

Chapter 339

"Take it!"

Christopher had to bite the bullet and connected: "Madam."

At that end, Suzi asked in a serious tone: "Assistant Yan, that Miss Galia belongs to you..."

"Madam Hui, that's my cousin." Christopher replied while wiping his sweat.

Suzi's tone is still flat: "How do you know that I am working here? Do you want your cousin to monitor my every move? Actually, it is really unnecessary. I just don't work at all, and I don't want to be someone else. Monitor like this!"

Here, Christopher stammered an explanation: "No, no madam, you...you must have misunderstood a little bit. That's it, I... I was trying to transmit Lanita this morning. The ugly photo of Yue, isn't this just added to your WeChat, I am your friend on WeChat. I... naturally can see your circle of friends.

When I saw the Moments you posted after finding a job, it was a coincidence that my cousin was also working in it, so I reported the situation to Siye Fu. Therefore, letting my cousin take you to familiarize yourself with the new environment is a piece of Fu's care for you. "

Suzi: "Um..."

She sent it to Moments yesterday. At that time, she also thought that she didn't have any friends in her Moments. It was just that she was in a stable mood and no one told her, and she could only send it to Moments for recording.

She has forgotten that this morning, she added a strict WeChat account.

At the other end, the stern and nervous heart was overwhelming, and he wanted to ask Suzi: "Madam, you don't even have a word of thanks to Fourth Master Fu?"

Is there?

Suzi only clicked and cut off the voice connection.

The reason why she didn't say 'thank you' was because she couldn't quite understand what Arron was thinking. Arron's city mansion was too deep for her to guess.

Besides, Suzi didn't want to guess.

Day by day counts as a day. Trying to think about nothing is the best.

Putting away the phone, Suzi also cleared up his mood, and then walked into the office again, which really took a look at this Chase office.

The office area of the design department is spacious, bright and modern.

Especially her desk is much better than the desk she found in the architectural design company six years ago in Nancheng. The computer on the desk is already equipped and everything is new.

Suzi is satisfied with his working environment.

The design director hurried to her step by step: "Suzi, I will not give you any business orders for the first week. You should familiarize yourself with the surrounding environment. Linda, who is sitting opposite you, is a very senior designer. You give her first. For a week, let her take you to familiarize yourself with the company's environment and processes, and also take you to relevant departments to familiarize yourself with it.

Next week, I will give you another order. "

Suzi nodded: "Okay."

The director returned to his office, and Suzi came to the senior designer named Linda opposite her, and said politely and not arrogantly: "Linda, what can I do for you?"

"Help?" Linda's tone was very cold, and she didn't answer: "You are not helping me. If you don't help me, my work will be very effective. Okay, since the director asked me to take You, then I will take you."

After speaking, Linda handed a stack of designed plans to Suzi: "First classify these, copy them out and hand them to me today."

"Okay." Suzi took the plan and returned to his desk, immersed himself in tidying up. Soon it was lunch time, and Galia upstairs did not forget to come and call Suzi to eat in the cafeteria.

"Are you still used to working here?" Galia asked Suzi enthusiastically.

Suzi nodded and smiled: "It's okay."

Then he asked: "Do you eat the cafeteria at noon?"

"It's outsourced, but the company has meal stickers. It's 1,500 per month. The cafeteria here is rich. Let's go, I'll take you there."

The two entered the cafeteria and just ordered a good meal and sat down.

A woman suddenly threw a plate in front of them, and then sharply shouted: "Why are you here!"

Chapter 340

Suzi raised his eyes and glanced at the woman who was screaming at her.

The woman is wearing an expensive fashion, with more than ten centimeters of high heels on the soles of her feet, her bright and exaggerated earrings dangling, and her long black wavy hair makes her charming and enchanting. The woman looked at Suzi disdainfully and provocatively, and asked again: "I ask you, why are you here!"

Galia, who was sitting across from Suzi, shrank in shock. She kicked Suzi in the foot. Although Galia didn't say anything, Suzi understood what Galia meant. Galia told her that it was a woman who is not easy to mess with.

Suzi glanced at the woman again, she didn't know this woman.

For a moment, Suzi wondered if he was born with a black body?

Why do women who can't beat her all know her?

However, it is not difficult to understand.

She was a notorious woman in Nancheng six years ago, and many people should know her.

It seems that she is still an internet celebrity.

Black and red are also red!

Suzi's expression was extremely calm: "I'm sorry! I don't know you!"

Today is the first day to work. It's not easy to find this job. She doesn't want to cause trouble on the first day of work.

As long as this unknown woman doesn't put a shit basin on her head, she can ignore it.

Suzi didn't take the domineering woman in his eyes indifferently, and looked sternly dumbfounded.

A second later, Galia came up and whispered to Suzi, "Suzi, don't you know him?"

Suzi took a bite: "I only know the director of our department, Linda who took me, and you."

"Hush!" Galia accompanied him and took a careful look at the domineering woman, and then nervously said to Suzi, "Miss Min... is the cousin of the cousin of a major shareholder of our company."

Suzi: "...". She didn't understand.

"Galia! Tell her directly, who I am!" The domineering woman was almost mad at Suzi's behavior!

If it weren't for the cafeteria to be a public place, she would still want to grab Suzi's hair and press Suzi to the ground!

Galia said honestly: "Suzi, Miss Min is the cousin of our company's shareholder Shu Shao, cousin."

Darius?

Isn't Darius's cousin Walton?

Suzi looked at Galia blankly.

Galia continued: "Ms. Walton grew up in Shu's house. Elder Shu loved Walton as his granddaughter. Later, Walton returned to Min's house and lived with her uncle and aunt, Walton's uncle. My aunt also has a daughter named Rayna Min."

Suzi looked up at Rayna, and asked coldly: "Are you Walton's sister?"

This world is so small!

Galia kindly reminded Suzi: "Suzi, Ms. Rayna is the eldest lady in our company. You treat her better."

No way, who made Galia be entrusted by her cousin's strictness and lenient.

The Yan family is an ordinary working family in Nancheng, but Christopher's status and status are different. Christopher often supports Galia's family. When Galia was in college, Christopher often bought her clothes.

The family relationship between cousins is very strong.

Therefore, Galia has to take the risk anyway to popularize some human relationships in this company to Suzi. Don't look at the small temple, but the water here is not small.
