

King of kings 1226–1230

1226

“Good, go fish, or you won’t have anything to eat at night.”

Omi crafted a boat with his own hands, and although it was oddly ugly in appearance, the quality was certainly not bad.

Omi rowed the boat, taking Wang Xing and Liu Yue with him, and went out to sea.

Wang Xing said, “The sky is beautiful, the sun is full, Omi, this world, really the air is better than over there, sitting on the bed at the moment, sunbathing, it’s very pleasant.”

“Yeah, it’s quite comfortable this day.” Liu Yue also said.

Wang Xing smiled, “It’s just that there’s something missing.”

“Uh, what kind of thing?” Liu Yue was puzzled.

Wang Xing Dao: “Women.”

“Go, thinking about women again, how many women have you slept with in the other world’s memory stone, and you’re still thinking.”

“Ugh, that’s exactly why I suddenly wonder if I should find a decent woman.”

“Ah, Uranus, you want to start a family.” Liu Yue laughed. Remember the URL . kanshu8 . net

“Nonsense, look at Omi, ever since he married his first wife, his quality of life is not even on the same level as ours, Qin Ren bites a philanderer and shows affection all the time.”

Omi listened to the conversation between Wang Xing and Liu Yue, speechless: “Who shows love, the women of this world, after getting married and calling their husbands, is originally the husband’s husband’s looks and appearance off, usually will not call the name, and, the women of this world three from four virtues, after getting married, everything is only the husband’s head.”

Wang Xing said, "So, I also want to marry a woman of this world, I should also start a family, Omi, what do you think?"

"Of course it's good, you're not young, it's time to start a family and reproduce." Omi said.

Liu Yue said, "But where are we going to find women, on this island, most of the women are Omi's women."

Omi gave Liu Yue a blank look, do you need to say it so badly.

Liu Yue retorted, "Originally it is, on this island, there are only a few women, Xu Mei Qian, Simran, Samira, Liona, Qi Xueyun, Xiao Meng, Qin Ren, your senior sister A Ju, and your teacher's wife, and Mu Yihao's wife, Flower Fairy. Look, half of them are Omi's women."

Omi said, "Hasn't Xiaomeng been single all this time, and you don't have a single one to look at?"

Wang Xing was speechless, "Can Xiao Meng see us? You underestimate her vision, Xiaomeng's vision is so high, I'm afraid that no one but you will enter her eyes."

Liu Yue said, "Xiaomeng definitely likes Omi, Omi, are you really not going to rescue her from her loneliness?"

"Ugh." Omi sighed, Omi could now also be pretty sure that Xiao Meng had always liked him, and seemed ready to just keep liking him until old age, not ready to like anyone else.

This silly girl, Omi was helpless against her as well.

However, having Omi actually marry her didn't seem right, or perhaps unfair to her, because Omi's heart wasn't in her, and it wouldn't be better to find a man who was wholeheartedly good to her alone.

Wang Xing said, "Right, there's also Song Yu'er, although I don't know where she's gone, but I'm sure I'll meet her sooner or later, Song Yu'er is also not bad, that body, it's really great, even if her face above her nose is disfigured, I still like it."

Liu Yue immediately warned, "Wang Xing, Song Yu'er is my woman, don't you dare hit on her, then don't blame me for not thinking of brotherly love."

"Che, Song Yu'er doesn't even like you, okay, if he really likes you, who can hit on you." Wang Xing said.

"I plan to keep chasing anyway, one day I'll move her."

Wang Xing trailed off, "By the time she's moved, I guess you'll be ready to put it in a coffin, what's the point."

“Wang Xing, you’re still not a brother, it’s fine if you don’t help me, but you’re still cursing me like this.”

Omi was busy: “Okay, what’s the quarrel, the future is ever-changing, who knows what the future will be like, okay, fish.”

Wang Xing laughed, “I just deliberately irritate him, haha, Liu Yue, don’t be angry, I wish you will catch up with Song Yuer tomorrow, okay.”

