Chapter 1131: Show 1 hand

The party was held in an off-campus coffee shop, and Qin Yu's packing was organized by relatives of school leaders.

Children's play area on the first floor, as well as professional supervision.

On the second floor, there is a hall suitable for gatherings of many people, as well as a private room separated by green plants.

Qin Yu found a place in the middle, surrounded by green plants, with high privacy.

"Sister Han, what would you like to drink?" Qin Yu scanned the code to order.

"I want a cappuccino, milk and sugar."

"I want a glass of water."

12 yuan for a cup of water, is the minimum consumption?

While waiting for coffee, Qin Yu asked her doubts: "Sister Han, are you not in tune with the parents?"

"no."

Han Jia shook his head and said, "I just...not come often. On weekdays, drivers and nanny come."

"so."

Qin Yu nodded clearly, and said in vain: "Then you come today?"

Han Jia used his index finger to push the long hair behind his ears, pretending to be indifferent.

"Didn't you sign up today? I'll take a look."

Brother Yu smiled, and then turned to ask about her family's business.

"Thanks to your care."

"Sister Han has a good reputation, but it's just business!"

Han Jia's eyes drooped, and her voice sounded like a dream: "Is it just business?"

"Business is business."

Seeing Han Jia's expression low, the corners of her eyes are reddish.

Qin Yu said again in vain: "Sister Han is Sister Han, isn't it?"

Han Jia raised his head, his eyes were reddish, and he looked at him with joy.

immediately found that her performance was too explicit, nodding her head tenderly like a little daughter, and groaning in anger: "I hate it~"

Walking out of the deck surrounded by trees, Han Jia was already radiant.

Arranged with him to meet at the company tomorrow, and Han Jia took Yaoyao to leave.

After saying goodbye to the parents, they separated from each other.

Qin Yu carried a little pumpkin to the night market street, "Big brother, big brother, young lady."

Little Pumpkin pointed at the beautiful girl passing by the road, and shouted with bright eyes: "Miss Sister, do you want to eat together?"

The girl joked and walked away, her eyes looking at Qin Yu were a bit weird.

Whose child is going to be a girl at a young age.

Brother Yu slapped him on the back of his head, and said, "Shut up, the hair doesn't grow up, you want to shake the sky?"

Little Pumpkin rubbed his head innocently, and muttered in his mouth: "My hair is good, how can it be straight?"

"Is it here, still the same?" The owner of the wonton stall greeted with a smile.

After eating for several days, the boss remembered him.

Mainly, Xiao Caiyan always wears a uniform every time, and it's hard to remember it.

"Wait, no one is here!" Qin Yu said casually, and sat down with a little pumpkin in his arms.

This kid is not honest at all, he keeps looking around.

Seeing the beautiful young lady, her eyes light up, and she wants to go up and make friends with each other.

Had it not been for Brother Yu to press it, it would have been troublesome.

Seeing that he is not honest, Brother Yu ordered two stinky tofu and grilled skewers first, and finally used food to divert his attention.

"Qin Yu, Xiao Luo."

Xiao Caiyan ran over panting, still holding the previous documents in her hand.

"Come on, take a break first." Qin Yu moved the small bench back with his feet.

"thanks."

sat down and took a few breaths before Xiao Caiyan talked about today's experience enthusiastically.

He talked to the leader about the donation and immediately attracted great attention.

There were five meetings in a row on the previous day, just to determine who would start the donation.

"They are fighting a lot one by one, I really think it's the same thing they did."

Xiao Caiyan was spitting out while drinking wontons.

Then he rolled his eyes and smiled like a flower: "Thank you, Qin Yu."

The time was pulled to eight hours ago.

Xiao Caiyan, who was sitting in the meeting room, was blushing as she watched the quarrel among the leaders.

is full of unwillingness, but full of helplessness and grievance.

The big leader set the tone, and this time he personally took the lead.

The rest, like the deputy team leader, are all heads of important departments.

I am a small patrol, what right can I have on this.

can let her just let go and accept her fate like this, Xiao Caiyan is not reconciled, who can be reconciled to change?

This time the donation was made by the boss of Miracle Company for himself...

A touch of shyness appeared on 's face, Xiao Caiyan lowered her head and muttered to herself:

What does it have to do with you people? What excites one or two?

"Okay, stop fighting."

"Contact Miracle Company first, and then do other considerations. Is there a phone number on it?"

Seeing that no one was speaking, Xiao Caiyan's direct leadership looked back.

found that she was sitting in a daze, and couldn't help but feel anxious: "Xiao Caiyan, the leader is asking you something!"

What's going on with Xiao Xiao, he can be distracted on such an important occasion.

However, the thought of her being excluded like this makes the leader feel uncomfortable.

But who is the leader!

Even if you have any dissatisfaction, you have to bear it yourself.

Besides, the donation object of Miracle Company is the patrol house.

You, Xiao Caiyan, are just taking advantage of the situation.

It's a * luck, just to catch this line, do you really think it's all your own credit?

Of course, there is merit in tying the line, and the big leader will naturally remember it.

As for the donation activity, who should lead and take the lead.

That is not what Xiao Caiyan should care about.

It is him, he may not be able to show his face in the camera.

Seeing Xiao Caiyan who handed over the information to the senior leader, the leader sighed helplessly.

Eh~

However, she was calm.

Xiao Caiyan has mixed feelings in her heart, but she can't express it.

Is there any awareness and discipline?

Besides, how can she just show it?

Make a noise like a child, do you lie on the ground and roll around?

Although Qin Yu said that, but...

just talk about it, right? ? ?

"Xiao Xun arrested, did a good job, everyone will remember your credit."

Transfer the information to others, and the big leader has already written up the draft.

How to communicate with the other party, follow-up contact...

Will the other party have any additional requirements, and can they negotiate terms?

"Leader, the phone is connected." The assistant put on the phone.

"Hey, I am the patrol room..."

The call lasted only a few minutes before it ended. The leaders sitting in the conference room looked at each other.

When looked at Xiao Caiyan again, her eyes were filled with surprise and suspicion.

This girl, is there any hidden origin?

The big leader took a deep look at Xiao Caiyan, that delicate and beautiful young face.

suddenly reminded him of external rumors: Qin Yu, the owner of Miracle Company, is not happy with women.

Perhaps, the rumors are true, and this donation is really directed at her.

"We only talk to Xiao Xun arrested. This is what the boss meant. Someone will call her in person later, sorry..."

Thinking of the answer I heard earlier on the phone, the leader felt aggrieved!

Silently shook his head, the leader put down the phone, and said in deep thought: "Since it was the other party's meaning, then, Xiao Xiao, thank you for your hard work."

"If you need anything, please mention it. I will let all departments cooperate fully."

Hearing what the big leader said, Xiao Caiyan was excited in her heart and waved her hands in trepidation: "Leader, I can't do it, I can't be the master."

The big leader smiled gently and said: "If there is anything you can't do, just ask me."

"Well, that's all for today's meeting, let's go busy!"

The big leader left the meeting first when he finished speaking. His face was so hot that he had to wash two hands in cold water.

At the food stall, facing Xiao Caiyan's gleaming eyes, Qin Yu said calmly: "Don't thank you, thank you, when will you be a head?"

"If you really want to thank me."

Qin Yu thought for a while, just to see the snack on the table: "Please invite you to this meal today."

"Okay, let alone this meal, it's okay to cook in person." After that, Xiao Caiyan's expression was taken aback.

What are you doing, why did you think of cooking for him?

"Does Xiao Xun catch still cook?" Qin Yu was a little surprised.

"Then I have to try, Xiao Xun arrest will not refuse, right?" Qin Yu opened her mouth and blocked her mouth.

She said the words herself, how could it be so good to refuse?

"Okay, then tomorrow..."

"Stop tomorrow, just now!"

Qin Yu decisively called the boss to pay the bill, and then said: "I have been drinking wontons for a few days, my stomach is empty and I haven't had a full meal."

"It's not too late to go to the market now."

Xiao Caiyan checked out in a daze, and then followed him into the car in a daze.

Two cars drove one after the other into the main road and stopped in front of Nanhu Manor.

"Big brother, big brother, I want to eat delicious too." Little Pumpkin jumped and said.

