his hand and told the others, “Let’s go!”
Seeing the back of Xie Huanyu and others leaving, Levi Garrison sneered at the corner of his mouth.
“Boss, do you really not consider working with them?”
After a long time, Phoenix took the lead in asking.
Others also focused their attention on Levi Garrison.
The refusal to cooperate this time is equivalent to offending Tiansi and the powerhouses of the firmament to death.
It may even lead to the intensification of the conflict between the base camp and the town magic department, and gradually turn into hatred.
“Do you think they are here to cooperate sincerely?” Levi Garrison asked rhetorically.

Phoenix was speechless, Xie Huanyu's attitude just now was obvious, and he didn't take them seriously at all.
"Don't worry everyone, I have my own way to deal with them."
Levi Garrison gave everyone a reassurance.
Levi Garrison is by no means aimless, but just now clearly explored the details of Xie Huanyu and others.
I've probably figured it out already.
at the same time.
Tiansi and others who were refused to cooperate were quite depressed.
They never thought that Levi Garrison would refuse so simply.
"Levi Garrison, this bastard, is so ignorant of praise." Xie Huanyu was a little exasperated.
"Young Master, calm down!" Xie Yunzong advised: "Since Levi Garrison insists on courting death, let him fend for himself!"
"Young Master, Great Elder, based on the eyesight of the two of you, what is the realm of Levi Garrison's cultivation?"
"Is he refusing to cooperate, is he confident, or is he just bluffing?"
Tian Si condensed.
Xie Yunzong pointed to the top arrogances of the Cang Qiong faction, and said solemnly,
"In my opinion, Levi Garrison's strength is at best similar to theirs."
"In the secular world, it may be possible to run wild, but compared with this seat and the young master, it is simply vulnerable."
Tian Si was slightly relieved when he heard the words, as long as Levi Garrison was still in a good position, he didn't need to worry.
"Then what should we do next?" Tian Si continued to ask.
Xie Huanyu thought for a long time before slowly saying: "Since Levi Garrison doesn't know how to praise, then let's find someone else to form an alliance."
"Point the spear directly at Levi Garrison. As for Qianqiu Sect, Xuan Ming and the others will leave sooner or later."
"At that time, we will find Qianqiu to teach the settlement."
"Abide by the law of the young master."
Tiansi agreed.

Everyone discussed it again, and finally decided to let Qianqiu Jiao let the people go first.
Then the two sides reached a cooperation to deal with Levi Garrison together.
"I'm going to talk in person, it seems more sincere." Tian Si recommended himself.
Xie Huanyu and others also did not object, and stayed in the town magic department to wait for the good news.
Then Tian Si came to the mass grave alone.
Gong Qianqiu was quite surprised when he learned that Tiansi was coming.
Especially according to the report, Tiansi seems to be seeking cooperation?
"Invite people in!"
Gong Qianqiu ordered.
After Gong Qianqiu finished speaking, put on the human skin mask prepared in advance.
She doesn't want to reveal her true identity for the time being, especially since the other party is the controller of the Town Demon Division.
Once the secret that he is the spy of Zhen Mosi is exposed, then Tiansi will definitely cancel this negotiation.
After Tian Si entered the welcoming hall, his eyes kept staring at Gong Qianqiu.
"Why is Tian Si coming?"
Gong Qianqiu asked in a deep voice.
Tiansi said in a negotiating tone: "Please order the leader to hand over Yufeng Tiansi and the top ten Tianjiao, and then we will join hands to deal with Levi Garrison."
"I don't know how to teach?"
"It's not a problem to join forces to deal with Levi Garrison, but people must let go after killing Levi Garrison." Gong Qianqiu said with a smile.
"It's a deal!" Tian Si said with a serious face.
The two talked happily and soon reached an agreement.
Looking at the back of Tiansi leaving, Gong Qianqiu's face immediately became cold.
Based on what he did to Yufeng Tiansi and the top ten Tianjiao, how could Tiansi give up once he was released?

Talking about cooperation now is nothing more than trying to kill someone with a knife.
“Tiansi, Tiansi, this sect master has seen through your plan.”
Gong Qianqiu said proudly.
Although there are no eternal friends in the world, there are only eternal interests.
But Zhen Mosi, Qianqiu Sect, Xuan Ming and others teamed up to deal with Levi Garrison, but it was unexpected for everyone.
Not only that, Gong Qianqiu also issued an invitation to Xie Huanyu, the young master of the Cang Qiong faction, on the grounds of discussing specific cooperation matters.
Xie Huanyu readily agreed, and in order to show his strength and courage, he decided to go alone.
When I came to the designated place, Gong Qianqiu had been waiting for a long time.
“The younger generation Gong Qianqiu welcomes the young master.”
Gong Qianqiu Yingying bowed, and her gestures were full of coquettishness.
This time Gong Qianqiu did not hide his appearance, and even deliberately dressed up after learning that Xie Huanyu had come by himself.
*The dress is also quite s*xy, which perfectly outlines her graceful figure.*
“The master of the palace is too polite, we are the same generation, and there will be more opportunities for in-depth exchanges in the future! Don’t be too cautious!” Xie Huanyu reached out to help Gong Qianqiu, and by the way, he patted the weak and boneless hand lightly.
When he saw Gong Qianqiu for the first time, Xie Huanyu was deeply attracted.
Especially Gong Qianqiu’s frown and smile, he couldn’t help but indulge in it.
It must be said that Xie Huanyu has also seen many peerless faces in Kunlun Ruins, but Gong Qianqiu seems to have a special charm that makes him fascinated.
“Then what should Qianqiu be called?”
“Brother Huanyu?”
“Will this be too presumptuous?”

Gong Qianqiu looked flattered and frightened.
It made Xie Huanyu feel love and pity in his heart.
"How can you be presumptuous? I think Brother Huanyu is very good, and it makes people feel friendly."
Xie Huanyu was overjoyed, that 'brother Huanyu' made his bones almost brittle.
"Then the slave family will be called that way!"
Gong Qianqiu smiled and continued: "Brother Huanyu, please take a seat, the little sister has many things to ask her brother for advice!"
Gong Qianqiu is extremely shrewd and will not miss any opportunity to make contacts.
Especially after Xue Pengzhan has confirmed that he can enter the Kunlun Ruins, Gong Qianqiu's ambition is even more inflated.
Although the overall strength of the Cang Qiong Sect is not as good as that of the Taixu Shenzong, Xie Huanyu is the young master of the Cang Qiong Sect.

If you have a good relationship with him, you can directly reach the top of the sect.
"Sister Qianqiu, you invited me over today to discuss how to deal with Levi Garrison?"
At this moment, Xie Huanyu has been immersed in Gong Qianqiu's tenderness and charm, unable to extricate himself.
He even felt as if a flame was burning in his chest.
"What Brother Huanyu said is very true. Levi Garrison is strong and powerful, and it is difficult for the little sister to deal with it alone. At that time, Brother Huanyu will help you."
Gong Qianqiu poured Xie Huanyu a glass of wine while he spoke.
Advertisement
Xie Huanyu smiled even more, patted his chest and assured: "Sister Qianqiu, please rest assured, this matter is covered by me."
"Levi Garrison, the monkey who doesn't know whether to live or die, this seat will cut him into two halves."

Thinking of Levi Garrison making fun of himself in public, Xie Huanyu was furious.
Now that he can take this opportunity to please Gong Qianqiu, Xie Huanyu's hatred for Levi Garrison is even stronger.
Advertisement
"Little sister toast to brother, I wish this cooperation a success."
Gong Qianqiu's eyes were full of peach blossoms and red lips were slightly opened and closed, which made Xie Huanyu feel anxious for a while.
Looking at Xie Huanyu's appearance, Gong Qianqiu couldn't stop sneering in his heart.
It seems that the monks in Kunlun Ruins are just like this, and they can't escape the control of their own charm.
"Okay, done!"
Xie Huanyu and Gong Qianqiu gently clinked glasses and drank the wine.
Next, the two discussed how to kill Levi Garrison and destroy the base camp.
As time passed, the two chatted happily.
In particular, Gong Qianqiu has been catering to Xie Huanyu from the beginning to the end, which has greatly satisfied his vanity.
Advertisement
The smile on Xie Huanyu's face never stopped.
"Brother Huanyu, do you think I can enter the Kunlun Ruins with my strength?"
Seeing that the time was ripe, Gong Qianqiu turned and asked.
Xie Huanyu suddenly became interested, and he instinctively thought that Xuan Ming did not agree to this matter.
After all, the Taixu Shenzong belonged to a medium-sized sect, and Xuan Ming and their identities were not very high, so it would be difficult for them to decide on their own.
Of course, taking 10,000 steps back, even if they agree to recommend, it is absolutely impossible for Gong Qianqiu to join the top of the Taixu Shenzong.
But Xie Huanyu was different. As the young master of the Cang Qiong faction, he had the absolute right to speak.

As long as Gong Qianqiu has a little bit of strength, there is nothing wrong with taking her directly into the core high-level of the sky.
"Okay! I also want to see your strength, sister."
Xie Huanyu said with a smile.
Gong Qianqiu immediately released his breath, and showed a certain ability to swallow the vitality of heaven and earth.
"My sister has the spirit bone that devours the spirit root?"
Xie Huanyu's face suddenly became serious.
Gong Qianqiu said deliberately uncertainly: "I'm not too sure, but the speed of absorbing the spiritual energy of heaven and earth is indeed much faster than others."
"awesome."
Xie Huanyu was overjoyed.
He took two steps to hold Gong Qianqiu's little hand, and said excitedly: "With such potential, I can absolutely recommend you to the top of the sky school."
In fact, Xie Huanyu has another sentence that he didn't say, that is, he wants to develop Gong Qianqiu as a Taoist companion.
He has both potential and strength, and the key is to look so charming and charming. He is really an excellent candidate for a Taoist companion!
Gong Qianqiu pretended to be shy and said: "Then I can fully count on my brother in the future!"
While speaking, Gong Qianqiu leaned his head gently on Xie Huanyu's chest.
"Don't worry, I can still do this for my brother."
Xie Huanyu was so excited that he even boldly put his hand around Gong Qianqiu's willow waist.
Gong Qianqiu endured his disgust and let Xie Huanyu's hand play on his waist.
She sneered in her heart, she did it deliberately, releasing her potential to replace Tiansi's position.
Only in this way can he take the opportunity to kill Tiansi after getting rid of Levi Garrison, and at the same time, it will not attract the hostility of the Cang Qiong faction.

Xie Huanyu ate this meal with satisfaction.
In particular, he also had a preliminary skin-to-skin relationship with Gong Qianqiu, which made Xie Huanyu reluctant to part.
Back at the Town Demon Division, Xie Huanyu directly found the Great Elder Xie Yunzong and several other geniuses.
"Young Master, how are you talking with the Qianqiu Sect leader today? Are you in any danger?" Xie Yunzong asked in a deep voice.
Xuan Ming and Taixu Shenzong Tianjiao are allied with Qianqiu Sect after all, and Taixu Shenzong and Cang Qiong Sect have always been at odds.
"Xuan Ming and the others are not in Qianqiu Sect!" Xie Huanyu paused and said suddenly with a serious expression: "But I found something more important."
"Qianqiu Sect's leader Gong Qianqiu has great potential, and has the spirit of devouring spiritual bones. If we are included in the sect, carefully cultivated will definitely become a top combat power."
"Oh?" Xie Yunzong said in amazement: "The world actually has such roots, so it is much higher than Tiansi's cultivation talent."
"Young Master's intention is to introduce Gong Qianqiu to the Cang Qiong Sect?" Xie Huanyu nodded and said, "That's right, such a good seedling cannot fall into the hands of other sects."
"Especially can't fall into the hands of Taixu Shenzong, so this seat intends to offer more favorable conditions to Gong Qianqiu." Xie Yunzong frowned and said, "Young Master, I understand your thoughts, but how should Tiansi handle it?"
"At the time, Qianqiu taught the Bloodbath Suppression Suppression Division of multiple factions, especially since the West Pavilion was almost slaughtered, Tiansi will never let it go.”

“I understand your concerns, but Kunlun Ruins are the strong ones. Since there are better seedlings, we don’t have to stick to the old-fashioned.”
Xie Huanyu said solemnly: “What’s more, our Cang Qiong faction’s choice is not even a monkey who has climbed up from the secular world.”
Mass grave.
Inside the Qianqiu Church General Altar.
Gong Qianqiu sipped the tea in a happy mood.
The three-party joint plan to deal with Levi Garrison has been finalized, and the next step is to deal with the Levi Garrison faction.
“Master, are you planning to kill Levi Garrison with your own hands?”
Duguxiao asked with a smile.
Gong Qianqiu waved his hand and said, “It’s too easy to kill him with your own hands, it’s still interesting to change the gameplay.”
In her opinion, the current strength can completely crush Levi Garrison, there is no need to do it head-on, wouldn’t it be more interesting to use a strategy?
Gong Qianqiu said with a sneer: “I want to come to the heart and the devil has been completely planted in the depths of Xiao Feng’s heart.”
“Master, what can my disciple do for you?”
Duguxiao asked excitedly.
Duguxiao knew that this was Gong Qianqiu’s habit, and the latter especially liked the feeling of using tricks to play with everyone between the palm bones.
I never thought of getting rid of Levi Garrison and still not doing it myself, as expected of a master with unparalleled wisdom!
“Go, reveal this information to Phoenix and others.” Gong Qianqiu handed a note to Duguxiao.
Duguxiao saw that it was actually Gong Qianqiu’s real identity information, and immediately guessed it.
This is to further intensify conflicts and sow discord!
“As ordered!”
Duguxiao took the lead and left.

It didn't take long for a lot of information about the leader of the Qianqiu Sect to gradually spread from within the Town Demon Division.
Naturally, this information cannot escape the eyes of Phoenix and others who have always been paying attention to this matter.
"These messages have been confirmed, and the boss must be informed, otherwise the consequences will be unimaginable."
Phoenix said solemnly.
Azure Dragon and others nodded in agreement.
Because the latest information is amazing.
First, some people saw with their own eyes that the true face of the leader of Qianqiu was Gong Qianqiu.
Second, someone saw Gong Qianqiu slaughter the elite disciples of the West Pavilion with Shen Jie in his hand.
Third, someone accidentally saw Gong Qianqiu use force and blood to abuse Yufeng Tiansi.
There is also a lot of similar information, and their spearheads point to one person – Gong
Qianqiu.

"What are you going to do?"
Xiao Feng directly blocked everyone's way.
"It seems that you have also heard the news about Gong Qianqiu, how is it, now you know that you have been deceived?"
"Xiao Feng, get out of the way, we must inform the boss as soon as possible."
"Or you go to the boss with us and take the initiative to admit the mistake, maybe it's not too late."
"You can't go!"

Xiao Feng said coldly.
Azure Dragon was in a hurry and said coldly: "Xiao Feng, what do you mean? Knowing that Gong Qianqiu is the leader of Qianqiu Sect, are you still obsessed with it?"

"This is clearly someone deliberately spreading rumors."
"The people who say these things are simply ulterior motives."
Advertisement
"If you rashly tell Master, it will have an extremely bad influence on Qianqiu."
Xiao Feng said firmly.
Phoenix and the others were instantly angry. Looking at Xiao Feng, who was trying his best to protect Gong Qianqiu, he felt that this person became more and more unfamiliar.
"Xiao Feng, you are simply hopeless."
"Phoenix, ignore him, let's go see the boss!"
"Step aside!"
Azure Dragon and the others turned around and wanted to leave.
Xiao Feng immediately showed a strong aura, and said in a condensed voice, "Without my permission, I think who of you would dare to act rashly?"
"Xiao Feng, don't go too far!"
Advertisement
Azure Dragon warned.
Xiao Feng didn't care about the anger of Phoenix and the others, and said solemnly, "If you want to see Master, you can try hard."
"I absolutely do not allow anyone to slander Qianqiu, otherwise don't blame me for being ruthless."
"I want to see how ruthless you are?"
Azure Dragon took the first shot, but was blasted away by Xiao Feng, fell heavily to the ground, and vomited blood.
"Go together!"
Phoenix and the others no longer hesitated, and directly attacked them.
But the gap between them and Xiao Feng was too great, and they were knocked to the ground in a few rounds.
There was blood oozing from the corners of everyone's mouths, and obviously they all suffered serious internal injuries.
"Listen to you guys. Before I investigate it clearly, if anyone dares to talk nonsense in front of Master, don't blame me for killing me."

"If Qianqiu is really the leader of Qianqiu's sect, I will definitely apologize with death."
Xiao Feng snorted coldly and turned to leave.
He was eager to see Gong Qianqiu, vowing to completely overturn these messages.
Looking at the back of Xiao Feng's departure, Azure Dragon and others gritted their teeth in hatred, but they were powerless.
Xiao Feng's strength completely exceeded their expectations, and even reached the level of completely crushing several people.
Just saying that Xiao Feng left the base camp, he contacted Gong Qianqiu in various ways, but he didn't get a response at first, which made him anxious.
Finally, after about half an hour, Gong Qianqiu gave the specific meeting location.
Xiao Feng was overjoyed and rushed over at the fastest speed.
Galloping all the way, when he was about to arrive at the location of Gong Qianqiu, he suddenly felt a great aura fluctuation.
There is a faint sound of fighting.
Xiao Feng was shocked, thinking that Gong Qianqiu was attacked by a master, and continued to speed up.
However, when they reached the site of the incident, they only saw Gong Qianqiu, who fell to the ground, and the back of a person who was leaving quickly.
It's just that the back looks very familiar.
"Master?"
Xiao Feng was shocked, and the first reaction was that Phoenix and others informed Levi Garrison of the information.
"Qianqiu, how do you feel?"
Xiao Feng rushed over quickly, and saw Gong Qianqiu's face pale, with blood oozing from the corners of his mouth.
The breath is also extremely weak, obviously seriously injured.
"I…I have nothing to do, Xiao Feng, why…are you here?" Gong Qianqiu said pitifully.
Xiao Feng couldn't care less and asked directly, "Did Master hurt you?"

“No…how could it be a master? It should be a master of Qianqiu’s teaching.”
Gong Qianqiu deliberately dodged his eyes when he spoke, with an aggrieved expression of ‘did not dare to tell the truth for some reason’.
Xiao Feng was suddenly anxious, and said solemnly: “Qianqiu, you are still lying to me, then it is clearly the master.”
“You are my woman. Even the master can’t bully you until the situation is completely understood.”
“Hey!”
Gong Qianqiu sighed and said helplessly: “Don’t blame Master, maybe he misunderstood me too deeply!”
“There are messages coming out from the Town Demon Division, and those are clearly framing me.”
“I don’t know how a small person like me can attract the attention of the leader of Qianqiu Sect?”
“Is it just because of the similarities in the names?”
The more Gong Qianqiu said, the more aggrieved, the more angry he became.
Xiao Feng was full of anger, and even had a deep resentment towards Levi Garrison.
“Master, why do you only trust Phoenix and the others, but you don’t want to trust me?”
“If Qianqiu is really the inscrutable female leader, can you be injured so easily?”
“Master, it’s your inhumanity first, so don’t blame your disciple for being unrighteous.”
Looking at Xiao Feng’s angry appearance, You Qi’s eyes were full of black energy.
Gong Qianqiu was very proud in his heart, and it seemed that the heart demon had fully played its role.
All plans were fulfilled perfectly.
Not long ago, the back of Levi Garrison was naturally played by Duguxiao.
The reason why Gong Qianqiu delayed contacting Xiao Feng by half an hour was also because of the need to accurately control the time and perform the play well.

"Xiao Feng, don't blame Master, you should improve your strength as soon as possible!
When you speak, more people will naturally believe it."
Gong Qianqiu continued to guide Xiao Feng.
Although there is no super-spiritual-level energy for Gong Qianqiu to devour, some small spiritual-vessels are very enough for Xiao Feng.
In order to strengthen his right to speak, Xiao Feng completely entered the crazy training mode, and his strength continued to improve rapidly.
Levi Garrison didn't know that he had been framed by Gong Qianqiu.
He is still busy improving the strength of himself and his subordinates.
Eighty students including Ning Jinye and Wen Lei made full use of the super spiritual vein of War Bear Kingdom.
In particular, the Brain of God used the newly developed detector to find several large spiritual veins.
Although these spiritual veins are not comparable to the super spiritual veins of the Atlantis submarine plan, they are enough for Wen Lei and others.
Moreover, the efficiency of the God's Brain in searching for spiritual veins is extremely high, and there are multiple spiritual veins of varying sizes found in succession.
Levi Garrison also took the opportunity to improve his strength.
"Mr. Ye, I seem to have discovered two more divine veins and holy veins."
Just as Levi Garrison was immersed in cultivation, a message came from God's brain again.
"Great, God's Brain, you've done a great job this time!"
Levi Garrison was overjoyed.
The final battle is approaching, and I and the people around me just use the divine veins and holy veins to improve their strength.
How much will it increase by then?
Before Levi Garrison probed the strength of the people from the Cang Qiong faction, they were far inferior to him now.
Not to mention the self who has been promoted through the divine veins and holy veins.

As long as they use them to temper the body again, what about the cooperation between the Taixu Shenzong and Qianqiu Sect?
Tiansi and the sky party are dissatisfied with themselves, what can they do?
In the face of absolute strength, all alliances are useless, like ants.
A few more days passed.
The news that Qianqiu Sect, Zhen Mo Si, and Taixu Shenzong joined forces to deal with Levi Garrison finally came out.
All parties were sensational.
"I see how mad Levi Garrison is this time, that is the union of the two major Kunlun Ruins sects!"
"Although the Zhenmo Division suffered heavy losses some time ago, the thin and dead camel is bigger than the horse, and there is Tiansi in charge, so the strength should not be underestimated."
"Levi Garrison and his base camp are destined to be destroyed this time."
All the forces have been waiting for the show to be staged.
In particular, those forces that were once suppressed by Levi Garrison stood up and cheered for the Qianqiu Sect and the Demon Suppression Division.
They themselves are not capable of revenge, and now that someone stands up to destroy Levi Garrison, they naturally feel very happy.
The tripartite alliance also made Zoey Lopez unexpected for them.
Everyone also felt unprecedented pressure.
In particular, Levi Garrison is still missing, except for the last time Xie Huanyu came over to talk about cooperation and showed up in a hurry, he disappeared again.
This made everyone in the base camp feel more anxious.
"Informed to strengthen the alert, once an enemy attack is found, quickly hide in the safe house."
Zoey Lopez gave the order.

Since the last time Phoenix and others were injured by Xiao Feng, they have also been immersed in the rhythm of crazy cultivation.
Now it is even more urgent to improve his strength. As for Xiao Feng's affairs, he will put it on hold for the time being. At such a critical moment, there must be no more infighting.
Of course, it was also because he didn't know Levi Garrison's trace, and there was no way to report it.
Of course, Phoenix and others also used communication tools to send messages, but Levi Garrison did not give any response.
"Levilia, you also probed the strength of those people last time, do you feel confident?"
Zoey Lopez asked.
Advertisement
Levilia sighed and said helplessly: "I feel that at most I can barely fight that young master."
The meaning is obvious, even if you can win in the end, you will lose both.
Others were powerless.
Zoey Lopez's face is even more difficult to look at. Levilia is the strongest fighting force in the current base camp, and even she can only hold one person.
Advertisement
According to the information, the Cang Qiong faction and the Taixu Shenzong combined have thirteen great powers.
Together with Tiansi, Xuan Ming, and Qianqiu Sect's leader, there are sixteen peak powerhouses.
Even Duguxiao, who is a little lower, is very difficult to deal with.
Once the other party comes to the door, the base camp may not even have the slightest room to fight back.
Even if he hides in the safe house, with the power of Kunlun Ruins, he may not be able to hold it for long.
The more Zoey Lopez thought about it, the more she felt that there was no hope at all, but as the current head of the family, she still had to hold on.

Otherwise, the people below are even more scattered, and they may be defeated by then.
“Is there any news from Dad?”
Levilia asked in a deep voice.
Advertisement
Zoey Lopez shook his head and said, “There is none yet, and I don’t know what the hell this guy is doing.”
Speaking of Levi Garrison, Zoey Lopez also felt depressed for a while. As a bedside person, he didn’t even know the whereabouts of his husband.
“Dad must have his reasons for not revealing it, maybe he will give us a surprise at that time!”
Levilia comforted.
Zoey Lopez couldn’t help but complained, “It’s best not to be frightened.”
The mother and daughter chatted for a while, and the nervousness eased a little.
But the others didn’t think about it at all. They instinctively thought that Levi Garrison had no bottom line and was looking for reinforcements everywhere.
If he hadn’t been familiar with Levi Garrison’s personality and behavior, some would even suspect that he had escaped.
“If the master (the eldest) doesn’t come back, we really can only sit back and wait.”
“Even if the boss comes back, I’m afraid it will be difficult to resist, that’s a three-party combined army!”
“Now I just hope that they will take the lead in infighting and delay the pace of attacking the base camp.”
There was a lot of discussion. Although it was about life and death, almost no one was optimistic that they could resist the coalition army.
Xiao Feng was also very nervous, or more urgently wanted to improve his strength.
Especially after seeing the master’s serious injury to Gong Qianqiu last time, Xiao Feng’s mentality has undergone a huge change.
If the three-party combined army is attacked and becomes famous in one battle, then his right to speak in the base camp will increase in a straight line.

It is best to keep pace with Master Levi Garrison, and even faintly surpass Levi Garrison's prestige in the hearts of everyone.
At that time, what Xiao Feng said, no one would dare to make irresponsible remarks.
However, Xiao Feng did not know that this was also one of Gong Qianqiu's plans.
Taking advantage of external pressure, Xiao Feng was forced to try every means to improve his strength.
Also under the catalysis of this extreme mentality, the effect of inner magic will be better.
At that time, when the demons are detonated, Xiao Feng will be able to successfully complete the arduous task of backstabbing Levi Garrison.
the other side.
Looking at the crimson super spiritual veins in front of him, Levi Garrison couldn't help laughing.
This may be the legendary sacred vein.
The young master of the Cang Qiong faction also threatened that there would be no sacred veins and divine veins in the secular world.
Little do they know that the super spiritual veins in the secular world have been deliberately sealed by people or forces.
It is conceivable that once the power of these spiritual veins erupts at the same time, what kind of disaster will it cause?
If nothing else, at least ordinary people will die in large numbers, after all, they will definitely not be able to withstand the impact of such spiritual power.
"Continue to quench the body. This is the last sacred vein. After we complete the promotion, we will rush back to the base camp."
Levi Garrison said solemnly.
"Yes!"
Wen Lei and others were also very excited, and they continued to temper their bodies. Their cultivation base has undergone earth-shaking changes.

Take Ning Jinye as an example, he feels that with his current strength, even if he encounters Duguxiao, he still has the strength to fight.
Wen Lei and others will only be stronger.
Everyone once again concentrated on the practice of quenching the body.
Levi Garrison is no exception, his quality in all aspects has now approached perfection.
The body has become invincible.
Feeling that the power in the body has increased again, the smile on Levi Garrison's face is even greater.
"What about the three-way joint army?"
"After completing this round of body quenching, my strength will be improved to a higher level."
"The powerhouses of Tiansi and Kunlun Ruins, I'm starting to look forward to this battle."
Levi Garrison felt awe-inspiring in his heart, and immediately entered the rhythm of the holy vein tempering body again.
Since the news that the three parties jointly dealt with Levi Garrison reached the base camp.
Zoey Lopez, Levilia and others are all making the final preparations in full swing.
Almost everyone felt unprecedented pressure.
They also did not have the old smiles on their faces, and many of them were pessimistic about the war.
On the other hand, Levi Garrison, who has returned recently, has a relaxed face.
"It seems that the master (the eldest) is helpless, and has begun to use this method to relieve everyone's tension."
"I really don't understand why the boss at that time rejected the proposal of the young master of the sky to cooperate."
"Master has been in all directions in his life, when did he suffer from that kind of useless anger?"
"I would rather die standing than live on my knees. This is the boss I know."
Everyone was talking behind their backs.

Naturally, these remarks also reached Zoey Lopez's ears.
In fact, Zoey Lopez also noticed that Levi Garrison was different.
Not only that, but even Ning Jinye, Wen Lei, and others who only returned to the base camp yesterday were all relaxed and comfortable.
"Jun's Landing, in the face of the three-way coalition army, you have to think of a foolproof strategy!"
When Zoey Lopez found Levi Garrison, she felt it was necessary to remind her man.
After all, this is about the life and death of the entire base camp members.
Many of these people are Levi Garrison's relatives and friends, and even ordinary members are absolute confidants.
Levi Garrison said with a smile: "Don't worry, I know it."
"But this time, Tiansi and the others have too many masters. Our battle strength can hardly match. You…"
Before Zoey Lopez could finish speaking, Levi Garrison interrupted directly: "Zoey Lopez, there must be a way to the front of the mountain, so there is no need to be overly nervous."
"Okay… okay!"
Zoey Lopez sighed, seeing Levi Garrison's indifferent expression, she was really helpless.
But Zoey Lopez was very unwilling. She didn't want to cause an irreversible tragedy because of Levi Garrison's underestimation of the enemy.
Zoey Lopez could only turn around to find other people, hoping to remind Levi Garrison in many ways through them.
Looking at Zoey Lopez's back, the corner of Levi Garrison's mouth rose slightly.
Of course he knew what his wife was worried about.
However, Levi Garrison's strength has been greatly improved again through the tempering of the last sacred vein.
Now, he is no longer afraid of the combined forces of the two major sects in Kunlun Ruins.
"Nan Yan, you have to find an opportunity to persuade your brother not to let him take the enemy too lightly."

“There are so many masters in the three-way coalition this time, there is really no room for mistakes!”
“I told your brother about it just now, and he didn’t take it seriously at all.”
Zoey Lopez said helplessly.
Zhou Nanyan said with a smile, “Sister-in-law, my brother never fights uncertain battles.”
“Since he feels that things are not exhausted, he must have other cards!”
Levi Garrison made three orders and five applications, and could not reveal the secret cultivation.
In order not to leak the rumors and let Qianqiu Jiao and Tiansi know that they cannot play an unexpected role.
However, Zhou Nanyan also used the words “other cards” to change direction to remind Zoey Lopez.
“I wish it was as you said!”

Zoey Lopez sighed and turned to leave.
From her point of view, Zhou Nanyan was a little confused to believe in Levi Garrison.
Especially when the current situation is so severe, even if you have trump cards, you shouldn’t show that kind of appearance that is almost like a fool!
Later, Zoey Lopez found Wen Lei and others, and the rhetoric they got was basically the same as Zhou Nanyan.
Even Ning Jinye, who has always been very low-key and cautious, comforted himself not to worry too much, and to believe the words of Instructor Ye.
“What happened to them?”

Zoey Lopez was puzzled.
the other side.
Under Gong Qianqiu’s three-day special training, Xiao Feng’s strength has been greatly improved again.

Especially with the blessing of inner demons, Xiao Feng is even more powerful.
Advertisement
Even if he loses to the current Duguxiao, he can definitely retreat under his attack.
This made Xiao Feng extremely proud and proud.
To be able to improve so high in a short period of time, looking at the entire base camp, Xiao Feng feels that no one can match it.
At the same time, Gong Qianqiu also greatly appreciated Xiao Feng's strength.
It made Xiao Feng's self-confidence even more bursting.
"Qianqiu, thank you so much for your guidance during this time."
Xiao Feng said gratefully.
Gong Qianqiu waved his hand and said: "This is because your talent is extremely high, otherwise, no matter what I say, it will not reach such a level."
Xiao Feng was overjoyed, and he felt that his status and evaluation in Gong Qianqiu's heart were getting higher and higher.
Advertisement
"By the way, Xiao Feng, you should also go back to the base camp as soon as possible! Lest your master and the others worry."
"Don't worry, Zhen Mosi has any plans, as long as I can find out, I will notify you as soon as possible."
Gong Qianqiu said solemnly.
Xiao risk was moved to tears.
It's just that he suddenly remembered that Levi Garrison had injured Gong Qianqiu indiscriminately before, and he was extremely unhappy and had a lot of resentment in his heart.
There was even a trace of hatred deep in his heart.
"Xiao Feng, don't blame Master, he also listened to the slander before he accidentally hurt me."
Gong Qianqiu obviously saw what Xiao Feng was thinking, and directly made up for the gradually collapsing master-disciple relationship.

Sure enough, after Xiao Feng heard this, his face became even more gloomy.
"Qianqiu is so considerate, yet to be so embarrassed by others, you are really deceiving people too much."
Xiao Feng thought so, and then said goodbye to Gong Qianqiu.
When Xiao Feng returned to the base camp and saw that everyone was in a panic, he felt even more superior.
Even the previous tension and stress were completely dissipated.
"With my current strength, my voice in the base camp will definitely increase a lot."
The more Xiao Feng thought about it, the more excited he became.
It's just that Xiao Feng was completely unaware of this change in mentality.
In the process of patrolling the defense of the base camp, Levi Garrison wanted to say hello when he saw Xiao Feng walking towards him.
As a result, Xiao Feng didn't seem to see himself, and passed by with words in his mouth.
"What's up with this guy Xiao Feng?"
Levi Garrison swallowed the words that came to his mouth, full of doubts.
You must know that Xiao Feng respected himself very much in the past, and would never pass by without saying hello.
"Could it be that the pressure from the three-way coalition forces is too great recently, making him addicted to cultivation?"
"Xiao Feng is indeed a cultivator, especially in the case of huge pressure, there have been cases of sleeplessness and forgetfulness."
"It's very likely that this is the reason."
Levi Garrison was a little relieved.
Turning his head to look, he just saw Xiao Feng's back.
Because of Levi Garrison's continuous use of super spiritual veins to quench his body, his hearing sensitivity has also been greatly improved.
He clearly heard what Xiao Feng said to himself.
"What about the tripartite alliance? My strength is very strong now, and it is absolutely no problem to deal with the so-called Tianjiao."
"This time, I will definitely impress Master."

“And after this battle, I’m going to take…”
Levi Garrison couldn’t hear the latter words clearly, and it was likely that Xiao Feng swallowed the words in time.
But judging from these contents, Levi Garrison also guessed something.
Xiao Feng obviously had an idea about how he concealed his traces several times.
Of course, it is very normal to have this kind of reaction, Xiao Feng’s mind was originally heavier.
However, Levi Garrison still felt that something was wrong with Xiao Feng.
But it is unclear exactly what went wrong.
“Maybe I’m thinking too much!”
Levi Garrison got rid of his distracting thoughts and decided to talk to Xiao Feng after the battle.
Xiao Feng, as one of his heaviest apprentices, Levi Garrison didn’t want him to have any grudges with himself.
the other side.
Gong Qianqiu prepared many treasures of heaven and earth for Taixu Shenzong.
These were all collected from Qianqiu Sect.
Some time ago, Master Bone was in charge of searching for super spiritual veins. Although he did not find any particularly huge spiritual veins, he gained a lot of treasures.
So Gong Qianqiu made a careful selection and presented the most valuable treasures with both hands.
Sure enough, Xue Pengzhan and others were shocked.
Before that, as the arrogance of the Kunlun Ruins Great Sect, they did not look down on the so-called strong in the secular world.
I don’t think there is anything good in the world.
In fact, many people in the Taixu Shenzong knew that Xue Pengzhan and several other geniuses followed Xuan Ming to the secular world.
Although they acquiesced to Xue Pengzhan and others ‘joining the WTO’, they also kept a constant focus on the latter.

Therefore, after obtaining these treasures, Xue Pengzhan did not dare to swallow them all.
He directly informed the senior management of Taixu Shenzong of all the circumstances.
However, even Xue Pengzhan did not think that this report would directly alarm the senior leaders of the teaching.
The deputy suzerain spoke directly and wanted to continue sending people to support Xue Pengzhan.
And the one sent was the Three Holy Sons, one of the seven strongest geniuses in the sect.
Of course, Xue Pengzhan also understood that the Three Holy Sons came to support them in name, but they actually came to monitor them.
After all, the treasures of heaven and earth presented by Gong Qianqiu are quite precious, and high-level officials are also afraid that Xue Pengzhan and others will guard and steal them.
After this message came back, Gong Qianqiu was equally excited.
She never imagined that she could lead the Three Holy Sons out of the mountain just with the things she looted.
If the gods are offered up, I am afraid that the three holy sons and even higher-level powerhouses can be directly taken down.
"Qianqiu, you don't know, this three saints are extremely powerful, and they can be regarded as the core high-level of the Taixu Shenzong."
"That's right, don't look at him as the Three Holy Sons, but among the Seven Great Holy Sons, his strength is almost on par with the Great Holy Son."
"The key three saints are still the beloved disciples of the vice sect master, and they have a wide range of connections within the sect."
"There are three holy sons who take action, let alone a mere Levi Garrison, even if it severely damages the Cang Qiong faction."
Xue Pengzhan and others, you are arguing about the Three Holy Sons.
Of course, most of these words are true, and the Three Holy Sons have a very high status in

the Taixu Shenzong.
Even more than some elders in the church have the right to speak.
In particular, the three holy sons were highly valued by the vice sect master, and almost all elders gave three points when they saw him.
"Qianqiu, the key is to have the Three Holy Sons in charge. Even if something happens, the Taixu Shenzong will stand up for it."
Xue Pengzhan said excitedly.
"At that time, Senior Brother Lao Xue will have a few more good words for the younger sister in front of the Three Holy Sons."
Gong Qianqiu said with a smile.
Gong Qianqiu is already making plans for the next layout at this moment.
The reason for befriending Xie Huanyu before was to leave an extra escape route for himself.
After all, Xue Pengzhan and the others did not have a high status in the Taixu Shenzong, and even if something really happened, the sect might not stand for them.
And Xie Huanyu is the young master, the absolute high-level of the Cang Qiong faction, and has absolutely superior utilization value.
But now that the Three Holy Sons have come out of the mountains, the situation cannot be the same.
As Xue Pengzhan said, the three saints have a very high status within the Taixu Shenzong, and they are even the beloved disciples of the vice suzerain.
Once something happens, the Taixu Shenzong will never remain silent.
"So as long as I make good use of this person, even the entire Taixu Shenzong can be used for me."
Gong Qianqiu thought to herself, at this moment she was bursting with confidence.
Even Tiansi and the Cang Qiong faction have been included in the destruction plan.
"Tian Si does not get rid of it, after all, there will be endless troubles."
Just when Gong Qianqiu was planning.
Xue Pengzhan said solemnly, "Everyone, why don't we use the power of the three saints to get rid of the young masters of the Cang Qiong faction?"

The Cang Qiong faction and the Taixu Shenzong have always been at odds. If they can destroy their young master in the secular world, it is equivalent to a great achievement.
"I also think it's feasible."
Xuan Ming took the lead in expressing his position.
Zhen Mosi teamed up with Levi Garrison to destroy the two alien races, and Xuan Ming's hatred in his heart had already climbed to the extreme.
It was also helpless to cooperate with it before.
Now that the Three Holy Sons are about to come to sit in town, they are not afraid of the revenge of the Cang Qiong Sect.
Gong Qianqiu also raised both hands in approval, and it is in the best interest of Qianqiu to get rid of Tiansi and others.
Moreover, she is very clear that the Kunlun Ruins powerhouse will leave one day, and the conflict between Qianqiu Sect and Zhen Mosi will continue.
Although she can now enter the Kunlun Ruins by means of means, the Qianqiu Sect was established by her after all.
Just like his own child, Gong Qianqiu couldn't bear to see the building collapse.
Of course, Gong Qianqiu has another layer of ideas, since the major sects of Kunlun Ruins can select talented players in the secular world.
So keeping the Qianqiu Sect is equivalent to retaining the foundational fire, which will facilitate the cultivation of his confidants in the future.
After all, for Kunlun Ruins, Gong Qianqiu believes that he is an outsider after all.
If you want to truly gain a foothold, or break out into the world, you need to be strong.
It is also extremely important to have a team of your own confidants.
"It's better to let the Cang Qiong faction fight with Levi Garrison and the others first, and let's take advantage of the fisherman."
Xuan Ming suggested.
Xue Pengzhan said solemnly: "I'm afraid Xie Huanyu and the others think so too."
"I have a way." Gong Qianqiu said suddenly.

Xue Pengzhan asked curiously, "What can I do?"
"Fish eyes are mixed with pearls." Gong Qianqiu said jokingly.
Everyone was stunned at first, and then they understood what Gong Qianqiu meant, and there were knowing smiles on their faces.
the other side.
After a few days of special training by Gong Qianqiu, Xiao Feng arrested several Qianqiu priests around the base camp.
Of course, Xiao Feng didn't waste resources, and directly devoured their skills.
Xiao Feng now has no psychological barriers to swallowing people up.
I even think this approach is logical. After all, these people are enemies, and it would be a pity to kill them.
It is better to devour their power to improve yourself.
With such a strong mentality contrast, in addition to Gong Qianqiu's deliberate guidance, it is more that the inner demons played an important role.
With the continuous improvement of strength, Xiao Feng's self-confidence is also more and more bursting.
Recently, he has been bragging about how strong he is.
"Trash like Duguxiao, I can clean it up as soon as I take it."
"Even if it is Tiansi or Kunlun Ruins, I can at least tie them."
"In this base camp, apart from Master, no one is my opponent."
Words like this are not uncommon, and many people find it very strange.
Because Xiao Feng used to be relatively low-key before, but recently, he was suddenly so high-profile, and it was like two different people.
Of course, the improvement of Xiao Feng's strength is also a good thing. After all, it is definitely a blessing for the base camp to have such assistance.
Because of this, the base camp members didn't take it too seriously.
However, Phoenix and others have recently found key evidence one after another.

"Xiao Feng, listen carefully. According to the latest information, Gong Qianqiu is the leader of Qianqiu Sect."

"And the calamity is in Gong Qianqiu's hands. Someone has seen her sneak into the base camp."
"The most important thing is that someone saw that Gong Qianqiu and Xue Peng had a fight, and the strength of the two was even between equals."
"Xiao Feng, it's time to make a choice, do you choose Gong Qianqiu, or the boss?"
Facing the menacing questioning from Phoenix and others, the purple-black cold light in Xiao Feng's eyes flashed away.
Especially the strong murderous aura made Phoenix and the others shudder.
Advertisement
"All of this is because someone is framing Qianqiu."
"And I'll say it for the last time, if you slander Qianqiu again, don't blame me for killing me."
Xiao Feng's eyes were fierce, making Phoenix and others fearful.
If it is said that Xiao Feng had a certain ability to screen various information about Gong Qianqiu in the past.
Advertisement
Then after Gong Qianqiu's deliberate guidance and the role of the evil spirit pill, Xiao Feng could no longer hear the slightest bit of Gong Qianqiu's bad.
What Phoenix and others have said is clearly substantiated.
But in Xiao Feng's view, they want to murder Gong Qianqiu.
If it wasn't for Xiao Feng's almost instinctive control in the base camp, he would have shot and killed several people long ago.
Every time someone encounters negative information about Gong Qianqiu, Xiao Feng's inner killing intent will grow wildly, and then burst out.
"Xiao Feng, are you okay?"
Xuanwu urn asked angrily.
Xiao Feng said impatiently: "You stop talking nonsense, I'll be fine."
While speaking, Xiao Fengqiang held back his killing intent and quickly left the sight of Phoenix and the others.

When he came to a secluded place, Xiao Feng madly punched a few trees that were surrounded by thick and thin trees.
After a while, the trees turned into slag, and the anger in Xiao Feng's heart was relieved a little.
But his heart was still full of anger, as if he didn't know how to vent his strength.
But at this time, Xiao Feng received information from Gong Qianqiu again and agreed on a meeting place.
Said to discuss following Xiao Feng to the base camp to clarify everything.
This made Xiao Feng overjoyed. His confidence was greatly increased because of his strength, and he felt that his right to speak in the base camp had been raised to a new level.
Now that I can finally keep the sky and see the moon, I can finally get married with Gong Qianqiu's lover.
Xiao Feng can't wait to rush to the designated location with two wings on his side.
About an hour later, Xiao Feng felt a strong murderous aura surging at the far end.
"No, Qianqiu is in danger."
Xiao Feng quickened his pace and soon came to the outer area of the incident site.
He originally wanted to save him directly, but found that it was the master Levi Garrison who shot Gong Qianqiu.
"how so?"
Xiao Feng was stunned in place, and he was engaged in a fierce ideological struggle in his heart.
In the end, he chose to observe secretly first. If Levi Garrison really wanted to kill, it would not be too late to stop him.
Seeing that Gong Qianqiu in the field was attacked by Levi Garrison, only the power of parry was not able to fight back.
However, this was under the circumstance that Levi Garrison did not exert his full strength.
Pfft!

Gong Qianqiu was knocked to the ground by a punch, blood flowed from the corners of his mouth, and the breath on his body was sluggish to the extreme.
"Gong Qianqiu, it is an unforgivable sin for you to mess with my apprentice's mind and provoke my master-apprentice relationship."
"Whether you are the leader of Qianqiu Sect, I must kill you."
"Do you have anything else to say?"
Levi Garrison's voice was extremely cold, and Xiao Feng couldn't help shivering.
"I can die under Master's hands, and I have no regrets. Although you don't want to recognize it, I also call it that."
"Because Xiao Feng and I have privately agreed for life, I am her woman."
"Now I only have one wish, but please don't take your anger on Xiao Feng, everything is my fault."
"Master, let's do it!"
After Gong Qianqiu finished speaking, he closed his eyes and made an appearance of being slaughtered.
Xiao Feng was about to stop it when he heard Levi Garrison's voice:
"For the sake of your infatuation, I will abolish your cultivation, but from now on, you are not allowed to interact with Xiao Feng."
"Otherwise, I will kill you without hesitation. Even if Xiao Feng comes to stop me, I will not change my mind."
"Gong Qianqiu, stop this thought!"
While speaking, Levi Garrison punched Gong Qianqiu.
Gong Qianqiu's body flew out like a broken paper kite, and finally fell heavily to the ground.
"Remember what I said today."
After Levi Garrison finished speaking, he turned and left quickly.
Everything happened too fast, and by the time Xiao Feng came back to his senses, Levi Garrison had disappeared without a trace.
"Qianqiu, how do you feel?"
Xiao Feng ran over and asked with concern.
"Xiao Feng, you are finally here, cough…"

Gong Qianqiu looked desolate, coughed several times in a row, and blood flowed out from the corner of his mouth.
"Qianqiu blames me for being useless. If I hadn't been in a daze just now and rescued you in time, you wouldn't have been hurt."
Xiao Feng felt guilty.
I regret that you stopped Levi Garrison just now, otherwise Gong Qianqiu would not have ended up in such a miserable end.
Gong Qianqiu waved his hand and said weakly: "It has nothing to do with you, Master misunderstands me too deeply."
"It's okay if you don't show up. If you really do stop, I'm afraid it will only deepen the idea of master killing me."
Gong Qianqiu continued to guide Xiao Feng.
The man just now was not Levi Garrison's deity, but Xuan Ming disguised himself.
Xuan Ming used the Taixu Shenzong's hidden breath technique, and only then did he not reveal any flaws.
"Why, why does Master just not believe me?"
"It's clear that someone is framing you, can't he see it?"
"Damn, terribly terrifying, to kill you indiscriminately like this is simply not worthy of being a teacher."
The more Xiao Feng said, the more excited he became, the blue veins on his forehead collapsed.
If you look closely, you will find that at this moment, Xiao Feng's pupils are filled with purple-black rays of light, making him look very strange.
Seeing this situation, Gong Qianqiu will naturally not miss the opportunity to continue to guide.
And seeing that the evil pill has been completely stimulated, only to take this opportunity to continue to deepen the role of the heart demon.
It will make Xiao Feng more in line with his own will to do things.
"Xiao Feng, don't worry, I won't give up."
"Even if it will lead to death, I will not leave you."

“I believe that Master will one day be moved by our true feelings.”
Gong Qianqiu burst into tears, and it looked like a textbook-like interpretation of a sensational drama.
“Qianqiu, you are sincere to me, and I don’t think I will let you down.”
Xiao Feng was inexplicably moved, but his hatred for Levi Garrison became stronger and stronger in his heart.
The purple-black light in the pupil also became thicker and thicker, and gradually spread to Xiao Feng’s brain center.
“Xiao Feng, with your words, I will die without regrets.”
When Gong Qianqiu said this, he sighed faintly and continued:
“I’m afraid that someone will interfere with it, and the master is preconceived, and he will not agree with us in the future.”
“Xiao Feng, if this is the case, what should I do?”
“Whoever dares to interfere with it, kill it!”
Xiao Feng said it naturally, even he had not noticed such a huge change in mentality.
“Then what if the master is always between us?”
Gong Qianqiu sighed again and said, “It would be nice if he wasn’t your master, otherwise, even if I fight to death, I will try my best to assassinate him. At that time, no one will stop us from dating.”
“At that time, we can be happy forever.”
“Holding your hand, growing old with your son, thinking about it makes me look forward to it!”
Gong Qianqiu made a fascinated expression.
“Why do you recognize such an unidentified master?”
After a series of verbal stimulation, the innermost demon in Xiao Feng’s body was completely released.
Xiao Feng’s murderous aura was awe-inspiring, and the efficacy of the evil pill in his body was instantly stimulated.
Seeing that Xiao Feng’s pupils were completely occupied by purple-black light.

Gong Qianqiu didn't hesitate in the slightest, and directly operated the Inner Demon Induction Technique.
Immediately afterwards, he instilled the idea of killing Levi Garrison into Dao Xiao Feng's thoughts.
"Ahhh!"
Xiao Feng screamed on his back, and the breath in his body instantly increased.
At the same time that the heart demon cited a complete explosion of power, it also raised his cultivation base by a large margin.
"Everyone has to die, and everyone who stops me and Qianqiu from being together has to die!"
"Levi Garrison, you are no exception!"
Xiao Feng muttered to himself, the whole person fell into a controllable state of ecstasy.

base camp.
Although Xiao Feng had solemnly warned not to speak ill of Gong Qianqiu, Phoenix and the others still felt that they had to find Levi Garrison for a showdown.
In particular, Levi Garrison finally returned to the base camp and showed no signs of leaving again.
Only then did they make the final decision to avoid Xiao Feng's sudden death.
"Don't be hesitant, you guys, just say it straight, and befriend me?"
Levi Garrison said with a straight face.
Advertisement
Azure Dragon gnawed his heart and said solemnly: "Boss, in fact, we just want to tell you about Gong Qianqiu and Xiao Feng."
"Xiao Feng? Didn't that kid swear in public that he would break up with the woman of Zhen Mosi?"
Levi Garrison said with a smile: "Besides, even if they are in contact, we just need to pay more attention and there will be no problem." Seeing that Levi Garrison didn't mean to take it too seriously, Phoenix and others were a little anxious.

Advertisement
"Boss, the situation is different now."
"Yes, boss, we think Gong Qianqiu is the leader of Qianqiu Sect."
"And there is something wrong with Xiao Feng now, as if he was brainwashed by Gong Qianqiu."
Several people scrambled to say.
Levi Garrison's face instantly became solemn.
However, Xiao Feng was the first disciple he valued the most, and Levi Garrison felt that it was necessary to thoroughly understand before making a decision.
"You said that Gong Qianqiu is the female leader, is there any solid evidence?" Seeing a few people wanting to 'answer' again, Levi Garrison hurriedly added: "Speak slowly, don't miss any details."
Sure enough, after Levi Garrison said this, Azure Dragon and others turned their attention to Phoenix.
Advertisement
Among the five, Phoenix is the most thoughtful.
"Boss, we have recently investigated a lot of solid evidence, otherwise we would not have asked you to report."
Zhu Que paused and continued: "Boss, someone saw with his own eyes that Gong Qianqiu took your divine calamity to kill."
"what?"
Levi Garrison's eyes suddenly became sharp, not entirely because of the loss of the gods, after all, it was a weapon that was refined and played with.
It is not by virtue of divine calamity that he exerts his extraordinary combat power.
The key is to be able to steal the divine calamity quietly under his own eyes, which is enough to show that this Gong Qianqiu has superb methods.
This is not only to know his whereabouts well, but also to avoid layers of guards. On the day when the gods were lost, the base camp was besieged by Xuanming aliens.

"Go on."
Levi Garrison already has a rough guess, and he needs to confirm it from Phoenix's mouth.
Phoenix nodded and said in a condensed voice, "Boss, the base camp was besieged by the Xuanming alien race that day when the gods were lost."
"According to our verification, the Eternal Kingdom, the Demon Suppression Division, and a number of killer organizations all have Gong Qianqiu's connections behind them."
"It can even be said that these forces are Gong Qianqiu's secret instigation and agitation, and at the same time provide them with the defense layout inside our base camp."
"How did she know about the defensive layout…"
Levi Garrison's words stopped abruptly, and he said solemnly: "Xiao Feng?"
"Yes, boss, Xiao Feng has long been aware of Gong Qianqiu and has nothing to say."
Phoenix continued: "Xiao Feng lost contact with Gong Qianqiu for a period of time, and that time happened to be the time when the mysterious woman devoured the major spiritual veins."
"Then boss, you also discovered this possibility, so you hid in a spiritual vein in advance and waited for the rabbit."
"But just when the mysterious woman was about to arrive at the spiritual vein, it suddenly stopped and shouted to demonstrate. Isn't this suspicious?"
"What do you want to say?"
Levi Garrison's face was solemn, and he was very puzzled at that time.
Phoenix explained: "Boss, as far as I know, during that time, Xiao Feng contacted Gong Qianqiu crazily and revealed your plan inadvertently."
"Sure enough!"
Levi Garrison suddenly realized.
This makes sense, since only a few people knew of his tracks and plans at the time.
Under normal circumstances, it is impossible for the mysterious woman to get the information in advance.

It is only possible that the people around her tipped off for her, and this person was someone she was very close to.
At that time, Levi Garrison didn't want to doubt anyone. After all, they were either relatives or friends, and rash doubts would definitely chill their hearts.
So Levi Garrison only attributed this incident to chance.
"Boss, and you determined that there are mysterious women in the West Pavilion, so you put pressure on them and almost killed them all."
"And Gong Qianqiu was in it at the time."
Phoenix's words continued, and Levi Garrison's face became more and more solemn.
"At that time, a mysterious old man came to the rescue, so she barely escaped."
"According to our investigation, he is likely to be the bone master who was expelled by the Sitian Medical Supervisor."
"And Master Bone just happens to be the No. 3 figure of the Qianqiu Cult, an absolutely high-level existence."
Levi Garrison said quietly: "Very good, playing so many people with applause, but also a qualified opponent."
If Levi Garrison was still angry when he first heard this.
Then, at this time, it is more about fighting against strong opponents.
"Furthermore, Gong Qianqiu has practiced the extreme devouring side of Levilia's selfcreated exercises."
"We also went to Xiao Feng to verify it. He said that he leaked out in a hurry. It was he who taught Gong Qianqiu the exercises."
"She once showed great strength. Some people saw it with their own eyes. Gong Qianqiu beat Yufeng Tiansi with only one hand."
"Even the top ten arrogances have fallen into Qianqiu Sect, and the root bone has been dug up. It is very likely that Gong Qianqiu dug and used it."
Phoenix's remarks are very powerful.
After all, even if ordinary people get the exercises created by Levilia, their bodies, especially their root bones, will never be able to withstand the energy pressure of extreme devouring.

And then there is Xiao Feng, if it is said that he leaked some information because of love, it may be excusable.
But how important is the practice?
That is to say, the first two times Duguxiao deliberately kept his hands, otherwise the high level of the entire base camp would have been destroyed long ago.
If that was the case, Xiao Feng would be unforgivable.

Of course, even now, Xiao Feng's mistakes cannot be made up.
It can even be said that Xiao Feng played an extremely important role in cultivating Gong Qianqiu, the female devil.
"There are also people who have seen it with their own eyes, Gong Qianqiu often goes in and out of the Qianqiu Education Base Camp."
"At the same time, Gong Qianqiu also claimed that she was the leader of Qianqiu Sect."
"Boss, there are other kinds of information…"
"Okay, don't go on."
Advertisement
Levi Garrison interrupted directly.
Phoenix and the others fell silent instantly.
Although Levi Garrison did not show a look of rage on his face, several people could clearly feel the change in his mood.
"Boss is angry."
Advertisement
"And very angry."
Phoenix and the others all had such thoughts in their minds.
In fact, Levi Garrison is really very angry, if one or two things are coincidental.
If all three or more pieces of evidence point to one person, then it is basically a fact.
The key is to face such a fact, Xiao Feng is not only obsessed.
Moreover, they even threatened Ning Jinye, Phoenix and others with death.

This made Levi Garrison disappointed and even more distressed.
“Boss, don’t be angry, Gong Qianqiu’s way of dealing with men is really powerful, and many people are willing to die for her.”
“Although Xiao Feng’s fall to this point is unexpected, it is also reasonable.”
Advertisement
Phoenix comforted.
Although Phoenix also criticized Xiao Feng, he still felt a little unbearable if he really wanted to punish him severely.
Levi Garrison pondered for a moment and said, “How to deal with Xiao Feng depends on what he does next?”
“Boss, what do you mean?”
Azure Dragon asked in confusion.
Others also turned their attention to Levi Garrison.
This sentence really has no deep meaning, as if Levi Garrison had some kind of guess about Xiao Feng.
Levi Garrison didn’t mean to explain in depth.
Instead, he changed the subject and said, “Don’t be too focused on Xiao Feng in the future, so as not to cause unnecessary trouble.”
ah? ?
Phoenix and the others were stunned.
Could it be that Xiao Feng’s matter has been revealed?
“Can’t understand what I said?” Levi Garrison raised his face again.
“Yes, boss!”
The five said in unison.
Levi Garrison waved his hand and said: “Okay, this time to strengthen the defense, I think the three coalition forces are about to start, you go down!”
“As ordered!”
Phoenix and the others took orders to leave.
Looking at the backs of the five people, a meaningful smile flashed across Levi Garrison’s mouth.
the other side.
As soon as Xiao Feng returned to the base camp, he got a report from his confidants and subordinates, saying that Phoenix and others went to Levi Garrison.

“No wonder Master went to kill Qianqiu, it really was the secret of these few people.”
“It seems that I took Lao Tzu’s warning as a deaf ear!”
“Very good, I will settle the account with you when I come back.”
Xiao Feng was so angry that his teeth were itching.
But he soon calmed down again.
Since there is no time to stop Phoenix and others from telling the truth, Levi Garrison’s attitude is particularly critical.
Especially the attitude towards his relationship with Gong Qianqiu.
“You have to confirm it in person.”
After making up his mind, Xiao Feng went directly to Levi Garrison.
“Master, you are finally back. Recently, the pressure on you to be a member of the base camp is too great.”
“With you at the headquarters, we can rest easy.”
After entering the room, Xiao Feng deliberately made an appearance of ignorance.
Levi Garrison smiled and said, “Xiao Feng, you are getting more and more slick!”
“Where is it?”
Xiao Feng felt guilty for a while, but decided to continue testing: “By the way, Master, do you have any important tasks for me?”
“Also let me fill it up a bit, otherwise I’ll always feel like I’m at a loss.”
“OK!”
Levi Garrison responded without any hesitation: “Then I will give you the task of internal security at the base camp for the past two days. If there is any trouble outside, you will immediately take someone to hide in the safe house.”
“Okay… okay, no problem.”
Xiao Feng was a little surprised, this was an extremely important task.
In other words, it is directly related to the life and death of core relatives and friends. It can be said that I trust myself extremely!
Could it be that Master doesn’t believe the so-called evidence of Phoenix and others’ nonsense?
“By the way, Xiao Feng, I was about to ask you something!” Levi Garrison suddenly changed the conversation.

Xiao Feng came back to his senses and hurriedly said: "If you have any questions, Master, I will definitely know everything and say everything."
"Now we are the master and the apprentice, you tell me the truth, do you still have contact with Gong Qianqiu?"
Levi Garrison asked in a deep voice.
Xiao Feng's heart froze at first, and then he quickly restrained his emotions and said, "I have no contact with Qian… Gong Qianqiu."
"Then what do you think of Gong Qianqiu?"
Levi Garrison continued to ask.

Xiao Feng's thoughts were running fast, and he was considering how to answer so as not to make people suspicious.
After all, Levi Garrison is thoughtful and has a strong ability to recognize people and break things, so it may be easier for others to fool them.
But it's not that easy to fool around in front of Levi Garrison.
Xiao Feng thought for a moment and said, "Master, in fact, I feel that Gong Qianqiu is a good person. It can be regarded as a gentle and kind-hearted person."
"It's just that you objected to our relationship before, so I could only reluctantly cut off contact. To be honest, Master, I was angry with you for this!"
Xiao Feng said while secretly observing Levi Garrison's reaction.
Advertisement
When speaking of "being angry with Levi Garrison", Levi Garrison frowned slightly.
Xiao Feng hurriedly changed the conversation: "Of course I also know that you are doing this for my own good. Over time, I will face it calmly." Sure enough, after saying this, Levi Garrison's brows slowly loosened again, and there was no strange expression on his face.
"You can understand the painstaking efforts of the teacher, and I am relieved." Levi Garrison looked relieved.

Advertisement
Xiao Feng sneered in his heart.
What made him particularly angry was that Levi Garrison almost killed Gong Qianqiu not long ago.
Now he actually pretended to be nothing, and falsely asked about Gong Qianqiu.
It's just one set before another, extremely hypocritical!
"Master, in fact, I also recently got some information about Gong Qianqiu, like a swarm of bees popped up suddenly."
Xiao Feng continued.
Levi Garrison asked with a smile, "Do you mean that the information is false?"
"No master."
Xiao Feng hurriedly explained: "I think this matter is as if someone is manipulating it behind the scenes, deliberately releasing information together during this period of time."
Advertisement
"If Gong Qianqiu is the leader of Qianqiu Sect, we naturally have to deal with it with all our strength."
"But if there are other people who confuse the public, the culprit must not go unpunished."
"You're right."
Levi Garrison first affirmed it, but then turned into a serious tone and continued: "But Xiao Feng, you must remember one thing."
"The situation is special now, and there is a lot of evidence that does point to Gong Qianqiu.
As the saying goes, there is no wind and no waves, and it is still necessary to prevent her from being contaminated."
"There is no room for sloppiness at such a time, and it is better to kill by mistake than to let it go."
Xiao Feng's mood instantly sank to the bottom.
Until this time, Xiao Feng could be considered to have tested Levi Garrison's true attitude towards Gong Qianqiu.

Even if Gong Qianqiu was let go before, as long as someone instigated, it is very likely that he will continue to kill Gong Qianqiu.
"It seems that a final decision must be made!"
Xiao Feng couldn't help but feel a cold killing intent in his heart, but he didn't feel the slightest surprise.
"What's wrong?"
Levi Garrison asked with a frown.
Xiao Feng was startled, and quickly restrained his murderous intentions, saying: "Nothing, I just feel that what the master said is very right, Gong Qianqiu can't stay."
"I'm going to investigate Gong Qianqiu's whereabouts. Whether she is the female leader or not, I will take her life."
While speaking, Xiao Feng watched Levi Garrison's reaction out of the corner of his eyes, and he saw the latter nod his head in relief.
"I'm not in a hurry. If it really gets to that point, I'll do it myself."
Levi Garrison blocked the road.
"All right!"
The anger in Xiao Feng's heart rose again, and he suddenly felt that Levi Garrison was too hypocritical.
Obviously he has already started, and now he even shows that he has not made a move.
Such behavior is simply not worthy of being a teacher.
"I'm afraid it's because I'm worried that I have a quarrel with him, so I deliberately block it with a pretentious attitude?"
"It must be so."
Xiao Feng felt that he had completely seen through Levi Garrison's intentions.
"All in all, don't contact Gong Qianqiu from now on. Once I find out, don't blame me for not being a teacher."
Levi Garrison said like a warning.
"Knowing Master, I won't contact her again."
Xiao Feng replied on the surface, but he kept complaining in his heart. hypocritical!
It's as if you took into account the relationship between master and apprentice before!

“Levi Garrison, since you are not benevolent, don’t blame me, Xiao Feng, for being unrighteous.”
Xiao Feng felt that he was on the verge of breaking out.
“Okay, you go to work first! I need to retreat for a few days as a teacher, don’t come to disturb if there is anything special.”
Levi Garrison waved his hand and ended the conversation.
“Yes!”
Xiao Feng turned and left, the corners of his mouth raised slightly.
“Retreat? God helps me!”
Xiao Feng felt that his opportunity had come.

Leaving Levi Garrison’s room, Xiao Feng did not hide the murderous aura in his heart at all.
If you look closely, you will definitely find that Xiao Feng’s eyes have been covered with purple-black aura at this moment.
It’s just utterly bizarre.
Through the conversation with Levi Garrison, Xiao Feng has determined that the latter will definitely not let Gong Qianqiu go.
I’m afraid it’s only a matter of time before I die.
Especially with Phoenix and others provoking from the side, there is no room for manoeuvre.
Advertisement
“No matter who wants to stop me from being with Qianqiu, I have to remove the obstacles.”
After much thought, Xiao Feng finally decided to be with Gong Qianqiu.
Now the biggest obstacle between the two is Levi Garrison.
Only by killing it, can you grow old with your loved one.
Advertisement
Although Xiao Feng has been controlled by Evil Pill and Inner Demon at this moment, he has not completely lost his mind.
Even more clear than his thoughts at his peak.
It’s just that he has fallen into a state of fanatical love for Gong Qianqiu, almost paranoid and obsessive.

Xiao Feng came to his room and carefully calculated the assassination plan.
"Levi Garrison said he was going to retreat and asked me to be responsible for internal defense work. This is definitely a godsend opportunity."
As long as the guards around Levi Garrison's retreat are transferred away as long as possible, the surprise attack can be successful.
"Do you want to discuss this with Qianqiu?" Xiao Feng was a little hesitant at first, and before he saw Gong Qianqiu, he persuaded himself not to blame Levi Garrison.
If you rashly say such a plan, Gong Qianqiu is very likely to come forward to stop it.
Advertisement
But thinking that Gong Qianqiu's mind is more delicate, he finally decided to let him know.
However, after Xiao Feng sent the message, Gong Qianqiu quickly responded.
And told Xiao Feng to meet before the action and discuss important matters.
"Qianqiu, you wait, I'll rush over."
After Xiao Feng replied to the information, he quickly left the base camp and rushed to Gong Qianqiu's designated meeting place.
Mass grave.
Inside the Qianqiu Education Base Camp.
After Gong Qianqiu received the information, he couldn't help laughing on his back.
"Hahaha, this waste Xiao Feng really didn't disappoint this sect master, and finally decided to do it."
Gong Qianqiu was quite proud, and Xiao Feng was an important pawn in his hands from beginning to end.
He never thought that when Xiao Feng had become an abandoned son, he would still be able to backstab Levi Garrison.
"The sect leader is ingenious, how could a mere Xiao Feng escape from your palm?"

“I’m afraid Levi Garrison never dreamed that his most important disciple would backstab him!”
“Even if you can’t kill Levi Garrison, with Xiao Feng’s current cultivation level, a surprise attack can hit him hard.”
Duguxiao and others rushed to pat Rainbow Fart.
Gong Qianqiu was also proud, and turned to look at the old man who looked like a skeleton.
“Master Bone, how are the things you prepared?”
Miya Chiaki asked.
As early as when he was going to use Xiao Feng to stab Levi Garrison, Gong Qianqiu had already ordered people to make preparations.
After all, Levi Garrison is a pure body cultivator, and he has also cultivated to the point of perfection.
Not to mention Xiao Feng’s strength, even a powerhouse of the same realm would have no way to hurt him with an ordinary weapon.
“Report to the sect master, I have already prepared it.”
As Master Bone spoke, he took out a specially-made broken blade!
It’s just that if you look closely, you will find that the short blade has a blue luster, which is extraordinarily strange.
“Sect Master, this is the venom that I concentratingly configured, called Shenyun.”
“This poison ranks second in the ancient book of poison. As the name suggests, the gods will perish after being poisoned by this poison.”
“Even if Levi Garrison is a pure body cultivator, as long as the venom enters the body, even if he doesn’t die, he will lose half his life.”
The bone master said confidently.
“well done!”
Gong Qianqiu said with a sneer: “In addition to this divine weapon provided by Brother Xue, it will be absolutely foolproof.”

"That's a must."
Xue Pengzhan took over the words and said quite proudly: "This short blade of Wanjun has been warmed and nourished by the spiritual pulse for more than 20 years."
"Although it can't be compared to the real magic weapon, it is definitely a superb weapon."
"Not to mention that Levi Garrison is an ordinary body cultivator, no matter how strong the existence is, he can definitely stab him out of a blood hole." Gong Qianqiu took the Wanjun short blade and could clearly feel the terrifying corrosive aura carried by the blade.
"Then we will see if Xiao Feng succeeds in the assassination."
Advertisement
Gong Qianqiu said sadly.
It didn't take long before Gong Qianqiu saw Xiao Feng.
After some remarks that seemed to discourage and comfort, but actually stimulated and instigated, Xiao Feng took the Wanjun short blade and left angrily.
Looking at Xiao Feng's aggressive back, Gong Qianqiu became more and more complacent.
Advertisement
All the layouts are completed, just waiting for the final result of this assassination.
After just saying that Xiao Feng and Gong Qianqiu separated, they quickly returned to a secluded place outside the base camp.
Change into your night clothes, put on the mask you prepared in advance, and then close your eyes to recuperate and exercise.
He waited quietly for night to fall, as he had previously arranged a guard post.
Therefore, Xiao Feng almost quietly sneaked into the base camp.
In addition, Xiao Feng's strength has increased greatly recently, and no one can be found during the whole process.
"The front is Levi Garrison's closed room, and the guards at the gate change every fifteen minutes."

“There was almost half a minute of empty time during the changing of the guard.”
Xiao Feng knew what he knew, and the moment the first guards left, the whole person turned into a black lightning.
Advertisement
In the blink of an eye, he passed through the flat area and successfully sneaked into the secret room corridor.
Deng Deng Deng!
Sure enough, just after entering the corridor, Xiao Feng could clearly hear the footsteps of the changing guards.
“A bunch of idiots, just with your cultivation base, how could you find Lao Tzu’s trace?”
“If I hadn’t been worried about scaring the snake, I would have come in directly.”
“If you want to come to this base camp, no one can stop Lao Tzu.”
Xiao Feng was complacent, and he continued to tiptoe inside.
The body was as light as a swallow, and it landed silently.
Soon he came to the secret room at the end of the corridor.
Xiao Feng pressed his ear tightly to the stone door, listening carefully to the movement inside, and could vaguely feel the sound of the breath.
Levi Garrison is obviously in retreat, and it seems that he is at a critical stage.
To reach the realm of Xiao Feng’s cultivation, one can basically judge the practitioner’s cultivation state through the rhythm of the breath.
“Keep your breath, you have to wait until the breath flows faster before you start.”
As we all know, those who retreat are in a state of absolute devotion when practicing, and their breath must be faster and faster with the exercise.
If you are attacked during this time period, it is the easiest to go into trouble.
Because of this, people in retreat usually need to protect the Dharma, and they should not be disturbed at critical moments.
Xiao Feng waited for another half an hour, and the air flow inside became more and more still.

Xiao Feng gently pushed the stone gate, and after pushing out a gap that barely passed through the human body, he dodged and floated in like a ghost.
Swish!
Xiao Feng entered the secret room and found that Levi Garrison was suspended in mid-air.
With Levi Garrison’s body as the center, a huge energy vortex has already formed.
The aura of the world around him is rushing into Levi Garrison’s body frantically.
And Levi Garrison himself also closed his eyes, completely immersed in the mysterious state of cultivation, and obviously did not find anyone coming in.
“What a godsend!”
The corner of Xiao Feng’s mouth rose slightly, and he slowly approached Levi Garrison.
One step, two steps, three steps…
Finally Xiao Feng came to a position about two or three meters away from Levi Garrison.
“Dare to stop me from being with Qianqiu, you will die for me!”
Xiao Feng suddenly exuded a chilling murderous aura, and stabbed Levi Garrison in the back of his heart.

Xiao Feng’s sneak attack showed his strongest strength, and he didn’t hold back at all.
The whole person shot out like an arrow from the string.
Wan Jun’s short blade glowed with a strange blue light, as if to swallow Levi Garrison.
call out!
The blade light came in the blink of an eye.
And Levi Garrison seemed to be slow to respond, and he moved slightly until the last moment.

But even so, it was too late to dodge.
puff!
The Wanjun blade did not directly enter Levi Garrison’s body.
Xiao Feng clearly heard the sound of the sharp blade piercing the flesh.

Advertisement
“The sneak attack was successful!”
Xiao Feng was very pleasantly surprised, he had no idea that his sneak attack would go so smoothly.
He learned from Gong Qianqiu’s mouth that the Wanjun blade was infected with the poison of the gods, and even if the blood of the gods was combined with the poison, it would fall.
“Come on!”
Xiao Feng didn’t care to draw Wan Jun, but kicked Levi Garrison’s body.
Possibly because of the poison in his body, Xiao Feng saw that Levi Garrison’s movements were abnormally slow.
Although he tried his best to dodge, he was still kicked, and the whole person flew out like a broken paper kite.
“You’re done!”
Xiao Fengzhi was satisfied and quickly exited the secret room.
Advertisement
Although Xiao Feng had secretly sealed the connection between the secret room and the outside world, he was also worried that the guards would be able to detect the strangeness here.
After all, there are experts like Levilia in the base camp, and they are also very sensitive to the burst of breath.
Xiao Feng didn’t want to be besieged by the masters of the base camp and expose his identity.
Then, with the help of the anti-shock power just now, he quickly retreated towards the stone door of the secret room.
At the same time, Xiao Feng was always alert to Levi Garrison’s follow-up actions.
He clearly saw Levi Garrison reluctantly stood up, but then his body shook violently twice before falling to the ground again.
“As expected of the Shenyun ranked second in the Poison Classic, Levi Garrison really couldn’t handle it.”

Xiao Feng finally left the secret room with complete peace of mind.
“There seems to be movement in the secret room!”
“Is it the movement made by the boss Yun Gong?”
“should be!”
Several guards whispered about the book, thinking of going to investigate. But Levi Garrison made it very clear before the retreat that he was not allowed to approach the secret room without his order.
This also made several guards give up the idea of investigating.
“These idiots really cooperate!”
Xiao Feng was extremely proud.
I thought I was going to force it out, but the guards didn’t come to investigate, which avoided the danger that other masters would be difficult to escape during the battle.
But then again, Xiao Feng didn’t dare to stay too long, after all, Levi Garrison was very likely to contact other people for support.
Xiao Feng’s figure flashed, and he soon came to the exit of the corridor. There were obviously a few people walking back and forth outside.
shhhhhh!
Xiao Feng waved his hand, and several hidden weapons cut through the night sky, piercing the bodies of several guards with great precision.
Before they could even make a sound, they fell to the ground and fainted.
“A group of ants!”
Without any hesitation, Xiao Feng escaped according to the planned route.
During the whole process, no one was disturbed.
Of course, this situation will never occur under normal circumstances, but it has been specially formulated for defense arrangements.
Xiao Feng knew all about it.
After successfully leaving the base camp, Xiao Feng changed his clothes again and patrolled the peripheral defense as usual.
It even routinely questioned some of the guard’s little bosses.
“Is there anything wrong with you here?”
“The three-party coalition forces may attack the base camp at any time, and we must be vigilant.”

“Brothers, cheer up, and those who are slack will be severely punished.”
After some operations, Xiao Feng also let out a sigh of relief.
In his opinion, these people being questioned will become his witnesses in the future.
There will even be unfortunate people who will become Xiao Feng’s target.
“It won’t be long before the base camp is in chaos, right?”
Xiao Feng’s eyes were filled with purple and black aura, and his expression was very bewitching, like a demon in the dark night.

base camp.
Inside the secret room.
Levi Garrison, who had been kicked to the ground by Xiao Feng and was “incomparably weak”, suddenly sat up.
There was a look of disappointment in Han Xing’s eyes.
Of course this feeling soon disappeared.
“Xiao Feng, Xiao Feng, after all, you are still reduced to such a field.”
Advertisement
Levi Garrison sighed faintly.
In fact, since the last time he passed Xiao Feng, Levi Garrison noticed the strangeness of Xiao Feng.
Just ignore that Levi Garrison didn’t think much about it at that time, after all, almost all the staff in the base camp were in extreme tension at that time.
But after some reports from Phoenix and others, Levi Garrison already had a preliminary judgment.
Advertisement
Combined with the death of Chu Wu and others, the son of the pavilion master of the West Pavilion at that time, it can basically be concluded that Gong Qianqiu had some special means to control men.
And Xiao Feng is very likely to also say.
But to what extent it was controlled, Levi Garrison was not sure yet.
It is precisely because of this that there was a private conversation with Xiao Feng later.

“It seems that something is wrong with me. It should be Xiao Feng’s evil spirit hidden in the depths.”
Levi Garrison’s eyes narrowed slightly, and he finally cleared up all the situation before and after.
Especially in the process of Xiao Feng’s conversation, Levi Garrison tried several times about Xiao Feng’s reaction when he prevented the latter from interacting with Gong Qianqiu.
However, the result of the test caught Levi Garrison unexpectedly, and Xiao Feng had a murderous intention in his heart.
“Although it is unexpected, it is also reasonable.”
Advertisement
Levi Garrison said to himself.
Phoenix and others have achieved fruitful results. When they discouraged Xiao Feng from contacting Gong Qianqiu, they were not only beaten, but also received death threats from Xiao Feng.
At that time, there was no dead hand, it should be about his own face.
However, now, a certain method of Gong Qianqiu has completely fascinated Xiao Feng.
After continuous testing, Levi Garrison sensed Xiao Feng’s killing intent towards him several times, so he decided to take it upon himself.
Deliberately arranged for Xiao Feng to be in charge of internal defense scheduling, and at the same time mentioned that he was going to retreat, and ordered the guards not to disturb him on the eve of the retreat.
This series of arrangements created unique conditions for Xiao Feng’s assassination.
Sure enough, Xiao Feng came to assassinate that night.
During the fight, Levi Garrison also followed the trend, deliberately selling the flaws and letting Xiao Feng’s weapon pierce the flesh.
In fact, with Levi Garrison’s current state, even if he did not make any defenses and let Xiao Feng kill him, he would not be able to succeed.

Even the poison of God's Fall, which Master Bone was proud of, could not penetrate Levi Garrison's body at all.
Of course, this is all the credit of that holy vein quenching the body.
At this time, Levi Garrison's body strength has approached perfection, especially the meridians and blood in the body have been re-quenched,
It can basically reach the perfect realm that everything can't penetrate.
"In order to kill me, these people really worked so hard!"
Levi Garrison pulled out the Wanjun short blade that pierced into the body, and the faint blue luster on the blade was particularly dazzling.
"If you were in the previous state, you might not be able to resist this toxin!"
Levi Garrison muttered to himself.
The stab wound was healing at a speed visible to the naked eye.
At the same time, the golden light with aura in the body was surrounded, and the blue venom was forced out of the body before the wound healed.
Can't invade his body at all.
"Qianqiu Jiao, Zhen Mosi, and the two major sects of Kunlun Ruins, since you are courting death, I will fulfill you."
Levi Garrison had murderous aura in his chest, and was full of endless fighting intent.
"But now let's cooperate with you to finish this play!"
After making up his mind, Levi Garrison stabbed the dagger into the body again, and the whole person returned to the extremely weak state before.
Using communication tools, he sent Phoenix and others a message for help.
The news that Levi Garrison was assassinated by a mysterious master during his retreat spread like wildfire.
The entire base camp soon fell into a panic.
"What? The boss was assassinated?"
"how can that be?"
"There is no warning from our checkpoint!"
"Mr. Ye is in retreat, and the one who shot should be the Qianqiu Cult strong."
"It may even be the power of Kunlun Ruins, otherwise who can sneak into the base camp without knowing it?”

The news of Levi Garrison’s assassination was like a huge boulder smashed into the water from a high altitude.
The entire base camp was in a state of panic.
More people believe that this is the signal of the three-way coalition launching a general attack on the base camp.
Fortunately, Zoey Lopez and other core executives tried their best to appease, which made the situation a little more stable.
Afterwards, a group of high-level officials rushed to the secret room where Levi Garrison retreated.
Xiao Feng also came to investigate with everyone, and he must personally confirm the situation of Levi Garrison.
“Master, how is my master?”
“You all make way for Lao Tzu.”
Xiao Feng roared anxiously.
It has to be said that Xiao Feng’s anxious state of hearing the bad news at the moment has been perfectly interpreted by him.
The secret room was surrounded by members of the base camp, and they made way for Xiao Feng.
Xiao Feng was also not polite, and quickly squeezed into the corridor, which were all the core members of the base camp.
“Don’t make any noise, don’t disturb Master’s cultivation.”
In the face of a burst of noise, Xiao Feng once again brushed the wave of existence.
In his opinion, the more this is the case, the more majesty he has to show as the first disciple.
In particular, once Levi Garrison dies, he will control the entire base camp. Who would dare to make irresponsible remarks about his relationship with Gong Qianqiu?
Sure enough, the scene gradually quieted down, Xiao Feng continued to walk in, and soon came to the secret room.

Looking from a distance, I saw Zoey Lopez, Levilia and others standing around Levi Garrison.
"Master, how is Master now?"
Xiao Feng stepped forward to ask with a concerned face.
Zoey Lopez's face was full of grief, and he sighed and said, "The situation is not optimistic, we have nothing to do."
"so serious?"
Xiao Feng made a shocked expression, and quickly looked at Levi Garrison on the bed.
Seeing that Levi Garrison's entire face was extremely pale, there was no trace of blood and vitality at all.
If it weren't for the fact that his chest was still slightly heaving, I'm afraid no one would suspect that it was a corpse.
"Master, why don't you pull out the things on Master's body?"
Xiao Feng asked suspiciously, and he found that Levi Garrison was lying on his side at this time, with the short blade of Wanjun inserted into his back.
Zoey Lopez sighed again and said, "We tried it, but every time you pull it out, your master's aura will decay rapidly."
"There is no way. Only by letting this weapon stay in his body can he barely stabilize the injury."
"But Levilia said that the weapon seems to be smeared with some kind of special toxin, which is constantly corroding Levi Garrison's blood." Zoey Lopez's face was extremely ugly, his eyes were red, and he was obviously trying his best to hold back tears.
"How could this be? Master is a pure body cultivator, how could he be injured by ordinary weapons?"
"Where's the brother in charge of the guard? Has anyone found any trace of the assassin?"
"I just went to the perimeter to check the defense situation, and was quietly sneaked in during such a short period of time?"
"What do you eat, it's just a bunch of rice buckets!"

Xiao Feng once again performed at the level of a movie king, and at the same time he threw the pot away while clearing the Qianxian in his words.
"Several brothers on duty have been knocked down. The assassin should be a master of poison, and his strength is far above the guards."
"Moreover, the texture of the weapon that wounded Dad looks extraordinary, especially the poison on the blade is strange and unusual."
Levilia said in a serious tone.
"I'm afraid it's not just above the guards. Even if the boss is in retreat, it is very difficult to approach silently."
"So I suspect that it is very likely that the Kunlun Ruins did it."
Phoenix said solemnly.

Xiao Feng felt a breath in her heart, and she felt that these were the two most pleasant words Phoenix said recently.
Phoenix has a high prestige among the core members of the base camp, and is especially outstanding in the analysis ability of things that can be changed.
Therefore, almost everyone believes that it is the work of the strong Kunlun Ruins.
"Inform the base camp to strengthen defenses everywhere, activate all defense formations, and beware of sneak attacks by the three-party coalition forces."
Xiao Feng knew that his opportunity to perform had come.
At such a time, other people have no masters, as long as you behave calmly, you will be convinced by more people.

Xiao Feng has already begun to pave the way for taking over control of the base camp.
Sure enough, the eyes of many people looking at Xiao Feng have changed a lot.
Even Azure Dragon (Qinglong) and others who had had a feud with Xiao Feng before had changed their minds. They never thought that Xiao Feng would stabilize the overall situation at such a time.

puff!

At this moment, Levi Garrison spat out a mouthful of blood.
“Master, how are you feeling?”
Xiao Feng hurriedly took the opportunity to step forward to observe the situation at close range, and found that Levi Garrison’s blood was mixed with purple and black.
The smell is particularly pungent, and a few people who are close and relatively mediocre even feel a little dizzy.
Even Xiao Feng was confused for a moment.
“It is indeed the poison of the gods that ranks second in the Poison Classic. Even if it seeps into the blood, it can still be so poisonous.”
Xiao Feng sighed inwardly.
Looking at Levi Garrison’s face again, it seems to be covered with hoarfrost, and the breath is even weaker.
“King’s Landing!”

“dad!”
“Boss!”
Everyone gathered around, and the tense atmosphere reached its peak.
“Everyone, get out! It’s not going to help you all here.”
Zoey Lopez was infected with the expulsion order, and her whole person became extraordinarily haggard, as if she had aged more than ten years in an instant.
The crowd retreated, and Xiao Feng made another series of defensive arrangements, swiping a wave of presence in front of the members of the base camp.
After everything was settled properly, Xiao Feng found a secluded place and contacted Gong Qianqiu.
Informed of his successful assassination, and also showed off his outstanding performance in the base camp.
Mass grave.
Inside the Qianqiu Church General Altar.

Gong Qianqiu shared the detailed information sent by Xiao Feng with everyone.
"Well stabbed, stabbed wonderfully, Xiao Feng actually succeeded."
"Levi Garrison, Levi Garrison, if you kill you, you probably wouldn't expect to be backstabbed by the most valued leader, right?"
Gong Qianqiu couldn't help laughing on her back, she was in a really good mood.
"Master, can that idiot Xiao Feng really succeed in assassinating him?"
Duguxiao was skeptical about this, and continued: "Do you think there will be fraud?"
Without waiting for Gong Qianqiu to respond, Master Bone interrupted directly: "Absolutely not."
"Why is Master Bone so sure?" Gong Qianqiu asked with some doubts.
In fact, Gong Qianqiu also has some doubts. Although Xiao Feng will not deceive himself, he can't stand Levi Garrison's tricks!
If this is what Levi Garrison pretended to be, I don't know!
"Sect Master, you just relayed Xiao Feng's information. The description of Levi Garrison's state is exactly the same as the state of the poison of the gods." Master Bone paused and continued: "And ordinary disguise is impossible to achieve this effect, especially Xiao Feng mentioned the peculiar smell in blood."
"That is the unique smell caused by the poison of the gods' meteorite corroding blood, which shows that Levi Garrison is indeed poisoned."
"Even if Levi Garrison is a pure body cultivator and can barely save his life, Shen Yun has already damaged his fundamentals, and he will never return to his peak state in a short period of time."
"I see!"
The doubts in Gong Qianqiu's heart were completely eliminated.
"It seems that improving Xiao Feng's cultivation during this period does work, but Levi Garrison himself is courting death, and wants to crawl into retreat before the war."
"Instead, it gave Xiao Feng a chance to attack him."
"Master, since this is the case, should we deal with the base camp next?"
Duguxiao asked in a condensed voice.

Town Magic Division.
Tian Si and others also received a message from Gong Qianqiu and learned that Levi Garrison was seriously injured by the assassination.
"God help me too!"
"If you attack the base camp at this time, wouldn't it be easy?"
Tiansi was overjoyed. The strongest person in the base camp was Levi Garrison, and Tiansi was the only one who didn't have much confidence in Levi Garrison.
But now that only concern has disappeared.
Advertisement
"Young Master, what do you think?"
Tian Si restrained his emotions and turned his eyes to Xie Huanyu.
Although Zhen Mosi is his territory, the biggest reliance is ultimately the Cang Qiong faction represented by the young master.
Xie Huan pondered for a moment, and said, "This damn monkey, Levi Garrison, I wanted to smash its corpse into ten thousand pieces with my own hands, but I didn't think that he capsized the boat in the gutter first."
Advertisement
"Forget it, I will send his relatives and friends on the road together, so that he will not be alone on Huangquan Road."
"By the way, what did Xuan Ming say?"
Tiansi said a little unhappily: "They haven't expressed their position yet, presumably we don't take action, and they don't dare to act rashly, they are really a bunch of cowards."
"Since they are not in a hurry, there is no need for us to be the first."
Xie Huanyu said quietly: "This cooperation itself is a helpless move, let them do it first, and it is best for us to take advantage of the fisherman."
"What the young master said is very true, I will delay the attack time on the grounds that I am not ready to see how they respond?" Tian Si said coldly.

Xie Huanyu nodded and said, "I will also personally find the Palace Sect Master and ask her what she means in person, and I can also know what she means." Xie Huanyu has been obsessed with Gong Qianqiu for a long time. The so-called inquiry is to take the opportunity to get close, so as to develop Gong Qianqiu into a double cultivator as soon as possible.
"Then there is Young Master Lao."
Advertisement
Tian Si said solemnly.
the other side.
Gong Qianqiu is also making final preparations to deal with the base camp.
Now that Levi Garrison was seriously injured, it was easy to deal with it.
However, it is still debatable how to act to minimize the losses of one's own side.
"Senior Brother Xue, I think we'd better take advantage of the fisherman and let Tian Si and Cang Qiong send them to attack the base camp."
"At that time, they will lose both in the fight, and we will destroy Tiansi and the Cang Qiong faction."
Gong Qianqiu said with a smile.
"The plan is very good, but Xie Huanyu and the others may not do it!"
Xue Pengzhan paused and continued: "Now Xie Huanyu and the others have the dominant overall strength, they will definitely not be willing to be assigned by us."
"What does Senior Brother Xue mean?" Gong Qianqiu asked tentatively.
Xue Pengzhan said solemnly: "I suggest that we don't have to rush to do it, it's not too late to wait for the arrival of the Three Holy Sons."
"At that time, even if Xie Huanyu and the others are unwilling, they will obey orders, and they will be more confident in their actions."
"Brother Xue's words are very reasonable, so let's wait patiently."
For Xue Pengzhan's proposal, Gong Qianqiu raised both hands in approval, and she also wanted to see how powerful the three saints could be.
But in any case, the Three Holy Sons can bring themselves closer to the core high-level of
the Taixu Shenzong.

Gong Qianqiu has already started planning how to have a good relationship with the Sanshengzi.
Obviously, the value of the three saints far exceeds Xie Huanyu. As long as he successfully hugs this thigh, Xie Huanyu can give up without regret.
Gong Qianqiu really yearns for the various cultivation resources of Kunlun Ruins.
Especially when I heard that there are many divine veins and even holy veins in Kunlun Ruins, these things are a great temptation for her who has swallowed spiritual roots and bones.
Moreover, Gong Qianqiu has other big ambitions. After gaining a firm foothold in Kunlun Ruins, he will gradually conquer Kunlun Ruins and become the master of Kunlun Ruins by then.
"Levi Garrison, Xie Huanyu and even the Three Holy Sons are just stepping stones for this sect master."

Inside the base camp.
If you just learned that the alliance of the three-way forces dealt with the base camp, everyone felt nervous and fearful.
Then when they knew that Levi Garrison was seriously injured in the assassination, everyone felt that their mentality was on the verge of collapse.
In the eyes of everyone, Levi Garrison is the invincible god of war.
Now that the God of War is on the verge of dying, and facing three powerful enemies, there is almost no chance of defeating the opponent.
There is information coming back almost all the time from the periphery. It is said that the powerhouses of the three forces have gathered in a large area.
Advertisement
"The three forces have formed an encirclement of the base camp. Even if they want to break through, there is no possibility of breaking through. How should this be done?"

"What's so scary, the big deal is death!"
"It's easy to say, Qianqiu's sects are notorious for being brutal, and I'm afraid that they will make your life worse than death."
"It is said that Yufeng Tiansi and the top ten Tianjiao have been tortured so badly, hey!"
Advertisement
Sighs came and went.
Many base camp members were restless, like ants on a hot pan.
The crowd was completely panicked.
Zoey Lopez, Azure Dragon and others also tried to soothe their emotions.
Not only did it not have any positive effect, but it made everyone more anxious.
Of course, this doesn't blame everyone for being too glass-hearted, even Zoey Lopez and others have no heart.
Coupled with worrying about Levi Garrison's body, Zoey Lopez was barely supporting by willpower.
Almost everyone understands that it is only a matter of time before the base camp is destroyed.
During this period, many people also went to visit Levi Garrison.
Advertisement
The conclusion is that although Levi Garrison still has a life left, the poison of the gods in his body is attacking more and more frequently.
With each attack, Levi Garrison's physical condition dropped by one point, and until today, Levi Garrison is almost hanging on with only one breath left.
In this way, there are still many masters who use their strengths to force their poisons, and they can barely maintain it by taking a panacea for Levi Garrison.
"Why is the boss's situation so serious? What should I do next?"
Azure Dragon, who is known for his calmness, panicked.
He was not worried about the final death, but simply worried about the safety of Levi Garrison and other personnel.
Especially Levilia and Zoey Lopez, they are all Levi Garrison's close relatives, so there can be no problem in any case.

“Is there any other way, all the panaceas that can be used have been used, but the situation of the boss is not getting better.”
Phoenix also lamented again and again.
“If the three-way coalition forces attack, I will fight to the death to escort the boss and the others to escape.”
Xuanwu urn said in a loud voice.
Although the words were very powerful, they did not inspire the fighting spirit of others.
Although he was unwilling, he had to admit that he was facing the three-way coalition, especially when there were more than ten great experts from the two major Kunlun Ruins sects.
Under such circumstances, it is as difficult as going to the sky to fight for a bloody path!
“Who do you think the assassin is?”
Zhu Que turned and asked.
“The high probability should be the powers of Kunlun Ruins, otherwise it would be impossible to break through the layers of defense silently.”
Azure Dragon said sharply.
Others agreed.
However, they saw Phoenix thoughtful, and immediately asked, “Phoenix, did you notice something?”
“Yeah, it’s this time, what else is there to avoid?”
“Just say it directly to anyone who doubts it.”
The crowd urged.
Phoenix sighed and said in a deep voice, “As far as I know, on the night the boss was assassinated, the person in charge of the guard outside the secret room was Xiao Feng.” “How to arrange the guard posts, Xiao Feng knows very well. If he does it, he will definitely hide it.”
“Don’t forget that for the sake of Gong Qianqiu, he also did something to us and Jinye.”
As soon as this statement came out, everyone present fell silent for a moment.

“One more thing, don’t forget, the poison of Shenyun is only available to the Sitian Medical Supervisor of Zhenmo.”
“And the bone master Qianqiu taught, once had a deep relationship with the Heavenly Medical Supervisor.”
Phoenix continued.
The scene was dead silent, and the needle drop could be heard.
Azure Dragon and the others looked at each other in dismay, and they all saw inconceivable in each other’s eyes.
After a long time, Azure Dragon said slowly: “Phoenix, this possibility does not exist, right?
The boss is Xiao Feng’s master after all.”
Advertisement
“I usually treat Xiao Feng well, and it can even be said that he is treated as a relative. Of course, he can do something to us for women.”
“But for the boss, this affection, why should Xiao Feng take care of it?”
Azure Dragon and several people expressed their opinions one after another. After all, compared with them, the relationship between Levi Garrison and Xiao Feng was there.
Even if he likes Gong Qianqiu again, he will not turn against his master who treats him like a father and brother, right?
Advertisement
“And when the boss was injured, there was no flaw in Xiao Feng’s performance!”
Kirin said solemnly.
Phoenix rubbed her swollen temples, she did suspect that Xiao Feng did this.
But what Azure Dragon and others said also made sense.
“I wish I thought more!”
Phoenix muttered to himself.
Immediately, as if something suddenly occurred to him, he hurriedly added: “In the future, whenever Xiao Feng is in charge of the guard arrangement, we will set up additional sentries."

"Agree!" Azure Dragon agreed.
Xiao Feng is now in a state of regret and guilt.
Advertisement
Especially in the face of the panic among the members of the base camp, his mood is even more complicated.
Now Levi Garrison is only hanging on for half a breath. Once the three-party coalition forces attack, the entire base camp will not escape the fate of destruction.
But at the end of the day, he was the initiator of the whole thing.
"If I didn't assassinate Levi Garrison, the base camp might still have a chance."
Xiao Feng felt that it was very possible. After all, Levi Garrison did not create miracles in the past.
Mistress Zoey Lopez's haggard face, Levilia's sadness and dissatisfaction with tears, Phoenix and others' sad state, etc…
This scene flashed through my mind like a movie.
If it weren't for this assassination, everyone would be more than that.
"Am I really doing something wrong?"
Xiao Feng asked himself.
"No, no, I did nothing wrong. For the sake of being with the people I love, what is wrong?"
"If you want to blame it, blame Levi Garrison for listening to slander because he doesn't know people well. It's his own fault for this fate."
Xiao Feng felt that in order to stay with Gong Qianqiu, he had to do this again.
"Levi Garrison, Levi Garrison, why didn't you die on the spot?"
"If I were killed on the spot during the assassination, I wouldn't feel so guilty."
"Hurry up and die! It's painful to continue living like this."
Xiao Feng cursed fiercely in his heart.
If someone was beside him at this time, he would definitely find that Xiao Feng's eyes were full of purple-black demonic aura.
"Do you want to make up for the knife and completely end Levi Garrison's life?"
Xiao Feng was taken aback by this thought.

From a distance, I watched many people walk into the bedroom full of hope to visit Levi Garrison, and came out disappointed after a long time.
Xiao Feng's heart was also mixed, so he decided to visit Levi Garrison.
In fact, Xiao Feng was a little afraid to visit Levi Garrison from the bottom of his heart during this time.
He was even worried that Levi Garrison would wake up completely and find any clues to identify him.
After all, in Xiao Feng's view, Levi Garrison is far more sensitive to the problem than anyone else.
"If there is any flaw in the process of speaking, then I will die without a burial."
Thinking of this, Xiao Feng stopped.
He suddenly felt a little regretful that he went to see Levi Garrison.
"Senior Brother Xiao Feng?"
Just as Xiao Feng was about to turn around and leave, a slightly immature voice sounded.

Xiao Feng looked up and saw Levilia approaching.
"It's all here, why don't you go in?"
Levilia quickly approached and asked with some doubts.
Xiao Feng suddenly felt a little flustered, but he still pretended to be calm.
Shen Sheng said: "Suddenly I remembered that there are still some flaws in the defensive post. I am planning to improve it, so as not to give the three-party coalition an opportunity."
"That's right!"
Advertisement
Levilia did not doubt it, because since Levi Garrison was assassinated, Xiao Feng has really done his due diligence in defense arrangements.
Almost every day, I have to inspect the defensive posts and defensive formations several times.
"You also come to see the master!"
Xiao Feng quickly changed the subject.
Advertisement

Levilia nodded and said, "Dad's condition is getting serious again. I can only reluctantly suppress the spread of toxins in his body through exercise."
Speaking of which, Levilia's eyes were slightly red, she had tried her best to force out the toxins, but every exercise had little effect.
"Levilia, you don't have to blame yourself, it can't be blamed on you."
"If you want to blame it, blame the person who provided the poison of the gods, otherwise the master would not suffer this catastrophe."
"With Master's strength, if it's just a trauma, I'm afraid it won't take a while to heal."
Xiao Feng spoke to comfort Levilia, and it seemed like he was comforting himself.
"Well, I see."
Levilia's sadness eased slightly, and then he continued: "Senior Brother Xiao Feng, let's go in and have a look together!"
"Okay…Okay! The defense arrangement is not in a hurry at this time."
Xiao Feng said with a reluctant smile.

If you refuse after Levilia has made this reasonable request, it will inevitably lead to doubts.
Xiao Feng tried his best to control the anxiety in his body, and followed Levilia to the bedroom.
As soon as I entered the door, a strong herbal smell came to my nostrils.
Xiao Feng knew that these herbs were all an attempt to force out the toxins in Levi Garrison's body.
Despite the limited success, everyone still spared no effort to try.
Levi Garrison still closed his eyes tightly, his face was as pale as paper, and he was even less alive than the previous two days.
Even the degree of the ups and downs of the chest is not visible, it is almost a corpse.
"Master, he became like this, it's all my fault!"
"No, it's all to blame for the person who provided the poison of the gods."
"It's not right. If you want to blame him, Levi Garrison is stubborn and stubborn."
"If he hadn't shot Qianqiu first, why would it be like this?"

In Xiao Feng's heart, there seemed to be two villains who were constantly arguing and fighting.
It was just that when he saw Levi Garrison's extremely familiar face, Xiao Feng felt a little uncomfortable.
After all, this is his own master, who once took care of him meticulously, and gave him all the training.
The pictures from the past kept flashing in his mind, Xiao Feng clenched his fists tightly.
The fingernails pierced into the flesh unknowingly, and blood slowly flowed out along the fingers.
"Senior Brother Xiao Feng, don't blame yourself, the opponent is likely to be the Kunlun Ruins Great Expert, even if the defense is in place, it will be useless."
Levilia also noticed Xiao Feng's strangeness, and thought he was blaming himself for being penetrated by the assassin.
Xiao Feng was slightly startled, only to realize that he had lost his temper. But he reacted very quickly, and hurriedly followed Levilia's words and said: "Even so, I can't blame myself, no, I'll go to strengthen the defense strength."
After finishing speaking, Xiao Feng turned around and left, he was really worried that if he continued to stay, there would be more flaws.
"Senior Brother Xiao Feng, I really don't blame you…"
Levilia wanted to comfort a few more words, but Xiao Feng had disappeared.
Turning his head to look at Levi Garrison, his face was replaced by a sad look again.
"Dad, get well soon!"
Before Levilia finished speaking, he suddenly heard a voice.
"Levilia, isolate this place from the outside world, I have something to say to you."
"Dad, are you talking to me?"
Levilia felt that she had auditory hallucinations, she hurriedly looked at Levi Garrison, but found that the latter was still pale and her eyes were closed.
"You heard right Levilia!"

“Don’t draw anyone’s attention and isolate this place from the outside world.”
Levi Garrison’s voice came clearly again.
Levilia was very surprised and hurriedly isolated.
Use the power of the elements between heaven and earth to directly form a separate area of the room.
“Dad, the isolation has been successful. If you have anything to say, you can rest assured.”
Levilia said in a low voice.
Levi Garrison’s voice came out of his body again: “I am all right, I just pretended to be like this to hide people’s eyes and ears.”
“Great!”
Levilia suddenly opened his eyes and smiled, so excited that tears almost came out.
Dad is alright!
But why? Could it have something to do with the assassin’s identity?
Or simply to confuse the three-way coalition.
There are question marks in Levilia’s head.
“You listen carefully to everything I say next, and you can’t reveal the slightest flaw after the incident.”
“Especially don’t let Xiao Feng notice.”
Levi Garrison’s voice was extremely serious.
“Senior Brother Xiao Feng?”
Levilia suddenly seemed to realize something.
Levi Garrison then elevated everything to Levilia, especially the details of the assassination.
Levilia’s eyes were full of shock after hearing this, she never thought that Xiao Feng would kill her father.
“In order to take care of the plan, I did not control the poison of the gods and let it spread in the blood by itself, so this state is the real poisoning state.”
“Now you have more important things to do. The three-party coalition is about to attack.
You also need to take advantage of these few days to improve your cultivation.”

Levi Garrison also said that the brain of God used the detector to find many spiritual veins.
And said that there is still a lot of energy in these spiritual meridians that have not been used up, which is just useful for Levilia to improve his cultivation.
"You can just leave the base camp in front of everyone, and claiming to find a way to improve your strength will never arouse anyone's suspicion."
Levi Garrison later informed that there was an emergency secret passage on the periphery of the base camp, and then it could break through the siege of the three-party coalition forces silently.
"Dad, don't you tell Mom about these things?" Levilia asked again after writing down everything.
During this period of time, Zoey Lopez has been haggard a lot, and Levilia looks very distressed.
"Keep it a secret for now, it won't take long for the truth to come out anyway."
"For the victory of this decisive battle, you can only make your mother feel wronged first."
Levi Garrison pondered for a moment and replied.
"Okay… okay!"
Although Levilia was quite unbearable, he also knew that what Dad said was very reasonable.
Besides, there is a huge hidden danger around Xiao Feng.
Once I tell my mother that there is a slight flaw, then this plan will be in vain.
"Okay, let's lift the isolation power. If it takes too long, people will inevitably be suspicious."
Immediately afterwards, Levi Garrison stopped talking and returned to his previous state of dying.
"Dad, then I'm leaving."
After Levilia finished speaking, he turned and left, and at the same time buried the excitement and joy in his heart, his face turned sad again.
As soon as I left the door, I met Azure Dragon and others who came to visit.

“Levilia, how is the boss?”
Phoenix asked with concern.
Levilia sighed and said, “It’s getting worse and worse, I really don’t know what to do.”
“Hey!”
Several people sighed one after another, they could feel the helplessness of Levilia’s helplessness.
“What are you going to do?” Phoenix asked.
However, Levilia’s next words left several people stunned in place for a moment.
“Several uncles and aunts, I’m going out to the base camp to find a way to improve. Dad’s escort work will be handed over to a few of you.”
Levilia said suddenly.

Phoenix and the others’ faces changed several times.
Emotions such as surprise, shock, doubt, etc. appeared one after another.
“Levilia, in this situation, do you still want to leave the base camp?” Phoenix w anted to make a final decision.
Unexpectedly, Levilia nodded firmly and said, “That’s right, there’s no difference between continuing like this and sitting still.”
Levilia obviously didn’t intend to explain in depth, and he didn’t even give Phoenix and others a chance to continue asking, so he turned and left.
Advertisement
Looking at Levilia’s back, Phoenix and the others were speechless, and it took five or six minutes to recover.
“Phoenix, what do you mean by Levilia?” Azure Dragon asked first.
Phoenix pondered for a long time without saying why, and she really couldn’t figure out the deeper meaning of doing so.
After the boss, Levi Garrison, was injured, Levilia could almost be regarded as the strongest fighting force in the entire base camp.
Advertisement

Now that he suddenly decided to leave, wouldn't it make everyone's almost collapsed spirit worse?
It may even cause many undesirable chain reactions.
As the news of Levilia's decision to leave the base camp to seek promotion spread, Phoenix's worries quickly became a reality.
The faith and spirit of the members of the base camp were once again hit hard.
Even some bad rumors are increasing.
"Why? It's just seeing that the resistance to the three-way coalition has no hope of escaping!"
"Although I don't want to admit it, this possibility is indeed very large, but I also understand it very well."
"This statement makes sense. Levilia alone can't change the battle situation at all."
"She ran away and left us here to sit and wait? Since she's still the eldest's daughter, she doesn't inherit any of the eldest's blood."
Advertisement
"Let's talk a little less! The life and death of the mentor is uncertain now, and the three-way coalition is about to start. It's not too much for us to think about ourselves, right?"
There was a lot of discussion, and the base camp, which was already panicking, was even worse at this moment.
There are even a few people who have already planned to flee in secret.
Once this fear of war occurs, the speed of spread is very terrifying.
Levilia's departure seems to be the last straw that crushes the spirit of the base camp members.
This information was naturally also learned by Gong Qianqiu and others.
She sent heavy troops to seal the surrounding area of the base camp, hoping to capture Levilia first, and then deal a deeper blow to the base camp staff.
However, Levilia disappeared without a trace, and many ambush soldiers did not see Levilia leave.
It was as if Levilia had suddenly evaporated from the world.

However, no one knew that Levilia had already left the encirclement through the secret passage and found the brain of God.
Immediately, he used the multiple spiritual veins detected by God's Brain to improve his strength.
Levi Garrison thought about it very clearly. Since the three-party coalition has not made any movement for a while, he can wait for their next move with peace of mind.
And Levilia just took the opportunity to improve his strength, and then he can gain a top combat power.
The shaken belief of ordinary members is not good for military morale, but it is the top combat power that can really influence the trend of the battle.
At the same time, Xiao Feng was also very puzzled.
"The three-party coalition army is under the city, and the master is seriously injured, shouldn't Levilia be able to hold on?"
"The current situation can be described as extremely dangerous. Only Levilia, the strongest warrior, can barely appease everyone's panic."
"Leaving at this time, isn't it equivalent to self-destructing the Great Wall?"
Xiao Feng was puzzled.
He also stalked others to inquire about Levilia's true intentions of leaving, but found that even Zoey Lopez was in an incomprehensible state.
"Why does this child start to think that when he comes out, he can't stop him?"
Zoey Lopez's already haggard face now added a bit of sadness.
For this reason, Zoey Lopez also called Phoenix and others to ask them one by one, but the results were the same.
This made Zoey Lopez even more puzzled.

Gong Qianqiu and others were also puzzled by Levilia suddenly leaving the base camp and being able to mysteriously disappear under the siege.

“Junior Sister Qianqiu, don’t worry too much, what kind of waves can you make with a child?”
Seeing Gong Qianqiu frowning slightly, Xue Pengzhan comforted him.
“Senior Brother Xue didn’t know anything. After Levi Garrison was injured, Levilia was the strongest fighting force in the base camp. It was unreasonable for her to leave suddenly.”
“As long as you only know that many of Levi Garrison’s relatives and friends are in the base camp, you should stay behind no matter what.”
“There must be demons when teachers are abnormal, so there shouldn’t be any conspiracy in it, right?”
Advertisement
Gong Qianqiu said all the doubts in his heart.
Duguxiao said solemnly: “Master, your worries are indeed justified.”
“But from another perspective, this matter is not difficult to understand. After all, Levilia is Levi Garrison’s only seedling.”
“They should all know that even if Levilia stays, it won’t change the direction of the battle.
It’s better to leave the fire for the future.”
Advertisement
Xuan Ming also followed suit: “My son’s words are reasonable, Master Gong, we can always pay attention to the internal trends of the base camp.”
“As for the kid who escaped, we will break through the base camp and use Zoey and Levi Garrison as bait.”
“I don’t believe it. Seeing that his parents and friends were slaughtered, how could that little kid with all his hair be slaughtered?”
When the audience said this, Gong Qianqiu was a little relieved.
However, at this moment, the communication tool buzzed and vibrated, Gong Qianqiu took it out and took a look, it was the information that Xiao Feng had an appointment with.
“You guys are busy first, I want to make good use of another chess piece, and I can’t beat the base camp without a single shot!”
A sinister smile flashed across Gong Qianqiu’s face.

Leaving the crowd full of puzzled expressions.
Not long after, Xiao Feng arrived as promised.
Advertisement
Although his heart was disgusting, Gong Qianqiu still asked with concern: "Is there something wrong with seeing me so anxiously?"
"Could it be that Levi Garrison found out that you assassinated?"
Seeing Xiao Feng's listless appearance, Gong Qianqiu's heart tightened, thinking that Levi Garrison had recovered!
"No, Master… Levi Garrison's health is getting worse and worse. If it weren't for the maintenance of many strong people in the base camp, I'm afraid he would have died a long time ago."
Xiao Feng said in a deep voice.
Gong Qianqiu sighed in his heart and continued to ask, "Then why do you still look worried?"
"Levilia left. Now you have the most prestige in the base camp. Even if Zoey can't match it, what else can you worry about?"
Gong Qianqiu's remarks are deliberately guiding, so that Xiao Feng's confidence is doubled, and he can control the actual control of Levi Garrison's base as much as possible.
At that time, as long as Xiao Feng is used, it will be easy to destroy the base camp, and it may even be used by her.
"Qianqiu, I think I did something wrong. Levi Garrison is my master after all."
"Mother and the others also treat me well. Now Levi Garrison is seriously injured. Once the three-way coalition attack, these people may die."
"However, all of this is caused by me, and I am a sinner!"
Xiao Feng said more and more excited, and finally blew two punches in the chest, his face was full of guilt.
"I still feel sorry for you. Levi Garrison treated you like that, but I didn't succeed in assassinating you."
"I'm not a qualified man. I once said that I should protect you well."

“I can’t do all this. I’m really useless. What’s the point of living like this?”
Xiao Feng was almost insane, he took out a dagger and stabbed it directly at the heart.
“Xiao Feng, what are you doing?”
Gong Qianqiu’s hands were fast, and he grabbed Xiao Feng’s arm.
“How can you be trash?”
Gong Qianqiu played superb acting skills and instantly turned on the flickering mode.

What’s more, you choose righteousness to kill relatives for me, how many people in the world can do it?”
“With Xiao Feng, you are now the backbone of the base camp. If you collapse, the beliefs of the base camp members will collapse faster.”
As Gong Qianqiu continued to comfort him, Xiao Feng’s mood gradually calmed down.
“Qianqiu, do you really think so?”
Xiao Feng asked with hope in his eyes.
Advertisement
Gong Qianqiu nodded and said, “Of course, how could the man that Gong Qianqiu fancy be a waste?”
Gong Qianqiu’s words are sincere and sincere, not to mention that people with deep roots like Xiao Feng can’t see the flaws.
Even the discerning Levi Garrison may not see any problems.
Because this sentence is indeed Gong Qianqiu’s true thoughts, but the man she likes has not appeared for the time being.
Advertisement
Even Xue Pengzhan, Xie Huanyu and others are just stepping stones for her Gong Qianqiu to climb up.
What’s more, Xiao Feng?
Xiao risk was so grateful that he burst into tears, and his guilt for causing the current situation of the base camp was greatly relieved.

“In the future, as long as it is what you say, I will do my best. Even if I am against the world, I will stand by your side unswervingly.”
Xiao Feng confessed affectionately, making Gong Qianqiu nauseated again.
But there was a sincere smile on his face, which was the joy of having complete control over
Xiao Feng.
However, in Xiao Feng’s eyes, it was a different scene. He thought it was his true feelings, which deeply moved Gong Qianqiu.
“Qianqiu, what do you think I should do next?”
Advertisement
“Levilia left suddenly, and the members of the base camp are already panicking.”
“Even if you try to appease, there is no way to turn the tide.”
Xiao Feng’s face was helpless.
Gong Qianqiu pondered for a moment and said, “Now is a good time for you to establish your prestige and turn the tide.” “Efforts to appease are ultimately inferior. It is best to find a chance to kill the three powerful alliances, which can improve morale.”
“And your status in the eyes of many people can be significantly improved.” “Having full control of the base camp is just around the corner. Who would dare to object to us being together then?”
Xiao Feng was stunned when he heard the words, and the scene in his mind that he received thousands of responses when he raised his arms in the base camp.
After a long time, Xiao Feng came back to his senses.
Then he said helplessly: “Qianqiu, now the three-way coalition is like a cloud of masters, and my strength may not be able to kill important masters.”
“If I just kill some unimportant little guys, I’m afraid it won’t improve my status.”
Gong Qianqiu pondered for a moment and said: “You don’t have to worry about this, although I am in the town of magic, but my heart is on the same front as you."

"So I will do my best to provide you with information. As long as you find an opportunity, you will be able to successfully kill the core masters of the Demon Suppression Division."
"Qianqiu, you are so kind to me!" Xiao Feng was moved beyond words.
Gong Qianqiu said with a smile: "You are my man, not good to you, good to whom?"
"Qianqiu, just for your love, even if I die now, I will never hesitate at all." Xiao Feng said eloquently.
Seeing Xiao Feng whose eyes were flushed and his face moved, Gong Qianqiu really wanted to laugh.
She wanted to use Xiao Feng's hand to stir up their war.
At the same time, it can also allow Xiao Feng to gain prestige in the base camp. It really kills two birds with one stone!
"Xiao Feng, when you know everything, what will your expression be like?"
"And Levi Garrison, I think you have been around for many years. You never thought that many forces would be wiped out under the planning of this sect master, right?" Gong Qianqiu has already begun to look forward to attacking the base camp across the board, and finally stepping on Levi Garrison and others under his feet.

After sending Xiao Feng away, Gong Qianqiu began to plan how to use Xiao Feng to provoke the anger of the Town Demon Division.
However, before the plan was fully mature, he suddenly received a message from Xue Pengzhan: The Three Holy Sons are coming.
Gong Qianqiu was immediately excited and quickly rushed back to the Qianqiu Education
Base Camp.
This is an opportunity to make one step to the sky, and there is absolutely no room for sloppy.

As soon as he arrived at the Thousand Corpse Pit, Gong Qianqiu saw Xue Pengzhan and others waiting in front of the door.
"Junior Sister Qianqiu, the Three Holy Sons will be here soon, you must be careful at that time. This is the absolute high-level core of the Taixu Shenzong."
Advertisement
Xue Pengzhan reminded in a low voice that there was absolutely no arrogance in the past, and all emotions had converged to the extreme.
"Brother Xue, don't worry, I know what to do."
Gong Qianqiu is also very much looking forward to the arrival of the Three Saints. Of course, he also wants to see how powerful the Three Saints are.
Time passed, and about fifteen minutes passed, and the temperature of the whole area seemed to drop suddenly.
Advertisement
A vast force of coercion poured down from the void, and everyone felt that a majestic mountain was suddenly descending above their heads.
"The Three Holy Sons are here!"
Xue Pengzhan's face became particularly solemn, especially his eyes were full of awe.
Gong Qianqiu is also holding his breath. Although he has not seen the main lord, he can have such a terrifying power and coercion at such a distance.
One can imagine how terrifying the strength of the three holy sons will be?
After a while, the pressure became stronger, and most people felt very difficult to even breathe.
Except for Xuan Ming, Gong Qianqiu, Xue Pengzhan and other Tianjiao who could barely support them, the others didn't even realize the urge to kneel on the ground.
"What a strong energy coercion."
The corners of Duguxiao's mouth twitched, which was no different than the time when Gong Qianqiu had swallowed the two super spiritual veins of the two alien races, and it was even worse.
Advertisement

Duguxiao tried his best to control the urge to kneel. At this moment, he felt an invisible breath dragging his body.
Turning his head to look, it was the power exerted by his biological father Xuan Ming.
"coming!"
With a low voice from Xue Pengzhan.
Gong Qianqiu looked up and saw a figure walking slowly from the void.
Deng Deng Deng!
It was clearly walking in the air, but it was like stepping on the substantial ground, making a slight touch sound.
Every time he took a step, the aftermath of energy spread out at the foot of the person who came, forming a very obvious energy ripple in the void.
"Void crossing, transforming power into shape!"
Gong Qianqiu was shocked.
In all fairness, Gong Qianqiu asked himself to be able to do a similar volley crossing, but it may not be able to reach the level of coming.
This person seems to have integrated the energy in his body with this world, otherwise he would never have stepped into the air to make a substantial sound.
After a long time, the three saints finally came to the crowd, and the coercion of the Taishan-like power also increased.
Pfft!
Pfft!
Pfft!
Immediately afterwards, the sound of kneeling on the ground came one after another, and in the end, only Gong Qianqiu and others were left standing there.
Gong Qianqiu and Xue Pengzhan were the most relaxed people.
As for the others, including Xuan Ming and several other Heavenly Chosen of the Taixu Shenzong, their bodies were shaking slightly.
If it wasn't for Xuan Ming doing his best to release his strength to support, Duguxiao would have fallen to the ground long ago, but at this moment, his knees were slightly bent, almost half-kneeling.
"There are still such powerful monks in the secular world, not bad!"

The three saints said softly.
Although the Three Holy Sons seemed to have nothing to say, these words exploded in everyone's ears like a bolt from the blue.
The elites of Qianqiu Sect, whose cultivation base was a little weak, were directly dizzy and almost fell to the ground.
"Who is the leader of Qianqiu Sect? Stand up!"
The three saints said slowly.
Gong Qianqiu walked out slowly.
In fact, she is also carefully observing the Three Holy Sons.

I saw the three saints who were about twenty-seven or eighteen years old, wearing a black retro tight-fitting robe.
The waist is tied with a jade belt, and a primitive dragon-shaped jade pendant hangs on the edge, holding an ancient bronze sword.
In particular, the face of the three saints is exceptionally handsome, as handsome as a god.
The whole person exuded an unparalleled strong aura.
It's just that the eyes of the three saints are arrogant, as if they don't care about anyone.
"The younger generation pays respects to the Three Holy Sons!"
Advertisement
Gong Qianqiu's voice was soft and sweet, and she gave a deep salute.
The three saints nodded and said lightly: "Put away your thoughts, otherwise this saint will be rude."
Gong Qianqiu was stunned for a moment, and saw that the eyes of the three saints were like torches, with a cold expression, as if they were refusing to be thousands of miles away.
"Mei Gong doesn't work?"
Advertisement
Gong Qianqiu's heart froze, she did deliberately use the Mei Gong just now, and she also wanted to see the reaction of the three saints.
It never occurred to me that the tried-and-true magic of charm would not work at all in front of the Three Holy Sons.

“Three Holy Sons, Master Qianqiu… The Palace Sect Master doesn’t mean to disrespect you, she just worships you too much.”
Xue Pengzhan was busy saying good things for Gong Qianqiu.
“Oh? Adore me too much, don’t you?”
The three saints smiled contemptuously, and then turned their attention to Gong Qianqiu.
“You attack with all your strength, and this Holy Son will test your cultivation. If it makes sense, this Holy Son can make an exception to accept you as a disciple.” Xue Pengzhan hurriedly reminded Gong Qianqiu in a low voice: “Hurry up and do what the three saints say, this is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity.”
“That junior will be offended!”
Advertisement
Gong Qianqiu said respectfully.
In fact, Gong Qianqiu also wanted to take the opportunity to test the depth of the three saints, but he also knew that he could never do his best, and he had to leave some trump cards.
“Just let the horses come!”
The three saints said proudly.
As he spoke, Sanshengzi carried his hands on his back, as if he had an arrogant expression of ‘you will never hide from me if you hit me at random’.
But if you observe carefully, you will find that a thick energy shield has quickly condensed around the body of the three saints.
“watch out!”
Gong Qianqiu no longer hesitated, his feet suddenly touched the ground, his body shot out like an arrow from the string, and he was a palm to the chest of the three saints.
Whoohoo!
Before the palm arrives, the wind arrives first.
The violent energy swept in, as if to tear the area to shreds.
“Oh? How could it provoke such an attack?”
There was a hint of surprise in the eyes of the three saints, but they were quickly replaced by indifference.

He still has no intention of avoiding, let Gong Qianqiu's palm continue to approach rapidly.
Bang!
The palm firmly slapped on the energy shield in front of the three holy sons, making a deafening terrifying sound.
Swish!
Gong Qianqiu was shocked by the terrifying defensive power, and he stepped back two or three feet before he could stop his body.
On the other hand, the figure of the three saints did not move at all, as if Gong Qianqiu's terrorist attack just now had nothing to do with him.
"The strength is barely enough."
The three saints commented.
"It's so strong?"
Gong Qianqiu was shocked beyond measure.
Although she only had six successes just now, she didn't even break the opponent's energy shield.
In particular, the Three Holy Sons stood on the spot and did not move at all. With such calculations, even if they exerted all their strength, they would not be able to defeat him.
This made her yearn for Kunlun Ruins even more.
"As expected of the three holy sons of the Taixu Shenzong, the strength is so terrifying!"
Gong Qianqiu sighed infinitely in his heart, but he was extremely confident in destroying Levi Garrison and Tiansi.
"The three saints are unparalleled in the world, how can the light of the firefly of the younger generation compete with Haoyue?"
"If it wasn't for your mercy, I'm afraid this junior would have been seriously injured or even killed on the spot."
Gong Qianqiu complimented.
The eyes of the three saints eased a little, and the mood was quite happy.
Everyone loves to hear compliments, and the Three Holy Sons are no exception.

“To be able to have such strength in the mundane world where there is a lack of spiritual energy, the talent is very good!”
The three saints rarely praised the sentence Gong Qianqiu.
In fact, the shock in the hearts of the Three Holy Sons was far more than that.
Although he didn’t move at all just now, he was secretly using his skills to counter the impact of Gong Qianqiu’s palm.
Especially in the confrontation, he has a tendency to surging.
You must know that even in the Taixu Shenzong Seven Great Talents Contest, if you don’t put your best effort into it, it’s hard to see a similar situation.
Advertisement
How could it not shock the Three Holy Sons that a mere master of a secular sect could reach such a level?
“If I used all my defensive skills just now, you’d probably be shocked by your internal organs.”
The three saints said proudly.
This wave is purely commercial boasting, and the defense of the three saints just now has almost reached its strongest state.
Advertisement
In order to completely shock the so-called powerhouses in the secular world.
Gong Qianqiu took advantage of the situation and patted the rainbow fart: “Thank you Sanshengzi for your mercy, the younger generation is grateful.”
“Um!”
The three saints nodded slightly, he felt that Gong Qianqiu was very good, and the flattery was just right, which was very in line with his own rhythm.
Delighted, he raised his hand slightly.
“You don’t have to kneel, you all get up!”
The Qianqiu Sect elite, who was originally kneeling on the ground, only felt an invisible force coming from under him, and his knees stretched uncontrollably.
The breathless coercion from before also disappeared in an instant.
“Three Holy Sons, this place is not a place to speak, please come inside.”

Advertisement
Gong Qianqiu said respectfully.
The three saints walked in with their heads held high, and after entering the hall, they were not polite, and sat directly on the main seat in the center.
Of course, no one here dared to object, but it was inevitable that they were a little unhappy.
Gong Qianqiu's politeness to sit up is very different from sitting up on his own initiative.
"Junior Sister Qianqiu, the three saints practice ruthless swordsmanship, hurry up and take out the treasures of heaven and earth that were prepared earlier!"
Xue Pengzhan reminded through voice transmission.
Gong Qianqiu suddenly realized that she had also understood the situation of Taixu Shenzong before.
The disciples of Taixu Shenzong majored in kendo, and a large branch of it was ruthless kendo.
Practitioners must cut off the body when cultivating, so that if the true heart is stagnant and ruthless, only then can they touch the deepest meaning of ruthless kendo.
With such a high status, the Three Holy Sons must have a deep understanding of the ruthless swordsmanship.
"It's no wonder that this sect master's charm work just now didn't work."
Gong Qianqiu suddenly realized that she thought her charm skills were invalid at that time!
"It seems that after entering the Kunlun Ruins in the future, if you want to control some high-level officials, you will not be able to rely on seduction alone." Gong Qianqiu knew what he knew, and said with a smile: "Three Holy Sons, the younger generation has prepared many gifts, please appreciate it."
"Well, present it!"
An imperceptible smile finally appeared on the icy face of the Three Saints.
He is obviously more interested in natural treasures than in beautiful women.
Gong Qianqiu winked, and his subordinates presented the prepared treasures one by one.

There are medicinal herbs that have been warmed and nourished by the super spiritual veins for hundreds of years, and there are also treasures collected from various places.
Dazzling array, countless.
Especially the ones placed in the front are full of extremely strong spiritual energy.
The eyes of the three holy sons were instantly attracted to him. At first, he thought that there was nothing good in the secular world!
It seems to be a big mistake now, especially the first few spirit herbs are no worse than the spirit medicine in Kunlun Ruins!
It's not for nothing this time!
The three saints were in a happy mood, and the smile on their face was even more so.
"Qianqiu, I heard from Pengzhan that you have a good talent. Come and show it to this room."
The three saints said with a smile.
In addition to coming here to inspect the treasures of heaven and earth this time, he also took the task of grabbing cultivation geniuses for the sect.

Hearing the change in the name of the three saints, Gong Qianqiu was slightly relieved.
It seems that these treasures of heaven and earth have fallen into the eyes of the Three Holy Sons, and she had planned for the worst.
If the Three Holy Sons don't look down on these things, they will sacrifice it to the gods.
Gong Qianqiu was very excited.
"The younger generation will be ugly."
Gong Qianqiu clenched his fists and then ran the extreme devouring technique.
Advertisement
Since the Three Holy Sons are 'not close to women', they need to conquer him in another way. Cultivating talent is obviously a good path.
"It turned out to be a devouring technique?"

Seeing the huge energy vortex formed with Gong Qianqiu as the center, the Three Saints' hearts flashed with surprise.
After a while, the spiritual energy in the entire hall area was extremely deficient, and it directly turned into a "reiki vacuum" state.
Advertisement
When the three saints recognized that Gong Qianqiu was practicing the devouring technique, they released energy to protect these heavenly and earthly treasures.
Otherwise, the spiritual energy contained in these treasures of heaven and earth will inevitably be swallowed up.
"Okay!"
The three saints waved their hands.
Gong Qianqiu received the power and set the situation, made a sincere appearance, and asked: "Three saints, how is the talent of the younger generation?"
"Devouring exercises have extremely high requirements on the root bone, and there will be a limit of swallowing. If you are not careful, you will explode and die."
"But even so, if you use elixir to warm your body, you can also raise a certain upper limit of devouring."
"It's just that you don't seem to be proficient in mastering the power of swallowing, Qianqiu.
It will be much better when I have time to give some pointers."
"Generally speaking, Qianqiu, your cultivation talent is good. After solving the affairs of the mundane world, this seat will take you to officially worship the Taixu Shenzong."
Advertisement
Gong Qianqiu said gratefully: "Thank you for the support of the three saints!"
It didn't show it on the surface, but Gong Qianqiu was quite shocked in her heart. She just deliberately showed that she didn't master the swallowing technique well.
This is also a worry that the three saints' jealousy and virtuousness can be deliberately suppressed.

Never thought that such subtleties were seen, and the "restrictions" of the exercises were also pointed out by the Three Holy Sons.
"As expected of the Three Holy Sons, his eyesight and insight are far beyond those of Xue Pengzhan and Xie Huanyu."
Gong Qianqiu sneered in his heart, but unfortunately this leader has already figured out a solution to swallowing the upper limit.
Using the Sky Thunder Tempering Body, you can cycle to increase the upper limit, but now you just don't have enough spiritual power for yourself to swallow it.
When entering the Kunlun Ruins in the future, there are so many divine veins and even holy veins waiting for him, why can't he stand on the top of the strong?
"This seat intends to support and support, but it is mainly your own ambition."
The three saints paused for a while, and continued: "With this seat's personal guidance, if you think about it, over time, your cultivation will improve by leaps and bounds."
"The junior will never forget the great kindness of the senior."
Gong Qianqiu said directly.
The smile on the face of the three saints is even more, and it is really commendable that Gong Qianqiu can understand his own meaning as quickly as possible.
What he said just now was to warn Gong Qianqiu that he will rise to prominence in the future, but don't forget his three holy sons, Bole.
Even in the Kunlun Ruins, only by helping each other can it last for a long time.
This involves many aspects.
If the apprentice you accept is extremely talented and has a great impact on the development of the sect, then as a master, you will also receive a lot of cultivation resources accordingly.
A person who attained the Tao and ascended to heaven in Kunlun Ruins is more vividly reflected.
"Ruzi can be taught!"
The three saints nodded in satisfaction.

Then he changed the conversation and said, "I heard that you have encountered some trouble. Now that you have this seat, you can let go and do it without any scruples."
"With the backing of a superpower like Senior, we can definitely clear Levi Garrison's base camp at the fastest speed."
Gong Qianqi

u left no trace of another wave of rainbow farts.
"Go get ready!"
The three saints said solemnly: "No matter who blocks the way, this seat can cut it with one sword."
The arrival of the three saints made Gong Qianqiu, Xuan Ming and others no longer scruples.
Including the Tian Si and the sky sect, several Tianjiao are not within the scope of their fears.
After all, the Three Holy Sons had a detached status in the Taixu Shenzong, and they were especially the proud disciples of the Deputy Sect Master.
Advertisement
If there is something wrong with him, the entire Taixu Shenzong will not give up.
"Master Bone, you lead a group of dead soldiers to ambush at the outermost edge of the base camp, and kill all those fish that slip through the net."
"Duguxiao, you led the elites of Qianqiu to choose the core high-level leaders of the base camp to kill them. You don't have to keep your hands this time."
"This time I can let go of my hands and feet to take revenge."
Advertisement
Gong Qianqiu issued a series of instructions.
Duguxiao was very excited. When the two major aliens were wiped out, Levi Garrison and others were the main force.
Especially in the final stage, in order to let Azure Dragon (Qinglong)'s people sweep away the demons, Levi Garrison personally tortured him extremely terribly.

“I will kill those ants with my own hands, and no one can rob me.”
Duguxiao licked his lips, like a bloodthirsty demon.
“Remember to keep Xiao Feng, he may still be useful.”
“Don’t worry, Master, I understand what to do.” Duguxiao said respectfully.
Gong Qianqiu nodded with satisfaction, and said to the other cores: “You are all scattered around the outermost periphery of the base camp, whether Levi Garrison’s subordinates or the members of the Town Demon Division, keep an eye on them all.”
“As ordered!”

Gong Qianqiu has already made up his mind, this time he must take advantage of the situation to eradicate Tiansi.
Entering the Kunlun Ruins is imminent, and we must not leave behind the troubles of Tiansi and Zhenmosi.
A single command fell like a mountain.
Since then, the entire Qianqiu Sect has moved.
And those small sects that were annexed also fulfilled their responsibilities and surrounded the base camp.
the other side.
In the town of magic.
Tian Si is also lining up, making the final preparations before the war.
“The leaders of each faction lead their troops, and they must cut off all the main traffic routes in the base camp, and never let one person go.” “Especially Levi Garrison’s core disciples and relatives and friends, it is best to capture them alive.”
“I want to kill them with my own hands to warn those madmen who want to show off their might in front of the Demon Suppression Division.”
Tian Si said in a cold tone.
“Levi Garrison is seriously injured, and the rest of the base camp is nothing to worry about.”
The temporary talker of Zhen Mosi has taken a back seat since Tiansi returned, but his position in the Zhen Mosi is also very important.

“The key is how to deal with Xuanming and Taixu Shenzong powerhouses?”
“The slaughter of the Qianqiu Sect on our Demon Suppression Division is too tragic, and you must not let it go. Tiansi, have you ever considered how to take the opportunity to destroy the Qianqiu Sect?”
Tian Si’s eyes became extremely cold when he heard the words.
“I did consider what you said, especially now that Levi Garrison’s side basically poses no threat to us.”
“I won’t stay in the secular world for a long time, and I definitely can’t leave the scourge of Qianqiu Sect for Zhenmo Division.” “It’s just that Taixu Shenzong’s side is too tricky, and we can only hope that the young master will help us.”
Tiansi said that he was a little worried at this time, because he got the news that Xie Huanyu had been in close contact with Gong Qianqiu recently.
And every time they meet, they have to reject everyone, and they live in the same room alone, and they don’t know what they are doing.
If the two of them develop towards Taoist companions, it will be difficult to eradicate Qianqiu Sect.
“Tiansi, as far as I know, Qianqiu Sect also has a deep hatred with Tianshifu. We might as well contact Tianshifu secretly in case of emergency.”
The temporary speaker of the town magic department suggested.
Tian Si frowned, and after thinking for a long time, he shook his head.
“In front of the Kunlun Ruins powerhouse, the Tianshi Mansion may not be of much help.”
“And once the information is leaked, it will be a shock to Qianqiu.”
Tiansi rejected the subordinate’s proposal.
“Tian Si is well thought out, but the current situation is too unfavorable for Zhen Mo Si. If there are no other allies, it is absolutely impossible to eradicate Qianqiu Sect.”
The temporary talker of Zhen Mosi sighed and said helplessly.
At this moment, there were light footsteps outside, and then Xie Huanyu led someone in.

“It’s not good, I just received a message that the three saints of the Taixu Shenzong have entered the world and are now in the Qianqiu Sect.”
Xie Huanyu’s face became particularly solemn.
“What?” Tian Si was taken aback.
The Three Holy Sons are the absolute core of the Taixu Shenzong. Once he is involved, the Qianqiu Sect will not even think about it.
Even several geniuses and young masters of the Cang Qiong faction have their lives in fear.
“How did they do it?” Tian Si was puzzled.
Xie Yunzong sighed and said: “It is said that Xuanming and the others have collected many treasures from heaven and earth, and this has alarmed the high-level officials of Taixu
Shenzong.”
“Damn! It’s terrible!”
Tian Si slapped the table angrily, not thinking of killing the Three Holy Sons at a critical moment.
“If you really can’t teach Qianqiu, just stop moving.”
Xie Huanyu suggested: “As long as there is no direct conflict with them, the Three Holy Sons will not take the initiative to attack us.”
“All right!”
Although Tian Si was unwilling, he did not dare to disobey Xie Huanyu’s proposal.
Especially when it comes to the choice of the fate of the entire Cang Qiong faction, Tian Si dare not raise any objection.
Tianshi Mansion.
The Celestial Masters are also discussing countermeasures.
Central issue: Are you sending someone to help Levi Garrison overcome the difficulties?
There are two diametrically opposed voices in the Tianshi Mansion.
First, hold your troops in motion, in order to protect yourself.
Second, to help decisively, the lips are dead and the teeth are cold.
After a heated debate, the Celestial Master finally made a decision.
“If Levi Garrison’s side is destroyed, we can’t escape bad luck, and Qianqiu will never let Tianshifu go.”

“Wentian, you brought 30 elite Celestial Masters out of the mountain to help, and if necessary, you can lead the Thunder Array to kill the enemy.”
“Of course, we can also leave behind. At that time, we only need to claim that Wentian and his cronies defected to the Tianshi Mansion.”
Wen Tian has no opinion on taking the blame. He himself is more inclined to help, because he feels that Gong Qianqiu will never give up.
at the same time.
The interior of the base camp is also in full swing to prepare to meet the enemy, and the three-party coalition forces have already made more practical moves.
Messages were constantly coming from the eyeliner on the periphery, especially when everyone learned that the base camp was now surrounded by wind and rain, everyone panicked.
In particular, I heard that the Taixu Shenzong sent another peak powerhouse to help out, which made everyone’s already insufficient confidence worse.
“This is a fart! Just surrender with both hands and wait for them to kill.”
“The boss is attacked and injured at any time, and there is a fear of life at any time. Levilia also left at the front of the battle, and the other side has joined the strong, there is no hope.”
“What are you afraid of? It’s a big deal to fight to the end. Even if you fight your last breath, you will have to make them pay the price.”
Although there are also many people who advocate fighting to the death to the last soldier, but from the bottom of their hearts, they also lack confidence.
Of course, this is by no means to blame for their glass hearts. It is really a huge gap between the comprehensive strengths of the two sides.
“Using all the people who can fight, it is very possible to fight a bloody road on the basis of defending.”
“Do your best to protect the young disciples from leaving, and keep the fire in order to make a comeback.”

“Contact all the peripheral forces and ask them to help distract the three-way coalition as much as possible.”
Zoey and others are also making final arrangements.
Phoenix and the others looked particularly solemn, and they all knew that this battle had little chance of survival.
But they were already prepared for the worst, and it could even be said that they were determined to die and vowed to fight the three-way coalition to the end.
Xiao Feng was much calmer than the others, and even planned to take this opportunity to become famous in battle, so that everyone would be willing to join him.
Swords are drawn everywhere, and the war is imminent.

Gong Qianqiu has made the arrangements in almost all aspects to the extreme, but he still has some clues in his heart.
Although the Three Holy Sons had previously threatened that no matter who blocked him, they would kill him with one sword, but does this include those from the Qiong Sect?
In particular, it is said that the young master of the Cang Qiong faction has a close relationship with Tiansi.
Once they are killed, it is difficult to guarantee that the sky sect will not come out to retaliate.
At that time, it is unknown whether the Three Holy Sons will still fulfill their promises.
“Final confirmation has to be made, otherwise this action is too risky.”

After thinking about this, Gong Qianqiu first found Xue Pengzhan and said the concerns in his heart.
Xue Pengzhan was fascinated by Gong Qianqiu for a long time. Hearing that the beauty had concerns, he immediately decided to take a few other Tianjiao to test it together.

Of course, Xue Pengzhan had other ideas, and decided to add fuel and jealousy to Xie Huanyu in front of the three saints and how they were arrogant and domineering.
"Don't worry, Qianqiu, I will do my best to help you settle this matter."
Advertisement
Xue Pengzhan said firmly.
Gong Qianqiu said with a charming smile: "Then the little sister thanked Senior Brother Xue in advance!"
Looking at Gong Qianqiu, who had winking eyes like silk, Xue Pengzhan was simply elated, and he was even more eager to show off.
Soon several people came to the room where the three saints rested.
"What are you guys looking for in this seat?"
The three saints asked with some doubts.
Xue Pengzhan said respectfully: "Three Holy Sons, I still want to discuss some things with you, otherwise we really dare not decide."
"If you have something to say, don't hesitate." The three saints said impatiently.
Xue Pengzhan said hurriedly: "It's the three saints like this. Before, we formed an alliance with the Town Demon Division completely out of frustration."
Advertisement
"Xie Huanyu, the young master of the Cang Qiong faction, once put down his harsh words.
If he doesn't ally with them, he will kill me and other coefficients."
"You also know that the number of people they bring is superior, and their strength is stronger than ours, so…"
"Damn! Trash!"
Before Xue Pengzhan could finish speaking, the Three Holy Sons interrupted directly: "How can the dignified Taixu Shenzong be suppressed by a small sect?"
"Even if you are not the top talents, but at least you are the elite disciples of our sect, can't you be a little bloody?"
Sanshengzi was already very arrogant and arrogant, not thinking that Xue Pengzhan and others would be so useless, he was really angry.

“Sanshengzi calm down, it is because we were too cautious that we humiliated the prestige of the Taixu Shenzong.”
Xue Pengzhan first used extenuating reasons to belittle his incompetence, and then changed the conversation and continued:
“Now that the three saints are in charge, I finally have the confidence to wait, so I want to ask you to take action when necessary to help us destroy Tiansi and others.”
I have to say that these remarks are very level and have a taste of killing.
However, the Three Holy Sons only eat one set.
“That’s why you are hesitant?”
Sanshengzi continued to proudly say with a face full of hatred for iron and steel, “You can do it anyway, and I will bear the consequences of any consequences.”
“But the Three Holy Sons, if the Cang Qiong faction uses the power of the whole faction to make a move, what should it do?”
Gong Qianqiu hit the railway while it was hot.
The three holy sons stood up suddenly and said contemptuously, “I don’t even care about a sect of the sky, so they just choose to endure it.”
“If they don’t know how to lift up the counterattack, this seat will directly destroy all of them.”
“But one thing, don’t kill the treasures around Levi Garrison and the child, keep them for this seat and bring them back to the sect, understand?”
The Three Holy Sons had heard before that Levi Garrison had mastered many treasures of heaven and earth, and that there were other daughters with extraordinary talents.
If he is brought back under his command, it may become a boost for future promotion.
As for whoever dares to stop him from getting these things, kill him.
“As ordered!”

the other side.
In the town of magic.

Tian Si and the others received reliable information that the three holy sons of the Taixu Shenzong had arrived at the Qianqiu Sect's main altar.
It was also at almost the same time that a message came from Gong Qianqiu, requesting Zhen Mosi to be the main force of the left-wing attack.
According to the intelligence, Levi Garrison's base camp's left-wing defensive formation is the most powerful, and there are also absolute elites.
"This is obviously to let us beat the most difficult bones of the base camp, in order to maximize the strength of the town magic division."
Advertisement
Tian Si said angrily.
Xie Yunzong continued: "I am afraid that Qianqiu Sect is already planning to suppress the Demon Division, or even our Sky Sect."
"Can't you?"
Xie Huanyu said incredulously.
Advertisement
"Young master, in fact, I wanted to remind you for a long time that Gong Qianqiu is not a simple woman."
"As far as I know, the geniuses of the Taixu Shenzong are also fascinated by him and her. I advise the young master to be more vigilant."
"Don't cause the entire sect to suffer, then the sect master may not spare you."
Xie Yunzong said in a very serious tone.
Xie Yunzong's remarks have been very serious, but Xie Huanyu surprisingly did not have an attack on the spot.
Because Xie Yunzong is not only the great elder of the Cang Qiong faction, but also the elder of his father's sect, if we really want to talk about it, we have to call him the third grandfather.
"Don't worry, I have a plan!"
Xie Huanyu sullenly said, "I don't know what means these people used to invite the three saints?"

“Could it be that Gong Qianqiu used spells like seduction to confuse him?”
Advertisement
Tenji asked tentatively.
Xie Huanyu frowned, feeling inexplicably uncomfortable.
Xie Yunzong immediately waved his hand and said, “It shouldn’t be. As far as I know, the three saints practice ruthless swordsmanship.”
“And the first step in cultivating the ruthless swordsmanship is to cut off the body, especially the techniques of seduction, which are basically ineffective in front of the Three Holy Sons.”
Xie Huanyu was actually slightly relieved when he heard this, but there was still a puzzled look on his face.
“As far as I know, Qianqiu Sect is looking for treasures from heaven and earth, and Gong Qianqiu is probably the one who stole Levi Garrison’s divine calamity.”
“If it is dedicated to the gods, there is a high probability that it will attract the attention of the senior officials of the Taixu Shenzong.” Tiansi speculated.
Xie Huanyu and others showed the expressions they should have.
After all, the Taixu Shenzong majored in swordsmanship, and they happened to lack the magic weapon Zhenzong.
“If that’s the case, the real target of Qianqiu Sect is most likely us!”
Xie Yunzong’s expression suddenly became solemn.
Xie Huanyu’s expression also changed greatly, and his heart was even more uneasy.
If the Three Holy Sons will take action, let alone their few lives will be difficult to save, I am afraid that the entire Cang Qiong Sect will be destroyed.
After all, the Three Holy Sons are the true high-ranking members of the Taixu Shenzong, and to a large extent he represents the attitude of the Taixu Shenzong.
Moreover, Sanshengzi himself is also a well-known genius of the younger generation of Kunlun Ruins, and even ranked in the forefront of the sectarian competition in previous years.

What's more critical is that even if the Three Holy Sons are destroyed, the Taixu Shenzong will definitely dispatch the strong to take revenge.
In particular, the master of the Three Holy Sons is still the deputy suzerain of the Taixu Shenzong, which definitely belongs to the whole body!
Xie Huanyu and others were afraid, this involved the life and death of the entire sect, and there was no room for sloppiness.
"Hey, if Levi Garrison is at his peak now, we can join forces to fight the enemy together."
Xie Huanyu said with a sigh.
Xie Huanyu regretted a little, and regretted that he was too arrogant when he went to negotiate, otherwise he would have Levi Garrison by his side.
Even if he loses to the three saints in the end, at least when the Taixu Shenzong is investigated, he can still throw the blame to Levi Garrison.
"Young Master, Great Elder, what should we do next?"
Tian Si's voice trembled a little when he said this.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector]

Tian Si has been secretly observing the expressions of Xie Huanyu and others from beginning to end.
When they speculated that the real target of Qianqiu Sect was most likely to be the Sky
Sect, there was an irresistible look of fear in their eyes.
Today, Tiansi's biggest reliance is the Cang Qiong faction. If they let it go, they will be dead.
So Tian Si was also very scared, and even scolded Xie Huanyu in his heart.
If it wasn't for Xie Huanyu's arrogance, Levi Garrison would have agreed to come down to the alliance, and the situation would not be as passive as it is now.
"You select all the good seedlings of the Demon Suppression Division as soon as possible, and I will bring them into the Sky Sect."
Advertisement
Xie Huanyu thought for a moment and said.

Since the Three Holy Sons are likely to attack the Cang Qiong Sect, expanding the sect's strength has become a top priority.
Although there are not many people who can enter the Kunlun Ruins just through the selection of Zhen Mosi, it is still possible to lower the standard.
"No problem!"
Advertisement
Tiansi happily agreed.
This approach is also beneficial to him, after all, he is only a small leader in the sky now.
If you bring in these cronies of the Demon Suppression Division, it will definitely not be able to help him continue to improve his status.
Xie Yunzong said solemnly: "It's best that we solve the base camp with a blitzkrieg, and then take away all the treasures that Levi Garrison has mastered."
"Oh, by the way, didn't you say that Levilia has a wonderful root and bone! Whether we cultivate or dig the root and bone for our own use, we will also take her away." Xie Huanyu also agreed: "After finishing these things, let's flee back to the Cang Qiong faction immediately. There is really no need to have a head-on conflict with the Three Saints now."
Xie Yunzong continued to add: "That's right, when we return to the sect, we will be ready. If we want to come to the Three Holy Sons, we will not attack the Cang Qiong sect for no reason."
"We still have the great formation of protecting the sect left by our ancestors. Even if we really want to get to that step, the Taixu Shenzong will definitely pay a heavy price."
"That's the decision, launch an attack on the base camp in advance, and make a quick decision."
Advertisement
Tiansi also immediately executed the order, which was also in his best interests.
Not only can he take revenge, but he can also save his life.

So Tiansi sent an order to his confidant subordinates and raided the base camp in the middle of the night.
It was four hours earlier than the time agreed with Qianqiu Jiao.
the other side.
Gong Qianqiu is also completely arranged.
In particular, the deployment of members of the Suppressing Demon Division was extremely thorough, blocking almost all the main points.
"Master, don't worry, none of Tiansi can escape."
Dugu Xiao said gloomily.
Duguxiao was arranged by Gong Qianqiu to specifically intercept Tiansi, and his current cultivation base is not a big problem.
And Duguxiao really hated Tiansi very much. In his opinion, the other culprit of the genocide at that time was Tiansi.
Only by killing Tian Si with one's own hands can the hatred in his heart be relieved.
Gong Qianqiu nodded with satisfaction and said: "The main thing is to let the people of Taixu Shenzong fight with them, and we can just sit and reap the benefits of the fisherman."
"That's how it was arranged. Aren't they all very arrogant? Just tell them that the Heaven's Chosen from the Sky is too strong and I can't be defeated."
"They will take the initiative to take action. If you want me to say, these people are idiots with strong limbs and simple minds."
"Don't talk about allies like that. After all, they are the sharpest knives in our hands."
Gong Qianqiu smiled very proudly, "I don't know how long the base camp with Levi Garrison can last. I hope it will not be destroyed too soon, otherwise it will be too boring."
"This is all due to Master's ingenuity and ingenuity. Isn't Levi Garrison being tricked by you?"
Duguxiao complimented.
base camp.
Levi Garrison, who pretended to be dying, also estimated the approximate total attack time of the three-party coalition, and immediately secretly recalled the subordinates who practiced tempering outside.

Huoyun Evil God, Wen Lei, Zhou Nanyan, and Levilia are the leading figures.
Ning Jinye and the eighty students also rushed back in batches.
In the end, all the members of the Tenshen Division headed by Tiance Shenshuai and Tiance Young Marshal arrived one after another.
During this time, the members of the Tenjin Division also used the super spiritual veins to improve their cultivation under the secret arrangement of Levi Garrison.
Some of them took the medicinal pills provided by Yan Zangsheng, and their overall strength improved.
Although the overall strength of the members of the Tenshen Division has not improved so much, it has reached a level that is second only to those of Ning Jinye.

All parties rushed to the periphery of the base camp, Levi Garrison decided to continue to cheat and wait for the arrival of the final battle.
However, Zoey Lopez, Xiao Feng and others were completely unaware of Levi Garrison's secret arrangements, and they continued to strengthen the defense in all aspects.
Almost everyone was extremely nervous.
Fortunately, these people are all battle-hardened cores, otherwise this pressure alone would be enough to make people completely collapse.
Advertisement
Even so, the heavy responsibilities are also in a state of exhaustion, and they are reluctantly supported entirely by willpower.
Just as everyone was in full swing, Levilia returned to the base camp from the secret road.
Everyone saw Levilia's relaxed and comfortable expression, especially when they heard her humming a little tune, as if she was heartless.

“A child is a child, and there is no sense of crisis at all. How can you still laugh now?”
“The boss is in a precarious state. As a daughter, it’s so heartless. It’s really sad!”
“Just say a few words less! Our adults are almost crushed, let alone she’s a child?”
“Are you saying that there is something wrong with Levilia’s spirit?”
“Most likely!”
There was a lot of discussion.
Advertisement
The voice was naturally heard by Levilia, but she couldn’t explain it to everyone now.
After this period of super-spiritual quenching, Levilia’s strength has also improved significantly.
Although Levilia did not follow the route of extreme devouring exercises, her self-created exercises also had great potential for improvement under the aura of the super spiritual veins.
In other words, there are qualitative differences in the speed of improvement when running Levilia’s self-created exercises in different environments.
Especially in the Divine Vein and Holy Vein environment, the speed is not much slower than the extreme phagocytosis technique, and the key is not to be bound by the upper limit of phagocytosis.
“Levilia, there is no news of your child going out, and mother is about to die of worry.”
Zoey Lopez complained for a while after seeing Levilia, but she actually felt sorry for her daughter.
“Mom, I’m sorry for worrying you.” Levilia said apologetically.
Zoey Lopez rubbed Levilia’s head, sighed and said, “Since you escaped, why did you come back?”
“The three-party coalition forces are overwhelming, and we hardly have any chance here.
We are all ready to burn all jade and stone.”
“Why don’t you hurry and escape from here! We have a better chance of covering.”

“Mom, the battle is imminent, how can I, as the daughter of you and my father, escape?”
Levilia immediately rejected Zoey Lopez’s proposal.
“But the current situation cannot be reversed by stabilizing the military’s heart.” Zoey Lopez tried his best to explain.
Levilia nodded and said, “I know mom, don’t worry too much, our predicament may soon usher in a turning point!”
“I’ll go check on Dad’s condition first, don’t worry too much.”
Without giving Zoey Lopez a chance to continue to persuade, Levilia ran away quickly.
Looking at Levilia’s back, Zoey Lopez just felt a little confused. Her daughter has always been sensible and knowledgeable, so why can’t she figure out the situation this time?
And what about a turnaround?
“Is this kid too optimistic?”
Zoey Lopez was puzzled. Couldn’t her daughter feel the urgency of the army outside?

Levilia also met Phoenix and others on the way to visit Levi Garrison.
Looking at Levilia, who greeted him with a relaxed face, a few people were stunned except for their doubts.
“Levilia, is this child too nervous to become like this?”
Azure Dragon (Qinglong) asked worriedly.
During this time, the pressure on the three-way coalition was indeed too great, and even those who had been on the brink of death for many years were a little breathless.
Let alone a child?

The strength is strong and true, but the psychological quality may not be stronger than
them.
“When the war starts, we have to escort Levilia to escape no matter what.”
Azure Dragon (Qinglong) said firmly.

Several people nodded in agreement, Levilia was their last hope, especially as long as she was given enough time, there would be no problem with her cultivation base reaching the peak.

"Report, several leaders, suddenly a master attacked and killed us, and our outer guards couldn't hold it anymore."

At this moment, someone suddenly reported loudly.

"what?"

Phoenix and the others were stunned.

"According to the plan to meet the enemy, separate the elite to protect the boss, and his physical condition cannot be moved."

After Azure Dragon (Qinglong) finished his instructions, he led a few people to act separately, some to protect Levi Garrison and Levilia, and some to organize people to go out to fight.

At the same time, Xiao Feng was patrolling the periphery, and she was the first to learn that the strongmen of Zhenmo Division had raided.

"Don't panic, I'll go meet Tiansi first."

Xiao Feng had already accumulated strength and prepared to establish his prestige in the base camp through this battle.

Moreover, Xiao Feng devoured wildly during this time, and his cultivation realm has indeed greatly improved.

Coupled with Gong Qianqiu's deliberate guidance, Xiao Feng seemed to feel that he could be invincible in the world without the Kunlun Ruins Tianjiao.

"Stay out of the way, and hand over that old mess of Tiansi to Lao Tzu to deal with."

Xiao Feng ran all the way, and the members of the base camp to defend the enemy gave way.

Seeing Xiao Feng so brave, everyone's hearts were also excited.

"As expected of the senior brother, this aura of giving up on me is really a bit of a master's style."

"Indeed, I hope the senior brother can kill Tiansi."
"There are many Kunlun Ruins powerhouses behind him!"
One sentence made everyone's mood sink to the bottom.
Let's just say that Xiao Feng came directly to the front of the formation and saw Tian Si easily and seriously injured several base camp guards.
"You immortal, look at the tricks!"
Xiao Feng took the lead, aiming directly at Tian Si's chest with a palm.
"You are Xiao Feng, right? Since you are courting death, this seat will take your life sacrifice flag."
Tian Si didn't have the slightest intention to avoid him, so he rushed towards Xiao Feng's attack.
Bang bang bang!
The two released a terrifying energy aura, and they collided with each other to make a deafening terrifying sound.
At the beginning of the period, Tian Si didn't do his best, he thought it would be easy to kill a small fish like Xiao Feng.
However, after the fight, it was discovered that Xiao Feng did not show weakness under his Liu Cheng power.
"You have grown to such an extent?"
Tian Si was a little surprised.
Xiao Feng was instantly inspired, and thought that Tiansi would have no way to take him!
"When you enter the Kunlun Ruins, you think you are invincible in the world. Today, I will teach you how to be a man!"
Xiao Feng roared angrily and launched fierce attacks frequently.
"Insanity!"
Tian Si was furious, and the two instantly fought in one place.
Soon Zoey Lopez, Azure Dragon (Qinglong) and others also came to the scene, and followed the elites of the town magic division to fight together.
At the beginning of the period, none of the Cang Qiong faction joined the battle. In their opinion, as long as Tian Si himself could easily eliminate the guards at the base camp.

As for oneself needing to store up physical strength to deal with the variables, the most important thing is to prevent the strong intervention of Taixu Shenzong from endangering their lives.
However, after the melee between the two sides, Xie Huanyu was shocked to find that it was quite difficult for Tiansi to lead someone to take down the base camp.
At least it is seriously inconsistent with the original intention of the blitz they set.

"Young Master, let's go over and help! So that you don't have too many dreams at night."
Xie Yunzong said solemnly.
Xie Huanyu nodded and said, "Okay, make a quick decision."
As soon as the words fell, seven experts from the firmament faction joined the battle group, and the situation soon changed.
After all, these people are strong in the Kunlun Ruins. Although they have not done their best, they are also a dimensional blow to the members of the base camp.
Casualties among base camp members increased dramatically.
Advertisement
As time went on, Xiao Feng's situation became more and more difficult, and now he was completely suppressed and beaten by Tiansi.
Zoey Lopez and others were also injured more or less.
"Catch that kid!"
Xie Huanyu suddenly found Levilia and attacked directly.
Advertisement
"Levilia, be careful!"
Zoey Lopez and others reminded loudly.
Although they wanted to go to the rescue, they were already unable to protect themselves against the attacks of the strong men of the firmament, and they were helpless at all.
Just at this critical moment, there was chaos behind the Demon Suppression Division.
Screams and moans came and went, and sometimes a figure flew out backwards, and finally fell to the ground with serious injuries.

Xie Huanyu and others also suddenly stopped and turned to observe.
“what’s the situation?”
Tian Si frowned slightly, followed the voice and saw hundreds of people attacking from all directions.
In particular, the leaders of the army ran rampantly, and wherever they went, the elites of the Demon Suppression Division were killed or injured.
Advertisement
“It’s Nan Yan and Wen Lei!”
“And Huoyun Heretic God and Ning Jinye!”
“Heavenly Commander Tiance and Young Commander Tiance are also here.”
Zoey Lopez and others were overjoyed, these people really belonged to the timely rain.
In particular, everyone found that Wen Lei, Zhou Nanyan and others were powerful, and those elites of the Magic Suppression Division, who were originally very difficult to deal with, were completely vulnerable in their hands.
“Mom, our turnaround is here!”
Levilia said with a smile.
Seeing her daughter’s incomparably bright smile, Zoey Lopez suddenly realized something, but now the situation is special and she doesn’t have time to think about it.
“Do you think you can turn the tide of the war with these few people? Joke!”
Xie Huanyu took the lead and directly met the Huoyun Evil God.
The other Tianjiao of Taixu Shenzong faced Zhou Nanyan and others.
Soldier to soldier to general, this time the battle has become more intense.
“Let me experience the great tricks of the young master of the Cang Qiong faction.”
Before she finished speaking, Wen Lei slapped Xie Huanyu’s chest.
The violent palm wind whistled out, and the surrounding area was squeezed a little distorted because the power was too terrifying.
It was like wrinkled paper, as if it had been torn apart.
“The arrogant junior, today I will show you what the insurmountable power gap is.”
Xie Huanyu did not show weakness, in his opinion, he could kill Wen Lei in seconds.

However, Xie Huanyu completely dispelled this idea when the two palms collided in the void.
The violent energy pressure, even though he had an energy shield on his body, his cheeks still hurt from scratching.
Especially that powerful anti-shock force made Xie Huanyu take a few steps back to stabilize his body.
Of course, Wen Lei was not relieved. She also took a few steps back, but the expression on her face was still calm, but her eyes were a little more solemn.
"There is such a strong person in the secular world?"
The corner of Xie Huanyu's mouth twitched. Although the palm of his hand didn't use his full strength, he still needed 60-70% of his skill.
Not only was he unable to kill his opponent in seconds, but Wen Lei gave him a disservice.
This made Xie Huanyu feel disgraced.
"Today you must die!"
Xie Huanyu's figure disappeared again, his whole body turned into a black shadow, and he appeared behind Wen Lei in the next second.
However, before the shot, he suddenly felt the evil wind behind him.
"Sneak attack?"
Xie Huanyu was shocked, because he found that his body had a brief stagnation.
As if locked by some invisible force.

The cultivator's early warning of the crisis continued to become stronger, and Xie Huanyu suddenly had a bad premonition in his heart.
A slightly stagnant figure is nothing to ordinary people, but for a powerhouse of the same level, life and death can be decided in an instant.
Terrifying energy fluctuations came suddenly.
"not good!"
Xie Huanyu didn't have time to think about it, and directly operated the body-protecting exercises.

Layers of thick energy shields burst out, as if several thick armors had been put on Xie Huanyu.
Advertisement
boom!
The palm of the hand carried the fierce palm wind and smashed it firmly on Xie Huanyu's back energy shield.
Clap clap!
The energy shield cracked open in an instant, like a spreading spider web.
Advertisement
With the subsequent strong impact, several energy shields shattered.
Xie Huanyu was finally unable to stand still, and was directly shaken by the powerful force, and he leaped more than ten feet away before he could stop his body.
"hateful!"
Xie Huanyu wiped the blood on the corner of his mouth and cursed.
He was shocked by the sneak attack just now.
Although it is not a particularly serious internal injury, the blood in the body is also agitated.
"You bastard monkeys, this seat will blow your bones to ashes today."
Xie Huanyu was burning with anger, the veins on his forehead jumped, and he was injured by a martial artist in the secular world. If this were to spread out, what face would he have to stand in the Kunlun Ruins?
"Nan Yan be careful, this guy is crazy."
Advertisement
Wen Lei reminded with a solemn expression.
It was Zhou Nanyan who attacked just now. As soon as she killed several elite disciples of the Suppression Magic Division, she found that Xie Huanyu had an opportunity.
"Don't worry, it's okay, if I knew that his skin was so thick, I should have added a little more power just now."
Zhou Nanyan was a little remorseful, thinking that Xie Huanyu would be severely injured by the sneak attack, but he never thought that he was only slightly injured.
"Dare to hurt my young master, you are courting death!"
One of them, Tianjiao of the Sky Sect, felt that his chance to express himself had come.

This Tianjiao launched a frantic attack on Zhou Nanyan.
Zhou Nanyan raised her eyebrows slightly, and her whole person released a fierce fighting spirit.
Bang bang bang!
The figures of the two flickered, and at the beginning of the period, they could barely see the moves, and then there was the sound of heavy and dull beating.
“Your opponent is me!”
Seeing that Wen Lei wanted to help, Xie Huanyu attacked again.
This time, Xie Huanyu seemed to be going crazy, not giving Wen Lei any chance to breathe.
Fortunately, Wen Lei’s strength has been qualitatively improved after several super spiritual veins to quench her body, otherwise she would not be able to withstand such an offensive.
But as time passed, Xie Huanyu discovered that Wen Lei was like a ball of cotton, no matter how hard you exerted, she could always be resolved by her.
The feeling of having endless energy but no strength point really made him extremely depressed.
“hateful!”
“Lowly monkey!”
“This work will smash your corpse into thousands of pieces!”
Xie Huan gradually began to lose control of his emotions, and even had a tendency to develop into a strong mouth king.
However, the more anxious Xie Huanyu became, the less able it was to really hurt Wen Lei.
On the contrary, the situation of absolute repression gradually changed into a position of equals, and in the end Wen Lei had the upper hand.
“Young master is about to lose his mind, it’s impossible to continue like this.”
Xie Yunzong saw the change in Xie Huanyu, because in this state of mind, he could not exert his real combat power at all.
It is even very likely that the opponent will seize the opportunity to be seriously injured.
“Hurry up and help the young master out of trouble…”

Xie Yunzong's words came to an abrupt end, because he found that the other Tianjiao of the Cang Qiong faction had fallen into a hard fight.
Especially Tianjiao, who was fighting with Zhou Nanyan, was completely suppressed.
"How could this be? How could Levi Garrison's subordinates suddenly appear so many masters?"
Xie Yunzong was puzzled.
With this development going on, it is only a matter of time before the subordinate who fought against Zhou Nanyan was seriously injured or even killed.