Liu Yue speechless white eyes like Wang Xing, so many years of affection, naturally impossible to really because of a woman to turn the other cheek, just everyone is used to mouth a handful of cheap.

Omi slapped on the sea, more than a dozen fish were shaken out of the sea, Liu Yue Wang Xing flew out to catch a few fish and threw them into the boat.

In this way, they leisurely rowed the boat while sunbathing and chatting, occasionally one of them slapped a palm on the surface of the water, and the other two flew out to catch a few fish.

Unconsciously, they rowed far away and saw a large boat passing in front of them.

Liu Yue was busy, “There’s a big ship over there, go over and see what kind of big ship it is, whether it’s a merchant ship or a cargo ship, see if there’s any food supplies we need, we’ll pay for it.”

Omi nodded, this place was just the edge of the continent’s sea, there were often merchant ships and the like passing by.

However, before Omi and the others could row up, there was another large ship coming from the other direction.

“Ohhhhh.” Another large ship suddenly appeared with many pirates.

Omi was startled, “Pirates?”

Sure enough, in the next moment, the pirates on the other ship flew to that merchant ship and started robbing and killing people.

The three Omi saw this and immediately flew up to stop them.

“Stop.” Omi shouted.

This group of islands were very strong, and the strongest one, the leader, was actually at the early stage of the clan.

Clerics were even working as pirates, Omi was a bit unbelievable. But Omi this idea is obviously narrow-minded, not everyone is drunk on martial arts, some people have no future in life, poor character, everyone is shouting everywhere, or they have offended certain clans, they have no way to go in the mainland, and then there is no possibility of martial arts progress, so naturally they run overseas and find an island to become an earth emperor. Moreover, this world is a little different from the other one, in the other world, strong people will be hired by big companies to be bodyguards or family guests or whatever, while in this world, no one will hire you at all, and if you are misbehaved, you will be killed if you are encountered by a stronger one.

The group of pirates saw Omi and Wang Xing Liu Yue appear, they were all shocked.

How could this be, they had obviously gotten word that there were no Zongshi experts guarding the merchant ship, so why would three Zongshi appear? Moreover, it seemed to be a very strong Zongshi realm, what was going on.

"If you don't stop helping, don't blame me for being rude." Omi warned.

The sea islands stopped and looked at Omi.

The leader of that early Zongshi pirate, who had a face with thieving eyebrows, arched his hands at Omi, "This senior, how do I address you."

"Hmph, it's none of your damn business how I address you, do I need to tell you?" Omi snorted, naturally not having a good feeling towards the pirate, and his tone was naturally bad.

The pirate was very upset with Omi's tone, and said, "Senior, I am Jin San Monkey, a member of the Haiyun Bend, and today I was ordered to come out to plunder, so I hope that senior will be more accommodating and not block our brothers' way to fortune. I'm not hiding anything from Senior, our Haiyun Bend, is also one of the top fifteen overseas powers in the Jianghu world, and the head of our Haiyun Bend must be no less powerful than Senior, I hope Senior won't make things difficult for us."

"Yoo-hoo, Haiyun Bend? Never heard of it." Liu Yue said with a sneer.

That early Zongshi realm sea island also snorted, "You guys are haunting this area, and you don't even know about our Sea Cloud Bend."

"What Sea Cloud Bend, it's just a nest of pirates, Omi, what do we do with this group of pirates?" Wang Xing asked.

Omi roughly scanned the group of pirates, there were almost fifty of them, except for this pirate leader of the early Zongshi realm, the rest of them were all Unity realm pirates.

Omi said, "Kill this island leader, the rest of the shrimps and crabs throw them into the sea, Wang Xing, Liu Yue, you two take turns killing this pirate leader."

"Yes." Wang Xing immediately went to the pirate leader to kill, Liu Yue on the side on guard, in case the other side is too strong appear instantly kill Wang Xing risk, Wang Xing and Liu Yue are Zongshi early stage, with that pirate leader, Omi let the two of them take turns to kill him, is to train them, otherwise Omi once shot dead.

Omi said to the remaining pirates, "If you don't want to die, then jump into the sea immediately."