"Go to bed and go to class tomorrow morning." He rubbed his head vigorously, making a mess of his hair.

Little Pumpkin hugged his head in a gloomy mood, and ran towards the door: "Big brother hates me to death. If you have a beautiful sister, you don't want me, oooo..."

, Xiao Caiyan, who was waiting next to him, was full of innocence, "Who am I, where am I, what did I do?"

"Go, is there a supermarket near your house?"

"Oh, yes...what do you want to eat?"

"Seafood noodles, sauce crabs, do you know how to make them?" Qin Yu smiled and put on his helmet.

"Is the requirement so low?"

Xiao Caiyan raised her brows and said proudly, "Today, I will show you a good hand."

"Really? I really can't wait. UU read www.uukanshu.com" Qin Yu chuckled the light and twisted the accelerator to follow.

Drive into the underground garage and reach the elevator to the 7th floor.

At the end of on the right is Xiao Caiyan's house, and there is a neighbor on the other side.

"One elevator, one household, although it is not a direct access to the elevator, but it is also very good." Xiao Caiyan said casually.

"It's very clean, what's the price?"

"When I bought it, it was more than nine thousand, now it is almost 40,000." Xiao Caiyan replied somewhat proudly.

"Then you have made a profit." Qin Yu smiled.

"That's...but I'm used to live, not an investment."

If you open the door, turn on the light.

Xiao Caiyan invited him in, talking and laughing, "Wait, I'm looking for slippers."

looked around in the shoe cabinet, Xiao Caiyan put a pair of pink slippers in front of him.

"I don't have men's slippers, you will just take a look." Xiao Caiyan apologized.

Looking at the girly pink slippers with rabbit ears on the surface, Brother Yu's expression is very wonderful.

At this moment, Xiao Caiyan suddenly yelled.

The wind rushed towards the living room, and the small strip of lace hung on the back of the sofa disappeared into her hands.

Tucked her pocket in twos and threes, Xiao Caiyan rolled the scattered clothes on the sofa into a ball, and rushed to the bedroom in her arms.

Chapter 1133: You are not worthy~

When there was no movement outside, Xiao Caiyan opened the door quietly.

looked at the probe and asked, "Are you gone?"

"Yes, just left."

Qin Yu sat on the sofa, patted and smiled: "It's very flexible, I think it must be strong."

Xiao Caiyan stepped forward and sat down and said, "It's very comfortable. How did you choose this color?"

The gray tone does not conflict with the decoration of the room.

is the vividness before the disappearance, Xiao Caiyan is not used to it for a while.

Qin Yu touched the material on it with his hand, "This color is easy to take care of!"

With a pun, Xiao Caiyan raised her fist and hammered his shoulder a few times, and said shyly: "Let you talk nonsense, let you talk nonsense."

"What did I say?" He grabbed her fist and pulled it into her arms.

The whole person fell into his arms, struggling with a 'woo woo'.

Waiting for Xiao Caiyan to escape from his imprisonment, all the "plain makeup" on her face was spent.

"I hate it." After giving him a hard punch, Xiao Caiyan walked quickly to the bathroom.

Brush your teeth, rinse your mouth, spray freshener.

put his hand in front of him after finishing it, and breathed into the palm of his hand.

tasteless!

Xiao Caiyan went back to the room to reapply makeup.

was drawing eyebrows, and there was an extra figure in the mirror.

Xiao Caiyan was startled, and said in a panic: "Don't make trouble, I'm going to be late."

"If you draw yours, I will look at it."

Qin Yu smiled and sat on the side of the bed honestly.

Seeing that he didn't move, Xiao Caiyan continued to smear her face.

After a while, Brother Yu was tired.

Being a woman is so troublesome, just these bottles and cans are applied to the face in the same way.

I'm tired when I look at it.

was applying lip glaze, and Xiao Caiyan felt a little panicky on her chest.

Looking down, the roots of his ears were red and he said, "Didn't you say you don't make trouble?"

"I didn't make trouble, they did it themselves." Qin Yu said solemnly.

He can swear to the light in the mirror, he moved his hand first...

It has its own ideas, and I am helpless too!

After a long time of tossing, I can finally go out.

When she got to the door to change her shoes, Xiao Caiyan couldn't leave again.

Calf cramps, delayed for a long time at the door.

was full of sweat, and then eased back.

The makeup was painted white again, "Forget it, I'll just go like this."

applied a toner, Xiao Caiyan reluctantly put on a mask and went out without makeup.

She really can't afford to toss, she is going to be late!

"Eating together tonight?" Qin Yu asked her before leaving the parking lot.

Who knows Xiao Caiyan heard it, and said nervously, "I have a task today, another day, another day."

Seeing her running away in a hurry, Brother Yu smiled helplessly: "Eh, invincible~ how lonely."

Without Xiao Xun arresting, the days seemed to be free all of a sudden.

On the way back to the company, Qin Yu wondered if he wanted to call Xu Yue.

Who knew that Brother Yu was dumbfounded when he arrived at the office.

Feng Shuyi is still doing today's briefing, but what is she doing with a pillow in her hand?

"Boss, Secretary Feng has the full authority to represent me today."

After explaining to Qin Yu, Xu Meixin turned to face Feng Shuyi and smiled gracefully: "Let's start?"

The company's various businesses are progressing smoothly, according to the news received before.

The fleet led by He Wu has gained a lot in different spaces.

Although encountered several dangers, with the assistance of the Weeping Band, they effectively resolved the crisis.

Now, the establishment of a strong base camp can be regarded as an initial foothold.

Through the colonial rule of the 'alien', sufficient vitality and supplies of necessary materials were obtained.

The latest report from the Beizhou Laboratory shows that the experiment of Sister Kuer is progressing smoothly, and the radiation 'wildness' has fully recovered.

The combat power is close to Daisy, and there is still potential to be tapped.

The radiated area of the Lingang polluted area is reduced by one centimeter inward, which is speculated to be the work of the 'Healing Heart'.

RRT is paying close attention to the follow-up development to ensure the safety of the 'Healing Heart'.

At the same time, the Longevity Project has also entered the first phase of experimentation.

Diluted to a one-thousandth concentration of 'gene drug,' an experimental injection of two disabled veterans.

The two applied on their own initiative and were recommended by the Disability Association.

Due to physical injuries and mental injuries, the situation of the two is very unstable.

has a very serious tendency to self-destruct, and the Disability Association sent them over, also wanting to give them a new hope of survival.

If they can survive the experiment, the Disability Association will approve the operation.

When it comes, whether it is genetic modification or mechanical modification.

depends on the specific situation and their personal wishes.

This is also the first cooperation between the company and the Disability Association. If this cooperation goes well.

is equivalent to opening a brand new channel.

In the follow-up, there will be a steady stream of disabled veterans who will be approved to enter the transformation experiment phase.

This is also an extremely significant breakthrough for the company.

You must know that the company intends to install prostheses for them before, and carry out corresponding transformations that conform to the markings.

But it was rejected by the Ministry of Defense.

They are not only the disabled, but also the heroes behind the scenes who shed blood and sacrificed for the country.

Before the accuracy, potential risks and sequelae of the experiment could not be ensured.

Not only the Ministry of War, other ministries will not approve it.

used this new, immature technology with too many uncertainties on these heroes.

As news of the success of mechanical prostheses and reconstruction flows out, they will naturally learn about the situation and progress from other channels.

have applied to the above, wanting to enter the experimental list.

Even if there are more risks, I am willing to take it!

"No matter what, even if you die on the operating table, it's better than living like this."

People without disabilities cannot experience that kind of pain.

Especially when you cannot accomplish something and you need to rely on others to assist you.

The deep sense of powerlessness and hatred is enough to overwhelm a person's reason.

It is precisely because the following wishes are getting stronger and stronger, the Ministry of War has a faint tendency to be overwhelmed.

Only then has this initial cooperation, which can be regarded as a beginning for the follow-up cooperation.

After reporting the work, Feng Shuyi got up and walked to the laminator.

Seal the bag and throw it into the incinerator!

Hu~

The flames suddenly appeared, shining on Feng Shuyi's uncertain cheeks.

"Secretary Xu...can you please avoid it?"

Feng Shuyi returned to the chair and picked up the white pillow.