The others were not much better either, they were entangled, not to mention, and even two of them had received internal injuries.
"This is not possible, we must get out of the battle situation as soon as possible, otherwise there is a possibility that the entire army will be destroyed!"
"Now is the time to be distracted, old man, watch the fist!"
The icy voice of the Fire Cloud Evil God rang out from behind him.
Xie Yunzong's heart froze, and the acute crisis warning suddenly became strong. He knew that it was too late to avoid it at this moment.
Busy running the body protection exercises.
Advertisement
In an instant, a violent force came from the back, and the energy shield that had just condensed was shattered several layers.
Xie Yunzong rushed out, and the blood in his body was agitated, but fortunately he tried to suppress it, so he didn't vomit blood.
"hateful!"
Xie Yunzong was so angry that his facial features were a little distorted, and he wished to smash the Huoyun Evil God to ashes.
Advertisement
However, reason told him that it is not suitable to stay here for a long time, not to mention that Levi Garrison's "heavenly soldiers" are difficult to deal with.

If the time drags on, Qianqiu Sect and Taixu Shenzong will definitely kill them when they hear the news.
“Young Master, the situation is not good, hurry up!”
Xie Yunzong reminded loudly.
However, Xie Yunzong didn’t remind him that it was okay, so the reminder directly caused the other Tianjiao’s expressions to stagnate, and they were directly hit by the opponent.
Pfft!
Pfft!
The two were killed on the spot.
The other three were seriously injured.
Advertisement
Even Xie Huanyu was hit with three palms in a row, blood spilled from the corners of his mouth, and his face was extremely pale.
“Walk!”
Xie Huanyu also realized that the situation was not good, and the strength of Levi Garrison’s subordinates was far beyond imagination.
Tian Si’s face was also extremely ugly, and at the beginning of the period, Xiao Feng could still be suppressed with all his strength.
But suddenly Ning Jinye and others joined the battle group, which directly put him into a hard fight.
It is impossible to win, and even suffered some internal injuries.
Xie Huanyu and Xie Yunzong fought with all their might, directly smashed a bloody path, and fled with Tiansi and three Tianjiao in a hurry.
Two corpses of Tianjiao Tianjiao were left behind.
“Don’t chase after the poor!”
After all, the situation is unclear now, and the people of Qianqiu Sect and Taixu Shenzong are still missing.
In fact, Wen Lei and others are not easy, even if Xie Huanyu and others are repelled, but they also consume a lot, and some people suffer from internal injuries and need to be recuperated urgently.
the other side.

Qianqiu also got the message.
“What? The Town Demon Division launched an attack so long in advance?”
Gong Qianqiu’s face was full of surprise.
Since Tiansi and the others are the absolute core of their actions, Qianqiu Jiao was buried in the eyeliner of Zhen Mosi without realizing it.
“No, they should be thinking of quickly solving the battle, and then robbing the treasures controlled by Levi Garrison’s base camp.”
Xue Pengzhan said solemnly.
Others agree with this inference.
“Never let them succeed.”
Gong Qianqiu said coldly.
“I’m afraid it’s too late to rush over now. With their strength, they really want to launch a general attack. Levi Garrison’s useless men can’t bear it at all.”
However, before Xuan Ming could finish his words, someone outside came to report.
“Reporting to the sect master, Levi Garrison’s base camp was suddenly supported by many masters, and the Tiansi and the strong men of the Cangqiong faction fled with heavy casualties.”
A stone stirred up a thousand waves.
Everyone present was shocked.
“how can that be?”
“Where did they come from? Can they beat Xie Huanyu and the others with heavy casualties?”
Gong Qianqiu pondered for a moment, and finally said: “No matter where they come from,
it should be the end of the shot at this moment, and our great opportunity has come.”
Everyone was stunned for a while, and then they realized the meaning of this sentence.
“So we are attacking the base camp now, just to take advantage of the fisherman.”
Xuan Ming smiled happily.
Gong Qianqiu nodded and said: “Go on, attack Levi Garrison’s base camp across the board, and annihilate together with the Suppressing Demon Division."

Inside the base camp.
Everyone is cleaning the battlefield, watching the elites of the town magic division who are either mourning or dying.
In particular, there were also two corpses of the Sky Sect powerhouses, and everyone present was shocked.
Zoey Lopez also looked at Wen Lei, Zhou Nanyan and others in amazement, with too many doubts in his heart, but for a while he didn't know where to start asking.
"How did Wen Lei and the others do it? This kind of combat power is incredible!"
Zoey Lopez suddenly recalled the scene when he saw Levilia returning to the base camp with a face full of ease.
Advertisement
She remembered that she had persuaded her daughter to flee as soon as possible to avoid being killed.
But Levilia said that there was no chance of a turnaround, and in turn persuaded himself not to worry too much.
"You must know something!"
Zoey Lopez is very sure that her daughter will not be unpredictable. Since she is acting like that, it must be the information she learned in advance.
Advertisement
Besides, considering the state of the base camp members some time ago, if they had known that there was such a powerful reinforcement, they would have been overjoyed.
It's easy for one or two people to act, but if all the actors are acting and no flaws are found, it will be difficult.
"After the battle is over, you must ask Levilia to clarify."
Zoey Lopez made up his mind secretly.
"Nan Yan and Wen Lei's strengths are too terrifying!"

“I didn’t show the mountains and waters before, and I didn’t think that a king bomb would come directly as soon as I made a move.” “Isn’t it, especially even Jinye’s cultivation base is so strong, it’s like a different person from before!”
“We’ve all been left far behind.”
Phoenix and the others talked a lot, and they thought it was incredible.
Advertisement
I thought that the entire army would be destroyed in this battle, but I never thought that the reinforcements from the sky would come to a desperate turnaround.
“Wen Lei and Nan Yan are both the boss’s basic exercises. It seems that the progress in the early stage is slow, but the upper limit is extremely high!” “Back then, the boss also suggested that I practice basic exercises, but I was eager for success at the time, so I practiced Levilia’s exercises.”
“I really regret it!”
Phoenix said with some regret.
Azure Dragon and others also felt the same, regretting that they had listened to Levi Garrison’s advice, otherwise they would be even more helpful in times of crisis today.
The one who was most shocked was Xiao Feng.
He originally imagined that he would become the most beloved pillar under Levi Garrison in one fell swoop by virtue of this battle.
However, Yu Tiansi was pressed and beaten almost all the way in the battle. If someone didn’t help him later, he might even have died.
The key point is that the most ironic thing for him is that it is Ning Jinye who came to help.
The person who was beaten down by himself for slandering Gong Qianqiu.
Especially after seeing the strength of Ning Jinye, Xiao Feng felt even more ashamed.
“How did Ning Jinye grow to such a state in just a few days?”
Xiao Feng was perplexed. The last conflict Ning Jinye was not one of his own, but now he is a little stronger than himself.
Recalling that some time ago, Ning Jinye and the 80 students he led went out one after another, and Xiao Feng felt that there was a big problem.

“Don’t they go out for so-called missions, but for secret training?”
Thinking of this, Xiao Feng felt more and more that this possibility existed.
Especially during that time, Wen Lei and others also disappeared, and even Master Levi Garrison left occasionally.
Even Zoey Lopez and others didn’t know where he was going.
“It must be Levi Garrison who gave them a secret special training.”
“Otherwise, these people will never be able to improve so fast.”
“Before I lost money, I thought of him as a master, and I didn’t think of Laozi at all during the special training.”
“Damn! It’s terrible!”
The more Xiao Feng thought about it, the more angry he became.
Especially thinking of the plan to become famous in battle before, but now Wen Lei and others have become the saviors of the base camp.
Everyone looked at them with gratitude and admiration.

“These should all belong to me.”
“I knew I had a chance not long ago and I would make up for it.”
Xiao Feng’s chest was full of anger, and his fist was clenched until it creaked.
“It was these people who stole the glory that belonged to Lao Tzu.”
“You all wait for Lao Tzu, and one day, all of you will regret ignoring Lao Tzu.”

Xiao Feng roared in his heart, if anyone was beside him, he would find that his eyes were once again occupied by purple and black.
It looks so weird!
the other side.
Inside the Qianqiu Church General Altar.
Advertisement
Gong Qianqiu only issued the order, but Xuan Ming blocked it one step ahead.
“Master Gong, don’t you have an old acquaintance by Levi Garrison’s side! You can completely understand the situation through him before making a decision."

"After all, the fact that the Vault Sect was repelled is really incredible."
"Since we want to eliminate them, it is still very necessary to know ourselves and our enemies."
Gong Qianqiu's eyes narrowed slightly, and he felt that Xuan Ming's words were very reasonable.
"You are right. Knowing yourself and knowing your enemy will not end in a hundred battles. I will contact Xiao Feng to find out."
After speaking, Gong Qianqiu quickly took out the communication tool to contact Xiao Feng.
And Xiao Feng was originally depressed, and Gong Qianqiu took the initiative to contact him, which comforted him.
"Xiao Feng, how are you doing now? Tiansi actually took action against you in advance."
Advertisement
"It's all my fault that my level is too low, and I didn't get the information as soon as possible, otherwise you would be able to make defensive arrangements in advance."
Gong Qianqiu was the first to express concern and guilt.
"Qianqiu, I'm fine!"
Xiao Feng really used it very much, and in turn comforted Gong Qianqiu: "Qianqiu, don't blame yourself, how can you blame you?"
"This time, it's the masters of Tiansi and the Cang Qiong faction, and even those elites of the Demon Suppression Division are absolutely confidants."
"With your status in the Town Demon Division, it's impossible to get information."
Gong Qianqiu continued to ask: "Well, I can rest assured that you have nothing to do. By the way, are the casualties on your side serious?"
"If I didn't want to find out more information for you, I would like to rush over to help now."
"No, it's too dangerous here."
Xiao Feng blocked it directly, and was afraid that Gong Qianqiu would think too much, and continued to explain:

“You don’t come here now, the strong men of Qianqiu Sect and Taixu Shenzong still don’t know when they will attack!”
“The strength of those people is too terrifying. You can’t help you here. I have to be distracted to protect you.”
“As for the serious casualties, even Wen Lei and the others should have suffered internal injuries. Now they are meditating on the spot!”
Then Xiao Feng explained in detail what he had learned, especially the doubts about Wen Lei and others’ rapid improvement in cultivation.
All the details were told to Gong Qianqiu.
“So the master’s situation has not improved in the slightest?” Gong Qianqiu asked tentatively in a concerned tone.
Xiao Feng nodded and said, “Yes, it’s a bit more serious than the previous two days. I guess I won’t survive for a few days.”
“If it weren’t for this, I would have already shot to make up for the knife. Who told him to shoot you when he didn’t know anyone?”
Gong Qianqiu of course knew that Xiao Feng was taking credit, and immediately praised him very cooperatively.
In particular, he also expressed the meaning of wanting to stay with Xiao Feng, which made Xiao Feng fluttering.
“Then let’s do this first, I will continue to help you explore the information of the Zhenmo Division, let’s not talk about it!”
Gong Qianqiu cut off contact without waiting for Xiao Feng to respond.
“how is the situation?”
Xuan Ming hurriedly stepped forward and asked.
Gong Qianqiu directly explained the general situation.
Everyone present was shocked and puzzled, especially when Wen Lei and others suddenly increased their combat power, they couldn’t understand it.
“Wen Lei’s combat power is a mystery, so they can’t act rashly. To be safe, let’s go and ask the Three Holy Sons!”

Gong Qianqiu suggested.

After communicating with Xiao Feng, Gong Qianqiu also felt a little clueless.
Although she probably knew the strength of Xie Huanyu and others, she had to know that they were seven masters of the Sky Sect.
Plus a Tiansi deity, it is equivalent to eight Kunlun Ruins powerhouses.
If the Three Holy Sons have not arrived, their comprehensive strength may not necessarily be able to surpass the Cang Qiong faction.
However, two of them were killed, and the remaining five were wounded and fled.
"The key is how did Wen Lei and the others improve?"
Advertisement
"Especially that Ning Jinye, who was abused by Xiao Fengxue some time ago."
"Now it's actually a little stronger than Xiao Feng's strength. You must know that Xiao Feng has been devouring wildly and attracting demons to tap the potential recently!"
Gong Qianqiu was puzzled.
In the end, it can only be attributed to Levi Garrison's basic exercises, because Levi Garrison itself is a special example.
Advertisement
In the past, when there was no spiritual energy, it was possible to traverse the world. Now that the spiritual energy has exploded, it should be easier to practice this basic technique.
"Why did you come to see me again?"
The three saints asked indifferently.
Gong Qianqiu then told the information he got.
"These wastes from the Cang Qiong faction have really lost all face in the Kunlun Ruins, and they have been beaten by a group of monkeys from the secular world for this virtue."
"A small sect is a small sect, and so is the young master."
"If it is replaced by my Taixu Shenzong, I am afraid that their sect will be wiped out in an instant."

The three saints said with contempt.
"But Holy Son, my strength may not be much stronger than them. If we act rashly, I'm afraid it's not right?"
Advertisement
"Why don't you wait until the master of the palace further confirms the situation before taking action, do you think…"
Before Xuan Ming could finish speaking, he was directly interrupted by the Three Saints.
"It's not necessary. With this Holy Son, I will never let you follow in the footsteps of the rubbish of the Cang Qiong Sect."
The three saints had a serious face, and said solemnly: "Besides, how can we be frightened by a few incompetent monkeys for our dignified Taixu Shenzong?"
"If this kind of thing spreads out, how can we get a foothold in Kunlun Ruins?"
"Stop talking nonsense, let's do it now, this holy son is in the battle himself, but I want to see what skills these monkeys have?"
Gong Qianqiu asked cautiously: "There are seniors who are naturally at ease with us. We just wanted to try to avoid casualties as much as possible when we proposed to investigate first."
"There is no need to have such concerns, that is, the rubbish of the sky will run fast, otherwise this seat can directly abolish them all."
The three saints said proudly.
Seeing that the three saints insisted on launching an attack, Gong Qianqiu was helpless.
From the heart, Gong Qianqiu still wants to continue to confirm the situation of Wen Lei and others, after all, Levi Garrison is nothing to worry about now.
As long as you make full use of Xiao Feng's chess piece, the investigation will be as easy as the palm of your hand.
But then again, Gong Qianqiu did not dare to violate the meaning of the three saints, after all, he was the key figure in his own advanced Kunlun Ruins.

There is also the vice suzerain of Taixu Shenzong as a backer, and he must not be offended.
"Follow the decree of the Three Holy Sons."
Gong Qianqiu said respectfully.
The face of the three saints eased a little, and he enjoyed this feeling of being self-reliant.
"Qianqiu, you don't have to worry, with this seat here, it's easy to kill those monkeys."
The Three Holy Sons did not take everyone from the Cang Qiong faction in their eyes.
In his opinion, as long as he makes his own move, even if he is the leader of the Cang Qiong faction, he must kneel down and beg for mercy.
Gong Qianqiu immediately issued an order: "Qianqiu teaches all the forces to approach the base camp at the same time, and this time they will kill them all."
With a single order, the entire Qianqiu Sect and its affiliated forces moved.
For a time, the entire base camp was like a boat on the sea.
And the surrounding forces dispatched, it is the storm that is about to appear.

Gong Qianqiu, Xue Pengzhan and others appeared outside the base camp at the same time.
Several of them did not have the slightest hidden strength, and several terrifying energy vortexes were formed around them.
"Congratulations, Sect Master!"
Qianqiu Sect members saw some Gong Qianqiu with black dresses like witches coming to the world, and their faces were full of awe.
They have an almost obsessive admiration for Gong Qianqiu, and now they feel the terrifying aura, and they are even more excited and unable to control themselves.
"This time we attack the base camp, Qianqiu will win!"
Advertisement
Gong Qianqiu's voice was like magic, which made all the disciples instantly boil with enthusiasm.

It seems that this sentence means that the decree issued by the gods must be realized.
“Will win, win, win…”
Everyone shouted in unison like crazy, and the sound was earth-shattering.
Advertisement
Gong Qianqiu looked proud and said solemnly: “Attack!” Everyone suddenly attacked, and tens of thousands of Qianqiu Sect members swarmed from all directions.
The base camp was already surrounded by wind and rain.
From a distance, the crowd is surging, as if an ancient behemoth opened its bloody mouth, ready to devour the base camp.
the other side.
base camp.
Levilia followed Wen Lei and Zhou Nanyan and walked in, as for the others, they were all blocked out.
Of course, other people don’t think much about this, after all, these people also belong to Levi Garrison’s direct relatives and friends.
After entering the house, Levilia once again used his strength to isolate this area from the outside world.
Advertisement
Levi Garrison no longer pretended, and slowly opened his eyes.
Although Wen Lei and others learned from Levilia’s mouth that Levi Garrison was a disguise, they were shocked to see the latter’s appearance at the moment.
“No wonder everyone in the base camp is kept in the dark. It’s no different from the dead.”
“Brother, you can terrify the eldest sister-in-law. I will not help to persuade the sister-in-law to deal with it later.”
“Yes, King’s Landing, your move is simply a double-edged sword!”
Zhou Nanyan and others complained one after another.
Levi Garrison also had a slight smile on his face. He already knew the process of this battle.
He was very satisfied with the improvement of Wen Lei and others.
“Okay, let’s talk about the battle situation first!”
“By the way, are you injured?”

“How’s the physical loss?”
Although he was paying attention in secret before, in order to avoid leaking his whereabouts, Levi Garrison did not know these details.
“Don’t worry, although our physical strength is relatively serious, we have taken medicine pills.”
“In addition to the strong recovery ability of the basic exercises, we have basically reached the peak state now.”
“If I hadn’t fought against them, I would have thought that the Kunlun Ruins were unattainable!”
Several people had excited expressions on their faces, and this battle not only revived the reputation of the members of the base camp.
It made them more confident, especially for the legendary Kunlun Ruins, and completely put aside their previous lack of confidence.
“It’s good to recover. Now it’s time to see when the people from Qianqiu Sect and Taixu Shenzong will start.”
Levi Garrison said solemnly.
Levilia nodded and said: “Dad is right, there is a high-level three holy sons of the Taixu Shenzong over there.”
“It is said that the power of the three holy sons alone can destroy the entire sky sect. I don’t know if it is true or false?”
Speaking of this, Levilia is still a little worried.
Because it is not only the three saints who are difficult to control, but also the unfathomable female leader, who is now basically confirmed to be Gong Qianqiu.
The faces of the other people also became solemn in an instant. What Levilia said was true, there were too many uncertainties in this battle.
“You don’t have to worry, since things have come to this point, there’s no need to put up my injury.”
“I’ll give them a surprise when the Qianqiu Sect leader and the others attack.”
Levi Garrison said quietly.

“Dad, the three saints are powerful. It is said that the female sect leader was easily defeated by him. We still have to act cautiously!”
Levilia said with some concern.
Wen Lei and others also agreed, and at the critical moment they heard that the Three Holy Sons had a detached status in the Taixu Shenzong.
Even if it can be defeated this time, there will be no less trouble in the follow-up.
“Brother, after all, we know too little about the Kunlun Ruins, and we can’t always be on the defensive. That would be too passive.”
“The Kunlun Ruins are like clouds. If we can enter it and develop, we can avoid this situation.”
Advertisement
“That’s right, now we lack a way to enter the Kunlun Ruins.”
Wen Lei and others also expressed their scruples.
Levi Garrison nodded slightly, he understood this feeling very well.
But Levi Garrison himself didn’t care. Through this confrontation, he could also understand the general strength of Kunlun Ruins’ cultivation.
Advertisement
Take the young master of the Cang Qiong faction as an example, with Zhou Nanyan and Wen Lei working together, they can stably control the situation.
As for other ordinary Tianjiao, Huoyun Evil God can fight alone, and can even abuse his opponent.
Moreover, with the new detector invented by God’s Brain, many super spiritual veins and even holy veins have been discovered one after another.
Therefore, even in the secular world, it is not a problem to improve the ability of one’s own personnel.
Of course, it would be better if you could enter the Kunlun Ruins. The key is that all the people related to the Kunlun Ruins are now enemies, and you can’t count on them at all.

“Don’t worry about these, no matter whether you can enter the Kunlun Ruins or not, improving your own strength is the most important thing.” Levi Garrison said solemnly: “God’s brain is still exploring the super spiritual veins. When we get through this crisis, our strength can continue to improve.”
In just two sentences, the restless hearts of several people were once again calmed down.
“Mr. Ye, what are you going to do with Xiao Feng?”
Advertisement
Ning Jinye asked suddenly.
Several other people also turned their attention after hearing the words. They all knew that Xiao Feng was the culprit in the assassination of Levi Garrison.
To be honest, Wen Lei and others also have very complicated feelings. You must know that Xiao Feng used to be Levi Garrison’s most valued apprentice.
Everyone gets along with each other very harmoniously, basically equivalent to relatives.
But since Gong Qianqiu came into existence, all this has changed, and even now Xiao Feng has stabbed Levi Garrison in the back.
It really feels incredible.
Why isn’t Levi Garrison’s mood complicated?
Kill Xiao Feng? I can’t bear it!
After all, it is a lover who is treated as a family member.
Forgive Xiao Feng? It is hard to calm the anger in my heart!
In particular, I am sorry for the apprentices, friends, and even family members who were killed and injured because of Xiao Feng.
However, when Levi Garrison was in a dilemma, Zoey Lopez’s slightly panicked voice came from outside.
“Jun Wenlei, come out quickly, Qianqiu taught them to call.”
Levi Garrison’s eyes narrowed slightly, and he said directly: “You go out to meet the enemy first, and we will talk about this later.”
Levilia and others nodded, quickly removed the energy restrictions outside, and several people quickly walked out.
As soon as I left the room, I saw Zoey Lopez and others, and I saw that everyone’s faces were ugly.

“The other party is too strong, especially the female sect leader and the arrogance of the Taixu Shenzong. Even the people of the Tianshen Division have suffered heavy casualties and have been withdrawn to the headquarters.”
Zoey Lopezyan said solemnly.
Wen Lei said solemnly: “Go out and meet the enemy! Staying is not the way to go, and morale will be greatly affected.”
Everyone felt that it was reasonable, and they took the elites of the base camp out to meet the enemy.
Xiao Feng, Phoenix and others followed.
For some reason, Xiao Feng felt an inexplicable panic.
Especially when Wen Lei and the others looked at him just now, they always felt that there was a deeper meaning.
But now the enemy is now, not the best time to find out.
“Levi Garrison, come out and die!”

At this moment, a charming voice came.
Although this voice was very charming, it was full of murderous aura.
“It’s abominable, knowing that the master (instructor) was seriously injured and said that on purpose.”
“We’re in trouble, this attack will be many times more terrifying than the Town Demon Division.”
There was a lot of discussion.
Advertisement
Xiao Feng was struck by lightning, because this voice was too familiar to him.
“Impossible, absolutely impossible!”
Xiao Feng quickened his pace, he had to determine whether that person was Gong Qianqiu.
Everyone quickly came to the outside of the base camp, and the two sides were fighting with each other, and the whole area was filled with a strong chill.

Advertisement
“Very good, I hope you can hold on for a longer time, otherwise it will be too boring to kill.”
Gong Qianqiu said jokingly.
Phoenix and others were the first to recognize Gong Qianqiu, with the look of ‘it’s really you’ on their faces.
“Gong Qianqiu, it really is you!”
“You scorpion-hearted woman must die!”
“Betraying the sect, bullying the master and destroying the ancestors, you are also a model of inhumanity and injustice.”
Phoenix and others couldn’t help but complain. They investigated too many evidences and all pointed to Gong Qianqiu, and now the dust has settled.
Zoey Lopez, Levilia and others were also quite surprised. It is one thing to investigate evidence and speculate, and it is another to confirm in person.
The mother and daughter then looked at Xiao Feng in unison.
Advertisement
“Xiao Feng, you attacked me because of this woman, but now you can finally see his true colors?”
Ning Jinye said coldly.
Xiao Feng didn’t react and lowered his head deeply, but everyone could clearly see that Xiao Feng’s body was shaking violently.
“Why… why? Why you?”
“Qianqiu, give me a reasonable explanation!”
Xiao Feng suddenly raised his head and looked at Gong Qianqiu’s direction with red eyes.
Gong Qianqiu said with a sneer: “A reasonable explanation? It’s very simple, just because you are too stupid!”
“Who do you think you are? You want to be favored by this sect master based on your little cultivation. It’s just a fool’s dream!” “Xiao Feng, I also want to thank you. If it wasn’t for the information you provided, I would have been caught by Levi Garrison.”
“By the way, if you hadn’t tipped off in advance, Yufeng Tiansi might have been on the line with Levi Garrison long ago."

"The most important thing is that you backstabbed Levi Garrison for me, which is a big help for this sect master."
Gong Qianqiu's words were like a sharp blade, stabbing in Xiao Feng's heart.
"Impossible, it's impossible!"
"I don't believe it, Qianqiu, you're lying to me, aren't you? Also, it was the master who almost killed you before."
"How can you be the leader of Qianqiu Sect?"
Xiao Feng was puzzled.
"Because that's what I pretended to be, and that Levi Garrison was also pretending to be Duguxiao, and he didn't do anything to me at all."
"Again, if you hadn't seen it with your own eyes, how could you possibly kill Levi Garrison?"
Gong Qianqiu said jokingly.
"No, it's not real, I must be dreaming."
Xiao Feng completely collapsed. It turned out that all this was a play played by Gong Qianqiu and Duguxiao.
Recalling the past, especially the love words Gong Qianqiu said to him, Xiao Feng only felt a burst of irony.
Recalling that Phoenix and others have persuaded him to stay away from Gong Qianqiu many times, he not only turned a deaf ear, but also fought against them later.
Recalling how Master Levi Garrison took care of him, he was almost sent to the gate of hell by himself.
"Ahhh!"
Xiao Feng was too remorseful and shouted up to the sky, his whole person's spirit fell into collapse.
Pfft!
Xiao Feng knelt down on the ground, like a walking corpse, with empty eyes.

“Hahaha!”
Gong Qianqiu couldn’t help laughing out loud, she really enjoyed the feeling of completely controlling a person.
“Xiao Feng, don’t regret it, after the meeting, the sect master will send you to hell together.”
“You can repent with Levi Garrison at that time.”
“Is this sect master kind enough?”
Gong Qianqiu said sadly.
Advertisement
Gong Qianqiu’s words were like a heavy hammer, hitting everyone’s heart hard.
“It turns out that there are so many hidden secrets, no wonder Xiao Feng is obsessed with assassinating the boss.”
“It seems that what we have detected is the tip of the iceberg!”
“Especially the previous guesses are basically true, this Gong Qianqiu is really hateful.”
Advertisement
The shock in the hearts of Phoenix and the others could not be further increased.
It is one thing to investigate the situation, and it is another thing to admit that Gong Qianqiu himself.
“Gong Wenqian was also killed by her. The key point is that Xiao Feng unconsciously took the blame.”
“The rubbish that deceives teachers and destroys ancestors is really inhuman.”
“But then again, Gong Qianqiu was so weak at the time that he could play people in the palm of his hand, which would be too terrifying!” Zoey Lopez was also extremely shocked. When he glanced at Xiao Feng again, he found that the latter was like a corpse that had completely lost its vitality.
“how so?”
“I was deceived so badly, and I was willing to do things for this devil.”
“Even to assassinate my master who treats me like a family member, I’m a sin that deserves death!”
Advertisement

Xiao Feng felt extremely regretful.
Azure Dragon and others once reminded themselves to stay away from Gong Qianqiu's words echoed in their ears.
"Gong Qianqiu is not a good woman, you'd better stay away from her, or you will be harmed by her sooner or later."
"Gong Qianqiu is the leader of Qianqiu Sect, why don't you believe it?"
"Xiao Feng, you are hopeless."
……
Xiao Feng felt that his head was about to explode.
Endless remorse filled his heart, Xiao Feng felt that his life was unnecessary.
"Phoenix, Azure Dragon , Jinye, I'm sorry!"
"Master, Levilia, I'm sorry."
"Master, the one I'm most sorry for is you, I can only apologize with death."
After making up his mind, Xiao Feng suddenly raised his right hand and hit his temple.
Bang!
Just when Xiao Feng's palm was about to touch his skin, he suddenly felt that his arm was tightly clasped.
Looking up, he saw an extremely pale face.
"Master… Master?"
Xiao Feng said incredulously.
Levi Garrison said solemnly: "Death is the simplest thing, but it is also a coward."
When Levi Garrison let go of his hand, Xiao Feng's body seemed to be drained in an instant, and he slumped to the ground, crying with a low head.
"The boss is here!"
"Didn't you see Master's face! He should be holding on!"
There was a lot of discussion, but also increased confidence.
Although Levi Garrison doesn't look good at the moment, as long as he is in charge, everyone seems to have the backbone.
Even if the jade is burnt, there is nothing to fear.
"Levi Garrison, I didn't think your life would be tough, but it won't last long, right?"
Gong Qianqiu said jokingly.

Her words were both a temptation and what she thought in her heart. After all, Levi Garrison's face was ugly, and it was exactly the same as the state of the poison of the gods.
Obviously holding on.
"Now there are tens of thousands of elites on our side, and there are many powerhouses in the Taixu Shenzong. Don't think about any of you or leave today."
Gong Qianqiu said condensedly.
"What can you do to me?" Levi Garrison said with a relaxed face.
Gong Qianqiu was stunned. She suddenly found that Levi Garrison, Wen Lei, Zhou Nanyan and the others had flat faces and showed no signs of fear.
It was in stark contrast to the nervous expressions on the faces of Zoey Lopez and other elites in the base camp.
"These people are too calm, aren't they?"

Gong Qianqiu was quite dissatisfied. In her imagination, this group of people should be so frightened that their hearts were split.
How did she know that the strength of Levi Garrison and others had greatly improved, and they were not afraid of facing the powerhouses of the Taixu Shenzong.
In the face of absolute strength, any conspiracy and tricks are useless.
Especially Wen Lei, Zhou Nanyan and Huoyun Evil God, they even fought against the sky powerhouse.
They have a certain understanding of the so-called great powers of these Kunlun Ruins sects, and their own strength is not even weaker than the other party, which makes them more confident.
Take the people standing in front of them, except for Gong Qianqiu and the three holy sons, the others, Wen Lei, really didn't see them in their eyes.
Advertisement
There are even a few Taixu Shenzong Tianjiao who do not have Xie Huanyu and Xie Yunzong, the young masters of the Cang Qiong faction.

What's more, Levi Garrison cheated and hurt Wen Lei and other people well aware of it.
Although I don't know how terrifying Levi Garrison's strength is, he will definitely not be weaker than Gong Qianqiu and Sanshengzi.
Therefore, Wen Lei and others can be said to have nothing to fear.
Advertisement
"What happened to these people?"
Gong Qianqiu was puzzled.
Judging by Xiao Feng's reaction, the information passed on before was definitely not adulterated, especially Levi Garrison's state also shows that his poisoning has not healed.
But this calm doesn't seem to be pretending.
"Levi Garrison, let your people be captured, and this sect master can let you live."
Gong Qianqiu said condensedly.
Levi Garrison said with a smile: "Gong Qianqiu, don't try it. If you have the ability, just attack, don't talk nonsense."
"you……"
Gong Qianqiu was dismantled on the spot and immediately felt that his face was damaged.
Advertisement
However, she acted extremely cautiously in the end, and felt that there were still hidden dangers in rushing to make a move before it was fully discussed and investigated.
"Don't think that you are invincible by defeating the scumbags of the Cang Qiong faction.
Today, I will let you know what is called a natural moat in terms of strength."
Gong Qianqiu said coldly.
Levi Garrison was still unmoved, and said indifferently, "I will accompany you to the end."
Gong Qianqiu was a little anxious for a moment.
She has always taken pleasure in playing others with applause, but now Levi Garrison is completely out of control.
And looking at her state, it seems that everything is under control, but she is unpredictable.
"Don't talk nonsense with him, except that kid, kill everyone else."

The Three Holy Sons couldn't stand it any longer, and gave an order directly.
"Follow the orders of the Son."
Gong Qianqiu naturally did not dare to disobey the order of the three saints, and then waved to his subordinates and said solemnly: "Kill!" Qianqiu Sect and the masters of the Taixu Shenzong immediately started to fight, and the two sides immediately scuffled together.
"Levi Garrison, this sect leader will kill you with his own hands today."
Gong Qianqiu said murderously.
Even if Levi Garrison is seriously injured now, Gong Qianqiu will kill Levi Garrison with his own hands.
Especially when she recalled that when she was still weak and almost died at the hands of Levi Garrison, Gong Qianqiu was even more furious.
"what!"
Before Levi Garrison could react, he suddenly heard a roar from a distance.
Immediately, the figure flashed, and it was a palm directly aimed at Gong Qianqiu's face.
Xiao Feng!
Gong Qianqiu frowned, he didn't think that Xiao Feng would suddenly attack at this time, this guy was actually beaten down?
"Gong Qianqiu, you lied to me for so long, I'm going to kill you!"
Xiao Feng's eyes were red, like a wild beast, and his palms were even stronger than in the heyday.
"Waste, with your strength, would you be embarrassed to show shame?"
Gong Qianqiu's face was full of disdain, and he did not dodge in the slightest, and slapped a palm in the direction of Xiao Feng's attack.
Xiao Feng couldn't dodge in time, and instantly felt a majestic force hit.
Bang!
Xiao Feng flew out like a broken thread, and finally fell heavily to the ground.

In the face of Gong Qianqiu's provocation, Levi Garrison was naturally not afraid at all, and even said that he had long been looking forward to this battle.
Gong Qianqiu played a lot of forces all by himself. He wanted to see how strong this scheming female leader can be?
"Levi Garrison, die!"
Before the words fell, Gong Qianqiu's figure had disappeared in place.
In the next moment, he appeared in front of Levi Garrison, his palm wrapped in rich black energy.
Chi Chi Chi!
Advertisement
The area near the black energy was strongly corroded, and an extremely pungent unpleasant smell appeared in the void.
"Poison Palm?"
Levi Garrison didn't mean to avoid it at all, he just wanted to test Gong Qianqiu's strength.
Bang!
Advertisement
The palm winds of the two collided in the void, making a deafening muffled sound.
The violent energy aftermath also spreads rapidly from the contact point of the two palms to the surrounding.
"So strong!"
Gong Qianqiu's eyes were slightly condensed, and he instantly felt the extremely powerful anti-shock force.
The whole person flew out backwards.
"You pretended that your serious injury didn't heal?"
After being shaken back more than ten feet, Gong Qianqiu's figure was stable.
Of course, Gong Qianqiu did not suffer any substantial damage, but Levi Garrison's combat power far exceeded her expectations.
Obviously, he has been poisoned by the poison of the gods, and he should be instantly killed by himself.
Advertisement
How can you easily defuse your attack?

Gong Qianqiu was puzzled.
“Perhaps he was at the end of the shot just now?”
“And reluctant support is to bluff and give confidence to the members of the base camp.”
“It must be so!”
“It was just a warm-up just now, Levi Garrison, the next moment is your death.”
In fact, Gong Qianqiu didn’t lie to a certain extent, because she didn’t exert all her strength just now, even only five successes.
After all, in her opinion, when Levi Garrison was poisoned, five successes were enough.
The violent palm wind whistled out, as if to shred the space of this area.
“Good come!”
Levi Garrison still did not dodge and let Gong Qianqiu’s attack keep approaching.
Bang!
The two sides faced each other again.
The energy that erupted this time was several times more terrifying than before.
Gong Qianqiu was shaken back again, but Levi Garrison stood still.
“how can that be?”
Gong Qianqiu’s face was full of incredible colors.
She really can’t understand, she has clearly exerted the power of eight successes, and even Levi Garrison’s figure has not been shaken?
Did the poisoning make him stronger?
“Come again!”
Gong Qianqiu felt that his face was lost, and the anger in his chest was increasing exponentially.
“you wanna die!”
Gong Qianqiu went completely berserk, and this time he didn’t have any hold, and launched an attack with all his strength.
For a time, the sky and the earth changed color, and a terrifying cyclone was formed between the black energy circulation, and the surrounding space seemed to be twisted and twisted.
The sound of the cyclone was like a ghost crying and wolf howling, which made people shudder.

“That’s what it looks like!”
A strong fighting spirit rose in Levi Garrison’s heart.
The attacks of the two sides collided head-on again, and the energy aftermath that erupted was like a tsunami.
In an instant, sand and rocks flew, the entire area was ravaged by energy, and the branches of trees were twisted into pieces in an instant.
Some personnel with relatively low cultivation bases were directly swept away, and they were instantly shaken out of internal injuries.
Many people even died on the spot.
Seeing Gong Qianqiu taking a few steps back in the field, the shock on his face could not be concealed.
And Levi Garrison was still standing in the same place and did not move.
“Now it’s my turn to attack, are you ready to die?”
Levi Garrison said in a very cold tone.
After taking Gong Qianqiu’s three palms in a row, Levi Garrison has tested her approximate strength.
Gong Qianqiu’s face became particularly dignified, and there was a faint hunch in his heart.

Out of the corner of their eyes, the others glanced at them. Except for the Three Holy Sons, who were watching from the sidelines, everyone else was in a hard fight.
Especially the ordinary Tianjiao of Taixu Shenzong have been completely suppressed.
Only Xue Pengzhan and Huoyun Evil God had a slight advantage in the battlefield.
And this slight advantage was slowly wiped out over time.
“It’s no wonder that those people in the sky sent and Tiansi returned home, so their strength is so powerful?”
“But how exactly did they do it?”
Advertisement
“It should have been significantly improved in the recent period, otherwise everyone would never have been hiding in the base camp and couldn't hold on to it."

Gong Qianqiu was puzzled.
"You dare to wander at such a time?"
An icy voice sounded after itself, instantly making Gong Qianqiu come back to his senses.
Advertisement
Out of her instinct for danger warning, she directly urged the exercise to avoid it, and the place she was standing had turned into an afterimage.
Boom!
The bluestone standing before Gong Qianqiu instantly turned into a powder.
"Hide quite fast!"
Levi Garrison did not give Gong Qianqiu a chance to breathe, and continued to attack.
With three palms in a row, the violent palm wind seemed to completely cover the entire area, leaving Gong Qianqiu nowhere to hide.
In desperation, he could only push Qi Ji to conduct a frontal resistance.
However, facing the overwhelming energy coverage, Gong Qianqiu already felt a little powerless.
"Saint Son, save me!"
Advertisement
Barely resisting Levi Garrison's three consecutive palms, Gong Qianqiu finally asked Sanshengzi for help.
The figure of the three saints appeared like a ghost in front of Gong Qianqiu, and he had been paying attention to the whole battle just now.
He never thought that Levi Garrison's strength was so powerful, and Gong Qianqiu's strength also surprised him.
Because the battle power that Gong Qianqiu burst out in the final stage can almost catch up with himself, even if there is a gap, it is not very big.
"It seems that when Gong Qianqiu was tested before, she still had reservations!"
Sanshengzi thought to himself, but he also had a unique trick that he did not use.
Therefore, the Three Holy Sons were only a little surprised, and still had absolute confidence in controlling the entire situation.

“Master’s poisoning can actually suppress Gong Qianqiu?”
“As expected of the boss!”
“Mr. Ye is too powerful, but facing the Three Saints and Gong Qianqiu at the same time, I’m afraid there will be danger!”
The unsuspecting members of the base camp turned from an uplifted spirit at the beginning to a state of anxiety and worry.
After all, all other battles are now firmly occupying the advantage.
Even the Huoyun Evil God, who was faintly at first, gradually stabilized the situation through a protracted battle, and was in a position between equals.
Therefore, Levi Garrison is the only one who can really control the direction of the battle.
Once Levi Garrison is defeated, the victory that the base camp finally achieved will collapse in an instant.
Almost everyone was extremely nervous. After all, in their perception, Levi Garrison was poisoned!
“It seems that you used some special technique to control the spread of the poison of the gods.”
Gong Qianqiu said solemnly: “But you forgot, once you activate the exercise to release the Qi, then the poison of the gods will permeate and spread to the heart, and even if the Golden Immortal Daluo comes, it will be difficult for you to stay for a while. “ “Really? How did you know I must have been poisoned?”
Levi Garrison asked back with a smile.
Gong Qianqiu was slightly startled, then his pupils shrank suddenly, and even looked at Levi Garrison in horror.
“Is it all your plan?”
Gong Qianqiu suddenly had a hint of fear.
At this moment, the three saints sneered and said, “Levi Garrison, what if you are not poisoned?”
“With this seat and the master of the palace, do you think you can still live today?”

“yes?”
Levi Garrison said quietly: “Since that’s the case, then let you see Lao Tzu’s true strength.

“How much real strength can you have…”
The last word ‘strong’ of the Three Holy Sons was swallowed by him before he could say it.
Seeing that Levi Garrison suddenly released an extremely terrifying energy coercion.
Because this power is too terrifying, it directly caused the energy imbalance in this area.
Boom!
The world began to vibrate violently.
Advertisement
The surrounding trees and rocks were suddenly twisted into powder by the powerful airflow.
With Levi Garrison’s body as the center, a huge energy vortex is formed.
The surrounding aura also seemed to have received a huge suction force and quickly poured into Levi Garrison’s body.
On the other hand, Levi Garrison’s body exudes brilliant golden light, like a god coming into the world, and his gestures reveal a majesty that makes people willing to surrender.
Advertisement
As for the sickness on Levi Garrison’s face before, it was swept away in an instant.
The golden glow of the cheeks flowed, and there was a faint verve.
In particular, those eyes shot out two fierce divine beams, which made people dare not look directly.
“This…how is this possible?”
Gong Qianqiu couldn’t believe everything in front of him.
The poison of the gods is completely ineffective?
The key is how could Levi Garrison’s strength be so strong? How long has it been since the last time!
Moreover, according to the information provided by Xiao Feng, it is impossible for Levi

Garrison's basic exercises to improve his cultivation in a short period of time, and only longterm cultivation can be effective.
Gong Qianqiu's face gradually turned from surprise to horror.
Advertisement
The fear in my heart is rising rapidly.
Due to Levi Garrison's terrifying changes, other battles also stopped one after another, and all eyes were focused on the three of them.
"Levi Garrison is so strong?"
"How can such a clan's blood vengeance be avenged?"
Duguxiao and Xuan Ming's expressions also changed greatly. They originally had a blood feud and wanted to slaughter Levi Garrison and his relatives and friends to relieve their hatred.
Now that Levi Garrison's combat power has soared, the battle situation has become unclear
in an instant.
"Father, what shall we do now?"
Duguxiao asked through voice transmission.
Xuan Ming pondered for a moment and responded: "Look at it again, the three saints and Gong Qianqiu join forces, they should be able to defeat Levi Garrison, right?"
Even if Xuan Ming didn't realize it himself, he was seriously lacking in confidence when he said this.
The father and son put all their hopes of revenge on Gong Qianqiu and the three holy sons.
I kept praying in my heart that they could defeat Levi Garrison.
As for the other Taixu Shenzong Tianjiao, they were completely shocked. They never imagined that there would be such a strong person as Levi Garrison in the secular world.
"This kind of cultivation can be ranked even in the Kunlun Ruins, right?"
"It's more than the number one ranking. Even in some medium-sized sects, it is at least the core elder level, or even higher."
"How on earth did he cultivate? Can the Three Holy Sons and the others win?"

Xue Pengzhan and several Tianjiao felt uneasy in their hearts. Since entering the secular world, this is the first time they have felt fear.
Especially thinking that the Cang Qiong faction only killed two Tianjiao not long ago, the mood of several people sank to the bottom, and they took a few steps back unconsciously.
One is happy and one is sad.
Everyone in the base camp was in high spirits, and the elites who were still a little depressed were full of confidence at this moment.
"Are you okay with King's Landing?"
Zoey Lopez's shock and consternation at the beginning gradually turned into excitement and joy, and finally turned into a trace of resentment and anger.
She is a very smart woman, recalling her daughter's abnormality, Zhou Nanyan, Wenlei and others were calm at that time.
Zoey Lopez was almost certain that these people must have known in advance that Levi Garrison was not poisoned.
He even knew Levi Garrison's strength for a long time, so he was so calm and calm, and in turn comforted himself.
"Levi Garrison, wait and see how I will deal with you when the time comes?"
Zoey Lopez thought angrily.
"Boss is so strong?"
"This momentum has completely crushed Gong Qianqiu and the others."

"The key is how did the boss get rid of the poison?"
Phoenix and the others were also excited.
Although Zhou Nanyan, Wen Lei and others showed extremely powerful combat power
before.
However, Phoenix and others are not optimistic in the face of the powerhouses like Sanshengzi and Gong Qianqiu.
However, now that King Levi Garrison has returned, the situation is completely different.

“Master, is he… okay?”
Advertisement
Xiao Feng also woke up at the moment, but his breath was very weak.
Gong Qianqiu’s palm directly seriously injured him.
“That’s great, Master is fine.”
Xiao Feng changed from the initial shock to joy, and the guilt in his heart was slightly reduced.
Advertisement
But then Xiao Feng was extremely puzzled. At that time, he clearly stabbed the Wanjun short blade into the master’s body.
Later, Master’s worse and worse situation is still vivid in my mind. Why is there suddenly nothing?
“Xiao Feng, you bastard dare to lie to me!”
“This sect will mainly burn you to ashes.”
Gong Qianqiu changed from initial shock and doubt to final anger.
She felt that Xiao Feng and Levi Garrison had deceived her.
This made Gong Qianqiu, who always took pleasure in playing with others, very unhappy.
“Gong Qianqiu, Xiao Feng didn’t lie to you, it’s just that you were clever but mistaken by wisdom.”
“I have long noticed that Xiao Feng has murderous intentions towards me, so I just decided to do it.”

“I haven’t been hurt from the beginning to the end, how about this, are you satisfied with this surprise?”
Levi Garrison said jokingly.
“what?”
Gong Qianqiu was shocked again, and at the same time, there was an unprecedented sense of frustration in his heart.
“The boss is mighty!”
“Teacher’s ingenuity is unparalleled!”
“We finally fought a turnaround.”
Everyone in the base camp suddenly realized that they were in high spirits again.
Levi Garrison has never let them down.

“Since you are here, just stay completely!”
“Leave none, kill!”
Levi Garrison ordered a counterattack, and immediately took the lead in fighting against Gong Qianqiu and the Three Saints.
The prestige was shaken, and the others were also high-spirited, and they launched a collective charge without fear of death.
The scene was suddenly chaotic, and there were sounds of fighting everywhere.
“I don’t believe that you, a monkey in the secular world, can be so strong!”
The Three Holy Sons did not dodge, but threw a punch against Levi Garrison’s attack.
I have to say that the three saints still have two brushes, and the fist style is strong and powerful, not weaker than Gong Qianqiu’s full-strength strike, or even worse.
“To Lao Tzu, break it!”
Levi Garrison gave a low drink, and also punched out.
Two powerful energies collided in one place in the void, making a deafening terrifying sound.
The giant fist that the three holy sons used to transform into energy shattered in an instant.
And Levi Garrison’s energy giant fist has not diminished in the slightest, and continues to approach the body of the three holy sons with the momentum of destroying the dead.
It was as if a ferocious beast opened its bloody mouth, intending to swallow the whole of the three saints into its belly.
“So strong!”
Sanshengzi’s pupils shrank, he didn’t think that his fist strength would collapse with a single blow.
Unprepared, the three saints had to run the defense technique, and the layers of defense energy shields broke out.
At the same time, the three saints quickly stepped back.
Clap clap!
The energy shield suddenly shattered.

The fist strength has only been reduced by nearly 20%, and the remaining strength is still like a maggot in the tarsus, continuing to track the direction of the three saints' retreat.
After repeating this several times, his fist strength was exhausted.
However, the body of the Three Holy Sons was also hit by the aftermath.
Bang!
The three holy sons flew out straight upside down.
It can be clearly seen that his shoulders are sunken, and there is a faint sound of broken bones.
"hateful!"
Sanshengzi wiped the blood from the corners of his mouth, and a piercing pain came from his shoulders.
He just wanted to take a pill for repair, but Levi Garrison obviously didn't plan to give him a chance to adjust his breath.
"Danger!"
The Three Holy Sons only felt a strong aura of death approaching rapidly.

"Holy Son, be careful!"
Xue Pengzhan reminded loudly.
At the same time, the two Tianjiao of the Taixu Shenzong who were close to each other quickly shot and intercepted the three saints and Levi Garrison.
"Oops, go back!"
The eyelids of the three saints and the light glanced behind them, and the golden fists bloomed faintly, already shrouding the two geniuses.
puff puff!
Advertisement
Two groups of blood mist burst out, and the two Tianjiao died before they even had time to speak.
However, they finally slowed down the speed of Levi Garrison's attack a little, and gave the Three Saints a chance.
"Levi Garrison, this seat will smash your corpse into ten thousand pieces!"

The three saints were furious, and because the left shoulder was severely injured, he had to reluctantly stretch out his right hand and draw out the ancient bronze sword.
Advertisement
The piercing sword glow caught people's eyes.
sizzle!
There was a constant sound of sucking cold air at the scene.
Gong Qianqiu finally came back to her senses. Seeing that two Taixu Shenzong Tianjiao died in an instant, she felt a strong sense of fear from the bottom of her heart.
"Master Gong, now is not the time to be stunned, you and I have a chance to win together."
The three holy sons sound transmission.
Gong Qianqiu nodded and responded: "What the Holy Son said is very true. Next, I will be mainly responsible for attacking the left wing."
"it is good!"
The three holy sons and Miya Chiaki quickly made a challenge plan.
Advertisement
"Tai Xu Sword Art!"
The three saints urged the superior swordsmanship of the sect, and saw layers of sword energy suddenly appear from the bronze ancient sword.
It quickly condensed into a near-substantial long sword shape in the void, and in the end it was several feet long and wide.
"go!"
The three holy sons waved their arms, and the giant sword that the huge sword gas transformed into instantly transformed into countless small sword shapes.
Each short blade of sword energy is about the size of an ordinary dagger, and it surrounds
Levi Garrison from all directions, giving Levi Garrison no space to escape at all.
Chi Chi Chi!
"Levi Garrison, go to hell!"
At the same time, Gong Qianqiu also waved his arms continuously.
The violent energy turned into layers of palm shadows, overwhelmingly smashing towards Levi Garrison's position.

I have to say that the two cooperated seamlessly, and the terrifying energy pressure made the rest of the people shudder.
Wen Lei, Zhou Nanyan and others were worried about Levi Garrison's injury, so they planned to step forward to help.
"None of you come here, I will deal with these two by myself."
Levi Garrison's tone was decisive, and there was no room for negotiation.
Everyone stopped and no one moved rashly.
Of course, Levi Garrison is by no means arrogant. In the face of the joint attack of Sanshengzi and Gong Qianqiu, even if others come forward to help, it is of little significance.
It may even be seriously injured because of the difference in strength, which distracts Levi
Garrison.
It's better for him to deal with it by himself, but he can completely use his fists without any scruples.
"Good come!"
Levi Garrison was awe-inspiring, quickly running the basic exercises, and layers of energy shields carrying golden halos appeared around his body.
Clang!
Clang!
Clang!
The air blade kept hitting the energy shield, and it actually made a very harsh symphony of gold.
However, this air blade attack like a violent storm just broke through the outermost energy shield, and the energy has been dissipated.
Even with Gong Qianqiu's palm wind attack, Levi Garrison's clothes were still not touched.
"Is that all you have the patience for?"
Levi Garrison's playful voice sounded: "The three holy sons of Taixu Shenzong are just like this."
despise!
Scarlet contempt!
The blue veins on Sanshengzi's forehead collapsed, and his teeth creaked.

Even within the Taixu Shenzong, the three holy sons are highly respected, when have they suffered such humiliation?
"Levi Garrison, you are so arrogant! There is still a trick in this seat, you just wait to die!"
The Three Holy Sons were resolute again, and the ancient bronze sword came out of his hand.
The ancient sword was suspended in the void and turned over quickly, and the surrounding spiritual energy continued to pour into the ancient sword.
Buzz!
As the spiritual energy of heaven and earth continued to pour in, the ancient bronze sword vibrated slightly and made a low sound.

"The spiritual energy in the secular world is really lacking, and it is impossible to gather too much spiritual energy in a short period of time for the use of sword art."
The three saints were a little depressed, and had to urge the infuriating energy in the body to inject the ancient sword, in order to increase the strength of the ancient sword and the sword.
Gong Qianqiu is also not idle, urging extreme swallowing exercises, and the whole person has been wrapped in rich black energy.
Immediately, it turned into a black air blade with a length of several meters, as if the power was too terrifying, and the surrounding void seemed to be slightly distorted.
Chi Chi!
The terrifying corrosiveness of the black air blade is obviously highly poisonous, and some people with lower cultivation bases are simply dizzy when they are simply smoked by the poisonous air.
Advertisement
"kill!"

As the three saints shouted violently, the two attacked at the same time again.
Seeing that the three saints seemed to be integrated with the ancient bronze sword, the sword in both hands was like an arrow from the string, and it shot directly at Levi Garrison's heart.
Gong Qianqiu held a black energy blade in his hand and slashed at Levi Garrison's neck.
Advertisement
Both of them were extremely fast, and they arrived in the blink of an eye.
"It barely looks like it!"
The corners of Levi Garrison's mouth rose slightly, and he could feel that the two had used their power to the extreme.
This is basically their strongest attack.
Levi Garrison not only did not dodge, but rushed towards the attack of the two.
"Receiving the air blade attack of this seat with your bare hands? Levi Garrison, you are courting death!"
The three saints were furious, and he never thought that Levi Garrison would be so arrogant.
Even in the face of such an attack, his master would avoid his edge to be on the safe side.
"Damn, Levi Garrison, you look down on people too much."
Advertisement
Gong Qianqiu is also furious, this is almost her strongest attack, Levi Garrison is actually ready to fight with bare hands?
However, in the next moment, both of them were a little dumbfounded.
Seeing Levi Garrison's hands pop out, he actually caught their attack abruptly.
"how can that be?"
Sanshengzi and Gong Qianqiu both felt incredible.
Because no matter how hard they attacked, they still couldn't get in.
The energy shield around Levi Garrison's palm was slowly pierced several layers, but he still couldn't touch his skin.
The three parties just froze in mid-air.
"Break it to me!"

After a while, Levi Garrison shouted loudly, and the violent energy burst out, spreading rapidly from the palm of his hand to the surroundings.
Clap clap!
Gong Qianqiu's black energy blade light shattered first.
And she herself was finally unable to resist the pressure of energy, and was blown away by the earthquake.
puff!
During the rapid retreat, Gong Qianqiu couldn't hold back a mouthful of blood.
The three saints were not much stronger, but they persisted for a while longer than Gong
Qianqiu.
The outer sword gang was completely shattered by the power that Levi Garrison burst out.
And the ancient bronze sword was finally overwhelmed and shattered into several pieces.
Bang!
The three holy sons were also shaken and flew a dozen feet away, and fell heavily to the ground.
Crushed with bare hands!
A chilling chill spread from the top of Gong Qianqiu and Sanshengzi's heads to the soles of their feet.
Both of them showed horror and fear in their eyes.
"Even if it's pure body cultivation, isn't it too scary?"
Gong Qianqiu swallowed hard.
Peeking at the three holy sons, he saw that the latter's face was pale and his body was trembling slightly.
The blood on the corner of his mouth was particularly dazzling, and it was obvious that he also suffered serious internal injuries.
"My sword!"
The Three Holy Sons are heartbroken, this is one of the few treasured swords in the sect, and it has been crushed to pieces in the secular world.
When I return to Taixu Shenzong, how should I explain to my master?
Wait… This issue should be considered after the real escape!
"Get out!"

Gong Qianqiu and Sanshengzi burst out with strong escape thoughts at the same time.
"Qianqiu Cult Dead Corps, cover the retreat of this leader."
Before he finished speaking, hundreds of black-clothed dead men rushed forward without fear of death.
Xue Pengzhan and another Taixu Shenzong Tianjiao also rushed over to protect the three saints.

"kill!"
Levi Garrison suddenly released the Qi machine, and the terrifying energy coercion spread out.
The figures of those who rushed up to protect the master were slightly sluggish for a moment.
Bang bang bang!
Blood mist continued to burst out in the field, and in an instant, dozens of Qianqiu's dead soldiers died in Huangquan.
However, the spirits of these people have long been completely controlled by Gong Qianqiu. Although their companions died tragically, they were still not afraid and continued to swarm up.
Advertisement
The members of the base camp finally recovered and rushed over to help.
Although the strength of the Qianqiu Cult deceased was very different from that of Levi Garrison, they had a numerical advantage, which delayed Levi Garrison's attack a little.
This also created an escape opportunity for Gong Qianqiu and others.
"Go away!"
Advertisement
Levi Garrison has been staring at Sanshengzi and Gong Qianqiu.
After quickly finishing the death of several Qianqiu priests in front of him, Levi Garrison wanted to step away to chase and kill the two of them.
However, suddenly two figures stopped in front.

“If you want to kill the Holy Son, let’s pass our level first!”
Two Taixu Shenzong Tianjiao obstructed.
Of course they knew that they were not Levi Garrison’s opponents, but if they escaped at the moment, they would be chased by the Three Saints and even the entire Taixu Shenzong in the future.
So they rushed forward bravely, hoping to hold Levi Garrison at the expense of injury for even a moment.
“Since you are courting death, I will definitely succeed.”
Levi Garrison didn’t hold back any hands, and threw two punches directly.
Advertisement
The two Taixu Shenzong Tianjiao tried their best to resist, but they were instantly enveloped in fists and turned into powder.
Spike!
Levi Garrison didn’t hesitate at all, and planned to continue chasing Gong Qianqiu and Sanshengzi.
However, it was just this moment’s effort that countless Qianqiu taught the black-clothed dead men to charge up.
Even though Levi Garrison was able to kill in seconds, he was indeed dragged down, especially because there were more Qianqiu Cultists rushing to kill members of the base camp.
It is possible to ignore it and continue to chase and kill, but the members of the base camp will probably suffer heavy casualties.
Naturally, Levi Garrison would not see this happen, and had no choice but to stay behind.
Kill as many Qianqiu Cultists as possible to reduce the pressure on the rest of the base camp.
With the addition of Levi Garrison, a top-level combat force, the balance of the entire battle situation tilted towards the base camp.
Moreover, the reason why the Qianqiu Sect was in a stalemate just now was because of the numerical superiority. Levi Garrison joined the battle group and directly killed these sectarians to throw away their armor and armor.

Coupled with the fact that Gong Qianqiu fled at the front of the battle, Qianqiu taught the crowd without a leader and lost their will to fight.
"Kill, don't let Qianqiu Sect have a chance to revive."
Under Levi Garrison's order, the members of the base camp and their affiliated forces fought back across the board.
Qianqiu Jiao retreated and suffered heavy casualties.
The eighty students led by Zhantian Shensi and Ning Jinye were brilliant, killing Qianqiu's disciples to cry.
In less than two hours, everyone drove the Qianqiu sect members and vassal forces back dozens of miles in all directions.
Levi Garrison led the crowd to a great victory.
And this message quickly spread to all corners of the world.
Especially the many remnants of the forces that were suppressed by Levi Garrison before, all wanted to see the joke of Levi Garrison's side being destroyed.
"Levi Garrison's strength is too strong, and even the Kunlun Ruins can be defeated."
"You can't provoke Levi Garrison in the future. It is said that the four Kunlun Ruins powerhouses were all killed by Levi Garrison with one punch. The strength is simply too abnormal."
"The forces of the Qianqiu Sect level have ended in fiasco, let's hurry up and find a place to hide!"
Many forces have been hiding, for fear that watching the hot coax will anger Levi Garrison, which will lead to death.
On the other hand, Levi Garrison and the others did not stop, and continued to pursue the victory, slaughtering the rest of the Qianqiu Sect.
the other side.
Qianqiu Church General Altar.
Gong Qianqiu and others fled back in embarrassment, and the blood in the body was still violently surging.

If there is no panacea to maintain, Gong Qianqiu's internal injury may have been out of control.
In Taixu Shenzong, only Xuan Ming, Sanshengzi and Xue Pengzhan escaped.
The remaining four Taixu Shenzong Tianjiao died in Huangquan in order to cover the retreat of everyone.
"Bastards, monkeys in the secular world, this seat will kill you all."
The Three Holy Sons had already reached the point of despair.
Especially thinking that the ancient bronze sword that Master passed on to him was crushed by Levi Garrison's bare hands, the Three Holy Sons became even more depressed.
Advertisement
"How can I explain this to the master!"
Sanshengzi was extremely annoyed, the blood in his chest surged again, and there was blood overflowing from the corners of his mouth.
He hurriedly threw a few pills into his mouth, and the churning blood was barely quelled.
Xuan Ming and Xue Pengzhan were also stunned, and they didn't have the arrogance and arrogance they used to be.
Advertisement
In particular, recalling the scene where Levi Garrison smashed his companion with a punch, Xue Pengzhan had lingering fears, and even his back spine shivered with chills.
"Qianqiu, hurry up and pack your things and leave here with me."
"With Qianqiu teaching those so-called dead men, there is no way to stop Levi Garrison."
"It is estimated that they will kill them soon."
Sanshengzi urged, and by the way handed Gong Qianqiu a few medicinal pills.
Although I couldn't catch Levilia as a cultivation seedling, Gong Qianqiu's talent is also very good.

In particular, Gong Qianqiu's own combat strength is not bad, and taking her can also be prepared for emergencies, after all, Levi Garrison may kill him at any time.
At that time, with Gong Qianqiu's assistance from the side, the probability of escape can also be greatly improved.
"As ordered!"
Advertisement
Gong Qianqiu once again showed a respectful attitude.
She knew very well that her only hope was the Three Holy Sons, and only by firmly hugging the thigh of the Taixu Shenzong could she save her life in return.
Gong Qianqiu quickly packed up the valuable belongings, and at the same time selected hundreds of confidants and elites to escape with the three saints.
Of course, the most important thing is the divine robbery. Gong Qianqiu disguised the divine robbery well behind his back. This is his biggest reliance on the Taixu Shenzong to gain a firm foothold.
"Master Bone, have you prepared all the medicines ready?"
Before leaving, Gong Qianqiu asked in a deep voice.
"everything's ready."
Master Bone continued gloomily: "Don't worry, Sect Master, you will definitely give Levi Garrison a surprise to them."
"Very good, we withdraw!"
Gong Qianqiu nodded with satisfaction, and then followed Sanshengzi and others to evacuate the main altar non-stop.
In fact, it didn't take long for Gong Qianqiu and the others to escape, Levi Garrison and the others had already killed the outer corpse pit.
"Boss, there's something wrong with the front!"
Phoenix wiped the sweat from his forehead and reminded.
Levi Garrison looked in the direction of Phoenix's finger and saw the fog in front of him.
The gloomy wind was blowing, revealing a biting chill, especially in the mist as if a figure was shaking.

And the movements of those figures are extremely strange, to be exact, they should be very stiff, like marionettes.
They finally let out a very weird howl, like the scream of a ghost in a horror movie.
"It is said that the corpse pit is full of yin, and in the later period of Gong Qianqiu, he slaughtered all kinds of hostile forces in order to increase the yin in this place." Azure Dragon said solemnly: "And the bone master is good at all kinds of sorcery, those should be the corpses they controlled with special methods."
"Kill the past!"
Levi Garrison said coldly.
Now that you have come here, naturally you will not give up halfway.
Levi Garrison didn't want to have troubles later, otherwise the base camp would be harassed by the remnants of Qianqiu again sooner or later.
Members of the base camp and affiliated forces roared out, fighting with the corpses controlled by special drugs.
However, because there were too many corpses, and they were not tired and had no pain, Levi Garrison's attack was not smooth.
"Get out of the way for me."
Levi Garrison burst out.

Everyone withdrew from the battle to make way for Levi Garrison.
Those corpses controlled by drugs continued to charge fearlessly.
"piss off!"
Levi Garrison ran the basic exercises, a golden halo appeared around his body, and the whole person was like a god coming into the world.
Immediately, he threw a punch at countless corpses.
With this punch, the sky and the earth changed color, and even the cloudy wind and dark clouds that had been backlogged for several years were blown away.
Advertisement
The violent energy is like a hurricane passing through, sweeping away everything in front of it.

Clap clap!
Countless dead corpses were swept away and instantly turned into annihilation powder.
“Come again!”
Advertisement
“Death to Lao Tzu!”
Levi Garrison smashed several punches in a row, and even the cumulus clouds above the corpse pit collapsed without a trace, and the sun finally shone all over the earth.
Then look at the surrounding corpses that can move are all emptied, turned into annihilation powder and scattered in the wind.
A majestic hall in front of them also appeared in front of everyone.
Chiaki teach!
Three big characters with a strange pen style appeared on the plaque in the middle of the hall.
“It’s here, everyone search with me!”
Levi Garrison said solemnly.
Everyone filed in, and soon everyone found that the Qianqiu Sect’s main altar was empty.
Advertisement
“Escape?”
Levi Garrison frowned, he really didn’t expect Gong Qianqiu and others to be so fast.
He hurriedly released his strength and quickly probed the surroundings. It didn’t take long for Levi Garrison to discover some suspicious auras.
“Found you!”
Levi Garrison was overjoyed, and immediately ordered Wen Lei and others to follow him, after all, others had limited feet.
Wen Lei, Zhou Nanyan and others followed Levi Garrison all the way, and soon saw dozens of Qianqiu elites.
Levi Garrison can clearly feel that the strength of these people is much more than that of the dead men in black.
“It’s Levi Garrison who are chasing after them!”
“Fight for them, and help the leader to delay time.”

“Long live the Qianqiu teaching!”
Dozens of people stopped and directly blocked their way.
In fact, Levi Garrison had already heard what these people were talking about.
“Say Gong Qianqiu’s whereabouts, and I can keep you alive.”
Levi Garrison said in a cold tone.
“Levi Garrison, you can’t expect to know the whereabouts of the leader from our mouths.”
“Thousands of autumns teach thousands of generations to live forever.”
Dozens of Qianqiu Sect’s absolute henchmen shouted in unison.
Levi Garrison said coldly: “Kill it! I will continue to track it.”
Before the words fell, Wen Lei and others took action, and Levi Garrison continued to follow the breath sensor to track away.
Later, Levi Garrison discovered other Qianqiu Cult elites one after another, but these people were all fighting to the death without exception.
Levi Garrison didn’t make any more words to persuade him to surrender, and directly killed a bloody path.
“It looks like these people were thrown out because they were too slow.”
Levi Garrison made a judgment and tracked it for more than a hundred miles. There was a desert in front of him, and there was a dead silence.
The power was released again to search in a carpet-like manner, but the breath of Gong Qianqiu and others was not found.
There were no footprints on the ground for a long time, the wind was blowing, and the yellow sand was everywhere, as if everything here was going to be sealed in the ground.
“Let’s chase it forward and see what’s going on!”
Levi Garrison searched for dozens of miles into the depths of the desert, but there was still no trace of Gong Qianqiu and others.
“It seems that they have most likely escaped into the Kunlun Ruins.”
Levi Garrison sighed softly.
This is also the point that Levi Garrison has neglected the most, that is, there is no way to know the specific route to enter the Kunlun Ruins.
Back then, whether Tiansi and Cang Qiong Sect, or Xuan Ming and Taixu Shenzong, all had a deadly feud with their own side, and it was even more impossible for them to tell the details.

"It seems that the arrogances of the Taixu Shenzong are still too hastily killed."
Levi Garrison felt a little regretful in his heart. If he had captured those people alive, he might have been able to find out the route to the Kunlun Ruins.
So it will not follow blindly like it is now.

"Gong Qianqiu, Sanshengzi, Xuanming and Duguxiao, even if I catch up to the ends of the earth, I will not let you go."
Levi Garrison muttered to himself.
The murderous aura spread out from his body, forming a terrifying energy vortex with him as the center, and at the same time rolling up the yellow sand in the sky.
At the beginning, Tian Si and Xuan Ming could find the legendary Tianmen, so they could find it too.
Now it seems that the entrance to the Kunlun Ruins should be something hidden similar to the door of energy.
And this door is the energy wall that blocks the explosion of the spiritual energy of heaven and earth. Inside the door is the Kunlun Ruins, and outside the door belongs to the secular world.
Advertisement
Just as Levi Garrison was thinking, Wen Lei and others also caught up.
Levi Garrison left a mark along the way when he followed.
In addition, in the desert, only Levi Garrison released a powerful breath, Wen Lei and others quickly locked his position.
"Mr. Ye, did they escape?" Ning Jinye asked in a deep voice.
Advertisement
Levi Garrison nodded and said, "Yeah! After all, they have the Three Holy Sons to lead the way, I am afraid they have already escaped into the Kunlun Ruins."
"Brother, the three saints were seriously injured by you this time. It is said that his master is the deputy suzerain of the Taixu Shenzong, and he is likely to take revenge in the future."

Zhou Nanyan reminded with a serious face.
Others agreed with this inference.
The four great arrogances perished on the spot, and the three saints, Xuan Ming and others returned.
Taixu Shenzong will not easily let Levi Garrison go, whether in public or private, this hatred must be forged.
I'm afraid it won't be long before they come over and ask for trouble.
"Although it can be regarded as the arrogance of the two major sects, we still don't know how deep the water in the Kunlun Ruins is."
"Especially in this Taixu Shenzong, the three saints are certainly not the opponents of King's Landing, but it is impossible to know how strong the deputy suzerain or even the suzerain is."
Advertisement
"The enemy is in the dark and I am in the light. It's really hard to guard against it!"
Wen Lei and others said one after another.
The joy of victory not long ago disappeared at this moment, replaced by solemnity.
The Taixu Shenzong's influence and contacts in Kunlun Ruins are immeasurable. Once they gather many powerful people to take revenge, the outcome is still incalculable.
No matter how strong Levi Garrison's combat power is, as long as there are a few more powerful people at the level of the Three Holy Sons, I am afraid that he can be dragged down.
And whether others can withstand the attack of a strong enemy, then there is a big question mark.
No matter how you look at it, the situation is not optimistic.
Levi Garrison nodded and said, "You are right, so the top priority is to improve your own strength."

"On the one hand, it is for defense, and on the other hand, it is also preparing for future revenge."
Although the depth of the Taixu Shenzong has not been fully explored, luckily God's brain has discovered the divine veins and sacred veins.
The Three Holy Sons once made a rhetorical statement, saying that the divine veins and holy veins only exist within the Kunlun Ruins.
However, in fact, there are divine veins and sacred veins in the secular world, but they are hidden very deeply, but they are deliberately sealed by people or forces.
But everything is not a problem now, the brain of God has developed a new type of detector, and it is only a matter of time before more Divine Veins are found.
And Levi Garrison secretly decided that in the next period of time, let more members of the base camp with good qualifications go to the super spiritual vein to practice.
Now there is nothing to hide, and it is the most important thing to build an elite army with strong combat power as soon as possible.
At the same time, increase the intensity of teaching Levilia's self-created exercises, so that the power of super spiritual veins can be better utilized.
Especially after this battle, the absolute henchmen inside the base camp are also obvious.
As for individual mentally shaken people, they are not entrusted with important tasks.
"God's brain has to make more suits and new weapons."
At this point, Levi Garrison directly contacted the brain of God, and he wanted to create an absolute elite to deal with all kinds of possibilities.

The three saints, Gong Qianqiu and others ran all the way, and there were only a few Qianqiu confidants who followed.
These people are extremely talented, and at the same time they have practiced the extreme swallowing technique, which is why they can barely follow the footsteps of the Three Holy Sons.

Since coming to the desert area, Gong Qianqiu has tried to remember the route to enter the Kunlun Ruins.
But soon Gong Qianqiu gave up this idea, because she found that the so-called Tianmen was hidden in an ancient formation.
This ancient formation is radiant, revealing an intoxicating charm. To touch this formation requires a powerful force.
"Only if the power it possesses reaches a certain threshold, it is possible to stimulate the formation to enter it."
Advertisement
"Even if ordinary people find the ancient formation by chance, they can only look at it from a distance and cannot approach it."
The three saints explained in a deep voice.
Gong Qianqiu kept these silently in his heart, and listened to the three saints continuing to explain the situation as he walked forward.
"Have you seen those comatose people in the space in the ancient formation?"
Advertisement
"They are all strong men with powerful strength in the mundane world. They found the Tianmen to reach the formation but didn't know the route, and were eventually trapped in the formation."
"The Kunlun Ruins will have receivers who will come to investigate regularly and bring these people into the Kunlun Ruins."
Gong Qianqiu heard the words and turned to look at Xuan Ming next to him.
Xuan Ming seemed to see the doubts in Gong Qianqiu's heart, and said directly: "That's right, Tian Si and I were both trapped in the ancient formation."
"Afterwards, we were brought into it by the recipients of Kunlun Ruins. Afterwards, we each had our own circumstances and joined different sects."

Gong Qianqiu suddenly realized that it is no wonder that many peerless powerhouses have disappeared inexplicably.
"If the next route is not guided by the internal staff of Kunlun Ruins, there is no way to enter."
The Three Holy Sons regained their previous sense of superiority.
Sure enough, the tortuous route to the extreme next made Gong Qianqiu even more dazzled.
Advertisement
Relying on memory simply cannot achieve the effect of recording the exact route.
And the more you go inside, the stronger the aura between heaven and earth, if it wasn't for the wrong time, Gong Qianqiu would want to devour it crazily.
The group walked for another two or three hours, and the road ahead suddenly became extremely open.
Not long after walking forward, the line of sight suddenly became clear, looking at the upper plain, and there was a faint retro palace tower at the far end.
"This is the Kunlun Ruins!"
Gong Qianqiu was so excited that he was beyond words.
The three saints sneered and said: "This is just entering the Kunlun Ruins. After all, it is only a marginal area, not the real Kunlun Ruins."
Gong Qianqiu was particularly shocked, it turned out that this was only the marginal area.
Everyone continued to walk in, and after a few hours, Gong Qianqiu understood the true meaning of the words of the three saints before.
As we went deeper into the Kunlun Ruins, mountains and waterfalls and ancient temples gradually increased.
The waterfalls here are like the Milky Way pouring down from the nine days, and the mountains in the distance are shrouded in clouds and mists, even exuding a strange halo, like a fairyland.
Especially around some of the towering and huge palaces, there is an extraordinary resplendent aura, and the surrounding seems to be surrounded by cranes, making people dizzying.

Of course, what shocked Gong Qianqiu the most was the sufficiency of aura, which could be described as raining down on aura.
"Don't anyone want these spiritual veins?"
Gong Qianqiu pointed to a spiritual vein containing pure spiritual energy and asked.
Seeing the appearance of Gong Qianqiu who has never seen the world, the three saints have a sense of superiority.
"Spiritual veins of this level are everywhere in Kunlun Ruins, and even small sects are reluctant to establish sects here."
The three saints sneered.
Gong Qianqiu was extremely shocked. Although this spiritual vein is not comparable to the super spiritual veins of the two major alien races, it is definitely not much different.
Was it abandoned by the people in the Kunlun Ruins?
"Don't be shocked, even the sacred veins are very numerous in the Kunlun Ruins."

"For example, our Taixu Shenzong is built on several divine veins and three holy veins."
"As for other small spiritual veins, there are countless."
The three saints said with a smile.
Gong Qianqiu said with emotion: "As expected of the Taixu Shenzong, the cultivation resources are really too rich."
Knowing this kind of information, it strengthened Gong Qianqiu's determination to develop in Kunlun Ruins.
"Holy Son, how long will it take us to reach the Taixu Shenzong?"
Advertisement
Duguxiao asked excitedly.
He practiced a weakened version of the extreme swallowing technique, and he couldn't control it and began to swallow the surrounding spiritual energy along the way.

During the march, Duguxiao felt that his strength had improved again, so he was undoubtedly very excited.
The three saints said solemnly, "There's still half a day's journey to get there."
Advertisement
After entering the Kunlun Ruins, the Three Holy Sons finally relaxed completely, and Levi Garrison would not chase after him no matter how strong he was.
Even if he has reached the strength to trigger the Tianmen formation, it will definitely take a very long time to find the exact location.
Taking ten thousand steps back, even if he entered the Kunlun Ruins very smoothly, what waves could he make here?
There was nothing to say on the road, and everyone finally arrived at Taixu Shenzong near noon.
Zongmen is built on dozens of green peaks, with many retro temples, and the mountainside is surrounded by clouds and mists.
Surrounding the sect, the aftermath of the formation energy also circulates back and forth.
Under the sunlight, the energy of the formation showed a faint and strange light.
The spiritual energy that is almost visible to the naked eye is surging back and forth within the formation.
In the mountains, all kinds of birds and beasts that are rare or unseen in the secular world shuttle among them.
Advertisement
There seemed to be a rustling sound in the distance, and after a simple listening, I found that the whole person's mind was excited and excited.
This distant sound of rumbling seems to have the effect of stimulating the spirit, and the mood is followed by agitated, in a state of blood boiling.
In the open space beside some forest attics, many figures could be faintly seen sitting crosslegged, breathing, breathing, and occasionally tossing and moving in the air.
Formed a huge fairyland picture.

“These people are so strong!”
Gong Qianqiu sighed in his heart that there are actually several people who are comparable to the Three Saints.
Especially in the invisible position, Gong Qianqiu can also detect the subtle breath, the kind of coercion far exceeds the three saints.
“As expected of the Taixu Shenzong, he is simply a master!”
Gong Qianqiu was very excited and became more determined to hold this thigh well.
“This is the Taixu Shenzong, you all return to your residence with this seat first.”
The three saints said proudly, as if they were about to fulfill the friendship of the landlord.
Everyone followed the Three Saints to the top of one of the small peaks, and in front of them was a three-story retro attic.
“There are a lot of empty rooms. Except for the top floor, you can move around on your own. Hurry up and heal your injuries.”
“Find a suitable opportunity, and I will introduce you to other holy sons and masters.”
The last sentence was obviously said to Gong Qianqiu.
Gong Qianqiu said respectfully: “Follow the order!”
Thinking that the master of the three saints is the vice suzerain of Taixu Shenzong, Gong Qianqiu is even more looking forward to it.
This attic is only owned by the Three Holy Sons alone, so there are indeed many empty rooms.
Everyone searched for an empty room and began to adjust their breaths. They were injured by Levi Garrison and his subordinates, and they fled all the way, and they really needed adjustment.
The Three Holy Sons came to the top floor of the attic alone, and the arrogant emotions just now disappeared.
“Levi Garrison, you wait for this seat, and this seat will ask you to repay ten times and a hundred times.”

The three holy sons were furious, and he didn't dare to disturb the master for the time being.
After all, being injured by a monkey in the secular world, and even breaking the sword of the master, is simply a great shame.
"For the time being, we need to take a long-term view on how to take revenge."
The three saints slowly sat down and began to heal their wounds.

Compared with the shame and depression of the three saints, Gong Qianqiu's mentality at the moment is completely different.
She was more emotional and regretful.
It was clear that everything was under control before, but he never thought that he would become Levi Garrison's pawn unknowingly.
In particular, Xiao Feng, which Gong Qianqiu is most proud of, is still being calculated by Levi Garrison, and even himself almost lost his life.
"How did Levi Garrison improve?"
Gong Qianqiu was puzzled.
Advertisement
She once got exact information from Xiao Feng that Levi Garrison practiced basic exercises.
It is precisely because of the slow effectiveness of this basic practice that Xiao Feng, Phoenix and others chose to practice Levilia's own creation.
"If I knew it earlier, I asked Xiao Feng to ask about Levi Garrison's basic exercises."
Gong Qianqiu regretted it very much. If he could study Levi Garrison's basic exercises in depth, he might find out what was going on.
Advertisement
After all, Wen Lei, Zhou Nanyan and others are all basic exercises.
They also showed great strength in this battle.
"Could it be that Levi Garrison and the others secretly practiced Levilia's devouring technique?"
Such a thought suddenly flashed in Gong Qianqiu's mind.

After all, she herself has benefited from the extreme devouring technique, otherwise it would be foolish to want to achieve such a state in a short period of time.
"Levi Garrison is a pure body cultivator, and the strength and endurance of the root bone are naturally far superior to ordinary cultivators."
"And the biggest drawback of the extreme swallowing technique is that it has a swallowing upper limit, otherwise I would not need to go to the Tianshifu to use the Tianlei Tempering Body to increase the upper limit."
"But this drawback has little impact on pure body cultivation. I'm afraid that's the truth."
The more Gong Qianqiu thought about it, the more he felt that the possibility was extremely high, so wouldn't they also face the difficulty of swallowing the upper limit?
Advertisement
Of course, the most important thing is that there are not enough super spiritual veins for them to devour.
On the other hand, in this regard, he has a lot of advantages. After all, there are countless spiritual veins in the Kunlun Ruins that have been abandoned.
In this way, she only needs to secretly go to devour the power of the spiritual veins, and her Gong Qianqiu's strength will skyrocket again.
"Levi Garrison, the hatred of destroying the sect is not shared by the sky, and the sect mainly asks you to repay it tenfold and a hundredfold."
Gong Qianqiu said fiercely.
Gong Qianqiu feels heartbroken every time he thinks of the Qianqiu Sect that he founded by himself has vanished into ashes.
If it wasn't for Levi Garrison's mischief, he would have been king and hegemon in the secular world.
Qianqiu will also be called the strongest sect in history.
She will also be known as the most dominant female leader, and her name will go down in history.

However, all this was completely shattered by the appearance of Levi Garrison.
hatred!
Gong Qianqiu can't wait to slash Levi Garrison with a thousand knives.
"In the previous fight, Levi Garrison didn't seem to show the strongest combat power."
"However, even so, I and the Three Holy Sons were beaten to the point of being unable to fight back."
"If Levi Garrison really happened to find Tianmen and entered the Kunlun Ruins, wouldn't my situation be extremely dangerous?"
After thinking about this, Gong Qianqiu began to feel uneasy again, like sitting on needles and thorns on the back.
She knows Levi Garrison too well, and the latter's style of behavior will definitely kill him in the Kunlun Ruins.
Levi Garrison is a typical example of revenge.
But then again, after seeing the power of Taixu Shenzong, Gong Qianqiu is not so afraid anymore.
If the senior officials of the Taixu Shenzong take action, Levi Garrison will be useless even if he kills him.
However, the only worry is whether Kunlun Ruins are willing to become enemies with Levi Garrison because of themselves.
After all, Levi Garrison not only has his own strength not to be underestimated, but also has subordinates who are comparable to the arrogance of Zongnei.
"In the final analysis, my status in the Taixu Shenzong is too low!"
Gong Qianqiu's eyes gradually became sharper.
The next thing to consider is how to gain a foothold in the Taixu Shenzong and constantly climb to the core high-level.
But none of this can be done overnight and must wait until the right moment to achieve the goal.

As for the state of the three saints, Gong Qianqiu also noticed it, and did not go directly to the sect for help, but felt that losing to Levi Garrison was a great shame.
It is even possible to worry about the reprimand of the deputy sect master. After all, the Three Holy Sons personally entered the world and even returned home, which is a disgrace to the prestige of the Taixu Shenzong.
"It is still necessary to hide the divine robbery first. Now is not the best time to offer this thing."
Gong Qianqiu sealed the gods with power and hid them.
She was really worried that if she rashly offered the divine calamity, the Three Holy Sons would take the credit.
"Levi Garrison, you wait for this sect master to climb to the top of Taixu Shenzong, which is the day you die."

Gong Qianqiu said fiercely.
the other side.
Levi Garrison's pursuit of Gong Qianqiu, Sanshengzi and others ended in failure, so he had to bring people back to the base camp for the time being.
At this moment, the follow-up work at the base camp is coming to an end, and the casualties have been counted.
Advertisement
Levi Garrison's statistical list found that nearly one-third of the elite members of the base camp died, and the rest were injured to varying degrees.
Nearly two-fifths of the Tenshen Division headed by the Tiance Shenshuai and Tiance Young Marshal were killed, and the rest were wounded.
There were no fatalities among the 80 elite students led by Ning Jinye, who were seriously injured and 50 were slightly injured.
Even this seriously injured person was damaged in the fight between Gong Qianqiu and the Three Saints.
Of course, the strength of this batch of students has been greatly improved.

This made Levi Garrison more aware of the importance of the weapon of the battle suit, and this high-tech product should be as popular as possible among the core members.
Fortunately, the mind of God is already doing this.
"Boss, the dead men from the Qianqiu Sect have been wiped out, and more than 80% of the elites have died."
"As for those elite cultists, more than three-fifths of them died, and the rest of the ordinary cultists were also crushed."
"By the way, we also found Xu Qingya, Yufeng Tiansi and others in the underground cell of Qianqiu Sect's main altar. They were all tortured to the point of being inhuman."
Phoenix Shen Shenghui reported.
Levi Garrison asked in slight surprise: "Gong Qianqiu didn't kill them?"
"Um!"
Phoenix nodded and said, "According to Xu Qingya, Gong Qianqiu kept their lives just to witness her rise."
"What a perverted bad taste!"
Levi Garrison said solemnly.
But then again, it is also good news for Levi Garrison that Xu Qingya and others saved their lives.
At the beginning, when the Zhen Mosi targeted himself, only Xu Qingya and the others were willing to form a good relationship, and they could be regarded as half friends!
"In addition to rectifying the troops, I will also arrange for everyone to go to the spiritual veins to cultivate and improve."
Next, Levi Garrison explained his detailed plan to take everyone to the Super Spirit Vein Tempering.
Everyone present is the absolute core of the base camp, and they are naturally excited to hear this news.
Especially when they saw that Levi Garrison had such a terrifying strength, they were even more yearning for the spiritual pulse.

Later, when they learned that Levi Garrison also asked God's Brain to create battle suits for everyone, everyone was even more excited.
"Ning Jinye's suits are so powerful that they can withstand even the attacks of a strong man like the Three Saints."
"Although the three saints were injured at that time, this kind of resistance is really terrifying."
"With this kind of equipment, the combat power is instantly doubled!"
Everyone talked a lot, and their eyes couldn't help but focus on Levi Garrison.
In their hearts, Levi Garrison's image of the God of War who looked down on the world was even more profound.
Facing the joint attack of Gong Qianqiu and the Three Saints, Levi Garrison not only suffered no injuries, but also crushed him all the way.
It's just too powerful.
"By the way, how is Xiao Feng now?"
Levi Garrison asked in a deep voice.

base camp.
A secluded place.
Xiao Feng sat slumped on the ground, his eyes were empty, as if he was a body without a soul.
During this period, Levi Garrison also came to investigate, and personally helped him to remove the evil spirit, but at that time, neither teacher nor apprentice spoke.
Xiao Feng felt shameless, and Levi Garrison was speechless.
More precisely, for the time being, he has not considered how to deal with Xiao Feng.
Advertisement
Although the assassination of Xiao Feng was under the control of the inner demon, many of the previous incidents were done by Xiao Feng in a sober state.
Moreover, many people have tried their best to persuade them, but with little success, Xiao
Feng even attacked each other with malicious words.

This is all Xiao Feng's fault, so there is no escaping the responsibility that he should bear.
Xiao Feng could naturally feel the change in Levi Garrison's attitude, but at the moment he didn't have the slightest resentment in his heart.
Advertisement
Levi Garrison didn't take his life, so it was beyond Xiao Feng's expectations, but it was more torturous to live like this.
Xiao Feng sighed again, recalling that scene, his regret couldn't be added in an instant.
"Gong Qianqiu is not a good woman, you'd better stay away, or she will kill her sooner or later."
"Gong Qianqiu has entanglements with many men, Xiao Feng, hurry up and sober up!"
"With such a high vision of Gong Qianqiu, how could it be possible to see you?"
At first, the words of Xu Qingya and others echoed in his ears, but Xiao Feng still said aggressively that they were sowing discord.
Looking back now, it was precisely because she was with the Demon Suppression Division that Xu Qingya had a deep understanding of Gong Qianqiu, and everything was said by them.
"Phoenix Azure Dragon (Qinglong), they should also hate me very much, right?"
Xiao Feng muttered to himself.
Advertisement
It was precisely because he inadvertently leaked the location of Phoenix and others that they were captured by Duguxiao and dug up their roots.
Can you imagine how cruel this act is, and how unbearable the process must be?
So for a long time, Phoenix and others were in the shadow of being abused.
However, it was all his own fault.
"And then the base camp was hit hard by Duguxiao. In the final analysis, it was because I disclosed Levilia's practice to Gong Qianqiu."

“I was so fascinated by her back then that I couldn’t even see through such a simple playbyplay.”
“I’m so sluggish!”
At the beginning, Gong Qianqiu Ming said on the surface that he had no interest in Levilia’s exercises, but he told him that Levi Garrison had concealed the exercises.
This clearly means that he has thoroughly researched his own xinxing. When he hears such words, he will naturally go to Levilia to ask about the content of the exercises.
And the harem Qianqiu pretended to be injured again, to clear the suspicion of secretly cultivating the exercises, and at the same time make himself practice in order to avoid going into the devil.
Coupled with the fact that he was staring at Levilia and did not spread it, no one knew that the exercises had been leaked.
Then it was proved that Duguxiao also practiced the extreme swallowing part of the Levilia Gongfa, so that the cultivation base could be greatly increased in a short period of time.
The destruction in the base camp caused Phoenix and the others’ regained confidence to be trampled again, and they almost collapsed.
“As long as the test was carried out at that time, it was possible to see whether she suffered serious internal injuries.”
“It won’t happen next.”
“It’s all my fault, ahhh!”
Xiao Feng slammed the ground hard, scolding himself that he was too obsessed at the time, and he didn’t even have such a simple face to investigate.
“And the robbery of the gods was stolen. At that time, I led Gong Qianqiu to turn around in the base camp.”
“Although I didn’t go to Master’s room at the time, with Gong Qianqiu’s resourcefulness, I will definitely find an opportunity to search.”
“That’s Master’s most handy weapon!”

Later, Gong Qianqiu used the divine robbery attack to successfully escape from the predicament, and if Levi Garrison had not shot in time, I am afraid that he would have died long ago.

"If only I had been killed then, I wouldn't have to be tortured for knowing the secret."
Xiao Feng sighed again, his face even more depressed.
"Master clearly had the opportunity to nip the danger in the bud."
"It's also that I accidentally leaked Master's plan, which allowed Gong Qianqiu to escape in time."
"If there were no leak plans, the rest would not have happened either."
Looking at the ruins of the base camp, there is still a strong smell of blood floating in the air.
Advertisement
Although he didn't know the specific casualties of his own side, Xiao Feng also knew that it would definitely not be small, but all this could have been avoided.
It's all because he leaked secrets again and again, making Gong Qianqiu's plan succeed again and again.
Deng Deng Deng!
There were faint footsteps.
Advertisement
Xiao Feng looked up and saw Xu Qingya, Yufeng Tiansi and others doing restorative training in the distance.
Although they have lost their cultivation base, but with the panacea provided by Levi Garrison, they can barely act on their own at this moment.
"They were all killed by me. If I hadn't made an assertion to tell Gong Qianqiu that time, Duguxiao wouldn't have captured him so quickly."
Xiao Feng hurriedly lowered his head, wishing he could find a crack to burrow in.
At the beginning, after Xu Qingya was captured, she identified Gong Qianqiu in person as the leader of Qianqiu Sect.

If he believed them, the base camp would definitely be able to implement preventive measures earlier.
It can even take the initiative to attack and destroy Qianqiu Sect first.
In this way, there will be no fierce battle today, and those elites in the base camp will not need to sacrifice.
"It's all my fault, it's all my fault!"
Advertisement
"I'm an asshole!"
"I've let so many brothers lose their lives."
Xiao Feng clenched his fists tightly, his fingernails were already deeply embedded in the flesh without knowing it, the blood slowly flowed out along the fingers, and he didn't feel the slightest pain.
Of course, these are not the most let Xiao Feng collapse.
The most unbearable thing for Xiao Feng was the assassination of Levi Garrison.
Recalling that in the past, Levi Garrison took care of himself meticulously, and in terms of cultivation, he taught himself even more than his relatives.
But in exchange, it was a backstab!
Although Xiao Feng also knew that he was attracted by the evil spirit at that time, if he was not addicted to the beauty of Gong Qianqiu, how would he give the other party the opportunity to use the evil spirit?
Fortunately, Levi Garrison was aware of it in advance, otherwise the assassination might have been successful. Wouldn't it be a bigger mistake then?
Zoey Lopez's increasingly haggard face, Levilia frowning at a young age, Azure Dragon (Qinglong) Zhuque and others are uneasy, etc…
A lot of pictures rushed into Xiao Feng's mind as if he had gone crazy, and he felt dizzy, and even the world was spinning.
The whole person is on the verge of collapse.
"It's all my fault!"
"As a wicked person like me, how can I continue to live in the world?"
"The big mistake has been made, and only one death can make up for it."

Thinking of this, Xiao Feng quickly pulled out a dagger in his arms and stabbed it at the heart.
He decided to end this sinful life on his own.
Bang!
Dang!
Just as the dagger was about to pierce the flesh, Xiao Feng felt the force on his wrist, and then his entire arm was extremely numb.
The dagger also fell to the ground.
"Master… Master?"
Xiao Feng looked up and saw Levi Garrison's back in the distance.
"Why don't you let me die?"
Xiao Feng almost roared and asked.
"Death is an act of cowardice. Now that you know that you have made a big mistake, you should personally solve the real culprit."
Levi Garrison's voice transmission exploded in his mind.
This sentence made Xiao Feng instantly feel empowered.
It's not wrong, her sin is very true, but Gong Qianqiu is the initiator. Now she is still at large, and she must end this evil relationship by herself.
"But why is she doing this to me?"
Xiao Feng was puzzled.

"She's already my woman, why is she doing this to me?"
Thinking back to the love of fish and water that night, Xiao Feng was really puzzled.
If you don't have any feelings for yourself, why did Gong Qianqiu give it all to himself?
"Before killing her, this must be figured out."
Xiao Feng made up his mind.
At the same time, Levi Garrison also began to arrange the next tasks.
Advertisement
"There is a message from God's brain, and in addition to a few divine veins and a holy vein, you will go to practice in batches, and I will personally guide you."
"Wen Lei, Nan Yan, you and Jinye lead the students to stay at the base camp, and beware of Qianqiu's counterattack."

“If the Kunlun Ruins are attacked, don’t fight head-on, and hide in the safe house as soon as possible.”
Wen Lei and others felt the pressure doubled. After all, for the real powerhouses in Kunlun Ruins, their cultivation realm was not enough.
Advertisement
But they also knew that Levi Garrison was helpless to make such an arrangement.
With the continuous improvement of Levi Garrison’s strength, the divine veins mean nothing to him, and the degree of improvement is minimal.
The holy vein must have a significant effect, and this time to discover the holy vein, Levi Garrison must leave the base camp.
“Brother, you can rest assured to improve your strength, and the security of the base camp will be handed over to us.”
Zhou Nanyan said in a deep voice.
Levi Garrison also seemed to sense the unease in her heart, and then comforted: “Don’t worry, I will return to the base camp from time to time to check the situation.”
“And I have also increased the strength of the safe house and the peripheral defense formation. Even if a powerhouse of the level of the Three Holy Sons attacks, they will not be able to break through the defensive barrier in a short time.”
“You have plenty of time to hide in the safe house.”
“I see!”
Advertisement
Wen Lei and the others let out a breath. It turned out that Levi Garrison had already left behind.
With no worries, Levi Garrison began to take people to practice, and by the way, he also came to the holy vein to temper the body, and the realm of strength was improved again.
In the next few days, everything was calm, and the tension of the base camp members was relieved a little.

Just when Levi Garrison was about to take the third group of people to leave, the Zhenmo Division found the exact location of the 'Tianmen'.
Since Tian Si and the Cang Qiong faction powerhouses fled, Zhen Mosi once again bowed his head to Levi Garrison.
In addition, Tiansi had sent the approximate location coordinates before, and after a carpet search, the effort finally paid off.
"Jinye, you take them to the Divine Vein Tempering Body Improvement, you also know the exercises, wait for me to teach them!"
Levi Garrison said solemnly: "Since Tianmen has been found, I must go and investigate it myself, otherwise I will not be at ease."
Levi Garrison didn't know how deep the water in Kunlun Ruins was before, but now he just went to investigate, so he knew.
"Don't worry, Teacher Ye, you are guaranteed to complete the task." Ning Jinye said confidently.
Since the super-spiritual quenching, Ning Jinye's strength has increased rapidly, and now he can be completely independent.
After Levi Garrison made the arrangements, he went to investigate according to the location information provided by the Town Magic Division.
Without a word, Levi Garrison finally came to a nearby location.
"Isn't this the last desert I tracked down last time?"
Levi Garrison looked around and felt a little familiar, but it was far from the location he tracked last time.
"Mr. Ye, it's not far ahead. We wanted to go in and investigate, but we were all blown away by an invisible force."
"I really don't dare to get close."
The elite of the town magic division said cautiously.
Levi Garrison looked in the direction of his finger, and there was still a desert in front of him, with a sand dune in the center.
However, no matter how stormy the dune is, the surrounding area is quiet.

It is as if there is some invisible force around the dunes that isolates the wind and sand from the outside world.
“Something weird!”

Seeing the lingering lingering fears of the Zhen Mosi elite, Levi Garrison didn’t force it, and said solemnly, “You guys stay away later.”
“As ordered!”
The elite of the Town Demon Division quickly withdrew without any hesitation, and soon they were hundreds of meters away.
Levi Garrison is a little funny, it’s just a sand dune, and it’s so fearful as a tiger, as for it?
“I didn’t find the weirdness here before. Could it be that this situation happened by accident?”
Levi Garrison was a little puzzled. He had also searched extensively in the desert last time, but he did not find such a strange sight.
Advertisement
Otherwise, come and check it out.
Levi Garrison rushed out, and soon came to a few feet in front of the strange dune.
“It really is the energy fluctuation formed by the formation.”
After careful observation, Levi Garrison found that there were faint power fluctuations circulating around the dunes.
Advertisement
Moreover, the layers of fluctuations are very regular, as if the carefully designed energy shield, it is precisely because of its existence that the storm cannot move the hills.
“I want to see how powerful this formation is?”
Levi Garrison continued to move forward, and there was nothing unusual at the beginning of the period, until within half a meter of the shield, there was a clear sense of power obstruction.

The energy fluctuations that were looming just now suddenly brightened, showing seven colors under the sunlight, dazzling.
And the closer you get, the stronger the sense of obstruction.
"It's no wonder that the people of Zhen Mosi were so frightened. If they weren't strong enough, I'm afraid they would have been blown away by this force at this moment and suffered serious internal injuries."
Levi Garrison continued to move forward, the golden charm bloomed on his body, and he collided violently with the blocking force.
"This power is very strong!"
Levi Garrison was a little surprised, this confrontation force was probably equivalent to the strongest blow of the Fire Cloud Evil God.
Advertisement
"If you are not strong enough to forcibly enter the formation, you will be blocked by the power of the formation, and you will even be seriously injured and die."
"It seems that this is the reason why ordinary people cannot enter the Kunlun Ruins."
"This formation is equivalent to the power threshold for entering the Kunlun Ruins."
Thinking of this, Levi Garrison suddenly exerted his strength, and the sense of obstruction disappeared immediately.
However, when Levi Garrison entered the inside of the shield of power of the formation, the scene in front of him changed dramatically.
Where else is there any sand in the sky?
There was no gust of wind.
In front of him is a huge mountain range, with lush vegetation covering the mountains and plains, and strangely, there is not a trace of beast roars and insects.
The surrounding is quiet, and the quietness makes people feel hairy, as if this is a vacuum, and there is no sound transmission.
"anyone there?"
Levi Garrison tried it out, and the voice spread far away.
He turned his head and looked around, Levi Garrison was stunned for a moment, and there was also a lush green behind him, and the elite of the Suppression Magic Division was nowhere to be seen.

"It seems that this formation can not only isolate ordinary people, but also play a role in confusing the audience."
Levi Garrison knew the magic of ancient formations. Once, Zhuge's military commander could trap thousands of soldiers from Soochow with a stone forest.
A formation is a world, and if it is not for an expert to guide the maze, I am afraid that it will be trapped in the formation.
"Since you have come in, we must investigate."
Levi Garrison continued to move forward, and soon saw two bronze doors standing at the bottom of the mountain.
There are dragons and phoenixes carved on the bronze giant gate, especially in the middle are written with three big characters in ancient seals: Kunlun Ruins.
"Could it be that behind this door is the so-called Kunlun Ruins World?"
For the first time in history, Levi Garrison felt a little uneasy. This will be a brand new world.
Should you enter it?
Pushing this door open will also herald unknown dangers.
Although he has defeated the three saints and others this time, it is still unknown how many strong people there are in Kunlun Ruins.
"Since you have found out where Tianmen is, it is not too late to wait for your strength to improve before entering."
After making up his mind, Levi Garrison rushed out in the opposite direction.

Levi Garrison stepped back several dozen feet in a row, and then he felt the resistance.
And he can clearly feel that this force is several times stronger than when it came in.
"Is it easy to come in and hard to leave?"
Levi Garrison released his strength to fight against it, and sure enough, the strength expended also increased several times before it was enough to break through the barrier.

Boom!
The sound of energy banging constantly came from the void.
Advertisement
Levi Garrison felt that he had broken through dozens of strength obstacles, and his body finally became very relaxed.
Swish!
Levi Garrison finally retreated, and the surrounding environment changed again, still an endless desert.
"It's amazing!"
Advertisement
Levi Garrison was full of emotion, and at the same time, he also had a rough guess.
To enter the Kunlun Ruins, the powerhouses of the secular world must reach the threshold strength, but once they enter it, they cannot immediately retreat.
Unless you want your own cultivation realm to far exceed the threshold strength, you will not be able to come and go freely.
Of course, this also explains why Tiansi and Xuanming disappeared for so many years before returning to the mundane world.
I am afraid that the two of them only reached the minimum strength standard to enter the Tianmen at that time, and it is impossible to figure it out immediately.
After years of practice, it can be considered that the strength requirements are met. After all, the strength when it comes out is several times stronger than that when it goes in.
"Mr. Ye, why did you disappear just now?"
the people asked.
They saw Levi Garrison approaching the sand dunes just now, but they disappeared in place in an instant, which made him panic.
Advertisement
Levi Garrison did not explain too much, and said solemnly: "Mark this seat clearly, I have important arrangements."

“Don’t worry, Mr. Ye, I have already marked it from multiple detection tools. When other people want to come, they can just follow the markings to find them.”
Levi Garrison nodded with satisfaction. Although he didn’t enter the bronze door to investigate just now, he just needed to determine this position.
At that time, confidants will be arranged to hide and monitor nearby. As long as someone comes out of this area, a warning signal will be sent to the base camp members immediately.
In this way, it is possible to evacuate in advance, so that the Taixu Shenzong or the Sky Sect powerhouses can rush into the air and ensure the safety of their own personnel to the greatest extent.
Of course, this is in the case of going out to quench the body.
“I will kill Kunlun Ruins after all the members have improved their strength.”
“Gong Qianqiu, wait for Lao Tzu and let you live for a few more days.”
Levi Garrison said coldly in his heart.
In the Taixu Shenzong.
After five days of recuperation, the three saints and others recovered from their internal injuries.
In particular, Gong Qianqiu secretly runs the Devouring Cultivation Technique. Since the concentration of spiritual energy in the Kunlun Ruins is far beyond that of the mundane world, her cultivation is more advanced.
The three saints also adjusted their mentality and began to introduce other saints to Gong Qianqiu.
“This is the Fourth Holy Son. He is good at poison art. Like the poison of Shenmue before, it can’t get into his eyes at all.”
The three saints introduced to a middle-aged man who looked like he was withered.
“Four Holy Sons are good.”
Gong Qianqiu greeted respectfully.
The Fourth Holy Son hummed, and began to fiddle with the surrounding bottles, apparently preparing poison.

“Let’s go, the Fourth Holy Son is addicted to the configuration of poison, let’s not disturb him.”
The Three Holy Sons greeted everyone to leave.
When they were about to go out, the hoarse voice of the Four Saints came: “Remember to remind them to take Bingqing Dan, otherwise the seven orifices will bleed and die in half an hour.”
“it is good!”
While talking, the three saints had already taken out a small porcelain bottle and distributed the purple pills to Gong Qianqiu and others.
Gong Qianqiu didn’t think much about it, he took the pill directly, and his head that was still cloudy just now became a lot more awake.
After leaving this seemingly dilapidated wooden house.
The three saints said slowly: “The four saints refine poison all year round, and the toxins left in the wooden house are enough to poison the masters to death.”
“What is the use of the Bing Qing Dan just now?”

Duguxiao asked with lingering fears.
The Third Holy Son explained: “The Bing Qing Pill also came from the hands of the Fourth Holy Son. For the poison he refined, it belongs to the Universal Antidote Pill.” “Of course I’m referring to these residual toxins. If he is poisoned by other means, even if he takes Bingqingdan, he can only delay death at most.”
“I see!”
Duguxiao swallowed his saliva, thinking that these holy sons of Taixu Shenzong are all wonderful.
For example, the three saints cultivate ruthless swordsmanship and cut off the corpse, which is comparable to the chief eunuch in ancient times.
Advertisement

The Second Holy Son likes to study the formation method, and he can't hold back a fart for a long time, and he cherishes words like gold.
The Fourth Holy Son likes to refine poison and poison art, and even poisons his own people if he disagrees with each other.
The Fifth and Sixth Sons love to refine weapons, and more than half of the weapons of the Taixu Shenzong come from their hands.
It's just that one of them is deaf and the other is mute.
Advertisement
The two of them can not only refine weapons, but also maintain them.
Just like the weapons of the Taixu Shenzong, these two people are responsible for warming and nourishing in the sacred veins.
Weapons will increase faster…
Use the standard in the shortest time!
The Seven Holy Sons are the youngest but the most talented. It is said that they are among the top three in strength among the Seven Great Holy Sons, and there is a faint trend of catching up with the No. 1.
Because the Seven Holy Sons have the ability to manipulate the spiritual veins.
When fighting, it can directly integrate with the spiritual veins, and it is the fastest to strengthen itself.
It can also be the first to discover the spiritual veins.
He discovered all the large-scale spiritual veins of the Taixu Shenzong in the past ten years.
Advertisement
It's just that he has traveled south and north for a long time, and there are very few opportunities in the Taixu Shenzong.
While exercising and strengthening himself outside, he was looking for more resources for Taixu Shenzong.
"There is only one of the seven great saints. I haven't seen it, and I don't know what kind of person?"
Gong Qianqiu was a little irritable, and the six holy children, including the three holy children, were almost not interested in her.

The only powerful Seven Holy Sons is not in the Taixu Shenzong…
"It's really a bunch of elm knots, this sect master's all-round charm, is it going to smash the halberd and sink into the sand in the Taixu Shenzong?"
Gong Qianqiu was a little depressed, of course, more angry, and involuntarily complained about a strange thing.
However, at this moment, I heard the three holy sons suddenly say solemnly: "Qianqiu, before meeting the first holy son, let me introduce him to you."
"I also ask the Three Holy Sons to give me some advice."
Gong Qianqiu could feel the emotional changes of the three saints, and suddenly there was a bad premonition in his heart.
You must know that when meeting the other saints, the three saints were not particularly cautious, but at this moment they were clearly nervous.
Could it be that the Great Holy Son is not easy to get along with?
Referring to other saints, I am afraid that the aura of the first saint is too powerful.
The three saints pondered for a long time before slowly saying: "The first saint is the strongest among us, and he is also the proud disciple of the sect master.
"And the matter of the Great Holy Son as the future successor of the Taixu Shenzong is almost a certainty."
"As expected of the Great Holy Son!"
Miya Chiaki said with emotion.
This is definitely the best thigh candidate!
"Three Holy Sons, is there anything special about the First Holy Son?"
Duguxiao couldn't help but ask.
The Three Holy Sons did not respond directly, and seemed to be looking for appropriate words to describe.
"The Great Holy Son is actually very easy to get along with! Hidden knife in the ridiculous! I will kill you with a smile! You don't know the reason?"
"It's like I took you there, and he killed a few of you for no reason! If he doesn't like it, he will kill you!"

“But… the kendo of the Great Holy Son is completely opposite to me! I am the ruthless *kendo, he is the kendo of the seven emotions and six desires! He likes female s*x the most!*
He has hundreds of women!”
The three saints looked at Gong Qianqiu: “You have to be careful, the first saint may like you when he sees you! You may be in danger!”

“Don’t worry, the Three Holy Sons, I know what I know.”
Gong Qianqiu not only did not have the slightest worry, but was very much looking forward to meeting the Great Holy Son.
Like women?
Seven Emotions and Six Desires Kendo!
Didn’t this hit her muzzle?
“This sect master’s charm is finally useful.”

Thinking of this, the corner of Gong Qianqiu’s mouth could not help but rise slightly.
Gong Qianqiu followed the three saints to the residence of the great saint with excitement.
About half an hour later, everyone came to a bamboo forest, and not far away was a loft made of purple bamboo.
It may be because the rich spiritual energy in the Kunlun Ruins is nourished, and the purple bamboo here is particularly thick and thick enough to embrace.
Advertisement
“The Great Holy Son lives in it, remember to be cautious in your words and deeds no matter what you hear after entering.”
The Three Holy Sons reminded again in a serious tone.
Several people answered in unison: “Follow your orders!”
Everyone gets nervous now!
In particular, Gong Qianqiu couldn’t wait to see the future successor of the Taixu Shenzong.
dong dong dong!
The three saints knocked on the bamboo door, and there was a crisp sound similar to metal slamming. Obviously, these bamboos have been specially processed.

"It's the third one, come in quickly! I heard you were injured?"
A very magnetic voice came, as if it had indescribable magic power, making people have the urge to indulge in it.
Advertisement
This sound alone can affect a person's sanity.
too strong!
Miya Chiaki looked forward to it even more.
Just as everyone was thinking about it, the bamboo door slowly opened, and a figure appeared in front of everyone.
The man was in his early thirties, over 1.9 meters tall, tall, mighty, and extraordinary.
Like a god.
With a strong aura on his body, he overwhelmed the audience!
After Gong Qianqiu saw several people, they only felt that their bodies were about to explode.
Gong Qianqiu originally thought that the first son was at most a little stronger than the three sons.
The result was unexpected.
The Great Son is one level higher than the Three Sons.
It's on another level entirely!
too strong!
Gong Qianqiu looked like he had seen the world.
More and more I want to hug the big holy son's legs!
This is what she wants!
The face of the three saints froze, and he quickly explained: "Eldest son, these are all from the mundane world…"
The Great Holy Son glanced around with a smile on his face.
Everyone is also observing the Great Holy Son.
Gong Qianqiu just felt so strong and lost his mind for a while.
"Your talent is good, and I can give you some pointers when I have time."
Just when Gong Qianqiu was thinking about it, the voice of the Great Holy Son suddenly sounded from behind.
"Thank you for the support of the Great Holy Son, the younger generation can't ask for it."
Miya Chiaki turned on the rainbow fart mode like a conditioned reflex.

“Well, Ruzi can be taught!”
As soon as the Great Holy Son saw Gong Qianqiu, he was attracted by her beauty.
In addition, Gong Qianqiu understands men again. After some exchanges, the great sage child blossomed: “Well, well, this girl is very fond of my heart.” “Third, you didn’t go to the world for nothing this time, and you found such a talent. You are indeed the dragon and phoenix in the sect who are second only to this seat!”
With Gong Qianqiu’s eloquent tongue, he coaxed the Great Holy Son to the point of immortality.
For a time, Gong Qianqiu had both sides in the Taixu Shenzong.
Even the other saint sons who are not close to women have a good impression of Gong
Qianqiu.
A few days later, the news of the fiasco of the Three Holy Sons’ entry into the WTO finally reached the ears of the Vice Sect Master of the Taixu Shenzong.
The deputy suzerain was furious, and his proud disciple was not only severely injured by the monks in the secular world, but even the ancient swords handed down by him were destroyed.
“It’s a great shame, let the three saints go to think about the cliff and retreat.”
The deputy sect master issued an order, and the three holy sons no longer had the arrogance of the past, and went to retreat and thought about it.
Gong Qianqiu originally thought that the vice sect master would avenge the three saints, but for several days, the vice sect master also announced the retreat and practice.
It seems that the three saints and several Tianjiao were killed at all, which made Gong Qianqiu extremely unwilling.

“The Great Holy Son, the Three Holy Sons are the proud disciples of the Deputy Sect Master.

Could this feud be over?”
Gong Qianqiu asked tentatively.
After a few days of contact, the relationship between Gong Qianqiu and the Great Holy Son has grown by leaps and bounds. Except for the last layer of prohibition, there is no breakthrough, and everything else can be done.
Therefore, Gong Qianqiu became more and more relaxed in front of the Great Holy Son, and no longer had the previous caution.
Not only was the Great Holy Son not angry, but he enjoyed this mode of communication so much that he did not rush to ask Gong Qianqiu to go to Wushan together this time.
“Qianqiu, you don’t know something, the deputy sect master feels that it is too cheap to deal with a monk in the world, and it will definitely be ridiculed by people.”
Advertisement
“But if no one solves Levi Garrison, the deputy suzerain will feel shame and even shame.”
The Great Saint said solemnly.
Gong Qianqiu volunteered and said: “When I become stronger, I am willing to relieve the vice suzerain.”
“Qianqiu, I will definitely help you convey your heart to the vice sect master.”
Advertisement
The Great Holy Son patted Gong Qianqiu’s shoulder and hugged her waist.
Although Gong Qianqiu’s heart was extremely touched, he still greeted him with a smile on the surface.
“By the way, the Great Holy Son, I have a weapon, you can help me see the level!”
Gong Qianqiu walked out without leaving a trace and looked like he was looking for something.
This approach did not arouse the suspicion of the Great Holy Son. During this time, Gong Qianqiu’s seductive skills finally worked.
Gong Qianqiu quickly took out the gods and offered them with both hands.

“what?”
The Great Holy Son’s eyes lit up, he hurriedly took the divine robbery in his hand, and observed it carefully, but he didn’t speak for a long time.
It’s just that Gong Qianqiu can clearly see that the expression of the Great Holy Son is constantly changing, and finally it is frozen in shock.
Advertisement
“Saint Son, what is the level of this blade?”
Gong Qianqiu was still quite apprehensive, because divine robbery was her greatest hope.
Although he has a close relationship with the Great Holy Son now, for a person who likes beauty, it is not known how long he can keep his freshness.
Gong Qianqiu doesn’t like that all fate is in the hands of others.
What Taixu Shenzong lacked most was a peerless divine weapon.
If the Divine Tribulation level is sufficient, then even if the Great Holy Son is put aside, he will be able to gain a firm foothold in the Taixu Shenzong.
“Although the material of this sword is not top-level, the forging technology is top-level, and it has even reached the legendary level.”
The Great Holy Son did not hide his shock at all.
“Is it really that exaggerated?”
Gong Qianqiu felt a little incredible.
The Great Holy Son nodded and said, “It’s even more exaggerated than this. With such a vivid forging technique, I’m afraid you won’t be able to find three of them if you look at the Kunlun Ruins.”
“The old five and the six are the forging madmen. Almost all the precious blades of the Taixu Shenzong came from the hands of the two, but their forging skills are far less than the forge of this blade.”
“The top forging master with such forging technology, the Taixu Shenzong can’t afford it at all, otherwise the sect would have been promoted to a large sect.”
Gong Qianqiu was shocked when he heard the words. It is said that the calamity was forged by Levi Garrison himself, but Levi Garrison never entered the Kunlun Ruins from beginning to end.

How can forging technology be top-notch?
Even in the Kunlun Ruins, it belongs to the top existence, which is simply incredible!
"How exactly did Levi Garrison do it?"
Gong Qianqiu was puzzled, so it seemed that he underestimated Levi Garrison too much.
Or she still doesn't know Levi Garrison.
She thought she knew Levi Garrison very well.
"Could it be that Levi Garrison has other unknown cards?"
Gong Qianqiu suddenly remembered that Wen Lei and others had greatly increased their strength in a short period of time, which was probably also directly related to Levi Garrison's trump card.
After all, Levi Garrison had been suspicious of Xiao Feng for a long time at that time, and he might not have explained everything clearly to him, which made the information he obtained incomplete.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector]

Of course, another possibility is not ruled out: the divine robbery was not forged by Levi
Garrison himself, but a divine weapon obtained by chance.
As for Levi Garrison, he said that he built it by himself, but he could not hide it from others' eyes and eyes, so as to avoid other people's coveted hearts.
Even though Levi Garrison was so inviting, all the senior management of the Zhenmo Division thought that this sword was a peerless weapon!
"I'm afraid there is a high probability of this possibility."
Gong Qianqiu thought in his heart, Levi Garrison naturally understands the truth that every husband is innocent and guilty, and this kind of speculation is more in line with normal logic.
"Great Holy Son, does the poor material prove that this sword is difficult to be elegant?"
Advertisement
Gong Qianqiu continued to ask tentatively.

Gong Qianqiu was quite nervous, and she had high expectations for Shen Jie.
It was her biggest trump card when she entered the Taixu Shenzong.
If it doesn't work, it's completely useless!
Advertisement
For a time, Gong Qianqiu was extremely nervous!
This is a big blow to her plan!
"not like this!"
The Great Holy Son waved his hand and said, "The superb forging technique can make up for the lack of materials. If this sword is nourished by spiritual energy, it will definitely become a peerless weapon."
"Wait for the vice sect master to take a look at this seat before making a decision. Qianqiu, you have made a great contribution."
Gong Qianqiu was also very happy after hearing what the Great Holy Son said.
If he can really nourish the divine tribulation into a top-level divine weapon, then he can be regarded as a great servant of the Taixu Shenzong.
Coupled with the blessing of the relationship with the Great Holy Son, it is just around the corner to directly enter the high-level sect.
This level can be achieved in just a few days, and it is not an exaggeration to use a steady pace.
Advertisement
The key is that once you really step into the absolute high-level, you will be able to justifiably enjoy the top cultivation resources in the sect.
After all, depending on others is inferior, and Gong Qianqiu's ambition is far more than that.
"Then it's hard for you to recommend it!"
Gong Qianqiu leaned his head on the chest of the Great Holy Son and said delicately.
The Great Holy Son was instantly elated, and said with a smile, "There is no need to say such foreign words between you and me."
"It's not too late, I'll take it to the top of the sect to appreciate it, and then I will push you to power."

“Well, everything depends on you!” Gong Qianqiu’s voice was soft and silky, and the big saint felt that his bones were almost crisp.
After a moment of tenderness, the Great Holy Son contentedly took the divine robbery and went to the Taixu Shenzong discussion hall.
The deputy suzerain, Yin Xuejian, sat on the golden chair on the high platform in the middle, and the other core high-level executives were seated according to their status.
“Vice Sect Master, this sword is called Divine Tribulation, and it was presented to Qianqiu Qianqiu by the cultivation seedlings brought by the Three Holy Sons from the mundane world.”
The Great Holy Son paused and continued: “But now she has been accepted as a disciple by me.”
“The forging skills of this sword are far from my brothers, and I am willing to be inferior.”
“That’s right, even in the entire Kunlun Ruins, there are not many people who can match such a forging technique.”
The Fifth Holy Son and the Sixth Holy Son took the lead in expressing their stance. After all, they were the authorities in Taixu Shenzong’s weapon forging.
“This sword can help Taixu Shenzong reach a higher level.”
“I never thought that there would be such a magical weapon in the secular world. It really opened my eyes to this seat.”
Everyone praised the divine robbery one after another, and the Great Holy Son smiled even more.
The divine calamity was finally passed on to Yin Xuejian. He observed it carefully, and was also pleasantly surprised.
“If this sword is nurtured in the spiritual veins, it will become a peerless divine sword within a few years.”
“At that time, the status of our Taixu Shenzong in Kunlun Ruins will be improved to a higher level."

Yin Xuejian looked up and laughed.
The reason why the Taixu Shenzong is now only a medium-sized sect is that it lacks a super magic weapon to control the religion.
Now that there is a divine catastrophe, it directly makes up for this deficiency. As long as you wait for a few years, the Taixu Shenzong will undergo a qualitative transformation.
"The Great Holy Son, it is a great achievement to dedicate to the Palace of Divine Tribulation. I have named her as the elder of the last seat. If she truly worships you, you must cultivate her carefully."

"As for the retreat time of the Three Holy Sons, it can be appropriately shortened."
"Do you have any objections?"
Yin Xuejian asked in a deep voice.
Everyone said in unison: "Vice Sect Master Shengming!"
Because Gong Qianqiu has both sides, the seven saints have a good opinion of Gong Qianqiu, and the relationship between the first son and Gong Qianqiu is ambiguous.
Even if there is no such thing as a divine calamity, even an elder at the end of Fenggong Qianqiu will not be questioned.
Advertisement
"The seat of God's Tribulation is temporarily kept by this work, go to the Holy Vein Gathering Array for nourishment, and all retreat!"
Yin Xuejian felt that the great revival of Taixu Shenzong was just around the corner.
The Great Holy Son is also very satisfied, and Gong Qianqiu got what he wanted to be called an elder and became a real high-level.
He was able to show a heroic appearance in front of her.
Advertisement
The Great Holy Son returned to the bamboo house and saw Gong Qianqiu pacing back and forth in the bamboo forest, looking a little restless.

“Saint Son, you are back.”
Seeing the Great Holy Son, Gong Qianqiu hurriedly went up to say hello.
The great saint took advantage of the situation and hugged Gong Qianqiu around his waist, shook his little dreadlocks, and said with a smile: “Do you miss the handsome and unrestrained seat?” “Relax, beauty, at the strong request of this seat, the deputy sect master named you the last elder of the Taixu Shenzong.” “That divine calamity was officially brought by the deputy sect master to the holy vein to nourish it. I believe it will take a few years to become a peerless divine weapon.”
“Elder at the end of the seat?”
Gong Qianqiu was very surprised in his heart, but he made a slightly disappointed expression on his face, and I felt pity.
The Great Holy Son hurriedly coaxed: “Isn’t this just the beginning, when you improve your strength, your status will naturally rise.”
Advertisement
“No matter how bad it is, when this sect is in charge of the Taixu Shenzong, it would be a good idea to make you the deputy suzerain!”
“What do you think, this work is good enough for you?”
“Then I will rely on you in the future!”
Gong Qianqiu was overjoyed, but then his face became a little disappointed and said: “But how can I quickly improve my strength?” “Don’t you have the devouring spiritual root and spiritual bone? This seat gives you three divine veins as a reward, and is providing some heaven and earth treasures.”
The Great Saint said with a smile: “Is the beauty satisfied now?”
“Very satisfied!”
Gong Qianqiu smiled happily, and even he was not so shy about the hand of the great saint.
After some tenderness, Gong Qianqiu came directly to the three divine veins.

“As expected of a large sect in Kunlun Ruins, such a large-scale spiritual vein is a reward.”
Gong Qianqiu no longer hesitated at all, and quickly ran the extreme devouring technique.
The spiritual energy in the Kunlun Ruins is sufficient and pure, and Gong Qianqiu’s strength is constantly improving.
“It’s great. After using the lightning formation method to quench the body, it is the first time that I have the opportunity to absorb the power of spiritual veins on such a scale.”
Gong Qianqiu greedily devoured the spiritual energy, and the energy in the body also increased rapidly.
The next three days Gong Qianqiu was almost a sleepless night of training, and the Great Holy Son was not disturbed.
Yin Xuejian made it clear that if he wants to cultivate Gong Qianqiu carefully, he can’t just focus on emotional cultivation, right?
Three days later, Gong Qianqiu slowly exhaled a breath of turbid air and slowly opened her eyes, she could clearly feel that her strength had become stronger again.
“Levi Garrison, you wait for the leader, and when the leader becomes stronger, I will destroy you.”
Gong Qianqiu’s confidence has greatly increased. In her opinion, the cultivation resources of Kunlun Ruins are far from comparable to the secular world.
For example, the divine veins and the sacred veins do not exist in the secular world.
Spirit veins of the level of the two major alien races are already considered top-level cultivation resources, but they are abandoned in the Kunlun Ruins.
In this comparison, the speed of his own strength promotion is much faster than Levi
Garrison and others.
Although the previous fight was completely suppressed by Levi Garrison, as long as he improves quickly, it won’t take long to surpass them.

"And the master of Levi Garrison's forging law book will also be obtained. At that time, sects of the type like Taixu Shenzong can be used by me."
After making up his mind, Gong Qianqiu devoured it even more frantically.
the other side.
Since Xiao Feng's suicide was blocked by Levi Garrison, his mentality has completely changed.
And made a promise in front of Levi Garrison and others.
"Everyone, everything in the past is my fault, but I can't die now. I want to kill Gong Qianqiu myself to take revenge."
Advertisement
"After I kill the enemy, I will end it on my own, which can be regarded as repaying the sins I have committed during this period."
Xiao Feng said loudly.
Everyone persuaded, but Xiao Feng had obviously made a decision, and there was no room for manoeuvre.
I had no choice but to let Xiao Feng go.
Advertisement
However, Xiao Feng actually had other ideas, that is, to see Gong Qianqiu again and ask for clarity.
At the beginning, Gong Qianqiu was obviously his own woman, so how could he still treat him like this?
If it wasn't for deep love, how could it be possible to dedicate the whole person to himself?
Wait until these doubts are fully understood, and then personally kill Gong Qianqiu.
Wait until the revenge is over before committing suicide.
So Xiao Feng fell into the crazy practice of forgetting to eat and sleep.
Even Levi Garrison couldn't dissuade him, so he had to let him practice like this and even bring him into the divine vein to improve his body.
Levi Garrison's feelings for Xiao Feng are very complicated, and now that Xiao Feng has his own plans, it is up to him.

At this moment, a heavy message came from the brain of God.
Advertisement
In the process of detecting the super spiritual veins, he accidentally discovered that there was a burst of energy in an area not far from the War Eagle Country.
If the brain of God hadn't shut down the detector in time, I'm afraid it would have been directly exploded by this energy.
"The energy contained here is extremely terrifying. It is conservatively estimated that it is several times stronger than the previously detected sacred veins, or even ten times."
This is the original word of the brain of God.
It's just that God's brain doesn't know how to get into it, and has tried various methods to no avail.
In desperation, God's Brain could only call Levi Garrison to come and help.
Levi Garrison readily agreed, but he was a little worried.
Due to the continuous use of several holy veins to temper his body before, now ordinary holy veins cannot make him improve qualitatively.
Therefore, Levi Garrison urgently needs a powerful energy source for body quenching.
Without a word, Levi Garrison rushed over based on the location information provided by God's Brain.
"Mr. Ye, you are finally here. The source of terrifying energy I mentioned is right ahead."
said the God's Brain eagerly.
Levi Garrison looked in the direction of God's Brain and saw a jungle ahead.
In fact, this place itself is in a virgin forest, but the vegetation near the energy source is more exaggerated.
Ordinary vines have the thickness of a bucket, and the rocks are rugged, but the depths of the jungle are extremely quiet.
All the birds and beasts dared not approach, as if something terrifying was hidden there.
"Why didn't you come along?"

Seeing God's Brain and not following, Levi Garrison asked strangely.
The Brain of God said solemnly: "I've been close before. If I wasn't wearing this battle suit, I'm afraid I would have been shocked to death by that energy."
Levi Garrison's heart froze, and when he turned his head, he saw God's Brain tore off his coat, revealing that his carefully crafted battle suit was already tattered.
In particular, there are obvious tears in the chest.
"This kind of battle suit can withstand the full blow of the top powerhouses in Kunlun Ruins, and it has been damaged so far?"
Levi Garrison was a little shocked, and then he thought of the energy formation near Tianmen.
Could it be here too…
Levi Garrison said solemnly: "Then you stay away, and I will investigate the situation myself."
"Okay!" The Brain of God withdrew without any hesitation, apparently scared out of a psychological shadow by the previous anti-shock energy.
Levi Garrison continued to move forward, and sure enough, after advancing 100 meters, there was a clear sense of energy blockage.

But the strange thing is that there is no formation energy around, as if this power is naturally present.
"Want to stop Lao Tzu?"
Levi Garrison runs the basic exercises, and immediately emits terrifying energy to fight against it, so that he can continue to move forward.
hum!
There seems to be a sound of spatial dislocation that suddenly broke into a special area.
Levi Garrison also felt this way in his body. Although there was no change in the surrounding scenery, it seemed that the flow of time had slowed down a little here.
Advertisement

“what’s going on?”
Levi Garrison was full of doubts and tried to dodge with extreme speed, but it was a little slower than normal.
“This area is weird!”
Levi Garrison began to look around for an entrance similar to a bronze door.
Advertisement
However, after some investigation, it was still unsuccessful.
Although no corresponding entrance has been found, this area feels more and more like the secret realm of Kunlun Ruins to Levi Garrison.
“Is this also a hidden secret realm?”
“But according to common sense, there should be an entrance or something like that!”
“It’s so weird!”
Levi Garrison searched around again, but still did not find any breakthrough discoveries.
But it can be clearly felt that the further you go inside, the stronger the power induction.
“Maybe like those super spiritual veins are sealed, the real entrance and exit are hidden.”
“Maybe the people in the secret realm sealed many super spiritual veins, but they are now isolated from the world?”
Advertisement
Levi Garrison guessed.
After walking into the depths of the jungle for a while, Levi Garrison suddenly felt a tinge of heart palpitations, as if being secretly spied on by something.
He hurriedly released his strength to detect, but soon Levi Garrison was surprised to find that his detection ability was weakened a lot in this area.
After a long time, I got feedback, and no suspicious persons were found.
“Let’s get out first!”
Levi Garrison quickly retreated from this area for the sake of safety.
After all, the danger from Kunlun Ruins has not yet been resolved, so there is no need to risk doing other things now.
“Mr. Ye, what’s going on inside?” God’s Brain came up and asked.
Levi Garrison said solemnly: “I haven’t found anything, mark this place first, and then come to investigate after I finish dealing with the Kunlun Ruins."

"Okay!" The Brain of God didn't ask deeply.
Levi Garrison continued to ask: "By the way, how about you rush to make that batch of battle uniforms and weapons?"
"At most half a month, 5,000 sets of battle suits and weapons can be successfully produced."
God's Brain said proudly.
Levi Garrison said with a smile: "Very good, this has helped me a lot."
With these 5,000 sets of battle suits and new weapons, the comprehensive combat power of the absolute elite of the base camp will soar.
In this way, you can rest assured to enter the Kunlun Ruins to find out.
Kunlun Ruins.
The helm of the firmament.
Inside the conference hall.
An old man with white hair and beard was sitting on a chair on the high platform.
This person is Xie Zhongmou, the master of the Cang Qiong faction, and the father of Xie Huanyu.
Below sit Xie Huanyu, Xie Yunzong, Tiansi and other core high-level leaders in the sect.
"It's incredible that a mere monk in the secular world can actually repel the three holy sons of the Taixu Shenzong and a group of geniuses!"
Xie Zhongmou said with a sullen face.
Not long ago, Xie Huanyu and others returned from injuries, and Xie Zhongmou felt that it was a great shame. If he wanted to rest, he would kill him and take revenge.
I never thought that the news of the collapse of the Taixu Shenzong and Qianqiu Sect coalition forces would soon come.
"Never mind the other geniuses, but the strength of the Three Saints is very terrifying, and Levi Garrison can even defeat it. It's really too powerful."
"Now we have no hope of revenge."
Xie Huanyu was very emotional, and even began to feel fortunate that he ran fast enough at that time, otherwise the whole army would have to be destroyed.

"If such a talent can be brought under his command, then the strength of our Sky Sect will definitely increase greatly."
"Yeah, but I'm afraid this idea is a little unrealistic now."
"I am very interested in the secrets of Levi Garrison. It is said that the sword he forged is quite valued by the Taixu Shenzong."
"Yeah, even their Fifth Son and Sixth Son are willing to bow down to this forging technique."
Several other elders of the Cang Qiong faction were talking about it.
Xie Zhongmou waved his hand, and the scene suddenly became quiet.
Advertisement
"If Levi Garrison and others can improve their strength in a short period of time, there must be some kind of profound cultivation technique."
"If it's for us, the Sky Sect will be able to greatly increase its strength. Coupled with the toplevel forging skills, our sect may soar to the sky!"
"So I think it's best to capture Levi Garrison and others, and threaten Levi Garrison with his wife's life and hand over the exercises and forging techniques. What do you think?"
Xie Zhongmou's remarks immediately won the support of the vast majority of people.
Advertisement
But there are also a very small number of people who say they should act cautiously to avoid disaster.
"Father, your idea is good, but with the strength of our Sky Sect, we may not be able to do it!"
Xie Huanyu spoke out the last doubts in everyone's heart.
Xie Zhongmou said with a smile: "It is difficult for us to act alone, but what if we unite with several other sects?"
Everyone suddenly felt empowered, and human nature is to seek advantages and avoid disadvantages.

As long as the value of Levi Garrison is open and honest, other forces will inevitably not be tempted.
"In this way, we will unite several sects of the same strength to act, so as to avoid being hacked."
Xie Yunzong added.
Xie Zhongmou laughed and said, "Heroes see the same thing!"
Advertisement
"I think that Father Father has already joined forces, so I'm worried that the Taixu Shenzong will have follow-up actions. After all, they injured the Three Holy Sons this time!"
Xie Huanyu said solemnly.
"The young master's worries are not unreasonable. The three saints are the beloved disciple of Yin Xuejian, the vice sect master of the Taixu Shenzong. Will he stand out for his disciples?"
"If this matter is intervened by the Taixu Shenzong, we may not be able to successfully obtain those treasures."
"It's really troublesome!"
Xie Zhongmou waved his hand and said, "Don't worry everyone, I understand that Yin Xuejian, he is extremely arrogant and arrogant."
"The entire Taixu Shenzong except the suzerain, who is in his eyes, sneers at everyone else in private."
"Such a proud person will definitely not go to the secular world to kill people with all the power of his sect. He will feel that it is very worthwhile to do so."
Everyone nodded in agreement.
When Xie Zhongmou saw that everyone else had dispelled their doubts, he said solemnly:
"Huanyu, you go to these four major sects to send invitations in person, and say that I have something important to discuss with you."
Everyone was immediately surprised. It seemed that Xie Zhongmou had a plan, and even the invitations were written in advance.

Xie Huanyu took the order with pleasure. He was very active in revenge, and even fantasized about torturing Levi Garrison in the future to relieve the hatred in his heart.
At night, the Cang Qiong faction held a large banquet.
As Xie Huanyu distributed the invitations, the leaders of the Quartet sects arrived as promised.
The comprehensive strength of their sects is comparable to that of the Cang Qiong faction, namely Shendaomen, Rising Cloud Sword Sect, Wuxing faction, and Iron Fist Gang.
"Xie Mou is honored to be able to come here. Let's toast everyone first, and wish everyone a happy cooperation."
Xie Zhongmou said with a smile.
"Sect Master Xie is too polite."
"Yeah, it's an honor for Sect Leader Xie to think about such a good thing!"
"Just tell me how to cooperate!"
"We will definitely help."
The helm of the four sects drank the wine in the cup.
Xie Zhongmou did not hide anything, he directly disclosed Levi Garrison's affairs and made clear the risks and benefits.

"What do you guys think?"
Xie Zhongmou asked.
The head of the Wuxing faction, Shen Bodang, took the lead in expressing his position: "I think it is feasible. Although the three saints returned home, the strength of this seat is much stronger than his."
"With all your help, why can't you capture Levi Garrison alive?"
Fu Hanxue, the head of the Divine Sword Sect, agreed: "Sect Sect Master Shen is very right. I am very interested in Levi Garrison's forging technique."
"Yeah, our Iron Fist Gang focuses on body training. I didn't think that Levi Garrison was a pure body cultivator. His skills are definitely unfathomable."

Advertisement
Tekken Gang leader Xu Wantong said greedily.
Ouyang Chao, the sect master of Rising Cloud Sword Sect, did not hide his greed at all, and said with a smile, "As long as we share resources, I will definitely go with my elite."
"Don't worry, everyone, I have never thought about taking it alone, otherwise why would I not hide the value of Levi Garrison?"
"Since everyone has no objection, let's join forces in five days and enter the secular world."
Xie Zhongmou said solemnly.
Advertisement
"It's a word!"
The leaders of the four major sects raised their glasses and drank together, and the joint deal with Levi Garrison had been finalized.
Inside the base camp.
The 5,000 sets of equipment built by God's Brain were completed on schedule and all shipped to the base camp.
Levi Garrison selected 5,000 elites to distribute, and an elite army with top-level offensive and defensive weapons was formed.
In addition, during this period of time, everyone went to the Divine Vein and the Holy Vein to quench their bodies, and the comprehensive combat power of the members of the base camp has been qualitatively improved.
Ning Jinye led 80 team members to return as well. Their injuries have long since recovered, and now their strength has improved again.
"With this equipment, I feel that I can single out the ordinary monks in Kunlun Ruins."
"Why do I feel that killing ordinary Tianjiao is no problem!"
Advertisement
"I think your bragging skills are more powerful than this equipment."
Levi Garrison was also very happy to see that everyone was full of confidence.
"Everyone, be quiet, now that your combat power is beginning to take shape, it is more than enough to guard the base camp."

"That's why I decided to lead Wen Lei and others to the Kunlun Ruins tomorrow to investigate and try to completely eliminate the hidden dangers."
Levi Garrison said solemnly.
Everyone was rejoicing when they heard the words, and there was even no panic in the past.
When night fell, Levi Garrison wanted to rest early to recharge.
I didn't think that the elite subordinates who were in charge of hiding near Tianmen suddenly received a message.
"A suspicious person appeared from the direction of Tianmen. They are extremely powerful.
Several brothers who were in charge of tracking have been killed."
Levi Garrison's eyes narrowed slightly, telling his subordinates that there is no need to continue tracking, and the next thing is left to himself.
"Heaven has a way, you don't go, hell has no door."
"I didn't think that I didn't ask you to settle accounts, but you took the initiative to send it to your door."
"Since it's here, stay forever!"
Levi Garrison immediately informed the base camp to prepare for the battle, while he led Wen Lei and others to wait for the rabbit.
Not long after, Levi Garrison felt several powerful breaths approaching the base camp rapidly.
Among them, three auras are particularly familiar, namely Tian Si, Xie Huanyu and Xie Yunzong.
"It seems that the people from the firmament faction are coming for revenge."
Levi Garrison immediately made a judgment.
After a while, the coalition of the five sects entered the sight of Levi Garrison and others.
Levi Garrison observed it, there were about 30 people, and everyone was very strong.
Especially the leading ones are not weaker than the Three Saints, and even a little stronger.
Xie Huanyu was in the crowd and saw Levi Garrison at a glance.
"My father, it was the guy who injured me. He is Levi Garrison."

A murderous intent flashed in Xie Zhongmou's eyes, and then he said coldly: "It seems that those near Tianmen are all your people."
"It seems that you are not very stupid. I thought the Cang Qiong faction was a fool's sect!"
Levi Garrison said with a smile.
Xie Zhongmou snorted coldly and said, "I hope your mouth can be so hard in a while."

"Levi Garrison, I advise you to go ahead and capture it! So as not to suffer from flesh and blood."
"This is the coalition of the five sects, and these are all sect masters, far from being comparable to the Three Holy Sons."
"If you do it, you will surely die!"
Xie Huanyu said extremely arrogantly.
Levi Garrison shrugged and said indifferently, "Please die!"

Naked contempt!*
"Yu'er, step back!"
Xie Zhongmou took two steps forward, stared at Levi Garrison with a burning gaze, and said in a condensed voice, "Levi Garrison, you will pay a heavy price for your arrogance."
"If that's the case, don't talk nonsense. In order to save time, let's go together!"
Advertisement
Levi Garrison urged.
"The arrogant junior, I would like to experience your great tricks!"
Before he finished speaking, a burly figure shot out like an arrow from a string.
Seeing this man suddenly punched Levi Garrison's head.
Woohoo!
Before the fist arrives, the wind arrives first.
The entire human body carries a violent cyclone during the flyby.
Due to the speed of travel, there was a faint sound of breaking the air.

“Elder of the Iron Fist Gang, I heard that the fist strength has reached the realm of perfection!”
Advertisement
“Even if the mountains in the ten directions are so powerful, they will be instantly smashed to smithereens.”
“Even if Levi Garrison can’t be seriously injured, I’m afraid he will give him a disservice.” Everyone talked a lot, but in fact, they didn’t really pay attention to Levi Garrison in their hearts.
He even attributed the defeat of the Three Holy Sons to underestimating the enemy.
Only Xie Huanyu and Xie Yunzong had solemn expressions on their faces, and they were even so powerful as Levi Garrison, the Great Elder of the Iron Fist Gang might be in danger.
The elder of the Iron Fist Gang saw that Levi Garrison was standing still and didn’t move at all, as if he was frightened by his own thunderous punch.
“I heard that you are a body cultivator, so let me see how hard your body is?”
Iron Fist helped the elders to add a bit of punch again.
“as you wish!”
Levi Garrison finally moved, but instead of dodging, he also punched in the direction of the Great Elder of the Iron Fist Gang.
Bang!
The fist strength of the two collided in the void, making a deafening muffled sound.
Immediately after, a figure was pushed out quickly, and finally fell heavily.
Everyone watched intently, and saw that the elder of the Iron Fist Gang was lying on the ground and had no movement.
In particular, his entire right arm has disappeared, and the blood flowing from the broken shoulder and arm is particularly dazzling.
“how can that be?”
“Failed with just one punch?”
“Dead to be exact.”

Sure enough, everyone found that Iron Fist helped the Great Elder kick with both legs, and it was completely dead.
Whoa whoa whoa!
The coalition of the five factions was in an uproar, and the strength of the elders of the Iron Fist Gang could definitely rank in the top ten among the crowd.
In particular, he was known for his strength and ferocity with his copper-skinned and ironbone fists, but under the circumstances of frontal bombardment, he died so tragically!
"Levi Garrison is so strong!"
People no longer have the slightest contempt.
The leader of the Iron Fist Gang, Xu Wantong, roared, "Levi Garrison, you dare to kill the elders of my gang, and I will smash your corpse into ten thousand pieces today."
"Don't worry, I'll ask you to accompany him soon."
Levi Garrison joked.
Xu Wantong was immediately angry, and immediately wanted to take action against Levi Garrison, but was stopped by Xie Zhongmou one step ahead.
"Don't be impulsive, Gang Leader Xu, Levi Garrison's strength is extraordinary, I'm afraid not one person can match."
"To be on the safe side, it's better for us to go up together."
Xie Zhongmou voiced.
Xu Wantong calmed down immediately. Although he was stronger than the Great Elder, he was definitely not enough to kill him in seconds.
From this point of view alone, Levi Garrison's strength is indeed terrifying, and it is difficult to win in a single battle.
"The five of us hold Levi Garrison, and the rest go to catch his wife and daughter, remember to make a quick decision."
Xie Zhongmou immediately issued an order.
Several other helmsmen nodded to their sect members, and everyone quickly unified the battle plan.

Levi Garrison's eyes narrowed slightly, and he could feel that the strength of the five sect leaders was higher than that of the Three Holy Sons.
"bring it on!"
Levi Garrison said solemnly.
"Sect Master Fu Hanxue, please enlighten me!"
"Shen Bo Party, the leader of the Wuxing faction, please enlighten me!"
"Xu Wantong, the leader of the Iron Fist Gang, please enlighten me!"
Advertisement
"Ouyang Chao, Sect Master of Rising Cloud Sword Sect, please enlighten me!"
"Xie Zhongmou, the master of the Cang Qiong faction, please enlighten me!"
Before he finished speaking, the five helmsmen had already surrounded Levi Garrison in multiple directions.
Wen Lei and others originally planned to come to help, but were stopped by Levi Garrison one step ahead.
Advertisement
"It's up to me to deal with it myself, you can deal with other people, kill if you can, and make a quick decision!"
Levi Garrison said coldly.
Although everyone was worried about Levi Garrison, they never questioned his order.
"kill!"
Xie Zhongmou gave a low voice, and the five attacked at almost the same time.
The sword gang flickered, the sword glow flew, the fist shadow was heavy, the hidden weapon was like rain…
The five helmsmen showed their means, and directly surrounded Levi Garrison with no wind and rain, and all possible escape directions were completely blocked.
"Good come!"
Levi Garrison's fighting spirit was awe-inspiring, and he quickly ran the basic exercises, and for a while, the pressure of the breath spread.
Advertisement

Looking at the golden charm of Levi Garrison's body, he quickly formed several thick energy shields.
Ding Ding Ding!
The hidden weapon was the first to hit the energy shield, making a piercing sound of golden symphony.
The fist shadow was as thick as a mountain, and the outermost energy shield was compressed and deformed slightly, but it did not touch Levi Garrison at all.
The sword gangs and sword lights criss-crossed one after another, and they specially selected the places where the energy shield was deformed to slash.
Xu Wantong's moves were extremely fierce, and he was responsible for Zhengman's attack to attract Levi Garrison's attention.
Shen Bodang majored in hidden weapons and poison, and hidden weapons interfered with Levi Garrison's mind like rain.
Fu Hanxue and Ouyang Chao were responsible for side-by-side attacks with one sword and one sword, mainly attacking Levi Garrison's two wings.
Xie Zhongmou is a ghost in his body, and he is very good at hiding his breathing exercises.
He is responsible for finding the perfect opportunity in the dark and giving Levi Garrison a fatal blow.
I have to say that the five helms attacked like mercury pouring down the ground, giving Levi Garrison no chance to breathe at all.
"It's such a strong defense, isn't it too perverted to practice physical training?"
"No wonder the elder was killed in one move!"
Xu Wantong sighed in his heart that the Iron Fist Gang focuses on physical cultivation, and for them a pair of iron fists is the best weapon.
But compared with Levi Garrison's physical strength, it's far from enough. If you can get hold of this body refining technique, the Iron Fist Gang will take off directly.

The first round of the five-man attack was over, and only the last layer of the energy shield on Levi Garrison's body was left.
The situation seems to be firmly controlled by the helmsmen of the five sects.
However, before the five people launched the second round of attack, the energy shield on Levi Garrison's body increased sharply again, as if he had put on countless layers of heavy armor.
"Is the speed of condensing energy too fast?"
The five helmsmen were a little dumbfounded.
You must know that in the connection stage between the first round and the second round of attacks, the Shen Bo Party's hidden weapon attack did not stop.
In other words, the main attack point in the connection stage is the hidden weapon, so Levi Garrison quickly replenished the energy shield while responding to the attack.
"Levi Garrison is a pure body cultivator, most of the body is difficult to penetrate, and he focuses on attacking his weakness."
Xie Zhongmou kept changing his position while transmitting sound to several other people.
Shen Bodang said solemnly, "I attacked his eyes, and Sect Master Fu and Sect Master Ouyang attacked his left and right sides."
"Xu Gang master specialized in his temple and heart, Xie Pai Master assassinated Levi Garrison's back heart."
"This is a great plan!"
Everyone nodded in agreement, these parts are relatively vulnerable parts of monks, even pure body repair is no exception.
"It's a good one, but what I'm trying to say is you're so naive."
Levi Garrison suddenly ran the basic exercises, and the golden radiance of the body surface became more obvious, just like an ancient god of war came into the world.

“In the face of absolute power, all plans are useless.”
Levi Garrison said coldly.
The five helmsmen did not believe in evil and launched a new round of attacks again.
This time, they no longer tried to test the depth, and the energy shield on Levi Garrison’s body was finally shattered under this round of attack.
“This is the moment!”
Xie Zhongmou discovered the flaw. It was the moment when the energy shield was broken, and his body shot out, and he was behind him in the blink of an eye.
Advertisement
He thinks this is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity, and even if he can’t kill Levi Garrison, he can completely injure him.
Swish!
The sword light flashed, and it stabbed Levi Garrison in the back of the heart like a giant.
Ding!
Advertisement
A crisp metallic sound came, and the originally sharp blade was folded into a huge angle by a powerful force.
On the other hand, the surface of Levi Garrison’s face was not broken, only a tiny white spot appeared on his body.
“The sneak attack was good, and the flaws sold to you, do you still believe it?”
Levi Garrison’s joking voice sounded.
“Oops!”
Xie Zhongmou suddenly had an ominous premonition in his heart, and instinctively wanted to draw a sword to escape.
“late!”
Levi Garrison’s cold voice sounded again.
He saw his body turn like a spinning top, quickly protruding three fingers, pinching them on the blade of the long sword with great precision.
Advertisement
“Release this seat!”
Xie Zhongmou suddenly turned his body, trying to break free from Levi Garrison’s shackles with the power of his body turning.

However, the power he suddenly released was easily resolved by Levi Garrison, and he didn't even turn his body.
"Your strength is too weak."
Levi Garrison said quietly.
While speaking, Levi Garrison flicked the blade of the long sword with his left hand.
hum!
As the blade vibrated violently, Xie Zhongmou only felt numbness in his arm, and finally let go of his hand after a short resistance.
At the same time, the figure shot out in reverse, and he felt Levi Garrison waving his arm, and a powerful force roared out.
If you don't evade, even if you can save your life, I'm afraid you will end up with serious injuries.
Swish swish!
Fu Hanxue and Ouyang Chao's attacks were seamlessly connected, but Levi Garrison swung the long sword he had snatched with his backhand.
Several swords roared out.
Clang! Clang! Clang!
In the void, sparks radiated in all directions, and the two helmsmen were shaken and flew out.
At the same time, the Shen Bo Party's hidden weapons attacked again.
"How about a sneak attack?"
Levi Garrison suddenly ran the exercise, and even used his breath to forcefully catch the hidden weapon, and then reversed the force.
Those hidden weapons were reflected back like rain, Shen Bodang's eyes narrowed slightly, but he couldn't dodge a little, and his shoulders were injured by his own hidden weapons.
"Now it's Lao Tzu's turn to attack."
Levi Garrison didn't give the opponent a chance to breathe, and punched Xu Wantong's body.
Facing this thunderous blow, Xu Wantong couldn't dodge any longer, so he had to bite the bullet and confront Levi Garrison.

Bang!
With a muffled sound, Xu Wantong only felt the terrifying force coming, and the whole person was shocked and flew out, and he vomited blood while his body was still in the air.
Levi Garrison did not give Xu Wan a chance to breathe, and continued to launch a frantic attack, hitting him three times in a row.
Although Xu Wantong instinctively ran the exercises to resist, the energy shield was defeated by Levi Garrison.
Eventually fell to the ground and passed out.
"Go back!"
Several others realized that something was wrong, but it was too late.
With the heavy damage to Xu Wantong, Levi Garrison sounded the horn for a counterattack.
With absolute advantages in strength and speed, Levi Garrison directly controlled the entire battle.
The helmsmen of the four sects have only the ability to parry, but have no ability to fight back, in the face of the stormy fist-bombing.
It didn't take long for him to be hit by the fist wind one after another and fell to the ground with serious injuries.
"Protect the sect master (sect leader), don't entangle here anymore."
The elders of the major sects who were fighting with Wen Lei also realized that the situation of the battle had changed, and they all withdrew from the battle and attacked in the direction of Levi Garrison.

"Just because you want the Savior?"
Before he finished speaking, Levi Garrison seemed to have transformed into a war machine, rushing around with his fierce fists.
Wherever they passed, blood mist burst out, and in just over ten seconds, seven or eight elder-level powerhouses died on the spot.

sizzle!
The sound of sucking cold air was constantly heard from the scene.
Levi Garrison's terrifying combat power deeply shocked the powerhouses of the five major factions.
Advertisement
For a while, no one dared to continue to attack, and they all retreated to the far side.
Wen Lei and others wanted to chase, but heard Levi Garrison say in a deep voice, "Don't chase after poor thieves. Besides, as long as these people are in hand, they won't be able to make any big waves."
Levi Garrison dodged and came to Xie Zhongmou and others, and directly used his strength to restrain them.
The five sect leaders looked at each other, their faces filled with incredible.
Advertisement
After killing them, they never thought that the five of them would be so vulnerable in front of Levi Garrison.
"There are some questions that you need to answer. If I am satisfied, I may be able to spare your life."
Levi Garrison said coldly.
Although the leaders of the five major sects were reluctant, they could only nod their heads to express their willingness to cooperate.
Seeing that the elixir and treasures from heaven and earth were swept away by Levi
Garrison.
The helms of the five sects are like concubines.
The eggplants seemed to be beaten by frost, and they didn't have the momentum they had when they first came to the base camp.
I originally wanted to capture Levi Garrison to get his blacksmithing and cultivation techniques, but now he has lost his wife and lost his army.
Even himself was reduced to a prisoner, facing the danger of losing his life at any time.

“You guys first give me a detailed introduction to the Kunlun Ruins!” Levi Garrison asked directly.
“The major sectarian forces in the Kunlun Ruins are criss-crossed, and even we can’t accurately describe how many powerhouses there are.”
“Yes, Mr. Ye, our sect is only a small force, and higher-level information cannot be accessed.”
“But we’re willing to say everything we know.”
“That’s right, I would too!”
“I just ask Mr. Ye to spare my life, and I will only follow Mr. Ye’s lead in the future.”
The leaders of the five major sects scrambled to make a statement, and it was obvious that they had a strong desire to survive.
Levi Garrison nodded with satisfaction and said, “One by one, especially in the case of Taixu Shenzong, it is even more important to be meticulous.”
The leaders of the five sects nodded, and then informed Levi Garrison of what they had learned.
After some understanding, Levi Garrison was also quite shocked, the size of the Kunlun Ruins far exceeded his imagination.
It is not an exaggeration to describe it as one world, and according to preliminary judgments, even the seven holy sons of the Taixu Shenzong are only outstanding people of the younger generation.
But definitely not among the strongest.
The strength of those super sects is unfathomable, and they can kill small and mediumsized sects in seconds, regardless of their cultivation techniques or resources.
It is conceivable that the strong people have been cultivated.
“By the way, Mr. Ye, Gong Qianqiu presented a sword called Shen Jie to Yin Xuejian, the vice suzerain of Taixu Shenzong.”
“After being appraised by Yin Xuejian, it was regarded as the sacred sword of the sect, and it was placed in the core sacred vein to warm and nurture in order to transform into a peerless magic weapon, and it was renamed the robbery of the gods."

"Gong Qianqiu has made great contributions to offering treasures, and was enfeoffed by Yin Xuejian as the elder of the last seat, and worshipped under the sect of the Great Holy Son, and the Great Holy Son took care of him."
"And as far as I know, Gong Qianqiu has an ambiguous relationship with the Great Holy Son for the sake of his superior position."
Xie Zhongmou said solemnly.
"Gong Qianqiu is so hateful, he even licked his face and borrowed flowers to offer Buddha!"
"This woman really is a dog who can't stop eating shit, so she brought this set to Kunlun Ruins again."
"It must be killed to relieve the hatred in my heart."
Phoenix and others were filled with righteous indignation when they heard the words, but they never thought that Gong Qianqiu would climb directly to the top of Taixu Shenzong in just a few days.

In particular, the methods she used were disgusting, and there was no lower limit for Israeli servants.
Xiao Feng's face in the crowd was instantly ugly, his fists were tightly clenched, and his nails were embedded in his palms.
"Qianqiu, why are you doing this to me?"
"How long has it been since you turned around and threw yourself into the arms of another man, just to climb up?"
"Could it be that the Great Holy Son forced her? Listening to Xie Zhongmou's remarks, the Great Holy Son is clearly a devil of flowers."
"But no matter what, you can't treat me like this!"

The more Xiao Feng thought about it, the more angry he became, his chest heaving violently.
“Furthermore, that divine calamity was lost because of his own disclosure of information, and it must not fall into the hands of the Taixu Shenzong.”
“Even if you risk your life, you have to take it back.”
Xiao Feng made up his mind, but thinking that his current cultivation is really difficult to deal with the powerhouses of the Taixu Shenzong, he was incompetent and furious.
Advertisement
“You must continue to devour and improve your cultivation, so that your wish can be fulfilled as soon as possible.”
The more Xiao Feng thought about it, the more insane his facial features began to distort.
“By the way, Mr. Ye, Yin Xuejian commented that even in the Kunlun Ruins, no more than three people can achieve the forging technique.”
Xie Zhongmou was surprised again.
“And this?”
Levi Garrison was a little surprised.
The Divine Tribulation was forged according to the method left by the master, and I never thought that it would be able to hit such a level in the Kunlun Void.
According to Xie Zhongmou, even if the entire Kunlun Ruins cannot find three people who can achieve such a level of forging, is it too strong?
You must know that the robbery is just forged and played by yourself.
Advertisement
If you choose better materials and forge more meticulously, wouldn’t the refined weapons directly reach the level of magic weapons?
“The things that the master left are too awesome. Forging techniques are like this, and so are the basic exercises.”
Levi Garrison became more and more curious about the background of Master Cheap.
What is left is not only suitable for Kunlun Ruins, but also at the top level in Kunlun Ruins.

If you find your master in the future, you must ask him clearly, the old man is definitely not the boss of a super sect, otherwise he will never have such a heritage.
"I'll save your life for the time being, presumably you also have the means to contact the inside of the sect."
"Now tell those who escaped to keep silent, and help me keep an eye on the movements of
the Taixu Shenzong."
"In the future, when I enter the Kunlun Ruins, I still need you to lead the way for me! Is there any problem?"
Levi Garrison asked coldly.
The leaders of the five major sects nodded, and they did not dare to disobey Levi Garrison's request now.
It is a blessing to be able to guarantee a worry-free life. As for the dignity of the face, they have long been thrown into the clouds by them.
"And tell me all the exercises you've cultivated."
Levi Garrison said coldly.
The corners of the mouths of the leaders of the five sects twitched, and it seemed that these were their original intentions to join forces to besiege Levi Garrison.
Now that the roles have changed, it is really a loss to my grandma's house.
But in order to survive, the five did not dare to disobey, so they had to tell all the combat skills and exercises they had mastered.
It's just that the five helmsmen don't understand that Levi Garrison is so much stronger than them, and these exercises are useless at all!
Of course, Levi Garrison didn't want to use these things for himself. It is enough for him to rely on his own pure strength now.
When strength and speed are at their peak, even the simplest uppercut can be fatal to the opponent.
So Levi Garrison doesn't pay much attention to fancy moves now, but this doesn't mean that the exercises are useless for others.

In particular, Wen Lei and others have only had a short time to practice basic exercises. If they cooperate with exercises and combat skills, they will naturally be able to exert stronger combat power.
Levi Garrison is now doing everything possible to improve the people around him. After all, the Taixu Shenzong is a hidden danger after all.

And it is impossible for him to protect everyone around him 24 hours a day. As long as they are strong, the solution is to solve the problem.
Levi Garrison wrote down all the exercises that several people said, and then matched and taught them according to the characteristics of the people around them.
the other side.
Xiao Feng has entered the mode of crazy cultivation.
He wants to go to Kunlun Ruins as soon as possible to find Gong Qianqiu and ask him clearly, and then personally kill him to take revenge.
Devour!
Advertisement
Crazy Devour!
Xiao Feng practiced sleepless nights at the location of the divine veins provided by God's Brain.
During this period, Levi Garrison, Levilia and others have persuaded Xiao Feng that the extreme devouring exercises have great disadvantages.
Especially for cultivators who are not devouring spiritual roots and bones, the extreme devouring method is even more powerful, and may even be life-threatening.
Advertisement
However, Xiao Feng can't listen to it at all now. His mind is full of improving his strength as soon as possible, and then seeking revenge for Gong Qianqiu.
After several persuasion to no avail, Levi Garrison and others just let it go.

Fortunately, there are enough divine veins detected by God's Brain, which also gives Xiao Feng enough power source.
Xiao Feng can clearly feel that his strength is constantly rising.
But as time went by, Xiao Feng found that swallowing had fallen into a bottleneck.
"It's time for revenge!"
Xiao Feng secretly made up his mind.
Under the arrangement of Levi Garrison, the members of the base camp began to practice the exercises and combat skills of the leaders of the five major sects.
Make final preparations for going to Kunlun Ruins.

In his spare time, Levi Garrison went to the Brain of God and found the location of the energy explosion near the War Eagle Country.
This time, Levi Garrison has done a rather detailed investigation, and it can basically be determined that this is a world similar to Kunlun Ruins.
And the time inside this space seems to be a little strange to the outside world, but the purity of the spiritual energy can definitely kill the spiritual energy contained in the divine veins.
For Levi Garrison, this is the most abundant cultivation resource, and it is simply the fat on the lips. If you make good use of it, you will benefit greatly.
However, Levi Garrison still did not find a place similar to Tianmen, which made him decide to suspend entry.
According to Xie Zhongmou and the others, even Tianmen changes its position randomly within a certain range.
Perhaps the same is true of this independent world near War Eagle Country, so it has to be used after all-round observation to avoid uncontrollable situations.
"Let's solve the troubles of the Taixu Shenzong first!"
Levi Garrison muttered to himself.
the other side.
In the Taixu Shenzong.
After several days of extreme devouring the power of the divine veins, Gong Qianqiu's strength increased very quickly.

Even Gong Qianqiu didn't think that the effect of using Tianlei to quench his body would be so good.
At the same time, I was very fortunate that the people from the Tianshi Mansion were not chased and killed.
In this way, even if you encounter the upper limit of swallowing again, you can force
Tianshifu to urge the lightning formation to help you temper your body.
In this way, you can continue to perform extreme devouring and upgrading until you are invincible in the world.
Gong Qianqiu has even fantasized about the wonderful scene of himself standing on the top of the Kunlun Ruins.
And Gong Qianqiu's cultivation realm has advanced by leaps and bounds in a short period of time, which has also made the Great Saint Son pay more and more attention.
"Qianqiu, cultivation requires a combination of work and rest. In the past few days, you have been cultivating without sleeping and eating, which is not a good thing in the long run."
The Great Holy Son said in the tone of an elder.
Gong Qianqiu received the merits and hurriedly greeted him with a smile: "Thank you for the guidance, otherwise I may go astray!"
"It's not that serious, but this seat is also for your own good."
"By the way, Qianqiu, do you know what kind of sword intent this seat is practicing?" The Great Holy Son asked with a smile.
Gong Qianqiu said truthfully: "I only know that the three holy sons practice ruthless swordsmanship, and I also ask the first holy son to enlighten me."
"The ruthless kendo is too boring, not to mention that people themselves are emotional animals, and they just cut off their emotions and enter the Dao, don't they seek troubles themselves?"

The Great Holy Son sneered at the ruthless kendo, and then changed the topic and continued: "This seat is practicing the kendo of seven emotions and six desires."
"Seven Emotions and Six Desires Kendo?"
Miya Chiaki pretended to hear it for the first time.
The Great Holy Son stood with his hands behind his back, as if he were a master.
"Seven emotions and six desires are the nature of human beings, and this seat is the true superior swordsman when entering the Tao with seven emotions and six desires." Seeing that Gong Qianqiu was still suspicious, the great saint said with a smile: "Come and have two moves with this seat, so that you can experience the swordsmanship of seven emotions and six desires."

"Okay, that Great Holy Son, Qianqiu has offended!" Gong Qianqiu made a move, but saw that the Great Holy Son did not hide at all, but he did not know when there was a bamboo sword in his hand.
With a gentle wave, the surrounding things seemed to change in an instant, and the Great Holy Son disappeared without knowing when.
Then Gong Qianqiu saw many people kneeling on the ground in front of him, vaguely worshipping him, one of them was Levi Garrison.
Advertisement
Gong Qianqiu suddenly felt happy, and the corners of his mouth rose slightly involuntarily, revealing a charming smile.
"Something's wrong, how could Levi Garrison appear in front of you? It's even more impossible to bow down to yourself!"
Gong Qianqiu's heart froze, and the scene in front of him disappeared instantly, but there was already a bamboo sword across his neck.
"This……"
Gong Qianqiu's forehead suddenly broke out in cold sweat. If the Great Holy Son had murderous intentions just now, he would already be in a different place.