The group of pirates jumped into the sea to survive.

Omi flew to the pirate's large ship not far away.

Since Omi had run into it, the large ship was confiscated.

Omi opened the locked steel hatch on that large ship and discovered at once that there were many items in the cabin, and they were all household items, including all kinds of cloth, tea, porcelain, rice, salt, lard, frozen meat, vegetables, and even live cattle, all kinds of household items, and of course, naturally, there was no shortage of gold, silver, and jewelry and so on. A second to remember to read the book

"Haha, great, the goods on this pirate ship, it's really like a gift in snow for me, it's not from the right place anyway, confiscated, with this cargo, I won't have to worry about food for at least half a year, yay." Omi was very happy, he didn't expect that he, as a strong Ancestral Master Perfectionist, would be happy for a boatload of goods, it seems that Mu was right, no one can do without grains, unless they really cultivate to the point where they don't have to dress, eat, and sleep.

At the moment not far away from that first robbed merchant ship, Wang Xing and that pirate head fiercely fought, Liu Yue while vigilant.

Although this pirate head is thief eyebrows and rats eyes, but the strength is not to be underestimated, Wang Xing long unable to take him down.

"Liu Yue, it's your turn, you come too." Wang Xing shouted.

"Good." Liu Yue rushed up to kill, while Wang Xing retreated.

Omi wasn't worried about them, if the two of them couldn't deal with that pirate head, it would be too useless, of course, mainly because Omi had observed that this pirate head wasn't a very powerful early cleric.

In the pirate ship's cabin, Omi pulled open another hidden inner compartment, and discovered at once that this hidden inner compartment held a group of people, both men and women, a total of thirty people, around ten men and twenty women.

"You are?" Omi was busy asking.

"Senior, help." The group of people panicked and knelt down to Omi.

"Alright, get up and talk."

"Senior, we are all coastal residents, pirates entered our village and burned and looted, all the goods on this ship were taken from our village, our village is not big, only a few dozen people, most of them were killed, only we are left, they were all arrested." One of the women cried out.

Omi said, "Arrest you for what?"

"Senior, that group of pirates captured us and must have gone to

They pirate nests do hard labor, and we have women here who are younger and more beautiful, and they take us just for their pleasure." A man said.

"This group of pirates are really lawless." Omi really hated that he had just let those crab soldiers go.

Don Omi said, "Alright, you're free now."

"But our home, it's gone." A woman cried.

"We'll talk about this later, you guys go out first."

Omi sent all the people to the deck, and they saw at once that on another merchant ship, the pirate leader was fighting with someone.

"Senior, it's that pirate leader, he's incredibly cruel, please senior avenge our villagers."

Omi nodded his head and flew to that merchant ship.

"Liu Yue, Wang Xing, why haven't you killed this bastard yet."

"Brother Chen, this son of a bitch is a bit strong."

"Alright, I'll do it." In the blink of an eye, Omi rushed up and hoisted that pirate leader up.

That pirate leader gritted his teeth and said, "Son of a bitch, our big boss of Haiyun Bend won't let you go."

"Clack." Omi snapped his neck, then split him in half with a sword, leaving his corpse to float into the sea and become food for the fish.

The rescued people on this merchant ship knelt down and kowtowed in gratitude.

Omi said to them, "Remember, we are from the Endless Gate, from now on, as long as this sea is with us, no pirate will be able to invade the passing merchant ships. You guys can go to our Endless Gate to rest your feet if you pass through this sea in the future, our Endless Gate is just a few dozen kilometers ahead of this."

"Thank you, thank you Endless Gate's seniors."

Omi said to Uranus Liu Yue, "Let's take the pirate's ship back."

"Hehe, Omi, there should be quite a bit of cargo on the pirate's ship."

"Huh, I can still see many of them. Haha, this is good, we can add some more manpower to our Endless Gate, otherwise we have to do our own laundry and cooking for household chores every day, how can we afford it." Wang Xing said.

Omi said, "Those people are residents of a certain coast, we can't force them to go to our Endless Gate."

