1960

"Two days." Everyone said helplessly.

"Ah, two days, it's over." Omi was shocked.

"Tzu-Chen, how are you doing now?"

"I'm fine, I've found where the fairy energy is, let's go." Omi immediately got up, there was no time to lose, he immediately rushed to the location of the Immortal Qi.

Omi had spent a tenth of his lifespan, and it was not in vain, but the location of the immortal energy that Omi had found was a bit far away, in an uninhabited, very desolate and remote place, of course, if it wasn't desolate and remote, it would have been discovered long ago.

At the moment Omi woke up, in the Half Immortal Clan's palace.

"Report."

"Found the clue that killed 9,000 years old?"

"What's the clue, say." On the hall of the Half Immortal Clan, more than a dozen parahumans shouted at the same time, a Nine Thousand Years old died, all the parahumans of the Half Immortal Clan went out, because this was a big matter, as the strongest race in the Spirit World, they couldn't tolerate that others actually provoked them.

"We found out that shortly after the Sword Trial Competition ended the day before yesterday, a maid named You You, went in the direction of the south, the direction You You walked, must have passed through the place of death of a nine thousand year old. However, the strange thing was that You You never said anything about it, as if you didn't know it had happened. The subordinates believe that there must be something fishy about this."

"Bring the You You up here." First URL m.kanshu8.net

"It has been brought up."

Two strong men, pressuring a maid, entered the main hall.

"Kneel."

"My king spare my life, I, I don't know anything."

The Half Immortal Clan Saint King said loudly, "Ninety thousand years old's death, is it related to you, if you don't tell me, die."

"My king's discernment, it really has nothing to do with me."

"You really know the inside story, and you're still not telling it like it is."

After that, that maid told what she saw, and what the princess instructed her to say.

The entire palace was shocked, Omi had actually killed even 9,000 years old.

"My king, Omi is a person who must not be retained, this is still a problem, if this continues, where will there be a future for our Half Immortal Clan."

"My king, with such a large number of humans, it has now been proven that it is also possible for humans to emerge stronger than us, I'm afraid we can no longer let it go on."

"Yes, we used to think that humans were just a bunch of ants, too lazy to toss them around and let them grow, but it seems wrong now. That Omi, an eighth stage of Tribulation, is actually able to kill even 9,000 years old, it's unimaginable, if he reaches parahuman, we still won't be opponents."

"This person really can't stay."

"Not only Omi, but the entire human race can't stay, or else it will bring us a fatal disaster sooner or later."

The strong parahumans of the Half Immortal Clan looked at their king and voiced their opinions.

The Half Immortal Clan's Saint King said, "Your opinions are the same as mine, the fact that the humans of the Extreme South Continent have produced a genius like Omi is already a sign from the heavens that something is wrong, if we don't take action, our clan will be in danger."

"Then, everything will be at my king's command."

The Half Immortal Clan Saint King said, "I am about to ascend, before I do so, I must establish a peaceful and stable environment for my clan, which one of you is willing to follow me, to the extreme southern continent and exterminate that human."

"Me."

"I'm willing."

"All of the dozen or so parahumans raise their hands."

The Half Immortal Clan Saint King said, "There is no need to go so many people, just two of you can go with me, Spiritual Deer, Black Sand, the two of you will go with me to the Extreme South Continent."

"Ah, my king, this trip to the Extreme South Continent is bound to exterminate that group of ants."

Inevitably, the Half Immortal Clan Saint King, set off with two parahumans, with the strength of their three parahumans, it would certainly be easy to exterminate the humans of the Extreme South Continent.

Right now, Omi was on his way to the place where the immortal energy was stored.

However, it was a long way, it would take at least three days to get there, and fortunately, the place where the immortal Qi appeared was not far from the Extreme South Continent.

Omi said, "We must divide our troops into two directions, Little Fire, you and Purple Pupil, Mei, Yan Ling, and Xiao Bai, immediately rush to the Extremely Southern Continent, inform everyone in the Tang Ji Gate to immediately head to the Six Seas, for a while, if you can hide for a while."

"Yes, Servant."

Mu Qianji was busy: "Will they be in danger then?"

"It shouldn't be, they're not human."

Little Fire said, "Brother Chen, don't worry, we'll be careful."

After saying that, Little Fire immediately took the lead and flew away, the rest of the group immediately followed, time was urgent and there was no time to think about it much, although there was a certain amount of danger, there was no one better suited for this task than them at this time.

Next, Omi said, "We will pass through the Vajra Clan's territory later, when we arrive at the Vajra Clan, the rest of you, find a place to hide in the Vajra Clan, I will definitely delay my speed by taking you with me, I must get to the place where the Immortal Qi was found as fast as possible." Omi said to Mu Qianji and the others.

"Good." There was no long-windedness from Mu Qianji and the others.

Before long, they arrived at the Vajra Clan's territory, and Omi dropped them all off.

"You guys just wait for me here, I will definitely return to pick you up, the Vajra Clan knows how powerful I am, even if they found you, they wouldn't dare to be rude to you, you are here, you are relatively the safest." Omi said.

"Omi, don't worry about us, you take care of yourself."

"I will, then I'm leaving." Omi immediately flew into the sky, heading straight to the place where he found the Immortal Qi.

At the moment, Omi was alone, not carrying anyone, and much faster, Omi was confident that he would reach his destination within two days, or even faster.

After about a day and a half, Omi kept driving day and night, and finally, Omi arrived at his destination.

The destination was a grey swamp, the entire swamp was very huge, as vast as the ocean.

"Boom." Omi had just stopped at the swamp when suddenly, in the muddy puddle of the swamp, a prehistoric crocodile that had been about two hundred meters long jumped up and opened its huge mouth, trying to swallow Omi.

This two-hundred-meter-long crocodile was very terrifying.

However, Omi slapped his palm and the two hundred meter crocodile turned into meat paste in no time.

This level was simply not enough to finish in front of Omi.

"Boom." At this moment, the entire swamp, a crocodile's roar came out, Omi looked down and was also taken aback, this entire swamp was simply a crocodile's paradise, countless crocodiles were circling around in the swamp's mud puddles, and each one was at least tens of meters straight and hundreds of meters long.

These crocodiles developed, and in the future, they would definitely cultivate and become a crocodile race of the Seven Seas, however, crocodiles were not holy beasts, it should be difficult for them to survive here.

Omi's gaze went forward, to the center of the swamp, that place deep underground was where the Immortal Qi was found, however, the center of the swamp had the most crocodiles, there were countless lying across the ground.