"What happened just now?"
Gong Qianqiu swallowed hard and asked the doubts in his heart.
The Great Holy Son took back the bamboo sword and said proudly: "This is the sword intent of joy in the seven emotions, although I don't know what you saw just now, but it must be what you wished in your heart, but this moment of stunnedness came to me. Said it was enough to kill you."
Gong Qianqiu took a deep breath, no wonder he saw that scene just now, it turned out to be the rhythm of the sword intent of the Great Saint.
Advertisement
"What a terrible swordsmanship!"
Gong Qianqiu said with emotion.
The Great Holy Son asked with a smile, "Then do you want to learn?"
"think!"
Gong Qianqiu replied without any hesitation.
The Great Holy Son nodded and said, "If there is a woman in the kendo of the Seven Emotions and Six Desires, it will improve faster, Qianqiu, if you marry this seat, this seat will definitely teach you all."
Gong Qianqiu was shocked. She didn't think that the first son had to propose a marriage so suddenly. The original plan was to delay the time as a couple.
After the wings are full, let's talk about the Great Holy Son kicking away.
After this period of understanding, Gong Qianqiu learned that the Great Holy Son was already three wives and four concubines.
Seeing that Gong Qianqiu was a little hesitant, the great saint said quickly: "As long as you are willing, this seat will let you be a decent lady, and everyone else will be reduced to a concubine."
"Thanks to the love of the Great Holy Son, Qianqiu… Qianqiu is willing."
Gong Qianqiu pretended to be shy, which made the Great Holy Son burst into ecstasy.
In fact, Gong Qianqiu's temporary agreement is also helpless.
To be able to obtain the current cultivation resources, the Great Sage Son cannot do anything.

What's more, if you want to truly become the absolute core of the Taixu Shenzong, you have to rely on the power of the Great Holy Son, especially the latter is the heir of the sect in the future.
Gong Qianqiu could only temporarily agree.
the other side.
Xiao Feng devoured the energy of the two divine veins again, and his strength increased rapidly.
"It's time to go to Kunlun Ruins."
Xiao Feng made up his mind and directly contacted the Cang Qiong faction in the name of Levi Garrison's apprentice.
In fact, after Levi Garrison ordered it, the core of the five major sects that escaped was already at any time near Tianmen.
They also knew that Levi Garrison planned to seek revenge from Taixu Shenzong.
It just didn't occur to me that Xiao Feng was the first to contact them.
"Xie Huanyu, didn't you think we would meet again?" Xiao Feng said jokingly.
Although Xie Huanyu was extremely angry in his heart, his father could only endure his anger with all his might and let Xiao Feng tease him.

"Master sent me to investigate the situation first, you lead the way ahead!"
Xiao Feng said proudly.
Xie Huanyu did not dare to ask too much, for fear of offending the first disciple of Levi Garrison and causing his father to die unexpectedly.
In his opinion, Levi Garrison can even forgive Xiao Feng for such a big mistake, and he must value him very much, which probably represents Levi Garrison's attitude.
With Xie Huanyu leading the way, Xiao Feng quickly entered the Kunlun Ruins.
Feeling the pure spiritual energy under the rain, Xiao Feng was very excited.

Advertisement
Xiao Feng was even more excited when he saw the super spiritual veins that had been abandoned.
"This time I can swallow enough, and the cultivation base will definitely improve more."
After making up his mind, Xiao Feng said solemnly, "Take me to the Cang Qiong School first, and prepare some treasures for Lao Tzu."
"it is good!"
Advertisement
Xie Huanyu almost vomited blood from anger, but he really didn't dare to offend.
The two came to the main altar of the Cang Qiong School, and Xiao Feng was treated as a guest, which was called a majestic one.
However, no one knew that Xiao Feng came with Levi Garrison behind his back.
He came to Kunlun Ruins for two purposes, one of which was naturally to inquire about Gong Qianqiu's information.
The second is that for the cultivation resources of the five major sects, Xiao Feng still wants to continue his crazy cultivation.
Reach the super-strong state at the fastest speed, so that you have the confidence to seek revenge for Gong Qianqiu.
With the blessing of Levi Garrison's first apprentice, Xiao Feng can be said to be rampant in the Cang Qiong faction.
Even if Xie Huanyu, the core carrier of the Cang Qiong faction, was dissatisfied, they dared not speak out.
This time, the five sects coalition forces dealt with Levi Garrison, the Cang Qiong faction can be said to be the best, but the casualties are serious.
Advertisement
If the Sect Master Xie Zhongmou was killed because of offending Xiao Feng, then the Cang Qiong Sect would have no hope of making a comeback.
Therefore, as long as it is within their ability, they will unconditionally satisfy all Xiao Feng's requirements.

The treasures of heaven and earth that have been accumulated for many years have also been donated, which makes Xiao Feng's extreme devouring exercises even more useful.
Coupled with the divine vein possessed by the Cang Qiong Sect itself, Xiao Feng's cultivation realm has been greatly improved.
"As expected of the Kunlun Ruins, the spiritual energy is much purer than the outside world."
Xiao Feng also wandered around while practicing.
In particular, seeing what was called a super spiritual vein in the secular world was abandoned in Kunlun Ruins, I was even more shocked.
Xiao Feng even firmly believed that as long as he stayed in the Kunlun Ruins for a while, his strength would definitely change qualitatively.
Walking on the bluestone road, there are many ancient temples around, and even some people passing by are powerful monks.
"I don't know how Gong Qianqiu is now? What kind of person is that Great Holy Son?"
The hatred in Xiao Feng's heart continued to rise.
Although he has no illusions about Gong Qianqiu, the latter once belonged to him after all,
but now he has embraced others.
This still made Xiao Feng very unhappy.
"After practicing for a while, go to Taixu Shenzong to investigate."
Xiao Feng made up his mind and went back to the Vault of Heaven to devour frantically.
the other side.
base camp.
Phoenix and others also discovered that Xiao Feng was gone, and immediately told Levi Garrison the information.
"Boss, Xiao Feng has been cultivating frantically during this time, and occasionally we can hear her muttering about revenge or something."
"Will he go to Gong Qianqiu himself to take revenge?"
"Yes, boss, should we send someone to look for it? With his current strength, it is impossible for him to be stupid if he wants to take revenge!"

Azure Dragon (Qinglong) and others said.
Although they were very angry about Xiao Feng's previous mistakes, everyone also understood that Xiao Feng was mainly attracted by his inner demon.
Therefore, if Xiao Fengzhen encounters any danger, everyone is still a little unbearable.
Levi Garrison sighed softly, Xiao Feng's almost paranoid character became more obvious after being hit by Gong Qianqiu.

"I also persuaded him if he should. If he still insists on his own way, I have nothing to do."
"If he insists on taking revenge, just let him go! This sin started because of him, and now it ends with him."
"Don't worry about this, continue to cultivate quickly, and reach the highest point before entering the Kunlun Ruins."
Levi Garrison's expression became extremely serious, and now the most important thing is to improve his strength.
Especially in the secular world, cultivation resources are also very important. The brain of God is almost frantically exploring.
The positions of Divine Veins and Holy Veins were continuously sent over, and the comprehensive strength of the core members also increased rapidly.
Advertisement
Levi Garrison is also quite pleased with this. The depth of Taixu Shenzong is still unknown.
Only by improving his own strength to the best can he be more confident to deal with it.
"Yes!"
Phoenix and the others said in unison.
Seeing the backs of these people leaving, Levi Garrison fell into deep thought, and suddenly thought of the world discovered by God's Brain.
Advertisement

After three successive investigations, they could not find the door on how to enter that world, which made Levi Garrison more and more curious about what this place was.
There is such a strong spiritual energy in it, once you enter the real world, you can imagine what kind of terrifying cultivation resources will be there.
Levi Garrison even felt that the resources of that world and Kunlun Ruins seemed to have a match.
This is not an unfounded guesswork.
Because there seems to be an invisible energy inside, even if his actions are slowed down to a certain extent, the weaker may not be able to move an inch.
"How on earth can you find the door to the core world?"
Levi Garrison was a little depressed, and he tried many methods several times.
Bombard the most powerful location with pure power, but still find nothing.
Later, he went deep into the jungle to investigate, but he still failed.
Advertisement
"And the deeper you go into the jungle, the more obvious that sense of blockage becomes."
Levi Garrison can't imagine the consequences of continuing to go deep into the jungle,
"Maybe you can find the door to the world until you can't travel?"
"I will definitely try it when I have nothing to worry about."
Levi Garrison secretly made up his mind.
"First completely remove the threat of Gong Qianqiu and Taixu Shenzong, and then explore the entry channel of that world in an all-round way."
Recalling what Gong Qianqiu had done from beginning to end, the murderous intent in Levi Garrison's eyes became stronger and stronger.
From the very beginning, she played around with people around her and herself, and she contributed to many things in the dark.
Borrowing a knife to kill, framing and framing…
The Town Demon Division, Eternal Kingdom, Killer Organization and many other forces have all become playthings in the hands of Gong Qianqiu.

Later, the appearance of Duguxiao caused Phoenix and others to lose their roots, and was used by Gong Qianqiu to retaliate against the base camp.
If it wasn't for Gong Qianqiu's quirk of enjoying a sense of achievement in abusing people,
I'm afraid many of the core members would have died a long time ago.
In the end, they joined forces with Zhen Mosi and the Kunlun Ruins to attack. If it wasn't for themselves and Wen Lei and others to improve their bodies, the whole army would have been wiped out.
Even if he had the last laugh, the base camp suffered heavy casualties.
"Gong Qianqiu, Duguxiao, you are all going to die!"
Levi Garrison's eyes were full of murderous intent, and the space in the surrounding area seemed to drop a few degrees in an instant.
"The Taixu Shenzong had better submit obediently, otherwise Lao Tzu will destroy you all in one fell swoop."
Levi Garrison muttered to himself quietly.
the other side.
After Gong Qianqiu absorbed three Divine Veins in a row, his strength had already risen to an extremely terrifying level.
Before entering the Kunlun Ruins, the strength of Gong Qianqiu and the three saints were on a par with each other, and even the three saints had the advantage.
Although there is no head-to-head competition now, Gong Qianqiu is already confident that he is far superior to the three saints, and even if it reaches an instant kill, it is not much worse.

But Gong Qianqiu also knew that his foundation in Taixu Shenzong was not stable, and he had to act in a low-key manner.
Gong Qianqiu knew better than anyone that Mu Xiu would be destroyed by Lin Feng, so she deliberately suppressed Qi Ji's hidden strength as much as possible.
However, even so, the Great Holy Son still values him very much.

Since the last time he proposed to marry Gong Qianqiu and got a positive answer, the frequency of the Great Holy Son coming to her has become more and more frequent.
"Qianqiu, you are getting more and more beautiful. I can't wait to get married with you."
The Great Saint said with a smile.
Advertisement
A look of obsession appeared in his eyes.
"Holy Son, you will make people happy."
Gong Qianqiu said with anger.
The Great Holy Son practiced the Seven Emotions and Six Desires kendo, and he had already had that thought for Gong Qianqiu.
Advertisement
In addition, as Gong Qianqiu's strength continues to rise, the power of enchanting becomes even stronger with a little charm.
For the kendo core of the Great Holy Son, this charm is basically equivalent to dry wood and fire.
If it wasn't for Gong Qianqiu saying that she was inconvenient in the past few days, the Great Holy Son would have wanted to take her down.
"Qianqiu, I said all these words from the heart, I don't believe you touch it!"
The Great Holy Son grabbed Gong Qianqiu's weak and boneless little hand and touched his heart.
"Holy Son, I'm still a little worried. If you love me too much, will you be sidelined and targeted by those people?"
Gong Qianqiu asked worriedly.
"Dare they?"
The Great Holy Son said coldly, "If anyone dares to push you away, just tell me, and I will shove her out of the house directly."
Advertisement
"The Holy Son is so kind to others."
Gong Qianqiu said softly.
Although Gong Qianqiu Ming said this on the face, he sighed faintly in his heart.

Gong Qianqiu really didn't think that the marriage proposal of the first son would come so quickly, he thought that maintaining an ambiguous relationship would gradually climb to the core high-level.
Nowadays, the Great Holy Son keeps proposing to hold a big wedding, and Gong Qianqiu also delays the time by choosing an auspicious day to get married again.
But in the past so many days, the Great Holy Son has once again proposed that Gong Qianqiu really has no better reason.
"There's no time for everything to be laid out!"
Gong Qianqiu was very sorry. She originally wanted to quickly gain a firm foothold in the Taixu Shenzong, and then gradually control the Taixu Shenzong.
However, until now, even the suzerain of the Taixu Shenzong has not seen it, and the specific strength of the entire sect has not yet been figured out.
There is simply no way to plan for the next step.
The key is that one's own strength cannot reach the ideal height, and rash actions will not only fail to achieve the goal, but will even allow the Taixu Shenzong to deal with him.
But at this time, the Great Holy Son 'forced marriage' continuously, and an excuse to delay may be nothing.
If it is delayed again and again, it is likely to make the Great Holy Son disgusted, or even turn against him.
Gong Qianqiu felt an unprecedented sense of powerlessness.
"Qianqiu, the auspicious day of the zodiac that I chose is approaching, and you will be the Taoist companion I value the most. You can't have any more excuses this time, right?"
The Great Holy Son brought up the old things again, staring at Gong Qianqiu with a burning gaze.
"Holy Son, why are people making excuses?"
"Marriage is the most important event in a woman's life, how can you be careless?"
"But the Holy Son favors and allows others to be willful, and Qianqiu is naturally happy, and the marriage matters are all up to the Holy Son."

Knowing that he couldn't fool the past, Gong Qianqiu could only agree.
What's more, only women who truly become the Great Holy Son can get more cultivation resources.
In particular, the Great Holy Son is still the heir of the future Taixu Shenzong sect master. As long as he can have a detached position in his heart, he will naturally not worry about not being able to control the sect.
"it is good!"
The Great Holy Son immediately smiled and assured: "Qianqiu, don't worry, those women of mine will definitely respect you at that time, and no one will dare to be angry with you."
"It's all arranged by the Son of God."
Gong Qianqiu said softly.
At this moment, Gong Qianqiu's Mei Gong was used to the extreme, which directly caused the Great Sage to be confused for a while.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector]

The Great Holy Son is very satisfied with Gong Qianqiu. He has a habit that the woman with him must be a yellow flower girl.
Moreover, the woman must have the unique cultivation qualification, so that it can help the cultivation of the Great Holy Son to improve.
These two aspects add up to harsh conditions in themselves, and Gong Qianqiu is not only satisfied with all of them, but his appearance and temperament are also of the highest quality.
This is even harder.
It is precisely because of this that the Great Holy Son is so obsessed with Gong Qianqiu.
"Although there are many women around me, I can only satisfy two of them at most."
Advertisement
"Good aptitudes are mediocre, and outstanding looks are mediocre."
"Only Qianqiu is the most in line with this seat's heart."

The more the Great Holy Son thought about it, the more excited he became, and he couldn't wait to spend the night with Gong Qianqiu in the wedding room.
Soon, the news that the Great Holy Son was about to marry Gong Qianqiu as the seventeenth room spread throughout the surrounding sectarian forces.
Advertisement
Although the Taixu Shenzong is only a medium-sized sect, it is only because there are no peerless divine soldiers within the sect.
If this point is not mentioned, the quantity and quality of hoarding from masters is absolutely comparable to the large-scale sects of the last stream.
There are also many sects related to the Taixu Shenzong, including some affiliated forces.
The Great Holy Son is the future heir of the sect, and the deputy suzerain decides to hold a big wedding banquet for his face.
For a time, many disciples of the Taixu Shenzong sent wedding invitations, and even many sects that were not so close to each other got invitations.
At the same time, Levi Garrison also got this message.
To capture the helms of the five major sects, Levi Garrison wanted to use these sects as eyeliners to monitor the every move of the Taixu Shenzong.
"Gong Qianqiu is too shameless? In order to climb up, he is willing to be the seventeenth wife and concubine of the Great Holy Son."
"It's really shameless. She used this method in the Demon Suppression Division before. I really don't know what the eyes of the people of the Taixu Shenzong look like?"
Advertisement
"But it's not easy to deal with her like this!"
"That's right, after all, it's the Great Holy Son. It is said that he is the future successor of the Sect Master of the Taixu Sect."
The crowd was outraged.
Levi Garrison's eyes are also slightly condensed. If Gong Qianqiu has no such relationship, Taixu Shenzong may not be too involved in this hatred.

However, once the two are married, it will not be so easy for them to seek revenge for Gong
Qianqiu.
For the public, it is related to the sect's glory and face; for the private, it is only natural for the great sage to support his wife.
And according to the eyeliner report, the Great Holy Son is the future master of the Taixu Shenzong, which is almost known to everyone.
If you want to eradicate it, you will inevitably be the enemy of the entire Taixu Shenzong.
"Only pressing the entire Taixu Shenzong will do!"
Levi Garrison's expression is serious, and it is still unknown whether the battle strength he has now can match the Taixu Shenzong.
Reckless action may not only fail to avenge, on the contrary, it will cause casualties to one's own personnel.
"From now on, everyone should strengthen their cultivation and improve their strength as quickly as possible."
Levi Garrison said solemnly.
the other side.
Inside the sky.
Several disciples in the sect are discussing the recent major events with great interest.
"Hey, I heard that there is none? The eldest son of Taixu Shenzong is going to marry the 17th concubine."
"This matter has spread among the nearby sects. It is said that the woman came from the secular world and is called Gong Qianqiu."
"The Great Holy Son of Taixu Shenzong has a very high vision, the woman must be goodlooking, and she must be talented, and most importantly, she must be a virgin."
"It shouldn't be! It is said that Gong Qianqiu is unruly in the secular world, how can he still be a virgin?"
"Then I don't know, anyway, that's what the Great Holy Son asked for, and with his eyesight, he shouldn't look bad."

Xiao Feng, who had just finished training, heard these comments, and the anger in his chest instantly rose to the extreme.
how can that be?
At that time, Gong Qianqiu clearly became his own woman, how could he still be a virgin?

and many more……
They said that Gong Qianqiu was going to be the 17th concubine for the Great Holy Son of Taixu Shenzong?
In order to climb up, have you done everything possible?
Is this still the Gong Qianqiu he once knew?
"It's impossible! Gong Qianqiu, you can't treat me like this."
"You must explain to me clearly what happened in the first place?"
Advertisement
Xiao Feng's breathing became extraordinarily rapid, and the blue veins on his forehead collapsed, as if he was on the verge of running wild.
"You guys, explain the matter to Lao Tzu in detail."
Xiao Feng said solemnly to several Cang Qiong Sect disciples.
The two little leaders rushed over and explained the matter in detail again.
Advertisement
They had already received Xie Huanyu's order and did not dare to neglect Xiao Feng in the slightest.
"You are absolutely wrong, Gong Qianqiu can't be a virgin."
Xiao Feng gritted his teeth and said.
Seeing that something was wrong, the two little leaders hurriedly changed their words.
"Mr. Xiao, it's our hearsay that this message should have moisture."
"Yes, Mr. Xiao, we just heard about it, don't take it seriously."
Although the two little leaders were not aware of the entanglement between Xiao Feng and Gong Qianqiu, they could also feel that Xiao Feng was clearly in the stage of rage.
"Since it's just hearsay, how can you gossip about people behind their backs, and the crime should be punished."

When the words fell, Xiao Feng suddenly slapped his palm, and the two little leaders didn't react at all, and were beaten until their brains burst to death.
Advertisement
"It's definitely not true."
Xiao Feng rushed out of the Sky Sect like he was going crazy, and he decided to go elsewhere to verify the authenticity of the matter.
However, Xiao Feng was dumbfounded after the verification, what the two small leaders of the sky sect before were true.
All women of the Great Holy Son of Taixu Shenzong must be virgins.
And Gong Qianqiu has been checked by the Great Holy Son, and it is true that he has never broken through that level of restriction with others.
Confuse!
anger!
Sad!
Various complex emotions filled Xiao Feng's chest, making it difficult for him to breathe.
Bang bang bang!
Xiao Feng threw several punches at the wall next to him, and the wall collapsed.
However, the depression in the chest and forehead did not improve much.
"Deceived!"
Xiao Feng realized that he was completely deceived by Gong Qianqiu.
But he was still not reconciled.
"You must go to her and ask her face to face!"
Xiao Feng didn't believe in evil, he only felt that the anger value in his chest was constantly rising, and then he quickly rushed to the Taixu Shenzong.
After this period of exploration, Xiao Feng is also familiar with the road.
It took about half an hour for Xiao Feng to arrive in front of the main gate of Taixu
Shenzong.
"Stop, who are you?"
the guard asked with a sullen face.
Xiao Feng said coldly: "I'll find Gong Qianqiu and let her come out to see me!"
"Gong Qianqiu?"
The guard was stunned for a moment, then reacted immediately and said with a sneer,

“Elder Gong is the woman of our Great Holy Son, what are you looking for with her?”
“It looks like this guy is here to make trouble. The big saint’s wedding is imminent, and there is no room for any mistakes. This kind of trouble can just be driven away.”
“You dare to be disrespectful to Lao Tzu just because of your trash?”
Xiao Feng said angrily.
Xiao Feng had nowhere to vent his anger, and the two guards just collided with the muzzle of the gun.
“Where did the offal come from, and they rushed to make trouble in the Taixu Shenzong, and thought the life was too long?”
“Don’t talk nonsense with him, just send him away!”
However, they did not expect that Xiao Feng not only did not evade, but took the initiative to attack.
The figure disappeared like a ghost, leaving only a near-substantial afterimage in place.
“So fast!”
The two guards were shocked, and before they could react, they felt a murderous aura coming from behind them.
Bang bang!
Xiao Feng took two palms and smashed them firmly on the backs of the two.
Pfft! Pfft!
The two guards were shaken and flew five to six feet away, and finally fell heavily to the ground.
“Enemy attack! There is an enemy attack!”
The two guards wiped the blood from the corners of their mouths and shouted loudly.

A stone stirred up a thousand waves.
After a while, the masters of the Taixu Shenzong swarmed over.
Clearly feeling several powerful and unparalleled breaths approaching quickly, Xiao Feng also gasped, knowing that he had stabbed a hornet’s nest.
But this is the end, and he has no way out.

“He Fangxiao dare to come to Taixu Shenzong to make trouble?”
“Injuring the guards, the crime should be punished!”

“Let me show you this kid’s methods!”
Several elders showed a cold look on their faces, staring at Xiao Feng with malice.
“I want to see Gong Qianqiu! Let her come out to see me!”
“Gong Qianqiu, I know you are here, come out quickly.”
Advertisement
“I have something to ask you!”
Xiao Feng shouted loudly.
“Who are you? How can you see the woman in this seat?”
The Great Holy Son slowly walked out of the crowd, exuding a cold murderous aura.
Xiao Feng sneered and said: “I used to be Gong Qianqiu’s man, you are just a pick-up man.”
Xiao Feng had probably guessed the identity of the other party, and he didn’t know why, so he wanted to make the Great Holy Son make a fool of himself.
“Nonsense, you are courting death!”
A chilling blade instantly condensed in the palm of the Great Holy Son’s palm, exuding a biting chill and murderous aura, causing the surrounding crowd to shiver uncontrollably.
Gong Qianqiu was a woman he valued, but now she was humiliated in public, and the Great Holy Son was indeed moved to kill.
Advertisement
“Husband’s assistant!”
A charming voice suddenly sounded from behind.
The Great Holy Son was a little unhappy, but because of his love for Gong Qianqiu, he temporarily suppressed the murderous intention.
“Qianqiu, do you know this kid?”
The Great Holy Son asked tentatively.
“know!”
Gong Qianqiu nodded, but worried that the great saint would think too much, and quickly explained: “He used to be a chess piece for me to deal with Levi Garrison.”
There is no point in denying acquaintance with Xiao Feng. The Great Holy Son is suspicious by nature. After Xiao Feng's coaxing, the Great Holy Son will definitely send someone to investigate.

Concealment will make him suspicious, and the more calm it is, the less doubts will be relieved.
Sure enough, the Great Holy Son's expression softened a little.
"Gong Qianqiu, I need your explanation!"
Xiao Feng said in a deep voice.
Seeing that the glamour of Gong Qianqiu in front of him is even better than before, Xiao Feng's heart still couldn't stop throbbing.
But recalling the past deception, hatred quickly became the main emotion.
"That night, you and I..."
"Xiao Feng, do you think I'll take a fancy to a waste like you?"
Before Xiao Feng could finish speaking, Gong Qianqiu interrupted directly.
"That night, I cast a spell to make you fall into a hallucination, and everything that happened is said to be your hallucination."
"Mediocre appearance, low cultivation base, and no opinion, Xiao Feng, who gave you the courage to think that I would like you?"
"If it wasn't for dealing with Levi Garrison, do you think I would look at you right in the eye?"
"Do you know how disgusting I felt when faced with your so-called sweet words?"
"Trash, if it were in a different place, I would have found a place where no one was there and committed suicide, and I would have no face to continue living in this world."
Every word of Gong Qianqiu is like a sharp blade mercilessly piercing Xiao Feng's heart.
Xiao Feng completely collapsed.
"how could this be?"
Xiao Feng couldn't believe all this, but what Gong Qianqiu said in person was beyond doubt.
"So it's all just a show?"
Xiao Feng asked in a hoarse voice.
Gong Qianqiu asked jokingly: "Otherwise, what do you think it is?"
"Gong Qianqiu, you are a woman with a vicious heart, I must kill you today!"

Xiao Feng's eyes were red, the veins on his forehead stretched high, and he punched Gong Qianqiu's chest.
"You want to kill me even with this little strength? A fool's dream!"
Gong Qianqiu waved his hand, and a powerful energy qi roared out, directly blasting Xiao Feng out.
puff!
Xiao Feng vomited blood after landing, and his face was as pale as paper. Obviously seriously injured!
"Xiao Feng, don't make unnecessary struggles. With your little cultivation, you can't help me at all."

Gong Qianqiu's face was full of arrogance. What he said just now was not only a blow to Xiao Feng, but also mainly to take the opportunity to explain the past to the Great Holy Son to dispel doubts.
"I will soon marry the Great Holy Son, and will be the core strength of the Taixu Shenzong in the future. You and I are different in status and status, so don't be delusional."
"If you're still not convinced, let Levi Garrison come over to take revenge. I'll be here at any time."
Xiao Feng felt that his chest was stuffy, something was blocking his throat, and he couldn't go down in one breath.
He wanted to kill Gong Qianqiu, but the huge gap in strength made Xiao Feng helpless.
"Gong Qianqiu, if you can kill me, why should you be so humiliated?"
Advertisement
Xiao Feng wanted to die, but he felt that he had no face to face Jiang Dong's elders.
At this moment, the big saint came to Gong Qianqiu and asked in a deep voice: "Qianqiu, this kind of garbage, just kill it."
This is what I think in my heart, and it is also a temptation.
"Husband, killing this kind of rubbish is too valuable."

Advertisement
“What’s more, for Xiao Fengtai, it is actually more uncomfortable to live to die.”
“Furthermore, let him give Levi Garrison a message. Only after knowing the power of Taixu Shenzong can they understand the gap. I want them to realize what despair is.”
Gong Qianqiu said with a smile.
The Great Holy Son completely dispelled his doubts when he heard the words, nodded with a smile, and said, “This statement is reasonable.”
“Xiao Feng, I will marry the Great Holy Son in half a month, you must come to support me!”
“This is an invitation, received it!”
Gong Qianqiu raised his hand gently, and a gilded invitation flew out, just landing on Xiao Feng.
“Ahhh! Gong Qianqiu, you are deceiving people too much!”
The veins on Xiao Feng’s forehead collapsed, and the whole face was extremely hideous.
Advertisement
“I deceived people too much, what can you do?” Gong Qianqiu said contemptuously.
“I kill you!”
Xiao Feng didn’t know where the strength came from. He was seriously injured just now, but at this moment he suddenly got up and turned into a sharp sword.
Directly stabs Gong Qianqiu.
“Insult yourself!”
Gong Qianqiu released the Qi machine, and the majestic energy pressure was overwhelming.
Xiao Feng was like a small boat on the turbulent sea.
There was a faint sound of bones breaking in the void.
“Someone, throw this waste dog out, so as not to be an eyesore here.”
The Great Saint said coldly.
“Yes!”
A guard dragged Xiao Feng away like a dead dog, and threw it directly into the ditch in the distance.
Xiao Feng suffered serious internal injuries and several broken ribs.

The key is the psychological blow. Recalling that the previous ones were nothing but a mirror, and the vows of eachother were all scams.
Xiao Feng's heart was ashes, he felt an unprecedented despair, and the last trace of hope in the past was completely shattered.
"I'm just a pawn of Gong Qianqiu! I've always been."
"She never had the slightest sincerity to me."
It took Xiao Feng's efforts to climb out of the ditch, and at this moment he was completely awakened.
A coaxing drama ended, but Gong Qianqiu had some doubts and worries in his heart.
"What's wrong?"
The Great Holy Son also noticed Gong Qianqiu's strange emotions.
Gong Qianqiu said solemnly: "How did Xiao Feng enter the Kunlun Ruins?"
"Didn't I tell you before, as long as he reaches the threshold cultivation realm, he will find the location of Tianmen after further inquiry."
The Great Holy Son didn't take it to heart at all.
"I mean since Xiao Feng is here, will Levi Garrison still be far away?"
Gong Qianqiu deliberately made a nervous appearance.
The Great Holy Son comforted: "Don't worry Qianqiu, our Taixu Shenzong is very strong, what if that monkey enters the Kunlun Ruins?"
"Ten thousand steps back, if he dares to come here without knowing his life or death, this seat will directly kill him."
"You can just prepare for the wedding with peace of mind, and leave the rest to this seat."

Many matters concerning the marriage of the Great Holy Son and Gong Qianqiu are in full swing.
The lanterns were decorated with colorful lanterns and the floor was covered with red felts, and the atmosphere was filled with joy everywhere.
However, at this moment, the Seven Holy Sons returned to the Taixu Shenzong and received a grand welcome ceremony.

Although the Seven Holy Sons are the youngest among the Holy Sons, their cultivation talent is the highest.
Today's strength is already in the top three of the seven holy sons, and his future achievements are limitless.
One of the most important abilities of the Seven Saints is to control the spiritual veins, and they will be able to integrate with the spiritual veins during the battle.
Advertisement
In particular, the Seven Holy Sons' perception of spiritual pulses is extremely sensitive, which is basically equivalent to a walking spiritual pulse detector.
The large spiritual veins of the Taixu Shenzong in the past ten years were all discovered by the Seven Holy Sons.
Therefore, the Seven Holy Sons are of great significance to the Taixu Shenzong, and naturally they are highly valued.
Of course, the Seventh Holy Son did not disappoint everyone, and just came back and threw out an astonishing message.
Advertisement
"I found a small dragon vein in the northeast of Taixu Shenzong."
This message from the Seven Holy Sons can be said to have stirred up a thousand waves with one stone, and the entire Taixu Shenzong was boiling.
"The Seven Holy Sons are simply too powerful to have discovered the dragon veins. The strength of our Taixu Shenzong will definitely increase greatly."
"The dragon vein is more terrifying than the holy vein. It is said that it can change the mountain area and even optimize the purity of the spiritual energy of a world."
"More than that, it is said that dragon veins absorb the essence of heaven, earth, sun and moon for many years, and can breed true dragons, which is called dragon veins."
"Only some super sects have dragon veins as their foundation, and now our sect is going to flourish!"

Vice Sect Master Yin Xuejian was also very pleasantly surprised. Dragon veins are far stronger than holy veins, and Taixu Shenzong has never had dragon veins before.
If the dragon vein discovered by the Seventh Holy Son is of sufficient scale, the strength of the entire Taixu Shenzong will be greatly improved.
"Seven Holy Sons, what is the scale of the dragon veins you discovered?"
Yin Xuejian asked.
Advertisement
Others also turned their attention. This answer is very crucial, and it is related to whether it can benefit all Taixu Shenzong disciples.
"Although this dragon vein is not large, it is far stronger than the several sacred veins we have mastered. The key is that it can be used to warm weapons."
"If the weapons forged by the old five and the six are put into this dragon vein to warm up, it will not take long for them to transform into a good magic weapon."
"I heard that the sect got a magic weapon not long ago?"
The Seven Saints asked.
Yin Xuejian nodded.
"Now the robbery of the gods is nourished by five or six holy sons in the holy vein."
"Since you are so old and old, you will put the divine robbery into the dragon veins to warm and quench the chain, and it will not take long for you to become a peerless divine weapon."
Seven Holy Sons said solemnly.
Yin Xuejian nodded in agreement, the dragon veins can directly change the material problem of the divine robbery, and upgrade from inferior to high-quality.
Combined with Levi Garrison's top-level forging skills, this robbery of the gods can definitely become the magic weapon of the Taixu Shenzong.
At that time, Taixu Shenzong will be able to join the ranks of large-scale sects, and the longcherished wish for many years will be fulfilled.
"The two of you hurry up and do this."
Yin Xuejian gave orders to the Fifth Son and the Sixth Son.
"Follow the Holy Order of the Vice Sect Master!"

The two saints immediately went down to prepare.
At the same time, Gong Qianqiu also got information about the dragon veins.
Although she is the elder of the last seat, coupled with the relationship of the first son, Gong Qianqiu also participated in this meeting within the sect.
Knowing that the dragon veins are so powerful and terrifying, Gong Qianqiu began to think of taking it as his own.
After all, she practiced the extreme swallowing technique. If she could swallow the dragon veins, the degree of improvement could be imagined.

Of course, she also understands that she can't act rashly, after all, the entire Taixu Shenzong attaches great importance to this dragon vein.
Gong Qianqiu later learned the specific location of the dragon veins through the Great Holy Son, and planned to go to investigate secretly.
"Go to investigate tonight."
After making up his mind, Gong Qianqiu recharged his energy during the day, and did not leave Taixu Shenzong secretly until nightfall.
Due to the relationship of the Great Holy Son, even if there are strong people who sense Gong Qianqiu's departure, there are not too many inquiries.
Gong Qianqiu ran all the way, and it took about half an hour to reach the destination.
Advertisement
Although the true face of Mount Lu of the Dragon Vein has not yet been seen, the aura in this area is extremely terrifying and the pressure of its power is extremely terrifying.
Even with Gong Qianqiu's current cultivation, he still feels oppressive.
"It should be underground. In order to avoid the Fifth Holy Son and the others finding out, let's enter from the other end!"
Gong Qianqiu went around to the other end, and at the same time ran the hidden breath technique, which was taught by the Great Holy Son himself, which could hide the breath from the invisible.

Advertisement
As long as the opponent is not in the realm of cultivation and crushing himself, he will basically not find the trace of the practitioner.
Following the excavated stone cave into the ground, a spiritual vein appeared in front of him instantly.
"It turned out to be lavender aura!"
Gong Qianqiu was very surprised, she could clearly feel that the spiritual energy contained in this dragon vein was a qualitative leap compared to the holy vein.
Especially the degree of purity, compared with those sacred veins, it is almost the difference between cloud and mud.
"As expected of a dragon vein!"
Gong Qianqiu couldn't help but run the extreme swallowing technique, and a ray of purple aura was inhaled into the body.
However, it was such a trace of spiritual energy that immediately made Gong Qianqiu's dantian feel swollen.
"This is too scary!"
Advertisement
Gong Qianqiu was busy collecting her work, and she really dared not continue to devour the purple aura contained in the dragon veins.
Even if it devoured just a little bit, it was more than devoured the entire Divine Vessel
before.
In particular, the spiritual energy contained in the dragon veins is also very slow to digest. If you really want to swallow more, you must spend a lot of time and energy.
Otherwise, if you are impatient, you will have to die in an explosion.
And swallowing it is bound to cause great movement, even if it is hidden, it is useless.
"For the time being, return to the Taixu Shenzong. As for swallowing the power of this dragon vein, we need to take a long-term plan."
Thinking of this, Gong Qianqiu left the dragon vein very unwillingly.

After returning to Taixu Shenzong, Gong Qianqiu could not calm down for a long time.
"If I swallow a dragon vein, how will my strength improve?"
"Don't say that the entire Taixu Shenzong is invincible, but at least it can crush the powerhouses of the Taixu Shenzong?"
"You must find an opportunity to swallow it, and then you must have a good relationship with the Seven Holy Sons."
Gong Qianqiu's thoughts turned quickly, and the Seven Holy Sons' search for spiritual veins was a must in Taixu Shenzong, and even in the entire Kunlun Ruins.
If you really want to calculate it like this, the Seven Holy Sons are the existences with the most cultivation resources in the entire Taixu Shenzong.
As long as you can keep this thigh, you will no longer have to worry about having no energy source when you swallow it by yourself.
The next morning.
Gong Qianqiu is grinding with the first son, and the seventh son is outside asking for a meeting.
"Come in quickly!"
The Great Holy Son also attaches great importance to the Seven Holy Sons. In a sense, if he wants to hold the helm in the future, he will have to rely on the Seven Holy Sons.
"Big brother, in order to congratulate you on your wedding with the Gong girl, the younger brother hereby presents four divine veins and one holy vein as a wedding gift, and I hope that big brother will not dislike it!"
The Seven Saints said with a smile.
"Xiao Qi, what are you talking about, why would you dislike it as a brother?"
The Great Holy Son patted the Seven Holy Sons and said with a smile, "I still need your strong support for my brother in the future!"
"No problem!"
The Seventh Holy Son readily agreed, and immediately said, "Then the younger brother retire first, so that I won't disturb you and sister-in-law's kiss!"

After the Seventh Holy Son finished speaking, he turned and left.

It was not until the figure of the Seven Holy Sons completely disappeared that Gong Qianqiu came back to his senses.
"Qianqiu, what's wrong with you?" The Great Holy Son asked in confusion.
Gong Qianqiu's voice was a little dry and said: "This is the first time I heard that the marriage was given as a gift. Is this too big?"
"Hahaha!"
The Great Holy Son laughed a few times on his back before continuing: "This is Xiao Qi's behavior. You ask him to take something else as a gift, and he doesn't have it either!"
"But that's three divine veins and one holy vein!"
Advertisement
Gong Qianqiu's heart is surging, even if the entire Taixu Shenzong has several holy veins?
The Seven Holy Sons gave away a Holy Vein with a flick of his hand, this is too arrogant!
"This may be a drop in the bucket for the resources Xiaoqi has mastered. He is indeed a talent."
"If the Taixu Shenzong wants to reach a higher level in the future, he will need his full help."
Advertisement
The Great Holy Son was also a little emotional, and then changed the conversation and said:
"Don't be emotional, these spiritual veins are all transferred to you."
"Qianqiu, what you have is to swallow your spiritual roots and bones, and you just took this opportunity to grow stronger."
"Then thank you so much husband!" Gong Qianqiu was instantly happy.
The Great Holy Son gently wrapped around Gong Qianqiu's willow waist and said with a smile: "As long as the beauty can be happy, what is this thing?"
In addition to winning the smile of the beautiful woman, the Great Holy Son also has other selfish intentions.

Gong Qianqiu's talent is very good, and he has swallowed spiritual roots and bones, and will become a very good help for him in the future.
It will also help to sit more firmly in the position of denominational helm in the future.
The Great Holy Son is no ordinary person either!
"Okay, don't spread the information about the location of these spiritual veins, remember the truth that every man is innocent and guilty."
Advertisement
The Great Holy Son handed over a map marked with location information to Gong Qianqiu.
Gong Qianqiu accepted it readily, and after the Great Holy Son left, she rushed to the location of the Holy Vein without stopping.
"Fate still has to be in your own hands."
Gong Qianqiu can't wait to improve his strength now.
Clinging to the Great Holy Son is just an expedient measure, and in the end, one has to be strong to have more say.
In the next few days, Gong Qianqiu entered the crazy swallowing mode, and the four divine veins and one holy vein were quickly devoured by her.
Gong Qianqiu's strength has naturally been greatly improved again.
"If the opponent is the Three Holy Sons, he can definitely be crushed."
Gong Qianqiu thought secretly in his heart.
"The most important thing next is to have a good relationship with the Seventh Holy Son."
"Then let's start by getting to know him!"
She first investigated some people who usually have a good relationship with the Seventh Holy Son, and then started from the preferences of these people in exchange for the Seventh Holy Son's information.
"I don't know what the elder Gong is looking for from me?"
an old man with white hair and beard asked.
Gong Qianqiu said with a smile: "Elder Chen, I heard that your realm has encountered a bottleneck in recent years. I have a method that may help you break through the shackles."
"Oh really?"

Chen Daotong's eyes were full of surprises. He has been in the current state of cultivation for nearly five years.
I have also used a lot of elixir of heaven, earth and earth, but it is still unable to break through.
If you want to go further in the status of Taixu Shenzong, you must continue to improve. For Chen Daotong, Gong Qianqiu's words are no different from a long drought.
"How dare I lie to Elder Chen?" Gong Qianqiu said in a very serious tone: "I have a cultivation method, which can improve my cultivation in a short time, and it will definitely help Elder Chen break through the shackles."
"Why does Elder Gong help the old man?" Chen Daotong is also an old fritter, and he knows that there is no such thing as a free lunch in the world.
Gong Qianqiu sighed and said, "I want to know about the Seven Holy Sons from you."
"You also know that I am about to become the wife of the Great Holy Son, and I also want to do something for him. You should understand my feelings."

Chen Daotong was stunned at first, but he quickly understood what Gong Qianqiu meant.
There are more than 100 women around the Great Holy Son, and Gong Qianqiu came from the secular world without roots and foundations.
If you want to get the attention of the Great Holy Son, you must make some 'achievements', and it is extremely urgent to firmly pull the Seven Holy Sons into your own camp.
Therefore, it is not surprising that Gong Qianqiu has the intention to win over the Seventh Holy Son.
After all, the Seven Holy Sons have the ability to find spiritual veins.
Even if the Great Holy Son becomes the suzerain of the Taixu Shenzong in the future, he will rely a lot on the cultivation resources provided by the Seven Holy Sons.

Advertisement
Of course, many of the women around the Great Saint had also approached Chen Daotong.
But they couldn't come up with a price that made them excited, and Chen Daotong didn't reveal any information about the Seven Holy Sons.
"The difficulty of the palace sect master is well understood, but…"
"Elder Chen, this is the content of the exercises I copied down. You can judge the value of it."
Advertisement
Gong Qianqiu took over Chen Daotong's words and directly informed the weakened version of the devouring technique.
Chen Daotong was overjoyed. He took over the exercises and just took a brief swipe. He was overjoyed and regarded it as a treasure book.
"With such a gift from the elders of the palace, the old man can't be rewarded without merit."
Chen Daotong smiled even more, and continued: "In those days, the Seventh Holy Son had saved his life before he made his fortune, and he still knew quite a bit about the Seventh Holy Son."
Immediately afterwards, Chen Daotong informed Gong Qianqiu of the situation.
I have to say that Chen Daotong is quite trustworthy. After learning that the exercises are really useful, he can be said to know everything about Gong Qianqiu.
After finishing the conversation, Gong Qianqiu and Chen Daotong both left contentedly.
Get what you need, and achieve your goals.
"Seven holy sons, with this information, you will definitely not be able to escape the palm of this sect master."
Advertisement
Gong Qianqiu is full of confidence, but for the sake of insurance, she still inquires more, and strives to have a detailed understanding before proceeding with the next plan.

“As long as the First Holy Son and the Seventh Holy Son can be controlled, the control of the Taixu Shenzong is just around the corner.” “Even if you, Levi Garrison, come to take revenge, it will be impossible to do anything to this
sect master.”
Thinking of this Gong Qianqiu, a sneer appeared on the corner of his mouth.
the other side.
Since Levi Garrison said that all members of the base camp should join the Spiritual Tempering Body as much as possible, the demand for the Spiritual Vein has greatly increased.
The God’s brain was almost crazy and continuously probed, but finally set its sights on the previous world.
“Mr. Ye, I have detected that in addition to the divine veins and holy veins, there are more than ten more powerful spiritual veins within the coverage area of that world.” “As for whether there is a stronger spiritual meridian, it is still unknown. This power has far exceeded the maximum count of the detector.”
The Brain of God directly notified Levi Garrison of this discovery.
After learning the news, Levi Garrison immediately found the brain of God.
“There is actually a spiritual vein that is more terrifying than the holy vein?”
Levi Garrison asked in shock.
The Brain of God nodded and said, “That’s right, the energy is indeed far beyond the Holy Vessel! My instruments are not enough!”
“Above the Holy Vein!” Even with Levi Garrison’s temperament, he couldn’t control his excitement and curiosity at this moment.
“What kind of world is this? You must know that the energy intensity around the Kunlun Ruins Tianmen is not so terrifying!”
Levi Garrison couldn’t control the curiosity that was gradually bursting, and was ready to investigate in detail.

“You have marked the exact location!”
Levi Garrison asked in a deep voice.
The Brain of God nodded and said, “Yeah! But I still remind you to be careful, if this energy is not well controlled, it will devour you.” “Don’t worry, I know what to do.”
After continuous body quenching and training, the Holy Vein’s role in improving him was very weak, and Levi Garrison continued to use higher-level cultivation resources.

Taixu Shenzong.
“Xiao Qi, I accidentally saw that your sleeves were worn out yesterday, and I made a new dress for you. Try it out and see if it fits?”
Gong Qianqiu said softly.
Qi Shengzi was slightly startled, and then he saw that there was a small hole in the cuff of his right arm, and he didn’t even notice it.
“Thank you, sister-in-law!”
The Seven Holy Sons took the black robe and sincerely thanked him.
Advertisement
Gong Qianqiu immediately raised his face and feigned anger: “How many times have I told you, don’t always call me sister-in-law.”
“Many…Thank you, Sister Qianqiu!” Seven Saints said embarrassedly.
Gong Qianqiu’s face was ‘cloudy and sunny’, and he said with a smile: “That’s right! Try it now, and see if you like the pattern on it?”
“My needle and thread are rough, just don’t dislike it.”
Advertisement
“Where… where would you dislike it?”
The Seven Saints quickly put on the robe, a flying dragon pattern passed over the shoulders from the back, and the huge dragon head was majestic.
There are also a few floating clouds embroidered around the flying dragon, making the flying dragon more lifelike.
“The dragon pattern is so pretty! I like it very much!”

The Seven Saints smiled happily, tied the belt in place and turned it twice, it fit perfectly.
"As long as you like it, I'm afraid that the embroidered pattern of Longteng Jiutian is too tacky!"
Gong Qianqiu let out a sigh of relief, as if he was 'frightened' just now.
However, in fact, Gong Qianqiu has been inquiring in many ways, and the seven saints like this flying dragon pattern the most.
"You're such an adult, you don't know how to take good care of yourself, and you don't even notice that your clothes are torn. It seems that it's time to find a woman."
Advertisement
Gong Qianqiu joked.
"Sister Qianqiu, I don't want to get married yet!"
The Seventh Holy Son was a little embarrassed, and seemed to have thought of something.
He continued: "Next time the clothes are torn again, I will go to Sister Qianqiu to help make a new one."
"Okay, your sister will wrap your clothes in the future." Gong Qianqiu's tone was extraordinarily sincere.
"It's a word!"
The Seven Saints said excitedly.
"You child, you know that you are tired of your sister!"
"Okay, I won't disturb your cultivation. Remember to come to Yunfangzhai for dinner tomorrow, and my sister will cook by herself!"
After Gong Qianqiu said, he turned and left.
Looking at Gong Qianqiu's slender back, the eyes of the Seven Saints were full of tenderness and gratitude.
Both his parents died when he was young, and he was abused in every way after being adopted. Later, he was accepted by the Taixu Shenzong due to his extraordinary talent, and the situation improved.
However, the people who are close to the Seven Holy Sons are basically ulterior motives, in order to obtain the cultivation resources in his hands.

Whether it is hypocritical, or flattering, no one has ever cared about his food, clothing, housing and transportation like Gong Qianqiu.
It was the taste of family affection that the Seventh Holy Son hoped most in his heart, and it made him indulge in it for a while, feeling extremely warm and happy.
Of course, the Seven Holy Sons also suspected that Gong Qianqiu had ulterior motives and used the dragon veins to test, but was rejected by Gong Qianqiu on the spot.
Even for a long time, he no longer paid attention to the Seven Holy Sons.
"I'm not greedy for any cultivation resources like you, I don't think you would see it this way? Since this is the case, you and I will be like strangers from now on."
Gong Qianqiu was very angry.
So in the next few days, the Seven Holy Sons came to apologize, but Gong Qianqiu avoided
them.
It wasn't until he found the Great Holy Son to persuade him that he reluctantly took over the matter, but Gong Qianqiu's attitude was very cold in those days.
This series of performances were all seen by the Seven Holy Sons, and it was precisely because of this that he completely dispelled the doubts in his heart.
Then the Seventh Holy Son apologized many times, and said that he would never be so tempted in the future. Gong Qianqiu finally returned to his original attitude.
Until he just got the embroidered dragon robe, the feeling of being protected by his relatives hit the Seventh Holy Son again, and even had a tendency to burst into tears.
"Sister, I will protect you from being bullied by others."
The Seven Saints said to themselves firmly.

Gong Qianqiu, who had already left, raised the corner of his mouth slightly.
With her current cultivation level, her ear strength has been greatly improved, and she naturally heard the words "from the bottom of my heart" by the Seventh Holy Son.

"The Seven Holy Sons are extremely talented, but after all, their hearts are relatively simple, so it's not difficult to grasp it!"
Gong Qianqiu became more and more complacent.
In fact, the information of longing for family affection was revealed by Chen Daotong. Gong Qianqiu integrated various information and immediately decided to start from this aspect.
The effect was indeed as expected, and the Seventh Holy Son quickly regarded himself as a relative.
Advertisement
The behavior may be fake, but the eyes will not deceive people, especially for a 'psychologist' like Gong Qianqiu, it can more accurately identify the true and false.
"Is this a tailor-made, precise strike?"
Gong Qianqiu became more and more proud of his means of controlling people.
In the process of interacting with the Seven Holy Sons, she did not use any means of 'devious ways', that is, she interacted with him with the character of the innocent big sister.
Advertisement
Such an identity setting also made Seven Saints feel very comfortable. After all, such a woman had never appeared beside him before.
According to Gong Qianqiu's understanding, there have been many beautiful women inside and outside the Taixu Shenzong who approached with beauty, but they were all rejected by the Seven Holy Sons.
It's not that the Seven Holy Sons are not close to women, but that he prefers pure affection, whether it is love or family affection.
Perhaps it is precisely because the Seven Holy Sons are pure people that they hate those men and women who approach them for various purposes.
It is precisely because of this that the appearance of Gong Qianqiu's "alternative" makes the Seven Holy Sons feel valuable and extremely rare.

Gong Qianqiu seized this point and took advantage of it, and the distance between the Seven Saints and her complete control was a step further.
"There is no need for this sect to take the initiative to ask for it, and multiple sacred veins will be obtained."
Looking at the location information of the sacred veins marked on the map in his hand, Gong Qianqiu's smile was even greater.
These were all offered by the Seven Holy Sons, and that move made him no longer suspicious.
Advertisement
These holy veins even nearly made the Seventh Holy Son kneel and ask Gong Qianqiu to accept it.
Yunfangzhai.
This is the residence that Taixu Shenzong distributed to Gong Qianqiu.
Although she has just come to the Taixu Shenzong, she is an elder after all, and with the relationship of the Great Holy Son, it is logical to have a separate courtyard.
dong dong dong!
There was a slight knock on the door outside.
"come in!"
Miya Chiaki put away the map after speaking.
Duguxiao walked in slowly and said respectfully, "Master, the matter you handed me over has been done, and five more helmsmen have joined the camp."
"very good!"
Gong Qianqiu smiled even more and said: "Now we have three elders and fifteen rudder master subordinates, and there are more than a hundred people in ordinary Tianjiao. The planning during this period of time has finally been in vain, you have done a great job.
good."
"The next step is to find a way to push you and Xuan Ming to the position of elders, but this matter should not be rushed, otherwise it will be more than worth the loss if you are detected."

"My father and I are not in a hurry. Master has just gained a firm foothold at the top of the sect. If he pushes people up too quickly, it will inevitably attract attention."
Duguxiao said with a smile: "It would be bad if you were suppressed."
During this period of time, Gong Qianqiu not only developed the relationship with the Seven Holy Sons rapidly, but also won over people in the Taixu Shenzong and cultivated his own forces.
In particular, Gong Qianqiu is also an elder now, and with the blessing of the halo of the first lady, many people want to take the opportunity to cling.
Especially after getting the information about the cultivation resources of the Seven Holy Sons, Gong Qianqiu made a lot of money, and then applied various means, and many people were determined to follow.
After all, the Taixu Shenzong has a strict hierarchy, especially the arrogance of Xue Pengzhan.
If it wasn't for Shang Gong Qianqiu, it would be impossible to get so many cultivation resources.
With the passage of time, Gong Qianqiu's influence in Taixu Shenzong has grown stronger day by day.

"You're right. I can't eat hot tofu in a hurry. It's better for us to grow and develop steadily."
Gong Qianqiu said condensedly.
Duguxiao nodded and said respectfully, "Master, do you have any assignments for me next?"
"Continue to consolidate our power, and let your father go outside the sect to collect loose repairs in the name of the Taixu Shenzong."
"The location of the Divine Vein I gave you a few days ago can be used as a bargaining chip to recruit loose cultivators."

"The principle is only one point, to develop strength as much as possible, the main purpose of this religion is to form an exclusive team as soon as possible."
Advertisement
Gong Qianqiu said solemnly.
Since the matter of marrying the Great Holy Son cannot be reversed, Gong Qianqiu wants to maximize the benefits in this regard.
Controlling the Taixu Shenzong can no longer satisfy her, and expanding outward is the top priority.
Especially after the breakthrough in the relationship with the Seven Holy Sons, this idea became even stronger.
Advertisement
After all, in the Kunlun Ruins, cultivation resources are the biggest capital for the development of power, and the Seven Saints happen to be experts in the field of spiritual veins.
"Master, please rest assured, my father and I will do our best to do it."
Duguxiao assured.
After seeing Gong Qianqiu's methods again, Xuan Ming and Xue Pengzhan sincerely joined Gong Qianqiu's subordinates and decided to follow her lead.
The two had some connections within the Taixu Shenzong, especially Xue Pengzhan who was quite influential at the level of ordinary Tianjiao of the Taixu Shenzong.
With these two people taking the lead in allegiance, Gong Qianqiu's development plan has become a lot easier.
Gong Qianqiu nodded with satisfaction and said: "If you have any needs, just mention it, and I have obtained a lot of spiritual resources, which are enough for us to develop and use."
"By the way, my wedding with the Great Holy Son is approaching, and Xiao Feng will definitely come over to cheer."

“Master, don’t worry, I will never let that trash ruin your good deeds. Once I find it, I will kill him outside.”
Dugu Xiao said gloomily.
Advertisement
Gong Qianqiu waved his hand and said, “No, no, no, you just don’t see it, let Xiao Feng come in.”
“Wait for him to be caught on the spot when he is making trouble at the venue. This sect master wants to appreciate Xiao Feng’s madness. It must be funny, isn’t it?”
Gong Qianqiu smiled evilly, she was looking forward to Xiao Feng’s manic and embarrassed appearance because of love.
“Understood Master.” Duguxiao also sneered, jokingly said: “Xiao Feng is a waste dog, and he even fantasizes about being favored by Master, it’s a fool’s dream!”
“Okay, go get busy!” Gong Qianqiu waved his hand and said.
“Yes!” Duguxiao said and turned to leave Yunfangzhai.
Time goes by.
ten days later.
Today is the day when the Great Holy Son and Gong Qianqiu get married.
In the Taixu Shenzong, the floor was covered with lanterns and colorful red felts, and everyone was beaming with joy.
The Great Holy Son and Gong Qianqiu dressed in wedding dresses to welcome the guests.
“The Great Elder of the Misty Palace is here, I wish the new couple a hundred years of good luck!”
“The Second Holy Son of the Red Blood Palace is here, I wish the newcomer auspicious dragon and phoenix!”
“The deputy owner of Tianhan Villa has arrived, and I wish the newlyweds an early birth of a precious son!”
“…”
The speech officer kept shouting the background and congratulations of the guests who came and went.
“As expected of the Great Holy Son, this row is really big!”

“That’s not true. The strength of the previous sects is not weaker than that of the Taixu Shenzong. They have all sent representatives with high status in the sect.”
“This Gong Qianqiu really has the means, and the Great Holy Son has never done such a glorious affair before marrying other women.” “Don’t say a few words! It’s Mrs. Dashengzi, you dare to call your name, don’t you want to live?”
The members of Taixu Shenzong talked a lot, and many people were amazed at Gong Qianqiu’s ability to step up to the sky.
At this moment, a nervous voice came from the resigner.
“Sun Moon God… Sun Moon God Fire Palace helm master is here, congratulations to the Great Holy Son and Gong Qianqiu on their marriage.”
A stone stirred up a thousand waves.
The scene of Taixu Shenzong instantly boiled.

“The powerhouse of the Sun and Moon Divine Fire Temple has come, this… the face of the Great Holy Son is too great, right?” “Everyone else is a congratulation from the deputy village owner, at least the chief elder or something. This is just a helmsman. Are you so excited?”
“What do you know, a rookie who has just entered the Kunlun Ruins? The Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple is a super sect, and the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy they founded is extremely terrifying.”
“Hurry up and tell me, where is the horror?”
“Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy selects talents in this area every five years. Which one is not the overlord after coming out of the academy?” “Even one of their helmsmen has a higher status than the chief elders of many mediumsized sects. Do you understand now?”
Advertisement
At the same time, the Great Holy Son hurriedly found Gong Qianqiu.

“Husband, what happened when you were so anxious to find me?” Gong Qianqiu asked suspiciously.
In Gong Qianqiu’s impression, the Great Holy Son has always looked like a mountain that collapsed in front of him without changing color.
At this moment, there was a hint of shock and excitement on his face?
Advertisement
The Great Holy Son said solemnly: “Don’t ask so many questions, come with me to greet the distinguished guests, and explain to you as we go!”
Gong Qianqiu was held by the Great Holy Son and went out, and he only learned the details by explaining the harem Qianqiu.
It turned out that the helm of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple was here, and this force was a veritable large-scale sect.
Even the Great Holy Son of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy yearns for it very much.
In particular, the cultivation resources controlled by the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace made Gong Qianqiu swallow his saliva.
“There are dozens of large and small dragon veins, and there are countless sacred veins, almost inexhaustible.”
This is the original words of the Great Holy Son.
The Seven Holy Sons discovered that the small dragon vein made the entire Taixu Shenzong excited.
And recalling the power of swallowing such a trace of dragon veins, you can make yourself infinitely useful.
Advertisement
If he can enter a sect of this level, wouldn’t he be able to take off directly?
“Qianqiu, although the other party is only a rudder master, even if it is compared with the chief elder of a medium-sized sect, it is not inferior at all.”
“So remember not to be rude when you speak, otherwise the consequences will be disastrous.”
The Great Holy Son instructed.

Gong Qianqiu said solemnly: "Don't worry, husband, I will never go beyond the norm."
While talking, the two came to the front door. The helmsman of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace had been waiting for a long time, and there was a hint of impatience in the proud look on his face.
"The helmsman has been waiting for a long time. I will bring my bride here to greet you. I hope you will forgive me!"
The Great Holy Son gave a deep salute, and Gong Qianqiu gave the same salute.
The helmsman was a middle-aged man in his early forties, and his movements showed terrifying fluctuations in his air.
"Um!"
The middle-aged helmsman nodded slightly as a response.
Afterwards, everyone was welcomed in like the stars holding the moon.
Gong Qianqiu and the Great Holy Son accompanied the middle-aged helmsman for a long time before leaving the scene on the pretext of changing clothes.
This move did not arouse anyone's suspicion. After all, the sect had prepared several sets of wedding clothes for Gong Qianqiu, and it was normal to change to new clothes.
In fact, Gong Qianqiu did change a set of clothes, but went to see other people again.
"Xiao Qi, what are you doing here?" Gong Qianqiu patted the seventh son on the shoulder and asked.
The Seventh Holy Son came back to his senses, and when he turned around, he saw a smiling face of the underground palace Qianqiu.
Especially when he saw the clothes that Qing Gong Qianqiu was wearing, his thoughts were inexplicably complicated.
"Sister Qianqiu, is this the one I gave you?" Seven Saint Son's voice was a little dry.
Gong Qianqiu nodded, and his smile narrowed a little, and he was even a little sentimental in the end.
"How is it, pretty? Your eyes are really good! I dress well!"

Gong Qianqiu sighed again and continued: "Wearing the clothes that my brother gave me to marry is also a kind of happiness!"
While speaking, there were faint tears in Gong Qianqiu's eyes.

"Qian…Sister Qianqiu, don't cry!"
"I feel bad for you too."
Seeing Gong Qianqiu's tears flashing, the Seven Saints suddenly panicked, his mind became more chaotic, and his body was inexplicably irritable.
"Silly child, sister is so happy!"
Gong Qianqiu wiped the tears from the corners of his eyes, and then helped Qi Shengzi to tidy up his robes, and brushed off the fine dust on his shoulders.
"You're such an old man, and you still don't know how to take care of yourself? It really makes my sister feel uneasy!"
Advertisement
"But from now on, my sister is married, and there is no way to take care of you like before.
You have to take care of yourself."
"Don't always drink without eating, it's bad for your appetite, and you don't eat that medicine too much. After all, it contains cinnabar, which is not good for your body, and…"
Gong Qianqiu rambled on many daily details, and tears fell 'uncontrollably'.
"You also hurry up to find a woman who treats you sincerely, so that I can be completely at ease."
Advertisement
"Today is my big sister's big day, don't always be unhappy, can't you hear it?"
"Okay, I'm going to entertain the guests, take care of yourself!"
Gong Qianqiu said that the last voice choked with tears, and then turned and ran away.
Looking at the back of Gong Qianqiu's departure, Qi Shengzi's heart was empty, and he suddenly felt as if he had lost something.

There was also a breath in the chest, unable to go up and down, which was really unbearable.
"Sister, sister…"
The Seventh Holy Son murmured in a low voice, the feeling of blockage in his throat and chest became stronger and stronger, and he was suddenly disturbed again.
Instinctively, I wanted to drink a few sips of wine, but thinking of Gong Qianqiu's advice just now, I put the wine bottle aside again.
Looking at the picture of Gong Qianqiu and the Great Holy Son on the high platform in the distance toasting the guests together, the Seven Holy Sons' eyes are a little sore, and their hearts are extremely uncomfortable.
Advertisement
He was like a child whose beloved toy was ruthlessly taken away, so angry, yet so helpless, even powerless.
The Seven Holy Sons were in a daze throughout the wedding, either in a daze, or wandering in the sky, like an empty body with a lost soul.
In front of the main gate of Taixu Shenzong, the red makeup was several miles away, and the carriages were placed in an orderly manner on the street, and there was an endless stream of people who came to congratulate and give gifts.
The red felt paved ground for several miles, the bluestone road is covered with rose petals, and the trees along the street are tied with various color bands.
The gongs and drums were loud, firecrackers were blaring, and the whole wedding was grand to the extreme.
The cheers from the crowd were even more sonic shocks, as if they could reach beyond the clouds.
Looking at everything in front of him, Xiao Feng's face was extremely gloomy.
Since the last time he was severely injured and thrown into the ditch, Xiao Feng fled back to the Cang Qiong Sect in embarrassment.

After several days of recuperation, the internal injuries have all recovered, and even the power has broken through.
Xiao Feng naturally also got the news of Gong Qianqiu's wedding with the Great Holy Son today.
He specially came over to investigate the details of the big marriage. Even Xiao Feng himself didn't know what kind of psychology he was in. Maybe he was unwilling or sad.
It's just that Tian Si, Xie Huanyu and others followed behind Xiao Feng.
In fact, they didn't want to come to Taixu Shenzong. If they were discovered by the Three Saints and Gong Qianqiu, they would have to die in Huangquan.
But Xiao Feng insisted on coming, Xie Huanyu and others could only bite the bullet and follow, after all, in their eyes, Xiao Feng was Levi Garrison's beloved disciple.
In case Xiao Feng loses his life before their eyes, they will also usher in Levi Garrison's crazy revenge, and Xie Zhongmou will bear the brunt of being killed.
"Xiao Feng, you must hold back when you pass the meeting. We are simply unable to fight against the masters of the Taixu Shenzong."
Xie Huanyu pleaded with a sad face.
Xiao Feng snorted and walked straight in. They all came here in disguise. After submitting the gifts, they entered the venue very smoothly.

Xie Huanyu and others also breathed a sigh of relief, and successfully infiltrated the Taixu Shenzong wedding venue. Next, they only need to control Xiao Feng's madness.
However, they didn't know that the moment Xie Huanyu and others entered the venue, they were already discovered by Xuan Ming and others.
It's just that with Gong Qianqiu's order, Xuan Ming directly let him go, and a few people successfully sneaked into the venue.

However, even so, there are countless pairs of eyes staring at Xiao Feng around, as long as he dares to coax things, he will be subdued immediately.
"Let all of us be vigilant. As long as Xiao Feng is found to be conspiring, he can kill him on the spot."
Xuan Ming's voice transmission gave the order.
Advertisement
At the same time, Xie Huanyu also seemed to feel something wrong.
"Do you feel like you are being watched?" Xie Huanyu asked in a low voice.
Tian Si and the others shook their heads one after another. They were not as strong as Xie Huanyu, and they didn't have any abnormal feeling.
Coupled with the dense crowd on the scene, it may be just ordinary guests watching.
Advertisement
"Don't worry, young master, the first elder's disguise technique has never gone wrong." Tian Si comforted.
In the past, the great elder Xie Yunzong's various energies of the transfiguration technique, even in the face of the top powerhouses, were able to pass the test, presumably this time, there will be no mistakes.
Thinking of this, Xie Huanyu was relieved a little.
Just looking at Xiao Feng's eyes is particularly worried, this is a non-ticking bomb, and it will explode when it will explode.
Seeing Gong Qianqiu on the high platform and the Great Holy Son hand in hand, the smile was extraordinarily sweet, Xiao Feng felt that his heart was cut by a knife.
"The auspicious time has come, and the newcomer is in place!"
The elder brother spoke loudly, and the scene suddenly became quiet.
Gong Qianqiu and the Great Holy Son came to the middle of the high platform.
"Worship heaven and earth!"
Advertisement
"Two thanks to the high hall!"
"Bye husband and wife!"
"Enter the bridal chamber together!"

The bridegroom's voice was like a sharp blade, stabbed in Xiao Feng's heart.
Looking at the woman who once swore eachother with him, now leaning on someone else's chest, she smiled like a flower.
Xiao Feng felt that breathing was starting to become difficult, his chest was heaving violently, and his face was hard to see.
At this moment, the Great Holy Son hugged Gong Qianqiu by the waist and walked directly towards the new house.
The disciples of Taixu Shenzong and many guests also cheered happily.
"The Great Holy Son can't wait!"
"Isn't that because Elder Gong is too beautiful?"
"The two are a match made in heaven!"
The noise kept pouring into Xiao Feng's ears, and he felt that his chest was about to explode with anger.
Tian Si and Xie Huanyu were also extremely nervous. They were really afraid that Xiao Feng would coax the wedding scene, and the few people who followed would definitely bring disaster to Chi Yu.
However, after a long time, Xiao Feng was unusually calm, which was beyond the expectations of Xie Huanyu and others.
"Gong Qianqiu, everything in the past was a scam. From now on, you and I are just mortal enemies of the bloody sea."
"When my cultivation base increases greatly, I will kill you with my own hands."
Xiao Feng said secretly in his heart.
Until this moment, the only trace of reluctance left by Gong Qianqiu finally disappeared.
Xiao Feng completely let go.
In fact, before coming here, Xiao Feng really thought about the wedding scene with his brain, and he also wanted to ask himself whether he could really let go in this special environment.
It was not until after seeing the intimate actions of Gong Qianqiu and the Great Holy Son, Xiao Feng found that he was not as angry as he imagined.

There may have been a trace of grief, but now it is completely relieved.
So Xiao Feng chose to be silent, but the hatred value in the past surged, as if it was about to explode.
Gong Qianqiu was also surprised and puzzled.
She thought that Xiao Feng would break out on the spot, but she did not think of the latter and did not act rashly.
The previously expected scenes also did not appear, which was beyond Gong Qianqiu's expectations, but also disappointed her greatly.
"Xiao Feng, I didn't expect you to actually let it go!"
At this moment, Gong Qianqiu was a little unwilling.

Xiao Feng's reaction far exceeded Gong Qianqiu's expectations, and she wanted to continue to observe Xiao Feng's next move.
However, at this moment, being carried by the Great Holy Son and rushing into the new room, she doesn't want to have a bridal room now, especially because it may damage her own image.
You must know that there are many subordinates that she secretly developed under the stage.
Gong Qianqiu's thoughts were running, and he quickly thought of a countermeasure.
"Husband, don't be so impatient! We have time at night!"
"All the guests are watching here! Especially the helmsman of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple is here."
Advertisement
"You have to make a good impression on him!"
Gong Qianqiu said softly.
The Great Holy Son immediately stopped, and the blazing flame in his lower abdomen instantly extinguished most of it.
"As expected of a woman who is valued by this seat, you are right!"
Advertisement

The Great Holy Son was not only angry, but praised Gong Qianqiu's reminder.
The Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple has the academy he yearns for, and the helmsman is watching from not far away.
Wouldn't the gain outweigh the loss if I were treated as a dawdler who was difficult to achieve?
"The wedding is now complete, everyone will not be drunk today!"
The Great Holy Son quickly resolved the embarrassment and explained the move just now as matching the wedding program.
Gong Qianqiu looked at Xiao Feng with the corner of his eye, and saw that the latter had not acted rashly, just drinking and eating there.
"Xiao Feng, what if you let it go?"
"We are people from two worlds. If you want to be favored by this sect master, are you also worthy?"
"What's more, compared with the Great Holy Son, it is simply the difference between clouds and mud."
Advertisement
"The Great Holy Son can stab you to death with one finger."
The more Gong Qianqiu thought about it, the more proud he became.
Especially when she thought that after the Great Holy Son inherited the position of Sect Master of Taixu Shen Sect in the future, she would be the Sect Master's wife, and she felt even more happy.
Xiao Feng, who completely let go of this emotion, felt that the huge boulder that once seemed to be pressing on his chest instantly turned into powder.
Even this wedding wine was very happy, and now there is only hatred left.
But at this moment, Tiansi put away the communication tools.
He lowered his voice and said: "According to the eyeliner report, the specific location of the divine robbery has been investigated. Do you want to take the opportunity to steal it?"
It is no longer a secret that Shen Jie was dedicated to Taixu Shenzong by Gong Qianqiu.

After Xiao Feng came to the Kunlun Ruins in order to atone for his sins, he asked members of the Cang Qiong faction to secretly investigate the whereabouts of the gods.
He didn't even think it would come to fruition so soon.
"Today, the core members of the Taixu Shenzong are at the wedding scene, which is the perfect time to steal back the robbery!"
"Yeah Xiao Feng, if you can steal the robbery back, Mr. Ye will definitely be very happy."
"With the strength of several of us united, the chance of getting a divine robbery is very high."
Xie Huanyu and others are very active. Xie Zhongmou is still in Levi Garrison's hands. If he succeeds in stealing the divine robbery, he may be able to become a bargaining chip.
But now Xiao Feng's strength should not be underestimated, at least for the current situation of the Cang Qiong faction, it is more certain to have him join.
Xiao Feng waved his hand and said, "God robbery, I will take it back in an open and honest way."
After Xiao Feng finished speaking, he turned and left, Tian Si, Xie Huanyu and the others looked at each other, and immediately followed.
They really didn't understand what Xiao Feng meant. Could it be that he thought he could snatch the calamity back with his own strength?
Now Shen Jie is used by the entire Taixu Shenzong as a sacred sword for sectarianism!
Looking at the backs of the few people leaving, Xuan Ming hurriedly asked Gong Qianqiu if he would take them down on the spot.
Gong Qianqiu said solemnly: "Don't act rashly, send a few masters to follow them secretly, and figure out their bottom line before making a long-term plan."
Gong Qianqiu acted very cautiously, first to find out whether Xiao Feng entered the Kunlun Ruins alone.
In particular, it is necessary to determine the movements of Levi Garrison and the powerhouses around him, so that a more stable response plan can be formulated.

Wedding scene.
At this moment, the most uncomfortable thing is the Seven Holy Sons.
Especially looking at the whole process of the marriage of the First Son and Gong Qianqiu, the Seventh Son is even more heartbroken.
The feeling that the love in my heart was forcibly taken away by someone was even stronger.
"hateful!"
The Seventh Holy Son cursed peacefully in his heart, but even he didn't know who he was scolding.
Advertisement
It may be that he is scolding the Great Holy Son for being loved!
It may also be that he is scolding himself for being too useless to compete!
It's more likely that he was irritated simply by scolding the wedding scene for being too chaotic!
Then he took a few sips of wine, and coughed continuously because he drank too much.
Advertisement
All the performances of the Seven Holy Sons were seen by Gong Qianqiu.
"You can't escape the palm of this sect master."
Gong Qianqiu was very proud in his heart.
The wedding continued, with celebrations in and out of the lobby.
The Great Holy Son is also very trustworthy, and at the wedding banquet, Gong Qianqiu was publicly named as the first wife of the big house, and became the real future teacher's wife.
"This can be regarded as truly gaining a firm foothold in the Taixu Shenzong." Gong Qianqiu is naturally complacent, and the smile on his face has never stopped from beginning to end.
The improvement of status has also brought many benefits, such as the increase of cultivation resources, and the increase of various permissions.

“Now I can enter the Tibetan Scripture Pavilion and many forbidden places of Taixu Shenzong.”

Advertisement

“It is said that there are many top-level combat skills and exercises in the Tibetan Sutra Pavilion, which will make me even more powerful.”

“There are also all kinds of treasures hidden in the forbidden land!”

The more Gong Qianqiu thought about it, the happier he became, and the plan to hug the big saint’s thigh was basically completed.

The wedding banquet lasted from morning to evening, and then it was time to coax the bridal chamber.

Of course, those who can participate in the bridal chamber are the absolute core of the Taixu Shenzong, especially the top geniuses of the younger generation such as several great saints.

In the whole process, only the Seven Holy Sons disappeared.

Of course, this didn’t attract the attention of others, after all, the Seven Holy Sons had always been withdrawn and not sociable.

Only Gong Qianqiu knew the inside story, and it was even more conclusive that the Seventh Holy Son had completely fallen into her trap.

“Okay, the bridal chamber is also coaxed, everyone should leave!”

“Don’t disturb the two-person world of our husband and wife.”

“Go, go, go!”

The Great Holy Son deliberately said with a straight face.

Others naturally dare not stay, this is the future headmaster, unless they don’t plan to mix in the Taixu Shenzong in the future.

Soon there were only Gong Qianqiu and Da Shengzi left in the room.

“Qianqiu, we can finally cultivate into a positive fruit, come on!”

The Great Holy Son couldn’t wait for a long time, and rushed up directly.

Gong Qianqiu had already taken the opportunity to arrange illusions in the room, but it didn’t work for a strong man like the Great Holy Son.

The two finally broke through that layer of restriction and became a real husband and wife.

The room was suddenly violent, and it was not until the middle of the night that it completely calmed down.
The next morning.
Gong Qianqiu opened his sleepy eyes, but suddenly felt the breath in his body surging, which was significantly improved than yesterday.
"How is this going?"
Gong Qianqiu was puzzled.
At this moment, the Great Holy Son also woke up.
As if seeing Gong Qianqiu's doubts, he explained with a smile: "I am practicing the kendo of seven emotions and six desires. Yesterday, although you and I did not have any exercises related to the operation, but the feelings will definitely be beneficial to the cultivation. ."
"Husband, so if you practice related exercises, your cultivation will increase even more?"
Gong Qianqiu asked.
"That's right, the strength of this seat has also improved a lot."
The Great Holy Son nodded and said, "Qianqiu, since it's good for you and me, let's continue!"
Therefore, at the strong request of the Great Holy Son and Gong Qianqiu's half push, the two conducted more in-depth discussions and explorations on the Seven Emotions and Six Desires kendo.
It was not until three poles in the sun that the two people's cultivation finally stopped.
After appeasing the first son, Gong Qianqiu got up and went to find the seventh son.

The improvement is far beyond Gong Qianqiu's expectations, which is definitely an unexpected surprise.
Seeing that the first son fell asleep again, Gong Qianqiu got up and went to find the seventh son.

The various performances of the Seven Holy Sons were seen by Gong Qianqiu yesterday, and now I am afraid it is the moment when I look forward to my appearance.
He carried a food box in his hand, which contained a bowl of porridge and two dishes of side dishes.
When I came to the residence of the Seven Saints, I saw that the door outside was open,
and there was a faint snoring sound from inside.
"This child, it's noon and still awake?"

Gong Qianqiu deliberately raised the volume a little, and sure enough, the snoring in the room stopped abruptly.
After a while, the door of the inner room was suddenly opened, and the Seven Holy Sons broke out from inside.
"elder sister?"
After confirming that the person in front of him was Gong Qianqiu, the pale and haggard cheeks of the Seventh Holy Son were instantly replaced by surprise and excitement.
Advertisement
Just as Gong Qianqiu guessed, since yesterday's wedding banquet, the Seven Holy Sons began to drink alcohol until they fell drunk in the bedroom in the middle of the night.
I was unhappy all day, as if the most precious treasure had been snatched away.
The whole sky above his head collapsed completely.
However, when he saw Gong Qianqiu visiting him, the Seven Saints felt that the originally dark world was instantly lit up.
"Is that you?"
While speaking, the Seventh Holy Son rubbed his eyes vigorously.
Gong Qianqiu walked closer, pointed out the green jade finger and nodded on Qisheng's forehead, and said with a smile: "What happened to your child?"
"It smells so strong, rinse your mouth and eat something, or you won't have this appetite for a long time."

“Hey!”

The Seven Holy Sons suddenly felt like tears welling up in their eyes.
The love has not diminished, but it is still a familiar recipe and a familiar taste.
Soon after washing up, Gong Qianqiu had already placed the food in the food box on the table.
“Why are you still standing stupidly? Hurry up and sit down to eat!” Gong Qianqiu urged.
The Seventh Holy Son resisted the urge to burst into tears, and after sitting down, he devoured it.
Although it was only the lightest white porridge and the simplest two dishes of pickles, the Seven Saints felt more delicious than any delicacies from the mountains and seas.
Soon the food on the table was swept away by the Seven Holy Sons.
And Gong Qianqiu watched quietly from the beginning to the end, his eyes were full of relief and love.
“As if you haven’t eaten for several days, wipe the corners of your mouth!”
Gong Qianqiu handed over a silk handkerchief and said.
The Seven Saints took it over and smelled the faint fragrance from the silk, feeling extremely happy at this moment.
“If only my sister could keep taking care of me like this.”
The Seven Saints said sincerely.
Gong Qianqiu sighed for a long time, and said with emotion: “I also think, seeing you like this, I am even more worried.”
“It’s a pity that I’m not alone now, there are many things… Forget it, not to mention such unhappy things.”
Gong Qianqiu deliberately made an appearance that he was hesitant to speak.
“Sister, what’s the matter? It’s the boss…Isn’t the eldest son treating you badly?”
I don’t know why, even the title of the Seven Holy Sons has changed.
“That’s not true, the Great Holy Son is very good to me.”

Gong Qianqiu paused, then turned the conversation and continued: "But sometimes, I can't help myself."
"Whether the secular world or the Kunlun Ruins is a place where the weak eat the strong, it is an eternal truth that the strong are respected."
"Even if my elder sister's cultivation is not bad, for those who are extremely strong, they are like ants after all."
Although Gong Qianqiu didn't say it clearly, the Seven Saints also understood what she meant.
"My sister is most likely wronged by the Great Holy Son, but because of her lack of strength, she has to listen to the latter's words after all."
The Seven Holy Sons thought secretly.
With Gong Qianqiu's deliberate guidance, he resented the Great Holy Son even more.
"Sister, don't worry, I have a solution."
The Seven Saints said suddenly.

Gong Qianqiu was excited for a while, but there was no expression on his face.
"Xiao Qi, don't make my sister happy."
Gong Qianqiu smiled bitterly.
The Seventh Holy Son said solemnly: "Sister, I'm not kidding, as long as you have enough strength, you don't have to be controlled by others."
"What kind of way is this?"
Gong Qianqiu sighed again and said, "Improving the realm of cultivation requires steady and steady progress, how can it be possible to ascend to the sky in one step?"
Advertisement
"It's really impossible to reach the sky in one step, but my sister has the swallowing technique and root bone. As long as she cooperates with a higher level of spiritual veins, she can greatly improve her cultivation in a short period of time."

Gong Qianqiu said with a smile: "How can it be so simple, to my current strength, even the improvement of the Holy Vein to me is not obvious."
"And the dragon veins are extremely rare. The dragon vein you discovered before is specially used for warming and nourishing the gods. Where is my share?"
"In the end, I'm still an outsider in the Taixu Shenzong."
Advertisement
Gong Qianqiu smiled bitterly, with helplessness written on his face.
"Sister, to be honest, I also discovered another dragon vein, and the scale is even larger than the dragon vein of Wen Yang Shen Jie."
"I'll give it to you, so you can't improve your cultivation base?"
The Seven Holy Sons said as if taking credit.
Gong Qianqiu was pleasantly surprised. She originally wanted to take the opportunity to get a few more holy veins in the hands of the Seven Saints, but did she think that there were still dragon veins in stock?
Just another surprise!
"No, this is something you discovered with great difficulty. Wouldn't it be better for you to use it for cultivation?"
Gong Qianqiu deliberately refused.
The Seventh Holy Son said solemnly, "I don't have any bones, and the dragon veins are of little use in my hands, so I'd better give it to my sister so that I won't waste anything."
Advertisement
"What's more, I have the ability to detect spiritual veins, do I still worry about finding other dragon veins?"
"But……"
"Don't be my sister, if you don't accept it, you won't treat me as a relative."
The Seven Saints said urgently.
Gong Qianqiu sighed and said 'reluctantly': "Okay, then my sister will accept it first. If you need it, my sister will return it to you."
Seeing Gong Qianqiu's acceptance, the Seventh Holy Son smiled again.
He just wants to make Gong Qianqiu continue to become stronger, so that he can get rid of the control of the Great Holy Son.

the other side.
Eternal kingdom.
With the sudden collapse of the Qianqiu Sect, the affiliated forces instantly collapsed and scattered.
And the few high-level survivors of the eternal kingdom have gathered members scattered all over the place, and there seems to be a resurgence trend.
Although they are still under the pressure of Levi Garrison, they can barely survive now.
In particular, Levi Garrison was preparing to enter the Kunlun Ruins at this time, and there was no cultivation method to deal with them.
It gave the eternal kingdom a certain living space.
In an underground secret base.
Several high-level officials of the Eternal Kingdom sat together.
"According to the reliable information of the eyeliner, the strong guard of the gods has appeared."
"And they are looking for super spiritual veins everywhere, especially they found a strange place in the War Eagle Country."
"It is said that there are a lot of spiritual veins in it, and the level of the spiritual veins is higher."
"If it wasn't for those who were guarded by the gods, we could also have a share of the pie, what a pity!"
Several high-level officials of the Eternal Kingdom shook their heads, their faces filled with unwillingness and helplessness.
The guardian of the gods is the force they are most afraid of. Even in the heyday, they have to shy away, let alone the current situation.
I am afraid that the gods guard a few strong people, and they can directly uproot them.
"It is said that Levi Garrison's people also appeared in the War Eagle Country before. Will these two groups of people meet?"
"I hope they meet, so we can sit on the mountain and watch the tiger fight."

“That’s right, we can only reap the benefits of the fisherman when Levi Garrison and the guardians of the gods lose both.”

Levi Garrison’s side is still haunted by the world discovered by the War Eagle Kingdom.
He now feels more and more that the effect of the holy vein quenching body on himself has been minimal.
If you want to improve, you must find a higher level of spiritual veins.
Of course, Levi Garrison learned from Xie Zhongmou’s mouth that the sacred veins are called dragon veins.
I think the source of super power in the world where God’s Brain said it is most likely the dragon vein.
This further increased Levi Garrison’s determination to enter that world.
Advertisement
However, at this moment, a message came from God’s brain again.
“Mr. Ye, I have used new equipment to conduct multiple investigations and found that there is no sign of any living creatures in that area.”
“And that energy has a tendency to overflow, so I am afraid it will attract the attention of many forces.”
The tone of God’s Brain was quite urgent, and it was clear that the truth was much more serious than his narrative.
Advertisement
After learning this information, Levi Garrison immediately rushed to the secret realm to mark the location.
The absence of any creatures means that there are no peerless powerhouses in the secret realm, so there is no need to worry about the extra branches of the dragon veins.
After all, the Taixu Shenzong is still eyeing the Kunlun Ruins, and it would not be a wise move to provoke other unknown transcendental strengths.
“Mr. Ye, how do you plan to enter the secret realm?”

After the meeting, God's Brain asked straight to the point.
During this time, the Brain of God used many new devices to explore the secret realm, but without exception, they all ended in failure.
Levi Garrison said with a smile: "Break it with strength."
Before, I was worried that there were unknown powerhouses inside to avoid disturbing the other party, so I didn't use this simple and rude way to enter.
God's brain could not understand the meaning of this sentence for a while.
Advertisement
But Levi Garrison did not explain in depth, and said solemnly: "You take people away, and you will become affected."
The Brain of God hurriedly retreated with the members of the base camp responsible for his protection.
Levi Garrison entered the secret realm again, and the feeling of being restrained and delayed by the movement struck again.
"Hi!"
Levi Garrison let out a loud shout, and then ran the basic exercises, exuding terrifying energy pressure from his whole body.
There are visible energy fluctuations in the regional space, and the feeling of hysteresis has completely dissipated at this time.
"Break it for me!"
Levi Garrison punched out, and the violent fist wind swept out, directly hitting the denser energy barrier at the far end.
Clap clap!
There was a faint sound of some kind of barrier cracking in the ear, and this sound spread very quickly to the surrounding.
"Break it to me!"
Levi Garrison didn't stop at all, and continued to blast several punches in the same direction.
Boom!
Finally, there was a deafening sound of collapse in the void.
Immediately after that, the surrounding environment changed drastically, and an extremely rich spiritual energy rushed towards him.

The entrance is a beautiful landscape, like a paradise.
Looking from a distance, there are more mountains and mountains, and the mountainside is surrounded by clouds and mist, like a fairyland.
"This is simply a paradise!"
Levi Garrison was very emotional.
However, then Levi Garrison found that many scenes were displayed in an orderly manner, as if they had been deliberately arranged.
However, Levi Garrison released his strength to carry out a carpet search and exploration, but did not find any suspicious persons.
Buzz!
Suddenly, Levi Garrison had an extremely strong energy induction.
That was when the energy probe he released collided with other terrifying energy sources.
"It must be a super spiritual vein!"
Levi Garrison galloped quickly following the approximate direction of the energy induction.
After a while, Levi Garrison came to a mountain.
The strong energy aura overflowed, especially in the energy raw ore in front of him, and there was a faint voice.
The lavender energy halo filled the surrounding spiritual veins, making people unable to help indulge in it.
"Is this the legendary dragon vein?"
Levi Garrison was very surprised.

The purity of the spiritual energy contained in this spiritual meridian is many times stronger than that of the holy meridian.
Moreover, Levi Garrison can clearly sense that there are several dragon veins of similar level not far away.
As for the spiritual veins of the Holy Vein level, there are simply too many.
"This is a big fortune!"
Levi Garrison was overjoyed in his heart.
However, at this moment, a cold and harsh voice came from a distance.
Advertisement

“Ignorance of the Oriental Monkey, I advise you to leave this place as soon as possible, otherwise you will be killed without mercy!”
As soon as the voice fell, a group of people rushed to the front at a very fast speed.
Levi Garrison’s eyes narrowed slightly. There were dozens of people in this team, and they were all strong.
Especially the leading ones, the energy fluctuations emanating from their gestures are actually much stronger than those at the helm of the five major sects such as Xie Zhongmou.
Advertisement
But these people are all Western faces, with yellow hair and blue eyes, with arrogance and arrogance in their eyes.
“Where did you guys come up with garbage, dare to take care of Lao Tzu’s business?”
Levi Garrison asked with a sneer.
How could Levi Garrison hand over the fat on his lips?
But we must understand the details of these people, so that we can take precautions in the future.
“We are the guardians of the gods, and all the spiritual resources in the War Eagle Country are owned by the temple. How can you all let monkeys covet?”
A burly middle-aged man headed by said proudly.
Levi Garrison noticed that a blazing flame was faintly beating around the palm of the burly man.
Even the surrounding area has become extremely hot and dry as time goes by, as if people are going to be steamed dry.
Advertisement
“Guardian of the gods? Never heard of it!”
Levi Garrison sneered: “By the way, are you and the Eternal Kingdom together?”
“How can the energy grafted on the so-called high-tech be compared with the guardianship of our gods?”
The burly and strong Chinese are full of contempt.

There are twelve guardian gods, corresponding to the twelve main gods in Western mythology.
Each of them has a terrifying power, which has been hidden from the world, and each has formed a huge force and called himself a temple.
The leader of the twelve guardian gods is the strong man who has amazing control over thunder and lightning. The force he formed became the Temple of Zeus.
There are also such as the Temple of Apollo, the Temple of Ares and so on.
These twelve forces have been searching for the top spiritual veins in the Western Domain.
Divine veins and holy veins have already controlled a lot, but there is no dragon vein.
If it wasn't for the level of the super spiritual vein in the Eternal Kingdom, they would have taken it for themselves long ago.
Levi Garrison was slightly startled, he grasped the key point of this sentence.
Eternal Realm is to select talented people to bless various high-tech to improve combat effectiveness, and even use the body to do various experiments to improve energy.
Of course, it is possible to use technology to cultivate a group of dead soldiers with strong combat power, but after all, it is very different from the improvement of cultivators.
And could these people be real Western practitioners?
"What kind of broken temple do you say these spiritual veins belong to, do you have proof?"
"If you don't come out early, wait for Lao Tzu to find these spiritual veins and jump out again."
"Hurry up, or don't blame me for being rude."
Levi Garrison said with a sneer.
The faces of the leaders guarded by the gods and the elites suddenly turned ugly.
In fact, they have been looking for these dragon veins in the secret realm for a long time, but there is no way to find them.

It was not until Levi Garrison used his strength to forcibly smash the barrier of the secret realm and the powerful spiritual energy leaked out, and they could clearly sense the position of the dragon vein.
“Eastern Monkey, don’t talk nonsense, in the name of the gods, I order you to get out of the way, or kill you.”
As soon as the voice fell, the crowd headed by the burly and strong man immediately entered the battle preparation.
“Gods? Are you sure you’re not a pig god?”
“Think before you speak, want to pick up ready-made?”
Levi Garrison also made a fighting stance and said condensedly: “Fight!”

“Since you are looking for death as an oriental monkey, then this seat will fulfill you!”
“You guys, kill him!”
The burly man gave orders to several elite subordinates.
“As ordered!”
Several elites had contemptuous expressions on their faces, and they did not take Levi Garrison in the slightest.
“Eastern Monkey, today I will let you know what divine power is.”
Advertisement
During the speech, several people urged the exercises.
Levi Garrison didn’t notice anything unusual at the beginning of the period, but soon discovered that something was wrong.
The ground beneath his feet seemed to have life, and he even released an invisible force to fasten his feet to control his mobility.
“Right now, let’s go!”
Advertisement
The burly and strong man shouted loudly, and several people instantly launched an offensive in multiple directions.

One mouth recited words, and the water element continued to gather in the void, and finally formed a sharp blade comparable to that of super-strong materials.
At the same time, the surrounding trees and vines are also growing wildly, and soon they reach the thickness of the surrounding.
The tip is even sharper, directly piercing Levi Garrison's heart.
"Gold, wood, water, fire, soil, control of the power of the five elements?"
A look of surprise flashed in Levi Garrison's eyes.
Several people's ability to manipulate elements is not much worse than Levilia.
Of course, Levilia mainly uses the power of heaven and earth to form a fighting field that is unique to her.
"These guys who claim to be the guardians of the gods still have some skills!"
Advertisement
Levi Garrison put away his contempt, and quickly started the basic exercises.
The violent energy coercion spreads out, directly rushing towards the vines and water arrows.
Clap clap!
The power gap between the two sides is too large, and these things are instantly smashed to powder by the energy.
"It's too whimsical for you to try to control Lao Tzu with this little trick."
Levi Garrison took a step suddenly, and the earth element movement under his feet suddenly collapsed and disintegrated, and he had no ability to resist.
Several elites guarded by the gods were also instantly stunned, and their faces were filled with expressions of shock and astonishment.
The burly and strong man was also shocked in his heart. He never thought that Levi Garrison's instant explosive power was so powerful.
"Don't hold back any more, cast the strongest attack."
"And you guys are going to help too!"
The burly and strong man instinctively thought that his subordinates underestimated the enemy, and he did not exert his full strength, which led to the weak attack.

Levi Garrison sneered and said, "You can go together! It's a waste of time to die separately."
"Arrogant, let's talk about the top ten elites guarded by our gods first!"
The burly man said condensedly.
Levi Garrison obviously didn't show his full strength just now, so the burly and strong man wanted to see his depth, so that he could know himself and his enemy.
"Oriental monkey, die!"
"Taste the power of this giant water blade."
"Lightning Slash!"
In an instant, various bells and whistles of the ten-man team roared.
At this moment, the earth trembled violently, as if some terrifying monster was about to break out of the ground.
At this moment, the thunder and lightning jumped like a terrifying giant python, constantly attacking Levi Garrison's vital parts.
At this moment, the water blade was like a violent storm, giving Levi Garrison no space to escape.
"Go away for me!"
Levi Garrison never planned to escape from the beginning.
Although the strength of these people surprised Levi Garrison, they didn't take it too seriously.
Let him be stormy, and I will break it with one punch.
In an instant, Levi Garrison disappeared in place and punched against the offensive formed by many elements.
The violent fist wind swept out, forming an extremely terrifying energy vortex, which directly smashed the ten people's joint attack with the trend of destroying the dead.
The nearest elites guarded by the gods did not have time to dodge, and were directly swept into it by the terrifying wind, turning into a few blood mists.
"Ahhh!"
The screams came one after another.
Several other guardian elites of the gods at a distance were seriously injured and fell to the ground, losing their combat effectiveness.

“This…how is this possible?”
The burly man was stunned in shock, he couldn’t believe what was happening in front of him.
One hit kills five elites and seriously wounds five elites.
sizzle!
The rest of the guardian elites of the gods also gasped.
The comrade who was tragically killed and seriously injured just now was no weaker than him.
Advertisement
Some are even stronger.
However, under the counterattack of Levi Garrison, their joint attack would be so vulnerable?
“It’s really sad that the gods are guarded by your group of rice buckets.”
Levi Garrison said with a sneer.
Advertisement
contempt!
Scarlet contempt!
The anger in the burly man’s chest instantly rose to the extreme.
“Damn oriental monkey, you are seeking your own death!”
“Dare to offend the guardianship of our gods, and our Twelve Temples will never die.”
The burly man said angrily.
Levi Garrison shrugged and said indifferently, “Wouldn’t it be better to let you all die?”
“Fake! This seat will burn you to ashes today!”
The burly and strong man ran the exercise, and saw that two giant rings of fire soon appeared around his palm.
Advertisement
Moreover, the fire elements in the main area space are still rushing in frantically, constantly gathering the coercion of the fire ring for it.
Crack, crack, crack!
As the ring of fire got bigger and bigger, the sound of burning things came from the void.
If you look closely, you will find that the space around the two rings of fire seems to be distorted.

Apparently they couldn't take their scorching heat anymore.
"This power is so interesting!"
Levi Garrison's eyes narrowed slightly, and he could clearly feel the energy pressure that burst out from the burly and strong man, and even killed Xie Zhongmou in seconds.
He had no idea that such a force existed in the West at all. Hearing the meaning of the burly and strong man, there were twelve forces of a similar level.
"Oriental monkey, die!"
Before he finished speaking, the burly and burly man disappeared in place in an instant.
The next second appeared before Levi Garrison approached, and two rounds of fire rings with the power of destruction, baked the surrounding area to the point of deformation.
There was also a faint pungent smell of burning things in the air.
Woo!
Two rounds of fire rings roared towards Levi Garrison's head.
"I want to see how strong you are."
Levi Garrison still didn't dodge, and threw two punches against the burly man's ring of fire.
I can clearly feel that Levi Garrison has a faint golden energy halo flowing on the surface of Levi Garrison's body at this moment, as if wearing a layer of indestructible golden armor.
Boom!
The energies of the two sides collided head-on in the void, and a deafening terrifying sound erupted.
Even the space seemed to shake violently, and the people around were shaken out.
The weaker ones were already seriously injured.
Whoosh!
After the energy collided, a figure suddenly flew backwards.
"guard!"
The members screamed, and they saw that it was the burly and strong man who was shocked and flew out.
And the two rounds of fiery fire rings in his hands have been extinguished, and the aura emanating from the whole person has also dropped significantly.

The burly and strong man was shocked and flew more than twenty feet away, and the red blood on the corner of his mouth was particularly dazzling.
On the other hand, Levi Garrison stood still, like an ancient god of war.
The key is that Levi Garrison did not change his face, as if the terrifying energy just now had nothing to do with him.
"hateful!"
The burly and strong man was panting heavily, his eyes filled with incredible.
Although he was not the strongest attack just now, he used 70% to 80% of his strength, and he didn't even touch Levi Garrison's clothes.
"Everyone will kill him together. If this person is not eliminated, it must be a serious problem for our temple's confidant."
The burly and strong man gave an order, and everyone else quickly ran the elemental energy they were good at, and swarmed towards Levi Garrison without fear of death.
"It's long overdue, I can finally kill a happy man."
Levi Garrison was awe-inspiring, and instead of retreating, he went straight to the guardian of the gods.

Levi Garrison is like a tiger entering a flock, and screams can be heard wherever the silhouette flashes.
Within a few breaths, more than ten guardians of the gods were killed or seriously injured.
"The combat power of this Oriental monkey is too terrifying, isn't it?"
The burly man swallowed hard.
Seeing that there are fewer and fewer guardians of the gods, the burly and strong man has the intention to retire.
Others are also a little unwilling to fight, Levi Garrison is simply a dimensionality reduction attack, even if everyone joins forces, they are powerless.
Advertisement
"We must take the opportunity to retreat!"

The burly and strong man made up his mind, and when everyone was besieging Levi Garrison, he gathered the power of the fire element to form several arrows with the thickness of his arms.
Immediately, they were thrown at Levi Garrison's major key points.
Chi Chi Chi!
Advertisement
The blazing arrows pierced the air, and the heat wave advanced layer by layer, as if even the space began to boil.
The surrounding plants withered at a rate visible to the naked eye, eventually reducing to clumps of coke.
Bang bang bang!
Levi Garrison fired several palms in a row, and five more people were knocked out.
"Sneak attack?"
The corner of Levi Garrison's mouth rose slightly, but he took it with his bare hands with a 'rocket'.
In fact, the burly man quickly fled the scene when he threw the fire element arrow.
He saw the scene where Levi Garrison caught the 'rocket' from the corner of his eye, and felt that his understanding of the fire element had been overturned.
The attack made by condensing all the power of fire elements was actually caught by someone with his bare hands?
Advertisement
Even fine steel will be instantly refined!
"Is this guy still human?"
The burly and strong man's heart sank to the bottom in an instant, and he even regretted provoking Levi Garrison.
How did he know that Levi Garrison's body had initially acquired the charm after being quenched by several holy veins.
Almost reached the level of King Kong's indestructible body.
When the elites under the guardianship of the other gods saw the leader fleeing, they instantly lost their fighting spirit and fled in all directions.

“How can it be so easy to escape?”
Levi Garrison threw several ‘rockets’ that he received with his bare hands at the fleeing crowd.
Several members of the guardian of the gods could not dodge and were directly burned to ashes.
“These people are not as strong as they think!”
Levi Garrison did not continue to chase and kill, and now the most important thing is to use these dragon veins to improve his strength.
“We have to call Wen Lei and the others to improve. Such high-quality cultivation resources must not be wasted.”
“Although the guardian of the gods does not pose a threat to me, it is not so easy for others to deal with it.”
“If there is not enough strength to deal with it, the guardianship of the gods will sooner or later become a serious problem for the confidant.”
Levi Garrison made up his mind to send information directly to the core members of the base camp and let them rush to the secret realm in batches.
Of course, Levi Garrison didn’t worry about the people guarded by the gods killing a carbine.
He deliberately showed his super strength just now, just to frighten those who are guarded by the gods, so that they dare not act rashly.
At this moment, the top executives of the remnants of the Eternal Kingdom will have a serious look on their faces.
The entire conference room was silent, and needles could be heard.
After a long time, the leader of the Eternal Kingdom said in a dry voice: “I never thought that Levi Garrison’s cultivation had reached such a terrifying realm.”
“Even the guardians of the gods suffered heavy casualties, and even the two leaders of the gods, the god of fire and the god of earth, were seriously injured.”
The rest of the Eternal Kingdom shuddered involuntarily.

The guardians of the gods, but the real god-like Kong does not exist. Even when the strength of the Eternal Kingdom is at its peak, it is necessary to shy away from them.
Even they once believed that if the guardians of the gods were willing, the eternal kingdom could be wiped out in an instant.
However, it was the powerhouse with such terrifying strength that he was shriveled under Levi Garrison's hands.
They suddenly realized what a stupid decision it was to provoke Levi Garrison in the first place.
Inside the Temple of Hephaestus.
Named after the god of fire, this temple is one of the twelve temples.

The burly man slowly opened his eyes, and there seemed to be a blazing flame beating in his eyes.
After a long period of repairs, most of the internal injuries he suffered finally recovered.
"Fake, what's the origin of that oriental monkey?"
The burly man said angrily.
There were fifty people in the team he led before, but after this battle, only eight were brought back.
Thirty-five of them were killed on the spot, and seven were seriously injured, but it is estimated that there are more bad luck than good luck.
Advertisement
"Lucas, do you want to notify the other guardians that we will kill them together?"
"Yeah, if we don't avenge this revenge, what face do we have to call ourselves the guardian of the gods?"
"If the Lord God is born and knows about this in the future, he will surely punish me."
The rest of the people were also filled with righteous indignation, gnashing their teeth in hatred for Levi Garrison.

Advertisement
Lucas pondered for a moment, then said slowly: "This person's strength is too terrifying, don't act rashly until you have completely found out his details."
"Could it be that this person came from the Kunlun Ruins in the East?"
Before the words fell, someone raised an objection: "I don't think so, even the middle-level sect leader in Kunlun Ruins may not be stronger than you."
"If the top sectarians of Kunlun Ruins join the WTO, other divine envoys will definitely notice."
"You are right!"
Lucas agreed and said solemnly, "Let's go look for other dragon veins first! Then send someone to investigate the oriental monkey."
"In the final analysis, we don't have enough energy sources. Otherwise, as long as the main god is born, let alone a mere oriental monkey, even the Kunlun Ruins will have to give in three points."
Nowadays, there are not a few divine veins and holy veins mastered by the gods guarding the great envoys, but only the dragon veins are absent.
If the dragon veins are found, the main god that they have guarded for generations will be born.
Advertisement
Lucas is only the guardian family of the Vulcan lineage, and the other eleven guardian families of the main gods are scattered all over the West.
Resurrection of the Lord God is their mission from generation to generation, and of course the meaning of their existence.
Now the energy of the divine veins and the holy veins is far from enough, and only with the help of the power of the dragon veins can there be a chance for the Lord God to be born.
At that time, they will really have the backbone, and it will be easy to dominate the world.
"Eastern Monkey, wait for this seat. When the Lord God is born, you must kill everyone who has a relationship with you."

Lucas said fiercely.
the other side.
After repelling the guardian of the gods, Levi Garrison devoted himself to a new round of cultivation and improvement.
In Levi Garrison's opinion, if he wanted to completely eradicate the forces of the Taixu Shenzong level, his current strength would probably be a lot worse.
So Levi Garrison nearly frantically used the dragon vein to quench his body, and the chain quenching effect was as good as he expected.
If you use the sacred vein to compare with the dragon vein, it is basically equivalent to the difference between cloud and mud.
As for other people, due to the relationship between their cultivation and their physique, they can basically use their divine veins to improve their limit.
Only Levilia was born to devour spiritual roots and bones, and he has been able to use the holy vein to quench the body to improve.
"Reserve one dragon vein for Levilia, and another spare. I will use the rest." Levi Garrison made up his mind secretly.
After another investigation, there are twelve dragon veins in the secret realm.
Divine veins and holy veins are countless, even if everyone in the base camp is pulled over to quench their bodies.
"This dragon vein is really extraordinary. There is a faint sound of dragon's roar. According to ancient books, it is possible to breed a real dragon. I don't know if it is true or false?"
Levi Garrison said with emotion on his face.
The Brain of God said with a smile: "I'm really looking forward to you being able to temper the strength of a real dragon's body. I'll study it carefully then."
"By your auspicious words, well, I'm going to start retreating."
Levi Garrison then began to use ten dragon veins to quench his body.
No one could have imagined that there are dragon veins in the mundane world, especially this kind of dragon vein group, which is exaggerated to the extreme.

Kunlun Ruins.
In the Taixu Shenzong.
Since the acquisition of many cultivation resources provided by the Seven Holy Sons, the cultivation realm has improved qualitatively.
Duguxiao and Xuan Ming and other confidants have also benefited a lot. They have never had such sufficient cultivation resources.
So everyone became more determined to follow Gong Qianqiu.
"Even if there is no Taixu Shenzong to rely on, this leader is not afraid of the revenge of Levi Garrison and others."
Advertisement
Gong Qianqiu was bursting with confidence at this moment.
In particular, the dragon veins provided by the Seventh Holy Son have not been completely swallowed up, and she will be able to reach a new level by then.
And Levi Garrison and their worldly world will never have such terrifying cultivation resources, and the strength gap between them is getting bigger and bigger.
"Levi Garrison, Xiao Feng, you should never think about revenge."
Advertisement
The smile on Gong Qianqiu's face was even greater.
At this moment, Gong Qianqiu suddenly felt a sense of loneliness when Ling Jueding looked at the mountains.
"As this sect leader becomes stronger and stronger and his status becomes higher and higher, a small person like Levi Garrison is like an ant."
"It's completely negligible. Those enemies in the secular world will no longer be able to get into her eyes."
Gong Qianqiu sighed and muttered to himself with some regret: "It's just so boring, I can't feel the feeling of playing them with applause at all."
the other side.
The guardians of the gods are still not reconciled, and after multiple investigations, the identity background of Levi Garrison has basically been determined.

Lucas said quietly: "I never thought that the oriental monkey was the culprit that destroyed the eternal kingdom."
"Sure enough, it's not a strong man in Kunlun Ruins, so you don't have to worry too much about it."
Advertisement
"Penlio, what do the other guardians say?"
Opposite Lucas sat a red-haired middle-aged man. He was also burly, with a faint flash of electric light in his palm. He was the helm of the Temple of Zeus.
Pengliao said solemnly: "They feel that the dragon veins in the secret realm are bound to be won. Last time our team only had two guardians."
"This time, as long as you combine a few more guardians to shoot at the same time, you can kill Levi Garrison."
"And according to the information, Levi Garrison is in retreat now, which is the perfect time for us to launch a sneak attack."
Lucas had a solemn look on his face, obviously thinking about the pros and cons.
There are twelve guardians of the gods, and now they have found the gods in their seats.
Only by allowing the temple to truly grow, can the birth of the Lord God be accelerated.
Cultivation resources are becoming more and more important, especially top-level cultivation resources like dragon veins, which are just needed.
The key is that they haven't found the dragon veins for so many years, and the secret realm where Levi Garrison is located has a dragon vein group, which is even more rare in a century.
"Assemble the elite immediately, and then notify the other envoys that Levi Garrison must be killed this time."
Lucas finally made up his mind.
Penglio said with a smile: "That's right, how can our guardian gods be scared by an oriental monkey?

“This time we dispatched five guardians, a hundred elites, and they will definitely be able to kill them.”
“I hope so!”
Lucas added in his mind.
If it wasn’t that the dragon veins belonged to the just-needed cultivation resources, he really didn’t want to provoke Levi Garrison again.
It can be said that the terrifying combat power that Levi Garrison showed before has made Lucas have a shadow in his heart.
Soon Lucas, Penglieo and other five guardians led a hundred temple elites to rush to the secret realm of the dragon veins.
“Levi Garrison, come out and die!”
When he came to the secret realm, Pengliao shouted directly.
Levi Garrison has used three dragon veins to quench his body at this time, and his cultivation realm has been significantly improved.
He never thought that after the last battle, the people guarded by the gods would dare to come over and ask for trouble.
“Looks like you weren’t beaten enough last time!”
Levi Garrison said with a playful face.

In the face of the protection of the gods and the siege of more than a hundred people, Levi
Garrison was not afraid at all, and even his tone was full of ridicule.
“Levi Garrison, today our five guardians will bring you down to ashes.”
“That’s right, the West is guarded by our gods, and it’s not your turn to show off your power.”
“Stop talking nonsense and die!”
The other guardians were aggressive, and they had never seen Levi Garrison’s strength.
Although Lucas reminded them to be cautious, these people have always been arrogant, believing that Lucas was defeated purely because of his lack of strength.
Advertisement

Levi Garrison hooked his fingers at the guardian of the gods, full of provocation.
“court death!”
Penglio took the lead in attacking, and then watching him run the exercises, the electric light in his palm surrounded, and two electric balls were formed in an instant.
lol!
Advertisement
The terrifying sound of electric current came, Penglieo suddenly shook his hand, and the two electric balls hit Levi Garrison’s body directly like cannonballs.
“You’d better go together, so as not to waste Lao Tzu’s time.”
Levi Garrison didn’t dodge in the slightest, and directly reached out his hands to directly charge the ball.
“Dongfang Monkey, you are too arrogant to pick it up with your bare hands, just wait to be electrocuted into coke!”
Penglio said with a sneer.
“yes?”
The corner of Levi Garrison’s mouth rose slightly, and he caught the two electric balls with great precision.
“I’ll give you back what’s yours!”
Levi Garrison’s arms shook slightly, and the two electric balls shot at Penglieo like cannonballs.
Advertisement
The speed of the electric ball was even several times faster than before.
“how can that be?”
Penglio was dumbfounded in shock, but he was well aware of the power of the electric ball, so he did not dare to stop at all, and tried his best to dodge to the side.
The electric ball swept past his body almost swiftly.
However, the elites of the temple behind them were not so lucky.
They thought that even if the Pengliod terrorist attack could not kill Levi Garrison, it would at least cause him to be severely injured.
He never thought that Levi Garrison not only caught the electric ball with his bare hands, but even threw it back the same way.

“Ahhh!”
Several people couldn’t dodge in time, and were instantly roasted into coke by the electric ball.
Penglio almost vomited blood in anger, feeling like he was shooting himself in the foot.
Lucas said solemnly: “Don’t watch the show, let’s go together and make a quick decision.”
The other three guardians are no longer arrogant, and directly display their housekeeping skills.
Water blades, rockets, electric balls…
All kinds of fancy and lethal attacks attacked Levi Garrison like a violent storm.
The other temple elites also attacked with all their strength. Although they were not as good as the guardian’s single attack, their advantage was the large number of people.
“Good come!”
The guards of the gods attacked it, and Levi Garrison was awe-inspiring.
Instead of retreating, he advanced, directly facing the opponent’s attack and threw several punches in a row.
“Wow!”
The violent tornado swept out, and everyone heard the faint sound of dragon roars within the terrifying energy fluctuations.
Boom!
In an instant, the joint attack guarded by the gods was all smashed.
The key is that Levi Garrison’s fist strength has not weakened much, and he still continues to attack the guardians of the gods with the momentum of destroying the dead.
“Ahhh!”
The screams and howls were endless.
Those with weaker strength were directly torn to pieces by fist strength, while those with slightly stronger strength barely kept the whole corpse.
Even the five guardian gods were seriously injured.
“The power of one punch is so terrifying!”
There was a hint of despair in the hearts of the five guardians, and they didn’t even have the idea of continuing to resist.

“Since you are here, then stay completely!”
Levi Garrison punched again, and three of the guardians failed to dodge and died in Huangquan.
Lucas and Penglio were a little farther away, but their speed was obviously faster than the other three, so they escaped.
The two fled in embarrassment without looking back, and the other elites fled in all directions, completely frightened.
After repelling the invincible guardians of the gods, Levi Garrison once again felt the horror of the effect of the dragon veins.

After deeply realizing the terrifying effect of the dragon veins, Levi Garrison immediately decided to take Levilia over and let her use the dragon veins to practice.
When Levilia came to the secret realm, she was quite shocked. She never thought that there would be so many terrifying spiritual veins here.
In particular, the purity of the spiritual energy in the secret realm is dozens of times stronger than that of the holy vein, which makes Levilia uncontrollably create his own exercises.
“Um?”
Levilia suddenly felt a little strange, as if attracted by some invisible force.
“Levilia, what’s wrong?”
Advertisement
Levi Garrison asked with some doubts.
Levilia said with a serious face: “Dad, the moment I ran the exercise just now, it seemed that I had some kind of induction with the power of the extremely strong spiritual veins.”
“Oh? Then you try to tell their approximate directions?” Levi Garrison said solemnly.
Levilia continued to run the self-created exercises, with her body as the center, and layers of energy fluctuations quickly spread out.
Advertisement

After a while, Levilia suddenly opened his eyes and said with a smile: "There are two spiritual veins more than ten miles to the southeast that are extremely sensitive."
"There are three spiritual meridians about twenty miles to the northwest that are strongly sensitive, and there are also over there."
Levilia said the position and approximate distance one after another, and Levi Garrison's face changed from surprise to surprise.
Because the position pointed out by Levilia is exactly where the dragon veins are.
And in order to be safe, Levi Garrison deliberately used his strength to hide the dragon veins.
Even the detectors used by God's Brain can only determine the approximate location of the dragon veins, but the location pointed out by Levilia is extremely accurate.
"Levilia, I never thought you had such talent."
Levi Garrison paused and continued: "This is not a talent, I think it has something to do with the attributes of your own creation."
Levilia's self-created practice pursues the unity of heaven and earth, utilizes all the energy between heaven and earth, and even integrates with the power of heaven and earth in the end.
Advertisement
In order to achieve a wonderful state of inexhaustible power.
And no matter what level of spiritual veins, in the final analysis, it is a special energy source ore bred between heaven and earth.
It is reasonable to have some kind of induction between the cultivation technique of seeking the unity of heaven and man and the spiritual meridians.
"In this way, with the growth of my cultivation realm, the induction of super spiritual veins will become more and more sensitive."
Levilia speculated.
Levi Garrison nodded and said: "According to common sense, it should be like this, Levilia, you can first try to practice with dragon veins."

Then Levi Garrison brought Levilia to the dragon vein, and Levilia directly operated his own exercises.
“Wow!”
Levi Garrison clearly heard the sound of the dragon’s roar coming from the hinterland of the dragon vein, as if the pet was happy when it saw its owner.
Buzz!
After a while, the entire dragon vein vibrated slightly, and Levilia’s body also formed a huge energy vortex.
Insanely absorbing the power of the dragon veins.
“It turned out to be bigger than my body quenching movement. It seems that there is no problem with Levilia’s cultivation with dragon veins.”
Levi Garrison was extremely gratified. In terms of talent, Levi Garrison even felt that his daughter was even better.
After guarding for a while, Levilia did not experience any discomfort, and Levi Garrison was completely relieved.
Levi Garrison immediately began to quench his body at the dragon vein not far away. Once Levilia encounters any trouble, he can also support him in time.
At the same time, the guardians of the gods and elites who fled in embarrassment are also improving.
They also finally realized the strength gap between them and Levi Garrison.
But the guardian of the gods is eager to let the main god be born, and the power of the dragon veins is even more important.
The many dragon veins in the secret realm are equivalent to the fat to the mouth.
Even if Levi Garrison is occupied by a fierce beast, it cannot completely dispel the coveted heart of the gods.
Fortunately, they have a lot of holy veins and divine veins in their hands, which is enough to increase their strength again.
So the gods guarded the remaining guardians and agreed to use the resources they mastered to improve first, and then snatch the dragon veins in the secret realm.

Or find other dragon veins…

the other side.
After attending the wedding of Gong Qianqiu and the Great Holy Son, Xiao Feng also entered a more crazy state of cultivation.
I completely let go of my feelings, and the blank in my heart was completely replaced by hatred.
This allowed Xiao Feng to reach a state where he had nothing else to do. He frantically plundered the cultivation resources of the five major sects.
"Xiao Feng, the inventory of the Cang Qiong Sect is empty, do you want to visit the other sects?"
Xie Huanyu's tone was full of bitterness.
Advertisement
After returning from the wedding, Xiao Feng searched for cultivation resources like he was crazy.
All the high-grade treasures in the Cang Qiong faction's inventory were almost consumed by Xiao Feng.
If things go on like this, the disciples of the Cang Qiong Sect will not have the guarantee of follow-up cultivation resources, and the complete destruction is almost a certainty.
Xiao Feng said displeasedly: "If you don't have any stock, go out and find it for Lao Tzu.
There are countless treasures in the Kunlun Ruins, so in the end, it's you who are not doing your best."
Advertisement
It may be related to the practice of extreme swallowing exercises, Xiao Feng's temper has become more and more irritable, and he is often beaten and scolded.
There were already more than a dozen people killed by Xiao Feng on the spot because of his incompetence.

“Okay, I’ll send someone to look for it!”
Xie Huanyu could only bite the bullet and agree.
In fact, some people proposed to combine the power of everyone to kill Xiao Feng, but they were worried about Levi Garrison behind Xiao Feng.
In addition, Xiao Feng’s strength has been greatly improved now, and he really has no confidence in rushing to do it.
Looking at the back of Xie Huanyu and others leaving, Xiao Feng muttered to himself:
“Gong Qianqiu, please wait patiently, I will definitely take your life with my own hands.”
However, Xiao Feng did not know that Gong Qianqiu, who was involved in this matter, was not what it used to be.
Especially after swallowing the power of the dragon veins recently, Gong Qianqiu’s cultivation realm has reached an extremely terrifying level.
Advertisement
Even in her opinion, even if the seven holy sons join forces, she can directly crush it.
“In today’s Taixu Shenzong, even the vice sect master is not necessarily an opponent of this
sect master.”
Gong Qianqiu said proudly.
Moreover, Gong Qianqiu had both sides, and with the blessing of the future Sect Master’s wife, the connections within the Taixu Shenzong quickly reached their peak.
Not only that, Gong Qianqiu also used the Seven Holy Sons to provide many holy veins as bargaining chips to develop many direct subordinates, and the speed of development is very terrifying.
Not only inside the Taixu Shenzong, but also outside, led by Xuanming Duguxiao and his son, recruited a team of loose cultivators with strong combat effectiveness.
It is conservatively estimated that the combat effectiveness of this team is completely comparable to that of small sects.

“Levi Garrison, this sect master is waiting for you to throw yourself into the net.”
Gong Qianqiu smiled even more, and now Levi Garrison has long been ignored by her.
In the secret realm, Levi Garrison is still frantically using the dragon veins to temper his body.
Time flies, a month later.
Levi Garrison took the lead in completing the body quenching, and the ten dragon veins only had a small amount of power that was not consumed.
Feeling the flow of qi in the body, if the previous level was described as a river, at this moment it is completely a vast ocean.
In particular, Levi Garrison made a few punches, and there was already a clear sound of dragon roar.
“Physical strength and strength speed have basically reached the level of perfection.”
“It’s time to go to Kunlun Ruins to have a look.”
Levi Garrison made up his mind and immediately went to check on Levilia’s situation.
“Dad, your strength has increased again?”
It just so happens that Levilia has completed the refining and absorption of the power of this dragon vein.
“yes!”
Levi Garrison nodded, and then said in surprise: “Levilia, your strength seems to have increased even more!”
Although he only used the power of one dragon vein, Levi Garrison could clearly feel that Levilia’s strength had increased by one level.
Even compared with the self who has not been tempered by the dragon veins, it is not inferior at all.
The speed of this improvement is simply terrifying.
“Levilia, with you in the base camp, I can go to Kunlun Ruins with confidence.”
Levi Garrison said with a smile.

The power of the ten dragon veins has not been completely used up, so Levilia can make full use of it.
Levi Garrison also checked the cultivation of Wen Lei and others, and they also made significant progress through the quenching of the holy vein.
As for most of the other members of the base camp, they used their divine veins to improve their overall combat power.
Seeing such a situation, Levi Garrison was completely relieved.
As long as the top sects of the Kunlun Ruins are not dispatched, there is no threat to the safety of the members of the base camp.
Even an opponent of the level of guardianship of the gods, with Levilia, Wen Lei and others in charge, is absolutely sure to deal with it.
Advertisement
After everything was settled, Levi Garrison rushed to Kunlun Ruins single-handedly.
Levi Garrison, where Tianmen is located, is also familiar with the road, and this time he directly forcibly entered the bronze door.
Levi Garrison went all the way without obstruction, but he did not enter the Kunlun Ruins according to the route provided by Xie Zhongmou and others.
Of course, this was also a decision Levi Garrison made cautiously. After all, he didn't know anything about Kunlun Ruins.
Advertisement
The Taixu Shenzong is also very likely to ambush the eyeliner under the normal route.
Levi Garrison planned to quietly enter the Kunlun Ruins to investigate, and did not want to startle the snake.
Because of this, he did not notify the sects and Xiao Feng that he controlled.
If you rashly notify those sects, Gong Qianqiu will definitely get the information in advance.
"This should be the forbidden route for Xie Zhongmou and others."
Breaking through the layers of energy constraints, Levi Garrison came to the end of the road smoothly, and a giant stone tablet carved from an unknown mineral came into view.

The giant stone tablet has a faint blue color, and the ancient characters on it are very conspicuous: The mysterious forbidden land.
"Xie Zhongmou said that this forbidden area is located on the edge of Tianmen, in order to prevent people from entering and leaving Kunlun Ruins abnormally."
Levi Garrison did not hesitate in the slightest, and directly entered the Forbidden Land.
Advertisement
"Wow!"
But at this moment, a strange cry came from the depths of the jungle.
"Ferocious beast?"
Levi Garrison sneered: "I want to see how fierce you are?"
Levi Garrison dodged in, the forbidden area was crisscrossed with craggy rocks and ancient trees and vines, but he could feel that there was a lot of spiritual energy.
Boom!
At this moment, five or six people at the far end swayed violently a few times around the thick ancient tree, as if they were hit by something.
The ancient tree is hundreds of meters long, and coupled with such a level of stoutness, it is difficult to imagine how terrifying the power of this fierce beast is.
Levi Garrison continued to move forward. The tall and dense ancient trees covered the sky and the sun. If Levi Garrison had excellent eyesight, I am afraid it would be even more rugged.
In this way, Levi Garrison hurried for about half an hour and suddenly stopped, and a ferocious beast resembling a brown bear blocked his way.
This fierce beast was more than three meters tall, with long brown-black hair, and two sharp-edged horns on its forehead.
Especially the pair of beast eyes were blue, like two ghost fires staring at Levi Garrison.
"Ow!"
The giant beast screamed and rushed towards Levi Garrison.
That huge palm is like an extra-large paddle fan, carrying a terrifying strong wind in the blink of an eye.

“So fast?”
Levi Garrison was a little surprised, not thinking that the huge body of the giant beast did not affect the speed at all.
“Let you have a taste of Lao Tzu’s fist, just to test your cultivation results.”
Levi Garrison punched the giant beast’s palm.
“Wow!”
Levi Garrison’s fist was faintly accompanied by the sound of dragon’s roar.
At the moment of hearing this voice, the giant beast’s body was obviously stagnant, and even those eyes were stunned for a moment.
Bang!
Levi Garrison slammed the giant beast with a punch, and the giant beast weighing several tons was directly blasted out.
In the end, he fell heavily to the ground and lost his life.
It can be clearly seen that its chest is pierced by the punch, and the heart is broken.
“Vulnerable!”
Levi Garrison sneered.
Turning back suddenly, several fierce eyes in the depths of the jungle converged.

When Levi Garrison waved his hand like a demonstration, those beasts who coveted Levi Garrison’s life then dispersed.
“The strong food of the weak is more vividly reflected here.”
Levi Garrison was quite emotional, but fortunately, the effect of quenching the body with ten dragon veins in a row was amazing.
Looking around, Levi Garrison noticed that there was a plant with nine-colored petals behind the giant beast.
“Nine-colored cold ling grass?”
The spirit grass recorded in the ancient books of the Cang Qiong School is rare in Kunlun Ruins.

Advertisement
“The more dangerous the forbidden area, the greater the opportunity, and I just took this opportunity to collect some treasures.” “Whether you use it yourself or take it back to your relatives and friends, you will benefit a lot.”
Levi Garrison made up his mind and hurryed while collecting treasures from heaven and earth.
As long as you pass through the secluded and mysterious forbidden area, you can reach the locations of the major sects in the Kunlun Ruins.
Advertisement
So Levi Garrison started a journey to search for spiritual treasures in forbidden places, and of course, he fought fierce beasts in the process.
It’s just that Levi Garrison’s strength is too terrifying, and he is basically crushed all the way.
“If the cultivation base is a little bit nearer, I really can’t leave the Forbidden Land of Youxuan alive.”
Levi Garrison was quite emotional. According to his estimation, a cultivator of Xie Zhongmou’s level would have to pay a heavy price if he wanted to cross the Forbidden Land.
There is even a high probability of dying in Huangquan.
In the next few days, Levi Garrison also discovered three sacred veins and a super spirit vein that was about to reach the dragon level.
Although these had little effect on Levi Garrison, he also didn’t let it go. All of them were used for body quenching.
On the tenth day of entering the Youxuan Forbidden Land, Levi Garrison felt that he should have crossed the hinterland of the Youxuan Forbidden Land.
Cha Cha Cha Cha Cha Cha Cha Cha Cha Cha Cha!
Advertisement
Just then, the sound of light footsteps came.
Levi Garrison looked from a distance and saw a group of young people rushing towards him.

There are more than ten people in the team. According to Levi Garrison's investigation, the strength of these people is only stronger than those of the so-called Tianjiao of the Taixu
Shenzong.
In particular, the leading woman was particularly conspicuous in her green dress, with a graceful figure and outstanding appearance, and she was full of fairy spirit in her gestures.
As if the fairy fell into the earth, giving people a sense of distance that can only be seen from a distance but not close.
In particular, the strength is outstanding, I am afraid that it is several times stronger than the original three saints.
"These people should be the elites of some major sects in Kunlun Ruins!"
Just as Levi Garrison was thinking about it, the crowd had already arrived.
"This guy is very courageous. He dares to enter the Forbidden Land alone, and he is still alive!"
"No, his line should be the same as ours. I think he borrowed our light."
"Otherwise, what do you think! If he had relied on his own strength, he would have been buried in the mouth of the beast long ago!"
The faces of several men and women were full of contempt, but they soon discovered the treasures in Levi Garrison's hands.
"This guy is very lucky, the quality of collecting heaven and earth treasures is no worse than ours!"
"Why don't you kill it and take these treasures for yourself?"
Several of them transmitted voices to each other, and greed flashed in their eyes instantly.
"Don't act rashly, I'll ask him about his situation before making a decision."
After the leading woman's voice transmission, everyone instantly restrained their murderous intent, but their eyes couldn't help but look at the treasure of heaven and earth in Levi Garrison's hands.

“Next is Murong Qingxue, the saintess of the Xingyue Divine Sect, where did your teacher come from?”
It was originally a polite greeting, but when it came out of Murong Qingxue’s mouth, it had a very condescending taste.
“No way!”
Levi Garrison said with a smile.
The stars of the Xingyue Divine Sect’s arrogance became even more contemptuous when they heard the words, and Levi Garrison’s answer proved that he was a rookie who just came from the secular world.
“Then your Excellency, come with us! In this way, we can also take care of each other.”
Murong Qingxue said lightly.

Levi Garrison did not reject Murong Qingxue’s proposal.
Of course, Levi Garrison doesn’t need to take care of each other, but intends to inquire about information from these people.
As for Murong Qingxue, she had two ideas for her colleagues, one of which was naturally to value the treasures in Levi Garrison’s hands.
The second is that the entire team has been injured to varying degrees in response to the beasts, and the beasts in the Forbidden City are very powerful.
In particular, the fierce beasts guarding the dragon veins are even more powerful, and they are far from being able to deal with them.
Levi Garrison’s behavior is suspicious. Although he looks like a rookie who has just arrived in the secular world, he is not injured in the slightest.
Advertisement
Even if it comes down to luck, it’s rare.
Taking 10,000 steps back, one more person will give you more strength, and if it really doesn’t work, you can still push Levi Garrison to the back.
“It’s just that this person’s strength is mediocre, and he doesn’t look like a master at all.”

“Especially what questions he raised are the rookie performances that he will only have when he enters the Kunlun Ruins.”
Advertisement
Murong Qingxue made a judgment in her heart.
Levi Garrison also learned a lot of information through conversations. In order to demonstrate their superiority, these people also answered a lot of doubts to him.
For example, the route that Levi Garrison traveled before was deviated, or even detoured.
Since Xie Zhongmou and the others had no experience in crossing the Forbidden Land, they could not provide Levi Garrison with a detailed route map.
“Everyone should be vigilant to prevent sneak attacks and beast attacks from people from other sects.”
Murong Qingxue said through sound transmission.
Others were alert and alert, and everyone was tense, for fear of encountering large beasts again.
They also got a lot of heaven and earth treasures, and they just wanted to leave the secluded and mysterious forbidden land safely.
Only Levi Garrison had a relaxed expression on his face, as if he didn’t care about the fierce beasts in the Forbidden Land.
Advertisement
This kind of performance instantly aroused ridicule from the arrogance of the Xingyue Divine Sect.
“It’s a monkey who has never seen the world, and has absolutely no idea of the danger of the Forbidden Land.”
“If he hadn’t followed our team, he would have long since become food for fierce beasts.
He’s really a monkey who doesn’t know how high the sky is.”
“You don’t need to be angry, as the so-called ignorant is fearless!”
Everyone talked through voice transmission, and did not hide their contempt for Levi Garrison at all.

“This person is really strange. He is not nervous at all. This kind of performance is not fake.”
Murong Qingxue secretly checked Levi Garrison’s cultivation level again, and found that the latter was slightly stronger than the threshold for entering the Kunlun Ruins.
“It doesn’t seem to be pretending to be a pig to eat a tiger, but a pure ignorant and fearless!”
Murong Qingxue made a decision in secret, and continued to lead the crowd to the periphery of the Profound Forbidden Land.
However, it is strange to say that when they first came in, they encountered more than ten groups of beasts attacking them.
But when he left, he didn’t even see a vicious beast.
“This person’s luck is really good. No wonder he has collected so many treasures without any injuries.”
Murong Qingxue glanced at Levi Garrison without leaving a trace, and the only doubt in her heart was finally resolved.
However, Murong Qingxue and the others didn’t know that they didn’t encounter any beasts when they left because Levi Garrison was in the team.
Before Levi Garrison beheaded all the way, many powerful and fierce beasts were either killed or injured.
Not to mention ordinary beasts, they immediately retreated when they saw Levi Garrison’s
After walking for another three days, everyone finally left the range of the Profound Forbidden Land, and everyone in the Xingyue Divine Sect also let out a sigh of relief.
With their wounded state, if they encounter a powerful high-grade beast, they will definitely be more fortunate.
“We have no worries now, should we consider dealing with this monkey?”
Hearing this sound transmission, the eyes of the rest of the Xingyue Divine Sect immediately focused on the treasure of heaven and earth in Levi Garrison’s hands.

The members of the Star Moon Sect did not hide their fiery gazes. For them, these treasures of heaven and earth represented a higher realm of cultivation.
Now that there is no threat from the beasts in the forbidden land, Levi Garrison is just a scumbag who has never seen the world, and the fat in his mouth will naturally not allow it to fly away.
Levi Garrison naturally also felt the hostility of the Heavenly Chows of the Xingyue Sect, and the corners of his mouth twitched involuntarily.
However, just when everyone was about to make a move, Murong Qingxue directly stopped her.
"Don't act rashly, let me investigate and make plans."
Although everyone was unwilling, they did not dare to disobey Murong Qingxue's orders.
Advertisement
The saintess of the Xingyue Shenzong, speaking outside is equivalent to the sect master coming to give orders.
"I first entered the Kunlun Ruins, what are your plans next?" Murong Qingxue asked tentatively.
Levi Garrison said with a smile: "Of course, I came to the new world to expand my knowledge, and at the same time I want to gain stronger strength."
"It's too boring to have no rivals in the secular world."
Advertisement
Murong Qingxue almost laughed out loud when she heard Levi Garrison's last sentence, which was clearly in a 'lonely seeking defeat' tone.
"This person is really interesting. The top powerhouses in the world are basically at the bottom of the Kunlun Ruins. Is he quite proud?"
"If he really saw the strength of many strong people in Kunlun Ruins, he would definitely not say such arrogant words."

Murong Qingxue had never seen anyone from the secular world, and immediately developed a strong interest in Levi Garrison.
"If Your Excellency is willing to present the collected treasures of heaven and earth, this saint will make an exception to bring you into the sect and make you a named disciple of this seat."
"It should be noted that the Xingyue Divine Sect is a super-powerful sect that dominates one side. This is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity."
"I don't know what your opinion is?"
Murong Qingxue said proudly.
As if bringing Levi Garrison into the sect and allowing him to become a follower is a great gift.
Advertisement
"Not a saint, this person is mediocre in talent!"
"Yeah, Holy Maiden, if you want the treasure in his hands, just kill it."
"There is really no need to make an exception to hire, there is nothing special about this person."
All the arrogances of the Xingyue Divine Sect opposed it. In their opinion, Levi Garrison was ordinary, and he really did not deserve the special treatment promised by the Holy Maiden.
"This saint has made up her mind, do you want to disobey?"
Murong Qingxue's words instantly left everyone speechless.
"How is your consideration?" Murong Qingxue asked again.
Levi Garrison said with a smile: "I am very happy."
It is not important to him that these treasures of heaven and earth, which are regarded as rare by the Celestial Chosen of the Star Moon Sect, are not important to him.
If Levi Garrison is willing, he can go to the depths of the forbidden area to collect it, which is simply as easy as the palm of your hand.
The most urgent task now is to understand the Kunlun Ruins as much as possible, especially the depths of the Taixu Shenzong.
"It seems that the Xingyue Divine Sect is quite strong, and I just got to know them better through them."

Levi Garrison made up his mind secretly.
"Okay, from now on you will be a member of my Star Moon Sect."
Murong Qingxue said with a smile.
She is not entirely happy because Levi Garrison joined the sect, but more because she has obtained such a rich treasure without blood.
Levi Garrison folded his fists and said, "I would like to ask you for more advice in the future."
The stars of the Xingyue Divine Sect gave him a look of contempt one after another. In their opinion, Levi Garrison's performance was clearly a villain.
Murong Qingxue took over many treasures from heaven and earth, and immediately led everyone back to the sect.
Along the way, Levi Garrison also took the opportunity to learn a lot of information after passing through active small sects.
Three days later, the sect people came to a large city, and Levi Garrison found that on the pavement similar to the market, the people who came and went were exchanging something.
"They are exchanging spirit crystals for items."
Murong Qingxue's voice suddenly came.

Levi Garrison suddenly became interested, and Murong Qingxue did not hesitate to spread knowledge to Levi Garrison.
Mainly, there is a sense of superiority to show off his long knowledge to the buns!
"The common currency in the Kunlun Ruins is spirit crystals, which can be exchanged in the market for natural materials and treasures, exercises, etc."
"Although there are many spiritual veins in the Kunlun Ruins, the top spiritual veins are basically occupied by major sects."
"Ordinary small sects or loose cultivators want to obtain cultivation resources, they can only exchange for spiritual crystals through various things."

Levi Garrison suddenly realized, he carefully observed the spirit crystals circulating in the market, and they were basically red.
Advertisement
"The vast majority of those in circulation are spirit crystals produced by the divine veins, which only poured into the exchange place after being processed and purified."
"Of course, there are also very few top-level spiritual crystals produced by the sacred veins and dragon veins, but those are only owned by top-level sects." While speaking, Murong Qingxue took out a purple spirit crystal, which was dazzling under the sunlight.
Levi Garrison recognized at a glance that this kind of spiritual crystal was almost the same as the original dragon vein ore used for his body quenching.
Advertisement
"It seems that Murong Qingxue's previous words are not completely bragging."
"Being able to take out the Dragon Vein Spirit Crystal, it seems that the strength of the Xingyue Divine Sect is quite good, at least far from the sect of the level of the Sky Sect."
Levi Garrison made a judgment in his heart.
"Xiaoye, do you know what they exchanged?"
At this moment, a star-moon god sect Tianjiao suddenly patted Levi Garrison on the shoulder and asked.
Levi Garrison looked in the direction of his fingers and saw a middle-aged man in Chinese clothes holding several chains in his hands.
On the other end of the chain, there are unkempt people tied up, and they are also wellcultivated, but at this moment they are not much better than prisoners.
"These people are slaves from the secular world. They have all been domesticated by the strong, and their edges and corners have been completely smoothed out."
"Some people have to do the dirty work of some major sects, and monkeys from the secular world are the most suitable."

Advertisement
“If they can satisfy their masters, maybe they can also reward some spirit crystals!” “Xiaoye, if you look like this in the slave market, you will definitely be able to sell it for a good price.”
“Don’t be angry, Xiaoye, it’s just a joke!”
“Hahaha!”
Xingyue Divine Sect’s arrogance burst into laughter.
Even Murong Qingxue couldn’t hold back, and there was an imperceptible smile on the corner of his mouth.
Levi Garrison naturally knew that they were taking the opportunity to mock him, but he didn’t care in his heart.
“A group of people at the foot of the mountain laughing at the god in the cloud is ridiculous!”
Levi Garrison didn’t take it seriously, and continued to actively learn about the relevant information of Kunlun Ruins.
However, Levi Garrison’s reaction was timid in the eyes of the stars of the Xingyue Divine
Sect.
“We will rest in this city for a few days before continuing on our way.” Murong Qingxue said solemnly.
The injuries on their bodies have not yet healed, and they have obtained a lot of heaven and earth treasures, which happened to be exchanged for some top-level spiritual crystals here.
Levi Garrison naturally agreed, which was more helpful for him to understand the information of Kunlun Ruins.
“The Xingyue Shenzong and the Taixu Shenzong have a close relationship, and the overall strength of the two sects is equal to each other.” “Gong Qianqiu has developed rapidly in the Taixu Shenzong, and has become the elder of the last seat, especially with many holy sons.”
“There are many sects in the Kunlun Ruins, and medium-sized sects may have dragon vein

resources."
Levi Garrison was quite satisfied. He never thought that he could collect so much key information in just a few days.
However, just as Murong Qingxue was about to leave the city, she suddenly received an astonishing piece of information, and immediately gathered everyone in one place.
"According to reliable information, someone discovered a large dragon vein in Tianying Mountain, and many forces have arrived."
"Taixu Shenzong and Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple sent people to go, and we rushed over immediately."
Murong Qingxue immediately made a decision, and at the same time sent this message to the sect, asking for help.

"Little Ye, just wait here for your little strength!" Murong Qingxue said in a deep voice.
She is not worried about Levi Garrison's safety, but this competition for dragon vein resources must be a fierce battle.
At that time, Levi Garrison's strength is too poor, it is inevitable that he will be ridiculed by others, and it may even damage the face of Xingyue Shenzong.
Levi Garrison said solemnly: "It's rare to have such an opportunity to expand my horizons, I'll just follow from a distance."
"And I will perform a disguise, and I won't have anything to do with the Xingyue Divine Sect on the bright side, so I won't lose face."
Levi Garrison's reaction was so suitable for a rookie who had just entered the Kunlun Ruins.
Advertisement
Especially since he had said it for the sake of it, Murong Qingxue couldn't refuse it.
"Okay, then you will pay attention to your own safety. If there is a chaos, we may not have time to protect you." Murong Qingxue said in a deep voice.

Levi Garrison nodded and said: "Okay, if the situation is not good, I will hide away."
This sentence immediately caused everyone to burst into laughter, and they began to 'like'
Levi Garrison, this guy is simply here to be responsible for laughing.

Levi Garrison was also slightly relieved, with the large dragon veins and Taixu Shenzong involved, he must go.
So Murong Qingxue led everyone to rush to Tianxuan Mountain at full speed. Since they were very close, they arrived at their destination in about a few hours.
Levi Garrison performed a disguise and mixed into the crowd. After all, he was not sure if the Taixu Shenzong sent an acquaintance, so as not to startle the snake.
Tianying Mountain.
The mountain towers into the sky, and the surrounding mountains are endless.
On the top of Tianying Mountain, there are ancient trees and strange rocks, and even at the foot of the mountain, the height of ordinary people is cloudy.
It's hard to imagine what a spectacle this is.
"The aura is so full!"
The Celestial Choirs of the Xingyue Divine Sect sighed with emotion.
Advertisement
However, Murong Qingxue frowned slightly, and said in a condensed voice, "Everyone, be careful, the opponent you meet this time is not easy."
Levi Garrison looked in the direction of Murong Qingxue's finger, and saw that many sectarian powerhouses had gathered at the foot of the mountain at this time.
"The Promise Palace!"
"Rising Cloud Sword Sect!"
"The Misty Palace!"
"Akasaka Palace!"
"These sects are comparable in strength to the Xingyue Divine Sect, so don't take the initiative to provoke them unless you have to."
Murong Qingxue seemed to be reminding everyone, but she was actually warning Levi

Garrison.
Because she found that Levi Garrison had a tendency to approach those sects.
“Thank you Saintess for your advice.” Levi Garrison said in a low voice.
Seeing Levi Garrison’s humble and teachable appearance, the stars of the Xingyue Divine Sect felt very comfortable.
“What a monkey that has never seen the world!”
Everyone added a sentence in their hearts.
However, at this moment, a joking voice came.
“Murong Qingxue, I didn’t think that you would dare to come to Tianying Mountain. It’s better to meet by chance. Today, you all stay!”
As soon as the words fell, a team of about twenty people swarmed.
“The Seven Stars Religion Saint Son Mo Junyan?”
Murong Qingxue frowned, her cheeks covered with frost.
The leader was a tall and thin young man, his eyes were full of wicked banter. Seeing Murong Qingxue, he was as excited as a jackal who had found its prey.
Followed by several Seven Stars Sect elders behind him, they did not hide their contempt for Murong Qingxue and the others.
“Murong Qingxue, this dragon vein must be owned by our Seven Stars Sect, and the lives of the Holy Sons of all of you will also be taken in accordance with the order.”
Mo Junyan said sullenly.
“Yo ho, did your Xingyue Divine Sect accept such weak garbage?”
“It seems that you are really hopeless. A monkey from the world is so valued.”
“Murong Qingxue, otherwise, if you are willing to be the slave girl of this holy son, this holy son will show mercy and let you live, how about it?”
provocative!
Red-faced provocation!
The people of the Xingyue Divine Sect were outraged and planned to do it on the spot, but they were stopped by Murong Qingxue’s voice transmission.
“Mo Junyan, don’t be so quick to talk, we will see the true seal in our hands when we compete for dragon veins.” Murong Qingxue said coldly.

"It's a deal, I hope your mouth can be so hard!"
After Mo Junyan finished speaking, he left with many elders of the Seven Star Sect.
Looking at the backs of the Seven Stars Sect members, the faces of the Heavenly Chows of the Xingyue Divine Sect were all very solemn.
"Holy maiden, there are four or five elders in the Seven Star Sect team. If there is a head-on conflict, we won't be able to get any advantage."
"It's not as simple as not being able to get cheap… We may even be wiped out."
"It will take some time for our reinforcements to reach Tianying Mountain. How can this be good?"
Advertisement
The Xingyue Divine Sect elites were talking a lot, and their faces were getting worse and worse.
The Seven Star Sect was the mortal enemy of the Xingyue Shenzong. They had been fighting openly and secretly for many years, and the team that Mo Junyan brought this time was obviously superior.
Murong Qingxue pondered for a moment, then said, "We can join forces with the Taixu Shenzong to fight the enemy together, and the Seven Star Sect is obviously bound to win the Dragon Vein."
"It is indeed feasible to combine vertical and horizontal, but it is also necessary to prevent others from being stabbed in the back."
Advertisement
"That's right, a large dragon vein can even support a medium-sized sect, and even the Taixu Shenzong may not be completely reliable."
"They all want to take advantage of the fisherman, but there is no deep hatred between the Seven Star Sect and the Taixu Shenzong. If there is a war, they may not take action."

Murong Qingxue sighed in her heart, everyone's analysis was very reasonable.
In the face of absolute interests, friends may not be completely reliable. After all, enemies will never have the chance to betray.
"In any case, delay as long as possible and wait for reinforcements to arrive." Murong Qingxue said in a serious tone.
Everyone nodded in agreement, but they suddenly found that Levi Garrison was looking at him with a relaxed and comfortable face, and instantly became angry.
"Holy maiden, it's like a fuel bottle for you to bring such a waste. If you are in danger, you have to take care of him."
"The surname is Ye, we will fight with the strong of the Seven Star Cult in a while, you can do it yourself!"
"Xiao Ye, do you think you have a good mentality, or are you ignorant and fearless? The Seven Star Sect and the Xingyue Sect are mortal enemies, and there is no way they will show mercy."
Advertisement
Murong Qingxue did not stop everyone from attacking Levi Garrison.
Especially when she saw Levi Garrison smiling, she was even more upset.
"This guy is really heartless, how can he still laugh now? When he fights with the Seven Star Sect, there will be times when he will cry!"
Murong Qingxue secretly complained, and even began to doubt whether her decision to accept Levi Garrison was correct because of curiosity.
Levi Garrison said sincerely: "If there is a war, you don't have to worry about me, just keep yourself safe."
"I……"
The people of the Xingyue Divine Sect suddenly had a strong urge to utter foul language.
Why does Levi Garrison's words sound like 'you still worry about your own life'?
The key is that Levi Garrison's expression was sincere when he said these words, and everyone could not find any flaws to suspect his 'sinister intentions'.

“Let’s go quickly! If the large dragon veins are first occupied by other sects, we will be too passive.”
Levi Garrison reminded ‘kindly’.
What the hell!
This time, even Murong Qingxue wanted to curse.
“This guy just wants to die?”
Murong Qingxue snorted coldly and said solemnly to the others, “Speed up!” “Little Ye, we’ll take care of ourselves later, you have to be more careful, don’t be shocked to death by the aftermath of the energy.” “Yeah, Xiaoye, the Holy Son of the Seven Stars Religion has always been vicious, otherwise you should not go! To avoid being tortured to the point of death.”
“Little Leaf, it’s up to you whether the Star Moon God Sect can win this battle!”
Everyone finally found an opportunity and used Levi Garrison’s tone of ‘concern’ just now.
the other side.
In the depths of the jungle, a team of more than 20 people was rushing forward, and the leader was the Great Holy Son of the Taixu Shenzong.

There are also many elders such as Gong Qianqiu, the three saints, and the seven saints.
In order to obtain the Tianying Mountain Dragon Vein, the Taixu Shenzong can be said to have used all their elites.
“Stop, the dragon veins are probably in this area!”
Seven Holy Sons said solemnly.
Everyone stopped, and everyone’s face was full of excitement.
It is understood that Tianying Mountain belongs to a large dragon vein, and it is even more terrifying than the dragon vein mastered by the Taixu Shenzong.
Advertisement
If you can take this dragon vein as your own, the overall strength of the sect will definitely be improved qualitatively.

“This place is high in mountains and dense with dense forests. It’s really hard to find it. If you make a big move, it will definitely attract the attention of other sects.”
“Xiao Qi, narrow down the scope a little bit!”
The Great Holy Son pondered for a moment and said.
Advertisement
The Seventh Holy Son nodded, and after a long time, with a keen sense, he finally locked the position of the dragon veins in the southwest of this mountain range.
“follow me!”
The Seven Holy Sons took the lead, and the others followed closely. After a while, everyone reached the finish line.
“Clean up this tree, and the dragon veins are hidden under the rocks.”
The Seven Saints said firmly.
Everyone ran the exercises one after another, and the air blade passed a smooth road, and the trees on the mountain were almost cut off by their roots.
The next step is to clean up the surrounding stones, which is naturally not a problem for the powerhouses of the Taixu Shenzong.
It didn’t take a while, the dragon veins covered by the stone were revealed.
“Whoosh!”
Advertisement
The sound of the dragon’s roar came faintly, making everyone in the Taixu Shenzong excited.
In particular, this dragon vein is extremely majestic, the surface is covered with a purple halo, and the purity and density of the aura has reached the extreme.
The surrounding area space forms a vortex of energy visible to the naked eye, actively absorbing the surrounding spiritual energy.
“As expected of a large-scale dragon vein, it already has an absolute aura, and it can actively absorb the essence of heaven and earth and continuously improve the quality of the dragon vein.”
The Great Saint said with great emotion.
Gong Qianqiu’s eyes are also full of excitement and excitement, she has never seen such a magnificent dragon veins.

Even the dragon vein that the Seven Holy Sons gave her is far less than that, no matter the size or the purity of the aura to keep out the cold is the difference between cloud and mud.
Even the few dragon veins controlled by the Taixu Shenzong have not reached such a scale.
"If a sect is founded on the basis of this dragon vein, it will definitely attract many strong people to defect, and it can even be directly comparable to the power of the Taixu
Shenzong."
"Levi Garrison, Xiao Feng, you ants will never see dragon veins in the secular world."
"Still thinking of becoming an enemy of this sect master? The gap between us will only get bigger and bigger."
Gong Qianqiu thought that the corner of his mouth rose slightly involuntarily.
The many masters of the Taixu Shenzong were also excited.
"Now we have the divine robbery as the divine weapon of the town sect. If we have the blessing of this dragon vein, we will definitely be able to rank among the real top sects."
"That's right, recruiting strong people based on this, the top masters of this sect will use it to improve, and then you will no longer have to look up to others."
"For today's plan, think about how to deal with the coveting of other forces!"
"Dragon veins are in the world, no matter how much we use our strength to seal the leakage of spiritual energy, it is impossible to completely cover it up."
The Great Holy Son sneered and said, "I want to see who dares to snatch the dragon veins?"
Before he finished speaking, several rude voices came one after another.
"This dragon vein is not exclusive to your sect. Naturally, the powerful ones know that our Xuanjian sect will also have a share."
"Everyone is innocent and guilty, and we Ba Daomen also come to join in the heat."
"That's right, this dragon vein also has a share of our Jagged Alliance."

Along with the noisy footsteps, personnel from the three major sects rushed to the scene.
The Great Saint snorted coldly and said contemptuously, "Just your group of shrimp soldiers and crab generals also want to fight the dragon vein? First ask me if the sword in my hand agrees?"

How could the Great Holy Son be willing to hand over the fat meat of the large dragon veins to the mouth?
The Great Holy Son's long sword was unsheathed, and the whole person exuded an extremely cold murderous aura.
"Come here if you're not afraid of death, I'm going to start a killing spree today."
The Great Holy Son is better than snow in white clothes, and a terrifying sword gang is formed around the edge of the long sword.
However, in the face of the temptation of large dragon veins, these sects will naturally strive for it, even if they pay a heavy price.
"This group of people is very strong. We may not be able to win by attacking alone. It is better to join forces. At that time, we will divide the dragon veins."
Advertisement
"This plan is feasible. Our three alliances have an advantage in numbers, and the probability of victory is indeed greater."
"Then what are you waiting for, let's go together!"
The three small sects quickly negotiated a coordinated combat plan and attacked them in groups.
The Great Holy Son stood still, and the expression on his face became more and more playful.
Advertisement
"You all don't move. The long sword in this seat has been drinking blood for a long time, so I will let it drink enough today."

Before he finished speaking, the figure of the Great Holy Son had disappeared, leaving only a near-substantial afterimage where he was standing.
"Ahhh!"
After a while, screams and moans came one after another.
Where the Great Saint Son's sword light passed by, he took away a fresh life.
To say that these three forces are also the leaders of the small sects, even more powerful than the sky sect.
However, under the attack of the Great Holy Son, he was powerless to fight back, and even said that he could only be slaughtered by others.
In the time of half a stick of incense, nearly a hundred elites from the three major sects died on the spot.
Looking at the Great Holy Son Bai Yi Sheng Xue again, his face did not change when he was not angry, as if the fierce battle just now had nothing to do with him.
Advertisement
"A group of ants!"
The Great Saint said disdainfully.
Clang!
The long sword is sheathed.
The Great Holy Son said coldly to the depths of the jungle: "There are still impatient ones who come here, and I will accompany you to the end."
sizzle!
Everyone in the Taixu Shenzong could faintly hear the sound of air-conditioning coming from the dense forest.
The reason why the Great Holy Son did not let others intervene just now was to show his strength to deter the forces that coveted the dragon veins.
Sure enough, no one dared to act rashly for a while.
Of course, this situation did not last for too long, and the attraction of large dragon veins was too great after all.
Coupled with some sects who came from other places, they continued to attack the Taixu
Shenzong.

However, the strength of the Taixu Shenzong team was too strong, and they killed the elites of small and medium-sized sects seven or eight times in a row.
"It seems that the sects that came to snatch the dragon veins this time are all rubbish."
"This dragon vein is already in the bag of our Taixu Shenzong."
"Great, I can't wait to practice with dragon veins."
The people of Taixu Shenzong are full of confidence.
the other side.
The people of the Divine Star Moon Sect rushed forward, but they did not know the exact location of the large dragon veins.
Tianying Mountain stretches for hundreds of miles, and really looking for it is like looking for a needle in a haystack.
"I heard that there is no, the dragon vein has been found by the people of the Taixu Shenzong."
"The Seven Holy Sons of the Taixu Shenzong are well-deserved, and they really have a keen sense of dragon veins."
"I heard that the Great Holy Son is accompanied by his wife and many masters in the sect. I think it is inevitable to win the dragon vein."
Everyone was talking about it, after all, they swarmed towards the southwest at the same time.
Murong Qingxue had a happy expression on her face, and said solemnly, "Let's hurry up too.
If we are lucky, we can not only save our lives, but also get a share of the pie."
"That's right, here's our chance!"
"God help me to wait!"
The rest of the Xingyue Shenzong were also mentally shocked, and they never thought that the Taixu Shenzong would send such a powerful lineup.
The Taixu Shenzong and the Xingyue Shenzong have a very close relationship. Some time ago, the deputy head of the Xingyue Shenzong personally went to congratulate the Great Holy Son's wedding.

As long as they can unite with the Great Holy Son and the others, those from the Seven Star Sect are no match.

Moreover, when Taixu Shenzong found the dragon veins, it was bound to become the target of public criticism.
At that time, the Xingyue Divine Sect will have enough reasons for them to fight the enemy together. When the support from the experts in the sect arrives, they will be able to share a piece of the pie.
"Full speed ahead!"
Murong Qingxue gave the order.
Levi Garrison was also very happy, and even said that he was looking forward to this meeting.
He had never imagined that he would be able to meet the Great Holy Son, Gong Qianqiu and others so soon.
Advertisement
Recalling what Gong Qianqiu had done before, Levi Garrison could not wait to smash it to ashes.
"Gong Qianqiu, the sins you have committed, I will let you pay back a hundredfold today."
"There are also those holy sons of the Taixu Shenzong. If they know the current affairs, they will only kill the three holy children. If not, they will all be killed."
"I hope your strength is strong enough, otherwise it will be too boring to fight."
Advertisement
Through Murong Qingxue and others, I learned a lot of information, including the approximate strength of the seven holy sons.
Levi Garrison felt that it might be a bit difficult to fight before using the dragon veins to quench the body.

But now more than ten dragon veins have been used to quench the body, and the cultivation realm has made a qualitative leap, which should not be a problem.
“Let all the people from Taixu Shenzong stay in Tianying Mountain today!”
Levi Garrison said secretly.
Deng Deng Deng!
The noisy footsteps kept coming, and obviously many other forces also got the message, and they all rushed towards the direction of the dragon veins.
Levi Garrison also accelerated his pace, and it would be good to take this dragon vein as his own when he got rid of the Taixu Shenzong.
at the same time.

The location of the dragon veins.
There were corpses all over the place, and there was a thick smell of blood floating in the air.
The members of the Taixu Shenzong stood proudly above the dragon veins.
So far, they have fought back more than ten times the attacks of large and small sects, but there is still no combat attrition.
This also greatly deterred other sects coveting the dragon veins.
“This seat announces that the dragon veins are owned by my Taixu Shenzong. If Ruoer is not satisfied, come and try it.”
The Great Holy Son said in a condescending tone.
“I’m really unhappy!”
“There is no way to be reconciled. We are not the opponents of the Taixu Shenzong powerhouses at all.”
“Dragon veins are extremely precious, but it would be foolish to die knowing that they are lost.”
Although many sects are unwilling, in the face of the absolute strength gap, any blood and courage will not help.
Gong Qianqiu was very happy when he saw this, and he could finally get a piece of the pie.

After all, such a large-scale dragon vein cannot be completely transferred in a short time. In order to avoid too many night dreams, direct cultivation and consumption have become the best way.

However, before Gong Qianqiu could swallow it, a playful voice came from the depths of the jungle.

"The Taixu Shenzong is so powerful! I don't know if I am qualified to occupy this dragon vein?"

Everyone in the Taixu Shenzong shuddered and looked at the voice.

I saw a team of more than ten people slowly walk out of the jungle, they were wearing uniform black robes.

The sun and moon symbols are embroidered on the chest of the robe, and there is a red flame in the middle of the sun and moon.

Especially when the crowd was walking, the flames seemed to be burning under the sunlight.

After seeing the clothes clearly, the Great Holy Son's heart instantly sank to the bottom of the valley.

"Why are they here?" The Great Saint Son's voice was a little dry.

"It's the powerhouse from Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy here."

"The Taixu Shenzong doesn't dare to be arrogant now."

"The Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy is backed by the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall. Even if I borrow a hundred courage from the Taixu Shenzong, I would not dare to be tough with them."

The rest of the sect members also quickly recognized the identity of the group, and the expressions on their faces suddenly became exciting.

Before the Great Holy Son killed many sectarian powerhouses, others naturally resented a lot, and now they can watch a good show.

"The wicked have their own grind, they deserve it!"

The members of the denominations felt very happy.

"Saint Son, our Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy owns this dragon vein, do you have any opinion?"
The first black-robed young man said playfully.
Although he was called the Great Holy Son on his lips, he showed no respect at all on his face, and even had a strong sense of ridicule.
The corner of Dashengzi's mouth twitched, and he suddenly felt a deep sense of powerlessness.
Aside from the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall behind this team, they can't afford to offend them. Just talking about the combat power of these academy members, they are far behind.
"I'm acquainted with Master Qi of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace, I don't know your Excellency…"
Advertisement
Before the Great Holy Son could finish speaking, he was directly interrupted by the leader of Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy.
"Don't get involved with Lao Tzu, even a rudder master has the face to use it as a backer?"
The black-robed man sneered twice, then turned around and continued:
"If it weren't for the fact that your Taixu Shenzong has some relationship with the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple, do you think you people can leave this place alive?"
Advertisement
"Stop talking nonsense, get out of here before I change my mind, otherwise don't blame me for being ruthless."
The expressions of everyone in the Taixu Shenzong changed dramatically, and they all dared to be angry and did not dare to speak.
Gong Qianqiu originally thought about using force if he couldn't do it, but he didn't dare to act rashly after knowing the true background of the other party.
She knew little about the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple from the Great Holy Son, and knew that this was a real super sect.

In particular, which one from the Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy is not a big boss?
Take the academy members in front of me as an example, they are likely to be the leaders of more than a dozen medium-sized or even large sects in the future.
"let's go!"
The Great Holy Son sighed and gave orders to the rest of the Taixu Shenzong.
The members of the Taixu Shenzong are like eggplants beaten by frost, and they don't have the majesty they had just now.
Advertisement
He never thought that he had resisted the impact of more than ten sects, and finally made wedding dresses for the people of Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy.
Unwilling!
anger!
have no choice!
All sorts of complicated emotions filled everyone's mind.
"The person who knows the current affairs is Junjie, and the Great Holy Son has made a wise decision."
The leader of the black robe smiled with satisfaction, and then said: "The Great Holy Son does not need to be too discouraged, there are many holy veins and treasures around the dragon veins."
"In view of the dragon veins you discovered, these cultivation resources will be rewarded to you as a reward!"
"Thank you!"
The Great Holy Son clasped his fists and said.
Although the members of the Taixu Shenzong have not been able to obtain the dragon veins, they are not returning empty-handed now.
After all, being nourished by the dragon veins is also very rare, and if the people of the Sun
Moon Fire God Academy seize the surrounding resources, they can do nothing.
The Great Holy Son took the people of the Taixu Shenzong and left in dismay.

The leader of the black robe shouted to the sects watching in the distance: "This seat announces that this dragon vein belongs to our Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy."
"If you are not convinced, come and grab it, and the long sword in this seat will accompany you to the end."
While speaking, the black-robed leader swung a sword at will, and a bottomless ravine appeared in an instant when the thick and solid boulder appeared.
The many sect members who were watching suddenly fell silent.
"Let's hurry up!"
"Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy is backed by Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall, so I can't afford it!"
"Even the Taixu Shenzong has confessed, so we have no chance."
They were unwilling to act rashly when the Taixu Shenzong was in charge of the Dragon Vessel, and now they have no courage to make a move in the face of the Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy.
"Since you don't have the guts to snatch the dragon veins, you can go as far as you want."
"If you continue to watch from the sidelines, this seat will treat you as opponents who coveted the dragon veins."
"Those who have not left within three breaths will be killed without mercy!"
The black-robed leader said in a cold tone.
Deng Deng Deng!
Noisy footsteps sounded.
The members of the onlooker sect were scattered like birds and beasts in an instant, and they soon escaped without a trace.

It didn't take long for the members of the Xingyue Divine Sect and other sectarian forces to arrive at the location of the Dragon Vein.
The purpose of entry is to have corpses everywhere, and the members of the Taixu

Shenzong have long since disappeared.
Only after understanding did we know that the dragon veins had already been occupied by the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy at this time.
"The strength of the Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy is too terrifying. If the Taixu Shenzong occupies the dragon vein, we may still be able to win."
"Yeah, even if several sects join forces, they may not be able to beat the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy."
"But I am really unwilling to hand over such a large-scale dragon vein to others!"
Advertisement
"It's better to be unwilling than to lose your life, everyone, take care, let's go first."
The voices of discussion kept coming, and the members of the Xingyue Divine Sect took advantage of the excitement and returned home.
In particular, they also planned to use the power of the Taixu Shenzong to fight against the Seven Stars Religion, and now this plan has completely failed.
Of course, there are also regrets because of the complete absence of the dragon veins. After all, if the Taixu Shenzong occupies it, it may still be able to get a piece of the pie.
Advertisement
Levi Garrison is also very sorry.
It's just that his regret has nothing to do with the ownership of the dragon vein, simply because he can't meet the staff of the Taixu Shenzong.
Before Levi Garrison was ready for the war, he was very excited when he thought that he could kill Gong Qianqiu and others on the spot to avenge Xue Hen.
But now the one occupying the dragon veins has become the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy, and the people of the Taixu Shenzong are nowhere to be found.
"Gong Qianqiu, Sanshengzi, let you live for a while longer!"
Levi Garrison said silently in his heart.
Murong Qingxue sighed and said solemnly, "Let's get out of here quickly! So as not to encounter those guys from the Seven Stars Religion."

The rest of the sectarian forces also shook their heads helplessly and prepared to evacuate the Dragon Vessel scene.
"Come and leave if you want, what do you think this place is?"
Advertisement
The cold voice of the black-robed leader came.
Everyone's eardrums hurt from the shock, and the disciples with a slightly lower cultivation base even felt a little dazed.
"So strong!"
Everyone was full of emotion, but at the same time they didn't understand the meaning of the leader of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy.
"What do you mean, Your Excellency, we don't want to conflict with Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy, why are we blocking our way?"
"We don't want to continue to snatch the dragon veins, can't we leave?"
"Please speak clearly, Your Excellency."
Members of the denominations spoke up.
The leader of the black robe said with a sneer: "Although you didn't do anything, since you have arrived here, you are planning to snatch the dragon veins."
"It's just because the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy is so strong that it doesn't dare to take action. You can't deny this, right?"
"The majesty of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy cannot be provoked. Since you all came here, leave them all!"
"Kill all of them and leave none."
With a single order, the other members of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy directly attacked and killed many members of the sect.
"Anyway, they're all dead, fight with them!"
"There may be a chance for everyone to join forces."
The crowd revolted, and there were even a very few who had a fluke mentality. They gathered the power of everyone to successfully turn around, and they might be able to get a share of the dragon's veins.
However, the reality is very cruel, their strength is far worse than the powerhouses of Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy.

