

King of kings 1161–1162

Chapter 1161

Omi flew around the island in the sky, this island was seven or eight kilometers in radius, Omi felt that it was too small, it would not be enough after the development of the sect in the future.

So, Omi and the others continued their search elsewhere, the undersea location couldn't be too far from the land, within about three hundred kilometers. With the speed of an aircraft, three hundred kilometers would take less than ten minutes.

Finally, Omi saw a very beautiful sea island, a group of islands to be precise.

This group of islands, about thirty or so linked together, was extremely beautiful, and the stars held the three largest of them in the center like the moon. What was important wasn't that, but the ground of this island was high above sea level, and there was also a bamboo shoot-like pointy mountain on the island, so that there was no need to worry about tsunamis or anything like that.

"Yay, that's it." Omi said busily.

"Wow, this is a nice island." Xie Dayong smiled.

Omi's teacher's wife also said, "This group of islands, it's just like an immortal island, so beautiful, even if it's even a small one, it has very high mountains, well, I like this place."

"Haha, then, I declare that this group of islands, all of them belong to my land." Omi shouted, then, rushed down to the islands.

In the days that followed, Omi simply planned the islands, setting the centermost one of them as the core of the Endless Gate, and simply built a wooden house to mark the spot.

Then, only then did Omi leave the island and head to the demonic territory.

About half a day later, they arrived in the sky above the Demon Cult's General Altar. One Second Remember to Read the Book

"Wow, it's here, tsk, the flying machine is so unorthodox."

"It's the first time I've come to the Devil's Territory." The fifth senior brother smiled.

Omi said, "You guys wait for me here, I'll go down first."

The teacher's wife was busy saying, "Will this be dangerous ah, after all, it's the Devil's Head Temple, and the people of the Devil's Cult are all vicious and evil."

"Shini, don't worry, I am a bit famous in the Jianghu world, at least my killing of the Liang Shan School ally master is known to both the righteous and devilish factions, how would ordinary people dare to touch me, unless they are above the Master Perfection level, but how could anyone above the Master Perfection level run into them so coincidentally."

"Alright, then you be careful."

"Mm."

Omi rushed down the Demon Sect's main altar.

He directly landed in the backyard where Mu Qianji lived.

"Hello, where's Mu Qianji?" Don asked a maid.

"Ah, you are?"

"It doesn't matter who I am, I'm looking for Mu Qianji."

"Princess, Princess she's not here."

"Not here? And where did she go?"

"I don't know, I'll have to ask the Bishop about that."

"Oh, the Patriarch."

Omi hesitated and went directly to the Sect Master, the Sect Master was only on the same level as a decent ally, so I'm sure the Sect Master wouldn't dare to do anything rash to Omi.

Omi felt that it was quite good to have a prestige.

"Reporting to the Patriarch, someone is looking for you outside." In a large hall, a black-clothed underling came in to report.

"Let him in."

Omi walked in.

This was the first time Omi had seen the Demon Patriarch.

The Demon Patriarch frowned, he had actually never seen Wind Lightning's true face, but this person was already as good as thunder.

"Could you be Wind Lightning?" The Bishop asked.

nbsp; "Reporting to senior, junior is exactly Wind Lightning, dare I ask if senior is the Demon Sect Master, Mu Yihao?"

"Hahaha, forgive you for just being Wind Lightning, you're a person I've been hearing about for over twenty years, and only now have I actually seen you, not bad, handsome indeed, no wonder my daughter, when she was a teenager, began to be infatuated with you."

"Oh, this is junior's honor."

"Wind Lightning, it's good that you're not dead."

"What? Senior doesn't want me to die? I have the impression that Senior would hate to kill me." Omi said.

"That was before, but now you're considered half my son-in-law, so of course it's different."

"Son-in-law? Oh."

"Alright, I've accepted the feelings between you and my daughter, you truly love each other, I support you, besides, I also like you as a genius, I'm sure you will definitely be a talent for my Demon Sect in the future."

"Wait, what did Senior say? Last sentence."

"I'm sure the future is bound to be a talent for my demon religion." Mu repeated the sentence.

"Senior, you're wrong, how can I be a talent of the Devil Sect."