The fingertips turned pale and blue due to excessive force.

"I'll go inside and wait." Xu Meixin walked to the suite.

The first time I took over, it was unavoidable to be shy, Xu Meixin could understand.

her complexion changed, Feng Shuyi pinched the pillow and came to the desk, leaving the cushion on the ground.

*

"Oh~"

Feng Shuyi rushed in, covering her mouth and rushing into the bathroom with retching.

Xu Meixin's expression was startled, and she followed up with a smile.

Seeing her retching on the toilet, Xu Meixin took a few pieces of paper and handed it to her.

Waiting for Feng Shuyi to wipe her mouth and stand up, with a glass of water in front of her:
"Swish!"

"Thank you." Feng Shu responded in a complicated manner.

"After a long time, I get used to it."

Xu Meixin patted her on the shoulder and walked out, "After I go back, find something to practice more!"

"boss."

"The salary of Secretary Feng will be increased appropriately, you can figure out the details!"

At this moment, Qin Yu is signing the document in front of him.

There are only a dozen documents that he needs to sign every day.

When there are more, hundreds of copies are possible...

If it weren't for the enhancement of physical fitness, the signing would have to be abolished.

On the other side, Feng Shuyi quietly left the office.

Returning to her position, Feng Shuyi devoted herself to work.

In this way, she will no longer be entangled!

"Secretary Feng, it's off work." Bei Yi, who was packing her things, patted her and said.

"Thank you, I see." Nodding and thanking, Feng Shuyi packed up and left the building.

As soon as he arrived at the parking lot, a big bouquet of roses popped out in front of him.

"Shu Yi, associate with me!" The lingering Zhang Ze jumped out again.

"Get off." Feng Shuyi yelled suddenly The pungency made Zhang Zeleng in place, he had never seen Feng Shuyi like this.

In Zhang Ze's memory, she is always so noble and glamorous, polite and polite, but gentle but not far away.

was suddenly angry like this, never before!

"Shu Yi..." Zhang Ze was silly on the spot, and the rose dragged her head down on the ground.

"I said let you go, don't you understand human words?" Feng Shuyi embraced her arms and looked at him coldly and contemptuously.

"I always thought that being too direct would hurt you."

"But seeing you look so stubborn, I'll make it clear today."

"I don't like you at all. No matter what it is, you don't have to show off your family business, I don't care!"

"No matter what happens between us, it is impossible."

"In the past...now...in the future, I don't want to see you again, understand?"

Hearing Feng Shuyi's indifferent refusal, Zhang Ze widened his eyes in disbelief: "Shuyi, I..."

"You are not worthy, understand?" Putting aside the cold words, Feng Shuyi walked proudly to her car.

In my mind, I kept thinking about scenes in the office.

As if my mind has become a player, pulling forward frame by frame...

Zhang Ze, who stayed in the same place with a distressed back, still kept asking himself in his mind: "What am I doing wrong?"

Chapter 1134: Silver Wing Shine

The unfeeling of the goddess made Zhang Ze very sad.

I have made so much effort and change for her, why can't she see it?

The essence of licking a dog is self-moving!

I always feel that my changes are extremely rare, and put in countless efforts and hardships for the goddess.

Anyway, she should be moved by this too?

In fact, lick the dog for a day, and lick the dog for life.

No matter how much does, it will only welcome the sentence "He is like a dog!"

Private empty road, Qin Yu is taking a special speed car to Hudu.

The transformation of the local dog is over, and Qin Yu has to send it to Tongtong. The little guy has asked many times.

There is also Teacher Shen, who actually called himself to invite himself to eat at home.

This is the first time, how could Brother Yu refuse?

The speeding car successfully arrived in the town, and first went to the hive.

Shi Cui held the dog in one hand and handed it to Qin Yu, with reluctance in his eyes.

This made Qin Yu vigilant, holding the dog in front of him and looking again.

Checked it several times and was relieved to confirm that it had no changes except for the nano-prosthetic leg and there was no radiation.

He was really afraid that Shi Cui would come up with a new radiation species.

"gone."

"boss."

looked back at Shi Cui, Qin Yu's eyes were questioning.

"...If its owner doesn't want it, I can raise it instead."

Shi Cui pushed his glasses, showing a rare shy expression.

"good."

Qin Yu nodded and agreed, and raised the dog in front of him, as if to see it through from the inside out.

Iron-hearted Dr. Shi, would he be moved by it?

You can be so patience, what a real thing you are!

is pretty smart...

No, it should be said that it is perfect.

is not noisy or noisy, nor will he scream casually, as if he found that Qin Yu was curious about it.

crawling on all fours, lying on the seat obediently motionless, let him look at it at will.

Waiting for a smile on Brother Yu's face, the little thing stood up immediately, "Woo~" made a coquettish groan, tentatively stepped forward and rubbed his head against his arm.

"You will still invite pets, you are really a clever ghost." Qin Yu rubbed his neck with his hands.

The little thing crooked and fell on the seat to enjoy his caress.

Qin Yu was also a little bit reluctant to wait for it to be delivered to the place.

This little thing is really pleasing!

"Little Grey Grey~"

Hearing the movement, Tongtong rushed out of the door and yelled happily with open arms.

Hearing the master's call, the dog's eyes lit up and he ran towards him.

"Haha, Xiao Huihui, you have claws."

picked up the pounced Xiao Huihui, Tongtong happily held it in a circle.

The little thing's eyes widened, and the dog was dumbfounded, 'so tall, dizzy...I'm going to pee.'

surrounded the trees in the courtyard, and sprinkled two drops under each tree.

Xiao Huihui declares his territorial sovereignty to the outside world.

Mine, all mine, wow~

"Uncle, how come its paws are different from mine." Tong Tong raised his hand and asked curiously.

"It's a claw, of course it's different." Yalan said with a smile when she walked out of the house.

looked back at her, Qin Yu raised his arm.

Yalan's cheeks are reddish, and she whispers to herself.

obediently walked to the other side, letting his big hand wrap his waist.

"Tongtong asked about the material, right?"

Tongtong nodded vigorously, and glanced at his mother disgustedly, 'woman, don't pretend to understand.'

"Begging for a fight." Ya Lan gave him an angry glance.

The mature posture with all kinds of amorous feelings makes the big hands walk up and down the plump waist.

"The materials are indeed different. Xiao Hui Hui uses nano materials, which is more excellent and advanced in theory."

"Uncle, uncle, I also want to change the nano material."

Tongtong must not be happy to hear that his hands are inferior to the little gray claws.

"I'm talking about theory."

Qin Yu rubbed his head and calmly said: "This kind of technology is not stable and there is a risk of losing control."

"So, when it is finished later, my uncle will take you to a new one."

Tongtong promised, and his cuteness makes people feel distressed.

is such a good boy!

"Out of control, there is no danger, right?" Yalan was a little worried.

My son likes Xiao Huihui so much, he has to take it with him wherever he goes.

always stick together, if it gets out of control...

"Don't worry, the technicians have made a defense mechanism. Once they have a tendency to lose control, they will immediately terminate the program."

Although all aspects of abilities have declined, it is completely incomparable with Qin Yu's nanoworms.

The stability can be greatly enhanced, but it is not 100% sure that it is harmless.

So, with the support of Kylin.

Nanoworm is equipped with a 'fuse mechanism,' once triggered, it will self-destruct.

With his assurance, Yalan's worries diminished a little.

But I still remind myself in my heart that I must pay attention to the anomaly of Xiaohuihui.

Playing with Tongtong in the yard until dark, the little guy was too tired to open his eyelids.

hugged him back to the bed and took off his coat.

pulled the quilt away and covered him, Qin Yu smiled and rubbed his head and walked out of the room.

"Are you tired from playing?" Yalan leaned against the corridor wall, her body glowing with a motherly glow.

"Well, I fell asleep." Qin Yu nodded.

"I'm going to cook dinner, do you want to eat?"

"Home cooking!"

In the living room, Qin Yu who wanted to help was kicked out.

Lying on the sofa, Qin Yu closed his eyes and sleeps, 'system.'

Recently, his luck seems to be good, and Qin Yu intends to use up all the rewards accumulated before.

'Ding!'

'Congratulations to the host for conquering the white moonlight of thousands of boys and triggering the conquest reward!'

