

King of kings

Chapter 1911

Omi quickly returned to the First Division of Tang Chi Gate.

It had been so many days, and the Young Cultivator Competition had ended, and ended for several days.

"Gate Master, you're finally back." When the First Division Minister saw Omi return, he flew up in a panic and seemed a bit anxious.

"Is the competition over?" Omi asked.

"Gate Master, it's been two days since it ended, didn't you agree that the top ten of the competition would be brought to the headquarters by you personally? I haven't seen your people for two days, and everyone thought you left first. This is the first tournament of the nine divisions, you can't go back on your word."

"Alright, I just had something to go out and get busy, bring those top ten, bring them to the main hall and I'll meet them personally."

"Yes."

Not long after Omi made his way to the main hall, ten young men and women walked into the main hall.

The looks on the faces of these ten young men and women were very proud and excited.

"Paying homage to the Gate Master." The ten of them immediately knelt down.

Omi said, "Everyone, get up." One Second Remember to Read the Book

"Thank you, Gatekeeper."

The minister of the first part also walked in.

To Omi, he said, "Gate Master, let me introduce these ten genius youths."

"Good."

"This Youth Immortal Cultivator Competition we're competing against is mainly based on the categories of genius, potential, and comprehension, and in the end, we'll combine the top ten. For this Young Immortalist Competition, we have a total score of 150 points based on the total score. The first ranked one, named Wang Xuewei, with a total score of 145 points, won the first place in the immortal cultivation competition with a nearly perfect score."

Omi said, "Who's name is Wang Xuewei, step forward."

Among the ten young men and women, one of them, a stunning woman in a purple dress, took a step forward and said, "Back to the Gate Master, junior is Wang Xuewei."

Omi gazed at this Wang Xuewei, before Omi went to the former Well, the competition hadn't ended yet, this Wang Xuewei was famous, and it wasn't the first time Omi had seen her. Of course, Omi noticed Wang Xuewei when he returned from the Sea of Death, not so much for her talent, but for her appearance. With such an appearance, it was easy to attract the attention of any man.

"Ranking second, is Lu Ningeva, also ranked second with a total score of 116."

Omi casually looked at Lu Ningeva, then returned his eyes back to Wang Xuewei.

"In third place is, Hu Can also, ranked third with 114 points."

Hu also happened to be female, and happened to be standing next to Wang Xuewei, who, under Wang Xuewei's beauty, was instantly reduced to a passerby.

Just like that, all ten geniuses were introduced.

Omi said, "The ten of you will be following me tomorrow, heading to the Seven Seas Tang Ji Gate headquarters together. I hope you will continue to work hard."

"Thank you, Gate Master."

"The first place stays, the rest go out." Omi said.

Omi looked at the First Division Minister standing to the side and said, "You also go out and close the door."

"Ah!" The First Division's Minister was a bit dumbfounded, this Wang Xue Wei, had been completely on fire in the Six Seas these past few days, not only because of her talent, but also because of her beauty.

I never thought that Omi would be so blatant.

"Yes, Gate Master." The First Division's minister immediately went out and closed the door.

The other nine geniuses who had gone out before were now discussing outside the main hall.

"Why did the Gate Master leave Xuewei alone inside ah?"

"It's not obvious, Wang Xuewei is so pretty, the door master is also young and strong, he must have some interest in Wang Xuewei."

"Wang Xuewei's life is really good, everyone starts from the same place, but the pretty ones, and the average ones, embrace

There's a completely different future." That ordinary looking Hu could also say sourly.

The rest of the girls also felt the same way.

The other few guys, however, were a bit depressed, Wang Xuewei was so pretty, they guys must be interesting too. But unfortunately, now that the Gate Master was also interesting, they had wanted to chase after Wang Xuewei in the future, but now it seemed like they were delusional. They were simply looking for death if they were to steal a woman from the Gate Master.

In the main hall, Wang Xuewei's heart was beating a bit fast, and Omi didn't say anything right away, but sized up Wang Xuewei.

Wang Xuewei nervously looked up at Omi a few times.

Omi's looks, naturally, needless to say, and being a door master, Wang Xuewei never dared to delude herself. But if there was really such a chance, she would definitely wake up laughing in her dreams.

Only after a long time did Omi ask, "I feel that I am destined to be with you, what do you think?"

"Ah." Wang Xue Wei blushed all over.

"Oh, there's no need to be so tense, just relax."

"Yes, Gate Master."

"Wang Xuewei, your talent is very good, I've thought about taking on a few heirs before, I think you're very suitable to be my personal disciple."

"Ah, a personal disciple." Wang Xue Wei was greatly surprised.

"Right."

"Oh." Wang Xuewei's face instantly flashed with a trace of loss.

Omi's eyebrows furrowed as he asked, "What, don't want to be my personal disciple?"

"No."

"Then why do you feel lost on your face."

"No, no." Wang Xuewei was busy blushing and lowered her head.

Omi sized up Wang Xuewei, with a pretty face and a positive figure.

"Are you thinking that I'm leaving you alone to do something."

"I, I don't dare to be deluded, Gate Master forgive me."

"How old are you?" Omi asked.

"Back to Gate Master, Xuewei is 21 this year."

"Cultivating to the combined stage at 21, a genius indeed, didn't you refine any spirit stones or something before?"

"Back to senior, refined."

"What I mean is, you've cultivated to today's realm, it shouldn't be someone else helping you refine spirit stones to upgrade up, right?"

"Ah." Wang Xue Wei looked a little confused.

"If you have any questions, just say so."

"Gate Master, could, could someone else help another person refine spirit stones?" Wang Xuewei actually didn't know about such things.

"Hehe, of course you can, reaching the Half Immortal, that is, the Tribulation Stage, you can help others refine spirit stones, thus breaking through the realm quickly. The prerequisite is that there should be enough spirit stones, but also a Half Immortal must be willing to expend himself to help."

Wang Xuewei said, "I don't have either of those conditions. I come from a small immortal cultivation family in the Six Seas, and the strongest part of my family is only at the Divide Stage."

"Understood, no wonder you can get such a high score, you are indeed a genius. Alright, my test on you is over, you passed my test, you go back and consider whether or not you are willing to be my personal disciple."

"I'm willing." Wang Xuewei immediately agreed.

"Are you sure?"

"Yes, I beg the door master to accept me as a disciple, I will definitely not lose face for my master."

"Hahaha, good, then, from today onwards, you are my personal disciple."

"Thank you, Gate Master."

"You go out first, later I will have the First Minister announce this matter, to the world, so that everyone will know that the first place winner of the Youth Cultivation Competition, Wang Xuewei, has been accepted by me, Omi, as my personal disciple, so that I can also inspire more promising youths."