Omi flew onto the deck, and the thirty or so residents were busy kneeling and kowtowing in thanks.

Omi said, "You are saved, now I give you two choices, first, I'll ask that merchant ship across the street to do you a favor and send you back to your village; second, come with us, our Endless Gate is on an island not far away, don't worry, we won't be bad people, we are a newly established clan, and we are also in need of manpower."

"Senior, our village is gone, and it's a long way to go back this time, so I'd better go with you."

"Yes, senior, our village has been burned down and my wife and children have been burned alive, I don't have the courage to go back, so you should take us with you."

"Good, since all of you are willing to come with me, I will take you back to the Endless Men, we will send someone to teach you some profound martial arts, and you will also be a disciple of the Endless Men in the future."

"Thank you, Senior."

Liu Yue said, "His name is Wind Lightning, also known as Omi, he is the first Head of the Endless Gate, you can call him Head Master."

"Yes, thank you palm master."

1228

Omi took the group of villagers and drove the pirate's large ship for a few dozen kilometers, then returned to the Endless Gate.

On the island of Endless Gate, everyone saw Omi returning in his big ship and gathered around curiously.

Omi told everyone what had happened and then said, "They will also be part of our Endless Gate from now on, with the status of Endless Gate disciples, and will also learn the Endless Gate's opening martial art, Endless. Now, let's welcome them to join our Endless Gate."

"Pah-pah." Everyone immediately clapped their hands in welcome.

Omi added, "Today, we'll all help them, build houses, and let them settle down as soon as possible."

"Good."

Just like that, the Endless Gate welcomed its first batch of people, and from the initial twenty people, it had grown to over fifty people.

Omi believed that in a few more years, it would definitely grow to even more people.

Omi called his teacher's wife, Muyoung, Flower Fairy, and his little sister Qin Ren, Xiao Meng, and all his brothers and friends to a meeting.

"Omi, what's the meeting for, everyone's here." Yang Yijian said.

Omi said, "Everyone, it's a great pleasure to welcome the first group of people to our Endless Gate today, even though they aren't any martial arts practitioners. Now I have something to tell you all." The first website m.kanshu8.net

"You said."

"Before, I didn't think that there are still so many pirates overseas, and this part of our sea belongs to a pirate gang called Sea Cloud Bend that occupies it. I now have an idea, let's go to Haiyun Bend and end this pirate nest, then, we screen and expand, even if they are pirates, not all of them are evil, we will admit some pirates who are interested in reforming their evil ways to the Endless Gate, in this way, our Endless Gate can grow further. Moreover, Haiyun Bend definitely has quite a few possessions that can also be used as our Endless Gate's property. What do you all think?"

Qin Ren worriedly said, "Can you really trust the character of those pirates?"

"Pirates aren't necessarily all bad people, some people go as pirates, perhaps they are forced to do so, but of course, we will never be soft on the really evil ones."

Wang Xing smiled, "I think Omi's proposal is very good, after we have annexed the Haiyun Bend, we can continue to annex various other pirate forces of various sizes around, and in the end, our Endless Gate will grow stronger and stronger."

Omi looked to Mu, Mu thought about it and nodded, "I agree with Omi, even though they are pirates, they may be bad if they are in a pirate nest, but if they are in a decent house, they will become decent too, as long as they are not really evil villains, they can expand to our Endless Gate. Okay, let's do that, but I have a suggestion."

"You say."

"We'll go and annex the Sea Cloud Bend, kill only one of the strongest pirate leaders, and the rest of the leaders, make them submit to us, and then kill them again if they don't."

"Can do."

"Then, let's set out now, now, we might even be able to catch a few pirates on that sea before and have them lead the way to the Sea Cloud Bend."

"Good."

Omi immediately brought everyone with him and set off aboard the large ship.

A dozen kilometers away, he caught the pirates who had forced them to jump into the sea before, and then coerced them to lead the way straight to the Sea Cloud Bend.

"Who are the strongest people in Haiyun Bend?" Omi pressed the pirate who had arrested him.

