"Captain, although I was unsuccessful in killing Omi, my crime is unforgivable."

"Captain, send me to the prison, people like me are not worthy to stand in the barracks."

At one point, more than two hundred celestial soldiers all crawled to the captain, they weren't begging for forgiveness, but they were begging for punishment, and they all threatened to be unworthy of being a celestial soldier.

Omi wanted to laugh when he saw the faces of these two hundred or so celestial soldiers.

The captain, on the other hand, was filled with sorrow at the moment.

"Shame, you are my shame, and the shame of the Heavenly Soldiers, I feel immense shame for being your captain." The captain roared.

A Dao Immortal Heavenly Soldier said, "Captain, we are not worthy of being your soldiers, fire me."

At that moment, Omi said, "Captain, don't be angry, we were just sparring, it has nothing to do with shame."

Omi wouldn't be able to fulfill them.

At that moment, one of the Dao Immortals said, "No, captain, we weren't just sparring."

"Yes, we were just killing Omi." Remember the URL .kanshu8.net

"Captain, don't condone it."

Omi said, "Captain, look, I'm fine now, I'm not going to pursue this matter."

One of the Heavenly Soldiers said, "Omi, are you still a man, we want to kill you and you're still not pursuing it."

Omi said, "In the end, it was you guys who were injured, not me."

The captain had a chill in his heart and said, "Everyone, stand up straight."

Everyone climbed up, lined up, and stood upright.

The captain said, "I declare, Omi, injuring more than two hundred of your fellow celestial soldiers is not worthy of being a celestial soldier, you can be dismissed, where you came from, get back to where you came from."

"Ah." Omi was startled, actually expelled him, the rest of the sky soldiers were also stupid.

"Get lost, Omi, I'll report upwards about you injuring so many Heavenly Soldiers, you pack your things right now and get out of the barracks." The captain bellowed.

One of the Dao Immortals was not happy, "Captain, why should he be the one to roll, you're not being fair."

"That's right, Captain, we're the ones who should roll, you're favoring Omi."

The captain snorted, "I only saw, Omi innocently beat up over 200 celestial soldiers, I don't know anything else. Omi, you're still not rolling over are you?"

Omi said, "Captain, I'm not leaving, I'm still waiting for the war to start, but I appreciate your love for me."

"Fool."

"I am a fool."

"Alright, in that case, this matter is settled, whoever dares to mess up in my barracks in the future, I'll kill you on the spot and treat you as deserters, and you still want to be fired? Dream on." After saying that, the captain walked away.

After taking a few steps, he turned back and said, "Omi, my sister is here to see you, come down to my place later."

"Er." Omi looked into the distance, and indeed saw the bright moon.

Omi sighed, "Another beautiful woman has fallen in love with me, should I cry, or should I cry?"

At this moment, those two hundred celestial soldiers were looking at Omi very unhappy.

Omi laughed, "Everyone, go back, in ten more days, there's still a battlefield to be fought, don't think too much, this battlefield is set, whoever of you dare to be a deserter, I, Tang, will be sure to kill you."

"What the hell are you qualified to behead us? How old are you?" A pre-Dao Immortal man said.

Omi said, "Just you all together are no match for me, a bunch of trash, together you can't even beat me, trash, trash."

"You." All of them were furious, but what could they do.

Omi turned around and walked away.

Mingyue was watching from a short distance.

Omi walked up to Miss Mingyue and smiled, "Miss Mingyue, did you come to see me on purpose? Look at the way you're looking at me, like you're interested in me."

"Che, you're thinking too much.

Am I gonna like you? No way."

"That's good."

Akatsuki snorted, pursing her lips and giving Omi a blank stare.

"Tell me what you're looking for me for."

"My brother was the one who said I was looking for you, I didn't say I was looking for you."

"In that case, I'll leave first, there are still ten days left, I want to go refine some pills."

"What? You still know how to refine pills?"

"Of course, a seventh-grade Xiantian."

"Wow, you're too smart for that."

"Oh, I should have known not to tell you."

"Why?"

"Told you, it made you like me more again."

"How narcissistic, who likes you anymore, but I didn't say I did."

"Really? That's where I'd be wrong, well, I was I was thinking of going back and resting Dinah Lang and regaining my single status to give some other girls a chance, but now I don't think I need to."

"Ah, are you serious?" Akatsuki asked in a panic.

"Hahaha, just kidding, how could I possibly rest Ding Lan." Omi laughed.

"Hmph, lying shall not kill you."

"Mingyue, you also said you don't like me, how could I lie to you if you don't like me."

"But you don't even like me, why should I like you."

"Which ear did you hear me say that I don't like you."

"Ah, what do you mean, you like me? Really? That's great, Omi, I promise, I'll be good to you forever." Ming Yue said excitedly.

Omi wiped out a cold sweat, "To be so excited like this?"

"As for, very much so."

"Alright, no more jokes, let's get down to business, what do you want with me."

"Don Omi, so you weren't just being serious with me."

"Just kidding."

"It's no fun, made me think it was real."

"Miss Mingyue, you seem to be engaged." Omi said.

Akatsuki was startled, yeah, he'd forgotten all about having a marriage engagement.

"Which so what, if you really dare to play with me, I'll accompany you to the end." Ming Yue said with a hard gaze, if Omi really dared to like her, she was willing to betray her previous marriage at any cost.

Omi said, "Don't be childish, in a few days when you go to war, maybe I'll die, maybe you'll die, the people are gone, what's there to talk about."

"For you, I will come back alive, will you live too?"

"I must, my Dinglan is still waiting for me, I don't want her to be widowed."

Ming Yue lowered her head, "You really just, don't mind at all what Ting Lan used to do?"

"Oh, even you know that."

"Nonsense, who in the Heaven Realm doesn't know, Ding Lan is at any rate a famous Heaven Realm's top ten genius and beautiful women, and she's practiced the Burning Heaven Technique to over 120 layers, and I've heard that she's also opened the Deep Space once. If she wasn't because of what happened back then, her achievements today would definitely not be like mine."

"What? How is my family Ding Lan awesome?"

"Ah, you're her husband and you don't even know it?"

"I, I didn't ask ah." Omi was shocked, Omi had never cared about Ding Lan before, he only knew that she was a Dao Immortal, the rest were all unknown, never bothered to know, he never expected that Ding Lan was a spell practitioner who had practiced to more than 120 layers, and had also opened the depth space once, it was really worthy of being one of the ten most beautiful women in the Heaven Realm.

Omi asked, "According to you, all of the top ten beauties in the Heaven Realm have opened the depth space at least once? And it belongs to the ranks of the warrior gods?"

"Of course, how else would you be named one of the top ten genius beauties?"

"Wow." Omi's eyes lit up.
