

King of kings

1767

Tang Huan was busy saying, "Brother Omi, quickly open that box and see what kind of treasure it is."

Omi just remembered, that box hadn't been opened yet, and he didn't know what kind of pills were inside, hidden in a rock, so it probably wouldn't be something very bad.

Omi immediately opened that box and saw that there was a pill inside.

"Could it have expired?"

"No, this elixir will never expire, but the effect will slowly fade over time. Seeing that the pill is well protected, the effect should still be good, but, I don't know if this is an upper pill." Omi said.

"It also didn't leave a manual." Tang Huan said.

Everyone was speechless for a while.

"What about this pills now? Eat or not?"

"Of course you eat it, it's not poison anyway, that one, Thousand Jedi, you eat it." Omi handed the pills to Mu Qianji.

Mu Qianji was furious: "Give it to them." Omi gave it to his daughter-in-law to her face, the other girls will definitely want to be better to their daughters-in-law in their hearts, how can Mu Qianji be nice.

"Are you afraid? And who eats it?" Don Omi asked. One Second Remember to Read the Book

Everyone shook their heads.

"Since it's not good to give it to anyone, I'll just eat it myself, besides, I don't know what kind of medicine it is yet, in case there's a risk you guys might not be able to press it."

"That's right, it's best if you eat it yourself." Light Water said.

Omi immediately sent the pills into his mouth.

Then, he waited for the pills to slowly melt in his mouth.

After about ten minutes, Omi felt his whole body heat up.

"Fuck, why is my whole body hot." Omi was depressed.

"Is it that the pills are starting to work?" Tang Huan and the others looked at Omi expectantly.

In fact, there was still the second half of the sentence that Omi hadn't said, not only was his whole body hot, Omi felt that somewhere was also a bit about to brace up, if Omi hadn't suppressed it, it would have made a fool of himself.

"Ah." Omi shouted.

"Omi, don't scare me." Mu Qianji said with a nervous face.

Omi said, "You all go out for a while."

"Why do we have to go out?" A few people, instead of going out, came up even closer.

Omi smelled their unique feminine scent in his nose, and couldn't control himself, bracing himself somewhere.

"Ah." Tang Huan was the first to notice, and turned around with a sudden blush.

"Ah." The rest of the people also immediately noticed and turned their faces, except for Mu Qianji.

Mu Qianji was a little embarrassed, "How did this happen? What's this potion."

"I don't know, so far, I only feel hot all over my body, a wave that's going to take all of you, all of you, you have to get out."

Tang Huan Lu Yuxi several straight stomped their feet, not expecting it to be this kind of pills.

Mu Qianji said, "All of you go outside for a moment."

"Oh." A few girls looked at each other with ambiguous eyes and hurriedly left, leaving only Omi and Mu Qianji.

Omi immediately couldn't take it anymore and pounced on Mu Qianji.

"Omi."

"Don't say anything, I wouldn't be like this if I could control myself, this pills, heck it's an aphrodisiac." Omi cursed in frustration, of course Mu Qianji would not push Omi away.

Outside a wall, Tang Huan, Lu Yuxi, Yan Xingyi, and Light Water were four women, their faces red, and their ears were constantly filled with discordant sounds.

After almost several hours, they were all impatient with the wait and were about to collapse.

"Alright, you can all come in now." Finally came Omi's voice.

"Hey guys, you're playing." Tang Huan walked in and said.

Mu Qianji turned around with a blushing face, it was so embarrassing.

Omi said, "I've now discovered that this pill, maybe it's not an aphrodisiac, there are other uses, for example, to assist in stepping into the Divide stage or something like that, but since I haven't reached that level yet, it's a waste to give it to me, it's going to be best for those who are about to step into the Divide stage."

"What a pity."

"Alright, let's go."

Omi and the others walked out of Lu Gong Gong's cave.

"Where are we going now, the treasure that will be born in half a year, is it the Nine Daoist Demons' spirit stone cave residence?"

"I don't know, maybe, maybe not, I don't think it's the most likely." Omi shook his head and said.

"The ocean is vast, how are we going to find the Nine Daoist Demons' spirit stone cave?"

Everyone was confused.

Omi closed his eyes and said, "To find the spirit stone cave, it's hard to rely on a blind cat to find a dead mouse, but I think I'll have to rely on my intuition."

"Then which way does your intuition go?"

Don Omi said, "I think it's towards, this way."

"Are you sure?"

"Only based on my first instinct," Don Omi said.

Everyone didn't pay attention and could only go in the direction of Omi's first instinct.

After about two days and two nights of traveling through the ocean floor, suddenly, the color of the ocean floor began to turn black.

"How did the seawater turn black?"

Omi said, "It's the spirits of the dead, the spirits of the dead here, just like the spirits of the dead we had on Ironclad Island, are converging here."

Mu Qianji was busy asking, "No, the spirits on Iron Clothes Island were collected by them using special spirit cards, but the spirits here, since they're also black, how are they collected? Is it possible to store the undead here?"

Omi scanned the entire seabed.

In fact, what Omi didn't know was that almost no one came to this place anymore, and anyone who came here would only die.

And Omi had the protection of immortal energy, that's why he came here like a nobody.

Omi observed the terrain on the bottom of the sea and said, "This should be the deepest part of the Sea of Death, the concentration of undead here is far greater than that great hall in the captivity of Ironclad Island, so if anyone else came here, they would definitely die, even if they were a strong person at the tribulation stage."

"So, no one has ever come here before."

"Yes, the Nine Dao Demon King's treasure must be hidden in a place where no one has ever dared to come. So, my intuition should be right."

"Then what now? How do you go?"

"Of course we continue to go deeper."

Omi and the others immediately continued to go deeper and deeper, the deeper they went, the darker the color of the seawater became, and in the end, it was indescribably black.

Fortunately, Omi had Immortal Qi, and everything black within a few meters of him didn't dare to approach.

However, as such, the visual range of Omi's and his group's eyes was only a few meters, and it was hard to even distinguish the direction, let alone find something.

"Wow." Just at this moment, a loud noise came from the front.

"What is it?" Omi was startled, the voice was too palpable.

"I thought no one was here at all?"

"Just because no one is coming doesn't mean no creatures survive, maybe there are powerful creatures here that aren't afraid of the undead."

"Ah."
