

King of kings

1910

Of course, some people were curious because they were curious, but many more were guessing that there was an abnormality in the well and that some kind of treasure was about to be born.

In just two days, there were countless people who came here.

But Omi didn't leave, Omi wasn't afraid of being known, not even if Omi walked out with the mirror in public, because no one in the Six Seas could threaten Omi, let alone snatch the mirror from Omi's hands.

At this moment, in the Seven Seas, the Extreme South Continent, the Nuo Clan.

"Report on the ancestor."

"What is it."

"Something big."The patriarch of the Nuo Clan said with a serious look.

"Uh, what's the big event?"

"Old Ancestor, about the Six Seas, there is a magical well that can irradiate another person's appearance, the locals say that it was a past life, this, you know."

"Nonsense, I also went to explore it back then, and it turned out to be nothing more than an ordinary well, just why it was able to irradiate a different person, I don't know the reason."

"Old Ancestor, just got the news, that well, suddenly failed, two mornings ago, everyone irradiating that well, no longer reflecting the faces of strangers, irradiating what kind of people." Remember the URL .kanshu8.net

"What's going on?"Nor Elephant Nose's brow furrowed, his intuition telling him that there was something strange, if the well had been like that, there would have been no problem, but if it suddenly failed, there must be something wrong.It most likely signaled that some treasure was about to be born.

"Old Ancestor, no one knows what's going on."

"Go, immediately gather all the Half Immortals of the family at the stage of Tribulation and follow me down to the Six Seas.Be sure to thoroughly figure out the reason before the other families, and leave no possibility untouched."

"Yes."

Similarly, at this moment in the Pu Clan.

"Old Ancestor, quickly, something big is happening."

The Pu Clan's patriarch reported immediately after learning the news from the people below.

Since the various families of the Extreme South Continent were all in the Seven Seas, the timing of the information they received was similar.

In the Fu Clan and the Yong Clan, all of them had people reporting to their ancestors, Fu Ruthless and Yong Xiong.

They had likewise sensed a hint of information about the heavy treasure and gathered their teams as quickly as possible to head to the Six Heavy Sea.

As for the Tang Chi Gate, instead, because it had just been established, the intelligence information from all sides was still incomplete, and no one even knew about it.

Omi was studying the mirror, but, suddenly, it felt as if there was little aura in the air, as if it was suffocating.

With a sweep of Omi's spiritual sense, he instantly knew why, but it turned out that the entire imperial city was intercepted by a protective shield.

Omi snorted, "It seems that those families of the Seven Seas have gotten the news and have come down to look for treasures."

Omi snorted coldly.

If it was before, Omi might have really had to run away, Omi had defeated Fu Wu Ruthless, but the two strongest ones, Nuo Elephant Nose and Pusara, Omi was still unable to beat them, and if they joined forces, Omi was even less of a match, and if Omi offended them, Tang Ji Gate might have to perish.

But that was before, and now it was no longer the same.

Omi had obtained 500 breaths from Bimon, and Bimon had said that a casual breath could kill the Eighth Order of Tribulation, and the Eighth Order of Tribulation referred to here was not an ordinary Eighth Order of Tribulation, but the Eighth Order of Tribulation that possessed pseudo-immortal weapons, as well as the Eighth Order of Tribulation of the Seven Seas Sacred Beast Race.

Of course, the prerequisite was that Omi had to hit it, just like the last time he killed Yidingkang.

<

br /> However, the last time Omi and Little Fire teamed up to kill Idincon, it was very difficult, that's because last time Omi didn't have Black Water Pearl protection and only had two breaths of air. But now, Omi is protected by the Black Water Pearl and has 500 breaths of energy, so it's easy to kill them.

After Omi put away the mirror, he immediately rushed out.

Omi discovered that the person who surrounded the imperial court was the ancestor of the Yong Clan of the Extreme South Continent, Yong Xiong.

Yong Xiong was the first to get the news, so Yong Xiong was the first to lead the family's half-immortals and arrived here, blockading the entire imperial city inside and outside at once, not allowing anyone to go out.

"Quickly, we must find out the reason for that former well abnormality before the other families arrive, and if there is a treasure, we must obtain it before they arrive." In the sky, the Yong Clan Ancestor ordered their family's half-immortal.

The Yong Clan's ancestor was a bit emotional, he didn't expect that their Yong Clan would be the first to come down, if there was really a treasure for him to obtain, then their Yong Clan would have to turn over a new leaf and rise.

Since Yi Dingkang had died, Omi had defeated him again, so Yong Xiong was currently the lowest ranked and weakest in the Extreme South Continent of the Seven Seas.

Yong Xiong prayed inwardly, "I hope the heavens, let me obtain a supreme treasure this time, so that my strength will be greatly enhanced, and then, the first thing I'll do is to go and defeat Omi and blow up his Tang Ji Gate, sweeping away the face I lost on my birthday before. Then, I'll go and blow up Nuo Elephant Nose and make him kneel down and lick my shoes."

Just as Yong Xiong was fantasizing about getting some supreme treasure and blowing up Omi and Novus Elephant Nose, a voice suddenly came from his ear, "Hey."

Yong Xiong came back to his senses, and sometime later, Omi appeared beside him.

"Ah, Tang, Omi, you, when did you arrive, how did you get the news so quickly." Yong Xiong was depressed, he thought that Omi had also gotten news to come down from the Seven Heavy Sea.

Omi smiled, "Yongxiong, you're pretty fast, you're the first one to arrive, right?"

"Alright, Omi, I've already checked the place, there's nothing unusual, I'm just about to call it quits and go back, do you want to go back together? I want to buy you a drink." Yong Xiong said, attempting to trick Omi and then make Omi think that there really wasn't anything.

Omi snorted, "Yong Xiong, don't be ridiculous, you think I just came down from the Seven Seas."

"Don't you?"

Omi smiled, "I've been here for five or six days."

"Ah, so, that well?"

"Yong Xiong, knowing too much won't do you any good, forget about it, go back and say there's nothing unusual here." Omi smiled mysteriously, looking at Omi's smug look, I knew that surely Omi had something to gain.

Yong Xiong was busy saying, "Omi, seeing is believing."

With a glare, Omi aimed at Yong Xiong's bottom and said, "I've seen your bottom, is it that I have a share in your bottom, then can I cut it off ah."

"You." Yong Xiong's old face was furious, he actually made fun of his old brother.

"Omi, I'm really not joking with you, the other three families, will soon get the news, and then, if I speak out about you, they will definitely come looking for you, so why don't the two of us work together now. In the future, our two families can also have a long-term alliance, what do you think?" Yong Xiong said.

Omi said with a roll of his eyes, "Just you?Also worthy?f*ck, that's the worst I've ever been hacked."

"You."

"Alright, I'm not going to bullshit with you, I'm leaving first, my Tang Ji Gate branch just held the Young Immortal Cultivator Competition, I still have to go see the results."

After saying that, Omi flew away, not worrying in the slightest about whether or not Yong Xiong would tell the other three families.