"What? You don't like my daughter anymore?"

"Like, of course I do, but that's a different matter."

"I'm sorry, there's no two ways about it with me, you have to be in the family to marry my daughter, and I think with your feelings for my daughter, that's not a problem at all."

"Wrong, it's a big problem."

"Hahahaha, Windy, there is no such thing as an empty glove story."

"Alright, Patriarch, I'm really not in the mood to chat with you today, I'm here to find Mu Qianji, where did she go?"

"Well? Didn't you come back with my daughter?" The Patriarch was startled, he thought that his daughter had brought Omi back to the Demon Sect's headquarters with her, but as a result, Wind Lightning was here to find someone.

"Senior Patriarch, what made you think that I came with Mu Qianji?"

"Wind Lightning, is it true that my daughter is not with you?" The Magician Patriarch was busy asking.

Omi was confused, he came to look for someone ah, how come the Patriarch was asking him now.

"Patriarch, how did I end up with Qian Jie, I all thought he died when he was in the Liang Shan Sect, a year later, just half a month ago I heard that she didn't die, so I rushed here to meet her after I finished handling the matter in hand."

"Ah." The Patriarch was stunned.

"Patriarch, tell me, where the hell did Thousand Extremities go? You must be aware of this, because you were the one who rescued Mu Qianji from the Liang Shan Sect a year ago." Omi said somewhat nervously, because looking at the Patriarch's expression, it seemed like he hadn't seen Mu Qianji for a long time either.

The Patriarch said, "A year ago, I led a few of my best men to the Liang Shan Sect to rescue Qianji, on the way back, we heard about what happened to you in the Liang Shan Sect, after that, Qianji didn't return to the Devil Sect with me, she said that she simply couldn't leave you behind, so she went back to the Righteous Alliance to find you, and we heard that after you killed the ally, you fell unconscious and were rolled by a jiao dragon! Gone."

"Yes, that augur is my friend, did Chichi say where she was going to find me?"

"No. We were already at the Masamune Junction and she returned to the Masamune on her own, and we haven't heard a word from her until now."

"Ah."

"I thought that Chichi had found you and brought you with her back to the main demon sect." The Bishop said.

"Oh." No wonder the Patriarch said something about a son-in-law, to join his family, and thought that Mu Qianji had brought him back to meet his parents.

"In that case, I'll take my leave first." Omi said.

Omi thought inwardly, since Mu Qianji went to the Righteous Alliance to find herself, there were two possibilities, first, she was still in the Righteous Alliance; second, she didn't find herself in the Righteous Alliance, so she might have gone to the other world, since Mu Qianji also probably thought that Blackie had taken him to the other world.

"Wait."

"Does the Patriarch have any more orders?"

"Wind Lightning, haven't you heard any news about my daughter in the Righteous Alliance? It's not supposed to be." The Patriarch asked with some concern.

"Back to senior, it seems not."

"Ah, this child, where would she go, something shouldn't have happened."

"Patriarch don't worry, I'm sure she'll be fine, I'm going to find her."

"You please."

"I should." Omi took a few steps and suddenly turned back, "By the way, Patriarch, I want to ask you about someone."

"Who?"

"My master, Ding Ru." First published at m.kanshu8.net

"Why is your master asking me, I don't know you him well." The Patriarch said speechlessly.

"It's like this, a year ago, also about half a month after the death of the Liang Shan School Alliance Master, my master was captured by a strong man who I heard was at the level of a grand master, but such a strong man from our righteous alliance shouldn't have captured my master, and even if he had, he would have been released long ago, so I'm worried that it could be some such level strong man from the Devil Sect who captured my master."

"Okay, I'll ask around for you, but I'm telling you that you shouldn't be too optimistic if you're captured by a strong man of this level, you can only do as you're told. You can't afford to provoke a strong man of this level, and neither can I, don't get my daughter involved then."

"Don't worry, I won't be blind, I'll leave first then."

Omi walked out of the palace and burst into the sky as he was in a place where no one was around.

In the sky, next to the clouds, Omi's brothers and sisters, as well as his wife, were standing in the sky.

I just happened to hear, "Wow, I used to think that the clouds in the sky were a mass, like cotton, but now I realize that it's simply a fog."

