

Chapter 367

When Suzi recalled this period, the car had been driving forward. When Suzi reacted, she looked at Arron in surprise: "You...what are you doing? No... ..Isn't it the only one?"

"Get you a car." The man said calmly

"I...I can't drive." Suzi stammered.

The man didn't look at Suzi, but asked in a steady tone: "Do you know how to walk when you are born?"

Suzi: "..."

"Puff..." Christopher couldn't help but laughed in front of him.

He discovered that since the Fourth Master brought his wife back from Quxian County, he was forcibly stuffed with dog food from time to time.

Moreover, the way the Fourth Master stuffs dog food is different from other men.

The way Master stuffed dog food for his men was fierce. When I stuffed it in, I thought it was bitter and spicy. I only knew it after tasting it. It was very sweet.

In this world, how can anyone buy a car for a beloved woman and ask people that way?

Master can ask that way.

Suzi lowered his head slightly, pursed his lips and smiled: "No... can't walk."

After she finished speaking, she said again: "Then you have to wait for me to learn a driver's license first. Three...three months later, it's not too late to buy..."

In fact, she didn't want a car at all.

She is a person who has not even found a job and will continue to find a job tomorrow. What kind of car does she use? If you have a car, you don't need to keep a car!

However, Suzi did not dare to refute the man.

The man did not speak anymore.

The car continued to drive forward and came to the Fourth S shop, facing a crowd of luxury vehicles, Suzi was dazzled.

She doesn't understand cars at all.

"This one!" Arron said directly, pointing to a car.

Suzi didn't know what brand the car was. He only saw the clerk nodding and bowing to Arron. After completing the formalities, Arron sat in the new car and took Suzi to the kindergarten.

The driver behind Christopher: "..."

This...Is it declared that I am laid off?

When I was about to ask the fourth master, the fourth master was already driving away with his wife without a trace.

It was half an hour late today to pick up Lilly. Lilly was a little unhappy. When she saw Mom and Dad, she didn't blame her mother. She only rolled her eyes and looked at Arron: "Daddy, badass, are you too busy at work? So my mother has been waiting for your car, right!"

Arron didn't explain, but said: "It won't be anymore."

Lilly asked: "Why?"

"Because, your mother will have your mother's own car in the future! She is responsible for picking you up, and if it is too late to pick you up, it won't be my problem!" Arron said solemnly.

Suzi: "..."

Lilly was happily like something: "You, is what you said is true? Did you buy a car for my mother? Where is it, take me to see."

After finishing speaking, Shen Only led Suzi and ran out.

When he came to the new car, Shen Only was even more happy. She made a few laps around the car, and then took Arron's arm to make him squat down.

Lilly whispered to Arron's ear and said: "Smelly badass, tell you a secret."

Chapter 368

Arron: "..."

Although the little thing called him a badass, his attitude towards him was much more intimate than when he first came. Lilly lay beside Arron's ear and said very quietly, "Dad, I've heard my mother dream before."

Arron: "..."

Subconsciously, he glanced at Suzi.

Suzi looked at the father and daughter with unidentified eyes.

Lilly continued: "My mother said in her dream that she don't want to like you. Actually I know what it means, it means that my mother likes you very much!"

Arron: "..."

This little thing!

As expected of Arron's kind, the five-year-old little girl can already see the words and deeds of the adults. The five-year-old girl understands her mother's inner thoughts very well in her heart, so she will be in the Fu's old house. Doing such an earth-shattering, killing three birds with one stone, defending her mother's sovereignty.

Standing outside the car, Suzi watched his father and daughter muttering. Suzi couldn't help being curious: "What are you two talking about? Only, what secret do you have to tell your dad? You won't be in school again. Did you fight?"

Suzi didn't even notice it. When she spoke to the only one, she called Arron "Your dad." 'But what Arron heard was clear.

At this moment, Arron suddenly realized that he seemed to have been given a routine by the mother and daughter a long time ago!

The man snorted coldly: "Say you gave birth to a good daughter! A good daughter who will seek sovereignty for you!"

Suzi: "..."

"Get in the car!" Arron said.

The mother and daughter then got into the car. There were only three members on the way home this time, but Shen Zizhi had more words than before. She lay in her mother's arms and watched the roadside scenery along the way, twittering like a little sparrow along the way.

In the past, Uncle Christopher sent her to the kindergarten every day.

Although mom and dad are sitting in the back, it feels different.

Shen's only feeling now is the feeling of being with his parents like other children in kindergarten.

"From now on, can I ask my parents to pick me up every day?" Shen Only asked.

Suzi: "..."

This matter cannot help her.

"If you can be obedient every day, all the toys you want to play with are assembled by yourself, eat well and sleep well, I will consider it." Arron said solemnly.

"Okay! No problem!" Lilly immediately agreed.

Suzi found that even if Arron had never brought a child, he did have his own way of educating children. He could easily make Lilly only obedient and disciplined.

With the guidance and instruction of men, Suzi, the mother, is much more worry-free.

When he returned home in the evening, Lilly was really obedient to eat, and he was not picky. Both meat and vegetables matched well. After dinner, he played with Arron in the toy room as usual.

When Arron bought toys for Lilly, he called it extravagance and waste. A toy room is 50 or 60 square meters, which is equivalent to a small apartment. The entire toy room is full of toys.

Boys, girls, water guns, Barbie dolls, fighter jets, armored vehicles, kitchen toys for cooking, everything.

Seeing the father and daughter playing so unhappily, Suzi couldn't get in either. She went back to her small bedroom and thought about where to find a job tomorrow. As soon as she thought that she had been able to work for two days and she was opened, although Suzi was a little unwilling, she also learned a lesson from it.

She felt that she might not be suitable for designing in the office.

During the five or six years in Quxian County, she was doing chores on the construction site from the beginning, and then said that when she was just released from prison and took care of Aunt Shanna in the hospital, she often ran on her skills.
