The Amazing son in law Chapter 8069

Perhaps at that time, the GDP of the longevity industry will be much larger than that of AI, which is currently experiencing an extreme frenzy.

Perhaps, if he were to take out a few hundred or a few thousand Rejuvenation Pills and use them as computing power or crystals, he could draw all the world's capital into his hands.

You're imposing a crystal embargo, huh? Fine, when you're eighty and about to die, don't come begging for the Rejuvenation Pill, I'll impose an embargo on you too.

You have a great AI model but won't let me use it, huh? Fine, from now on, when you're lying in bed on your deathbed, I won't give you any medicine either.

You're good at playing with AI, I'm good at playing with human lives. Let's see who needs whom more.

However, charlie wade was also very clear in his heart that although he could take out several thousand Rejuvenation Pills, what would happen after he took them out was beyond his control.

It's not just Sara who will discover her goal; more importantly, countless individuals and nations will be eyeing these elixirs, potentially making her the target of fierce competition among numerous forces.

Some countries have just a little more oil, yet they get attacked by predatory nations from the beginning to the end of the year. They might as well use a few thousand rejuvenating pills to attract those Western armies.

So charlie wade temporarily abandoned the idea and said to Steve, "Your point of view has given me a hint. In the future, when I have the chance, I will make those arrogant so-called AI big shots realize what the power of a boomerang is. At that time, I will destroy everything they are proud of and think they are so self-righteous."

Steve smiled obsequiously and said, "Mr. wade, you're absolutely right. We need to put their arrogance to a halt. These stinky AI guys are so annoyed by me now. Take that curly-haired Dalio, for example. He's absolutely despicable. He's just relying on his advanced model, and now that he's going public, he's acting like he's cheated us. He keeps adjusting the IPO price, and when we wanted to subscribe, he kept changing his mind. He has no business integrity or basic ethics. He's only been rich for a few years, and he dares to be so arrogant. We've been rich for generations, and we've never treated investors like dogs."

charlie wade asked curiously, "Is that so?"

Steve nodded, then said sullenly, "Yeah, it's been like this lately. He's been putting on such a show since he went public. This guy's a total drama queen. He even sent people to the Vatican to discuss the humanity of AI, but when he's doing business, he has absolutely no business integrity. Imagine you go to a store, agree on a price, and just as you're about to pay, this guy snatches the item back and says, 'Wait, I'm not selling it now.' A few days later, he tells you, 'Sorry, the value of this item has increased, you'll have to pay more.' Who wouldn't want to mess with him?"