'Reward: Medusa-class flagship.'

This award comes from Feng Shuyi, and the Medusa-class flagship appeared in just one spoken word.

This is also the reason why Qin Yu will let Xu Meixin improve her treatment!

Unfortunately, it failed to trigger the 'Miracle Light.'

2 draws, 121 faith cards.

Each faith card randomly draws out 1~140 faith points.

Today, I'm going to stud.

"Open all faith cards."

"Are you sure to turn it on?"

"Sure."

"Faith +132."

"Faith +115."

"Faith +69."

"Faith +139..."

Seeing the faith value soaring like riding a rocket, Qin Yu's mood is getting better and better.

Open the mall, the faith value is 31743.

trillion, this unit is still hopeless for him!

'Open the lucky wheel.'

On the turntable where appears again, the reward has been replaced.

The rewards in the golden area are replaced by the "Meteor Star Kinetic Mech" and the "Kinetic Weapon Refined · Bound Edition."'

"Start the lottery draw."

The sky is spiritual, the earth is spiritual...

The sky is spiritual, the earth is spiritual...

Looking at the rapidly spinning disk, Qin Yu couldn't help but pray for good luck.

Meteor power mech and kinetic energy weapon refined and bound edition, these two brothers want both.

Between the two, Qin Yu wants the latter more.

Knowledge is always the most precious!

The speed of the disc is getting slower and slower, slower and slower, the pointer slides over white, green, blue, silver...

The disc almost no longer rotates, and Brother Yu's heart also lifted up.

No way, no way!

will not stop at...Ha, golden.

Brother Yu almost jumped up in excitement, staring intently, his smile even brighter.

Kinetic energy weapon refined and bound edition, really got it!

The golden area belongs to the "Kinetic Weapon Refined · Binding Edition", and the position fades, and new rewards appear.

'High-energy crystal column matrix.'

Brother Yu is tangled, what do you want to do?

"Continue to draw prizes."

The disc speeds up and turns into a phantom.

'Obtained the meteor star power mech·Silver Wing Shine.'

A silver mech with a light blade on its back is full of perfect streamlines, and a humanoid mecha with metal wings on the back appears in front of me.

Heavy assault mech.

The whole body is made of black spot flare stone, and the surface is coated with flare.

is not only very strong in defense, the glare coating can resist all known radiation energy and convert it into its own kinetic energy.

In another sense, it is equivalent to having unlimited power.

And, unlike the mecha loaded with 'Higher Energy Crystal' as energy, it will lose power when the power chamber is detonated.

As long as the damage of Silver Wing Flare does not exceed 76%, it will never lose its combat capability.

The biggest feature of the black spot flare stone is super healing and memory.

In other words, even if the damage exceeds 76%.

As long as the core cockpit does not receive a fatal blow, give it enough time, Silver Wing Glory will be reborn.

Its light blade weapon is indestructible and can cut through any known material.

The metal double wings can be split into thousands of finger blades, which can be operated remotely through the 'Force Field'.

The force field of Silver Wing Shine is also its strongest spear and shield!

Defense decomposes the attack, penetrates the enemy's defense, resists a wide range of attacks, and avoids accidental injury.

has a force field, which can make Silver Wing Shine invincible in the chaotic interstellar war!

"Reward is being issued..."

Seeing the coordinates of the awards, Qin Yu immediately contacted Xu Meixin.

"Secretary Xu, take someone to the warehouse. Warehouse No. 18 is listed as the top secret and is protected and blocked equally."

"Yes... everything will wait until I get back."

"Okay, that's it."

Who to give this Silver Wing Yaoguang to use, Yu Ge hasn't decided yet.

If you have to talk about tendencies, He Wu is the best candidate!

The situation in the different space is complicated. UU Reading www.uukanshu.com has a powerful power mech that allows them to better complete the exploration mission and ensure the safety of the fleet and themselves.

However, no matter who will use it in the end!

Qin Yu wants to cool off by himself...

Just seeing its cool appearance in the projection made his blood boil.

Anyway, I will definitely have to enjoy myself!

"Qin Yu, have dinner." Ya Lan said in the kitchen.

"I'll get Tongtong up."

After dinner, the boy who just slept back to sleep has become more energetic.

pulled Qin Yu and Yalan, running wildly in the yard to chase them.

It wasn't until the night was quiet and the community became silent. Then, under the urging of Yalan, I washed and went to bed.

"Uncle, can I still play together tomorrow?" Tongtong asked nervously while sitting on the bed holding Xiao Huihui.

"Uncle has to work during the day, and come back to accompany you at night, okay?" Qin Yu stretched out his little finger.

"Hook!"

"good."

Tongtong laughed happily, letting go of Xiao Huihui and his hook: "Hanging on the hook, it won't change for a hundred years, whoever changes is ugly!"

rubbed his head and told him to go to sleep quickly.

Qin Yu gently closed the door and walked to the master bedroom, "Sister Yalan, today is a good day!"

All the candles were lit in the house, and Ya Lan, who was full of ritual sense, looked back charmingly: "I have been waiting for you for a long time!"

Chapter 1135: Title Jun is not alive

Yalan is getting what she wants, but Han Jia, who is far away in the abandoned city, sighs.

I promised to meet!

can wait for Han Jia to dress elegantly and nobly, wearing a * inner liner and black silk suspenders to arrive at the company.

Secretary Xu Meixin, who is beautiful enough to make any woman feel threatened, told her lightly, "The boss is out in a hurry, so you can tell me anything!"

Han Jia is short of breath, tell you, do you have it?

Returning home full of resentment, Han Jia fidgeted and took out his mobile phone, "Help me book a ticket to Hudu, yes, the fastest..."

Early in the morning, the bedroom door opened.

Yalan helped her waist and walked out, her expression a little bit painful!

He fell asleep with a pillow on his waist last night.

After got up, the waist felt a little twisted.

It doesn't hurt much, but it's uncomfortable...

"I told you not to do that, we have time." Seeing her awkwardly moving forward, Qin Yu hugged her up to the living room with distress and amusement.

"I don't have so much time, I am not young anymore, one day less one day later." Yalan said, rubbing her waist and frowning.

She is 36 years old, and one year old will pass in a few months.

Although not a high-risk mother, she is also a member of the elderly.

Yalan doesn't worry about her body, whether she can bear the burden of a rebirth.

What she worries about is whether or not to get it!

What if, I have no chance? ? ?

"Don't worry, there will be."

Qin Yu leaned over and rubbed her belly, and said with a chuckle: "Is it right? There must be."

"Don't make trouble."

Yalan grinned and slapped his hand away, but she couldn't help but touch her belly.

Maybe, this time is really okay?

"I have to get up to make breakfast, is it okay to make an omelet?" Yalan said that she was about to get up, her expression immediately pained.

"Don't move, are there any familiar masseurs?" Qin Yu asked.

"Yes, the phone is in the drawer over there." Yalan pointed to the closet on the wall.

helped her call and called the masseur to come.

Qin Yu went upstairs to wake up Tongtong and took him out for breakfast.

When the two came back, wearing black uniforms and wearing a name badge, the young and beautiful girl was already pressing for Yalan.

"What's wrong with mom?" Tongtong asked worriedly and curiously when she saw her clenched expression every time she was pressed.

"Mom's waist is uncomfortable, can Tongtong go and play on her own, and wait for her to accompany you after her massage."

Yalan said softly and softly, and the masseur also echoed: "When my sister is done with my mother, I can play with you!"

"good."

Tongtong nodded and looked back at Qin Yu: "Uncle is going to leave?"

"Well, see you tonight."

bent over and nodded on his nose, Qin Yu greeted Yalan and walked towards the door.

Xiao Huihui who emerged from nowhere stood beside Tongtong, with his tongue sticking out, and his tail wagging upwards to watch him leave.

Ling Ling~

As soon as I arrived at the door, the phone rang.

嘍~

It turned out to be JK Jia Jingsi, "Sour and sour..."

"Uncle, why didn't you tell me when you went back to Shanghai?"

"Do you have time tonight? Let's go to eat together, I know there is a seafood buffet that is delicious and the price is not expensive!"

"Uncle, I miss you."

