"I only want money, not life, if you satisfy my desire for property, I can spare you."

"As much as senior wants, as long as you can take it, I will give it to you."The strongest member of the Pill Family said in horror.

"I need 500 Sixth Grade Spirit Stones."

"Ah."The strongest member of the Pill Family almost didn't curse his mother when he heard, 500 pieces was too much to say, there was no family in the entire Four Seas that could take it out.

"Give it or die."

"Senior, you're making it too difficult for me, where does my family have so many spirit stones."

"I only have one sentence, give or take?"Omi's voice chilled.

"Ooh, Senior, I really can't take it out ah, my family, to the death, can only raise 200 sixth grade spirit stones ah."

"Looks like you're not honest, then go to hell."Omi gestured to squeeze him to death.

"Senior wait, I, I remembered, I can still take out thirty more sixth grade spirit stones, woohoo, this is already my limit."

"Take it out to me." One second to remember to read the book

"In, in my family's warehouse, the keys to the warehouse are in each of the four ancestors, and you must have all four keys to open it."

"Never mind the keys, take me to the warehouse."

"This."

"Go or go."

"Yes."

Not long after, arriving at the underground warehouse, it was indeed locked by a restriction, not every family kept their warehouse in the strongest ring.

Omi destroyed the warehouse's ban with a single punch.

"Ah, my family's ban."Omi slapped the old man and knocked him out, then took all the spirit stones and disappeared.

Omi then proceeded to the nearest nearby family and used the same method to rob that family of all their savings.

Just like that, one after another.

Until dawn, Omi didn't stop for a moment.

By the time the sun rose the next day, Omi was left with only one last family left to rob.

The last family was the Song family.

By the way, the last time Omi had come to the Song family for a meal, but now, he was coming to rob the Song family, and at first, he even threatened to be a friend of the Song family.

Omi entered the cultivation room of the strongest person in the Song family.

"Bang." Omi's one move to control the enemy, his peers were simply no match, no doubt about it.

"Senior spare your life." The Song Family's ancestor hadn't even reacted, and his little life was pinched.

"I only seek wealth, not life, if you satisfy my wealth, I can spare your little life."

"Senior, please say, how much do you want."

"Five hundred sixth grade spirit stones."

"What."

"Give or die."

"Senior, I really can't take it, I bought Omi's flying sword some time ago and have spent all my family savings. By the way, I'm very familiar with Omi, you should know Omi, right?" The strongest person in the Song family.

"Don't bullshit me."

"I'm really familiar with Omi, I won't lie to you, the first genius of my family, Song Yaoyao, she's Omi's secret lover, can you let me off the hook for Omi's sake, or else, Omi will definitely not stop."

"You're still pulling a rascal with me, you're really looking for death."

"Ooh, Senior, I really can't take it out ah, I can only take out eight sixth grade spirit stones at most. By the way, if you really want spirit stones, you rob Omi, he definitely has a lot, he auctioned off five magic weapons last time."

&nb

sp; "Yo, didn't you just say that Omi is your who?"

"Senior, I really can't take it out, you can see what you can do, it's really no good, where can you auction off my flying sword."

"Son of a bitch, take out the eight sixth grade spirit stones."

“Yes yes yes.”

Omi took the eight pieces of sixth grade spirit stones and left.

“Hehe, hard work all night, finish up.”

Omi immediately escaped.

Then he changed back to his original appearance while on the street, and then swaggered back to the inn.

This one night’s harvest, Omi himself wasn’t sure, he only knew that he robbed and robbed, in one night, he robbed more than sixty families, and, except for a few families like the Song family, who couldn’t take a few pieces, the vast majority of the remaining families, all had more or less two or three hundred pieces of sixth grade spirit stones in their savings, which was their entire family, decades of savings, and just like that, they were robbed overnight.

Of course, each family didn’t know that the other families were also robbed, and thought that only their family was robbed, so after each family was robbed, they urgently held a meeting of their ancestors.

So, this one night, almost all the families were holding a meeting.

“You really don’t know who it is?”

“I don’t know, don’t spread this out beforehand, if the other families know that our family was robbed, it will definitely affect our family’s reputation and even be ridiculed.”

After each family held an emergency meeting, they chose to keep it quiet, it had to not be a glorious affair.

However, paper couldn’t keep fire after all, and it was estimated that in less than two days, all the families of the Four Seas would find out that not only their families had been robbed, but the entire Four Seas had been robbed ah.

Omi returned to the inn, Mu Qianji hadn’t slept all night, Mu Qianji also wanted to go with Omi, but Omi felt it was unnecessary and got in the way instead.

“Omi, you’re finally back.”

“Hehe.” Omi cracked his lips and smiled proudly.

“How was the harvest?” Mu Qianji asked.

Omi said, “In one night, I’ve ransacked all the families, and I think the entire Four Seas, almost ninety percent of the sixth grade spirit stones, are with me.”

“Ah.” Mu Qianji was shocked.

“However, this is not the time to verify this, so many spirit stones are concentrated in my place, once they are taken out, they will definitely emit a dense aura that will definitely invite people to come, let’s find an empty place and count the loot properly. If it’s possible, even you can upgrade to the Combination Stage together.”

"Wow." Mu Qianji was filled with anticipation.

Omi instructed Tang Huan and Yan Xinyi to stay at the inn and not wander off, and then Omi and Mu Qianji left, arriving at a deep mountain forest.

In a cave, Omi poured out all the spirit stones.

"Boy, so many." A large pile, so many indeed that the air was emitting strong columns of aura, very conspicuous.

"Quickly count them."

"Mmhmm."

The two of them immediately began to count the loot, no, it should be stolen money.

In the end, after counting, there was a total of 15,183 spirit stones.

"My god, how could there be so many, before I was worried that even if I scoured the entire Four Seas, I might not be able to gather four thousand sixth grade spirit stones, but as it turns out, there are more than ten thousand more than we expected." Mu Qianji was horrified.

Omi said, "Don't say you, I'm also amazed, I've looted a total of 63 families, and I roughly calculated when I looted them, and each family's savings were between 210 and 300 sixth grade spirit stones, so this 15,183 sixth grade spirit stones, on average, each family has almost looted 241 sixth grade spirit stones."
