Omi said, "So that's how it is, then I don't know, anyway, I, Tang Someone, from the moment I was born, almost all the beautiful women who saw me liked me, and expressed their desire to marry me and have a bunch of children for me."

"Oh, what kind of sophistry is this, I don't believe there's such an evil thing in the world, no matter which way you look at it, I don't have a reason to be tempted, but I am, I think, there must be something wrong with it. And, to tell you the truth, as soon as my fourth sister left just now, my arms and legs suddenly got a little out of control and I wanted to jump into your arms." Tian Nianxi said with a blush, but she had to say it.

Omi busily raised his head and said, "Hey, I just had that feeling too, and the moment I saw you, I had a feeling inside that you belonged to me in my life."

"Yes, yes, I also had that feeling."

Omi said, "Then could it be, we really fell in love at first sight? Anyway, I feel that I have no pick for you, I am a hundred percent willing to be with you, I have no doubts."

Tennenshishi said, "But deep down inside, I'm very clear that I don't like you at all, and it's too strange to feel that way about someone you don't like."

"Oh, don't like me."

"I'm sorry, don't be mad."

"It's okay, I really don't deserve you right now."

"Alright, it seems like you can't find anything wrong at the moment, so go home."

Omi, feeling reluctant inside, said, "Will we meet again in the future then?" Remember the URL .kanshu8.net

"Me." There was also a sudden wave of reluctance within Tennieshi.

"What's wrong?"

Tennessee said, "Not anymore."

"Oh."

Omi walked away.

Omi touched his head, it was so baffling, he obviously liked me, but he still had to say that he didn't like me, making it seem as if he was forced by the heavens.

After Omi returned to the barracks, he had to prepare for his retreat.

However, instead of returning to his own barracks, Omi headed to Brightmoon's barracks.

"Brightmoon, I'm going to be in seclusion for ten days and half a month, but I'm afraid of being disturbed, I don't have a separate dormitory, so I want to be in your dormitory in seclusion, I wonder if it's okay?"

"Sure."

"Thanks."

Omi immediately entered the closed door.

This afternoon, Omi took an eleventh-grade fetal pellet, which must be absorbed properly, and if it was successful, he might be able to pass two levels in a row and step into the middle Dao Immortal stage in one fell swoop.

This closure was more than ten days.

It was also fortunate that Omi was in Ming Yue's separate dormitory, if he was at a collective speed, he was afraid that he would be disturbed, especially with that speed of Omi, Shen Medicine and the others hated him very much.

Ten days later, Omi ended his retreat.

Omi's realm had broken through to the middle Dao Immortal stage from the late Heavenly Immortal stage before.

"Omi, you really have broken two realms in a row and have become a mid-Dao Immortal." As soon as Omi opened his eyes, the voice of Mingyue was heard.

"Hehe."

"Omi, congratulations, now you're higher than me, I'm only in the early Dao Immortal stage." Mingyue said.

"Mingyue, if you don't be so stupid and take my eleventh grade Dao Immortal, then it's very likely that you'll become a late Dao Immortal. Do you regret it now?"

"I'm not sorry."

Don sighed and asked, "Is your ass healed yet?"

"I don't know, huh?" Akatsuki said.

"It's, well, you lie down."

"Oh." Mingyue blushed and lay down.

Don pulled her dress down somewhere, because it was so elastic, and when it was pulled down a few

As it popped out, into view were two round, snow-white tender skin with no scars at all.

"Uh, Akatsuki, isn't that better already? Why are you lying to me about not knowing."

Akatsuki pursed his lips, "I just wanted you to molest me."

"Nerve."

Omi pulled on her clothes.

"Akatsuki, thank you, now I have to hurry back to the barracks or the captain will chastise me."

"How dare he."

"Don't be childish, I'm leaving."

"Oh." Ming Yue watched Omi leave with eyes full of reluctance, obviously liking it, but not being able to be together.

Omi soon returned to his barracks.

"Omi, where did you run off to, do you know that the captain is looking for you." As soon as he entered the barracks, there was a yelling voice.

Omi took a look, it was Shen Medicine.

What the hell is he, Shen Medicine, what kind of thing is he, how dare he yell at Omi.

Without saying a word, Omi walked up.

"Pah." Omi slapped Shen Medicine away.

"Omi."

Omi said, "Shen Medicine, if you f*cking speak loudly in front of me again, I believe I'll pinch you, don't think that you can have your way in front of me just because you broke through to the middle Dao Immortal stage. I'm not afraid to tell you, I'm now, also at mid-Dao Immortal stage."

"Ah, how is that possible."

Everyone just saw that Omi was indeed a mid-Dao Immortal, and his realm was level with Shen Medicine.

This was too unbelievable, remembering when Omi was just a Heavenly Immortal, he was only a mid-Dao Immortal, and how long had it been now, he was a mid-Dao Immortal.

Just then, the captain's voice sounded behind him, "Omi, what are you doing."

"Captain, you're here." Omi was busy letting go of Shen Medicine.

Shen Pill immediately complained, "Captain, Omi bullied his fellow celestial soldiers, do you want to punish him?"

"This." Captain Mingcheng was in a difficult position.

"Captain, do you want to take sides with Omi? You just saw it with your own eyes, Omi slapped me away."

Captain Ming Cheng could only say, "Omi, you have violated military rules, how you should be punished, you tell me yourself."

Omi laughed, "Captain, are you sure you want to punish me?"

"Shouldn't you be punished for assaulting a brother on the same team?" Captain Ming Cheng was a little annoyed at Omi's lack of knowledge of his mistakes.

Omi said, "Captain, you should know that more than ten days ago, someone invited me to dinner at the Yao Pond, and that person also gave me an Eleventh Grade Birth Pill, so I am only now becoming a mid-Dao Immortal. The person who invited me to dinner was Princess Tian Nianxi, do you know why Tian Nianxi was looking for me?"

"Uh, why?" Captain Mingcheng was startled.

"Because, Princess Tennenshuu, wants me to work hard and serve her in the future, well, that's all I can say, in a word, I'm now Princess Tennenshuu's man."

"Ah, really?" Captain Akagi was shocked.

"Why should I lie to you, Captain, you should know what to do by now."

"This." Captain Ming Cheng was depressed, and at the same time, he was jealous of Omi because, the goddess in Captain Ming Cheng's heart was Tian Nian Shi, and he had longed countless times that he could one day become a guard by Tian Nian Shi's side, so that he could guard the goddess forever. However, Captain Ming Cheng did not dare to have any illusions about the goddess because he knew that he was not even worthy of giving Princess Tian Nianxi shoes. Moreover, the best immortals in the heavenly realm loved Tian Nianxi, and he, an army captain, wasn't even worthy, so becoming her guard was Captain Ming Cheng's lifelong desire.

But unexpectedly, Omi was somehow favored by the goddess to serve her, and Captain Mingcheng's lifelong pursuit, Omi had already achieved it.

Right now, Captain Ming Cheng was very jealous of Omi.
