omi and Ao Bao went straight to the Earth Immortal Realm.

They opened up a cave in a mountain ditch and then temporarily secluded themselves in the cave.

Right now, in the Immortal Realm, the Immortal Emperor felt terrified inside.

Thus, the Immortal Emperor immediately sensed it.

"Ah." The Immortal Emperor's face changed.

"Immortal Emperor, what's wrong?" Fairy Mother was busy asking.

"Nianqing, dead."

"How can that be."

In the next second, the Immortal Emperor appeared at Nian Qing's private mountain estate.

"Pay your respects to the Immortal Emperor." Several guards were busy kneeling down.

"Where's Nian Qing?" First web site m . kanshu8.net

"Back to the Immortal Emperor, the prince has been at the mountain estate."

"Bullsh*t."

Entering the mountain villa, Nian Qing had disappeared, when a guard shouted, "Immortal Emperor, look, there's writing engraved on that wall."

The Immortal Emperor was busy looking over, the line of writing was inconspicuous and must have been overlooked before.

It was inscribed, "Immortal Emperor Old Dog, the next to die is you, omi."

Yes, omi made a few random strokes on the wall before he left, in order not to implicate the Dragon Clan, omi moved his name, after all, Ao Scuttlebutt had appeared here before, if he didn't leave his name behind it would definitely be associated with Ao Scuttlebutt.

In fact, omi had left a note under Ao Scutellaria's pillow in secret, before he had even left for Nian Qing's private villa, which would be said later.

"omi." The Immortal Emperor growled.

Until today, he finally knew who the person who couldn't sense was, and it was really omi, who wasn't dead.

Right now, in some mountain ditch in the Earth Immortal Realm.

omi had set up two simple beds.

“Bai Rou, from now on, you restore your real name.”

“Mm.”

“Two beds, one for each of you.”

“Thanks. Brother Tang, when the Immortal Emperor finds out, he really won’t suspect the Dragon Clan of doing it?”

“Don’t worry, I’ve left my name on the wall.”

“Does that make me suspicious?”

“Nor will I. Before I left, I left a note under your pillow that said: I don’t want to be buried in a funeral pyre, I’m leaving. I did this just in case, if Nian Qing died, then it is reasonable that you feared martyrdom and ran away. So, people won’t suspect you of anything, after all, you don’t have the ability to do that, after a while, when the wind has passed, you can go home and be your Bai Rou.”

“Thank you, Big Brother Tang, you rescued me.”

“Oh, no need to be polite.”

At this moment, the Immortal Emperor was shocked and sent all of his heavenly soldiers to search for omi.

However, the world was so big and couldn’t sense omi’s location, it wasn’t so easy to find omi.

“Report to Fairy Mother, the maids in the Ninth Prince’s house said that Princess Ao Scarfing left a note and ran away, the note said that she didn’t want to be buried and left. Fairy Mother, should we send someone to recapture her?” A servant reported to the Fairy Mother.

The Fairy Mother cried, “This bitch, she doesn’t even keep her word, her husband is dead, and she wants to live without going to the funeral.”

“Immortal Mother, then the subordinate will go and find her out.”

The Fairy Mother didn’t say anything and acquiesced.

At the Dragon Palace, the Dragon King was very shocked to learn that Nian Qing was dead and that it was omi who killed her.

The Dragon King smiled heedlessly and said in his heart, “This kid, I didn’t expect that he would finish off Nian Qing so quickly.”

Naturally, the Heavenly Soldiers also went to the East Sea to search for him, but of course they didn’t find him.

omi and Bai Rou, stayed in the cave for a million years.

A million years was considered a relatively short period of time for them.

During these one million years, omi had spent almost all of it in cultivation.

After a million years, the Immortal Emperor sent out to look for omi and there was no more news.

After looking for so long without finding anything, everyone was very negative.

"Alright, Bai Rou, now we can go out."

omi walked out of the cave, it had been a long time since he got sunlight.

"Brother Tang, where are you going now?"

"I don't know, my enemies have killed them, and I seem to be a little lost," omi said.

"Why don't you go to the Dragon Clan."

"No, I can't go to the Dragon Clan, I don't want the Dragon Clan to confront the Immortal Court, even though Grandpa Dragon said to f*ck his Immortal Mother, I know he still doesn't dare inside, and besides, confronting the Immortal Court would mean a lot of deaths and injuries."

"Oh." Bai Rou was a little lost.

"Bai Rou, let's part here, the Immortal Court hasn't found you for so long, so I'm sure it's no longer looking for you, after all, you're just a small person who doesn't want to be martyred, so it's not a big crime. You change back into Bai Rou's identity and return to your hometown."

"Good."

"Goodbye." omi flew forward.

A wave of reluctance inside Bai Rou shouted, "Brother Tang, will we ever meet again?"

"It's fate that we come a thousand miles to meet each other, but it's not fate that we don't meet opposite each other." omi said with a slight smile back.

What a nice thing to say, but why not like the answer.

omi headed straight to the Ten Thousand Purple Mountains.

Along the way, he didn't encounter any celestial soldiers searching for him.

In the Immortal Realm.

"Why, why can't we find them after so long." The Immortal Emperor roared, a million years and no find right away.

"Immortal Emperor's forgiveness, I am incompetent." The Three-Eyed War God, the Sky Ling War God, and other characters asked for forgiveness, and in order to find omi, the Immortal Emperor sent all the war gods out.

As for that Ao Ba, at first there was someone to report about it, but no one mentioned it later, after all, she wasn't important at all, and no one went looking for her.

Of course, some people were happy and some were sad.

Miss Mingyue, as well as Ding Lan, were very happy to learn that omi was still alive and had killed all of Nian Qing.

Also very happy was Leng Guoliu Yue who almost became omi's daughter-in-law.

It was just that Leng Gu Yue, as a member of the Wolf Team, was also sent out to search for it, and had been searching for a million years.

Right now, somewhere in the Earth Immortal Realm.

Leng Lone Moon was leading dozens of Skywolf squads, searching around on the ground.

"Team leader, we've searched this entire area and found no traces of omi."

"Team Leader, that area of the mountain ahead was also searched, and no trace was found."

Many Sky Wolf members reported to Leng Lone Moon.

"Keep searching, we must search out that traitor omi." Leng Guolue shouted.

"Yes, team leader."

Although Leng Guoliu Yue shouted against the traitor, she missed omi in her heart, and she also kind of worshipped omi because omi dared to go against the Immortal Emperor and left a message to curse the Immortal Emperor's old dog, this courage had no one else.

All the people from the Sky Wolf Battle Team were searching the area, but at this moment, a person suddenly appeared in front of Leng Lone Moon.

"Ah." Leng Lonesome Moon's body trembled.

omi smiled and said, "Looking for me."

"omi, you, you're really hiding here?"

"What if I said yes."

"Run, run." Leng Lone Moon was busy.

omi laughed, "Just kidding, I was just passing by and saw that my teammates, who were once part of the Sky Wolf Battle Team, were looking for me, so I just came out to say hello. With you people, you can't search me, otherwise, the old dog of the Immortal Emperor would have found me by himself."
