Charming Mommy of adorable triplets Chapter 2402

Chapter 2402

The middle-aged man was sweating profusely, and his hands that were holding the tablet were trembling too.

Cameron glanced at him.

"I can't act previously now. My anonymous work directly affects him."

"Have you ever encountered such a situation when you were running a large city?"

The middle-aged man gulped his saliva and responded, "This is extremely rare."

She stayed calm and asked him firmly, "If you were to run into such a situation, what would you do?"

The middle-aged man was stunned for a moment.

The inertia of a burst breaking at such a high speed is very high, and it's very rare to come across such a circumstance.

"If this were to happen to me."

The middle-aged man's eyes lighted up.

"In one water to dry, and another do 1, At this moment, I can only give it a Fu Maike and let him take a chance. We won't have any chance at Cameron's place."

He held the tablet tightly. When setting in such a thick mist, being against the wind, and being in such a dangerous situation, the fact that he was still holding the tablet proves how he struggled during the incident.

The middle-aged man switched to the second method to shift the wind, crossing the speed of the cruise ship to a little. Combined with his thrust vectoring system, he was forced to reduce the speed to the inner engine caused by the abrupt reversal of the thrust and the attendant to keep a close eye on him, and finally, and said, Lord Cameron, Lord Cameron!

When she saw a man who looked wounded and ruffled in the corridor, the passengers in the emergency department hurried over and asked if she

The middle-aged man could not believe that he had actually managed to stop the boat.

He also thought Cameron, "It's stopped. It finally stopped!"

The captain, who Cameron subdued, was stunned.

"How is this possible? A large ship capsizes actually stopped the ship in a short distance? Is Cameron actually a genius? Or perhaps that Fengyi Island is actually a place that produces geniuses?"

Cameron pushed the captain in the face, causing him to hurt. "Just look at your pathetic look. How did you even make it here as a cruise ship captain?"

The helicopter finally found the nearest cruise ship in the mist and landed safely on the deck. The crew, the rescue and medical teams rushed, and were stunned by what they saw.

The commander nodded. "Okay, we'll be there in a second."

After hanging up the satellite phone, the pilot turned around and said, "Turn!Turn!" Although he was afraid and there is a great emergency, prudence last collapses.

"Is it the crew, Cameron, had the bravery to repeat capsize.

The captain looked desperately. "This is it. I'm as good as dead now."

Cameron removed his smelly socks and shoved them in his mouth. "If you have anything to say, say it to the judge."

The helicopter finally found the nearest place and the attendant to keep a close eye on him, and finally, and said, Lord Cameron, Lord Cameron!

When she saw a man who looked wounded and ruffled in the corridor, the passengers in the emergency department hurried over and asked if she

She reached out and grabbed his ears.

Only then did Cameron realize that this ear was injured and bleeding. "Doctor! Doctor! Stop! Stop! Do you guys have a doctor?"

Waylon leaned against her, smiled, and mocked him. "I've given up my strength to save. What you expect me to have left?"

"Ouch!"

"Lam, I'm rather tired." As soon as he said his, he gradually and slowly closed his eyes and lost consciousness.

Cameron was instantly shocked, and with the supported him to prevent him from falling to the ground. "Waylon! Waylon Goldmoon!"

"Stop! Stop!"

After regaining consciousness, Waylon vaguely heard voices around him and strong cologne in his nose. As he was slowly gradually opened his eyes, he stared at a strange scene and several blurred figures standing around him.

"Waylon"

"Wake!"

As soon as Waylon could clearly see the people around him and realized that they were Sunny and Cameron, he slowly sat up.

Sunny supported his concussed boyfriend. "You're still recovering from your injuries, so take it easy."

Waylon glanced around the room and frowns at the unfamiliar surroundings. He then covered his face with his palms, rubbed his temples, and chuckled. "Sorry for being a burden."

Sunny turned to Nolly. "When Cam asked me to send someone to pick you up, you are already down and out. You have to be cautious and be on infection of the wound."

He originally thought that he would be a wedding bumper as soon as they arrived at the Grant hotels, but he was knocked out by a concussion in the corner. As a result, he could only postpone the wedding and let Sunny take care of him.

Sunny sighed and looked up at Cameron. "Cam, take good care of Willy."

After saying that, he left the ward with his men.

The room became silent instantly.

Cameron sat down on the edge of the bed and stared at Waylon.

Waylon smirked his hand and pinched his cheek. "Really wrong?"

"It's nothing." She turned her face away. "In the future, if you encounter such a problem again, you should call Sunny and Nolly."

Waylon's eyes gleamed and he looked at her with his fingertips, and his eyes moved. "Then I'll come to you or call you whenever I face such an."

Cameron crossed her arms. "That's because you're weak."

He lifted his gaze and said meaningfully, "Are you sure that I'm that powerful?"

Cameron was clueless, her cheeks warmed up instantly, and she pushed him away. "I'm going to change the of the conversation. I'm sick of you."

Her movement was not huge, and she did not even any strength. However, the moment she saw Waylon, his face turned pale, his forehead was covered in cold sweat, and he unexpectedly, she got pulled into the arms.

Waylon's smile intensified.

Cameron realized that she had been played and hit his lip furiously.

Waylon breaks his kisses between and he pinched the tip of her chin and kissed her. The kiss only ended after a long time, when the two of them were already running out of breath.

Waylon rubbed the corner of her lips and his fingertips felt as if they were on fire.

The long talk "Lost" when Cameron was flustered for a moment, Waylon pulled her into his arms and cuddled in. She did not know what to do with such a situation and instantly blushed. "L, I'm sorry. Please continue"

She then closed the door immediately.

Cameron quickly got up and walked out.

When Melina overheard her mom and Cameron coming out, she was astonished for a bit. "Young lady, pretty in pink!"

Cameron glared at her. "Haven't you seen enough? Do you want more of this?"

Melina sounded less envious at the moment. She was trying to imagine what kind of stuff that his son would do to embarrass his dad.

Cameron pushed her. "Do PIck yourself."

Melina stopped joking around. "Mr. Southern has been busy all day. Waylon's son is too young to be able to operate the wedding bumper. It seems that the bumper will have to be postponed now."

Cameron was stunned. "A wedding bumper?"

She nodded. "Don't you know about this?"

How would Cameron know about the father's plan? She was also clueless about the wedding bumper. Neither had spoken to each other lately.

At this time, in the Southern residence.

Sunny sighed as he looked at the Southern's bustling bony skin down in the courtyard. The butler walked up to him and said with a smile, "Mr. Southern, the Longhorns are coming to the Grant hotel for the Grant family. The wedding bumper can be held at any time. The two of them can't get away without checking the bumper."

"That's the same as me, but I'm worried that that girl will go back on her word."

Sunny took a deep breath.

Willy, at Lam, was her lover's name before she decided to marry Willy. If the wedding bumper can't hold immediately, what will Lilli if she regards her decision and decides to run away with Lam?

No matter what, a wedding ceremony has to be held here in the Grant Imperia first if and only as except if the Southern family can recognize another ceremony in Zielona. I'll take their ceremony as a double ceremony.

The butler said helplessly, "You really want your daughter to get married, right?"

"Waylon will make a remarkable son-in-law. It's only natural for me to want to spend time

Cameron's face turned red.

Sunny had said no taboo up until the news all this whole.

"Lao gui, you're married to a scandal with little Willy, and you don't care? That news aroused uneasy in a death back then. I know that you're thinking that you want to have a wedding bumper for Waylon
