

Chapter 585

Tight?

For fear that he would be restrained.

For a moment, she suddenly felt that she was just like him.

Thinking of this, she blushed suddenly.

"Why are you blushing?" Arron looked at her puzzledly. She didn't tease her on a single page yesterday. What was she thinking about?

"No...no." Suzi hesitated: "The air in this living room is not circulating, I am so panicked, I...I went out." After speaking, Suzi ran out immediately Outdoor.

The man whispered behind him: "This blushing problem, when can I change it? It seems that I still don't adapt. The manager has used it a lot, and he may have a thicker skin!"

After talking to himself, Arron did not leave the living room, but picked up his mobile phone and dialed out a group of calls.

At the other end, the connection was quickly connected: "President Fu, I am the assistant picture."

"Small picture, inform the company's senior management that this morning's meeting has been cancelled. And all the customers who made reservations this morning will be postponed."

At that end, the assistant Xiaotu was very surprised: "President, what happened?"

In Xiaotu's impression, the president has never cancelled a scheduled event in the six years since he took charge of the Fu Group, unless there was a major event.

However, Arron at this end is very indifferent: "It's okay."

Small picture on the other end: "Uh..."

After a second, he said: "Good president, I will notify you immediately."

No one knows what arrangements Arron will have this morning, not even Suzi, who is sharing the bed with him, Suzi has never been able to guess Arron.

After all, he was too calm and the city mansion was too behind him.

However, Suzi doesn't guess what she can't guess. She feels that her job is stable now, and the atmosphere in the company is good, which is already very good.

As soon as he got out of Arron's car and entered the company, Suzi coincidentally saw Galia.

"Tell you good news, Suzi." Galia said.

Suzi immediately smiled and curled his eyebrows: "I'm very smart, let me guess, I must be able to guess right. It must be that after Rayna returned to her residence last night, the Ministry of Personnel informed her and asked her to continue to come back to work, right? ?"

Galia: "Huh! You are really smart, you can guess it!"

Suzi was able to shake his head and shook his head: "Don't look at who it is, Suzi is okay! A standard science girl! My mind is very useful!"

Galia rolled his eyes: "You are smart!"

Suzi asked again: "Where is Rayna?"

"I'm here, Mrs. Fu." Rayna ran over, carrying two breakfasts, one to Galia, and she handed the other to Suzi: "I bought it for you."

"You eat by yourself, I'm at home every day." Suzi said.

Rayna was not polite with Suzi.

Suzi handed a small paper bag to Rayna.

"What?" Rayna asked.

"For you." Suzi said.

Rayna opened it and saw that there was a whole set of skin care products inside.

"Guerlain, is it actually Guerlain, or is it a high-end product of the Guerlain brand?" Rayna's eyes were straight.

After looking at it for a while, and then looking up, her eyes were red: "That Mrs. Fu, I... I bullied you so much before, but you still treated me so well. Guerlain's complete set of high-end skin care products It's tens of thousands of dollars, you actually gave it to me?"

Suzi shrugged and chuckled: "I have an allergic nose, and the smell is a bit heavy. I wouldn't dare to use it. It's a pity to leave it alone. I think you have severe dark circles in the past two days, so I will use it for you."

Rayna took a whole set of skin care products to his heart, and said gratefully: "Thank you, thank you Mrs. Fu."

"It's okay."

"Rayna, you goddamn! You stop for me!" An angry voice suddenly shouted behind him.

Chapter 586

Rayna was frightened.

When Suzi and Galia also looked back, they saw a middle-aged woman in her 50s rushing towards Rayna with her arms akimbo.

Rayna was frightened, and immediately hid behind Galia, crying in her voice: "Mom, what are you doing! Why are you still not suffocated for two days? I almost starved to death in the past two days. It's Yan. Yan took me in. The personnel department of the company told me to come to work regardless of previous complaints. I have a job now, and I know I was wrong. You should calm down, right?"

"You die!" The middle-aged woman scolded Rayna with dirty words.

Rayna was scolded for a moment: "Mom, what are you scolding me for?"

"fcuk! You are a shameless man! Give me this set of cosmetics!" the middle-aged woman scolded angrily.

Rayna was very reluctant, but she also tremblingly passed the cosmetics to the middle-aged woman: "Mom, are you going to give this skin care product to my cousin? I really don't understand, why do you love my cousin more than It hurts me a hundred times more. Is it because my cousin has lost her parents since she was a child? But mom, although my cousin has no parents, her aunt's family and Grandpa Shu love her very much.

On the contrary, it was me, always acting like a servant in front of my cousin.

Mom, don't you feel sorry for your biological daughter at all?

Did you know that when you drove me out the day before yesterday, I was almost asleep on the dark and remote road? "

At this moment, Rayna seriously doubted whether his parents were biological?

She looked at the middle-aged woman with tears.

The middle-aged woman laughed coldly, and did not answer Rayna's question at all.

She only said that Guerlain would help the poor and hugged her in her arms, and proudly said: "Now, even if Walton has no money, she can use high-end skin care products."

Rayna: "..."

After a second, she asked with tears: "Are you my mother! Are you!"

There are a lot of middle-aged women. Rayna said, "You are back to work again. That's good. Your sister's bank card has been frozen now, and it happens that your salary is spent on her. I'm leaving! Don't die if you are fine. Coming home!"

The words must be said, the middle-aged woman turned around and left.

But Suzi blocked the way.

"You...what are you doing?" The middle-aged woman looked at Suzi.

Suzi drew light makeup today, the whole person looked much brighter, and he wore a relatively young and brisk tunic skirt. For a while, the middle-aged woman did not recognize it. This is the hottest two days ago. Mrs. Fu of Search.

Suzi didn't answer, and only calmly took back the skin care products that the middle-aged woman held in her arms.

The women refused all year round, and Suzi did not let go. He only had a very calm tone: "This skin care product belongs to me. I have a cashier ticket to show it. If you don't let go, I can consider calling the police and arresting you. In broad daylight, strong Grab other people's property.

Middle-aged women: "..."

As soon as his arm loosened, Suzi took away a set of skin care products.

She didn't make any noise, she just took the skin care products and left.

"You woman, who are you! Stop for me!" the middle-aged woman shouted angrily.

Rayna said with great sadness: "Mom, that's Mrs. Fu, the wife of the president of the Fu Group, Mrs. Fu."

Middle-aged woman: "... " immediately flees in fright.

They all ran a long way, and did not forget to turn back and order Rayna: "I have paid all the wages to me!"

Rayna: "..."

Seeing the woman walking away, Galia next to him asked with concern: "Rayna, you usually walk sideways like a crab in the company, why are you so loose here with your mother? I solemnly ask you, Are you your real mother?"

Rayna nodded: "The real parents."