Little JK finished speaking in one breath, and then Qin Yu had a chance to speak, "No tonight, how about tomorrow, do you have more classes?"

"Well, in the afternoon, I won't go to the library in the afternoon. Uncle will come to pick me up, okay?"

promised to pick her up at the school gate tomorrow, and then the little JK made a silly smile.

"Remember to dress beautifully."

"Why don't you wear it, big~uncle~"

'S babbling sheep sound made Brother Yu tremble all over.

This little fairy, wait until tomorrow to meet her and clean her up...

put down the phone and was about to put it back in his pocket.

Ling Ling~

"What day is it, so busy?" He laughed self-deprecatingly, picked it up and showed it was 'Sister Han.'

"Oh, forget it!"

Brother Yu pressed the call button, before he even spoke, Han Jia's voice came: "Where?"

"Sister Han, Hudu has an urgent matter to deal with, so..."

"I know you are crossing Hudu, and so am I."

"Um?"

After half an hour, the poison with a return rate of 1,000% stopped in front of the Waldorf Astoria on the Bund.

Butler Yao stepped forward and opened the door, "Shao Qin, welcome home!"

Brother Yu has heard these words many times, but every time he feels very warm.

It's not about what Old Yao said.

The focus is on the tone, full of sincerity, and the sincere emotion from the heart makes the whole body transparent.

"Old Yao, let's quit!" Qin Yu said jokingly.

"Qin Shao, no matter where I am, you can just tell Old Yao what you need."

"You, you, the older you get, the more slippery you are."

Fingers shook imaginarily, Qin Yu followed him to the hotel, "Prepare some food, and another bottle of red wine, you will arrange the rest!"

"Okay, Shao Qin, I'll deliver it to the door myself later." Old Yao made a knock on the door, with a smirk on his face.

This is the secret code between them, things have arrived, three long and one short.

"Thanks for your hard work."

Watching him push the door into the room, Old Yao turned around to prepare what he wanted.

"Sister Han." Seeing Han Jia sitting on the sofa in a daze, Qin Yu stepped forward and sat down next to her.

"Um~ It's really hard to see you." Han Jia looked cold and angry.

"Why, it's not a sudden emergency." Qin Yu stretched out his arm and hugged her waist.

Han Jia struggled a few times, but found it was useless.

simply stopped struggling, and the appointed person leaned in his arms: "You are just a little jerk."

"Yes, but can you just say bastard, Xiao... it sounds a bit harsh!" Qin Yu said with a strange smile.

Han Jia covered her mouth and snickered, "It's not true, it's not like you are..."

"It seems that Sister Han remembers her clearly."

"Where is it, yuck~"

"Who wants to remember you, don't move."

"What? Who is moving?"

"You, ah~"

"Be careful, I bite you~"

was screaming on the sofa, the door of the room knocked suddenly, 铿~铿~铿.

Two long and one short, it is old Yao.

opened the door and two dining cars parked in the corridor.

Qin Yu looked to both sides, only seeing the back of old Yao far away.

Pulling the dining car into the room, thunder and fire~

"Tell President Hua, she can make up her mind about this kind of thing."

"Beizhou, let Team Leader Jing do things cheaply."

"Yes, the two-day itinerary has been cancelled, and the arrangement will be redone later."

Hanging up, Qin Yu looked down at Sister Han who was in her arms, "Is that satisfied?"

"You still have a conscience." Han Jia raised her eyebrows proudly, very proud of herself.

It seems that he still has some weight in his heart.

buzzing~

Today's phone call was extremely busy, I just picked it up and took a look.

Qin Yu found that it was not his own, and Han Jia sat up next to him, and said with an unnatural expression: "I'll answer the phone."

walked to the living room frankly, the edge of the auricle of Yu Ge's right ear lit up with a dark red luster, and disappeared instantly.

"Hey... I'm in Hudu, yes, what else can I do besides business talk?"

"Waldorf Astoria, what's wrong?"

"...I'll talk about it later."

The red light flashed again, and Qin Yu opened the quilt and walked to the bathroom with a weird expression.

Han Jia's previous crazy performance, combined with what I heard on the phone...

The amount of information is a bit big!

After Qin Yu took a shower, Han Jia had already painted light makeup.

"Where do you want to go shopping?" Qin Yu asked casually, brushing her hair.

"I heard that you have a super tanker, can you take me out to sea?" Han Jia looked at him expectantly.

Qin Yu is a bit embarrassed. If he will go to sea, he can't guarantee that he will return to Liancheng on the east coast before dinner.

I have made an appointment with Tongtong, so I must rush back before dinner!

"Can't it?" Han Jia lowered his head somewhat disappointed.

Brother Yu said helplessly: "It's not impossible, but there is a party at night."

After thinking about it, Brother Yu had an idea: "In this way, let's get on the boat and stroll around. We have everything on it, and we are sure to satisfy you."

"If I go to sea, I will try my best to make arrangements." Qin Yu couldn't guarantee this.

has already promised to pick up JK tomorrow, he will not easily fail.

If tonight is over early, if you go to sea early in the morning, come back at noon, and have lunch with Han Jia at the hotel, and then pick up JK.

In time, it should be opened.

went through the whole process in his mind, Yu Ge showed a confident smile: "Go."

buzzing~

The grumpy engine roared in place, and drove forward under Han Jia's enjoyable scream.

Exit the ring road into a secluded trail and increase the throttle.

Boom!

The poison that lifted the restriction was shot swiftly, and the strong push back made Han Jia's heart beat wildly.

The shadows of the trees on both sides of are blurred, as if a space-time tunnel leading to another world is opened in front of him.

squeak~

The sky revolves around the world, and the body drifts in place and leans against the fence.

Han Jia's body shook, as if the soul floating out of the body returned to her shell: "Huh~huh~" panted, and then looked at Qin Yu, who was not changing his face next to him.

"I found out that I don't know you at all!" Han Jia said wistfully.

bent over to help her unfasten the seat belt, Qin Yu pressed her ear and said: "It's okay, you have enough time to understand."

took her into the Metropolitan Yacht Club, Qin Yu waved to the management office.

Someone rushed out Shao Qin, you are going to sea today, I now let people prepare. "

"No, let's go on the boat and have fun. We may have to go out in the early morning, so let someone prepare first."

"Okay, I'll ask someone to build a board."

Stepping on the activity deck, the two successfully boarded the Rhapsody Paradise.

"Wow~"

Covering his mouth with both hands, Han Jia turned around and looked around: "This is too beautiful."

"It's even more beautiful, let's go." Came to the sun room.

The glass facing the club port was turned into pure black, and Han Jia's body was pressed against the glass facing the sea.

"Ha~"

The heat is rising and the sun is setting, it is another beautiful day.

East Coast Liancheng, Yalan brought the food to the table.

glanced at the wall clock, 18:15.

"Tongtong, Uncle may be delayed, shall we eat first?"

"No, no, I have to wait for uncle."

Tongtong sits on the chair with his arms around him, pouting his mouth puffingly.

There are tears brewing in his eyes wide open.

said yes, I will definitely come back.

Uncle doesn't count, I have to wait for him, woo...

Seeing the time passing by one minute and one second, the minute hand points to 6 o'clock.

Tongtong's tears were about to stay, but the doorbell rang in the next second, "Ding Dong, I'm back."

Chapter 1136: Report, there is hanging

"Uncle, try this. Mom made it for you."

"Uncle, uncle, why can't children eat seafood?"

"Uncle, I want to eat oysters, I want to eat, I want to eat..."

A pair of chopsticks knocked on his forehead in a mysterious way, and the noisy Tongtong instantly calmed down.

"Don't make trouble, only adults can eat, children will suffer from indigestion." Yalan babbled solemnly.

Qin Yu scowled and nodded seriously.

Seeing that both of them said so, Tongtong completely gave up thinking about it.

Tongtong took two bites of rice and thought, "When I grow up, I have to eat it every day!" '

Finished the meal as quickly as possible, Tongtong placed her hands on the table and looked at Qin Yu seriously with wide-eyed eyes.

The eyes are clearly full of "Uncle, hurry up and go out to play!" '

I was embarrassed to be seen by him, Qin Yu finished the meal in two mouthfuls and smiled: "Okay, go now."

"Little Huihui, let's go!"

