

Chapter 819

Suzi: "..."

I know that I am allergic to snorting, and I can't blame the smell, especially the pungent perfume. As long as I smell it, it feels absolutely suffocating, but when did I have skin allergies.

Why don't you know?

Suzi looked at his man curiously and funny.

The man still said with a cold face: "You are close to her, and you can spray her with saliva. You don't care about hygiene at all. If she is allergic, can you bear this responsibility?"

Song Zhuoer: "..."

He has been working with Suzi for so long, and he hasn't seen Sister Suzi's skin allergies. Sister Suzi is not such a squeamish person.

The tears of grievance almost came out, but Song Zhuoer still did not dare to cry.

He just watched as Arron stretched out his hand and grabbed Suzi's hand. He pulled her away abruptly. While pulling her out, he still said, "I don't know if I'm not in good health? I still learn from others, staying up all night, K Song?"

"Um...Brother, I'm not 27 this year."

"Are you Wuyinquan, you sing so badly, don't you know that your singing will find the wolf!"

"Um...Brother, I...I can not only sing, but I can also play the piano. This...When I returned to my hometown, I confessed to you. , Brother...are you forgetful?"

Arron sneered: "Humph!"

Let alone other.

Suzi: "..."

That's it, just like an eagle catching a chicken, Suzi was torn out of the KTV box by Arron.

Before leaving the house, Suzi shouted to the box: "I will pay, I will pay."

Then, he was tossed away by Arron.

Dumbs in the box, look at me, I look at you.

Is this...is the danger relieved?

New member Rayna got up and said to everyone, "It's all gone, it's okay."

The dumbs lifted their bans one after another.

Then he said in unison: "Scare me to death, let's go."

Then, they broke up.

At the other end, Suzi had been stuffed into the car by Arron.

The man's face is still as cold as ice.

It made the driver who was driving in front of him amused. He always wanted to laugh, but Christopher always had to sullen his face.

My grandfather hasn't had such a cold expression for half a year.

In fact, Arron received the call from Suzi: "I will sing and sing with my colleagues at night". He was in a meeting. Suddenly, he couldn't save it. Even the subordinates waiting to sign behind him ignored him. Go downstairs with a briefcase.

He didn't even care about the only one he always loved, and instead delivered the only one to his door. Arron didn't even enter the door, so he returned to get in the car and drove straight downstairs to this KTV.

They had been sitting downstairs for more than an hour before Arron went up.

"What are you doing?" Suzi saw that Arron had been sullen, so he poked his chest with his finger.

The man asked coldly: "You have a very good spirit today?"

"Well, I've been in a good spirit these days." Suzi said unclearly, "What's the matter, you speak."

The man said nothing.

Just like this, the three of them didn't speak.

Christopher dare not say, Suzi...

I'm a bit afraid to say it.

Until they got home, Christopher left, the two went upstairs together, opened the door and walked in. Suzi gently asked Arron, "Arron, what happened to you today?"

The man picked her up with a side support and kicked open the door of the large bedroom.

He banged in the door and put her on the big bed. Before she could speak, he bullied her up.

Chapter 820

From beginning to end, he didn't say a word.

In the past six months, he often said that he would punish her with one sentence.

All along, she often felt that he was punishing her.

However, until today, until this moment, Suzi didn't know what to punish.

He didn't speak all night.

And she also really saw his wolfishness.

His wolfishness is far from being as simple as Nancheng people would be afraid of seeing it. When his wolfishness is used on her, it can really tear her to pieces.

Early the next morning, she could no longer get out of bed.

And he too overslept.

The rampage went like that last night, and he was indeed tired.

Instead, she woke up earlier than him.

Looking at the man sleeping in his arms, Suzi suddenly felt like a child at this moment. That possessiveness, that overbearing, that unreasonable, was fully demonstrated by him overnight.

And he, still resting her arm.

His arms were numb and sore.

Suzi is getting angry!

Angrily white eyes rolled over the man next to him.

But, I was really scared.

In one night, she was completely conquered by him.

Her arm was too lazy to pull back from his head and neck, so she was pillowed by him, her other arm gently stroked his sideburn, his hair is very hard, with a crowd of kings not to be deceived. Hardness, just like his character. Suzi's letter suddenly softened when his fingers touched his thick rigid board.

The thing he cares about most in his life is his mother, who has been dead for six years.

In these six years, he has been alone.

Everyone knows that he is cold-blooded and ruthless, he is cold-hearted, and has never been close to anyone, even his biological father, he has no affection at all.

But, who knows what he really thinks in his heart?

During the days when she and the only one were just found back, he left work at one o'clock every day, and then picked her up from get off work, picked up the one from the kindergarten, and interacted with the one who couldn't be thundered every day. He used the best patience and The only way to establish a relationship, until now, Shen Only has been completely inseparable from his father.

During this period, although he didn't say anything, how much effort did he make in his heart and actions?

He is not cold-blooded, unkind, and disregarding family affection.

Rather, he had no family affection in the past.

How could a person who was abandoned by his family and exiled from an early age, and even had no half of his family's inheritance rights, would care about his so-called relatives?

As he himself said, everything he owns is actually his own creation. The Fu Group he took over is only a small part of his wealth, and a large part of his wealth is abroad and spread all over the world.

In particular, it focuses on war materials and staffing.

It's just that Suzi still doesn't know how strong his husband is.

At this moment, although Suzi, who was awake, was punished by his own man all night, she really realized what a bone was falling apart, but Suzi did not blame the man in the slightest. On the contrary, she saw her man's eyes more and more tenderly, more and more affectionate.

He has no relatives anymore.

His only relatives are her and the only one.

She seems lonely and unruly, and the Emperor Lao Tzu is not afraid.

However, he cared very much about her and the only one.

"I hate it!" Suzi interspersed with his stubborn hair, chuckled and said, "There are also times when you are scared, and finally let me find your weakness. Let's see how I will punish you in the future, huh!"