Even if everyone took out the means of pressing the bottom of the box, they could only be reduced to fish meat on a sticky board, and they could be slaughtered by others.
The members of the Xingyue Divine Sect were also extremely depressed. Not only did they not get the dragon veins, but they would soon die in Huangquan.
"Your surname is Ye, you are really a slogan, and you can't help at a critical moment."
"Don't let him go. What can a monkey who just came from the mundane world be capable of?"
"Xiao Ye, can you still be bigger? Are you watching a play there? Believe it or not, I'll kill you first?"
Murong Qingxue looked out of the corner of his eyes, and saw Levi Garrison clasping his shoulders with his arms, as if he was watching a show.

"hateful!"
Murong Qingxue scolded in a low voice, she really regretted introducing Levi Garrison into the sect.
It's okay if you can't help, after all, you only came from the mundane world, and you can understand the low cultivation base.
However, Levi Garrison's performance at the moment is completely out of his mind.
If it weren't for the lack of skills in the face of master attacking clones at this moment, Murong Qingxue could not wait to rush up to cut Levi Garrison with two swords.
Levi Garrison could naturally feel the emotional changes of the members of the Xingyue Shenzong, but he didn't care at all.
Advertisement
"You people have nothing to do with Lao Tzu, why do you help?"
Levi Garrison was still watching the show with a relaxed expression on his face. The members of the Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy were really good, and it was basically equivalent to a one-sided massacre.

“Ahhh!”
The screams came one after another, and the gap between the strength of the disciples of the other sects and the members of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy was too great, and there was basically no way to fight back.
Advertisement
Even a saint-level expert like Murong Qingxue could only do their best to support them, but the scene was basically controlled by the powerhouses of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy.
As for other ordinary Tianjiao or elders, they are either killed or injured.
Especially with the passage of time, the situation is even more unfavorable for other sects, because even the powerhouses of the Saint Child and Saintess level are injured.
“what!”
Murong Qingxue was knocked flying by someone’s palm, and a strand of blood slowly flowed from the corner of her mouth.
“Saint!”
The members of the Xingyue Divine Sect cried out in surprise, and instinctively shifted their gazes to the direction of Murong Qingxue.
However, most of them were too tired to deal with it, and the experts from Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy seized the opportunity and attacked their vital points one after another.
Three more people died on the spot.
Advertisement
“The surname is Ye, but you are helping the Holy Maiden!”
An elder of the Xingyue Shenzong said angrily.
The others were also filled with righteous indignation, because they found that Murong Qingxue fell right in front of Levi Garrison.
And this ‘rookie’ who had just entered the Kunlun Ruins was still smiling, and had no intention of helping him out.

“Is there another fish that slipped through the net?”
The talents of Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy noticed Levi Garrison, and especially found that this guy was actually intact.
“kill him!”
The black-robed leader said coldly.
A member of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy did not hesitate to attack Levi Garrison.
At this moment, Murong Qingxue struggled to stand up from the ground, but she did not intend to save Levi Garrison.
Levi Garrison’s previous performance had completely angered her.
At this moment, I feel that the hatred in my heart can be relieved by beheading him with the help of Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy.
“Deserved!”
The members of the Xingyue Divine Sect also complained one after another, and this may be the only thing they can comfort themselves before they die.
“Sure enough, it was a rookie who just arrived in the secular world, and was immediately frightened.”
Seeing Levi Garrison standing still, the members of the Xingyue Shenzong scorned for a while.
However, a moment later, an unbelievable scene appeared.
Seeing that the ancient swords of the members of the Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy were firmly stabbed into Levi Garrison’s chest, they could not penetrate the flesh.
There was even a sound of metal bumping into each other.
“Ding!”
The member of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy stiffened, and he felt that the long sword in his hand seemed to be stabbed on the steel plate.
“Pure body repair?”
The members of Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy reacted instantly, and immediately planned to cut Levi Garrison’s neck with a sword.
Levi Garrison’s playful voice sounded.

The members of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy suddenly had an ominous premonition in their hearts.
Immediately afterwards, he saw Levi Garrison stick out his two fingers and clasp them on the blade with great precision.
“let go!”
The members of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy suddenly exerted force, but felt that Levi Garrison’s fingers were like giant steel pliers, no matter how hard he exerted his strength, he couldn’t shake it.
“how can that be?”
The members of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy couldn’t believe what was happening in front of him. He continued to turn on the engine, but the ancient sword still couldn’t move.

“Since you want it so much, I’ll give it back to you over there!”
Levi Garrison said jokingly.
Immediately before the members of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy understood the meaning of this sentence, Levi Garrison suddenly waved his arm.
“This power…”
The members of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy instantly felt their arms go numb, the long sword naturally let go, and shot towards their chest in the opposite direction.
“So fast!”
Advertisement
The members of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy didn’t have time to react at all, and the ancient sword penetrated his body directly from the hilt.
Because the power he was carrying was too strong, his whole body was shaken and flew out, and the blood on his chest was even more profuse.
Pfft!
The members of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy fell heavily to the ground, kicking their legs a few times, with a strong unwillingness to die on the spot in their eyes.

Advertisement
It happened almost in an instant, and almost everyone present could not react.
The leader of the black robe came back to his senses first, and said coldly, "I didn't expect to be a hidden master, kill him!"
The three members of the Sun and Moon Divine Fire Temple flocked, and in their opinion, their companions are likely to die underestimated by the enemy.
After all, they did not have any deaths in the battle against many sectarian elites.
And Levi Garrison had been hiding among the members of the Xingyue Divine Sect just now, and was ridiculed by many people. Obviously, he was a nobody who had just come from the mundane world.
"You want to die like that?"
Levi Garrison said with a sneer.
Don't look at Levi Garrison's failure to help before, that's because neither the Xingyue Shenzong nor other sects have anything to do with him.
But Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy wanted his own life, so Levi Garrison would not sit still.
Advertisement
"Insanity!"
The three members of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy shouted angrily, the long swords in their hands were awe-inspiring, and in the blink of an eye they were already near.
"piss off!"
Levi Garrison did not retreat but advanced, and directly faced the attacking direction of the three with a few punches.
The violent fists roared out, and there was a faint sound of dragon roars in the void.
The three members of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy were torn to shreds, and then they burst into blood mist.
"how can that be?"

The members of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy were all stunned. They didn't think that their comrades who were still swaying and closing just now were killed by their opponents in the blink of an eye.
"Don't worry about the others, kill this guy first."
The black robe leader said solemnly.
The remaining members of the Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy immediately withdrew from the battle and began to besiege Levi Garrison.
"act recklessly!"
Levi Garrison snorted coldly, and his figure disappeared instantly.
After a while, he appeared behind a member of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy. He didn't give the other party time to react at all, and slapped him away with one palm.
This was a one-sided massacre, just like what Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy did to other sects before.
All members of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy fell into endless fear and despair.
In just a few breaths, more than ten members of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy all died in Huangquan.
"Gollum!"
The black-robed leader swallowed hard, and fear appeared in his eyes for the first time.
"Now it is your turn!"
Levi Garrison said slowly.
The leader of the black robe said solemnly: "I don't know what sect you are? If you want, the gate of Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy can be opened for you by exception."
"If you can't beat it, you will change to recruit? Didn't you want to kill me just now?" Levi Garrison said with a smile.
The black-robed leader's face suddenly became extremely ugly.
"I don't know how to praise, but I want to see how strong you are?"
The leader of the black robe waved the ancient sword in his hand, and the sharp swords roared out, as if to smash the void in front of him.
"Good come!"

Levi Garrison still did not dodge or dodge, and threw a punch against Jian Gang.
Clang!
The sound of Jin Ge symphony was actually issued in the void.
Immediately afterwards, everyone saw the black-robed leader's body flying out like a broken paper kite.

Clap clap!
The long sword in the black robe leader's hand shattered into several pieces.
Boom!
After a while, the black-robed leader's body was deeply embedded in the mountain wall, and the surrounding rubble flew down to the foot of the mountain.
"This…it's impossible!"
After the black robe leader finished speaking, his neck crooked, and his soul returned to Jiuyou.

"The Kunlun Ruins powerhouse is nothing but the same!"
Levi Garrison said to himself.
The scene was dead silent, as if Levi Garrison was the only one left in this world.
The survivors of many sects were also shocked and speechless, and needles could be heard at the scene for a while.
Advertisement
A full five minutes passed, and there was an uproar at the scene.
"Which sect is this guy from, is he too strong?"
"That's the powerhouse of Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy!"
"Even the black-robed leader was instantly killed by one move, so terrifying!"
"The key is that this guy doesn't seem to be using his full strength!"
Everyone turned their attention to Levi Garrison, and sure enough, they saw that the latter's lack of anger did not change his face.
As if the fierce battle just now had nothing to do with him.
"He seems to be a member of the Xingyue Divine Sect."

I don't know who said something, and everyone's eyes shifted to the survivors of the Star Moon Sect.

Advertisement

There were only six people left in the team of more than ten people before, and they only woke up from a dream when they felt the burning gaze of everyone.

Looking at Levi Garrisonli, who looked like a god of war not far away, instantly felt like a dream.

"It's a shame that I still thought about killing him and taking the treasure. If I really do it, my grave will be very tall, right?"

"But we've all checked his strength before, how can we not see any flaws?"

"It's unbelievable, the Holy Maiden has a secret exploration technique passed down by the suzerain, and he has been deceived by him."

"Even exploratory techniques have strength limitations, which means that his strength is far superior to that of the Holy Maiden."

The Xingyue Shenzong talked in a low voice, feeling extremely complicated.

Shock, regret, doubt, and even some fear.

After all, they didn't hide their contempt and ridicule for Levi Garrison at all, and they didn't even hide their murderous intentions.

It is difficult to guarantee that Levi Garrison will settle accounts in the autumn.

Strong remorse filled the hearts of everyone in the Xingyue Divine Sect.

If he made goodwill with Levi Garrison at that time, it would not only benefit himself, but even benefit the entire sect.

Offending such an unfathomable powerhouse now would not only save his own life, but even his sect would likely be implicated.

"It turns out that his true cultivation is so powerful!"

Murong Qingxue was also full of incredulity, completely shocked by Levi Garrison's strength.

"Did he really just come from the world?"

"Have the powerhouses in the secular world reached this level?"

“It’s no wonder that he was so relaxed from beginning to end. Where is the ignorant and fearless, he is simply a master of art!”
Murong Qingxue recalled her previous contempt for Levi Garrison and her condescending attitude when recruiting him into the sect, and instantly felt regretful.
Feeling even more embarrassed.
“Perhaps he would laugh at me for being overly ambitious at first!”
Murong Qingxue smiled bitterly.
At the same time, the doubts in the Senluo forbidden area before have also been answered.
It wasn’t because Levi Garrison was lucky that he wasn’t injured, it was because the beast couldn’t hurt him.
As for the fact that they were not attacked by ferocious beasts in the forbidden area, it is very likely that Levi Garrison’s existence made them discouraged.
Murong Qingxue wanted to say something, but she didn’t know where to start.
Rao is that she has always been calm, and she is also very uneasy at this moment.
She is not sure how Levi Garrison will treat herself and her classmates next.
However, just when Murong Qingxue was full of shock and remorse, she suddenly heard the sound of noisy footsteps.
Turning his head to look, he saw Mo Junyan came with a group of seven-star religion powerhouses.
“The snipe and the clam compete for the fisherman’s profit. We never thought that we would be the last to come, but the biggest winner.”
Mo Junyan said excitedly.

The members of the Seven Star Sect headed by Mo Junyan arrived late, but found a group of injured disciples of various sects.
It seems to be a scene of fighting each other because of the competition for dragon veins.

Especially the surviving people are obviously at the end of the game, and they have become the biggest winners without any effort.
“Holy Son, Murong Qingxue is also among them, and it seems that he was seriously injured.”
A Seven Star Cult Tianjiao suddenly said.
Mo Junyan turned his head to look, and as expected, he saw Murong Qingxue, who looked like a fairy, was meditating cross-legged, and her weak breath indicated that she was seriously injured.
Advertisement
“Keep Murong Qingxue under control, and kill everyone else!”
Mo Junyan said sullenly.
Mo Junyan had long coveted Murong Qingxue for a long time, and now is a rare opportunity to get her easily.
The remaining Heavenly Talents of the Xingyue Shenzong are all at the end of the shot, and killing them is as easy as the palm of your hand.
Advertisement
“Holy Son, there is no loss of dragon veins, we have made a lot of money.”
“With such a scale of dragon veins, we will definitely be able to raise our strength to a whole new level by using it to cultivate.”
“People are not as good as heaven. These people were lucky to find them first, but they made wedding dresses with our Seven Stars Sect.”
The members of the Seven Star Sect were so excited that they didn’t expect to be the last to pick up the leak.
Even the geniuses of the other surviving sects were seriously injured, and it was easy to kill them, so they were not afraid of them coming for a piece of the pie.
“Holy Son, something is wrong!”
One of the elders suddenly said: “Look at the reaction of these people.”
Mo Junyan was stunned for a moment, and he didn’t understand the meaning of his own elders.
“reaction?”

Advertisement
Mo Junyan observed it carefully, and suddenly noticed something unusual. Everyone, including Murong Qingxue, was very calm.
"Are all these people scared and stupid? Are none of them afraid to die?"
Mo Junyan was a little surprised. According to normal logic, someone would definitely kneel down and beg for mercy.
But now everyone is very calm, and they even look at themselves with a playful look, as if…
As if looking at a fool?
"Huh? Isn't this a worldly slave bought by the Xingyue Shenzong?"
Mo Junyan soon saw Levi Garrison and found that the latter was the only one on the scene who was not injured.
The slaves of a mere secular world were intact, but many powerful people from other sects suffered heavy casualties.
This is totally unreasonable!
Is there another secret in this?
Mo Junyan was puzzled.
"Holy Son, this… these seem to be people from the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy!"
"What does it seem like, this is the powerhouse of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy. I have seen the person in the stone wall, and he is the man of the academy."
"Just who is so daring and dare to kill even the people of Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy?"
"Mainly who has the strength to do it?"
The members of the Seven Star Sect were quite frightened. The Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy was backed by the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall, which was a real super sect.
Such as the Seven Stars Religion, the Xingyue Shenzong and the like only look up to them.
Seeing the expressions of shock and doubt on the faces of the members of the Seven Star Sect, Murong Qingxue couldn't help laughing out loud.
"What are you laughing at? Believe it or not, this Holy Son will rectify the Fa on your spot right now?"
Mo Junyan said angrily.

Faced with the death threat, Murong Qingxue not only did not hold back in the slightest,
but laughed even louder.
Not only that, but other sect members also laughed out loud one after another.
In the eyes of everyone, the disciples of the Seven Star Sect headed by Mo Junyan are a joke.
But no one told them the truth, everyone knew that as long as the members of the Seven Star Sect were motivated to kill, Levi Garrison would definitely kill them.
In particular, Levi Garrison was looking at the dragon veins with great interest, and obviously he had already started to fight the dragon veins.
This has an irreconcilable contradiction with the Seven Star Church.
After all, the ultimate goal of the Seven Star Cult is to obtain the dragon veins.
Everyone was waiting to see the joke of the Seven Stars Sect.

Although he didn't know the real reason why many sects were not afraid to laugh in the face of death threats, Mo Junyan also realized that something was wrong.
As the saying goes, if something goes wrong, there must be a demon.
"Holy Son, what shall we do next?"
"The Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy's master was killed, neither the Academy nor the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall will let it go."
"If you suspect the Seven Stars Sect, wouldn't it be a disaster?"
The elders of the Seven Stars Sect had worried expressions on their faces.

Although they also desperately want to obtain the dragon vein resources, they do not want to provoke the behemoth of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall.
The gap in strength is too great, and if it really angers the opponent, the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple can destroy the Seven Star Cult by simply touching some masters.
Mo Junyan also had a solemn expression on his face, and his thoughts were running fast.

After careful consideration, Mo Junyan said solemnly: "There is nothing to be afraid of, the death of the Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy master has nothing to do with us."
Advertisement
"Even if there are people who doubt it afterwards, we can directly put the blame on these people."
"As for the people of these denominations, just shut them up forever and what we say is the truth."
"Even if the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple is investigated in the future, the Seven Stars Sect can still retreat."
Mo Junyan's remarks immediately made the seven-star sect elders agree.
"Not only that, we just need to kill these people, and maybe sell it to the Sun Moon God Fire Temple for a favor!"
Mo Junyan continued.
"That's a good idea."
The Seven Star Church unanimously approved it.
What a perfect plan to put the blame on others to clear the relationship, punish the real culprit to gain favor, what a perfect plan!

"Apart from Murong Qingxue, kill everyone else!"
Mo Junyan paused and pointed to Levi Garrison: "Especially him, within the reach of my holy son, no one who pretends to be like this is allowed to exist."
Levi Garrison was extremely calm from beginning to end, as if he didn't take the Seven Stars
Sect in his eyes at all.
This made Mo Junyan feel that his majesty was being challenged.
"Unforgivable!"
Mo Junyan's anger continued to rise.
"As ordered!"
Before he finished speaking, a seven-star sect elder had disappeared.
The long sword in his hand pierced Levi Garrison's choked throat like a poisonous snake spitting a letter.
"Just you?"

The corner of Levi Garrison's mouth rose slightly, and he punched at the location of the Seven Stars Sect elder.
Bang!
Everyone only vaguely heard a scream, and then saw that the elders of their own had disappeared.
"what's going on?"
"The elder was punched… no more?"
"how can that be?"
Everyone in the Seven Star Sect took a deep breath. They looked around and searched for a long time, and the last trace of hope completely dissipated.
The elder is really dead!
He was beaten to death by this ugly guy!
Mo Junyan was also stunned, he couldn't believe what was happening in front of him.
Although that elder is not the strongest in the sect, his combat power is definitely at the forefront.
In the face of this effort, he has not even managed a single move?
"Let's go together and avenge Elder Leng!"
Mo Junyan almost roared and gave the order.
The elders of the Seven Star Sect threw their weapons and surrounded Levi Garrison.
"As far as your strength is concerned, you are far behind those of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy. You want to kill Lao Tzu, which is really a fool's dream."
As soon as the words fell, Levi Garrison shot out like an arrow from a string, and took the initiative to attack the people of the Seven Star Sect.
There are no fancy moves, just the simplest straight punches and uppercuts.
However, the next moment, the Seven Star Sect camp heard one after another screams and mourning.
Levi Garrison's figure flickered, and every time he passed by, he took away a fresh life.
In no time for half a column of incense, the Seven Star Sect, except Mo Junyan, was beheaded by Levi Garrison.
The wind blew slowly, and the blood mist was completely blown away.

At the same time, Mo Junyan's arrogance and arrogance were blown away.

"The people from Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy were killed by him."
"It's no wonder that Murong Qingxue and the others remained calm despite the death threat."
"Others also seem to be watching jokes."
All previous doubts can be explained.
Mo Junyan suddenly realized, but now it's too late to regret it.
"Now it is your turn."

Levi Garrison's icy voice sounded.
Mo Junyan was so frightened that he almost instinctively fled to the jungle in the distance.
"Don't hurt the holy son of this religion, or the Seven Stars will be with you forever."
Just at this critical moment, an old voice came from the jungle.
Advertisement
Mo Junyan was overjoyed, as if he had grabbed the life-saving straw, and said excitedly,
"The vice sect master save me!"
After a while, several people rushed out of the jungle, led by an old man with white beard and hair.
"No one can save you today, I said!"
Levi Garrison punched Mo Junyan.
"Shuzi, do you dare?"
The old man dodged between the two to rescue him.
Bang!
The moment the fists and palms collided, a strong aftermath of aura erupted.
The deputy leader of the Seven Star Sect only felt a powerful and unparalleled energy hit him, and the whole person was shaken out uncontrollably.
Advertisement
On the other hand, Levi Garrison's speed was not reduced, and his fist style was even more powerful, and Mo Junyan's body was completely covered in an instant.

puff!
A cloud of blood bloomed.
Mo Junyan didn't even have time to say a word and died on the spot.
"Ignorance junior, you are courting death!"
The deputy leader of the Seven Star Sect roared, he never thought that such an attack would not be able to stop Levi Garrison.
"It's you who are looking for death!"
Levi Garrison didn't talk nonsense, and directly broke into the reinforcement camp of the Seven Star Sect.
The next step is a unilateral massacre, and these people are not Levi Garrison's one-on-one generals at all.
After just a few minutes, the entire Seven-Star Cult reinforcements, including the vice sect leader, were wiped out.
"Is that too strong?"
Murong Qingxue and the others were once again shocked.
In the face of so many strong men, Levi Garrison basically broke them with force, which was basically a dimensionality reduction attack.
"If you don't want to snatch the dragon vein, then I'll use it first."
Levi Garrison said with a smile.
Everyone shook their heads and expressed no interest in the dragon pulse.
Of course it was against their will, but they didn't want to die yet.
Levi Garrison chuckled twice and walked straight to the dragon vein.
"This dragon vein is really good, basically equivalent to the size of the largest dragon vein found in the secret realm."
Levi Garrison no longer hesitated, directly running the basic exercises, and began to use the dragon veins to quench his body.
Seeing this situation, Murong Qingxue was once again stunned.
"Kunlun Ruins powerhouses directly absorb the spiritual energy of the spiritual veins, but he actually used it directly to quench their bodies?"
"Even pure body cultivation is useless to cultivate in this way, it is simply a waste of time!"
"It's no wonder that the powerhouses of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy couldn't pierce his body with a sword gang before, and using the dragon veins to quench his body is almost invulnerable to swords and guns."

Everyone sighed with emotion, but soon they discovered a new situation.

According to common sense, when dragon veins of this size are used by practitioners, they will produce extremely strong energy shocks.

In particular, the sound of dragon roars will be very frequent, and the sound will become more and more high-pitched and harsh as time goes on.

Because this is equivalent to the verve cultivated by cultivators taking the dragon veins.

However, in Levi Garrison's hands, such a large dragon vein is like a tamed pet, and there is no tendency to resist at all.

The sound of dragon roar is soft and weak, and the energy vibration caused by it is negligible.

If it weren't for the fact that everyone was too close, they would not have noticed that someone was using the power of dragon veins.

"Let's hurry up and restore our strength!"

Murong Qingxue reminded.

Everyone immediately began to use the scattered aura around the dragon veins to start practicing.

The wear and tear of the previous fierce battle with the powerhouses of the Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy is also recovering rapidly.

Since Levi Garrison had just absorbed ten dragon veins not long ago, using the dragon veins to quench the body at this time consumes quite quickly.

"At this rate, the essence of the dragon's veins will be exhausted in one day at most."

Levi Garrison made an estimate, and his mood subconsciously cheered up.

Especially thinking of the strength of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy, he is even more confident to deal with the Taixu Shenzong.

“According to what others have said, the Taixu Shenzong is afraid of the Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy, so it must not be stronger.”
“No matter how much, let’s exhaust the spiritual energy of this dragon vein first.”
Advertisement
“Gong Qianqiu, Sanshengzi, let you live a few more days!”
Concentrating his thoughts, Levi Garrison quickly and basic exercises.
The power of the dragon veins poured into Levi Garrison’s body at a speed visible to the naked eye, constantly quenching his body and meridians.
the other side.

The people of the Taixu Shenzong withdrew to the outermost periphery of the dragon veins full of depression.
But fortunately, they dug up a lot of heaven and earth treasures, which made everyone’s unwillingness get a little comfort.
After all, the scale of this large dragon vein is sufficient. It has absorbed the spiritual energy of heaven and earth for many years, and has catalyzed the surrounding ordinary medicinal herbs into treasures of heaven and earth.
However, Gong Qianqiu was still bitter about not being able to get the dragon vein.
According to what the Seven Holy Sons just said, this dragon vein is stronger than the dragon vein that was given to her later, regardless of its size or the purity of its spiritual energy.
“In the final analysis, the big tree behind it is not strong enough. Facing the strength of the top sects, the Taixu Shenzong will always be a younger brother.”
Gong Qianqiu secretly complained in his heart.
“The Xingyue Divine Sect has entered the core range of the Dragon Vein.”
“The Seven Stars Religion also entered it.”
Advertisement
“Three or four other small sectarian alliances have also entered.” The eyeliner kept coming in with information, which made everyone more and more puzzled.

“The comprehensive strength of the Xingyue Shenzong and the Seven Star Sect is on a par with the Taixu Shenzong. It is impossible to dare to be the enemy of the Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy!”
The Great Holy Son spoke out the doubts in his heart.
Because they were afraid that the people from the Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy thought that the Taixu Shenzong still had a coveted heart for the dragon veins, the eyeliner they sent did not dare to get too close to the dragon veins.
So they have no way of knowing what happened in the core area of the dragon veins.
“The dragon veins have been occupied by the powerhouses of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy, and the Seven Star Sect and the Xingyue Divine Sect will never dare to fight against it.”
“But they have been grumbling for a long time, and they must be killing each other and hurting both.”
One of the elders speculated.
The Seventh Holy Son said lightly, “Then what happened after the other sects went in and didn’t come out?”
“Faced with a sect of the level of Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy, even we have to shy away, those trivial sects will definitely retreat.”
“That’s a good explanation!”
The Great Holy Son took over the words: “The people of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy have always been arrogant and domineering, even more so than the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall.”
“Seeing someone snatch the dragon veins in the past, you can’t kill them all directly!”
Everyone heard the words and expressed their agreement. The arrogant attitude of the members of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy was vividly seen before, and this situation is likely to happen.

“It’s not wrong, but it’s a pity that the Sun Moon Divine Sect is an ally. If it were replaced by other forces, we would never sit idly by.”
“Okay, isn’t the Seven Star Cult also buried together!”
“Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy is too domineering, so many forces are actually beheaded, I’m really not afraid of offending people!”
The members of the Taixu Shenzong were even a little fortunate that their own personnel were evacuated quickly, otherwise they would probably end up with a tragic ending of the destruction of the entire army.
“Don’t talk nonsense, hurry up and search for the treasures of heaven and earth, there are many good things here.”
The Great Holy Son changed the subject, the people of Sun Moon Fire Seminary made him lose face in public, and it was inevitable that there would be some resentment in his heart.
After searching for a full day, the Taixu Shenzong gained a lot.

Seeing that everyone was holding a lot of heaven and earth treasures in their hands, a smile appeared on the stern face of the Great Saint.
“This trip to Tianying Mountain finally didn’t come back empty-handed.”
The Great Saint sighed with emotion.
The elders of the Holy Sons of the Taixu Shenzong also agreed.
Although they didn’t get the dragon veins they were thinking about, these treasures of heaven and earth were also very rare.
Whether it is directly absorbing the spiritual energy or using it to refine medicine pills, it will greatly benefit its own strength.

Cha Cha Cha Cha Cha Cha Cha Cha Cha Cha Cha!
Just then, there were light footsteps in the deep jungle in the distance.
“Everyone be careful.”
The Great Saint said solemnly.

The members of the Taixu Shenzong immediately raised their vigilance and prepared for battle. They instinctively thought that other sects wanted to snatch the treasures of heaven and earth.
However, after a while, a team of dozens of people appeared in everyone's sight.
They were all dressed in black robes with patterns of sun and moon flames embroidered on their chests. The leader was an old man with white hair and beard.
The patterns of the sun and moon flames on the chests of others are all golden, but the pattern of the old man is a gathering of nine colors.
"Luo Yunyang, deputy dean of Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy."
The Great Holy Son immediately recognized the identity of the old man, and the shock and doubts coexisted in his heart.
"Junior meets Vice President Luo."
The Great Holy Son hurriedly stepped forward to give a deep salute, and there was even a hint of flattery in his tone.
Luo Yunyang frowned slightly and asked in a deep voice, "Do you know this seat?"
Advertisement
"Vice Dean Luo once visited Qianlong City to recruit students, and this junior is fortunate to have seen the senior from a distance."
The Great Holy Son hurriedly added: "The younger generation is the Great Holy Son of the Taixu Shenzong. I have always wanted to worship at the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy, but there is no chance."
"It turned out to be the Great Holy Son of the Taixu Shenzong."
Luo Yunyang nodded and continued to ask: "You are also here to find the dragon veins?"
"Yes!"
The Great Holy Son did not dare to conceal the slightest, but quickly explained: "But the powerhouse of Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy suddenly arrived, so the younger generation naturally dare not fight."

Others also expressed their opinions, for fear of being killed by the group of people in front of them as enemies.
Luo Yunyang had a look of surprise on his face, and asked: "So you have seen people from Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy?"
"I saw it yesterday! They have found the dragon vein, congratulations to Vice President Luo."
The Great Saint said truthfully.
"yesterday?"
Luo Yunyang suddenly had a bad premonition in his heart and said, "We lost contact with each other yesterday, take me to the location of the dragon veins."
"As ordered!"
The Great Holy Son did not dare to refuse, and hurriedly led the way in front of him, but he said with some doubts: "Yesterday, many sects went to fight for the dragon veins, but they did not come out again. They must have been killed by the powerhouses of Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy, how could they not? What about the message?"
Next, the Great Holy Son informed Luo Yunyang of all the information from the eyeliner.
The more Luo Yunyang listened, the stronger the ominous premonition in his heart.
"We lost contact a day ago, and that's why the college sent me here to investigate the situation."
Luo Yunyang said in a deep voice.
The members of the Taixu Shenzong were immediately shocked.
Everyone stopped talking and speeding up their progress. After half an hour, the Great Holy Son and Luo Yunyang rushed to the location of the dragon veins.
However, when everyone passed through, they were completely stunned by the scene in front of them.
This area seems to have become a purgatory on earth, and there are stumps and broken arms everywhere.
It is not an exaggeration to describe it as rivers of corpses scattered all over the field.

The smell of blood in the air is extremely strong. Although everyone present has seen the big world, they are still shocked by this scene and take a breath of air.
"They seem to be there!"
The Seven Saints said suddenly.
Luo Yunyang looked in the direction of the Seven Saints' fingers and saw your body, a member of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy.
In particular, the black-robed leader who was beaten into the stone wall was still dead, and his dark eyes were full of fear and unwillingness.
"Why is the power of this dragon vein so lacking?"
The Great Holy Son swallowed hard.
When everyone shifted their focus to the dragon veins this time, they found that the power of the dragon veins had been exhausted.

Looking at the crisscrossing corpses and the exhausted dragon veins, everyone present was shocked.
"What exactly happened?"
Everyone present was puzzled.
The team of Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy is strong, how could someone be their opponent?
What's more, they are backed by the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall, even in the Kunlun Ruins are top sectarian forces, who would dare to provoke such a terrifying existence?
How did they know that after Levi Garrison exhausted the power of the dragon veins to improve his body, he left with the surviving members of the Star Moon Sect and other sects.
Advertisement
And the direction they left was behind the dragon veins, so they were not discovered by the eyeliner of the Taixu Shenzong.
"What's going on? You should make it clear to this seat!"
Luo Yunyang asked with a cold face.

The hearts of everyone in the Taixu Shenzong instantly raised their throats.
Advertisement
"Vice President Luo, we don't know either!"
"Yes, Senior Luo, after the powerhouse of Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy announced the ownership of the dragon veins, we left immediately."
"With the strength of the strong men in the academy, it was impossible for anyone to be their opponent among the sectarian forces present at the time."
"That's right, no one dared to move when we occupied the dragon vein, let alone the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy announced to occupy the dragon vein?"
The members of the Taixu Shenzong hurriedly explained that they didn't want to be misunderstood as the real murderer behind the scenes, so that the entire sect would suffer annihilation.
The Great Holy Son said solemnly: "Vice President Luo, our people have seen many sects enter, but after those people entered, they never came out again."
"At that time, we thought that those people wanted to snatch the resources of the dragon veins, and they were all killed by the experts of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy!"
Luo Yunyang carefully observed the appearance of everyone in Taixu Shenzong, and could feel that these people were not lying.
Moreover, Luo Yunyang knew very well the comprehensive strength of the team, so it was impossible for the people of the Taixu Shenzong to kill them all.
Advertisement
"You guys confirm the sect background of the corpse at the scene."
Luo Yunyang first issued the order, then turned his attention to the Great Saint Son, and said solemnly: "Remember carefully, the many sects that entered the dragon vein range, this seat will investigate one by one."
"As ordered!"
The Great Saint said respectfully.
After some confirmation, the most powerful forces surfaced.

There are six major sects, including Xingyue Shenzong, Xuanyang Sect, Qingyun Tianzong, and Qixing Sect.
As for those little-known sects, they were completely out of Luo Yunyang's consideration.
"The strength of these sects is similar to that of the Taixu Shenzong. I'm afraid they will not dare to fight against the powerhouses of Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy!"
"What's more, in terms of the strength of the personnel in their team, it is impossible to be an opponent of the strong academy."
"It's incredible!"
The Great Holy Son whispered to himself.
This kind of thought also appeared in Luo Yunyang's mind. He still had a better understanding of the strength of many sects.
Because even if the Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy recruits students, they will basically not start from medium-sized sects.
"Who actually moved the hand?"
Luo Yunyang was puzzled.
"Could it be that there are hidden powerhouses?"
This idea was abandoned as soon as it appeared, because with such terrifying strength, there is no need to hide at all.
"And such a large-scale dragon vein can be completely exhausted in one day. What kind of terrifying strength is required to do this?"
"Even those old monsters who have been hidden from the world for many years can't do it, right?"
Luo Yunyang was really shocked in his heart. He had to know that no matter what kind of monk, his body had a limit.
And it is conceivable that such a large-scale dragon vein possesses the horror of energy.
Even the suzerains of those top sects will explode and die after being absorbed in a short period of time?

Gong Qianqiu was also shocked by such a terrifying ability to absorb spiritual veins.
She felt that after practicing the extreme devouring technique, she should be the one with the fastest absorption of spiritual energy among these people on the scene.
Even the entire Taixu Shenzong could not find anyone who could match her, including the vice sect master Yin Xuejian.
However, even so, it would take at least a month to completely swallow up a dragon vein of this size.
If you take the risk and reach the state of limit swallowing, it will still take twenty days to absorb it to the point in front of you.
"It's terrifying to use up such a scale of dragon veins in just one day."
Advertisement
"As expected of the Kunlun Ruins, which are densely populated by masters, there are still such powerful men."
"I think this person should be the top power of Kunlun Ruins, and the swallowing speed is dozens of times faster than the extreme swallowing technique." Gong Qianqiu was full of emotion, and felt more and more that his strength was far from enough.
"If you can reach such a terrifying realm of cultivation, can you really stand on the top of Kunlun Ruins?"
Advertisement
Gong Qianqiu is extremely yearning, and even a little disgusted with the Taixu Shenzong.
"I am afraid that such a strong person can make a sect of the level of the Taixu Shenzong to ashes."
"Even a superpower like Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy has to be afraid of three points."
"If there is a chance to have a relationship with such a strong person, then I can run amok in the Kunlun Ruins."
The more Gong Qianqiu thought about it, the more excited he became.

At the same time, you, the members of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy, are also frightened.
Looking at the exhausted dragon veins, they felt as if they were separated from each other.
"The sect of such a strong person is probably far beyond the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy."
"Even if there is the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple as a reliance, I'm afraid I can't afford to offend."
Advertisement
This thought flooded everyone's mind.
Luo Yunyang's face was full of dignified expressions.
After a long time, he slowly said: "There should be survivors of these sects. We must find these people and ask the truth about the matter."
According to the information reported by the eyeliner of Genjun Taixu Shenzong, there are more people entering the location of the dragon veins than the corpses at the scene.
It means that there are still a few survivors in many sects. As long as these people can be found, there will definitely be clues to this super strong man.
the other side.
After Levi Garrison used up the power of the dragon veins, he directly followed Murong Qingxue and the others to the Xingyue Divine Sect.
Of course, this was also Murong Qingxue's active invitation.
Levi Garrison did not refuse. He also wanted to find a temporary foothold now. As for the revenge of Taixu Shenzong, it should be put on the agenda.
On the way back to the Xingyue Divine Sect, he met several elders who came to support him.
Knowing that the dragon veins had been occupied by the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy, the elders felt that there was no need to go again, after all, they couldn't afford it.
And because Murong Qingxue didn't know what Levi Garrison was thinking, he didn't tell the elders in detail what happened to the Dragon Vessel.

“Saint, this time you are leading the elites of the sect, why are the casualties so serious?”
The third elder of the Star Moon Sect asked in a deep voice.
Murong Qingxue explained absentmindedly, “We were besieged by the Seven Star Sect when we were searching for the Dragon Vein. Their entire army was destroyed, and we suffered heavy casualties.”
“I see!”
The elder took over the conversation, and then turned the conversation and pointed the finger at Levi Garrison.
“There are heavy casualties in the sect, why is the saint still in the mood to buy a slave?”
“Elder, like this kind of waste that just came from the secular world, it was bought and sold by us as an object!”
“Little thing, do you have any unique skills to show this room a lively atmosphere?”
Several elders of the Xingyue Shenzong directly ridiculed Levi Garrison.
Murong Qingxue was quite frightened, and kept winking at several elders, for fear of angering Levi Garrison, the terrifying killer.

Although Murong Qingxue kept winking, the elders didn’t care at all.
In their opinion, Levi Garrison is just a monkey who just came from the secular world, and making fun of him counts him as lucky in three lifetimes.
“There’s a slave-fighting competition that has recently sprung up, and you can let this guy take part in it.”
“That’s right, it is said that the winner will be rewarded with top spiritual crystals.”
“This slave was bought by the Holy Maiden, you have to ask her what she means!”
Several elders looked at Murong Qingxue, but found that the saint, who had always been calm and calm, turned pale at this moment, and even her body was trembling slightly.

Advertisement
“Saint, are you alright?”
Several elders are puzzled, the saint seems to be afraid?
However, before Murong Qingxue could respond, she heard Levi Garrison’s voice.
“If you don’t shut up, I can help.”
Advertisement
This sentence was said lightly, but everyone present felt a biting chill.
Several elders were instantly furious.
Even though they are highly respected in the Xingyue Sect, it is simply unbearable to be warned by a monkey in the world now.
“Trash monkey, do you know what you’re talking about?”
The third elder had a hot temper. If it wasn’t for the saintess’ face, he would have already taught Levi Garrison a lesson.
“Noisy!”
Before he finished speaking, Levi Garrison’s figure disappeared instantly.
The three elders were slightly startled, and suddenly felt the deadly breath of death behind him.
“Third, be careful behind you.”
Advertisement
The elder hurriedly reminded.
However, Levi Garrison’s speed was so fast that it was too late for the third elder to try to hide, and the back of the head was directly slapped with a palm.
Clap!
The head of the three elders is like a broken watermelon, and they all died on the spot before they could say a word.
The other elders were extremely horrified and looked at Levi Garrison in disbelief.
Although the strength of the three elders is not the strongest, it is absolutely impossible to kill them with their strength.
Levi Garrison’s strength is too terrifying.
“If you want to avenge him, come together, so as not to waste Lao Tzu’s time.” Levi Garrison said lightly.
It was as if he did not kill the third elder with one palm just now, but did something trivial.

Gollum!
The other elders of the Star-Moon Sect swallowed hard and kept silent.
Murong Qingxue was afraid that things would continue to worsen, so she quickly said, "Mr.
Ye, some elders don't know Mount Tai. I hope you don't blame me."
Several elders were stunned again. When did the Holy Maiden treat others so servilely?
What the hell is this guy doing?
Levi Garrison waved his hand and said, "If it's not too noisy, I don't plan to kill them."
"Can I tell a few elders what happened to the dragon veins?"
Murong Qingxue asked tentatively.
Murong Qingxue was really worried that several elders secretly planned to retaliate against Levi Garrison, and the Xingyue Divine Sect might be implicated by then.
But the matter of the dragon veins is a secret after all, and Murong Qingxue didn't dare to make an assertion and tell others when he was not sure of Levi Garrison's thoughts.
"Whatever, as long as it doesn't interfere with the journey."
Levi Garrison said solemnly.
Murong Qingxue let out a long sigh, and then told everything about the looting of the dragon veins.
Especially when it was mentioned that Levi Garrison single-handedly killed more than a dozen experts from the Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy, several elders were scared to death.
It's a pity that they just planned to take advantage of their unpreparedness to attack Levi Garrison to avenge the third elder!
The eyes of everyone looking at Levi Garrison again were full of respect and fear.
"Mr. Ye's magic is unparalleled in the world, and I am afraid that no one in the Kunlun Ruins can surpass him!"
"Yeah, I would also like to thank Mr. Ye for saving the saintess of this sect!"
Several elders suddenly became honest and respected Levi Garrison directly.

There was nothing to say on the road, and after rushing on the road for several days, everyone finally returned to the Xingyue Divine Sect.
The Xingyue Shenzong is located in the continuous mountains, with magnificent buildings and misty clouds on the mountainside.
Levi Garrison immediately released his strength to investigate, and sensed a lot of powerful auras, and had a general understanding of the comprehensive strength of the Sun Moon
Shenzong.
"This way, you don't have to secretly seek information."
Levi Garrison laughed dumbly, the powerhouses of the Xingyue Divine Sect could not pose a threat to him at all.
Murong Qingxue took Levi Garrison directly to see the core executives and the sect master of the Divine Star Moon Sect.
Advertisement
In the face of this level of powerhouse, Murong Qingxue already wanted to win over, so that the influence of the sect could be raised to a higher level.
After learning that Levi Garrison had rescued the Holy Maiden and others and the matter of the dragon vein competition, Mu Rongwanqing, the Sect Master of the Xingyue Sect, personally met him.
In the welcoming hall of the Xingyue Divine Sect.
Mu Rong Wanqing sat in the middle. He was a woman in her fifties, but her appearance was the same as that of a woman in her thirties.
Advertisement
After a few words of courtesy, Mu Rong Wanqing asked, "I don't know what Mr. Ye plans to do next?"
"I really have a plan, but I don't know if Sect Master Murong will agree?" Levi Garrison said with a chuckle.
Mu Rong Wanqing was slightly startled, and asked in a puzzled way, "I don't know what Mr.

Ye means by this?”
“The meaning is very simple.”
Levi Garrison stood up slowly, and said with a smile, “From now on, the Xingyue Shenzong will be in charge of me.”
As soon as the voice fell, the scene was in an uproar after a brief silence.
“It’s ridiculous, do you really think that if you kill a few people from Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy, you will be invincible? You still want to occupy a magpie’s nest?”
“Levi Garrison, you are too arrogant. Although our Xingyue Divine Sect is no better than the top sect, you are still far from being the king!”
“If it wasn’t because of your merit in saving the saint, then just what you said just now would be a sin and worthy of death.”
Advertisement
Many elders of the Xingyue Shenzong slandered each other, and some of them had already set up a fighting stance and were ready to attack Levi Garrison at any time.
Mu Rong Wanqing also narrowed her eyes slightly, and her tone was not as kind as before, even showing a hint of chill.
“Mr. Ye isn’t joking, is he?”
While speaking, Mu Rong Wanqing suddenly started the exercise, and the terrifying energy spread around her body.
Murong Qingxue’s face was full of panic, and she never thought that Levi Garrison would suddenly make such a rude request.
Although he had not been in contact with Levi Garrison for a long time, Murong Qingxue could also feel that the latter was the type that was unequivocal.
Since Levi Garrison already has the mind of taking over the host, this battle is probably unavoidable.
Levi Garrison didn’t care at all about the energy released by everyone, and still said with a relaxed face: “Why don’t we make a bet?”
“If you can beat me, I will be used by the Xingyue Shenzong from now on.”

“But if you are not my opponents, then the Star Moon Sect will follow my lead from today.”
“Of course, if you don’t choose either of these two paths, I will kill you Xingyue Divine Sect.”
Everyone in the Xingyue Shenzong was furious when they heard this, and Levi Garrison was too arrogant.
This is to completely ignore them!
Mu Rong Wanqing waved her hand, and the scene instantly became quiet.
“Is what Mr. Ye said true?”
Mu Rong Wanqing felt that if Levi Garrison’s words counted, then it was worth taking a gamble.
It doesn’t matter what method you use, how many people you send, as long as you can beat Levi Garrison, the Xingyue Shenzong will gain a tiger general.
Thousands of troops are easy to get and one general is hard to find, and Kunlun Ruins is no exception.
Levi Garrison said with a serious face: “Naturally, it seems that Sect Master Murong has already made a choice.”
“Okay, then we’ll agree.”
In order to be safe, Mu Rong Wanqing added, “If we use the wheel to fight, Mr. Ye won’t say that we use more to bully less, right?”
“Don’t fight the wheel, let’s go together!” Levi Garrison said with a smile.

“Insanity!”
The deputy sect master shouted loudly, and the long sword was like a poisonous tongue spouting a letter, directly stabbing Levi Garrison’s heart.
laugh!
Because the speed was too fast, there was a sound of cutting through the air where the sword gang passed by.
Levi Garrison stood still, as if he was unaware of the approaching danger.
“This guy doesn’t hide?”

Advertisement
“I’m afraid I won’t react! The deputy sect master’s sword is known for being fast.” “Sword Gang can pierce a small world as far as he can, and even if he doesn’t die, he will be seriously injured!”
Most of the crowd watching the battle seemed to have seen the scene of Levi Garrison’s blood splashing on the spot.
However, Murong Qingxue and the few people who had seen Levi Garrison’s dragon vein battle were not so optimistic.
Advertisement
They had seen with their own eyes Levi Garrison’s near-perverted physical strength.
“court death!”
Seeing that Levi Garrison hadn’t dodged, the deputy suzerain immediately became furious, feeling that his majesty was being provoked, and then he increased his anger a bit.
The sword Gang formed the shape of a drill bit, spinning rapidly, as if it could penetrate all obstacles.
Ding!
A harsh metal collision sounded.
Everyone watched closely, and saw that the sword Gang was instantly offset by some invisible force, and the long sword stayed on the surface of Levi Garrison’s skin and couldn’t advance an inch.
“how can that be?”
The Deputy Sect Master was also shocked beyond measure.
Advertisement
Although the long sword in his hand is not a peerless weapon, it is also a top-grade weapon, especially after being warmed in the dragon veins for several years.
Coupled with the fact that he runs the exercises and activates the sword art, the powerful sword gang can easily cut through the super shield.
But this guy in front of him actually withstood the attack with his flesh and blood?

“The move is good, but the power is too small. Could it be that you learned this sword art from your sister-in-law?”
Levi Garrison said jokingly.
The vice sect master blushed, and suddenly became a little embarrassed.
“This is your courting death, no wonder this seat!”
The deputy sect master stepped back and ran the sword art again. He could clearly feel that the strength of the sword gang at the moment was ten times more violent than before.
“Xingyue Meteor Killing, the Deputy Sect Master is going to use his nirvana.”
“Who let Levi Garrison deceive people too much, humiliate in public, it’s strange that the deputy sect master doesn’t get angry!”
“This is a miserable surname Ye, it is estimated that there will be no bones left!”
The people of the Xingyue Divine Sect were talking a lot.
Levi Garrison heard the smile even more on his face, as if he didn’t pay attention to the nirvana of the deputy suzerain.
He even said in the tone of the elders commenting on the younger generation: “This time the strength of the sword gang is stronger, but it is still too weak.”
“I hope your mouth will be so hard after a while.”
Before he finished speaking, the deputy sect master launched an attack again.
This time, the deputy sect master was almost integrated with the long sword, forming a storm of sword gangs together with the sword.
It seems to involve the surrounding things and destroy it.
“Good come!”
Levi Garrison stretched out his right hand, turned his fist into a palm, and shot out against the sword gang’s edge.
Bang!
With the dull crashing sound, the originally terrifying Sword Gang Storm came to an abrupt end.
The images of the deputy sect master and the long sword became clearer and clearer, and

Levi Garrison's vigor in his palm remained undiminished, as if it would be useless to counteract the sword gang storm.
"retreat!"
Levi Garrison shouted in a low voice, and the violent Qi machine that had been staying in the distance roared out, directly sending the deputy sect master flying out.
The qi power released by Levi Garrison seemed to have been accurately measured, and it just shook the deputy sect master to the seat.
"This seat is defeated, be convinced!"
The deputy sect master put his long sword into the sheath, clasped his fists at Levi Garrison and said, "Thank you, Mr. Ye, for your mercy."
The deputy sect master clearly felt that Levi Garrison's strength was too much stronger than himself just now, but if he released a little more energy just now, he would either die or be seriously injured.
The most important thing is that Levi Garrison's ability to retract and release Qi is almost abnormal.
At first, he just offset the sword gang, and then he shook himself to the seat just right.
Looking at the entire Star Moon Sect, I am afraid that no one has achieved this level.

The vice suzerain conceded defeat in public, and there was an uproar at the scene.
Many people didn't even understand what was going on in the fight just now, and they didn't even see how Levi Garrison made his move.
"The deputy sect master lost in the situation of the actual killing sword art?"
"The surname Ye is too strong, right?"
"What are you panicking about, the sect master hasn't made a move! There are still a few elders who have not yet displayed their combined attack, and the surnamed Ye may not have the last laugh."

Mu Rong Wanqing's eyes were also very solemn, she was very aware of the cultivation realm of the deputy sect master.
Advertisement
Xingyueyun killed the angry blow so completely, but Levi Garrison was relaxed and comfortable, and it was obvious that he didn't do his best.
"Elders, prepare for a combined attack formation. This seat is on the periphery to cooperate with your attack."
Mu Rong Wanqing immediately gave an order: "Remember to just defeat Mr. Ye, don't hurt his life."
"As ordered!"
Advertisement
Dozens of elders came to the courtyard and stood in multiple positions, each of them quickly urging the exercises.
Buzz!
The air machine broke out and rotated rapidly, forming dozens of energy vortexes.
Over time, these energy vortexes began to connect with each other, forming an extremely terrifying energy whirlwind.
The energy whirlwind rapidly changed its position around the individual bodies of the elders.
"Please Mr. Ye break the formation!"
Mu Rong Wanqing's cold voice came.
Levi Garrison didn't hesitate at all, and jumped directly to the center of the combined formation.
"Even if you make a move, don't have any reservations. I don't want you to make any excuses after your defeat."
Advertisement
Levi Garrison said with a smile.
A hint of anger flashed in Mu Rong Wanqing's eyes.
To be honest, she just now had a heart of cherishing talent, and she had no intention of seriously hurting Levi Garrison. After all, the combined attack formation was unparalleled.

Coupled with the fact that he was in charge of the peripheral attacks and made up for the weak link of the joint formation, Levi Garrison basically had no chance of winning.
Never thought that Levi Garrison not only did not appreciate it, but even further provocative.
"The elders listened to the order and increased the power of the formation. Since Mr. Ye has this request, we have to try our best to meet it, right?"
Murong Qingxue said coldly.
"As ordered!"
The elders saw that Levi Garrison was holding his breath, but now he can finally be ashamed, and they spared no effort to mobilize the Qi machine to flood the joint attack formation.
The energy whirlwind in the big array became more and more terrifying. Hundreds of tons of boulders in the courtyard were uncontrollably sucked into the whirlwind, and they were turned into powder in an instant.
"That's interesting!"
Levi Garrison did not have any passive defense this time, but chose to take the initiative to attack and punch the violent energy whirlwind.
hum!
There was a faint sound of breaking the sound barrier in the void, and at this moment it seemed that the space was torn apart by the fist wind.
Boom boom boom!
At the moment when the first punch made contact with the energy whirlwind, there was a deafening impact sound, as if the Nine Heavens Divine Thunder!
"One punch can't be destroyed, then another punch!"
Levi Garrison punched again at the energy whirlwind.
The punch just now was only half-successful, but this one directly succeeded.
Bang!

The energy whirlwind formed by the joint attack formation seemed to be hit hard, and its power was almost shattered in an instant.
After a while, there were only a few thumb-sized energy whirlwinds spinning rapidly in the array.
"Come again!"
Levi Garrison was not in a hurry to break the formation.
However, before he finished speaking, he suddenly felt the evil wind behind him.
Levi Garrison didn't even turn his head back, and directly stuck out his two fingers, pinching the ancient sword in Mu Rongwanqing's hand with great precision.
"I never thought that Sect Master Murong was proficient in this way."
Levi Garrison teased: "But I said before, you can join forces at will."
"Go back to me!"
With a flick of Levi Garrison's finger, the powerful Qi machine directly collided with the blade.
Mu Rong Wanqing only felt that her arm was numb, and the ancient sword's blade trembled violently, almost letting go.
The whole person was even more shocked by the terrifying air machine.

Levi Garrison first smashed the energy whirlwind of the combined formation, and then flicked his fingers to fly Mu Rong Wanqing.
Such a terrifying personal combat power made the high-level petrochemical of the Sun
Moon God Sect present on the spot.
They even thought they were hallucinating.
"This joint attack formation can instantly strangle the masters of the sect master level, but was actually blown up by Levi Garrison's three fists?"
"The timing of the Sect Master's sneak attack was just right. It's unbelievable to think that Levi Garrison was still aware of it in advance!"
"Why do I have an ominous premonition!"
Advertisement

For the first time, the members of the Xingyue Shenzong were shaken by their belief in the invincibility of the sect.
The key point is that Levi Garrison didn't seem to be doing his best from beginning to end!
"Now it's my turn to attack. If your big formation can hold my three punches, I will lose this battle."
Levi Garrison said boldly.
Advertisement
A smile suddenly appeared on the corner of Mu Rong Wanqing's mouth, and she said solemnly, "I hope your words count."
In addition to the attack power, the joint attack formation can gather everyone's skills and burst out instantly.
But what this formation is more powerful is defense, which can hold back higher-level powerhouses to the greatest extent.
So Levi Garrison said that the three-fist break is basically equivalent to an idiot talking about a dream.
Just broke the energy whirlwind and released four punches, not to mention the defensive energy?
"Combine!"
Following Mu Rong Wanqing's order, the elders again urged the exercises.
Soon several incomparably thick energy shields appeared out of thin air, protecting the elders layer by layer.
"Break it for me!"
Advertisement
Levi Garrison's feet suddenly waited for the ground, and the whole person was like a human cannonball, smashing directly at the energy shield.
The fist slammed firmly on the energy shield. At this moment, it seemed to freeze in an instant, and everyone stared at the contact position of the fist shield.
Clap clap!
The energy shield suddenly cracked at a speed visible to the naked eye.
Boom!

After a while, the energy shield shattered.
The aftermath of the powerful energy slammed into the elders like a tsunami.
The formation of the joint attack formation was disorganized in an instant, and the elders simply did not have time to continue forming the formation to gather energy shields.
Bang bang bang!
Several dull voices sounded, and dozens of elders were shaken and flew out one after another, and they were all in a mess for a while.
Why three punches?
One punch!
The scene was dead silent, and everyone didn't even dare to come out.
Gollum!
Mu Rong Wanqing also swallowed hard.
She is most aware of the power of the joint attack formation. In terms of defensive power alone, even if she displays the strongest killing move, it is impossible for her to be defeated with a single blow.
"How terrifying is his power?"
Mu Rong Wanqing looked at Levi Garrison, who was as steady as Mount Tai, and the shock and horror in her heart couldn't be added.
To this day, Mu Rong Wanqing couldn't even think of any resistance.
"I'm not on the same level as him at all, and continuing to fight is just self-inflicted humiliation."
"And even with the punch just now, Levi Garrison seems to be able to handle it with ease?"
Mu Rong Wanqing sucked in a breath, she no longer dared to go down.
If Levi Garrison had murdered just now, I am afraid that dozens of elders have already returned to Jiuyou.
"Levi Garrison said before that he could destroy the entire Xingyue Sect. It's not arrogant at all."
"He can really do it."
Mu Rong Wanqing let out a long sigh, and announced directly to the members of the sect:
"From now on, the Xingyue Divine Sect will obey Mr. Ye's orders."

“Yes!”
Everyone agreed in unison, and no one stood up to object.
The strong people in the Kunlun Ruins are respected, and the terrifying strength displayed by Levi Garrison has convinced everyone in the Xingyue Divine Sect.
“The subordinates see the suzerain.”
Mu Rong Wanqing said respectfully.
The others followed suit, kneeling on the ground one after another, shouting to see the sect master.
Murong Qingxue was still in a trance even now.
In any case, she never thought that Levi Garrison would become the suzerain of the Xingyue Divine Sect in a blink of an eye.

“How exactly did he cultivate?”
Murong Qingxue was shocked beyond words.
Just now, Levi Garrison was almost effortlessly crushing the many masters of the Xingyue Divine Sect.
Levi Garrison said solemnly: “Since you follow me, I will naturally not treat you badly, everyone please get up!”
Everyone stood up one after another, and they were completely convinced by Levi Garrison’s terrifying strength.
In particular, Mu Rong Wanqing was even more convinced, she had no doubt that as long as Levi Garrison was willing, the entire Xingyue Divine Sect could be destroyed.
Advertisement
“Listen to Murong Qingxue saying that the Xingyue Shenzong has a close relationship with the Taixu Shenzong. Give me a detailed introduction to the situation of the Taixu
Shenzong.”
Levi Garrison said solemnly.
As the suzerain of the Xingyue Shenzong, Mu Rongwanqing has a deep understanding of

the Taixu Shenzong.
Introducing the situation to Levi Garrison also naturally fell to her.
Advertisement
"Sect Master, the Taixu Shenzong has seven holy sons and thirty-five elders, and the deputy suzerain and the suzerain are the strongest singles."
"On the whole, the overall strength of the Taixu Shenzong is on a par with the Xingyue Shenzong."
"But it is said that the Sect Master of the Taixu Shenzong has been in retreat for many years, and the specific combat strength is unknown. The two of us had a discussion a few years ago."
"In that battle, the two of us fought hundreds of rounds without a draw."
Levi Garrison was quite surprised when he heard this, he thought he was still some distance away from a sect of the level of Taixu Shenzong!
If you want to seek revenge for Gong Qianqiu, Sanshengzi and others, you must at least act cautiously, and it can even be said that you need to be careful to be foolproof.
I never thought that the Taixu Shenzong was not as terrifying as I imagined!
"They don't have any trump card like the Great Array of Protecting the Sect?"
Levi Garrison continued to ask.
Advertisement
Mu Rong Wanqing thought for a moment and said, "I don't know this very well, but even if there is, it won't be stronger than the defensive power of the elders' combined formation."
"Except for the top sects in the Kunlun Ruins, which have a defensive trump card similar to the Great Array of Protecting Sects, the middle sects like us still don't have that foundation."
"And this level of formation requires the cooperation of top spiritual masters and sect masters to arrange."
"What's more, the guardian formation must be based on the dragon veins, and with the strength of the middle sect, there is simply no way to create an extra dragon vein formation."

"I see!"
Levi Garrison suddenly realized that, after all, the middle sect did not have such a large cultivation resource to arrange a great formation to protect the sect.
"According to what you said, I can directly destroy the Taixu Shenzong now?"
"Will it be too risky?"
What the hell!
The people of the Xingyue Divine Sect were momentarily speechless.
Your old man has this kind of strength, still afraid?
"Ye Xian…Sect Master, the strength of the Taixu Shenzong and the Xingyue Shenzong are evenly matched, and you can overwhelm everything here."
"Naturally, it is also possible to destroy the Taixu Shenzong. The only place that may be a little tricky may be the suzerain of the Taixu Shenzong."
Murong Qingxue said suddenly.
"Isn't that Sect Master's strength comparable to yours?"
"Even if you are in seclusion for a few years, how much stronger can you go out?" Levi Garrison turned his eyes to Mu Rong Wanqing.
Mu Rong Wanqing hurriedly explained: "The sect master doesn't know anything, but it's not that the strength of the sect master of the Taixu Shen sect will be beyond imagination."
"But his identity is rather special. The Sect Master of the Taixu Shenzong comes from a super large sect. It is said that it is more terrifying than the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall."
"But I don't know why that sect master has never used the power of a super sect, and he is not in the Taixu Shenzong recently, and his whereabouts are unknown."
Although Mu Rong Wanqing's remarks were very euphemistic, Levi Garrison could also hear the worry in it.
I worry that once the Taixu Shenzong is destroyed, the super sect behind the sect master will take action against Levi Garrison.

At that time, there is a high probability that the Xingyue Divine Sect will also be affected by Chiyu.
Levi Garrison said with a smile: "It's okay, just destroy the Taixu Shenzong directly, and I will bear all the consequences alone."

the other side.
The Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy almost rushed out, looking like a madman to find the culprit who exhausted the power of the dragon veins.
The powerhouses of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy were all killed, and they even touched their inverse scales.
Luo Yunyang issued a death order, and he must bring down the real culprit behind the scenes, and personally lead people to investigate the truth of the matter.
After a detailed investigation by the Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy, it was finally determined that there were three sect members who might have threatened the black-robed leader and others.
They are the Seven Star Sect, the Xingyue Shenzong, and the Taixu Shenzong.
Advertisement
Luo Yunyang visited each sect to conduct in-depth investigations, and the entire army of the Seven Star Sect was destroyed.
In particular, Mo Junyan, the young master of the Seven Star Sect, was also on the death list.
After all, even if it is a bitter trick, the price is too high, so the suspicion is temporarily ruled out.
As for the Taixu Shenzong, the entire team must have all tails, but the Great Holy Son and others simply have no ability to exhaust the power of the dragon veins in one day.
Advertisement
In particular, there were other sects who were jointly expelled at that time as witnesses, who witnessed the Great Holy Son lead people away from the location of the Dragon Vessel.

Based on these two points, the suspicion of Taixu Shenzong was temporarily eliminated.
But in the Xingyue Divine Sect, some people saw that the saintess in the sect had led a team into the dragon vein range.
But the body of Murong Qingxue was not found at the scene.
It seems that even if the Xingyue Shenzong is not the real culprit behind the scenes, they can at least know the clues of the inside story.
"This seat will personally bring people to Xingshi to ask for guilt."
Luo Yunyang said in a cold tone.
Immediately, Luo Yunyang personally led a team of more than 20 people to rush to the Xingyue Shenzong.
There was nothing to say on the way, Luo Yunyang soon arrived at the Sun Moon Divine Sect, and Mu Rong Wanqing personally led someone to greet him.
Advertisement
After entering the main hall of the Xingyue Divine Sect, Luo Yunyang sat directly in the middle, as if this was his territory.
"What kind of broken tea leaves are these? Your Xingyue Divine Sect is also a medium-sized sect, and you can't even get some decent tea leaves?"
"It's really a pain in the back when running all the way. Come here and give Lao Tzu a squeeze and relax."
"Are you unconvinced by what you see? If you don't do it, I don't mind letting you disappear."
Several experts from the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy were arrogant, and actually directly sent the core high-level officials of the Star Moon Divine Sect to serve them.
There were all kinds of sarcasm and sarcasm in the words, and it was obvious that they didn't take the Star-Moon Divine Sect in the slightest.
In the face of this arrogance and arrogance, the members of the Xingyue Shenzong also dared not to speak out.

With the strength of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy and the Sun Moon Divine Fire
Temple behind them, the Star Moon Divine Sect was indeed insignificant in front of them.
Seeing his subordinates being arrogant and domineering, Luo Yunyang didn't say anything to stop him, and even encouraged him, taking the lead by the way.
Luo Yunyang's idea is easy to understand, just to give the Xingyue Divine Sect a dismantling, so that the next chapter will be more powerful.
"Mu Rong Wanqing, do you know the guilt?"
Luo Yunyang asked with a cold face.
Mu Rongwan was in a cold sweat. Luo Yunyang was the vice president of Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy, and she was definitely a powerful figure.
In particular, Luo Yunyang was still the top five elders of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace, which basically represented the attitude of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace.
"I don't know what crime Wanqing committed? Can Vice President Luo make it clear?"
Mu Rong Wanqing clearly felt that her voice was trembling. This was the first time he had come into close contact with a top sect's powerful figure.
"I think you are pretending to be confused. A few days ago, your saintess Murong Qingxue led the team to snatch the dragon veins."
"All the members of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy were killed, but Murong Qingxue retreated completely. What's the inside story, why don't you hurry up and recruit them?"
"If your answers are not satisfactory to this seat, then there is no need for the Xingyue Divine Sect to continue to exist."
Luo Yunyang's tone was extremely cold.

"Vice President Luo, this junior really doesn't know what happened."
Mu Rong Wanqing said with a bitter face.
With Levi Garrison on one side and Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy on the other, Mu Rong

Wanqing really didn't know how to respond except for the reply 'I don't know'.
No one on both sides can afford to offend. The key point is that Levi Garrison has not made any statement from beginning to end, and Mu Rongwanqing does not dare to make an assertion.
Luo Yunyang suddenly became angry, threw the teacup directly on the ground, and said coldly: "You dare to deceive this seat, you are courting death."
Mu Rong Wanqing looked at Levi Garrison from the corner of her eyes, hoping to get some clear instructions from the latter.
Advertisement
However, Levi Garrison was pacing back and forth at the moment, as if thinking about something.
Seeing that Mu Rong Wanqing didn't reply, Luo Yunyang was even more annoyed.
Just as he was about to continue to attack and put pressure on him, he saw Levi Garrison walking back and forth as if he was doing nothing.
"hateful!"
Advertisement
Luo Yunyang slammed the table.
Pointing at Levi Garrison's location with a little bit, he said coldly, "Kneel down and apologize to this seat, or you will die today."
The rest of the Xingyue Divine Sect were silent, and some people even fell to the ground, how dare this person even walk around?
This is simply challenging the majesty of the Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy, which makes Luo Yunyang feel that his face has been damaged.
"You dare to let Lao Tzu kneel?"
Levi Garrison paused and continued: "I'm called Levi Garrison, and the person you're looking for is Laozi."
"The people from the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy in the Land of Dragon Vein also died at the hands of Lao Tzu."
"You immortal, now that you know the truth, what can you do to me?"

A stone stirred up a thousand waves.
Advertisement
Hearing this, there was an uproar at the scene.
"Why did the sect master admit it himself?"
"Luo Yunyang is very powerful. If he were to leave today, the Xingyue Divine Sect would definitely be destroyed by the academy and even the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall."
"Hey, it's troublesome this time."
The disciples of the Xingyue Divine Sect were suddenly surprised and panicked. Levi Garrison's actions were tantamount to declaring war with the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy.
The key point is that this person in front of him is the deputy dean of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy. His cultivation realm is unfathomable. Isn't this just hitting the gun himself?
There is absolutely no need to admit it, only to deny the real situation of the Dragon Veins dispute, even Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy can do nothing.
"It turned out that he did it, how is this possible?"
"This guy's cultivation is mediocre, can he kill the college supervisor and others?"
"No matter what, this bastard must be killed, and it is an unforgivable sin to dare to challenge the majesty of our Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy."
The members of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy were mostly incredulous and angry.
They hadn't paid attention to Levi Garrison before, especially Luo Yunyang who had conducted a strength investigation and found nothing unusual.
Even the current Levi Garrison, in Luo Yunyang's eyes, is nothing more than a mediocre little fish.
"Levi Garrison?"
Luo Yunyang quickly searched in his mind for the great figures of many sects, but did not find that this name existed.
"Whether you did it or not, you must die today, kill him!"
Luo Yunyang said in a cold tone.
"As ordered!"

Several members of the Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy swarmed up and surrounded Levi
Garrison.
Mu Rong Wanqing and the other core executives of the Divine Star and Moon Sect suddenly felt their scalps go numb, and there was no room for recovery.
Levi Garrison is now the nominal suzerain of the Xingyue Shenzong after all, and it would be unreasonable if he didn't help.
But they really didn't have enough courage and ability to deal with the masters of Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy, and it was difficult for them to ride a tiger for a while.
"If you want the entire sect to be destroyed, you can help."
Luo Yunyang was exceptionally keen, and naturally felt the subtle changes in the scene.
Although the Xingyue Divine Sect was a medium-sized sect, if they fought desperately, they would definitely suffer heavy casualties if they brought these people by themselves.
"You don't have to shoot, I am enough."
Levi Garrison said with a smile.

despise!
N*ked contempt!*
The members of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy suddenly felt angry.
Even in large sects in general, they are treated as guests.
It's a sin that deserves death for a mere scoundrel of a middle-class sect to dare to look down on them like this.
Mu Rong Wanqing and others also let out a sigh of relief, they really didn't want to tear their face with Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy.
Advertisement
"Don't waste time, let's go together!"
Levi Garrison hooked his fingers at Luo Yunyang, full of provocation.
Luo Yunyang said with a sneer: "Isn't this seat too embarrassing for you? You'd better survive in their hands first!"

Levi Garrison smiled without saying a word, he chose to fight alone with a special meaning.
Advertisement
Although they are now using force to forcibly suppress the Xingyue Sect to become the suzerain, they may not be completely convinced in the hearts of these people.
Especially in the face of superpowers like Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy, these people's determination to follow themselves will be even more shaken.
But as long as it is easy to kill the masters of the super sect in front of everyone, the last trace of worries and shackles in their hearts will be completely cut off.
"kill!"
One of the little leaders of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy burst out.
The others shot in an instant, palm wind, fist wind, sword gang, and sword light crisscrossed, giving Levi Garrison no chance to escape at all.
"Break it for me!"
Levi Garrison's eyes were cold and harsh, and he suddenly released his energy to this kind of person.
The violent energy breath smashed towards everyone like a tsunami.

Bang bang bang!
Several figures were shaken and flew out.
It wasn't until after they fell to the ground that others discovered that the attackers' meridians had been cut off.
Although there is still a breath left, it is no different from a vegetative person.
sizzle!
Everyone gasped involuntarily.
"Levi Garrison is so strong?"
This thought filled the hearts of everyone present.
The Xingyue Shenzong was shocked by Levi Garrison's terrifying power, and even when they were discussing at the beginning, they were far less powerful than the power they showed now.
At that time, Levi Garrison not only had reservations, but also retained so much?

Luo Yunyang and other members of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy were simply amazed at Levi Garrison's strength.
It is really terrifying to be able to shock these people to the point where their meridians are completely cut off by the Qi machine alone.
"Even this seat may not be able to achieve this level."
The expression in Luo Yunyang's eyes gradually became solemn.
"Don't hold back any more, go all out to kill him."
Luo Yunyang gave the order again.
Levi Garrison had an even more smile on his face, and he swept away at high speed.
"Want to escape? It's a fool's dream, chase it!"
Luo Yunyang took the lead in chasing him out. He thought that Levi Garrison had exhausted his physical strength with the blow just now, and now he wants to escape.
However, when he chased outside, he found that Levi Garrison was standing with his hands on his shoulders, apparently waiting for his own troops to chase after him.
"you wanna die!"
Luo Yunyang was completely angry, and what Levi Garrison did was a provocation of the red scorpion.
While speaking, other Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy personnel rushed out and surrounded Levi Garrison.
"Come on together and smash him into pieces!"
Luo Yunyang said in a condensed voice.
However, before the words fell, Levi Garrison's figure disappeared first.
"Be careful behind you!"
Luo Yunyang hurriedly reminded the subordinates in front of him.
However, it's too late!
Levi Garrison slapped the back of his head with a palm, and the man died on the spot without even uttering a word.
"You all have to die today!"
Levi Garrison's cold voice sounded in everyone's ears, but no one could find his trace.
"Ahhh!"
After a while, screams in the courtyard came one after another.
Levi Garrison is like a messenger from hell wielding the scythe of the god of death, and a fresh life is taken away by the wind.

In just three or five minutes, all the members of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy had been killed.
"Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy is only at this level? It's really disappointing!" Levi Garrison said quietly.

Levi Garrison's face was relaxed and comfortable, as if he had just done a trivial thing.
sizzle!
The sound of sucking cold air was constantly heard from the scene.
The members of the Xingyue Shenzong also felt a chill in their hearts, and they were even a little glad that Levi Garrison was merciful at the time, otherwise they would not have escaped death.
Although they heard Murong Qingxue say that Levi Garrison had slaughtered the experts from the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy, what they saw with their own eyes was another matter.
They once thought that Levi Garrison would have the last laugh, but they never thought that he would win so easily.
Advertisement
In the depths of everyone's hearts, the absurd thought that "top sectarian power is nothing but the same" arises.
Luo Yunyang was also horrified. These people are all elites of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy. How could they be so vulnerable in front of Levi Garrison?
"Who exactly are you?"
Luo Yunyang asked in a cold voice.
Advertisement
Luo Yunyang already suspected that Levi Garrison came from a peak powerhouse of a superpower, otherwise he would never have reached such a terrifying cultivation level.
"You don't deserve to know!"

Levi Garrison sneered and said, "Don't talk nonsense, now it's your turn to die."
"Insanity!"
Although Luo Yunyang was shocked by Levi Garrison's strength, he would never sit still.
Of course, Luo Yunyang also thought about escaping, but then he would fall into absolute passivity.
The situation of this pair of top powerhouse rivals will be fatal once they fall into a passive position, and it might be better to fight head-on and perhaps deserve a chance of survival.
"go to hell!"
The long sword pierced out, and the sword gang surged, as if to pierce the void out of a ravine.
Advertisement
Levi Garrison did not retreat but advanced, and punched the sword Gang.
The two were instantly fighting together.
After simply testing the depth, Levi Garrison suddenly lost interest.
Luo Yunyang's cultivation is really not bad, even if Mu Rong Wanqing is far behind, but it is still not on a level compared to himself.
"Your subordinates haven't gone far on Huangquan Road. I will send you to accompany them, so as not to be lonely."
While speaking, Levi Garrison threw several punches in a row, completely blocking the direction that Luo Yunyang might avoid.
Luo Yunyang couldn't dodge in time, and he was punched two times in succession in the chest, and the sound of bones shattering suddenly appeared.
The whole person is like a cannonball embedded in the thick wall of the Sun Moon
Shenzong.
However, Levi Garrison didn't give him any chance to catch his breath at all, so he stepped forward, stuck out three fingers and clasped his throat, and twisted suddenly.
Gaba!
The crisp sound of broken bones sounded, and Luo Yunyang's eyes were filled with extreme unwillingness to die.

After finishing all the powerhouses of Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy neatly, Levi Garrison said with a smile: "Send someone to clean up the courtyard, it's too messy."
The scene was dead silent, and after a while there was an uproar.
"He actually did it!"
"Isn't Luo Yunyang too weak? In front of Levi Garrison… Sect Master, he has no power to fight back?"
"Weak your uncle! Luo Yunyang can destroy the entire Xingyue Divine Sect by himself, but the Sect Master is too strong to make him vulnerable."
The courtyard and the reception hall were quickly cleaned up, and Levi Garrison was drinking tea leisurely, with a relaxed and comfortable face.
It was in stark contrast to the solemn expressions of the rest of the Sun Moon Shenzong.
"Sect Master, this is equivalent to declaring war with Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy and even Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall!"
"With the strength of the Star-Moon Divine Sect, it's really impossible to compete, you still have to think about how to deal with it in advance!"
Mu Rong Wanqing said worriedly.
Levi Garrison's strength is strong, but the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace is a real big sect, and the network resources of experts are scattered everywhere.
As long as someone is sent to hold Levi Garrison, the Xingyue Shenzong will die without a burial.
"It doesn't matter, they dare to come, and they will be destroyed together!"
Levi Garrison paused and added: "What's more, as long as you don't say it, who would know that Luo Yunyang and others died in the Xingyue Shenzong?"
"Okay, I still have important things to do next, Murong Qingxue go with me!"
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 3985 - 3990 -
After settling the specific matters of the Xingyue Sect, Levi Garrison took Murong Qingxue on the road alone.

Now that the strength of the Taixu Shenzong has been ascertained, it is time to seek revenge for them.
It's just that Taixu Shenzong is far away from Xingyue Shenzong, and it has to cross Yulong City in the middle.
Walking on the road, Levi Garrison's thoughts surged.
After thinking about entering the Kunlun Ruins, I went all the way very smoothly.
Not only did he successfully consume a large dragon vein, but he also took the Xingyue Divine Sect as his own.
Advertisement
"Gong Qianqiu, you'd better cherish the last few moments."
"There are also the Three Holy Sons, the Great Holy Son, and the people of the Taixu Shenzong. You'd better be aware of current affairs and not interfere."
"Otherwise, Lao Tzu doesn't mind directly destroying the Taixu Shenzong."
Levi Garrison secretly made up his mind.
Advertisement
With the Xingyue Shenzong as a reference, the Taixu Shenzong has been completely ignored by Levi Garrison.
"Mr. Ye, the forest in front is called the dark and dead zone by the surrounding people.
There are often masters of loose cultivators who kill people and steal goods. We'd better be careful."
Murong Qingxue said respectfully.
Murong Qingxue didn't even think that Levi Garrison would only take him on the road.
Before she set off, she was even ordered by Mu Rong Wanqing to hug Levi Garrison's thigh at all costs.
Although the bodies of Luo Yunyang and others have been cleaned up, sooner or later this incident will happen.
At that time, the Xingyue Divine Sect will face the double anger of the Sun Moon Divine

Fire Academy and the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple. Only by stabilizing Levi Garrison can he survive this disaster.
However, on the way, Murong Qingxue also expressed his willingness to give everything, but he was ignored by Levi Garrison.
This made Murong Qingxue hit hard. She used to be the goddess of heaven and the goddess in the eyes of countless young talents.
Advertisement
Levi Garrison said with a relaxed face: "If they want to die, they can come and grab it."
The corners of Murong Qingxue's mouth twitched, speaking at a high level of cultivation is domineering.
The two walked into the jungle side by side, and there was nothing unusual at first, but when they came to the depths of the jungle, they were suddenly blocked by dozens of figures.
These people were all wearing scarlet robes, with a black skeleton embroidered on their chests, suddenly looking extremely ferocious.
"It's the people of the Blood Shadow Pavilion. This organization has done all kinds of crimes to assassinate, snatch, and detect information. Almost everyone is a desperado."
Murong Qingxue's expression did not change, and her voice trembled.
Levi Garrison didn't care at all, since this organization blocked his way, he must be mentally prepared for the destruction of the entire army.
These Blood Shadow Pavilion members received an order from the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy not long ago to collect information on the day of the Dragon Veins Contest.
He never thought that he would run into Murong Qingxue during the mission.
These people have coveted the Holy Maiden of the Star Moon Sect for a long time, but Murong Qingxue usually has many experts to accompany her in and out, and they don't have a good chance to start.

However, after receiving information before this action, Murong Qingxue actually only took one person to go out to do errands.
Especially that person is a waste monkey who has just entered the Kunlun Ruins from the mundane world.
Simply a godsend.
And soon the blood shadow pavilion powerhouse got the message again, there are several forces coming in this direction, obviously the target is Murong Qingxue.
After all, Murong Qingxue not only had a high talent for cultivation, but also his temperament and appearance were of the highest quality. Such a character would be more in line with the highest standards of a dual cultivator.
"The Xingyue Shenzong and the Blood Shadow Pavilion have no grievances or enmity, so why do you have to force each other?" Murong Qingxue said coldly.
The leader of the Blood Shadow Pavilion sneered and said, "That was before, and now the Xingyue Divine Sect is already the suspect of Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy."
"Our Blood Shadow Pavilion will naturally take the lead. Of course, if the saint is willing to serve me well, I can consider spare your life."
"Otherwise, don't blame this seat for the hot hand to destroy the flowers."
Not long ago, the senior management of Sun Moon Fire Seminary issued an order to find the whereabouts of Vice President Luo Yunyang.
And the Blood Shadow Pavilion is nearby, so naturally, it is the first to arrive at this only road and wait for the rabbit.
"Mr. Ye, these people are powerful. I'm afraid I'm not an opponent. I ask you to help."
Murong Qingxue said in a low voice.
Levi Garrison said with a smile: "You can just watch from the side, these little fish can't make any waves."
"Hahaha! A mere monkey in the secular world is not afraid of the wind flashing its tongue?" The leader of the Blood Shadow Pavilion laughed on his back. "Noisy!"

Levi Garrison didn't say more, and disappeared directly into a shadow.
Before the members of the Blood Shadow Pavilion could react, Levi Garrison had already come to the crowd.
clap clap clap!
Levi Garrison raised his hands and fell, and in an instant, he took the lives of three blood shadow pavilion powerhouses.
"So fast! So strong!"
The leader of the Blood Shadow Pavilion involuntarily took a breath.
He didn't even see how Levi Garrison made his move, and his elite subordinates had already died.
"Go together!"
The leader of the Blood Shadow Pavilion said angrily.
Everyone rushed up, but the strength gap between the two sides was too great, and Levi Garrison basically belonged to a unilateral massacre.
Before half a column of incense, this team of Blood Shadow Pavilion powerhouses all fell into a pool of blood, with no vitality.
"Let's go!" Levi Garrison waved at Murong Qingxue and said.
Only then did Murong Qingxue come back to her senses, every time she saw Levi Garrison fighting, it would have a big impact on her spirit.
You must know that these Blood Shadow Pavilion powerhouses can almost match the core combat power of any medium-sized sect.
However, he was still vulnerable in front of Levi Garrison.
It was recorded that the two of them were intercepted by many forces, and their target was Murong Qingxue.
But without exception, these interception teams were crushed and killed by Levi
Garrison.
"I didn't expect you to be quite popular, these people are bound to win!"
Levi Garrison joked.
Murong Qingxue rolled her eyes, and couldn't help but slander, "Isn't that also unable to enter your old man's magic eye?

Next, the two continued to travel for five consecutive days, and finally came to the largest city on this route – Yulong City.
This Royal Dragon City is quite magnificent. There are heavy defensive giant crossbows at the top of the city wall, and there are tens of thousands of city defense troops.
The entrance and exit of the city gate must be checked in detail, and the city defense registration is required to successfully enter the interior of Yulong City.
"Let's rest here for two days now. You also used up a lot of physical strength before."
Levi Garrison said lightly.
He is not in a hurry to go to the Taixu Shenzong now. After all, the result is already predictable, and it is okay to let Gong Qianqiu and others wait a few more days.
"it is good!"
Murong Qingxue let out a sigh of relief. During this period of time, she had been intercepted many times.
Although Levi Garrison took the shot, she also put in a lot of effort, and coupled with the non-stop rush, the physical exertion was not small.
The two entered a restaurant, ordered a whole table of delicacies, and rested while eating.
"I heard there is no? Recently, a fierce beast appeared in the eastern suburbs of Yulong City, specializing in eating powerful monks."
"What kind of monster is it, someone has seen it with his own eyes, that is a person, but his appearance is very ferocious, and he was mistaken for a monster."
"And he is not a monk, even some powerful beasts will become his first choice."
"This devil has been active in the suburbs recently, and it is hard to guarantee that he will not break into the city to make waves. Have you seen the notice posted in the guard house to recruit powerful loose repairers?"
"If you want me to say that if you have a chance, escape from Yulong City! Tens of thousands of city defense troops are powerless against the devil, let alone those of us with low cultivation bases."

Everyone was talking and panicking.
Levi Garrison listened while eating and felt the strangeness of Kunlun Ruins again.
At this moment, neat and rhythmic footsteps could be heard outside.
Levi Garrison turned his head to look, and saw hundreds of heavily armed city defense troops passing by quickly, their faces were all very solemn.
"All merchants and residents are not allowed to go out unless absolutely necessary.
There are monsters in the outskirts of the city. They specialize in eating people with high cultivation bases. Everyone should be careful."
The deputy general of the city defense army announced loudly.
The news of the cannibal was confirmed, causing everyone to panic again.
Even those who had previously proposed to take the opportunity to escape from Yulong
City stopped talking. After all, no one knew where the devil would appear next time.
It didn't take long for the city defense army to send a message again that the meateating devil was rushing to Yulong City, and all the monks who went to investigate the situation fell.
For a time, people were panicked again. In order to stabilize the hearts of the people, the city defense army sent heavy troops to protect the civilians and the monks of various small sects.
Many sects were also instantly tense, and the swords were drawn out of their sheaths and the arrows were wound, and they were ready to fight.
"You have been in Kunlun Ruins for a long time, have you heard of this kind of monster before?" Levi Garrison asked curiously.
Murong Qingxue shook his head and said, "The fierce beasts in the Kunlun Ruins are never picky eaters, no matter how high or low they are, they will attack."
"Perhaps someone is pretending to be a ghost and deliberately causing panic among the imperial staff in order to achieve some kind of ulterior motive?”

Levi Garrison nodded, this speculation is indeed very possible.
“Mr. Ye, why don’t we hurry up and leave this place of right and wrong!” Murong Qingxue said solemnly.
“Didn’t you hear that Yulong City is now closed? You can’t go out even if you want to go out.”
Levi Garrison said with a smile: “Don’t worry, let’s just see what this devil is?”
Levi Garrison’s curiosity was indeed aroused, and he even looked forward to meeting this devil.
After the two had eaten, they stayed at the inn, but Murong Qingxue was very nervous.
Fortunately, the two people’s rooms are next to each other. If there is any emergency,
Levi Garrison can come to support in time.
The rumors of the devil eating people kept increasing, and the entire Yulong City fell into extreme panic.
The many sects and civilians in the city are also living in panic, and the whole city seems to be covered with a heavy shadow.
“Seven or eight small sects have already been eaten by monsters, and there are many strong ones, but they cannot escape death.” “This devil is too strong! The pressure on the city defense army has doubled, and the conscription has already begun.” “Hey, Yulong City is also completely sealed. It is said that many strong people who were preparing to escape secretly were all eaten without exception.”
“Are we going to be buried with the entire Yulong City?”
Rumors spread all over for a while. At the beginning of the period, some people doubted whether it was a rumor. Later, after the city defense army confirmed it one after another, everyone gave up completely.
Can’t escape, and can’t fight, as if there is only one road left to wait for death.

Fear spreads rapidly in the hearts of everyone in Yulong City, and there is no one on the streets of the city except the guards patrolling.
Murong Qingxue proposed to leave Yulong City again, she didn't want to be buried in the devil's mouth.
But then I heard that the strong people who escaped from the city were also eaten by the devil without exception, and instantly gave up the idea of leaving.
Levi Garrison doesn't care, it's okay to stay and see the devil.
Especially later, Levi Garrison vaguely heard that the Cang Qiong faction was also attacked by the devil, and he was a little worried about Xiao Feng's safety.
Although Xiao Feng made a mistake and immediately left the base camp, Levi Garrison didn't ask too much, but after all, he valued this apprentice very much.
If you really want to say that you don't care about Xiao Feng's life or death, Levi Garrison really can't do it.
"The devil came in from the east gate, let's run!"
At this moment, a cry of exclamation reached Levi Garrison's ears.
A look of panic flashed across Murong Qingxue's face. During this time, he had heard too much information about demons eating people.
Even several small sects were eaten clean, which made Murong Qingxue feel terrified.
"I'm going to see what's going on? You stay here and don't walk around."
Levi Garrison said solemnly.
Without giving Murong Qingxue a chance to respond, Levi Garrison's figure had already disappeared.
The corner of Murong Qingxue's mouth twitched, she wanted to go with her, after all, only you, Levi Garrison, can give her a sense of security.
But Levi Garrison's speed was too fast, with Murong Qingxue's movement technique he couldn't catch up at all.
In desperation, Murong Qingxue could only give up and find a hidden place to hide.
Levi Garrison was extremely fast, and it didn't take long for him to arrive at the site of the incident – the east gate of Yulong City.

Of course, Levi Garrison came to see Recoo this time, and it didn't involve his own interests, so he didn't want to intervene.
After all, this is the Kunlun Ruins. As for the life and death of the people in it, what does it have to do with him?
Sure enough, hundreds of city defense troops were besieging a monster.
The reason why it is called a monster is because the trapped person wears black armor, the helmet is also jet black, and the long hair shawl hides the face.
In addition, this person has obviously been killed with red eyes, and his face is stained with blood, making it even more impossible to see his original appearance.
"Ahhh!"
The screams of the city defense army continued to come from the city gate. Even though they had an advantage in numbers, they were still unable to injure the black armored monsters.
The black-armored monsters rushed forward, and the city defense troops were either killed or wounded wherever the fist wind swept through.
"Ow!"
The black armored monster roared and grabbed the two city guards with one hand.
Immediately, they felt that the qi in their bodies was quickly attracted by some kind of force.
In just a moment, the power of the two people was completely absorbed, and even the blood and qi were dried up, and in the end, only two bones were left.
"The monster is not eating people at all, but absorbing people's blood and skill."
To this day, the city defense forces finally figured out what happened to the monster eating people.
"Everyone lined up, you must kill them today, otherwise there will be no trouble…"
Before a city defense leader could finish speaking, he was grabbed by the black armor monster with both hands.

Until the last moment, the city defense chief had panic and anxiety in his eyes.
After the black armored monster devoured several leaders of the city defense army with strong cultivation, the strength of the whole person continued to skyrocket, and it was almost unstoppable.
The city defense army was killed several times in a row, even though they have experienced many brutal battles, they have never encountered such a difficult opponent.
"The big thing is bad, the defense formation has been broken."
"The moat and the strong crossbow can't cause damage to him, we can't hold it anymore."
"Get out!"
The city defense troops had no intention of fighting, and they scattered.
However, in the eyes of the black armor monster, this situation is an excellent opportunity to attack.
His body is as fast as lightning, and he absorbs the strength and blood of the city defense army with an extremely fast speed.
In less than half an hour, the east gate of Yulong City was completely breached.
The city defense formation collapsed, the heavy defense equipment was destroyed, and the city defense army suffered heavy casualties.
If the SLR-equipped black-armored monster catches it, it will be sucked into dead bones directly.
This situation made the city defense army even more frightened, and they were beaten to pieces for a while.
As for the ordinary people and small sects in the city, they didn't dare to stay where they were, and they all fled wildly.
Levi Garrison returned to the inn after observing from a distance for a while. He was also afraid of Murong Qingxue's unfortunate death, after all, the latter had to lead him to

the Taixu Shenzong.
"What kind of path is this devil? This force is very violent!"
Levi Garrison is even more curious about the background of the big devil.
The previous city defense troops were also quite strong in combination, and they were still killed without their armor and armor.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 3991 -
When Levi Garrison returned to the inn, he found that Murong Qingxue's room had been surrounded by the city defense army.
"What's the situation?"
Levi Garrison was a little puzzled. The East City Gate was breached, and the city defense army didn't go to guard it. How could he still find Murong Qingxue?
"Saint, now that Yulong City is at the point of life and death, you must lend a helping hand!"
"I have always been on good terms with the Xingyue Divine Sect. If Sect Master Murong knows about this, he will send someone to help."
The speaker was a burly middle-aged man, wearing golden armor and holding a long spear, looking majestic.
Advertisement
It was Sikong Jinghong, the owner of Yulong City.
When Levi Garrison heard this, he understood that these people were not looking for trouble, but came to ask for help.
The city defense army suffered heavy casualties, and all the experts who were dispatched to assist by the guard house were absorbed in their skills.
Sikong Jinghong really had no choice but to learn that Murong Qingxue, the saintess of the Xingyue Sect, was here, so he came over to ask for help.
Advertisement
"City Lord Sikong, I am afraid that the Xingyue Divine Sect really can't recruit strong people, unless…"

Murong Qingxue looked around, just looking at Levi Garrison who was standing outside, and said solemnly: "Unless Mr. Ye is willing to help, Yulongcheng will be able to survive this disaster."
Everyone turned around and looked in the direction of Levi Garrison.
"he?"
A look of disdain flashed in Sikong Jinghong's eyes, but he still asked politely, "May I ask what is so special about this Mr. Ye?"
Murong Qingxue didn't know how to explain for a while.
After all, Levi Garrison had something to say before, so he couldn't reveal his true identity, so as not to surprise the Taixu Shenzong.
Seeing this situation, Sikong Jinghong did not ask any further questions, but continued to explain the situation of the black armored devil.
"The Holy Maiden doesn't know that this big devil is not eating people at all, but simply devouring everything the monks have."
Advertisement
"He who is weaker than him will devour, and who is slightly stronger than him, he will devour even more, and the person who is swallowed will be reduced to a dead bone."
"A monk with a realm of strength like the Holy Maiden will definitely become the first target of the big devil."
Sikong Jinghong's explanation immediately caught Levi Garrison's attention.
"Could it be Gong Qianqiu? I didn't look like a figure from a distance just now."
"Could it be Duguxiao?"
Such thoughts flashed in Levi Garrison's mind instantly, after all, these two people practiced the extreme devouring technique.
Of course, it is not excluded that there are people who practice similar exercises in the Kunlun Ruins.
"City Lord Sikong, I understand what you mean, but I really can't control this matter."

Murong Qingxue looked at Levi Garrison again, and said in a deep voice, "Actually, as long as Mr. Ye is willing to take action, the entire Yulong City can be kept safe and sound."
"Holy maiden, I've talked about this, why do you still shirk it?"
"Yeah, Holy Maiden, even if you don't want to take care of Yulongcheng's life or death, you don't need to bring out a little scoundrel to take the blame, right?"
"I have been to the Xingyue Divine Sect many times, and the high-level people basically know him. I have never met this person. How can you only obey his orders?"
"With his level of cultivation, I'm afraid he'll be sucked to death immediately when he encounters a big devil."
Everyone was already full of anger, and coupled with the fear of the big devil, now that they had this outlet, they all began to target Levi Garrison.
Of course, the elites of the guard house, including Sikong Jinghong, did not look down on Levi Garrison, and the strength detected was mediocre.
"You really are…"
Murong Qingxue abruptly swallowed the words 'I have eyes but don't know Mount Tai', because he felt Levi Garrison's fierce gaze.
Levi Garrison sneered in his heart, the life and death of Yulongcheng was not his business.
Coupled with the fact that everyone looked down on him so much, he didn't even plan to take action.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 3992 -
"City Lord, the big thing is bad, the big devil has already been killed."
At this moment, a panicked voice came from the periphery of the crowd.
Sikong Jinghong paled in shock. According to the report of his subordinates, he had no idea that the big devil was powerful.
"Let's go together and strangle him at any cost."
Sikong Jinghong said with a hard head.

The elite of the guard house was in high spirits, and rushed in the direction of the big devil again.
Advertisement
From a distance, thousands of city defense troops and elites of the guard house occupy the entire street, even on the roof of the courtyard wall next to the street.
However, the big devil in black armor was like a god and a demon descending into the world, and he rampaged against the crowd for a while.
Not only that, the black armored devil is absorbing other people's skills at any time.
This created a weird cycle, the black armored monster became more and more brave, and his strength became stronger and stronger.
Advertisement
On the other hand, the City Defense Army and the Guard House lost their confidence after the war, and their top-level combat power became less and less, and they were almost swallowed up.
"Ahhh!"
The screams came one after another, and the streets were originally full of people, but at this moment, they were killed several times.
The staff of Yulongcheng almost fell into pieces. This scene was so terrifying that almost everyone was scared to death.
Sikong Jinghong and the elite of the guard house completely regretted it. More than half of their subordinates had been killed or injured, and the number was still increasing rapidly.
"Mr. Ye, right, I was offended a lot before, I hope you don't remember the villain's deeds, please help me!"
Sikong Jinghong pleaded with a crying voice.
"Also ask Mr. Ye to help, we know it's wrong."
"Mr. Ye, if it is delayed, our entire Royal Dragon City will not be guaranteed."
Advertisement
"Mr. Ye, I kowtow to you as an apology."

Many people fell to their knees, even Sikong Jinghong bowed nearly ninety degrees.
Levi Garrison said solemnly: "The opportunity has been given to you, you don't cherish it, no wonder I!"
"No matter what you say, I won't shoot, you can do it yourself!"
Why!
The scene sighed again and again.
"what!"
Another shrill scream rang out.
Everyone turned their heads to look and saw that the guard house elites who were originally guarding the outside of the inn had all been killed.
Fear and despair fill everyone's heart.
Seeing that the big devil is getting closer and fewer, there are fewer and fewer guards' elites standing in front of them, and everyone has no courage to resist.
The big devil is too strong, and the gap between the strengths of the two sides is too great, which cannot be compensated by the advantage of numbers.
Seeing that there were fewer and fewer elites in the guard house, Sikong Jinghong's eyes were filled with panic and despair, and his eyes gradually became empty.
"The guard house is over! The Royal Dragon City is over! Everything is over!"
Sikong Jinghong muttered to himself.
However, at this moment, the big devil in black armor saw Levi Garrison at the back of the crowd at a glance, he was slightly startled, then turned and ran away.
The speed was extremely fast, as if some kind of creature saw the natural enemy and fled in embarrassment.
"what's going on?"
Everyone was puzzled and felt incredible.
What did the bloodthirsty and cruel big devil see that made him so frightened?
Murong Qingxue was also full of question marks.
The first thing she thought of was that the big devil felt Levi Garrison's terrifying strength and knew that he was so far away that he was worried about being killed, so he turned and ran away.

But soon Murong Qingxue put aside this idea again.
Because she knew that Levi Garrison was deliberately suppressing his cultivation, even the masters Mu Rongwanqing and Luo Yunyang could not find out his true state.
And the strength of the big devil is obviously inferior to that of Master and Luo Yunyang, and it is even more impossible to detect Levi Garrison's strength.
"Then why?"
"This is the first time Levi Garrison has come to Kunlun Ruins, and it is impossible to recognize him!"
Murong Qingxue was puzzled, and then turned her attention to Levi Garrison.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 3993 -
Murong Qingxue found that Levi Garrison also had a little doubt in his eyes.
In fact, Levi Garrison really didn't understand why the black armored devil suddenly fled?
"Could it be that I found out my cultivation realm?"
This idea was just abandoned by Levi Garrison.
The cultivation realm of the black armored devil is not as good as his own, and Levi Garrison does not feel that the other party releases energy for exploration.
"Could it be an acquaintance?"

Thinking of this, Levi Garrison's eyes instantly became gloomy.
There are only a handful of people who have entered the Kunlun Ruins from the secular world, and even fewer have the extreme ability to swallow.
Gong Qianqiu, Duguxiao and Xiao Feng.
Of course, it is not ruled out that Gong Qianqiu will teach the extreme swallowing exercises to others.

But judging from the strength of the black armored devil, the black armored devil has been practicing devouring exercises for a long time.

Therefore, other monks taught by Gong Qianqiu can be temporarily excluded.
"Judging from the figure, the monster in black armor should be a man, and Gong Qianqiu can be excluded."
"Duguxiao and Xiao Feng are quite compatible, and they are quite familiar with themselves."
Levi Garrison's eyes narrowed slightly, and he began to recall many details just now.
Especially at the moment of looking at the big black armored devil, Levi Garrison clearly felt a sense of familiarity.
"Levilia once said that if you practice the extreme swallowing exercise, if you absorb the power of the strong for a long time, the skeletal muscles will change, and it may even be completely unrecognizable."
"Because of this, those who practice the extreme phagocytosis must find the spiritual veins to devour, but this also involves the upper limit of the body's endurance."
"It is difficult to judge the identity of the practitioners of the Devouring Cultivation Technique simply by looking at them. It can only be determined by investigating from other aspects."

At this moment, Murong Qingxue suddenly asked, "Mr. Ye, did you find something?"
As soon as the words fell, the surviving guard house elites and the city defense army turned their attention to Levi Garrison.
Now Levi Garrison is their only hope, and even every move is related to the life and death of the entire Yulong City.
"Nothing, I need to confirm the situation, you go with me."
After Levi Garrison finished speaking, he took Murong Qingxue and chased in the direction where the black armored devil left.
The big devil in black armor ran all the way, the speed has reached the extreme, and there are only afterimages left.

Not knowing how far he ran out, the black armored devil finally stopped in the depths of a dense forest.
He was behind the demon king and used energy aura to detect, but he didn't find someone chasing after him, so he breathed a long sigh of relief.
"It seems that Master has not discovered my true identity."
The big devil in black armor looked down at his palm, which had nearly doubled in size, and his arms that had grown thicker several times, and sighed helplessly.
"With the ghost I look like now, who can recognize it?"
The big devil in black armor smiled bitterly, he was none other than Xiao Feng.
Since being stimulated by the wedding of the Great Holy Son and Gong Qianqiu, Xiao Feng has embarked on a more extreme route of swallowing exercises.
At this moment, what he cultivated is not only the part of Gong Qianqiu's way of guiding him, but also many of his own thoughts and ideas.
The phagocytosis effect becomes more extreme, and the side effects of the body after the phagocytosis become more and more severe.
It is not so obvious when using resources such as heaven, earth, treasure and spiritual veins as the source of engulfment.
Until Xiao Feng exhausted the cultivation resources of the five sects including the Cang Qiong Sect, he directly embarked on the path of absorbing the skills of powerful monks.
And since the release of the psychological burden of devouring the cultivator's skills, Xiao Feng felt like he was addicted.
Whenever he sees cultivator Xiao Feng, he wants to devour it, and later on, it is even close to being in a state of uncontrollable madness.
For this reason, many small sects were devoured by Xiao Feng and gradually reduced to big demons who did all kinds of evil.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 3994 -

Of course, Xiao Feng has also suffered from deflation. He has encountered several super strong people who wanted to swallow but were injured by the other party.
Therefore, Xiao Feng's strength increased faster than imagined in the environment of extreme devouring and siege by the strong.
During this period of time, Xiao Feng had only one thought in his mind: devour it infinitely and become stronger, and then seek revenge for Gong Qianqiu.
With the passage of time, the cultivator's skills and cultivation resources of ordinary small sects have less and less effect on Xiao Feng's improvement.
However, Xiao Feng of the big sect did not dare to provoke it rashly. He knew that he was still far behind the superpowers of the big sect.
So Xiao Feng put his eyes on Yulong City.
Yulong City has a large population, and the biggest force is the guard house, but the powerhouses here are all under Xiao Feng's killing ability.
In Xiao Feng's view, as long as the population of Yulong City is used to cause qualitative changes, it can also ensure its own safety.
Simply an excellent target for extreme engulfment.
What Xiao Feng didn't expect was that after entering Yulong City, he saw Levi Garrison.
Although Levi Garrison hid his strength and even simplified his appearance, Xiao Feng was too familiar with Levi Garrison.
Through the habit of gestures and the natural breath, the true identity of Levi Garrison was identified.
Xiao Feng hadn't completely lost his mind, and he really didn't want his master to see that he was neither a ghost nor a ghost, so he turned around and ran away.
"someone is coming!"
Suddenly, Xiao Feng suddenly felt two strong breaths approaching rapidly.
Especially one of the breaths is very familiar.
"Master is catching up?"

Xiao Feng's heart froze, he didn't dare to stay in place, and continued to run towards the depths of the jungle.
Levi Garrison and Murong Qingxue had also chased into the jungle.
"This guy's speed is really fast, you wait here first, I will chase it myself."
Levi Garrison said solemnly.
"Okay… Well, then Mr. Ye is careful."
Although he was afraid of being hunted by the black armored monster, Murong Qingxue did not dare to go against Levi Garrison's decision.
"With me, he wouldn't dare to be so arrogant."
The voice came, and Levi Garrison's figure had disappeared in front of him.
Just now, Xiao Feng couldn't get rid of Levi Garrison's pursuit. You must know that this is still the factor that Murong Qingxue is holding back.
The reason why Xiao Feng was not caught for the time being was because he fled Yulong City in advance, even Levi Garrison was a little caught off guard.
In addition, Levi Garrison was too unfamiliar with Kunlun Ruins, especially the complex terrain with high mountains and dense forests.
Levi Garrison thought it would be better to bring Murong Qingxue, a 'local', but he didn't think that Murong Qingxue was not familiar with the environment in this area.
When he was still in the Xingyue Divine Sect at that time, Murong Qingxue was in the sect and devoted himself to cultivation for a while, and the number of times he came out to practice was very few.
Moreover, in order to protect this good cultivation seedling, the sect would not let Murong Qingxue go to the risky experience and exploration until she fully matured.
Therefore, Murong Qingxue not only did not provide Levi Garrison with the support of the guide during this pursuit, but instead slowed Levi Garrison's speed on the way.
Levi Garrison was in the jungle, vaguely saw a dark shadow flashing in the depths, and hurriedly followed.

Whoosh whoosh!
At this moment, several trees around the thickness were thrown over one after another.
Although the speed was not very fast, it covered a wide area.
"Do you delay the speed of my pursuit!"
The corners of Levi Garrison's mouth rose slightly, and he punched the trees that were shooting at them.
The violent fist wind roared out, and the trees were instantly smashed into powder, and then the fist wind swept away without a trace.
Swish!
The burly figure in front was still escaping rapidly, and his figure flickered from left to right, occasionally using vines to sway wildly, directly throwing his body thousands of feet away.
This jungle is already covered with mountains, and it is inaccessible and rugged.
Coupled with the unfamiliarity of the environment, even Levi Garrison's cultivation can only barely track, but he is still thrown a distance away.
Clap!
The tree trunk was directly smashed by the force of the stamping, and Levi Garrison's figure was also shot like an arrow from the string.
At the same time, Levi Garrison had to use his fist to open the way, destroying the trees and vines blocking the front, which further delayed the speed of the pursuit.
On the other hand, Xiao Feng also tried his best to abscond. He had been hiding in this primitive jungle before, and he could be found in many places even with his eyes closed.
He constantly used the vines to make long-distance jumps, and even crossed the mountain stream directly. Even on the rugged mountain road, he was still walking on the ground at the foot of Xiao Feng.
"Master is so fast!"

Xiao Feng rushed forward desperately. In his memory, there was a stone forest in the deepest part of the jungle, and the road conditions behind the stone forest were more complicated.
In particular, there are many caves on the mountain walls, which seem to be artificially excavated. The caves extend in all directions, and some are even connected to an underground secret room.
And the underground secret room is Xiao Feng's choice of resting place.
Xiao Feng dashed forward while picking up giant stones with his backhand and threw them backwards.
He knew that these things couldn't hurt Levi Garrison, but they could slow down his pursuit to the greatest extent possible, and thus achieved his goal.
The two of them ran wildly in the jungle for several miles. If it wasn't for Levi Garrison's detachment, he would have been left without a trace.
However, even so, when Levi Garrison was chasing the edge of the stone forest, Xiao Feng's figure completely disappeared from sight.
Each stone is about two or three feet high, and the place where it stands is shrouded in mist, completely obscuring the sight.
"This guy is too familiar with the terrain, it's really a headache!"
Levi Garrison broke into the stone forest and searched for a while, but he still did not see the trace of the black armored devil.
"If you don't come out again, I will destroy this stone forest!"
Levi Garrison said loudly.
After a long time, there was no response, Levi Garrison directly threw three punches, several stone pillars collapsed, and the gravel splashed.
Next, Levi Garrison smashed dozens of stone pillars in a row, and the black armored devil still didn't respond.
"There is no feedback from the breath detection. This guy's Qi-holding technique is really advanced."

Levi Garrison was quite emotional, and the familiarity between the team and the devil in his heart became stronger and stronger.
"Forget it, let's find Murong Qingxue first!"
Levi Garrison did not continue to follow, and he had other thoughts in his mind.
Back at the outskirts of the jungle, Levi Garrison saw Murong Qingxue's face full of apprehension and anxiety.
"Sect Master, you are finally back."
Murong Qingxue immediately smiled, the worries and fears in her heart just disappeared instantly.
"How is it, did you kill the black armored devil?"
Seeing that there was no one behind Levi Garrison, Murong Qingxue instinctively thought that the devil had been killed by Levi Garrison.
Levi Garrison shook his head and said, "The environment inside the jungle is too complicated, I lost it when I chased the stone forest."
Murong Qingxue was stunned. She never thought that the black-armored demon had escaped under Levi Garrison's eyes. This was too powerful, right?
"Do you know the location of the Sky Sect?"
Levi Garrison did not explain too much, but asked directly.
Murong Qingxue nodded, but the doubts in her heart became more and more serious.
"Sect Master, are you planning to destroy the Taixu Shenzong?" Murong Qingxue asked curiously.
The Cang Qiong Sect was just a small sect, and Murong Qingxue didn't know what Levi Garrison intended.
Could it have something to do with the Black Armored Demon?
Levi Garrison said solemnly: "The Taixu Shenzong has no wings, so it can be destroyed at any time, and there is no need to rush it for a while."
I heard rumors that the Cang Qiong faction had undergone a major change, and Levi Garrison wanted to personally confirm Xiao Feng's situation.
Levi Garrison once speculated on the true identity of the big devil, and the most critical information is the extreme swallowing technique.

The possibility of Gong Qianqiu is extremely small, regardless of body shape and gender, just say that they were still looking for dragon veins in Tianying Mountain some time ago.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 3995 -
Moreover, Gong Qianqiu's status in the Taixu Shenzong is getting higher and higher, and at the same time he is attached to the thigh of the Great Holy Son.
Therefore, it is impossible for Gong Qianqiu to devour other people's skills so recklessly, because it is not necessary.
It is said that the Seven Holy Sons have the ability to detect spiritual meridians and can provide top-level spiritual meridians as an energy source, so there is no need to seek distance.
This logic also applies to Duguxiao and the few elites of Qianqiu Sect.
They hug Gong Qianqiu's thigh tightly, and there is no need to swallow the monk's skills to improve their cultivation.
"It's all up to the sect master, I'll lead the way."
Murong Qingxue did not dare to ask any more questions.
The two set off immediately and quickly rushed to the helm of the Cang Qiong faction.
At the same time, this area has been completely fried, and two messages have spread throughout many sectarian cities.
The first message is: Yulongcheng was shocked to see the black armored demon slaughtering the Quartet, almost slaughtering Yulongcheng.
The second message is: Luo Yunyang, the vice president of Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy, and dozens of elites in the academy have not heard from each other, and it is rumored that they have been killed by peerless powerhouses.
Moreover, the major forces that helped to find the whereabouts of Luo Yunyang and others were slaughtered one after another, including the notorious Blood Shadow Pavilion.

This news caused an even greater sensation, and many sects have speculated that there is another peerless power out of the customs?
Then think of the large dragon veins that have appeared in Tianying Mountain in this area, which is very likely to attract the attention of peak powerhouses.
In the Taixu Shenzong.
The Great Holy Son was also shocked after learning these two messages.
"Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy is almost one of the leading sects in this area. Who the hell dares to attack them?"
The Great Saint took a deep breath.
"Besides, Vice President Luo's strength is detached, and he has dozens of elites from the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy with him, and they have been slaughtered."
"What kind of terrifying cultivation does the person who shoots have to have to do it?"
The three saints said with emotion.
"With Luo Yunyang's cultivation realm, if he wants to escape, how many people can stop him?"
Gong Qianqiu's words once again caused the scene to fall into a dead silence.
Some people even had expressions of horror and fear on their faces.
As Gong Qianqiu said, Luo Yunyang is powerful. If he insists on escaping, the cultivation realm of the person who shoots can be completely crushed.
It is only as long as Luo Yunyang and others can die so silently that no trace has been found yet.
"Have you ever thought that he is very likely to be a mysterious master who appeared in the battle for the dragon veins of Tianying Mountain?"
The Great Saint said solemnly.
Everyone suddenly felt a sense of empowerment.
In particular, Gong Qianqiu thought that that person could exhaust the power of large dragon veins overnight, which is probably only possible for a peerless master.

“Go on, all the disciples of the Taixu Shenzong will maintain the strongest alert state, and if there is any abnormal situation, a warning signal will be released immediately.”
The Great Saint said in a deep voice.
The Taixu Shenzong was also involved in the battle for the dragon vein after all, and at the beginning, it helped Luo Yunyang to find clues about the culprit of the elites of the Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy.
If this mysterious master is concerned about it, it will be a disaster, but the possibility of this situation is very high.
“I’m quite interested in that black armored devil, Qianqiu, do you think his practice is similar to yours?”
The Great Saint asked suddenly.
Gong Qianqiu was stunned for a moment, and then said in a cogent tone: “There are some similarities, but the absorption of cultivator skills is ultimately inferior, and the sequelae are too great.”
Although the topic changed, Gong Qianqiu was still thinking about the super strong man.
While horrified in my heart, I still have a little yearning, and secretly said: “Only this kind of cultivation is the pinnacle of Kunlun Ruins!” Gong Qianqiu quickly thought of the mysterious black-armored devil. It is said that the slaughtered small sectarians were all devoured by their skills and blood.
This made Gong Qianqiu’s first thought of Xiao Feng, especially the elites who were arranged to monitor the movements of the Cang Qiong faction.
There is a high probability that there is a lot of misfortune.
This made Gong Qianqiu more firm in this speculation. After all, she was the one who led Xiao Feng to the path of extreme devouring of the cultivator’s skills.
“He is so crazy to swallow the cultivator’s skill. He is obviously eager to improve his cultivation realm. Could it be that he intends to seek revenge for himself?”
Thinking of this possibility, Gong Qianqiu felt a little sense of crisis again.

Although she and the Great Saint Son double cultivation and the blessing of swallowing the power of the dragon veins, the cultivation realm has been improved again, but Xiao Feng's path is even more extreme.
If Xiao Feng is not found and killed, the latter will be a serious problem for his confidants, and this hidden danger should be cut off as soon as possible to be at ease.
After discussing the defense of the sect with the Great Holy Son and others, Gong Qianqiu directly dispatched Xuan Ming and Duguxiao to search for Xiao Feng's whereabouts.
And repeatedly stressed that Xiao Feng could be killed on the spot.
Levi Garrison and Murong Qingxue rushed to the helm of the Cang Qiong faction without stopping.
However, when the two arrived at their destination, they found that the place was devastated.
There are ruins everywhere, and many corpses have not been cleaned up, and the survivors are poor, and they have suffered internal injuries of varying degrees.
"Is this what the big devil did?"
Murong Qingxue took a deep breath.
Levi Garrison didn't say anything, but seeing that the corpses were all drained of power and blood, it already explained the problem.
He looked around, and soon saw Xie Huanyu, the young master of the Sky Sect.
Levi Garrison came to Xie Huanyu and asked in a deep voice, "Xie Huanyu, where is Xiao Feng? What's the situation here?"
Xie Huanyu was slightly startled, Levi Garrison made a simple disguise, but he didn't recognize it immediately.
However, Levi Garrison did not deliberately change his voice, Xie Huanyu asked uncertainly, "You are Levi Garrison…Mr. Ye?"
"It's me!" Levi Garrison said solemnly, "What happened here?"

Xie Huanyu's face was full of shock. Levi Garrison's strength had already given him a psychological shadow, and he did not dare to answer truthfully without any delay.
"Mr. Ye, Xiao Feng's temperament changed drastically after returning from Gong Qianqiu's wedding, and it didn't take long for him to go crazy and devour other people's skills."
"Those who are a little more powerful in the Cang Qiong faction have all been poisoned.
It may be that Xiao Feng still has a trace of affection and did not kill the Cang Qiong faction."
"Otherwise we will all die."
Xie Huanyu said that he was crying at the end, and his voice was full of fear.
"But many other small sects are not so lucky. As far as I know, more than a dozen small sects around have been slaughtered."
"All their cultivation resources have been swallowed up. Today's Xiao Feng is no different from a demon."
Levi Garrison frowned deeply, and asked in a deep voice, "So many sects are attacked, why don't they think of joining forces to deal with Xiao Feng?"
"I thought about it, but Xiao Feng's current strength is too strong, and it is useless for small sects to join forces."
Xie Huanyu sighed and continued: "If you continue to devour it like this, I am afraid that even the middle sects will be easily wiped out by him."
"Mr. Ye, Xiao Feng is your apprentice after all, you can't just sit back and ignore it!"
Xie Huanyu's face was full of sorrow, he was really frightened by Xiao Feng's ruthlessness and still has lingering fears to this day.
For fear that Xiao Feng will kill the carbine again, and then the Cang Qiong faction will really be wiped out.
Murong Qingxue also had a shocked expression on her face. She finally understood why Levi Garrison came to the Cang Qiong faction first. It turned out that there had been speculation about the black armor demon.

And now it seems that Levi Garrison's guess is very correct, it can almost be concluded that the big devil is Xiao Feng.
"I'll handle it!"
Levi Garrison said in a condensed voice.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 3996 - Levi Garrison knew that Gong Qianqiu was the knot of Xiao Feng's heart. Although he let go of the emotional part, his remorse and hatred became stronger and stronger.
To a certain extent, this will make Xiao Feng go to the horns, so as to improve his cultivation by any means, in order to achieve the ultimate goal of quick revenge.
In addition, the cultivation resources of Kunlun Ruins are very rich, and a large increase in a short period of time will also change Xiao Feng's psychology.
It is not surprising that he has become a big devil like this.
In contrast, Gong Qianqiu did not dare to do it too outrageous. After all, she has become a high-level middle-level sect, so there is no need to be so eager for quick success.
"Sect Master, what are you going to do?" Murong Qingxue asked cautiously.
Levi Garrison didn't respond, and his heart was quite complicated at the moment, or he still hadn't made up his mind.
Although Levi Garrison didn't want Xiao Feng to fall into the devil's way, it was Xiao Feng's own choice after all, and he couldn't control it.
But if Xiao Feng provokes a large-scale force because of this, he may lose his life. This is definitely not what Levi Garrison wants to see.
Xiao Feng was his apprentice after all, and even if he wanted to kill him, no one else could.

At least in this matter, Xiao Feng's purpose is only to avenge the snow, but the method is too extreme.
But in the end, what does the life and death of many forces in Kunlun Ruins have to do with him?
"Let the people who are familiar with the jungle take me to Xiao Feng and talk about it!"
Levi Garrison pondered for a moment and said.
He has decided to let someone protect him no matter what, and at the same time see if Xiao Feng can return to the right path of cultivation.
"Xiao Feng was the apprentice I valued the most. It's a pity after all."
Levi Garrison thought secretly in his heart.
The world is business as usual.
The members of the base camp continued to use the super spiritual veins discovered by God's Brain to quench the chain in batches, and the overall combat power once again reached a new level.
The guardians of the gods and the temple powerhouses under their command are also watching secretly at all times, but they dare not act rashly because they are afraid of Levi Garrison's strength.
In two consecutive battles, five of the twelve guardians of the gods were killed and three were seriously injured.
Fortunately, the servants of the gods who guarded the seeds of the main god came back to help.
Combined with the power of the temple masters, people's hearts can be stabilized for the time being.
"The seeds of the twelve main gods have all been found, and what is most lacking now is the dragon vein resources."
"Damn Levi Garrison, he actually occupied more than ten dragon veins in the secret realm by himself."
After this period of breath adjustment, Lucas finally fully recovered his strength, and now he is in a state of incompetence and rage.

The other surviving gods were not in much better spirits.
Especially in the last battle, Penglieo, who was also deflated, jumped more and more frantically with the thunder and lightning sparks in his palm.
"If the ten dragon veins are used for the seeds of the main god, at least the five main gods can be truly awakened."
"At that time, Levi Garrison will be wiped out at the click of a finger."
Penglio said angrily.
The guardianship of the gods at this time basically belongs to everything, only the dragon veins are owed.
However, at this moment, Penglio suddenly received an urgent message from his subordinates.
"Reporting to the guardian, our Zeus Temple probes have discovered the dragon veins in the Empire of Never Sunset."
"And the scale of comparison is no worse than the strongest dragon vein in the secret realm."
Penglio stood up suddenly, his face uncontrollably filled with joy.
"That's great, God helped me!"
Penglio laughed on his back, then turned his head to look at Lucas, and said, "Let's go and have a look! This time we can finally regain a city."
Lucas is also in high spirits, this dragon vein is really timely rain.
The two immediately led hundreds of temple experts to the location of the dragon veins.
There was nothing to say on the road, and when everyone saw the rich spiritual energy emanating from this dragon vein in front of them, they were all overjoyed.
"The main god is hopeful, Levi Garrison, your doom is coming soon!"
Pengliao said
mournfully.
Levi Garrison asked Cangqiong Sect disciples who were familiar with the environment to lead the way to find Xiao Feng's whereabouts.
The first thing I looked for was the stone forest deep in the jungle, but I still found nothing after searching.

Afterwards, he searched several places that Xiao Feng used to go to according to Xie Huanyu, but the bamboo basket was still empty.
However, Xiao Feng is also very smart. He left Shilin the night he avoided Levi Garrison's pursuit last time. He even guessed that Levi Garrison would be suspicious of people related to Gong Qianqiu. After all, these people had all practiced extreme swallowing exercises.
Coaxing Yulongcheng to devour so many people's skills is bound to cause Levi Garrison to speculate about it. He doesn't want Levi Garrison to see himself in such a messed up state that he is neither a ghost nor a ghost.
In the process of escaping and evading, Xiao Feng also heard relevant information from Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy.
The vice president Luo Yunyang and dozens of elites in the hospital were slaughtered.
This incident caused a great disturbance. Even the helm of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace attached great importance to it, and directly sent many geniuses to investigate.
The high-level officials also issued a death order, the real murderer must be found out, and then the murderer should be brought back to the main helm of the Sun Moon God Fire Palace, so that the real murderer would be better off dead.
"Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy is equivalent to the spokesperson of Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace. Luo Yunyang and others died silently, which is basically equivalent to hitting the face of Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace. It is not surprising that they have such a big reaction. "
"The real murderer is probably the master, the saintess of the Divine Xingyue Sect with the woman beside him, and the Divine Xingyue Sect also went to compete for the dragon vein some time ago, and Murong Qingxue was the surviving one."

Xiao Feng dismissed the speculations of many sects that the one who killed the members of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy was a peerless powerhouse from a top sect. Combining all kinds of information, the first thing he thought of was Master Levi Garrison.

Xiao Feng knew Levi Garrison very well. Since he dared to enter the Kunlun Ruins, it means that the master already possesses absolute strength.

In that area, there are so many masters from Jihe Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy who have the ability to be unscrupulous and silent, but only Levi Garrison can do it.

"I must never let Master see me like this."

"At least I can't let him see it until I successfully revenge Gong Qianqiu."

Xiao Feng made up his mind and went straight into an old forest deep in the mountains to hide.

And decided not to devour personnel skills during this time.

There is plenty of spiritual energy in the deep mountains and old forests. Although the speed of absorbing power is much slower than that of absorbing skills, it is safe!

the other side.

Levi Garrison and others searched for Xiao Feng for several days without success.

"Since we have spent so much manpower to find it, Xiao Feng must have found an absolutely safe place to hide."

"No need to look for it, we can go to the Taixu Shenzong."

Although Xiao Feng was not found, Levi Garrison felt more at ease.

This shows that Xiao Feng temporarily gave up on absorbing the improvement of his skill and did not want him to find it.

Moreover, it can be judged from the last chase that Xiao Feng's strength has long since changed, and he may not be able to win in the face of the strong, but it should not be a problem to retreat.

"Okay, Sect Master."

Murong Qingxue said respectfully.

“Mr. Ye, what about us?”
Xie Huanyu asked with a cry.
Today’s Cang Qiong Sect has suffered heavy casualties, and even the small sects around them are eyeing them.
Levi Garrison pondered for a moment and said, “You all go to the Xingyue Shenzong, I will let Murong Wanqing take you in, and it can be considered a place to live, but remember, obey the arrangements after you go, otherwise no one will be able to save your lives. .”
“Okay, thank you Mr. Ye, we absolutely obey the arrangement unconditionally.”
Thank you, Huanyu, thank you so much.
Although he didn’t know why Levi Garrison had such a big face, as long as he could temporarily save his life, it was better than anything else.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter
3997 -
Murong Wanqing did not dare to disobey Levi Garrison’s order.
Then Murong Qingxue took Levi Garrison to the Taixu Shenzong.
Although the two of them are not slow, the Great Void Shenzong is quite far away.
A few days later, the two walked to the outskirts of a medium-sized city, but they happened to meet the top talents of Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy and Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple. They seemed to be looking for people overwhelmingly.
Murong Qingxue also recognized their identities and hurriedly sent a voice transmission to Levi Garrison.
“Sect Master, those people are the top talents of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple.”
“Especially the only female Tianjiao, whose status is much higher than Luo Yunyang.”
“Let’s stay away for a while!”
Murong Qingxue’s voice trembled a little, obviously she was extremely nervous.
Of course, it wasn’t that Murong Qingxue was too timid. The main reason was that the prestige of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall was so terrifying that any top genius in the hall could overwhelm a force at the level of the Star Moon Divine Sect.

"What are you afraid of? If they want to die, just come and ask for trouble."
Levi Garrison said with a face full of indifference.
The corner of Murong Qingxue's mouth twitched, and she had a new understanding of Levi Garrison's behavior.
You must know that these people not only have detached status and status, but their cultivation realm is even more terrifying.
The Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace can definitely rank in the forefront in terms of comprehensive strength among many major sects.
Levi Garrison didn't take it seriously at all.
the other side.
The Tianjiao of Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall and Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy heard that there was a super strong person in this area, and they came to hunt them.
"Gongsun Tianjiao, look, that is Murong Qingxue of the Xingyue Divine Sect."
"It is said that Vice President Luo's last stop before his disappearance was the Xingyue Shenzong."
"If Murong Qingxue is arrested and tortured, maybe he will learn some of the secrets."
One of the academy members who was in charge of receiving the arrogance of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall said suddenly.
Gongsun Yueying ordered coldly, "Arrest these two people."
Swish!
Everyone quickly surrounded Levi Garrison and Murong Qingxue.
Murong Qingxue was instantly tense, her pretty face turned pale.
Although Levi Garrison's strength is not bad, but these people in front of him are the top talents of the Sun Moon God Fire Palace, and their strength is even more terrifying than Luo Yunyang. If Levi Garrison is dragged by several masters, his life will definitely be in danger.

“Murong Qingxue, if you know the current affairs, tell the whereabouts of Vice President Luo, otherwise don’t blame me for ruining the flowers.”
A Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy expert said with a sneer.
With the arrogance of the Sun and Moon Divine Fire Hall in charge, they all spoke with great confidence, expressing the word “dog fight with people” to the fullest.
“Wait, this woman looks good, let her live to be the slave girl who warms the bed for this Tianjiao!” A Tianjiao of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple said with a wicked smile.
“It’s just your kid with thieves eyes, and you were the first to get there.”
“If I knew earlier, I should have gone to such a backcountry. Although the cultivation resources are very scarce, it would be nice to get back a few beautiful women!” “This statement makes sense. When we find Luo Yunyang and the others, we will start to look around more, hahaha!”
The arrogant and arrogant people in the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall obviously did not take Levi Garrison and Murong Qingxue in their eyes.
Murong Qingxue’s body trembled slightly when she heard the words.
She has long heard that the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace is both good and evil. If she really becomes this person’s slave girl, it will be a life better than death!
Just when the vast majority of people focused their attention on Murong Qingxue, Gongsun Yueying was observing Levi Garrison. Based on his clothes, it could be concluded that this person had just come from the mundane world.
However, it was such a rookie who entered the Kunlun Ruins for the first time, to be as stable as Mount Tai under the siege of so many powerful men on his own side, which really surprised her.
“Murong Qingxue, right, you slave bought a good one, Tianjiao wants it, do you have any opinion?”
Gongsun Yueying said coldly.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter

3998 -
As soon as Gongsun Yueying spoke, the scene instantly became quiet. Everyone turned their attention to Levi Garrison, but after looking for a long time, they found nothing special.
"This guy's cultivation base is mediocre and his appearance is average. Where did he attract the attention of our little princess?"
"I didn't think that the little princess was so good at it. It's all my fault that I look too handsome and unrestrained, and that's why I didn't get the little princess' favor."
"Yueying, are you mistaken? This kind of ordinary stuff is killed, even if you take it with you as a slave, it will lose its price."
"Yeah, Princess Moon Shadow, if you want slaves, let's go to the top cities and choose at random. Which one is better than this?"
Everyone has good words to persuade, and they are full of contempt for Levi Garrison.
It's not that these people are too pretentious, it is because Gongsun Yueying's identity is too noble. Not only is he beautiful, but he is also gifted in cultivation.
Therefore, Gongsun Yueying has a very high status in the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall, and is even a strong competitor for the future hall master, and is respected as a little princess by all the male monks of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall.
Of course, there is no shortage of arrogance in the sect, but Gongsun Yueying has a very high eye, and all those top arrogances are shut out.
Now, she didn't think that she would take the initiative to take a worldly monkey who had just entered the Kunlun Ruins as a slave. This is simply incredible.
Even the arrogance of some small and medium sects, can't wait to scramble to become Gongsun Yueying!
He De He Neng, the descendant of the secular world, can actually be favored by the little princess of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace?
"What are you guys doing? I just see this guy as interesting. When I get tired of playing Tianjiao, I will kill him naturally."

Gongsun Yueying said impatiently.
The Tianjiao of the Sun, Moon, Divine Fire Temple stopped talking, as long as they didn't value this monkey, otherwise wouldn't they be very shameless?
Murong Qingxue opened her mouth and found that she couldn't make a sound.
The tension and fear were extreme.
"Wow!"
"Wow!"
The several spirit beasts following the Tianjiao of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall suddenly screamed strangely, as if they were cheering for the masters.
Levi Garrison still looked at everyone calmly, more accurately speaking, he should be looking at those spirit beasts.
He found that these spirit beasts had different shapes, but they were very different from the animals in the world. For example, one of the spirit beasts, which was similar to a horse, even had two long horns on its head.
There is a third eye between the two horns, which looks majestic and piercing.
"Are you finished talking nonsense?"
"You can get out when you're done talking, or I don't mind sending you to see the King of Hell."
Levi Garrison said suddenly.
Uh……
Everyone was stunned, and they never thought that Levi Garrison's first sentence was not on his knees begging for mercy, but actually… scolding himself?
It's just… how does it make sense?
"Monkey of the world, do you know what you are talking about?"
One of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple Tianjiao said angrily.
Levi Garrison shrugged and said, "Are you deaf and unable to hear?"
"Or are you stupid and don't understand?"
What the hell!
This Tianjiao was instantly furious. This seat is highly respected in many large-scale sects, but he was once again scolded by the waste monkeys in the secular world?

Deceiving too much!
fed up!
“you wanna die!”
Young Tianjiao directly drew his sword and stabbed Levi Garrison’s heart.
The speed of this sword is extremely fast, with an extremely cold sword gang, as if to draw a crack in this space.
“Stay alive!”
Gongsun Yueying hurriedly reminded.
In her opinion, the sword of her companion can definitely kill Levi Garrison under normal conditions.
Male Tianjiao promised on the surface, but in his heart he disagreed.
Levi Garrison dared to speak and insult himself, then he must die.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 3999 -
“Feng Xiao is really angry, this guy is sure to die!”
“Looking at his reaction, he must be scared and stupid, right?”
“I only care about my sister Qingxue’s skills, hehehe!”
The tone of the Tianjiao of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace was full of contempt, and in their eyes, Levi Garrison was no different from a corpse at this moment.
“It’s just beyond your own power to dare to speak out with this little strength.”
Seeing that Levi Garrison was stunned, Feng Xiao instinctively thought that he was frightened by his terrifying and unparalleled sword intent, and the corner of his mouth rose slightly involuntarily.
However, in the next second, Feng Xiao’s smile suddenly solidified.
He was stunned to find that Levi Garrison stretched out his fingers at some point and pinched them on the blade with great precision.
The originally violent Sword Gang disappeared without a trace for some reason.
“This…how is this possible?”
Feng Xiao couldn’t believe his eyes.
According to the development of the normal script, shouldn’t Levi Garrison splatter blood on the spot at this moment?
“Let go of this seat!”

Feng Xiao shouted, and suddenly released the terrifying energy, pouring it into the long sword, trying to use the more violent sword gang to force Levi Garrison to lose control of the long sword.
"Aren't you too conceited?"
Levi Garrison also released Qi.
The two air jets slammed into one place.
As soon as Levi Garrison deflated the air machine, he was like a sea of rivers, and in an instant, Feng Xiao's sword gang was completely swallowed and merged.
This scene made Feng Xiao stunned for a moment, and before he could react, he felt his arm go numb, and the long sword uncontrollably came out of his hand, and was instantly shattered into several pieces by a violent qi machine.
"Since you want it, I'll give it all back to you."
As Levi Garrison's icy voice sounded, the broken blade of the long sword that shattered into several segments shot towards Feng Xiao like a violent storm.
Hesitating that the distance between the two was too close, Feng Xiao had no time to react, and was directly stabbed by Broken Blade. The powerful Qi gave Broken Blade an incomparably terrifying impact, piercing Feng Xiao's body in many places.
Puff puff!
The blood flower exploded, and Feng Xiao's whole body was shocked and flew out.
However, Feng Xiao died when he was still in midair.
Pfft!
Feng Xiao's body fell heavily to the ground.
The place was dead silent.
The geniuses of Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall and Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy even forgot to breathe. They never thought that the worldly monkeys, who were regarded as five scumbags in battle, could kill Feng Xiao with one blow.
You must know that Feng Xiao's strength in their team can completely rank in the top five. Even in the top Tianjiao of the entire Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace, he can definitely rank in the top ten, even stronger than some elders.

However, in front of Levi Garrison, he was so vulnerable?
What is the background of this guy?
Is there already such a terrifying powerhouse in the secular world?
Countless question marks appeared in the minds of the arrogant people in the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall.
"Won't you avenge your comrades?"
Levi Garrison's voice sounded again.
provocative!
Naked provocation!*
The arrogance of the gods instantly burned with anger.
Especially being despised in front of the members of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy, making them feel that their proud majesty is being challenged.
"kill him!"
Gongsun Yueying said coldly.
Originally, she was thinking of taking Levi Garrison as a slave for entertainment, but now that Feng Xiao was killed, if she didn't give an explanation to others, how would she be able to stand in the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall in the future?
"Guaranteed to complete the mission!"
"Don't worry, Moon Shadow, I'll blow him to ashes."
"Don't underestimate the enemy, this guy is still a bit powerful."
The arrogance of the sun and moon gods and fire halls rushed forward to surround Levi
Garrison.
Although Feng Xiao was killed, they were shocked, but several people believed that Feng Xiao was underestimated to a certain extent and caused his death.
"Okay, I'll send you to the Palace of Hell to reunite with him."
Before he finished speaking, Levi Garrison's figure disappeared instantly.

"Insanity!"
"Go together!"
"Cut him to pieces!"
Levi Garrison's provocation immediately aroused public indignation.
The arrogance of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple directly shot.

Levi Garrison was not afraid at all, and even hooked his fingers at everyone, full of provocation.
The cultivation of these people is really good, and even two of them can be compared with Luo Yunyang.
However, for Levi Garrison, these people were too weak after all.
"Just like you can become the arrogance of the sect, it seems that there is no successor in the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace!"
Levi Garrison's figure is erratic like a ghost, and he doesn't have any fancy moves, but the power that erupts is extremely terrifying.
"Ahhh!"
The screams came one after another.
Two of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall Tianjiao couldn't dodge in time. They were hit in the chest by Levi Garrison's fist, and they were directly penetrated by the fist wind.
The eyes of the two were full of incredible, and they only felt that the vitality was quickly leaving the body until they fell into endless darkness.
In less than three minutes, more than a dozen Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall Tianjiao were killed by Levi Garrison.
The place was dead silent!
Gollum!
Murong Qingxue swallowed hard. Although she had long known that Levi Garrison was strong, she was still stunned when she saw this scene with her own eyes.
Combat power explodes!
The most shocking person in the field was Gongsun Yueying.
She is the one who knows the strength level of these companions best. Together, a dozen or so of them can easily obliterate a medium-sized sect.
Even in the face of ordinary large-scale sects, you have to shy away from these people.
However, Levi Garrison killed them all without breaking a sweat?
"It's not an illusion, is it?"
Gongsun Yueying suddenly had the urge to pinch herself to confirm the truth and illusion.

As for the arrogance of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall, they have long been frightened, and even their bodies are shaking violently.
They were really scared, and even the powerhouses of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple were powerless to fight back.
Not to mention myself, it is tantamount to ants!
"escape!"
Such thoughts appeared in the minds of the members of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy.
It was the first time they felt so close to death.
"Let's die together too!"
Before he finished speaking, Levi Garrison shot again.
The members of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy turned around and ran, and they had no idea of resistance at all.
But Levi Garrison obviously wouldn't give them a chance to escape.
Wherever the palm wind passes, there will be screams and wailing sounds.
It was like a death god wielding a sickle, frantically reaping the lives of members of the Sun
Moon Divine Fire Academy.
In just a moment, Gongsun Yueying was the only one left in the team of dozens of people from the two top forces.
"Now it is your turn."
Levi Garrison said with a smile.
Gongsun Yueying's delicate body was shocked, and the panic and fear could no longer be concealed on her face.
Although Gongsun Yueying prides herself on being extremely talented, she has never looked down upon her peers.
But Levi Garrison gave her the urge to kneel and worship.
No matter what creatures worship the strong, people are especially obvious.
In the Kunlun Ruins, the strong are respected, and this kind of worship for the peerless strong is even more serious and common.
"You…what do you want?"
Gongsun Yueying said with a trembling voice.

Having seen the scene where Levi Garrison was hunting his companions just now, Gongsun Yueying had completely given up the idea of running away.
But just now he claimed to take Levi Garrison as a slave, but now that the situation has taken a turn for the worse, Gongsun Yueying is really uneasy.
Killed?
Tortured?
Or tortured and then killed?
She didn't want to accept any consequences.
"If you can let me live, I promise to give you all the cultivation resources of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple."
"Of course, if you feel that these chips are not enough, you can ask for anything."
"As long as it is within my ability, I will be satisfied."
Gongsun Yueying was making the final fight.

Seeing that Levi Garrison didn't answer immediately, Gongsun Yueying's mood became even more uneasy.
But she didn't dare to urge Levi Garrison, for fear of angering him, she decided to kill herself.
After pondering for a while, Levi Garrison said with a smile: "From now on, you can serve me as my maid!"
To be his maid?
Gongsun Yueying's mouth twitched, feeling an unprecedented humiliation.
Even in the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall, he is a high-ranking existence, and now he has been reduced to…
"It seems that you chose to die, you have a little backbone, and I will fulfill you."
Just as Gongsun Yueying was thinking wildly, Levi Garrison's cold voice sounded again.
Looking up, I saw that Levi Garrison's palm was releasing a very strong Qi machine, which was quickly condensing into a near-substantial Qi blade.

The murderous aura rushed in like an overwhelming force, making Gongsun Yueying feel suffocated.
"I promise you that."
Gongsun Yueying said with a cry.
In the face of life and death and dignity, Gongsun Yueying chose life without hesitation.
"Master always teaches, so that the green hills are not afraid of burning wood."
"I'm just following my teacher's orders."
Gongsun Yueying kept persuading herself in her heart.
"That's right, the person who knows the current affairs is Junjie."
Levi Garrison restrained his qi, and the majestic power and coercion also dissipated in an instant.
Gongsun Yueying also let out a sigh of relief. The sense of oppression just now was so terrifying that it made her even feel extremely difficult to breathe.
Levi Garrison continued: "I advise you not to make any small moves next, otherwise don't blame Lao Tzu for destroying flowers."
"So many Tianjiao of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple have been killed, and one more of you is not too much."
"I know… I know."
Gongsun Yueying instantly looked like an eggplant hit by frost.
Just now, she really thought about whether to find an opportunity to escape or sneak attack, but now she has directly abandoned this idea.
Since Levi Garrison said it clearly, it means that he was prepared.
It can even be seen as being confident and not caring about his little actions at all.
Swish!
Levi Garrison suddenly came to Gongsun Yueying in a flash, and tapped several acupoints on her.
Gongsun Yueyingzhi felt the qi in her body stagnate for a while.
"Seal the power?"
Gongsun Yueying was desperate for a while, and now it is even more impossible to escape.
Levi Garrison said with a smile: "This way I feel more at ease."
"By the way, you must be hungry after being busy for so long, right?"

Gongsun Yueying was a little confused, but she nodded honestly.
I heard that there are experts in this area, and their group came non-stop, and it has been a long time since they had a good meal.
However, Gongsun Yueying was very surprised that Levi Garrison was still concerned about his hunger and satiety?
"And you?"
Levi Garrison turned his head and asked Murong Qingxue again.
Murong Qingxue's delicate body was shocked, and then she came back to her senses as if she had woken up from a dream.
"Well, I'm hungry too!"
Murong Qingxue hurriedly replied.
A smile suddenly appeared on Levi Garrison's face.
But I don't know why, seeing this smile in Gongsun Yueying's eyes, a bad premonition suddenly rose in his heart.
"I'm just hungry too, those mounts are a waste of resources if they're not used."
Levi Garrison pointed to a few spirit beasts in the distance, and continued:
"That horse-like guy is braised!"
"That deer is stewed in yellow!"
"And that ape steamed!"
"Finally, use that leopard to make soup, almost enough!"
What the hell!
Gongsun Yueying almost scolded, these are precious spirit beasts!
If they hadn't encountered a powerful expert like Levi Garrison, these spirit beasts would have taken action to help fight.
Now all of them have become Levi Garrison's appetizers?
"Little maid, please do it yourself!"
Levi Garrison's playful voice sounded again.

It's okay to change the spirit beasts to make food, but I still need to do it myself?
How cruel?
How excessive?
It is unbearable, but it must be endured.

Very depressing!
So in the eyes of a few spirit beasts with grievances and pleadings, Gongsun Yueying was sent away 'peacefully'.
Braised, steamed, braised…
There is also a delicious soup.
"This meat is not bad!"
"It would be even better if it was grilled with a little more sauce."
"It should be nice with some side dishes."
Levi Garrison commented while eating.
Murong Qingxue twitched the corners of her mouth, and looked at Gongsun Yueying sympathetically.
I saw Gongsun Yueying's eyes were dull, slightly hollow, and her face was pale, like a statue…
Gongsun Yueying swears to God that this is the most difficult and most embarrassing meal she has ever eaten.
Lifetime!
Uncomfortable! want to cry!
But don't dare!
Half an hour later, Levi Garrison clapped his hands and said, "I'm full! It's not bad! You two eat more, don't waste it."
Uh……
Gongsun Yueying only felt the darkness in front of her eyes, and she fainted from anger.
Levi Garrison ignored her at all, but said to Murong Qingxue, "Wake her up and set off."
"Yes!"
Murong Qingxue was as silent as a cicada, and even more did not dare to neglect Levi Garrison's orders.
Levi Garrison looked into the distance and said faintly, "Taixu Shenzong, Lao Tzu is here."
the other side.
All Tianjiao were killed, and Gongsun Yueying's whereabouts are unknown.
Once this information was confirmed, there was an instant uproar in the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall.

“The little princess is the proud disciple of the two palace masters. Is it the thing who dared to kidnap her away?”
“This matter is too bad, isn’t this equivalent to blatantly declaring war on the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace?”
“That’s what I said, but the arrogance that Gongsun Yueying took out will be easily crushed even in the face of a medium-sized sect?” “That’s right, this is enough to show the horror of the murderer’s strength. Could it be the work of a super-hidden sect master?”
“No matter who the murderer is, it is absolutely impossible for the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple to let it go.”
The members of the Sun and Moon Divine Fire Hall were talking a lot.
In fact, the two palace masters of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace were indeed furious.
Immediately issued an order to die, the strong men in the hall rushed out, and found Gongsun Yueying as soon as possible.
Of course, there are also Sun Moon God or the Academy and all other affiliated sectarian forces that cooperate with the action.
In the words of the deputy hall master of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall: The majesty of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall does not allow challenges.
Taixu Shenzong.
The sect was peaceful, and the disciples in the sect were busy, unaware that danger was approaching quietly.
Gong Qianqiu is sipping tea leisurely and contentedly.
After this period of development, the power of the direct subordinates has grown stronger and stronger, and his position in the sect has become more and more stable.
And recently, more and more knowledge in Kunlun Ruins has directly made Gong Qianqiu feel superior.
The large dragon veins were exhausted by the peerless masters in one day.
The top powerhouses of Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy were wiped out.

There are many strange and incomparable combat techniques in the various sects.
These are simply unimaginable in the secular world.
"Levi Garrison, the gap between you and me is getting bigger and bigger. Even if you defeat you, you won't have any sense of accomplishment."
"It's really boring to think about it like that!"
Recalling the time when he was cautiously improving his strength in the secular world, Levi Garrison was an almost insurmountable mountain.
And the strength shown by Levi Garrison is indeed disappointing.
But now it seems that at the beginning, he was no different from sitting in a well and watching the sky.
After arriving at the Kunlun Ruins, the middle-level sect can just pick out a core high-level leader and be comparable to Levi Garrison.
Not to mention the mysterious powerhouses who killed Luo Yunyang and other Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy Tianjiao some time ago.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4003 -
"If Levi Garrison saw this, he would definitely be frightened!" Gong Qianqiu said with a sneer.
The more Gong Qianqiu thought about it, the more proud he became, and he was even more fortunate that he had entered the Kunlun Ruins with the relationship of Taixu Shenzong in time.
"A random herb found in the Kunlun Ruins and placed in the secular world is a treasure that only exists in ancient books."
"Dragon veins are unheard of in the secular world."
"This leader can finally look down on everyone in the secular world in a true sense."
Gong Qianqiu suddenly felt a sense of loneliness and loneliness.
"We are not from the same world after all."
"Levi Garrison, if you have a chance to meet in the future, you will only have to kneel on the ground and beg for mercy."

Gong Qianqiu laughed wildly on his back, and he has now put his vision to a higher level.
Just like the peerless powerhouse who is not afraid of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple, that is the goal she will pursue in the future.
"Now Levi Garrison is like an ant, and there is no threat at all."
Gong Qianqiu said with a sneer.
the other side.
The Holy Son has been in a good mood in the past few days.
He is more and more compatible with Gong Qianqiu's double cultivation, and his strength has improved by a grade compared with before marriage.
The Great Holy Son even felt that if he faced the black-robed leader of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy during the battle for dragon veins, he could easily win.
This made the Great Saint Son overjoyed, and the effect of double cultivation has far exceeded his expectations.
Of course, the Great Holy Son also knows that this is inseparable from Gong Qianqiu's strength.
So he loved Gong Qianqiu more than before.
This caused other concubines to complain behind their backs, but they did not dare to ask Gong Qianqiu to trouble him in the open.
The three holy sons also ended up facing the wall ahead of schedule because of the intercession of the first holy son.
"The third one, I told you a long time ago that people have seven emotions and six desires. You have to cultivate some ruthless swordsmanship. The progress of cultivation is a bit slow!"
The Great Saint said proudly.
The three saints smiled awkwardly, and then added a sentence: "What the boss said is very true, but it's too late for me to regret it now."
The Great Saint smiled proudly.
Although he also knew that there were deliberate compliments in the words of the Three

Holy Sons, it was indeed a sense of accomplishment to make the always arrogant Three Holy Sons bow their heads.
"Boss, if you run into Levi Garrison, can you deal with it with full confidence?"
The Seven Holy Sons directly changed the topic, because of Gong Qianqiu's relationship, he was extremely resistant to the Great Holy Son in his heart.
In particular, I don't want to see him look like a villain.
The Great Holy Son smiled and said, "Don't worry, now that Levi Garrison's strength is no longer in the eyes of this seat."
"Xiao Qi, Levi Garrison just defeated the leaders of the five small sects. Now the boss can easily do it even with one hand."
"What's more, Levi Garrison must have used the strength of other members of the base camp at that time, so the gap with the boss is even greater."
Seven Holy Sons interrupted with a smile.
The Great Holy Son said with deep approval: "What the third child said is reasonable, not to mention that the secular world doesn't even have the sacred vein when it comes to dragon veins."
"Even if Levi Garrison's cultivation talent is strong, if he doesn't have enough cultivation resources to support him, how can he be strong?"
"Don't worry, it doesn't matter if Levi Garrison doesn't come, but if you really come to the door beyond your own means, this seat will definitely be able to smash him to ashes."
The Great Holy Son is full of confidence. Since Shuangxiu has greatly improved his strength, he is even more convinced that he can defeat Levi Garrison.
"Actually, compared to Levi Garrison, I'm more worried about the mysterious powerhouse. After all, we have been associated with Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy before."
The three saints said worriedly.

The Great Holy Son waved his hand and said, "Although this strong man is terrifying, he'd better not provoke the Taixu Shenzong."
"How do you say this?" The Seven Holy Sons asked.
The Great Holy Son said proudly, "Have you forgotten the background of the Sect Master?"
The Seven Holy Sons suddenly realized, and suddenly remembered that the sect master was born in a super family, and even belonged to the terrifying existence that swept across the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4004 -
Levi Garrison, Murong Qingxue, and Gongsun Yueying rushed on their way non-stop, and they had arrived near the Taixu Shenzong.
Murong Qingxue said respectfully, "Sect Master, we are now only more than thirty miles away from the Taixu Shenzong, do we continue on our way?"
"No hurry, rest here for half a day."
Levi Garrison paused, then turned to look at Gongsun Yueying and instructed: "brew the new tea picked yesterday, I want to taste it."
"Yes, Master."
Gongsun Yueying said very meekly.
Seeing Gongsun Yueying who was busy immediately, Murong Qingxue was stunned.
Since the incident of cooking spirit beasts in tricks, Gongsun Yueying has become extraordinarily well-behaved and docile.
To Levi Garrison, it can be said that he obeys every word, pouring tea, pouring water, beating his back and rubbing his shoulders, just like a close-fitting maid.
"This is the daughter of the sky in the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace!"
"A few young geniuses from the younger generation that the two palace masters value most."
"Now that I have become a little girl, such a huge identity change, if it were me, I would have collapsed long ago, right?"

Murong Qingxue began to admire Gongsun Yueying's strong psychological quality of being able to bend and stretch.
In fact, Gongsun Yueying was completely convinced by Levi Garrison.
Gongsun Yueying felt resentment when the spirit beasts around her were eaten, and she even started to look for opportunities to take revenge.
However, as soon as he had such thoughts several times in a row, he was noticed by Levi Garrison in advance, and was warned by the strength of the side-by-side attack.
Feeling the suffocating energy pressure, Gongsun Yueying had no idea of revenge at all.
Even if the strength is terrifying, the scheming and insight are also impeccable.
Levi Garrison has almost become synonymous with the perfect peak powerhouse.
This convinced Gongsun Yueying.
Even if he becomes Levi Garrison's servant, he has no regrets.
"Master, tea is ready."
Gongsun Yueying said softly.
Levi Garrison took the teacup and squeezed it lightly, then said with a smile, "Your tea skills are very good!"
"Thank you for the compliment, master."
Gongsun Yueying said respectfully: "If the tea set is complete, the tea brewed by the slaves will be better."
Levi Garrison nodded, then turned around and said, "Now that the restriction on your cultivation has been lifted, you can find a chance to escape!"
"The slaves dare not!"
Gongsun Yueying knelt down on her knees, and said in a trembling voice: "It is a blessing for slaves to follow the master's side, and she will definitely not escape."
Seeing this scene, the shocked look on Murong Qingxue's face could no longer be added.
Because she could cleanly feel the sincerity of Gongsun Yueying's emotions when she said these words, and there was no pretentious element at all.

In other words, this is what she really thinks in her heart.
"As expected of the suzerain, it is truly amazing to be able to convince a top sect's sweet girl in a short period of time!"
Murong Qingxue was very emotional.
at the same time.
Numerous arrogances were killed in the Sun and Moon Divine Fire Hall, and the news that Tian's daughter Gongsun Yueying was arrested and whose whereabouts were unknown gradually spread.
There was an uproar among many sectarian forces.
There are even many sect leaders who quickly recalled the arrogance of the sect who had experienced abroad.
For fear that these sects hope to follow in the footsteps of Gongsun Yueying and others in the future.
"Who exactly dares to attack the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple?"
"What is the ultimate goal of the real murderer behind the scenes? Could it be targeting the rising stars in all the sects in the region?"
"And is this person related to the peerless powerhouse who exhausted the power of large dragon veins overnight some time ago?"
Many guesses and questions arose in the minds of the people.
For a time, all the sects in this area were in danger.
Even those sects closely related to the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple have been upgraded to the highest defense level and activated the great formation of protecting the sect.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4005 - This message was also spread to the Taixu Shenzong, which caused a lot of uproar for a while.
"It is said that Gongsun Yueying has a very high status among the younger generation of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall, and his strength is also very strong."

“It’s not as simple as being tough? Gongsun Yueying and the rest of the geniuses are enough to easily destroy medium-sized sects. You can imagine how powerful they are.”
“If that’s the case, isn’t the strength of the person who shot it even more terrifying?”
The faces of the disciples of the Taixu Shenzong showed a look of astonishment.
They know very well the difference between kill and live capture.
In the face of Gongsun Yueying’s desperate counterattack, it was much more difficult to capture it alive than to kill it.
I am afraid that the strength cultivation base must be a level higher than hers to be able to do it.
“The key is that the shooter does this, which is equivalent to not taking the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace in his eyes!” “That’s right, Gongsun Yueying is the arrogance that the two temple masters value very much, and even one of the strong contenders for the future headmaster of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple.”
“Gongsun Yueying left Taixu Shenzong not long ago, will this matter involve us?”
The disciples of the Taixu Shenzong instantly became nervous, and some people even panicked.
To this end, Yin Xuejian also deliberately held an emergency meeting to discuss the matter.
All the holy sons and elders in the sect participated. It can be said that the Taixu Shenzong attaches great importance to this matter.
Inside the conference hall.
The faces of the senior members of the Taixu Shenzong were filled with solemn expressions.
“Let’s talk more about your opinion. We must agree on a countermeasure as soon as possible, otherwise the people in the sect will be in chaos.”
Yin Xuejian said in a serious tone.

The Great Holy Son was the first to speak: "Vice Sect Master, I think the real culprit behind the scenes is most likely aimed at the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple."
"In the battle for the dragon veins, the strong people of Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy were killed first, and then the deputy director Luo Yunyang and others who came to investigate the matter disappeared mysteriously."
"Now, the arrogance of the Sun Moon God Fire Hall has been killed, and Gongsun Yueying's whereabouts are unknown. These things are most likely done by the same person."
Everyone nodded in agreement. After all, these things happened one after another, and it was absolutely impossible that it was just a mere coincidence.
"So all the sects related to the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple are in danger?" Yin Xuejian's tone became a little more solemn.
The Great Holy Son nodded and said, "I'm afraid that is the case, and the Taixu Shenzong bears the brunt, we must take action."
"What do you mean?" Yin Xuejian asked with a meaningful look at the Great Saint.
As the successor of Taixu Shenzong in the future, Yin Xuejian also intends to cultivate his credibility.
So it will definitely be honed at times like this.
The Great Holy Son understood and said solemnly: "Recall the Tianjiao and the elders who have experienced abroad, and activate the guardian formation at the same time."
"Furthermore, contact the suzerain as much as possible. In this situation, I am afraid that only the suzerain can completely stabilize the military heart in this situation."
"The last thing is to send eyeliners to expand the scope of the investigation. As long as an abnormality is found, it will be reported to the sect immediately, so that there will be enough time to prepare for defense."

“This statement is reasonable, just do as you say.” Yin Xuejian’s face was full of relief.
Everyone was ordered to go to make arrangements.
As soon as he left the conference hall, Gong Qianqiu found the Great Holy Son.
“Husband, will Taixu Shenzong really be implicated?”
“Our friendship with the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace is not that deep, so we shouldn’t be so nervous, right?”
Although Gong Qianqiu was trying his best to control his emotions, he still couldn’t hide his nervousness.
The Great Sage said with a serious face: “I wasn’t alarmist just now. From these few things, I can see that the mysterious master is not acting according to common sense, otherwise Gongsun Yueying would never be alive.”
“Aren’t we in danger then?”
“All the powerhouses in the Temple of Sun and Moon Divine Fire were killed. Obviously, they are not afraid of the existence of large sects.”
Gong Qianqiu was even more uneasy in her heart, and she had even been scared out of a psychological shadow by that mysterious powerhouse.
The Great Holy Son sighed and said solemnly, “I am afraid that now only the Sect Master can help the Taixu Shenzong get through this disaster.”

At this time, Levi Garrison and his party stopped at the top of the Qingqiong Mountains.
“Sect Master, the building complex over there is the helm of the Taixu Shenzong.”
“According to our current schedule, we can arrive in less than two hours.”
Murong Qingxue said respectfully.
Levi Garrison followed the direction of Murong Qingxue’s fingers.
In the distance, the green hills are surrounded by green clouds and mists, and in the depths of the clouds and mists, many ancient buildings have already appeared.

Feng Shui treasure land.”
Levi Garrison said jokingly.
To be honest, Levi Garrison was quite excited at this time.
The Taixu Shenzong is right in front of him, and he will soon be able to seek revenge for Gong Qianqiu and the three saints.
The previous blood debts are finally about to be liquidated.
“Sect Master, the front is already the territory of the Taixu Shenzong, and there are several auras secretly hidden.”
“It should be a master who guards the super spiritual veins. Should we go around? So as not to startle the snake.”
Murong Qingxue asked tentatively.
Levi Garrison waved his hand and said, “It’s not necessary, just kill it directly. I just want to make the disciples of the Taixu Shenzong suffer in fear.”
“As ordered!”
Murong Qingxue said in a deep voice.
In fact, Murong Qingxue could also understand Levi Garrison’s mood, and revenge Xuehen was naturally to make the enemy tremble.
Suffering in fear is the best way to get revenge, so that the past stagnation can be completely released.
The three of them continued to move forward, and it didn’t take long before they were stopped by the masters of Taixu Shenzong.
“Who are you waiting for?”
“This place is the realm of the Taixu Shenzong. If you continue to move forward, you will be killed.”
The guard’s tone was cold, and he didn’t take a few people in his eyes at all.
Of course, this is mainly because Levi Garrison and others intentionally hide their qi, and these people cannot detect their true cultivation.
“Kill it!”
Levi Garrison said lightly.

Murong Qingxue nodded, Gongsun Yueying also wanted to step forward to help, but Levi Garrison stopped her with his eyes in advance.
"Someone robbed the Holy Vein and asked for support!"
As soon as the words fell, the disciples of the Taixu Shenzong who were guarding around rushed over.
Murong Qingxue sneered, these people didn't even know that they were dying.
"You idiots with no eyeballs, it's better to die, so as not to waste cultivation resources."
After Murong Qingxue finished speaking, she directly rushed into the crowd. Under her fierce offensive, the guards of the Taixu Shenzong soon suffered heavy casualties.
In particular, the reinforcements that rushed to the scene in the future already had elderlevel powerhouses.
At first, the elder didn't care, but soon he found Levi Garrison and Gongsun Yueying who were watching the play not far away.
He once went to the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace to do business, and was very impressed with Gongsun Yueying.
"Isn't this the sweet girl of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace?"
"How can she follow a young man who is not good-looking, could it be…"
The elder suddenly seemed to realize something, and said hurriedly: "You stand up first, I have something important to report back to the sect."
The disciples of the Taixu Shenzong were suddenly a little stunned.
However, without giving them too much time to react, Murong Qingxue had already killed him.
These guards were of average strength, and Murong Qingxue easily dealt with them, killing as many as half of them in no time.
The other half of the staff had no idea of resistance at all, and fled to the helm of the Taixu
Shenzong.
"Don't chase after poor thieves, let them report!"
Levi Garrison said with a light smile.

Murong Qingxue hurriedly stopped her figure, she immediately understood what Levi Garrison meant, this was to mentally torture Gong Qianqiu and others! the other side.
The Great Holy Son, Gong Qianqiu and others are discussing how to prevent masters from committing crimes.
I saw someone running in with a panicked face outside.
"Elder Qi, what's wrong with you?" The Great Holy Son asked in confusion.
Qi Dapeng panted and said: "The big thing is bad, the mysterious master killed him."
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter
4007 -
This sentence is like a huge boulder falling into the lake from a high altitude, and the waves suddenly start.
"what?"
The Great Holy Son and others were all shocked.
"Elder Qi, can you speak clearly?"
"Where did the master come from? What master killed him again?"
"That's right, let's talk it out."
Others asked.
Qi Dapeng said succinctly: "I was ordered to station in the Qingqiong Mountains. Not long ago, someone stepped into the boundary and conflicted with the disciples who guarded the veins."
"I rushed to the scene and saw that one of them was Gongsun Yueying, the beautiful daughter of the Sun Moon God Fire Temple who disappeared not long ago."
"Elder Qi, it's a big deal, have you recognized the wrong person?" Gong Qianqiu asked nervously.
Qi Dapeng waved his hand and said, "Elder Gong doesn't know anything. I have gone to the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace to do business, and I have seen Gongsun Yueying more than once."
"Moreover, Gongsun Yueying has an outstanding appearance and a little redness between the eyebrows is particularly obvious. I will never admit my mistake."

sizzle!
The scene instantly sounded the sound of one after another sucking in the cold air.
Some time ago, many geniuses in the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall were killed, and Gongsun Yueying's whereabouts are unknown.
Now that it has reappeared, who else is there besides the mysterious powerhouse with Gongsun Yueying?
"Gollum!"
The Great Holy Son swallowed hard. For the first time in his life, he was so afraid.
Especially now that the sect master has not been contacted, if such a strong person attacks, it will almost be a disaster!
"Hurry up, let me know, the whole sect will enter the highest alert state."
"Elder Qi, and a few of you, come with me now to see the vice sect master."
"The rest of the people cooperate with the disciples in the sect to maintain the defensive formation. The most important thing is to stabilize the morale of the army, and don't let them mess up their positions."
The Great Holy Son forcibly suppressed the apprehension in his heart and ordered.
Everyone nodded and went out to prepare.
Several saints, together with Gong Qianqiu, followed the first son to see Yin Xuejian.
Once the news spread, the entire Taixu Shenzong was completely messed up.
Although the elders tried their best to appease them, they still had little effect.
"That is a peerless powerhouse that is not even afraid of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple. Can our Taixu Shenzong hold it?"
"It is said that the arrogance of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple that was destroyed at the beginning can easily wipe out a medium-sized sect, and in the end, won't the entire army be wiped out?"

“This peerless powerhouse is likely from the super hidden world sect, and now that the sect master is not there, I am afraid that the Taixu Shenzong is over.”
“I heard that after hearing the news at that time, even the Great Holy Son and the others panicked. Let’s ask ourselves for more blessings!”
The aura of fear and despair spread inside the Taixu Shenzong.
The more the elders tried to appease, the more serious the negative emotions of everyone, and they directly entered a vicious circle mode.
clang clang!
Under the urging of the formation, the alarm bell kept ringing.
This made many disciples’ already anxious emotions worsened.
Of course, there are also some die-hard disciples of the Taixu Shenzong. They have entered the sect to cultivate since childhood, and have extremely deep feelings for the Taixu Shenzong.
Now that the Taixu Shenzong has suffered a catastrophe, these die-hard disciples have vowed to live and die together with the sect.
Inside the conference hall.
Yin Xuejian’s face was gloomy and solemn.
Although I thought that I might be implicated before, I never thought that the peerless powerhouse would come so quickly.
“Fortunately, we have summoned many masters before, but facing such a strong man is not enough.”
“Go on, everyone will take out the strongest magic weapons and magic weapons, and start all defensive formations.” “Although these defensive formations are not enough to resist peerless powerhouses, as long as they can play a role in consumption.”
“This seat will also sacrifice the divine calamity. After this period of warm upbringing, it will not reach the level of divine soldiers, but it will definitely increase its lethality.”
Yin Xuejian said solemnly.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4008 -

After all, Yin Xuejian was the deputy suzerain, but these words calmed everyone's panic.
Especially mentioning the calamity, it also gave everyone a little more hope.
The Taixu Shenzong originally majored in kendo, and Yin Xuejian's practice in kendo was closer to the realm of perfection.
If coupled with the blessing of the divine calamity, even if the mysterious powerhouse cannot be defeated, it can consume the opponent's qi to a great extent.
"And it is to spread out the mysterious powerhouse and let all the surrounding sects join in."
"They should understand the truth that lips are dead and teeth are cold, and there may be a chance of cooperating with Taixu Shenzong."
"There is only one dead end in fighting alone."
Yin Xuejian's voice was extremely cold.
This battle is related to the life and death of the Taixu Shenzong, and the strength of the strong man is too terrifying. Only by adopting the crowd tactics can there be a glimmer of hope.
Gong Qianqiu suddenly said: "Vice Sect Master, I suggest to inform the Sun Moon God Fire Hall as soon as possible."
"It's just that the murderer who killed many Tianjiao in the temple has been found, and even Gongsun Yueying is under his control."
"If we can bring Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall and Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy into the camp, our odds of winning will be even greater."
"This statement is reasonable. Just follow Elder Gong's suggestion and quickly send the strongest disciple of Qinggong to send the message."
Yin Xuejian said with admiration, "Saint Son, you are truly blessed to be able to marry such a virtuous internal assistant!"
"It's all the husband's guidance."
Gong Qianqiu smiled sweetly.