Tongtong raised his right hand and pointed forward, Xiao Huihui dashed out and ran to the back door.

chasing and playing around the grove, Qin Yu and Tongtong play hide-and-seek.

The joyful laughter continued into the middle of the night, Yalan stood in front of the terrace and called the names of the two: "Qin Yu, Tongtong, Tongtong, it's time to go home and sleep."

The sweaty Tongtong ran out of the woods, and a dark figure rushed at him, yelling, "Caught it."

"Ah~ giggle..." Tongtong, who was held in Qin Yu's arms, trembled with laughter.

Yalan stood on the terrace, stroking her lower abdomen, a motherly smile appeared on her face.

Such a life, she is willing to trade everything for her.

"Don't move, I'll play with uncle again."

"No, hahaha."

"Mom, help!"

"Look at my magical powers, you little villain don't want to run."

"Ah, mom..."

Hearing the movement in the bathroom, Yalan stepped forward and said amusedly: "Hey, stop making trouble with you two, they are not kids."

"Am I a kid?" Tongtong said innocently.

"I'm a kid!" Qin Yu learned something.

"Hey!" Yalan smiled helplessly.

These two people are getting more and more noisy, can you save yourself worry!

The sound of water disappeared, Tongtong wrapped in a bath towel wearing a hat, and ran to the room with a choke.

"Tongtong, do you want your mother to wear it for you?"

"No, don't come in, they are older kids."

"Okay, Tongtong is an older child." Yalan laughed and stopped.

Then the bathroom door opened again, and Qin Yu wrapped in a white bath towel and came to face him.

The hair and chest covered with water droplets glowed with golden luster under the light, just like the gods from Greek mythology.

咚 · 咚咚~

Her heart beat faster, Yalan turned her head away with red face and red ears.

"Why, are you shy?" Qin Yu exhaled and pressed to her ear.

"Who is shy, and she is not a little girl." Ya Lan pretended to be calm, but grasped the hem of her clothes at a loss.

The bewildered little girl-like appearance, indescribably tempting!

"Old husband and wife, what are you shy, come on!" Raising both hands forward, she hugged Yalan in her arms.

Qin Yu shouted at Tongtong's room: "Tongtong, go to bed early!"

"Good night uncle, good night mom."

"Good night."

The sound of footsteps walked towards the master bedroom, pop~

The door is closed!

[Master of Time Management] deserves the title of 'Master'.

The planning of time, even Brother Yu himself admires himself.

"Why am I so good?" After Yalan was content to fall asleep, Qin Yu drove the poison and set off again in the light of the moon.

In the middle of winter night, everything is gone.

In addition to the street lights that light up on the empty streets, even the taxis waiting for customers at the entrance of the bar are turned off and stopped.

Poison drove smoothly into the path in front of the club and parked the car.

Qin Yu looked at the brightly lit club and knocked on the door, "Qin Shao, you are here."

"Thank you." Qin Yu went straight to the ship when he handed the Huazi he had brought to him.

After half an hour, the Rhapsody Paradise sailed out of the port and headed towards the sea.

Han Jia, who was resting in the master cabin, didn't notice the movement of the hull at all.

This behemoth is like a small island floating on the sea.

The high quality brought by the high price, and its stability is more reliable than the island, until the cabin door makes a slight sliding sound.

Han Jia, who hadn't slept at all, opened his eyes suddenly: "Who is it?"

"it's me."

Qin Yu turned on the light and looked at Han Jia, who was sleepy on the bed, and said, "Besides me, who else can come up."

"Scare me." Han Jia patted her chest and said amusedly: "Who knows if your boat is safe."

"Don't worry, the only unsafe factor on this ship." Qin Yu pointed to himself triumphantly.

"Is this something to be proud of?" Han Jia said in a bad mood.

Qin Yu tugged at the neckline, unbuttoned the third button, and said with a smirk, "Now?"

On the other side of the ocean, the war develops towards the unknown.

The White House, which was already unable to resist, suddenly had a new vitality.

Deckerburg creates a new mutant, joins the battlefield to disrupt the direction of the war.

This group of mutants who have newly joined the war have not only become more powerful, but also control and use radiation to a subtle level.

Control and use radiation pollution, this is the ability that abnormal changers should not have.

But it really happened!

And, after killing a certain mutant, there is actually a crystal like a magic core in its body.

Different crystal!

Compresses the power of the whole body into crystals and assimilates it together with the radiation pollution in the body.

not only protects oneself from radiation, but also has the terrible ability to control radiation pollution.

The evolution direction of these guys is moving closer to the alien race.

To describe them as new humans is no longer accurate.

You should call them an alien, that's right!

However, even with the addition of these aliens, the scale of victory is still in the hands of BlackRock.

The [Assaulter] who has been continuously throwing into the battlefield and the [Titan] who swept everything, the overwhelming aliens can't breathe.

At every critical moment, different races must die together to stop [Titan] from advancing.

And they often have to pay several times more than the other party, and only a dozen people can be killed or injured to replace one [Titan].

But one side is 'recycling resources,' the other side is scarce development type.

Which is better or worse, at a glance!

In any case, the appearance of alien races brings more uncertainty to the war.

More importantly, the attitude of the Morgan Los Angeles Consortium on the East Coast began to become ambiguous due to the appearance of alien races.

According to the information collected by BlackRock, Fort Decker promised to the Morgan Lowe Consortium.

As long as they help them repel BlackRock's attacks, they will share the method of 'alien evolution' with each other.

The alien race has the characteristics of a lifespan of a thousand years, which shakes the senior leaders of the Morgan Lowe Saint Consortium.

Longevity!

Throughout the ages, the haunting dreams that kings and nobles have been pursuing are just in front of us.

Ilibera had to admit that it was her words instead.

will also be shaken, this is understandable!

can't be changed, if things really develop to that point.

BlackRock's advantage will be evened out, and the next war will be difficult to fight.

"Miss Ilibera, a newsletter from Beizhou Lab!"

The secretary's voice came from the answering machine, interrupting Ilibera's thoughts, "Come in."

The light was dim, and a light appeared in front of him, opening to the sides like a folding fan.

"Ilibela!"

"Team leader Jing."

Looking at the woman in the projection, Ilibera asked with dread: "Does Team Leader Jing need any help?"

"No, you are the one who needs help."

Jingyuan embraced her arms, and Leng Ao resolutely said: "My people are coming soon, make good use of them."

Ilibera wanted to ask more clearly, the projection in front of her disappeared instantly.

"What is this?" Biting her lower lip, Ilibera felt that she was being ignored.

However, she did produce the nature of the "human" Jing Yuan said.

Is the person sent from the laboratory a monster built for war?

Soon, Ilibera's question was answered.

looked at the nuns lined up in front of them, their heads drooping, silent as if they were machines.

She was full of doubts: "What are these?"

However, Ilibera was aware of the terrible aura they carried.

just staring at each other, there is a kind of panic and anxiety.

So, they are indeed here to help them solve problems.

"Can you tell me your names?" Ilibera asked.

"Bitterness!" The hoarse voice in unison made her heart beat faster.

"I believe Team Leader Jing has already told you the purpose of sending you here. Who can tell me how to solve those active alien races?"

"Redemption!" The nuns still lowered their heads.

"Redemption?" Ilibera was puzzled.

did not get the answer they wanted, the nuns turned and walked towards the door, and disappeared into her sight.

Two hours later, Ilibera got the latest situation.

In the southeast battlefield, a foreign race who wanted to attack the front line was intercepted and killed by the nuns.

The 13 foreigners of the enemy were wiped out, and our casualties were zero.

This record has made Ilibera's face bloom, and the irritability that has been for many days has also disappeared.

Looking at the report in front of him, Ilibera whispered softly: "How many hole cards are still hidden in the company?"

This problem also bothers other people.

Like the messenger behind the scenes of Deckerberg, the true controller of the White House, he is also troubled by this.

Research has finally made a breakthrough. The new alien race is not only stronger than the alien. can also control the power of using radiation, which seems to them invincible.

is thinking about using this to push back the battlefield and launch a full-scale counterattack!

The other side sent a group of weak nuns to destroy their proud achievements.

You TM is on, can you play, can you still play? ? ?

The heart of the white house is broken, how can it be beaten?

