Omi left the captain's military tent and just returned to the barracks, he ran into Shen Medicine.

"Yo-ho, isn't this Omi." Shen Yao yowled, with an inexplicable threat in his eyes.

Although the captain had repeatedly stressed that no infighting was allowed, Shen Yao still disliked Omi very much, and Shen Yao was a Jairus.

Of course, Omi wasn't a righteous one, so he would get anyone who dared to bully him, regardless of whether he was a squad skirmisher or not.

"Hmph, Shen Pill." Omi snorted coldly.

"Omi, you damn well put some respect in your tone."

"You didn't even put respect, so why should I."

"Omi, you fck ing, if the captain hadn't blocked me, I would have fck ing put you all over the place two months ago, do you believe it." Shen Medicine yelled.

Omi said, "No, I should be the one to say this, if the captain hadn't told me not to start infighting, I would have beaten your ass two months ago, skin open and hair all over the place."

"You have the guts to say that again." Shen Medicine yelled, not expecting that he spared Omi, who was actually still talking sarcasm.

"Shen Medicine, if you *f*ck ing* yell in front of me one more time, don't blame me for disobeying the captain's order." A second to remember to read the book

"Omi, you're not *f*ck ing* tired of living."

"Shen Medicine, I hmfh." Omi looked arrogant, not putting Shen Medicine in his eyes at all, if it was two months ago well, Omi might have some scruples, but now, give Omi Omi Omi is not even worthy to mention shoes, you know, Omi's Star Shifting Great Law has been practiced to the eighteenth level, Xuan Xian may not even be able to kill Omi in one go.

Shen Yao seemed to be unable to endure any longer, and gritted his teeth, "Omi, you forced me to do this, I'm damned if I'm not going to be the commander, even, I'm risking being fired, I'm going to teach you a lesson today."

Omi said, "It's going to be war soon, and your life is still left to be sacrificed on the battlefield, firing you, think about it."

"Fine then, then go die." Shen medicinal ton killed Omi with a punch.

The spell that Shen Yao practiced was called Heaven's Ultimate Avalanche, and his fist was like a heavenly avalanche, and he had already practiced it to over 130 layers.

Unfortunately, Omi stood there and didn't even move a muscle, allowing Shen Yao to hit him.

In the next second, all of the attacks that Shen Yao struck on Omi's body were transformed into power by the Star Shifting Technique on Omi's body, and transferred back to Shen Yao himself.

"Boom." Shen Yao felt like his body had been struck by a fierce punch, then flew backwards for more than ten meters.

"This, how is this possible." Shen Yao was shocked, he knew right away that Omi had diverted his attack to himself.

Omi snorted, "Shen Medicine, do you f*ck ing think you're my opponent? I'll stand here and let you fight, and you won't be able to hurt me in the slightest, you'll just beat yourself to death."

"That's impossible, I've reached the sixth level of my Star Shift Technique." Shen Pill was busy shaking his head.

"The sixth level, in my eyes, is as weak as if you haven't practiced it."

"Omi, I don't believe it." After saying that, Shen Pill killed up again.

Usually, those who practiced Star Shifting Great Law would also practice another attack spell, combining it with the defensive Star Shifting Great Law, so that they could both attack and defend, and the defense of Star Shifting Great Law was better than any armor battle armor.

Shen Medicine struck another super powerful strike, killing Omi, who still let him fight.

"Boom." Shen Medicine flew away in another instant.

"Poof." After receiving two consecutive heavy blows, Shen Medicine vomited blood.

; Omi, on the other hand, stood in place, not moving a muscle.

"Hahaha, Shen Medicine, don't say that I bullied you back, but I didn't even move a muscle." Omi said with a smile.

Shen Dao was now completely in place, looking like she couldn't believe it.

Omi snorted coldly and turned around to walk away.

Shen Pill lost his mind and returned to the barracks.

When he returned to the barracks, Shen Yao saw many people, looking lost, Shen Yao naturally knew the reason why, war was about to start, perhaps they would all become cannon fodder, so everyone did not have any spirit.

Just at this moment, Shen Pill had a bright idea, he was busy saying, "Everyone, are you very reluctant to attack the Old Demon of Heaven?"

"Nonsense."

"Haha, if you don't want to go and attack the Old Demon of Heaven, I have a way to make sure you don't have to."

Suddenly, everyone jumped on me, busy asking, "Quickly tell me, what's the solution, is your family involved?"

"Shen Medicine, you have to save me, if I don't have to go to war this time, I will definitely follow your horse's lead." A mid-Dao Immortal man said, this mid-Dao Immortal man, who was the commander of the seven groups, a commander, actually said such words.

Shen Medicine smiled, "It's simple, if we are expelled, then naturally, we don't have to go to war."

"Expelled? You're just dismissing us when you say so."

Shen Medicine said, "Guys, if we break military rules, are we going to be expelled?"

"That is true, but now war is about to begin."

"Gentlemen, I am now going to kill a man, and when I have killed him I shall have committed a serious military offence, and am bound to be sent to prison, so that I shall not have to go to war. Gentlemen, do you want to do it with me? As long as you work with me, you can certainly kill a man together, and by then, we'll all be locked up and still be fighting a s*itty war."

"Huh, that's a good idea."

"Hahaha, guys, if you want to violate military rules, come with me." After saying that, Shen Pill headed out.

Those heavenly soldiers who didn't want to participate in the war, suddenly followed Shen Yao.

Being imprisoned in a prison was better than dying in battle, if imprisoned, there would always be a day when they would be released.

Just like this, Shen Yao ganged up with more than a hundred people and headed straight to the place where Omi was.

They wanted to kill Omi, deliberately violating serious military regulations.

This group of cowards, for fear of death, could no longer be described with words. However, this was a good solution.

At the moment, Omi had no idea that he was about to be beaten to death by a group of people.

After all, over a hundred people were beating him up in groups, he was hard to beat with both fists, and there were over twenty Dao Immortals among those hundred people, so it was heaven forbid if he didn't get killed.

"Commander, the army will be dispatched soon, are you nervous?" In Omi's military tent, Jia Tianyu said to Omi with a tense face.

"There's nothing to be nervous about, what's due always comes." Omi said.

"Commander, perhaps, if we go this way, we'll never come back, at this moment I really regret coming to join the army, how about you?"

“Haha, you didn’t even fight, how did you know you would die.”

Jia Tianyu said, “Captain, don’t comfort yourself, don’t tell me that you are going to attack the Old Demon of Heaven, even if you are going to attack a weak demon god, which time you are not going to die thousands and thousands of people, this time when you go to attack the Old Demon of Heaven, some people predict that at least 30,000 people will die, gosh, 50,000 heavenly soldiers, 30,000 dead, who is sure that you are the surviving 20,000?Ugh.”