The Great Holy Son suddenly felt light on his face, especially when he felt the envious eyes of others, he even felt airy.
"And then there is the activation of the killing sword array. This seat needs to use the power of the sword array to integrate into the divine catastrophe and cut out the strongest blow."
"I really don't believe that such a strong offensive can't hurt him in the slightest."
Yin Xuejian said sullenly.
Gong Qianqiu was suddenly a little surprised, she had never heard of the killing sword array before!
The Great Holy Son's voice transmission explained: "Killing Sword Formation and Protecting Sect Defense Formation are both the strongest formations in the sect."
"Especially, the Killing Sword Formation is formed by combining the power of the dragon veins with the sword intent of many strong men within the sect."
"Only by activating the special sword tactics in the sect can the killing sword array be drawn out. At that time, with the divine calamity, it will be able to exert the strongest power."
Gong Qianqiu suddenly realized that it was Taixu Shenzong. If it wasn't for the peerless Shenbing Zongzong before, I am afraid that he would have been among the big sects long ago.
"Okay, everyone, go get ready!"
Yin Xuejian said solemnly.
Everyone left the meeting room.
Gong Qianqiu looked from a distance and saw that all the disciples in the sect were in a hurry.
Many elders also hold ancient swords and magic weapons, and these things have never appeared before.
Obviously these people took out the treasures at the bottom of the press box.

For a while, the Taixu Shenzong entered a state of preparation for the battle.
At the same time, the sects around the Taixu Shenzong also received relevant information.
Because the person in charge of the communication of the Taixu Shenzong deliberately exaggerated, the mysterious master was perfectly shaped into a lunatic who would unscrupulously plunder the cultivation resources.
He even blamed the mysterious master for the crime of devouring many sects before.
This made many small and medium-sized sects in danger, and immediately decided to hold on to the thigh of Taixu Shenzong.
As for the few medium-sized sects, they also felt that they had a better chance of winning together, so they sent strong men to the Taixu Shenzong.
On the other side, the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple also quickly got the message.
The hall master immediately ordered all the elite Tianjiao to come out, and even the Sun
Moon Shenhuo Academy was dispatched to help at the fastest speed.
Of course, in order to ensure that nothing goes wrong, the Sun Moon Divine Fire
Temple also issued orders to its subordinate sectarian forces to rush to support.
Many forces are like a hundred rivers meeting Qi Qi Hai and flocking to the Taixu
Shenzong.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4009 -
the other side.
Levi Garrison and others gradually approached the helm of Taixu Shenzong.
No resistance was encountered during the process, and all the disciples who were guarding the sacred veins on the periphery were ordered to retreat to the main rudder.
Of course, this is also to avoid being defeated by Levi Garrison and others.

Watching the halls at the helm of the Taixu Shenzong gradually become clear, and even the scene of the peripheral disciples hurriedly preparing for the battle came into view.
The corners of Levi Garrison's mouth twitched slightly.
"Gong Qianqiu, today is your doomsday, and there will be no future troubles in the base camp from now on."
"If Taixu Shenzong dares to meddle in its own business, let it disappear completely!"
"By the way, the divine robbery must be brought back. Although it is an object that I made casually, it is still Laozi's thing."
Levi Garrison couldn't hide the excitement in his heart, and all the previous blood debts could finally be settled.
At this point, Levi Garrison involuntarily accelerated the pace of progress.
After walking for another five or six minutes, Levi Garrison and the others had reached the periphery of Taixu Shenzong.
The three of them could clearly see the layers of energy fluctuations flowing in the formation.
Even with their ears, they could hear the whispering voices of the Taixu Shenzong disciples hidden in the dark.
"Master, someone is approaching, be careful!"
At this moment, Gongsun Yueying suddenly reminded.
Murong Qingxue was slightly startled, she didn't feel any suspicious aura approaching.
Levi Garrison nodded and said, "It's okay, it should be an acquaintance."
Sure enough, after a while, a burly figure emerged from the depths of the jungle, and in the blink of an eye came to Levi Garrison and the others.
Murong Qingxue couldn't help but suck in a breath of cold air, because she found out that the person who came was the black-armored devil she encountered in Yulong City before.
"Xiao Feng, it really is you!"
Levi Garrison looked a little complicated, but then asked in a cold voice, "What are you doing to block the way?”

Pfft!
Xiao Feng fell to his knees directly, and said in a very earnest tone: “Master, please don’t do anything to the Taixu Shenzong today.”
“What did you say?”
Levi Garrison’s tone became even colder.
Xiao Feng quickly explained: “Master, give me a chance to atone for my sins!”
“Gong Qianqiu, I will kill her personally, and I will destroy the Taixu Shenzong myself, and I will ask the master to complete it.”
Bang bang bang!
Xiao Feng kowtowed to Levi Garrison three times in a row, and there was blood on his forehead.
Levi Garrison pondered for a moment, and he could feel Xiao Feng’s true emotions about taking revenge himself.
At the same time, I also understand that Xiao Feng is definitely not coming to plead for Gong Qianqiu’s lingering affection for her now.
Instead, he really wanted to take revenge on Xuehen through his own strength. After all,
Gong Qianqiu played Xiao Feng all over the place.
If you can’t take revenge yourself, I’m afraid that there will be a permanent demon in Xiao Feng.
“Okay, I promise you.”
Levi Garrison said after thinking for a long time.
Xiao Feng said gratefully, “Thank you, Master, for your accomplishment. Thank you, Master, for your accomplishment.”
“Xiao Feng, how are you now?”
“Extreme phagocytosis has many drawbacks. Now your body size and bones have changed. If you continue to devour it, the consequences will be disastrous.”
Levi Garrison said earnestly.
Xiao Feng laughed miserably and said, “Master, all of this is my own fault. Now that I’m at this level, I deserve it.”

“But Master, no matter what the price I will pay, I will kill Gong Qianqiu with my own hands.”
“This is the path I’ve decided to take, Master, don’t ask any more questions.”
“In the future, I will take revenge on Xuehen, and I will end it on my own. I will give an explanation to the brothers in the base camp and the master, Levilia.” Xiao Feng’s attitude was extremely firm, and he did not give Levi Garrison a chance to continue to persuade him.
“Master, the unfilial disciple left first, and Gong Qianqiu’s life is recorded on my account.”
After speaking, Xiao Fengtou left quickly without returning.
Looking at Xiao Feng’s back, Levi Garrison sighed faintly.
The past is vivid in my mind, as if it happened yesterday.
Xiao Feng was very persistent in chasing casuals at that time, and it was precisely because of this character that he stood out among many young people.
Unexpectedly, Xiao Feng finally fell into trouble in his character.
Character determines life, this sentence is really true!
“This child is really on the point, and his paranoid personality has not changed from beginning to end.”
“Of course, this also shows what kind of trauma Gong Qianqiu has brought him?”
“But since he has decided to go down this road, let’s just let it go!”
Levi Garrison silently made a decision in his heart.
Looking at the Taixu Shenzong nearby, especially when he could vaguely see the frightened expressions of the disciples in the distant sect, Levi Garrison sighed again.
“Since Xiao Feng decided to take revenge himself, then leave this opportunity to him!”
“Gong Qianqiu, Sanshengzi, let you live longer.”
Levi Garrison immediately waved to the two women and said solemnly, “Let’s go!”
The disciples of the Taixu Shenzong were waiting in earnest, and their spirits were extremely nervous.
Messages kept coming back from the eyeliner at the very edge of the sect.

There were even two outermost disciples who claimed to have seen the peerless master.
Xiang's whole person seems ordinary, both appearance and temperament are mediocre to the extreme.
But he was accompanied by two beautiful young women, but it didn't take long for another black armor master to come.
The two sides seemed to have talked about something, but the hesitation distance was too far, and the two eyeliners did not dare to approach, and they did not hear the content of the conversation.
In short, not long after the conversation, the three turned around and left, and finally disappeared without a trace in the jungle.
"Don't take it lightly, the master should have discovered the energy fluctuation of the formation that we started."
"Even if he has extraordinary strength, he is bound to act cautiously in the face of the Protector's Great Array. I think he is looking for a better offensive direction."
"Continue to expand the scope of exploration, and report immediately once the formation has power feedback."
The Great Holy Son analyzed the message after hearing the message.
Everyone felt reasonable, after all, this explanation is the most logical.
Although the super powerhouse dared to kill the Tianjiao of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple on the periphery, the Dragon Vein was implicated in the guardian formation.
Inspiring the power of the dragon veins to launch an attack, and then combining with many masters to attack together, it really makes sense to be cautious.
Gong Qianqiu was in a particularly uneasy mood, and the cold sweat on his forehead flowed uncontrollably.
She knows how difficult it is to exhaust the power of the dragon veins in one day, and even the physical load will reach an extremely terrifying level.

In this way, it can be deduced that this mysterious master has a high probability of being a super-strength physique cultivator, otherwise the expansion of his strength will cause him to explode and die.
Regarding extreme swallowing, Gong Qianqiu felt that he had a say in the Taixu
Shenzong.
Would such a terrifying powerhouse really be afraid of a formation based on dragon veins?
Gong Qianqiu is seriously skeptical about this.
Once the mysterious powerhouse attacks the Taixu Shenzong, the status that he has finally achieved will be in vain.
"Damn it!"
Gong Qianqiu clenched her fists tightly, and she even began to pray that the mysterious powerhouse would not attack Taixu Shenzong.
At least don't attack until you have built up enough strength, otherwise it will be difficult to make a comeback.
Time passed by, and the Taixu Shenzong still showed no signs of being attacked.
Whether Gong Qianqiu, the Great Holy Son, or the others of the Taixu Shenzong are extremely anxious and worried.
At this moment, a message came from the outer eyeliner, and the powerhouses of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple arrived, led by the two temple masters in person.
The disciples of the Taixu Shenzong suddenly cheered up, this is the best reinforcement.
They continued to wait for the arrival of the mysterious powerhouse.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4010 -
Everyone waited for a long time in the complex emotions of anxiety and worry, but there was still no sign of the mysterious master attacking.
Almost everyone is very irritable.
It was as if he had gathered all his strength for a heavy punch, but ended up hitting a large ball of cotton.

“Don’t take it lightly, the mysterious powerhouse is definitely playing psychological warfare.”
“When we thought everything was going well, we suddenly took action and caught us by surprise!”
Yin Xuejian said with a serious face.
When everyone heard the words, they continued to maintain a state of concentration and preparation.
In the face of such a formidable opponent, the Taixu Shenzong did not dare to act rashly, after all, their suzerain has not been heard from until now.
However, with the passage of time, there were more and more powerhouses in the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple and Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy.
After getting the information at that time, the two major forces notified the strong people who had experienced and performed tasks in various places in the Kunlun Ruins to gather to defend against the enemy.
It’s just because the distances are different, that’s why they arrive at the Taixu Shenzong at different times.
It is precisely because the masters of the two major forces gather more and more, and their confidence is getting stronger and stronger.
“Don’t wait any longer, go directly to the Qingqiong Mountains, are we still afraid of him alone with so many masters?”
The Lord of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall said immediately.
As a large-scale sect, the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple has its own pride.
Especially in front of so many sectarian powerhouses, the temple master felt that the domineering and strength of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple should be displayed even more.
A single command fell like a mountain.
The experts from the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall and the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy rushed towards the Qingqiong Mountains.

Other sects waited and watched, but the affiliated forces of the two major sects followed closely, and it didn't take long for the Qingqiong Mountains to be surrounded by water.
However, after a blanket search, no suspicious persons were found.
At this moment, the experts from the Taixu Shenzong who got the information also rushed to the scene.
Of course, in addition to wanting to get rid of the huge hidden danger of the mysterious powerhouse as soon as possible, he also wanted to gain some affection in front of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace.
In order to make it easier to send Zongnei geniuses to the Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy for further study.
However, everyone fluttered in the Qingqiong Mountains, and they were puzzled.
"Where did the mysterious master go? Even if you choose the best time to attack, you can't leave the entire mountain range!"
"It's a bit strange that so many strong men are exploring together, but they can't find the other party's trace!"
"You said he wouldn't run away?"
There was a lot of discussion.
After all, so many powerhouses are gathering, all of them are releasing energy for exploration, no matter how strong the opponent is, there is nowhere to hide.
But until now, there has been no discovery, so the mysterious master may have left.
The Great Holy Son and Gong Qianqiu walked side by side, and beside them were the core executives of the Taixu Shenzong.
They also frowned deeply, and obviously did not figure out what the mysterious powerhouse intended.
"Husband, what do you think this mysterious master is doing?"
Gong Qianqiu asked tentatively.
"I really can't figure it out."

The Great Holy Son shook his head and continued: "But according to the style of the mysterious master who did not leave no room for killing, it is not the style of thunder and rain, and there must be some kind of conspiracy brewing."
Everyone nodded, and the mysterious master slaughtered the Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy and many sectarian powerhouses in order to win the dragon vein.
This is obviously not afraid of offending people without any scruples.
Even just not long ago, the mysterious powerhouse directly broke into the Qingqiong Mountains and let the disciples of the Taixu Shenzong go back to report.
Otherwise, if you really want to make a surprise attack, with the strength of a mysterious powerhouse, how can you let those disciples who have cultivated at the lowest level escape?
"Don't guess, I have a conclusion in my heart."
A sound like muffled thunder exploded in everyone's ears.
Everyone looked for the voice and saw Yin Xuejian accompanied by two old men with white hair and beard.
The person who spoke was the burly old man standing in the middle.
He was wearing a black robe, with sun and moon flames embroidered on his chest, and a palace below was lifelike.
"This person is Situ Wanli, the master of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple."
The Great Holy Son hurriedly introduced Gong Qianqiu's voice transmission.
Gong Qianqiu was shocked, and did not expect to see a real big man so soon.
Even a vice sect master like Yin Xuejian had to nod and bow down to others with a flattering expression.
"Palace Master Situ, what do you mean?"
Yin Xuejian asked respectfully, as if asking for advice humbly.
Situ Wanli said solemnly: "According to this seat, that person was scared away when he saw all the powerhouses of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall all approaching."

“The reason why he dared to blatantly come to take revenge is to deceive your Taixu Shenzong. In the final analysis, he is a waste who bullies the soft and fears the hard.”
Everyone suddenly felt a sense of enlightenment.
They were all preconceived before, because the various practices of the mysterious master showed that he was a peerless powerhouse without any scruples.
That’s why everyone doesn’t think about it.
“Even if the arrogance of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall is powerful, they are definitely not as strong as the many masters of the Taixu Shenzong today.” “It’s not wrong, it must be as the Situ Hall Master said, otherwise that person would not have slaughtered so many people.”
“Isn’t it just worrying that Tianjiao will return to the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall to report the news and expose their identities?”
“Now that we are strong, he naturally won’t act rashly, he must be afraid.”
Everyone present was shocked, swept away the previous malaise.
It turned out that the peerless powerhouse was also afraid at times.
Everyone seemed to break through the shackles of the previous psychological shadows in an instant, and regained a new life of confidence.
“The Temple of Sun and Moon Divine Fire is mighty.”
“Situ Hall Master is domineering.”
“we won!”
The crowd cheered and cheered loudly.
Seeing this situation, Situ Wanli nodded with satisfaction, which was also the effect he wanted.
Many Tianjiao were killed by mysterious masters, which caused heavy casualties to the younger generation of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace.
Therefore, the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple is in urgent need of fresh blood.
But Situ Wanli would not surrender his identity to send people to recruit because of his face.
After this incident, the senior leaders of many sects are bound to send the talented younger generation to the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy.

At that time, the newly cultivated forces will be used by the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple.
"Everyone, be quiet, I have something to say here."
With the sound of Situ Wanli's voice, the originally noisy scene instantly quieted down.
"We can't just blindly defend, that would be too passive, and it would make the madman even more reckless."
"That's why this seat reminds me that all the elites of the sects are present, and the Aether Void Shenzong is the center of the circle to search around in a carpet-like manner."
"Everyone carries sound transmission tools with them to keep the information flowing between each other, so that the effect of timely support can be achieved."
"Do you have any objections?"
Although the sentence pattern belongs to the category of questions, Situ Wanli has a command-like tone, and there is no room for negotiation.
However, the many sects present did not have any objections. After all, the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple was indeed a large sect.
Coupled with the blessing of Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy, regardless of overall strength or influence, it is also a leader among large sects.
"It's entirely up to the Situ Hall Master to decide."
"I am willing to be the leader of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple."
"Kill the madman, the hall master is mighty."
Everyone's emotions were high, and the momentum was like a rainbow.
"This seat will issue an order to kill the madman from today, let's go!"
Following Situ Wanli's order, hundreds of sects, large and small, launched a pursuit.
The Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple has distributed communication tools for them, and once they are found, they will immediately send a message.
the other side.
Levi Garrison left the Qingqiong Mountains with Murong Qingxue and Gongsun Yueying.

For him, the biggest purpose of this trip to Kunlun Ruins has been basically completed.
The goal set at the beginning was to investigate the situation of Kunlun Ruins and obtain deeper information of Taixu Shenzong.
Now, not only has the intelligence investigation been clear, but he has also overfulfilled the mission and used the Xingyue Divine Sect for his own use.
If Xiao Feng hadn't decided to take revenge himself, the Taixu Shenzong would have vanished long ago.
Of course, the next step is to see when Xiao Feng will go to take revenge. At that time,
Levi Garrison will either watch it secretly or help directly.
But with Xiao Feng's current cultivation realm, he probably won't go to Taixu Shenzong for revenge in a short time, otherwise it would be no different from seeking death.
With Xiao Feng's character, he must reach a state of absolute confidence before going to Gong Qianqiu for liquidation, so it will take a long time.
"Now you can leave the Kunlun Ruins temporarily."
Levi Garrison thought secretly.
"Sect Master, where are we going next?"
Murong Qingxue asked tentatively.
As the saintess of the Star Moon Sect, Murong Qingxue was still very worried about the safety of the sect.
Sooner or later, Luo Yunyang was killed in the Xingyue Divine Sect, and they would suffer the wrath of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy and the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple.
If Levi Garrison is not in charge of the sect, then once the incident occurs, the Xingyue Shenzong will be wiped out in the blink of an eye.
Levi Garrison pondered for a moment and said, "Go back to the Xingyue Divine Sect first! I still have some things for you to do."
"If the sovereign has any requirements, just mention it, and our entire sect will definitely go all out to complete it."

Murong Qingxue said in a sincere tone.
Levi Garrison was willing to return to the Xingyue Sect, which was great news for Murong Qingxue.
"I need you to find some raw materials for forging weapons. Of course, the higher the quality of these materials, the better."
Levi Garrison said with a smile.
In fact, this matter was planned in Levi Garrison's mind when he learned that his forging skills were superb.
Levilia and others also need some top-level weapons to improve their combat effectiveness.
According to the information, the gods that he forged with low-level materials were all regarded by the Taixu Shenzong as the magic weapon of the town.
If you find some high-grade raw materials for forging in the Kunlun Ruins, and cooperate with the power of the dragon veins, can you create a peerless magic weapon?
The realm of cultivation can not be improved overnight, but the magic weapon belongs to the external force.
As long as there is enough blacksmithing, the same level of powerhouse can instantly improve the combat effectiveness.
"Good Sect Master, we will do our best to help you find forging materials."
Murong Qingxue said excitedly.
Only with enough value can Levi Garrison pay more attention, so that he can not be afraid of the coercion of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace.
Then Levi Garrison took the two daughters back to the Xingyue Shenzong.
When the people in the sect saw that Gongsun Yueying had become Levi Garrison's maid, it caused an uproar again.
Everyone was more afraid and respectful of Levi Garrison.
Even the little princesses of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace are willing to be slaves and maids. What reason do they have for not bowing their heads and becoming ministers?

"Find a dragon vein as soon as possible, and then the material for refining weapons.
The higher the top, the better."
"I have seen a lot in an ancient book, such as Tianxing Iron, Fire Gold, Dragon Stone, Divine Bone, etc…"
Levi Garrison found that as he kept saying these materials, the faces of everyone present became more and more ugly.
"Any questions?"
Levi Garrison asked with some doubts.
Everyone looked at each other, not knowing how to reply to Levi Garrison.
In the end, Murong Wanqing organized the language and responded, "Sect Master, these things are too rare, let's take Longshi as an example!"
"It takes hundreds or even thousands of years for dragon veins to breed, and dragon stones with strong aura can even generate spiritual wisdom to some extent."
"Forged weapons can really be used for this…"
Although the latter words were not completely spoken, Levi Garrison also understood what she meant.
Levi Garrison looked at the others with a smile, and sure enough, their reactions were similar.
Murong Wanqing's meaning is obvious, dragon stone is a top-grade forging raw material, and its preciousness and rarity far exceed that of ordinary dragon veins.
Even small dragon veins can't breed dragon stones, and even the dragon vein that Levi
Garrison snatched from last time has no dragon stones.
One can imagine the preciousness and rarity of dragon stones.
And with such top-quality raw materials, ordinary forging techniques can't control it at all.
To put it bluntly, even if an ordinary blacksmith has a dragon stone, he cannot forge a peerless divine weapon, which is completely a waste of time.

The members of the Star Moon Sect are questioning their forging skills.
"Well, you bring me some of the raw materials in the sect."
"Then take me to the location of the Sacred Veins within the sect."
"Just for you, the elders of the sect, to create a handy guy style."
Levi Garrison said with a smile.
Being exposed on the spot by what they were thinking, the elders of the Xingyue Divine Sect looked embarrassed.
But being able to test Levi Garrison's forging skills on the spot made everyone look forward to it.
Especially seeing Levi Garrison's confident appearance, everyone was a little excited.
"It seems that the new Sect Master really has two brushes!"
Such thoughts flashed in everyone's mind.
Murong Wanqing immediately ordered people to take out many raw materials, and then took Levi Garrison to the land of the Holy Vein.
"let's start!"
Before he finished speaking, Levi Garrison had already started forging.
The skilled movements and superb techniques made the members of the Xingyue Divine Sect stunned for a while.
"Sect Master's forging is too superb, isn't it?"
"This seat has participated in the blacksmithing competition held jointly by many sects, and the level of the blacksmithing champion is far less than that of the suzerain."
"I'm afraid this is comparable to the top forging techniques of Kunlun Ruins, right?"
"Elder Qi, please change your interrogative sentence into a declarative sentence. I am afraid that only the King of Foundry can compare with the suzerain."
The King of Foundry is the existence with the strongest casting skills in Kunlun Ruins, and is revered as the God of War.
Many top sects exhausted all kinds of resources just to get a magic weapon.
However, the level of the God of War is far beyond the reach of the Star Moon Divine

Sect, and even the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace may not be able to reach that level.
It is said that only those super hidden families or sects can connect with the God of War.
However, after seeing Levi Garrison's superb forging, the shock in everyone's hearts could no longer be added.
It was soon replaced by excitement and excitement. As long as he could hug Levi Garrison's thigh, why wouldn't he have a peerless weapon?
It didn't take long for Levi Garrison to forge several weapons.
"The material level is too low, plus only the power of the Holy Vein is blessed, you should deal with these broken things first!"
Levi Garrison threw a few weapons to Murong Wanqing and the elders.
Broken stuff?
To deal with?
Everyone watched the magic of the weapons in their hands circulate, even the magic weapons of those large sects were just like that, right?
Was Levi Garrison turned into a piece of shit? Also let yourself deal with it?
But then again, it seems that people are right, the raw materials provided by the Xingyue Divine Sect at that time were all ordinary products.
If those are replaced with high-grade raw materials such as dragon stone and Tianxing iron, it is likely that the refined weapon will be a peerless weapon.
"Does the Sect Master really want to give these to me?"
Murong Wanqing asked excitedly.
Levi Garrison nodded with a smile, and said, "That's natural, I always count what I say."
"If you can find high-level raw materials and become rich in the future, I will also forge a few peerless weapons for you to play with."
Hearing this, there was an uproar at the scene.
"Thank you for the gift of the Sect Master!"
"The sovereign is mighty and domineering!"
"Sect Master, this forging technique has reached the pinnacle!"
The senior members of the Star Moon Sect were overjoyed and cheered.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector]

Chapter 4011
There is nothing artificial in this happy state.
The senior members of the Star Moon Sect were indeed extremely excited.
The last trace of resentment in the heart of Levi Garrison's dove occupying the magpie's nest has completely disappeared.
Some of the weapons that Levi Garrison created at will, are even much stronger than their divine weapons.
Aside from other cultivation techniques, just relying on these magical weapons in hand, their combat effectiveness has improved a lot compared to before.
And Levi Garrison made it very clear that if the top raw materials found in the future are abundant, they will get a real peerless weapon.
"I finally understand why the Sect Master insists on finding top-level forging materials."
"Yeah, except for those top-level raw materials, other ordinary products are simply not worthy of the forging skills of the sect master."
"Our sect will simply change its name to Peerless God Binggu in the future."
"Hey, the name Elder Chen is a bit arrogant! But it does match the temperament of the sect master's forging technique."
Seeing everyone's delighted appearance, Levi Garrison was a little amused. This was what he thought was rubbish, yet he was still so sought after.
But this is also in line with their own interests, after all, only by giving both kindness and power can better control the Star Moon Sect.
Now it seems that the core high-level leaders of these sects have no complaints in their hearts. As long as they stand firm, the situation of the entire sect will be very stable.
Just when the Xingyue Shenzong was immersed in the joy of accidentally obtaining a divine soldier, a message suddenly came from the eyeliner.
"Reporting to the sect master, I have received the latest information. Situ Wanli, the master of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple, has ordered hundreds of sects to conduct a carpet search."

"There are also some experts from the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy who have arrived at the outermost helm of the Star Moon Divine Sect.
"Will the sub-rudder disciples fight back? Please also ask the suzerain to decide!"
Levi Garrison pondered for a moment, then said with a smile: "The weapons that were just forged were just used to test their sharpness."
"You don't have to resist, let those people in, and I'll go over and deal with them myself."
"As ordered!"
The eyeliner returned to the sub-rudder with an order.
Levi Garrison said solemnly: "You guys are here to guard the sect, and I'll get rid of those things that don't know how to live or die."
After finishing speaking, Levi Garrison picked up a long sword that was just forged at random, and rushed to the location of the powerhouse of Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy.
At the same time, a team of more than 30 members of the Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy Tianjiao elites were on their way aggressively.
"It seems that the Xingyue Shenzong is not necessarily the murderer, they simply don't dare to resist."
"If you lend Xingyue Divine Sect ten thousand courage, you won't dare to stop us!"
"But the hall master has an order, and we must find out some exact information, otherwise we will not be able to communicate at all."
Several leaders were talking to each other when they saw Luben standing in front of him alone.
The man's appearance is unremarkable, and he holds a long sword, but after talking and investigating, his strength is also mediocre.
The leader of the black robe said coldly, "Who are you, how dare you block the way of Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy?"
"The one who will kill you!"
Levi Garrison said with a smile.

The elites of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy suddenly became vigilant, but there was really nothing special about the opponent's strength.
"Bold madman, Tianjiao would like to see how talented you are!"
One of the black-robed leaders pulled out the long sword behind him, turning his figure into a phantom, and slashed at Levi Garrison's choked throat.
"Seeing Lao Tzu's skills is to pay the price of life."
Levi Garrison turned his wrist slightly and blocked with the horizontal sword.
Clang!
A crisp metal symphony sounded.
The long sword in the black robe elite's hand was directly cut off.
However, Levi Garrison's power with the long sword continued to be unabated, and he continued to cross the key point of the black robe leader.
The black-robed leader was shocked and couldn't dodge in time, a blood line flashed in the void, and his head was in a different place in an instant.
Before even humming, the body fell to the ground.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4012
sizzle!
There was a series of voices sucking cold air at the scene.
The strength of the black robe leader can rank in the top five in the team, but he was killed by the opponent's sword.
Such a huge gap in strength directly made the arrogance of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy feel incredible.
"Everyone be careful, the opponent holds a peerless weapon in his hand."
"Absolutely can't be wrong, otherwise Tengfei will never die."
"Kill him and snatch the magic weapon, so that even if we can't find a mysterious powerhouse, we can go back and claim credit."
The Tianjiao of the Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy stared at the long sword in Levi Garrison's hand.
It was as if a wolf who had been hungry for days almost drooled when he saw a piece of fat.
They know how precious the magic weapon is.

“Go together!”
Another black-robed leader gave the order.
Many arrogant gods swarmed up and surrounded Levi Garrison.
“If you want to win the magic weapon, you have to have strength. I will send you to hell to see your vice president!”
Before he finished speaking, Levi Garrison’s figure had disappeared.
The next second, Levi Garrison appeared in the rush formation of the arrogance of the Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy.
Jianmang flashed, and blood flew.
Every time Levi Garrison made a sword, he would take away a life, and the deceased were all blocked by a sword.
The action is clean and neat, without the slightest slack.
The Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy had an absolute numerical advantage, but was beaten by Levi Garrison alone.
That is, in three or five minutes, the corpses were lying all over the ground.
Only one surviving person fled in a hurry, and he fully realized the horror of Levi Garrison’s strength.
While fleeing, he took out his communication tool, intending to send a letter to Situ Wanli.
However, after only running out a few meters, I suddenly felt a strong murderous aura approaching at a high speed.
Turning his head to look, he saw a long sword shot at a high speed. He didn’t have any chance to dodge at all, and his heart was directly stabbed by the long sword.
puff!
The long sword ran through his body, and because the power was too terrifying, the whole person was directly taken flying.
In the end, he was nailed to an ancient tree trunk, and his body died of breathlessness during the speeding process.
“This weapon is really good, at least several grades stronger than the previous Divine Tribulation."

Levi Garrison took back the long sword and then floated away, as if everything here had nothing to do with him.
Afterwards, several sectarian elites came to explore the truth, and without exception, they were all destroyed by mysterious powerhouses.
Not long after, the news spread that the elites of Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy and many sectarian powerhouses were killed by mysterious masters.
And this area also seems to have become a forbidden area for life, and while the coax is uproar, it also causes panic among many sectarian forces.
No one knows who the murderer is.
However, the strength of the elites of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy was there, but they still did not escape the fate of being easily wiped out.
It is conceivable how powerful and terrifying the strength of the person who shot it is.
In the end, no one dared to come to this area to investigate the truth.
These "tragedies" were naturally made by Levi Garrison.
Anyway, waiting for the Xingyue Divine Sect to find materials is boring.
A few days later, the Xingyue Divine Sect also collected a lot of raw materials for refining.
But Star Iron, Fire Gold, Dragon Stone and Divine Bone were still not found.
This made Levi Garrison a little bit depressed, after all, he had already delayed a lot of time in Kunlun Ruins.
If you continue to consume so endlessly, it will not be worth the loss.
The key point is that he is still a little worried that he encountered the guardians of the gods in the secret realm before, and it is difficult to guarantee that they will not attack the base camp while he is in the Kunlun Ruins.
But Levi Garrison also knew that the people of the Xingyue Shenzong had done their best, because these materials were too hard to find.
"Is there any other way to find these things?" Levi Garrison asked in a deep voice.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter

4013 Levi Garrison raised a little anger in his heart, these are the materials that cannot be obtained to increase the absolute upper limit of divine weapons.
If you can't get it together, even if you forge weapons, you won't be able to reach the ideal state of magic.
But Levi Garrison really doesn't want to waste any more time. After all, there are hidden dangers in the secular world that can't be completely eradicated!
"Sect Master, I just got the message, maybe we can go to Longyang City to try our luck."
Murong Qingxue said suddenly.
Levi Garrison was overjoyed and hurriedly asked, "What's the situation in detail?"
"Sect Master, we have the largest city in this area called Longyang City."
"And the most influential force in Longyang City is the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce.
They have a lot of heaven and earth treasures there."
"According to the exact information, the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce has all the topquality raw materials you need."
Murong Qingxue explained everything in great detail.
Levi Garrison was quite excited when he heard the words, but he also made some judgments through Murong Qingxue's expression when he spoke.
"The Taiyi Chamber of Commerce is very strong?"
Levi Garrison asked with a smile.
"It's more than strong, that's very strong!"
Murong Qingxue smiled bitterly and said, "Don't say that the Xingyue Divine Sect is not an opponent, even the Sun and Moon Divine Fire Palace has to give three points."
"It can be said that the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce is an organization similar to an alliance. It spreads across many cities in the Kunlun Ruins, and even holds some unexplored dragon veins or even more resources."
"And Longyang City is only a branch. We should not provoke the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce easily, because once we make a move, it is very likely to affect the whole body."

Murong Qingxue's words were sincere, and her meaning was very clear.
That is, we have enough enemies now, and it would not be wise to provoke the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce again.
Murong Wanqing also persuaded: "Sect Master, let's think of other ways, there is no need to provoke the giant Taiyi Chamber of Commerce."
"I see what you mean."
Levi Garrison said quietly.
Everyone finally breathed a sigh of relief, but Levi Garrison's next sentence brought everyone's heart to their throats for a moment.
"You two, Murong Qingxue and Gongsun Yueying, prepare to go to Longyang City with me."
Levi Garrison said with a smile.
Everyone was stunned for a while when they heard the words.
We have all said that for so much, and your old man still has to go to the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce?
Knowing that there are tigers in the mountains, do you prefer to walk in the tiger mountains?
"Sect Master think twice!"
Everyone said in unison with bitter faces.
Levi Garrison sank his face instantly and said, "This is the decision I made after thinking about it. Anyone of you who is not satisfied can stand up."
"Sect Master is wise!"
The crowd immediately changed their tone.
The sound was uniform, as if it had been rehearsed countless times.
No matter how much they worry and object, they dare not stand up and express their opposition.
After all, this grandfather will kill someone if he doesn't agree!
Whose life was blown by the wind?
The style of this painting changed so quickly that Murong Qingxue wanted to laugh.

But when she considered that she was about to provoke the behemoth of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, Murong Qingxue had the heart to cry.
However, the matter decided by Levi Garrison is difficult to turn around, and the future can only be resigned to fate.
The next morning.
Levi Garrison set off with only Murong Qingxue and Gongsun Yueying.
The three of them walked very fast, and it took only five days to reach the gate of Longyang City.
There are still two or three miles away from the real city, and the tall city wall is already clearly visible.
From a distance, the city wall alone is more than ten feet high.
Moreover, the energy of the defensive formation on the city wall circulates, and Levi Garrison can clearly feel the powerful energy fluctuations.
"Once this defensive energy is activated, it can be compared to the secret realm!"
Levi Garrison sighed in his heart that it is indeed a real big city, and the defensive formations on the periphery are so strong.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4014
Just as Levi Garrison was feeling emotional, he suddenly heard the sound of breaking the sound barrier in the air.
Looking up, I saw a giant ship in the shape of an animal flying past at high speed.
Because the speed of the gigantic ship was so fast, even Levi Garrison couldn't see the whole picture of it.
"This speed is far from even the aircraft designed by the brain of God!"
Levi Garrison was quite surprised, and did not know what the power source of this thing was.
But it seems that it should be some kind of manned aircraft, and it is a unique means of transportation in Kunlun Ruins.
"What is this?"
Levi Garrison asked with some doubts.

Murong Qingxue explained respectfully, "Sect Master, this thing is called Yunzhou, and it is usually designed in the shape of an animal, using top-level spiritual crystals as fuel."
"Not only can it be used as a tool, but it can also be used as a super powerful weapon!"
"This kind of cloud boat can only be owned by superpowers. There are no sects of the level like Taixu Shenzong and Xingyue Shenzong."
"Of course, even if it costs a lot to buy a cloud boat, our sect doesn't have enough spirit crystals to use as fuel."
"Even the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy doesn't have a cloud boat."
Levi Garrison smiled slightly to show his understanding, this is an upgraded version that can't burn oil even if he can afford a car!
After all, for a sect of this level like the Xingyue Divine Sect, top-level spirit crystals can't wait to distribute them to the arrogant people as training resources!
If it was used as fuel for the Yunzhou, wouldn't it be a waste of time?
However, this incident can also show that this Longyang City is indeed extraordinary.
It is conceivable that the resources of the dragon veins are definitely not few because of the consumption of spirit crystals that can supply Yunzhou.
"Longyang City is the largest city in this area, and it is not unusual to have a cloud boat."
"But looking at the vast Kunlun Ruins, the location of Longyang City is not perfect."
"The real top cities are in the center of Kunlun Ruins, where Yunzhou can be seen almost everywhere."
Gongsun Yueying added by the side.
Levi Garrison turned his head and asked, "So you've been to the central city?"
"Fortunate to have been there once."
Gongsun Yueying paused and continued, "The Yunzhou is also divided into many levels according to its shape."
"For example, the cloud boat just now is obviously in the shape of a red deer. If it is a dragon and tiger-shaped cloud boat, it has more functions and more powerful."

"I never thought that Yunzhou would say so much."
Levi Garrison is also considered to have increased his knowledge, but think carefully about the quality of cars in the secular world.
Ordinary family cars and top sports cars are different in configuration and speed.
"Let's go to town!"
After Levi Garrison finished speaking, he walked forward.
Murong Qingxue and Gongsun Yueying followed closely, but Murong Qingxue could not hide her worry in comparison.
Several people soon arrived at the city gate, and not far away, there was a city guard checking the crowd.
It's not so much an inspection, it's a simple registration and cultivation test, to have a general understanding of the people entering the city.
This approach can prevent people with ulterior motives from coaxing things in the city.
More than a dozen city defense troops inspected the goods in detail, and an old man with white beard and hair was sitting in the city gate hole.
The old man was wearing a white robe, with a lifelike dragon embroidered on his chest, and the blazing sun was standing on the dragon's head.
"Sect Master, this person is the elder of the army supervisor of Longyang City, who is specially responsible for investigating the cultivation realm of the process personnel."
Murong Qingxue introduced through voice transmission.
Levi Garrison nodded slightly to show his understanding. In his opinion, the strength of the old man was comparable to that of Murong Wanqing.
It is indeed not small for Longyang City to send a strong man who is at the helm of the middle sect to investigate the strength.
Of course, even if it is a city defense army that is generally inspecting items, the strength of each person is placed in the middle sect, and it is comparable to the level of ordinary Tianjiao.

When passing by the supervisor of the army elder, the latter only stayed on Gongsun Yueying for a while.
As for Levi Garrison and Murong Qingxue, they were obviously completely ignored by the supervisors.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter
4015
After entering the city, Murong Qingxue saw that Levi Garrison's eyebrows were slightly raised, and he hurriedly asked, "Sect Master, what's wrong?"
"We are being watched, it doesn't matter, don't pay attention to him."
As he spoke, Levi Garrison glanced at Gongsun Yueying with a deep meaning.
Just now, Murong Qingxue and herself had deliberately suppressed their cultivation.
Only Gongsun Yueying not only did not suppress, but even deliberately showed a murderous aura.
Thinking about it, it was this murderous aura that caught the attention of the elders of the supervisor.
"Could it be that Gongsun Yueying came to Longyang City and wanted to do something small?"
Although Levi Garrison thought so in his heart, there was no sign of any strangeness on his face.
After Murong Qingxue learned that she was being targeted, she felt even more nervous in addition to being uneasy.
But when she saw Levi Garrison's confident appearance, her tense state of mind was inexplicably relaxed.
Levi Garrison didn't know the complicated changes in Murong Qingxue's mentality, but looked at everything in the city.
The main road in Longyang City is spacious and neat, with a width of more than ten feet, and the ground is laid with flat bluestone slabs.

There are various stalls on both sides of the street to trade all kinds of natural materials and treasures.
Especially the surrounding buildings have a retro style, as if they have traveled directly to hundreds of years ago, and there are pavilions and pavilions.
The entrance and walls of the mansion are even more carved, and the frescoes and reliefs are lifelike and dizzying.
Even the stone lions placed in front of the door are made of top-level sacred veins or even dragon vein mines.
It has to be said that these mansions are luxurious enough.
The three continued to walk forward, and Levi Garrison even saw a private medicine garden, which was planted with various precious medicinal herbs.
Even from a distance of more than ten feet, Levi Garrison could clearly feel the pure aura and the natural medicinal fragrance emanating from the medicinal herbs.
On the street, there are many people coming and going, especially with all kinds of spirit beasts accompanying the pedestrians.
"This Longyang City is really a master like a cloud!"
Levi Garrison sighed in his heart that he found that among the pedestrians with the worst cultivation base, they were even stronger than the elders of the Cang Qiong faction.
The tough ones are completely comparable to the middle-level sect sect masters, and even the powerhouses of Luo Yunyang's level are not uncommon.
"No wonder Murong Wanqing and the others strongly discouraged me from going to the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce."
"This Longyang City itself is already a master, and the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce is the leader of many sectarian forces in Longyang City. It is conceivable how terrifying the comprehensive strength is."
"But what if this is the case? I will turn this Longyang City upside down."
Levi Garrison continued on with the two daughters.

After a while, Levi Garrison's eyes narrowed slightly, and he found that there was a team of masters in black robes not far in front of him searching for something.
"It's from the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace!"
Murong Qingxue's voice transmission reminded her, her face instantly turned ugly.
Levi Garrison came to Longyang City to recruit Taiyi Chamber of Commerce for trouble, and he was targeted by the city defense army as soon as he entered the city.
Now that I have encountered a wanted search by a powerhouse in the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace, it is simply misfortune!
Gongsun Yueying obviously found her companion, and her beautiful eyes were full of brilliance. She felt that this was an excellent opportunity to escape from her life.
Once you miss it, it will be as difficult to get out of Levi Garrison's control.
Gongsun Yueying planned to open her mouth to ask for help from her companions, but she stopped abruptly when she opened her mouth halfway.
He directly met Levi Garrison's extremely cold gaze.
For a moment, Gongsun Yueying was like falling into an ice cave, and she swallowed the words that came to her mouth.
Gongsun Yueying had no doubt that if she asked for help, Levi Garrison would kill her immediately.
Fear quickly spread from his heart, Gongsun Yueying even began to tremble, and the cold sweat on his forehead could not stop dripping down.
At this moment, Gongsun Yueying was really frightened, and the thought of asking for help was completely thrown out of the sky.

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4016 -
"You can try to help, ho ho ho!"
Levi Garrison said with a smile.

Levi Garrison smiled brightly, but in Gongsun Yueying's eyes, it looked like a devil's smile.
It made her shudder, and the last thought of calling for help and escaping disappeared.
The most important thing is that Gongsun Yueying is completely sober.
She wanted to call for help out of her survival instinct, but when she calmed down, she regretted it immensely.
"With Levi Garrison's cultivation realm, even if the team from the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall shot together, it would not help."
"When I brought dozens of Tianjiao with stronger strength, wasn't I still vulnerable in front of Levi Garrison?"
"Besides, Levi Garrison is upright now, and there is no reason to use the power of Longyang City."
Gongsun Yueying's mood was extremely chaotic.
"Let's see if there is a chance when Levi Garrison and Taiyi Chamber of Commerce conflict?"
Gongsun Yueying made a decision in secret.
"Why did the master say this? I won't ask for help. Besides, how can I be the master's opponent with those few shrimps, soldiers and crabs?"
Gongsun Yueying said respectfully.
Levi Garrison smiled even more and said, "I hope your words and deeds are consistent."
Gongsun Yueying's heart froze, but in order to save her life, she still tried her best to suppress the panic in her heart, and acted like a well-behaved and sensible servant.
In this way, the three of them continued to stroll forward. The market size of Longyang City was more than ten times larger than that of Yulong City.
The crowd was surging at the market, and there were all kinds of genius treasures and refining materials on the stalls.
Levi Garrison inspected it carefully and found that these things were a little worse than what he expected.

I went through the whole market and couldn't find anything that I liked.
"Go directly to the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce!"
Levi Garrison said solemnly.
Murong Qingxue nodded, and according to the location marked on the map, he headed directly towards the location of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce.
About an hour later, the three finally arrived at the destination of the trip – the Taiyi
Chamber of Commerce.
In front of you is a magnificent ancient palace, which is extremely resplendent and extravagant.
Even the walls are made of top-quality spiritual stone bricks, and some are exquisitely decorated and even processed with dragon vein ore.
Carved beams and painted pillars, pavilions and pavilions are beautiful.
Not to mention other things, just the ore used in these buildings outside would cost a few medium-sized dragon veins.
The main entrance of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce is even more majestic. I don't know what metal ore is used to make it, but there is a faint purple energy flowing.
Just above the gate hangs a golden plaque with four characters in regular script – Taiyi
Chamber of Commerce.
"What a splendid Chamber of Commerce!"
Levi Garrison couldn't help but sighed with emotion.
The corner of Murong Qingxue's mouth twitched, secretly saying that the strength of the personnel inside is also very terrifying!
The anxiety in my heart reached the extreme, no matter how strong Levi Garrison was,
he was only fighting alone.
Experts from the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce gathered together, coupled with the uncertain factor of Gongsun Yueying, it was really necessary to make a move, and the result was unpredictable.
Levi Garrison didn't know what Murong Qingxue was thinking, so he quickly exerted his strength to investigate the cultivation realm of the people around him.

Although he decided to come to Taiyi Chamber of Commerce to snatch the raw materials for refining, Levi Garrison also wanted to know himself and his enemy as much as possible.
There is an endless stream of people entering and leaving the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, and most of them are in groups.
Levi Garrison probed the dozens of teams that came and went, and found that the vast majority of these people were above the core executives of the Xingyue Shenzong.
However, it is a little different from the masters of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace, and they are basically the best among the middle sectarian forces.
What particularly caught Levi Garrison's attention was the aura fluctuations hidden around the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce.
This part of the powerhouse can already be comparable to the powerhouses of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall, and there are even very few who are stronger.
"The background of Taiyi Chamber of Commerce is really unusual."
Levi Garrison said with a smile, "Let's go in!"
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4017 - With mixed feelings of anxiety and tension, Murong Qingxue followed Levi Garrison into the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce.
Gongsun Yueying is not nervous at all, she is eager for Levi Garrison to fight with the strong men of Taiyi Chamber of Commerce!
In this way, there is a greater confidence to escape from Levi Garrison's side.
After entering the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, Levi Garrison found that it was even more resplendent and extravagant.
Even the tables, chairs and benches inside are made of thousand-year-old wood.
"Go and contact the people from the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce!" Levi Garrison said to Murong Qingxue.

Murong Qingxue walked in hard, and soon found a transaction person in charge of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce.
Levi Garrison stood there and waited, and after a while, Murong Qingxue and a middleman in a robe with a sword hanging from his waist came over.
"Mr. Ye, this lady has already stated your needs. We have Tianxing Iron, Huojin and Dragon Stone in our Taiyi Chamber of Commerce."
"As for the Shengu Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, we also know the whereabouts. If you think the price is acceptable, we can trade now."
The middleman spoke very politely.
"What price?" Levi Garrison asked indifferently.
The middleman said with a smile: "Tianxing Iron needs 300 top-level spirit crystals, while Huojin and Dragon Stone each need 3,000 top-level spirit crystals."
"In this way, our transaction is successful, and the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce will inform Mr. Ye about the whereabouts of the gods for free. I wonder what you think?"
"Of course, if Mr. Ye can't get such a large amount of top-level spirit crystals for a while, he can exchange it for the equivalent genius treasure."
"So expensive?" Murong Qingxue called out in shock.
The top spiritual crystals all come from the dragon veins, and even the legendary higher-level ancient spiritual veins.
And the entire Xingyue Divine Sect could not gather ten dragon vein spirit crystals.
As a middle-level sectarian power, the Xingyue Shenzong only possessed holy vein resources.
As for the Taixu Shenzong, it is because the Seven Holy Sons have the special ability to detect the spiritual veins, and the user has the dragon vein resources just now.
However, the 6,300 Fast Dragon Vein Spirit Crystals issued by the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce was tantamount to an astronomical figure for the Xingyue Divine Sect.
"Is this already the lowest price?" Levi Garrison asked in a deep voice.

The middle-aged man nodded and said, "Since it is your first time to do business with Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, I have given the lowest price."
"This will also make it easier for us to continue trading in the future, right?"
"What's the matter, Mr. Ye, could it be that you can't bear the price?"
Middle-aged people used to call Levi Garrison 'you', but at this moment, he was no longer so diligent and kind.
There was even a hint of sarcasm in his words.
"You can't even pay for this spiritual crystal, yet you still lick your face and come to Taiyi Chamber of Commerce to make a deal? You're really humiliating yourself!"
"You can go out and turn right and walk for an hour. There are street stalls and bunks there. That's more in line with your identities, isn't it?"
"Don't have enough spirit crystals to trade top materials like fire gold and dragon stone?
It's really not too embarrassing!"
"Hurry up and get out, you guys have simply lowered the level of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce."
Everyone who traded in the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce spoke and ridiculed.
Even the face of the transaction person in charge of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce just now changed.
"If you don't have the sincerity of the transaction, please leave quickly, and don't affect the business of Taiyi Chamber of Commerce."
The middle-aged man said coldly.
Levi Garrison smiled without saying a word, he really had a lot of dragon vein spirit crystals.
The more than a dozen dragon veins discovered in the secret realm before, although a lot of dragon vein power was consumed, there are many dragon vein crystals.
It can even be said that the number of crystals accumulated by the twelve dragon veins is extremely large.

But the distance is too far, Levi Garrison doesn't plan to go back to the secular world to get it.
"You list the names of the sects in Longyang City that own the Dragon Vein Spirit Crystal, and I'll grab it and trade it."
"Or we don't bother, we can just grab the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce." Levi Garrison said with a smile.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4018 -
As soon as these words came out, both Murong Qingxue and Gongsun Yueying were dumbfounded.
"This guy seems to be the number one bandit in Kunlun Ruins!"
Gongsun Yueying was very emotional.
"Sect Master, Sect Master, you only need to know these words in your heart, so why say them in public?"
Murong Qingxue was very frightened.
The Taiyi Chamber of Commerce is now spread all over the Kunlun Ruins, and provoking such a giant is basically equivalent to pulling one stroke and moving the whole body.
Even within this Longyang City, the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce is a master, and has a close relationship with the city defense army.
Isn't this asking for trouble?
Whoa whoa whoa!
There was also an uproar in the hall of Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, and then the hall burst into laughter.
"I'm afraid this person is not crazy, right?"
"There is no such thing as a cerebral thrombosis for ten years."
"To dare to speak out to rob the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce is simply asking for a dead end!"
The person in charge of the transaction was also full of frost, and he directly said loudly:
"Come on, take down these madmen who came to coax trouble."

As soon as the voice fell, dozens of elite guards rushed out from the inner courtyard of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, and directly surrounded Levi Garrison and others.
Levi Garrison did not change his face. After investigation, the strength of these guards turned out to be much stronger than that of Gongsun Yueying's team.
"No wonder Murong Wanqing said before that even the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace has to give the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce three points."
"On the basis of the quality of the guards dispatched at will, it can be judged that the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce has a deeper foundation."
Levi Garrison had a general judgment in his heart.
Those sectarian forces who came to the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce to trade are all retreating far away, watching the situation change with great interest.
"This kid's cultivation base is mediocre, and it seems that he will surely die."
"It's that the woman has some strength, but she has no chance of winning in front of so many Taiyi Chamber of Commerce powerhouses."
"Would you like to take a gamble to see how long the three of them can last?"
"Okay, I'll bet three hundred dragon pulse crystals that they won't last half an incense stick."
"I bet they won't be able to hold a cup of tea and press five hundred dragon vein spirit crystals."
The crowd gambled enthusiastically.
The person in charge of the transaction said coldly: "The Taiyi Chamber of Commerce has always adhered to the concept that the visitor is the guest. Nian'er and others are the first offenders. As long as you kneel and beg for mercy, this seat will let you live."
"Don't, don't!"
Levi Garrison waved his hands again and again and refused: "The atmosphere is all set up here. If you don't fight, won't you live up to everyone's expectations?"
What the hell!

The person in charge of the transaction suddenly had a strong urge to swear, this guy doesn't know good people?
"Since you are courting death, don't blame me for being ruthless."
The person in charge of the transaction turned his head and told his subordinates: "Kill this man on the spot, and the other two will be captured as female slaves."
"As ordered!"
The guards of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce replied in unison.
They didn't take Levi Garrison in their eyes at all, especially after seeing the beauty of the two women, they couldn't wait to make a move.
Levi Garrison said with a smile: "Okay, I just checked the sharpness of the sword."
Looking at Murong Qingxue who was full of distress and panic, Levi Garrison said helplessly: "They forced me to grab resources, but they can't blame me."
"Well, the Sect Master is right, it's all their fault." Murong Qingxue said insincerely.
When Levi Garrison set off, he brought a sword and a sword forged by himself, and Murong Qingxue also brought a long sword, and the two went directly into a state of challenge.
As for Gongsun Yueying, she still takes a wait-and-see attitude. Before she has full confidence, she does not dare to go against the water easily.
After all, once Levi Garrison survives this calamity successfully, he will definitely find himself to settle accounts in the autumn, and there is a high probability that he will die.
So Gongsun Yueying decided to act cautiously, watching the development while fighting.
The powerhouses of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce are constantly approaching, and the two sides are at each other's throats, and the war is about to break out.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4019 -
"stop!"

Just as the two sides were preparing to fight, an old voice exploded in everyone's ears.
Immediately after, a figure flew like lightning, and just came between the guards of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce and Levi Garrison and others.
Levi Garrison looked at the prestige, and saw that the visitor was an old man with red hair.
"See the president!"
The guards said respectfully in unison.
The red-haired old man waved his hand, and the guards straightened up again, glaring at Levi Garrison and the others.
"Can the little friend show the old man the weapon in his hand?"
The red-haired old man asked with a smile.
Everyone was a little confused when they heard the words, so they all looked at the redhaired old man in doubt.
Levi Garrison was also a little puzzled, but he could feel that the red-haired old man was not hostile.
"Can!"
Levi Garrison did not refuse, and threw the sword in his hand.
The red-haired old man caught it steadily, and carefully observed it with burning eyes.
Everyone saw that the expression on the old man's face changed from shock to joy.
"Sure enough, it is a rare peerless weapon!"
The red-haired old man couldn't help but sighed.
Peerless Divine Soldier?
Everyone in the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce shouted in surprise, and invariably turned their attention to the sword in the hands of the red-haired old man.
"You all step back, don't bump into the distinguished guests."
The red-haired old man waved at the guards with a clear reprimand in his tone.
Then he turned his head to look at Levi Garrison, and said very gently, "I wonder if my little friend can come to the hall for a chat?"
"Can!"
Levi Garrison agreed immediately.

Murong Qingxue let out a long sigh. The tension with the sword just now scared her a lot.
Gongsun Yueying was a little disappointed. If she had just fought a double battle, she would have taken the opportunity to escape.
Levi Garrison and others followed the red-haired old man into the welcoming living room.
After some innocuous greetings, Levi Garrison learned that the red-haired old man's name was Wei Shuyang, and he was the chairman of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce in Longyang City.
Wei Shuyang turned and asked, "Would Mr. Ye be willing to use these three weapons as bargaining chips in exchange for Tianxing Iron, Fire Gold, etc.?"
"sure."
Levi Garrison agreed without any hesitation.
Although Levi Garrison is not afraid of a head-on conflict with the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, he does not mind ending the problem by peaceful means.
What's more, the serious peerless magic weapon in Wei Shuyang was just forged by him.
Even with the background of the Xingyue Divine Sect, a sword of this level can still forge a lot of finished products.
Seeing Levi Garrison agree so happily, Wei Shuyang was quite surprised, but it also confirmed his speculation.
"Mr. Ye, all the materials you requested are here."
"As for these, I gave them away in the name of the Chamber of Commerce."
Wei Shuyang said with a smile.
Tianxing iron, fire gold, and dragon stone were neatly arranged in front of them, and they were even much higher than what Levi Garrison had requested.
Coupled with the gift of many high-quality natural materials and earth treasures, this transaction Levi Garrison can be regarded as a fruitful harvest.

“By the way, this is an exclusive seal of the Intermediate Taiyi Chamber of Commerce.
Please accept it from Mr. Ye.”
Wei Shuyang said solemnly.
Levi Garrison produced the seal and found that it was carved from top-level dragon vein spirit crystals.
Gold borders are inlaid around it, and a yin and yang fish pattern is printed on the middle part, which is extremely delicate.
Levi Garrison asked curiously, “What is the use of this seal?”
“Mr. Ye, this is the exclusive seal of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce. With this seal, you can enjoy discounts in any branch transactions of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce!
It is a distinguished guest of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce!”
“And the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce has a protection mechanism for seal holders, and they can seek protection from the powerful Taiyi God group at any location.”
Wei Shuyang explained patiently.
“Seeking protection?”
The corners of Levi Garrison’s mouth rose slightly, where else did he need protection?
But driven by curiosity, I couldn’t help but ask: “Show the seal, what level of protection can the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce provide?”
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter
4020 -
“Mr. Ye, please listen to me in detail.”
Next, Wei Shuyang introduced the protection mechanism of Taiyi Chamber of Commerce in detail.
Levi Garrison only learned the details. It turned out that there was a force protection organization under the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce called Taiyi God Group.
The masters in the Taiyi God group are like clouds, and it seems that the weakest ones are probably the elders of the large sects.
This seal in Levi Garrison’s hand can be protected by a strong Taiyi God group.

The seal hierarchy of Taiyi Chamber of Commerce is strict.
The different colors on the edge of the seal represent the level of grade, from top to bottom, there are six grades of black, purple, gold, silver, copper and iron.
The edge of Levi Garrison's seal is inlaid with gold borders, which represents the golden color and can be ranked in the middle of the seal.
In other words, the higher the color level of the seal, the greater the power that can be exercised in the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, and the income obtained will also be greatly increased.
If you have a high-level black and purple seal, you can even get the protection of dozens or even hundreds of Taiyi God group powerhouses.
That is unimaginable!
It even walked sideways throughout the Kunlun Ruins!
At the same time, all the top resources of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce will take priority over its transactions, after all, the chips required are also the most preferential.
"President Wei, how did you get these high-level seals?"
Levi Garrison asked curiously.
If you can get the black and purple seal of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, then it is equivalent to an extra powerful ally.
If you want to gain a foothold in the Kunlun Ruins in the true sense, relying on your own strength is not enough.
It is precisely because of this that Levi Garrison used his powerful combat power to occupy the magpie's nest to control the Xingyue Divine Sect.
However, in the vast Kunlun Ruins, it is not a long-term solution to take a sect of this level as the foundation.
Especially now that they have offended a large sect like the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall, the middle sect is even less important.
Wei Shuyang said with a smile: "The value of the items traded with the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce reaches a certain amount, or they are enough contributors to the Taiyi

Chamber of Commerce.
Also, those with high status will receive higher-level seals. "
"Just like Mr. Ye's level of peerless magic, as many as we have in Taiyi Chamber of Commerce."
"I see!"
Levi Garrison suddenly realized that Wei Shuyang's implication was to let himself do more transactions with the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce.
Wei Shuyang asked tentatively, "Mr. Ye, did you agree?"
"Of course, if there is another peerless weapon in the future, Taiyi Chamber of Commerce will be my preferred trading partner."
Levi Garrison said with certainty.
Wei Shuyang was overjoyed and said with a smile, "It's so good, I look forward to more cooperation with Mr. Ye."
"By the way, President Wei, is there a large dragon vein in the area under the jurisdiction of the Longyang City Taiyi Chamber of Commerce?"
Levi Garrison continued to ask.
Large dragon veins are also a necessity for forging top-level divine weapons.
At the very least, it must reach the level of the dragon veins that were snatched from Tianying Mountain last time, and the forged magic weapon can achieve the expected effect.
"Mr. Ye, I'm really sorry. There are only small dragon veins in Longyang City. I'm afraid it will be difficult to meet your needs."
"As for the large dragon veins, I can send a letter to other Taiyi Chamber of Commerce branches to ask, but even if there is one, it needs to go far away."
"You must also know that although the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce has many branches, the large dragon veins are generally occupied by top sects. Even if other branches occupy the large dragon veins, the location will definitely be relatively remote."
Wei Shuyang said a little apologetically.
Levi Garrison was a little disappointed, but he quickly calmed down.

After all, the dragon vein is relatively easy to handle, and it is really impossible to go to the big sect to snatch it.
There is no need to travel so far to the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce branch to find it, it is a waste of time.
"Can President Wei tell you about the clues about the divine bone?" Levi Garrison asked again.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4021 - Wei Shuyang immediately responded: "Of course there is no problem, the divine bones should be found in the Dragon Burial Valley."
"But Mr. Ye should think twice! The level of danger in the Buried Dragon Valley is far beyond ordinary people's imagination. If you are not careful, you will die in it."
"In the past, many strong people went to the Buried Dragon Valley to find divine bones or other treasures of heaven and earth, but they all went back and forth. The Taiyi Chamber of Commerce has also damaged several strong people."
The Taiyi Chamber of Commerce once wanted to look for divine bones as a stock for top trading, but sent many people to the Dragon Burial Valley.
However, they all perished under the thunder of the Dragon Burying Valley, and ended up with a tragic ending where their bodies were wiped out.
"How can there be thunder in the Buried Dragon Valley?" Levi Garrison asked with some doubts.
Wei Shuyang explained: "Although the Dragon Burial Valley is called a valley, there is actually a deep pool in the valley, and there are many spiritual beasts and dragons in the pool."
"And every few months, there will be dense sky thunder, and Jiaolong takes this opportunity to use the sky thunder to quench his body in order to transform into a real dragon."

“However, the thunder in the Dragon Burial Valley is unusual, as if it is punitive, and ordinary monks can’t bear it at all.” “Even some top experts don’t dare to go when Tianlei landed. As for the so-called divine bones, they are the bones of Jiaolong’s failure to transcend the calamity.”
“Of course it’s not just the Flood Dragon, some other top-level spirit beasts will also use the Sky Thunder to quench their bodies. The bones of the losers will be quenched by the Sky Thunder and turned into crystalline fossils, which is what we call Divine Bones.”
“There are also some superhuman skeletons after the fall of the supernatural beings!
Especially the skeletons of the pure-body superpowers are supernatural bones!”
“This kind of divine bone is extremely tough. It is indeed an excellent material for forging divine weapons. It can even be said to be the best material in a thousand miles.”
Levi Garrison suddenly realized that there are so many sayings in this Dragon Burial Valley.
There is also so much knowledge of God Bone.
Although it is said that the Dragon Burial Valley is dangerous and inaccessible, but Levi
Garrison wants to forge a top-level weapon, it is necessary to use the god bone.
Therefore, this trip to the Dragon Burial Valley is imperative. Levi Garrison has always pursued perfection, and forging magic weapons is no exception.
“Thank you, President Wei, for your help. I no longer have any doubts in my heart, so I will leave now!”
Levi Garrison said in a sincere tone.
Wei Shuyang waved his hand and said, “Mr. Ye is very polite, so let me send someone to lead the way for Mr. Ye, so that we can find the Dragon Burying Valley more smoothly. Please don’t refuse Mr. Ye.”
“Thank you!”
Levi Garrison said with a smile.

Levi Garrison really doesn't want to waste too much time in the process of going to the Buried Dragon Valley. It is naturally best to have an acquaintance to lead the way.
And Wei Shuyang sent someone to lead the way.
Judging from the materials Levi Garrison asked for and the weapons he traded, it could be basically concluded that he was a top blacksmith.
Of course, it is also possible that there is a top forging master behind Levi Garrison, otherwise such a level of magic weapon cannot be easily exchanged.
But no matter what kind it is, Levi Garrison's line must be well grasped, and the benefits will be immeasurable.
In fact, Levi Garrison also saw the deep meaning of Wei Shuyang's move, but he didn't expose it face to face.
What's more, establishing contact with the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce is also very self-interested.
Especially in the process of going to the Buried Dragon Valley, many things can be handed over to the people of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce.
This can avoid a lot of unnecessary trouble.
"Since this is the case, President Wei, we will have an appointment in the future."
"There will be a period later."
When everything was ready, Levi Garrison got up and said goodbye.
Looking at the back of Levi Garrison and others leaving, several leaders of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce came in.
"President, is it worth it for us to make so much effort to befriend this person?"
"Yes, President, this guy even threatened to snatch the resources of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce!"
"Let him leave safely now, wouldn't it be a joke to those in the sect outside? It really damages the reputation of our chamber of commerce!"
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4022 - Several senior officials of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce expressed their dissatisfaction and doubts.

Wei Shuyang's face darkened instantly, and he said coldly, "What do you know? This person is definitely not in the pool."
The high-level officials of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce were immediately shocked when they heard the words, and their faces were instantly filled with incredible colors.
They knew very well that Wei Shuyang's vision was not ordinary, and even the arrogance of those large sects was not in his eyes.
Even among the top sects, Wei Shuyang can only comment on 'the talent is acceptable'.
I didn't expect to give Levi Garrison a high rating for "things that are not in the pool", it really makes people feel incredible!
"What does the president mean by this?"
Everyone focused their attention on Wei Shuyang.
Wei Shuyang didn't answer directly, but instead asked: "Do you remember the uproarious battle for dragon veins that was coaxed some time ago?"
"And then there are many arrogances killed in Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy and Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall?"
"Naturally, I heard that the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple came to us not long ago to ask about their daughter of the heavens."
"But what do these two things have to do with Levi Garrison?"
"Yeah, this is completely irrelevant!"
Several people were confused again, and they didn't understand why Wei Shuyang suddenly mentioned these two things.
Wei Shuyang smiled slightly and explained, "Although they disguised, I still recognized them at a glance."
"One of the women following Levi Garrison is Gongsun Yueying, the beautiful girl of the sky who was missing from the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace."
"So I infer that Levi Garrison is the number one gangster who has been in the limelight recently."
"Even that snatch the dragon vein is very likely to be his."

The person in charge of the transaction asked: "Is the president sure that is Gongsun Yueying?"
"Very certain."
Wei Shuyang paused and continued: "Just when you were about to besiege Levi Garrison, Gongsun Yueying ran the Sun Moon God Fire Temple's top-level exercise Sun Moon God Fire Sword Art."
"Apart from the direct disciples of the two temple masters of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall, no one has practiced this kind of sword art."
"Although there are quite a few direct disciples of the two palace masters, the direct female disciple is Gongsun Yueying, so she is definitely her."
Several senior officials of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce were shocked and stunned again.
"President, this is a very important clue. If we sell it to the two temple masters of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple, we can definitely make a huge profit."
"This statement is reasonable, and the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple will also owe us a great favor."
"Gongsun Yueying is the proud disciple of the two palace masters, this plan is indeed feasible."
"As expected of the president, I understand the real intention of your sending someone to lead Levi Garrison and the others."
Everyone's faces were full of hope, and they could not wait to inform the two temple masters of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall immediately.
Wei Shuyang slammed the table and said angrily, "A group of short-sighted idiots."
Everyone was so frightened that they could feel that Wei Shuyang was really angry at this moment, and the latter had not been like this for a long time.
But a few people really couldn't understand that informing the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple was a huge profit business, why didn't Wei Shuyang want to do it?

“You only saw the return of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace, but did you not see the value of Levi Garrison?” “These weapons already belong to the category of peerless gods, even the treasures of some large sects.”
“However, Levi Garrison was able to directly exchange it for higher-level raw materials such as Tianxing Iron, Fire Gold, and Dragon Stone, and even inquired about the whereabouts of the god bones.”
“Do you know what he is for?”
The more Wei Shuyang said, the louder he became, and he was close to roaring in the end, so one can imagine how angry he was at the moment.
Several senior officials of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce were not fools, and immediately understood the meaning of Wei Shuyang’s words.
Levi Garrison is most likely a top blacksmith, or has a close relationship with a top blacksmith.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter
4023 -
And if you have a good relationship with top blacksmiths, the benefits you can get will be continuous.
You must know that no matter how big or small the sects in Kunlun Ruins are, they attach great importance to the quality of weapons.
There is even a Sendo sect that is short of a peerless weapon, which can make the sect reach a higher level.
This is the case with the Taixu Shenzong. Whether it is the quality of the sectarian’s masters or the dragon vein resources they possess, they all meet the standard of largescale sects.
The only thing lacking is the peerless divine weapon. It is said that they won a divine calamity not long ago and are about to successfully join the ranks of the major sects.

Although there is still some gap with the strength of the top sects, it is definitely far away from the middle-level sects.
"What's more, you may not be able to defeat Levi Garrison. He is obviously hiding his strength, and even I can't detect it clearly."
"He has the ability to slaughter dozens of Tianjiao in the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall, and capture Gongsun Yueying alive. Is he unable to kill you people?"
"Ten thousand steps back, even if our elites do their best to kill him, there will be heavy casualties. It's really worth the loss."
Wei Shuyang said solemnly.
sizzle!
Several high-level officials of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce gasped, and even felt a little scared.
If Levi Garrison was the culprit behind the massacre of many elites in the Sun Moon
Divine Fire Hall, then his strength must be unfathomable.
A rash shot will not only gain nothing, but may even put your life in it.
"Not to mention that he dares to unscrupulously slaughter so many people in the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall, which means that he is not only powerful, but also possible to rely on."
"Faced with such an unfathomable person, are you sure you want to offend him for petty profits?"
Wei Shuyang asked in a cold voice.
Everyone shook their heads one after another, and now they finally understood Wei Shuyang's good intentions.
"Don't worry, this seat's vision will not be wrong. We will definitely benefit from unexpected benefits by making friends with Levi Garrison."
Wei Shuyang said confidently.
the other side.
Levi Garrison and others left from the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, and Levi Garrison found that the masters of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce were secretly following.

“It seems that Wei Shuyang is still worried! I’m afraid that I will kill the person who leads the way!”
Levi Garrison knew it in his chest, but he didn’t pay attention to the stalker. After all, the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce still has a lot of value.
What’s more, if you encounter trouble in the follow-up journey, you can also lead the way, and let these Taiyi Chamber of Commerce experts act as bodyguards.
As for the other stalkers, they were many sectarian masters who had traded in the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce before.
At first, they were not optimistic that Levi Garrison and the others could successfully trade, after all, the latter couldn’t even get a few hundred dragon vein spirit crystals.
However, the fact hit them hard in the face, and Levi Garrison and others actually got a lot out of it.
Tianxing iron, fire gold, and dragon stone are all in it, which shocked everyone, and at the same time was very puzzled.
After all, the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce never made a loss-making business, and after an in-depth investigation, they learned the truth of the transaction.
“It turned out to be the top raw material exchanged for the magic weapon.”
“To be favored by the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, the level of the magic weapon is definitely not low, and it may even reach the level of the peerless magic weapon.”
“This guy is really generous, no wonder he dared to speak out before.”
“If you don’t snatch so many good things, you’ll really lose things.”
Every man is innocent, but he is guilty.
Many sects immediately became malicious and decided to find an opportunity to snatch it.
Aside from divine weapons, even Tianxing Iron, Huojin, and Dragon Stone were enough to attract them.
Of course, these people did not take Levi Garrison in their eyes at all.

Thinking that he is a person with a lot of money and stupid garbage, it is easy for Levi
Garrison to snatch the top materials in his hands.
In this way, many sectarian powerhouses followed Levi Garrison and others all the way out of Longyang City, and decided to find a remote place to kill and steal.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4024 -
Inside a bamboo forest.
Many sectarian forces are ambushing here, and they are talking and smiling with a relaxed and comfortable face.
"This bamboo forest is the only way for the pedestrians surnamed Ye. If they know the current affairs, they will leave a whole body for them."
"Those two women left it to me, just to test the cultivation method that I got by chance, hahaha!"
"I also ask everyone to work together. They carry a lot of top raw materials, enough for us to share them equally."
"That's right, let's go to one place and make a quick decision!"
Although everyone didn't take Levi Garrison and others in their eyes, they didn't want to coax infighting and be benefited by other fishermen.
In the eyes of everyone, Levi Garrison is the prey sent to the door, just waiting to be hunted.
Time passed while waiting, and soon a message came from the peripheral eyeliner—
Levi Garrison and others had entered the bamboo forest.
About half an hour later, the figures of Levi Garrison and others came into view, and all the sect masters became excited.
"The surnamed Ye, please hand over the resources in your hand, and I will spare you a whole corpse with great mercy."
"Don't do unnecessary resistance, the strength is disparate, don't ask yourself for boredom."
"If the two beauties can spend a good night with this seat, this seat will save your lives."

The leaders of several sectarian forces said one after another.
Murong Qingxue's pretty face was a little ugly, she could feel that any one of these sects could at least be comparable to the strength of the elders of the Star Moon Sect.
Roughly estimated, I am afraid that there are more than a hundred strong men. If they really attack in groups, Levi Garrison will probably have a very difficult time dealing with them!
Gongsun Yueying was a little excited, this was an excellent opportunity to escape.
The overall strength of these people is far stronger than the team she led.
In particular, the aura released by the two of them fluctuated, even comparable to the level of the deputy hall master of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall.
"Don't let this lady down!"
Gongsun Yueying cheered many sects in her heart.
"Mr. Ye, now… what should I do now?"
The guides sent by the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce were full of panic, and their voices could not help but tremble.
Although his cultivation base is not bad, but under the siege of so many masters, there is absolutely no possibility of surviving!
Levi Garrison said with a smile: "Don't worry, let me handle it!"
The corner of the guide's mouth twitched, and his eyebrows were on fire, and he still held firm?
This guy is too arrogant, right?
"Sect Master, if it really doesn't work…"
Before Murong Qingxue could finish speaking, Levi Garrison interrupted directly, "I can't do anything with this group of shrimp soldiers and crab generals."
"Just watch the two of you honestly, and I can handle it alone."
"Is there something wrong with this guy's head?"
"Not even megalomaniacs have such a big tone."
"It's a fool's dream to solve something we don't know if we live or die alone."
Many sect masters burst into laughter, looking at Levi Garrison's eyes as if they were looking at a fool.

Levi Garrison said with a smile: "If you are willing to hand over the treasures in your hands, I can spare your life."
"Ye, did you come out without taking medicine…"
The voice of the leader of one of the middle sects stopped abruptly because he felt an extremely strong aura of death.
"Noisy!"
A cold voice came from behind.
The middle sect leader only felt the wind whistling, and it was too late to hide.
Clap!
His head was like a watermelon falling from the sky. The helmsman didn't even say a word, and his body fell to the ground with a thud.
"It's really unpleasant to talk so much. I wanted to leave you a whole corpse."
Levi Garrison's face was full of regret, and then he said coldly to the others: "What do you say?"
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4025 - Fizz!
Inside the bamboo forest, there was the sound of sucking in the cold air.
The leader of a medium sect was instantly killed, and the sudden burst of terrifying power shocked them.
"Is he so strong?"
"It's no wonder that I dared to speak out in the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce before, and I really have two brushes."
"What are you afraid of? Sect Master Chen just underestimated the enemy, coupled with the unexpected sneak attack by the surnamed Ye."
"That is, so many of us are still afraid that he will fail?"
"Let's go up together and send him directly to hell."
After all, these people are the core masters of the middle sect and above, and there is no shortage of people who have seen big storms.
After a short period of panic, he quickly calmed down and released a terrifying murderous aura again.

“Stubborn!”
Levi Garrison sneered, and then his figure disappeared from everyone’s sight again.
“Be careful behind you!”
I don’t know who said it loudly.
Immediately afterwards, everyone saw a middle-level sect’s vice sect leader hit by Levi Garrison’s back with a slap.
Bang!
Because Levi Garrison’s palm was too powerful, the deputy leader was blown away.
puff!
A mouthful of blood spurted out, and the body was already dead when it was still in the air.
“Next!”
Levi Garrison’s voice sounded again.
Although the tone is extremely flat, but in many sectarian powerhouses, it sounds like the call of death, which makes everyone shudder.
Levi Garrison’s speed is too fast, so fast that many sectarian powerhouses cannot capture his movement trajectory.
“Ahhh!”
Wherever Levi Garrison’s figure passed by, there would be screams and mourning.
A fist or a palm is like a sharp blade for life, making many sectarian powerhouses unavoidable and unavoidable.
In just half a minute, more than 30 people have died.
Although Levi Garrison did not use any weapons or blades, his hands were like the scythes of the god of death, mercilessly harvesting the lives of the masters.
“Gollum!”
The survivors retreated into the distance, and looked at Levi Garrison again with fear in their eyes.
“Everyone, don’t hold back any more, and use all the tricks, otherwise it will be too late.”
A middle sect leader reminded loudly, but everyone could clearly feel that his voice was trembling unconsciously when he spoke.

“I really don’t cry without seeing the coffin. In that case, I will fulfill you.”
Levi Garrison rushed to the crowd again, like a tiger entering a flock, frantically harvesting the lives of many sectarian masters.
Fear is spreading rapidly, and many sectarian powerhouses are no longer menacing.
“Run away, it will be too late!”
I don’t know who was the first to shout such a sentence.
The belief that the last bit of resistance in the hearts of many sectarian powerhouses was also completely destroyed.
Everyone no longer has the slightest fighting spirit.
“I want to escape now, it’s too late!”
Levi Garrison did not intend to give them any chance to breathe, and continued to slaughter many strong men with a crushing momentum.
The guide of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce who was watching the battle was already stunned. He didn’t expect Levi Garrison’s strength to be so exaggerated.
Fighting against the core powerhouses of more than 100 middle-level sects and above with one’s own strength, not only did they not suffer the slightest injury.
They are still slaughtering them with an absolute advantage, and it can even be described as a dimensionality reduction blow!
“This is too strong, isn’t it? Fortunately, the strong people of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce did not start with Levi Garrison at that time, otherwise there would be no Taiyi Chamber of Commerce in Longyang City.”
The guide can’t help shivering at the thought of this, and even a little scared.
In fact, not to mention that guides would have such thoughts, even Gongsun Yueying and Murong Qingxue, who had seen Levi Garrison’s cultivation, were equally shocked.
The most important thing is that Levi Garrison didn’t seem to show his full strength so far. It’s hard to imagine how terrifying his upper limit of combat power would be?

“Hand over all the treasures in your hand, otherwise you will be killed without mercy!”
Levi Garrison’s cold voice sounded again.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4026 -
“Mr. Ye, I am willing to give all the treasures in my hand, and please spare me your life!”
“I am also willing to hand in as many as I can, just to save my life and repay Mr. Ye in the future as a cow and a horse.”
“me too!”
Pfft!
Pfft!
Immediately afterwards, many sectarian powerhouses who were spared fell to their knees.
Levi Garrison sneered twice and said, “If I knew this earlier, why bother? It took so many lives in vain.”
“You guys go and scavenge for their talents and treasures, and remember that you can’t leave them a little bit.”
The Taiyi Chamber of Commerce’s guide and Murong Qingxue did not dare to disobey Levi Garrison’s instructions, and directly snatch the good things from many sectarian powerhouses.
I have to say that these people have a lot of good things, and there are many kinds of top-level precious medicinal materials, especially the dragon vein spirit crystals, which are up to tens of thousands.
The corner of Levi Garrison’s mouth rose slightly, this trip to Longyang City was really rewarding!
“I have always been merciful and soft-hearted, and since you have already handed over your things, please wait for your life!”
Levi Garrison said solemnly.
What the hell!
The surviving strong sects suddenly had a strong urge to swear.

Look at this bamboo forest corpse littered with blood and blood, it's degrading purgatory on earth, don't you insult the words 'kind-hearted and soft-hearted', okay?
But then again, after meeting Levi Garrison, many sectarian powerhouses suddenly realized something very important.
Levi Garrison seems to be very similar to the first gangster who has been rumored before!
They are all robbing genius treasures, and then slaughtering the opponents.
"How did you get into this evil spirit? I really didn't go out to read the almanac!"
Such thoughts rose in the hearts of the survivors.
Of course, I am very glad that Levi Garrison didn't say that they killed all of them this time.
"let's go!"
Levi Garrison waved at Murong Qingxue and the others, and left the bamboo forest directly.
Until the figures of Levi Garrison and others completely disappeared from sight, many survivors of the sect dared to stand up slowly.
Everyone wiped the cold sweat on their foreheads one after another, feeling as if they had walked around the gate of hell, full of joy for the rest of their lives.
After leaving the bamboo forest, Levi Garrison urged the guide to speed up and rush to the Buried Dragon Valley.
"Sect Master, are we really going to Bury the Dragon Valley?"
Murong Qingxue asked in a trembling voice.
Murong Qingxue was indeed frightened. She had naturally heard of the Dragon Burial Valley. It was almost a Jedi that would die once it broke into the dead.
It is said that the previous master of the Xingyue Shenzong had reached the state of perfection, and he immediately went to the Dragon Burial Valley to take a chance, but there is still no news.
Basically belong to the misfortune less fortunate.

Gongsun Yueying was not much stronger than Murong Qingxue, and even said that she was not as good as Murong Qingxue.
As the daughter of the sky in the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple, she learned more about the Dragon Burial Valley.
The two hall masters have repeatedly stated that the Buried Dragon Valley is a Jedi, and even if the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple comes out of its nest, they would not dare to set foot there.
"Master, that place is indeed very scary, or we should not…"
Gongsun Yueying's words behind him were stopped by Levi Garrison's stern look.
"What, are you afraid?"
Levi Garrison said with a smile: "If something happens to me when I enter the Buried Dragon Valley, wouldn't you just take the opportunity to escape?"
"No…don't dare, why did the master say such a thing? Even if you lend me 10,000 courage, you wouldn't dare to have such an idea!"
Gongsun Yueying hurriedly denied it.
Levi Garrison only showed such terrifying strength not long ago. If he finds out that he has different intentions, wouldn't it be his own death?
"I hope you do what you say."
Levi Garrison sneered twice, and then continued: "I have to go to the Buried Dragon Valley, let's go!"
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4027 -
Although the Buried Dragon Valley is full of dangers, Levi Garrison is not afraid at all.
For God Bone Levi Garrison is inevitable.
The guide did not dare to be slighted in the slightest, and stepped up to hurry.
Especially after seeing Levi Garrison possess such terrifying power with his own eyes, he even dared not disobey his orders.
Everyone rushed for six days without stopping, and finally came to a swamp.

“Mr. Ye, the map provided by the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce is here, and I can’t prepare to identify the route any further.”
“But as long as you continue to walk forward and pass through this swamp, you will see the primitive jungle. It is said that the Buried Dragon Valley is deep in the jungle.”
“The most notable feature of the Buried Dragon Valley is that there are constant thunderstorms, especially every few months, there will be thunderstorms, and the momentum should be easily discovered by you.”
The guide said with great respect.
Levi Garrison nodded and said, “You can go back and take your life. We will walk the road behind.”
“Thank you Mr. Ye for being considerate.”
The guide said gratefully.
Going forward, good and bad luck is unpredictable, and with his cultivation realm, he may die at any time.
The guide left quickly, and Levi Garrison waved to the two women and said, “Don’t be stunned, let’s go!”
Murong Qingxue and Gongsun Yueying’s faces were as pale as paper.
Although there are all kinds of fears and worries in his heart, he can only bite the bullet and move forward in the face of Levi Garrison’s request.
Levi Garrison led the way first, and the two women followed carefully, looking around with vigilance from time to time.
This swamp seems to be endless. Fortunately, the three of them are running the exercises and their bodies are light, otherwise it would be really difficult to move.
In this way, the three walked forward for more than ten miles, and finally came to the edge of the jungle.
“Um?”
Levi Garrison suddenly felt a little strange.
This area of space seems to be filled with invisible power, which can actually suppress the speed of the exercise.

“This feeling is similar to exploring the secrets of the secular world at the beginning.”
Levi Garrison slandered, and at the same time raised his vigilance.
“This place is really weird, it feels like movement is hindered by some force.”
Murong Qingxue’s voice was a bit bitter, if it wasn’t for Levi Garrison by her side, she would have turned around and left this place long ago.
“The hall master once said that due to the release of the power of the thunder in the Buried Dragon Valley over the years, the surrounding area has formed a potential.”
“This space will naturally have a sense of blockage that is suppressed by power, making it difficult for people to move.”
“Those with weak cultivation will suffer internal injuries if they resist this kind of situation for a long time, which is why many people dare not go to the Dragon Burial Valley.”
Gongsun Yueying said in a condensed voice.
Levi Garrison said thoughtfully: “The so-called power should be equivalent to the power covering the field, and whoever this power comes from, belongs to whose power.”
“When outsiders break into it, they will naturally be hindered. Is that what you mean?”
“That’s right!”
Gongsun Yueying responded quickly.
Levi Garrison said with a smile: “Since the two of you are following me closely, it will not be affected.”
While speaking, Levi Garrison quickly ran the basic exercises.
The terrifying energy aftermath spread out, forming a room-sized regional energy shield that enveloped the two women.
Gongsun Yueying and Murong Qingxue felt relieved for a while, and the previous feeling of being suppressed by them disappeared in an instant.
“This is to help us resist the energy attack? Is the power in his body inexhaustible?”
Gongsun Yueying was stunned again.

While Murong Qingxue was shocked, she was more grateful.
With Levi Garrison by his side, he felt an unprecedented sense of security.
"Keep going!"
Levi Garrison waved his hand and walked into the jungle first.
The two women followed closely. After all, the energy shield had a limited area, and if they left, they had to exercise their own skills to resist the suppression of the force.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4028 -
With Levi Garrison's support, Gongsun Yueying and Murong Qingxue instantly relaxed a lot.
The feeling that the power in the body was suppressed completely disappeared.
Seeing Levi Garrison's slightly thin back, Murong Qingxue felt an unprecedented peace of mind.
The three continued to move forward, and Levi Garrison found that this primitive jungle was extraordinarily strange.
From big beasts and spirit beasts to small birds, insects, mosquitoes and flies, everything is gone.
The entire jungle was dead silent, as if a dead zone made people panic.
Levi Garrison also tried to release power fluctuations to investigate, but no creatures appeared in the radius.
"It's like a restricted area of life here."
Murong Qingxue said suddenly.
Gongsun Yueying deeply agreed with this evaluation, and she was inexplicably flustered.
Especially when I recalled what the two hall masters once said about the strange situations in the Dragon Burial Valley, the speed of the spread of fear in my heart was even faster.
The three walked forward for more than 20 miles, except for the rugged rocks and dense vines, there was still no sign of any living beings.
"It's really weird!"

Levi Garrison frowned slightly, the range of rare creatures here is much larger than the secret realm found in the secular world.
Continue to move forward, and the road in the jungle will become more and more rugged, that is, Levi Garrison and others are very strong, otherwise the speed of moving forward will be very slow.
After walking for dozens of miles, Levi Garrison stopped abruptly.
"Sect Master, what happened?"
Murong Qingxue asked nervously.
Levi Garrison asked in a deep voice: "There is an extremely powerful energy gathered in the sky in the southeast, have you sensed it?" Murong Qingxue shook her head, Gongsun Yueying said after a moment, "This energy is so terrifying, it should be the location of the Buried Dragon Valley." Levi Garrison glanced at Gongsun Yueying with admiration, this woman's strength is indeed a level stronger than Murong Qingxue.
"Yeah, this power is very terrifying and violent. Except for the power of Tianlei, I really can't guess any power that belongs to this category."
Levi Garrison said with emotion.
Levi Garrison's perception is very strong, and he can clearly feel that this power is much more terrifying than the energy contained in all the large dragon veins he has ever seen.
It is said that it is the power of lightning?
Thinking of Gong Qianqiu's use of the Heavenly Thunder Tempering Body to improve his cultivation, he could try this method when he started?
Moreover, according to the information provided by Wei Shuyang, the power of Tianlei in Buried Dragon Valley is stronger than that of ordinary Tianlei, and the effect of body quenching is definitely better.
Thinking of this, Levi Garrison's mouth couldn't help but flash a smile.
"Sect Master, are you… okay?"
Murong Qingxue asked tentatively.
In the face of the huge unknown danger, even if the strength is extraordinary, it should be taken seriously, right?

Why is Levi Garrison still smiling?
Do you just look down on the power of Dragon Burial Valley?
Gongsun Yueying was also puzzled. If it wasn't for Levi Garrison, she would have long wanted to leave this place of right and wrong.
"I just plan to use the sky thunder formed in the Buried Dragon Valley to quench the body, and find some god bones by the way."
"It really kills two birds with one stone!"
The more Levi Garrison spoke, the more excited he became, and the more smile on his face.
Seeing that Levi Garrison gradually accelerated his pace, the two women were immediately stunned.
"Faced with a place like the Buried Dragon Valley, where the world can't avoid danger, he actually regarded it as a welfare bureau?"
Murong Qingxue was speechless.
In the face of the terrifying thunderbolt in the Buried Dragon Valley, even the suzerainlevel powerhouses of large sects should be cautious.
Even retreating as much as possible, if it is not a last resort, they will not easily set foot in the area where the thunder is gathered.
It is very likely that the old Sect Master of the Xingyue Divine Sect died under the bombardment of the sky.
On the other hand, Levi Garrison actually planned to use the terrifying thunderbolt to quench his body. Isn't he afraid of being smashed into ashes?
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4029 -
"This guy is too bold, isn't he?"
Murong Qingxue could not help but secretly slander.
Especially when you are so far away, you can clearly feel the terrifying pressure. Can you imagine how terrifying the power of Tianlei must be after getting close?
Even if you have great strength, you don't need to take such a big risk, right?

Gongsun Yueying almost dropped her chin in shock, and was completely speechless about Levi Garrison's "wonderful idea".
She knew better than Murong Qingxue how terrifying the Dragon Burying Valley was.
Even the absolute top of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace would not dare to set foot there easily.
It is said that the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple also had several top powerhouses going to the Dragon Burial Valley in search of divine bones.
And he also deliberately chose not to enter the area during the time when the thunder was gathered, but he was still bombarded by the terrifying thunder of the thunder.
It came to a tragic ending of death and disappearance.
"Should I praise him for his courage, or should I scold him for not knowing whether to live or die?"
Gongsun Yueying looked at Levi Garrison's back with an indescribably complicated feeling.
"Even if Levi Garrison is a pure body cultivator, the thunderstorms gathered in the Dragon Burial Valley can definitely bombard him with powder."
"But at that time, I might be able to take the opportunity to escape!"
Gongsun Yueying even looked forward to arriving at the Buried Dragon Valley soon.
With Levi Garrison's character, even if he is not fully sure, he will try his best to win.
"Human arrogance has its own harvest, Levi Garrison, you will pay a heavy price for your arrogance."
Gongsun Yueying sneered in her heart.
Levi Garrison didn't know what the two women were thinking, but the speed of the march was getting faster and faster.
Clap! Clap!
After walking for another ten miles, the three suddenly heard the sound of something shattering.

Levi Garrison frowned slightly, and saw that the outermost layer of the energy shield he released was cracking outward from the middle part at a speed visible to the naked eye, and then completely shattered.
"It actually squeezed and smashed the outermost energy shield. It seems that we are almost approaching the Buried Dragon Valley."
Levi Garrison said solemnly.
Fortunately, the energy shield released by Levi Garrison was thick enough.
But the outermost fragmentation also confirmed how terrifying the energy coercion here is.
Murong Qingxue and Gongsun Yueying suddenly became nervous.
It's hard to imagine if Levi Garrison hadn't released so many layers of energy shields, but it would be difficult to move forward on his own.
"Look at the sky here is different."
There was a faint panic in Murong Qingxue's voice.
Levi Garrison followed Murong Qingxue's verdant jade, and saw the dark clouds in the sky that he had just entered this area.
It's as if you can reach into the clouds with your hands up high, which makes people feel extra depressing.
The previous area was full of clear skies, and the skies on both sides were distinct, making people feel that these were two different worlds.
Boom!
In the depths of the incomparably thick clouds, deafening sounds of thunder could be heard from time to time.
It was still far away just now, and it exploded in the ear in the blink of an eye. If there is no energy shield to resist, I am afraid it will directly burst the eardrum.
"Both of you better use your own skills to defend yourself. I can feel a suspicious aura roaming inside."
"And it doesn't seem to be a fierce beast, but a powerful cultivator. The enemy is unknown, so we should be cautious."

Levi Garrison said in a condensed voice.
Murong Qingxue and Gongsun Yueying nodded in succession, and at the same time they were quite surprised. It seemed that the Dragon Burial Valley was very attractive.
On second thought, it is understandable.
The Dragon Burial Valley contains countless god bones. Although Tianlei is very unfriendly to monks, it is worth fighting to the death for such treasures.
The three of them continued to move forward, and the feeling of depression became more and more obvious.
In particular, the energy shield released by Levi Garrison has more and more shattered layers, and in the end, even the middle part was squeezed and deformed.
"Look at those people, they seem to be bounty hunters."
Murong Qingxue said suddenly.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4030 -
"What do you mean by bounty hunter?"
Levi Garrison asked with some doubts.
Without Murong Qingxue's reminder, Levi Garrison had already felt the existence of those people.
Gongsun Yueying took over and explained: "Bounty hunters are a relatively special group in Kunlun Ruins."
"In layman's terms, it's a group of guys with no family and no sect to keep warm, and the bounty hunters do whatever they want."
"It's as big as helping the gold master to kill the enemy or even destroy the sect, and it's as small as helping other people do some dirty work, just in exchange for cultivation resources."
Murong Qingxue added: "Bounty hunters take on some tricky and special tasks, and often wander around the edges of various forbidden areas and secret realms."
"In the final analysis, they can't compete for resources with big sects, and they can only exchange their lives for training resources by taking such extreme tasks."

“Of course, bounty hunters sometimes organize their own activities, and risk their lives to try their luck.”
Levi Garrison nodded, no matter in the secular world or Kunlun Ruins, the survival of the fittest is an unchanging truth.
To be precise, the Kunlun Ruins are even more serious. After all, martial arts are respected here. If there is a disagreement, they will fight and even slaughter them.
These bounty hunters are of the same nature as bounty organizations in the secular world.
“The edge of this forbidden area is the most popular place for bounty hunters. Every year, there are probably forty or fifty organizations wandering in the secret realm of the forbidden area.”
“And the bounty hunters do whatever they can to plunder cultivation resources. They all live a life of licking blood all year round.”
“So there is no shortage of black people eating black. We may have been targeted by a team of bounty hunters.”
Gongsun Yueying said solemnly.
Levi Garrison said with a relaxed face: “There are seven or eight teams in this area that have shown killing intent to us.”
“But obviously they have different minds, and they all want to take advantage of the fisherman, so they haven’t started.”
“In the final analysis, they are a group of rabble. If they really don’t know what to do, I will send them directly to see the King of Hell.”
The three continued to move forward, and it didn’t take long before a team of more than ten bounty hunters greeted them.
“Where are you going, Your Excellency?”
The leader of a team of bounty hunters asked in a deep voice.
Seeing Levi Garrison, there were only three people, and other teams of bounty hunters also surrounded them one after another.

But they didn't make a rash move, and Levi Garrison's calmness made the bounty hunters feel a little clueless.
Levi Garrison didn't hide anything, and responded truthfully: "I want to go to the Dragon Burial Valley to find some divine bones."
"How dare you go to the Dragon Burial Valley?"
The leader of the bounty hunters was shocked.
These bounty hunter teams only dare to operate on the edge of the Dragon Burial Valley, and dare not set foot in the depths of the valley.
Of course, many bounty hunters who did not believe in evil had entered the Dragon Burial Valley before, but none of them came out alive.
There are many powerful masters among them, so the Buried Dragon Valley is a restricted area for these bounty hunters.
Levi Garrison nodded and said, "I heard that the Tianlei inside is a bit interesting, and I want to taste it."
What the hell!
The bounty hunters couldn't help but let out foul language.
"Is there something wrong with this guy's head, does he think the Buried Dragon Valley is a tourist attraction?"
"The Tianlei there is known as the Tianlei Tribulation. It is the death catastrophe of the powerful cultivator. How many powerhouses have been destroyed by the bombardment of the Tianlei?"
"This guy is a typical self-destruction, but it's a pity that the two beauties are buried with them!"
"I advise you to go back and forth from where you came from. Entering the Dragon Burial Valley must have no return."
The bounty hunters taunted again and again.
Murong Qingxue and Gongsun Yueying's expressions gradually became ugly, but Levi Garrison's expression was still as steady as Mount Tai.
"Thank you for your kindness, I decided to go inside and take a look."

Levi Garrison walked straight in the direction of the densest sound of Tianlei. He felt that there should be the location of the real Dragon Burying Valley.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4031 -
However, Levi Garrison made no progress and suddenly stopped.
"That's right, it's too late to regret it now!"
"Hahaha, it turns out that I was manifested in front of people just now!"
"How powerful do you think you are?"
Levi Garrison turned around slowly and said to the bounty hunters, "By the way, you are here waiting for me to come out."
"What do you mean by this?"
One of the bounty hunter leaders asked in a deep voice.
Levi Garrison explained with a smile: "I will definitely bring out a lot of treasures when I enter the Dragon Burial Valley this time, and it is really difficult to transport it."
"You are so large and powerful that you are just acting as the transport brigade. Don't worry, I will definitely not treat you badly at that time."
Levi Garrison left quickly without looking back, and disappeared from everyone's sight after a while.
After a long time, the bounty hunters came back to their senses.
*"F*ck, this guy is too good at pretending, and those who don't know think he is the* master of Kunlun Ruins!"
"Dare to let us be a transport brigade, his skin is thicker than the city wall!"
"No matter how much, we are waiting here. If he really brings a lot of resources, we will just sit back and enjoy it."
"Even if that person survives the thunder, he must be seriously injured, and we can kill him without any effort."
"To be honest, I'm starting to hope that his pretense is successful."
Even if Levi Garrison went far away, he clearly heard everyone talking, and the smile on his face became more and more obvious.
the other side.

The spies secretly sent by the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce also learned that Levi Garrison insisted on going to the depths of the Dragon Burial Valley.
He was stunned for a moment.
At that time, the guides Wei Shuyang sent were just pawns on the bright side, and many spies were also arranged in the dark, in order to gain a better understanding of Levi Garrison.
The spies immediately passed this information back to the Longyang City Branch of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce.
Wei Shuyang was equally shocked when he learned the news. He had thought that Levi Garrison would lead other strong men to go together.
Didn't expect to bring only two women into the depths of the Buried Dragon Valley, and even threatened to use the Thunder Tribulation to quench the body?
"This guy is a real lunatic!"
Wei Shuyang couldn't help but sigh.
"President, shall we help him?"
A senior of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce asked tentatively.
"Help, how can I help?"
Wei Shuyang smiled bitterly and continued: "The Buried Dragon Valley is very dangerous, and no matter how many experts are sent out, they will inevitably die under the bombardment of thunder."
"Let's do it, send more than a dozen strong men to the periphery of the Buried Dragon Valley."
"If Levi Garrison can come out alive, we can also sell his favor. If he dies inside, we have nothing to lose."
"As ordered!"
The senior members of the Taiyi Merchant Congregation said in unison.
Looking at the backs of the people leaving, Wei Shuyang muttered to himself, "Levi Garrison, I am really looking forward to your coming out alive!"
at the same time.
The fact that Levi Garrison and the three entered and exited the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce in Longyang City to trade and killed many masters in the bamboo forest outside the city quickly spread.

These two messages also quickly attracted the attention of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple.
In particular, a few sectarian forces recognized Levi Garrison as the first gangster who had been rumored before.
In order to hug the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall's thigh, these sects directly informed the high-level people of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall.
After learning the news, the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple organized a large number of masters to rush to Bury Dragon Valley, and even the two temple masters came out in person.
Of course, the two palace masters also let the hundreds of large and small forces that they organized to go together.
They made up their minds to let these sects act as cannon fodder, after all, the strength of the first gangster was unfathomable.
Although it is difficult to kill it with human sea tactics, it can definitely play a role in consumption.
"No matter what the price is, the madman must be smashed to ashes."
The Lord of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace issued a death order.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4032 -
More than a hundred sect core masters rushed to Bury Dragon Valley, and Taixu Shenzong was among them.
This time, the Taixu Shenzong can be described as the best of the best, headed by the Great Holy Son, and assisted by Gong Qianqiu and the elders.
The high-level officials of the Taixu Shenzong were determined to leave a deep and good impression on the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple through this action of beheading the bandits.
In fact, the Taixu Shenzong is indeed the top existence of the middle sect.

Especially after the Divine Tribulation Sect, Taixu Shenzong has faintly entered the category of large-scale sects.
"Husband, what do you think the outcome of this battle will be?" Gong Qianqiu asked excitedly.
Since coming to Kunlun Ruins, Gong Qianqiu is the first time to see such a large gathering of powerhouses at the same time.
More than a hundred sects acted at the same time, making Gong Qianqiu more yearning for the top sects.
The Great Holy Son said with a smile: "Even if the madman's cultivation is high, it is impossible for him to survive the siege of so many masters."
"That's right, what's more, there are two temple masters of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple sitting in town. We will win this battle." The three saints echoed.
"Moreover, the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall is full of elites. There are more than a hundred elders. This scale and background are worthy of being a top sect!"
'Even if you play crowd tactics, that madman will be exhausted to death, and there is absolutely no possibility of escape. '
"This guy has killed so many geniuses from Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy and Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple, and their anger is on the verge of erupting."
There was a lot of discussion, and almost everyone was optimistic about the war.
Gong Qianqiu is also full of hope. He has long been yearning for this mysterious powerhouse, and hopes that he can reach such a state in the future.
It won't be long now that the gangster will unveil the mysterious veil, and Gong Qianqiu is naturally looking forward to it.
"Being able to participate in the beheading of such a strong person will definitely become a good story in Kunlun Ruins."
The excitement in Gong Qianqiu's heart was unstoppable.
"Qianqiu, when the two of us seize the opportunity, we must play an important role in this battle."

"At that time, the two of us will be able to enter the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy, and the future will be limitless."
The Great Holy Son preached the sound.
Gong Qianqiu responded: "No problem, I also want to kill that madman myself."
Success or failure is here, and Gong Qianqiu feels that this is an excellent opportunity to become famous in the first battle.
the other side.
Xiao Feng also devoured everywhere during this time. Of course, he chose to attack small sects.
Moreover, in the process of extreme devouring, Xiao Feng also practiced basic exercises.
However, to Xiao Feng's surprise, this joint cultivation method can actually offset some of the sequelae caused by extreme phagocytosis.
Although Xiao Feng has not practiced basic exercises for a long time, it has an unimaginable effect on strengthening the root bone and strengthening the body.
It is precisely because Xiao Feng picked his opponents everywhere to devour them, and then fled and hid for a while, so there were more sources of information.
"Master is in trouble. As a disciple, I must not sit on the sidelines."
Xiao Feng made up his mind and rushed to Bury Dragon Valley.
Although Xiao Feng didn't know what cultivation realm Levi Garrison had reached now, it was definitely dangerous to face the joint siege of more than a hundred sects.
What's more, Xiao Feng learned that the Taixu Shenzong was also full of elites, and aside from others, at least Xiao Feng felt that he could take this opportunity to take revenge.
"Even if the powerhouse of the Taixu Shenzong is dealt with, it can be regarded as a relief for the master."
Xiao Feng muttered to himself.

After this period of extreme devouring, Xiao Feng is also confident in his own strength.
"Gong Qianqiu, wash your neck, and I will personally send you to see the King of Hell."
Xiao Feng's tone was extremely cold, and his whole person exuded a fierce murderous aura.
He's been waiting for this day, too long!
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter
4033 -
At this time, the vanguard of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple had arrived at the periphery of the Buried Dragon Valley.
This forward troop was originally on the mission near Longyang City, so it took the shortest time.
They thought they would encounter the ruthless gangster in this area, and they were even ready for a decisive battle.
After all, in the eyes of everyone, the Buried Dragon Valley is very dangerous, and no matter how strong the bandit is, he will not dare to enter it easily.
Even the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall, or even the top powerhouses of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, dare not easily set foot in the deepest part of the Buried Dragon Valley.
Unless more powerful hidden families or transcendental forces may be in danger, other forces will have no return if they rush in.
However, this forward force happened to encounter several bounty hunter groups.
Only after inquiring did they know that Levi Garrison and his party had entered the core area of the Dragon Burial Valley.
"Are you sure they really walked in?" asked the leader of the front troop of the Sun
Moon Divine Fire Temple.
Several bounty hunter leaders have said that they have seen it with their own eyes, and many can testify.
"Hahaha, now that gangster is sure to die, we all save our hands."

“That’s right, thunder is surging at the core of the Buried Dragon Valley, and even the superpowers have a high probability of going back and forth.”
“This guy is really arrogant and arrogant. He only brought two people into the Dragon Burial Valley. Isn’t this equivalent to seeking death?”
The vanguard team burst into laughter.
In their opinion, Levi Garrison and the others are sure to die. Unless their luck is against the sky, there is only a glimmer of hope that they will come out alive.
After all, Tianlei Tribulation is not a joke, and many peak powerhouses have been blasted to ashes by Tianlei Tribulation.
“Don’t take it lightly, the palace master has issued a death order, that bastard gangster wants to see people die and see corpses.” “Everyone’s team blocked several exits in the Buried Dragon Valley. Even if they survived, they must be killed on the spot.”
The head of the forward force said in a cold tone.
Everyone was ordered to divide into several teams to completely seal all the exits, waiting for Levi Garrison and others to come out.
With the passage of time, more and more sects under the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace gathered, and the surrounding of the Buried Dragon Valley was surrounded by water.
at the same time.
The people in the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall had already entered the primitive jungle.
The dark clouds covered the top like Mount Tai, which made everyone feel extremely depressed.
Boom!
The thunder was rolling in, and some disciples of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple, who were slightly underground, felt dizzy, and the blood in their chests was surging.
“The power on the edge of Tianlei is so terrifying. One can imagine how terrifying the Tianlei at the core of the Buried Dragon Valley is?”

“Also, the force in this area is too strong, and these legs seem to be filled with lead.”
“Not only that, the speed of running the exercises is much slower than usual, which is really incredible.”
The disciples of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace walked slowly forward, and every step took a lot of energy.
Deng Deng Deng!
Heavy footsteps came one after another.
If you observe carefully, you will find that every time the disciples of the Sun Moon
Divine Fire Hall take a step, the soles of their feet sink deeply into the ground.
Everyone felt as if they were carrying a big mountain on their backs, and it was not an exaggeration to describe it as difficult.
“Specially, I feel that the power in my body has nowhere to release, which is really unpleasant.”
“Did you feel as if something was peeking in the dark? Like…”
“It’s as if we had some kind of behemoth under our feet.”
*“F*ck, it turns out that you all feel the same way, I thought it was just my own* psychological effect!”
The hearts of everyone suddenly became uneasy, and an emotion called fear spread rapidly in the hearts of everyone.
The Lord of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall said solemnly: “Everyone, don’t panic. With this seat here, even the ancient beasts have to retreat.”
One sentence instantly calmed the restless crowd.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4034 -
the other side.
The three of Levi Garrison have entered the real range of the Buried Dragon Valley.
The terrifying coercion of the power of thunder is dozens of times stronger than before.
Even the power shield that Levi Garrison displayed has already offset the coercion of Tianlei to the greatest extent.

But Gongsun Yueying and Murong Qingxue still felt the pressure.
The strong pressure seems to be able to reach the level of pervasiveness, and it actually penetrates the layers of protection of the energy shield.
dong dong dong!
Every step the two women took, the soles of their feet sank deeply into the ground, which made it difficult for them to walk.
The speed of spiritual power consumption has reached its limit.
"Sect Master, I really can't hold on anymore, I have to rest for a while."
Murong Qingxue said out of breath.
Seeing that Murong Qingxue was dripping with sweat at this moment, even her clothes were soaked.
She was gasping for breath, obviously her body had reached its limit.
Gongsun Yueying is also not much stronger than Murong Shengxue, and her pretty face is as pale as paper, her hair has been soaked with sweat, and it looks a little messy.
However, it can be clearly felt that Gongsun Yueying's breath is relatively stable, and it is obvious that the level of practice is more advanced.
"Master, I have to rest for a while. This place is too evil. It is obviously supported by an energy shield. How can the consumption be so huge?"
Gongsun Yueying said with a puzzled face.
Levi Garrison frowned slightly. In fact, he discovered this situation not long ago.
"Actually we may have been misled from the start."
Levi Garrison suddenly said in a deep voice.
Murong Qingxue asked with a puzzled face, "What does the sect master mean? Isn't this the real Dragon Burying Valley?"
Gongsun Yueying's gaze was also full of doubts.
Levi Garrison waved his hand and explained, "I'm referring to the real source from which we are bound by power."
The faces of the two women were still a little confused, and they obviously didn't understand what Levi Garrison meant.
"Regardless of the periphery or the core area of Buried Dragon Valley, there is the power of thunder that cannot be dissipated for hundreds of years in the air, and it is indeed oppressive."

"And we have always been fighting against the energy coercion of the power of the thunder, and it is because of this that the energy shield will crack and shatter."
"But what if we're bound to more than one source of energy?"
While speaking, Levi Garrison pointed to the ground under his feet.
Both women are smart people, and they roughly understood what Levi Garrison meant in an instant.
As Levi Garrison said, since they entered the Dragon Burial Valley, Levi Garrison directly released an energy shield to protect them.
At the beginning, it really relieved the two girls a lot of pressure, and they didn't even have much effort in the process of walking.
However, since entering the core area of the Buried Dragon Valley, the two women's sense of difficulty has become more and more obvious.
Until now, every step was extremely laborious, and both feet were deeply sunk into the ground.
Then the source of energy bound by this is most likely underground!
After all, the energy shield resists only the power of the sky thunder in the air.
The ground is in direct contact with them and cannot be completely isolated.
In addition, most of Levi Garrison's attention was focused on resisting the power of the thunder, and he did not find anything abnormal under his feet.
Even if the two women's feet sank deeply into the ground, they instinctively believed that the reason for the increase in the power of the thunder as they approached the core area of the Dragon Buried Valley.
"But Sect Master, why are you okay?"
Murong Qingxue's face was full of puzzlement, she pointed her finger at Levi Garrison's feet, but Gongsun Yueying found that he only left light footprints.

Although Levi Garrison is powerful, there is such a problem on the ground that he absolutely cannot deal with it so easily.
In particular, Levi Garrison also supports such a large-scale energy shield, it is even more difficult to avoid being bound by this power.
Even if you don't sink your feet deep into the ground to your knees, you may have to sink your feet completely.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4035 - Levi Garrison pondered for a moment and said, "This should be due to the difference in our cultivation methods."
"What's the meaning?"
Gongsun Yueying couldn't help but ask.
Levi Garrison explained: "It's very simple, no matter what kind of cultivation method ordinary monks practice, they need to absorb the spiritual energy of heaven and earth, and finally reach the realm of the unity of heaven and man."
"In this way, it will instinctively adapt to, and even rely on, this area, so it will be more affected by the suppression energy in this underground."
"But the exercises I practice belong to pure body cultivation. I am a separate energy body, and I can even exist in any space as a separate energy body. Even if I didn't notice the secret restraint of underground energy before, I am almost immune to this kind of energy. influence of power."
The two women seemed to understand what they said, but they also knew that it was basically impossible to ask Levi Garrison's exercises.
However, they didn't know that Levi Garrison still had a lot of things to say in his heart.
"The leylines under my feet must be extraordinary, and this energy also seems to have a sense of deja vu."
"What kind of energy is it? And where have I seen it?"
Levi Garrison kept searching for relevant information in his mind, but after a long time he could not come to a definite conclusion.

Boom!
Clap clap!
As the deafening thunder sounded, several lightning bolts cut through the sky like fire dragons.
At this moment, it seems that even the dark clouds have been cut open several times by lightning.
Crimson-like lightning flashed above his head, and the entire earth was shone bloodred, as if the surface blood was flowing into a river.
The whole area seemed to be a blood-red world.
Coupled with the sense of oppression brought about by the increasingly powerful and terrifying restraint force, it makes people feel as if they are in the Hell of Shura, and they are unconsciously afraid.
"If you rest well, move on."
Levi Garrison said solemnly.
Clap clap!
As soon as the voice fell, several red-red lightning bolts struck the ground in the front block of the minefield.
In an instant, the ground was split into a number of bottomless pits as thick as a bucket.
Immediately, the broken stone that collapsed in the air was hit by other lightning strikes and turned into powder.
"Sect…Sect Master, do you really want to move forward?"
"Master, look at the power of that scarlet thunder."
Murong Qingxue and Gongsun Yueying were obviously a little hesitant, their pretty faces could no longer hide their fear, and even their delicate bodies were trembling slightly.
They were really scared.
You must know that the ground itself in this area is extremely hardened by the mighty power of the sky thunder.
Even the best forging materials may not be able to compare, but under the crimson thunderbolt, they all turned into powder in an instant.

Their flesh-and-blood body is even more unavoidable.
"What are you afraid of with me here?"
Levi Garrison paused and continued: "Even if you stay here, how long do you think you can last with your own strength?"
The two women were speechless for a moment, and their faces were instantly ugly.
What Levi Garrison said was true, even if they stayed in place, they could not hold on to the restraint and coercion of their own against Tianlei and underground mysterious forces.
But with the frequent thunderstorms ahead, it is hard to say whether Levi Garrison can protect himself. Can he really protect them from harm?
The powerhouses of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple once explored the surrounding area.
The real treasure and the location of the divine bone were covered by even more terrifying thunder, making it impossible to approach.
Even if the two palace master-level powerhouses were seriously injured when they approached, they were not really close to the core area of the Dragon Burial Valley.
If it was replaced by other people, I would have died in the process of approaching.
Murong Qingxue thought the same way.
The Taiyi Chamber of Commerce also sent many strong people to explore the Dragon Burial Valley, and finally ended up with heavy casualties.
Because of this, almost no one has successfully explored the core area of the Buried Dragon Valley.
"Is Levi Garrison really good?" Such thoughts appeared in the minds of the two women
at the same time.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4036 - Seeing that the two women were still hesitating, Levi Garrison probably guessed what they were thinking.

“You may be able to live a little longer by staying where you are, but you will never be able to get out of this area alive.”
“But if you follow me honestly, maybe you can still win a chance.”
“What’s more, there must be a large number of top-level treasures in the Buried Dragon Valley. Risks and benefits coexist. You should understand this truth.”
Levi Garrison said with a smile.
Gongsun Yueying and Murong Qingxue both sighed, why don’t they know this truth?
Now the known treasures in the Dragon Burial Valley are only divine bones, but in such a fierce place, hundreds of years of thunder bombardment quenched the chain.
Even more terrifying treasures of heaven and earth will certainly be born, but even the top experts here will not come out alive.
The peak powerhouses in other areas may still be able to leave safely, but they also have similar fierce places in this area, so there is no need to seek distance.
Therefore, no one knows the level of danger in the real core area of the Buried Dragon Valley, and the unknown is the most terrifying.
“Let’s go!”
Murong Qingxue clenched her silver teeth tightly and followed suit.
Gongsun Yueying’s mouth twitched, but in desperation, she could only follow Levi Garrison to move on.
However, this time Levi Garrison released his power directly, completely isolating the area of the shield from the ground.
The two women felt as if they were being supported by some invisible force under their feet, and the previous situation where their feet were deeply sunk to the ground never reappeared.
This shocked their spirits, and at the same time relieved the power constraints to the greatest extent for the two women.
Although it wasn’t as light as Levi Garrison’s, the three of them moved much faster.

Walk another two or three miles.
Clap! Clap!
Two crimson thunders with the thickness of water buckets suddenly fell, but Gongsun Yueying and Murong Qingxue avoided them.
Two deep pits about two or three meters deep appeared where the two women originally stood.
Hiss!
The two women each took a breath of cold air, and the cold sweat on their foreheads couldn't stop dripping down.
"so close!"
The two women are fortunate to break free from the brink of Xiang Xiaoyu's death.
However, this mentality has not completely dissipated, and a purple sky thunder suddenly smashed down again.
With a seemingly random wave of Levi Garrison's hand, the two women were swept away by a violent aura and quickly retreated five or six feet away.
Boom!
The purple Tianlei was surrounded by three people with a thickness of three, and it slammed into the position where the two were standing just now.
All of a sudden, the rubble that splashed out was also shaken to powder by the aftermath of the thunder.
The two women looked at the place where the purple sky thunder struck, and a huge bottomless circular pothole appeared.
Kick-kick!
As the two women were pushed out of the power shield just now, their feet sank deeply into the ground again.
Coupled with the coercion and blessing of the power of Tianlei, the two were unable to move forward at all.
Even though they tried their best to remove their feet, they were still unsuccessful.
It wasn't until now that the two women knew how powerful Levi Garrison had resisted them.

“It’s no wonder that so many powerhouses came here to perish, and they had to avoid the bombardment of the sky when they were bound by such a huge force.”
“It may be done once or twice, but if you walk for a long time, your physical strength and spiritual energy will be exhausted.”
“If you don’t die from exhaustion, you will be struck to death by thunder until you are wiped out.”
The two girls were confused.
Levi Garrison also quickly came to them, and was enveloped by the energy shield again, and the two women’s huge sense of restraint finally disappeared.
“This is not a place to be stunned. If you are a little careless, it will disappear into ashes.
I don’t always have time to save me.”
After Levi Garrison finished speaking, he continued to move forward, and the two women hurriedly followed.
“Don’t get too close to me, the lightning coverage here is very wide.”
Levi Garrison reminded again.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4037 -
As soon as the voice fell, a purple lightning struck straight down again.
“Sect Master be careful!”
Murong Qingxue reminded in a panic.
Gongsun Yueying also sucked in a breath of cold air, once Levi Garrison was shot and killed, she would not be able to escape.
However, in the stunned eyes of the two women, Levi Garrison let the purple thunder strike him.
For a while, the purple electric light flashed on the waist, and the two of them didn’t dare to continue to watch, and instinctively closed their eyes.
However, after a moment, the power of Tianlei dissipated, and they carefully opened their eyes, and saw that the imagined scene did not appear.
Levi Garrison stood there like a god of war, and there was even a low moan that was almost due to comfort.

“This… how is this possible?”
“Not only is it hard against thunder, but also unscathed?”
The two women were stunned in shock, unable to believe that the scene in front of them was real.
“The strength of Levi Garrison’s body is too abnormal, isn’t it?”
The two girls filled their hearts with this idea.
“What the hell, keep going!”
Levi Garrison waved to the two women and continued to lead the way.
“Sect Master is too strong!”
“It should be safe to follow the master.”
The two women’s eyes glowed with light, which was the desire to survive.
The three continued to move forward, and as they gradually penetrated into the Dragon
Burial Valley, there was no sign of any life activity.
The ground in the entire area was devastated, apparently struck by lightning.
Of course, what frightened the two women the most was the increasing number of corpses on the ground around them.
Some of these corpses were several meters long, and they were obviously huge in their lifetime.
Others are human skeletons, but they are only stumps and broken arms. They must be the peak powerhouses who entered the Dragon Burial Valley to hunt for treasures.
However, even if they tried their best to fight Tianlei, they ended up with such a tragic ending.
“These bones are also inferior god bones in a sense, and they are far from the top god bones!”
Levi Garrison shook his head and said solemnly.
Gongsun Yueying suddenly said: “Actually, I also learned a secret about the Dragon Burial Valley from the ancient books in the library of the Sun Moon God Fire Hall.”
“What secret?”
Levi Garrison asked.
Gongsun Yueying said hurriedly: “It is recorded in ancient books that in the deepest part of the Buried Dragon Valley, the sky is dense with thunder, forming an extremely terrifying sea of thunder."

"In addition to this, there seems to be some mysterious thing, which is said to be able to survive bathing in the sea of thunder."
"It is not known whether it is a human or a spirit beast, but since he can survive in such a terrifying environment, one can imagine how terrifying it is."
"I hope we don't meet, otherwise…"
Although Gongsun Yueying didn't say anything after that, Levi Garrison also understood what she meant.
The sky thunder is full of lethality. If he was not a very special pure body cultivator, I am afraid he would have died under the bombardment of the purple sky thunder.
And that mysterious powerhouse can survive in the thunder sea, his strength is evident, especially his physical strength can be comparable to Levi Garrison, or even stronger.
"Then why didn't you say it before?"
Murong Qingxue asked.
Gongsun Yueying sighed and said, "This is only recorded in ancient books, I don't know if it's true or not, if I don't see it in the end…"
Gongsun Yueying obviously did not dare to speak any further.
Murong Qingxue suddenly realized that if he didn't see this thing in the end, Levi Garrison would definitely think that Gongsun Yueying was playing tricks on him to prevent him from entering the Dragon Burying Valley.
At that time, facing Levi Garrison's anger, I am afraid that there will be means waiting for her that are more terrifying than death.
"It doesn't matter if you meet him. If he is a person, maybe he can talk to him about the art of body refining!"
Levi Garrison didn't mean to back down when he heard the words, but was even more eager to try.

Looking at Levi Garrison's relaxed face, Gongsun Yueying was obviously unable to complain.
There seems to be nothing in this world that makes Levi Garrison afraid?
"Continue to go!"
Levi Garrison took the lead and continued to drive forward.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4038 -
The three continued to move forward, and the frequency of thunderbolts falling became higher and higher.
Gongsun Yueying and Murong Qingxue's panic at the beginning gradually turned into trembling, and finally turned into numbness.
Of course, the biggest emotion of the two women was shock, shocked by the terror of Levi Garrison's strength.
Because they found that in the process of approaching the core area of the Buried Dragon Valley, Levi Garrison had no evasion from the bombardment of the thunder.
Instead, he took the initiative to accept the baptism of Tianlei, and even released an energy vortex, which directly attracted the Tianlei that was attacking the two women.
Levi Garrison seemed to be enjoying the process of being struck by lightning.
"You mentioned the terrifying creature recorded in the ancient books earlier, and I began to think it was a fantasy."
"But now it seems that the thing is very likely to exist, perhaps the descendants of the ancient spirit beasts recorded in the ancient scriptures of mountains and seas."
Murong Qingxue said through voice transmission.
The corner of Gongsun Yueying's mouth twitched, and she felt the same way in her heart. After all, Levi Garrison could bathe in the thunder without being hurt by himself.
How did the two women know that Levi Garrison took the initiative to attract Tianlei because he found that the effect of using Tianlei to quench his body was even better than that of dragon vein quenching.

It is also because of this factor that Levi Garrison insisted on continuing to the core area of the Buried Dragon Valley.
After all, the Thunder Tribulation in this marginal area has such an effect, so the body quenching effect in the core area is definitely better.
It suits his style so well.
Boom boom boom!
Several more purple thunders struck Levi Garrison one after another. He quickly ran the basic exercises, quenched the power of the thunder, and washed the meridians.
The two women saw dazzling electric flowers erupt around Levi Garrison's body, and the aftermath of the terrifying power of thunder and lightning spread rapidly.
Even though they were so far apart, even though the two women had tried their best to resist, they still felt like their whole bodies were about to split.
You must know that this is just the energy aftermath of the purple sky thunder, and it has brought such a big impact on them.
It's hard to imagine what kind of violent energy Levi Garrison, who was directly hit in a row, would endure?
"It's too powerful!"
"Why did I want to kill him before?"
Gongsun Yueying couldn't help but regret, what kind of terrifying existence did she provoke?
Murong Qingxue was equally astonished. Facing such a terrifying bombardment of the heavenly thunder, the experts from the Xingyue Divine Sect would probably be wiped out long ago.
Even the high-level powerhouses of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall would probably suffer heavy casualties.

Even if it is a powerhouse at the level of the palace master, I am afraid it is difficult to pass through this area intact.
On the other hand, Levi Garrison didn't even damage the corners of his clothes, and even he was distracted by the energy shield to protect himself?
You must know that maintaining such a large-scale energy shield itself will consume a lot of power, not to mention the restraint and coercion of the sky and the underground?
How terrifying is this kind of cultivation?
"Walk another two or three miles to reach the core area of Buried Dragon Valley."
Levi Garrison said excitedly.
After this period of time, he felt that his cultivation realm had improved again.
In particular, the toughness of the body and meridians has also improved a lot again.
You must know that since using more than ten dragon veins to quench the body, Levi Garrison's increase in physical strength has been very limited.
Take the dragon vein that he snatched not long ago, Levi Garrison doesn't have a strong sense of improvement, and it can even be described as better than nothing.
However, the Sky Thunder Tempering Body in this area can actually make him significantly improve, so he can't miss such a good opportunity no matter what.
The Tianlei on the edge of the Buried Dragon Valley is still so effective, it is conceivable that the core area will definitely have a better effect on improving one's own strength.
"It is very possible to reach a whole new realm by quenching the body through the sky thunder in the core area!"
The more Levi Garrison thought about it, the more excited he became.
At that time, don't say anything about the powerhouses of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace. Even if he encounters more powerful sectarian forces, Levi Garrison is not afraid at all.

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4039 -

Seeing Tianlei's movement in the distance even more deafening, Gongsun Yueying and Murong Qingxue shivered involuntarily.

Although Levi Garrison had been there to protect them during this period of time, the aftermath of the thunder still made them exhausted.

Occasionally, the whole body will be paralyzed by electricity. Although it is not a substantial injury, it still makes the two girls feel lingering fears.

What's more, in the core area, whether it is the number of sky mines or lethality, I am afraid that there will be a qualitative improvement.

At that time, it is difficult to say whether Levi Garrison can still devote his energy to protecting himself.

Once they lost Levi Garrison's energy shield to defend themselves, Gongsun Yueying and Murong Qingxue felt that they would be wiped out within a quarter of an hour.

Of course, even if you think in a good direction, there is an energy shield blessing.

Such a powerful and dense aftermath of the thunder, I am afraid it will also cause fatal damage to them.

It's a dead end anyway!

Boom!

The deafening thunder sounded again, and the two girls were shocked.

The powerful energy coercion struck again, and the outer layer of the energy shield had been backlogged and shattered.

It was as if the energy shield could be crushed to pieces at any moment.

The surrounding dark clouds are lower, making people feel like they can't breathe.

The two women's breathing suddenly became extraordinarily rapid, and they could clearly see that their bodies were shaking violently.

Finally, after half an hour, Levi Garrison and others came to the edge of the core area.

In front of you is a cold pool that is several miles long, but the water on the uppermost layer is jet-black, and a faint white cold air rises faintly.

Clap clap!
Countless thunders of different thicknesses and colors were continuously smashing into the cold pool, but the water surface was surprisingly calm, with sparks shining and beating constantly.
There was a smell of something burning in the void, making people feel dizzy after taking a breath.
The black cloud above the cold pool is extremely low, as if it is connected to the water surface of the cold pool, but in fact there is a certain distance.
Buzz!
Countless thunderstorms continued to smash the cold pool, and the powerful energy aftermath spread out, constantly impacting the energy shield directly in front of Levi Garrison.
There was a deafening sound similar to the violent collision of metals, and even at the realm of Levi Garrison's cultivation at the moment, there was a solemn expression on his face at this moment.
"What a terrifying energy!"
Levi Garrison couldn't help but sighed.
In such a short time, the power of the thunder that poured down from the sky is comparable to a large dragon vein.
The most important thing is that Tianlei seems to contain a deeper level of control, and it seems to be catering to some legendary Dao rules.
And every time the thunder strikes, it is trying to control the energy balance of the entire Dragon Buried Valley.
It is precisely because of this that the water surface of the cold pool can still remain so calm under such a dense and violent thunderstorm.
I'm afraid it's also because the energy in this area is balanced to some extent.
It's just the moment when the thunderbolt hits the water, and the power of other thunderbolts will not be offset.

The entire Dragon Burial Valley seems to be a field of violent thunder and lightning.
"You keep a farther distance from me, and I will try to isolate Leiyu from you as much as possible."
Levi Garrison ordered.
The two women nodded instinctively, and could feel that they were extremely nervous, and the cold sweat on their foreheads couldn't stop dripping down.
However, the moment when Levi Garrison stepped forward and stepped into the first step in the real core area suddenly mutated.
The three thunderbolts were like laser cannons that locked the target, and they blasted towards the location of Levi Garrison and others in an instant.
"Be careful!"
Gongsun Yueying and Murong Qingxue couldn't help but scream in shock.
Even through the thick energy shield, they still clearly felt the destructive energy coercion of these few thunderbolts.
The three colors of red, orange and yellow thunder are coming in the blink of an eye, as if to blast Levi Garrison and others into powder.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4040 -
Levi Garrison's eyes were slightly condensed, and the three-color thunderbolt bombardment further confirmed his previous guess.
The entire Dragon Burial Valley has indeed reached a certain energy balance.
The three of them suddenly entered the core area, and the three energy bodies suddenly intervened, thus breaking this energy balance.
Then Tianlei naturally wants to destroy this 'abrupt energy body' and restore it to its original state.
"This kind of thunder really contains some kind of energy law between heaven and earth."
Thinking of this, Levi Garrison didn't dare to neglect at all.

Because he can feel that the energy contained in these three thunders is even stronger than the previous purple thunder.
"I want to see how powerful you are?"
Levi Garrison directly ran the basic exercises and took the initiative to lead the three thunders to himself.
Boom!
Levi Garrison chose hard resistance.
The energy shield in front of him was blasted to ashes in an instant, and the entire body was also wrapped in three thunderbolts.
Clap clap!
The electric light shone, and Levi Garrison shook slightly.
But he didn't suffer any substantial damage. At this moment, his body strength was quenched again, which in turn increased a little.
However, the two women hiding in the distance did not have such good luck, even if they were protected by an energy shield and only needed to withstand the energy aftermath of the power of the thunder.
But the impact of this reaction still caused the two to receive some minor injuries.
Even the weaker Murong Qingxue had a trace of blood flowing from the corner of his mouth.
In this short period of time, Levi Garrison completed the consumption of the energy of the three thunders.
Swish!
Levi Garrison stepped back suddenly, exiting the real core area category.
In this way, there is no internal Tianlei to continue to track.
"That's exactly what happened."
Levi Garrison said quietly.
The reason Levi Garrison entered rashly just now was to test his speculation, and also to test the strength of Tianlei in the core area.
Although he had absolute confidence in his physical strength, Levi Garrison also took into account the safest possible operation.

Now Levi Garrison knows a lot about many aspects, especially the strength of Tianlei and the attack rules.
Gongsun Yueying and Murong Qingxue's faces were as pale as paper. Even though they were not seriously injured just now, they were deeply afraid of the core area.
You must know that it was just the aftermath of Tianlei, and they were still under the protection of the energy shield.
Without this energy shield, they might have perished just now.
"Master, let's not go in!"
Gongsun Yueying said in a dry voice.
Gongsun Yueying was almost certain that once he entered the core area of the Dragon
Burial Valley, there would be no room for escape.
The entire cold lake is like a huge sea of thunder, and the criss-crossing various kinds of thunder will bombard the uninvited guests rashly indiscriminately.
However, if you want to fight against such dense and intense Tianlei, you need either top-level physical training, or you need to have various top-level protective magic weapons.
However, Gongsun Yueying did not possess these two necessary skills.
Otherwise, a person of her cultivation realm would break in, and there would be almost nothing but an instant annihilation.
At this time, Gongsun Yueying finally understood why the two palace masters had changed their talk about the Dragon Burial Valley.
Even with their cultivation base, they can't fight against such a powerful Tianlei for a long time.
To be able to retreat in this sea of thunder, I am afraid that I will burn a high incense.
"According to the attack intensity of the few thunderbolts just now, even the two hall masters couldn't last for three minutes."
Gongsun Yueying made a judgment in her heart.
However, they couldn't get close to Hantan in such a short time.

As for the real god bones, they also need to go to the shore of the cold pool, or even go deep into the cold pool to find them.
At this moment, a terrifying explosion of thunder suddenly sounded.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4041 -
The three of them looked at the sound, and saw a dark purple sky thunder with a diameter of about tens of meters pouring down, directly bombarding the center of the cold pool.
At the moment when the entire cold pool was bombarded, it seemed to boil directly, and soon a waterspout shot straight into the sky, breaking through the layers of dark clouds.
The water surface of the cold pool is centered on the bombardment position of the large-scale thunder, and the violent electric light spreads everywhere, forming a terrifying electric light spark.
The piercing electric arc sound is deafening and deafening, making people feel chills just by looking at it.
Boom boom boom!
At this moment, other locations suddenly bombarded the surface of the cold pool with batches of small thunder.
As if trying to calm down the power imbalance caused by the large-scale thunder.
Hundreds of thunderstorms of varying degrees poured down in an instant over the entire cold pool, hitting the surface of the cold pool indiscriminately.
The whole scene is magnificent and spectacular to the extreme, which is very similar to the special effects of thunderstorms in the end-of-the-world movies.
Watching it up close and personal is even more shocking.
Even Levi Garrison was a little stunned, and he even wondered if he could withstand this level of thunder bombardment?
This scene of the thunder group sloping down lasted for about ten minutes before it gradually subsided.

And the waterspout caused by the previous large-scale thunderstorm was finally calmed down, and the water surface of the entire cold pool returned to calm again.
As if the shocking scene just now had never happened.
"Is this a thunderstorm?"
Levi Garrison smacked his lips, he finally understood why the water surface of the cold pool was so dark, it was completely struck by lightning!
Moreover, these blackened waters obviously carry some kind of power rhythm, and it is obvious that they have accumulated a little thunder power over the years.
"Sect Master, are you still going forward?"
Murong Qingxue said in a trembling voice.
Levi Garrison said with a smile, "Of course! The bones of the gods are so close at hand, how can there be a reason to return empty-handed?"
The corners of Murong Qingxue's mouth twitched. If she continued to walk in, she would most likely die, and then she would be gone.
What about getting a god bone?
Moreover, the previous rumors were all false, saying that the thunder of the Dragon
Burial Valley would collapse and die with the accumulation of time.
Even after a thousand years, it will be completely gone, and the scene before me directly shatters this statement.
"But Master, the facts have proved that the rumors are false, and the thunder that we encounter when we move on can only get stronger and stronger."
"Just in the battle just now, I'm afraid we won't be able to hold on for a long time before we go in and it will be wiped out."
"Even the two palace masters of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace will never survive, and even the old monsters of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce have no chance of retreating."
Gongsun Yueying became more and more dejected as she talked, and there were even faint tears in her eyes.

She was indeed terrified to the extreme, especially when she saw the terrifying scene of the 'group of thunder dancing' just now, Gongsun Yueying was so frightened that she died.
"Yeah, Sect Master, just that huge sky thunder just now, even the top and hardest forging materials, will be blasted into smoke in an instant."
"Just now we entered the core area, and the three-color sky thunder came at an extreme speed, and even the energy shield was instantly broken."
"We tried our best to resist and we could only barely survive the aftermath. If we go in, there is really no hope of surviving!"
At this moment, Murong Qingxue also put aside her fear of Levi Garrison and chose to speak bluntly.
She even felt that if she didn't speak at this moment, it was very likely that she would never have the opportunity to speak in the future.
At this time, the two women spared no effort to persuade Levi Garrison not to enter the core area.
After all, whether Levi Garrison chooses to bring them in together or he enters the area alone, both of them will die.
The chaotic thunder in the non-core area can also kill them, and the only hope is to dissuade Levi Garrison from entering the core area.
In this way, the two women can follow Levi Garrison and retreat.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4042 -
"Finished?"
Levi Garrison asked with a smile.
The two women nodded stunned, and for some unknown reason, a bad premonition suddenly rose in their hearts.
Sure enough, before they could react, they suddenly felt that they were enveloped by an invisible energy, and then they entered the core area uncontrollably.
The three talents had just entered the core area of the Dragon Burial Valley, and the calm water surface of the cold pool was sparkling again.

If you look closely, you will find that the ripples are not real water waves, but electric waves accumulated over many years.
Boom!
The next second, the deafening thunder sounded again from the rolling black clouds.
The lightning was like a terrifying beast that was suddenly stimulated, flickering and jumping like crazy, as if to tear the sky apart.
"Follow me, and don't take out the energy shield unless you have to."
Levi Garrison said in a deep voice.
Gongsun Yueying and Murong Qingxue were still in shock and nodded instinctively.
But they could clearly feel their fear, and the two pretty faces were not even bloody, but full of fear.
Clap!
With a flash of lightning across the sky, the thick dark clouds instantly seemed to be blood-stained.
Immediately afterwards, a two-colored sky thunder with a thickness of red and blue in the water tank suddenly fell, hitting the top of Levi Garrison and others directly.
"Be careful!"
The two women screamed in surprise, and now Levi Garrison is all their hope.
Although there is some resentment about Levi Garrison forcing himself into the core area, but now he can only bite the bullet and accept it.
At the same time, the two women also ran the exercises, preparing to fully resist the aftermath of the thunder.
boom!
The two-color sky thunder instantly enveloped Levi Garrison's entire body, and Levi Garrison's figure was completely lost in sight.
Only the jumping two-color electric flower and the extremely terrifying energy coercion are left.

The place where Levi Garrison originally stood was blasted into a huge pit, but the extent of the fall was not too deep.
Obviously, the ground strength of the core area is by no means comparable to other places. It should be the result of being bombarded by lightning for many years.
"What a terrifying two-color sky thunder, which has never been seen in the non-core area."
"That's right. Before, we saw only different colors of thunder, but they all appeared alone. Obviously, the two-color thunder is more destructive."
Gongsun Yueying and Murong Qingxue looked at each other, and both saw deep fear in each other's eyes.
Moreover, the two women felt that the two-color Tianlei seemed to be able to shred people's souls. Even if they were so far away, they felt a surge of excitement.
That is the influence of the aftermath of the two-color Tianlei power attack on the mind.
It is conceivable that Levi Garrison directly bears the power of the two-color thunder, how violent the impact on the soul should be?
"It's so hot!"
Murong Qingxue couldn't help wiping her forehead, but she didn't touch even a drop of sweat.
It turned out that the sweat had just appeared, and it was evaporated by the blazing air.
The entire area seemed to have risen several hundred degrees in an instant.
If it weren't for the protection of the energy shield, I'm afraid this extreme high temperature is enough for two women.
"What a strong energy aftermath!"
Gongsun Yueying's movement skills offset the last trace of the aftermath of the thunder, and the blood in his chest surged, and he almost suffered serious internal injuries.

Murong Qingxue was also not much better, but he finally completely resisted the aftermath of the two-color thunder.
The two women looked in the direction of Levi Garrison at the same time, and saw that the outline of his whole person gradually became clearer.
His body jumped with electric sparks, but he didn't suffer any damage, and even his clothes were only slightly wrinkled.
"Is this too strong?"
The two girls couldn't help but sigh.
However, at this moment, two thunders fell from the rear again, and the target was obviously the heads of the two women.
They panicked instantly and cursed Tianlei for not talking about martial arts.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4043 -
The two women never imagined that Tianlei would also play insidious sneak attack tactics.
Although these two thunders are not of two colors, their coercive intensity is several times stronger than the thunder in the non-core area.
"We are dead!"
Both women were extremely desperate, because at this moment Levi Garrison had not completely consumed the energy of the two-color Tianlei, so he had no time to care.
And with their own cultivation and energy shields, it is obviously impossible to resist two such terrifying thunders.
"Concentrate and don't be distracted, I will take over most of the power of the thunder."
"As for the aftermath of these two thunderbolts, try to coexist with them as much as possible."
"Don't always think about confrontation. This is a thunderbolt against you. It is not only your catastrophe, but also your chance."
Before he finished speaking, Levi Garrison suddenly activated the basic exercises.

Tianlei, who originally slashed at the two women, seemed to have found a large lightning rod, and turned directly to the top of Levi Garrison's head.
The two women were dumbfounded and did not fully understand the meaning of Levi Garrison's words just now.
But Levi Garrison forcibly attracted Tianlei to pass over, letting the two women breathe a sigh of relief, and at the same time trying to think about the meaning of Levi Garrison's words.
But soon they understood what Levi Garrison meant.
The aftermath of the thunder was surging, and the two women were surprised to find that the shock of this baptism did not cause them any substantial damage.
On the contrary, they strengthened their physique, and even the meridians had a faint increase in toughness.
"The Thunder Tribulation has some kind of power of rules, and the conventional consideration is that the monks have destroyed the energy balance in this area."
"The thunder attack will destroy it to achieve the purpose of energy balance again, but as long as you can withstand this thunder calamity."
"You can coexist with the energy in this area for a short time. As long as you can bear it, you can use the thunder tribulation to improve your cultivation for a long time."
Gongsun Yueying already understood what Levi Garrison said.
As the beautiful girl of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple, she is still very good at cultivating her comprehension ability.
Murong Qingxue was also very talented, and probably understood Levi Garrison's intentions.
The two women turned their attention to Levi Garrison again, and found that he was surrounded by thunder.
With a relaxed and comfortable face, where is there any sense of urgency about the threat of thunder?

It looked like he was enjoying the sun, and the surface of his body also formed the unique thunder and lightning rhythm of layers of thunder.
"The sect master dares to use the sky thunder to quench the body without resistance?"
"The master's body is so strong that it is abnormal! Even if the palace master is personally there, he will never be able to do this."
"Especially in the case of hard resistance to Tianlei, I am afraid that it will be severely damaged by the two-color Tianlei, or even die directly."
The eyes of the two women were full of shock. Along the way, they were truly convinced by Levi Garrison's terrifying strength.
However, this was not over yet. As the three continued to penetrate into the core area, more powerful Tianlei swarmed.
There was even a three-color sky thunder violently smashing down, Levi Garrison bathed in it, and the surface of the skin jumped with dazzling electric flowers.
Levi Garrison became more and more excited, and he could feel the change in body strength.
The effect of using the sky thunder to quench the body is far better than that of the dragon veins.
Even Levi Garrison had the idea of staying here for a long time.
"According to the effect of this body quenching, it won't take long for my strength to rise to a whole new level."
"Especially the strength of the body and meridians will be even higher, and there will be no fear in the face of the Kunlun Ruins super strong."
Thinking of this, Levi Garrison rushed again facing more thunder.
Obviously, for Levi Garrison's approach, the area in the Buried Dragon Valley is like a beast that has been continuously provoked, and a crazy revenge has completely erupted.
For a time, thunder surged, and the entire Dragon Burial Valley shook violently.

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4044 - Because Levi Garrison and others broke into the core area of the Dragon Burial Valley, they used Tianlei to quench their bodies.
The entire Dragon Burial Valley shook violently, and the violent aftermath of the energy also spread wildly.
Tianlei in the non-core area also seemed to have been affected, becoming more frantic than usual.
The power of thunder and lightning broke out completely, which directly shocked the members of many sectarian forces who besieged the entire Dragon Burial Valley.
"what's going on?"
"Could it be the movement made by that gangster?"
"I don't think so. Even if his strength is good, he will be wiped out under the bombardment of this level of thunder."
"Fortunately, we didn't have a face to break in, otherwise we would have come out alive."
Looking at the dark clouds and thunder rolling in the far end, the small and mediumsized sectarian powerhouses were all frightened.
Of course, it's not that they were too timid, even the two temple masters of the Sun
Moon Divine Fire Palace were a little scared in their hearts.
The two of them are considered the strongest among the many sects in the siege of Levi Garrison, and the ability to sense power is also the strongest.
The power of the thunder that erupted just now made them clearly realize how terrifying it was.
It's just that as the commanders of many sects, they naturally cannot express this fear, otherwise they will shake the hearts of the army.
The two hall masters communicated with each other. At first, they thought about entering the non-core area to investigate, but now they have completely dispelled this idea.

Divine bones and other genius treasures are tempting, but it is not worth the loss of life for this.
As for the bandit who killed the many geniuses in the hall, the two hall masters did not take it to heart.
In their opinion, no matter how powerful the gangster's cultivation base is, they will definitely fall under the bombardment of such a terrifying thunderbolt.
However, in order to be safe, the two palace masters still decided to take someone to seal the place for a few days.
Even if Levi Garrison was lucky enough to escape, it would definitely be severely damaged under the bombardment of the thunder, and they would be able to wait for work at that time.
To say that the most excited among many sects is Gong Qianqiu.
She also felt the horror of Tianlei in the Buried Dragon Valley. In the world of the world, she had never seen such a magnificent scene.
And even the power of the thunder in the edge area, I am afraid that it can instantly kill a middle-level sect elder level powerhouse.
"That is to say, I don't know the real situation inside, otherwise this sect master can try to swallow the power of Tianlei."
"Of course, even if you can't swallow it, it's good to use Sky Thunder to quench the
body."
This situation made Gong Qianqiu think of using the Tianshi Mansion to quench the body and increase the upper limit of swallowing.
However, the power of the thunder within the Dragon Burial Valley far exceeds the strength of the thunder that the Tianshi Mansion used to attract.
It is precisely because of this uncontrollable that Gong Qianqiu did not dare to act rashly.
She didn't want to steal chickens without losing rice, and that would not be a wise move.

What's more, there are many people on the scene, and Gong Qianqiu doesn't want to be this bird.
"Levi Garrison, I'm afraid you will never see such a scene."
"In the past, this sect leader aimed to defeat you, but now it seems like a big joke."
"With your current cultivation base, I'm afraid that any thunder in the Dragon Burial Valley can blast you to ashes."
Gong Qianqiu thought of this feeling of superiority.
"Levi Garrison, if you are fortunate enough to meet this sect master again, you can only kneel and look up at this seat."
Gong Qianqiu sneered in his heart.
The other saints in the Taixu Shenzong were equally astonished, and they had never experienced this level of Jedi experience.
The rolling thunder was so oppressive that it really opened their eyes.
Especially thinking that the notorious gangster is likely to die in the Dragon Burial Valley, his heart is inexplicably happy.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4045 -
In order to have a good relationship with the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall, Yin Xuejian approached the two hall masters as soon as he had a chance.
"The two palace masters, based on the speculations of the two, is it possible for the bandit to survive?"
Yin Xuejian asked respectfully.
"Based on the strength shown by the madman, he may break through the thunder attack in the non-core area."
"But the movement just now is likely to be caused by the terrifying thunder in the core area, and there are such fluctuations at such a distance."
"It is conceivable that the people they are in will be bombarded by the power of the sky thunder?"
The Lord of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace said the final word: "So that group of people will surely die."

The deputy hall master said with a sad face.
Gongsun Yueying has an excellent talent for cultivation and is highly valued by the two of them.
Even the two palace masters planned to train Gongsun Yueying as the future heir.
It was a pity that he was kidnapped by that madman and finally died in this Dragon Burying Valley.
“Damn things, even if he escaped the Dragon Burial Valley by chance, this seat will crush him to ashes.”
The hall master said with a grim expression.
“Two hall masters, please rest assured, the Taixu Shenzong will go all out to kill them and avenge the many geniuses in the hall.”
Yin Xuejian hurriedly expressed his loyalty.
The two palace masters nodded in satisfaction.
After a while, the deputy hall master said solemnly: “Wait for this matter, several holy sons of the Taixu Shenzong can go to the Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy to cultivate.”
“Thank you for the gift of the hall master!”
Yin Xuejian was overjoyed.
This is the ultimate goal of his actions, and now he has got what he wants, and he is very happy.
the other side.
Xiao Feng hid in the depths of the jungle, and heard from the discussions of many sect members that Levi Garrison was dangerous.
The whole face was instantly filled with fear and worry.
The last time I just saw one side in a hurry and then parted, Xiao Feng never thought that that side would be a goodbye anyway.
“Master, why are you going to investigate like this?”
“The terror of the power of thunder is also unimaginable, and the energy fluctuations can be clearly felt from such a distance.” “What’s more, I’m facing the thunder bombardment at close range. No, I have to go into the Buried Dragon Valley to investigate."

It was only Xiao Feng who had such an idea and he gave up directly.
Now all the entrances to the Buried Dragon Valley are surrounded by wind and rain, and it is impossible to break through the heavy seals with their own strength.
Taking ten thousand steps back, even if you are lucky enough to break through from a relatively weak entrance, you will probably have to pay a lot of money.
The most important thing is that even if you enter the Dragon Burying Valley area, it is probably difficult to survive under the bombardment of the sky.
"It's better to wait on the outside for a while. If the master is really killed, then look for an opportunity to seek revenge Gong Qianqiu." Xiao Feng secretly made a decision.
at the same time.
In the core area of Dragon Burial Valley.
Levi Garrison was constantly bombarded by various thunders.
However, Levi Garrison did not refuse anyone who came, and even attracted the thunder that was going to attack Murong Qingxue and the others.
And Levi Garrison also discovered in the process that the Tianlei in the core area of the Buried Dragon Valley seemed to have some kind of spirituality.
These Tianlei seemed to feel the power of Levi Garrison, so the most powerful Tianlei in the area concentrated on him.
"I know that Lao Tzu is too strong, so are you ready to kill Lao Tzu?"
The corners of Levi Garrison's mouth rose slightly, and he said with a sneer, "It's just that these days, I'm afraid I can't think of it, I just need them to do this."
"Tianlei is a catastrophe, but why is it not a chance?"
Levi Garrison was full of arrogance. After this period of time, he could clearly feel that the strength of his body and meridians had increased a lot.
The effect is comparable to the chain quenching degree of large dragon veins and even higher-level spiritual veins.
"Let Tianlei come more violently!"
Levi Garrison shouted loudly, as if provoking Tianlei.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4046 -

Clap!
The dazzling lightning pierced the sky, actually splitting the dark clouds.
Boom!
Then came the deafening roar of thunder.
Even Levi Garrison was shocked, the sound of thunder seemed to penetrate the soul, making people temporarily lose their ability to respond.
"Tianlei here really has aura to some extent!"
Levi Garrison was overjoyed, and immediately felt a little abnormal.
Looking up, I saw dark clouds moving in the depths of the cold lake, as if some kind of giant beast was about to burst out of the sky.
The dazzling electric light is instantly connected in one place, forming an incomparably huge power grid.
The terrifying Tianlei jumped around in it, as if it might fall down at any time.
Chi Chi Chi!
The dense arcs are intricately intertwined, like countless thunder dragons swallowing clouds, the scene is extremely terrifying.
Swish!
Thunder exploded, and the 'power grid' that was still at the far end instantly reached the top of the three of them, like a spotlight on the stage instantly lit.
At the same time, the void is full of aftermath of thunder and lightning. If there is no precaution, I am afraid that it will be directly electrocuted into coke.
"The power of the thunder is getting stronger and stronger, it seems to be gathering!"
Levi Garrison muttered to himself.
Since entering the core area of the Buried Dragon Valley, the thunder has not stopped.
However, just now Tianlei seemed to temporarily put a truce on him, the lightning and thunder only existed in the void, and there was no rush to strike Tianlei.
Even so, Levi Garrison didn't dare to neglect at all, because he could clean and feel that the power of the thunder was getting stronger and stronger.
It seems that he is accumulating strength and giving himself a fatal blow.
In particular, the thunder and lightning pressure in the surrounding space is getting bigger and bigger. Even with Levi Garrison's physical strength, he can occasionally feel a sense of tearing.

The pressure on the outer energy shield of the two women's bodies is getting stronger and stronger, and the outermost layer has a tendency to shatter.
Even the middle shield has been slightly deformed, you must know that this is an energy shield that has been deliberately strengthened by Levi Garrison.
As the thunder and lightning became denser, the smell of scorch in the air became stronger.
"I want to see what big tricks you can come up with?"
Levi Garrison sneered.
At the same time, the two women also noticed the abnormality.
"Look over there, it's not quite right!"
Gongsun Yueying's voice was clearly filled with panic and fear.
Murong Qingxue looked in the direction of Gongsun Yueying's fingers, and her already ugly face instantly worsened.
"Did this spark the wrath of the sky?"
Murong Qingxue's voice was trembling, and she was obviously terrified.
While speaking, the thunder and lightning flashes in the distant sky suddenly became extremely restless.
Lightning across the sky instantly triggered a chain reaction, as if the entire top of the sky was covered with power grids.
As long as there is a flash of electric light, the sky can be lit up in an instant, and even the dark clouds that were originally suppressed to the extreme have dissipated.
The sky seems to be much clearer at the moment of the lightning, but the terrifying energy pressure is not decreasing but increasing.
Kick-kick!
After several consecutive waves of lightning and thunder, the originally calm water surface of the cold pool suddenly surged, and countless energy vortexes soon formed.
The arcs around the energy vortex flicker, just like the special effects attached to a sci-fi blockbuster, and they look extremely dynamic and exciting.

However, Murong Qingxue and the others did not have the slightest intention to appreciate it, and a more terrifying thunder followed one after another.
Boom boom!
The ground in the entire core area shook violently.
"How could the explosion of the thunder shake the ground to such an extent?"
"Are we still in time for the earthquake?"
Even though the two women tried to maintain their balance using the exercises, they almost fell over several times.
At this moment, Levi Garrison's low voice sounded: "It's not an earthquake, it should be the power of the thunder that caused the resonance of the power of the leylines."
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4047 -
The two girls were dumbfounded.
"What is the power of the earth veins?"
"I've only heard of the sacred dragon vein, could it be a higher level spirit vein?"
The two women expressed their doubts one after another.
Levi Garrison continued to explain: "It can also be understood in this way, the ground in the core area of the Buried Dragon Valley has been hit by thunderstorms all year round."
"A special geology has been formed to a certain extent, and this kind of geology must have unparalleled power of lightning."
"If there is a tendency for thunder and agitation to gather today, such ley lines will naturally sense and form resonance."
"Don't you realize that the power of the underground bondage has become stronger again?"
The two women suddenly realized that they felt as if their legs were bound by some kind of force, and it was extremely difficult to break free.
You must know that not long ago, Levi Garrison specially raised the level of the energy shield, and even isolated the energy layer between the ground and their feet alone.

This action is extremely light, and I never thought that the current state of restraint that was difficult to move would reappear.
"Be careful yourself! I'm afraid it will be difficult for me to take care of you in the future."
At this time, Levi Garrison's tone was particularly solemn.
The two women's hearts were instantly raised in their throats. Levi Garrison acted relaxed and comfortable from beginning to end, how could he suddenly express that he had no time to take care of him?
They originally wanted to ask what was going on, but the terrifying movement over Hantan once again attracted the attention of the two women.
I saw that countless waterspouts of different sizes suddenly formed on the surface of the originally calm cold pool.
The rolled-up cold pool exudes a chilling white air, and the edge of the water layer and the middle position also carry a stern electric flower.
For a time, it seemed as if countless electric dragons rose into the sky, all of them gathered directly above the middle of the cold pool.
Whoa whoa whoa!
The terrifying electric sound can be heard clearly from such a distance, making people feel involuntarily tingling their scalps.
And after a while, the dark clouds over the center of Hantan suddenly dissipated, and there was a dazzling giant terrifying electric ball floating in the air.
"It's still getting bigger, is this ready to give us the strongest blow?"
Murong Qingxue screamed in shock.
Gongsun Yueying's mouth twitched, her beautiful eyes were completely filled with horror and fear.
Sure enough, she found that those 'electric dragons' were constantly gathering into the giant electric ball, and the electric ball was getting bigger and bigger.
The thunder around the giant electric ball became more and more deafening, and even the space began to distort.

One can imagine how terrifying the power of thunder and lightning has reached?
The giant electric ball was like a miniature version of the sun, and the eyes couldn't stand it for a moment.
"The previous three-color sky thunder is also much different from this group of thunder and lightning light balls. It is no wonder that the sect master will say things that may not be taken into account."
Murong Qingxue's face was extremely ugly.
the other side.
The many sectarian forces that formed a siege outside the Dragon Burial Valley also felt the anomaly.
Especially the temple master of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace, jumped to the commanding heights and clearly saw the outbreak of the thunder tribulation.
In particular, the terrifying lightning sphere in the distant sky is more clearly visible.
Even at such a distance, you can clearly feel the pressure of that destructive power.
Although the others did not have the keen perception of the temple master of the Sun
Moon Divine Fire Palace, they could clearly feel the surging energy rage.
This is definitely the rhythm of the Thunder Tribulation concentration.
"Palace Master, what have you seen?"
"Palace Lord, what are we going to do next?"
"Do you need to enter the Dragon Burial Valley to find that gangster?"
Everyone asked questions.
The Lord of the Sun and Moon Divine Fire Hall said solemnly, "This time, the fury of the power of the Thunder is dozens of times stronger than the last time I entered the Dragon Burial Valley."
"No matter what the realm of cultivation is, those who enter it will surely die, but it's a pity that Yueying is such a good seedling."
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter
4048 -

Taiyi Chamber of Commerce Longyang City Branch.
Wei Shuyang and other high-level officials have just received relevant information from Levi Garrison.
"Why is this, Levi Garrison?"
"Although divine bones are indeed an indispensable material for forging peerless divine weapons, it is also necessary to venture deep into the Dragon Burial Valley!"
"Dragon Burial Valley is worthy of being a peerless and fierce place. Even his cultivation level can't escape death. It's really terrifying."
"Many branches of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce once jointly went to the Dragon Burial Valley, and they all ended up with heavy casualties."
"Since we haven't entered the core area, we should blame Levi Garrison for being too conceited, and finally paid a heavy price."
Everyone was talking about it, but Wei Shuyang didn't say much.
"Does the president have other opinions?"
Birth inquiry.
Wei Shuyang pondered for a moment and said, "This is just speculation by the temple owner of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace, and no one has seen Levi Garrison's body."
"Although I have never fought against Levi Garrison, the strength he shows in his gestures should not be underestimated. Maybe there is a chance of survival!"
"Go on, let the eyeliners in the Buried Dragon Valley continue to pay attention to the movement, and all things related to Levi Garrison must be reported as soon as possible."
For some reason, Wei Shuyang always felt that Levi Garrison would not die so easily.
Moreover, the reaction of the Tianlei Tribulation in the Buried Dragon Valley was different from the past. This huge change was most likely caused by Levi Garrison's intrusion.

In other words, Levi Garrison changed the direction of Tianlei in the Dragon Burial Valley, which itself has great problems.
the other side.
Xiao Feng, who was hiding in the depths of the jungle, also learned the news of Levi Garrison's bad luck.
He couldn't hold back his worries any longer, and decided to rush into the Dragon Buried Valley to rescue his master.
Although Xiao Feng also knew that if Levi Garrison's strength was unable to retreat, then he would not escape death if he went.
Even so, Xiao Feng wanted to go in and take a look. Even if he brought out the exact information, he would at least let other relatives and friends know the truth.
Xiao Feng evaluated the defensive strength in multiple directions, and finally chose a relatively weak entrance to break in.
This entrance is guarded by five small sectarian powerhouses. Xiao Feng has made great progress in his cultivation during this period of time, and no one can stop him as he rampages.
When Xiao Feng entered the inside of the Buried Dragon Valley, those small sectarian powerhouses were afraid of being killed by Tianlei, so they did not dare to continue to follow them rashly.
"Something as timid as a mouse still wants to stop Lao Tzu?"
Xiao Feng couldn't stop sneering in his heart, and continued to move inside the Dragon Burial Valley.
Seeing the uneven ground inside, especially the charred slag around the pit, Xiao Feng felt a chill in his heart.
He knew that these should be caused by the thunder, and the destructive power of the thunder was far beyond Xiao Feng's imagination, so he was even more worried about Levi Garrison's safety.

“We must speed up.”
Xiao Feng ran the exercises to speed up the pace, but after walking for a long time, he suddenly felt some kind of force restraint under his feet.
In this way, Xiao Feng’s traveling speed was largely retarded, but the speed of his fastmoving skill was able to resolve it to the greatest extent.
Xiao Feng continued to move forward, but one thing puzzled him.
“Looking at the surrounding ground potholes, although it is not particularly dense, it can also be seen that the probability of thunder falling is very high.”
“But I’ve been traveling for several miles and I haven’t encountered a single thunder attack. Could it be that the thunder here has been resisted by Master?”
Xiao Feng was perplexed, but he was very fortunate that he was not attacked by Tianlei, otherwise he could not say how long he could carry it.
However, how did Xiao Feng know that all the thunder in the Buried Dragon Valley was madly gathering in the direction of Hantan at this moment.
This directly led to the elimination of all the mines in the non-core area.
As the shocking thunder became more and more intense, Xiao Feng also continued to accelerate his pace and rushed to the core area of the Buried Dragon Valley.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4049 -
at the same time.
Seeing that the giant electric balls above Hantan’s center line are getting bigger and bigger, Levi Garrison is also getting more and more excited.
Because he can clearly feel the power of the giant electric ball is very terrifying, even stronger than dozens of large dragon veins.
The key point is that these are all concentrated. If you can survive this calamity, your cultivation realm will definitely be able to reach a big level.
As for Gongsun Yueying and Murong Qingxue, the same is true. As long as they can withstand the blow of thunder, they will complete their qualitative transformation.

“I will continue to strengthen your energy shield, and the farther away from me, the better, otherwise it will inevitably be affected.” “Once the thunderbolt breaks through the energy shield, the two of you will do your best to fight against each other, which will be beneficial to your cultivation.”
“Go back!”
While speaking, Levi Garrison pushed the energy shield far away, and a powerful force wrapped the two women out of the distance.
Originally, Murong Qingxue and the others were still very worried about the imminent thunder, but they were stunned to find that this situation did not happen.
The thunder in the core area and the non-core area did not strike the two women, but quickly gathered towards the giant electric ball in the air.
“All the thunders in the Buried Dragon Valley are gathered in one place, can the sect master bear it?”
Murong Qingxue said with great concern.
Gongsun Yueying also said in a trembling voice: “Master, this caused the anger of the sky, and all the thunderbolts in the Buried Dragon Valley gathered to give a full blow to quell the anger, but this will reduce the pressure on us.”
Even though he said that, there was no trace of relief on Gongsun Yueying’s face.
The reason is very simple. Although there is no thunder attack for the time being, as long as Levi Garrison can’t resist the attack of the wrath, he still can’t be spared.
Because as long as the Sky Wrath kills the strongest person who destroys the energy balance, it will return to its previous state again.
Tianlei landed everywhere, coupled with the restraint of the earth’s veins, with their strength, there was absolutely no possibility of surviving.
Not even a trace.
“There’s nothing to worry about, I also want to see how far the strongest blow in the Buried Dragon Valley can be?”

Levi Garrison laughed on his back, like a god of war against the sky, fearless of the wrath of the sky, so arrogant and involuntarily admiring.
In fact, Levi Garrison really looked forward to this strongest blow. For him, this was a great opportunity, and he could soar into the sky as long as he seized it.
After laughing for a long time, Levi Garrison instructed: "Take this opportunity to find the bones and other treasures."
"I have to devote myself to preparing for the battle, I can't be distracted, and hurry up!"
Although the two women were extremely frightened by the sudden thunderstorm, they never dared to disobey Levi Garrison's order.
They quickly came to the shore of Hantan, which had been slashed by thunder.
In such a harsh environment, it is almost a restricted area of life.
Looking around, the shore of the cold lake is full of scorched earth and scorched rocks, but the area is on ordinary ground, and the earth and rocks here are extraordinarily hard.
Murong Qingxue had no doubt that any piece of black stone that was dug up at random would be an unparalleled material.
Because these coke stones have been transformed into indestructible things under the quenching of thunder for many years.
Even the scorched earth can burn a superb item, and under the hands of a top blacksmith, it is very likely to be refined into a top magic weapon.
The two women continued to look around, and soon found something resembling a bone under the scorched earth and scorched rock.
Murong Qingxue reached out to get it, only to find that two of the black bones instantly turned into powder, which made her a bit disappointed.
"It seems that this bone has long been smashed by the thunder."
Gongsun Yueying sighed and said with some frustration.
"This bone is intact, is it the legendary bone?"
Murong Qingxue soon found another charred bone.

In order to make sure that it was correct, Murong Qingxue also urged the force to strike, but as a result, the Jiaogu was not damaged in the slightest.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4050 -
"Toughness is so terrifying!"
Murong Qingxue was shocked.
She had used almost 70% to 80% of her skills just now, and even the fine iron that had been warmed by the piercing spiritual veins would be shattered.
However, the black-looking bones in front of them were unscathed. As a medium-level refining material, it is a must!
At this moment, Gongsun Yueying's surprised voice suddenly came: "Look at the few bones over there!"
Murong Qingxue looked in the direction of her finger, and saw a slightly yellowed bone that was extraordinarily crystal clear.
While speaking, Gongsun Yueying had already picked up the yellowed bones. Perhaps out of curiosity, she collided with the black bones she just picked up.
Clap!
With a crisp impact sound, the black bones were instantly shattered.
Murong Qingxue's face was full of stunned expression. Just now, the black bone that he had been able to hit seven or eight times successfully was so vulnerable in front of the yellow bone?
"It appears that the bones are different in colour and their hardness is very different."
Gongsun Yueying made a judgment, and then turned her attention to other areas, looking for other shiny bones.
Soon the two women discovered a few huge white lustrous bones, which looked like the remnants of some kind of beast.
In particular, several skulls are more prominent and preserved relatively intact. Two sharp horns protrude from the head, and the color is crystal clear.
It was as if it had never been bombarded by thunder, but if you looked closely, you would find that there were obvious current surges on the surface of the skull.