If this continues, sooner or later, it will be a matter of losing.

However, there is something more important than it, first find a safe place to evacuate.

In case the nuns come to the door, how can they resist it only by the power of the White House.

Although the chance of this kind of thing happening is not great, even if it is only one in ten thousand, avoid being fully prepared.

It's just that what makes them unwilling is how to defeat the enemy.

Is it really necessary to use nuclear weapons to drag the world into a frozen century?

Chapter 1137: This deal is a bit of a loss!

« PrevNext » Table of Contents

In space, the brand-new Medusa flagship slowly approached the moon's near orbit.

Qin Yu has been worried that if he pushes the white house too hard, the other side will start a nuclear war at all costs.

But now, the war has reached its fiercest point.

Whether you like it or not, you must guard against the arrival of a nuclear war.

The appearance of the Medusa flagship just made up for the lack of force He Wu took away.

If there is a nuclear war, the Star Destroyer is the last resort.

On the earth, news about the appearance of the ship has spread all over the Internet.

However, it did not cause a big sensation.

To be honest, people are numb and numb to this.

Anyway, as long as they are not attacking the earth, they should eat, drink, and live.

As for the organizations that wanted to take the opportunity to incite chaos again, they were brutally suppressed by the local regime.

Anomaly Game also uses thunder means. During this time, there are not thousands of anomalies who have been killed, but there are seven or eight hundred.

At the same time, the abnormal investigation bureau itself suffered serious losses, and the number of injured and disabled personnel increased significantly.

Outskirts of Shangdu, the headquarters of the Bureau of Disturbance.

Xu Zixin is condoning the injured subordinates, including her guide, Elastic.

In the action two days ago, the team with the elastic band was ambushed by the enemy.

The team died terribly, and he also lost an arm.

If it weren't for keeping the back hand, I'm afraid this operation will end in total destruction.

"Director."

lay on the hospital bed, weak, pale and stretched and sat up.

"Lie down, don't get up."

Xu Zixin looked around with a cold face, the corpses covered with white cloth and sent away made her heartache.

"Director, I was careless this time." Elastic said with a gloomy expression.

"It has nothing to do with you, it's an intelligence error. Once the opponent has set up the game, it will be the same as who leads the team."

Xu Zixin took a deep breath and calmed himself down.

As the director, everyone can get angry and furious, but she can't.

"Director, what does the above mean?"

Elasticity said with some worry: "If this continues, we really can't hold it anymore."

"In this month alone, four teams lost their combat power, and more than 200 retired due to injuries."

"Keep on like this, I'm afraid that it will be..." The rest of the story is not strong enough to continue.

Different tunes, if it continues like this, it will be abolished.

"I know." Xu Zixin clenched her arms into fists, and tried her best to endure her anger.

Damn bureaucracy~

The integration and restructuring of the region has also caused an overt struggle over rights.

There is an out-of-tune game in the central area, and Barrow also has the polar fox Alpha.

Seoul also formed its own mysterious organization, the White Tiger Group.

Neon has its own nine departments of public security, and even Wanwan has a Perak group.

This guy—it's outrageous!

Therefore, one organization becomes countless organizations with so many resources.

The intrigue in private, the fight is fierce.

Xu Zixin was also a director, and only then did he realize these headaches.

If you want to get more resources, you must not only get approval from higher authorities, but also compete with other organizations.

Tired, too tired!

"Get a good rest, I know this in my mind."

Xu Zixin didn't know what decision he had made, but his hesitant complexion became firm, and he turned around and walked outside the door.

Hudu, Xu Zixin, who arrived through a special empty road, stepped on her slender and * black silk legs on the ground.

stepped out of the car door, Xu Zixin looked up at the front.

Today, she is wearing a khaki woolen coat with a beige V-neck cashmere lined inside, a short plaid skirt with black silk wrapped around her beautiful legs.

has a pair of black lacquered * high heels on her feet, which is completely inconsistent with her past capable and glamorous image.

Of course, Xu Zixin knows how * she looks at this moment.

What kind of shocked expression would he show if he was seen by his subordinates.

But she also knows what she is here for today.

"Hoo~"

No matter what the price is, we must change the current dilemma of the abnormal situation.

Otherwise, she would not be able to explain to the sacrificed subordinates, let alone her own heart.

Stepping forward, Xu Zixin has already seen Yan Xue standing in front of the building.

White jeans, sky blue turtleneck sweater.

casual suit jacket, 8 cm narrow high heel, wraps the backbone of the small feet, revealing the * creamy white feet.

Even if they were both women, Xu Zixin's eyes flashed with strange appreciation.

'The woman next to him is really extraordinary.'

With the dedication spirit of sacrificing and feeding tigers, Xu Zixin followed Yan Xue into the building.

When she appeared in front of Qin Yu, two groups of red rouge appeared on her face inadvertently.

The next second, Xu Zixin was forcibly pressed down.

"Qin Dong, hello."

Xu Zixin stepped forward, took off her coat pretending to be inadvertent, and turned back with a wave and put it on the back of the sofa.

Long dance, fluttering down, the * and glamorous breath makes people's blood boil.

Putting down the tea cup in his hand, Qin Yu raised his head and smiled and said: "Just call me Qin Yu, Director Xu, it's been a long time."

"Since you asked me to call you Qin Yu and also call me Director Xu, would it be too far-fetched?" Xu Zixin touched the hem of the skirt with both hands.

The perfect curve in the flexion and extension side sitting room is full of grace.

Every action is thoughtful with temptation, "This woman is here prepared."

Qin Yu smiled and snapped his fingers and said, "Give Zixin a cup of double-strength black coffee, no sugar or milk."

"Dong Qin...No, Shao Qin knows my taste." Xu Zixin said unexpectedly.

"I know more than that, does Zixin want to hear it?" Qin Yu smiled.

"It's okay to listen." Xu Zixin raised her right leg and put it on her left leg, placing her hands on her thighs with virtual hands.

Slide your legs forward and stretch your legs at 35 degrees.

The long legs wrapped in black silk are completely exposed to sight.

啧啧, the top of the food chain is my sister.

Too good, too good!

"178, 66, 36...F." Qin Yu said with a smile.

Xu Zixin didn't understand at first, when he mentioned 'F', he understood everything.

Isn't this his height, weight, and bust? How would he know?

"What else do you know?" Xu Zixin tilted her shoulders pretendingly and tenderly, but she was already burning with anger in her heart.

bastard, has he been plotting against him a long time ago?

Qin Yu looked down at the long legs wrapped in black silk, and said, "110, 100...it should be correct."

tilted his body and looked behind her, Qin Yu nodded firmly and repeated: "How is it, am I right?"
"guess?"

Xu Zixin wondered: "These are all you guessed?"

Qin Yu pointed to his eyes and said with a smile: "I have a pair of eyes, a bead of kindness."

"Speaking of * so frankly, you are the first."

Xu Zixin embraces both hands, and his already aggressive bosom is even more fierce.

"Everyone has the heart to love beauty, and it's not a sinful thing."

Qin Yu picked up the Huazi on the table, took a root and held it in his mouth: "If I can't get what I want, what is the meaning of what I have now?"

Xu Zixin gave a startled expression, then nodded and said: "That's right!"

"Right!"

Tilted his head and lit Huazi, Brother Yu took a mouth and slumped backwards, and laughed: "Let's talk, what's the matter with me?"

"I thought Shao Qin knew everything!" Xu Zixin nodded in response, pretending to be shy.

"What do you trade for."

Qin Yu pointed out directly, full of aggressive eyes, and looked at her from top to bottom.

"Are you yourself?"

"But how do I feel that this business is a bit loss?"

Since the other party took the initiative to find the door, he wanted to use himself in exchange for the company's support.

Then this is not business, and what is it?

There is a business way to talk about business, and he knows what Yu brother he wants.

But, with only one Xu Zixin, she wants too much...

"Am I not enough?"

Xu Zixin let go of her hands, her chest trembled, leaning forward and holding the coffee table with her hands, and approaching a little bit forward.

"Don't play with fire, you can't afford it." Putting down the hand holding Huazi, a faint smoke blows towards Xu Zixin.

"Cough cough~" The momentum that was finally supported, collapsed instantly.

