

King of kings

2009

“Yes, yes, the princess has taught you a lesson.” Zhou Tie was busy nodding his head.

At this time, a shout came out from not far away, “Princess Yun Meng is right, don’t even look at what kind of toad you are, you also dare to think of the princess.”

Omi’s eyes looked, it was a young man, Omi recognized him, he was a second level Immortal Pill Master, Master Chen’s disciple, called what Ah Miao.

Omi immediately pointed at that Ah Miao and said, “Believe it or not, I’ll break your dog’s legs.”

This Ah Miao was only a Level 1 Immortal Pill Master, although he was also in the pre-Human Immortal realm, but his actual combat ability was very low, that is, he had an empty realm, and his spells and other things must be very poor, because they had a different focus, and most of his realm was also eaten out of Immortal Pills.

Omi despised such people the most.

When Ah Miao saw Omi scold him like that, he got angry and said, “Zhou Mi, don’t you f*cking want to hang out in the Yunluo Immortal Kingdom?”

Omi said disdainfully, “I don’t know who doesn’t want to hang around, I have a hundred ways to put you out of business here, don’t look at what kind of strength you have and dare to be arrogant in front of me, you can’t even beat me with one finger.”

“That’s enough.” At this moment, Princess Yun Meng shouted.

Princess Yun Meng snapped at Omi, “Zhou Mi, don’t go too far, just you are worthy to be compared to Master Ah Miao? What are you, what’s Myu, do you really not know? Fine, then I’ll tell you, don’t say that you won first place once in the Pre-Human Immortal period, even if you won first place in the Pre-Human Immortal period for five thousand years in a row, you’re not worthy of being compared to a First Grade Immortal Pill Master. Looking at the Yunluo Immortal Country, there are many geniuses, but there is only one First Grade Immortal Pill Master. I really don’t know where you have the courage to stand in front of a first-grade Immortal Pill Master and say such crazy things.”

Omi was furiously scolded by Princess Yun Meng, not expecting that Ah Miao’s status was so high in Princess Yun Meng’s eyes. Remember the URL .kanshu8.net

Omi was about to say something, Zhou Tie panicked, “Princess Yun Meng, I hope you’ll forgive me, that, the emperor summoned us, we have to hurry over, Mi’er, we’re leaving.”

Zhou Tie panicked and pulled Omi away.

That Ah Miao snorted, “What a thing, funny. Princess Yun Meng, don’t get along with this kind of people, let’s go, let’s go study that pill you want.”

“Okay, then, I’ll leave it to Master Ah Miao.” Princess Yun Meng also followed Ah Miao.

"Grass, a first class Immortal Pill Master is amazing, I'm also a first class Immortal Pill Master, has anyone ever seen me so inflated?" Omi cursed in exasperation.

Zhou Tie was worried for a while, it seemed that Mi'er was really delusional.

"Mi'er, did you go to plead with Master Chen to take you as a disciple before?"

"Yeah, I think I can become a Xiantian Master too, so I went to beg him to accept a disciple, but unfortunately, this old thing has no vision, but it's okay, I'm a first-grade Xiantian Master now."

"Mi'er, alas, I know you really want to become a Xian Dan Master, but there are too many people in the world who want to become a Xian Dan Master. As Princess Yun Meng has just said, there are geniuses every year, but there are no Immortal Masters, and the status of a first-grade Immortal Master is many times beyond a genius like you."

"Lord Father, what do you mean, you don't believe that I am a first-grade Immortal Pill Master?"

"Mil, let's stop it, okay."

"Forget it if you don't believe me."

"Alright, we've arrived at the Immortal Luan Hall, get ready."

Omi and Zhou Tie entered the Immortal Luan Hall where the emperor was reading a book.

"Pay your respects to His Majesty."

"Pay your respects to His Holiness."

Omi and Zhou Tie both bowed.

However, the emperor seemed as if he didn't hear them and was still reading the book without moving.

Zhou Tie's face was a little afraid at the sight of it.

While Tang

Tzu-Chen, but there was anger in his heart, grass, too disrespectful.

Omi was smart, and once again shouted loudly, "Zhou Mi pays his respects to His Majesty."

The emperor had to pretend to react, if he continued to pretend not to notice, then it would be obvious that he was making a deliberate act, and it would be disgraceful to the emperor.

"Oh, there you are." The emperor put down his book and said, "I was so engrossed in reading just now, I didn't even know someone was here."

Omi said in his heart, "Just bullshit."

Zhou Tie was a little nervous inside at the moment, not knowing if Omi would cause the emperor to be upset, the emperor wanted to purposely air them out, but Omi broke it.

The emperor looked at Omi meaningfully.

Inside the emperor's heart, he didn't like Omi.

"Zhou Mi, after your reincarnation, you really are completely different from your previous life, you're also smarter, and most importantly, you're a bit more courageous than your previous life." The emperor said.

Zhou Tie's face turned white, and he was busy saying, "His Majesty atones for his sins."

"What sin, did I say that you are guilty?"

"Uh."

Omi said, "Your Majesty, what is your order for finding our father and son today?"

"Are you my subjects, must there be a command for you to come?" The emperor snorted.

Omi said, "If the emperor wants us to come, we'll come, if the emperor has something to say, just say it straight, don't beat around the bush, I treat people the same way, if the emperor thinks I don't respect the royal family enough, then I can be one thing in front of people in the future."

"Mi'er, don't talk nonsense." Zhou Tie panicked and stopped it.

The emperor said, "It's okay, let him speak."

Omi said, "I don't have anything to say, the Emperor is not looking for us today, it's nothing more than that he's just a bit scrupulous about me inside, afraid that I'll surpass you in strength in the future."

"What did you say? Scared of you? Zhou Mi, you made the king laugh because you won a first place and I'm going to be scrupulous? Then what should I do about my daughter, Yun Meng, and several princes, who have won the first prize an unknown number of times? It seems that I really overestimated you."

"Don't you?" Omi smiled.

The emperor saw that Omi wasn't very smart, a bit floaty, and spoke a bit arrogantly, and suddenly, he had an initial impression of Omi.

This kind of person, even if he was a genius, his future achievements were not great.

"Alright, you guys can leave." The emperor said with an impatient wave of his hand.

Zhou Tie was relieved in his heart and busy saying, "My humble servant will take his leave."

However, Omi was busy saying, "Wait, Your Majesty, I heard that Princess Yun Meng is looking for a son-in-law, I wonder if I have a chance? Don't worry, I will."

"You? Match?" The emperor interrupted Omi and snorted coldly.

Zhou Tie panicked and pulled Omi away.

Leaving the Immortal Luan Hall, Zhou Tie angrily said, "Mi'er, why are you so unrestrained, you weren't such an impudent person before, why are you acting ignorant and arrogant today. Fortunately, the emperor is not angry, otherwise." Zhou Tie broke out in a cold sweat.

Omi smiled heedlessly and said, "Lord Father, don't be too busy blaming me, I just deliberately acted arrogant, arrogant, and ignorant. As such, the emperor must have thought that I don't have any ability to achieve great things, otherwise, he would be able to let us go so quickly?"

"Uh." Zhou Tie was startled, not expecting that Zhou Mi was smarter than he thought.

"Lord Father, it's useless for you to keep expressing your loyalty, if the emperor thinks you can't achieve anything great, even if you're not loyal, he won't even bother to deal with you. If you are very shrewd and ambitious at a glance and can't see through it, then he'll be on the lookout for you no matter how loyal you are."