"We, Sea Cloud Bend, have a big

Pawn, second pawn, third pawn, fourth pawn, fifth pawn, sixth pawn, seventy-eight or ninety pawn, a total of ten strong pawns."

"How strong are they all?"

"The head of our Haiyun Bend is a strong man at the complete level of the clan, and the second head all the way up to the tenth head are all at the late stage of the clan."

"I go, a pirate nest only, how come it's so strong." Omi was shocked, it seems, it really isn't a nest of rabble, it's a bit of a scale, the big bosses are already at the Master Perfection level."

The captured pirate said, "Our Haiyun Bend, with a total population of 10,000 people already, is the top 15 overseas power in the rivers and lakes, we've been inherited for over seventy years."

"Ah, that long."

"Yes, the head of our Sea Cloud Bend is now a hundred and forty years old, he went out to sea to fight when he was young, and only gradually had the power he has today for decades, even on the continent, ordinary sects wouldn't dare to mess with our Sea Cloud Bend too much. Once we provoke our Sea Cloud Bend, we'll also send people to kill those sects' disciples, and everyone will be damaged, that's those sects, they don't dare to easily provoke powerful overseas powers."

"Hehe, but unfortunately, the Sea Cloud Bend is destined to disappear today."

"Senior, do you think that just you guys are really enough to exterminate our Sea Cloud Bend? Don't forget, our big boss, who is a Zongshi completion level strong man, he was already a Zongshi completion decades ago, there are nine other bosses of late Zongshi realm, and then there are dozens of leaders of mid and early Zongshi realm underneath."

Omi snorted, "What are you a small pirate worrying about us for, I alone am enough to exterminate all of you pirates above the Zongshi realm, remember, the power is only based on the strongest, not the number. Moreover, these two beside me, both of them are Ancestral Perfection, and they're more than enough to exterminate Sea Cloud Bend."

"Ah."

"Cut the crap, what's your Grand Master's name?"

"Our Grand Master's name is Jiang Laoblood."

"Good, Old Blood Jiang, it's time to let his old blood go."

Haiyun Bend was not far away, about eighty kilometers away on a secluded island, the fog was rather foggy, pirates liked secluded places.

Omi drove a large boat directly close to the dock, because the other side thought that this was their own people.

After Omi docked the boat, he immediately flew up into the air and overlooked the entire island, then shouted, "Jiang Old Blood, come out."

"Hahaha, hahaha." In the next second, an old man's laughter came from a corner, and then a shadow rushed into the air and stood in the air opposite Omi.

Omi looked at the old man in front of him, he was indeed very old and probably didn't have many years left to live.

"You're the grand master of Haiyun Bend, Jiang Laoblood, right."

"Kid, who are you? Why did you come to my Bowen? What's your business, it looks like you didn't come alone." Jiang Old Blood swept his eyes at a group of people a few hundred meters behind Omi and said.

Omi said, "I am a former disciple of the Divine Dragon School, Wind Lightning, but now that I have been expelled from the sect, I have formed my own sect, called the Endless Sect, and my temporary address is on an archipelago about seventy to eighty miles away from the Sea Cloud Bend. The first reason I came here today is to meet the legendary master of Cloud Bend, and the second is to select those pirates who are willing to change their ways and join our sect. I've made my intentions clear, if you have anything else to say, then let's do it. You should know that if I want to convert some of the pirates, I must do something that has a deterrent effect."

"Something of a deterrent, you mean to kill me." The old man laughed.

At this moment, the change in the sky had alarmed the entire island, and the pirates on the ground were looking up at the sky.

Omi nodded, "Yes, the bird thief captures the king first, I'm sorry, I have no choice but to not take advantage of you, I'll let you have ten strokes."

That old man laughed loudly and didn't seem to feel very angry.

Jiang Laoblood said, "Wind Lightning, truly worthy of being the world's number one youngest who sensationalized the righteous alliance back then, magnanimous and genius enough."

"Uh, you've actually heard of me as well."

