

King of kings

1926

Omi thought about it for a night, and finally figured it out, maybe it wasn't necessarily a wrong idea in his previous life, anyway, give it to someone else, give it to yourself, why refuse it just to be embarrassed, Xiaobai's beauty was seen by everyone, even the half-immortal race wanted it. As for Xiaobai being a dragon, what does it matter, people are immortal, who cares what race.

Omi thought it through and smiled hehehe.

The next day, Xiaobai came again.

"Brother Omi, I've found some information for you."

"What kind of information?"

"About your opponent ah."

"Uh."

"Only when you know your opponent can you have confidence in victory. There are a total of nine races of holy beasts, plus one half-immortal human, plus you, of course, that's eleven if you come to participate in my recruitment contest."

"Oh."

"These people who came to participate in my wooing contest, the one from the Half Immortal race is the most powerful, his name is Xubi Shake, of course, the patriarch said that there is a possibility that the prince of the Half Immortal race, will also come. If the prince of the Half Immortal Clan will also come, then I might be one hundred percent his."

"Why?" One second to remember to read the book

"Because no one of any race would dare to take anything from a half-immortal prince, including women."

"So tugged?"

"Well, the Half Immortal Clan is the most powerful race, and no other race dares to offend. Hopefully, the prince of the Half Immortal Clan won't come."

Omi snorted, "It doesn't matter if he comes, if he dares to steal a woman from me, I'll let him go back across the room."

"Brother Omi, you, what did you say? Me, I'm your woman?" Sebastian asked happily.

"Yes, Sebastian, I've figured it out."

“Brother Omi, that’s great.” Little White burst into Omi’s embrace.

“Uh, Sebastian, don’t get so excited.”

“I’m biased, Brother Tzichen, actually, I’ve always liked you.”

“Alright, alright.” Omi pushed Xiao Bai away, Xiao Bai pursed her lips, Xiao Bai seemed to hate to try something with Omi right away, but Omi still had more or less goose bumps inside.

Omi suddenly asked, “By the way, where’s Purple Pupil? I’ve been here all day, why haven’t I seen Violet Hitomi.”

Sebastian also suddenly remembered, “Yeah, I forgot to inform him.”

“Is he in the Dragon Clan now?”

“Yes, Purple Pupil has been integrated into our dragon clan for the past two years, and he’s worked hard, he’s already gotten a dragon girl.”

“Haha, great, where is he, take me to him.”

“Mmhmm, follow me.”

Xiao Bai took Omi and left the Dragon Valley, Purple Pupil’s status was not yet eligible to live in the Dragon Valley, in a small village around the Dragon Valley, Xiao Bai said, “This is one of our Dragon Clan’s small villages, the population is about three hundred, Purple Pupil chose to come here in the first place, he fell in love with a girl here, and he relied on her dead hard, slowly, that girl accepted Purple Pupil.”

As soon as Omi and Bai entered this small village, many dragons flew out.

“Pay your respects to the princess.”

The dragons paid their respects.

“There’s no need to be polite, may I ask where Violet Pupil is? This is Zitomi’s uncle.”

“Zitomi is in that creek up ahead, with Mei.”

“Okay, you guys go busy.”

Omi and Xiaobai flew to that stream ahead.

However, there was no Purple Hitomi to be seen.

&n

bsp; “This guy, where did he run off to .”

Xiaobai suddenly said, “They must be under the water, look at all the ripples on the surface of the water.”

Omi rushed into the bottom of the water, and so did Xiaobai.

However, the next scene made Omi dumbfounded.

He saw a bearded uncle, holding a smaller dragoness in his arms, performing a blush-inducing scene under the rocks under the water. The one with a bearded face was the purple pupil in human form.

"Ah." Sebastian exclaimed in alarm, but then again, Sebastian couldn't help but be curious enough to keep watching.

"Don't look." Omi pulled Little White out of the water, fortunately just under the water, purple pupil and that dragon girl under the rocks, only saw half of the body, did not see anything critical, otherwise it destroyed the pure Little White.

Rushing out of the bottom of the water, Little White was busy saying, "Brother Omi, what are they doing?"

"Don't ask."

"Are they in that one, Brother Tzu-Chen?" Sebastian didn't understand, but he could guess.

Not long after, Zi Hitomi and that dragon girl rushed out of the water.

Zi Hitomi was a bit angry, but once she saw Omi, she lost her temper.

"Uncle Minister, how, how is it you."

Omi said, "Zi Hitomi, you're mixing well."

"Uncle Minister, why don't you say hello when you're here, just now, how embarrassing."

"Hahaha, God knows what you're doing underwater most of the day."

Zi Pupil was very embarrassed and lowered her head, that dragon girl was busy paying her respects: "Greetings princess."

"No need to be polite, Mei, what were you doing underwater just now?" Sebastian asked.

"Ah." That dragon lady named Mei blushed all over.

Xiaobai was also really, as if she was very un-shy.

Omi said, "Little White, you're a princess, pay attention to your image."

"Oh, I just want to make sure that they are not doing that, have I ever seen them before, a bit curious."

"And say."

"Alright, alright, I won't say anything, you guys can talk, I'll go back first." Sebastian turned around and flew away.

Omi and Purple Hitomi were left, as well as that Amei.

That Amei was also busy saying, "Zitomi, I'm also going back to the village first, you guys talk."

“Good.”

Omi and Zi Hitomi, sat on the edge of the stream.

Omi smiled, “These two years, I was still worried about you, how have you been, will you be bullied, if it seems, our worries are unnecessary well.”

“Uncle Chen, don’t make fun of me, I’ve only recently been accepted by the people here, in the beginning, the dragons here looked down on me, they said I looked like a beast. Even if I’ve evolved into a dragon, I still have the scent of a beast on me.”

“What about now.”

“Then I kept wondering to see how the dragons here live, and now I’m becoming more and more like a dragon, and I’ve finally been accepted by the dragons. Also, Amei, who I’ve always liked, has accepted my quest. Although, Amei is average looking, but, I swear I will love her.” Zi Hitomi said happily.

“Oh, congratulations, you guys were just under the water and had a very forgettable game.”

“Uncle Minister, don’t make fun of me.” Zi Hitomi lowered her head and said.

Omi said, “You and Mei are both dragons, why were you just underwater, you were like humans? Instead of, what, turning into a dragon?” Omi was a bit curious.

“Uncle Minister, nowadays, the entire dragon clan, who usually live in human form, will only reveal themselves when they are fighting or when it is necessary.”