The white bones were filled with extremely terrifying power of thunder and lightning. The two women were just getting closer, and the outermost layer of the energy shield was directly shattered.
"Stop!"
Murong Qingxue said in a solemn tone.
Gongsun Yueying also did not dare to approach rashly. They had no doubt that if they came into close contact, they would be seriously injured by the power of lightning from the white bones.
There may even be a life-threatening situation!
Compared with the yellowed bones, it is simply the difference between cloud and mud.
"I'm afraid these are at least at the level of quasi-divine bones, right?"
Murong Qingxue guessed.
Gongsun Yueying also strongly agreed with this, and said solemnly: "Let's continue to look for it to see if there is a higher-level divine bone."
Although Gongsun Yueying was also very frightened in her heart, Levi Garrison issued a death order to get the divine bone.
In this way, you can only find the most powerful energy coercion among the many bones as the target, and there is no need to take risks for the second-level god bones.
After the two women agreed, they continued to approach Hantan cautiously.
They didn't even dare to breathe too hard, for fear of waking up the terrifying beast in the legendary Dragon Buried Valley.
It is rumored that some kind of mysterious and terrifying giant beast has appeared in the core area of the Dragon Buried Valley, and it can freely bathe in the sea of thunder.
Just thinking about this kind of 'divine beast' made the two women feel terrified. The unknown is always the most terrifying.
Whoops!

As the two women approached, the sound of the surrounding current surges became more terrifying.
Although there is an energy shield around the body to resist the pressure of energy, they are still scared and their spines are cold.
That is to say, Levi Garrison issued the death order, otherwise the two women could not wait to hide away and never approach this extremely dangerous area.
Clap!
Lightning pierced through the sky and directly illuminated the main cold pool, Murong Qingxue and Gongsun Yueying shivered uncontrollably.
They thought that Tianlei, who had been gathering the giant electric balls over the center of Hantan, changed his mind and attacked them instead.
The two women turned to look in the direction of Levi Garrison, and saw that he was still standing in the same place, like a god of war facing a great enemy.
"Continue to go!"
The two women looked at each other, as if to cheer each other on.
After a lot of hard work, they finally came to the edge of the cold pool.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4051 -
The two women stopped to look, and the scene in front of them made them gasp involuntarily.
Observing the cold pool from a distance and observing it from a distance are two completely different things. Before, they only felt that the water surface of the cold pool was very strange, and the main source of fear was the coercion of thunder.
However, seeing the scene in the cold pool at this moment, Murong Qingxue and Gongsun Yueying were both stunned and stunned.
lol!
The calm water surface of the cold pool throbbed with electric sparks, and every stream of water carried an extremely terrifying sound of electric current.
Where is this water?
It is simply the pool of thunder and lightning!

“Before we observed from a distance that the entire pool was inky black, but now it seems to be an illusion of sight!”
Murong Qingxue said with emotion.
If you look closely, you will find that although the water in the pool looks extremely dark, the transparency is very high, and you can see the depth of two or three meters below.
But because the water in the cold pool is too deep, it is impossible to see what is at the bottom.
“Not only that, but the temperature of this cold pool has reached such a level, it really goes against the laws of nature.”
Gongsun Yueying said in shock.
After she said this, Murong Qingxue couldn’t help shivering. Of course it wasn’t because of fear, it was purely a stress response from her body.
There was no obvious feeling from a long distance, but at this moment, both women felt a biting chill coming from the front.
The curling white smoke on the surface of the cold pool is close to the real state, as if it can instantly freeze the air above.
However, due to the surging of the sky above and the falling thunder from time to time, the frozen part of the chill was melted away again.
According to common sense, Tianlei carries extremely strong destructive power and extremely high temperature, and even the cold pool will heat up due to the scorching heat of cooling Tianlei.
But in fact, the temperature of the cold pool is extremely low, even under the bombardment of thunder, it can still make the air crystallize.
Especially now that the thunder is constantly gathering in the air, and countless ‘electric tornadoes’ are formed on the surface of the cold pool, so there is no thunder that falls and heats up.
The cold pool played an even more extreme cold role, and even crystals formed around the 'electric tornado'.

"If it wasn't for the thunder, it would have been frozen to the bottom long ago."
Murong Qingxue's voice trembled a little, her teeth chattering involuntarily.
The energy shield can resist the coercion of the thunder, and can also block the ley lines, but the resistance to the cold is very small.
In order not to be completely frozen, the two women could only run the exercises to resist the cold, otherwise they might have been frozen into ice sculptures long ago.
"Look there!"
Gongsun Yueying suddenly pointed diagonally forward.
Murong Qingxue hurriedly looked around, and saw an adult thigh-thick bone standing inside the rock at the very edge of the cold pool.
You must know that the edge of the cold lake has been bombarded by the sky thunder so hard that even ordinary magic soldiers can't cut it.
However, this bone is also unknown how it is embedded in it?
Under the sunlight, this bone shone with colorful luster, and it was even more magical with the faint electric glow surrounding it.
Especially Shou looks like a divine light, revealing an incomparably mysterious Dao rhythm, as if it is integrated with this world and fits perfectly to the point of impeccable.
And this bone is extraordinarily crystal clear, like a natural top-quality crystal.
Just looking at it makes people addicted to it.
Although Murong Qingxue didn't know what a real divine bone looked like, the bone in front of her made her unconsciously think 'this is what a divine bone should look like'.
After all, Gongsun Yueying came from a large sect like the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple, and her knowledge far surpassed Murong Qingxue. She had been fortunate enough to have seen a small piece of divine bone.
But compared with this bone, it pales in color, and it is obviously much worse in color.

“This is the best bone! You can’t go wrong!”
Gongsun Yueying cried out excitedly.
Murong Qingxue was also very excited, not expecting the task to be completed so smoothly.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4052 -
Murong Qingxue was also very happy when Gongsun Yueying was confirmed.
The death order issued by Levi Garrison was completed, and they could stay away from this extremely dangerous place.
When the two girls were excited, they wanted to get close to the god bone, but just after taking two steps forward, the edge of the originally calm cold pool suddenly surged.
Immediately, a terrifying power of lightning struck, directly hitting the energy shield.
Clap clap!
The surface of the energy shield cracked instantly, and then the outermost shields suddenly shattered.
Not only that, the power of thunder and lightning is extremely penetrating, and a purple electric arc penetrates it, attacking Gongsun Yueying and the others directly.
The two women were caught off guard and hurriedly ran the exercises to defend against it, but they were still directly knocked out, and finally fell heavily to the ground.
puff!
The two women vomited blood, and their breath became extremely sluggish.
Fortunately, the energy shield was quickly replenished, so that they did not continue to suffer heavy losses, otherwise it is unknown whether this life can be saved.
“This force is too strong, we can’t get close at all.” Murong Qingxue said sullenly, wiping the blood from the corners of his mouth.
Gongsun Yueying sighed and said helplessly: “The divine bone must have been integrated with the energy of Hantan, especially it has a spiritual charm.”

“As long as we get close, it will be regarded as an enemy attack, and the power of thunder and lightning in the cold pool will attack.”
There is nothing more frustrating than watching a peerless treasure in front of you but can’t get it.
The power of thunder and lightning in the cold pool is enough to destroy Murong Qingxue and the others, even if there is an energy shield, it will not help.
As Gongsun Yueying said, the divine bone has been integrated with the energy of Hantan, and if you don’t grab the divine bone, nothing will happen.
However, once subconsciously approached and touched, he would be attacked by the power of lightning from Hantan.
The two looked at each other, and both saw a hint of despair in each other’s eyes.
“According to the strength of this kind of thunder and lightning, no one can get close to Hantan, let alone go deep into it to find other treasures.”
“Even if the temple master of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple falls into it, I am afraid it will end up with a tragic ending.”
Murong Qingxue said with a sigh.
Gongsun Yueying did not refute this, even she thought so in her heart.
What’s more, many god bones are in the cold pool, and only a part is exposed. If you want to get them, you must enter the cold pool to salvage.
Nowadays, it is impossible to even get close to the edge of Hantan, and entering Hantan is basically a dream.
“There is also an extremely terrifying energy attached to the bones of the gods. It must be that years of lightning strikes have integrated the power of lightning into it.”
Gongsun Yueying’s face was full of helplessness, even if they passed the Hantan level, just touching the bones of the gods could turn them into coke.
“Master, we have no way to get close to the bones!”
“Yes, Sect Master, we can’t break through the power of lightning in Hantan.”
The two women came to Levi Garrison to report not far away.

Clap clap!
Before Levi Garrison could respond, the lightning and thunder in the air suddenly stopped, and even the 'electric tornado' that had just soared into the sky suddenly fell into the cold pool.
It was as if they were all at peace together.
However, Levi Garrison's face was not at all relaxed, but became more solemn.
Murong Qingxue and the others also suddenly looked towards the giant electric ball above the center of Hantan, the two pretty faces were instantly pale as paper.
Her delicate body trembled uncontrollably, and her breathing was extremely rapid, as if she had seen a terrifying devil.
But seeing that the giant electric ball has expanded to the size of a football field, the dazzling electric light makes people unable to look directly.
Especially the terrifying coercion of the power of thunder and lightning makes people feel hopeless.
"The thunder of this day is enough to destroy the sky and destroy the earth!"
Murong Qingxue looked at Levi Garrison with a worried face.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4053 - Gongsun Yueying was also trembling constantly, looking at Levi Garrison with burning eyes.
After all, whether the man in front of him can survive this disaster is directly related to his own life and death.
But to be honest, Gongsun Yueying has a serious lack of confidence in Levi Garrison.
Although Levi Garrison had shown super strong combat power before, the giant electric ball almost gathered the power of thunder and lightning in the entire Dragon Burial Valley.
This energy is enough to destroy the world.

Not to mention flesh and blood, even the armor forged with the top hard materials of Kunlun Ruins will be bombarded to ashes in an instant.
"You two just mark the location of the god bones and other treasures. As for how to take them away, you don't have to worry about it, just go!"
Levi Garrison commanded in a deep voice.
It can be felt that Levi Garrison's momentum has also restrained a lot at this moment, and even a little dignified between his brows.
The coercion of energy released by the giant electric ball had already made him feel a hint of danger, and Levi Garrison knew that he had to be careful.
The two women did not dare to be slighted, and hurriedly followed Levi Garrison's instructions, and continued to search for divine bones and the same level of heaven and earth treasures.
Of course, Murong Qingxue and the others did not dare to enter the cold pool, so they could only search carefully along the shore.
It may be because the 'electric tornado' fell into the cold pool again, the power of thunder and lightning in the entire cold pool was a little stronger.
In particular, the cold air was even stronger than before. Even though the two women kept exercising to keep out the cold, they still felt that their limbs tended to freeze.
Moreover, the sense of restraint from the leylines on the shore is more obvious than before, knowing that the energy shield has isolated the connection between their feet and the surface.
However, even so, Murong Qingxue and the others still felt that it was difficult to walk, and they were exhausted and out of breath after only walking a few meters.
The cold air rose, accompanied by electric flowers, as if the god of thunder in the fairyland came into the world, which made people feel awe.
However, there were eyes staring at all of this in the dark, and the two women didn't notice it.

Levi Garrison, who was preparing for the Thunder Tribulation, turned around suddenly, and seemed to glance in a certain direction intentionally or unintentionally.
At that moment just now, Levi Garrison always felt that someone was watching him secretly.
But when I turned back to observe just now, the feeling of being peeped disappeared again.
Even though Levi Garrison immediately released some of his power to investigate, he didn't get any feedback.
"Tianlei attack is imminent, as for other things, we will talk about it in the past."
Levi Garrison made up his mind and concentrated again to prepare for the Tempering of the Thunder.
This kind of thought has not completely dissipated, and suddenly an extremely terrifying force came from under his feet.
Clap clap!
Levi Garrison was caught off guard, and his feet fell directly into the ground.
Immediately afterwards, the power of the ley lines came again, but this time it was centered on Levi Garrison's legs, tearing away in all directions.
It was as if he wanted to split Levi Garrison's five horses into pieces.
"It seems that this is the prelude to the Tianlei attack."
Levi Garrison ran the basic exercises, his feet suddenly exerted force, and the terrifying tearing feeling was instantly offset.
Boom!
With Levi Garrison's feet as the center, the violent power spread out, and the sense of restraint was instantly broken, and Levi Garrison returned to a state as light as a swallow again.
At almost the same time, the giant electric ball suddenly moved, covering directly above Levi Garrison's head.

Clap!
A terrifying power of thunder poured down, directly blocking Levi Garrison's possible avoidance position, giving him no chance to escape at all.
It was like the Milky Way pouring down, and it was near in an instant.
"finally coming?"
Levi Garrison's eyes flashed with a strong fighting intent, and he did not want to avoid the bombardment of the sky.
The fiery and burning sensation was combined with the incomparably terrifying energy pressure. Levi Garrison directly ran the basic exercises and swept away against the pouring thunder.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4054 - Levi Garrison seemed to be in a white world, surrounded by terrifying electric sparks that were hot and violent.
The entire area where the thunderstorm poured down was severely distorted.
"What a powerful lightning force!"
Levi Garrison was a little surprised, because at the moment when the thunder fell, he clearly felt a numbness.
Although this numbness only lasted for a moment, it never appeared under the previous ordinary thunder attack.
This is enough to show that the power of the sky thunder carried by the giant electric ball is more pure than the previous sky thunder power, no wonder it has gathered for such a long time.
Presumably during this period of time, it quenched and purified the power of Tianlei that it gathered to make it more lethal.
Clap clap!
The electric flower jumped quickly on the surface of Levi Garrison's body, making a harsh electric sound.
At the same time, Levi Garrison, who had already left the ground, suddenly felt an incomparably powerful drag force coming from the ground.

“Is this a two-pronged plan?”
Although Levi Garrison had already exerted his strength to resist, his body still moved down a certain distance, and the sense of drag became stronger as he approached the ground.
At the same time, the second wave of thunder power of the giant electric ball poured down again, like a giant thunder and lightning hammer, trying to smash Levi Garrison into the ground.
Levi Garrison was astonished, he didn’t think that the Earth Vessel and Tianlei in the Buried Dragon Valley actually echoed each other to such an extent, as if they all possessed spirituality.
For creatures that disrupt the energy balance of this area, this devastating blow will be launched to find a new energy balance point.
At this moment, Levi Garrison is undoubtedly the energy balance destroyer.
But then again, after Levi Garrison withstood the attack of the first wave of thunder, his body strength and strength speed increased.
The effect is far greater than that of large-scale dragon veins, which surprised Levi
Garrison.
Resisting thunder calamity is certainly dangerous, but the benefits are also extraordinary.
“I want to see how strong Tianlei is today, keep coming!”
Levi Garrison cheered up and rushed towards the power of the thunder again.
the other side.
Gongsun Yueying and the others were struggling to find it, but the restraint of the power under their feet was too terrifying. Every time the two women raised their legs, they lost their strength.
In the end, it was difficult to move at all, and it was as if an ancient beast was hidden under his feet, and it was about to break out of the ground at this moment.

The terrifying energy coercion had squeezed and deformed the energy shield, and finally broke several layers, which made the two women panic.
Because at this moment, Levi Garrison is completely devoted to defending against the thunder attack, and he has no time to repair the energy shield for them.
"This force is so great that I feel like my body can't take it anymore."
Murong Qingxue said in a trembling voice.
Gongsun Yueying was nowhere near as strong. The restraining force seemed to be cutting her to pieces. Although she tried her best to defend her, it still had little effect.
Gaba!
With the sound of a crisp bone, Murong Qingxue screamed out in agony. Due to the strength of the tearing force, she suffered a slight fracture directly.
Just when the two women were about to be unable to bear it, the sense of tearing disappeared instantly, as if it had never appeared before.
Swish swish!
The two women could clearly feel the power of the ley lines rushing towards Levi Garrison's direction at a high speed.
It was as if something over there was extracting the power of the ley lines.
"so close!"
Murong Qingxue rubbed her right leg, and the piercing pain came, she hurriedly took a pill, and she recovered a little.
"It's not advisable to stay here for a long time, let's go to a farther place." Gongsun Yueying hurriedly reminded.
Murong Qingxue nodded in agreement, she really didn't dare to stay any longer, she still had lingering fears about the terrifying tearing force just now.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4055 -
The two women flew away quickly, and they were hundreds of feet away from Levi Garrison's direction, and the pressure of the earth's pulse was relieved a lot.
Of course, the power of the leylines still exists, but it is far from the strength that can cause damage to their bodies.

“I don’t know what happened to the master?”
Gongsun Yueying said worriedly.
Murong Qingxue pondered for a moment, then said, “We don’t have a thunderstorm here, at least the Sect Master is safe at the moment.”
The two women looked towards the giant thunderball in the distance.
The incandescent light of lightning is like a nine-day Milky Way hanging upside down, and Levi Garrison has already been completely covered without a trace.
Even at such a distance, they could clearly feel the horror of that giant thunderball.
“I hope he can survive this disaster safely.”
The two women prayed in unison in their hearts, as if praying for Levi Garrison, as if comforting themselves.
At this moment, Levi Garrison was completely in the area where the thunder fell, and his body was wrapped by the thunderbolts, and they tried to destroy Levi Garrison’s body.
But under the guidance of the basic exercises, Lei Mang is quenching Levi Garrison’s body and meridians over and over again.
The giant thunderball seemed to realize that his attack backfired, so he increased the frequency of bombardment against Levi Garrison again.
Levi Garrison sneered in his heart, as his body quenching continued to improve his strength, his tolerance for the power of lightning also increased.
Now there is not even the slightest tingling sensation.
“I finally understand that this place is where Lei Hai can gather for a long time and is getting stronger and stronger.”
Levi Garrison suddenly felt a sudden realization.
The source of all this may be the leyline under his feet. If he guessed correctly, there is a very domineering spiritual vein in this area.
And the domineering spiritual vein can forcibly pull Tianlei down to nourish the spiritual vein and make it continue to grow stronger.
Over time, a state of energy balance has been reached in this area.

As the spiritual veins became stronger and stronger, the Tianlei that was pulled down naturally became more and more domineering.
At the beginning of the period, they traded off each other, and finally maintained a balance, but they continued to strengthen under the catalysis of each other.
This is the secret of Lei Hai's inability to disperse over the years and getting stronger and stronger.
"It's very similar to Yan Zangsheng's medicine vein."
Levi Garrison said quietly.
Although the medicine vein is small in scale, the principle is the same as that of the Buried Dragon Valley.
Spiritual veins like this are the most nourishing for all kinds of heaven and earth treasures, and of course they are also very suitable for forging weapons.
It can be said that it is even better than the small dragon veins, such as the sacred veins and the like are far inferior.
"Then Lao Tzu will use the earth veins as the furnace and the sky thunder as the fire, so that this body and meridians can be hardened properly."
Levi Garrison knew that he had completely angered Tianlei and this special spiritual vein.
Now they have issued a super revenge.
But as long as he can successfully carry it over, he will reach a new level of cultivation, even stronger than expected.
the other side.
Many sectarian powerhouses who were standing still on the periphery also felt the powerful surge of power.
"What happened to the ground? It seems that something is drawing power, causing a huge shock."
"And the fluctuation of the power of thunder that day was so terrifying that the trees so far away were destroyed into coke."

“If it wasn’t for the two palace masters who took action just now, I might have died on the spot.”
Everyone felt the power of the leylines surging towards the core area of the Buried Dragon Valley.
I also felt the power of the thunder, especially the huge light group in the sky at the far end, as if to destroy the entire Dragon Buried Valley.
Because of this, the two palace masters of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple immediately ordered all the staff to retreat for dozens of miles.
However, some sectarian powerhouses who were slow to evacuate were all internally injured by the aftermath of the power of the thunder.

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4056 -
the other side.
Xiao Feng was also advancing at a very high speed, but he did not encounter any obstacles, which made him puzzled.
Along the way, Xiao Feng learned that the Buried Dragon Valley was extremely dangerous.
“Is the Buried Dragon Valley really as terrifying as rumored?”
Xiao Feng sneered in his heart, until now he seemed to only feel a little energy bound from the ground.
But for Xiao Feng at this time, this energy restraint is basically negligible.
However, at this moment, an extremely violent energy fluctuation came again.
“So strong! What happened inside?”
Xiao Feng was shocked in his heart, even though he used his strength to resist, he was still shocked and flew two or three feet away.
“There is such a powerful coercion at such a distance, so how terrifying will it be at close range?”
Xiao Feng was extremely shocked. At this moment, he suddenly saw a dazzling light burst out from the giant ball of light in the sky in the distance.

A wave of extremely terrifying energy poured down and bombarded somewhere in the distance.
"Is it the movement made by the master?"
"Or is the master being attacked by the power of the thunder?"
Xiao Feng was very worried about Levi Garrison's current situation, so he planned to continue rushing towards the core area.
However, Xiao Feng had just moved about five or six meters, when a terrifying energy hurricane struck indiscriminately.
"This is… too scary, isn't it?"
Although Xiao Feng tried his best to resist, he was still knocked out.
The whole person is like a broken paper kite, and it is only after stepping back more than a hundred meters to stabilize his body.
What frightened Xiao Feng the most was that he was shocked by this energy so that the blood in his chest was surging faintly.
Looking up and looking into the distance, I saw that the giant electric ball burst into a dazzling light again.
The light of thunder and lightning poured down, constantly hitting the position of the core area.
From a distance, it was as if a huge crack had formed in the sky, and silver lights kept pouring out and smashing down.
In the distant sky, there was even more thunder and lightning, as if the end of the world had come, and all living beings would cease to exist during this period.
The energy storm continued to hit, and the trees not far away were uprooted.
In the close range, the black cloud tops the top, as if you can touch the cloud layer by raising your hand, but there is no sound of thunder and lightning.
"It must be that there is danger on the master's side, and I must rush over to see it."
Xiao Feng gritted his teeth and ran the exercises to resist the blockage of the energy storm.
Although it was difficult, Xiao Feng never stopped.

Murong Qingxue and Gongsun Yueying, who were looking for divine bones and heavenly materials and earthly treasures, also suddenly stopped searching.
The entire core area of the Dragon Burial Valley vibrated violently, and the power of the leylines under his feet rushed towards Levi Garrison's position madly.
But it is worth mentioning that this situation has relieved the pressure on the two women.
Clap!
A sharp flash passed by, as if the entire sky was split in half.
The giant electric ball is shrinking rapidly at this moment, but the energy pressure is increasing instead of decreasing.
At the same time, dazzling thunder continued to fall, as if it was an ancient beast that was venting his anger.
Levi Garrison's whole person has long been swallowed by the thunder, if not for the fluctuation of energy aura emanating from his body, the two women have no doubt that the latter has been smashed to ashes.
However, even so, the hearts of the two women were raised in their throats, and Levi
Garrison's life and death were related to their fate.
Of course, Levi Garrison's ability to carry it up to now has far exceeded expectations.
"Quick… Look, the electric ball seems to be about to fall!"
Murong Qingxue's voice trembled.
Gongsun Yueying also instinctively covered her mouth.
The electric ball that originally covered half of the cold pool has shrunk dozens of times in a short period of time!
I saw that the space around the electric ball had been distorted in the eyes, and the dark clouds in the entire sky had dissipated, so dazzling that people could not look directly.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4057 -

The terrifying thunder and lightning pressure instantly filled the entire space, and the entire cold pool was also deadly silent at the moment.
It is like the last tranquility before the storm, which makes people feel uneasy, even fearful.
What followed was a frantic vibration at the feet. Although the two women were trying their best to control their body shape, they were still shaken up and down.
Fortunately, the power of the earth veins was rushing wildly, otherwise Murong Qingxue and the others would have no doubt that they would be sucked into the ground.
At this moment, they finally understood why those god bones were embedded in the ground.
They should have been sucked in by the power of the leylines, and coupled with the bombardment of the sky, they naturally showed their previous state.
As soon as she thought about it, Murong Qingxue and the others were so frightened that their souls were blown away, gasping for breath.
That is to say, in this short period of time, the energy shield has been shattered by twothirds of the backlog of Tianlei energy aftermath.
The rest are still struggling to support them. If it wasn't for Levi Garrison, the target of most of the power of thunder and lightning, I'm afraid they would have been squeezed into pies long ago.
"Is the master okay?"
"Is the sovereign okay?"
Murong Qingxue and Gongsun Yueying simultaneously turned their gazes to the blazing lightning again.
A faint figure trembled slightly in it, as if a fierce beast in a cage was fighting a trapped beast.
Levi Garrison did feel a bit of pressure at this moment, especially as the giant electric ball kept shrinking.

The thunder and lightning coercion was combined with the terrifying restraint force from the ground, and the figure dropped several meters in mid-air.
"What a terrifying power of lightning!"
A flash of surprise flashed in Levi Garrison's heart, but he quickly stabilized his mind.
He knew that when the electric ball had shrunk to a certain level, he would give himself a fatal blow.
Sure enough, after a while, the electric ball suddenly bombarded, directly covering the area where he was.
Clap clap!
The harsh sound of breaking the sound barrier came, Levi Garrison's eyes narrowed slightly, and he could clearly see that the area where the electric ball passed was severely distorted or even torn directly.
It was as if a storm from an exotic space swept out, directly cutting down the surface of the invincible cold pool by several layers.
At this moment, Levi Garrison even felt that this space was compressed, and the electric ball seemed to destroy all the creatures in this area.
"I fought with you!"
Levi Garrison gritted his teeth and charged directly at the electric ball.
Boom!
A strong crash sounded, as if two planets collided with each other.
For a while, the energy hurricane swept the surrounding, and this space was like a folded paper, with obvious folds and arcs.
After the two sides were deadlocked for half a minute, Levi Garrison fell again, and finally hit the ground heavily.
Clap clap!
In an instant, the indestructible ground was filled with rubble, and the location that was first bombarded by the electric ball was directly turned into dust.
Even with the strength of Levi Garrison's body, he felt severe pain at the moment, and there were many scratches on the surface of his body.

And this is not the end, the terrifying electric ball has not dissipated due to the impact.
It seems to have spiritual consciousness, constantly changing its shape to completely wrap Levi Garrison's body, and bombarding Levi Garrison's body from all directions.
At the same time, the electric ball also seemed to communicate the power of the leylines, and the power that had been gathered for a long time exploded instantly, directly binding Levi Garrison's legs.
"You two work well together!"
Levi Garrison said a little depressedly.
Just now, he exerted his strength twice in a row, but he was not able to completely break free from the shackles of the ley lines.
Of course, the most important thing is because of the power of the electric ball, which is like the pressure of Mount Tai, otherwise, how could it be possible to restrain Levi Garrison with the power of the ley lines alone?
"Whether it can be completely transformed is at this time."
Levi Garrison shouted loudly and quickly ran the basic exercises, which was actually directing the power of lightning into the body.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4058 -
The giant electric ball suddenly fell, and the sound of breaking the sound barrier was particularly harsh.
Levi Garrison's body hit it straight.
At this moment, Levi Garrison only felt that the tinnitus continued, and he instantly lost his ability to hear.
The burning sensation that is enough to burn everything in the world and the terrifying to powerful thunder strike.
As if to tear Levi Garrison into pieces.
At the same time, the power of the ley lines also suddenly attacked, and the two legs just got out of the deep underground, and they quickly restrained Levi Garrison's feet.

In desperation, Levi Garrison could only fight against the downward dragging force from the leylines.
Clap clap!
At this moment, the space seemed to be torn apart, and even with Levi Garrison’s physical strength, he felt a slight pain.
Coupled with the strongest blow of the giant electric ball, Levi Garrison felt paralyzed all over, and the numbness was still increasing.
This affects Levi Garrison’s reaction speed in all aspects, and the power of thunder and lightning is pervasive, looking for every opportunity to attack Levi Garrison.
Fortunately, Levi Garrison is a pure body cultivator, otherwise the attack of the thunder and mercury can destroy anyone into rubbish.
“Ahhh!”
Levi Garrison roared, and because of the strength of his body, he also felt severe pain at the moment.
The power of lightning even penetrated through his sweat pores, trying to completely destroy every cell of Levi Garrison.
The power of the leylines is also increasing, as if to further drag the legs away from Levi Garrison’s body.
The pain continued to increase, and Levi Garrison’s roar continued.
Just when Levi Garrison thought that most of the thunder calamity had passed, the originally calm water surface of the cold pool suddenly shot a water arrow the thickness of an adult arm.
This water arrow also carries terrifying thunder and lightning energy, and there are electric flowers swaying around the water arrow.
In particular, the water arrow has an extreme coldness, as if it can freeze everything in time into ice cubes, and the space area that passes by is instantly frozen.
And the power of thunder and lightning showed a scorching temperature, and the frozen space area was instantly heated, and it shattered directly under the extreme hot and cold switching.

laugh!
The water arrow shot out and pierced Levi Garrison's heart.
Levi Garrison's eyes narrowed slightly, and he had already speculated about the true intention of the water arrow.
Thinking that Tianlei has seen that his body strength is far beyond ordinary people, he plans to use the arrow of cold pool to freeze himself, and then bombard it with Tianlei to heat it up.
Under extreme heat and cold, even the strongest body will be destroyed.
"Tianlei in the Buried Dragon Valley really has some kind of aura, and it can cooperate with the earth veins and the cold pool to play such a degree of joint attack."
Levi Garrison was full of emotion, presumably this water arrow also gathered the power of extreme cold in the entire cold pool, and must be treated with caution, otherwise it may really be dangerous.
The basic exercises accelerated again, and at this time Levi Garrison had turned the exercises to the extreme.
Even against the many powerhouses in the past, he had not spent so much effort, but at this time, he had already tried his best to resist the joint attack launched by Tianlei.
The water arrow arrived in the blink of an eye, Levi Garrison first chose hard resistance, and then guided the extreme cold power of the water arrow into the body to avoid the continuous hardening of the body surface.
Clap!
The water arrow made a sound of ice cracking. From the initial length of several meters, it quickly shattered, and at the end there were only a few inches left.
eventually collapsed completely.
And Levi Garrison also retreated again and again, and the tingling sensation that came again made him gasp.

“Did you think that the power of this water arrow is so powerful?”
Levi Garrison was shocked, especially the chill, which made him extremely surprised.
For a moment, Levi Garrison even thought that he had been frozen into an ice sculpture.
Even the limbs were extremely stiff, and after running the basic exercises for several weeks, he barely recovered.
“Break it for me!”
Levi Garrison let out a roar again, and his body instantly burst out with terrifying energy coercion.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4059 -
The energy coercion was overwhelming and collided with the chain energy carried by the thunder attack.
Boom!
With the deafening loud noises, the jet black stone under Levi Garrison’s feet shattered instantly, and the power of restraint was instantly disintegrated by him.
At the same time, Levi Garrison stepped on the ground with both feet, and the whole person was like an arrow from the string, rushing towards the half giant electric ball left in the void again.
Whoops!
The violent sound of electric current continued to spread, and all parts of Levi Garrison’s body were covered by arcs.
But for Levi Garrison at the moment, this power attack really can’t cause any substantial damage.
This confrontation lasted for a long time, and the giant electric ball finally gave up and slowly dispersed in all directions.
And Levi Garrison stood in the sky, as if an ancient god of war looked down on the world, showing domineering in his gestures.

Levi Garrison muttered to himself, clenched his fist slightly, and the breath in his body was instantly surging.
However, when Levi Garrison released his fist, the energy dissipated in an instant, as if it had never existed.
flexible.
Levi Garrison feels that the control of power is more handy.
To judge whether a sports car is top-notch, an important indicator is the acceleration from 100 kilometers.
However, Levi Garrison's acceleration time is almost negligible at this moment, and at the same time, it can be completed instantly from top speed to zero speed.
This is the ultimate control of power, and Levi Garrison was unexpectedly able to achieve such an effect of freely retracting and releasing power.
As for other aspects, what Levi Garrison felt the most was his physical strength, which was completely elevated to a whole new level.
It's just that Levi Garrison didn't use up all the power of the thunder and the ley lines just now, after all, the ley lines are still useful to him.
Such a special leyline is undoubtedly the best choice for forging peerless divine weapons.
After a while, all the giant electric balls dissipated, and the clear sky darkened again, and the dark clouds covered the top like Mount Tai.
Above the cold pool and even in the entire core area, the scene of thunder surging once again appeared, and the leyline restraint also disappeared.
Everything seemed to have returned to its original appearance, but it was very different for Levi Garrison.
Because all the xenophobic forces in the Buried Dragon Valley are ineffective against Levi Garrison, as if they never existed.
After thinking for a while, Levi Garrison also understood the whole story.
The power he possesses now is beyond the scope of Leihai and Leylines, and it can even be said that he has formed a communion to some extent.

Since there is no coercion against Levi Garrison, all areas will return to normal again, waiting for the next 'abnormal' to appear before attacking.
the other side.
Many sectarian forces besieging the Buried Dragon Valley also sighed with emotion.
"The energy riot is finally over, and it looks like the thugs who entered it are dead."
"Just the pressure of the energy that burst out just now, even the Daluo Immortal can't survive."
"Fortunately, we didn't rush into it at the time, otherwise it would be a disaster!"
The two hall masters of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall also had lingering fears, and they had a clearer sense of the energy just now.
The two of them had no doubts that even if they exploded the power in their bodies to the extreme, they would be instantly killed by that giant electric ball.
"This is still the case, that unscrupulous madman will definitely not survive."
The two hall masters gave birth to this idea at the same time.
Xiao Feng, who was rapidly approaching the core area, suddenly stopped, the giant electric ball in the distance dissipated, and his face instantly filled with grief.
"Master, you still can't wait for your disciple!"
"How can this be, why are you here to risk your life to hunt for treasure?"
"Master, this unworthy disciple is here to send you the last ride."
Xiao Feng screamed in the sky, and then he cheered up and continued on his way.
However, Xiao Feng had just walked a few feet forward when a sudden change occurred.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4060 -
It looked like Levi Garrison, the ancient god of war, was suspended in mid-air.
Murong Qingxue and Gongsun Yueying's eyes were full of shock, but their hearts were more of worship.
"Master has just passed that level of thunder attack?"

“The strength of the sovereign is too terrifying, isn’t it?”
“Even if the two palace masters come in person, I’m afraid they won’t be able to resist the bombardment of the giant electric ball?”
“I don’t know what realm the Sect Master has reached now?”
The two women sighed involuntarily.
However, just as they were about to get close to Levi Garrison, thunder suddenly rolled over their heads.
Clap!
Immediately afterwards, a thunderstorm with the thickness of a water tank poured down, directly hitting Murong Qingxue and the others.
Gongsun Yueying’s face paled, and she completely lost her ability to think at that moment.
Murong Qingxue hurriedly pulled Gongsun Yueying to dodge, but at some point, the power of the leylines under her feet that had disappeared reappeared.
The sudden stagnation caught the two girls off guard, and one fell to the ground without standing still.
“Ouch!”
The two women screamed in shock, and it was too late to get up again.
The terrifying thunderbolt came in the blink of an eye, and it looked like it was about to hit the energy shield.
The hearts of the two women sank to the bottom in an instant. They knew that there was not much energy left in the energy shield at the moment, and it was difficult to resist the aftermath of the thunder.
Not to mention a complete Sky Thunder attack?
What’s more, Murong Qingxue and the others had already exhausted their stamina from searching for the treasures of heaven and earth.
“Is it the end of it?”
“I don’t want to die yet!”
The two women’s eyes were filled with unwillingness and helplessness, and in the end they could only watch the falling thunder getting closer and closer.
Waiting for death to come.

However, at this critical moment, Levi Garrison in the distance seemed to teleport and came to the two women.
Then there was a scene of surprise that made the two women stunned.
Seeing the thunder that was about to hit the energy shield, it looked like a fast-moving sports car was suddenly slammed into the steering wheel by the driver.
Turning directly at a 90-degree angle, he finally fell into the cold pool.
"How is this going?"
Watching this incredible scene, the two women forgot to breathe for a while.
Immediately afterwards, there were again several thunderbolts that were originally slashing at the energy shield, all of which fell into other positions as if they were avoiding the god of plague.
Even if there were occasional three-color lightning strikes on Levi Garrison later, it would not be able to cause any damage to him at all.
It's as gentle as a breeze.
In particular, Murong Qingxue, who was beside Levi Garrison, could not feel the aftermath of the thunder at all.
This is completely different from the previous situation where the aftermath can shock
them.
"It should be because I passed the test of Tianlei Tribulation. Tianlei in the Buried Dragon Valley regards me as his own and no longer rejects and destroys it."
"As for the fact that you are not affected, it should be the same. Within a certain range, no one or anything around me is hostile to Tianlei."
"The energy here has also reached a new balance. As long as you are by my side, everything will be fine."
Levi Garrison explained.
Murong Qingxue and Gongsun Yueying suddenly realized.
The shock and awe in their hearts at this moment cannot be added.
the other side.
Xiao Feng wanted to continue rushing to the core area, but the mutation suddenly occurred after taking a few steps.

The originally quiet sky was instantly filled with dark clouds, followed by lightning and thunder, and the power of restraint under the feet also increased several times in an instant.
"How is this going?"
Xiao Feng was full of doubts, and quickly ran the exercises to offset the power of restraint and continued to move forward.
However, at this moment, a thunder of the thickness of an adult suddenly slashed down and smashed directly into Xiao Feng's head.
*"F*ck! Why is Tianlei here again?"*
Xiao Feng screamed in shock, and hurriedly tried his best to dodge away into the distance.
The blazing thunder almost wiped the corner of Xiao Feng's coat and hit the ground.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4061 -
Boom!
The extremely solid ground was blasted into a deep pit in an instant.
For a while, the gravel flew.
The violent aftermath of the thunder spread around, and Xiao Feng hurriedly used the energy shield to resist.
Although it didn't cause any substantial damage, it was still shocking to the point that the blood in his chest kept surging.
"It's dangerous! It's dangerous!"
Xiao Feng wiped the cold sweat on his forehead, and still had lingering fears until now.
If he was hit by a thunderbolt just now, with his current cultivation realm, he would be killed on the spot almost immediately.
"Why did the thunder suddenly appear again today?"
Xiao Feng was puzzled.
Before this period of time, it was calm, and it was almost unimpeded along the way.
The weather can even be described as clear skies.

However, in an instant, the wind was surging, and the thick dark clouds were like the top of Taishan, and the thunder was rolling in.
"Could it be that there is some kind of problem in the Buried Dragon Valley?"
Xiao Feng guessed in his heart that, after all, the information he got before was that there were constant thunderstorms in the valley of the Buried Dragon.
And before entering the non-core area, I didn't encounter any thunder, most likely because of the chain reaction caused by Master's intrusion into the core area of the Buried Dragon Valley.
In particular, the binding force from the underground also increased, as if it echoed with the sudden thunder of the sky.
"No matter what happens, you have to go to the core area to see Master's results, even if he has already suffered an accident."
After making up his mind, Xiao Feng moved on.
However, after walking a few hundred meters, a thunderstorm the thickness of a bucket struck again.
The splitting speed is even a bit stronger than that of the sky thunder just now.
"I devoured you."
Xiao Feng was a little pissed, and he actually ran the extreme swallowing technique directly, intending to shake the sky thunder.
However, when it was very close, Xiao Feng suddenly felt that the aftermath of the thunder energy was too violent.
At that time, it was very difficult to swallow a little power of thunder and lightning, and the key was that it was beyond his control.
"The energy of Tianlei is too violent, and if it is swallowed rashly, there is a risk of exploding and dying."
Thinking of this Xiao Feng quickly dodging, he didn't want to die until he saw Levi Garrison.

In particular, Gong Qianqiu's revenge has not been repaid, and Xiao Feng also feels that there is no need to risk his life to swallow Tianlei.
"Master, don't worry about it!"
Xiao Feng regrouped and continued to rush towards the core area of the Buried Dragon Valley.
Cold pool shore.
Levi Garrison stood with his hands behind his back.
Compared with before, Levi Garrison at this moment is like reborn, and the whole person is radiant.
In particular, the surface of the skin is like a crystal clear diamond, without a trace of impurities, showing an absolute sense of toughness.
The most important thing is that Levi Garrison has no breath at this moment, just like an ordinary person with no cultivation.
There is a sense of returning to the basics.
That state is like a calm sea, quiet and peaceful when there is no wind, but once it erupts, it is a ferocious tsunami, enough to destroy the world.
It's a disaster for everyone.
"Although I don't know what Levi Garrison's strength has reached, it should be no problem to kill the two palace masters."
Gongsun Yueying thought secretly in her heart.
After all, even the most terrifying blow formed by the gathering of the Bafang Tianlei in the Buried Dragon Valley can be hard to bear. What kind of attack can't be resisted?
Even the Tianlei and the power of the earth veins in the entire Dragon Burial Valley were tamed by Levi Garrison.
With such a terrifying force, even going to the core area of Kunlun Ruins would have a lot of confidence.
"Have you marked the positions of the god bones that you were looking for before?"
Levi Garrison asked suddenly.
The two women woke up like a dream and nodded mechanically.
"Lead the way ahead!"

Levi Garrison said with a smile.
Murong Qingxue and Gongsun Yueying were busy leading the way in front of them.
What surprised them was that even the ley lines had disappeared without a trace.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4062 -
"Not only did Tianlei hide from the slash, but even the power of restraint of the earth's veins also avoided it. This is too powerful."
"It's just too easy to walk this time."
Murong Qingxue and Gongsun Yueying screamed again.
Their current state is already at the end of the line. If they encounter the leyline restraint power of the previous level again, I am afraid they will be unable to move an inch.
Now that all the ley lines have disappeared, the two women just took this opportunity to restore their state.
"If I'm not wrong, the core of the leyline binding energy should be at the bottom of the center of the cold pool."
"At that time, the giant sky thunder and lightning balls were continuously gathered in that position, especially the electric tornadoes rose up one after another, and they carried the power of the leylines."
"Even now, you can see that Tianlei is still the most concentrated in the center of Nacha."
Levi Garrison said solemnly.
Murong Qingxue and the two looked at each other, and sure enough, the thunder in the sky over other parts of Hantan was scattered.
As for the location in the middle of the cold lake, there were several thunderstorms gathered, and they fell down almost non-stop.
"Does the Sect Master plan to go directly to the Hantan Center to hunt for treasure?"
Murong Qingxue asked tentatively.
Levi Garrison waved his hand and said, "Don't worry, let's collect the treasures from the outside of Hantan first."

Although most of the perimeter of Hantan are quasi-god bones, refining other weapons is enough.
Even for Kunlun Ruins, many of these things are valuable and invaluable resources, and Levi Garrison naturally cannot give up directly.
Gongsun Yueying and Murong Qingxue naturally wouldn't refuse, as long as they stayed in the area around Levi Garrison, there was basically no danger.
"By the way, the ancient books once recorded that there are alien beasts in the core Leihai area of the Dragon Burial Valley, and their strength is fierce and destroys the sky and the earth."
"I don't know what kind of terrifying spirit beast it is, it's better to be cautious!"
Gongsun Yueying respectfully advised.
Although Levi Garrison also withstood the strongest blow of Tianlei, the spirit beast was also tempered in the sea of thunder all year round, and its strength was unfathomable.
Even compared with Levi Garrison, who is stronger or weaker is really not necessarily.
"Yeah, Sect Master, I have also seen relevant ancient books. It is said that it is a terrifying spirit beast with some kind of ancient bloodline. It is indeed not to be underestimated."
Murong Qingxue also reminded him.
Levi Garrison smiled contemptuously and said, "It doesn't matter, I just happen to be missing a pet! If it dares to take the lead, it will surrender."
Gongsun Yueying and the others twitched the corners of their mouths, treating the ancient beasts as pets, mad and domineering.
Of course, Levi Garrison does have arrogant capital.
"Hurry up and collect treasures from heaven and earth!"
Levi Garrison waved his hand and said.
In the next three days, Levi Garrison and others searched for treasures from the outside world of Hantan.

“Taisu Void Spirit Evil Flower, Jiuzhuan Wood Underworld Bone, Heavenly Soul Ice Soul God Bone, Tianshu Chiyang Grass, Tiangang Hunyuan Iron…” Murong Qingxue and Gongsun Yueying beamed with joy as they looked at the many treasures of heaven and earth, as well as divine bones and quasi-sacred bones that only existed in ancient books.
“It’s just this amount, I’m afraid it already has a lot more heritage than the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace.” “Especially Tiancaidibao is not a lot of essence, and there are also a lot of these toplevel treasures in front of me.”
“What’s more, it’s not about exploring the treasures of heaven and earth in the depths of the cold lake? The income will be unimaginable at that time.”
Gongsun Yueying was very excited, and following Levi Garrison really benefited a lot.
Murong Qingxue thought this way, she had long been completely convinced by the power that Levi Garrison showed.
It is even more believed that if the Xingyue Shenzong has a suzerain like Levi Garrison, it will rise to a super sect more quickly.
“Sect Master, there are so many treasures in the periphery of Hantan, and there must be more in the depths of Hantan. Are you planning to explore now?”
Murong Qingxue tentatively asked, after all, it had already spent too long on the outside.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4063 - Levi Garrison pondered for a moment and said, “It doesn’t matter if it takes a while, we are not in a hurry to leave the Dragon Burial Valley.” “Could it be that the master is still thinking of continuing to use the Sky Thunder Tempering Body to improve his cultivation realm?”
Gongsun Yueying asked in confusion.
Gongsun Yueying’s knowledge is far higher than Murong Qingxue’s, she can clearly feel that even if the thunder strikes Levi Garrison today, the improvement of the latter's realm will be minimal.

Continuing to stay quenched is basically equivalent to doing useless work.
"Tianlei Tempering Body has not greatly improved my strength."
Levi Garrison paused for a while, and then continued: "But whether the thunder or the power of the earth's veins are here, it is an excellent environment for forging magic weapons."
"With so many treasures around, it's not easy to transport them all away."
"But if you refine the magic weapons, you can maximize their consumption, so as not to waste things!"
The corners of Gongsun Yueying's mouth twitched, Levi Garrison was planning to maximize the benefits of his trip to the Dragon Burial Valley!
Just like what Levi Garrison said, if so many treasures of heaven and earth are to be transported away, I might score several trips. It would be a waste of time to do so.
But refining a magic weapon requires a lot of heaven and earth treasures, and the sky thunder and earth veins cannot be taken away, both of which are excellent environments for forging magic weapons.
After the magic weapon is successfully refined, carrying a limited magic weapon is equivalent to taking away countless treasures from heaven and earth.
"Sect Master is wise!"
"Master is wise!"
The two women sighed almost at the same time.
"And this thunder and earth veins can also be used as natural guardians to prevent others from disturbing my forging magic weapons."
Levi Garrison said quietly.
Murong Qingxue and the others completely worshipped him, and all the resources in the Buried Dragon Valley were used by this man.
the other side.
Xiao Feng continued to move forward in a very embarrassed manner.

At this moment, Xiao Feng's hair was mostly scorched, and the heavy black armor on his body was also incomplete.
There were obvious wounds and bloodstains on the exposed arms and thighs.
The breath of the whole person is no longer as full as it was at first, and it seems that it has almost reached the limit of bearing.
"There are so many damn thunders?"
"And this weird ground, just like increasing the gravity dozens of times, it takes a lot of physical strength to get rid of it."
Xiao Feng cursed while avoiding the thunderstorm.
Along the way, facing the constant and indefinite bombardment of the thunder, Xiao Feng can be described as a life-and-death situation.
He had thought about quitting temporarily, but he had already penetrated such a long distance.
In addition, Xiao Feng wanted to confirm the life and death of Master Levi Garrison, which strengthened his determination to go to the core area urgently.
"Live to see people die and see corpses, Master, here I come!"
Xiao Feng gritted his teeth and continued to bite the bullet and rush to the core area.
The thunder rolled in and then fell, and Xiao Feng staggered to avoid it.
It is also fortunate that he relied on the energy of swallowing the aftermath of the thunderbolt along the way, which barely maintained his strength to continue to move forward.
Otherwise, he would have died of exhaustion.
"No wonder those bastards outside didn't dare to chase in, presumably because they were afraid of thunder bombardment, a group of junk!"
Xiao Feng said with contempt.
In fact, many sectarian forces headed by the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall did not dare to follow Xiao Feng rashly because they were afraid of Tianlei.
Since the powerhouses of the small sects reported the situation to the two hall masters, they ordered Xiao Feng to fend for himself.

Although he was not sure about the details of the people who broke into the Dragon Burying Valley, he would definitely die in the face of such a powerful thunderbolt.
In this way, many forces have been waiting here for nearly five days.
"Palace Master, should we continue to wait here?"
Yin Xuejian asked respectfully.
After this period of contact, Yin Xuejian has successfully become acquainted with the two palace masters.
With all their diligence, the two palace masters also had a very good attitude towards Yin Xuejian.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4064 - Following Yin Xuejian's question, the leaders of other sects also focused their attention on the two hall masters.
Although the main purpose of this time is to kill the thugs, if that person has already died under the bombardment of the sky, there is no need for everyone to continue to consume it.
The temple master of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple pondered for a moment and said: "The terrifying sky thunder has dissipated, and other areas have returned to normal again, indicating that the sky thunder robbery has been completely completed."
"If those few people survived such a test, why should they come out in three days."
"But until now, no one has come out, which can prove that they all died under the thunder."
The deputy hall master also echoed: "What the hall master said is very true, but it's a pity that Yueying is such a good cultivation seedling." The two palace masters made a final decision, of course, this is indeed what they thought.
The energy of the giant electric ball was so terrifying before, even if it slammed into the top sect, I am afraid it can destroy it.

Not to mention that the madman is the only one?
Must die!
Whoa whoa whoa!
"Back then, that kid asked us to wait on the spot to help him transport the treasures, what a shame!"
"That guy doesn't know that the sky is high and the earth is thick because of his strength, but he doesn't know how powerful the Kunlun Ruins Jedi is."
"It's just a pity that the Holy Maiden of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple is now. I'm afraid I have to choose someone else."
"That's right, it is said that Gongsun Yueying is a talented woman in the entire Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall. How easy is it to find another woman?"
"I don't think it's that difficult. The Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple has such a great appeal. It's not easy to find a woman with extraordinary talent in these hundreds of medium and small sects?"
"It is said that the future Sect Master's wife of the Taixu Shenzong has a very terrifying talent, maybe there is a chance!"
There was a lot of discussion in the crowd.
The Taixu Shenzong was stationed at the station, and everyone also heard a lot of discussions.
Especially when he learned that the madman died 100% under the bombardment of the sky, his face was full of shock and astonishment.
"That madman once slaughtered many masters in the Sun and Moon Divine Fire Hall by himself, so he is still unable to resist the thunder of the Dragon Burial Valley?"
"Lei is too scary today, isn't it?"
The three holy sons swallowed hard, feeling more and more terrifying in the Buried Dragon Valley.
The Great Holy Son also said with a solemn expression: "If it weren't for this, how could the ancient books call the Buried Dragon Valley a forbidden area for life?"

"And looking at the energy scale of the huge electric ball before, even the top powerhouses of the large sects may not be able to shake it in person. It is not surprising that the madman died there."
"I just didn't think that a powerhouse of that level would not be able to run wild in the Buried Dragon Valley, and I don't know how many top-level treasures are there?"
Gong Qianqiu said with great emotion.
Previously, she yearned for the madman's cultivation realm, thinking that the madman's strength had reached the ceiling level in the Kunlun Ruins.
However, it now seems that if you want to run wild in the Kunlun Ruins, you need to achieve a stronger strength.
"Qianqiu, I think what those people said is very reasonable. Next, I will help you find an opportunity to enter the sight of the two palace masters."
"With your cultivation talent, maybe you can really become the saintess of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple!"
The Great Saint said with great interest.
After this period of contact, the Great Holy Son discovered that Gong Qianqiu's cultivation talent was excellent.
Especially after the double cultivation, Gong Qianqiu's cultivation realm has once again reached a new level.
If she can really become the saint of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple, then it will be a great help to herself.
It must be known that the cultivation resources of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple are many times more than those of the Taixu Shenzong, especially the resources of the core high-level, which are unimaginable.
Gong Qianqiu said with a smile: "I also hope to become a saint, so that I can help my husband more."

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4065 -

Gong Qianqiu had already figured out the details of the Great Holy Son, and naturally understood the meaning of what he just said.

Sure enough, after getting such an answer, the smile on the face of the Great Saint could not be concealed.

"Having a wife like this, what can a husband ask for?"

The Great Saint said with a smile.

The Seven Holy Sons watched all this, and in their hearts, they also looked forward to Gong Qianqiu becoming the saintess of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace.

Because then she can completely get rid of the control of the Great Holy Son, and she can be more justifiable and treat herself like a sister.

The powerhouses of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall waited for two more days outside, and the two hall masters finally decided to temporarily evacuate.

Although the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple belongs to a large sect, it is also surrounded by powerful enemies.

Now that the core powerhouses in the temple are almost all out, if those same-level sects that are eyeing the periphery are desperate to attack and steal their homes.

That would be worth the loss.

So the two hall masters ordered the Taixu Shenzong to be the main sect, and the other sects to be supplemented, and continue to stay here.

What if the thug did a miracle?

Although some sects are unwilling to be reconciled by many forces, they dare not disobey the order due to the powerful coercion of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple.

As for these people organized by bounty hunters, they have been active here for half a year, and naturally they will not leave easily.

Moreover, the hotter the place, the more opportunities there are. To some extent, the bounty hunter organization is also the biggest speculator.

Therefore, the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple took the lead in announcing that the bandits died under the Heavenly Thunder Tribulation in the Dragon Burial Valley.
This message also spread like wildfire.
The whole area was instantly sensational.
"This Dragon Burial Valley is too terrifying, and even the terrifying gangsters can't retreat."
"Even if there are too many treasures in it, I won't go, it's important to save my life!"
"Even the powerhouses of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall dare not enter it rashly, so don't overestimate what you can do."
So everyone has a greater fear of the Dragon Burial Valley.
The sky above the entire Dragon Burial Valley seemed to be covered with a heavy shadow.
the other side.
The Taiyi Chamber of Commerce also received the news that Levi Garrison died in the Dragon Burial Valley.
Wei Shuyang was silent for a long time, and finally had to sigh.
He thought that a terrifying cultivation like Levi Garrison would be able to retreat under the thunder of the Dragon Burial Valley.
I never thought that I would never be able to escape.
"President, in fact, Levi Garrison can also do it, and it has attracted the Tianlei of the entire Dragon Burial Valley to gather in one place."
"Such a terrifying thunderbolt, even in the face of a large sect's guardian formation, it can easily penetrate it."
"It seems that Levi Garrison has entered the core area of the Dragon Burial Valley. This guy is too persistent, and sacrificed his life for a few divine bones."
"It's really a pity! With Levi Garrison's cultivation talent, he will be able to achieve a more advanced realm in time. Wouldn't he be able to advance and retreat freely when he goes to Buried Dragon Valley?"
Many core executives of Taiyi Chamber of Commerce expressed regret.

Especially thinking that Levi Garrison may also be a powerful forging master, if you cooperate with Taiyi Chamber of Commerce for a long time, then you will benefit a lot.
Now everything is a bubble.
Wei Shuyang sighed softly and said, "The power of the leylines in the core area of the Buried Dragon Valley is recorded in ancient books, and the power of the leylines in the core area of the Dragon Burial Valley is even more terrifying."
"There is also an unfathomable and piercing cold pool. The three exert pressure together. Even if the cultivation base is strong, it will be difficult to resist."
"Levi Garrison is really a pity, but he didn't listen to the advice at all!"
"President, then whether we should inform the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall of Levi Garrison's true identity, it doesn't matter now."
Someone suggested.
Wei Shuyang waved his hand and said, "Since people are already dead, why should they fall into trouble again? Let's accumulate some yin and virtue!"
"It seems that no one can break this Dragon Burial Valley!"

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4066 -
For two days in a row, ordinary divine weapons were refined, and the mountains of quasi-sacred bone-level heaven and earth treasures were almost exhausted.
Dozens of weapons that were slightly inferior to peerless divine weapons were refined, which made Murong Qingxue and the two stunned again.
In particular, Gongsun Yueying is well-informed, and there are also senior blacksmiths in the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall, but compared with Levi Garrison, it is only the difference between cloud and mud.
"This blacksmithing technique is a top-notch existence even in Kunlun Ruins?"
Gongsun Yueying exclaimed again and again.
"Then it's Hantan's turn."
Levi Garrison said with anticipation.

There are so many treasures of heaven and earth on the shore of Hantan, and it is conceivable to know how many superb talents are in Hantan.
"Come with me!"
Levi Garrison waved to the two women.
However, when Levi Garrison's right foot touched the cold pool water, the feeling of being secretly peeped came again clearly.
"who?"
The solemn color in Levi Garrison's eyes flashed, and he suddenly looked away, and the feeling of being peeped disappeared instantly.
As if it never existed.
Levi Garrison released energy to search, but there was no energy feedback after spreading for several miles.
"How strange!"
Levi Garrison didn't think this kind of snooping was an illusion, but since the other party refused to show up, he didn't need to take the initiative to provoke him.
Just being able to hide his perception in the previous situation is enough to show that this guy's cultivation realm is extremely strong.
At least in terms of concealment, it is definitely a transcendent existence, otherwise it will not be hidden freely.
Of course, Levi Garrison is more inclined to another guess, that the thing hidden in the dark may not be a person.
For example, spirit beasts have a unique way of hiding their breaths, and at the same time they have a spiritual sense comparable to that of humans, so it is not surprising to surveil secretly.
Gongsun Yueying and Murong Qingxue felt their scalps go numb for a while, and the sense of prying eyes just now put a lot of pressure on them.
"Who is it?"
"It's even a bit more terrifying than the pressure of Tianlei before."
The two women's faces were pale, and they had no doubt that as long as the other party wanted to do something, they had absolutely no room for resistance.

Levi Garrison scolded secretly: "Little thing, you'd better not make trouble for Lao Tzu, otherwise…"
"Don't worry about it, follow me into the cold pool!"
Before he finished speaking, Levi Garrison took the lead and jumped into the cold pool.
Pfft!
Levi Garrison had just entered the cold pool, and the biting chill struck instantly.
At the same time, the terrifying power of thunder and lightning struck, but for Levi
Garrison, it did not cause any harm.
In order to relieve the pressure on Murong Qingxue and the others, Levi Garrison directly absorbed most of Hantan's lightning power.
Not only could the remaining lightning power not be fatal, but the two women also took this opportunity to temper their bodies, taking their cultivation to a higher level.
Of course, this was also deliberately done by Levi Garrison, as a benefit to these two followers.
"It seems that this is a gift from the master!"
"Well, as long as we keep a certain distance from the sect master, we can use the power of Tianlei carried by Hantan to improve."
The two women transmitted each other's voices and followed Levi Garrison closely to find the treasures of heaven and earth.
As the three gradually dived into the cold pool, Murong Qingxue and Gongsun Yueying realized that the divine bone they had seen above the water was just the tip of the iceberg.
Most of the body is hidden under the cold pool.
I saw that it was a behemoth about ten feet long, and the smallest bone had the thickness of an adult thigh.
"This should be Jiaolong, right?"
Murong Qingxue said with emotion.
The description of the Jiaolong also only exists in the ancient book records, and the shape is very similar to the ancient book drawings.

Such a huge skeleton is also partially damaged, some parts are directly missing, and some are in a state of charred black, which is obviously caused by the bombardment of the sky.
"This is the supreme divine bone transformed by the Jiaolong."
Gongsun Yueying's excited voice transmission was confirmed.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4067 - Gongsun Yueying was fortunate enough to have seen a small piece of divine bone, the quality of which was completely incomparable to the skeleton of the Jiaolong before him.
It can even be described as the difference between clouds and mud.
Therefore, Gongsun Yueying was very sure that what was in front of him was the divine bone, and it was derived from the top-quality divine bone formed by Jiaolong crossing the sky and thunder tribulation.
It can be seen that the part of the divine light that has been completely preserved is sparkling and translucent, and even the finest diamonds are eclipsed by it.
Especially this god bone contains extremely strong terrifying energy.
It has the power of thunder and lightning, the power of earth veins, and the unique cold aura of Hantan.
In addition to this Flood Dragon Divine Bone, there are many scattered Divine Bone in other parts of Hantan, presumably because other Divine Beasts failed to cross the Thunder Tribulation.
All in all, the number of divine bones in the cold pool is unimaginable.
"With so many top-quality divine bones, how many peerless divine weapons can be forged?"
"It's okay to use these divine bones to concoct pills! By then, there will be a lot of excellent pills coming out."
The two women's faces were full of excitement, and this trip to the Dragon Burial Valley was a huge profit.

“Sect Master, what are your plans?” Murong Qingxue asked tentatively through voice transmission.
Levi Garrison pondered for a moment and said, “Of course it’s the best use of everything, so many god bones can’t be wasted at all.”
This is indeed what Levi Garrison thinks in his heart, and he even intends to let many confidants have a peerless magic weapon.
However, based on the number of god bones found so far, the raw materials such as Tianxing iron on hand are a bit less.
“Fortunately, these are only auxiliary materials, and the most important part is still the divine bone.”
“At that time, Lao Tzu will be forging together with the power of the Earth Vein and the Sky Thunder. It doesn’t matter if the auxiliary materials are less, and the environment can be used to make up for it.”
Levi Garrison made up his mind secretly.
As for the two of them, Murong Qingxue gradually got used to the energy intensity of the water in the cold pool as they went deeper into the cold pool.
The two women took this opportunity to step up the exercise, and the cultivation realm came directly to a new level.
Especially as they went deeper into the cold lake, many more superb natural materials and treasures appeared.
“Is this Tianlei Xuan milk?”
“There’s still Mingshui?”
Gongsun Yueying’s eyes were full of surprise.
“Thunder cold grass, even such precious and rare medicinal herbs, this cold lake is simply a gathering place for treasures!”
Murong Qingxue was equally shocked.
Thunder Cold Grass has both extreme cold and thunder and lightning properties, even if it is placed in a large sect, it can definitely be regarded as a spiritual elixir.

Of course, there are the most treasures of these two attributes in the cold pool, mainly due to the continuous pouring of the power of the thunder into the cold pool.
This cold pool is not very deep, and it didn't take long for the three of them to reach the bottom.
"The bottom of this cold pool is so weird, this trip to the Dragon Burial Valley is really eye-opening!"
Levi Garrison was very emotional.
Because he found that the bottom was a far cry from the waters above, where the water layer was not full of lightning.
The lower part is actually made of purple flames. The key is that these flames show a sense of sight of liquid.
And the tearing sensation of these purple flames is much stronger than the power of the upper layer of lightning, and it also has a chain-quenching effect on the body.
Naturally, this level of chain quenching did not work for Levi Garrison. He originally thought that Murong Qingxue and Gongsun Yueying could not withstand the terrifying purple flames.
However, the reality surprised Levi Garrison.
"The energy of these purple flames is almost the same as the energy of the lightning waters in the upper layers, and they can bear it completely."
Levi Garrison quickly made a judgment.
In fact, this situation was far beyond the expectations of Murong Qingxue and the two of them. They thought they could not bear it, but they ended up unscathed.
Levi Garrison pondered for a moment and explained the sound transmission:
"Presumably the bottom layer of this cold pool also conforms to the law of energy balance, but the visual effect presented is different."
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter
4068 -

When the sky thunder strikes the cold pool, it will naturally make the cold pool itself carry the power of the sky thunder.
However, the power of the leylines is also very terrifying, and it also affects the water of the cold pool to a large extent.
In particular, Hantan itself has the characteristics of extreme cold, so under the influence of the sky thunder above and the earth veins at the same time, it has formed a clear effect.
The upper half of the cold pool has the effect of lightning, and the lower half is the effect of the ley lines.
In addition, Tianlei and Leylines have reached a certain energy balance after years of 'hands-on'.
The two states that directly lead to the water of the cold pool do not affect each other and exist at the same time.
"Is this the Nether Flame recorded in the ancient books?"
Murong Qingxue swam to a group of blue and purple flames and asked through voice transmission.
Gongsun Yueying also came to the front, looked over and nodded affirmatively.
"This is a top-level Nether Flame. According to ancient books, there is a fire in the extremely cold realm. It is called Nether, and the flame is extremely cold. It can burn everything and is the first choice for refining."
Gongsun Yueying's voice transmission repeated the description of the Nether Flame in the ancient book, and Levi Garrison also became interested in an instant.
"So this thing is also very good for forging peerless weapons. Do you have utensils to collect it?"
Levi Garrison asked through voice transmission.
"Don't worry, master, I'm ready."
While speaking, Murong Qingxue took out what looked like a palm-sized jade bottle in her arms.

The bottle stopper is made of a special material, and the jade bottle is crystal clear.
Opening the cork, a biting chill emerges from the bottle, which is actually comparable to this cold pool water.
"This is a cold jade bottle, which is specially used to hold strange objects with powerful fire attributes."
Murong Qingxue briefly explained.
When he learned that Levi Garrison was coming to Bury the Dragon Valley, Murong Qingxue exchanged the cold jade bottle at the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, and planned to use it to deal with the Tianlei attack.
Because the cold jade bottle has a natural attraction to fire attribute items, it can be used as a 'lightning rod' to some extent.
However, now Levi Garrison has reached a new energy balance with the Buried Dragon Valley, coupled with the protection of the energy shield before.
This cold jade bottle has never had a chance to be taken out, but now it has come in handy.
Gongsun Yueying collected Nether Flame and directly handed the Cold Jade Bottle to Levi Garrison, and the three continued to search for other treasures in the depths of Hantan.
"Look over there!"
At this moment, Murong Qingxue suddenly transmitted a voice.
Levi Garrison and Gongsun Yueying looked in the direction of Murong Qingxue's fingers.
I saw a lotus flower in the depths of the cold pool not far away.
The whole body of these lotus flowers is glowing with red divine light, just like groups of flames jumping in the depths of the cold pool.
"Fire lotus?"
Gongsun Yueying's voice transmission was extremely excited.
"The fire lotus is even more precious than the Nether Flame. The fire lotus can not only be the raw material for refining, but also refining medicine."

“And it is only possible to breed fire lotus in Netherworld Fire, which is more precious and rare than Netherworld Flame.” “Even if this kind of thing is placed in the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, or even the larger Zijin Chamber of Commerce, they will go crazy when they see it.”
Levi Garrison was also very happy, and immediately said, “What are you waiting for, pack up all these fire lotuses and take them away.”
The three of them are like a harvester of natural materials and earth treasures, scavenging all the top-quality natural materials and earth treasures they encounter.
Not long after, Gongsun Yueying discovered a large amount of flint again, which made Levi Garrison even happier.
After all, it was found that the number of flints exchanged at the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce was not enough, and now it can be said that all the auxiliary materials for refining the peerless magic weapon have been collected.
“This trip to the Buried Dragon Valley is really rewarding!”
Levi Garrison continued to lead the two women to dive towards the bottom of the cold pool. After a while, the three of them found that the surrounding water flow was significantly faster.
“There is an undercurrent at the bottom of this cold pool, which may connect to deeper places. Be careful.”
Levi Garrison’s voice transmission reminded.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4069 -
Under normal circumstances, if it is a pool of stagnant water, there is a high probability that the water flow below will be very quiet.
If there is a connection to a wider space, or if there is some kind of crack in the bottom of the pool, then there will be undercurrents surging.
The two women instantly raised their vigilance, the three continued to dive, and after another half a stick of incense, the three finally came to beat the bottom of the pool.

Levi Garrison really found a long and narrow crack, and through the cold pool water, he found that there seemed to be flames beating under the crack.
The surrounding cold pool is obviously cold, but the cracks give people a scorching feeling.
"This should be connected to a leyline, and it seems that this leyline is a fire attribute."
"It's no wonder that it can attract the power of the thunder to gather the leylines."
Levi Garrison suddenly realized.
Through the understanding of Kunlun Ruins during this period, Levi Garrison also knew that many of the spiritual veins in this area have certain special attributes.
For example, the medicinal vein of Yan Zangsheng is naturally suitable for cultivating precious medicinal herbs for refining medicinal herbs, and the medicinal materials grown in the medicinal vein are more effective.
Of course, it can also be used for refining, but for a relatively mild spiritual meridian such as the medicine pulse, the refining is too overbearing after all.
On the other hand, the fire of the ley lines at the bottom of the cold pool belongs to the natural fire element attribute, and it is an excellent choice for forging magic weapons.
Especially in the final chain quenching stage of forging the magic weapon, the fire of the earth veins is simply an environment for building one body, and it has a bonus effect on the power of the magic weapon.
"Sect Master, what are you going to do next?"
Murong Qingxue asked through voice transmission.
Levi Garrison pondered for a moment and said, "First collect all the treasures in this cold lake."
Seeing that Levi Garrison was also planning to state the plan in detail, Murong Qingxue and the others did not dare to ask any further questions.

Directly following Levi Garrison's request, he began to search for all kinds of treasures in the cold lake.
The scope of Hantan is not small, but it did not take too long for Levi Garrison and the others.
Since these few people are used to seeing treasures of the rank of fire lotus, ordinary quasi-divine bones are somewhat disdainful.
In this way, Levi Garrison and the three spent two days and two nights to finally scavenge the divine bones and top-level treasures in the cold pool.
By the cold pool.
Levi Garrison watched the occasional scene of thunder strikes in the cold pool water, and the corners of his mouth rose slightly.
"It's time to drain this cold pool."
Levi Garrison said quietly.
Murong Qingxue and Gongsun Yueying were shocked, completely ignorant of what Levi Garrison meant.
The scope of the cold pool is not small, how easy is it to get rid of it in a short time?
"Master, is this trying to directly use the fire of the earth's veins and the power of the sky to forge a top-level divine weapon?"
Gongsun Yueying asked tentatively, and she was taken aback by her speculation.
After all, the magic weapon forged by these two forces is too terrifying, especially for the test of blacksmithing.
In other words, even if you have such an excellent environment for forging magic weapons, if your forging skills can't keep up, it is equivalent to ruining things.
It is even very likely that the prepared forging raw materials will be destroyed by forging, or the forged items will be defective.
"You're still pretty smart!"
Levi Garrison said with a smile: "That's right, that's what I planned. Only weapons that are forged with this natural power are qualified to be called divine weapons."

"Otherwise, other flames will be used instead, and artificial power will inevitably be mixed in the forging process, which will be inferior after all."
The shock in the hearts of Murong Qingxue and the two girls couldn't be further increased, Levi Garrison's thoughts were so crazy every time.
For example, he used the power of thunder to quench his body before, and now he is about to forge the ultimate version of the peerless weapon.
Of course, it is precisely because of this that he is Levi Garrison, the man who is like a god.
"You sort these raw materials into categories, and I'm going to start extracting the water from the cold pool."
Levi Garrison ordered.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4070 -
The way to drain the cold pool water is that Levi Garrison uses it to quench his body.
Absorb all the lightning power, leyline power and unique extreme cold elements contained in the cold pool water.
The ordinary moisture in the cold pool was directly evaporated by the terrifying power that Levi Garrison's basic exercises came into being.
In the early days of Levi Garrison's body quenching with the water of Hantan, he was naturally attacked by Tianlei's "protest" force, and the thunderstorm poured down.
After all, what Levi Garrison did at the moment was breaking the new energy balance that was achieved not long ago.
However, in the face of Levi Garrison's terrifying strength, Tianlei's lethality was almost like scratching a tickling, and the protest was soon declared invalid.
After struggling for a while, Tianlei finally gave up, allowing the total amount of water in the cold pool to decrease rapidly.
Chi Chi Chi!

The power of thunder and lightning in the cold pool water kept jumping with electric flowers, and was quickly absorbed into Levi Garrison's body, washing the meridians and quenching.
Levi Garrison bombarded the quenched body with the power of thunder and lightning gathered in the Buried Dragon Valley, and the effect of the cold pool water quenching body was already minimal.
But it is still helpful for the consolidation of the new realm, and Levi Garrison doesn't want to waste the slightest.
Seeing the rapidly dropping water level in the cold pool, Murong Qingxue and Gongsun Yueying were dumbfounded.
They thought it would take a long time to drain the cold pool, but looking at this speed, I am afraid it will take less than three days to complete.
"Is this pile of heaven and earth treasures comparable to the comprehensive heritage of several large sects?"
Murong Qingxue said with emotion on her face.
Gongsun Yueying sneered: "You are overestimating the heritage of large sects."
As the only saint in the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall, she can be considered to be wellinformed, especially she has a deep understanding of the background of large-scale sects.
There are ten grades of heaven and earth treasures in the Kunlun Ruins, and most of the heaven and earth treasures stored by middle-level sects like the Xingyue Shenzong are grade one or two.
There are very few third-level natural treasures, and one or two fourth-level natural treasures is not bad.
The third-level heaven and earth treasures in the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall's inventory are relatively common, the number of fourth-level treasures has dropped sharply, and there is only one fifth-level heaven and earth treasure.

Gongsun Yueying had seen Divine Bone by chance, but it was because a top powerhouse planned to exchange it with the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple for the training method.
The deal caused a huge stir in the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace, but the deal was rejected after high-level discussions.
It's not that the level of the god bone is not enough, but compared to the god bone, the teaching method is a necessity.
Once the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall is leaked, it is very likely that the enemy sects will develop targeted exercises, and the entire sect will likely be destroyed by then.
Missing out on this divine bone deal also made the senior officials of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall feel very sorry. After all, that divine bone was a sixth-level treasure of heaven and earth.
However, the most common piles of heaven and earth treasures in front of them have reached the fifth level.
There are not a few treasures of heaven and earth at the sixth level and seventh level.
As for the eighth-level heaven and earth treasures, the number of god bones is also very considerable.
There are also several types of eighth-level heaven and earth treasures, such as Fire Lotus, Netherworld Bone Erosion Flower, Cold Crystal Cuiyushan, etc.
These things look at the entire Kunlun Ruins, even those hidden super families or super sects, the storage of top-level natural materials and earth treasures may not be so rich.
Once the message is spread, even the top executives of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce's various branches will be completely sensational.
After all, the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce is all about trading all kinds of treasures, and the more top-level resources, the more popular they are.

“It turns out that the large-scale sects don’t have so many treasures in their imagination!”
After hearing Gongsun Yueying’s remarks, Murong Qingxue felt a little disappointed.
She thought that the top-level cultivation resources of large sects would be very rich.
But it now appears that top-level natural treasures are very rare for a sect of any size.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4071 -
“The owner has so many top-level materials, coupled with such a special forging environment.”
“The forged magic weapon is probably the top existence in the entire Kunlun Ruins.”
“I really look forward to the moment when the peerless magic weapon takes shape!”
Gongsun Yueying was filled with emotion and longing.
Following Levi Garrison is more terrifying than enjoying the resources as a saint in the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall.
Even the Yuwei baptism of the power of the thunder before, and the quenching of the body when he went deep into the cold pool, have greatly increased Gongsun Yueying’s cultivation realm.
If you stay in the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall all the time, it will probably take a few years to reach the current state of cultivation.
Murong Qingxue also sighed: “Yes, the forging skills of the sect master are also at the peak, and I don’t know what kind of terrifying level the forged magic weapon can reach?”
“According to the specifications of the previously forged magic weapon, it is used for top-level heaven and earth treasures, plus the natural power of thunder and sky and the flames of the earth veins.”
“I’m afraid that it can really forge a peerless magic weapon, even the hidden sects will be regarded as the level of the sacred magic weapon” Gongsun Yueying speculated.

Levi Garrison’s shocking actions one after another, Gongsun Yueying almost felt commonplace.
If it was said before that Levi Garrison could forge a real peerless weapon, she would think it was a fantasy, but now there is an inexplicable trust.
It even feels that there is nothing in this world that Levi Garrison can’t do, and the top peerless magic weapon is naturally no problem.
Time passed quietly, and in a blink of an eye, two days later.
The cold pool has been completely quenched and drained by Levi Garrison, and the cracks at the bottom of the cold pool and the flames of the earth veins are also revealed.
Levi Garrison has settled down, and Hantan water quenching body really has no significant effect, but it still consolidates the realm he has risen to.
“Congratulations to the master for draining the cold pool.”
Gongsun Yueying and the two congratulated each other, and they couldn’t wait to watch Levi Garrison forge the peerless magic weapon.
Levi Garrison’s whole person was calm, and he said solemnly: “I will start forging magic weapons after a while, and you should be a little farther away.” “There is no cold pool water to reconcile it. The power of the thunder and the flames of the earth veins here will be very manic, and if you are not careful, you will burn yourself.”
“As ordered!”
The two women responded quickly and respectfully.
In fact, they also felt the manic energy, as if a volcano that could erupt at any time was extremely dangerous.
Levi Garrison didn’t say more, and directly transported the various materials needed to the surrounding of the leyline flames and began to forge the top magic weapon.

Crack!
The leyline flames rose up, scorching the surrounding area a little distorted, and even Levi Garrison felt a little dry at this temperature.
The most bizarre thing is that in this dryness, it still carries a biting chill.
The originally diametrically opposed temperature attributes were all concentrated in the earth vein flame.
This is of course the result of the special attributes of Hantan before.
"It's time to start!"
Levi Garrison threw the celestial iron and flint into the earth's core flame, and then released his power, forming a giant energy vortex centered on Levi Garrison's body.
"The power of Tianlei is for my use!"
With a low drink from Levi Garrison, the top of his head was suddenly covered with dark clouds, lightning and thunder continued.
Immediately afterwards, a three-colored sky thunder poured down, apparently attracted by the energy vortex created by Levi Garrison.
This thunderbolt landed in the terrestrial flames with incomparable precision.
The terrifying energy of the two attributes of cold and electricity collided in one place, and an incomparably terrifying energy coercion burst out in an instant.
The powerful energy coercion shook, but it was directly offset by the energy shield released by Levi Garrison in time.
This did not cause any harm to Murong Qingxue and the others.
Tianxing iron and flint melted instantly under the bombardment of two violent energies.
"Congeal!"
Levi Garrison hurriedly used the forging technique to cool and crystallize the liquid of the two materials that were about to be lost under the leyline flame.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4072 -
With the deliberate guidance of the power released by Levi Garrison, the raw material slurry that was about to flow quickly condensed into crystals.

However, one could clearly see that the sparks of the earth vein flame and the power of the thunder were stalemate, and a cloud of white death mist bloomed on the surface of the crystal.
This mist also contains the material power of Tianxing iron and flint, but there are obviously many impurities in it.
If it is not controlled in time, these impurity forces will invade into the pure crystal fusion, and the purity of the magic weapon will be greatly reduced.
Once this kind of impurity mass energy mist invades too much, even the toughness of the divine weapon forged in the future will be greatly reduced.
But now it is not possible to rashly disperse the mist of impurity energy, because the energy of impurity gas will appear in the crystal body through continuous tempering.
If you do it before it is completely purified, it will also affect the quality of the magic weapon.
And how to accurately grasp the timing and strength of the shot is the key to whether the forging is superb or not.
The difference is a thousand miles away, and that's it.
"It's not the best time yet."
Levi Garrison thought to himself.
After a long time, I saw that the surrounding impurity mist was getting thicker and thicker, and there was a faint trend of infiltrating again.
Levi Garrison shot decisively, he waved his arm gently, and a ferocious energy swept out the mist of impurity energy.
Immediately, the crystal area of the top raw material forged became clear again.
And that crystal became crystal clear with the continuous quenching of Tianlei's power.
"After a while, it will be able to integrate into the divine bone. At that time, the energy of the fire of the earth must be instantly detonated, otherwise it will be difficult to melt the divine bone with the power of the thunder alone."

After making up his mind, Levi Garrison continued to quench and crystallize the crystal until the crystal reached a nearly transparent state, and quickly added a divine bone.
lol!
The sky thunder continued to bombard the divine bone, not only could it not cause any damage to it, but instead stimulated the power of the divine bone.
Almost knocked the crystal out.
"As expected of a top-level god bone, it has been tempered by Tianlei for many years, and it has almost become immune to this power."
Levi Garrison no longer hesitated at all, and raised his left hand directly. With the pulling of a force, the earth vein flame that was still in a suppressed state suddenly rose.
Whoohoo!
A dark blue flame appeared at once, and two forces, fiery and icy, burst out at the same time, and immediately attached to the surface of the god bone.
bang bang bang!
Divine Bone began to struggle violently, like a criminal who was severely tortured, and could hear the shrill screams faintly.
The divine bones already possessed a great aura, and such a scene could actually appear when they were scorched by the flames of the earth veins.
Buzz!
Divine Bone instantly released its power and made a violent tremor.
It seemed that he was desperately trying to escape the fate of destruction, but Levi
Garrison hurriedly exerted his strength to suppress it, which made the gods disappear.
With the double bombardment of the power of the thunder and the flames of the earth veins, the god bones finally gradually melted, and they were finally quenched and chained into smaller crystals.
"Give it to Lao Tzu!"
Levi Garrison released the power guidance again, and the essence of the divine bone was quickly sneaked into the previously condensed crystal.

In this way, Levi Garrison put all the materials needed by the peerless magic weapon into the flames of the earth's center one after another.
Melt, purify, fuse, quench chain.
The four steps go round and round, culminating in Levi Garrison trimming the mixed condensate into a long sword shape.
"The next step is the final tempering process."
Levi Garrison's eyes are serious, this will be the most critical step in the entire blacksmithing technique.
As the saying goes, a thousand trials and hardships can lead to magic weapons, and the focus is on training.
"Nine-colored Tianlei is the most charming, so choose you as the most important part of this process!"
Thinking of this, Levi Garrison directly triggered the power of Tianlei, and in an instant, the situation changed to lightning and thunder.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4073 -
Clap!
Originally, the dark clouds were suffocating, and a flash of lightning cut through the sky, as if the sky was collapsing in the end times.
Murong Qingxue and Gongsun Yueying involuntarily took a few steps back, their eyes filled with shock and fear.
They have long been admired by Levi Garrison's superb forging skills, but at this moment, they did not expect that the power of Tianlei would suddenly increase so much.
"Look at the clouds, the color of this thunder seems to be nine."
Murong Qingxue screamed in shock.
Gongsun Yueying looked in the direction of her finger, and sure enough, she saw the nine-color sky thunder pouring down, and suddenly bombarded the body of the long sword that had just been formed.
Clang!

Electric sparks radiated everywhere, and Changjian Fitness asked for a vibration, and a deafening metallic sound came out, which made the eardrums of the two girls hurt.
But they can clearly feel that the long sword has become more crystal clear after being baptized and tempered by the nine-color sky thunder.
Especially the toughness of the blade part is extremely strong, as if reborn in an instant, naturally carrying the charm of the power of thunder.
"Nine has been the number one since ancient times, and the nine-colored Tianlei also has a hidden Dao rhyme. I am afraid it is the most pure and terrifying power in this Tianlei."
"The master tempered the magic weapon with the nine-color sky thunder in order to maximize the strength and rhythm of the magic weapon."
"Being able to see such superb and superb blacksmithing skills is truly a life in vain!"
Gongsun Yueying said with emotion.
She has also seen the process of many so-called forging masters creating magical weapons, but compared with Levi Garrison, those people are simply worlds apart.
Murong Qingxue also agreed with this. He had seen Levi Garrison and Levi Garrison forging magic weapons before, but it was still a lot different from now.
This is the real peak forging technique, and I am afraid that no one in the Kunlun Ruins can surpass it.
"Being able to follow Levi Garrison's side is really worth it."
Murong Qingxue thought so in her heart.
At the same time, in the dark place at the far end of the core area, there is a pair of clear eyes, who are observing all this with interest.
Especially for Levi Garrison's process of forging magic weapons, his expression is more complicated, and it seems that there are people and things from a long time ago.
the other side.
The outermost area of the core area of Dragon Burial Valley.

A burly figure was avoiding the thunderstorm everywhere, and it was Xiao Feng who came to investigate Levi Garrison's situation.
Seeing that Xiao Feng was in a state of embarrassment at the moment, the solid and heavy black armor was almost gone, and his entire body was like coal.
The bombardment of Tianlei made him suffer a lot. He thought that the Tianlei in the non-core area was terrifying enough.
However, when he continued to walk forward, Xiao Feng realized that he had made a big mistake. The moment he entered the core area, the sky thunder became violent again.
It was as if being attracted by some invisible force to gather in the most central direction, during which there were many thunderbolts of various colors falling.
"The lethality of this multi-colored sky thunder is too great, let alone being bombarded from the front, even the aftermath of the energy is enough for Lao Tzu to drink a pot."
Xiao Feng cursed again and again, and the ordinary thunder had already caused him to struggle.
In the face of the irregular bombardment of multi-colored thunder, Xiao Feng was only too weak to fight.
He originally wanted to inspect and even rescue his master Levi Garrison, but he never thought that he would end up with an unsafe end.
"I can't give up, I don't believe that I can't enter the core area."
Xiao Feng quickly dodged and avoided, while looking for a location with relatively few thunderstorms, he continued to penetrate into the core area of the Dragon Burial Valley.
Many forces at the outermost periphery of the Buried Dragon Valley took the lead to evacuate along with the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple, and they also evacuated after a period of close monitoring.

In the eyes of everyone, the bandits who entered the Buried Dragon Valley had absolutely no chance of surviving. After all, they still disappeared for so long.
If they were safe and sound, those people would have come out long ago.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4074 -
The super-powerful eyeliners of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce also returned messages one after another.
Even Wei Shuyang gave up completely, he still had a glimmer of hope, after all, the strength that Levi Garrison showed was so powerful.
Of course, it is more regrettable that Levi Garrison is very likely to be a senior forging master.
If you can escape and cooperate with Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, it will be the greatest blessing of Taiyi Chamber of Commerce.
But now all hope has disappeared, Wei Shuyang directly ordered the eyeliner to be withdrawn, there is no need to continue wasting time in the Buried Dragon Valley.
On the contrary, the Taixu Shenzong has been holding on for the longest time, of course, this is also to show loyalty to the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple.
After waiting for a week and still no one came out, Yin Xuejian and others were completely given up.
"There is no doubt that the bandit will die, and we don't need to continue wasting time, let's withdraw!"
Yin Xuejian gave the order.
As the Taixu Shenzong withdrew from the Dragon Burial Valley, other sects followed.
Of course, the burial of the Dragon Valley also made everyone terrified. The helms of many sects have listed this place as a forbidden place, and all disciples are not allowed to enter.
However, the Bounty Hunter Organization still operates around the Dragon Burial Valley

as originally planned.
“I thought how terrifying the madman’s cultivation base was, but now he is in a cocoon and paid the price for his arrogance.”
The Great Saint said solemnly.
The three saints sneered and said: “People are crazy, and this sentence is true. It’s just that the power of the thunder in this Dragon Burial Valley is too powerful.”
“If it weren’t for this, I really wanted to go inside and find out. There must be no shortage of treasures from heaven and earth. It is said that the most valuable thing in it is the divine bone.”
The Seventh Holy Son said solemnly, “Especially, I can faintly sense the existence of a special spiritual meridian. It would be great if there were no thunderstorms.”
The Seven Holy Son’s tone was full of regret, and at the same time, these words also attracted a lot of interest from the people of the Taixu Shenzong.
They all knew that the Seventh Holy Son had the special ability to perceive the spiritual veins, and could be sensed by him, so they could imagine how terrifying this spiritual vein in Buried Dragon Valley was.
Gong Qianqiu was also very shocked. It was rare to see spiritual veins that could be called ‘special’ by the Seven Holy Sons.
“Even if there are more treasures in it, it’s useless if you don’t have your life to bring them out.”
“Don’t think about it, there is no need to hang yourself on this tree.”
Yin Xuejian said solemnly.
The sighs in the crowd came one after another. Just as the deputy suzerain said, the Dragon Burial Valley can kill the bandits, not to mention their cultivation realm.
There is only one chance of being bombarded into ashes when entering, no matter how many treasures of heaven and earth there is no way to bring them back.

“When this sect’s major is further improved, we must enter the Dragon Burial Valley to investigate.”
Gong Qianqiu thought secretly in his heart.
the other side.
It took Levi Garrison seven days to forge the first divine weapon, which was a sword.
The hilt of the divine bone sword is about three feet long, and the divine light is dazzling.
Murong Qingxue and Gongsun Yueying could hardly move their eyes, they were already deeply attracted by this long sword.
But seeing the crystal clear body of the long sword, even the best crystals are far from
it.
Especially around the sword’s edge, there are faint flashes of electric light, and at the same time, it has an extremely cold chill, and it can even freeze the surrounding air.
And this long sword seems to be integrated with this world, and there is a rhythm flowing when it is gently swayed.
“Master, can you show us the power of the magic weapon?”
“Yeah, Sect Master, I’m looking forward to seeing it too!”
Gongsun Yueying said very excitedly.
Levi Garrison nodded and said, “Okay!”
In fact, Levi Garrison is also very curious about the power of this sword. After all, this is the magic weapon he has built with the most heart in history.
Levi Garrison held the sword in his hand and gently waved it towards the cold lake in the distance.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4075 -
Swish!
A cold light was drawn out, and a faint sound of thunder came from the void.
Immediately afterwards, a bottomless crack suddenly appeared on the originally incomparably solid ground of the cold pool.
Chi Chi Chi!

After a while, water seeped out, but soon it was directly frozen into ice cubes by the cold air carried by Jianmang.
"As expected of a peerless weapon, the lethality is so terrifying!"
"This ground has been bombarded and quenched by Tianlei for many years. Even ordinary magic weapons are very laborious to cut."
"And the master did not use the cultivation technique, in other words, this is the power exerted by the divine sword itself."
Murong Qingxue was stunned when she heard the words, she really didn't pay attention to this just now.
In this way, even a person with no cultivation base can exert a huge lethality as long as he uses this divine sword.
If a sword cultivator were to use this sword, wouldn't the power it exerted would be even more terrifying?
"not bad!"
Levi Garrison was also quite satisfied with this long sword.
In contrast, the divine calamity that was forged at the beginning was no different from rubbish.
"Sect Master, give this divine weapon a name!" Murong Qingxue suggested.
Levi Garrison nodded, pondered for a moment and said, "Let's call it Dragon Burial!"
"Good name!"
The two women hurriedly agreed, the name obviously meant to commemorate the trip to the Dragon Burial Valley, and it sounded really domineering.
"You stay here, I will continue to forge the magic weapon."
Levi Garrison paused and added: "Since you have followed all the way, I will naturally not treat you badly, so I will also forge a magic weapon for each of you as a reward!"
"Thank you master!"
"Thank you Sect Master!"
Gongsun Yueying and the two daughters knelt on the ground and thanked them.
Levi Garrison didn't say much, and continued to forge the magic weapon.

After all, there are enough materials collected to give some benefits to the people around them, and it is also beneficial for them to follow them willingly.
Gongsun Yueying was indeed extremely grateful, and the remaining unwillingness in her heart completely disappeared.
Following Levi Garrison can obtain such a level of peerless divine weapon, even if he is valued in the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall, he will not be able to enjoy such treatment.
Especially along the way, Levi Garrison himself has shown incomparably powerful strength, and there is absolutely no harm in following him.
"What kind of scenery will it be like to walk out of the Dragon Burial Valley and carry the peerless magic weapon after this incident?"
Gongsun Yueying has already begun to look forward to the highly sought after scene in the future.
After all, the top-level divine weapons forged by Levi Garrison, even those top-level sectarian forces in the core area of Kunlun Ruins, will be highly contested.
Murong Qingxue also felt like a dream, her background was far from that of Gongsun Yueying, and her psychological expectations were naturally greater.
The Xingyue Divine Sect is just an ordinary middle-class sect. If you don't meet Levi Garrison, you will probably miss out on the peerless divine soldier in this life.
Now that only being a sidekick can get such a reward, the excitement in Murong Qingxue's heart has long since been added.
the other side.
The news of the re-election of the Holy Maiden in the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple spread like wildfire.
After being killed by Levi Garrison in succession, the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy and many of the arrogant powerhouses in the temple, the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple urgently needs to replenish fresh blood.

Therefore, the election of the Holy Maiden has lowered a lot of standards. In the past, the candidates had to be at least the best among the middle sects.
The selection of saintess this time does not limit the size of the sect, as long as those with outstanding qualifications can participate in the selection competition.
This made many small sects overjoyed. After all, they were not qualified to hold the thighs of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple in the past.
Nowadays, as long as you become a candidate, you can make the sect flourish, so many small sects also send top talents to participate in the trials.
The Taixu Shenzong naturally also got the message. Gong Qianqiu has long been fascinated by the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple, and now he has the opportunity to go there.
But before Gong Qianqiu went, he had already swallowed up all the dragon vein resources provided by the Seven Saints, and his strength had greatly increased.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector]
Chapter 4076 -
One point at the helm of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall.
The tall ring is made of ink meteorites, and the surface is thick, solid and smooth.
Moreover, this ink star meteorite has a very strong gloss, and standing on it can completely see its own reflection on the ground, which is no different from a mirror.
There are four observation platforms around the arena, among which sit the core elders of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall.
As the judges of the Holy Maiden Qualification Competition, they are paying attention to the cultivation talents of the female disciples of various sects who came to participate in the screening.
There was a surging crowd under the arena, and there were hundreds of sects who came to participate in the Trials for the Holy Maiden. Of course, most of them were small sects.
In the past, these small sects had no access to sects of this scale at all, but now they are all thinking of turning a pheasant into a phoenix.

Even if she couldn't become the saint of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple, and showed enough talent to enter the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy, it would be a qualitative leap.
"The Holy Maiden of the Floating Cloud Sword Sect passed the first test and became a candidate for the Holy Maiden of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple."
"The saintess of the Blood Sea Alliance is slightly lacking in talent, so she can enter the Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy for further study."
"The Holy Maiden of Qingyanzong is mediocre in talent, and she is specially given five pieces of top-quality spirit crystals to encourage her."
"…"
An elder from the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall announced loudly.
The sect that was announced as the candidacy of the Holy Virgin rejoiced.
The sect chosen to enter the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple is also quite happy.
Even the rejected sect won't return empty-handed after receiving the topgrade spirit spar reward. Of course, regret is inevitable.
But for small sects, a few top-quality spiritual spar is also a top-level cultivation resource, and I am grateful to the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple.
This is naturally also the purpose of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple's generous cultivation resources.
"Next, I will invite Qianqiu of Taixu Shenzong Palace to come to the stage to show it."
As the voice of the elder of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall sounded, Gong Qianqiu leaped onto the ring.
"Show your cultivation talent!"
The elder's voice was low, but there was a flash of hope in his eyes, because this was the person who the deputy hall master told him to pay attention to.
He also wanted to see what was so special about Gong Qianqiu?
Gong Qianqiu first saluted, and then he didn't say much, and directly operated the swallowing exercise.
In an instant, a huge energy vortex was formed centered on Gong Qianqiu's body.
The aura of heaven and earth in the surrounding area seemed to be summoned by some sort of summons, and madly poured into the energy vortex.
It was then extracted by Gong Qianqiu's quenching chain and finally inhaled into the body.

And because the power was too violent, the entire ring vibrated violently, and even had a tendency to collapse.
In an instant, the power of the formation around the arena surged, constantly impacting this force, which prevented the arena from being destroyed.
This is also the back-hand of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple, in order to avoid the destruction of the arena during the competition, and this is why a defensive and stable formation is established.
"It turned out to be devouring talent?"
"It seems that she should have the ability to devour spiritual roots and bones, otherwise she will explode and die sooner or later if she swallows the spiritual energy of heaven and earth."
"There is actually such a character in Taixu Shenzong, I haven't heard of it before!"
"Isn't it ignorant? This is Gong Qianqiu, the future leader of the Taixu Shenzong. How could his talent be poor?"
In an instant, there was a lot of discussion under the stage, and everyone was amazed.
The palms of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall on the high platform are also quite satisfied, and swallowing the spiritual roots and bones is extremely rare even in the Kunlun Ruins.
"Gong Qianqiu is very talented, and after negotiation, it was decided to be the chief candidate for the new saintess."
The elder announced loudly, once again making many sect members amazed and envied.
Looking at the envy and jealousy of the people below him, Gong Qianqiu enjoyed it very much, and a sense of accomplishment came out spontaneously.
"Have you seen Levi Garrison? Even in Kunlun Ruins, this sect leader can be honored!"
Gong Qianqiu said secretly in his heart.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector]
Chapter 4077 -
Gong Qianqiu is full of pride, and now she has finally become the focus of attention.
Especially this is the Kunlun Ruins, and the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple is not an ordinary large-scale sect.
"The so-called sweet girls of the sky in those sects before are just a group of rabble, how many can be the opponents of this sect leader?"

Gong Qianqiu sneered in her heart. She had paid close attention to other candidates before and did not pose any threat to him at all.
Even if there are a few saintesses from medium-sized sects, they are not bad, but they are far from their own, and there is no pressure.
It can be said that the saintess of the Sun and Moon Divine Fire Temple finally belonged to the hands.
At that time, it will gradually climb to the absolute top of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall, even if it is a real high-level class entering the Kunlun Ruins.
Even using the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall as a springboard, it would be a hundred times stronger than the Taixu Shenzong.
"The Sun and Moon Divine Fire Palace is still not the end. The background of that gangster is probably the pinnacle of the Kunlun Ruins sect."
"But it's not too far away. The new saint of the Sun and Moon Divine Fire Temple is none other than this leader."
"Levi Garrison and Xiao Feng are not even worthy to carry shoes for the leader."
The more Gong Qianqiu thought about it, the more excited he became, and he was full of confidence and yearning for the future.
the other side.
Buried Dragon Valley Hantan leyline flames.
A blade in the shape of a Tang knife is completely formed, but the blade of this knife is obviously much wider than that of the Tang knife.
The azure blue blade light is eye-catching under the sunlight, making people dare not look directly.
Compared with Burying Dragon, the breath carried by this knife is less sharp and sharp, and more heavy and domineering.
Levi Garrison held the knife in his hand, and displayed a knife against the thunder that poured down from the far end.
The violent sword gang roared out, and the three-color Tianlei that was surrounded by several people was cut off in an instant, and the Tianlei could not be merged again for a long time.
"You can cut off the thunder with a wave of your hand, so let's call it cut thunder!"
Levi Garrison is also very satisfied with these two masterpieces.
Just because Levi Garrison forged top-level magic weapons twice, Tianlei became more manic and restless.
After all, continuously mobilizing the nine-colored Tianlei to temper the magic weapon is to continuously change the energy balance.
Frequent search for a new energy balance can make the various elemental energies very manic.

Coupled with the fact that the two peerless divine weapons have attracted the vision of heaven and earth, the power of many elements in the surrounding area naturally gathers to the location of the divine weapons. So the entire Dragon Burial Valley has undergone earth-shaking changes compared to before.
Gongsun Yueying and the two were also deeply attracted by the two peerless divine weapons suspended in the void.
Clap clap!
The thunder kept falling on the two divine weapons, emitting strong energy fluctuations.
Although Dragon Burial and Thunder Slaying have been successfully forged, Levi Garrison still allows Tianlei to continue smashing the quenching chain and continue to enhance the energy and charm of the peerless divine weapon.
"Burying the dragon is light and agile, which perfectly fits the power of Tianlei; Slashing Thunder is heavy and steady, which is more in line with the power of the earth's veins."
"The two peerless weapons can complement each other perfectly. If they are used in combination, they will show even more powerful power." Gongsun Yueying said with emotion.
Murong Qingxue was too excited to speak, she had never seen such a level of magic before.
Especially at this time, the area near the Dragon Burial and Thunder Slashing was almost an independent space.
The two divine weapons floated slowly, and during the period, the thunder fell, making them shine, making people dare not look directly at them for a long time.
Especially during the period when the two divine weapons were floating, they seemed to have merged with that piece of heaven and earth, forming a unique Dao rhyme.
Not long ago, the scene of slashing the thunder and breaking the thunder of the sky was still vivid in my mind. At that time, Levi Garrison also did not urge any exercises.
"Tian Lei can still be cut off without urging the cultivation technique, aren't other things even more unable to stop the thunder's sword gang?"
Murong Qingxue had already begun to long for the two peerless divine weapons to shine in the outside world.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector]
Chapter 4078 -
Outside the Dragon Burial Valley.

Groups of bounty hunters obsessed with chance still roam around.
Not long ago, everyone discovered that the power of the thunder in the core of the Buried Dragon Valley had become restless again.
Even just now, a thunderbolt struck the top of a towering ancient tree on the periphery.
In the end, more than ten people surrounded the thick and thin ancient trees and turned them into ashes. Fortunately, many bounty hunters were far away at that time, otherwise they would be directly chopped into coke.
Even so, several people with lower cultivation bases were also internally injured by the aftermath of Tianlei's energy.
This shocked the bounty hunters, knowing that this has never happened before.
And this is not the end, as if it is just another beginning, everyone also found that the sky above the core area of Buried Dragon Valley is full of splendor.
Those sky thunders were like colorful fireworks, bursting in groups in the void, but did not fall to the ground.
At the same time, the ground of the entire Dragon Burial Valley was shaking slightly, and it was quite rhythmic, like the beat of a drum.
This series of heaven and earth visions made everyone realize that the situation had changed.
"What exactly is this?"
"We have been active near the Buried Dragon Valley all the year round, and we have never seen such a vision of heaven and earth!"
"Do you think someone is doing something important in the Dragon Burial Valley?"
I don't know who said such a sentence, the atmosphere at the scene instantly became weird, and everyone didn't even dare to breathe too hard.
And a thought involuntarily appeared in everyone's mind: Could it be that the madman before died and the movement was caused by him?
Just as the bounty hunters were about to overthrow this bold idea, a group of people passed by far outside the jungle of Buried Dragon Valley.
These men will then be dressed in black robes and embroidered on their chests with the emblem of a crossed axe in purple and gold.
The Zijin Chamber of Commerce is active in the more central area of the Kunlun Ruins, and its comprehensive strength is somewhat stronger than that of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce.
The caravan leader suddenly waved his hand to stop the team. He was the first to discover the vision in the sky.
If it was in the past, the caravan leader would definitely not have any interest in the Dragon Burial Valley.

After all, this level of secret realm belongs to a large group in the slightly core area of Kunlun Ruins.
Moreover, this place is too remote, and the labor, material, and financial resources of labor and teachers traveling far away are huge, and the gains outweigh the losses.
In addition, there is also the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce in this area, so there is no need to come over to compete.
This time, they also escorted some cultivation resources to pass by by chance, and they did not plan to stay for a while at the beginning of the period.
But now the phenomenon of heaven and earth appears frequently, obviously something big is happening, especially in the core area of Buried Dragon Valley, there are two very strong auras.
"These two breaths are extremely terrifying and special. Could it be that there are peerless treasures in the world?"
The caravan leader looked solemnly towards the core area of the Buried Dragon Valley.
"Leader, since you said it might be a treasure, can we send some people to investigate?"
"Yeah, leader, our caravan masters are like clouds, and we are not afraid of these bounty hunters doing little tricks."
"I like to use various top-level cultivation resources to quench my body, and I have never tried the taste of Tianlei's body quenching. I request to investigate."
There are many experts in this caravan. Although the visions of heaven and earth appear frequently, they really don't take the Dragon Burial Valley seriously.
Naturally, it doesn't even look down on the bounty hunter organization.
"Don't act rashly, this force is beyond our ability."
"What's more, this batch of supplies cannot be lost. How to explore the Dragon Burial Valley still needs to be considered in the long run."
"Let's do this, let's go back to the Zijin Chamber of Commerce in Wandao City to report this matter, and let the branch president decide!"
"Anyway, Wandao City is not far from here, and it won't take long to travel between the two places."
The caravan leader said in a serious tone.
"The leader is too cautious. What danger can there be in a barren land in the backcountry?"

The Return of the God of War [The Protector]
Chapter 4079 -
"To be honest, our sect's forbidden area in the back mountain is more terrifying than the Dragon Burial Valley. Isn't this seat free to come and go?"
"And there may not be any treasures in this broken place. It may be that the long-term thunderstorm has caused a vision, and there is no need to investigate."
"Only an organization like the bounty hunter, who is not in the mainstream, regards the Dragon Burial Valley as a feng shui treasure."
"Such a place dares to call it the Dragon Burial Valley, and the Snake Burial Valley is almost the same, so let's continue on our way!"
Some of the sect powerhouses employed by the Zijin Chamber of Commerce had expressions of contempt on their faces, and they did not take the Dragon Burial Valley in the slightest.
As a large trading consortium, the Zijin Chamber of Commerce will pay high prices to hire top experts as escorts in each sect to escort resources. Among them, there are many strong men from large sects. It is not necessary to say that they are well-informed, and they are extremely arrogant when they speak.
"Don't say a few words, everyone, hurry up!"
The caravan leader still insisted on his own opinion, and did not rashly enter the Dragon Burial Valley to investigate the situation.
And for some unknown reason, he always felt that the phenomenon of heaven and earth in the core area of the Buried Dragon Valley was caused by the appearance of top-quality heaven and earth treasures.
the other side.
Levi Garrison was also very happy when he saw one sword, one sword and two peerless weapons.
"Sect Master, won't you take a break?"
"Yes, master, are you ready to forge magic weapons day and night?"
Murong Qingxue asked in succession.
Levi Garrison said with a smile: "It doesn't take much effort to forge a magic weapon, and there is no need to rest at all."
"And based on the total amount of materials, I can also forge fifty divine weapons at the level of peerless weapons."
"As for the quasi-magic weapon, more than 200 handles should be easy. This is just forging with god bones as the main material."
Levi Garrison didn't finish what he said later. If you count other treasures, the core members of the base camp can equip them all over again.
When Murong Qingxue and Gongsun Yueying heard the words, they were so shocked that they were speechless.

Fifty peerless gods and more than two hundred quasi-peerless gods. If this is equipped with peak combat power, it can be a large sect in an instant, right?
You must know that it is only the two peerless divine weapons of Burying the Dragon and Slaying Thunder that can burst into extraordinary combat power without urging the cultivation technique.
In other words, if someone is only the core elder of a small sect, he can deal with the Heaven's Chosen Son of a large sect, or even a powerhouse at the level of deputy sect master, just by virtue of the peerless divine weapon.
And a saint from a middle sect like Murong Qingxue could even fight against the top three elders in the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall as long as she held a peerless divine weapon.
"If I have a peerless magic weapon, I can completely challenge the deputy hall master with all my strength."
Gongsun Yueying was very emotional.
A peerless magic weapon is equivalent to the cultivator's leapfrog combat power, and even the capital to leapfrog his opponent.
Moreover, the peerless divine weapon forged by Levi Garrison is much more powerful than almost any weapon that has become a peerless divine weapon.
"Even if it is a quasi-magic soldier, it is equivalent to equipping the core combat power of the top large-scale sects."
Murong Qingxue also screamed in surprise.
Both women are well-informed, and even peerless divine soldiers are popular in Kunlun Ruins.
No matter what level of sect, they all flock to the peerless gods.
It is no exaggeration to say that if Levi Garrison took out two or three peerless weapons as a bargaining chip, he would definitely be able to hire enough powerhouses to destroy ordinary large-scale sects.
"Get rich, get rich!"
Gongsun Yueying and the two girls were screaming wildly in their hearts, and it really was the right choice to follow Levi Garrison.
And Levi Garrison has other plans at the moment. In addition to forging a quasi-peerless magic weapon that can equip his henchmen, there are still many treasures left.
These things can't be wasted in the slightest, and all kinds of resources can be exchanged in Kunlun Ruins.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector]
Chapter 4080 -
Even if it is a divine weapon forged from the low-level heaven and earth treasures in the Buried Dragon Valley.

They are also dozens of times stronger than the magic weapons traded in the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce before. After all, those are only forged from ordinary materials found in the Xingyue Divine Sect, of course, the best ones that the Xingyue Divine Sect can find.
Moreover, Wei Shu had previously stated that if he wanted to upgrade the badge of the chamber of commerce, he would only do it according to the size of the contribution or as the transaction volume continued to increase.
Although the Xingyue Divine Sect has been used as the foundation, Levi Garrison felt that it was not enough.
It is best to befriend a force at the level of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, which can be regarded as contributing to the cause of gaining a firm foothold in the Kunlun Ruins in the future.
"Sect Master, the power of Tianlei in the Buried Dragon Valley is getting more and more arrogant. How long do you have to stay here?"
Murong Qingxue asked tentatively.
Levi Garrison pondered for a moment and said, "I have probably calculated that it will take about two months to forge all the heaven and earth treasures into divine weapons and quasi divine weapons."
"The key is that refining the divine bone is the most time-consuming. Even if the earth vein flame and the nine-color sky thunder are used to exert pressure together, the progress is very slow."
Even Levi Garrison can't do anything about this, because the divine bone itself has been quenched by the bombardment of the sky and the power of the cold pool for many years.
So to a certain extent, the divine bone has developed a good resistance to the sky thunder and the earth vein flame.
This is also something that can't be done. You can't leave such a top-level forging environment unutilized, right?
"No need to say more, don't disturb me for the next time."
After Levi Garrison gave the order, he went directly into the forging magic weapon.
the other side.
The selection of saintess in the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple is still in full swing.
It has to be said that the influence of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall is really not small. The candidates who came to the election one after another ranged from the initial small and medium sects to even the Tianjiao of the large sects.
As more and more people joined the campaign, Gong Qianqiu also felt a little pressure.

So Gong Qianqiu asked the Seven Holy Sons to go to various places to explore the super spiritual veins, especially the dragon veins.
Gong Qianqiu made up his mind that he must win in the final competition of the Holy Maiden Trials.
This is related to Gong Qianqiu's future plans, and there is no room for failure in any case.
At the same time, Gong Qianqiu was still using the Great Holy Son as a breakthrough, using the power of the entire Taixu Shenzong to help him improve his strength.
Especially the cultivation resources, Gong Qianqiu is asking for too much.
But being able to hug the thigh of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall, Yin Xuejian as the leader also supported Gong Qianqiu very much.
Yin Xuejian even issued a death order, no matter what request Gong Qianqiu put forward, it was only satisfied within the scope of Taixu Shenzong's ability.
It is also in this process that Gong Qianqiu's foreshadowing of both sides played a major role.
Taking this opportunity, Gong Qianqiu has cultivated his cronies endlessly, and now Taixu Shenzong is almost in the hands of Gong Qianqiu.
Before he knew it, Yin Xuejian was about to be completely overridden by Gong Qianqiu.
"Actually, as long as you hold the Seven Holy Sons in your hands, the Taixu Shenzong is equivalent to fish on the chopping block in front of this sect master."
Gong Qianqiu said very proudly.
The ability of the Seven Holy Sons to detect the spiritual veins is very important, especially for the Taixu Shenzong.
However, now the Seven Holy Sons have been leading the way for Gong Qianqiu.
With endless cultivation resources, Gong Qianqiu has no worries about anyone following him.
At this moment, Duguxiao found Gong Qianqiu.
"Master, the task you explained has been completed, and you have recruited a loose cultivator who is regarded as the elder level of the Taixu Shenzong."
"Only with your order, these loose repair swords and seas of fire will rush in."
Duguxiao said respectfully.
The smile on Gong Qianqiu's face became more and more obvious, and then he said: "Well done, now you can teach them the simplified version of the swallowing method."

The Return of the God of War [The Protector]
Chapter 4081 -
Xingyue Divine Sect.
Mu Rong Wanqing, who was on the main seat of the discussion hall, had a solemn expression on her face.
The other core members of the Star Moon Sect also sighed and grimaced.
The entire discussion hall was dead, as if an old man who was dying, had almost completely lost all vitality and vitality.
Since receiving the news that Levi Garrison and his party died in the Dragon Burial Valley, the entire Xingyue Sect has been dealt a fatal blow.
As if the biggest spiritual pillar in their hearts collapsed.
"Sect Master, Levi Garrison's strength is indeed very strong, but he is too arrogant after all, and it is not surprising that he has ended up like this now."
"It's just that where we go next is very important."
One of the elders said in a deep voice.
This sentence has many meanings, the most important of which is the attitude towards the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple.
In the past, many experts from the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy died of the Xingyue Sect. Although Levi Garrison did this, it was ultimately inseparable from the Xingyue Sect.
There is no airtight wall in the world. Once this matter reaches the ears of the upper echelons of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall, the Xingyue Divine Sect will immediately be identified as an accomplice.
At that time, when all the powerhouses of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall will come out, the Xingyue Divine Sect will definitely be wiped out.
But if you take the initiative to confess the truth, you may still be able to win a chance.
"Yeah, Sect Master, just yesterday, I got the news that the Sun Moon God Fire Palace has investigated Levi Garrison and his party, and there is another woman besides Gongsun Yueying."
"If Murong Qingxue is caught out, the Xingyue Divine Sect will not be far from being destroyed."
"We have to plan ahead, or we'll have no time to regret it."
"Sect Master, come up with an idea quickly, Ye Changmeng will change if it's too late. We take the initiative to confess the reason, and maybe we can get a lenient treatment."
Most of the senior members of the Star Moon Sect were shaken.
After all, Levi Garrison is dead, and there is no one to provide protection for the Xingyue Divine Sect.
Of course, some people resented Levi Garrison's slaughter of all the members of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall from the very beginning, which was simply hatred.

Mu Rong Wanqing frowned deeply, she really didn't know what to do.
"Is Levi Garrison really going to die?"
Mu Rong Wanqing was not sure, but so many messages pointed to Levi Garrison's death, and now there are so many people persuading her. Even if he forcibly stopped him at this moment, he might not be able to stop those who were shaken from acting secretly.
"Elders, give me a little more time to think about it!"
There was a hint of pleading in Murong Qingxue's tone. She still didn't believe that Levi Garrison would die, and even wanted to investigate it herself.
"Reporting to the sect master, the latest news just came. It is said that the phenomenon of heaven and earth in the Buried Dragon Valley has attracted the attention of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce."
At this moment, someone came from outside.
"A vision of heaven and earth? Zijin Chamber of Commerce."
Mu Rong Wanqing was shocked, if the Zijin Chamber of Commerce went to investigate, they would definitely have accurate information about Levi Garrison.
"Continue to send people to pay attention to the movements of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce." Mu Rongwanqing immediately gave an order.
at the same time.
The caravan of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce has arrived in Wandao City.
Wandao City, as the name suggests, the entire city is located in the center of an archipelago at sea.
This sea area is called the Sea of Formation. When you look up at the sky and water, it is night, and the stars in the sea are particularly dazzling. However, this dazzling light is not a real star, but a low-level treasure called Hanxingshi.
Due to its extremely low density, the cold star stone can be suspended at the sea level, and some are one or two meters below the sea level.
And the cold star stone shines at night, which leads to the bright starry night in this sea area, so it is named Xingchenhai.
In the Sea of Stars, tens of thousands of small and large islands are connected to each other, and they are collectively called Wandaocheng.
The sectarian forces in Wandao City are criss-crossed, and they are more than ten times larger than the previous Longyang City.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector]
Chapter 4082 -

There are not a few large-scale sects in Wandao City, and there are many medium-sized sects.
Even a large-scale sect like the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace can only rank in the upper middle seat among the homophobic forces in Wandao City.
In the core area of the entire Xingchen Sea, there are seven super large islands.
The largest island stands in the center of the Xingchen Sea, and the remaining six islands are distributed around in a radial shape.
Looking down from a height, you can clearly feel that these seven islands coincide with the ancient formation that evolved from the gossip.
There are obvious energy fluctuations in the formation directly above the seven islands. Although the light is dim at night, it still shows colorful colors.
The Zijin Chamber of Commerce is located in the center of the island.
After the caravan entered the main city, the main road in the city was wide and flat, and even the floor was paved with holy vein ore.
There are many buildings in the city, especially there are countless tyrannical and dangerous atmospheres hidden in them, all of which are the top masters of the major sects.
Kick-kick!
Neat and rhythmic footsteps sounded.
Occasionally, heavily armed armored troops pass by on the main roads and branches in the city, and they are all well-trained city defense troops.
The city defense army is extremely powerful in both individual combat strength and collective charge, and the weapons they are equipped with will be regarded as divine soldiers of the sect of ordinary sects.
Even some ordinary large-scale sects are difficult to resist the collective charge of a hundred-strong city defense army.
The leader of the caravan rushed directly to a magnificent building in the center and stopped.
But seeing the building in front of you can be described as towering into the clouds. Although it is late at night, the building is still brightly lit.
If you look closely, you will find that these lighting objects are all made of top-quality natural materials and treasures that can emit light.
In front of the main entrance, two huge lion sculptures with a height of several people are lifelike.
Just at a glance, you can find out that the two sculptures are actually made of dragon vein spar, exuding extremely pure heaven and earth aura.

There are many gates forged from purple-gold meteorite iron in the center, and a simple plaque hangs above the center.
On the plaque, four big characters are engraved in seal script – Zijin Chamber of Commerce.
"We have arrived!"
The caravan leader said solemnly.
Before he finished speaking, he saw the purple-golden door slowly opening, and several people walked out from inside. They were the guys from the Zijin Chamber of Commerce, and they came out to help unload the goods.
However, although these people are dressed in ordinary clothes, their strength is very terrifying, even the powerhouses of the major sects dare not underestimate them.
These people are both chaperones and guards of the chamber of commerce.
"If you have a job, you will protect you all the way. Everyone will go to the interior of the chamber of commerce for repairs. The banquet and rewards are ready, so I won't accompany you next time."
The caravan leader said to many powerful sectarians.
These accompanying guards are all from major sects. They have long known the rules of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce, and naturally they don't say much.
Go directly to the chamber of commerce to enjoy food and drink and receive rewards.
As for the leader of the caravan, he went directly to the main hall of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce, and he was going to report the situation encountered in the Buried Dragon Valley.
Wandaocheng is the second branch of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce, and the branch president is in the same family as the president of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce.
After passing through the guards, the leader of the caravan successfully entered the main hall, and an old man with white hair and beard sat on the golden flood chair.
"My subordinates have seen President Huangfu."
The caravan leader knelt on the ground and said in a very respectful tone.
Huangfu Hongsheng nodded slightly and said solemnly, "You have worked hard all the way, Great Elder, get up!"
The first elder slowly got up and said respectfully: "President Huangfu, I found something different when I passed by the Buried Dragon Valley, and hereby report to you."

Then the Great Elder told the whole thing about the vision of heaven and earth.
Huangfu Hongsheng's eyes flashed after hearing this, and he immediately made a decision.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector]
Chapter 4083 -
"This seat feels that it is necessary to investigate. In order to be safe, I will send a few more experts to assist."
"Elder, you have traveled all the way, and you should have rested for a while."
"But this matter is of great importance. If you don't have your own people staring at this seat, you can work as hard as you can!"
Huangfu Hongsheng said in a very serious tone.
After listening to the report of the Great Elder, Huangfu Hongsheng became more knowledgeable, speculating that it was most likely the phenomenon of heaven and earth caused by the emergence of top-level heaven and earth treasures.
Although the Dragon Burial Valley was previously considered a backcountry, it now appears to be biased.
The first elder did not refuse, and said directly: "It's not hard work, please rest assured, President Huangfu, I promise to complete the task."
"Well, very good, this seat appreciates the vigorous and resolute character of the elder."
Huangfu Hongsheng paused for a while and continued, "In order to avoid too many dreams at night, the first elder will drive the Yulei Yunzhou to take people there!"
"At present, the top powerhouses in the chamber of commerce have also sent a few more to this seat, and this investigation must not be missed."
"Follow your orders!" The elder said solemnly.
A moment later, Huangfu Hongsheng summoned the experts within the chamber of commerce, and sent seventeen top-level experts to assist the elders to explore the Buried Dragon Valley.
Moreover, each strong man was equipped with a quasi-peerless magic weapon, which directly made the combat effectiveness of this exploration team soar again.
Looking at these people in front of him, the Great Elder was shocked. He never thought that Huangfu Hongsheng would send such a strong lineup.
"I am afraid that the weakest person here can be comparable to the temple master of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace!"

The first elder secretly sighed that he had discussed with the two temple masters of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple before coming to a conclusion.
The team of seventeen large-scale sectarian helmsmen to explore the Dragon Burial Valley is too much of a fuss, right?
"Elder, this is the same sentence. I must find out the whole story of this investigation. If it is blocked, I will kill it."
There is no doubt in Huangfu Hongsheng's tone.
The elder once again assured him that he seemed to understand why Huangfu Hongsheng would send so many strong men.
After all, the vision of heaven and earth is likely to attract many experts, and there is also the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce in that area, so there is a great probability of conflict.
"Set off!"
Following Huangfu Hongsheng's order, the Great Elder and others boarded the cloud boat one after another.
After a while, Yulei Yunzhou started with a bang, rose into the sky with lightning speed, and then disappeared into the night sky.
"President Huangfu is too cautious. With the strength of our team, why do we need to keep a low profile?"
"I also feel that it's a bit exaggerated. The best thing in that area is the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, but they don't dare to use force easily!"
"Elder, is the vision of heaven and earth you mentioned really that evil? I don't think it is necessarily a top-level treasure."
These people are extremely powerful, and most of them think that Huangfu Hongsheng has made a big fuss.
Of course, they have never looked down on the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce. Compared with the Zijin Chamber of Commerce, the former still has a big gap in comprehensive strength.
"Don't be impatient, everyone, and keep a low profile because President Huangfu doesn't want to make troubles outside the festival, and the Dragon Burial Valley is located in a remote place, so we don't need to conflict with the sectarian forces there."
"And to be honest with you, when I passed through the Buried Dragon Valley before, I could vaguely feel a strong aura hidden inside the Valley of the Buried Dragon."
"So to be on the safe side, you should be careful."
The elder said in a serious tone.
Although the first elder said it with sincerity, in fact, it obviously did not get too much attention from everyone.

After all, in their opinion, the Dragon Burial Valley is a remote area, so what kind of big people can attract the attention?
There are countless Jedi and forbidden areas in the core area of Kunlun Ruins, and the real superpowers will not seek far away.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector]
Chapter 4084 -
The speed of Yulei Yunzhou of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce is extremely fast, and the powerhouses above the Yunzhou are all hiding their own breath.
So almost no sectarian forces found them along the way.
However, it did not escape the eyes of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, which exists like a snake in this area.
Originally, the appearance of heaven and earth in the Buried Dragon Valley had already attracted the attention of the top officials of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce.
Wei Shuyang immediately sent many experts to investigate the outermost periphery of the Buried Dragon Valley.
It's just that he was afraid of the increasingly violent Tianlei, so he didn't rashly enter the hinterland of the Buried Dragon Valley.
When Yulei Yunzhou quickly swept through the sky, it was already detected by the top experts of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce.
"The logo on the cloud boat seems to be unique to the Zijin Chamber of Commerce!"
"What does it seem, that's clearly what it is, but how could the people from the Zijin Chamber of Commerce come to such a place?"
"It's just passing by, but Yunzhou was even sent? This must be a major discovery!"
"If it is a major discovery, the biggest movement in this area is the phenomenon of heaven and earth in the Buried Dragon Valley."
Everyone talked a lot, and they reported to Wei Shuyang at the first time.
Wei Shuyang frowned deeply after learning the news, thinking about how to deal with it.
Although he was also very curious about why the people from the Zijin Chamber of Commerce appeared in the Dragon Burial Valley, he did not dare to send someone to monitor it.
The Zijin Chamber of Commerce is very powerful, especially according to the report, that Yunzhou is likely to come from the branch of Wandao City.
The faction in Wandaocheng ranked the second branch in the entire Zijin Chamber of Commerce, and its comprehensive strength was much stronger than that of its own branch.

Rushing and secretly stalking is likely to cause conflict between the two sides, and it will be difficult to deal with it at that time.
After all, the Zijin Chamber of Commerce is not something he, the branch president of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, can afford.
"What did they find? Could it be directly related to the vision of heaven and earth in the Buried Dragon Valley?" Wei Shuyang was puzzled.
at the same time.
The sky thunder in the core area of the Buried Dragon Valley became more restless.
In particular, the frequency of mixed-color Tianlei is getting higher and higher.
The entire void has become a paradise of thunder and lightning.
Levi Garrison continued to refine the magic weapon, and the forging process became more and more familiar, and the forging efficiency was getting higher and higher.
For example, at the beginning, when forging dragon burial and thunderbolt, it could only be done alone, but now two top-level peerless weapons can be forged at the same time.
For example, at this moment, Levi Garrison forged a long spear and a crossbow at one time.
Seeing the successful completion of successive works, Levi Garrison's mood became more and more happy.
Boom!
The lightning and thunder in the air became more and more irritable, and the continuous quenching of the peerless magic weapon continued to change the energy peace of the Buried Dragon Valley.
If it weren't for Levi Garrison's cultivation realm that has far exceeded the control of Tianlei and Earth Vessels, Tianlei would have been unscrupulously attacking his head.
Murong Qingxue and Gongsun Yueying didn't even dare to let out the air, for fear of accidentally stepping out of the energy range released by Levi Garrison.
Although the two women were protected by the energy field, they could clearly feel the increasing pressure of the surrounding sky thunder and earth veins.
They have no doubts that as long as they leave Levi Garrison's energy field, they will be smashed into ashes in an instant.
Chi Chi Chi!

As Tianlei continued to become powerful and restless, the airspace above the entire cold pool was almost torn apart by all forces.
Especially in the very center, there are many splendors, as if the sky has been opened up with a gate of heaven, and countless fairy lights are pouring down.
That kind of scene is like a dream, and people are intoxicated uncontrollably.
Levi Garrison, who was concentrating on forging the peerless magic weapon, suddenly paused for a moment, and then looked far north.
"There are really people who are not afraid of death and rush to the core area of the Dragon Burial Valley!" Levi Garrison muttered to himself.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector]
Chapter 4085 -
the other side.
The bounty hunter organization outside the Buried Dragon Valley is still wandering, and the vision of heaven and earth is also attracting their attention.
It's just that Tianlei is getting more and more restless, and these 'speculators' don't dare to rush into the core area.
At this moment, the leaders of several bounty hunter organizations felt a strong aura.
"There are many strong people approaching, quickly retreat!"
"It is not advisable to stay here for a long time, and quickly evacuate."
"Leave this place quickly, or the consequences will be unimaginable."
The leaders of several waves of bounty hunters ordered one after another, and the others did not dare to stay and fled towards Yuan Chao.
After a while, the periphery of the Buried Dragon Valley suddenly became dark, and even the sunlight was suddenly blocked by some kind of behemoth.
"It turned out to be Yunzhou!"
"What exactly is this?"
"This seems to be the emblem of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce, bad!"
Among them, a ten-member team of bounty hunters had no time to escape, and their faces were full of panic and fear.
Swish!
The cloud boat was suspended in the air, and several figures fell from the sky, as if an immortal descended.
The leader is the big elder of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce.
"Run away!"
I don't know who was shouting in the crowd, and the others were just waking up from a dream and planning to turn around and flee.

However, before they could act, they once again felt an overwhelming aura of strength.
The legs of the members of this team of bounty hunters were as if they were filled with lead, and they were unable to move an inch.
"You can't escape, answer this seat's question obediently!"
The great elder's vigorous voice sounded.
"If you have any questions, feel free to ask, and I will definitely know everything and say nothing."
"Yes, senior, I just ask you to let us live."
"We are all willing to cooperate."
The members of the bounty hunter organization scrambled to express their sincerity and fell to their knees, begging for a way out.
The first elder said noncommittally: "Then it depends on whether your secrets have this weight."
"A bunch of rubbish organized by bounty hunters, you are not worthy of negotiating conditions with the elders."
"That's right, you bunch of rabble are really over the top, and you dare to talk about conditions when you're dying?"
"Stop talking nonsense, and answer this seat, what happened in this area recently?"
The other powerhouses of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce were full of contempt. In their eyes, these members of the bounty hunter organization were just a group of ants.
"Dragon Burial Valley was surrounded by more than a hundred sects led by the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple a few days ago, just to kill a bandit."
"It is said that the gangster killed many of the arrogant powerhouses in the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall, and even the vice president of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy tragically killed him."
"We've also seen that gangster enter the Dragon Burying Valley with two women and never came out again."
"Before Buried Dragon Valley Tianlei gathered in the core area, we guessed that it was the movement made by that gangster."
"But later, the two palace masters of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace decided that the gangster had died under the Heavenly Thunder Tribulation, and there has been no news for such a long time."
The members of the bounty hunter group scrambled to tell the information they knew.
Even the content of Levi Garrison's 'outrageous speech' was revealed, just to show that the content of his reply was more valuable.

The first elder narrowed his eyes and listened carefully. When he learned about the record of Levi Garrison, the gangster, he was quite surprised.
"Killing so many strong people with the power of one person can be regarded as a person. Maybe this vision of heaven and earth is really related to him!"
The elder said quietly.
"Elder, even if we randomly select one person from our team, we can do it.
It's ridiculous to be called a bandit."
"The Sun and Moon Divine Fire Temple is really becoming more and more rubbish as it develops, to be frightened like that by one person?"
"What about the elders?"
The first elder signaled everyone to be quiet, and then said slowly: "Only the dead will keep secrets."
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4086 -
From the beginning to the end, the first elder planned to keep his mouth alive, after all, once this matter spread out, it would not be of any benefit to the Zijin Chamber of Commerce.
If there is a real treasure in the Buried Dragon Valley, the Zijin Chamber of Commerce is very likely to become the target of public criticism.
The elders are most clear about the truth that every man is innocent and guilty.
So these bounty hunter organizations must die, especially since they have already recognized the identities of their own personnel.
The members of the bounty hunter organization were instantly frightened to death. They thought they could survive by cooperating and answering questions.
I didn't think it was possible to escape death.
"Brothers, if you fight with these guys, you might be able to win a chance."
"That is, we must not sit still."
"Go together!"
The crowd decided to fight to the death.
A sneer appeared on the corner of the elder's mouth, and he directly waved to the few people behind him.

The strong man of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce understood and immediately shot to kill.
In the face of absolute strength, any blood and courage will be useless.
Ten members of the bounty hunter organization were slaughtered in an instant, and several strong men jumped on the cloud boat and continued to rush to the hinterland of the Buried Dragon Valley.
Boom!
Just as Yulei Yunzhou entered, the sky thunder in the void rushed towards this side.
"Don't say it, Tianlei is really powerful today."
"If it wasn't for President Huangfu's death order, I really wanted to shake Tianlei hard, and there was just no suitable environment to temper the body before."
"Forget it! Fighting against the thunder will inevitably delay time, but President Huangfu wants us to fight quickly!"
The powerhouses of the Zijin Merchant Congregation were talking a lot, but the Great Elder laughed without saying a word, and directly pressed a diamond-shaped button at the front of the Yulei Yunzhou.
Swish!
As the button flashed blue light, layers of energy shields suddenly appeared above the Yulei Yunzhou.
The energy shield was more than ten feet thick, glowing with a bluish-purple energy halo, and it was at this time that Tianlei slammed into the energy shield.
hum!
The blue-violet halo was turbulent, and the outermost end of the energy shield also had layers of energy ripples, which directly and perfectly resisted the falling thunder.
The key is that the anti-shock effect of the power of the thunder is also instantly cancelled, and the Yunzhou still continues to fly smoothly.
Boom!
It didn't take long for the thunder to fall again, but the energy shield above the cloud boat still easily resisted.

There was no obvious damage to the energy shield from beginning to end, as if it was directly immune to thunder.
"This Yulei Yunzhou was originally forged with thunder steel, and it has a special resistance to the bombardment of the sky."
"This energy shield was not really useful before, and I never thought that it would be useful for someone who came to this backcountry this time."
"President Huangfu is simply too wise, hahaha!"
The strong men of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce were chatting and laughing, and coming to Buried Dragon Valley was as relaxing and comfortable as playing.
Yulei Yunzhou soon came to the non-core area, and the frequency of thunderstorms also accelerated.
at the same time.
On the ground in the non-core area, Xiao Feng was also fleeing in confusion.
As the time in the Dragon Burial Valley increased, Xiao Feng also mastered some skills to avoid thunder, and his strength was also increasing day by day.
Despite this, the continuous thunderstorms still made Xiao Feng tired to deal with it.
Fortunately, in the past two days, Xiao Feng has tried to swallow the energy aftermath of the power of the thunder, which makes his physical strength proudly maintained.
It's just that Xiao Feng found that if he continued to walk in the direction of the real core area, no matter whether it was bound by the power of the thunder or the earth's veins, it would be unbearable for him.
It is precisely because of this that Xiao Feng has been dealing with this area for the past few days, intending to wait until he gradually gets used to this level of thunder before moving on.
However, at this moment, Xiao Feng suddenly felt that the sunlight above his head disappeared, and he looked up quickly, and saw a giant ship slowly passing by in the air.

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4087 -
"What is this?"
Xiao Feng was astonished, he didn't know Yunzhou, he had never seen it before, and no one had mentioned it.
What made Xiao Feng even more shocked was that when the thunder of the water tank hit the cloud boat, it was easily offset by the energy shield.
"This thing is too powerful! Even the two-color Tianlei can't shake it."
The surprise in Xiao Feng's heart could no longer be added.
"There's a lot of terrifying aura on this thing!"
Xiao Feng was busy running the hidden exercises, perfectly covering his own breath.
Originally thought that he would avoid the thunder and be exposed, but what happened next caught Xiao Feng unexpectedly.
Because of Xiao Feng's stupefied discovery, the sky thunders that had been bombarding him all the time were now attacking the huge cloud boat.
"This thing is a lightning rod for Lao Tzu!"
"Not only that, but even the power of the earth veins has disappeared."
"Are they all attracted by this flying ship?"
Thinking of this, Xiao Feng hurriedly traced the direction Yunzhou swept away.
It is also very strange to say that this huge flying ship was flying very fast at the beginning of the period, but at this time it was seriously slowing down.
the other side.
On the cloud boat.
The strong members of the Zijin Merchant Association were also a little surprised at this moment.
"What's the situation? Yulei Yunzhou suddenly slowed down to such a degree?"
"This drag force seems to come from the ground. Could it be that the ground contains some kind of special power?"
"I never thought that this Dragon Burial Valley is quite evil!"

“What’s the panic, isn’t it just slower? It’s not a direct fall.”
“Shut your crow’s mouth.”
The powerhouses of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce were talking a lot, and the elders were also frowning.
He originally thought that Yulei Yunzhou would be very easy and secret to enter the hinterland of the Buried Dragon Valley, after all, Tianlei is basically ineffective against Thunder and Dark Steel.
However, after entering this non-core area, Yunzhou felt a strong drag force.
And this terrifying drag force obviously came from the ground, and even directly caused Yunzhou’s lack of power.
“Reduce the flight height and try to save the fuel of the cloud boat.” The elder gave an order.
The strong man driving the cloud boat pushed the lever, and Yulei Yunzhou directly dropped several meters in height, and finally raised the flight speed a little.
The Great Elder could clearly feel that the drag force from the ground and Tianlei formed a momentum, as if it was about to shred the cloud boat completely.
“It seems that the entire Buried Dragon Valley has already entered the energy field.
Once a foreign object enters it, it will be jointly targeted by the ley lines and the power of the thunder.”
The elders immediately made a judgment.
Others nodded in agreement. They have also entered other Jedi and powerful relics, and similar energy fields are not uncommon.
The crowd did not have too many surprises and doubts, so they continued to ride the cloud boat and continue to go deep into the Dragon Burial Valley.
at the same time.
When Levi Garrison was forging the two peerless gods, he had already noticed that someone had entered the non-core area of the Dragon Burial Valley.

And this force is quite powerful, there are as many as a dozen people, and the energy balance in this area is naturally destroyed.
Boom!
The surrounding sky thunder became violent in an instant, and the lightning and thunder sounded like the end of the world.
However, in order to forge the divine weapon, Levi Garrison took the initiative to directly attract the power of the ley lines and the power of the thunder.
It is just possible to use this violent force to quench the chain artifact to make them carry a stronger natural Dao rhyme.
It is precisely because of Levi Garrison's move that Yulei Yunzhou entered the core area without any risk.
Otherwise, with the ferocity of the Thunder's power in this area of the Buried Dragon Valley, the Yunzhou might not be able to last long before it would be destroyed.
Especially coupled with the terrifying power of the leylines, it will tear it to pieces.
It didn't take long for the Yulei Yunzhou to cover the sky and the sun to the outer area of the dry cold pool.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4088 -
The cloud boat flew slowly to the vicinity of the cold pool in the Buried Dragon Valley.
Although Levi Garrison has attracted most of the power of Tianlei and the power of the earth to forge the peerless magic weapon.
But in this core area, the power of the two sides was still too terrifying, and the Yunzhou flew almost at a speed.
On the cloud boat.
The Great Elder and a group of strong men from the Purple Gold Chamber of Commerce quickly discovered several figures near Hantan.
Especially when they saw the top-level heaven and earth treasures piled up on the shore and the two peerless divine weapons suspended in the air, their emotions instantly boiled.

"Top God Bone, Fire Lotus, Netherworld Bone Eating Flower and… What have I seen?
All of them are top-quality treasures!"
"Look at that peerless divine weapon, even the Zhenzong divine sword of our Zijin Chamber of Commerce is far inferior!"
"Nonsense, the vision of heaven and earth in the Buried Dragon Valley is caused by these two peerless divine weapons. I have never seen this kind of peerless divine weapons before!"
"Even if these treasures of heaven and earth are placed in the Zijin Chamber of Commerce, they are all high-quality goods. We really made a fortune this time!"
The masters of the Zijin Merchant Association were about to cry with joy.
It can be said that they are also well-informed old rivers and lakes, especially in the absolute high-level of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce, and they have also seen many treasures and peerless weapons.
However, this is the first time in my life that I have seen the treasures of heaven and earth and the peerless weapons of this grade and output.
This is as if the richest man in a certain village suddenly saw the wealth owned by the richest man in the world, and his cognition was directly subverted.
The visual and spiritual impact was beyond words to describe.
"Look at that person, he seems to be refining the peerless magic weapon!"
One of the strong men of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce suddenly said.
Others looked in the direction of his thin man, and with their eyesight, they could clearly see the whole process of Levi Garrison forging the magic weapon.
I saw that a gun and a bow were floating in the space in front of Levi Garrison, and the quality was not even worse than the sword and sword over there.
"This person's forging skills are simply too terrifying. He can forge two peerless weapons of this level at the same time?"

“Choose Tianlei and Earth Vein Flame to quench and forge at the same time, even the God of War may not be able to do better, right?”
“And seeing the relaxed look on his face, it is simply unbelievable that he was not affected by such a terrifying force!”
“We’ve really made a fortune now. The top forging masters are a valuable asset that lasts forever. It’s a worthwhile trip!”
The powerhouses of the Zijin Merchant Association were extremely pleasantly surprised, and some people could not wait to jump off the cloud boat to snatch the treasures of heaven and earth.
Even the Great Elder couldn’t hide his excitement. He stared in the direction of Levi Garrison with burning eyes.
In the eyes of the Great Elder, a top forging master like Levi Garrison is the real wealth.
As long as he is controlled, it is equivalent to mastering a peerless divine armory of human flesh.
At that time, as long as enough heaven and earth treasures are provided, how many peerless weapons do you want?
How many top sects have nothing but treasures in the sky, but it is difficult to find a peerless weapon?
It is precisely because of this that the God of War is very popular in the Kunlun Ruins.
“The level of this sword and sword, even if it is placed in those hidden world sects, I am afraid that it will be regarded as a magic weapon!”
“Who is this person who possesses such superb forging skills?”
“I don’t know how long the God of War is an old monster. Although this person has changed his appearance, his real age is only about thirty years old.”
“Such a talent must not fall into the hands of other sects, and he must be captured this time.”
The first elder made up his mind and waved to the driver of the cloud boat.

After a while, Yunzhou slowly landed, and finally stopped firmly in the cold lake not far from the treasures of heaven and earth.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4089 -
boom!
When the cloud boat landed, it made a loud noise, which was caused by the sudden restraint of the power of the leylines.
However, the many powerhouses of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce paid no attention to it, and their attention was on the treasures of heaven and earth and peerless weapons.
Swish swish!
Several strong men can't wait to dodge to the place where the treasures of heaven and earth are piled up, and carefully observe these superb treasures.
After determining the grades and types of these heavenly treasures, everyone instantly burst into laughter.
"The amount of such a large amount of top-quality natural materials and earth treasures is more than the entire inventory of our Zijin Chamber of Commerce!"
"Looking at the quality of these top-level god bones, I instantly felt that the piece of god bone I saw yesterday was not fragrant."
"I never thought that the backcountry could breed so many top-quality treasures."
"I still prefer those two peerless divine weapons, not only can they trigger the vision of heaven and earth, but they are even divine weapons that complement each other day by day!"
"If this seat uses these two divine weapons, it can almost traverse the entire Kunlun Ruins."
"Don't be embarrassed, at least you and I have to join forces, hahaha!"
The powerhouses of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce seem to have regarded these things as their personal belongings, and they did not care about Levi Garrison and others at all.

Even in their opinion, even Levi Garrison is in their pockets.
As for the two young women with good looks, their cultivation realm is too far away, and it is a good choice to be a maid.
Murong Qingxue's eyes were full of fear as she looked at the sudden appearance of many masters.
Gongsun Yueying wasn't that strong either, she could clearly feel that even the weakest of these people were comparable to the Hall Master.
In particular, the strength of the black-robed old man in the lead is even more unfathomable. Although it looks ordinary, his gestures have a suffocating sense of oppression.
"The seventeen Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple masters and above have the cultivation base, and the weapons in their hands are also at the quasi-magic level."
"This team can easily destroy any large sect, at least at the level of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace."
"Can the master fight?"
Gongsun Yueying was a little panicked, and her eyes turned to Levi Garrison involuntarily, only to see that the latter was still focusing on forging the peerless magic weapon.
It seemed that the arrival of these uninvited guests had not been detected.
The first elder was not in a hurry to interrupt, and even ordered others to keep quiet for a while.
In the view of the Great Elder, Levi Garrison was at the most critical moment in forging the magic weapon. Once disturbed, the magic weapon would be destroyed.
After a while, Levi Garrison finished his work and finished the forging of one bow and one spear, triggering another vision of heaven and earth.
Several colors of thunder landed, the flames of the earth's veins burst out, and the purple air above the sky came from the east, as if worshiping these two freshly-baked peerless weapons.

A spear and a bow echoed with a sword and a sword, and the power of the sky thunder and the earth's veins in the entire cold pool became frantic again.
The expressions of shock and joy on the faces of the strong men of the Purple and Gold Chamber of Commerce seemed to be far more exaggerated than they had imagined.
It has just come out that it can trigger such a vision of heaven and earth, and it will be more intense to experience it in person.
"Your forging skills are really amazing, are you willing to follow me to the Zijin Chamber of Commerce?"
"Don't worry, Your Excellency, as long as you are willing to forge magic weapons for the Zijin Chamber of Commerce, the Zijin Chamber of Commerce will definitely not treat you badly."
The first elder's words seemed to be polite, but in fact they were full of threats and orders.
"What if I don't want to?"
Levi Garrison asked back with a smile.
The first elder was slightly startled, he did not expect Levi Garrison to reply like this, and there was even a hint of jokes in his words.
"This seat advises Your Excellency not to be ignorant of flattery, and the consequences of not eating or drinking fines when toasting, not everyone can bear."
The elder said sullenly.
Levi Garrison raised his eyebrows and responded: "It's a coincidence, I like to eat fine wine, how are you doing?"

Naked provocation.*
The elder's face became particularly gloomy, and he clearly felt that his majesty was being challenged.

“court death!”
The first elder said coldly: “It seems that you have to lose something before you can understand it!”
“Elder, what do you have to say to him? Just kill him.”
“How dare you ignore our Zijin Chamber of Commerce, it’s really a dead thing.”
“I really thought you were a master blacksmith, so I wouldn’t be willing to kill you?”
“Elder, hurry up and order, as long as these ants are killed, the treasures of heaven and earth and the peerless soldiers will be ours.”
The other strongmen of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce were very excited, and they didn’t take Levi Garrison in the slightest.
At this moment, Gongsun Yueying whispered: “Master, these are the top powerhouses of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce, let’s try our best to put harmony as the most precious!”
“Yes, Sect Master, the Zijin Chamber of Commerce is far stronger than the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, and we can’t afford to offend it.”
Murong Qingxue was also worried.
Levi Garrison has offended too many people, first the Taixu Shenzong, then the Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy and the Sun Moon Shenhuo Temple.
If you offend the Zijin Chamber of Commerce to death again, wouldn’t it be difficult to walk in the Kunlun Ruins in the future?
After all, no matter how strong Levi Garrison is, he is only one person after all!
Levi Garrison said with a smile: “Do you think that these people value harmony? Well, don’t talk more, I know it.”
Seeing Levi Garrison’s resolute attitude, Murong Qingxue and the others didn’t dare to persuade them deeply.
Once Levi Garrison decides, the nine super spirit beasts cannot be pulled back.
“Young man, this seat finally gives you a chance, if…”
“There is no if, I don’t need you to give me a chance.”

Before the first elder could finish speaking, Levi Garrison took the lead in interrupting: "I always win opportunities for me, and I don't need any cats and dogs to give them."
This guy actually called himself a cat and a dog?
Extremely arrogant and unforgivable.
The corner of the elder's mouth twitched slightly, and the anger in his heart was rising exponentially.
"Leave this arrogant person for a while, and kill all the other two women, as a lesson to him."
The elder said coldly.
Murong Qingxue and Gongsun Yueying's expressions instantly became ugly, and they involuntarily took a few steps back.
Levi Garrison said with a smile: "Burying the Dragon and Slaying the Thunder have just been forged, and they just need the blood of the strong to sacrifice the sword."
"Although you guys aren't considered strong in your cultivation, you can barely make do with it. I've never been a picky eater with my sword."
"Don't waste time, let's go together!"
While speaking, Levi Garrison waved lightly, and Burial Dragon and Slashing Lei were like soldiers who received orders, and immediately swept over and fell into Levi Garrison's hands.
"You don't need to take action, one person in this seat is enough!"
Before he finished speaking, one of the strong men from the Zijin Chamber of Commerce rushed out.
The arm moved slightly, and a knife gang roared out, slashing directly at Levi Garrison's head.
Although the elder asked to keep Levi Garrison's life, he felt that it was better to kill him.
Levi Garrison's arrogance just now made him murderous.
The speed of the knife Gang was extremely fast, and it was already approaching Levi Garrison's head in an instant.
On the other hand, Levi Garrison stood there and didn't move at all, as if he didn't react at all.

“Just this little strength is so arrogant, do you really think that the life of a master blacksmith is more precious?”
“Elder Chen has murderous intentions. It’s a pity. It’s too late to stop him now.”
“It doesn’t matter, isn’t it that there are four top-level magic weapons, Zijin Chamber of Commerce is not at a loss.”
There was a lot of discussion among the people, and the first elder was also quite regretful, feeling that Levi Garrison would definitely die under this knife.
However, the emotion in the elder’s heart has not completely dissipated, and he was stunned by the next scene.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4091 -
Clang!
With the sound of metal cutting, the big knife in the hands of the strong Zijin Chamber of Commerce was folded into two pieces.
puff!
Then a blood line was drawn.
This strong man was headed in a different place in an instant, and his corpse fell to the ground, smashing layers of dust, as if mocking his self-control.
sizzle!
There were bursts of cold air from the scene.
Although the elder who shot was not the strongest in the team, he was definitely at an intermediate level.
Was actually killed by a sword?
“Don’t panic, Elder Chen is negligent and suffers from the difference in the level of magic weapons.”
“In order to avoid accidents, let’s make a joint shot! So as not to cause unforeseen problems.”
The strong men of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce quickly recovered from the extreme shock, and at the same time also attributed Levi Garrison's instant killing of Elder Chen to the peerless magic weapon.

The first elder said solemnly: "If you can't capture it alive, kill it on the spot, everyone's safety is the first priority."
Everyone was stunned when they heard the words. After all, the man in front of him was a top forging master, and he could even be said to be comparable to the existence of the God of War.
"Go!" The elder said solemnly.
Swish swish!
The swords and swords of the strong men of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce came out, and the sword glow and the sword gang criss-crossed, like a net of heaven and earth surrounding Levi Garrison layer by layer.
"Suffer to death, arrogant boy."
"So many of us shot together, even death is honorable."
"That's right, you should feel honored to die under our joint attack."
In the eyes of the powerhouses, Levi Garrison is no different from a corpse at this moment.
Levi Garrison was still standing in the same place, watching the sword qi and the sword gang that were constantly approaching and crisscrossed, without any fear.
"Is it only that much? It's too disappointing for Lao Tzu."
Levi Garrison waved the Buried Dragon with his right hand, and a terrifying sword qi roared out with a violent electric arc.
At the same time, Slashing Thunder swung out from left and right, and the fiery and scorching knife Gang was extremely domineering, and it met many attacks and hit it directly.
Clang! Clang! Clang!
In the void, the sound of Jin Ge symphony came one after another, and the Thunder Slashing Dao Gang pressed the crowd to attack in a domineering manner.
Destroy those sword qi swords one after another, because the energy is too terrifying, coupled with the extreme heat, the entire space is seriously distorted.

Clap clap!
After a while, the sound of metal shattering continued.
It turned out that the quasi-peerless divine soldiers in the hands of the powerful Zijin Chamber of Commerce were unable to withstand the pressure of energy, and were directly shattered by the shock.
However, this is only the attack effect of Thunder Slash.
Before everyone could react, Burial Dragon's clever and cunning sword qi poured into the ground and attacked.
Puff puff!
For a while, blood flowers burst out one after another, screaming and moaning one after another.
Where the sword energy passed by, a strong man of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce died unexpectedly.
In just three breaths, nine souls had returned to Jiuyou.
Deng Deng Deng!
The remaining seven people stepped back one after another, looking at everything in front of them with astonishment on their faces.
"This…how is this possible?"
"Why is his strength so terrifying?"
"Elder, our cultivation realm is completely different from his level!"
The voices of the surviving members of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce were trembling, and their faces and hearts were filled with fear.
The joint action not only did not cause any harm to Levi Garrison, but damaged more than half of his own personnel.
hiss!
The first elder also sucked in a breath, and the shock and fear could not be concealed in his eyes.
This was the first time in decades that he was so terrified!
In a short period of time, ten powerhouses were easily slaughtered, even the peak powerhouses of the Hidden World sect could hardly do it!
"You… who are you?"

The elder's legs trembled uncontrollably.
He suddenly recalled the situation of the gangsters that the bounty hunter organization said before, and a strong ominous feeling suddenly rose in his heart.
Levi Garrison walked forward slowly, the corner of his mouth raised slightly, and said with a smile, "I am the one who will kill you."
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4092 -
The few surviving Zijin Chamber of Commerce powerhouses lost their fighting spirit in an instant, and their hearts sank to the bottom in an instant.
The strength shown by Levi Garrison has already exceeded their cognition, and it is useless to continue to resist.
The first elder said unwillingly: "Sir, calm down, we have something to discuss."
"No matter what conditions you put forward, this seat will do my best to fulfill it."
The other strongmen of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce also turned their attention and looked at Levi Garrison with hope.
This is their only chance to survive.
"If we are in different places, will you let us live?" Levi Garrison asked back.
The first elder was at a loss for words. In all fairness, he definitely couldn't do it. He knew the truth very well.
"Elder, we may still have a chance if we try our best."
"It's a death both horizontally and vertically, it's better to fight and be happy."
"You guys hold this person down, and I'll take the two women as hostages."
The last sentence was the voice transmission of the first elder, and the rest of the people were shocked and felt that this strategy was feasible.
"kill!"
With the order of the Great Elder, the rest of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce powerhouses attacked Levi Garrison like arrows from the strings.
Almost at the same time, the first elder directly attacked the two daughters of Murong

Qingxue.
I have to say that these people cooperate very well. In the eyes of the elders, there is almost no flaw in this plan, and it is guaranteed to succeed.
“Tips for carving insects!”
Levi Garrison snorted coldly, and the swords came out.
There was a faint sound of thunder in the void, and the terrifying arc jumped around, directly blocking the attacking direction of the elder.
The first elder only felt a tingling sensation all over his body, and the powerful sword qi coercion also prevented him from advancing.
As for the joint attack of the others, it was perfectly resisted by a heavy sword gang, and even a whirlwind of violent energy was rolled up in front of several people.
Two of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce powerhouses were unable to dodge in time, and were caught up in the sword gang storm, which instantly reduced to two groups of blood fog.
Others also suffered internal injuries to varying degrees, and Levi Garrison’s random blow once again made everyone feel hopeless.
“hateful!”
The first elder wiped the blood on the corner of his mouth, his eyes filled with incredible colors.
There are only five people left in the 17-member team, and all of them have won prizes.
“Escape! Divide into five directions to escape!”
The Great Elder immediately transmitted the sound.
Several other people did not hesitate at all, and directly urged all the spiritual power in their bodies to escape.
“You want to escape now? It’s too late!”
Before he finished speaking, the Dragon Burying Sword Qi roared out, causing several thunders to pour down.
The few escaped Zijin Chamber of Commerce powerhouses were directly hit by the multi-colored sky lightning, and they only turned into powder after a moment of confrontation.

If they are in their prime, they may also be able to resist this thunderstorm.
But they all suffered internal injuries to varying degrees before, so naturally they could not escape death.
The elder elder saw this scene out of the corner of his eyes, and his heart was half cold.
However, before the Great Elder had time to think about it, a strong sense of crisis suddenly appeared in the direction behind him.
"not good!"
The first elder scolded secretly, but he still used his energy shield to defend himself out of his instinctive operation technique.
The breath in the body is running, and the layers of energy fluctuations spread out, trying to offset the energy coercion behind it.
Clap!
The thunderbolt knife swept past, and the energy shield suddenly shattered.
The speed of Thunder Slashing was not delayed in the slightest, and it continued to run through the Great Elder's body directly.
puff!
As soon as the blood line carried out was separated from the body of the Great Elder, it was directly vaporized into a cloud of red smoke by the fiery earth pulse flame carried by Zhan Lei.
The Great Elder's body also couldn't last long, and immediately turned into a flame under the stunned and terrified look on his face.
until the coke state.
At this point, the seventeen masters of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce were wiped out.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4093 -
Moreover, it was a crushing scene on the scene, and there was no way to fight back against Levi Garrison's attack.

“receive!”
With a low voice from Levi Garrison, Burying the Dragon and Slaying Thunder flew back and fell into his palm.
“Not bad!”
Levi Garrison was quite satisfied with the lethality of the two magic weapons in actual combat.
Levi Garrison did not mobilize too much power in the fight against the strong men of the Zijin Merchant Association just now, and most of the time he relied on the power of the two divine weapons.
“It’s no wonder that many sects in Kunlun Ruins are pursuing peerless weapons, and they can indeed exert their combat power beyond the level of their own lack of cultivation.”
“Even if I fight against others, I can save a lot of energy with the blessing of the peerless gods.”
Levi Garrison slandered, if he just wanted to kill so many Zijin Chamber of Commerce powerhouses with his bare hands, I am afraid that he would have to consume double or even more physical strength.
Although it has no effect on him today.
“The two of you don’t stand still, come and see what good things these guys have brought?”
Levi Garrison waved to the two women and said.
Murong Qingxue and Gongsun Yueying were both stunned and awake like a dream.
The powerful combat power that Levi Garrison showed once again rearranged their cognition.
You must know that this is a team of seventeen that is comparable to the temple master of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple or even stronger!
To be slaughtered in such a short period of time?
The key is to look at Levi Garrison’s appearance and it doesn’t seem to take a lot of effort?

Gollum!
The two women swallowed hard and looked at Levi Garrison with awe.
The three came to the cloud boat, and there were many treasures of heaven and earth, as well as many offensive and defensive weapons.
"Xuanyang shield, flame crossbow, cloud breaking gun…"
"These are all good weapons, barely comparable to quasi-magic weapons."
"There are a lot of medicinal herbs that are also very good. It seems that they really invested in exploring the Buried Dragon Valley!" Gongsun Yueying counted the things on the cloud boat, if it was put in the past, she would definitely be a treasure.
But since seeing the magic weapon forged by Levi Garrison, this kind of quasi-magic weapon has been completely ignored by her.
"someone is coming!"
Levi Garrison raised his eyebrows, Gongsun Yueying and Murong Qingxue instantly raised their vigilance, they instinctively thought it was the reinforcements of the Zijin
Chamber of Commerce.
The three of them looked to the southeast, and a burly figure was continuing to approach. His trajectory showed a snake-like position, constantly avoiding the falling thunder.
Boom boom boom!
Tianlei smashed huge pits on the ground around the burly figure one after another.
Until the opponent approached Yunzhou within a certain range, the thunder also calmed down instantly.
Murong Qingxue and the two women quickly recognized the person who came, it was Xiao Feng.
"How did he get here?"
The two girls had doubts in their hearts.
They didn't know that Xiao Feng entered the Dragon Burying Valley desperately because he was worried about Levi Garrison's safety.

After encountering Yunzhou flying past before, Xiao Feng discovered a key situation.
There is the energy coercion of Yunzhou that can attract all the power of the thunder and earth in the area.
It is precisely because of this that Xiao Feng is almost looking for the trajectory of the speeding cloud boat to follow.
Although Yunzhou's speed has dropped sharply under the double restraint of the sky thunder and the leyline, it still makes Xiao Feng much faster.
In addition, in order to avoid being discovered by the strong men of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce, Xiao Feng has been trying his best to hide his life and interest, which affects the speed even more.
It was precisely because Xiao Feng and Yunzhou maintained a certain coordination that they were ignored by the strong men of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce.
Otherwise, Xiao Feng would definitely not be able to follow him silently for so long without being discovered.
However, at the last part of the journey, Yunzhou was completely thrown away, and Xiao Feng was also bombarded by the thunder again.
"Master, are you okay?"
Xiao Feng was very surprised.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4094 - Seeing that Levi Garrison was safe and sound, especially that there were many corpses on the ground around, Xiao Feng was full of surprises and doubts.
It was really difficult for Xiao Feng to accept that Levi Garrison was dead when the Lord of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall judged that Levi Garrison was dead.
But when Xiao Feng saw the terrifying sky thunder that gathered in the sky above the core of the Buried Dragon Valley, he also felt that the master was much less fortunate.
The reason for insisting on entering the core area is to confirm the situation. Xiao Feng actually did not have any hope that Levi Garrison could survive.

“Why, do you still expect me to do something?” Levi Garrison said with a smile.
Levi Garrison has already guessed why Xiao Feng came here, and he can almost conclude that Xiao Feng is here to confirm his information.
In fact, to a large extent, this is also one of the reasons why Levi Garrison did not kill him after what Xiao Feng had done before.
Xiao Feng has a very deep love for his master and apprentice, and most of those rebellious things are instigated and designed by Gong Qianqiu.
“How…how could it be?” Xiao Feng hurriedly denied.
The better Levi Garrison treated him, the more regretful Xiao Feng felt in his heart, and the more he felt unable to face his master.
“Come here and stand, so as not to be bombarded by thunder again later!” Levi Garrison beckoned to Xiao Feng.
Xiao Feng quickly came before Levi Garrison approached. In fact, he also found that Tianlei did not attack Levi Garrison and others, and he was puzzled.
Those Tianlei seemed to be afraid of Levi Garrison, and they fell down from the front, but they turned and slashed elsewhere.
“Master, what happened to these people?” Xiao Feng pointed to the corpses on the ground and asked.
Levi Garrison briefly informed Xiao Feng of what happened.
The more Xiao Feng listened, the more shocked he became. He never thought that the master had actually shaken the strongest Tianlei and merged with this area.
Especially in this cold pool, many treasures of heaven and earth have been discovered, and so many peerless divine weapons have been forged at the same time.
And the previous vision of heaven and earth was also triggered by the peerless magic weapon.
“Congratulations, Master’s cultivation base has been diligent again.”
Xiao Feng said sincerely.

Having spent so long in the Kunlun Ruins, Xiao Feng has a clearer understanding of the cruelty here and the importance of having strong strength.
In addition, before Levi Garrison made enemies everywhere, Xiao Feng was indeed very worried about Levi Garrison's safety, and now he can finally relax completely.
Even the more than ten top powerhouses of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce were easily killed by Levi Garrison, let alone other generalists?
In this Kunlun Ruins, I am afraid that there are not many people who can threaten Levi Garrison. Xiao Feng is sincerely happy for Levi Garrison.
Levi Garrison said solemnly: "Xiao Feng, what are your plans next? Why don't you just follow me!"
Although he had let Xiao Feng go before, Levi Garrison was still worried about this former lover.
In particular, Xiao Feng already has an obsession, and he is absorbed in absorbing other people's skills to improve his cultivation.
And if it goes on like this, Xiao Feng will be targeted by many sects sooner or later. If he follows him, he can pull Xiao Feng back from the cliff.
"I don't need Master, I want to go on my own."
Xiao Feng refused very simply. He came to the core area of the Dragon Valley to confirm the safety of Master Levi Garrison.
Now that Levi Garrison is safe and sound, the entity has greatly increased, and Xiao Feng feels that there is no need to continue to stay.
As for Gong Qianqiu's hatred, he has to personally settle it.
"Master, if I have nothing else to do, I will leave here first." Xiao Feng said decisively.
Levi Garrison sighed softly and said, "Well, since you have already made a decision, I won't force it."
"But it's still very difficult for you to leave the Dragon Burial Valley by yourself. Without the restraint of the cloud boat, you can hardly bear the thunder bombardment in the core area."

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4095 -
Xiao Feng was silent. He knew that what Levi Garrison said was true. The thunderbolts in the core area had a higher frequency and greater lethality.
Before, Yunzhou was the main restraint, which allowed Xiao Feng to enter the core area without any risk.
Otherwise, with Xiao Feng's cultivation, he would have been blasted to ashes by the thunder.
"Let's see, the Zijin Chamber of Commerce has quite a few divine weapons in the cloud boat, you should be able to handle it with a few."
"You also keep these treasures of heaven and earth, and the skill that always swallows other people will eventually be inferior."
"The power of Tiancaidibao is more pure, and the backlash on the body will be much smaller."
Levi Garrison pondered for a moment and said.
Xiao Feng did not reject Levi Garrison's kindness this time.
"Master, I'm leaving!"
After Xiao Feng finished speaking, he turned around and left. As soon as he left the energy area where Levi Garrison was, he was bombarded by a strong thunder.
Xiao Feng hurriedly used the divine weapon to prevent thunder, which saved him frequently from death, and soon disappeared from the sight of Levi Garrison and others.
Whoosh whoosh!
Xiao Feng galloped forward like lightning, the sound of thunder in his ears and the coercion that he was carrying made him feel chills.
The frequency of thunderbolts dropped significantly until they left the core area all the way.
"I can fully deal with the thunder in the non-core area."
Xiao Feng muttered to himself, and then threw aside all the artifacts and treasures that

Levi Garrison gave him.
“Master, I want to rely on my own strength to take revenge, and I appreciate your kindness.”
Xiao Feng is a single-minded person. He used Yunzhou to enter the core area, but now he has left the core area with the help of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce.
As for whether it can break through the thunder bombardment in the non-core area, it is based on the ability to speak, even if it is hacked to death, it is deserved.
Boom!
The dark clouds were surging, the lightning was thundering, and the thunder had clearly begun to gather in the direction of Xiao Feng.
“Don’t stay here for long!”
Xiao Feng no longer hesitated, and quickly swept to the periphery of the Buried Dragon Valley.
the other side.
Levi Garrison was not surprised that Xiao Feng left alone.
Xiao Feng was originally such a person.
Especially after going through the Gong Qianqiu incident, his character is even more paranoid, and even has reached the point where there is no cure.
“Let him go!” Levi Garrison said quietly.
Next, Levi Garrison visited Yunzhou carefully, especially to have a detailed understanding of the structure and flight principle during the period.
When I saw Yunzhou Levi Garrison before, I felt very curious, is there such a good research opportunity.
During this period, Levi Garrison suddenly had an epiphany. According to the flight principle of Yunzhou, a batch of speeding boots could be created.
“Sprint boots can also focus on speed. Whether it is a frontal fight or an escape, it can play a very important role.”
Levi Garrison thought while touching his chin.
Fast-walking boots can use quasi-sacred bones as the main material, and there are many auxiliary materials in Yunzhou.