Omi said, "Clouds are originally fog, and you thought you could lie down and float on them ah, you look at it from the ground, because of the distance, it looks like a cloud of cotton."

"Brother Wind, you're back, hey, where's the witch? Uh, excuse me, where's Mochizen?" Big Brother asked.

Omi said, "Mu Qianji she's not at the Magic Sect's head office."

"Where did she go?"

"I don't know, I went to ask the magician and he thought he was with me."

"Ah, it's not like he's disappeared again, like Master."

"Bah, bah, don't talk nonsense." Third Senior Sister was busy.

Omi smiled, "I think she should be in another world, she went to the Righteous Alliance and didn't find me, she will definitely go to another world, let's go, let's leave now and head to the bottomless abyss in the Devil's territory."

Soon, they arrived at the bottomless abyss.

"Wow, what a spectacular bottomless abyss."

The teacher asked, "Windy, is it really okay to jump down here?"

"Sensei, don't look at the appearance of this bottomless abyss that is terrifying, but it's actually scary, otherwise wouldn't it be two worlds coming and going."

"Oh."

"Haha, to travel to the other world, so excited to think about it. Brother Wind, when you go to the other world, you'll have to take us all the fun."

"Okay." Omi nodded

Head.

Then, Omi took the lead and jumped into the bottomless abyss.

Not long after, they emerged from the bottomless abyss of another world.

"Wow, amazing." Everyone exclaimed for a while.

"Brothers and sisters, this is the other world la, welcome to the other world."

Fourth senior brother said, "Brother Feng, it doesn't look good either, this mountain isn't as green as our world, and I always feel that the air isn't as good as our world."

Omi said in his heart, this nose is really smart, this Thousand Mountain Tomb is considered far away from the city's noisy mountains, if the air here is not good, then back in the metropolis, I don't know how to dislike it.

The teacher's wife also said, "The air is indeed not as fresh as our world, maybe this place happens to be the place with the worst air in the world, we also have the worst air in that world."

Omi was speechless, this Thousand Mountain Tomb was considered the place where the air was good after all.

"Alright, stop talking, let's go, back to the Yan Huang Empire, to this world, here I am the master, I am the strongest person in this world, and that's before stepping into the clan."

"I'll go." Although everyone already knew, they were still surprised, to think that in another world, there were countless strong men above their heads, and the mysterious continent across the distant ocean, but here was the number one in the world, what a world of difference.

Omi brought his brothers and sisters to a flying ship base near the Thousand Mountains Tomb.

This flying ship base was specifically for Omi to use after he came here.

"Senior Tang, you're here, hey, they are?" The base crew was busy greeting.

"Alright, don't ask so many questions, give me a flying ship."

"Okay, but, Senior Tang, do you want to be given the newest new flying ship that you've developed?"

"A new type of flying ship?"

"Yeah, it's newly developed, the Empire sent you one right away for your convenience, but it's not as stable as the old model." The staff said.

"New type of flying ship, how fast is it?"

"Hey, it's twice as fast as the old type, and it only takes about three days to fly from here to Wangjing City."

"Wow, that's a lot of time to shrink, so let's get the new type of flying ship out of here."

"Okay."

Not long after, a brand new, white flying ship drove out, this new type of flying ship was a little different from the old one, it had a knife-like oval shape, it looked flatter, and it was still flattened diagonally, obviously, the wind resistance was much less.

Omi greeted everyone, "Get on the flying ship."

"Windy, what is this thing?" The teacher's wife asked.

"Hey, Sensei, this is a flying ship, which is far faster than a flying machine."

"No way, there are things that are faster than flying machines."

"Of course there is, this flying ship is the fastest thing in the world, it's about ten times faster than a flying machine, right?"

"Ah." Everyone was incomparably surprised.

Omi just laughed, this world was truly extraordinary in terms of science.

Omi started the flying ship, then set the direction and flew towards the Yanhuang Empire.

"Wow, this seat is so soft and comfortable." Third Senior Sister touched the leather seats on the flying ship and said, this level of seat was certainly not seen in the other world.

"Yeah, how in the world can there be such a comfortable seat, and what are all these things, they look so high-class."
