

Chapter 1065

He smiled lightly and said to Suzi: "Madam, do you remember that you gave me a small hand warmer six years ago?"

Suzi asked puzzledly: "Why do you suddenly remember this? It's just a hand warmer, it's not worth mentioning."

Christopher shook his head: "No! Madam, the hand warmer you gave me has warmed my heart forever. So please don't worry, Madam, if Elder Shu does everything possible to get you to treat Lanita. , I am Christopher being rude to him!"

Suzi: "..."

After a while, she said: "Thank you, Christopher."

"Madam gets in the car and sends the little princess to kindergarten first." Arron said.

"Yeah."

After sending Lilly to the kindergarten without any stop, Suzi called Arron: "Arron, Dad... how is he?"

At the other end, Arron said, "It's okay."

"Then I...should I go and see him?" Suzi asked cautiously again.

Arron comforted: "It doesn't matter, you come if you want to come, and it's okay if you don't want to come."

Suzi: "I see, I'll come over right away."

No matter how to find it, it was Arron's father. Her husband suddenly vomited blood and fainted because of herself. In any case, she had to go to the hospital to see the rescue situation.

After closing the line, Suzi said to Christopher: "Christopher, take me to the hospital."

"Okay Madam." Christopher agreed, and drove towards the hospital.

Just after a traffic light, Suzi's cell phone rang, and she thought it was Arron who called and told her about Fu Zhengxiong's rescue.

As a result, when I opened it, it turned out to be the captain of the community guard and security team.

Suzi immediately connected: "Hey, Captain Cao, is it...Are there any reporters gathered at the gate of the community?"

Suzi thought, even if there are more reporters gathered, she will face it this time!

In front of many reporters, she told her all the past eight years in the Lin family and all the past of her and the Lin family.

On the other end, the security captain did not answer Suzi's words. He only said vaguely on the other end of the phone: "Mrs. Fu, you should come back quickly, we..."

Without waiting for the security captain to finish speaking, Suzi promised: "Captain Cao, I know, I won't make your security embarrassing. I will go back. I will be there in about ten minutes."

The security captain's tone stammered: "Okay...Mrs. Fu, Mrs. Fu...goodbye."

Suzi smiled: "You are polite."

"That Mrs. Fu..." The security captain seemed to have something to say.

Suzi asked again: "What's wrong with Captain Cao?"

The security captain said: "Do you have a lot of things to do today?"

Suzi: "No, I wanted to go to the hospital, but the thing about your guard is more important than the hospital."

Security captain: "..."

He rushed out of sweat.

He couldn't think of any way to hint Suzi and tell her not to come back, not to come back.

But he couldn't think of it.

He could only urge: "Mrs. Fu, you come back soon!"

"Well, I'll be fast, don't be afraid, don't worry, I'll take care of the matter!" Suzi felt that her personal private affairs had already caused trouble to the community gate room.

After closing the line, Suzi said to Christopher: "Assistant Yan, you drive faster. I guess there are a lot of reporters gathered at the gate of my community. This time I will face them face-to-face!"

Christopher: "Good wife, I will face those reporters with you then."

As soon as Christopher stepped on the accelerator, the car speeded up immediately.

In about ten minutes, they came to the gate of the community, but they didn't see any reporters.

"What's the matter, the reporters are all gone?" she asked in confusion.

About to get out of the car and ask about the security of the door room, Suzi saw that five or six policemen slipped out of the door room.

Among them, the police came to Suzi's car and asked in an extremely cold voice: "Are you Suzi?"

Chapter 1066

Suzi nodded hesitantly: "I... have I committed anything?"

A bad premonition came to my heart.

Nine years ago, when she was just a sophomore, she was taken away so indifferently.

"It's the case nine years ago, and your family members have found you now, and they will sue you again."

Suzi: "..."

"It's her! It's her! You D*mn it, you have caused our orphans and widows to suffer so much! You vixen, you have to bite back for the evil you did yourself." A middle-aged woman pointed to Suzi's nose scolded angrily.

Suzi was taken aback.

She recognized the middle-aged woman as coming.

It was the middle-aged woman who clawed on her car door yesterday and left at a glance.

"You..." Suzi was angry, and didn't know what to say for a while.

"Nine years ago, you insisted that my man harmed you. A man as honest as my man can be your father at his age. We also have two or three children in our family. How could he do anything to you? Something like this?"

Speaking of events nine years ago, Suzi had an urge to kill.

Nine years ago!

She is still in college!

Jarod and Moira, who had never cared about her, suddenly found her and bought her a new dress. They said that her birthday was coming soon and wanted to celebrate her.

Jarod and Moira brought Suzi to the scene of the crime and drank a drink. I didn't know what was in the drink. She didn't know what to do after drinking it.

When she woke up again, she would have become a murderer.

Not an attempted murder.

It was manslaughter.

The footprints, fingers, and fingerprints on the murder weapon at the scene all belonged to her Suzi.

Including some of the content in the surveillance, all Yingying Chuochuo could see that it was Suzi.

Because the clothes are the same, the hairstyles are the same.

Given the conclusive evidence, Suzi has no room for refutation.

At that moment, Suzi knew that Jarod and Moira's husband and wife treated her kindly once in two thousand years. Buying her clothes and celebrating her birthday was just a trap.

A well-planned trap.

They asked her Suzi to commit the crime for Lanita.

This round was very thorough, and almost no flaws were found. In addition, Suzi was young at the time and didn't know how to argue for herself, and her heart was broken.

I always wanted to call Jarod Dad like Lanita did.

In order to be recognized by Jarod, Suzi, a child transferred from the countryside, went from the bottom of his grades to the first three years of his grade. The university he was admitted to was also a key university in the city.

But even so, Jarod still did not recognize her.

Instead, frame her.

At that time, Suzi was truly heartbroken, and wished he could only pray for death.

Now, nine years have passed since that incident.

If things happened to the present, she would definitely not be so helpless.

Suzi calmly looked at the middle-aged woman who stood in front of her:
"Auntie, I don't know who your husband is. Even if you are the wife of that man back then, the sentence I should serve has already been served. It's been nine years. It's not appropriate for you to come back to the old account at this time, right?"

The middle-aged woman yelled: "What's wrong! Not to mention it's been nine years, it's even twenty years. If you should reopen the old accounts, you still have to reopen the old accounts. Isn't it possible to let a woman like you who commit crimes go unpunished? I heard that you have more than just this murder case!"

Suzi was startled: "..."

After that, she looked up at the more and more onlookers.

Suddenly, she saw Jarod among the onlookers.

She also saw Mr. Shu.

Understood!

This is a trap again

Well-designed trap.

They cast an invisible net on her again, intending to keep her in the net so that she has no chance of escape.

She even realized in a daze that, including this morning, her father-in-law Fu Zhengxiong suddenly came to the house, suddenly Xingshi asked guilt, and suddenly became angry with her and Arron. This is one of the steps of Elder Shu, right?