On the premise of not breaking the original plan, it is also possible to 'produce' speeding boots in batches.
This is of great help in enhancing the comprehensive combat power of our core personnel.
"Speed and strength are after all the most essential attributes of combat effectiveness, and mastering these two is the kingly way."
Levi Garrison said to himself.
at the same time.
The Taiyi Chamber of Commerce did not find the trace of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce's cloud boat again, as if it had disappeared out of thin air.
At the beginning of the period, the eyeliners of the chambers of commerce who were responsible for detecting information on the periphery also did not have any clues.
Of course, they didn't think about the Dragon Burial Valley at first. After all, according to the past situation, it is impossible for the Zijin Chamber of Commerce to be interested in such a small place.
What's more, the team that transported cultivation resources from the Zijin Chamber of Commerce had rarely passed through the Dragon Burial Valley, and the entourage basically couldn't even look straight.
This message was also directly passed on to Wei Shuyang, and he immediately issued an order to continue to pay attention to the Yunzhou message, and report it as soon as it appeared.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4096 - Gongsun Yueying could clearly feel that the mood of the person sending the information was getting more and more urgent.
"Who is Huangfu Hongsheng?"
Murong Qingxue asked curiously.
She spent most of her time practicing inside the sect, and her knowledge of the outside world came from the introduction of the elders of the sect.

Murong Qingxue knew about the Zijin Chamber of Commerce, but didn't know much about the information about its leaders.
Gongsun Yueying said solemnly: "As far as I know, Huangfu Hongsheng is the chairman of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce Wandaocheng Branch."
"And the Wandaocheng Branch is also ranked second in the entire Zijin Chamber of Commerce, so Huangfu Hongsheng has great power."
"Even to a certain extent, Huangfu Hongsheng's glance can directly affect the decisionmaking direction of the entire Zijin Chamber of Commerce Group." Murong Qingxue turned pale in shock, so it seemed that Huangfu Hongsheng was even more guilty!
It's just that now the strong men of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce have been killed by Levi Garrison, this feud has been forged, and there is no room for manoeuvre.
"Sect Master, how do we reply?"
Murong Qingxue turned her gaze directly to Levi Garrison.
"Just tell them that those people have been killed by Lao Tzu."
Levi Garrison said indifferently: "What about the Zijin Chamber of Commerce? As long as they dare to take revenge, I will kill them again."
Gongsun Yueying and the two women were in a very heavy heart. Although they said so, the Zijin Chamber of Commerce was a veritable behemoth.
Even the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce can't compare with it, especially in terms of force.
To be more precise, the Zijin Chamber of Commerce itself started out with force, and even committed murder and stealing in the early stage of the Chamber of Commerce's development.
It's just that as the Zijin Chamber of Commerce has grown in size, it has begun to do business in the "right way".
It is precisely because of the vicious reputation accumulated in the early stage that many powerful loose cultivators from the Kunlun Ruins have joined the Zijin Chamber of Commerce.

Moreover, these people are increasing day by day like a snowball, and they have become a very important part of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce.
In particular, the Wandaocheng Branch is extremely powerful, and its combat power ranks among the best among the major branches of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce.
The team that was killed by Levi Garrison before was probably one-third of the strong.
Now that Levi Garrison used such a provocative reply directly, it was really inappropriate.
"Master, you will also forge magic weapons and fast walking boots, try not to be disturbed by others."
"Why don't I use the military strategy to appease them first, and it's not too late to tell the truth when you finish these trivial matters."
"How does the master feel?"
Gongsun Yueying asked cautiously.
Levi Garrison pondered for a moment, and finally agreed with Gongsun Yueying's proposal.
"Thank you, Master, for your permission."
Gongsun Yueying immediately boarded the cloud boat with a communication device.
This device is only used to receive information, and sending information can only be done in conjunction with the cloud boat.
Fortunately, Gongsun Yueying had used the Yunzhou before, and there were no obstacles in the operation, and the information was replied very smoothly.
He also said that the situation here in the Buried Dragon Valley is complicated, and there are many natural and earthly treasures, and it will take some time to return to the Zijin Chamber of Commerce.
After the Zijin Chamber of Commerce, which had originally planned to be a positive team, received the information, everyone let out a sigh of relief.

Even Huangfu Hongsheng felt that he was too sensitive.
With the comprehensive combat power of the team led by the Great Elder, even if it encounters the hidden world sect, it can retreat completely. How can it be possible that the entire army will be destroyed?
As for the special situation of the Buried Dragon Valley, it is understandable, but all the Jedi in the secret realm have such complex attributes, so that many treasures of heaven and earth can be nurtured.
The time required to excavate the secret realm can be as short as a few months or as long as a few years.
Thinking of this, Huangfu Hongsheng and other senior leaders of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce didn't care too much, waiting for the elder to bring back many treasures from heaven and earth.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4097 -
In the outermost jungle of the Buried Dragon Valley.
Two figures are flying fast, it is Gong Qianqiu and Qi Shengzi.
The two finally stopped in front of a hill.
"Sister, the newly discovered dragon vein is here. I am in charge of protecting the law at the periphery. You can devour the dragon vein energy with peace of mind."
The Seven Holy Sons said as if taking credit.
Gong Qianqiu made a distressed expression: "Xiao Qi, in order to help my sister improve her cultivation, this time has really worked hard for you."
"Why did elder sister say this? For elder sister, let alone hard work, I will not hesitate even if I go through fire and water."
The Seven Saints said sincerely.
Gong Qianqiu pointed at Qi Shengzi's forehead, and said solemnly: "Stupid! Big sister is reluctant to let you go to the soup!"
The seven saints blushed, and Gong Qianqiu made him feel unprecedented feelings, prompting the seven saints to do anything for Gong Qianqiu more willingly.

"Um?"
Gong Qianqiu suddenly felt a strong aura coming from the southeast.
The Seven Holy Sons also felt it at the same time, and the two of them looked at each other and saw a nine-color halo in the core area of the Buried Dragon Valley again.
The entire sky is like a fairyland, with thunder rolling and electric arcs jumping, like a nine-day dragon in the fairyland.
Clap!
A thunder blasted the sky, and lightning poured down, as if the sky was torn apart.
In an instant, there are thousands of rays of sunshine and auspicious colors.
"This is… a vision of heaven and earth? I really don't feel wrong."
The Seven Saints muttered to themselves.
Gong Qianqiu was also shocked by the vision of heaven and earth, and also noticed the deep meaning in the words of the Seven Saints.
"Xiao Qi, what do you feel?" Gong Qianqiu couldn't help asking.
The Seven Holy Sons did not hide anything, and said frankly: "Sister, in fact, since the last time I came here, I have vaguely felt that there is a special spiritual vein in the Buried Dragon Valley."
"A special spiritual vein?"
Gong Qianqiu is a little puzzled. At present, the strongest spiritual vein is the dragon vein, how special can it be?
The Seventh Holy Son explained: "I don't know how to explain it, but this spiritual vein is much more powerful than the dragon vein, and it is most likely underground in the core area."
"However, the power of Tianlei in the core area of the Dragon Burial Valley is too violent. Even the cultivation base of the robbers will die in it. I can't touch it at all."
"It's more powerful than the dragon vein, are you sure?" Gong Qianqiu was shocked.

The power of swallowing the dragon veins has benefited her a lot. Gong Qianqiu can hardly imagine how the spiritual veins above the dragon veins will improve her?
The Seventh Holy Son nodded and said, "I wasn't sure before, but with the vision of heaven and earth, I feel more clearly."
"This underground spiritual vein is probably several times more terrifying than the power of a large dragon vein, especially the fiery energy aura that is the most pure."
"It's just that I can't get close with my strength!"
The Seventh Holy Son was particularly sorry, and even felt very guilty for not being able to bring this spiritual vein to Gong Qianqiu.
Gong Qianqiu also sighed and said: "This is also something that can't be done. The strength of the bandits can't be hard to beat the thunder, let alone us?"
"Xiao Qi, you don't need to care too much, the power of the thunder is so terrifying, isn't it just good to protect this spiritual vein for us?"
"Now I first strive for the position of the saint in the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple, and then there will be enough cultivation resources to continue to improve."
"As long as you have reached a sufficient level of cultivation, it is not too late to find the super spiritual veins in the core area of the Buried Dragon Valley." Gong Qianqiu is now all about the saintess trials, and really doesn't want to make extra troubles.
"Sister is right, then I will protect my elder sister from the periphery." Seventh Holy Son said solemnly.
Gong Qianqiu nodded and said, "Okay."
After finishing speaking, Gong Qianqiu threw himself into the Devouring Dragon Veins.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4098 -
It took Gong Qianqiu half a month to absorb this dragon vein.
Gong Qianqiu's cultivation has improved, which makes him more confident in the battle for the saints in the near future.

Time passed, and in the blink of an eye, the Trials for the Holy Maiden of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple officially began.
In the preliminaries, 30 beautiful girls from different sects stood out.
On the high platform, the elders of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall loudly announced the rules of the competition.
"The next game adopts a random lottery system, and the two pairs will advance to the next round until the winner is finally determined."
"During the process of discussion, you must not hurt people's lives recklessly, or you will be directly disqualified from running for saintess."
"The number plate is in the wooden box under the ring, and now everyone can draw lots."
After the elders finished reading the rules, the thirty candidates for the Holy Maiden began to draw lots.
Gong Qianqiu was calm and calm, and once again swallowed a dragon vein to increase her strength again, as if she had no other candidates in her eyes.
"There are two candidates who have drawn two number one cards to compete on the stage."
After the lottery was over, the Holy Maiden Trials officially began.
The candidates on the ring made all their tricks, and they fought in the dark.
Soon the first round of eliminations were released, and Gong Qianqiu won the victory easily, even with only one hand in the whole process.
By the second round of draws, objections were raised.
"Elder, some people's opponents in the first round are too weak, and they don't consume too much physical strength at all. This is unfair to us when we encounter equal competitors!"
"Yes, elder, this luck factor is too great, and it is indeed unfair."
"And some people have a bye, it's really unfortunate!"
Everyone protested one after another, and almost everyone's eyes were focused on Gong Qianqiu.

Since there were fifteen people in the second round of the draw, there must be one bye, but Gong Qianqiu just got the bye card.
In addition, Gong Qianqiu's easy victory in the first round was envied by others, but the other contestants were very unbalanced.
"Gong Qianqiu, what do you think of everyone's doubts?" The elder asked with a smile.
Gong Qianqiu pondered for a moment and said: "Reporting to the elders, what they said does have some truth."
"Oh? Then what are you going to do?"
The elder was a little surprised. He thought that Gong Qianqiu insisted on asking the game to continue on the grounds of the rules. After all, this was more in the interests of the latter.
The other contestants were also quite surprised, they just wanted to buy more time to rest in order to play the highest level of fighting in the competition.
But this kind of thing doesn't want to be called a first-time bird, so it leaves a bad impression in the eyes of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace.
So they invariably pointed their finger at Gong Qianqiu. In the eyes of the girls, Gong Qianqiu was not only lucky, but also very strong.
On the road to running for the Holy Maiden, no matter who it is, Gong Qianqiu is the biggest obstacle.
"Since everyone feels it's unfair, then I'll suffer a little. You guys are going to come together, and there will be no bye if you beat me down."
Gong Qianqiu's voice rang in everyone's ears.
Whoa whoa whoa!
There was an uproar at the scene, and everyone looked at Gong Qianqiu in amazement.
"Is this woman crazy?"
"Extremely arrogant, to challenge us all with one's own strength?"
"This is not taking us seriously at all!"
"She must be taught a profound lesson to know what it means to be outside the world."

All the saintess candidates were also filled with righteous indignation.
The elder said earnestly and earnestly: "Gong Qianqiu, this kind of occasion is not for children's play, you have to think carefully about what you are talking about!"
In fact, the high-level officials of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace are quite optimistic about Gong Qianqiu, but it is difficult to say that she wants to win with outnumbered enemies.
"Elder, I have thought it through."
"Speaking of which, if I win this battle, I can become the new saint, right?"
Gong Qianqiu said solemnly.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter
4099 -
The elders of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall responded immediately:
"That's natural,
and they probably won't have any objections."
"I have no objection."
"I don't have either."
"I hope this arrogant person will not regret it."
All of these celestial daughters who have been promoted are the leaders of their respective sects, and they are naturally proud in their hearts.
In the face of Gong Qianqiu's contempt, how can they bear it?
"Since both parties are willing, let's start! Remember to stop."
After the elder's instructions, he announced that the Holy Maiden Trials would continue.
Gong Qianqiu leaped onto the ring and hooked his fingers at the other contestants, provocatively.
"We must join forces and spare no effort to bring her down."
"That's right, if there is a failure to keep our hands, then our face will be lost."
"The key is not to let Gong Qianqiu get cheap and sell well."
The thoughts of the women's arrogance quickly reached an agreement, and they must not have any selfishness, and go all out to defeat Gong Qianqiu first.
The senior leaders of the Taixu Shenzong were also a little worried, and Yin Xuejian even felt that Gong Qianqiu was reckless.

If you are defeated, all the previous efforts will be in vain.
"superior!"
I don't know who was the first to speak out, and all the female arrogances took action one after another.
For a while, the fists and palms and the swords and swords gathered together, as if the net of heaven and earth covered Xiang Gong Qianqiu.
Although some of these female geniuses consumed a lot in the previous competition, they all carried the reply pills with them.
Even if it can't recover to its peak combat power, it can at least reach 70% to 80% of its peak strength.
Therefore, the coercion of energy released by them together is extremely terrifying.
"It's nothing more than a joint attack!"
Gong Qianqiu's face was relaxed, and he ran the swallowing technique, without the slightest evasion, and rushed directly to face the attack of everyone.
"Is Gong Qianqiu crazy? Even if her cultivation level is better, she may not be able to get benefits if she hits hard."
"Yeah, the strength of several of them is not much different from hers."
"Excellent cultivation seedlings, but this xinxing is too lack of enthusiasm."
The elders watching the battle in the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace were talking a lot, and they were not optimistic that Gong Qianqiu would have the last laugh.
However, the chief elder soon discovered the abnormality of the situation and said solemnly: "Look at the energy fluctuations of the joint attack, it seems that it is being absorbed!"
Everyone looked in the direction of the chief elder's finger.
Seeing that the sword qi seemed to be attracted by some powerful force, it quickly poured into the energy vortex formed by Gong Qianqiu himself.
"She actually devoured it during the battle?"
Thinking of this, the elders took a deep breath.
As we all know, absorbing the spiritual energy of heaven and earth generally requires absolute quietness.

But Gong Qianqiu's move obviously violated the normal cultivation rules. Isn't she afraid of going crazy?
Those saintess competitors won't hold back at all, even if they don't hurt their lives, as long as they interfere to the greatest extent, they can achieve their goals.
"Thank you for your gifts, but Qianqiu is disrespectful."
Gong Qianqiu's coquettish voice sounded, the extreme devouring technique suddenly started, and the joint attack energy of those beautiful girls was instantly purified and extracted.
Immediately entered Gong Qianqiu's body, although these energies did not significantly help her ability to improve, but they made the joint attack of the girls go to waste.
"how can that be?"
"She can actually devour energy in a battle?"
"Our practice methods are different, and some even belong to different furnaces of water and fire. Wouldn't she be afraid of going into the devil if she swallowed it directly?"
The eyes of the female Tianjiao were filled with incredible.
Gong Qianqiu said jokingly: "Continue to attack, you won't have only this level, right?"
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4100 -
The arrogance of the female protagonists was instantly enraged. They were all the focal figures who were admired by the stars in the door. When did they suffer such humiliation?
"Abandon her!"
I don't know who said a word, and the others also tried their best to perform the exercises.
If the alliance just now was just a tentative attack, then at this moment it was an all-out strike that left no room for anything.
Although the chief elder of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall said that it would not hurt their lives, but now the female arrogance can't care so much.

Even if Gong Qianqiu cannot be killed, she must be completely abolished.
This time, the energy of the joint attack of the female Tianjiao is several times stronger than before.
"It's nothing more than a full blow!"
Gong Qianqiu still did not retreat at all, and continued to choose to swallow hard.
Consecutively swallowing two dragon veins has made Gong Qianqiu produce 'antibodies' to ordinary energy, which can neither enhance strength nor cause harm to the body.
Moreover, Gong Qianqiu gradually realized another partial door, which can selectively absorb the engulfed energy.
There are two routes of phagocytosis absorption and phagocytosis resolution, so that the body's backlash burden can be reduced as much as possible.
Just like the battle in front of him, Gong Qianqiu chose the route of devouring and resolving, and only used a very small part of the pure power for his own use.
Since swallowing the power of the dragon veins, Gong Qianqiu has a very high vision for energy.
The energy released by these female arrogances, Gong Qianqiu really didn't really see it, after all, this kind of attack is different from the direct devouring of skill.
Immediately under the shocked gazes of the female Tianjiao, Gong Qianqiu easily defused their attack again.
The energy dissipated, as if the stone was sinking into the sea, and not even a splash of water was splashed.
Shock!
have no choice!
fear!
All kinds of emotions appeared in the hearts of the female geniuses, and they had completely lost the idea of confrontation at this moment.

“Come again!”
Gong Qianqiu said with a smile.
The female Tianjiao involuntarily took a few steps back, and the look of terror could no longer be concealed on their faces.
“If that’s the case, then it’s my turn to take action.”
Before the words fell, Gong Qianqiu’s figure had disappeared in place.
All the female Tianjiao lost their fighting spirit, and the two consecutive joint attacks were extremely exhausting, and they were powerless to fight back under Gong Qianqiu’s fierce attack.
They were knocked out of the arena one after another, but Gong Qianqiu obviously left room and did not seriously hurt the female Tianjiao.
This can also be regarded as a favor to be sold to many sects, which will help to pave the way for the development of confidant forces in the future.
In fact, the sect of the female Tianjiao did indeed receive this favor, and even gave more returns than Gong Qianqiu expected.
The many elders of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall were also shocked. They did not expect that Gong Qianqiu would win the victory with the overwhelming force.
“This time, the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace has picked up a treasure!”
Many high-level officials of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall sighed in their hearts.
“Qianqiu of Taixu Shenzong Palace won and became the new saint of Sun Moon God Fire Palace.” The chief elder announced loudly.
Seeing the congratulations from everyone and the cheers of the core executives of Taixu Shenzong, Gong Qianqiu felt a strong sense of accomplishment in his heart.
“This sect master finally has a real place in this Kunlun Ruins. Even the Taixu Shenzong has to look up to this sect master.”
“Next, this sect master will make good use of the cultivation resources of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple to improve his strength.”

“As long as you reach the real superpower level, you can let the Seven Saints lead you into the Buried Dragon Valley to explore the super spiritual vein that is stronger than the dragon vein.”
“When the super spiritual vein is swallowed up, even a large sect like the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple will have to bow down at the feet of this sect master.”
Gong Qianqiu is full of pride and looks forward to the future.
At this moment, Gong Qianqiu seemed to see the scene of many sectarian forces that he once looked up to crouching and trembling under his feet.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4101 - Buried Dragon Valley.
Levi Garrison in the core area is still concentrating on forging magic weapons and fast walking boots.
According to the forging plan, Levi Garrison has completed half of the tasks.
Top-level magic soldiers, quasi-magic soldiers, and speeding boots are piled up.
Murong Qingxue and the two women looked at everything in front of them, their beautiful eyes could not hide their joy and excitement.
They can almost imagine what kind of powerful team so many quasi-magic soldiers can be equipped with.
“It’s not wrong to follow the suzerain (master)!”
Gongsun Yueying and the two daughters thought so at the same time.
However, just as the two women were looking forward to a bright future, the originally flat ground in the distance bulged slightly.
After a while, this raised part gradually increased and changed its orientation, like a small hill moving at a high speed.
Kick-kick!
The extremely solid ground that had been quenched by Tianlei shattered in response, and the “small hill” gradually revealed its original shape.
“What is this?”
“What a terrifying energy aura fluctuation!”

Gongsun Yueying and Murong Qingxue's cultivators' crisis warning suddenly became strong, and the two women quickly drew out a magic weapon and entered a state of alert.

Boom!

As the 'small hill' cracked apart, it finally revealed the true face of Mount Lu.

I saw a strange creature the size of a calf, with a head like a wild lion, and two antlerlike horns on its forehead.

A pair of tiger eyes, the size of a copper bell, glowed with blood-red fierce light, and there were dense scales on the back and abdomen, as if wearing a layer of heavy armor.

The scales shone brightly under the light. What shocked the two women most was that there were obvious arcs on the surface of the scales.

It can even emit a clear electric sound, which makes the scalp tingle uncontrollably.

An ox tail is extremely thick, showing a terrifying sense of power, as if anything will be shattered under the blow of this tail.

Boo!

The monster let out a low growl.

In an instant, it exploded in the ears of the two girls like a thunderbolt from the blue sky.

They only felt their ears and eyes rose, and even felt dizzy.

call!

The monster opened its bloody mouth, and a blazing flame suddenly spewed out. A dry feeling hit the air, and the temperature instantly increased by dozens of degrees.

"This… what kind of monster is this?"

Murong Qingxue's voice was shaking violently.

Gongsun Yueying also took a few breaths of cold air in a row, and said, "The unicorns recorded in ancient books are somewhat similar, but not the same."

The unicorns recorded in ancient books can only breathe fire and will not discharge at all!

And looking at the monster's limbs and hooves, it has clearly crystallized into thick ice cubes, which means that it can also release extremely cold aura.
This is much more than the "skill pack" of an ordinary unicorn!
"Master, help!"
"Sect Master, come, we can't deal with this monster."
Gongsun Yueying and the two daughters directly asked for help, but they didn't care that Levi Garrison was forging magic weapons and couldn't be bothered.
As if feeling that the two women were calling for reinforcements, the monster roared twice again, and at the same time spewed a flame at the two women.
"This sonic attack is too scary, isn't it?"
Murong Qingxue and the two women only felt dizzy for a while, their entire bodies seemed to be bound by some invisible force, and they appeared in a state of daze.
At the same time, the flame smashed over like a cannonball, and the speed was extremely fast.
When the dizzy feeling of the two women disappeared completely, the flame attack of the monster was close at hand, and it was too late to avoid it.
Boom!
The pillar of fire first collided with the energy shields of the two women, making a violent crash sound.
lol!
Immediately afterwards, the thick and solid energy shield was melting at a speed visible to the naked eye.
layer!
Two floors!
Three floors…
Half of the energy shield has been breached in the blink of an eye.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4102 -
"The energy shield is about to fail."
The fear in the hearts of the two women instantly reached the extreme, and they instinctively wanted to escape, but as a result, their legs seemed to be filled with lead, and it was impossible to move an inch.

The energy shield was quickly broken by two-thirds of the flame attack, but the speed of the fire column was not reduced at all.
"We'll all be burned to ashes at this rate."
The two women looked at Levi Garrison again, and found that the latter was still concentrating on forging the magic weapon, as if they did not hear their cries for help.
"We can only save ourselves and fight back with all our magic weapons. I hope we can resist one or two."
Gongsun Yueying's temperament was finally more tenacious, and she was the first to get out of pure fear.
Murong Qingxue nodded, she could feel her hands holding the sword were shaking violently, but she still tried to calm herself down as much as possible.
The two women's associations were about to make adjustments, and they tried their best to develop the operation method.
The two long swords were swung, and two fierce sword qi burst out with the sound of thunderstorms, rushing directly towards the pillar of fire.
Boom!
The energy of the three parties hit one place and made a loud noise.
At the moment of impact, the energy shield completely dissipated.
The sword qi crisscrossed, directly cutting the fire column into three parts, and the residual energy of the energy shield was offset, finally barely resisting the flame attack.
However, the powerful reaction force still sent Murong Qingxue and the others flying several meters away.
Seeing that the two women were about to fall to the ground in embarrassment, they suddenly felt a strong force on their backs dragging them, and finally landed smoothly.
"You are not its opponents, let me deal with it!"
A low voice came from behind.
The two women looked back and saw that it was Levi Garrison who arrived in time, and he was holding two divine weapons that had just been forged in his hands.

"Sect Master (Master), you are finally here!"
Murong Qingxue and the others let out a long breath.
Levi Garrison didn't say much, but looked at the monster not far away with interest.
"Isn't this guy a terrifying beast recorded in ancient books that can travel freely in the Thunder Sea of Buried Dragon Valley?"
Levi Garrison couldn't help but slander.
This was not guessed by Levi Garrison out of thin air, but was inferred based on the characteristics of this monster.
The mouth spews flames, the scales are charged, and the ice layer condenses under the feet. These are clearly the three characteristics of Tianlei, Hantan, and Earth Vein in the Buried Dragon Valley!
"Master, be careful, he is likely to be a unicorn, and he couldn't even resist the energy shield with a random blow just now."
"To be on the safe side, kill him as soon as possible!"
Gongsun Yueying reminded with a trembling voice.
Levi Garrison waved his hand and said, "It would be a pity to kill. I just wanted to have a pet, and I think it's good."
Gongsun Yueying's mouth twitched, and she immediately looked at Murong Qingxue.
How easy is it to conquer a spirit beast like a unicorn?
But once Levi Garrison decides, he can't persuade him to come back at all.
Levi Garrison walked straight towards the monster and stopped when he was about 20 meters away.
"You were the one who peeped at my forging magic weapon before, right?" Levi Garrison asked with a smile.
The spirit beast sniffed, and there was a faint burst of blazing flames, and the expression seemed to say: I just watched, what can you do?
Levi Garrison said with a smile: "It's interesting! Come on, let me see how powerful you are, let me go!"

Deng Deng Deng!
The monster scratched the ground with its thick right front hoof, the huge lion's head was raised upwards, and his eyes were clear: as you wish, I will accompany you to the end.
call!
The monster opened its bloody mouth and shot out a 'rocket' again.
This flame glowed with faint purple awns, as if it came from the nine secluded hells, and it was going to burn everything in the world.
Woohoo!
It seems that the monster was a little dissatisfied when he saw that Levi Garrison had no intention of dodging, and protested with two consecutive screams.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4103 -
With the thunder-like scream, Levi Garrison was directly swallowed by the flames.
Because the temperature was too high, a burnt smell soon came from the void.
"Is it that much?"
Levi Garrison's voice came, and the flame went out.
"Woooo?"
The voice of the spirit beast rose slightly, obviously with a tone of doubt, and even the big copper bell-like eyes flashed a hint of confusion.
It seems that he doesn't understand that Levi Garrison can hold back the flames that are enough to burn Tianxing Iron.
"The flame is dead, do you want to try the electric attack again?" Levi Garrison suggested.
The big eyes of the spirit beast flashed with light, and at the same time, he raised his right front hoof and patted his head, as if to say, "Why didn't I think of it?"
Immediately afterwards, the remorseful eyes turned into anger, and being reminded by the enemy to make a move obviously damaged its prestige.
This is naked provocation!
No forgiveness!

“Whoosh!”
The spirit beast screamed three times in a row, and then the stout body trembled slightly, and the arcs on the scales instantly increased sharply.
The dazzling electric mans kept jumping and flickering, and the spirit beast was like a fast-running substation.
“Ow!”
The spirit beast screamed again, and its body shook violently, and two thunderbolts the thickness of an adult’s thigh roared out, hitting Levi Garrison’s body directly.
If you observe carefully, you will find that although these two thunderbolts are not very thick, they contain nine colors.
The power of thunder and lightning is no less than the nine-color sky thunder that Levi
Garrison attracted to forge divine weapons.
“The power of lightning is so strong!”
A flash of surprise flashed in Levi Garrison’s eyes, and then it turned into a surprise.
“But I like it!”
Levi Garrison laughed on his back, and continued to choose hard resistance, and the thick lightning struck Levi Garrison abruptly.
The surface of the skin was radiated with electricity, and then it cycled back and forth on Levi Garrison for two weeks, and finally the powerful power of thunder and lightning dissipated.
“Ow?”
The spirit beast made a very human-like scream, obviously this scene far exceeded its expectations.
The copper bell blinked and blinked, full of incredible colors.
If it weren’t for the pressure of the energy that Levi Garrison carried in his gestures, he would have wanted to approach Levi Garrison and carefully examine what material his skin was made of.
“Would you like to try the cold attack again?” Levi Garrison continued to guide.

“Ouch!”
The spirit beast cried out again and again, and a beast face was full of anger.
I was reminded by this guy just now, and now it’s here again? Is it over yet?
I don’t take this unicorn seriously! Wow!
But what this guy said is true and reasonable, so angry!
Kirin (Qilin) was very depressed, he could have thought of it himself, but let his opponent say it first.
“Hoohoo!” Purple flames were continuously spraying out of the unicorn’s nostrils, obviously it was really angry.
The two hind hooves were scratching the ground, and after a while, it suddenly exerted force, and its whole body jumped into the air.
Immediately afterwards, it released two lightning strikes, stabbing directly at Levi Garrison’s chest.
Almost at the same time, the Kirin (Qilin) spit out a flame again, like a fire dragon, opened its bloody mouth and swallowed Levi Garrison.
Swish!
The unicorn then seamlessly connected its tail again, and a cloud of white air suddenly shot out, directly blocking all directions that Levi Garrison might avoid.
It can be clearly seen that where the white air passes, the air is frozen in an instant, and the entire area is piercingly cold.
At this moment, it seemed that even time stood still.
“Hey, do you know how to draw inferences? Not bad!”
Levi Garrison said in a commentary tone.
He continued to choose to resist fire and lightning attacks, and then he was surrounded by extremely cold air, and the whole person was directly frozen into a sculpture.
Zizizi!
Electric sparks continued to flash on the surface of the humanoid sculpture, and the surrounding flames were completely extinguished. It could be seen that the surface of Levi Garrison in the ice seal seemed to be charred black.

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4104 -
“Sect Master lost?”
“Master was frozen into an ice sculpture?”
Gongsun Yueying’s two women’s mood sank to the bottom in an instant. They couldn’t believe that Levi Garrison, who had always been invincible in battle, would lose.
But on second thought, if this spirit beast was really bathed in the sea of thunder for many years, its strength would indeed be terrifying to the sky.
In particular, even the energy shield left by Levi Garrison could not withstand the flame attack of the unicorn.
“Ouch!”
Seeing Levi Garrison and sealing it up, the spirit beast spins and jumps on the spot, with its eyes closed, like a child who has obtained a beloved toy, extremely happy and excited.
Afterwards, the spirit beast walked around Levi Garrison’s body a few times, taking steps that he did not recognize.
Gently stroked the “ice sculpture” with his tail, like an artist admiring his masterpiece, not to mention how embarrassed his face was.
“Ouch! Ouch! Ouch!”
The spirit beast roared triumphantly in a rhythmical manner, as if to say: “It’s not better, right?” Are you done? Should!
However, just as the spirit beast was about to continue to chatter around, it suddenly found that the “ice sculpture” was quickly cracking.
Clap clap!
Ice cubes splashed everywhere, and Levi Garrison, who was originally ‘burnt black’, also seemed to have lost his outer skin, and his skin that was almost like a crystal appeared.
Especially with that ridiculous smile on his face.
“Disappointed?”

Levi Garrison paused, his face suddenly turned gloomy, and said, "It's my turn to attack now."

Before he finished speaking, Levi Garrison disappeared in place.

The spirit beast was still in a state of shock, and after bathing in the sea of thunder for many years, it had an extremely keen premonition of danger.

behind!

The spirit beast hurriedly turned its head, and sprayed flames continuously in the direction of the danger.

At the same time, the body also turned rapidly, trying to dodge as much as possible.

"late!"

A figure emerged from the flames, and his body was not affected in the slightest.

Before waiting for the follow-up action of the spirit beast to appear, Levi Garrison was already riding on top of its head, grabbing the two horns with both hands, and his right knee suddenly exerted force.

Bang!

The knee hit the thick scales on the back of the spirit beast, making a deafening metallic sound.

Clap clap!

The spirit beast felt a gigantic force approaching the top of the mountain, its body sank rapidly, and its four hooves sank deep into the ground.

"Wow!"

The spirit beast screamed angrily, twisting its head with more force, trying to throw Levi Garrison away.

However, Levi Garrison seems to have grown on it, and no matter how hard it exerts, it will not be affected in the slightest.

In the end, even the spirit beast was dizzy. Levi Garrison was still on his head, and he even stretched out his right hand and pulled out the two beards of the spirit beast.

"What's it called? Today, I have completely convinced you."

When the words fell, Levi Garrison suddenly exerted strength with both hands, and then 'threw' his body out.
With the help of this swinging force, Levi Garrison directly 'pulled' the spirit beast out of the ground, and one person and one beast spun and tossed several times in the air.
Finally hit the ground hard.
And Levi Garrison didn't give the spirit beast any chance to breathe, and it was a combination of punches against his body.
Bang bang bang!
Punching to the flesh, the spirit beast became a spirit beast sandbag for a while.
During this period, the spirit beasts thought about resisting and evading, but Levi
Garrison's fist speed was so fast that it was unavoidable.
This one-sided beating lasted for half an hour.
The expression and eyes of the spirit beast also changed from initial anger to unwillingness and helplessness, and finally to awe and fear.
At the beginning, the spirit beast still felt pain, but in the end it was completely numb.
Levi Garrison's last attack was a hug.
"Have you accepted it?" Levi Garrison asked, before he could hit him, he added: "If you don't accept it, I will continue to hit him."
"Woooooo!"
The spirit beast let out a low whine, and crystal tears flowed out.
Spirit beast, cry!
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4105 -
"Why don't you just get beaten up, why are you crying?" Levi Garrison gave the spirit beast a shudder.
The spirit beast hurriedly stopped its wailing, and looked at Levi Garrison aggrievedly, dumb and cute.
"That's right, we humans have a saying that men don't cry easily, why are you only a male, how can you cry casually?"
Levi Garrison continued to preach.

The spirit beast listened to the teaching carefully, and his expression was very sincere, for fear of angering Levi Garrison and being beaten again.
It was really afraid of being beaten. The fight just now was completely suppressed, and the spirit beast could feel that Levi Garrison had not done his best from beginning to end.
"If this guy really killed him, this spirit beast would have died a long time ago."
The spirit beast thought to himself.
Levi Garrison continued: "Have you served it?"
The beast nodded.
"Follow me in the future, okay?"
The spirit beast thought about it for a moment, but when he felt that Levi Garrison's eyes gradually turned cold, he nodded hurriedly.
"Don't worry, I will never treat you badly in the future." Levi Garrison assuredly assured.
The spirit beast couldn't hold back the look of "I believe in you, you bad old man is very bad".
"It seems that you still don't believe me. It doesn't matter. I have always convinced people with reason. Come, I will give you a good reason."
While speaking, Levi Garrison shook his fist.
The spirit beast trembled, and hurriedly rubbed its big head on Levi Garrison's chest, making it look like a good baby.
Levi Garrison nodded with satisfaction and said, "It seems that you are also a reasonable spirit beast!"
The spirit beast turned his head and rolled his eyes secretly, and couldn't help but slander: The spirit beast is simply afraid of your fist, it has nothing to do with reason, you think too much.
"I'll call you Lei Kirin (Qilin) in the future, how about that name?" Levi Garrison patted the spirit beast on the head and asked.
The spirit beast turned around and nodded earnestly with eyes full of eyes.
The name is really good, and it may be the only thing it is satisfied with today.

“Come here, the two of you, and say hello to your new partner.”
Levi Garrison waved to the two daughters Gongsun Yueying.
The two women woke up like a dream. They thought that Levi Garrison was killed before, and then it was their turn.
As a result, the plot took a sharp turn, and Levi Garrison acted as fiercely as a tiger, and even took Kirin (Qilin) as his younger brother?
“Xiao Lei, these two are also my sidekicks. Usually, they are not allowed to attack them.” Levi Garrison urged.
Lei Kirin (Qilin) glanced at Murong Qingxue and the others with disdain, then nodded seriously, and secretly said: Give Fist a face.
As a high-level spirit beast, Lei Kirin (Qilin) follows the rule of respecting the strong.
Although Levi Garrison admires him, other people don’t see it in his eyes.
“If you don’t hide the lightning on your body, you will accidentally hurt others sooner or later.”
“Well, I’ll make you a battle suit by the way, straight men use to cover up the lightning edge.”
Levi Garrison said with a smile.
Special attention is paid to the newly recruited younger brother Levi Garrison, and all of Lei Kirin (Qilin)’s skills have been explored during the teaching process just now.
The thunder unicorn scales are charged and can release the power of thunder and lightning at the level of nine-color sky thunder.
It can spit out flames, and it is completely comparable to the scorching heat of the earth vein flames below the cold pool.
As for the four hoofs, they can release extreme cold air, and even gather the purest cold air in Hantan.
Thinking about it, it should be the reason why Lei Kirin (Qilin) survived in the Buried Dragon Valley for many years, making it integrated with the major characteristics of this place.

Otherwise, Lei Kirin (Qilin) would have been targeted by Tianlei, Earth Vessel, and Hantan.
However, these three skills are just the necessities for forging the peerless magic
weapon.
Therefore, as long as Lei Kirin (Qilin) is subdued, it is basically equivalent to carrying a mobile forging furnace.
So in the future, as long as there are enough raw materials and let Lei Kirin (Qilin) help output, you can forge peerless weapons anytime, anywhere.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4106 -
To appease Lei Kirin (Kirin (Qilin)), Levi Garrison continued to forge magic weapons and speeding boots.
Of course, there is still one more task, which is to help Lei Kirin (Kirin (Qilin)) forge a top-level battle suit.
It has been forged by peerless gods one after another, and the vision of heaven and earth in the Dragon Burial Valley is getting stronger and stronger.
The eyeliner of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce in the periphery naturally found an abnormality, but they were afraid of Tianlei and did not dare to enter the Dragon Buried Valley to investigate.
Later, the strong Taiyi Chamber of Commerce learned from the bounty hunters that the Yunzhou of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce entered the Dragon Burial Valley.
The spies immediately sent the message back to Longyang City.
In the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, Wei Shuyang sat in the middle.
“What do you guys think about this?”
Wei Shuyang made the message from the eyeliner public.
“President, so the Zijin Chamber of Commerce’s cloud boat disappeared in the Dragon Burial Valley, which explains the reason why every eyeliner couldn’t find it.”

“And the phenomenon of heaven and earth in the core area of Buried Dragon Valley appears frequently, obviously there are earth-shattering treasures.” “That’s right, only this possibility will attract the attention of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce, otherwise how could it be possible to come to our site?”
“If I say that Levi Garrison may still be alive, maybe he found the shocking treasure.”
This guess came out, and the scene instantly burst into an uproar.
Of course, some people objected. After all, it was the Lord of the Sun and Moon Divine Fire Temple who announced the news of Levi Garrison’s death.
Wei Shuyang frowned deeply, obviously thinking about what to do next.
If Levi Garrison was still alive, it would be a windfall for the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce.
“It’s not too late, you follow this seat to the Dragon Burial Valley to explore the truth, this may be an excellent opportunity for our Taiyi Chamber of Commerce to enter a higher level.”
Wei Shuyang made a decision immediately, and the senior members of the Taiyi Merchant Congregation agreed.
They are all old fritters who have been in the arena for many years, and they naturally know what benefit Levi Garrison will bring to Taiyi Merchant if he can survive.
The Longyang City Taiyi Chamber of Commerce branch can be said to be the best of the best. Wei Shuyang personally led the team to take a cloud boat to the periphery of the Buried Dragon Valley.
After arriving at the destination, the eyeliners who have been in charge of peripheral exploration also rushed over.
Boom!
Clap clap!
Lightning and thunder continued in the Buried Dragon Valley, especially the horizon was full of rays of light, as if the gate of heaven had opened above the sky and gods had descended into the world.

Wei Shuyang was immediately stunned by this scene.
He can be considered to have seen many great things in the world, but this is the first time he has encountered such a terrifying vision of heaven and earth.
The other leaders of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce also praised them again and again, and they all said that the trip was worthwhile, and there must be rare treasures in the core area of the Buried Dragon Valley.
"The president's guess is not wrong. The people of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce must be attracted by the best treasures here."
"How many chances do you think Levi Garrison has to survive?"
"The Tianlei here is extremely terrifying, and coupled with the many masters of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce, I'm afraid there is no possibility of them coming out alive."
"This is not necessarily. As long as Levi Garrison can withstand the bombardment of the strongest thunder, it may not be impossible to win a chance."
"If Levi Garrison survives, he will be the best ally of our Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, and if he gets a piece of the pie, it will definitely benefit a lot."
Time passed, and half a month passed in the blink of an eye, and the senior members of the Taiyi Merchant Congregation still saw no trace of Levi Garrison.
So someone advised Wei Shuyang to evacuate, so many people waiting here is also a huge consumption of resources.
"President, let's withdraw, no one can survive three days in this harsh environment."
In the face of the sincere persuasion of the senior leaders in the meeting, Wei Shuyang was unmoved.
"Well, we'll wait here for a month, and if there's no news by then, we'll evacuate as much as possible."
Wei Shuyang made up his mind, and the others could only obey the order silently.
But those people felt that Levi Garrison's hope of surviving was getting slimmer and slimmer.

Time passed by, and the senior members of the branch of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce in Wandao City were also waiting for the news.
They waited with anticipation for the elders and others to return with fruitful results.
However, for so many days in a row, the Great Elder and others still did not return, which made everyone feel a little panic in their hearts.
Even Huangfu Hongsheng had some ominous premonitions, but the communication instruments sent back messages every day, which gave him a little peace of mind.
the other side.
In the past month, Gong Qianqiu has also consolidated his position in the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall.
Especially after winning the Holy Maiden Trials with outnumbered opponents easily, it was highly valued by the high-level officials of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall.
Coupled with Gong Qianqiu's exquisiteness in all directions, he has won the favor of Situ Wanli, the master of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace.
Because of this, Gong Qianqiu obtained a lot of cultivation resources from the Sun
Moon Divine Fire Hall.
In order to completely transform Gong Qianqiu into a confidant, Situ Wanli even directly ordered a small dragon vein to be given to Gong Qianqiu to devour and enhance his strength.
Many Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall powerhouses also gave them all the money, and passed on many exercises to Gong Qianqiu.
For a time, Gong Qianqiu seemed to be cultivated as a future heir, which made Gong Qianqiu's influence rise rapidly.
At the same time, the Seven Holy Sons were not idle, and went everywhere to investigate the dragon veins and the treasures of heaven and earth for Gong Qianqiu.

With the blessing of cultivation resources from two aspects, Gong Qianqiu's strength has increased a lot again.
It didn't take long to reach the strength of Gongsun Yueying before, even stronger.
And through the efforts of all parties during this period, Gong Qianqiu also completely controlled the entire Taixu Shenzong.
Yin Xuejian has basically been completely suspended, and many key positions in the sect have also been taken over by Gong Qianqiu's confidants.
This situation gave Gong Qianqiu a sense of accomplishment, but in front of the powerhouses in the Sun Moon God Fire Hall, Gong Qianqiu behaved extremely lowkey.
"Qianqiu, you really did not disappoint me. The upper limit of cultivation is several times stronger than that of Yueying."
Situ Wanli said with great relief.
Gong Qianqiu said respectfully: "It depends on the careful teaching of the hall master and the elders, and this kind of kindness will definitely be remembered in my heart."
Situ Wanli was very satisfied with Gong Qianqiu's attitude, secretly saying that his recent efforts were not in vain.
It was a pity because Gongsun Yueying was damaged in the Buried Dragon Valley before, but now it is comforting to see Gong Qianqiu's cultivation ceiling being higher.
"After your strength increases again, this seat will take a back seat, and you will be able to manage this Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace." Situ Wanli continued to draw the pie, deep in his heart he still wanted to observe and then make a decision.
All the previous emphasis and the teaching of exercises were all about keeping Gong Qianqiu for his own use.
"Thank you for the cultivation of the hall master."
Gong Qianqiu paused and continued: "Palace Master, I want to recommend myself to thoroughly investigate the forces related to the bandits, to avenge the death of my fellow sect, and hope that the Palace Master will agree!"

Gong Qianqiu's thinking is very clear. If he wants to completely stabilize his position in the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall, in addition to winning the favor of many high-level officials, he must also make a real contribution to the sect.
The gangster incident caused a lot of uproar, and the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall and Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy suffered heavy casualties, and everyone was suffocating in their hearts.
Although the bandits have already died in the Dragon Burial Valley, they could not be killed by the high-level officials themselves, and the resentment in their hearts has not been fully released.
If he can successfully investigate the bandit gang, he will definitely make his position more stable.
Situ Wanli pondered for a moment, and said, "Since you have this intention, this seat has agreed. You can do it anyway, and you must find out all the gangsters and gangs."
"As ordered!" Gong Qianqiu said excitedly.
Next, Gong Qianqiu began to investigate the bandits with all his heart, and soon found a lot of clues.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter
4107 -
In fact, Gong Qianqiu was able to find out the clues related to the bandits so quickly, which was entirely due to her vigorous development of confidant forces at the beginning.
Among them is the group of dead soldiers headed by Duguxiao and Xuanming. The place where they finally entered the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce in the Longyang City Investigation Office.

Although the high-level officials of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce are very secretive about the identities of Levi Garrison and others, there is no airtight wall in this world.
In addition, Levi Garrison almost had a conflict with the powerhouses of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, and there were many powerhouses of sectarian power watching the show.
It is not too difficult to learn some internal information from their mouths, especially if they are tempted by heavy profits, it is even easier.
So Duguxiao quickly found out that the other woman following the bandit was Murong Qingxue.
After learning this information, Gong Qianqiu quickly contacted the Xingyue Divine Sect that was the last sect to arrive before the experts from the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy disappeared.
So Gong Qianqiu focused the investigation on the Xingyue Divine Sect.
If it was put in the past, Gong Qianqiu may have a high probability of returning without success.
However, as the news of Levi Garrison's death in the Dragon Burial Valley continued to ferment in the Xingyue Divine Sect, two voices gradually emerged in the sect as to what to do next.
Although Mu Rong Wanqing tried her best to suppress and appease her, she couldn't control her completely.
In the end, Gong Qianqiu's people found the most crucial information: the Xingyue Shenzong had been occupied by the robbers.
Gong Qianqiu immediately informed Situ Wanli of the news.
Snapped!
Situ Wanli slapped the table abruptly, and the table made of amethyst known for its hardness shattered.
"Bastard, a mere star and moon god sect dares to help Zhou to abuse, this seat wants them to be wiped out."

Situ Wanli roared in anger.
Before launching many sects to catch the gangsters without success and returning to the original, I was full of anger, and now I finally have a vent.
"The palace master calms down his anger, why use a bull-slaughtering knife to kill a chicken? Qianqiu is willing to lead the elites to clear the bandits and gangs."
Gong Qianqiu took the initiative to invite Ying again.
Situ Wanli agreed after pondering for a moment, and said with great relief: "Qianqiu, you did a very good job this time. When you return from the extermination of the Star-Moon Divine Sect in triumph, this seat will celebrate for you in person."
Situ Wanli was really surprised that so much key information could be investigated and dealt with in just one month, and at the same time he valued Gong Qianqiu even more.
"Please rest assured, the hall master, Qianqiu will definitely live up to expectations."
After Gong Qianqiu finished speaking, he immediately gathered many powerful people to prepare to attack the Xingyue Divine Sect. She wanted to use this battle to gain a firm foothold in the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall.
the other side.
The Xingyue Divine Sect also got the message inside.
In the discussion hall, the atmosphere was extremely dull, and there was a dead silence, like the last tranquility before the storm.
Mu Rong Wanqing sat in the middle, her expression extremely ugly.
"Sect Master, you insisted on not listening to persuasion before, but now it's better. It's too late to go to the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall to seek leniency."
"How is this good? Although the person who attacked the Xingyue Divine Sect this time is not Situ Wanli, it is said that the newly selected Saintess led the team."
"I heard that the new saintess is very talented. She easily won the trials with outnumbered enemies. Her strength is only not weaker than Gongsun Yueying."

“With the blessing of the experts from the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall, we have no power to fight back.”
There was a lot of discussion, and it was hard to hide the panic on the faces of the highlevel officials.
Mu Rong Wanqing was devastated by the quarrel, she knew very well that once the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace attacked, the Xingyue Divine Sect would definitely die.
“If you want me to say it, it’s Levi Garrison’s fault. We all stopped him at the beginning, and he insisted on destroying all the people in the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall.”
“Now he patted his butt and left, and let us clean up the mess, really hateful!”
“That’s right, Levi Garrison is a bum star. After causing a catastrophe, he is nowhere to be seen. Let us pay for him.”
Everyone was outraged and accused Levi Garrison one after another.
In the core area of Dragon Burial Valley.
Levi Garrison forged a large number of magical weapons in this month.
But the most outstanding are the top ten peerless weapons.
The top-level magic soldiers also need to occupy the right place and the right place. In comparison, the next forty magic soldiers are somewhat less rhythmic.
Of course, this situation is unavoidable. Even if the blacksmith’s level is high, there is no guarantee that all the magical weapons forged can be the same as the heaven and earth.
Moreover, forging divine weapons in this space area, the rhythm of heaven and earth is constantly being consumed, and it is precisely because of this that it will gradually decrease.
But these peerless gods are not much different, and they all belong to the peerless gods of the first echelon.
As for the rest of the quasi-magic soldiers, there are countless more.
“The two of you just pick a weapon that you can use!” Levi Garrison said with a smile.

Engaging with power is the best means of subjugation, and Levi Garrison knows this well.
Gongsun Yueying and Murong Qingxue were really excited, and they both cast a grateful look at Levi Garrison.
They scrutinized for a long time in front of many divine weapons and sharp blades, all of them were very good, it was a bit dazzling.
Of course, Gongsun Yueying and the two daughters also knew that they did not choose the fifty peerless weapons.
It's not that the two women don't want to, but because they can't control the real peerless weapons.
Just like Slaying Thunder and Burying Dragon, even if they were used by two women, they would probably injure the enemy eight hundred and lose one thousand, and would not be able to exert their strongest power at all.
"I choose this sword!"
"Then I choose this sword!"
The two women chose a magic weapon made of quasi-sacred bones, and they couldn't put it down.
Gongsun Yueying looked at the long sword in her hand almost obsessively. Although it was only a quasi-magic weapon here, the entire Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall did not have this level of magic weapon.
Murong Qingxue even regarded the long sword as a treasure. Her knowledge was far inferior to Gongsun Yueying's. If she hadn't followed Levi Garrison, she would never have thought of getting a sword of this level in her entire life.
The two women can even imagine the majestic picture after they walk out of the Dragon Burial Valley in the future.
Leaving aside other mentions, even if these two magical weapons are shown, they will be sought after and looted by many top sects.

“You will each choose a pair of running boots, which will be beneficial to your future battles.”
Levi Garrison is not stingy, and he really wants to train the two daughters well. After all, he can’t do everything himself in the future.
The two women were elated when they heard the words. These fast-running boots are an artifact for speeding up, especially the swordsmanship they practiced belongs to the elegant and agile route.
The speeding boots complement each other even more, which will increase their combat effectiveness in a straight line.
Levi Garrison picked up the forged battle suit and came to Lei Kirin (Qilin).
While waiting for Levi Garrison to forge the magic weapon, Lei Kirin (Qilin) was suffocated. Normally, it would have been bathing in the sea of thunder and playing.
But at that time, the most terrifying thunder in the core area of Dragon Burial Valley was attracted by Levi Garrison to forge divine weapons.
Thunder Kirin (Qilin) was bombarded by ordinary sky thunder and tickled, and could only fall asleep beside him, and would be woken up by the sound of sky thunder chainquenching magic soldiers from time to time.
“Wow!”
Seeing Levi Garrison walking towards him, Lei Kirin (Qilin) hurriedly greeted him, but this strange call was filled with a trace of complaints and dissatisfaction.
In Lei Kirin (Qilin)’s view, admitting counsel is also an art when facing the peerless powerhouse.
Neither can they completely lose their dignity and make themselves disgraced, nor can they anger the strong and lead to death.
“Come on, I’ll help you put on the suit and get down!” Levi Garrison said with a smile.
Lei Kirin (Qilin) shook his huge head, and then slowly fell down.

However, he was quite interested in the battle suit Lei Kirin (Qilin) in Levi Garrison's hands. After a while, Levi Garrison helped to put it on.
Sure enough, under the battle uniform, the thunder and lightning power on the surface of Lei Kirin (Qilin) completely disappeared, and the flames were all covered up.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4108 -
"It fits well!"
Levi Garrison commented while touching his chin.
Lei Kirin (Qilin) also rotated and jumped with his eyes closed, obviously quite satisfied with the new clothes.
"Wow!"
There was excitement and excitement in the strange cry, as if asking everyone: Is it mighty? Domineering or not?
Levi Garrison twitched the corner of his mouth, secretly saying that this unicorn can really squeak.
"It's time for us to go out too." Levi Garrison said solemnly.
The peerless magic weapon, the quasi magic weapon, and the speeding boots have all been forged, and it can even be said that the task has been exceeded.
Gongsun Yueying and Murong Qingxue were also very excited, and they were finally able to go out to 'show off their power'.
Especially during the period of fear and fear, the emotions in my chest need to be vented urgently.
"Master, I was fortunate enough to control the Yunzhou before. Although I am not very skilled, I will be familiar with it as long as you give me some time."
Gongsun Yueying took the lead.
Levi Garrison nodded, and took the two women to the cloud boat to start research.
After Gongsun Yueying's explanation, Levi Garrison also understood the general principle of Yunzhou.
In fact, the Yunzhou itself is a huge spaceship with various mechanisms to control the flight state of the Yunzhou.

In addition, it is mixed with ancient formations to maintain the operation of the organs and the stealth effect.
The power system is also driven by the formation method, so that the top-level spiritual crystal can be burned to provide the energy source for the flight of the cloud boat.
"I didn't think that Yunzhou still had so much knowledge hidden, and he could even help hide his tracks and aura."
Levi Garrison said with emotion.
Gongsun Yueying echoed: "Yes, master, and Yunzhou's injury to the formation requires a top-level formation master to describe the layout."
"The level of the formation master directly affects the performance of Yunzhou. Of course, the financial and material resources spent cannot be compared."
Murong Qingxue could only listen in, she couldn't provide any reference or suggestions, she could only be amazed by the side.
After a full two hours, Gongsun Yueying finally mastered the driving skills of Yunzhou.
"Master, we can go out now, do we need to activate the stealth function?" Gongsun Yueying asked respectfully.
Levi Garrison waved his hand and said, "No, it's impossible to transport everything out at once with Yunzhou. I need to use those people outside." Gongsun Yueying immediately understood what Levi Garrison meant, which was to deliberately reveal the position.
In particular, recalling what Levi Garrison said to the members of the bounty hunter organization before entering the Dragon Burial Valley, Gongsun Yueying was even more at the horror of Levi Garrison.
"I hope the people from the bounty hunter organization are still there." Murong Qingxue said secretly.
Afterwards, the two women also hid fifty peerless divine weapons in Yunzhou's storage warehouse, and some top-level heaven and earth treasures were on the surface of Yunzhou.

As for the other things, they are still stacked in place, waiting for the next time they come and continue to deliver.
When everything was ready, Gongsun Yueying's voice came: "Master, please sit down, we are going."
"Xiao Lei, we're leaving!" Levi Garrison waved to Lei Kirin (Qilin).
Lei Kirin (Qilin) looked around reluctantly, then roared as if saying goodbye, and jumped into the sky and jumped onto the cloud boat.
Whoosh!
With a loud noise, the cloud boat rose into the air and flew towards the periphery of the Buried Dragon Valley like lightning.
The speed of Yunzhou was extremely fast, and Levi Garrison couldn't help but sigh, this thing's speeding up to a fixed point is no different than his own movement.
the other side.
Wei Shuyang led many Taiyi Chamber of Commerce powerhouses to wait outside. Just as he was about to evacuate today, he suddenly heard the sound of breaking the sound barrier.
"President, it's Yun Zhou of Zijin Chamber of Commerce, what should we do?"
"The Zijin Chamber of Commerce is powerful, we are not opponents at all!"
"It must be that they found the treasure, and the vision of heaven and earth has disappeared."
Wei Shuyang stared solemnly in the direction of Yunzhou, as if he was facing a great enemy.
"Everyone, keep calm, if the people from the Zijin Chamber of Commerce don't follow the rules, they will fight with them."
Wei Shuyang said solemnly.
Although the comprehensive strength of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce is far superior to that of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, after all, this is on the site of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, and there must be no compromise.

Clang!
The strong men of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce drew their swords and swords one after another, as if they were facing a great enemy.
All of them knew that if the Zijin Chamber of Commerce really found a top-level treasure, they would definitely think that they were fighting for it.
The war between the two sides is almost inevitable, and the Zijin Chamber of Commerce has always been known for its powerful force. Once they fight, life and death are unpredictable.
The scene was dead silent, and everyone didn't even dare to breathe too hard.
Boom!
The cloud boat slowly landed, and everyone involuntarily took a few steps back.
Even Wei Shuyang held his breath at this moment, and the hand holding the sword trembled slightly.
bang!
The hatch opened, and three figures slowly walked out from inside.
"It turned out to be Mr. Ye!"
A sharp-eyed person in the crowd was the first to scream.
The others watched closely, and sure enough, Levi Garrison came out first, followed by Gongsun Yueying and Murong Qingxue.
"As expected of Mr. Ye!"
"Even such a terrifying thunderbolt can't hurt Mr. Ye."
"Finally don't have to work hard."
Everyone was so excited, some even jumped in place.
The absolute top of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce also looked at Wei Shuyang with admiration.
It was because of Wei Shuyang's insistence that Taiyi Chamber of Commerce waited an extra month, and it turned out that they were right.
It was Levi Garrison who came out of the Buried Dragon Valley.

“Look at the things in the Yunzhou warehouse, they seem to be treasures from heaven and earth!”
“Nine Nether Bone Flowers, Fire Lotus, Top Divine Bone… God, any of them are top treasures.”
“Those two are peerless gods!”
The exclamations of the crowd came one after another.
Levi Garrison didn’t expose all the treasures of heaven and earth, and even the peerless soldiers only revealed dragon burial and thunder slaying.
Wei Shuyang hurriedly walked up to Levi Garrison and asked eagerly, “Mr. Ye, where are the people from the Zijin Chamber of Commerce?”
“I killed them all.”
Levi Garrison said lightly.
hiss!
Wei Shuyang gasped involuntarily.
The personnel who can be sent by the Zijin Chamber of Commerce to drive the Yunzhou must be high-level internal, and the realm of cultivation can be imagined.
In addition, according to the previous eyeliner report, if the eyeliner strength has not reached the level of the leader of a large-scale sect, it may not be able to perceive the existence of the strong Zijin Chamber of Commerce.
In other words, the Zijin Chamber of Commerce powerhouses above Yunzhou at the worst reached the level of the helmsmen of large sects, and there were more than five people.
The combat power of this team may be able to easily destroy a large sect, but it was destroyed by Levi Garrison.
“His strength is too terrifying!”
Wei Shuyang was extremely shocked.
“Wow!”
At this moment, a thunderous roar came from above the cloud boat, shaking everyone’s eardrums.

Everyone followed the voice to look, and saw a ferocious spirit beast standing on the cloud boat.
At this moment, it is opening a bloody mouth, and there is a faint flame spewing out of its breath.
"What spirit beast is this?"
"Qi… Kirin (Qilin), it looks like a unicorn!"
"Are you sure the unicorn will discharge?"
Lei Kirin (Qilin) enjoyed the appearance of these people who had never seen the world, and shook his head, as if the leader was reviewing the subordinates in line.
"This stuff is so good!"
This thought occurred in everyone's mind almost at the same time.
Levi Garrison was also dumbfounded. He had already found out that Lei Kirin (Qilin) was a patient of late stage cancer, and he had to pretend when he found an opportunity.
"Xiao Lei, keep a low profile for Lao Tzu." Levi Garrison said solemnly.
So Lei Kirin (Qilin) slowly fell down under everyone's astonished eyes, obedient like a cat.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4109 - Everyone was shocked again, and they could clearly feel the strength of Lei Kirin (Qilin
)'s strength, which was even comparable to the strength of the helms of large sects, or even stronger.
However, it was such a terrifying beast that actually obeyed Levi Garrison.
In particular, the emotion in Lei Kirin (Qilin)'s eyes is clearly called fear. It's hard to imagine how much this guy was bullied by Levi Garrison?
Wei Shuyang was also extremely surprised, but he was relieved instantly when he thought that the super team of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce was destroyed by Levi Garrison.
"Mr. Ye, I wonder if you are willing to cooperate with Taiyi Chamber of Commerce?" Wei Shuyang asked sincerely.

Levi Garrison asked back with a smile, "How to cooperate?"
"I want to hire you to be the chief forging master of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce."
Wei Shuyang directly stated the purpose.
Levi Garrison chuckled noncommittally and continued to ask, "Then what benefits can I get?"
"The Taiyi Chamber of Commerce will give Mr. Chen the highest level of treatment, and there are thousands of masters in the Taiyi God Group who can follow your assignment at any time."
"You also get the best deal on any deal."
"At the same time, if you want any treasures, Taiyi Chamber of Commerce will collect them for you at any cost."
"If you are willing, I am willing to offer the position of vice president of Longyang City Taiyi Chamber of Commerce."
Wei Shuyang's offer can be said to be sincere. He looked at Levi Garrison with hope, waiting for his final answer.
After pondering for a moment, Levi Garrison said, "Let me think about it again, but President Wei, please rest assured. If I want to trade in the future, Taiyi Chamber of Commerce will be the preferred partner."
Levi Garrison didn't say it to death. After all, the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce was a high-level large-scale force, and he would use it sooner or later to gain a foothold in the Kunlun Ruins.
But Levi Garrison didn't want to agree directly, otherwise it would be too restrictive to himself.
"Okay, then we'll agree."
Wei Shuyang said excitedly.
Although the desired results have not been obtained, the commitment of Levi Garrison as a 'preferred partner' is also extremely important.

After all, Levi Garrison is a top forging master, and the magic weapons forged in his hands are priceless treasures.
It is also a huge wealth for the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce.
Others in the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce were also very excited when they heard this.
The Taiyi Chamber of Commerce can have the first choice cooperation commitment of a top forging master, which is equivalent to embracing a cornucopia that can make unlimited money.
"The Sand Sculpture Hall Master of the Sun and Moon Divine Fire Hall actually announced that Mr. Ye died in the Dragon Burial Valley, which is simply too dizzy and stupid."
"That is, Mr. Ye is so powerful, how could Tianlei have no choice but to get him?"
"The Sun and Moon Divine Fire Palace is really stupid. I'm afraid they don't know what kind of terrifying existence they have provoked."
"With Mr. Ye's strength, destroying the Temple of Sun and Moon Divine Fire is as easy as the palm of your hand."
"Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace will eventually pay for their stupidity."
The high-level members of the Taiyi Merchant Congregation had a lot of discussion, and some people even started to mock the Sun Moon God Fire Hall's deadline is approaching.
"Mr. Ye, what are your plans next? I'm afraid the Zijin Chamber of Commerce will not give up." Wei Shuyang reminded.
Levi Garrison didn't care at all, and smiled: "The soldiers will block the water and cover the soil. If the people of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce want to die, then come and seek revenge for me!"
Seeing that Levi Garrison didn't take the Zijin Chamber of Commerce seriously, Wei Shuyang didn't dare to persuade him deeply, fearing that angering Levi Garrison would backfire.

“President Wei, take someone back first! I still have some things to deal with. If I need it again, I will take the initiative to come to the door.”
Levi Garrison has already issued an evacuation order.
Wei Shuyang didn’t dare to stay any longer, and immediately took out a blood-red badge in his arms and handed it to Levi Garrison.
“Mr. Ye is the highest-level badge of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce. It also has a communication function and can directly contact the leaders of each branch.”
Wei Shuyang said solemnly.
Levi Garrison did not reject Wei Shuyang’s good intentions, and directly pocketed the top badge of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce.
“President Wei, you all go back first! In case the information spreads out here, the Zijin Chamber of Commerce will trouble you.”
Levi Garrison said solemnly.
Wei Shuyang’s face suddenly became solemn. He understood what Levi Garrison meant. Many strong people in the Zijin Chamber of Commerce were destroyed by the group, and he would definitely not let it go.
Once it is known that the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce is related to Levi Garrison, it is bound to be implicated, and it will be a hundred words at that time.
“Thank you Mr. Ye for reminding me, then I’ll leave first.”
Wei Shuyang paused, and then added quickly: “If Mr. Ye has any needs, just use the badge to contact me.”
“Even if the other party is the Zijin Chamber of Commerce, our Taiyi Chamber of Commerce will fight for it. After all, this site belongs to the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce.”
Wei Shuyang’s remarks can be said to be a solemn statement of his position. He has really reached that point, and he will not hesitate to turn against the Zijin Chamber of Commerce for Levi Garrison’s sake.

“I have written down President Wei’s favor. Don’t worry, the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce is indispensable for forging magic weapons.” Levi Garrison said with a smile.
Since the other party showed his favor, Levi Garrison also reciprocated.
Wei Shuyang clasped his fists and raised his eyebrows with joy, and immediately led the masters of the Taiyi Merchant Congregation to leave.
Although Yunzhou was loaded with so many treasures, Wei Shuyang didn’t dare to ask Levi Garrison’s intention to make a deal.
After all the members of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce left, Levi Garrison directly shifted his gaze to a farther place.
“Don’t hide it sneakily, and show up if you don’t want to die.”
Levi Garrison sounded like thunder, and it exploded in the sky in an instant.
It was as if a loudspeaker had been installed, dizzying the many members of the bounty hunter organization hidden in the jungle.
The person with a slightly poorer cultivation actually fainted directly.
They were the bounty hunters who had wandered around the Dragon Burial Valley before.
Not long after, these bounty hunters rushed over, and when they saw that it was Levi Garrison, everyone was amazed.
“It turned out to be the mad… adult from before?”
“So the terrifying thunder bombardment can’t help him?”
“This cloud boat looks familiar! It seems to be from the Zijin Chamber of Commerce.”
“Could it be that the people who killed our companions were the strong men of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce?”
“It seems that those strong people will not be spared!”
The members of the Bounty Hunter Organization felt incredible, especially when they thought of what Levi Garrison said when he entered the Dragon Burial Valley, it was even more shocking.
What is a peerless powerhouse?

This is!
Completely did not put the so-called forbidden Jedi in the eyes.
"What is the senior's order?" The leader of the bounty hunter said cautiously.
Recalling that he had ridiculed Levi Garrison as an outspoken madman before, he felt a tremor in his heart, for fear that Levi Garrison would settle accounts in the autumn.
Others are also trembling, Levi Garrison can be safe and sound under the top powerhouses of Terrorist Tianlei and Zijin Chamber of Commerce, which is enough to prove how terrifying the strength is.
Levi Garrison said playfully: "I told you before, help me transport something, you shouldn't refuse, right?"
"No, no, the seniors dispatched the task, that is, to look up to the bounty hunter organization, we will definitely not be ignorant of praise."
The leader of the bounty hunter hurriedly expressed his attitude, and his attitude was extremely humble.
Facing the evil god Levi Garrison, the leader did not dare to offend in the slightest, even the powerful members of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce were completely wiped out.
If Levi Garrison is angered, I am afraid that the entire bounty hunter organization will face extinction.
Levi Garrison nodded with satisfaction and said, "That's good, don't worry, as long as you complete the task, I will never treat you badly."
"Master, where are we going next?" At this moment, Gongsun Yueying suddenly asked respectfully.
Levi Garrison pondered for a moment and said, "Go to the Xingyue Shenzong first."
The Xingyue Divine Sect is now its own sect.
Levi Garrison also plans to develop sectarian power based on the Xingyue Shenzong, and gain a firm foothold in Kunlun Ruins as soon as possible.

Not long ago, the proposal of Taiyi Chamber of Commerce was not rejected, and it was also paving the way for future alliances. After all, it was impossible for him to stay in the sect around the clock.
"Senior, the Xingyue Divine Sect has a big event recently, you probably don't know it yet?"
The bounty hunter leader trembled.
"what happened?"
Murong Qingxue was the first to ask questions. She grew up in the Xingyue Divine Sect since she was a child, and her affection for the sect was far beyond comparison.
"It was the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace that found out that the gangsters who killed many of the sect's geniuses had a close relationship with the Xingyue Divine Sect, so they sent the new saintess there…"
The leader of the bounty hunter stopped abruptly, because he suddenly thought of one thing, Levi Garrison seemed to fit many characteristics of a gangster. Strong in strength, with two saintess by his side, and in contact with the Xingyue Divine Sect.
Levi Garrison said with a smile: "Continue to speak, without omission."
"Okay… okay."
The voice of the leader of the bounty hunter was shaking violently, and then he told everything he knew.
Gongsun Yueying was a little angry at first when she learned that her status as a saint was replaced, but she was relieved quickly.
I even felt that the saintess of the Sun and Moon Divine Fire Palace was nothing special, far less than the benefits obtained by the follower Levi Garrison.
"If you find an opportunity, you must prove them wrong in front of the high-level officials of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall."
Gongsun Yueying secretly made up her mind.
Murong Qingxue's face was as pale as paper when she heard the words, according to what the leader of the bounty hunters said, the Xingyue Divine Sect could not escape the tragic fate of being destroyed.

Murong Qingxue felt anxious when she thought that the place where she grew up was about to be destroyed, and that the elders who regarded her as her own were more fortunate and less fortunate.
"Sect Master, let's hurry back, maybe it's still too late!"
Murong Qingxue's voice was obviously urgent.
Levi Garrison nodded and said, "The Xingyue Shenzong must be saved, but the things inside have to be transported away."
After making up his mind, Levi Garrison directly instructed the bounty hunter organization to get the means of transport.
First, transport the many quasi-magic soldiers and treasures from heaven and earth out of the Dragon Burial Valley.
Since the bounty hunter organization has been operating near the Buried Dragon Valley for nearly half a year, various means of transportation are complete and nearby.
Afterwards, everyone followed Yunzhou's trajectory into the Dragon Burial Valley, in order to avoid the coercion of Tianlei and Earth Vessel.
Just one trip shipped those things out.
When the bounty hunter organization saw so many quasi-magic soldiers, it was astonished, as if a beggar suddenly saw a mountain of diamonds.
However, the bounty hunters also know very well that even if these things are priceless, they are not what they can covet.
"Qingxue, you take Xiaolei to escort the team and supervise them to transport things to the Xingyue Divine Sect. Yueying and I will rush to the rescue first in the cloud boat."
As soon as he left the Dragon Burial Valley, Levi Garrison ordered directly.
Although Murong Qingxue was worried about the situation of the Star Moon Sect, she also knew the priorities of the matter.

So many quasi-magic soldiers and treasures of heaven and earth must be monitored by confidants. It may be inappropriate to leave Gongsun Yueying. After all, she was born in the Temple of Sun and Moon Divine Fire.
Once there is no suppression from Levi Garrison, it is difficult to guarantee that she will not do anything out of the ordinary.
What's more, if the people in these bounty hunter organizations are not supervised and completely reliable, it will be different for Lei Kirin (Qilin) to stay.
"You'd better not play any tricks, otherwise, even if the sky falls into the ground, I will destroy the entire bounty hunter organization."
Levi Garrison warned.
The bounty hunters hurriedly stated that they did not dare to make small moves, and they really did not have the courage to steal Levi Garrison's things.
After everything was settled, Levi Garrison and Gongsun Yueying boarded the cloud boat again and rushed to the Xingyue Shenzong.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4110 -
The various rudders of the Xingyue Divine Sect.
Many magnificent buildings have been reduced to ruins, and corpses are scattered in rivers of blood.
Gong Qianqiu, as a saint, led many powerhouses in the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall to attack the Xingyue Divine Sect.
At the same time, in order to consolidate his position to the greatest extent, Gong Qianqiu took the lead in this battle and rushed to the forefront every time.
The Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace already has an absolute strength advantage, and Gong Qianqiu personally charged into the battle, which is even more inspiring.
In just one day, the army of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall was able to destroy more than ten divisions of the Star Moon Divine Sect.
Although the disciples of the Xingyue Divine Sect were also standing up to resist, the difference in strength was too great, and the fighting spirit was sluggish with countless casualties.

The remnants of the forces gathered towards the helm of the Xingyue Divine Sect, and those disciples who chose to flee were killed by the elites of the Sun and Moon Divine Fire Palace.
The head of the Xingyue Shenzong.
Inside the conference hall.
Mu Rong Wanqing sat in the middle, her face as pale as paper.
The surviving elder of the sub-rudder who came from the rout was telling the situation of the battle, and the expressions of the other core senior leaders of the Star Moon Sect were also extremely difficult to see.
"Sect Master, in the face of the attack of the powerhouses of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall, we have no chance of winning, let's find a way to negotiate!"
"Yeah, Sect Master, after all, those people from Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy were not killed by us, and the Star Moon Divine Sect was also the victim of the coercion."
"A bunch of idiots, talking about this now, do you think the new saintess of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace will listen?"
"Even if we are willing to make peace, the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace may not agree. The new saintess obviously wants to use this to establish prestige in the sect."
As soon as these words came out, everyone's heart sank to the bottom in an instant.
The hall was dead silent, and the senior members of the Xingyue Divine Sect sighed.
On the one hand, the strength is strong and the momentum is like a rainbow. On the other hand, the fighting strength is weak and the people are scattered. The decisive battle has not yet started, and the result is already doomed.
"Reporting to the Sect Master, the new saintess of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall has already entered the city."

The reporter's voice was clearly trembling.
Mu Rong Wanqing's delicate body was shocked, and after a long silence, she slowly stood up.
He said coldly: "Elders, don't have any illusions about being able to negotiate now. That new saint needs military exploits to establish her prestige."
"Now is the time between the life and death of the sect. You all go to the battlefield with me. Even if you die in battle, you will make the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple pay a heavy price."
It has to be said that Mu Rong Wanqing is still somewhat courageous, and just a few words have cheered up the sluggish atmosphere a lot.
There are even many elders who have regained their determination to sink the boat.
After all, the Xingyue Divine Sect is their lifelong effort.
Fighting to protect the sect, even if you die in the end, you will be considered dead.
Then Mu Rong Wanqing led the elders out of the hall and went straight to the main rudder city gate.
Seeing the flags fluttering under the city and the dense crowd, Mu Rong Wanqing and the others looked a bit ugly.
There are huge differences in both numbers and quality. How can we fight this battle?
Gong Qianqiu slowly walked to the front and shouted to the crowd at the head of the city: "Listen to the Xingyue Shenzong, obediently open the city and surrender, there may be a chance of survival."
"Otherwise, this saint will definitely step down the Xingyue Divine Sect today, and all the males of the sect will be beheaded, and all the female disciples will be slaves and maids."
The faces of the disciples of the Xingyue Divine Sect suddenly changed. The Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace was originally a sect that was both righteous and evil.

Mu Rong Wanqing said loudly, "Disciples, only by fighting to the death can you win a chance for survival. Kaesong's surrender will never end well."
"In this battle, the elders and I will try to hold back the enemy as much as possible. You can escape when you have a chance. When you learn something in the future, remember to take revenge for us."
The effect of this wave of people's bribing was excellent, and the disciples of the Xingyue Divine Sect once again shared the same hatred, preparing to live and die together with the sect.
Gong Qianqiu said with a sneer: "It's really a group of stubborn guys, everyone, come with me to pacify the Xingyue Divine Sect!"
"Abide by the decree of the Holy Maiden." All the powerhouses of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall said in unison.
Gong Qianqiu took the lead in this battle, and has completely won the respect of the high-level officials and disciples of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall.
"kill!"
Gong Qianqiu gave an order, and the army of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall shouted and killed, and directly attacked the main gate of the Xingyue Divine Sect.
The masters walked in the air and directly entered the city for a decisive battle, while the disciples fought under the city.
Mu Rong Wanqing also ordered to start, and the two armies fought against each other,
and they fought in one place in an instant.
It can be clearly seen that the two sides have not fought for how long, and the Sun
Moon Divine Fire Palace has already controlled the situation.
On the battlefield, the scene of the powerful Xingyue Sect being besieged by many people of the same level or even stronger can be seen everywhere, and the ending can be imagined.
Gong Qianqiu continued to take the lead, wielding the long sword in his hand, and three elders of the Xingyue Shenzong had become the souls of her sword.

Mu Rong Wanqing had the intention to rescue her, but she was besieged by the three elders of the Sun and Moon Divine Fire Palace, and she was unable to protect herself.
Gong Qianqiu felt that it was rather boring after beheading the elder of the Xingyue Divine Sect, and his eyes were directly placed on Mu Rongwanqing.
"If you can kill the Sect Master of the Xingyue Divine Sect, the prestige of this sect leader in the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple will definitely be improved to a higher level." Thinking of this, Gong Qianqiu held a long sword, like a ghost, and stabbed directly at the back of Mu Rong Wanqing's heart.
"Danger!"
Mu Rongwanqing, who was struggling to deal with the siege of the three masters, froze in her heart, and out of instinct, she tried her best to dodge to the side.
However, after all, it was half a beat, and the shoulder muscles were directly penetrated by the long sword, causing Mu Rong Wanqing to take a deep breath.
"What a quick response."
Gong Qianqiu was slightly surprised, she thought Mu Rong Wanqing was restrained by the three elders, and she could easily kill her.
He didn't think that he not only avoided the ultimate move, but also counterattacked. In desperation, Gong Qianqiu had to draw his sword and retreat, and then he avoided the cold palm wind.
However, the rest of the elders also saw the needle and took advantage of this opportunity to directly attack Mu Rong Wanqing.
Mu Rong Wanqing was caught off guard and hit three palms again, and immediately vomited blood and her breath shriveled.
Fortunately, the other two elders of the Star Moon Sect rushed to rescue in time, otherwise Mu Rong Wanqing would most likely die on the spot in the next siege.

Although Mu Rong Wanqing temporarily saved her life, her serious injury also made the already precarious Star Moon Divine Sect even worse.
The main general's injury was extremely fatal to the imposing manner of the Star Moon God Sect.
The disciples and elders of the Xingyue Divine Sect continued to return to Jiuyou, and Mu Rongwanqing, who was supported and retreated again and again, felt sorrow in her heart.
"Could it be that the Xingyue Divine Sect, which has lasted for more than two hundred years, is about to be destroyed by my hands?"
"Could it be that you really should have listened to the opinions of the elders and went to the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple to surrender yourself?"
"Forget it, it's useless to think about it now."
Mu Rong Wanqing let out a long sigh, watching her disciples keep coming down, her heart was extremely sad, and she slowly closed her eyes.
Gong Qianqiu said loudly: "Everyone continues to attack, they can't hold on for long, step down the Xingyue Divine Sect, kill the Xingyue Divine Sect Sect Master."
"Stand down the Xingyue Sect and kill the Sect Master of the Xingyue Sect."
The masters of the Sun and Moon Divine Fire Hall shouted in unison, and their prestige directly made the disciples of the Xingyue Divine Sect shudder.
"kill!"
Gong Qianqiu charged with a group of elders again, this time targeting Mu Rong Wanqing.
Mu Rong Wanqing slowly opened her eyes. At this moment, she didn't have any thoughts of resistance, waiting for death to come.
"Is the sect of Laozi, how can you say that it can be destroyed when it is destroyed?"
At this moment, an extremely cold voice came.
The sound exploded in the ears of everyone like a thunder on the ground, making everyone dizzy.

The Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall, which was rushing forward, also suddenly stopped and looked in the direction of the sound.
Swish!
What caught the eye was an extremely dazzling incandescent light, and most people were temporarily blinded.
"Go back, that's sword energy!"
Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall Grand Elder reminded.
Before he finished speaking, the blazing sword energy was already in front of him, and many powerhouses had no time to dodge.
Chi Chi Chi!
Everyone faintly felt the pressure of the terrifying arc, and then lost all senses.
Clap clap!
The arc swayed, and in an instant, more than ten top powerhouses in the Sun Moon
Divine Fire Hall were bombarded into coke.
Immediately, it was blown away by the aftermath of the violent sword energy and reduced to powder, which dissipated in the air.
"Ahhh!"
Screams and howls came one after another.
Obviously, the lethality of the sword qi that followed was far more terrifying than the electric arc.
The nearest dozens of elders of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall were instantly disintegrated by the sword energy, forming blood mists in the void.
The elite disciples in the back were even worse, and before they even had time to let out their screams, they were taken to hell by the sword energy.
Clap!
The sword qi finally slashed two miles outside the gate of the Xingyue Divine Sect, forming a bottomless ravine that was dozens of meters wide.
It didn't take long for a source of water to emerge, like a natural moat.
On both sides of this 'moat' is already a sea of corpses and blood.
The powerhouses of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall in the front died tragically, and the elite disciples in the rear were also not much better.

The energy hurricane formed by the aftermath of the sword qi swept through, and these disciples were far less powerful than the elders, and they were instantly killed by the sword qi energy.
There were stumps and broken arms everywhere around the gully. With this single blow, only a very few survived the power of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple to attack
the Xingyue Divine Sect.
The power of a sword is so terrifying!
Gong Qianqiu was also shocked and flew out, and the blood in her chest surged.
Although she was trying to suppress it, there was still blood overflowing from the corner of her mouth.
"Who?"
Gong Qianqiu suddenly looked in the direction of the breath.
I saw a figure slowly falling from the sky like a god, and finally suspended in the void in front of the city wall.
Gong Qianqiu observed carefully, and saw the sword in his left hand and the sword in his right hand.
"Could it be a real peerless magic weapon?"
Gong Qianqiu was so shocked that his eyes were extremely fiery.
No wonder the sword just now had such power, it must be the reason for the top peerless divine weapon.
Gong Qianqiu held her breath and continued to observe carefully. At this moment, she really did not dare to act rashly.
The coming person's gestures showed the breath of a peerless powerhouse, and even the temple master of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple was far from being able to compare.
What shocked Gong Qianqiu the most was that there was a strong Dao rhyme around the body of the visitor, as if it was integrated with the heaven and the earth.

“Why does it feel familiar?”
Although the appearance of the visitor is unclear, Gong Qianqiu still has a feeling of deja vu.
However, regardless of the opponent’s cultivation realm or the peerless divine weapon in his hand, there is no such level of powerhouse in the impression.
This made Gong Qianqiu puzzled.
After carefully observing the visitor, a figure appeared in Gong Qianqiu’s mind.
“Why do I suddenly think of Levi Garrison?”
Gong Qianqiu immediately threw this thought out of the sky.
The person in front of him is holding a peerless magic weapon, and he can kill many strong men with one sword. How can Levi Garrison compare?
Thinking that even his current cultivation level is enough for Levi Garrison to look up.
How can a mere ant in the secular world be compared with the peerless powerhouse in front of me?
“Who is your Excellency, who dares to take care of our Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall’s business?”
Gong Qianqiu tried his best to control the fear in his heart and asked tentatively.

“You don’t deserve to know who I am, get out of here before I change my mind, or don’t blame me for being cruel.”
Sen Ran’s voice sounded again, making Gong Qianqiu fall into an ice cave.
Although I don’t understand why the other party didn’t kill me, it was definitely a pleasant surprise to be able to escape.
Gong Qianqiu does not think that he is the opponent of this strong man like a god.
“You really let me go?” Gong Qianqiu couldn’t help but asked again.
There was no response from the other party, Gong Qianqiu did not dare to stay, and urged the practice to quickly evacuate, and there was no trace in the blink of an eye.

There was an uproar after a moment of silence.
"Is the Sect Master back?"
"It's really Ye…Sect Master."
"It's only been such a long time, and the strength of the sect master has increased so much?"
"We're saved, right?"
The joy of the rest of the life made the scene boil again.
Many disciples of the Xingyue Divine Sect embraced and cried.
After experiencing despair just now, there is hope again in a flash, and the huge change in heart caught everyone off guard.
Even the absolute core powerhouses of the Divine Star Moon Sect like Mu Rong Wanqing felt like a dream.
"What? You haven't seen each other for more than two months and you don't know each other?"
Levi Garrison asked with a smile.
Only then did Mu Rong Wanqing and the others fully react, confirming that everything in front of them had really happened.
"Sect Master, is it really you? It's really you!"
Mu Rong Wanqing cried with joy, God knows what kind of pressure she has endured during this time.
Others also crowded up to say hello, especially those core executives who had complained that Levi Garrison was a scourge before were instantly ashamed.
Buzz!
At this moment, a cloud boat slowly landed in the main rudder, and everyone instantly became nervous again.
"Don't worry, it's your own." Levi Garrison's words instantly reassured everyone.
Of course, it also added a bit of confusion to everyone, because some people recognized the logo of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce on the cloud boat.
After a while, Gongsun Yueying jumped off the cloud boat.

Levi Garrison did come to the rescue in a cloud boat before, but then Levi Garrison felt that he was faster.
So Gongsun Yueying was asked to drive the cloud boat normally, and he was the first to arrive at the helm for rescue.
In fact, it is fortunate that Levi Garrison made such an arrangement, otherwise, even if he came to the Xingyue Sect, he would have been destroyed.
The stars and the moon will usually surround Levi Garrison and enter the main helm hall, with Levi Garrison sitting in the middle.
"Sect Master, why didn't you kill the new saint of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall? She killed quite a few elders in the sect!"
Mu Rong Wanqing was the first to ask her doubts.
Levi Garrison said solemnly, "Someone will take her life, I don't want to take it for you."
Gong Qianqiu wanted to keep it for Xiao Feng to kill himself, which was the main reason why Levi Garrison let her go.
Seeing that Levi Garrison didn't mean to say anything, Mu Rongwanqing didn't ask any more questions, and immediately shifted the topic to Yunzhou.
Levi Garrison didn't hide it at all, and directly told the story of the Dragon Burial Valley.
After hearing this, the core executives of the Xingyue Shenzong gasped for breath and marveled that Levi Garrison even dared to kill the members of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce.
Of course, there is nothing more shocking than Levi Garrison's strength.
The might of the sword that Levi Garrison displayed in front of the main rudder city gate, everyone saw it with their own eyes, it was a miracle!
"As long as I am here, the Xingyue Divine Sect will become the largest sect in the Kunlun Ruins." Levi Garrison said proudly.
Although Levi Garrison's words are very pie-in-the-sky, the senior members of the Xingyue Divine Sect are convinced.

Terrifying personal combat power and top-level forging techniques, both of which are the core competitiveness of becoming a top-level sect.
The news of the Xingyue Divine Sect being rescued, the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall being nearly wiped out, and the return of the thugs, these messages came out one after another.
Many sectarian forces in Kunlun Ruins were shocked.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4112 -
Within three days after the Xingyue Shenzong was rescued from a desperate situation.
The news of the return of the bandits spread like wildfire, and the sectarian forces of all parties were instantly sensational.
Wind and Cloud Sword Sect.
There was an uproar in the conference hall.
"How is it possible that the bandit is still alive? Didn't the Situ Hall Master assert that he had died in the Dragon Burying Valley?"
"He can't help but be struck by thunder with such a terrifying face. It's really incredible!"
"Back then, we followed the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple to the Dragon Burial Valley to besiege the bandits. If he finds out, is there any chance of survival?"
"Let's give up the sect first and go out to avoid the limelight!"
There was endless fear in everyone's words, and people were frightened and restless.
There are many small sects similar to Fengyun Sword Sect, all of which followed Sun Moon Shenzong to Bury Dragon Valley to surround and kill Levi Garrison.
These small sects are relatively weak, and they are all worried that Levi Garrison will investigate the details and settle accounts in the autumn.
For a time, everyone was in danger, and they could only choose to report to the group to keep warm, and the timid ones directly abandoned the helm of the sect and hid in the deep mountains and forests to avoid the limelight.
In the Taixu Shenzong.

Yin Xuejian, Dashengzi and others were surprised and horrified when they heard the news.
"The bandit came out of the Dragon Burial Valley alive?"
"Not only did he come out alive, but he also held a peerless weapon, greatly increasing his strength?"
"It's incredible, now we're in trouble."
"It's not just us, I'm afraid even the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple is in trouble."
The Great Holy Son sighed again and again, and the others were also full of sad faces.
The people of Taixu Shenzong were extremely frustrated. They thought that by virtue of Gong Qianqiu becoming the saint of the Sun Moon God Fire Temple, they could make the sect soar to the sky.
They never thought that not only would they not be able to achieve success, but instead they would be the first to come to disaster. This huge psychological gap really made it difficult for them to accept.
Yin Xuejian frowned deeply, and said solemnly: "If it really doesn't work, we will invest in the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall. Now is not the time to hold on."
The Great Holy Son shook his head again and again, and said bitterly: "We still have no information about the future, so we may not accept it if we rush to the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple!"
The others shook their heads and sighed when they heard the words, and a strong sense of crisis lingered in their hearts.
the other side.
The helm of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple.
Situ Wanli was about to go crazy with anger, and the hall was full of crispy cups.
The other high-level officials of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall did not even dare to let out the air, and their expressions were extremely ugly.
"How is that possible? How is this possible? Does that guy have an immortal golden

body?”
Situ Wanli roared, he really didn’t know how Levi Garrison survived such a terrifying thunderstorm.
“You guys are talking! Who can tell me why?”
The veins on Situ Wanli’s forehead collapsed, apparently on the verge of going completely mad.
“Palace Master, we need to gather the masters who have experienced outside as soon as possible to prevent the bandits from taking revenge.”
“And then there is the need to activate the guardian formation, and if necessary, ask a few Supreme Elders to help.”
“We must find the saint as soon as possible. She is the only strong person who survives at close range. Maybe she can know some inside stories of the gangsters.” “That’s right. Knowing ourselves and knowing the other side can make us invincible.
Although the strength of the bandits is terrifying, we may not have any chance of winning.”
Everyone has made plans, and they have realized the seriousness of the matter.
However, as a large-scale sect with a very deep background, if they cooperate with the guardian formation to have a home field advantage, they may not necessarily lose.
Situ Wan was sinking like water, but his emotions finally stabilized.
The reason why he lost control of his emotions just now was largely because Situ Wanli felt that he had lost all face.
After all, at that time, he announced in front of more than a hundred sect members that the bandits would die, but was slapped in the face by the fact.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4113 - Wandao City.
Zijin Chamber of Commerce Branch.
The ominous premonition in Huangfu Hongsheng’s heart grew stronger.
They have been waiting for nearly two months, and the elders and others still haven’t returned.

What disturbed Huangfu Hongsheng the most was that there had been no news for five or six days in a row.
Huangfu Hongsheng sent a lot of inquiries, but it was like a stone sinking into the sea, not even a splash of water.
"Come on, send a ten-person team to the Buried Dragon Valley to investigate the information."
Huangfu Hongsheng finally couldn't hold back and gave the order. The leader of the team was three elders of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce Keqing.
Although the comprehensive combat power of this ten-man squad is not as strong as that of the Great Elder's team, it is similar.
The exploration team also came in a cloud boat. When they arrived at the Dragon Burial Valley, the vision of heaven and earth in the core area had already disappeared.
"There's nothing unusual here!"
"The great elder said before that the vision of heaven and earth has disappeared."
"Will something happen?"
These people are all well-informed people, and the Dragon Burial Valley at the moment is unremarkable.
Compared with the Jedi forbidden areas in the core area of Kunlun Ruins, it is very different. Under normal circumstances, how could it attract the attention of the Great Elder?
The disappearance of the vision of heaven and earth is most likely because the peerless treasures of heaven and earth no longer exist, and it is very likely that they were plundered by humans.
"Whether there is an accident, go to the core area of Buried Dragon Valley to find out, and move forward at full speed."
With the old command from the leader, Yunzhou's power source suddenly exploded, like an arrow from a string, heading towards the core area of the Buried Dragon Valley.

Although this cloud boat does not have an energy shield to protect against thunder, everyone in this team is equipped with a magic weapon to protect against thunder.
Coupled with their super strength, it didn't take long for them to enter the core area of the Buried Dragon Valley.
However, the scene in front of them shocked the members of the exploration team to their jaws.
The cold pool has dried up, the earth veins are showing huge cracks, and the earth vein flames are extremely weak and almost extinguished.
The rest of the area is a mess, with giant potholes bombarded by thunder.
Then there is the fault cut by the sword qi knife Gang.
Boom!
Clap clap!
After a burst of lightning and thunder, several thunderstorms poured down, just hitting more than ten corpses.
This is the corpse's clothes that have been blasted to ashes, the flesh and blood on the body has long ceased to exist, and only the corpse is still barely enduring the baptism of thunder.
"These bones are exactly seventeen."
The leader of the exploration team said in a dry voice.
The other members only felt a tingling in their scalps, and they all thought of a possibility.
"Quick… go and make sure."
The voice of the leader of the exploration team was trembling.
Everyone came to the corpse separately, and these corpses had long been bombarded by Tianlei beyond recognition.
However, the size of the bones can infer the body shape of the deceased during his lifetime.
In particular, the corpse of the first elder was relatively intact, and even half of his cheek was intact, which was recognized by everyone at a glance.

"It's the elder."
The leader of the exploration team sucked in a breath of air, and fear rose uncontrollably in his heart.
The entire army composed of seventeen peak powerhouses was destroyed, and Yulei Yunzhou also disappeared, which is enough to prove that it was caused by human beings.
"Look around and see if there are any other clues? I'll report to the president now."
After the leader of the investigation team gave the order, he took out the messenger and reported the situation of the Buried Dragon Valley truthfully.
Huangfu Hongsheng was furious when he got the news, which was clearly a provocation and contempt for the Zijin Chamber of Commerce.
"Damn, who dares to put his hand on the Zijin Chamber of Commerce?"
"Check it out for me, find the murderer at all costs, I will smash him to ashes."
Huangfu Hongsheng immediately ordered the Zijin Chamber of Commerce and its affiliated sects to investigate at the same time, and there were hundreds of sectarian forces, big and small.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4114 -
Seventeen top experts, including the Great Elder, were wiped out. This was something that had never happened since the establishment of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce.
Huangfu Hongsheng's furious rage not only caused the masters of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce and affiliated sects to come out.
Reward orders were also released within the sphere of influence of the major branches of Kunlun Ruins, and many sects were eager to move for a while.
"I heard that there is no? The Zijin Chamber of Commerce uses top-level natural treasures and divine weapons as rewards to investigate Yulei Yunzhou and the whereabouts of the murderer."

“God bone, Jiuyou Jade Blood Lotus, Qiong Yufeng Minghua… These are all invaluable existences!”
“Don’t be too busy to sigh, since the Zijin Chamber of Commerce has offered such a high price, the murderer may not be easy to deal with.”
“That’s inevitable. I heard that any one person in the team that was completely destroyed can reach the cultivation level of an ordinary large-scale sect leader.”
“Teams with such combat power have been wiped out. It is conceivable how terrifying the murderer is. These treasures are not easy to obtain.”
Considering their own lack of strength, there are many small sects who have retreated.
However, there must be brave men under the heavy reward, and there are also many large sects who claim to be strong like clouds to invest in the investigation.
For a time, countless sectarian forces were eager to inquire about the information related to the murderer of the Dragon Burial Valley Massacre.
Although the Longyang City Taiyi Chamber of Commerce branch is located in a remote location, Wei Shuyang, the branch president, is very well informed.
He learned of the reward order from the Zijin Chamber of Commerce right away, and immediately summoned the core executives to a meeting to discuss countermeasures.
“This matter is too much coaxing. The Zijin Chamber of Commerce has never suffered such a big loss in the past 100 years. It is no wonder that they will issue a high price reward.”
“Levi Garrison’s actions are indeed too extreme. The seventeen top-level expert teams have all been wiped out, and even Yunzhou has taken it for himself.”
“The Zijin Chamber of Commerce is really angry this time. It is said that the sects of the entire Wandao City have been dispatched. What should we do?”
“Will you be targeted by the Zijin Chamber of Commerce if you don’t report it? Our Taiyi Chamber of Commerce is far less powerful than the Zijin Chamber of Commerce!"

The senior members of the Taiyi Merchant Congregation were a little panicked and turned their attention to Wei Shuyang.
Wei Shuyang's thoughts were also surging. He admitted that Levi Garrison was very strong, but the reward from the Zijin Chamber of Commerce was really hard to resist.
It is said that more than 100 large-scale sectarian alliances have sent absolute elites to intervene in the investigation, and the entire Wandao City is almost poured out.
You must know that a sect of the level of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall is simply not ranked in Wandao City.
No matter how strong Levi Garrison was, he would never be able to resist it by himself.
"Can't you just see the bad side?"
Wei Shuyang was a little unhappy, and the scene time was quiet.
Everyone was an old man who had been in the world for many years, so they naturally understood what Wei Shuyang meant, and there were indeed many benefits to befriending Levi Garrison.
Wei Shuyang really didn't want to lose Levi Garrison as a partner. He was very aware of the value of a top forging master.
Especially when I saw the two peerless weapons in Levi Garrison's hands at the edge of the Buried Dragon Valley before, even the works of the God of War may not be the best.
"Go down first! I will ask the headquarters for instructions before making the final decision."
Wei Shuyang said solemnly.
Screening back, Wei Shuyang directly took out the communication tool and contacted the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce headquarters.
He intends to clarify the great value of Levi Garrison and apply for the sect to send Taiyi

Shenzu strong for maximum protection.
If it really doesn't work, let the headquarters send someone to negotiate with the Zijin Chamber of Commerce to discuss compensation for the corresponding cultivation resources.
After all, Levi Garrison's value is immeasurable, and if he forges a few peerless weapons, he can make the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce soar.
Taking 10,000 steps back is really impossible, so I want the Zijin Chamber of Commerce to fight, and Levi Garrison must be protected from the Zijin Chamber of Commerce.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4115 - After reporting the situation to the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce headquarters, the president did not immediately give an exact reply, saying that it was necessary to convene high-level leaders to discuss and decide.
After all, the Zijin Chamber of Commerce is very powerful, and the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce may fall into the Jedi of doom if it is careless.
Even if the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce can finally retreat, I am afraid it will pay a very heavy price.
Of course, the value of Levi Garrison is indeed inestimable. Whether it is personal combat power or top-level forging skills, it can make Taiyi Chamber of Commerce to a higher level.
The pros and cons must be weighed before a final decision can be made.
Wei Shuyang also expressed his understanding of this, because this decision can even be said to be related to the life and death of the entire Taiyi Chamber of Commerce.
After the report was completed, Wei Shuyang contacted Levi Garrison for the first time.
He will tell all kinds of information about the Zijin Chamber of Commerce and tell Levi

Garrison to be careful and vigilant in the near future, and the sectarian forces who are looking for trouble must be indispensable.
Levi Garrison smiled bitterly. He planned to leave Kunlun Ruins after forging many peerless divine weapons.
I never thought that the Zijin Chamber of Commerce would make such a big move. If they left at this time, the Xingyue Divine Sect would definitely be slaughtered.
Moreover, he will not give up if he finds his opponent, and it is definitely not what Levi Garrison wants to burn the war into the secular world at that time.
"Since they want to take revenge, I'll wait here."
"I just want to see how capable Wandaocheng is!"
"There is still a Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace that has not been completely resolved, so let's take this opportunity to clean it up together!"
Levi Garrison made up his mind to stay behind the Xingyue Shenzong directly.
the other side.
Inside the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall.
Since Gong Qianqiu escaped from an injury and reported all the information, the people in the hall were panicked.
Even Situ Wanli and other hall master elders were scared to death.
According to Gong Qianqiu's description, once the bandits attack the Sun Moon God Fire Hall, the sect will be destroyed.
After all, the bandits killed so many strong men in the temple with just one strike, and no one in the entire Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple could do it.
"Let go of the wind, I will take out all the treasures in the inventory. As long as you are willing to become the guest of the Sun Moon God Fire Palace, you are eligible to choose treasures."
Situ Wanli said solemnly.
In order to gather masters to resist the bandits, Situ Wanli has done everything he can.
Although it will cause the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple to lose a lot of heaven and earth treasures, it is a matter of life and death for the sect. Situ Wanli believes that it is all worthwhile.

at the same time.
Gong Qianqiu was also very irritable at the moment.
I thought that the saintess of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace would be able to enjoy infinite scenery, but this position is still hot, and the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace is about to be destroyed.
Even as the new saintess, she must have been on the must-kill list of gangsters.
"Why didn't he kill me when we fought before?"
Gong Qianqiu was puzzled.
At that time, the fierce bandits used their swords from a long distance, and all the powerhouses in the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace were killed.
"Is it just pure luck?"
"That's not right. Later, the bandit made it clear that he could leave. Is there any hidden meaning behind this?"
Gong Qianqiu thought that he had a splitting headache or could not get an answer, so he put aside this question for the time being.
Now that the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace is in a precarious situation, it is bound to be miserable to continue to stay, and we can only find a way to prevent this disaster from coming.
"But I still don't fully understand the depth of Kunlun Ruins!"
Gong Qianqiu sighed faintly, in the face of absolute strength, he is really helpless!
However, it was not her character to sit still, so she had to continue to think of ways.
After two days and nights, Gong Qianqiu finally thought of a way.
"As of now, I can only lead out the suzerain of the Taixu Shenzong."
Gong Qianqiu was like a dick, and a smile appeared on his face involuntarily.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4116 -
Gong Qianqiu learned that the sect master of Taixu Shenzong came from a transcendent huge force.

A sect at the level of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall is far from being comparable to it.
If the master of the Taixu Shenzong is involved in this battle, perhaps the current predicament can be solved.
After making up his mind, Gong Qianqiu began to implement the plan.
First let Xuan Ming and Duguxiao withdraw their own people from Taixu Shenzong from the sect in the name of performing tasks.
Immediately afterwards, Gong Qianqiu easily turned into a bandit according to his memory, and his attire naturally changed to that style, and he directly attacked the helm of the Taixu Shenzong.
The night is like ink, dark clouds cover the moon.
Gong Qianqiu, holding a long sword, quietly sneaked into the Taixu Shenzong.
She was too familiar with the layout of the various sentries of the Taixu Shenzong, and Xuan Ming and others deliberately left a loophole before leaving.
This makes Gong Qianqiu completely free from the risk of being discovered.
According to normal circumstances, with Gong Qianqiu's strength, it is absolutely impossible to sneak into the core area of Taixu Shenzong without being discovered.
Aside from others, Yin Xuejian and the Great Holy Son will at least feel it.
In particular, the Taixu Shenzong has been crowded with sentries during this time, and a forced entry will inevitably conflict with the sect guards.
Even if Gong Qianqiu can use his powerful strength to kill him in seconds, the movement created will be completely exposed.
Once this happens, it is bound to not match the strength of the gangsters, and it will even cause a lot of doubts.
"It's better to sneak into the core area without leaving a trace, and kill the absolute top of
the Taixu Shenzong."
Gong Qianqiu was extremely fast, and in just a few breaths, he had already sneaked out of the discussion hall.

Although it was late at night, the lights in the conference hall were bright at this moment.
Gong Qianqiu secretly probed and found that the core executives of Taixu Shenzong were discussing countermeasures, how to deal with the revenge of the bandits.
"What else are you discussing? This sect master is merciful to help you."
Gong Qianqiu sneered in his heart, changed his male voice directly, and sneered: "You don't have to bother to design, I have already come, come out and die!"
Gong Qianqiu inquired about a lot of information about the bandits. In order not to reveal flaws, he even strictly followed the way of speaking.
As soon as the voice fell, it was like a stone that stirred up a thousand waves.
After a brief silence in the discussion hall, the pot exploded in an instant.
Yin Xuejian and other high-level executives all changed their faces drastically, and they panicked in an instant.
The record of the bandits is too terrifying, even people as strong as the Sun Moon God Fire Palace are panicked, not to mention they are too imaginary God Sect.
"It's a gangster, this way of speaking is a gangster."
"What should we do? We are not his opponents at all!"
"Get out!"
Everyone's face was as pale as paper, and their voices were shaking.
Yin Xuejian said solemnly: "What are you panicking about? After all, this is the base camp of the Taixu Shenzong. Hurry up and start the guardian formation, and the rest will follow me out to meet the enemy."
When everyone heard the words, they looked at each other in dismay, and they found that Yin Xuejian's legs were shaking slightly when he said these words.
"A group of rats, if they don't come out, I will kill them."
The cold voice came again.
Yin Xuejian drew out his long sword and rushed out against the scalp.
The Great Holy Son and the others followed closely, and everyone drew their swords, but the expressions on their faces were extremely ugly.
They all know that this battle is more auspicious and less fortunate.

Even if this is the base camp of the Taixu Shenzong, the fact that the bandits can quietly come to the discussion hall is enough to show that their strength is far beyond the crowd.
After all, the patrolling guards outside are extremely strict, and it can almost be said that not even a bird can fly in.
But the bandits came in, the patrolling guards did not issue any warnings, and even the defensive formation was not triggered, which was incredible.
"Who are you to dare to break into the Taixu Shenzong at night?" Yin Xuejian asked, trying his best to control his nervousness.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4117 -
"It's ridiculous to be frightened by the gangsters into this kind of virtue, and to even hold on to it."
The expressions of the powerhouses of the Taixu Shenzong came into view, and Gong Qianqiu couldn't stop sneering in his heart.
Gong Qianqiu said solemnly: "I know why, didn't you just discuss how to deal with Laozi?"
"I heard that many sects followed the Sun Moon God Fire Temple to bury the Dragon Valley to kill Lao Tzu some time ago, and your Taixu Shenzong was the most active."
"I'm here today, and it's your turn to show your loyalty to the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple."
The faces of the senior members of the Taixu Shenzong were ugly again. How could they not understand the meaning of these words?
After the autumn, settle accounts and kill a hundred as an example.
Before in the Dragon Burial Valley, in order to cling to the thigh of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple, the Taixu Shenzong was the most active.
In particular, Yin Xuejian was extremely attentive, and he never thought that he would shoot himself in the foot, which made Yin Xuejian too regretful.

“We were also coerced by the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace, and we are also victims.
You should also go to the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace to settle accounts!”
The three saints said with a trembling voice.
He is now extremely fearful, especially when he feels the energy fluctuations emanating from the gestures of the person in front of him, there is absolutely no possibility of victory.
“I naturally want to destroy the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple, but I still decided that you Taixu Shenzong sacrifice flag, don’t talk nonsense, die!”
Before the words fell, Gong Qianqiu took the lead in launching an attack, and it was a sword against Yin Xuejian.
If you shoot a man, shoot a horse first, and if you capture a thief, capture the king first.
Gong Qianqiu knows this.
The terrifying sword energy roared out, and the area where it passed by in an instant seemed to be cut open.
After this period of cultivation, and the continuous devouring of the power of the dragon veins, Gong Qianqiu’s strength has risen to a higher level.
“So strong!”
Yin Xuejian and others all took a deep breath. He didn’t dare to take it hard, and tried his best to dodge to the side.
Swish!
The sword qi directly split the main entrance of the conference hall in half, and the long and narrow ravine stretched dozens of feet.
Yin Xuejian was able to dodge, but the two Taixu Shenzong elders standing behind him were not so lucky.
The two were directly hit by the sword energy and the aftermath, and died on the spot in an instant.
“Give me all to die!”
Gong Qianqiu did not give the other party any chance to breathe, and slaughtered directly.

For a while, the sword qi crisscrossed, and in the face of the huge gap in strength, any tactics had little effect, and the high-level powerhouses of Taixu Shenzong suffered heavy casualties.
Only a few holy sons tried their best to support, and even Yin Xuejian was completely suppressed. Only the power of parrying could not fight back.
"Why hasn't the Protectorate Great Formation been activated yet?"
Yin Xuejian asked angrily.
"Vice Sect Master, I just received a message that the whereabouts of the elder who was in charge of guarding the eyes of the big array are unknown, and the rest of the disciples were all killed."
There was shock and panic in the tone of the three saints.
Yin Xuejian's heart also sank to the bottom in an instant.
Gong Qianqiu sneered in his heart.
The elder who was in charge of guarding the activation of the guardian sect's eyes was the confidant of her development. She had been instructed in advance to kill the surrounding disciples and fled the scene.
"You stop him, the First Son and the Three Sons, we will retreat first."
The elite disciples who came under the command of Yin Xuejian blocked Gong Qianqiu, and he led all the saints to flee.
These elite disciples of the Taixu Shenzong were in a cold sweat, and the deputy sect master actually took them as cannon fodder and went to escape first?
"Those who stop you will kill without mercy, and those who get out of the way, I will spare your life."
Following Gong Qianqiu's words, everyone quickly flashed a path.
No one's life was blown by the strong wind, Yin Xuejian and others escaped, and they had no will to fight.
Yin Xuejian and others hadn't escaped very far. Seeing this scene, they almost spit out a mouthful of old blood.
"A bunch of trash!" Yin Xuejian cursed.

However, this anger has not been fully vented, and a sword qi will be headed towards him.

A strong crisis warning rose in his heart, and Yin Xuejian tried his best to fly to the side.

The sword qi whizzed past, causing Yin Xuejian's back to sweat coldly.

The elder who thought that the Taixu Shenzong couldn't dodge, was directly split in half by the sword qi, and died before he even snorted.

"Old thing, it's quite quick to hide."

Gong Qianqiu cursed in his heart.

Chased and killed all the way to the forbidden area of the back mountain of Taixu Shenzong.

The jungle in this area is full of strange rocks, and Yin Xuejian and others have slowed down a lot. The road here is really rough.

"You have no way to escape."

Gong Qianqiu took the lead to block the way.

Yin Xuejian and others' hearts sank to the bottom in an instant, and their hands holding the sword were shaking violently.

"The strength of the bandits is really strong, and the elders in the sect have been completely destroyed by chasing them all the way."

"Now there are only a few holy sons left around to support, and there is no chance of winning at all!"

Yin Xuejian's face was as pale as paper, but it was too late to escape.

"Do you really want to kill them today?" Yin Xuejian wanted to fight again.

Gong Qianqiu said solemnly: "Nonsense, or I will chase and kill you for so long? Stop talking nonsense, and die!"

It is common to swing, and the sword qi criss-crosses to form a net of heaven and earth, covering directly in the direction of Yin Xuejian and others.

"Fight him."

Yin Xuejian resisted bravely. At this moment, he had already tried his best, but his cultivation was too different from that of the opponent, and the effect of the sword qi he stimulated was minimal.
The Great Holy Son, the Third Holy Son, and the Seven Holy Sons also shot, but under Gong Qianqiu's mercury-like attack, it didn't take long for the resistance to collapse.
"Run separately, you will die if you resist like this."
Yin Xuejian shouted loudly. At this moment, there were several wounds on his body, and the red blood dyed his coat red.
The Great Holy Son and others are not much better, their strength is weaker, and their injuries are more serious.
"Want to run?"
Gong Qianqiu snorted coldly and stepped up the attack again.
The first son, the three sons, and Yin Xuejian were hit in the legs one after another, and fell directly to the ground in embarrassment.
Only the Seven Holy Sons escaped under Gong Qianqiu's deliberate retention, and the figure disappeared into the dense jungle.
In order to ensure that the Seven Holy Sons escaped, Gong Qianqiu also deliberately attacked continuously with swords in the general direction.
The terrifying sword light instantly smashed the surrounding trees and rocks into shards, and the Three Holy Sons fled to the depths of the forbidden area without looking back.
Gong Qianqiu did not continue to chase and kill, but turned around and came to Yin Xuejian and others.
Several of them crawled forward with difficulty, and each of them had a bone-deep wound on their leg, and it was impossible to stand up again.
"Don't bother, I can't let you escape at all."
Gong Qianqiu did not continue to change his voice.
The sudden female voice made Yin Xuejian and others stunned, especially the Great Holy Son, because this voice was too familiar to him.

“Gong Qianqiu? But how is this possible?”
After all, the Great Holy Son has a close relationship with Gong Qianqiu, and they all know each other very well.
But how could Gong Qianqiu do such a thing? The key is that there is no reason to slaughter the powerhouses of the Taixu Shenzong!
The first saint turned his head to look at the other two companions, and found that Yin Xuejian and the three saints were equally stunned and shocked.
The ominous premonition in my heart grew stronger.
“You are… Gong Qianqiu?” Yin Xuejian asked tentatively.
Gong Qianqiu released energy to probe around, but did not find any suspicious breath, so he was completely relieved.
“I thought that this black light was blinding, and the deputy suzerain could not recognize Qianqiu with his old eyes? Cluck!”
“But it’s okay, everyone is in the same class, I can’t bear to let you all be confused.”
Gong Qianqiu couldn’t stop laughing, his tone was full of jokes and contempt.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4119 - sizzle!
Yin Xuejian and others were instantly stunned and stunned. Their unremarkable faces were very unfamiliar, but their voices were very familiar.
The key point is that the other party actually admits that he is Gong Qianqiu.
The thoughts in the three people’s minds were a little confused for a while, and they really didn’t understand why Gong Qianqiu pretended to be a gangster and slaughtered the top of the Taixu Shenzong.
“Qianqiu you… why is this?”
The Great Holy Son’s voice was extremely dry, and the doubts in it could not be added.
Gong Qianqiu sighed and said helplessly: “Who made me think of using your death to deal with the bandits?”
“Using our deaths to deal with gangsters?”

Yin Xuejian and others kept thinking about this sentence, and soon they understood the true meaning of it.
"Are you planning to destroy the Taixu Shenzong, and lead the Sect Master and the forces behind him to deal with the bandits?"
Yin Xuejian's voice trembled, his eyes fixed on Gong Qianqiu's plain face.
Gong Qianqiu said with a smile: "As expected of the deputy suzerain, this mind turns really fast enough, as a reward, it will give you a good time."
Yin Xuejian and others were shocked again. If it was as Gong Qianqiu said, then they would have no chance of surviving.
"Qianqiu, why are you and my husband like this?"
"As long as you can spare my life, I will cooperate with you to sing this play well, and I will definitely let Zong take the initiative."
"And you know that my husband is highly valued by the sect master, and my opinions and suggestions will be adopted with a high probability, leaving me with great benefits and no harm."
The Great Holy Son begged bitterly.
Gong Qianqiu snorted coldly and said, "A husband and wife? Thank you for being able to say it. If it wasn't for the fact that the sect leader was eager to gain a foothold in Taixu Shenzong, how could he be committed to you?"
"I never thought that the strength of Taixu Shenzong is too weak, even if the pedal of this leader is not qualified, and now my strength is far greater than yours, you are not worthy to cooperate with this leader."
"But you are right in one sentence. It is precisely because you are highly valued by the sect master that you will arouse the anger of the sect master after you die."
"You and I……"
The Great Holy Son was speechless for a while, and he never thought of the biggest advantage he once had in the sect, but now it has become his life reminder.

Gong Qianqiu said coldly: "Saint Son, say goodbye to this world!"
"As a husband and wife, this sect master will make you die very happy, what do you think?"
The Great Holy Son wanted to say more, but suddenly caught a glimpse of a cold light, and immediately fell into endless darkness.
The sword beam slashed over, the Great Holy Son's head was in a different place, and his body fell to the ground.
The head rolled down to the foot of Gong Qianqiu, and the eyes were round and full of unwillingness and fear.
Gong Qianqiu leaned down slowly, stretched out his left hand, and closed the eyes of the great saint and said, "Husband, rest in peace!"
Yin Xuejian and the Sanshengzi were so frightened that they lost their souls when they saw this scene.
Gong Qianqiu was ruthless, and the eldest son who was lying on the bed was killed, let alone them?
"Qianqiu, no no no, Master Gong, the friendship between us is extraordinary. We were allies in the secular world at the beginning."
"And I'm willing to work under your command, just please forgive me…"
The word "Fate" behind the Three Saints has not yet been exported, Gong Qianqiu's long sword swept past and directly killed him.
The three holy sons have no time to make a sound, and their vitality has completely disappeared.
"Joke, if I didn't have your help back then, this sect master would be able to tide over the difficulties."
"Besides, with your help, I was almost killed by Levi Garrison. It's rubbish with more than enough success."
"Vice Sect Master, now it's your turn to die."
Gong Qianqiu slowly walked towards Yin Xuejian, and the long sword blade added a bit of coldness in the night sky.

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4120 - Qianqiu, what can't we discuss?"
"And during your time in the Taixu Shenzong, this seat can be said to treat you well!"
"Even entering the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace is a matchmaking bridge for this seat.
As long as you can let this seat go, this game will follow your instructions in the future."
Yin Xuejian was completely panicked, and he could clearly feel the murderous aura released by Gong Qianqiu.
The first and third saints were killed one after another, which completely broke Yin Xuejian's mind to maintain his dignity.
Now, in order to gain a chance of life, all the dignity and shame are thrown into the clouds.
Gong Qianqiu said with a smile: "Vice Sect Master Yin, it's just that you treat me well, so you live so long."
Yin Xuejian gave up completely, but his instinct for survival was very strong, which prompted him to run all the breath in his body and suddenly swung a sword at Gong Qianqiu.
However, Gong Qianqiu took the first step, and Yin Xuejian's waving arm stopped abruptly in mid-air.
An obvious bloodstain appeared on the neck, and the body fell heavily to the ground.
After finishing these, Gong Qianqiu didn't stop, turned around and rushed towards the helm of Taixu Shenzong.
Now that it has been decided to use the Sect Master of the Taixu Shenzong and the transcendent strength behind it to deal with the bandits, it is necessary to intensify the contradiction to the greatest extent.
It is far from enough to kill these core executives alone. It is said that the Taixu Shenzong is the lifelong effort of the mysterious sect master.

At the same time, it is also the capital for him to prove his energy to the transcendent forces. If he wants the suzerain to make a desperate move, he must destroy its foundation.

When Gong Qianqiu went back to the discussion hall again, the entire Taixu Shenzong was in chaos.

There were broken limbs and broken arms everywhere in front of the hall. Many elders of the Taixu Shenzong were killed on the spot, and the whereabouts of the deputy sect master and the saints were unknown.

With the dragons without a leader, the Taixu Shenzong was even more chaotic.

"Yin Xuejian, Dashengzi and others have been executed by Laozi in the forbidden area of the back mountain. You and others have helped Zhou to abuse them. Today, Laozi will kill him as a warning."

Gong Qianqiu learned Levi Garrison's way of speaking again, and directly scared everyone in the Taixu Shenzong to the point of death.

Without giving everyone a chance to react at all, Gong Qianqiu directly attacked the crowd, including the fierce tigers in the mountains, who brutally massacred the members of the Taixu Shenzong.

The confidants have withdrawn from the sect, so Gong Qianqiu has no scruples at this moment.

Jianmang criss-crosses, and wherever they pass, people are taken away with their lives.

At the beginning of the period, the disciples of Taixu Shenzong also used more people to resist.

But over time, they also clearly realized the huge power gap between each other.

"what!"

"Ouch!"

The screams and groans came one after another, and the disciples of the Taixu Shenzong were killed and fled.
Gong Qianqiu also did not pursue the pursuit, and directly aimed at the major buildings of the Taixu Shenzong and swung his long sword continuously.
Many iconic buildings were destroyed by the swept away of sword energy.
The main hall of the Taixu Shenzong rudder collapsed after a burst of explosions that shook the mountains.
This is the thunderstorm stone that Gong Qianqiu sent Xuan Ming and Duguxiao to secretly buried.
As long as the fuse is ignited, the explosive force released is no less than that of a super expert.
Boom!
The main hall was reduced to ruins.
Gong Qianqiu was suspended in mid-air, looking at the many disciples of the Taixu Shenzong fleeing in embarrassment, the corners of his mouth sneered.
"I heard that your suzerain is strong, remember to help Lao Tzu give him a word."
"The next time I come to Taixu Shenzong, it will be the day of your suzerain's death."
Gong Qianqiu roared.
The sound resounded through the heavens and the earth like a thunderbolt from the blue sky, spreading to every corner of the helm of the Taixu Shenzong.
The disciples of the Taixu Shenzong heard it very clearly, and the fear in their hearts had already reached its peak.
After destroying several main buildings in a row, Gong Qianqiu left Taixu Shenzong in the eyes of everyone's fear.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4121 -
Taixu Shenzong's forbidden area in the back mountain.
The Seven Holy Sons looked around cautiously, not finding the traces and auras of the bandits, this time he let out a long sigh of relief.

Even so, the Seven Holy Sons still did not appear rashly, and continued to lurch in the bushes for a long time, only to be assured that there was still no suspicious aura outside.
The strength of the bandit he met before was far beyond his cognition.
"I don't know what happened to the vice sect masters?"
The Seventh Holy Son was a little worried and returned along the same path, but after a while, he found a figure lying on the ground not far away.
An ominous premonition struck his heart instantly, and the Seventh Holy Son hurriedly stepped forward to investigate, it was the body of the Three Holy Sons.
Turning his head to look, there was a headless corpse lying not far to the southeast, and he felt that he had kicked something under his feet as soon as he took two steps.
The Seventh Holy Son looked down and saw the head of the Great Holy Son, and his body involuntarily stepped back.
"Boss!"
The Seventh Holy Son screamed in surprise, but he was stunned to find that the deepest part of his heart didn't seem as sad as he imagined.
Even the Seventh Holy Son himself did not realize that since he was deliberately guided by Gong Qianqiu, his friendship with the Great Holy Son had long been severely cracked.
"Could it be that the vice sect master also suffered an accident?"
The Seventh Holy Son was in a particularly uneasy mood, and sure enough, Yin Xuejian's body was found not far away.
"I am the only one left with the main high-level executives of the Taixu Shenzong?"
The Seven Holy Sons felt a little desolate in their hearts, and at this moment, they saw the direction of the helm of the Taixu Shenzong blazing into the sky in the distance.
From time to time, explosions sounded, and the Seven Holy Sons' mood sank to the bottom.

“The tactics of the bandits are really cruel, this is the plan to completely destroy the Taixu Shenzong!”
The Seven Holy Sons did not rush back to the sect, but directly took out a dark purple jade card in his arms.
This is the emergency communication tool that the sovereign gave him before he left.
After all, in the entire Taixu Shenzong, the skills of the Seven Holy Sons are the most special, and the Great Holy Son is very talented in cultivation.
It’s just that Gong Qianqiu didn’t have the opportunity to pass the message to the Great Holy Son.
“The sect has been destroyed, I implore the sect master to return quickly.”
The Seven Holy Sons were concise and to the point, and used the magic tool to send a letter to the suzerain.
However, the Seven Holy Sons did not know that the Sect Master was looking for someone to forge a divine weapon in a special ancient city.
The core area of Kunlun Ruins.
A magnificent city is suspended in the void.
The sky city is surrounded by clouds and mist, and countless cloud boats shuttle back and forth, especially these cloud boats are all in the shape of dragons and phoenixes, showing domineering and noble.
There are several rivers under the city of the sky, and these rivers are criss-crossed and poured down entirely from the city of the sky.
From a distance, it looks like a dazzling galaxy hanging upside down, full of extremely pure aura.
If you look closely, you will find that what pours down from the city of the sky is not ordinary water at all, but the liquid spiritual veins that are completely filled with the gods.
The liquid spirit energy is dazzling red gold, and the moment it falls into the river, it can stir up layers of powerful energy fluctuations.

Even the dragon veins are generally solid-state energy crystals, and different states indicate that the purity of the energy varies greatly.
When Levi Garrison was absorbing the energy of the dragon vein, he used basic work to quench the solid-state energy crystal into a liquid or even a gas to absorb it into the body.
Those rivers rush and flow, forming a huge circulatory system with the entire Sky City.
It makes the whole sky city surrounded by excellent special rhyme.
The streets above the Sky City are extremely wide, and the buildings on both sides are even more splendid and luxurious than Wandao City.
Crowds, spirit beasts, and cloud boats flow endlessly, and any store sells all the treasures of heaven and earth.
The decorative sculptures in front of any building are, at worst, made of top-grade dragon vein raw ore.
Especially when walking in the city, you can see the pure spiritual energy floating everywhere, and the spirit beasts similar to the cranes are flying and spinning, just like a fairyland on earth.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4122 -
The rhythm of this city in the sky is completely natural. Many monks practice their exercises and dance in the sky with spirit beasts, which is more like a fairyland in a painting.
Many buildings in the ancient city soared into the sky. Since the ancient city was already suspended above a hundred feet in the sky, those buildings even penetrated the clouds.
Under the sunshine, the ancient buildings are shining brightly, and they are full of charm.
"Whoosh!"
The cries of flying spirit beasts come and go one after another, as if forming a natural melodious movement, which can soothe the impetuousness in the hearts of practitioners.

Dragon-shaped and phoenix-shaped cloud boats shuttled back and forth inside and outside the ancient city, and many disciples of the sect welcomed and sent them to carry the best heaven and earth treasures.
Occasionally, a vision of heaven and earth appears in many ancient buildings, and even the pouring down spiritual water will suddenly accelerate, forming a perfect echo.
Whenever such a vision occurs, either someone has forged a peerless magic weapon, or someone has refined a peerless medicine pill, or someone has achieved great success in cultivation.
However, in the face of this phenomenon, people in the past did not care too much, and it seems that it has long been commonplace.
In the southwest region of Sky City, a middle-aged man with long hair stood in the sea of fire.
The middle man was wearing a rainbow-colored azure shirt, with a blue unicorn-colored auspicious cloud-patterned brocade tied around his waist, and his long hair draped over his shoulders, looking uninhibited.
The body is tall and straight, and the surrounding flames are steaming, like boiling magma constantly spewing upwards, but it doesn't seem to have any effect on him.
However, if you look closely, you will find that these red seas of fire are not real flames at all, but top-level fire spirit veins.
Those crimson boiling flames are condensed by the power of fire element and become energy essence.
If the essence of water element energy flowing down the ancient city of the sky, then the energy condensed by this 'sea of fire' is more solid and pure.
Ding Ding Ding!

The sound of tempering the sharp blade of the divine weapon kept coming, and an old man in silver armor was still pounding the long sword with a giant hammer.
"Why does Sect Master Liao suffer from the sea of fire here every day? It will take at least a month to build this peerless weapon."
The old man's vigorous voice came.
Liao Yelin sighed softly and said, "Senior Bingchi, you must also know what this magic weapon means to me."
The old man is proficient in the art of forging, and is the leading forging master in the entire Sky City.
Because he is obsessed with the art of forging and forgets to eat and sleep, he is also known as Soldier Chi because of his highest pursuit of forging various top-level weapons and sharp blades.
"Sect Master Liao, please rest assured, since the old man has agreed, he will create a satisfactory sword for you."
"At that time, the Taixu Shenzong will have the magic weapon to suppress the teaching, and the comprehensive strength will definitely be able to advance by leaps and bounds, reaching a new height."
Bingchi said confidently.
While speaking, Bingchi swung the giant hammer a little faster, and the blazing flames steamed, washing the long sword from time to time.
Liao Yelin stared at the magic weapon that was gradually taking shape.
This is the top forging material he has accumulated through untold hardships, and it took a lot of favors and costs to invite Bingchi to forge the magic weapon.
Liao Yelin came from a super power, but because of his qualifications, he was disliked by the power, and even became a marginal person.
Liao Yelin left the sect in a rage and decided to prove his worth with practical actions, so he founded Taixu Shenzong.

In the past, the Taixu Shenzong had not been able to reach the level of a large-scale sect because it did not have a magic weapon. This became Liao Yelin's heart problem.
Later, Liao Yelin left Taixu Shenzong and went to various forbidden places to find forging materials.
It can be said that this magical weapon in Bingchi's hands carries all of Liao Yelin's hopes.
The hope of improving the strength of the Taixu Shenzong, and the hope of thoroughly proving oneself to the sect of origin.
However, at this moment, the magic weapon in Liao Yelin's arms suddenly vibrated violently.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4123 -
Liao Yelin was startled, because this magic weapon was used for emergency contact.
Before leaving the sect, he handed over the three sub-arts to the first son, the seventh son, and Yin Xuejian.
When he set off, he made it very clear that unless there was a situation of life and death for the sect, he could use the sub-dharma to contact him.
"Is there a change in the Taixu Shenzong?"
Liao Yelin hurriedly took out the contact artifact, and the line of words on it made him instantly furious.
"The sect has been destroyed, I implore the sect master to return quickly."
Just ten words made Liao Yelin almost runaway.
Although it is not clear what happened, the Seven Holy Sons will never joke about the destruction of the sect.
Especially the Seventh Holy Son has always been calm, since he has said such words, it can only show that the real situation is even worse than imagined.
"Damn it! The peerless magic weapon is about to be completed, but the established sect has been destroyed. It's really maddening!"

Liao Yelin could not wait to fly back to the sect to check the specific situation, but it would still take a month for the sword to be truly perfected.
"Senior Bingchi, I am willing to give more chips, and I hope you can speed up the forging of magic weapons as much as possible."
There was a bit of anxiety in Liao Yelin's tone.
Bingchi also saw that something big was happening, he pondered for a moment and said: "No matter how fast the old man is, it will take 20 days, and no matter how fast it is, it will affect the grade of the magic weapon."
"Understood!"
Liao Yelin thought for a moment and replied directly to the Seventh Holy Son.
Twenty days later, the magic weapon will be released, and it will take ten days to calculate the travel consumption.
"One month from now, this seat will definitely rule the world with a peerless divine weapon."
Liao Yelin muttered to himself.
the other side.
The next morning.
The entire Taixu Shenzong disciples were still immersed in the fear of last night, unable to extricate themselves.
Mountains of corpses, seas of blood, and broken walls.
The original magnificent building complex has been reduced to ruins, which makes people feel sad.
The Seven Holy Sons returned to the sect to preside over the overall situation, and now he is the only one left in the absolute top of the Taixu Shenzong.
Of course, there are many elders, but those are all the confidants of Gong Qianqiu, and their status is naturally not as high as that of the Seven Holy Sons.
The news of the death of Yin Xuejian and others also spread in the sect, which made the morale that was already extremely low even worse.
Fortunately, the prestige of the Seventh Holy Son is very high, even surpassing the original Great Son in some respects. After all, the ability to detect spiritual veins is outstanding.

And having cultivation resources in Kunlun Ruins is equivalent to having everything.
Gong Qianqiu also came to inquire about the situation under the pretense, and she found the Seventh Son of the Son immediately.
"Xiao Qi, are you okay? How did Taixu Shenzong do this? Who dares to do something to our sect?" Gong Qianqiu asked knowingly.
Seeing the anxious look on Gong Qianqiu's face, Qi Shengzi's heart suddenly became hot, as if he had the backbone in an instant, and he almost burst into tears.
Because Gong Qianqiu first asked if he was okay.
"Sister, it was a bandit who attacked the sect at night. The deputy sect master and the boss were all killed."
The voices of the Seven Holy Sons trembled.
Gong Qianqiu's delicate body was shocked and almost fell, and the seven saints hurriedly helped.
"Sister, are you alright? My condolences and change!" The Seventh Holy Son comforted.
Gong Qianqiu's acting skills are superb, and his face is full of heartbreak and grief.
"The gangster killed my husband, and I swear I will not be a man if I don't avenge this revenge."
Gong Qianqiu burst into tears, and his acting skills killed all the actresses in seconds.
"Xiao Qi, now more than half of the masters in the sect have been damaged. It is impossible to deal with the bandits. Do you have any way to contact the sect master?"
This is what Gong Qianqiu is most concerned about.
The Seventh Holy Son sighed and said, "Sect Master replied not long ago, saying that it will take a month before he can return. He is waiting for the Peerless Divine Weapon to be trained."

There was no abnormality on Gong Qianqiu's face, but he was very disappointed in his heart.
It will take a month to come back. If the bandits suddenly arrive, there is still no way to stop it!
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4124 - Xingyue Divine Sect.
Inside the conference hall.
Levi Garrison sat in the middle, and all the senior members of the sect were in high spirits, sweeping away the previous decline.
The terror that Levi Garrison showed before has shocked everyone to the extreme.
The people of the gods believed in their hearts that as long as they followed Levi
Garrison, they could achieve success in a short period of time.
Especially just a few days ago, Murong Qingxue and Lei Kirin watched as members of the bounty hunter organization transported many divine weapons and treasures back to the Xingyue Divine Sect.
It made the senior members of the sect excited, not to mention the top ten swords, even those quasi-magic weapons were rare to see.
With the blessing of these divine weapons and sharp blades, the entire Xingyue Divine Sect can erupt ten times its previous combat power, which is still a conservative estimate.
"Master, the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple is too deceiving, how are you going to deal with them?"
"I'm willing to charge forward if you want."
Gongsun Yueying was the first to speak.
Ever since she learned that the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace had chosen Gong Qianqiu as the new saint, she had hated the Xingyue Divine Sect.
Coupled with the fact that he has obtained a quasi-magic weapon, Gongsun Yueying's confidence has greatly increased, and he is eager to prove to the Sun and Moon Divine Fire Palace that he is better now.

Levi Garrison pondered for a moment and said, "They organized more than 100 sects to besiege the Dragon Burial Valley, and then ignited the war to the Xingyue Shenzong. I will never forgive them."
"Sect Master, we just got the news that Taixu Shenzong was severely injured last night, and the deputy sect master and the Great Holy Son died in battle."
"Several landmark buildings of Taixu Shenzong were also destroyed, but it is said that…you did it. This is a typical frame-up!"
"I don't know if that bastard did it, and even put this hatred of hatred on your head."
Murong Qingxue said angrily.
Levi Garrison did not express his opinion, but he was already suspicious of the object in his heart, that is Gong Qianqiu, only she has the strength and motivation to do so.
Besides, this method of framing the blame is too familiar. It was rarely used in the secular world before, but it was in line with her usual style of behavior.
But Levi Garrison didn't take this matter to heart, and even if it was really what Gong Qianqiu did, he didn't plan to go into it.
After all, Gong Qianqiu will always leave it to Xiao Feng to solve it. This is a promise that has been promised long ago, and Levi Garrison will never overtake it.
It's just that they must be taught a profound lesson about what the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple did before.
"Xiao Lei, take my bow."
After thinking about this, Levi Garrison commanded in a deep voice.
"Wow!"
Lei Kirin gave a strange cry in response, and after a while, he walked slowly with a big bow hanging from his mouth.
That pace can be called the ceiling that the six relatives do not recognize the world, especially the expression on his face is extremely shy.

“This bow is called Broken Ruins, let’s use it to teach the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall a lesson today!”
Gong Qianqiu’s voice was extremely cold.
This bow is one of the ten strongest divine weapons forged by Levi Garrison.
The people of the Xingyue Divine Sect looked at the divine crossbow with burning eyes, and saw that the surface of the bow and arrow was surrounded by electric light, forming an extremely powerful halo of energy.
Although the bowstring is very thin, when it shakes slightly, it reveals extremely terrifying energy fluctuations.
Levi Garrison immediately took out two ruined arrows, which were also forged artifact bows and arrows, carrying extremely strong thunder power.
“One arrow is sent to the main helm of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple, and one arrow is sent to the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy. I hope you can have a little more memory.”
Levi Garrison drew his bow and arrow, and then spread the energy fluctuations in his body to sense the specific orientation of Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall and Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy.
Although the two sides are thousands of miles apart, the top-level divine soldiers possess extremely strong power and aura, which complement each other with Levi Garrison’s perception.
“Searched!”
Levi Garrison turned the direction of the arrow, and the divine arrow burst out.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4125 -
the other side.
The helm of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple.
Since learning of the return of the gangsters, the top leaders of the sects headed by Situ

Wanli have been intensively preparing to deal with the surprise attack of the gangsters.
The guardian formation was on standby for 24 hours throughout the entire process, and many experts from outside forces were also recalled.
Ordinary defensive formations are even more numerous. The Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple draws the sword from the top to the bottom and draws the bow and string, ready to deal with the occurrence of unexpected situations.
On this day, the sky was blue and cloudless.
The disciples of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall were still on guard as usual.
But at this moment, the Great Array of Protecting Sect shook violently, which was a crisis warning for terrorist hostile forces.
"There is an enemy attack, everyone is ready to fight!"
"All defensive formations are activated, and other disciples line up to defend against the enemy."
"Don't panic, everyone, with the Protector's Array, even the gangsters can't easily break through the line of defense."
However, before the last sentence was heard, the thick energy shield of the Protector's Great Array made a cracking sound.
Then it suddenly shattered, and a long arrow carrying a terrifying power of lightning continued to fly, and shot directly at the main building of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall.
At this moment, the high-level officials in the main hall were discussing the countermeasures to defend against the enemy, and they instantly sensed that the crisis was coming, and immediately ran all the exercises to carry out the area.
However, this divine arrow was as powerful as a bamboo, and after piercing through the great formation of the Protector Sect, its power continued to approach the various defensive formations of the main hall.
Boom!

The sounds of explosions and cracks came and went, but they still couldn't stand still for a moment, and were easily penetrated by the divine arrow.
"Get out!"
Situ Wanli reminded loudly, and then took the lead in fleeing into the distance.
Others were caught off guard, so they had to resist and try to combine the power of everyone to gain a chance of survival.
But they underestimated the power of Ruin Ruins Arrow after all, and they were directly hit by the terrifying power of thunder.
Nearly a hundred elder-level powerhouses were bombarded into coke by the violent power of thunder and lightning, and then blown away by the terrifying energy wind, and finally vanished into ashes.
Even Situ Wanli, who escaped first, was hit by the energy aftermath.
The qi and blood in the body surged for a while, but it was finally impossible to control it, and several mouthfuls of blood were spewed out in a row.
The main hall was also more than half destroyed by the violent energy storm, leaving only the ruins, which looked particularly miserable.
At almost the same time, Sun Moon Shenhuo Academy was also hit by the same level.
The main hall of the academy was also destroyed, and the peak powerhouses were almost completely destroyed.
However, most of the people on both sides survived in the end. Although the high-level powerhouses suffered heavy casualties, the foundation still survived, which was considered a fortune among misfortunes.
After this incident, Situ Wanli also realized a fact that he didn't want to admit. The strength of the bandits over there was far beyond imagination.
Even the matter of destroying the family is not interested in coming to the scene to do it.
These two arrows are equivalent to a naked warning.
With such a guess, Gong Qianqiu's high-hanging heart will be stable, at least in a short period of time, the gangsters should not come back for revenge.

Without any worries in this regard, Gong Qianqiu returned to Taixu Shenzong.
Today's Taixu Shenzong is almost all the confidants of Gong Qianqiu. Even if there are die loyalists of the former sect, they are forced to belong to Gong Qianqiu due to the situation.
"From now on, I don't want to hear the relationship between this seat and the Great Holy Son from Er et al. Otherwise, don't blame this seat for being ruthless."
Gong Qianqiu strongly warned the members of Taixu Shenzong.
Today's Taixu Shenzong is under control, and Gong Qianqiu wants to completely erase the relationship between himself and the Great Holy Son.
From now on, Gong Qianqiu is the saint of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace, and she is not married.
For this matter, the disciples of the Taixu Shenzong dare not disobey, and even the Seventh Holy Son agrees with Gong Qianqiu's approach.
After getting the satisfactory results, Gong Qianqiu has no worries at all, and then she has to plan for the real control of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4126 - Longyang City.
A team wearing the exclusive robes of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce went directly to the Longyang City Branch of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce.
This team is a top-level expert sent by the Zijin Chamber of Commerce, and is specially responsible for investigating the murderer of the Dragon Burial Valley Massacre in this area.
Although the real local snake in this area is the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, the Zijin Chamber of Commerce will have their exclusive information channel.
The investigation team soon discovered suspicious clues: the gangster had been to Longyang City before heading to the Dragon Burial Valley.

After following the vines, the Longyang City Branch of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce gradually surfaced.
Wei Shuyang was not surprised to learn that the people from the Zijin Chamber of Commerce came to the door. He knew very well that the latter did have this strength.
At the beginning, Levi Garrison almost had a fight in the trading hall of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, and there were not a few witnesses.
No matter how strong the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce is, it is impossible to block Yoyo's mouth. After all, there is no airtight wall in the world.
"I don't know that the friends of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce are here, and the president of this association has lost his way. I hope you will forgive me!"
"I just don't know what your friends are doing from afar?"
Wei Shuyang was the first to say hello.
No matter how bitter and hostile you are in your heart, you must do your best on the surface. This is a basic operation that can last in the Kunlun Ruins for a long time.
"President Wei intends to make it clear here? Is this the way your Taiyi Chamber of Commerce treats guests?"
The leader of the exploration team asked with some displeasure.
Although the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce is a local snake in this area, as the elder of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce who has passed Jianglong, he does not intend to sell the so-called affection to the other party.
They even had arrogant expressions on their faces, and they didn't take Wei Shuyang and others into their eyes at all.
Wei Shuyang was displeased in his heart, and he said without a smile, "Everyone, please, come here, watch the table and serve tea."
Entering the welcome hall, the old investigation team leader asked directly:
"President Wei, I came here to ask you about the situation of the bandits in the Buried Dragon Valley, and I hope you will tell everything you know."

Seeing that the other party was straight to the point, Wei Shuyang didn't intend to hide it, and said directly: "I know the details of the person you are looking for."
"Oh? What's the identity of the bandit?" The black-robed elder was very excited immediately. He had no idea that the other party would admit it so happily.
Wei Shuyang didn't tell him, but changed the subject and said, "This seat intends to save his life. I wonder if the Zijin Chamber of Commerce can give him another face?"
Before Wei Shuyang finished speaking, the black-robed elder suddenly stood up and said coldly, "Wei Shuyang, what do you think you are?"
"I dared to ask Zijin Merchant to give you face? If we give it to you, I'm afraid you won't be able to accept it, right?"
"Besides, that madman killed seventeen top powerhouses of my Zijin Chamber of Commerce, this blood debt must be repaid with blood, this seat advises you Taiyi Chamber of Commerce not to come to this muddy water, otherwise the consequences are not what you can bear. "
The black-robed elder's tone was cold and condescending, and he didn't take Wei Shuyang in the slightest.
Immediately afterwards, other members of the investigation team of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce also agreed.
"Do you want face? How much is the face of your Taiyi Chamber of Commerce worth? I don't know how high the sky is."
"Hurry up and hand them over, or else the Zijin Chamber of Commerce will be irritated, and even your Taiyi Chamber of Commerce will clean up together!"
"Everyone is at peace with each other normally, but it doesn't mean that the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce can be on an equal footing with the Zijin Chamber of Commerce."

“The Taiyi Chamber of Commerce is a long way off! Hurry up and hand over someone, or we will pacify the Longyang City Branch of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce.”
The more everyone talked, the more vigorous they were, until they almost pointed at Wei Shuyang’s nose and cursed.
Clap clap!
Wei Shuyang slammed the teacup to the ground, and the teacup made a crisp cracking sound.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4127 -
Deng Deng Deng!
A loud cry came.
Many Taiyi Chamber of Commerce powerhouses flocked to the reception hall and surrounded it.
Wei Shuyang stood up slowly, and said in a very cold tone: “This person is in the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce. You are so presumptuous, don’t you want to leave here alive?”
As soon as the words fell, all the strong men of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce released a cold murderous aura.
The black-robed elder looked gloomy and stared at Wei Shuyang with burning eyes.
“Wei Shuyang, is this your personal opinion, or the attitude of the entire Taiyi Chamber of Commerce?”
The black-robed elder said coldly.
Wei Shuyang’s eyes did not evade at all, and he met his gaze and said, “This person is guaranteed by the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce. Leave here as soon as possible before I change my mind, otherwise it will be hard to say what will happen next.”
“Very good! I hope you don’t regret the decision you made today.”
The black-robed elder got up and left, walked to the door and suddenly turned around and continued: “The headquarters of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce has issued an order, no matter who dares to block the killing.”

The black-robed elder really wanted to do it immediately, but he also understood that in the base camp of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, there was no chance for him to win.
Today's Qiu Xianxing is remembered in my heart, and it will not be too late to liquidate when the strong gather in the future.
Watching the investigation team leave aggressively, after a long time, Wei Shuyang also sighed faintly.
"This matter can't be done well. Whether the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce can go further depends on the outcome of this battle."
Wei Shuyang muttered to himself.
In fact, as Wei Shuyang expected, since the exploration team left Longyang City, more and more powerful people from Wandao City have gathered here.
There are also a lot of strong people in the Zijin Chamber of Commerce. For a time, it is like a hundred rivers meeting the sea, and Longyang City is instantly hot.
Facing such huge pressure, Wei Shuyang had no choice but to ask the headquarters for help.
Although the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce headquarters also decided to protect Levi Garrison through negotiation before, but after all, it is impossible to quench the thirst in the near future.
According to the eyeliner report, the Zijin Chamber of Commerce gathered around Longyang City and the strong affiliated sects of Wandao City are increasing exponentially.
According to this situation, it won't be long before the powerhouses of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce in Longyang City will be at an absolute disadvantage.
Once the other party launches a general attack, the Longyang City Branch may even risk the destruction of the entire army.
Thinking of this, Wei Shuyang also began to panic.
the other side.

Gong Qianqiu also got the message that the Zijin Chamber of Commerce was looking for revenge on the bandits, and instantly swept away the haze of his previous mood.
Not long ago, the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall and the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy were warned by the divine arrows one after another, and Gong Qianqiu was so full of fire that he had nowhere to vent.
And the suzerain of the Taixu Shenzong can only return after a month, which makes it impossible to organize effective forces to deal with the bandits in a short period of time.
This made Gong Qianqiu even more depressed.
"I don't know how strong this Zijin Chamber of Commerce is?"
Gong Qianqiu is a bit clueless, and the power displayed by the bandits is too terrifying.
Take those two divine arrows for example, they can exert such terrifying lethality from thousands of miles away.
Wouldn't it be even more devastating if it were used at close range?
"My sister doesn't know something, the comprehensive strength of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce is beyond imagination."
"As far as the Wandao City branch is concerned, Wandao City has countless sectarian powers, even if the sects of the Sun Moon God Fire Temple are not ranked there."
"What's more, in order to deal with the gangsters this time, even the headquarters of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce has sent experts to assist. If you want to come to the gangsters, you will definitely die."
The Seven Holy Sons explained.
The Seven Holy Sons used to explore the resources of the Dragon Vein, and had been to Wandao City, and had a good understanding of the strength of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce.
"That makes it even better to take advantage of this great opportunity."
Gong Qianqiu secretly said in his heart.

Although the gangsters won't take the initiative to kill her for the time being, but the matter of personally slaughtering and destroying the many strong men of the Taixu Shenzong and framing the gangsters will be revealed sooner or later.
You have to plan early to be safe.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4128 -
There are thousands of thoughts in Gong Qianqiu's mind, but the final decision is to eliminate all adverse consequences.
Because once the incident of destroying the Taixu Shenzong and framing the bandits happens, then the sect master and the super sect behind him will destroy themselves first.
"Sister, many masters of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce are looking for the whereabouts of the bandits, why don't you use a knife to kill?"
The Seven Holy Sons suddenly proposed.
Gong Qianqiu nodded and said, "Xiao Qi, you and my sister want to go together."
"It's not too late, I'll set off and rush to Longyang City immediately. If there is any news here, let me know in time."
"Sister, don't worry, with me, the Taixu Shenzong can't mess up, but sister, you have to be careful along the way!" Seven Saint Son said with some worry.
Gong Qianqiu waved his hand and said, "Don't worry, Xiao Qi, although I am not a peerless powerhouse, I still have the ability to protect myself."
Saying goodbye to the Seven Holy Sons, Gong Qianqiu rushed straight to Longyang City without stopping.
Now Longyang City has become the focus of this area, and the comprehensive strength of Taiyi Chamber of Commerce and Zijin Chamber of Commerce is very strong.
The confrontation between these two top big chambers of commerce naturally attracted the attention of many sects and powerhouses.

Gong Qianqiu basically found the Zijin Chamber of Commerce's temporary stronghold in Longyang City without much effort.
The three black-robed elders in the temporary stronghold are in charge of the overall situation. They are all the peak powerhouses of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce in Wandao City, and their strength is second only to the chairman Huangfu Hongsheng.
"Elder Moxie, there is someone outside who claims to be the saint of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple, saying that there is important information about the murderer of the gangster."
The Chamber of Commerce elites said respectfully.
The three black-robed elders, Mo Xie, Mo Ya, and Mo Cheng, looked at each other and saw a hint of surprise and surprise in each other's eyes.
"Let her in now."
Elder Mo Xie said in a deep voice.
A moment later, an elite of the Chamber of Commerce led Gong Qianqiu in.
"Qianqiu has met the seniors of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce."
Gong Qianqiu Yingying's courtesy is neither humble nor arrogant, which makes the strong people of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce evaluate her a little higher.
After all, the atmosphere in the hall was very solemn at the moment, and the three black-robed elders also released their powerful auras to prevent Gong Qianqiu from talking nonsense.
"Tell the information about the gangsters quickly and truthfully. If there is any falsehood, don't blame me for destroying the flowers."
Elder Mo Xie said coldly.
Gong Qianqiu said respectfully: "Senior, please rest assured, even if I borrow hundreds of courage, I will not dare to deceive you."
"Very good, tell me everything you know!" Elder Mo Ya nodded with satisfaction.

Gong Qianqiu's affairs are meticulous and detailed, especially the emphasis on Levi Garrison holding the peerless magic weapon.
Sure enough, after hearing this message, the eyes of everyone present flashed a touch of greed.
No matter what level of sect, the peerless divine soldier has attracted much attention, not to mention that it is likely to be the divine soldier who caused the phenomenon of heaven and earth in the Buried Dragon Valley.
"You mean that the gangsters are now in the Xingyue Divine Sect?" Elder Mo Cheng asked with a sullen face.
Gong Qianqiu nodded and said: "The Xingyue Shenzong has been taken over by the bandits, and the entire sect is his accomplice."
Now that he has decided to use a knife to kill people, he will directly uproot the Xingyue Shenzong to avoid future troubles.
"Okay, you go down first. After this seat confirms this message, there will be a reward."
Elder Mo Xie waved his hand and said.
Gong Qianqiu stepped back and waited. Of course, she did not intend to leave. It was safer to stay in the Zijin Chamber of Commerce's many powerhouses than to return to the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall.
In particular, the destruction of the Taixu Shenzong and blaming the bandits is still a ticking time bomb, so it is even more cautious.
The three elders of Mo Xie immediately sent people to the relevant area to investigate the information, and the information was quickly confirmed.
So Mo Xie directly reported the situation to the branch of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce in Wandao City.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4129 -
When the message was sent back to Wandao City, Huangfu Hongsheng was furious, and immediately sent many strong men to kill the bandits and eradicate the Xingyue

Shenzong.
All the sectarian forces in Wandao City started to move for a while, especially the affiliated sects of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce were the most active.
They also all learned that there is a peerless magic weapon in the hands of the bandits, and as long as they kill them, they can take the peerless magic weapon as their own.
Not only that, but you can also get the rewards distributed by the Zijin Chamber of Commerce, which is simply a good thing that kills two birds with one stone.
Among them, the three top sects, Bailian Tianzong, Wandaocheng Xiaoyaowang, and Xingchenhaidian, sent hundreds of top powerhouses.
The Bailian Tianzong has various categories, such as body refining, alchemy refining, etc. He is involved in everything that involves chain quenching.
The Free King of Wandao City is the largest mercenary leader in the Wandao City area, in charge of all mercenary organizations within his jurisdiction.
As for the Xingchenhai Palace, it is the most powerful sect in Wandao City. It is in charge of the entire Xingchen Sea, and the mineral resources in the sea are extremely rich.
The Heijia Tianjun of Wandao City even put on a tragic battle of 10,000 elites. They are usually the guards of Wandao City and are responsible for the defense of all islands.
The individual combat strength of the Heijia Tianjun may not be as good as that of the top sectarian powerhouses, but they are better at charging into battle.
In particular, the Heijia Tianjun has unique killing tactics and attack formations, and the combat power exerted by so many people is extremely terrifying.
Even the shock sect dare not underestimate the joint attack of the Heijia Tianjun.
This is just one of the sectarian forces that went to the Xingyue Sect.

The six forces of Dark Flame Pavilion, Holy Spirit Academy, Tianyuan Sword Sect, Zhanhu Clan, Dayan Shengzhai, and Longhu Temple were equally powerful.
It has attracted the attention and shock of many forces.
"Even the alien power of the Holy Theological Academy has also joined in. The influence of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce is really not trivial."
"The Zhanhu Clan, a group with half the blood of spirit beasts, has joined, and it is not surprising that other sects have joined."
"All of what you said is understandable, but why did the Daoist sect, Dayan Shengzhai, get involved? Aren't they afraid of being targeted by the King Kong Gate of Longhu Temple?"
"One yard is one yard, these sectarian forces joined only to kill the bandits and get rich rewards from the Zijin Chamber of Commerce."
"That's right. I'm afraid they never thought that there would be a time when they would fight together. The situation forced them."
"The movement caused by the gangsters this time is too big, especially the King Kong Gate of Longhu Temple is not easy to take action. It seems that the Zijin Chamber of Commerce will have the physical cultivation method or magic weapon they want."
Everyone was talking about how powerful the Zijin Chamber of Commerce was, and everyone believed that the gangsters would definitely die.
Because apart from these top sects that can be ranked, there are countless small and medium sects involved.
At the same time, the Zijin Chamber of Commerce also sent a large number of strong men to supervise the battle, vowing to bring down the gangsters to ashes.
Many forces are like a hundred rivers meeting the sea, rushing to the Xingyue Divine Sect in a mighty manner.
This news was soon learned by the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, and Wei Shuyang was even more panicked.

He thought that the Zijin Chamber of Commerce would investigate for a while before knowing the exact location of Levi Garrison.
After all, the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, who knew the inside story the most, kept silent from top to bottom, and it would be difficult for other sects to find out.
"There must be someone reporting the secret, go and find out what's going on?"
Wei Shuyang immediately ordered.
I have to say that the information of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce is really wellinformed, and it was quickly investigated that it was the new saintess of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple who went to inform.
Combined with some of the information revealed by Levi Garrison before, we can also guess Gong Qianqiu's general intention.
"This woman is really playing with a knife to kill with one hand!"
Wei Shuyang couldn't stop sneering in his heart, but many sects had already attacked the Xingyue Shenzong, and he could no longer stand idly by.
Wei Shuyang immediately took out the communication tool and informed Levi Garrison of the information he got.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4130 -
After Wei Shuyang notified Levi Garrison of the information obtained by the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, he still felt a little uneasy.
Although the number of contacts with Levi Garrison is not too many, Wei Shuyang feels that the latter is the kind of personality that is difficult to change once a decision is made.
Especially in the face of danger or a strong enemy, the more you persuade you to avoid the limelight, the more likely Levi Garrison will go in the opposite direction.
So Wei Shuyang immediately led the top masters of the Taiyi Merchant Congregation in Longyang City to fly to the Xingyue Shenzong in a cloud boat.

When Wei Shuyang and others rushed to the Xingyue Shenzong, they saw Levi Garrison leisurely drinking tea with Erlang's legs crossed.
With that leisurely appearance, where is the tension and anxiety on the eve of the war?
"Mr. Ye, why are you not in a hurry at all? The combined army of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce is already on the way, and they will be able to kill you soon."
"If you don't prepare in advance and say something you don't like to listen to, you may die in Huangquan!"
Wei Shuyang said bitterly.
As soon as the words fell, the senior members of the Xingyue Divine Sect also turned their attention to Levi Garrison.
Before that, they could not persuade Levi Garrison to think of ways to deal with it, but Levi Garrison was unmoved, and he was as relaxed and comfortable as a normal person every day.
Messages were constantly coming from the eyeliner in front, and many sects launched by the Zijin Chamber of Commerce kept approaching, and it didn't take long for the troops to descend on the city.
In the face of this level of offensive, let alone the Taixu Shenzong, even the Sun Moon Shenhuo Temple or even a stronger sect would be wiped out in an instant.
Therefore, the core executives of the Xingyue Shenzong had no idea what Levi Garrison was thinking, and they were still unmoved by the burning eyebrows.
I don't know if it's the calmness with confidence, or the lying flat with nothing to do.
Levi Garrison shrugged indifferently and said, "President Wei, sit down and have a cup of tea together! Didn't they kill them?"
"Mr. Ye, you are… hey!"
Wei Shuyang took a long sigh, sat down and continued: "After our investigation, the informer is Gong Qianqiu."

“Oh!”
Levi Garrison nodded slightly.
Wei Shuyang was a little surprised, but Levi Garrison didn’t seem to be surprised at all.
“I already guessed it was her.”
Levi Garrison explained.
It’s the same reason as before, although Gong Qianqiu deserves to die for his crimes, but it must be left to Xiao Feng to solve in the end.
Wei Shuyang suddenly realized, and then changed the topic back.
“Mr. Ye, it’s not that I doubt your strength, but there are too many sects launched by the Zijin Chamber of Commerce this time.”
“Just a random selection of more than ten large sects, such as Bailian Tianzong, Wandaocheng Free King, and Holy Spirit College, far surpasses the Sun Moon Divine
Fire Hall.”
“Especially, the Dragon Tiger Temple dispatched the eight great Vajra Arhats of the Vajra Gate. They are all top-level physique practitioners, and their strength is extremely powerful.”
“I suggest that Mr. Ye and all the members of the Xingyue Shenzong withdraw to the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce headquarters, so that we may still have the strength to fight.”
Wei Shuyang’s tone was earnest, and he really didn’t want Levi Garrison to make mistakes.
He had already expressed his attitude before facing the leader of the investigation team of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce.
Under this premise, if Levi Garrison’s life is not guaranteed, then offending the Zijin Chamber of Commerce before will be meaningless.
It will even pull the entire Taiyi Chamber of Commerce into the water, which is not worth the loss.
However, as long as Levi Garrison and others arrive at the headquarters of the Taiyi

Chamber of Commerce, they will be members of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce.
Within the geographical scope of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce headquarters, even the Zijin Chamber of Commerce would not easily launch an all-out war.
Although the Zijin Chamber of Commerce has a stronger comprehensive strength, even if the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce is eventually eaten up in an all-out war, they will suffer heavy losses.
At that time, it will naturally be eroded or even annexed by those same-level chambers of commerce that covet the Zijin Chamber of Commerce. This situation is definitely not what the Zijin Chamber of Commerce wants to see.
If Levi Garrison continued to stay here, there would only be a dead end.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4131 -
"President Wei, you are worrying too much. Even if I continue to stay here, the Zijin Chamber of Commerce can't help me."
Levi Garrison said with a smile.
How could Levi Garrison leave Xingyue Divine Sect so easily?
This time is the perfect time to shock the many sects of Kunlun Ruins in one fell swoop.
At that time, no one from the Xingyue Divine Sect would dare to provoke him, which would speed up his process of establishing himself in the Kunlun Ruins in a true sense.
"What's more, I have forged so many divine weapons and sharp blades, and I just took this opportunity to test the power."
"Besides, these shrimp soldiers and crabs are still in the eyes of Lao Tzu, they are no different from a group of rubbish that sells their heads."
Levi Garrison's tone was still very relaxed.
"This……"
Wei Shuyang didn't know how to persuade for a while, and Levi Garrison's performance was too arrogant.
The other senior officials of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce also shook their heads one after another, all of which were similar to Wei Shuyang's thoughts.

Although Levi Garrison's strength is indeed very strong, he has no chance of winning in the face of the siege of so many terrorist sectarian forces.
"Levi Garrison really doesn't cry without seeing the coffin!"
"At that time, the strong men of the Zijin Merchant Association will attack, and he will be unable to regret it."
"Levi Garrison is a little too big. The strong team that entered the Dragon Burial Valley was less than 1% of the many forces this time."
"Two fists are invincible to four hands, and Levi Garrison will definitely pay a heavy price for his arrogance."
The high-level officials of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce have slandered in their hearts and minds, but they dare not say it on the surface.
Of course, these people are more afraid, because according to the attitude of the Taiyi
Chamber of Commerce before, they must stay here and stand with Levi Garrison.
At that time, facing dozens or even hundreds of times the enemy, especially the strength of the strong ones, is still very terrifying, which is no different from hitting a stone with an egg.
Wei Shuyang tried to persuade a few more words, but Levi Garrison was still firm and thought it was unnecessary to leave the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce headquarters.
"Okay Mr. Ye, since you insist on doing this, our Taiyi Chamber of Commerce will give up our lives to accompany the gentleman, and I will ask the headquarters for help."
After Wei Shuyang finished speaking, he immediately took out the communication tool and directly contacted the president of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce headquarters.
It is required to send Taiyi Shenzu strong to come to support, and be sure to protect Levi Garrison's personal safety.

After receiving Wei Shuyang's letter for help, the senior officials of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce headquarters made a decision without any hesitation.
Eight hundred Taiyi Divine Ancestor masters were sent to the Xingyue Divine Sect in batches in ten cloud boats.
The president of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce even issued a death order, and if necessary, he could forcibly take Levi Garrison away from the Xingyue Shenzong.
Of course, this is just one of the support troops. The Taiyi Chamber of Commerce also used many treasures and artifacts to recruit strong men to protect Levi Garrison.
The third is to use the contacts accumulated over the years to rush to the Xingyue Divine Sect in batches.
Wei Shuyang also tried his best to recruit allies as reinforcements, using all the resources and contacts he had accumulated over the years.
It can be said that in order to save Levi Garrison's life, Taiyi Chamber of Commerce can be said to have made a lot of money.
In particular, the Longyang City branch and its affiliated sects came out in full force, intending to fight to the death with the Zijin Chamber of Commerce army at the periphery of the Xingyue Shenzong.
At the same time, the various armies of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce also gathered, and they all rushed to kill Levi Garrison in order to offer a rich bargaining chip on the reward order.
The fastest person to come to the periphery of the Xingyue Divine Sect's main rudder city is the Wangdao City Free King.
As the leader of the largest mercenary army in Wandao City, King Xiaoyao has many powerful subordinates, especially many powerful spirit beasts.
Because King Xiaoyao has a peculiar skill, that is, it can tame spirit beasts and make many spirit beasts become loyal subordinates to charge into battle.

The spirit beast army formed by more than a hundred huge spirit beasts was magnificent, as if to tear all the enemies to pieces.
King Xiaoyao personally led the army and shouted loudly: "The gangsters quickly come out and die, this king will crush you to ashes today."
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4132 - King Xiaoyao was wearing a long animal skin robe, standing on the back of a huge tiger-shaped spirit beast at the front.
This spirit beast is the size of an adult elephant, and it has a huge tiger head that is very domineering.
In particular, there is a sharp single horn just above the tiger's head that is extremely sharp.
"You bandit, listen to this king. If you hand over the sharp weapon in your hand obediently, this king will spare your life for the time being."
Xiaoyao Wang Yungong made a voice.
The sound resounded like a thunderbolt from the blue sky, and the group of spirit beasts also roared, as if they were waving the flag to the King of Free and Easy.
Ever since King Xiaoyao heard that there are peerless divine weapons in the hands of the gangsters, he has driven the herds of beasts to come non-stop, swearing secretly that he must get those divine weapons.
At that time, his reputation in Wandao City will be even higher, and even the surrounding areas will tremble.
There are also many fierce monks who follow behind the herd. They dress differently, but each of them exudes a terrifying aura of coercion.
"Finally, I will give you Banzhuxiang some time to consider. If you don't come out and surrender, this king will lead the army to pacify the Xingyue Divine Sect."
King Xiaoyao's voice was high-pitched, and the herd roared in agreement again.
The other subordinates also shouted and shouted, and for a while, they were majestic and terrifying.

Levi Garrison, Wei Shuyang and others also rushed over on the main rudder city wall of the Xingyue Shenzong.
Except for Levi Garrison, who still had a relaxed look on his face, everyone else was dignified, even extremely ugly.
The reinforcements from the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce have not arrived yet, but the King of Free and Easy in Wandao City has a fierce reputation.
"It is said that King Xiaoyao's cultivation has reached the realm of perfection, and he also has a powerful ability to control beasts, and his strength is unfathomable."
"Moreover, the people under King Xiaoyao are all vicious and vicious people. Most of them are devils who do all kinds of evil in Kunlun Ruins, and they are bloodthirsty."
"Look at those spirit beasts. It seems that more than half of them are high-level spirit beasts. These spirit beasts alone may be comparable to the core combat power of large sects."
"King Xiaoyao personally commanded, and his royal mount is the unicorn dragon tiger beast. It is said that it has the bloodline of the ancient spirit beast, which is comparable to a peak powerhouse."
There was a lot of discussion, and with the explanation of the insider, the expressions of others became even more ugly.
Looking at the many spirit beasts in the distance gently scratching their hoofs, the beasts' faces showed a bloodthirsty and terrifying look, which made people unable to help but raise their fears.
Those devils in different clothes also have fierce faces, and their eyes are full of ridicule and contempt.
Especially the female members headed by Mu Rong Wanqing, their pretty faces were as pale as paper.