"I have also heard of the mighty reputation of the world's number one youngster back then, I never expected to be able to meet you in person when my life span is dying. To tell you the truth, more than thirty years ago, I had a granddaughter who was a fervent admirer of yours, but it's a pity that she has been killed now, otherwise she would have been very happy if she could have met you." A hint of unspeakable pain appeared in Jiang Lao-blood's eyes.

Omi was a bit depressed, he thought that this Jiang Oldblood would be furious and then he would be able to kill someone openly, but the situation was not what he thought, not only had this Jiang Oldblood heard of Omi's reputation, his granddaughter was also one of Omi's fans back then, which was a bit hard to do.

"Alright, Jiang Old Blood, don't play the sentimental card with me, I don't suffer from your set, my purpose of coming here today is very clear, it's to exterminate Hai Yun Bend and annex some of the pirates who sincerely choose to change their ways, not to mention your granddaughter, even if you're one of my fans, it's useless." Omi said as soon as he drew his sword.

"Hahaha, Wind Lightning, you've come at the right time, I'm worried that after my death, these brothers of my Haiyun Bend will break up sooner or later without their powerful family members, you're taking over now, it's just what I want."

"What do you mean." Remember the URL .kanshu8.net

"Wind Lightning, this group of pirates in my Sea Cloud Bend, not everyone wants to be a pirate, it's just for a living, or some choice of necessity. If there is a famous sect that is willing to take them in and reform them, not to mention them, even I would be happy for them. Wind Lightning, I'm very optimistic about you, I think you have great potential, and now that your self-built sect is willing to take in my brothers from Haiyun Bend, I, Jiang Old Blood, will be able to rest in peace with both hands, when I die someday."

"Ugh."

"Wind Lightning, come on, let me see if you haven't let me down with your strength." The old man also drew his sword.

Omi said, "I said I'll let you do ten moves, it still counts."

"No need, do it." After saying that, the old man killed with a sword.

Omi greeted it, and with a clang, he directly picked off Jiang Lao-blood's sword.

"Ah." Jiang Laoblood's face changed greatly, never expecting that he was not even a match for Omi's move.

Many many pirates on the ground at this moment were all stunned, this Wind Lightning was too strong.

Many of the pirates on the ground were also people from the continent, most of them had heard of the name of the 'World's Number One Youngest', but most of them had never seen the real person, today they saw the World's Number One Youngest, who was a sensation of the Righteous Alliance back then, and defeated the most mysterious big boss of their Haiyun Bend with a single move, everyone was shocked. The number one youngster in the world really lived up to his reputation.

Jiang Lao-blood threw his broken sword and said, "Wind Lightning, no, the number one youngest under the heavens, I'm convinced."

Jiang

Old Blood arched his hands and worshipped, "I pay my respects to the Head Master."

"What do you mean?"

"Wind Lightning, I'm already old, and my big day is just a few years away, today I willingly worship your sect, so as to clear my identity as a pirate until my death, I also hope that Young Master Wind will be willing to accept me. All the brothers of my Haiyun Bend, Young Master Feng is willing to accept as many as you want."

Omi did not expect that accepting Haiyun Bend would be so simple.

Omi said, "First of all, I don't want to be a pirate, I will never want some pirates with blood on their hands in Haiyun Bend."

"Good, I'm willing to help you screen, never let any blood-stained pirates into the Endless Gate, although the pirates of Haiyun Bend have killed people, but it's only a few, most of them just rob some money and goods, not all of them are evil, here, I have a request."

"Say."

"Those who are unqualified, can you let them live, let them scatter, or, let them atone for their sins, I think, even the pirates who have killed people, if they have the chance, they would like to atone for their sins."

Omi hesitated and said, "It's fine to let them live, but they must abolish their martial skills and then merge into the Endless Gate and become the Endless Gate's tormentors to atone for their sins."

"Fine, then I'll thank the Head Master for them."

Omi asked, "Old Blood Jiang, you're not playing some kind of conspiracy trick, are you?"

"Oh, Young Master Wind, if you only had a few years left to live, what would you choose to do?"

"Uh." Omi hadn't thought about it.

