

Chapter 1191

Then he laughed again.

"You stupid girl, what are you afraid of when you are pregnant, just give birth, we three adults will not be able to support a child in the future?"

Dalia: "I...can't ask for it, my original man..."

Collin: "Don't let him know."

Dalia shook his head: "I don't want his children. I want to get rid of him, I want to..."

She looked at Collin.

On the way, she thought very clearly, and she plucked up her courage: "Brother Han, after returning to your hometown, will you marry me?"

Collin: "Sister, my brother is older than you. My brother is forty-five and ten years older than you. My brother is a vulgar person. Although you are dressed in tatters, you look like a girl who tastes tender meat. , I can't ruin you."

Dalia cried and laughed: "I know, Brother Han, you must dislike me."

Collin smiled again: "Stupid girl, I'm like this, and I'm still taking this old lady. What do I dislike you? I'm a primitive life in the deep mountains and forests. It's okay. I can't let you follow me and endure hardship."

"I was thinking about it. Go back to us, find you a kinder family, and live with them. My family is your mother's family. I know you have given birth to my uncle. I never thought about marrying you."

"I'm a married person and have children. At this age, I really don't deserve you. I...never thought about getting married in my life." Collin said.

Dalia's eyes were hot: "But Brother Han, I have always wanted to get married and have always wanted to. It's just that this idea was in front of my previous man and I never dared to say it. I want to get married and want a child. Live an ordinary life with children making trouble. Will you marry me?"

Collin: "..."

"If you don't marry me, I won't go with you. I am a pregnant woman, and I can't drag you down."

"Good! Good! Brother Han will marry you, he will marry you when he gets home, and take you to get a marriage certificate first." Collin said excitedly.

Dalia breathed a sigh of relief: "If you marry me, I will kill the child in my stomach first."

Collin: "Don't, don't don't don't, don't, no, the child is not wrong."

Dalia shook his head: "It is because the child is not wrong that I have to get rid of it. I don't want the grudge between me and his father to continue to the next generation. Live your life and be pregnant with your child."

Collin: "..."

At that moment, Collin said it was impossible not to be moved.

But he was also embarrassed: "But, we don't have enough money for the abortion of a fetus."

The body is already less than two hundred yuan.

Even if you work part-time, you can't make money with this.

But the child who is evil in the stomach grows up day by day, and the child can't wait.

In desperation, Dalia thought of borrowing money from Suzi.

She asked about the expenses in the hospital, and she did not ask Suzi to borrow more, but only borrowed two thousand.

Suzi's money came quickly, it was ten thousand.

After being moved, Dalia took part of the money directly from the hospital, and then he hung up the number of the obstetrics and gynecology department to start the examination.

The doctor Lixin asked her: "Why not?"

Dalia answered truthfully: "I'm separated from my child's father."

Doctor: "That's right. In view of your age, you have to have a full physical examination before you can have an operation."

Dalia nodded, "Well, I know, I've had a medical examination before."

As soon as she spoke, she took the list and went for the physical examination one by one.

Twenty minutes later, Dalia was called to the outpatient room again.

"You can't have surgery." The doctor said calmly.

Dalia: "Why... why?"

The doctor asked: "Honestly, did you just underwent such an operation two months ago?"

Dalia nodded: "Yeah."

The doctor sneered: "You are really bad enough to abuse your own body. Think about it for yourself. If this baby is done, you will not be able to be a mother in the future."

Dalia: "..."

Chapter 1192

She slowly got down from the hospital bed, all in a trance.

Does this world have to be so cruel to her?

Collin, who came by, asked her, "What's wrong? Xiaoshan?"

Dalia asked Collin: "If we had no children in the future, you...will you still marry me?"

Collin: "Aren't you all pregnant? How can we have no children?"

After a pause, he said again: "I can also give birth. I have had a son before, and I can give birth."

Dalia raised his tearful eyes and looked at Collin: "But I...I knock this out of my stomach, and I won't be able to give birth in the future."

Collin said without hesitation: "Then don't get rid of it! After all, the child in your stomach is also your child. Why is your mother so cruel? I don't mind, this child has never seen his father since he was born. He will definitely recognize me as a father."

Dalia: "..."

"Everyone says that it's better than birth, don't worry, he will be our own child from now on."

After speaking, Collin helped Dalia up and took her out.

They had just walked out of the hospital, when Collin suddenly thought of something: "Did you just ask your friend for the loan?"

Dalia said: "I asked my friend to borrow two thousand, but she gave me ten thousand."

Collin thought for a while, and then said: "Let's keep two thousand, one thousand of which is enough for the toll, and another thousand to prevent another accident on the road. Give the remaining eight thousand back to others. We are a poor man. I owe people 10,000 yuan, when can I pay it back?"

Dalia nodded: "Okay, I think so too."

After the two made a decision, Dalia called Suzi again.

At that end, Suzi is still in the Furniture City on the sixth floor of the mall.

Originally, he could leave the Furniture City after paying the money, but because of a phone call from Dalia just now, Kraig started to remotely command and order the people under his hands to find Dalia.

He sat on the sofa where he was, waiting for reports from the people under his hands every few minutes.

In this way, in just half an hour, the people under his hands have narrowed the scope to a small county.

One of the subordinates reported to Kraig: "Master, Madam, she...should be in this county. The location displayed by the searcher, if I guess correctly, it should be a hospital."

"What's going on! Is there anything wrong with her? Don't you hurry to find it in the hospital!" Kraig roared in the furniture city regardless.

Here, Suzi kindly reminded Kraig: "Sister Shan should be fine. If she has something, she won't be the one who called me just now. Don't worry too much."

As she was talking, Suzi's cell phone rang again. She picked it up and saw that it was the original number again. An excited Suzi immediately connected: "Sister Shan, Sister Shan, where are you? How are you now? You just borrowed it. Is the money because you are sick?"

Dalia asked suspiciously: "You...how do you know?"

As soon as Dalia's voice fell, Suzi's mobile phone was taken away by Kraig: "Tell me,

Where are you! "

Suzi suddenly angrily shouted: "Kraig! You will scare her! You idiot!"

At that end, Dalia was indeed shocked: "Jun...Jun...Mr.Jun, I...you...I don't owe you, I That one million has been taken away by your wife! I...if I had money, I would not borrow two thousand dollars from Suzi, I..."

"Where are you!" Kraig asked very eagerly: "Is it near the hospital?"

Dalia: "..."

Her startled eyes won't turn around.

The phone in his hand also fell to the ground.

"What's the matter?" Collin picked up the phone and hung up, and then asked Dalia.

Dalia looked at Collin in a panic: "Collin, the money...we won't repay the money. Hurry up and find a black car, which is the kind of private car that is not listed for operation. Hurry up! Give him five thousand yuan. , Let them send us out of town immediately.”

Although Collin is honest, but he has also seen the world.
