

Chapter 351

At the same time, there was a glimmer of gloat in my heart.

What is this called?

Does one thing drop one thing?

"Yes!" Arron in the toy room suddenly said two words.

Lilly asked happily: "Are you willing to help me assemble it?"

"No!" Arron said flatly.

Shen Only: "..."

"You can continue to call me badass dad, I won't help you assemble toys." Arron's tone was very flat, but with an irrefutable firmness.

At this time, Lilly seemed to be anxious and frustrated. She pouted her mouth and said a little discouraged: "I don't want to assemble anymore, I don't want to play anymore! This is always okay! Humph!"

Four or five-year-old children, when doing something, are always not focused enough, and not persistent enough.

After all, the child is too young. When he was in Quxian, Lilly often gave up halfway.

But at that time, Uncle Sanford had always been guarding her. Whenever she was the only thing she couldn't do and acted like a baby to Sanford, Sanford would coax Lilly: "Okay, our only one is still small, and the only thing that can't be done. Of course, it was my uncle who came to help finish the matter. Who made our Shen the only one, the only little princess in our family.

Uncle just wants to spoil you. "Sanford gave Lilly enough love and warmth, but he never wanted to be harsh. Therefore, Lilly used her act of acting like a baby with Uncle Sanford on Arron. She thought it would work.

But never thought, Arron sullen his face and said coldly: "No! You must assemble this toy today, when will the assembly be successful, and when will you go to bed!"

Lilly: "...I don't! I want to find my mother!"

"Your request is invalid!"

Lilly: "Smelly bad guy!"

"Well, you can yell! But the toys must be assembled!" Arron sullen his face without giving way.

Suzi outside the door was suddenly moved. She knew that this was the true father of mercy and strictness. He would love his children, but he would never arrogantly indulge his children.

When Lilly saw that her usual act of acting like a baby didn't work with the badass dad, she softened: "It's really hard, I won't pretend..."

"It's a bit difficult, but every time you install a step, I can give you a little hint." Arron said: "But you must install this toy yourself today, otherwise, I won't let you sleep!"

These remarks were very severe, so severe that Shen only dared not refute it. She nodded with tears in her eyes, "Hmm, I see."

After speaking, pretend to be a toy. Because there was no way back, Shen Zhiyi thought about it seriously. She found that she had a small sense of accomplishment every time she installed the right step. Under the prompt of the badass dad, she actually assembled a robot in less than ten minutes. Up.

Holding the robot that she pretended to be in her hand, Shen only jumped into the circle happily. She also forgot to call the stinky villain. She only jumped for joy: "Dad, dad, look, this is the only one who pretends, and the only one who can pretend to be. Robot, oh oh oh."

Suzi outside: "..."

This is how fathers educate their children, which is completely different from mothers.

Chapter 352

Suzi just watched her daughter intoxicated so unconsciously, completing the work step by step.

The child has a sense of accomplishment, which is particularly inspiring.

Encourage Suzi.

Also inspired Lilly.

When the little girl finally completed the first robot through her own efforts and perseverance in overcoming difficulties, she became very interested and had to install a second robot.

Arron raised her eyebrows and gave Lilly a vaccination: "This, but it's a bit harder than the one you just installed."

Arron did not hope that Lilly could pretend to succeed.

After all, I'm still a child, and I have to go from simple to complex, step by step.

However, Lilly is a child with fighting spirit. She also raised her eyebrows and looked at her father: "Humph! Dad badass, you really underestimated me, Lilly, let's make a bet, I can also install it. ."

"That's it!" Arron sneered disdainfully.

At this moment, a man in his thirties, who had killed and killed his entire life, suddenly became innocent, and he was arguing with his daughter like a child.

Even Arron didn't realize how harmless he was at this moment.

Outdoor Suzi also wants to know, can his daughter install more difficult robots by analogy?

Suzi also squeezed a sweat for her daughter.

This robot is indeed more difficult than the one just now. If Lilly, who was half an hour ago, might have to give up again, but now, Arron has unearthed the potential of Lilly, and she repeated it several times. , Do not admit defeat.

Don't let Dad prompt.

When it was the fourth time to pretend, she knew nothing about it, and she was able to draw inferences about it.

Lilly found that this robot can also be transformed, it can be installed this way, it can also be installed that way, as long as it changes a little, it will be another style.

Wow!

This discovery made Shen Only Children's Shoes jump up with excitement.

She leaped and yelled ignorantly, yelling: "Smelly dad, you lose, D*mn bad dad, you lose, hahaha, I won! I won!"

After the jump, Lilly swooped into Arron's arms again, raised his soft hand, pinched Arron's nose, and twisted it left and right like a switch.

"Bad badass dad, you lost!" The little girl twisted her father's nose, looking up at Arron, she was absolutely!

Outdoor Suzi was stunned.

She subconsciously shouted: "The only one..."

When Lilly turned her head, she saw her mother outside. She still pinched Arron's nose and flaunted happily: "Mom, I won. I'm an inventor. I didn't ask my father to remind me. I just installed it myself. Yes, I have installed several looks! Humph!"

When Lilly turned his head, Suzi also saw Arron's face.

At this moment, the man's face of Leng Junyi, which was cut like a sword and axe, was twisted by Shen Zhongzhu, a little deformed, like a pig with a long nose.

Suzi couldn't hold back a single one: "Puff..."

After laughing, she regretted it.

I was afraid that Arron would break her neck.

But when he saw Arron lift Lilly up, looking at Lilly with a very loving look, he said affectionately: "Awesome! Worthy of being my seed of Arron!"

Not only is the man not angry at all, he is also very proud.

Maybe, this is one thing dropping one thing, right?