"So, it is my long-held wish that people will die and their words will be good, but I just hope that before I die, I can do something meaningful to change them from their evil ways."

"Good, then I'll believe you for once."

Omi and the others returned to the ship, and although Jiang Oldblood invited Omi to have tea at Haiyun Bend, Omi declined.

Yan Xinyi said, "Feng'er, is this really good?"

"Sifu, I didn't expect it to be like this ah, I can see that Jiang Lao-blood really wants his people to change their ways, besides, with my reputation back then and my current strength, he is very optimistic about my future, if his people follow me, it will definitely be a good landing, Jiang Lao-blood is even more hopeful than I am.”

“Feng’er, you let him screen those pirates who are not tainted with blood, he will definitely cheat, he will definitely screen in those he thinks are more talented or more likeable, not all of them may really be completely untainted with blood.”

“Sensei, since we plan to expand our disciples from the pirates, that’s all we can do, after we merge into the Endless Gate in the future, we’ll observe again, and once we find the unqualified ones, we’ll cull them out. And the pirates that are stained with blood, abolish their martial arts, when our Endless Gate’s suffering until death, it can be considered atonement, otherwise, what else can we do, we’re not God, really go sentence those people to death ah.”

“Well, good.”

Mu also nodded, “I very much agree with the Head Master’s approach, in this way, our Endless Gate will expand to ten thousand people at once, there will be more than half of them just for the suffering laborers, and then pick some outstanding talents from them to focus on cultivating. Although there are definitely some that aren’t completely good people, we have to know that even famous sects still have bad people, such as Song Dingtian, so we’ll just have to turn a blind eye, as long as we don’t endanger the sect’s interests, it’s fine.”

1230

A day later, Haiyun Bend had sifted through six thousand pirates, which was six thousand pirates that were completely untainted with any blood.

The remaining 4,000 or so were more or less bloodstained, or had done bad things like defiling the women of the people.

Omi looked at the list and wondered if there were any false ones in Jiang Lao-blood’s list, but even if they were false, the number should be small, and they would be gradually checked later.

After that, Omi and the others nullified the martial skills of those 4,000 pirates, making them become the Endless Gate’s hard laborers to atone for their past sins.

There were a total of ten thousand people in Haiyun Bend, and Omi relocated them to the Endless Gate in batches.

It took a month before the ten thousand people were transferred to the Endless Gate, and of course, all the money as well as goods hoarded by Haiyun Bend were also transferred to the Endless Gate.

After a month, Omi looked at the island of tens of thousands of people and smiled slightly, this month was indeed a busy month.

Omi took all of those nine late clansmen in charge of the Sea Cloud Bend as disciples, and then they took pirates with outstanding talent as disciples, and so on, Endless Gate had three generations of disciples.

Omi and his brothers and sisters, as well as that Jiang Old Blood, were the first generation.

Those nine late Ancestor dons of Hai Yun Bend, as well as some other Ancestor powerhouses, were the second generation.

The outstanding pirates who were accepted as disciples by the second generation were the third generation. One second to remember to read the book

Mu walked to Omi's side and said, "Wind Lightning, we have three generations of disciples in one month, after walking the path that others have only been able to develop for decades."

"Let's hope that these pirates, at heart, have really turned from pirates to clan disciples." Omi said.

"So far, this adaptation is very successful, and no one has rejected it, even those nine late Ancestor dons have willingly worshipped you as their master, perhaps, they are tired of being pirates themselves."

"Oh."

Five more months passed in the blink of an eye.

Omi and the others had already spent half a year on this overseas archipelago.

After these months of constant management, the Endless Gate now had more and more the appearance of a sect, a world away from the chaotic appearance of the previous pirate nest.

Of course, all of this was the result of Mu's governance, as well as Omi's older brother, and all the brothers and sisters working together.

"Yay, cheers." One night six months later, Omi gathered all the first generation disciples together to celebrate the success of these six months, and everyone raised their glasses in celebration.

