

Chapter 457

Suzi sat up reluctantly, and the man grabbed her arm: "Don't go to work this week."

Suzi bit his lip: "My job is not easy to come by, and I don't want to ask for leave anymore."

"It's up to you!" The man snorted coldly, and then asked her: "What happened in the company yesterday? Did the company's female colleagues exclude you?"

Suzi: "..."

How to answer him?

Throughout the night, his punishment for her made her sober. He had cured Sanford's leg, but he was still that cruel and hard-hearted man.

Suzi staggered out of bed, then smiled lightly at him: "No."

"Don't want to say?" He hooked her waist and refused to let her go.

She shook her head: "No, you know I have rarely had contact with people in public, and talked very little, so they just said I was cold and nothing else. I still want to do this job, and it's a good job. It's all small problems, it's okay."

She really didn't want him to know, what good is it for her to make a big mess? It's hard to find a job if you lose it.

The man didn't force her anymore.

Instead, she watched her squat down to pick up the pajamas she wore last night. When she picked it up, she couldn't wear it anymore. Her angry face blushed and raised her hand to throw the pajamas on his face, and then picked it up angrily. He took off the shirt yesterday before putting it in the washing machine and put it on.

"I wore it yesterday, it's dirty and smells like," the man said.

"You can control it!" The woman put on her shirt and walked out of his room crookedly. Seeing her angry and grotesque, the man was taken aback.

No wonder, so many men in the company can't help but fall for her when they see her.

When he got up, the man went to the bathroom and took a shower before he came out neatly.

At this time, Suzi had also taken a shower and changed into the clothes she would wear today at work. Today's clothes are her own matching, and she has taken a little bit of care to avoid being too ostentatious or outdated.

Suzi was originally a clothes rack. Under normal circumstances, as long as it is not deliberately done, all clothes look good on her. Today, this pure black ruffled loose high-necked shirt is matched with a lower one-step skirt and high boots. , Which sets off Suzi's ability and coolness.

Very beautiful!

"Replace it!" the man said.

Suzi: "... You are unreasonable!

Seeing Suzi's cheeks puffed up, he immediately said: "You were almost hollowed out yesterday, and today you wear such a well-fitting one-step skirt and high boots. It is not appropriate. You should wear loose cotton jeans and casual shoes."

As soon as Suzi turned around and was about to enter the cloakroom, the man added from behind: "The coat is very loose. You don't need to change it. Just change to jeans and casual shoes."

Suzi ignored him.

I only found the loosest pair of jeans and put them on with relatively matching casual shoes. In fact, the jeans and casual shoes are all made to order, and they are indeed much more comfortable to wear than before.

It just matches up, a bit like a pure female student.

"Okay!" the man said domineeringly.

You can be big!

Suzi could not want to step forward and kick this man.

But she really hurts her arms and legs everywhere, so she had to give it up!

After dinner, Christopher came to pick up the family of three on time. First, he went to the kindergarten to send the only one to school. When he arrived at the kindergarten, the man did not get off the bus. Shan's mother.

"Mother Susan, have you sent Susan in?" Suzi asked politely.

Susan's mother smiled awkwardly, and then asked: "Mother Lilly, why are you not turning on the phone? You are not hiding from us, are you?"

Chapter 458

Suzi froze for a moment, then took out the phone from her bag and took a look. It was really turned off. She turned it off because she didn't want to receive calls from a colleague from the company yesterday. After a few words with Arron, she forgot. Up.

I haven't turned on my cell phone until now.

"What's the matter, Susan's mother?" Suzi asked.

Susan's mother was a little embarrassed, and looked at Suzi with some suspicious eyes: "Suzi, the last time your husband sent you here, the manner and the aura, I think your family must be very rich. At least you have a net worth of tens of millions or hundreds of millions. The group I brought you into last time is a wealthy circle. The mothers of our children have discussed it. Let us set up a separate set of a dozen or so children. In a class, find more teachers..."

Suzi didn't understand a little: "Why set up a separate class?"

Now this kindergarten is also very good. Although it is not the top-level aristocratic kindergarten in Nancheng, the children who are studying here are not weak in family background. Where is the tuition fee for a renewal of more than 100,000 yuan, and where can I go? ?

Moreover, the only one who always thinks this kindergarten is good.

Suzi looked at Susan's mother unclearly: "Isn't it good now? I think the children who go to kindergarten here are not bad families."

Susan's mother sighed, "Hey, no one of us knows whose family is good or bad. It's not a few days ago. A child in this kindergarten was forced to move away. The family property is tens of millions, who knows it is a guise, and their family is tired of debts. The girl's mother actually bought high imitation brand bags.

As a result, her high imitation brand bag collided with another mother's bag in our kindergarten, so embarrassing.

At this time, we found out that their family had tens of millions of assets, and they didn't even have a property in Nancheng. It's all pretend!

Poor sc*m!

This kind of people actually get into a kindergarten like ours, you say it is hateful and not hateful.

Let me tell you that their children will spoil our children. "Suzi: "..."

Seeing what Susan's mother was talking about, she was very disgusted with that mother's expression on her face, as if that mother was wearing dirty clothes and was contaminated with her.

Such an expression made Suzi funny.

I think Susan's mother is very sour.

She hadn't had a good impression of Susan's mother at first, but Susan was a lovely and kind little girl, and Susan was the only best friend she had made since her daughter Shen came to this kindergarten.

Therefore, Suzi could only endure the disgust towards Susan's mother, watched Susan's mother talking, glanced at the watch from the corner of his eyes, and said, "Excuse me, Susan's mother, my... I'm going to be late if I don't go to work. To make a long story short, I didn't turn on the phone yesterday. What can you do with me?"

Susan's mother asked in an angry tone: "Why, are you still working?"

Suzi nodded: "Yeah."

Work is glorious and proud!

Does anyone want to work?

This is just Suzi's thoughts.

In this world, there are more women who don't want to work, and many women who don't want to work will despise Suzi, a woman who is busy with work every day and earns that little salary.

"Mother Susan, I'm sorry I'm really in a hurry, what are you going to do?" Suzi asked anxiously.

"Well, the group owner posted this in the group yesterday. Everyone is going to hold a party. At the party, we will discuss how to deal with this matter and how to prevent our children from being polluted. By the way, we have several high-income families. High-class families can also take this opportunity to gather together to exchange ideas and increase their relationship."

Suzi: "Um..."
