Chapter 2662

After a pause

, she bit her lip and politely said to Liao Jie: "Thank you for your reminder.

" Come on!" Liao Jie's eyes were always filled with disgust.

Galia turned around and left without looking back at Liao Jie.

Every word Liao Jie said to her pierced her heart, but she couldn't refute it. After all, she really pestered Liao Jie for a whole year. This is a fact that cannot be erased. The reason why Liao Jie is today Looking down on her like this is her personal reason.

She can't blame anyone.

All she can do now is to make herself peaceful, to make herself strong, and to let herself face the past forever.

Galia joined the company and went to the personnel department without hesitation.

"Mr. Wang, I want to resign, can you tell me, how long can I leave the company? If I can do it sooner, I will work overtime and finish my work last night, so I won't leave any tail to the company. ."

President Wang was stunned: "Did you tell your director? And the person in charge of the company headquarters, they agreed to your resignation?"

Galia pursed her lips: "I must resign, so I won't follow My leader said it."

President Wang: "..."

After a pause, President Wang directly dialed the number of the director of the fashion department.

Hearing on the phone that Galia was about to resign, the director was stunned. Then he said, "Let Galia come back first, and I will talk to her."

Galia had to bite the bullet and enter the fashion director's office.

"Galia, you didn't chase Mr. Liao back, did you?" the director asked gently.

Galia sighed: "Director, I have a way to get President Liao to cooperate with us, that is, I resign, I leave the company as soon as possible, and he should cooperate with us.

You...as soon as possible . Find someone to hand over my work, don't worry Director, even if I leave the company, I will not refuse anything you need me to hand over in the past month, don't worry about that." Galia sincerely said.

The director held his forehead and didn't speak for a long time.

He just looked up and said to Galia: "Can you give me a reasonable reason why you have eaten for an hour and a half today? And you and Mr. Liao, what happened between you?"

I know this is your private matter. , you don't have to answer me.

However, you know that it is not easy for our group company to train you. The staff of Fu Group are very stable. As soon as we train you, you resign, which is not in line with us. The company's culture.

As long as you have a reasonable reason, this is a matter, and we will solve it together.

Is that okay?"

Hearing the director's words, Galia's eyes instantly turned red.

During the year she worked at Fu Corporation, her own efforts were part of it, and the atmosphere of the group was indeed very good.

She has no culture, and many colleagues do not look down on her because of this, but do everything possible to help her improve her cultural level. She does not understand English, and those colleagues who have worked overseas for a few years will spare no effort, even for a little time to eat. , to teach her spoken language.

Her previous professional knowledge is indeed very strong.

However, in this year, she has learned all the things she couldn't before, and with her excellent professional knowledge, she is now in the fashion department of Fu's Group, and she can already be on her own.

This is naturally a happy event for her, but for the company, the company naturally doesn't want to give up a newly trained employee like this.

"I...there is an old couple near my house, their children are missing, I've been taking care of them lately, this old couple is very good to me, they have taught me a lot, I can't ignore them , they don't usually bother me, but it just happened that they encountered some trouble this morning..." The director asked in surprise: "Are you taking care of an old man who is not related to you?"

Galia nodded: " Well, and... Liao Jie and I, he used to be my boyfriend, and I never wanted to let go and pester him, so he had a bad impression on me. So I thought, if I resigned, he would If you don't, you are willing to cooperate with the company.

Director, you should approve it as soon as possible."

"I pestered him before, but now I don't contact him? Do you still like him?"
The director asked tentatively.

Galia smiled and said: "How is that possible director, I haven't contacted him for five years and haven't seen him, he and I are already in the past tense. I don't like her at all now."

"That's good!" Director Suddenly stood up and said with a smile: "Galia, the fashion department has decided to protect you, not the fashion company."

Galia was stunned: "What?"

Chapter 2663

The

director firmly said: "Galia, if the other party is late for a private matter, or because you are an hour and a half late , is so assertive that it is unwilling to cooperate with us anymore. You say this company, do we still need to keep it?

This company is indeed excellent in all aspects, but it is not unique. On the contrary, their company wants to accept us, a company that can maintain It is also difficult to make a living for two years.

Especially now when the economy is depressed.

I don't want to compromise with them. One is to maintain the company's attitude.

Two, I also want to protect my own employees.

In the past when President Fu was in office I just said that if the company wants to grow, it must be people-oriented. If the company doesn't protect you this time, what will other employees think? Does it make people panic? Is n't this company about to end?

Galia: "... .."

At this moment, she couldn't say that she was not moved.

"You calm down, I'll go to the company headquarters to submit a report, we... don't cooperate with them anymore!

Galia opened her mouth to say something, but the director had already gone out.

Several colleagues gathered around to comfort her. "

Galia, this kind of person is too domineering. Why did he ask our company to change someone because you had a holiday before?" This is so unreasonable, right? "

"By the way, Galia, why are you late for an hour and a half at this juncture today? You are usually so diligent, and we have not arrived yet. You have already arrived at the company. When I ask you, you always say that you are a fool to fly first, but you help us. How much have you done? By the way, your English level has improved a lot.

The unfamiliar translator I used last time, I thought it was you who translated it right.

Galia, I think if our department lacks you , it's really the loss of the company.
The

director did the right thing!"

"Galia, I support you!"

"Galia, you should get your CET-6 certificate soon, right? In two years, you will also get your college diploma. When you arrive, who will dare to scold you in the future."

Seeing these colleagues complaining against her and helping herself, Galia suddenly felt that she was worth it.

I felt like I was living in a real world right now.

The previous ones were all illusions.

She always imagined that she was successful in her studies, successful in her career, and all kinds of glamorous. In this way, you can raise your eyebrows in front of your relatives, family and neighbors.

But now, she is very pragmatic and down-to-earth. Everything she has earned herself step by step, she is very stable and solid.

The wind can't blow it.

Rainforests are not bad.

Even in violent storms and thunders, it still stands tall.

People need to be real.

This is the truth drawn by Galia.

Respect is earned by one's own efforts.

"Thank you, thank you." Galia said sincerely: "I...even if I... resign from here, I feel very profitable, and my focus has won back my self-esteem.

.Thank you .

But..."

She felt that these people were helping her like this, and she had to tell the truth.

"However, it's not because of any conflict between me and Mr. Liao at work.

I am... We were boyfriend and girlfriend six years ago. At that time, I lied to him because he wanted to win. You know that I didn't graduate from junior high school, but I lied to him and the company. Say I graduated from college, you can imagine, a junior high school student, no matter how hard it is to deceive the past. Speaking of this, Galia laughed at herself: "I was really ignorant and fearless at the time. I was really not afraid of heaven and earth, so I cheated."

To cheat to the end is really shooting yourself in the foot.