They have heard of the brutality of King Xiaoyao's men. If male enemies are slaughtered, and women are captured, life will be worse than death.
Wei Shuyang said solemnly: "Mr. Ye, King Xiaoyao's strength is unfathomable, plus those spirit beasts are extremely difficult to deal with, we use the defensive formation of the Xingyue Shenzong to resist."
Levi Garrison smiled without saying a word, looked at the group of spirit beasts, and added a bit of playfulness to his relaxed demeanor.
"Robber, get out and die!"
"Listen to the people of the Xingyue Shenzong, come out and surrender as soon as possible, we can make a difference."
"If you are stubborn, all the male disciples will be killed, and the female disciples will be reduced to female slaves."
King Xiaoyao's subordinates shouted wantonly, and his eyes became more brutal.
After waiting for a long time, King Xiaoyao saw that there was still no movement from the Xingyue Divine Sect, and a sneer flashed across the corner of his mouth.
King Xiaoyao took out the bone flute pinned to his waist, and then blew it rhythmically.
As the melodious melody sounded, the group of spirit beasts that were still relatively calm instantly became frantic.
They smashed the ground harder, and at the same time made a terrifying roar, and the beast's eyes instantly became extremely red.
"kill!"
With the order of King Xiaoyao, the group of spirit beasts suddenly ran wildly, rushing towards the city wall of the Xingyue Shenzong like crazy.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4133 -
The unicorn tiger beast that King Xiaoyao sat down was no exception, and it also ran out.

At the moment when the unicorn tiger beast suddenly sprang out, the King of Free and Easy jumped up into the sky, directly above the floating cloud boat.
More than a hundred spirit beasts charged frantically, all of them with crimson eyes bursting with fierce light, as if they were about to shred the enemy.
There are also flying spirit beasts that roared again and again, and attacked the crowd directly at the head of the city.
"Quickly activate the defensive formation, the spirit beasts are attacking."
"This is King Xiaoyao's specialty. Under the control of the magic sound, these spirit beasts will become extraordinarily violent and bloodthirsty."
"Not only that, these spirit beasts can also increase their combat power several times in a short period of time. Don't take it lightly."
Wei Shuyang and other Taiyi Chamber of Commerce powerhouses reminded them one after another.
The high-level and elite disciples of the Xingyue Divine Sect were instantly nervous to the extreme. They really didn't know that this kind of mutation would happen to the spirit beasts controlled by King Xiaoyao.
"You don't have to be nervous, just let Xiao Lei deal with these things."
At this moment, Levi Garrison's lazy voice came.
While everyone was surprised, they were also a little puzzled. Due to their excessive tension, they did not reflect on the sacredness of "Xiao Lei" for a while.
"Wow!"
Lei Kirin (Qilin) let out a low roar, obviously very dissatisfied that everyone had forgotten such an 'important animal'.
Lei Kirin (Qilin) stood up lazily and looked at Levi Garrison again, as if asking for what level of combat power he should play next.
"Let go of the killing and let them see what a top-level spirit beast is."
Levi Garrison's tone was full of encouragement.
"Woooo! Woohoo!"
Lei Kirin (Qilin) let out two cheers, obviously quite satisfied with this opportunity to be displayed in front of a human… No, it was a chance to be displayed in front of a beast.

“Go!”
As Levi Garrison spoke again, Lei Kirin (Qilin) stomped on the ground with four hooves, and his huge figure shot into the air like an arrow from a string.
“Wow!”
Lei Kirin (Qilin) roared in the air.
This time, the roaring thunder unicorn did not do any control, and the sound was accompanied by a powerful mental attack, which made almost everyone present feel dizzy.
In an instant, the group of spirit beasts that had been charging aggressively just now stopped suddenly, and their bodies were like sculptures, unable to move at all.
Some spirit beasts with a slightly lower rank even knelt down directly on the ground, just like mortals who have seen gods come to the world and kneel down to worship directly.
The most tragic thing is those flying spirit beasts, they were originally flying at high altitudes to attack.
However, Lei Kirin (Qilin)’s roar made their brains go blank in an instant, and the powerful pressure from the blood made them have no idea of resistance.
They fell from the sky one after another, ranging from broken bones and tendons to severe falls directly to their deaths.
“Wow!”
Lei Kirin (Qilin) continued to roar, and those spirit beasts who had just recovered from their senses once again seemed to have been tapped and froze in place.
The Thunder Kirin (Qilin) did not give them any chance to breathe at all, and directly released the power of lightning on the surface of the body.
Clap clap!
The violent multi-color lightning beam smashed down, and those spirit beasts that could not move became living targets.

In just a moment, more than 30 spirit beasts were bombarded into coke by the violent power of thunder and lightning, and then blown to ashes by the aftermath of the powerful energy.
"This…is this a king-level spirit beast?"
"How can a gangster keep a king-level spirit beast? It's impossible!"
"One king-level spirit beast can be compared to dozens of peak powerhouses, yet is it being treated as a pet by a gangster?"
The members of the Happy King party screamed in surprise.
King Xiaoyao was also shocked and stared into his pocket. He thought that he was very powerful by virtue of the beast mastery, and many high-level spirit beasts could be used for him.
But compared to the gangsters, they are nothing but nothing!
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4134 -
In the astonishment and shock of the members of the Free King's party, Lei Kirin started a unilateral massacre.
I saw it roaring and jumping up and down again and again, sometimes spewing flames from its mouth, sometimes discharging its back, and sometimes releasing cold from its four hooves.
As a result, there are three endings for the army of the spirit beasts of the Happy King, or they are reduced to coke, they are burned to ashes, or they are frozen into ice sculptures.
Under Lei Kirin 's triple attack, the army of spirit beasts completely lost their ability to escape, not to mention fighting back.
King Xiaoyao's complexion had turned from red to purple, and those arrogant subordinates were stunned and stunned.
One is happy and one is sad.
Compared with the shock and panic on the side of King Free and Easy, the powerhouses of the Xingyue Shenzong and the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce were in shock and were particularly excited.

They never imagined that Lei Kirin , who is usually arrogant and manifested in front of his lover, could burst out with such terrifying fighting power.
More than a hundred high-grade spirit beasts were like lambs to be slaughtered in front of Lei Kirin , and they were completely powerless to fight back.
The key is Lei Kirin ‘s triple attack, which shocked everyone.
“If I’m not mistaken, the power of thunder and lightning released by Lei Kirin has at most nine colors!”
“And the flame it spews out, which is comparable to the energy source bursting out from the top-level fire element spirit veins, and some spirit beasts are directly vaporized.”
“And its extremely cold air. I feel like I have entered the Ten Thousand Years Ice Cave at such a distance. No wonder those spirit beasts were directly frozen into ice sculptures.”
“Lei Kirin ‘s strength, I am afraid that the top powerhouses of several large sects can’t beat them.”
“As expected of Mr. Ye, he was able to take the king-level spirit beast under his command.”
Recalling that Lei Kirin was as submissive as a kitten in front of Levi Garrison, it is hard to imagine how Lei Kirin was abused by Levi Garrison?
“No, King Xiaoyao seems to be going to deal with Lei Kirin himself.”
Wei Shuyang suddenly reminded loudly.
Everyone looked in the direction of Wei Shuyang’s fingers.
Seeing that King Xiaoyao was holding a long sword, he had already jumped off the cloud boat, suspended in mid-air, staring at Lei Kirin with awe-inspiring killing intent.
In fact, Levi Garrison had noticed this for a long time, and directly drew a long spear from the pile of peerless gods.
Everyone turned their heads and watched, and saw that the long spear was silver-white, the spear tip was surrounded by electric arcs, and at the same time, there was a faint flame rising.

Although Levi Garrison did not perform any exercises, this long spear was full of charm, which made people unconsciously indulge in it.
"As expected of the top peerless magic weapon!"
"I don't know how powerful this spear is."
"Isn't it weaker than Burying the Dragon or Slaying Thunder?"
The people of the Xingyue Divine Sect were amazed.
Many of them have seen the power of the Thunder Slashing Sword, and they have directly led many of the top powerhouses of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall to die on the spot.
The eyes of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce were obsessed. They were also wellinformed, but they had never seen such a peerless weapon of this grade.
Wei Shuyang was even more shocked. After seeing this long spear, he instantly felt that the magic weapon he had exchanged from Levi Garrison was not fragrant.
"It seems that Levi Garrison's forging technique is much stronger than expected."
While Wei Shuyang sighed in his heart, he strengthened his determination to protect Levi Garrison's life.
"This gun is called Tiance!"
The name comes from Tiance Mansion!
Levi Garrison introduced it softly, and then suddenly threw it in the direction of King Xiaoyao.
laugh!
Tian Ce suddenly shot out, and everyone could clearly hear the sound of the spear breaking the sound barrier.
Especially when Tiance's gun was surrounded by a more terrifying arc of lightning, the dazzling electric flowers kept flashing, but in an instant, it was already in front of King Xiaoyao.
the other side.

King Xiaoyao originally wanted to kill Lei Kirin himself, but when he was about to make a fortune, he suddenly sensed a strong premonition of crisis.

As far as his eyes could reach, King Xiaoyao saw a cluster of dazzling electric lights rapidly approaching.
"You want to hurt this king with a hidden weapon? It's just a fool's dream."
"Let you first taste the power of this divine weapon in this king's hand."
King Xiaoyao shouted loudly, Yun Gong urged the long sword, and threw it in the direction of the electric light.
hum!
The long knife burst into a bright light, and the terrifying knife gang formed a giant energy storm, aiming at the electric light and blasting it.
A sneer appeared on King Xiaoyao's face. In his opinion, it was impossible for him to break through the seal of the Blade Gang energy storm with a long-distance attack.
Next, he took advantage of the victory to pursue the attack, and with the help of the remaining power of the knife, he directly killed the king-level spirit beast on the spot.
However, after a moment, the smile on King Xiaoyao's face froze.
"how can that be?"
The King of Xiaoyao saw that the Sword Gang Storm was instantly swallowed up by the dazzling electric light, and the surroundings that had been discolored by the wind and clouds were instantly incomparably quiet.
At the same time, there was a chill to the extreme, and even the space was frozen at a speed visible to the naked eye.
And the top-level magic sword was frozen in an instant, and then it was bombarded into powder by the electric light.
"Danger!"

A strong premonition of crisis struck again, King Xiaoyao's pupils contracted, and he hurriedly mobilized all his strength to form an energy shield in front of him.
Swish swish!
An energy shield with a thickness of ten feet was formed in an instant.
At this moment, Tian Ce finally came into contact with the outermost energy shield.
bang!
The energy shield shattered when it touched, and it was penetrated layer by layer in an instant like a paper as thin as a cicada's wings.
The key is that the speed of Tian Ce's flying stab is not reduced in the slightest, and it is obviously not hindered by the energy shield.
"Oops!"
King Xiaoyao secretly said that it was not good, and almost instinctively wanted to dodge to the side.
However, it was too late to want to escape at this moment, Tiance spear came in an instant and pierced directly into his chest.
puff!
Even though King Xiaoyao wears top-level armor, he is still easily penetrated through his body.
The powerful impact has not diminished in the slightest, and continues to fly out the body of King Xiaoyao.
Whoosh!
The Free King formed an afterimage, and was finally nailed to the outer wall of the cloud boat suspended in mid-air.
The entire cloud boat also vibrated violently, and it was only able to stop when it retreated a hundred feet away.
"This…this is not…impossible!"
The unbelievable color was written on the face of King Xiaoyao.
However, the strong lightning and extreme cold power in the body instantly flooded the whole body.

King Xiaoyao's internal organs were electrocuted into a state of coke, and then they were instantly frozen into ice sculptures.
The blood flowers that burst out formed bright red ice flowers, which quickly fell from the air, looking extremely coquettish.
King Xiaoyao was instantly killed by the divine soldier Tiance, and the army of King Xiaoyao was immediately stunned.
"King Xiaoyao is dead, how is this possible?"
"What is it that is flying, how can it have such a terrifying power?"
"The long sword in King Xiaoyao's hand is already a top-level magic weapon, and it was instantly smashed into scum?"
"What should we do next, should we continue to attack the Xingyue Divine Sect?"
King Xiaoyao died, and the army was headless and panicked.
The Xingyue Shenzong and Taiyi Chamber of Commerce were also silent.
Only Levi Garrison stood with his hands behind his back, his face indifferent.
However, Levi Garrison's heart was not so calm on the surface, he only felt a burst of blood boiling.
It was easy to kill the strong men of Kunlun Ruins, and the army of the King of Free and Easy was shattered with fear and trembling.
Levi Garrison felt that he was the master of Kunlun Ruins at this moment.
At the beginning, he was the Kunlun God of War in the secular world, but with the passage of time, the secular world has become invincible.
Until he came to Kunlun Ruins to see many strong men, Levi Garrison felt that his blood that had been silent for a long time was boiling again.
Especially when the fighting spirit was re-inspired by the strong Kunlun Ruins, this wonderful feeling is really incomparable.
"Tremble, the strong men of Kunlun Ruins, I want to rule the world again."
Levi Garrison was shouting in his heart, and his fighting spirit instantly rose to the top.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter
4136 -

After a brief silence, the members of the Xingyue Divine Sect and Taiyi Chamber of Commerce instantly boiled over.
"As expected of the sect master, this shot killed the King of Xiaoyao, but that was the King of Xiaoyao who once destroyed several large sects!"
"One blow shocked the entire Xiaoyao King's army. Looking at their chaotic appearance, I am afraid they are already thinking about how to escape."
"Does Levi Garrison really need us to protect it? This strength is too strong, right?"
"In the entire Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, there are only ten fingers who are stronger than King Xiaoyao, and they were stabbed to death by a gun?"
"It's no wonder that the headquarters of the Chamber of Commerce attaches so much importance to it, that long spear is probably the level of the best peerless magic weapon?"
"If I can have such a peerless weapon, I can definitely become a leader-level powerhouse in the Taiyi God Ancestor."
The voices of the crowd naturally entered Levi Garrison's ears.
In fact, the four peerless divine weapons, Burying the Dragon, Slaying Thunder, Ruining Ruins, and Heavenly Policy, were made by imitating the four divine weapons of the Demon Suppressing Division.
But the raw materials used are of the highest quality.
The forging environment is a combination of three excellent existences: earth vein flame, cold pool cold air, and the power of thunder.
The power of the peerless divine weapon forged is naturally incomparable.
After testing the power of these four magical weapons beyond expectations, Burying the Dragon and Slaying Thunder easily slaughtered seventeen top experts from the Zijin
Chamber of Commerce.
Two arrows from the ruins severely damaged the two sectarian forces of the Sun Moon

Divine Fire Temple and the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy from thousands of miles away.
Today, Tian Ce killed the top powerhouse King Xiaoyao of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce with one shot.
With such a terrifying record, even Levi Garrison was very satisfied.
"Levi Garrison's forging technique is far more terrifying than I imagined!"
Wei Shuyang was also amazed in his heart.
Because Levi Garrison hid the peerless magic weapons so well, Wei Shuyang didn't know that he had built so many top magic weapons before.
Since coming to the Xingyue Divine Sect, I have seen four top-level peerless weapons of swords, bows and spears one after another. What kind of superb forging skills are required for this?
You must know that these four top-level peerless weapons not only have different shapes, but also have different characteristics, which requires the forgers to incorporate the ideas of more supervisors.
"Let's not mention anything else, just these four top weapons are enough to prove the great value of Levi Garrison."
"Even if the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce tries its best to protect it, it's worth it."
Wei Shuyang made up his mind and immediately passed the message to the president of Taiyi Chamber of Commerce.
The senior leaders of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce headquarters were shocked when they heard the news.
Although Wei Shuyang didn't know what the grades of these four magic weapons were, based on their performance, they definitely belonged to the ceiling of the magic weapon world.
Moreover, once this level of magic weapon is known by other sectarian forces or large chambers of commerce, the chips given by the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce will be uncompetitive.

Especially when Levi Garrison faced the siege of many sects of Zijin Chamber of Commerce, Taiyi Chamber of Commerce had to show a firm attitude.
After all, it is easier to touch people than to add icing on the cake.
Even if other larger sects know about this in the future, Levi Garrison will definitely remember the kindness of helping him when he was in crisis.
These four top-level magic weapons are enough to pay any price, not to mention that Levi Garrison himself has a forging master who forged such magic weapons.
After a brief discussion, the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce headquarters issued a death order to protect Levi Garrison's life at all costs.
Even the headquarters began to send strong men to support him, as if they were doing everything they could to support Levi Garrison.
Wei Shuyang was also very happy to receive such an answer. Their Longyang City branch finally didn't have to worry about fighting alone.
"You stand here to cheer, no one should come to help, I want to teach them a lesson."
Before he finished speaking, Levi Garrison jumped down the tower with Dragon Burial and Thunder Slayer in hand.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter
4137 - Levi Garrison jumped down from the ten-zhang tower without making a sound, and then turned into an afterimage.
"Xiao Lei, step back!"
With a loud shout, Lei Kirin , who had almost slaughtered the spirit beasts, stopped and retreated in the opposite direction.
Levi Garrison passed by at a high speed and continued to rush towards the camp of the King of Free and Easy.
"The gangsters are coming, go back!"
"What are you afraid of, many of us are still afraid of him?"

“Just now King Xiaoyao was just underestimating the enemy. We gathered together and attacked him to avenge the snow and hate for King Xiaoyao.”
“That’s right, isn’t it easy for so many of us to kill him?”
After a short period of panic, the army of the King of Xiaoyao calmed down again.
After all, they are all battle-hardened gods of death, and many of them are even loyal subordinates of King Xiaoyao.
Of course, there are still some people who want to take the credit for beheading Levi Garrison to get the original status of King of Free and Easy, and then regain the power of Free City.
However, no matter how everyone’s thoughts are different, there is one thing – the idea is very unified, that is to kill Levi Garrison.
Everyone danced in unison with swords, swords, halberds, axes, forks, and forks, and rushed towards Levi Garrison’s direction.
However, they were greeted by fierce and violent sword qi and sword gangs.
Burying the dragon and slaying thunder swung together, and the sword qi and the sword gang formed a net of heaven and earth, which directly covered the army of the King of Free and Easy.
Everyone instinctively waved their weapons to resist, but in the face of the attack of the peerless weapons, how could they be able to resist these ordinary weapons?
Although it was not Levi Garrison’s all-out strike, it was tantamount to the annihilation of King Xiaoyao’s army.
In an instant, the weapons in their hands turned to dust, and many people were directly chopped into pieces if they couldn’t dodge.
Of course, there are many people who are concentrated by the cold air and the power of thunder contained in the two divine weapons, and become ice sculptures and coke.
“Mayfly want to shake the tree? Joke!”

Levi Garrison's icy voice sounded, making Xiaoyao Wang Dajun couldn't help trembling.
Clang!
Where the divine soldiers pass by, several people will become the souls of the dead under the sword.
Levi Garrison directly incarnates into a life harvester, frantically plundering the lives of the army of the Free King.
Looking from a distance, Levi Garrison rushed into the camp of the King of Free and Easy, rushing in and out several bloody paths.
At first, the army of the King of Xiaoyao would resist with all their might, but soon they found that continuing to attack would be tantamount to seeking their own death, so they all fled.
"It's too late to leave now, isn't it?"
Levi Garrison obviously did not intend to stop there, and immediately called Lei Kirin to pursue the victory together.
Wei Shuyang and the others were shocked, and they all shouted something like "the poor pirates don't chase after them", but Levi Garrison turned a deaf ear.
One man and one beast chased and killed from behind, and the army of King Xiaoyao scattered and fled.
"It's too dangerous to go deep alone. No one knows where those forces are. Let's go and help, lest Mr. Ye suffer."
Wei Shuyang immediately issued an order, and the masters of the Taiyi Merchant Association rushed to help.
Naturally, Mu Rong Wanqing and others wanted to charge, but Wei Shuyang stopped them.
"You can stay here. If there are other forces attacking, spread the message as soon as possible."
Hearing Wei Shuyang's words, Mu Rong Wanqing and other members of the Xingyue Divine Sect expressed their approval.

Of course, they also knew that in the face of the powerful alliance of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce, even if they rushed up, they would not be of much help.
It may even drag Levi Garrison's hind legs.
At the same time, the fleeing Xiaoyao King's army was hunted down and severely reduced, and even Yunzhou was reluctant to open it.
They originally thought of picking up the divine weapon Tian Ce to give Levi Garrison a way to control violence, but as soon as the man came into contact with Tian Ce, he was frozen into an ice sculpture by the cold air.
When others saw this, they were even more afraid to fight the idea of Tiance Gun.
Levi Garrison and Lei Kirin chased each other all the way, and they saw another army coming towards them from a distance.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4138 -
This army is made up of the powerhouses sent by the Bailian Tianzong.
They saw from a distance that King Xiaoyao's army scattered and fled, and they were instantly a little stunned.
The deputy sect master of Bailian Tianzong frowned slightly. He had not received any information before, and he thought that he was the first to arrive at the Xingyue Divine Sect.
When he knew that the gangsters possessed top-level peerless divine soldiers, the Hundred Refinements Heaven Sect was also very coveted, and wanted to reach the Star Moon Sect first and take it for himself.
Bailian Tianzong has alchemy and weapon refining, and its obsession with top-level magic weapons far exceeds that of other sects.
"What exactly is this?"
"Hurry up and ask a few people from the King of Free and Easy."
The deputy sect master of Bailian Tianzong ordered.
The disciples of Bailian Tianzong had to be ordered to intercept them, but they were desperately killed by the army of King Xiaoyao.

Those people were mad and killed those who blocked the way, as if something terrifying was chasing them behind them.
"Vice Sect Master, it seems that someone is chasing after him!"
"That guy is holding a sword, but it is very similar to the gangster in the description!"
"Isn't it just a gangster? It really doesn't take a lot of time to find a place in iron shoes, and I've decided on the reward from the Zijin Chamber of Commerce."
"There is a spirit beast behind him, it looks a bit like a unicorn!"
There was a lot of discussion.
The vice sect master of Bailian Tianzong didn't take it too seriously, and directly ordered: "Prepare to fight, and kill the bandits on the spot."
"As ordered!"
The strong people in the sects are in high spirits. They have made contributions and established their careers this time. Now that the opportunity is in front of them, they are naturally excited to the extreme.
It was Levi Garrison who came. He didn't know any Bailian Tianzong, but since they all came to besiege the Xingyue Shenzong, they were his own enemies.
Enemy, kill without mercy!
Levi Garrison raised both swords and swords, and the sword qi and sword gangs swept out in a crisscross pattern.
The Heavenly Sect of Hundred Refinements does not take it seriously. Even if the strength of the bandits is stronger, with the power of so many strong men, are they afraid that they will not be able to resist?
There are not a few people who think this way. After all, Levi Garrison's record at the beginning was nothing more than beheading the seventeen strong men of the Zijin
Chamber of Commerce.
In the Hundred Refinements Tianzong, there are more strong people than this number,
and they have resisted.
But when the strength of the two sides collided in one place, the powerhouses of the Hundred Refinements Tianzong were dumbfounded.

Clang!
Puff puff!
As the blade was chopped into several pieces, those strong men were swept away by the sword qi knife Gang, and immediately died in Huangquan.
Many people didn't even have time to make a sound.
Immediately after Lei Kirin 's attack arrived, the power of the sky thunder, the cold air, and the flames of the earth's veins paralleled, making the Bailian Tianzong powerhouse suffer a lot.
Many strong people in the sect were roasted into coke, frozen into ice sculptures, and split into ashes before they had time to react.
The deputy sect master of Bailian Tianzong was horrified, and he never thought that many strong people in the sect would be so vulnerable.
If it is one person or two, it may be negligent, but so many strong people die on the spot, it means that the strength of the other party is extraordinary and far beyond imagination.
"Lie Bailian All Gods Formation."
The Deputy Sect Master shouted loudly.
After all, the Hundred Refinements Tianzong is a top large-scale sect, and these strong people are the elites of the sect.
Although he was caught off guard by Levi Garrison, he quickly calmed down and began to line up to meet the enemy.
"Gods? I want to see what's so special about your broken formation?"
Levi Garrison continued to charge regardless, with his left hand knife and right hand sword, broke into the Bailian Tianzong formation and killed seven in and seven out.
Where the sword qi and the knife gang passed by, there were several hundredrefinement Tianzong powerhouses who were reduced to the souls of the gods.
Seeing this situation, the deputy sect master of Bailian Tianzong gasped repeatedly. He never thought that the strength of the bandits would be so terrifying.

No wonder Xiaoyao Wang's army fled in a hurry, and it seems that they were also beaten out by the gangsters.
"Wait, why does this seat say this word?"
The Deputy Sect Master could not help but twitched the corners of his mouth.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4139 -
However, in contrast, the Hundred Refinements Tianzong is more persistent.
They are obsessed with believing that they can successfully kill Levi Garrison with their own strength.
Even though the Hundred Refinements Gods Array had been slaughtered by Levi Garrison, they continued to attack.
The deputy sect master was not idle either. He kept moving around at high speed, looking for the perfect opportunity to kill him with one blow.
However, Levi Garrison's speed is faster, and his moves are sometimes smart and elegant, and sometimes open and close, and he can't figure out his path at all.
"Give me a death!"
Levi Garrison made another move, and the deputy sect master was cut to the chest by the sword and died on the spot.
With the group of dragons headless, the other powerhouses of the Hundred Refinements Tianzong finally panicked, but their personnel had already been beheaded by Levi Garrison and Lei Kirin .
In addition, Wei Shuyang and others who followed him not long ago were making up for the knife, and the powerhouses of the Hundred Refinements Tianzong were simply unavoidable.
Seeing Levi Garrison rushing to kill the enemy formation and unstoppable, Wei Shuyang and the others were only left in shock and admiration.
"Levi Garrison's strength is so terrifying, do you really need the protection of the Taiyi

Chamber of Commerce?"
"One person and one beast can brutalize the two top sects, the King of Free and Easy, and the Hundred Refinements Heavenly Sect. This is too powerful!"
"Faced with the powerhouses of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce, he is enough to deal with it alone!"
"And that Lei Kirin 's combat power is also extremely powerful, and the king-level spirit beast is nothing but terrifying."
The powerful members of the Taiyi Merchant Association were shocked.
Wei Shuyang sent the message back to the headquarters again, so the president's determination to stand on Levi Garrison's side became firmer.
About half an hour later, the powerhouses of Bailian Tianzong were slaughtered by Levi Garrison.
"It's really fun!"
Levi Garrison said with a smile.
Seeing that Levi Garrison's lack of anger did not change his face, everyone was shocked and stunned again.
Co-authoring and rushing for so long, is it no effort at all?
"Let's go back, other reinforcements from the Zijin Chamber of Commerce won't be able to come for a while!"
Levi Garrison decided to go home.
Wei Shuyang and others followed closely behind, leaving behind a sea of blood and corpses from the Bailian Tianzong.
It didn't take long for the news that the army of the Free King and the Bailian Tianzong had been defeated and slaughtered firstly spread in this area.
Gong Qianqiu soon got the message that she had previously stayed in the Zijin Chamber of Commerce's temporary stronghold outside Longyang City.
Gong Qianqiu thought that he would soon hear the news of the murder of the bandits.
After all, the Zijin Chamber of Commerce is like a cloud of powerhouses, and they have summoned many top sectarian powerhouses.

Such a large-scale joint operation was absolutely foolproof, yet she had no idea that it would backfire.
"What can I do? If the gangsters know that it was me who leaked the information, they will definitely not spare me!"
"At that time, I am afraid that life will be worse than death. What did this Zijin Merchant Guild do, so many people can't even kill a bandit?"
"I don't know how long I can hide the blame for the gangsters. Wouldn't the suzerain of the Taixu Shenzong be the first to settle accounts with me?"
Gong Qianqiu felt uneasy about sleeping and eating, and he was even more terrified in his heart.
A pretty face was as pale as paper, for fear that the gangsters and the Sect Master of the Taixu Shenzong would come to the door to settle the general ledger.
The three black-robed elders of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce were also solemn, and the other powerhouses were even more panicked.
"Although King Xiaoyao's side is a motley army, there are many vicious desperados under him, and they have been scattered."
"The key is that Bailian Tianzong was also slaughtered. I heard that they sent the deputy suzerain to sit in person this time."
"What kind of terrifying existence have we provoked this time?"
"Fortunately, we are not the first to rush to the Xingyue Divine Sect, otherwise we will surely die!"
Everyone was talking, and a bad premonition arose in their hearts.
the other side.
The news of the destruction of the two major forces also spread to other sects in this operation.
Suddenly, it was like a stone that stirred up a thousand waves.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4140 -
The two news that the army of the King of Xiaoyao scattered and fled and that the Bailian Tianzong was destroyed by the group immediately shocked many sects.

The faces of many masters sent by large sects such as Dark Flame Pavilion, Holy Spirit Academy, and Tianyuan Sword Sect were also very solemn.
"King Xiaoyao personally led the army of spirit beasts and hundreds of strong confidants to lose so miserably, which is really surprising!"
"The Hundred Refinements Tianzong dispatched the deputy sect master, and they also had the battle technique of the Hundred Refinements Gods Formation, which made the strong people feel terrified, and they even destroyed the entire army."
"It's really incredible. In terms of combat effectiveness, these two major forces are not weaker than the army led by this audience."
"King Xiaoyao once used the army of spirit beasts to destroy three large-scale sect master rudders in one day. This time the ship capsized in the gutter. Could it be careless?"
"No matter how careless their strength is, it is said that no spirit beast escaped alive from King Xiaoyao."
Everyone gasped when they heard the words.
The spirit beasts ruled by the King of Free and Unfettered are all high-rank existences, and at worst, they are comparable to the elders of large sects.
The subordinates of the Happy King are composed of many gangsters who do all kinds of evil.
There are even many people who practice crooked cultivation techniques, and their strength should not be underestimated.
The Bailian Tianzong is even more proficient in alchemy and refining tools, and there are not a few magic weapons in their hands, which shows their combat effectiveness.
In particular, the Hundred Refinements Gods Array once had a terrifying record of beheading ten top sectarians in a row.

How could it be possible to slaughter those two major forces with just one gangster and the little-known Xingyue Divine Sect?
It's incredible!
"I know what's going on!"
An elder of the Dark Flame Pavilion said suddenly.
Everyone turned their eyes away, waiting for the answer from the other side.
The dark flame pavilion elder said solemnly: "It must be the top powerhouse of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, and only this possibility is in line with common sense."
A word woke the dreamer.
Other sectarian powerhouses also nodded in agreement.
"It's not wrong, it must be the case. Although the comprehensive strength of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce is not as good as that of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce, it must not be underestimated."
"Wei Shuyang, the branch president of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce in Longyang City before, made it clear that he wanted to keep the bandits, and it must have been the strong man who disturbed the headquarters of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce."
"So it makes sense. No matter how powerful the bandits are, they are only one person.
How can they easily slaughter the two powerful sects?"
The more everyone thought about it, the more reasonable it became, and they pointed the finger at the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce.
"It seems that we can only solve the troubles of Taiyi Chamber of Commerce first."
"That's right, we'll go to Longyang City to verify. If that's the case, it's okay to teach Taiyi Chamber of Commerce a lesson first."
"This seat also fully agrees. We must teach Taiyi Chamber of Commerce a lesson, so that these people know that Zijin Chamber of Commerce is not something they can provoke."
After deliberation, everyone chose to return to Longyang City first.

The Zijin Chamber of Commerce allied forces headed for the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce branch in Longyang City.
There was nothing to say on the road, and many sectarian forces came directly to the main gate of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce Branch, and they were all full of righteous indignation.
"Listen to the people from the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, and immediately withdraw the powerhouses you sent to the Xingyue Shenzong, otherwise the Zijin Chamber of Commerce will launch an all-round attack."
"Hurry up and let your branch president go out to greet you, or we will attack directly."
"Don't talk nonsense with the people of Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, and flatten the Longyang City branch."
Just as the affiliated sects of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce were clamoring, the 800
Taiyi God Group powerhouses dispatched by the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce headquarters had just arrived at the Longyang City Branch.
The two sides instantly confronted each other.
"This can't be wrong, it's the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce who helped the bandits."
"The Taiyi Chamber of Commerce has really made a lot of money this time, and there are so many strong people from the Taiyi God Group."
"It is conceivable how many powerhouses of the Taiyi God Group participated in that battle."
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4141 -
The Zijin Chamber of Commerce dispatched these sectarian forces to believe that it was the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce who had defeated King Xiaoyao and Bailian Tianzong before.
The masters of the ancestors of Taiyi were full of doubts when they heard the words.

They gathered from many branches to stand by, and the first stop was Longyang City.
"What are these people talking about?"
This doubt appeared in the minds of the masters of the Taiyi God Group.
The person in charge of the Taiyi God Group immediately sent a letter to Wei Shuyang to ask what was going on, and at the same time explained the situation of Longyang City.
"Those people thought that our Taiyi Chamber of Commerce succeeded?"
Wei Shuyang didn't know whether to laugh or cry, Levi Garrison had already killed Wang Xiaoyao's army and Bailian Tianzong with one person and one beast, throwing away their armor and fleeing in embarrassment.
It's just that everyone in the Taiyi God Group never thought that it was Levi Garrison and Lei Kirin who killed the two armies.
So Wei Shuyang passed on the situation here, but suddenly found that there was no response for a long time after the message was sent.
No matter how the message was sent, the Taiyi God Group did not respond.
Of course, Wei Shuyang wasn't worried about what would happen. The army of eight hundred Taiyi gods was not just kidding.
No matter which sect has to deal with such a large team of masters, it will not easily tear its face.
In fact, as Wei Shuyang had expected, the Zijin Chamber of Commerce army did not rashly attack the powerhouses of the Taiyi God Group.
Although these sects are all employed by the Zijin Chamber of Commerce, no matter which sect is singled out and pays the 800 Taiyi God group powerhouses, there is no certainty of victory.
It may even be counter-killed, and even if it wins in the end, it will pay a heavy price.
"As long as the powerhouses of the Taiyi God Group are left here and don't support the bandits, the goal will be achieved."

After discussion, everyone left Xingchen Haidian and Heijia Tianjun to take care of the 800 strong people of the Taiyi God Group in Longyang City.
As for other sect forces, they all attacked the Xingyue Divine Sect.
The latter did not dare to act rashly because the two major forces were eyeing the Longyang City Branch.
It's just that the powerhouses couldn't contact Wei Shuyang anyway, which made them realize the special situation.
It must be that the Zijin Chamber of Commerce interfered with the communication tool and cut off the communication between the two parties.
In this way, the powerhouses of the Taiyi God Group are even more afraid to leave Longyang City easily.
But for them, as long as they can hold back some of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce's strength, it can be regarded as a change of direction to support Levi Garrison.
The Zijin Chamber of Commerce, led by the six top sects, Anyan Pavilion, Holy Spirit Academy, Tianyuan Sword Sect, Zhanhu Clan, Dayan Shengzhai, and Longhu Temple, attacked the Xingyue Shenzong mightily.
Hundreds of cloud boats roared away and soon reached the periphery of the main rudder of the Xingyue Divine Sect.
The powerhouses of the various sects set up their camps, and they established their own defensive formations, preparing for a half-day repair and then launching a general attack.
The war is about to break out, and the main area is full of chills.
The Xingyue Divine Sect also got the message long ago, and Mu Rongwanqing sent out countless eyeliners, and if there was any abnormality, they would send a message to the helm.
"Sect Master, the sect sent by the Zijin Chamber of Commerce is too strong this time, so be cautious!"

Mu Rong Wanqing persuaded as tactfully as possible.
Wei Shuyang also echoed: "The six top sects, such as the Dark Flame Pavilion and the Holy Spirit Academy, are no less powerful than the Hundred Refinements Heavenly Sect."
"Especially the three major sects of Zhanhu Clan, Dayan Shengzhai, and Longhu Temple are even stronger. It is indeed not to be underestimated!"
Levi Garrison waved his hand and said lightly, "It's okay, it's just a group of ants."
"This……"
Everyone was speechless.
Although Levi Garrison has shown super strength before, everyone still thinks that he is a little arrogant.
Quantitative changes can lead to qualitative changes, especially since the "quality" of these top sects is very high, and the combined power can be imagined.
"You two will join me in the battle to kill the enemy!"
Levi Garrison waved to Murong Qingxue and the two girls.

Murong Qingxue and Gongsun Yueying were a little surprised. They had no idea that Levi Garrison would call him in this situation.
Facing the siege of many top sectarian forces, even Gongsun Yueying, who was born in the Temple of Sun and Moon Divine Fire, was very nervous.
You must know that any one of the six major sects headed by the other party can instantly kill the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple.
"The elites of the six sects are all out, can I really handle it?"
Gongsun Yueying questioned deeply in her heart.
Murong Qingxue was even more suspicious of herself because she was "from a humble background", even her legs were trembling slightly.
Levi Garrison reminded with a smile, "Have you forgotten the magic weapon?"
Gongsun Yueying and the two daughters suddenly realized, and the nervousness on their faces eased a lot.

Levi Garrison had asked the two women to choose a quasi-magic weapon as a weapon in the Dragon Burial Valley, but now it can finally come in handy.
"Wow!"
At this moment, Lei Kirin 's low roar came.
Obviously, it was a stern protest against Levi Garrison for not being the first to call on him under the opportunity of appearing in front of such an excellent person.
"Xiao Lei, how can I forget you at such a time? All good shows are the finale, right?"
Levi Garrison's words immediately made Lei Kirin smile, but the terrifying lion face smiled more like a devil crying.
"Xiao Lei remember, don't let one go this time, show your greatest strength."
Levi Garrison added.
Lei Kirin raised his front hooves and patted the scales on his front chest, making a clear sound, like a human patted his chest for protection, and let out a few high-pitched sounds.
"let's go!"
Levi Garrison waved his hand, and the three and one beast walked straight towards the city head.
"Mr. Ye, what about us?"
Wei Shuyang asked hurriedly.
Levi Garrison's voice then came: "You guys can watch the play at the top of the city!"
"Watch… watch the play!"
Wei Shuyang and the other Taiyi Chamber of Commerce strongmen twitched their mouths neatly, very embarrassing!
They came all the way to help, but no one thought that they would become spectators.
This wave of favors is too easy, right?
Led by Levi Garrison, three people and one beast floated down under the city and walked straight towards the Zijin Chamber of Commerce Allied Forces Camp.
Soon Levi Garrison and others were spotted in the foreword of the Allied Forces, and they were quickly reported to the heads of the six major sects.

“This gangster is really brave, how dare he take the initiative to die?”
“This guy is too arrogant, right? Even the three of them dare to attack together, and they don’t take us seriously!”
“In this case, let him improve his memory, everyone, line up to meet the enemy!”
The allied forces of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce rushed out of the camp to set up a formation, quietly waiting for Levi Garrison and others to approach.
Whoohoo!
It wasn’t that the wind was blowing, and the sand was rolled up, but it disappeared inexplicably when it flew before Levi Garrison approached.
“The gangster, you have cultivated wildly, and the elder of the Dark Flame Pavilion will teach you great tricks!”
With a cold and stern voice, an old man with white hair and beard flashed to the front of the formation like a ghost.
Everyone saw that the old man’s palms had three-color strange flames rising up.
Due to the high temperature of the flame, the surrounding area was burned and folded and deformed.
“The three chiefs of the Zhanhu Clan also want to learn some of Your Excellency’s great tricks.”
As soon as the voice fell, a burly man like a small hill rushed to the front.
The muscles of the strong man are knotted, showing a sense of explosive power, as if the power in the body has overflowed uncontrollably.
Especially at the moment when the strong man gently waved his arm, there was a faint sound of tiger roaring.
“The deputy head of Dayan Shengzhai is here, please enlighten me!”
A seductive voice sounded, and because of this man’s slim figure and a black veil, he couldn’t see his true face of Mount Lu at all.
His voice was simply seductive and seductive, but he couldn’t tell the difference between men and women, but there were two afterimages standing beside him.
It is like a ghost in the world, making people tremble for no reason.

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4143 -

"The Eight Great Vajra Arhats of Longhu Temple, please give me some great tips."

The eight burly figures were like gods descending from the sky and landed on the ground, and they saw a golden light radiating around them.

They were all wearing monk robes with their palms clasped together, and their bare heads were very clear and reflective under the sunlight, and they were even a little dazzling.

"The Presbyterian Church of the Holy Seminary asks for advice."

These people look strange, not like ordinary human beings, even a little ferocious, and the breath on their bodies is also very strange.

In particular, their eyes were blood red, which was daunting.

"Master, the Vajra Arhats of Longhu Temple practice Vigorous Vajra magic, which belongs to the top-level pure-body cultivation method. It is said that if you cultivate to the highest level, you will be immortal, indestructible, and invincible."

"As for the Dark Flame Pavilion, they are majoring in fire-type exercises, and they are extremely powerful in controlling the fire element between heaven and earth, and the person in the lead can control multi-colored flames."

"The more colors of the flame, the stronger the burning ability."

"Dayan Shengzhai practice is extremely strange. It is said that it can use Taoism to mobilize the power of heaven and earth for its use, making opponents hard to guard against."

"Holy Seminary is an alien race I don't know very well. The Zhanhu Clan has the bloodline of spirit beasts. It is said that the awakening of the bloodline at a certain age greatly increases the combat power."

"Tianyuan Sword Sect only knows that they are majoring in swordsmanship. It is said that the swordsmanship of the sect master has reached the state of perfection.

Fortunately, he is not here today, otherwise it will be very difficult."
Gongsun Yueying explained to Levi Garrison as he walked.
Murong Qingxue was quite envious. Her knowledge was far less than Gongsun Yueying's. Under such circumstances, she couldn't help her with her knowledge reserve.
Levi Garrison said with a smile: "It's okay, let them regret coming into this world next."
Before he finished speaking, Levi Garrison rushed out first, raised his left arm high, and the Thunder Slashing Sword suddenly slashed down.
Clap!
A dazzling silver light flashed, and the entire area was filled with terrifying flashes, and the violent sword light slashed directly at the elders of the Tianyuan Sword Sect.
"Tianyuan Wufang Sword Formation!"
The chief elder of Tianyuan Sword Sect shouted loudly, and the others understood and hurriedly ran the exercises.
The sword qi suddenly gathered together to form a network of terrifying sword qi. As the arm waved, it slammed towards the sword gang cut out by Levi Garrison.
Clang!
The violent sound of Jin Ge symphony sounded.
The originally fierce and terrifying sword net was suddenly cut in half, but the power of that dazzling sword gang remained undiminished.
"Go back!"
The chief elder of Tianyuan Sword Sect had an unprecedented premonition of crisis in his heart.
The other elders dodged to the side one after another, but the speed of the sword was so fast that several elders were slashed while they were still in the air.
puff!
Dao Dao red light shone, and several Tianyuan Jianzong elders died on the spot.
The power of the knife gang is still not reduced in the slightest, and it directly cuts a bottomless crack on the ground.

The elites of the coalition forces in the rear also suffered countless casualties in an instant, and just one slash caused the Tianyuan Sword Sect, one of the six top sects, to suffer heavy casualties.
"The gangster, don't be mad, watch this seat burn you to ashes!"
The chief elder of the Dark Flame Pavilion shouted loudly, and the three-color flame in his palm became stronger and stronger.
As he ran the exercises quickly, two extremely terrifying fire wheels were formed in an instant.
The blazing flames baked the surrounding area into wrinkles and deformed, and the power of the fire element was extremely pure, and then threw it to Levi Garrison.
"Okay, since you are compared to flames, I will test you with the power of the fire element to convince you."
Levi Garrison said with a sneer.
"Wow!"
A high-pitched roar sounded.
Then, without waiting for Levi Garrison to respond, Lei Kirin took the lead.
I saw it opened its bloody mouth, and a blazing flame shot out against the two fire wheels.
laugh!
The flames form beams of light, much like the special effects of a fire cannon in a movie.
Boom boom boom!
The flames from both sides collided in the void, making a deafening sound.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4144 -
With a loud bang, everyone saw the blazing flame column directly swallowing the two fire wheels.
With the crackling sound of burning explosions, the blazing fire pillar continued to blast towards the chief elder of the Dark Flame Pavilion.
"not good!"

The chief elder's face changed greatly, and he almost instinctively dodged to the side.
However, the speed of the blazing light beam released by Lei Kirin was too fast, and the right arm was hit by the fire column.
"what!"
The chief elder screamed, and a piercing pain instantly hit his body.
Looking at the elder's right arm, it was all burned to coke. Due to the high temperature, the blood of the incomplete part of the body was instantly evaporated to dryness.
"Wow!"
Lei Kirin shouted at Levi Garrison proudly, as if showing off his talent.
Then he looked at the chief elder of the Dark Flame Pavilion, who was also looking back at the same time.
At the moment when the eyes of the two sides met, the chief elder clearly saw the teasing and contempt in Lei Kirin 's eyes.
"Damn bastard!"
The chief elder cursed aloud. He was the dignified elder of the Dark Flame Pavilion, and was highly respected in the sect. At this moment, he was despised by a spirit beast?
"This seat is going to be slaughtered…"
Before the last word 'you' was spoken by the chief elder, he felt a cold light appear in front of him, and then he fell into the boundless darkness.
Pfft!
The chief elder fell heavily to the ground, and Levi Garrison cut through the Dragon Burial Sword and killed him directly.
"Everyone be careful, this is a king-level spirit beast, don't fight it hard."
There are strong voices in the coalition.
As a result, many of the coalition forces shifted their targets to Murong Qingxue and Gongsun Yueying.
Pick soft persimmons!
However, this time, the powerful coalition forces thought wrong again.
The quasi-magic soldiers in the hands of Murong Qingxue and the two women flew up and down, and their combat effectiveness was more than ten times higher than usual. Under the blessing of the quasi-magic soldiers, the two women were invincible.

Of course, the top powerhouses of those sects will still put pressure on them, but it's not a problem to reach the level of self-protection.
"Longhu Temple Vajra Arhat, I heard that you are pure body cultivation?"
Levi Garrison asked playfully.
A burly monk in the lead put his palms together and said solemnly: "The power of the gods in the hands of the donor is unparalleled, I am afraid that Lao Na's body protection magic will not benefit."
"If you want Lao Tzu to fight you empty-handed, just say it straight, it's not happy at all to beat around the bush."
Levi Garrison said with a sneer: "But since I've said it all for the sake of it, then I will meet your requirements and only test my fists with you."
Levi Garrison handed the buried dragon to his left hand, then ran the basic exercises, aiming at the chest of King Kong of the Dragon Tiger Temple with a heavy punch.
"Good come!"
King Kong of the Dragon Tiger Temple was also very surprised. He never thought that Levi Garrison was so particular about giving up the advantage of the magic weapon.
"Others use their strengths and circumvent weaknesses in life-and-death confrontations, but this guy actually does the opposite, then let you taste the power of Lao Na's golden body protection magic."
Dragon Tiger Temple King Kong also throws a punch, intending to confront Levi Garrison head-on.
Bang!
The fist styles of the two sides took the lead in meeting one place in the void.
Then the fists slammed into each other head-on.
Clap!

The two sides were in a stalemate for a few tenths of a second, and the sound of bones shattering came from the void.
The face of the Dragon Tiger Temple Vajra Arhat suddenly changed, and he found that his right arm was shattering at a speed visible to the naked eye, spreading to his shoulders in an instant.
puff!
A blood mist exploded, and the entire right arm of King Kong Arhat was shattered.
"what!"
The bone-piercing pain struck instantly, and the Dragon Tiger Temple Vajra Arhat looked at the scene in front of him incredulously.
Was his proud Vajra body protection magic actually broken by one punch?
You must know that even if a quasi-magic soldier slashes on his arm, he can only cut a shallow white mark at most.
The bandit actually injured himself so badly with his flesh and blood?
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4145 -
"Don't stay here for a long time, run away!"
This is the only thought left in the mind of King Kong of the Dragon Tiger Temple.
Levi Garrison seriously injured himself in the way he is best at, which undoubtedly makes people feel hopeless.
"I want to leave now, it's too late!"
Levi Garrison's cold voice sounded again.
A moment later, under the horrified eyes of everyone at Longhu Temple, the chief King Kong of the sect was blown into a blood mist by Levi Garrison's punch.
"What a terrifying  intensity!"
"The bandit is actually a body cultivator, and it seems that he has stronger skills."
"Chief King Kong's blood feud must be avenged, let's go together."
The other King Kong groups in Longhu Temple attacked it, but they were all killed by Levi Garrison, and he didn't even use magic weapons during the whole process.

This scene is utterly terrifying.
The other sectarian powerhouses retreated one after another, but Levi Garrison, the three and one beast, fought more and more bravely, and directly killed the Zijin Chamber of Commerce allied forces in a mess.
Wei Shuyang and the others who were watching the battle at the Xingyue Shenzong had long been shocked and stunned.
They were once again shocked by Levi Garrison's powerful strength, especially the performance of Murong Qingxue's two daughters was beyond everyone's expectations.
The magic weapon in their hands has increased their combat power to such a degree that they deserve to be the top forging masters.
"It doesn't make any sense for us to stay here, let's go back to Longyang City to talk about the situation first!"
Wei Shuyang proposed, and others agreed.
Because he lost contact with the powerhouses of the Taiyi God Group before, this made Wei Shuyang quite worried. After all, those people were dispatched by the headquarters.
"Tell Mr. Ye at that time, and we will come back after we investigate the situation clearly."
After Wei Shuyang explained, he took a few confidants to return to Longyang City on a cloud boat.
As for the army they brought, they still stayed in the Star Moon Sect, in case of emergency.
There was nothing to say on the road. When Wei Shuyang rushed back to the Longyang City branch, the 800 strong members of the Taiyi God Group had been surrounded by the Xingchen Haidian and the Heijia Tianjun.
"Wei Shuyang, you came back just in time, do you know what's going on in the Xingyue Divine Sect?"

“Did you, the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, help you to defeat the King’s army of Xiaoyao and Bailian Tianzong before?”
“You’d better answer truthfully, or your club will be crushed.”
Everyone asked in a cold voice.
Wei Shuyang said with a wry smile, “Everyone, it doesn’t make any sense for you to guard your troops here. The King of Xiaoyao and the Tianzong Bailian were both killed by Mr. Ye.”
“As for the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, it has never helped.”
Whoa whoa whoa!
There was an uproar at the scene.
“Impossible, are you so fooled when we are three-year-olds?”
“The vice sect master of the Hundred Refinements Heaven Sect and King Xiaoyao are comparable to the top powerhouses, plus the army of spirit beasts and the sword formations of the gods, how can they be defeated by a gangster?”
“Hurry up and tell the truth, our patience is limited.”
The two forces did not believe Wei Shuyang’s words at all.
However, thinking that there will be a large number of reinforcements going to the Xingyue Divine Sect in the future, the members of the two major forces are waiting for good news from other sects.
It’s just that several days have passed, and the forces attacking the Xingyue Divine Sect are still in the air.
At the same time, some of the strong men of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce were also hiding in Longyang City.
They are also waiting for the final message of the coalition’s attack, while always keeping in touch with Huangfu Hongsheng.
Huangfu Hongsheng didn’t wait for the news for a long time.
Just as Xingchen Haidian and the Heijia Tianjun were anxiously waiting, they suddenly felt a buzzing sound, and when they looked from a distance, they saw a cloud boat flying in the sky.
“It seems to be Yunzhou of Dark Flame Pavilion, they are back.”

Someone screamed in surprise.
However, the next scene directly left the members of the two major sects stunned in place.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4146 -
The Dark Flame Pavilion Yunzhou slowly landed on the ground from the sky, and the three people and one beast walking out from above shocked the audience in an instant.
"These people are not from the Dark Flame Pavilion, who are they?"
"Holding a sword and magic weapon, isn't this guy a gangster?"
"Where are the powerhouses of the Dark Flame Pavilion?"
After a short silence, everyone screamed and looked towards the sky where the cloud boat was coming.
However, after looking around for a long time, I didn't see any trace of the superpowers that were killing the Xingyue Divine Sect.
In an instant, there was a bad premonition in everyone's heart.
"It turned out to be… Mr. Ye?"
The high-level officials of the Longyang City Taiyi Chamber of Commerce Branch recognized it immediately.
Wei Shuyang arrived when he heard the news, and when he saw Levi Garrison, he was extremely shocked.
But now is not the time to ask for details.
In recent days, the two major forces of the Heijia Tianjun and Xingchenhaidian have been fighting with each other with the Taiyi Divine Ancestor Eight Hundred Powerhouses.
"Are you a gangster?"
The leader of the Black Armored Army asked in a cold tone.
The eyes of the others also shifted in an instant, but they questioned in a condescending manner.
Levi Garrison nodded calmly and said, "That's right, it's me!"
"What about the Dark Flame Pavilion, Dragon Tiger Temple, and Tianyuan Sword Sect?"
The leader of the Black Armored Army continued to ask questions.

Levi Garrison said with a smile: "I killed them all, why, you can't wait to follow them?"
"what?"
The leader of the Black Armored Corps and the others screamed in surprise, with incredible expressions on their faces.
"The coalition forces headed by the six major factions are tyrannical. Even if they lose, they can at least retreat completely. How can they be killed?"
"This guy is just bluffing. It seems that he escaped here first knowing that he was defeated."
"Just a few of them are thinking about making noises? It's a fool's dream."
Everyone ridiculed Levi Garrison for talking nonsense.
However, Wei Shuyang and other Taiyi Chamber of Commerce experts who had seen Levi Garrison's strength had no such idea.
They saw the invincible scenes of Levi Garrison and the others when they rushed to kill the coalition camp, but in less than half a column of incense, the coalition suffered countless casualties.
It is precisely because he had no worries, Wei Shuyang decided to lead a few confidants to return to Longyang City to investigate the situation first.
However, even so, when Levi Garrison said this, Wei Shuyang and others couldn't help but gasp.
"The coalition is dominated by the six top sectarian forces, and was killed by Levi Garrison in such a short time?"
Wei Shuyang was amazed again and again. If he hadn't seen Levi Garrison's terrifying combat power with his own eyes, he would not hesitate to think that this information was a fantasy.
"If you have this request, I don't mind giving you a ride."
Levi Garrison said this in a very light tone, but the leader of the Heijia Tianjun felt extremely murderous.
"Arrogant, do you think my 10,000 Heijia Tianjun is made of mud?"

The leader of the Heijia Tianjun said angrily.
Levi Garrison shook his head, which made the leader of the Heijia Tianjun think that Levi Garrison was intimidated, and the corner of his mouth could not help but rise slightly.
However, Levi Garrison's next sentence suddenly froze the smile of the leader of the Heijia Tianjun.
"Under my sword, your army of ten thousand is not as strong as the mud."
While speaking, Levi Garrison shook the dragon burial and thunder slaying in his hand.
contempt!
Naked contempt!*
"you wanna die!"
The members of the Black Armored Corps were instantly furious, and they wanted to do something to Levi Garrison.
However, the deputy hall master of Xingchenhai Palace and the leader of the Heijia Tianjun had a very solemn expression, and even had a hint of retreat in their hearts.
The two instantly recognized that Levi Garrison was holding two top-level peerless weapons, and once they fought, they would suffer heavy casualties.
"Tough bandit, you kill seventeen peak powerhouses in our chamber of commerce. You must return blood for this blood feud."
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4147 -
Just as the leaders of the two major forces were resigned, an incomparably vigorous voice sounded.
After a while, an old man with white beard and hair slowly walked forward and glared at Levi Garrison.
"The chief elder of this Zijin Chamber of Commerce headquarters must settle this blood feud with you today."
The old man's eyes were sharp. The elder of the branch of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce in Wandao City, whom Levi Garrison killed in the Dragon Burial Valley before, was his junior fellow.

The two brothers and sisters had a very good relationship. After learning the news, the chief elder from the headquarters immediately asked Ying to come over and kill the bandits.
"10,000 Heijia Tianjun and Xingchenhaidian, the strong men, plus the elders of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce brought by this seat, how many of them are still afraid of them?"
I have to say that the words of the chief elder are very provocative, and they directly led the powerhouses of the Heijia Tianjun and Xingchenhaidian.
"Leader, the Heijia Tianjun would rather stand and die than retreat easily."
"We have a powerful army rushing technique, and we will be able to kill him on the spot."
"Xingchenhaidian also listened to Zijin Chamber of Commerce."
The crowd was furious, and they had long been very unhappy with Levi Garrison's previous arrogant attitude.
"kill him!"
"Let's go together and kill him!"
"Those two women are reserved for this seat."
Everyone was shocked, the sword was drawn out of the sheath and the bow was drawn, and they glared at Levi Garrison and others.
"Wow!"
Lei Kirin roared, and the huge lion's face was full of anger: I ignored this beast, courting death!
Levi Garrison nodded and smiled: "Okay, let's fight!"
The 800-strong Taiyi God group also received a death order to save Levi Garrison's life at all costs.
Therefore, the 800-strong powerhouse did not give in at all, and released their terrifying aura one after another.

The atmosphere instantly became tense, and the war was about to break out.
"Wait!"
Wei Shuyang lost his voice.
Wei Shuyang had seen the terrifying combat power of Levi Garrison's divine soldiers.
Longyang City would probably be destroyed in such a large-scale battle.
"what are you doing?"
The leader of the Heijia Tianjun asked with a cold face.
Wei Shuyang said in a deep voice, "Everyone has something to say. You may not understand Mr. Ye's strength."
"At that time, King Xiaoyao was stabbed to death by the peerless magic weapon thrown by Mr. Ye, and the magic weapon of Bailian Tianzong was completely destroyed by him."
"What's more, we can talk about the loss of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce, why bother to let those hostile sects see jokes in secret?"
"Even if Mr. Ye's terrorist forces are not mentioned, the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce headquarters has issued a death order to keep Mr. Ye safe at all costs."
"These 800 Taiyi God group powerhouses are just the vanguard, do you really plan to fight to the death and break the net?"
As soon as these words came out, even the chief elder of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce Headquarters, who had an extremely tough attitude just now, made a contemplative gesture.
As Wei Shuyang said, once the Taiyi God Group really tries to protect the bandits at any cost.
Even if the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce is finally defeated, the Zijin Chamber of Commerce will have to pay a heavy price, not to mention the strength of the bandits themselves is very strong.
At that time, the competitors and hostile forces of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce will definitely take advantage of it, and the Zijin Chamber of Commerce may even be gradually eroded until it is completely annexed.

Combined with the help of the powerful Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, the bandits once killed the army of the King of Xiaoyao and the Bailian Tianzong.
And there are eight hundred Taiyi God group powerhouses in front of them to help out, if they really fight, they may not be able to get anything cheap.
Seeing that the powerhouses in the Heijia Tianjun and Xingchenhaidian were all thinking, Wei Shuyang hurriedly struck while the iron was hot to persuade the other party.
"Mr. Ye, please look at your own face and don't conflict with them in Longyang City!"
Wei Shuyang's tone was clearly pleading, and he knew that Levi Garrison's attitude was very important.
This is a top-level killing god, once he insists on shooting, Longyang City will definitely be bloody.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4148 - Levi Garrison knew Wei Shuyang's concerns. Burying the dragon and slaying thunder were powerful. Once the two sides clashed, Longyang City would be destroyed.
And Longyang City is the base camp of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce branch, and it is also Wei Shuyang's lifelong efforts, so naturally he doesn't want to watch it collapse and destroy.
"Well, since President Wei has said it for this sake, I won't insist on fighting this battle."
Levi Garrison pondered for a moment and said.
Although the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce did not help much in this battle, it was a favor for them to choose to stand on their side from the very beginning.
Taiyi Chamber of Commerce will be a good partner for a firm foothold in Kunlun Ruins and long-term development in the future.

So Levi Garrison decided to give Wei Shuyang this face.
When he got the answer he wanted, Wei Shuyang also let out a long breath.
"What do you guys think?" Wei Shuyang turned his attention to the Zijin Chamber of Commerce.
The chief elder of the headquarters of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce had a gloomy expression on his face, and he was obviously still engaged in a fierce ideological struggle.
But he also tried to contact the leaders of the dark flame pavilion, the dragon tiger temple and the others just now, but he didn't get any response.
"Could it be that those sectarian forces were really wiped out by the bandits?"
This thought flashed in his mind, and the chief elder immediately gasped.
"Since President Wei is begging for mercy, this seat will give you this face temporarily, but this matter must not be taken lightly, let's go!"
The chief elder of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce headquarters said solemnly.
After a short thought, he finally decided to retreat first, and then quickly sent someone to the area where the Star Moon Sect was located to investigate the situation.
If those sectarian coalition forces are really killed by the bandits, then they need to think about how to get rid of them quickly, and rashly fighting each other is very likely to suffer heavy casualties.
"Let's get out first!"
With the order of the chief elder, all the three forces withdrew from Longyang City.
The tense atmosphere suddenly relaxed, and even the 800 powerhouses of the Taiyi
God Group breathed a sigh of relief.
They don't know Levi Garrison's cultivation realm, but facing the rush of 10,000 Heijia Tianjun, even if they can win in the end, they will suffer heavy casualties.
Not to mention that there are also the Xingchen Haidian and the powerful headquarters of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce besieged.

“Mr. Ye, please, we are just discussing the next thing.”
Wei Shuyang stretched out his hand and asked for a word, and Levi Garrison and others followed into the discussion hall.
After the guests and the host were seated, Wei Shuyang ordered people to serve tea.
After a few words of greetings, he turned and asked, “Mr. Ye, did you really kill all the allied forces of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce?”
“Almost! All the leaders were killed, and at most a few small trash fish ran out.”
Levi Garrison said lightly.
sizzle!
There were voices of gasping for air in the conference hall.
The powerhouses of the Taiyi God Group were also dumbfounded. They never thought that Levi Garrison’s strength was so tyrannical.
“The masters sent by the six major sects, including the Dark Flame Pavilion, Tianyuan Sword Sect, and Longhu Temple, are enough to destroy any large sect.”
“I can’t imagine how the alliance of the six major sects will destroy the entire army!”
“It’s incredible that there are so many affiliated forces and organizations that have received bounties!”
Everyone was amazed by each other’s voice transmission.
Although Wei Shuyang saw Levi Garrison kill King Xiaoyao and others with his own eyes, he still sighed after the fact was confirmed.
He actually really wiped out the power of those sects.
“It seems that Levi Garrison’s strength is far more terrifying than I thought!”
Wei Shuyang couldn’t help slandering, and then continued to ask: “Mr. Ye, what are your plans next?”
Since the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce has decided to stand on Levi Garrison’s side, the latter’s subsequent decisions will directly affect the fate of the entire Chamber of Commerce.
Levi Garrison said quietly: “Take me to Wandao City, I will never have future troubles.”

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4149 - v

A stone stirred up a thousand waves.

There was an uproar in the conference hall.

Everyone felt that they had hallucinations.

Of course, many people think that Levi Garrison is crazy.

"This guy really dares to say that he wants to go to Wandao City alone?"

"That is the base camp of the second largest branch of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce.

How can one person be able to shake the foundation of more than 100 years of operation?"

"I think he belongs to the ignorant and fearless. Compared with the Wandaocheng base camp, this coalition is nothing short of a drop in the bucket. Going there to find trouble is equivalent to seeking death!"

Almost all those who said these words were the powerhouses of the Taiyi God Group.

Even Wei Shuyang and others who had seen Levi Garrison's strength were scared to death.

"Mr. Ye, are you kidding me?"

Wei Shuyang asked in a dry voice.

Levi Garrison asked indifferently, "Do you think I'm joking?"

"This……"

Wei Shuyang was at a loss for words, and he could feel Levi Garrison was a little sullen.

But no matter what, he felt that the interests of the matter should be made clear, even if he angered Levi Garrison.

"Mr. Ye doesn't know, this Wandao City has been operated by the Zijin Chamber of Commerce for more than a hundred years, and the surrounding sectarian forces are intricately complicated, which is tantamount to Longtan Tiger's Den."

"Even those sects that killed the Xingyue Divine Sect before are less than one-tenth of the power left behind in Wandao City."

"The key is that Wandao City still has an ancient defensive formation that was left over from hundreds of years ago, and was later improved and strengthened by countless powerhouses of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce."

"The Sea of Stars is also heavily organized. The Sea of Stars has set up numerous defense and attack formations there, using the power of the water element of the Sea of Stars."
Wei Shuyang told everything he had learned in one breath, trying to make Levi Garrison realize the seriousness of the matter.
No matter how strong Levi Garrison is, Wandao City is the second branch of the Zijin
Chamber of Commerce.
In addition, the strong people at the headquarters of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce will provide support at any time. If you go alone, you will not get any benefits at all, and you may even risk your life.
Of course, Wei Shuyang also knew that Zijin Chamber of Commerce would never let it go.
Once Levi Garrison attacked Wandao City again, it would be equivalent to adding fuel to the fire, and it would attract even more frantic revenge from the Zijin Chamber of Commerce.
Even if he can retreat with his powerful strength, he will completely ignite the anger of many sects in Wandao City.
At that time, it will not be as simple as a reward order, but will directly evolve into the revenge of many sects, so there is absolutely no room for manoeuvre.
It's better to let it go for a while, and the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce will mediate in the middle. Even if a certain compensation plan is given, it cannot continue to intensify the hatred and contradictions.
"If I don't destroy Wandao City, can I guarantee that they won't take revenge? I can't stay at the Star Moon God Sect all the time."
Levi Garrison said in a deep voice.

Wei Shuyang understood what Levi Garrison meant, and the latter just wanted to have no worries at all.
"Mr. Ye, why don't you wait a few more days, the people from the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce headquarters will arrive soon."
"We finally agreed on a plan that everyone is satisfied with, what do you think?"
Wei Shuyang asked tentatively.
Levi Garrison pondered for a moment, nodded and said, "Okay, but if there is no reason to discuss it, I still have to destroy Wandao City." Wei Shuyang let out a sigh of relief, he was really worried that Levi Garrison insisted on going to Wandao City immediately.
"By the way, Mr. Ye, what you asked me to investigate before has been confirmed again and again. The informer is the new saint of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace."
"She had been hiding in the temporary camp of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce before, and three elders from the headquarters of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce were sitting there."
Wei Shuyang changed the subject.
Inside the temporary stronghold of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce outside Longyang
City.
Gong Qianqiu was pacing in confusion, and she had also received information about the battle outside the helm of the Xingyue Shenzong.
For example, the gangster killed the King of Xiaoyao with one shot, and one person and one beast group destroyed the Hundred Refinements Tianzong.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter
4150 -
The coalition forces such as Longhu Temple and Tianyuan Jianzong were also almost slaughtered by Levi Garrison and others.
The messages that followed made Gong Qianqiu even more upset.
"A bunch of trash, the Zijin Chamber of Commerce is just like that!"

Gong Qianqiu couldn't help cursing, thinking that through the power of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce, the bandits could be killed to eliminate future troubles.
I never thought that such a powerful coalition would still be defeated.
"The bandits won't ask me to settle accounts after Qiuhou?"
Every time Gong Qianqiu thinks of this, the whole person becomes more irritable.
She thought about going out to hide, but after hiding, the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace seemed to be even more unsafe.
Last time, the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall suffered heavy casualties with a single arrow from thousands of miles away.
After thinking about it, it is still safe to stay in the temporary stronghold of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce, especially the three black-robed elders are from the headquarters of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce.
"Even the gangsters have to give them some thin noodles, right?"
Gong Qianqiu slandered, the Zijin Chamber of Commerce is a superpower after all, and those forces sent out before are less than one-tenth of their full strength.
"With such a profound background, even if you want to come to the bandits, you won't dare to make trouble."
However, such an idea has not completely dissipated, and a strong person from the Zijin Chamber of Commerce walked over.
"Gong Qianqiu, Elder Mo Xie asked you to come over." The Zijin Chamber of Commerce's strong man's face was calm, as if he had no emotion at all.
Gong Qianqiu didn't dare to ask more, the three black-robed elders were far more powerful than her, and there were many other powerhouses that she couldn't compare.
Playing low-key is the way to live.
Gong Qianqiu followed the strong men of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce to the discussion hall, and found that many sectarian strong men had gathered.
"Elder Mo called Qianqiu any advice?" Gong Qianqiu asked respectfully.

Mo Xie wanted to inquire about the details of the battle between the gangsters and the powerhouses of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall, but suddenly felt a powerful aura approaching rapidly.
"Someone is here, everyone is on alert and ready to fight!"
Mo Xie immediately gave an order.
Gong Qianqiu's heart also mentioned her throat instantly. Her first reaction was that the gangsters came to the door, and her face was instantly pale as paper.
The three elders, Mo Xie, Mo Ya, and Mo Cheng, rushed out of the conference hall, followed by the others, their swords drawn and bows drawn, and their eyes stared outside.
Boom!
With a loud noise, a figure fell from the sky.
Mo Xie recognized it at a glance, and asked in an extremely cold tone, "What are you doing here?"
Before Wei Shuyang intervened, Mo Xie was already full of anger.
But because he didn't know the depth of Levi Garrison's strength, he didn't rashly tear his face.
Now that Levi Garrison actually took the initiative to kill him, it is simply too deceiving!
Levi Garrison smiled and said, "I'm here to find someone."
"Who are you looking for?" Mo Xie asked, his tone becoming very impatient.
Levi Garrison released the breath probe, and soon found the breath of Gong Qianqiu, pointing directly to Gong Qianqiu who was hiding in the depths of the crowd.
"I'm looking for her!" Levi Garrison said playfully.
Mo Xie and the others quickly realized what was going on. After all, the whereabouts of the bandits were originally provided by Gong Qianqiu.
Is this planning to settle accounts after the fall?
"Gong Qianqiu said your whereabouts are true, but don't deceive people too much, this is our territory after all."

Mo Xie snorted coldly and continued, "It depends on the owner to beat the dog!"
"You are right!" Levi Garrison said seriously.
Mo Xie thought that Levi Garrison was intimidated by his own strength, so he planned to put a few harsh words to find some ground, but was ruthlessly interrupted by Levi Garrison.
"It's precisely because I look at you, the master, that I should fight!"
Levi Garrison said with a smile.
Mo Xie was choked back by the cruel words that had already reached his lips, and he felt very uncomfortable for a while.
"Don't go too far, this is not a place for you to be wild…"

Before the word "square" of the strong man in the headquarters of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce was spoken, he felt a cold light appear before his eyes.
Immediately afterwards, a stern sword chi roared, and it was too late to hide.
puff!
A line of blood sputtered out, and the body of the strong man at the headquarters of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce fell to the ground.
"Noisy!"
Levi Garrison said impatiently.
"If you can't control your mouth, I don't mind sending you on the road together."
Levi Garrison's icy voice exploded in everyone's ears like a thunderbolt from the blue, and everyone shivered involuntarily.
Mo Xie and others were also shocked. They never thought that Levi Garrison would dare to kill people alone on his own territory.
Too arrogant!
But then again, gangsters do have arrogant capital.
Just the blow just now, even if it is replaced by himself, he may not be able to avoid it perfectly.
Thinking of this strong presence, everyone is in danger.

In particular, they just heard that Levi Garrison's peerless magic weapon is unparalleled, and they don't want to try the magic weapon.
"Gong Qianqiu, you'd better come out by yourself, and wait for me to act at your own risk."
Levi Garrison said coldly.
Gong Qianqiu was trembling all over, and his face was extremely ugly, but he did not dare to disobey Levi Garrison's words.
She could clearly feel Levi Garrison's murderous aura when he said the last sentence.
Gong Qianqiu looked at the strong men of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce as if asking for help, but these people gave way and completely exposed her in front of Levi Garrison.
Even with all kinds of anger in their hearts, the strong men of the Zijin Merchant Association did not dare to touch Levi Garrison's bad head easily, which would lead to death.
Gong Qianqiu was helpless, so she could only bite the bullet and slowly walked forward, her legs seemed to be filled with lead, and she was struggling.
She didn't know what was waiting for her next, it might be death, or it might be death.
The scene of the strong man dying under the sword just now is vivid in his mind, and Gong Qianqiu is afraid that he will follow in his footsteps.
In this short distance of more than ten meters, Gong Qianqiu felt as if he had traveled through thousands of mountains and rivers.
"Hurry up, I have limited time."
Levi Garrison urged impatiently.
Gong Qianqiu was about to cry, and looked at Mo Xie and others again, but the latter avoided his eyes, obviously not planning to stand up for her.
Finally, after half a column of incense, Gong Qianqiu walked to Levi Garrison.
For some reason, she once again felt a sense of familiarity with the ordinary-looking gangster in front of her.
"If you can't keep your mouth shut, you will have to pay a price. Today, I will collect some interest first."

Before he finished speaking, Gong Qianqiu only felt a palm shadow approaching rapidly.
She instinctively wanted to dodge, but her legs seemed to be bound by some kind of force, and even the slightest movement became a luxury.
Snapped!
Levi Garrison slapped Gong Qianqiu's right cheek.
A bloody palm print appeared immediately, and his cheeks were swollen high.
"Asymmetry affects perception."
As Levi Garrison's voice sounded, Gong Qianqiu felt another burning pain coming from the left cheek.
Snapped!
Levi Garrison accurately grasped the strength, and sure enough, the extent of the swollen cheeks on both sides was almost the same.
"Looking at your eyes, you're still not convinced, let's keep fighting over there!"
clap clap!
"Still staring?"
clap clap clap!
Levi Garrison hit Gong Qianqiu in a series of hundreds of mouths, and her cheeks on both sides were about to be smashed.
Blood flowed from the corners of his mouth, miserable.
I don't know how long it took to fight, Gong Qianqiu only felt that Venus was shining and dizzy, and the whole face lost consciousness, completely numb.
"You are dismissed!"
Levi Garrison finally stopped, then looked at the other members of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce and asked, "If you are not convinced, you can stand up."
No one dared to answer the scene for a while, for fear of angering the evil spirit and causing death.
Looking a t Gong Qianqiu's bloody cheeks, Mo Xie and other three elders felt a deep insult.

The slaps before Levi Garrison seemed to be slapped on their faces, and they felt a burning sensation.
Levi Garrison's operation was tantamount to hitting everyone on the scene in the face.
They were filled with righteous indignation, but they dared not speak out.
"Since you have no opinion, I will leave first."
After Levi Garrison finished speaking, he turned and left.
Gong Qianqiu is going to be left to Xiao Feng to kill. This time Levi Garrison came here just to teach her a lesson. Anyway, if you are idle, you are idle!
Seeing Levi Garrison's background slowly disappearing from sight, Mo Xie and the others finally couldn't bear it any longer, and scolded directly.
"Damn bastard, it's so deceiving, do you really think our Zijin Chamber of Commerce dare not take revenge on him?"
"To dare to beat someone in front of us, this hatred and hatred must be repaid tenfold."
"When the gangster is caught, this seat will make sure that he can't survive or die."
In the anger of the crowd, Mo Xie also reported the matter truthfully to Huangfu Hongsheng.
In the Zijin Chamber of Commerce in Wandao City.
Huangfu Hongsheng was furious when he got the news.
"Bastard, this person is so deceiving. If we don't get rid of it, how will the Zijin Chamber of Commerce gain a foothold in Kunlun Ruins?"
Huangfu Hongsheng was furious and immediately made a final decision.
"Use all your strength to kill the bandits. If the people from the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce stop them, they will be killed together."
A single command fell like a mountain.
The entire Wandao City moved.
Because the force sent last time failed, Huangfu Hongsheng decided to let the core force go out.
Especially at the headquarters of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce, thousands of top experts were dispatched to help.

All the elites of Xingchen Haidian were dispatched, and the Heijia Tianjun even dispatched more than 100,000 elites, vowing to smash the robbers to ashes.
As for the large-scale sects such as Longhu Temple and Tianyuan Jianzong, which had suffered huge losses before, they also made their best efforts and vowed to take revenge.
For a while, the Eight Directions Movement, countless large and small sects rushed to Wandao City to assemble and stand by.
Shhhhhh!
The elite lineup of more than 100,000 Heijia Tianjun walked in unison, making deafening footsteps, as if the entire base was shaking violently.
Especially in the middle of the army are ten large chariots, these chariots are dark green all over, exuding a faint cold light.
The top of the chariot appeared in a row of bazooka, with hundreds of black hole 'barrels' aimed at the front, and there was a faint flash of coldness in these 'barrels'.
If you look closely, you will find that those cold awns are clearly sharp spear tips.
I don't know what kind of material these spears are made of, but from a distance, it shows a rhyme that fits the heaven and earth.
The chariot is called Guijianchou, and the long spears hidden in the 'barrel' are all quasi-magic weapons made of top-quality raw materials.
And the whole body of the chariot was arranged by the formation master, which could use the power of heaven and earth as an energy source to motivate the chariot to fire.
Let these quasi-magic spears, which are already extremely lethal, bring out the power of top-level magic soldiers.
A single chariot activation switch can release hundreds of spear attacks at the same time, no matter how strong the cultivation base is, it is difficult to completely avoid it.

In particular, these spears also have a rhythm, and to a certain extent have a tracking effect, the enemy locked by the chariot will be tracked nowhere to hide.
These ten chariots are the siege artifact of the Heijia Tianjun, and they were all taken out this time to deal with the bandits.
Coupled with the more than 100,000 Heijia Tianjun elites who already have a combined attack formation, and the Ghostly Chariots, they can completely push any large sect horizontally.
Other sects also showed their elites, and the first of the six courtyards of Longhu
Temple was dispatched, vowing to avenge the hatred of the Eight Vajra Arhats.
The leaders of the six major tribes of the Zhanhu Clan also came out of their nests, and their bloodlines have been fully awakened.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4153 -
The sound of tiger roars was faintly heard in every gesture, and the combat effectiveness was evident.
The Sect Master of Tianyuan Sword Sect led the five Supreme Elders together, and while walking, a complex sword formation appeared on the top of their heads. It was obvious that their swordsmanship had reached a state of perfection.
The other sects are basically the same, they are all masters, vowing to kill the gangsters without shame.
Especially the line of King Xiaoyao, they quickly stabilized internally and elected the new King of Xiaoyao.
The new King Xiaoyao was also extremely skilled at guarding beasts, and he formed an army of thousands of spirit beasts in a short period of time.
And there are ten quasi-king-level spirit beasts among these spirit beasts. They are also like well-trained troops, assembling in a neat and uniform formation to stand by.

Huangfu Hongsheng stood on the cloud boat, overlooking hundreds of sectarian camps.
But seeing the flags fluttering, the team is majestic and powerful, and the whole world is filled with a strong chill.
"Kill the bandits, take revenge!"
Huangfu Hongsheng shouted for luck, and his voice reached the ears of everyone present.
"Kill the bandit!"
"Blood revenge!"
"Kill the bandit!"
"Blood revenge…"
Many sectarian powerhouses shouted in unison, and the shouts of killing resounded through the sky, and the whole world seemed to change color.
"Set off!"
Huangfu Hongsheng gave an order, and the sectarian alliance army marched forward in a mighty manner, directly killing Longyang City.
The coalition forces rushed out of Wandao City, immediately causing the surrounding area powerhouses to watch from afar.
Some people are puzzled, and some people who know the inside story help to explain.
"It turned out to be to kill that gangster, but to use such a terrifying lineup, President Huangfu is making a big fuss, right?"
"The Heijia Tianjun has even used the Guijianchou chariot. This is an artifact specially designed to deal with top powerhouses!"
"King Xiaoyao's spirit beast army has also been dispatched. It seems that there must be at least ten quasi-king-level spirit beasts, and this spirit beast army is more than enough to push three or five large sects."
"That's the powerhouse of the Tianyuan Sword Sect! There are sword formations surrounding them while walking. This is a sign that Tianyuan Sword Art has been cultivated to the highest level."

“There is also the Zhanhu Clan. These all have the fighting power of the tribal master, otherwise there would be no sound of tigers roaring while walking.” “Let’s stay away! This time the Zijin Chamber of Commerce is real, no matter who it is, they will surely die.”
Everyone talked a lot, but they didn’t dare to approach, for fear of being affected by Chi Yu.
the other side.
Gong Qianqiu, who was slapped by Levi Garrison, also got the message, and she even couldn’t wait to come to watch.
When Gong Qianqiu saw the true face of such a terrifying coalition army, the feeling of annoyance and resentment suddenly became extraordinarily beautiful.
“Damn bandit, this sect master wants to see how you deal with it this time?”
“With this level of truth, no matter how powerful his strength is, he will surely die.”
The more Gong Qianqiu thought about it, the more excited he became, and the corners of his mouth could not help but rise slightly.
It was just that the corner of his mouth was involved in the wound, and he gasped in pain, and his resentment towards Levi Garrison became stronger.
“This sect master wants to see how the gangster died this time?”
Gong Qianqiu made up her mind that she would follow the coalition far away, and she would witness the whole process of the tragic death of the bandits with her own eyes.
If there is a chance, Gong Qianqiu even wants to personally kill the bandit to avenge the humiliation today.
At the same time, Wei Shuyang, who was far away in Longyang City, also got the message.
As early as when the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce decided to stand in line with Levi Garrison, Wei Shuyang sent a large number of eyeliners to watch every move of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce in Wandao City.

Therefore, Wei Shuyang had already received relevant information where Huangfu Hongsheng assembled his army.
Until the news that the coalition forces had assembled, Wei Shuyang was completely shocked and dumbfounded.
"It's too bad. The Zijin Chamber of Commerce has used such a lineup. It seems that it will never die!"
Wei Shuyang said to himself in a bitter voice.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4154 - Wei Shuyang frowned deeply, the sectarian force dispatched by the Zijin Chamber of Commerce was unprecedentedly powerful.
"Go and invite the elders of the leaders of the Taiyi God Group to come over and discuss with us on important matters."
Wei Shuyang gave orders directly to his confidants.
After a while, several elders of the Taiyi God Group rushed over.
When they saw Wei Shuyang's particularly solemn expression, they instantly felt the seriousness of the matter.
"President Wei, what happened?"
One of the elders was the first to ask questions.
Wei Shuyang nodded and told several people all the information he had received.
The expressions of several elders were also a little ugly after hearing this.
The Zijin Chamber of Commerce sent such a large-scale coalition to retaliate against Levi Garrison. Even if all the members of the Taiyi God Group were dispatched, there was no chance of winning!
"That's why I didn't notify Mr. Ye directly. If he knew about this, he would definitely choose to take the initiative."
Wei Shuyang sighed faintly and continued, "There's really no room for manoeuvre at that time."
The elders of the Taiyi God Group nodded in agreement. Before, Levi Garrison went directly to the temporary stronghold of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce and slapped Gong Qianqiu.

It can even be said that the matter has been coaxed to this point, slapping Gong Qianqiu and making the three elders of Mo Xie lose face is the fuse that triggered the ultimate war.
You must know that Wei Shuyang has come forward to reconcile and let Mo Xie and others retreat first.
If there is a good negotiation next, the compensation and compensation may be resolved in a perfect and peaceful way.
"President Wei, what are you going to do?" The Taiyi God Group elder asked in a deep voice.
Wei Shuyang pondered for a moment, then sighed: "No matter what method is used, Mr. Ye has to be stabilized. As long as he doesn't act, there is still a chance to mediate."
"But I haven't figured out what to do for the time being. The coalition forces are so powerful, I'm afraid this information won't be hidden for long."
Wei Shuyang had a sad face, and the elders of the Taiyi God Group were helpless.
Thinking that such a powerful coalition force is about to attack, everyone feels like sitting on pins and needles.
"It will be a disaster for the entire Taiyi Chamber of Commerce if it is not handled well!"
Wei Shuyang let out a long sigh.
In fact, just as Wei Shuyang had expected, Murong Qingxue soon received the news of the gathering of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce.
Gongsun Yueying also saw the message on the communication tool, and the two pretty faces were as pale as paper.
"No matter how strong the master is, in the face of the siege of so many strong men, I am afraid that two fists can't beat four hands!"
Gongsun Yueying said in a trembling voice.

She used to know more as a saint of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace, and even any of the leading sects could easily sweep the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace.
Take the Heijia Tianjun as an example, there was a time when a 30,000-strong army used the Gui Jianchou chariot to push three large sects horizontally in a row, almost crushing their opponents.
However, this time, more than 100,000 elite Heijia Tianjun and ten Guijianchou chariots have been dispatched. This is the rhythm that is planned to be destroyed together with the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce!
Murong Qingxue was also trembling. Although she didn't have as much knowledge as Gongsun Yueying, she could judge the approximate extent based on the number of troops that attacked the Xingyue Divine Sect not long ago.
"Let's hide it from the Sect Master for now!" Murong Qingxue said in a low voice.
Gongsun Yueying also agreed with this approach, but then sighed and said, "How long can we hide it?"
The two women knew Levi Garrison's temperament very well. If the latter knew about this kind of thing, they would definitely fight to the end.
But in the face of such a terrifying coalition, what chance do Levi Garrison and Taiyi Chamber of Commerce have?
Even if Levi Garrison can retreat with his powerful strength, then they are probably not so lucky, right?
Including the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, I am afraid it is not possible to survive.
Thinking of this Gongsun Yueying, the fear in their hearts became even stronger.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4155 -
"What are you afraid of? When the soldiers come, they will block the water and cover the soil. No matter how many people come from the Zijin Chamber of Commerce, they will be cut with one sword."

The hearty voice came, which immediately startled Murong Qingxue and the two girls.
I don't know when Levi Garrison was already standing behind him.
"metropolitan!"
"Owner!"
Murong Qingxue and Gongsun Yueying hurriedly greeted each other.
Levi Garrison said with a smile: "I already know what you guys are talking about, there is nothing to be afraid of, the mere Zijin Chamber of Commerce doesn't care about me."
"Master, the sects sent by the Zijin Chamber of Commerce this time are indeed very powerful. They are dozens of times more than those before, and they must not be taken lightly!"
"Yeah, Sect Master, I've also heard of Gui Jianchou's chariot, which is a powerful weapon specially used by the Heijia Tianjun to deal with top experts."
The voices of the two women were trembling, trying to make Levi Garrison change his mind, even if he chose to avoid his edge.
The affection on Levi Garrison's face is still unwavering, and he said very easily: "That's right! I still have six peerless gods that have no test results!"
To be precise, there should be forty-six peerless weapons, but Levi Garrison only regarded the ten peerless weapons that he forged at first as the strongest divine weapon.
Seeing Levi Garrison's heart-filled expression, Gongsun Yueying and the two daughters didn't know how to persuade them.
It's just that they are still pessimistic about the upcoming war.
A four-handed hero with two fists can't stand the crowd, especially if the opponent is the elite of the elite, it is easier for the quantitative change to lead to the qualitative change.
Stronger than Levi Garrison may not be able to truly have the last laugh.
"If you are afraid, hide away, don't get in the way in front of me."
Levi Garrison said impatiently.
"I won't leave the sect master, I will fight side by side with you."

“I’m not leaving the master either, it’s a big deal!”
The attitude of the two women is very firm, of course, it is more helpless. In their opinion, there may still be a chance to stay by Levi Garrison’s side, and once they leave the country, they will surely die.
Whether it was the Star Moon Sect or the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall, even the more powerful sects would have no resistance in the face of such a large coalition of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce.
“That’s right!”
Levi Garrison was very satisfied with the reaction of the two women.
In fact, Levi Garrison’s previous rhetoric was not without purpose. Through the last general battle, he had already made a preliminary estimate of the strength of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce.
Back then, he did his best to lead Lei Kirin into the enemy camp, but he still killed the two major forces without leaving behind.
At this moment, Wei Shuyang’s voice came: “Mr. Ye, I have found you.”
Looking at Wei Shuyang with a smile on his face, Levi Garrison asked, “Is there anything you want to do with me?”
Levi Garrison was a little puzzled. According to normal logic, the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce should also have received the news of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce’s aggressive attack. There is no reason why it is so easy.
“It’s nothing, it’s just that Mr. Ye has been here in Longyang City for so long, and I haven’t been able to fully enjoy the friendship of the landlord. It’s really rude.”
“So I came here specially to invite you to our Xianju Manor in Longyang City, and please don’t refuse!”
Wei Shuyang said sincerely.
Levi Garrison was slightly startled, and then asked with a chuckle, “Shouldn’t President Wei be actively preparing for the battle? You still have the heart to invite guests to dinner?”

“Mr. Ye is joking, hey!”
Wei Shuyang sighed softly and continued: “The battle of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce’s coalition forces is inevitable, why should I not worry about it?”
“But I also know that no matter how I persuade, Mr. Ye will not temporarily avoid the edge. Instead of making Mr. Ye unhappy, it is better to let it take its course and wait with peace of mind.”
“What’s more, I have seen Mr. Ye Huwei with my own eyes. As long as the powerhouses of the Taiyi God Group come out, they may not have a chance of winning.”
“Since this is the result, why not have fun?”
Wei Shuyang said something very sincere and frank, so Levi Garrison didn’t doubt it too much, so he agreed.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4156 -
I have to say that Wei Shuyang’s acting skills are really comparable to that of an actor, even Levi Garrison didn’t notice the slightest difference.
Of course, the most important thing is that Wei Shuyang’s remarks are reasonable and at the same time in line with Levi Garrison’s thoughts.
“Let’s go with the two girls too!”
Before Wei Shuyang could finish speaking, he was startled by the sudden roar.
Turning his head and looking around, he saw that Lei Kirin had a faint flame spurting out of his nostrils, his face full of anger, and there seemed to be six big characters written on his forehead: Why didn’t you call me?
“I specially prepared delicious food for Lei Kirin, but I didn’t have time to say it just now.”
Wei Shuyang hurriedly added that he had seen with his own eyes how terrifying the fighting power of Lei Kirin was, even if he was far behind.
If you anger this king-level spirit beast, you can’t directly destroy this Longyang City.
“Wow!”

Lei Kirin gave a quick cry, and instantly 'browsed his eyes and smiled', like a king who had returned in victory.
The corner of Levi Garrison's mouth twitched, and Lei Kirin had obviously gone farther and farther on the road of becoming a saint in front of others.
Three people and one beast followed Wei Shuyang to take the cloud boat to the designated place. After about half an hour, the cloud boat slowly landed in the east city of Longyang City.
"Mr. Ye, we're here!" Wei Shuyang said with a smile.
Looking at the dilapidated building in front of him, Levi Garrison frowned: "President Wei, are you kidding me?"
"Mr. Ye is joking. Even if I lend me ten thousand courage, I won't dare to play tricks on you! You'll understand after a while."
While speaking, Wei Shuyang walked towards the rusty gate of the dilapidated courtyard first, and saw that he gently pulled the knocker and the gate opened slowly.
"Mr. Ye, please come with me!" Wei Shuyang stretched out his hand and asked.
Levi Garrison didn't know why, but he followed Wei Shuyang into the courtyard.
However, the moment Levi Garrison and the others entered the gate, the surrounding scenery suddenly changed.
In front of you is a retro courtyard, with pavilions, pavilions and ancient rockery towers.
The small bridges and flowing water and the bluestone road complement each other, especially the bamboo forest, and the sound of the guqin is faintly melodious in the courtyard.
The sound of the violin seems to be able to wash the hearts of the world, and people can't help but indulge in it.
Boom!
The door closed on its own, Levi Garrison looked back and saw that the rusted copper door had disappeared.
"Is this an ancient formation?" Levi Garrison asked tentatively.
"Mr. Ye really has good eyesight."

Wei Shuyang nodded and said, "Yes, this is arranged by the formation masters invited by the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce with a lot of money, in order to hide people's eyes and ears."
"This place is called Xianju Manor, which is specially used to entertain distinguished guests. Mr. Ye is the first distinguished guest to be treated here in the past 30 years."
Levi Garrison looked around and smiled without saying a word. He felt that there was some moisture in this sentence.
But then again, the environment of this place is indeed worthy of the words Xianju Manor. The clouds and mists in the distance are like a fairyland.
"Mr. Ye, please continue to come with me, the banquet is ready."
Wei Shuyang said with a smile.
"Wow!"
Lei Kirin whispered a few times towards the bamboo forest in the distance.
Levi Garrison said with a smile: "You can act on your own, but remember to control your strength, such a good place has been ruined."
Lei Kirin was obviously very excited, and disappeared into the bamboo forest after a few vertical jumps.
"There is also a huge gathering spirit formation here. The spiritual energy of heaven and earth is very pure, so it is loved by spirit beasts."
Wei Shuyang explained while leading the road, and everyone quickly came to a spacious hall.
The interior of the quaint hall is elegantly decorated, and all the ornaments in it are carved from the finest wood.
There are red sandalwood tables all around, and the side dishes with good color and fragrance have been placed on it.
"Mr. Ye, the two girls, please take your seats." Wei Shuyang said respectfully.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4157 -
Levi Garrison also sat directly in the main seat without being polite, while Murong Qingxue and Gongsun Yueying sat down at the side table.
Wei Shuyang continued: "The elegant banquet must not be without fun, let Wuhen come over to play the piano to add to the fun."

The attendant De Ling slowly exited the hall, and after a while, a young woman in a long white dress walked in with a guqin.
"Wuhen has seen Mr. Ye and President Wei."
The sound is soft and pleasant to the ear, making it very comfortable to hear.
"Mr. Ye, this is the first musician of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce. He is good at playing the piano. I hope you don't dislike it."
Wei Shuyang said with a smile.
Levi Garrison nodded, looking at the woman who played the piano out of the corner of his eyelids.
She is indeed a woman with outstanding looks. To say that the two women of Murong Qingxue are stunning, but they are still slightly inferior to this Wuhen.
"Wei Shuyang doesn't want to use a beauty trick, right?"
Levi Garrison couldn't help but slander.
After a while, the sound of the piano sounded, melodious and melodious, as if there was some kind of purification pain, which could soothe the hostility in the hearts of everyone.
The meal was very relaxed and comfortable, and Wei Shuyang suspiciously didn't mention the topic of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce.
In fact, the reason why Wei Shuyang issued this invitation to Levi Garrison was mainly because he obeyed the order of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce headquarters.
As early as when they learned that the Zijin Chamber of Commerce had assembled, the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce headquarters discussed countermeasures.
The final conclusion is to protect Levi Garrison's secret first.
However, Wei Shuyang was also very aware of Levi Garrison's temperament, and directly said that Levi Garrison would definitely refuse.
However, inviting him on the grounds of hospitality can absolutely guarantee that nothing will go wrong, and the sincere speech at the invitation has dispelled the doubts in Levi Garrison's heart.
Xianju Manor is actually a secret base established by the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce headquarters, which is specially used to hide when there is no way out.

So Wei Shuyang's previous sentence "Levi Garrison was the first to be invited in the past 30 years" is true.
Moreover, the real meaning of the underground gathering array of Xianju Manor is to isolate the atmosphere from the inside and the outside world.
Even if the strongest cultivator arrives in Longyang City, neither side can perceive the energy fluctuations of each other.
"Mr. Ye, you have been repairing here in the past few days. Only by adjusting your state can you show your power in the decisive battle."
"I also have to let the powerhouses of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce set up a defensive formation, and I may not be able to accompany you in the next few days."
Wei Shuyang said with a sigh.
Levi Garrison nodded, Wei Shuyang's reaction was the most normal.
Xianju Manor's heaven and earth aura is pure and sufficient, and it is indeed very suitable for meditation practice. Levi Garrison has no reason to refuse.
Seeing that Levi Garrison had no doubts, Wei Shuyang also let out a sigh of relief, and accompanied Levi Garrison to chat for a while to get up and say goodbye.
Levi Garrison, three people and one beast stayed in Xianju Manor.
The happiest one is Lei Kirin, which completely regards this place as its own back garden, jumping up and down, dodging, and having a blast.
Wei Shuyang left Xianju Manor and began to make arrangements.
Although it has been decided to initiate negotiations with the Zijin Chamber of Commerce, but also to prepare for the worst, if the two sides collapsed, it would be a decisive battle.
Now that the powerhouses of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce headquarters are on their way to Longyang City, Wei Shuyang's initial task has been successfully completed.
Levi Garrison has now been appeased, and as long as Wei Shuyang doesn't personally open the eye formation in Xianju Manor, Levi Garrison will basically not be able to come out.
at the same time.

The entire Xingyue Divine Sect was as anxious as ants on a hot pan, and to some extent had even reached the point of panic.
Levi Garrison and others left the main helm, and only a few strongmen from the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce in Longyang City helped to defend.
And the Zijin Chamber of Commerce once again assembles a large army, once the Xingyue Divine Sect is raided, it will be a disaster for the Xingyue Divine Sect!
Mu Rong Wanqing also had trouble sleeping and eating. What made her panic the most was that no matter how she sent information to Levi Garrison, she couldn't get a response.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4158 -
"How could this be? The messenger should not have any response!"
Mu Rong Wanqing was puzzled. It was working fine yesterday, and Levi Garrison even briefly explained the situation in Longyang City.
"What's the matter, Sect Master Murong, haven't you contacted Sect Master Ye yet?"
"Sect Master Ye won't leave us alone, will he?"
"The Zijin Chamber of Commerce's coalition is dozens of times the strength of the last time. Even Sect Master Ye may not have the slightest chance of winning."
"The people of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce may not be reliable. The most important thing in doing business is to seek advantages and avoid disadvantages. In the face of such a strong enemy, they will temporarily withdraw and leave."
Many elders of the Divine Star Moon Sect were also anxious, and of course they were more anxious and fearful.
Mu Rong Wanqing sighed, these were not the most worrying things in her heart.
It is too common to fly separately when a disaster is imminent, especially the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, which pays more attention to the pros and cons, will withdraw once it finds that the gains outweigh the losses.
"The sect master is not the kind of person who escapes, let's not mess up."
Mu Rongwan paused and continued: "Of course you can't continue to wait like this, Elder Chen, take someone on a cloud boat to Longyang City to inquire about the sect master's information, remember not to startle the snake, and report to the helm if there is any situation. ."

When Levi Garrison left, he took the captured dragon-shaped cloud boat, and even packed the top peerless soldiers inside.
As for the Yunzhou captured in the Dragon Burial Valley, it was left in the Xingyue Divine Sect, which just came in handy at this time.
the other side.
The Zijin Chamber of Commerce allied forces advanced at full speed, the top experts arrived first in the cloud boat, and the Heijia Tianjun arrived a few days later.
For a while, the flags and flags outside Longyang City were surging, and the elite team was like a knife and axe, and the Longyang City was surrounded by wind and rain.
The top of the city was full of defenders, many of whom were strong from the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce. When they saw the situation under the city, they couldn't help gasping for air.
Looking from a distance, I can see that the people in the city are so densely packed that I can't see the edge at a glance.
It is also mixed with an army of various spirit beasts. They either move their hooves and let out a low growl, or they spread their wings and fly into the sky to overlook and hover.
It's just that no matter what the state, they are exerting enormous pressure on this city in the way they are best at.
Looking to the southeast, there are hundreds of people with extremely complicated patterns floating on their heads.
If you look closely, you will find that these formations are actually made up of sword qi crisscrossing each other.
Because the energy of the sword qi is too violent, it seems that the entire area of space is smashed to pieces.
"Ouch!"
At this moment, the deafening tiger roar came, and everyone in the city only felt a pain in the eardrums.

Even the spirit has been impacted, and those with a slightly poorer cultivation only feel dizzy and dizzy.
"It's the Zhanhu Clan that is collectively releasing the pressure of their bloodline talent. It seems that they are really moving."
At the head of the city, a strong man recognized the real situation and explained it aloud.
"As expected of a race with spiritual beast blood, it can release such terrifying energy pressure in a static state?"
"And those sword cultivators, even though they didn't make a move, they were able to form a terrifying sword formation, which was unheard of before!"
"The appeal of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce is really too great. In comparison, the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce is one level behind!"
"It seems that the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce is in danger this time, and it is so desperate because of the bandits."
"There is such a terrifying sense of oppression even after fighting. It's hard to imagine what it will be like to actually fight. It's really terrible."
"Look over there, it seems that a lot of dragon-shaped cloud boats are flying over, let's dodge quickly, so as not to be harmed by Chiyu."
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4159 -
Many local sectarians in Longyang City were talking about it, and when they saw the terrifying large cloud boat galloping, they hurriedly hid in a hidden place far away.
Boom boom boom!
Several dragon-shaped cloud boats flew past, and the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce powerhouse instantly became extremely nervous.
But they didn't dare to act rashly without getting an order.
What's more, the Zijin Chamber of Commerce and its affiliates who are always afraid of powerful forces seem to have no intention of attacking.
Huangfu Hongsheng stood in the main control room of the dragon-shaped cloud boat at the forefront, and he followed many top experts from the Zijin Chamber of Commerce.
At this moment, they are all running exercises to release energy, so as to explore Levi Garrison's breath in the entire Longyang City.

The other powerhouses in the cloud boat are also doing the same job, and they are almost searching for Levi Garrison's traces in a carpet-like manner.
The dragon-shaped cloud boat flies extremely fast, and they are searching dozens of cloud boats at the same time.
It took half an hour to explore Longyang City, but what disappointed everyone was that Longyang City did not have the atmosphere of Levi Garrison.
"The bandits are not in Longyang City."
Huangfu Hongsheng judged.
Dozens of cloud boats returned to the camp outside Longyang City again, and Huangfu Hongsheng directly informed the other sectarian powerhouses.
"I want to come to the gangsters to know that we are powerful, and they naturally hide when they know that they are not defeated. The gangsters are just like this!"
"Your Excellency's statement is reasonable. It is said that the bandits were extremely arrogant before, and did not take the Zijin Chamber of Commerce in their eyes at all. Now it is ridiculous to be a tortoise!"
"I can't blame the gangsters for being too timid. After all, the forces we sent before were limited, and with the full support of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, we were able to repel them."
"It seems that with the personal strength of the gangsters, they can deal with the collective strength of three large-scale sectarian powerhouses at most."
"That's right, if there is no Taiyi Chamber of Commerce to interfere, I'm afraid he may not be the opponent of the 10,000 Heijia Tianjun."
"The person who knows the current affairs is Junjie. It seems that the gangster is still a little self-aware.
In this case, it is wise to hide."
Hearing this, the crowd burst into laughter.
At first, these sects were a little uneasy, after all, so many strong people have returned.
But now Gao Xuan's heart has sunk instantly, and the gangster is not as terrifying as he imagined, and is vulnerable in the face of absolute strength.

“President Huangfu, what should we do next? Do you want to level the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce directly?”
Someone asked respectfully.
Huangfu Hongsheng pondered for a moment and said, “Our main purpose is to kill the bandits. As for the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, there is no need for a head-on conflict for the time being.”
“As for the fact that they dared to stand with the bandits before, I will ask them to settle the account after I kill the bandits, and they must be compensated with a huge amount.”
“Since the gangsters are not in Longyang City, we will rush to the Xingyue Divine Sect and wipe out this small sect. I believe that the gangsters will take the initiative to show up at that time.”
Everyone heard the words and expressed their approval.
“President Huangfu, Wei Shuyang, president of Taiyi Chamber of Commerce Longyang City Branch, asked for an interview, saying that he wanted to talk to you about the conditions for protecting the bandits.”
It was at this time that a subordinate reported.
Huangfu Hongsheng snorted coldly, and said with disdain on his face: “Just relying on the branch president of a small border town, he wants to have a direct dialogue with this seat?”
“Tell Wei Shuyang that if you want to negotiate with this seat, you must at least be a high-level executive of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce headquarters. As for him, he is not worthy.”
“Send Wei Shuyang away, and we will set off immediately to rush to the Xingyue Divine Sect.”
Huangfu Hongsheng didn’t take Wei Shuyang in his eyes at all. Of course, this was not because he was too arrogant, but there was indeed a gap in the identities of the two sides. Compared with Wandao City, Longyang City is different from the cloud and mud, and the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce itself is far less than the Zijin Chamber of Commerce.
Under the blessing of two aspects, Huangfu Hongsheng has a natural sense of superiority.

Boom boom boom!
As the roar sounded, hundreds of dragon-shaped cloud boats rose into the air and slaughtered the Xingyue Divine Sect in a mighty manner.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4160 -
More than a hundred cloud boats took more than a thousand top powerhouses from various sects and rushed towards the Xingyue Divine Sect.
Although there were many eyeliners watching the situation at all times and notified the helm in time, Mu Rongwanqing and other high-level executives were still a little caught off guard.
"Sect Master Murong, what should we do?"
"Even if we want to escape, it's too late. Haven't we contacted Sect Master Ye yet?"
"The eyeliner reported that the strong men of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce turned Longyang City upside down, and they still found no trace of Sect Master Ye, so they came to the door."
"Sect Master Ye really doesn't have the confidence to deal with them, did he just hide?"
The senior members of the Xingyue Divine Sect instantly panicked, and everyone's expressions were extremely difficult to see.
Mu Rong Wanqing was also devastated by the question, her heart was equally uneasy, and she was even full of fear.
Even though she knew that she should stabilize her position as a temporary speaker of the sect, the panic in the depths of her eyes had already betrayed her.
The Taiyi Chamber of Commerce's powerhouses are not much better, and their eyes are full of unease.
Although they have already made contact with Wei Shuyang to know some inside information, Wei Shuyang has also just issued a danger warning.
Of course, they also know that the senior management of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce headquarters is already on their way, but it is uncertain when they will arrive.
If the powerhouses of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce launched a general attack during this period, their lives would still be in danger.

“Don’t panic, everyone, I believe that the sect master has other proper arrangements.”
Mu Rong Wanqing felt that she didn’t have any confidence when she said these words, and the scene was naturally not under any effective control, instead it became more chaotic.
However, at this moment, a sound like a thunderbolt came from the blue sky.
“Listen to the gangsters, go out and die.”
Everyone only felt lost for a short time, and it was conceivable how powerful the cultivation of the voice was.
Mu Rong Wanqing didn’t expect the other party to come so quickly, she secretly sighed at the horror of the dragon-shaped cloud boat’s speed, and immediately led people out of the hall to the city.
As soon as they boarded the head of the main rudder city, everyone saw more than a hundred dragonshaped and phoenix-shaped cloud boats suspended in the air, surrounded by powerful auras around the bodies of many strong people.
“Wait, let the gangsters get out quickly, or this president will smash the Star-Moon Divine Sect with blood.”
Huangfu Hongsheng said loudly.
Mu Rong Wanqing was extremely nervous, her body was shaking slightly uncontrollably.
Although she didn’t know Huangfu Hongsheng, but the other party claimed to be the president, and it was conceivable that she was the absolute top of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce.
“President Huangfu, the powerhouses of our Taiyi Chamber of Commerce are already on the way, and want to negotiate with you, please take a break from Thunder…”
Before the strong man of Taiyi Chamber of Commerce finished speaking, he suddenly felt a cold light flashing in front of him, and then he fell into endless darkness.
Pfft!
The corpse fell to the ground.
“Noisy!”
Huangfu Hongsheng snorted disdainfully, and continued: “From now on, every quarter of an hour, this seat will kill ten people until the bandit appears."

The voice fell, and everyone in the city stepped back unconsciously, none of them wanted to be the first bird.
Although the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce powerhouses are very angry, they can only endure with all their might.
The scene was suppressed to the extreme, everyone felt the approaching breath of death, and they didn't even dare to breathe too hard.
A quarter of an hour came in the blink of an eye, and Huangfu Hongsheng said condensedly: "Since the gangsters don't care about your life and death, don't blame the president for being cruel."
"Someone, first kill the ten senior members of the Xingyue Sect around that woman."
Huangfu Hongsheng pointed at Mu Rong Wanqing and said.
"As ordered!"
Before he finished speaking, a figure suddenly shot out, and in the blink of an eye it was already close.
Mu Rong Wanqing and the others shrank their pupils sharply, and they all felt the killing intent.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4161 -
Mu Rong Wanqing and the others wanted to dodge, but their legs seemed to be filled with lead, and it was difficult to move at all.
Seeing the shadow of the palm approaching rapidly, several elders of the Star Moon Sect had their eyes tightly closed, waiting for death to come.
Mu Rong Wanqing was also helpless, she could feel that the target of the other party was not her, but the absolute high-level around her.
At this critical moment, a terrifying force suddenly struck from the southeast.
"who?"
The strong man of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce suddenly stopped, but found that there was an old man in black robes in front of him.
If it wasn't for the emergency retreat just now, I'm afraid I would have been severely injured by Zhang
Feng, or even killed on the spot.

The black-robed old man did not respond, but turned his attention to Huangfu Hongsheng on the dragon-shaped cloud boat.
"I haven't seen it for decades, and President Huangfu's demeanor is still the same!"
The sound is strong and powerful.
A look of surprise flashed in Huangfu Hongsheng's eyes, but then he returned to normal.
"It turned out to be Vice President Xiahou. I haven't seen you for a long time. Why, even you are my enemy today?"
There was a faint anger in Huangfu Hongsheng's tone. The other party was Xia Houcang, the vice president of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce headquarters.
Xia Houcang's identity is detached, far from being comparable to Wei Shuyang and his like. To some extent, he represents the attitude of the entire Taiyi Chamber of Commerce.
In other words, if Xia Houcang showed up at this time and his face was torn from the front, it would mean that the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce was ready to burn all the jade and stone.
"What did President Huangfu say? I came here to negotiate with the Zijin Chamber of Commerce on behalf of the President."
Hearing Xia Houcang's words, Huangfu Hongsheng was also slightly relieved, which showed that the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce did not want to fight to the end.
"Okay, let's talk about it then!"
Huangfu Hongsheng agreed immediately.
The two took the meeting hall of the head of the Xingyue Shenzong as the venue for negotiation, and the two sides had a heated discussion on how to compensate for the loss.
The negotiation lasted for three hours, and the two sides finally reached an agreement.
"President Huangfu, then we will make a decision. The Taiyi Chamber of Commerce will pay nine star veins as the most important compensation chip."
"The rest of the magic weapon and the treasures of heaven and earth will be delivered within three months according to the negotiated quantity."

“The losses of other sects are also compensated according to the price you requested. It is up to the Zijin Chamber of Commerce to persuade those sects not to act rashly.”
Xiahou Cang said solemnly.
Huangfu Hongsheng nodded and said, “Since the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce has offered such a sincere price, the Zijin Chamber of Commerce can’t help but give face.”
“The task of appeasing other sects can be handed over to the Zijin Chamber of Commerce. Just ask the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce to send the compensation to the Wandao City Zijin Chamber of Commerce as scheduled.”
The reason why Huangfu Hongsheng agreed so happily was that in addition to the really generous price given by the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, he also received orders from the headquarters.
It turned out that when Xia Houcang rushed to the Xingyue Shenzong to negotiate, the headquarters of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce also contacted the headquarters of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce.
The presidents of the two sides negotiated directly using the communication magic weapon. In order to avoid the loss of both sides, the president of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce was taken advantage of by other sects, so he agreed to accept the compensation from the other party, thus saving the life of the bandit.
After the negotiation, Huangfu Hongsheng directly led the major sectarian forces to withdraw to Wandao City.
The Taiyi Chamber of Commerce announced that Levi Garrison would be a member of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce from now on. Whoever dared to be inconvenient to him would be an enemy of the entire Taiyi Chamber of Commerce.
When the crisis was lifted, all the senior members of the Star-Moon Sect let out a sigh of relief.
After the matter was satisfactorily resolved, Levi Garrison, who was far away in Xianju Manor in Longyang City, knew that so many things had happened outside.
“Damn, it’s superfluous!”

Levi Garrison was very angry, and it seemed to him that he could compete head-on with the Zijin Chamber of Commerce coalition.
At this moment, Wei Shuyang rushed over.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4162 -
Wei Shuyang came to Xianju Manor to meet Levi Garrison, and naturally felt Levi Garrison's anger.
"Mr. Ye, please calm down. I know you have the ability to compete with the Zijin Chamber of Commerce, but since the negotiation is over, don't bother going to the Zijin Chamber of Commerce anymore."
Wei Shuyang persuaded bitterly, and then informed Levi Garrison of the detailed negotiation process.
Levi Garrison only knew about it before, and only then did he understand that the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce had paid such a large price for peace of mind.
In particular, the nine star veins, which are higher than the dragon veins, are said to be powerful spiritual veins that can absorb the power of the stars in the sky.
The Taiyi Chamber of Commerce bleeds blood, and Levi Garrison is not to blame. After all, to a certain extent, it is also the price he paid to protect himself.
"I am not an unreasonable person, and I will never let the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce suffer in vain.
Well, I will provide five quasi-magic weapons as a gift of thanks."
"We will be real partners in the future. It's just that I have a word in advance. Next time, I won't be able to do small tricks in secret."
Levi Garrison reminded in a deep voice.
Wei Shuyang was overjoyed and nodded quickly, he knew the grade of the quasi-magic soldier in Levi Garrison's mouth.
That is far from being comparable to a quasi-magic weapon in the ordinary sense, even the peerless magic weapon recognized by some major sects before can not be compared.
"Don't worry, Mr. Ye, this is definitely the last time." Wei Shuyang hurriedly promised.
Then Wei Shuyang informed the headquarters that Levi Garrison had provided five quasi-magic soldiers, and the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce was also dancing with joy.

Although a lot of costs were paid to persuade the Zijin Chamber of Commerce, the friendship of Levi Garrison was even more precious.
This is the top forging master, what kind of peerless magic weapon you want to get in the future?
the other side.
Although a friendly agreement was reached with the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, Huangfu Hongsheng was still very upset.
In the battle of Dragon Burial Valley, the Longyang City Branch lost a full seventeen peak powerhouses, especially the Great Elder Shenyun, which was a huge loss.
Of course, the high-level leaders of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce also felt shameful, after all, there were not a few casualties in so many sects.
If it can be calmed down through compensation this time, it will inevitably be inhumane and negotiated with the lives of his subordinates.
So the absolute top of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce held a joint meeting and finally decided to hire a killer to deal with Levi Garrison.
In short, this account must not be left alone.
So after the meeting, Huangfu Hongsheng was mainly responsible for summoning the killer.
In order to avoid implementation, Zijin Chamber of Commerce did not hire killers in the surrounding areas.
Instead, he directly found a forbidden place 30,000 miles away from Xingchen Sea—Skull Swamp.
This area is a swamp that is mysterious and terrifying to the extreme. Even many strong people and spirit beasts can't break free, which directly leads to this swamp full of skeletons, hence the name.
However, these killers have been living in the swamp for a long time. It is said that they can survive here because they have practiced their own unique exercises.
Because of the particularity of the Skeleton Swamp, many people knew of their existence, but they dared not come to them easily.
Moreover, the killers of the Skeleton Swamp have not failed in countless assassination missions, which makes them even more famous in the Kunlun Ruins.

The chips provided by the Zijin Chamber of Commerce were very rich, and the killers in the Skull Swamp readily accepted the assassination mission.
At the same time, the Zijin Chamber of Commerce also found more than a dozen large bounty hunter organizations, including the top three organizations, Eternal, Heavenly Punishment, and Shentu.
These bounty hunter organizations are powerful, and each organization occupies a city.
Everyone has a clear division of labor, the killer is responsible for killing Levi Garrison, and the bounty hunter organization is responsible for robbing the four peerless soldiers in Levi Garrison's hands.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4163 -
Inside the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce in Longyang City.
Levi Garrison is still staying in Longyang City, and he also wants to discuss the follow-up specific cooperation matters with the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce.
In order to show respect for Levi Garrison, Meng Wuya, the only daughter of the chairman of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce, came to discuss with Levi Garrison in person.
"Mr. Ye, please forgive me. Because of my father's special status, once he makes a move, he will attract too many eyes."
"It will also bring unnecessary trouble to Mr. Ye, so I didn't come to meet in person."
Meng Wuya was the first to speak.
Levi Garrison waved his hand and said, "It doesn't matter, it's the same if you can come and talk."
"Thank you, Mr. Ye, for your understanding."
Meng Wuya said softly.
Then Meng Wuya gave Levi Garrison a detailed introduction to the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, of course, there was also a hint of show off.
After some introductions, Levi Garrison realized that the headquarters of Taiyi Chamber of Commerce was located in a large city in the center of the Northern Territory.
The Kunlun Ruins are mainly divided into five regions: east, west, south, north, and middle, and the region where Longyang City is located is the northern region.
Of course, Longyang City is on the edge of the entire Northern Territory, so it is not very prosperous in comparison.

The Northern Territory is extremely huge, but the real prosperous is the Central Territory, which is also called the Central State by the monks of Kunlun Ruins.
The Dragon Pool City, where the headquarters of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce is located, is within Zhongzhou, and this city is named after the gathering of many dragon veins to form one dragon vein pool.
"Mr. Ye, my father's intention is to let you go to the headquarters of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce in Longchi City, and you will be the vice-chairman."
On the surface, Meng Wuya's words sounded like an invitation to join, but it always meant a reward.
Levi Garrison said without any hesitation: "Miss Meng, I haven't thought about being included in the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce for the time being."
Levi Garrison has really thought about it for a long time, and there is no problem in cooperating with the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, but joining the camp is restricted by others, and he is unwilling.
A flash of anger flashed in Meng Wuya's heart.
Secret thought: If it wasn't for the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce to mediate, you would have been smashed to the ground by the allied forces of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce. Where would you be able to speak up here?
Although there was a lot of unhappiness in his heart, Meng Wuya didn't show it on the surface.
"Since Mr. Ye disagrees, Wu Ya is not reluctant." Meng Wuya said with a smile.
However, the Tianjiao members of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce who came with him were immediately angry, and they criticized Levi Garrison on the spot.
"Levi Garrison, are you too ungrateful? In order to protect you this time, the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce has suffered heavy losses."
"It's not wrong, let alone let you be the vice president of Taiyi Chamber of Commerce. You are too ignorant to praise, so you refused?"
"If it wasn't for the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, you would have been killed by the powerhouses of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce."

Everyone expressed their dissatisfaction, and Levi Garrison's face suddenly sank.
Wei Shuyang was well aware of Levi Garrison's temper, so he hurriedly spoke out to smooth things out, and only then did he reluctantly calm down the gaffe.
However, the eyes of those Taiyi Chamber of Commerce Tianjiao looking at Levi Garrison were already very unfriendly.
Meng Wuya took advantage of the situation and said: "I heard that Mr. Ye's forging skills are unfathomable, I wonder if Wuya can enjoy it?"
The arrogance of other Taiyi Chamber of Commerce expressed that they did not believe in Levi Garrison's forging technique, and they all coaxed to see it believing.
Levi Garrison was also very calm, and said: "No problem, you have prepared the materials, and I will forge magic weapons for you on the spot."
Meng Wuya came prepared, took out many medium materials that he carried with him, and let Levi Garrison forge a weapon.
"Mr. Ye, is there anything wrong with so many people watching at the same time?"
Wei Shuyang asked with a frown.
After all, the technique of forging is a core secret. These people may not be of the same mind to the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce. If it is leaked, the consequences will be disastrous.
Levi Garrison said with a smile: "My forging technique cannot be learned even if many people see it."
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4164 - Meng Wuya and others were naturally unhappy. Among them, there were many people who studied blacksmithing, and they came here to judge the depth of Levi Garrison's blacksmithing.
Levi Garrison also saw what these people were thinking, but he didn't explain too much. As the saying goes, facts speak louder than words, and he would use actions to shut up these people.
For forging with this level of material, Levi Garrison did not ask Lei Kirin to help release the power of the leyline flame and the thunder, and directly found a convenient place to start forging.

Over time, the pile of raw materials gradually turned into a sharp blade. During this period, Levi Garrison was dazzled by a series of forging techniques in Taiyi Chamber of Commerce.
In particular, the forging master specially sent by the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce was also shocked and dumbfounded, and repeatedly sighed at Levi Garrison's unfathomable forging skills.
"Miss, this person's forging skills have reached the state of perfection, and his subordinates are ashamed."
Taiyi Chamber of Commerce forging master sound transmission.
Meng Wuya was also quite shocked in his heart. The forging master wanted to have his eyes above the top, and he could get such an evaluation. One can imagine the power of Levi Garrison.
"This person is really a treasure. We must try our best to get him into the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce.
After all, the cooperative relationship is too risky."
Meng Wuya made up his mind in secret.
After Levi Garrison's forging was completed, Meng Wuya couldn't put it down.
"Mr. Ye is indeed a forging prodigy. His forging skills are admirable, but I don't know if Mr. Ye can do other things? For example, alchemy."
Meng Wuya said half-jokingly.
Meng Wuya was originally a joke, as a warning to Levi Garrison that there are many talented people and different people, don't think that if you have the forging technique, you can empty the world.
But Meng Wuya didn't think of her words to wake up the dreamer, but instead reminded Levi Garrison.
In addition to the forging of weapons, the ancient books left by Master Cheap at the time really contained content about alchemy, and this part of the content was extremely esoteric and difficult to understand.
Of course, the main reason is that the technique of alchemy in the mundane world cannot be used at all, and the materials and tools for refining elixirs are extremely lacking.

But things are different now. The materials in the Kunlun Ruins are complete, and almost everything needed for alchemy.
"I can try it. I wonder if the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce can help prepare the following items?"
Levi Garrison immediately listed what he needed in detail.
Meng Wuya immediately prepared the famous people, and they also had related items with them, and they would soon have all the items ready.
Levi Garrison used the alchemy furnace prepared by the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce quite easily. He strictly followed the steps recorded in ancient books.
Since it was the first time for alchemy, the technique was a little unfamiliar at the beginning, but Levi Garrison was very talented, and the speed was getting faster and faster.
About two hours later, a golden high-quality medicinal pill was successfully refined.
"Look at this pill with nine layers of pill patterns, it's definitely a top-grade pill!"
"This alchemy technique is even more exquisite than the technique of forging. It really opened my eyes!"
"Mr. Ye is really a genius of alchemy, and as soon as he makes a shot, he refines a top-quality medicine pill."
The powerhouses of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce were very excited, especially Meng Wuya, who was even more excited.
In her opinion, Levi Garrison was born to be a servant. With such a two-way talent, he should serve the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce obediently.
"Mr. Ye, you have such talent, and you need to rely on the power of the Chamber of Commerce to quickly maximize your benefits."
"Yeah, Mr. Ye, as long as you are willing to join the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, the Chamber of Commerce will do everything it can to support you in alchemy."
"Mr. Ye, join the big family of Taiyi Chamber of Commerce!"
Everyone sent out invitations again, and Meng Wuya's tone was much more sincere than before.
Levi Garrison did not hesitate in the slightest, and decisively refused again.

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4165 -
In the next few days, Levi Garrison was refining pills, and he was already attracted by the charm of pill refining.
The key is that the effects of various medicinal herbs are also very complete, and you may not be able to use them, but those around you can definitely use them.
For example, medicinal herbs with mysterious effects such as restoring physical strength, treating internal injuries, and temporarily enhancing strength.
As long as the raw material supply is complete, Levi Garrison can refine the medicinal herbs according to the contents recorded in the ancient books.
the other side.
Meng Wuya and others have been thoroughly angered by Levi Garrison's repeated rejections.
"Levi Garrison is so arrogant that he dares to refuse the eldest lady's kindness repeatedly."
"Let him be the vice president is to flatter him, but he is shameless, he is really courting death!"
"You have to teach him a lesson, otherwise, I really think that the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce can't do anything about him."
Everyone was filled with righteous indignation, and Meng Wuya was also furious, and secretly decided to find an opportunity to teach Levi Garrison a lesson.
Three days later.
Levi Garrison has gained a lot after continuous alchemy. Thinking of coming out to take a breath, he went to Longyang City to hang out.
But at this moment, I suddenly felt that there was a flash of murderous intent.
"It's really a tree that wants to be quiet but the wind is not stopping!"
The corners of Levi Garrison's mouth rose slightly. Although he was not sure of the other party's background, he could infer that it was probably the work of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce.
Of course, it is understandable for the Zijin Chamber of Commerce to do this. How could they really just let it go because they had killed so many of them by themselves?
So Levi Garrison deliberately walked to a remote part of the city, and finally entered an abandoned manor in the city.

“I’ve been following for so long, hurry up and show up!”
Levi Garrison said jokingly.
Huh?
The killers who were secretly stalking were obviously a little surprised. They were good at hiding their tracks, but they never thought they would be discovered.
And this guy is obviously leading himself to a remote abandoned manor.
“kill him!”
With a cold and harsh voice, several figures jumped from all directions into the abandoned manor.
Levi Garrison turned around and saw that these people were dressed in a variety of styles, but there were more than ten people wearing black robes embroidered with skulls.
“I didn’t think that the killers in the Skull Swamp were all dispatched. This guy’s cards are really big!”
“It’s not good, it’s caused us a lot of trouble.”
Other killers, dressed in different clothes, were talking about the book.
Levi Garrison asked with a smile: “Is the killer of the Skull Swamp strong?”
Before he finished speaking, Levi Garrison’s figure had disappeared.
“Be careful!”
The leader of the Skull Swamp Killer reminded.
However, this reminder was half a beat after all, and a strong crisis warning rose in the killer’s heart.
Bang!
A cloud of blood erupted, and the killer died before he could even let out a scream.
“The idea is tricky, let’s go together!”
The members of the Skull Swamp Killers attacked in groups, but the next scene left the bounty hunters dumbfounded.
Seeing that Levi Garrison’s figure kept flashing in the crowd, he would take away the life of a killer without passing by.
“Are the Skull Swamp killers so weak?”
“It’s not that they are weak, but the strength of the bandits is too strong.”
“Let’s go together too, otherwise no one would want to leave today.”
Although these people are from different organizations, the reason why the lips die and the teeth are cold is clear.

This task is very rewarding, but you have to have a life to enjoy it, otherwise everything will be in vain.
However, it was only when they really got to grips with Levi Garrison that the powerhouses of these bounty hunter organizations really understood what kind of terrifying existence they encountered.
Levi Garrison seemed to be surrounded by Taoism, especially the pure and powerful power, which made everyone feel an unprecedented despair.
This despair is called invincibility.
Levi Garrison soon slaughtered all the killers who besieged him with the trend of destroying the rot.
After doing all these things, Levi Garrison raised his eyebrows slightly, and he felt the breath approaching again.
Immediately dodged and escaped into the dilapidated hall.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4166 -
When Levi Garrison's figure was introduced into the hall of the dilapidated building, several figures floated into the courtyard again.
It was Meng Wuya and others who were constantly looking for opportunities to teach Levi Garrison a lesson.
Today they saw that Levi Garrison went to the main street of Longyang City after alchemy and followed in secret.
It wasn't until recently that there was a faint energy fluctuation here, and Meng Wuya and others followed it.
Looking at the scattered corpses in the courtyard, Meng Wuya and the others fell into contemplation.
The aura fluctuations that overflowed before were not very strong, and they were barely able to detect it by means of a special perception technique.
"Look, miss, this costume should be the killer group of the Skeleton Swamp!"
"They are all leaders in the killer world. They have not failed in their missions for many years, and now they have been destroyed by people?"
"Killing so many strong people, you can still control the breath to such a weak point, what kind of cultivation realm can you do?"

Once this question was raised, everyone present was silent.
It is well known that when a cultivator runs a kung fu method against an enemy, it will naturally cause aura fluctuations, and the stronger the opponent, the greater the fluctuations.
However, being able to kill so many killers without any aura fluctuations can only show that this person has the strength to kill all killers in seconds.
"Could it be Levi Garrison?"
Meng Wuya was taken aback by this thought.
If it was really what Levi Garrison did, she thought of teaching the latter a lesson before, which would be tantamount to finding her own way!
"who?"
Suddenly, Meng Wuya turned his head to look, and saw two black shadows disappearing from the wall.
The Taiyi Chamber of Commerce powerhouses followed closely, but they failed to catch up, so they had no choice but to give up.
"Let's go back first! If Levi Garrison is not in the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, then this is probably what he did."
After Meng Wuya finished speaking, he took the lead in leading the people to leave.
After they left, a figure sneaked into the courtyard again. After confirming that there was no one alive at the scene, he hurriedly sent a message to the Zijin Chamber of Commerce.
"The entire army of killers was destroyed, and the eldest lady of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce appeared on the scene. It should be killed by the strong men of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, and the gangsters disappeared."
Levi Garrison didn't know about this, but took the lead to leave the dilapidated courtyard.
After returning to the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, he continued to refine the medicinal pills, but this time Levi Garrison used the top treasures of heaven and earth.
According to the records of alchemy in ancient books, a top-quality medicinal pill was refined, named Huichundan.
This elixir is almost a magic medicine that can bring the dead back to life.

Wei Shuyang, Meng Wuya and the others who rushed back screamed and reorganized their knowledge of Levi Garrison's alchemy technique.
"Mr. Ye, your alchemy is a top-level existence even if you look at the entire Kunlun Ruins."
"Forging is also at this level, but I don't know why, I always feel similar to the taboo family recorded in ancient books!"
There was a hint of uncertainty in Wei Shuyang's tone.
Levi Garrison's eyes lit up, and the first thought in his head was Master Cheap.
"Could it be that Master is a taboo family?"
Levi Garrison was a little excited. He was not interested in Kunlun Ruins before, but now it is different.
Now that we have Master's message, we must go and find out.
"President Wei, can you tell me about the taboo family?"
Levi Garrison asked.
Wei Shuyang sighed and said, "Mr. Ye, it's not that I don't want to tell you, but this taboo family is too mysterious. Even the records in ancient books are only a few words. I only discovered it by combining your forging skills and alchemy skills. A clue." Wei Shuyang's tone was full of helplessness. In the final analysis, the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce was still too insignificant compared to the Tabu Clan.
Levi Garrison was a little unwilling, and then revealed some of his exercises, which made Wei Shuyang more certain of the previous speculation.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4167 -
After chatting for a long time, Wei Shuyang was called to the room by Meng Wuya again, and told what happened in Longyang City today.
Wei Shuyang frowned immediately and said, "If you can invite the Skull Swamp Killer Group, I'm afraid it is the Zijin Chamber of Commerce. These people are too despicable."
"It seems that the Zijin Chamber of Commerce will never let it go, and I'm afraid it will not be uninterrupted in the future. The enemy is in the dark and I am in the light, so it's hard to guard against
it!"
Meng Wuya nodded and said, "Especially Levi Garrison's alchemy and forging techniques are top-level existences. Once they are known to outsiders, it is even more extraordinary."

"At that time, it will be even more difficult for us to win over Levi Garrison. You should hurry up and come up with a foolproof plan to bring him under your command."
In fact, Meng Wuya has long regarded Levi Garrison as the most loyal servant.
In particular, Levi Garrison can also concoct alchemy and forge. If he does not bring it back to the headquarters, it will be a huge loss!
After everyone's deliberation, they decided to have a showdown with Levi Garrison, and then Meng Wuya found Levi Garrison again.
"Mr. Ye, we have no doubts that those killers are the masterpieces of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce.
In order to make sure nothing goes wrong, you should follow us back to the headquarters!"
Meng Wuya proposed again.
Levi Garrison waved his hand and said, "It doesn't matter, as long as they are not afraid of death, they can come and kill me."
Levi Garrison had already made up his mind and was unwilling to become a tool of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce anyway.
Furthermore, since the Zijin Chamber of Commerce hired killers not to talk about martial arts, they would have to fight back against him.
It's just that now is not the best time to start, Levi Garrison also plans to refine some medicine pills for the people around.
the other side.
Meng Wuya encountered rejection again and almost ran away on the spot, but in the end he endured it.
After all, Levi Garrison's strength is strong, and he may not be able to take it down with the existing manpower alone.
To be on the safe side, Meng Wuya directly reported this information to the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce headquarters.
The president of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce immediately issued an order to send hundreds of peak powerhouses, even if they were bound, Levi Garrison would be bound.

However, before the powerful Taiyi Chamber of Commerce arrived in Wandao City, Levi Garrison found Wei Shuyang first.
"President Wei, I'm going to Wandao City to destroy the Zijin Chamber of Commerce." Levi Garrison said indifferently.
Wei Shuyang was still thinking about persuading him a few words, but Levi Garrison didn't give him a chance at all, so he left the Longyang City branch directly.
Levi Garrison led Murong Qingxue and Lei Kirin to the Xingyue Divine Sect in a dragon-shaped cloud boat.
"While I'm leaving, all of you will find a secret place to hide, and come out after I destroy the Zijin Chamber of Commerce."
Levi Garrison explained it.
These remarks immediately made the Xingyue Divine Sect powerhouses dumbfounded, but they were also very clear about Levi Garrison's temper.
Once a decision is made, it is very difficult to change it, so no one dares to persuade him, so he has to follow the orders.
After settling the Xingyue Shenzong, Levi Garrison had no worries.
It's just that in addition to seeking revenge from the Zijin Chamber of Commerce, Levi Garrison also has to look for the whereabouts of the taboo family.
In this way, the future is unpredictable. In case of encountering difficult problems, it will inevitably delay a lot of time. If there are any problems in the secular world, he will not have time to take care of it.
Therefore, Levi Garrison decided to go back to the secular world after much thought. He had to settle the people in the base camp to be truly free from worries.
So three people and one beast drove the cloud boat to the mundane world.
the other side.
Inside the base camp.
Levilia is very powerful now, and others have greatly improved their strength either because they practiced Levilia's practice or Levi Garrison's practice.

However, the guardians of the gods and the large number of people in the Twelve Temples, and the reincarnation of the twelve main gods have been completely awakened because of enough dragon power.
In order to avenge the previous Levi Garrison snatch the dragon veins, they chose to assemble to attack the base camp, vowing to completely destroy the base camp.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4168 -
Inside the base camp.
Levilia and the others all had heavy expressions on their faces, and the high-intensity battles for days made everyone physically and mentally exhausted.
Even if the members of the base camp rely on the various equipment of the God's Brain, they can only reluctantly resist.
"Everyone, hurry up and repair, a new round of attacks by the guardians of the gods is coming soon."
Zoey Lopez said in a deep voice.
The continuous fighting has caused many people to suffer internal injuries, but they are still barely supporting with amazing perseverance.
However, everyone knew that, judging by the strength of the two sides, it was only a matter of time before the base camp was completely breached.
After all, none of the twelve reincarnations of the main gods have been involved in the battle. Once they all join, Levilia and others may not be able to last long.
Of course, there are many other forces that follow the guardians of the gods.
They were all suppressed by Levi Garrison before, and the remnants of the Eternal Kingdom bore the brunt of it.
Boom boom boom!
With the deafening sound of the road, the people who were repairing in place immediately stood up, armed with weapons and ready to fight.
Because they all knew that the movement just now was the result of the last defensive formation being broken.
"Everyone fight with me!"
Levilia rushed out first.

Everyone is already holding the determination to burn the jade and stone. This time should be the general attack guarded by the gods.
However, when Levilia and others went out, their scalps became numb, because the guardians of the gods and the reincarnation of the twelve main gods were all in it.
"This seat has long said that Levi Garrison will pay the price for his arrogance, and today is the death of his relatives and friends."
"Come on Levi Garrison and come out to die. Today our twelve main gods have all been reincarnated. I want to see how arrogant he is?"
"The previous feud for robbing the dragon veins will be settled together today!"
These powerhouses guarded by the gods have long held back their fire, and now they are finally able to pretend to be a tiger, and naturally they will not miss the opportunity of Xi Lei Levi Garrison's Landing.
They didn't launch a general attack before because they were concerned about Levi Garrison's strength, but after several days of crazy testing, it was clear that Levi Garrison was not in the base camp.
This further strengthened the determination of the gods to guard and completely destroy the base camp, and they now have the advantage.
However, just as the two sides were about to start, a cold voice came from the air.
"Want to settle with me, okay! I'm here, I hope your mouths will be so tough."
Before the words fell, everyone saw a huge cloud boat descending from the sky, and Levi Garrison and others walked out slowly.
"Dad, is it really you?"
"The boss is back!"
"Master, it's Master, now we have hope."
Everyone in the base camp also quickly recognized Levi Garrison. Originally, he was stunned, but at this moment, he was instantly inspired.
"Everyone's been waiting for a long time!"
Levi Garrison waved his hand in greeting, and the scene became quiet for a moment, and he heard him continue: “Let’s talk in detail when I get rid of these trash fish first.” “Lord Lord God, it was he who robbed the dragon vein at the beginning, which delayed the awakening time of the adults.”

Lucas directly accused Levi Garrison of his “crime”, and the twelve reincarnated gods looked at Levi Garrison with a bit more murderous intent.
“Eastern Monkey dares to destroy the good deeds of this god, let you disappear completely today!”
A Western Lord God with a ring of fire in the back of his head said in a cold voice.
“Levi Garrison, your kid is dead. These adults are the real reincarnations of the Lord God, and any one person can crush you to ashes.”
Lucas said contemptuously.
Levi Garrison said with a smile, “Really? Since it’s so good, let’s go together! Don’t waste time.”
“Wow!”
Just then a roar came.
Everyone saw Lei Kirin shaking his head and walking out, as if there were seven big characters written on his face: Why kill a chicken with a slaughtering knife?
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4169 -
Seeing this scene, everyone present was stunned.
Especially seeing Lei Kirin’s stern expression, if it were a human being, he would definitely be a top player with a thirteenth outfit.
Levi Garrison didn’t have the slightest surprise, Lei Kirin is a normal operation, and it will never miss the opportunity to appear before anyone.
“Well, be careful yourself, don’t take it lightly, those guys are still not easy to deal with.”
Levi Garrison reminded.
Lei Kirin looked at the reincarnation of the twelve main gods, and his eyes were filled with disdain.
Although the reincarnation of the twelve main gods has been extremely tough, he is still angry and angry when he is despised by a strange pet.
“Lord God, let me kill this monster!”
Lucas volunteered.
The reincarnation of the main god naturally agreed, and with his status, he could not compete with animals.

“Wow!”
Lei Kirin was obviously very unhappy with the name ‘monster’, so he roared and attacked first.
Seeing that it suddenly released the power of thunder and lightning, a terrifying lightning bolt was released and slammed directly towards Lucas.
Lucas didn’t think that Lei Kirin was so powerful until he realized that it was too late.
boom!
The lightning bombarded Lucas’ energy shield, making a loud noise in an instant, and the energy shield was instantly shattered.
And Lucas was also stunned because he couldn’t dodge, and he died directly.
“What kind of monster is this, so powerful?”
“The leader of Lucas can’t even resist a blow?”
“Please also ask the Lord God to take action and kill this monster.”
The guardians of the gods took a deep breath and felt an unprecedented threat.
Because Levi Garrison didn’t make a move from the beginning to the end, just a monster around him has such combat power, one can imagine how strong he must be.
“kill!”
One of the main gods reincarnated suddenly shot, but Lei Kirin was not afraid at all, and directly fought with him.
Although the reincarnation of the main god was not killed in seconds, it was suppressed by Si Si, which shocked everyone.
In desperation, the reincarnation of the main god was involved in the battle again, and it was not until the three main gods shot together that the battle with Lei Kirin was worthy of a draw.
“Okay, don’t waste time with them, let’s go together, none of these people can be spared.”
The voice did not fall, Jun Lin rushed up first, his speed has reached the limit, and he did not give the Lord God any chance to react.
Bang bang bang!
Levi Garrison threw his fists recklessly, and the reincarnation of the Lord God was like a baby with no power to hold a chicken, and was easily beheaded by Levi Garrison.

The members of the base camp were shocked and stunned. They never thought that in just a few months, Levi Garrison's strength had increased to this point.
But this is great news for the base camp, the protection of the gods and the reincarnation of the main god have overwhelmed them.
As Levi Garrison and Murong Qingxue joined the battle, the whole situation turned into a one-sided massacre.
In the face of Levi Garrison's powerful power, the guardian of the gods and the reincarnation of the main god did not even have the chance to escape.
In just a few hours, tens of thousands of temple powerhouses and the reincarnation of twelve main gods were slaughtered by Levi Garrison.
In order to completely eradicate this scourge, Levi Garrison led the crowd to kill the gods guarding the nest directly according to the information obtained.
In one fell swoop, the twelve temples were also uprooted, similar to the remnants of the War Eagle Kingdom and the Eternal Kingdom who also killed a piece of armor.
Since then, the powerhouses of Levi Garrison's base camp in the secular world have dominated, and there is no longer any force that can threaten their safety.
Next, Levi Garrison arranged the affairs of the secular world properly, and left the refined quasi-magic weapons, medicinal herbs, and heaven and earth treasures to everyone.
You You Qi handed over many treasures to the god and young marshals of Tiance Mansion, and let them take on the heavy responsibility of protecting Daxia.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4170 - Levi Garrison settled everything in the secular world, while waiting for Zoey Lopez, Levilia and others to rush to Kunlun Ruins again.
This time, when I entered the Kunlun Ruins, I was very familiar with the road, especially with the two girls of Murong Qingxue as guides.
Looking at the scenery in the Kunlun Ruins, Zoey Lopez and others sighed repeatedly, saying that it was like a fairyland.

After entering the Kunlun Ruins, Levi Garrison took everyone to the Dragon Burial Valley to improve his strength.
After all, the power of Tianlei here is enough to allow everyone to greatly improve their cultivation in a short period of time.
In addition, there are a lot of heaven and earth treasures in the Yunzhou cabin, which are reserved by Levi Garrison for everyone.
at the same time.
The Zijin Chamber of Commerce also received information: the first batch of killers were wiped out, and Levi Garrison's whereabouts were unknown.
Huangfu Hongsheng and others suspected that Levi Garrison was secretly transported to the headquarters by the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce for protection.
However, what Huangfu Hongsheng didn't know was that Meng Wuya was also looking for traces of Levi Garrison everywhere.
For the entire Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, Levi Garrison is a huge treasure that must not fall into the hands of other sects.
So Meng Wuya launched all power to find Levi Garrison.
the other side.
Levilia and others spent a full week to improve.
Afterwards, Levi Garrison led the crowd on the cloud boat and continued to move forward. During this period, he also provided others with equipment such as speeding boots, peerless weapons, and medicinal pills.
On the way to Wandao City, Levilia and others seized all the time to practice.
Since these people are coming to Kunlun Ruins for the first time, the spiritual energy of heaven and earth here is extremely pure, which is also of great benefit to their improvement.
For this reason, Levi Garrison deliberately slowed down Yunzhou's speed, and what made him laugh the most was that Levilia and Lei Kirin became good friends.
Don't look at Lei Kirin's opportunity to appear before anyone, but he is extremely humble in front of Levilia, which makes Levi Garrison quite curious.

After all, once Lei Kirin put it on, he didn't even care about himself. Although it was a tyrannical meal at the end, Lei Kirin still enjoyed it.
After half a month, Levi Garrison and others finally came to the vast sea of stars.
"This sea area is too big!"
"It's no smaller than the four oceans in the secular world. I never thought that the Kunlun Ruins would be such a sea area."
"And this is only the sea area of Wandao City. I'm afraid there are similar places in other places. It's really amazing."
Zoey Lopez and others were amazed again and again, but Levi Garrison was extremely calm.
"Master, it seems that the Xingchen Haidian was hit hard last time, otherwise we would have been discovered as soon as we approached."
Gongsun Yueying said with a smile.
Levi Garrison said with a smile: "Not necessarily, we abandoned Yunzhou a long time ago, and we did a very good job of hiding our breath. It is normal for them not to find out."
"By the way, master, I heard that there are several star veins in Xingchenhai, which makes Xingchenhaidian proud to grow into a top large-scale sect."
"But due to the vast sea area of Xingchen Sea, there are only two star veins found in Xingchen Sea Palace. If you dig for a long time, you will be able to find other star veins."
Gongsun Yueying said solemnly.
Levi Garrison suddenly became interested, the star vein is higher than the dragon vein level, if you can get it, it will be of great help to improve your cultivation.
"Do you know the approximate location?" Levi Garrison asked.
Gongsun Yueying recalled seriously for a long time, and then slowly said: "There is a record in ancient books that there is an area in the southwestern sea of Xingchen Sea called the Sea of Death, where storms gather all year round, and many passing ships and even Yunzhou are involved in it. Can't survive, I think it's very suspicious there."
"It's a bit like the Bermuda Triangle of the secular world!"
Zoey Lopez muttered softly.

Levi Garrison said in a deep voice: "Then let's go to the sea of death to see the situation first. It must be a huge energy pull to be able to roll up a monstrous storm."
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4171 -
Levi Garrison led the crowd to find the hiding place of Yunzhou, and then sailed to the sea of death.
The hard work paid off, and as expected, a huge storm rose up in this sea area from a distance.
"Dad, I sensed the power of a powerful spiritual vein, right under that storm." Levilia said suddenly.
Levi Garrison was overjoyed, he knew that Levilia had shown the talent of sensing spiritual veins
before.
He never thought that with the improvement of his strength, this kind of talent would become more powerful, and he could detect the fluctuation of the spiritual pulse under the cover of such a powerful storm force.
"Master, this storm is extremely tearing, and we can't approach it at all!" Gongsun Yueying said with some trepidation.
Levi Garrison smiled without saying a word, and immediately jumped into the air, rushing towards the area where the storm was located.
"No matter how strong your storm is, I will break it with one punch."
Levi Garrison immediately ran the basic exercises and tried his best to blast towards the center of the storm.
The terrifying power roared out, as if it could destroy the sky and destroy the earth, and it slammed directly on the storm.
Buzz!
The regional space began to vibrate violently, and the storm dissipated instantly after competing with Levi Garrison's fist strength for a while.
Levi Garrison smiled as he looked at the calm sea again, and then sounded to signal Gongsun Yueying to drive the cloud boat over.
Everyone really found a giant spiritual vein in this sea area. After everyone used the power of the star vein to quench their bodies, their strength increased greatly again.
"Dad, when did you learn to make alchemy? The effect of this kind of cultivating alchemy is really good.

It can actually eliminate the problem of physical endurance."
Levilia said in surprise.
You must know that in the secular world, only Levilia could withstand the quenching of the dragon veins, and others did not dare to try it easily.
But after taking the medicinal pill Levi Garrison gave them, this confinement no longer existed.
Levi Garrison briefly explained, including the process of forging magic weapons.
Everyone was amazed, they did not expect that Levi Garrison had encountered so many things in the past few months.
"Next, we will destroy the Xingchen Sea Palace, and the two star veins cannot be spared."
Levi Garrison said in a deep voice.
Everyone nodded in agreement, and now Levi Garrison is their backbone.
According to the information provided by Gongsun Yueying, the Xingchenhai Palace was at the bottom of the Xingchenhai, and everyone came to the door all the way.
Xingchenhaidian had already besieged Levi Garrison and damaged a lot of powerhouses before, and now that Levi Garrison was so powerful, they had no way of fighting back.
The powerhouses of Xingchen Sea Palace were killed, and the two star veins they controlled were also exhausted by Levi Garrison and others.
After solving the Xingchenhai Palace, Levi Garrison and others continued to kill Wandao City without stopping.
Many forces in Wandao City were caught off guard and were swept away by Levi Garrison and others.
Although Huangfu Hongsheng also brought many strong people to resist, but in the face of the huge gap in strength, they all became lambs to be slaughtered.
Several major sectarian powerhouses such as the Zijin Chamber of Commerce, the Heijia Tianjun, and the Tianyuan Sword Sect were slaughtered by Levi Garrison.
The resources held by these large sects were also occupied by Levi Garrison, and the entire Wandao
City was under the control of Levi Garrison.
Levi Garrison then used various magical weapons and medicinal herbs as bargaining chips to recruit the Kunlun Ruins scattered cultivators and established his own sect.

The members of the Xingyue Shenzong were notified and moved to Wandao City to develop it into a base camp.
It took Levi Garrison nearly half a month to deal with these trivial matters. However, the news that Wandao City had changed hands really shocked the sects in the surrounding area.
At the same time, I am afraid that the bandits are also silent, and many of them even take the initiative to make friends, in order to keep their own sects safe.
Levi Garrison also refused to accept the initiative of these people.
Levi Garrison is now trying to get his momentum to the top, so that other sects will not dare to attack easily, and he can leave and do his own business with confidence.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4172 -
In the Taixu Shenzong.
Since the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple and Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy were warned by Liao Yelin's two divine arrows, the entire Taixu Shenzong became sluggish.
Gong Qianqiu also returned to the Taixu Shenzong from the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace. Now the real power of the entire sect is under her control, but she is not happy at all.
The last time she was almost disfigured by the gangster, she used a lot of heaven and earth treasures to restore her original appearance, which made her extremely angry.
But because of the terrifying strength of the gangster, she didn't dare to take revenge, and at the same time she was worried that the incident of her framing the gangster would happen, so her mood became more and more irritable.
Fortunately, the Seven Holy Sons found a dragon vein for her from time to time to improve her cultivation, which made her feel a little better.
However, at this moment, the Seven Holy Sons rushed over and said, "Sister, the Sect Master is back, come and greet him."
Gong Qianqiu's heart froze, and his face did not show any strangeness, so he followed the Seven Saints out of the sect to welcome him.
Soon he saw Liao Yelin, who was wearing a robe of Yunjin, descending from the cloud boat, holding a long sword in his hand.

“Meet the Sect Master!”
All the Taixu Shenzong powerhouses fell to their knees one after another, and many people couldn’t hide their excitement on their faces.
But the people headed by Gong Qianqiu who knew that the sect was destroyed could only force a smile, and were obviously worried that the incident would be implicated.
“Get up!”
Liao Yelin raised his hand and continued: “The gangster destroys my sect, and this seat will smash his corpse into tens of thousands of pieces.”
“Sect Master, there is a peerless divine weapon in the hands of the bandit, and even the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple was hit hard by his arrow from thousands of miles away.”
“Yeah, Sect Master, the Sun Moon Divine Fire Palace is now honest.” “Not only that, but even the Zijin Chamber of Commerce returned home, of course, mainly because of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce’s efforts.”
Everyone reported a lot of information, in order to make Liao Yelin not take it lightly.
Liao Yelin said with a look of disdain on his face: “Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall and Taiyi Chamber of Commerce are not as terrifying as you think.”
“Besides, there is also a magic weapon in this seat. This sword is called Ling Xiao, and it was forged by Bingchi himself. The so-called magic weapon of that savage bandit is garbage in front of Ling Xiao.”
Liao Yelin seemed to be extremely arrogant, and did not take Levi Garrison and the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce in his eyes at all.
However, everyone knew that Liao Yelin was not aimless. He himself came from an aloof clan, and it was not surprising that he had such a vision.
Everyone decided to hold a banquet to celebrate. The return of Liao Hualin was the biggest happy event of the Taixu Shenzong during this period.
However, before He Yan started, a rough voice came from outside.
“Gong Qianqiu, come out and die!”
This voice resounded through the heavens and the earth, spreading to every corner of the Taixu
Shenzong.

Gong Qianqiu was guilty of being a thief, and he was really startled when someone suddenly called his name, but he didn't know why, but the voice was a little familiar.
Whoa whoa whoa!
The members of the Taixu Shenzong have raised their vigilance.
Liao Yelin's face was also icy cold, he never thought that such a thing would happen to him just after he came back.
After a while, a burly voice suddenly fell into the venue.
The person who came was wearing black armor, long hair and a shawl, and his exposed muscles showed an explosive sense of strength.
"Who are you, you dare to come to Taixu Shenzong to make trouble?" Liao Yelin asked in a cold voice.
The strong man in black armor didn't pay attention, but stared at Gong Qianqiu in the crowd with burning eyes, exuding murderous aura all over his body.
"Gong Qianqiu, come out and die!" The strong man in black armor repeated it again.
Gong Qianqiu looked at the person with some doubts, and after a long time he said tentatively: "Are you
Xiao Feng?"
"Yes, it's me, I came to you today to settle the account!" Xiao Feng's tone was particularly cold, without a trace of emotion.
Gong Qianqiu was taken aback. He never thought that Xiao Feng had turned into this. The key is that his strength still looks very strong.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4173 - Before waiting for Gong Qianqiu to respond, Liao Yelin said dissatisfiedly: "No matter what kind of grievances there are between you, but now to coax things here, you must also ask the sword in this seat's hand whether he agrees."
Xiao Feng frowned slightly, for the suzerain of the Taixu Shenzong, he really had no certainty of winning.
"Your sword promises."
A voice came from the sky again.
After a while, a giant cloud boat slowly landed from the sky.
Everyone present gasped involuntarily.
"Who?" Liao Yelin asked.

For some reason, there was a sense of fear in his heart.
Although the other party did not make a move, the energy coercion revealed by his gestures was extremely terrifying.
"Master!" Xiao Feng's voice trembled.
"Levi Garrison, you are Levi Garrison, and the gangster is Levi Garrison?"
Gong Qianqiu's pupils shrank sharply when he heard the words, and he spoke his judgments one after another.
Combined with what happened before, she finally understood why the bandits didn't kill her back then.
It was not luck at all, but that Levi Garrison wanted to leave himself to Xiao Feng to take revenge.
Liao Yelin was also shocked when he heard the words, he said coldly: "So you are the gangster who destroyed my sect. It takes no effort to find any place in the iron shoes, since you took the initiative to bring it to the door today, this seat Take your sacrificial sword."
Clang!
Ling Xiao sword was unsheathed, Liao Yelin stared at Levi Garrison with a cold expression, and could not help but say that it was a sword aimed at his head.
"It's just this piece of shit that calls itself a magic weapon?"
Levi Garrison waved his arm gently, and the Burying Dragon Sword was cut out. The sword qi of the two divine soldiers first collided, and then the blades collided with each other.
Click!
Ling Xiaojian snapped.
"This…how is this possible?"
Liao Yelin couldn't believe his eyes, how could Bingchi's proud work be cut off so easily?
The long sword in this guy's hand turned out to be a higher-grade magic weapon?
"The people of the Taixu Shenzong listen, whoever dares to disturb the life-and-death confrontation between them, I will destroy whoever is first!"
Levi Garrison said coldly.
The members of the Taixu Shenzong were silent, and no one dared to take another half step.

Especially seeing that the magic weapon that Liao Yelin boasted was cut off in one fell swoop, he was even more afraid of Levi Garrison's terror.
Liao Yelin took advantage of Levi Garrison to turn his eyes to other places, and left Taixu Shenzong after a few flashes, and soon disappeared from everyone's sight.
Levi Garrison did not catch up, he paid more attention to the battle between Xiao Feng and Gong Qianqiu.
The members of the Taixu Shenzong suddenly lost their minds. They originally thought that their powerful backers would return, but they did not expect to escape after a round in front of Levi Garrison.
"Use your strength to end this grievance!" Levi Garrison said to Xiao Feng.
Xiao Feng nodded and didn't say much, and charged directly in the direction of Gong Qianqiu.
"Just because you want to kill me?"
Gong Qianqiu also intends to fight to the death. Since Levi Garrison is a bandit, it is difficult for him to retreat today.
But if he can successfully control Xiao Feng, there may be a chance.
However, when she confronted Xiao Feng, she realized that she was wrong. Xiao Feng's strength was not weaker than her, and she was even stronger in strength.
"How did you do it?" Gong Qianqiu was puzzled.
Xiao Feng did not intend to continue to attack at that time, and quickly brought the situation under control.
Levi Garrison was also quite shocked. He never thought that Xiao Feng had grown to such a degree, and the exercises he performed were not completely devouring.
However, what Levi Garrison didn't know was that Xiao Feng accidentally got the secret method of the alien race and chose to burn his life force to improve his strength.
"Gong Qianqiu, go to hell!"
Xiao Feng finally found the opportunity to attack for another half an hour or so, and aimed at Gong Qianqiu's back heart with a heavy punch.
Gong Qianqiu was shocked, and it was too late to hide.
"My life is over!" Gong Qianqiu's heart sank to the bottom in an instant.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4174 -

However, at this critical moment, a figure flashed over at a very fast speed and came between Gong Qianqiu and Xiao Feng.
Snapped!
Xiao Feng slammed into the chest of the person who came, and there was a faint sound of broken bones.
"Little Seven!" Gong Qianqiu exclaimed, she didn't think that at this time, the Seven Holy Sons sacrificed her life to save her.
"Sister, I finally did… a big thing for you!"
The Seven Holy Sons lost their vitality as soon as they finished speaking. Gong Qianqiu's grief came from it, and he did not think that the deceived person saved his life, and there was no regret in the eyes of the Seven Saints.
"Sister, I'm sorry for you!" Gong Qianqiu raised infinite remorse in his heart. Before that, all the seven saints were used.
"Xiao Feng, I'm going to kill you!" Gong Qianqiu rushed towards Xiao Feng as if going crazy, she would definitely die with Xiao Feng.
"This should be what I said to you."
Xiao Feng was expressionless, he had waited too long for this day to take revenge.
The two sides fought a few more moves, and Xiao Feng directly killed Gong Qianqiu.
I feel that the vitality is quickly passing away, and all the past things appear in my mind.
"The two people I played hardest on, one saved my life and the other killed me."
"Maybe this is life!"
Gong Qianqiu slowly closed his eyes and completely cut off his vitality.
Xiao Feng didn't stay in Taixu Shenzong for too long, he knelt down directly to Levi Garrison and said, "Master, I have not had many days. My disciple is not filial, and I have failed your expectations, so let's just let it go!"
After Xiao Feng finished speaking, he turned and left, looking at his resolute back, Levi Garrison sighed faintly.
He could feel that the aura in Xiao Feng's body seemed to be weakening rapidly, and it seemed that he was able to improve the realm of Dao at a great price.

Levi Garrison did not stop Xiao Feng from leaving, just as Gong Qianqiu said before his death: Maybe this is life!
Gong Qianqiu paid the price of her life for her evil deeds, and Xiao Feng paid for the mistakes he once made.
"The rest of the leaders of the Taixu Shenzong will not be left behind." Levi Garrison said coldly.
Then Levi Garrison personally killed Xuan Ming, Duguxiao and other Gong Qianqiu's confidants, and the Taixu Shenzong disappeared in an instant.
The hatred of attacking the base camp was finally repaid, and Liao Yelin was the family who returned to the city of the sky. He vowed to kill Levi Garrison quickly.
After cleaning up the remnants of the Taixu Shenzong, Levi Garrison planned to find the whereabouts of the promoted clan, but Meng Wuya brought people there.
"Levi Garrison, please follow me back to the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce headquarters, otherwise don't blame me for forcibly tying you away."
Meng Wuya's tone was cold.
Levi Garrison said with a smile: "If you can't persuade you to change it, it seems that your Taiyi Chamber of Commerce is also impatient, so let's clean it up with you!"
The two sides did not speculate on the spot. Meng Wuya thought that it was enough to bring more than a hundred peak powerhouses of the Taiyi God group. He never thought that Levi Garrison would kill all these powerhouses without any effort.
"Meng Wuya, you go back to the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce headquarters to report a letter, I will personally go there and destroy the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, get out!"
Levi Garrison kicked Meng Wuya fiercely. Although she was also seriously injured, she managed to save her life after all.
Levi Garrison learned through interrogation that the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, the Zijin Chamber of Commerce, and the family headquarters of Liao Yelin's family were all in the City of the Sky.

So directly rushing to the city of the sky, Levi Garrison decided to completely eradicate all hidden dangers.
After all, Wandao City also belongs to the doves occupying the magpie's nest, and it is difficult to guarantee when the Zijin Chamber of Commerce will kill them back.
About half a month later, Levi Garrison rushed to the city of the sky, he directly found the helm of the three major forces, and directly launched a bloody revenge.
Under the crushing of Levi Garrison's powerful strength, the three major forces suffered heavy casualties, and finally chose to surrender to Levi Garrison, which was barely able to save his life.
Sweeping the three major forces of the city of the sky, Levi Garrison also obtained more than ten star veins that they mastered.
Levi Garrison didn't miss this precious opportunity to improve his strength, and immediately used the star vein to temper his body, and his strength was greatly improved again.
And Levi Garrison learned from Bingchi that the largest central city in the Central Region is called Kunlun City, which is the center of the entire Kunlun Ruins.
The taboo lineage is the most powerful force in Kunlun City, and it is also the existence of the ruler of Kunlun Ruins.
Among them, the most prosperous of the taboo lineage is the Li family.
The head of the Li family, Li Qingfeng, is extremely terrifying and is the strongest ruler of the Kunlun Ruins.
The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4175 THE END -
In order to investigate the whereabouts of Master Cheap, Levi Garrison absorbed the power of countless star veins along the way, and his strength finally reached its peak.
"It's time to go to Kunlun City to investigate the taboo clan."
Levi Garrison made up his mind to rush directly to Kunlun City, but he was told to go to Li's house before he entered Kunlun City.
Levi Garrison was quite surprised, as if his every move had been controlled by others, but he clearly didn't feel that someone was watching him before!

With great curiosity, Levi Garrison came to Li's house, and when he entered the reception hall, he saw an old man sitting in the middle, who was his cheap master.
"Master, is that you?" Levi Garrison felt incredible, and even wondered if he had hallucinations.
Li Qingfeng said with a smile: "Stinky boy, I thought you forgot about Lao Tzu! How about it, is this journey still comfortable?"
Li Qingfeng had a good smile, just like the first time they met, causing Levi Garrison to be in a trance for a while.
The two chatted on their knees, and Levi Garrison understood the reason.
Li Qingfeng had been secretly escorting Levi Garrison in order to find a successor.
It just so happened that Levi Garrison and Li Qingfeng had very similar experiences when they were young, both of them were abolished. In addition, Levi Garrison's physique was just right for the exercises, so they chose to preach and accept the profession.
"King's Landing, in fact, there is a world outside the Kunlun Ruins, where there are countless real demons, and the mission of the master of the Kunlun Ruins is to protect."
"But don't worry, those demons have been chased away by Lao Tzu, and it is impossible for them to make a comeback in a short time, but it will depend on you in the future."
"Also, I also sent cronies in the secular world to look for people with superpowers, and trained them to hide in the general population. These years are also for the selection of talents."
Hearing what Li Qingfeng said, Levi Garrison suddenly realized that this is the biggest secret of the Baolong family!
Knowing all the truth, Levi Garrison felt that the burden on his shoulders was a little heavier.
"I have worked hard all my life, can't you feel sorry for me and let me go?" Li Qingfeng scolded with a smile.
Levi Garrison had to agree, but the demons outside the territory would not attack in a short time, so Levi Garrison planned to return to Daxia first and continue to live the life of ordinary people.

Li Qingfeng didn't stop him either. After all, there was a taboo clan, so there wouldn't be too much trouble.
So Levi Garrison took his family away from Kunlun Ruins and returned to Daxia.
Ten years later.
A holiday island in Daxia.
Levilia has grown into a slim big girl, and she is teaching two little boys to practice.
"Xiaojian, Xiaoxian, can you be more serious? In this case, I will let Uncle Azure Dragon (Qinglong) teach you."
Levilia said with a straight face.
The two little boys looked alike, about six or seven years old, and they were the twins Ye Jianzi and Ye Xianji that Zoey Lopez gave birth to Levi Garrison.
Ye Jianzi and Ye Chen Xianji were busy practicing hard. They knew that Uncle Azure Dragon (Qinglong) was never soft in training, and he was far from being as gentle as his sister.
Levi Garrison put his arms around Zoey Lopez and looked at the distant scene with a happy smile on his face.
As for the grandmother and grandparents of the three children, they are worried.
"Time always goes by so fast, the kids are so big in the blink of an eye."
"Boss, I can't beat Xiaofan and Xiaochen now. Uncle's majesty will soon be lost."
"You couldn't keep it for a long time, did you forget that you were pressed and rubbed by Levilia ten years ago?"
The sound of footsteps and ridicules came one after another, Levi Garrison turned his head to look, and saw the five Azure Dragon (Qinglong) Vermillion Birds coming side by side.
Followed by Zhou Nanyan and Wen Lei.
"Brother, you promised to introduce me to a young talent, why haven't you fulfilled it?"
While speaking, Zhou Nanyan handed over the washed fruit, and Levi Garrison unceremoniously picked up an apple and nibbled it.

“Your vision is too high. Isn’t the young sect master of Qingxuan Shenzong very good, and is it not in your eyes?”
Levi Garrison rolled his eyes and said.
Zoey Lopez suggested, “It’s better to have a martial arts contest to recruit relatives!”
“Agree with what Ziran said.” Wen Lei hurriedly coaxed.
Levi Garrison shrugged and said, “I don’t care, as long as you are happy.”
The crowd burst into laughter, they looked into the distance, and the sea was calm.
The sky is sunny and sunny, and it is a rare good weather!
Levi Garrison lived the life he wanted.
Family, friends, brothers and apprentices are all around.
Feels great.
Such a carefree life should go on and on…