This first generation of disciples was actually Omi, his brothers and sisters, his friends, plus one more Jiang Laoblood, just twenty-one people in total.

Omi said, "Thank you all for your contributions to the Endless Gate over the past half year, after half a year of reorganization and management, our Endless Gate, it can be said, is not far from a clan, and has gradually gotten on track, thank you all." Omi said with a bowl of wine.

"Wind Lightning, the Endless Gate is not just your heart and soul, it is also the heart and soul of all of us, talk about gratitude, we are all first generation disciples of the Endless Gate."

"Fine, cheers again."

Everyone drank to their heart's content once again.

Mu smiled, "Now that our Endless Gate has spread to all corners of the continent, every sect in the continent knows about our existence, this is a very good thing, for that, drink another bowl."

"Cheers."

After everyone finished drying off, Muyoung said, "There's one more thing, I'm sure many of you here don't know about it or have forgotten."

"What is it, Senior Freeza."

Muyoung said, "The Thirty-Yearly Jiang Hu Conference, I don't know if everyone remembers it."

"Ah, the River Congress?"

Everyone suddenly remembered, only those who came from the other world, Omi, didn't know anything.

Xu Mei Qian asked, "Can you tell us what the Thirty Yearly Jiang Hu Conference is?"

Omi smiled, "Let me tell you, this Jiang Hu of ours, I don't know when we used to circulate a convention without a convention, called the Jiang Hu Assembly. During the Jiang Hu Assembly, strong men from each sect would come to showcase their respective sect's strength, so during the Jiang Hu Assembly, there would be many strong men from both the righteous and the devilish sects."

"Strong people from Sect Master Perfection and Great Perfection will also come?"

"Yes, the ancestors of sects that are at the Grand Perfection level will also attend, and if the old vassal of any sect doesn't go this time, then everyone will think that a certain ancestor of that sect is dead. Therefore, those old ancestors who hadn't shown up for decades would definitely show up on this day so that the other sects would know that he wasn't dead and maintain their respective sects' Jiang Hu status. Of course, since they hadn't shown up for decades, it was hard for them to show up, so they would naturally cut and dry with the other sects' ancestors. Since they'd cut and matched, there would naturally be a level of strength, so this was how the ranking came about. This is a rare, Jiang Hu event where both the righteous and demonic sides are involved and all of the Sect Master Great Perfection will also participate, so we, the Jiang Hu people, call this the Jiang Hu Assembly.”

Muyou said, “This Jiang Hu Assembly, no one knows the inheritance for many years, it should be a long, long time ago, a strong master master of the grand completion, closed for decades, couldn’t stand the loneliness, then came out to consult, gradually formed the scale, after that every generation, all came out at about this time, slowly, it became the Jiang Hu Assembly. The address of the Jiang Hu Assembly was at the junction of the two factions, a place called ‘Hero Town’. In the last Jiang Hu Assembly, which was thirty years ago, the one who won the strongest title in the Ancestor Grand Perfection level actual battle, was the number one strongest Demon, Bony Old Man.”

There was still a pang of pride inside of him when Mu spoke of the Bony Old Man, because he was from the Devil Sect, and although he had now joined the Endless Gate, he still admitted that half of him belonged to the Devil Sect.

Mu continued, “Thirty years ago, I hadn’t yet become the head of the Devil Religion, but at that time, my master was the head, and my master liked my daughter so much that he named her the Devil Religion Princess, hehe, well, let’s not talk about it. Thirty years ago, at the Jiang Hu conference, the old man without bones was less than 110 years old. Today, he is not 140 years old, I think, this session of the Jiang Hu Conference, Bony old man will be reappear, just to know his old man, can not regain the prestige of that year. Of course, in addition to Bony Old Man, among the great perfection level strongmen, there is also the strongman of the Yanshan School, Wang Rufang, back then, Wang Rufang also hasn’t reached 110 years old, and now I guess he’s still alive, so perhaps he will still reappear. These two, one is the strongest of the Righteous Alliance and the other is the strongest of the Demon Sect, back then they fought for a long time before the winner was decided by a difference of half a move.”