Xu Zixin clamped her legs inward, and coughed vigorously with her palms covering her mouth, showing no image.

"Go ahead, what do you want?"

sat down again, and embraced her chest again with her hands, indicating that Xu Zixin's inner vigilance still failed to let go.

To be fair, Xu Zixin is very wary of him.

It's just that people under the eaves have to bow their heads.

Who makes one want to ask him now, "These are all for the different tunes."

Xu Zixin emphasized in his heart, but I don't know why.

The more I remind myself of this, the more I feel guilty! !

It seems that all this is to conceal the true delusion in my heart.

took another deep breath, and crushed the two-thirds of Huazi.

Qin Yu clapped his hands and stood up, "Let's go!"

"Huh?" Xu Zixin asked with a weird expression: "Where to go?"

"Take you to see a good baby." Qin Yu smiled, UU reading www.uukanshu.com walked straight out.

Take the speeding car all the way to the abandoned city. When the speeding car landed in the warehouse area of the headquarters, Xu Zixin's face was as cold as ice when she got out of the car.

The bright red lip color on the mouth seems to be accidentally rubbed there, two pieces are missing...

"Let's go, just ahead."

On the contrary, Qin Yu's expression was full of energy, and his brows danced as if he had won a big prize.

Taking a proud step, Xu Zixin followed him step by step into the warehouse.

Warehouse No. 18, the door opened under Qin Yu's instructions.

slap~

The eight-meter-high, silver-winged Glory, which was shimmering with silver light, appeared in front of the two abruptly.

"Fuck!" Xu Zixin exploded.

This is... what is it?

An enlarged version of the humanoid mecha, what's behind that...wings?

Has the technology of Miracle Company developed to this point?

So, what is this? ? ?

A secret weapon?

For an instant, countless question marks flashed in Xu Zixin's mind.

"Is this a gift for me?" Xu Zixin asked with surprise and ecstasy.

"..." Brother Yu is a bit speechless, is he too active?

The surprise to her was so great that it made her have a fantasy that is not lacking in reality.

Woman-are you thinking about Jill?

Chapter 1138: Thickest thigh

Silver Wing Shine!

Just hearing the name, there is a kind of unclear feeling.

Standing in the warehouse, looking up at this huge war monster, Xu Zixin was full of excitement.

If it's your own, it's your own...how good it would be!

Sitting in the cab, neurons are linked, and Nanoworms are fully activated.

"The fit is 100%, the highest authority is activated, you are welcome, Commander."

"I am Silverwing Yaoguang's intelligent assistant, Xiaoguang, follow your instructions."

The light electronically synthesized sound came into my mind, and the Kirin followed: "Interesting intelligence, can I rub it on the ground?"

"...Where did you learn Saohua, be more serious." Qin Yu vomited.

"Can't it? It looks so cute." Qilin is already playing with this little cute.

"Unknown intruder found, warning..."

"Trigger the counterattack mechanism... Cracking, failed..."

"The firewall was breached, the defense mechanism was activated... failed, the self-destructing program was triggered, please commander..."

"The self-destruction program is terminated!" The alarm bell ringing in the ear makes Yu brother feel like it has been played badly.

In the electronic world, the weak little loli is being rubbed against the ground by the big devil.
is so miserable!

"Don't make trouble, go and do your job!" Qin Yu said.

"Understand, I will write a new firewall for it." Kylin.

"Little cute, I will come to play with you next time." Qilin.

"Hurry up." Qin Yu increased his tone. This guy is getting more and more dishonest, and he doesn't know what he has learned on the Internet.

"Host, there is something you definitely want to know, the email is sent to you, remember to pay attention." Kirin.

The personal terminal vibrated, it was an email from Kylin.

Qin Yu didn't rush to see, let him pass the addiction first, and then said, "Xiaoguang, are you still there?"

"Yes, master." Xiaoguang.

"What should I do?" Brother Yu just didn't notice the change in the name of the smart assistant.

Who did the ghost, do I have to ask?

"Please treat the mecha as an extension of your body, and do it according to your own ideas."
Xiaoguang.

Under the guidance of the intelligent assistant, Qin Yu quickly understood the operating principle.

feels no different from remotely controlling the 'Assault', and the technical principle is somewhat similar to that of the 'Power Armor'.

But the level of development is obviously not at the same level, it is more far-reaching and advanced.

In Xu Zixin's eyes, the mecha in front of him suddenly came to life.

The head, which was hanging slightly lowered, suddenly lifted up, and the two big, inverted eyes lit up.

Then, the wings clinging to the back spread out.

"Really, really moved."

stepped forward with his right foot, this step was like stepping on Xu Zixin's heart.

"Drink!"

The classic signature action before the start of the fight appeared in front of Xu Zixin.

However, it was a metal mecha that made such a funny action this time.

Then, Silver Wing Yaoguang pulled out the light blade behind.

The moment the light blade was activated, the air was trembling slightly, as if it only needed a light wave to cut the space open.

This weapon has a sense of destruction just by looking at it.

Xu Zixin couldn't help taking a breath, then backed away again to get away from it.

After mastering the principle thoroughly, Qin Yu controlled the mecha to jump over Xu Zixin's head and walked out of the warehouse.

looked up at the sky, blue flames appeared in the jet holes at the back of his legs.

Hu~

The right fist was raised high, the left arm was closed at the waist, and the Silver Wing Yaoguang announced its existence to the world for the first time.

As soon as appeared, it was fully captured by satellites outside the sky.

It's just that the Republic today is the undisputed No. 1 strong state. There is no one.

Even if I saw the glorious silver wings, I could only say a few cool words.

Let's bark a few more words...

There are also countries and institutions with close ties to the Republic who call the Ministry of Foreign Affairs to find out some gossip.

And the answer they got was the same: 'It's about national security, no comment!'

translated this sentence means: "Yes, things belong to my family, so I won't talk about the specific details, just know it."

In fact, after the appearance of Silver Wing Yaoguang, the upper hand was also anxious to contact Miracle Company.

I want to find out what new trick Qin Yu has come up with.

"Lao Bai, this is a limited edition, only this one, when the second one will be produced, even I don't know."

"I just want relevant data, not too much, right?"

"When it can be produced, let's talk about the data."

"Don't, Qin Dong...My good Shao Qin, you and I can't explain to the above!"

"Ah, Lao Bai, I'm here as a guest, let's talk next time!"

waved his hand to close the communication permission, Qin Yu smiled at Xu Zixin on the sofa: "Let you get it right."

"That is."

Lie on the sofa and propped his head with his hands, Xu Zixin said with conceit, showing a perfect S-curve.

Eyeballs rolled, Xu Zixin asked uncertainly: "Is that Bai Ze just now?"

"Yes, haven't you seen it?"

Qin Yu thinks that his memory is not so bad that he will forget this matter, and Bai Ze is the top of the high-ranking team of the Anomaly Bureau.

Every word and deed determine the direction and development of the abnormal situation.

Although there are big guys behind him pointing, but they are also rare big thick legs.

For Xu Zixin...

"Can you recommend me?" Xu Zixin sat up, and the coat covered with her body fell to the ground along the smooth skin.

"Why, want to hug your thigh?"

Qin Yu joked and smirked, and patted his thigh: "Here is a bigger and thicker one, do you want to hold it tight?"

"Can I hold it?" Xu Zixin teased and chuckled, but his eyes were serious.

If she can really hug Qin Yu's big thick legs, then what else does she have to worry about.

"Let's hug and see first, people, if you have a goal, you must work hard for it. There will be no pie in the sky."

Qin Yu gave her a pointed look, and then said: "50 Raiders, including supporting equipment and technical support, and 10 Titans."

"It will be sent to the headquarters of the Bureau of Abnormalities at the latest next week. Follow-up...I'll talk about it later."

"Really!" I got more than I thought, which made Xu Zixin jump up excitedly.

hugged him in his arms like a swoop, Xu Zixin vowed to herself: 'This big thick leg, I am hugged.'

Standing on the terrace, breathing the fresh air, Brother Yu spit out the depression in his heart.

The feeling of being buried is pretty good, but it's easy to suffocate after a long time.

This is not so good.

Xu Zixin brought him a new experience.

Mutations really have an unmatched advantage over ordinary people.

Hanshuang, as expected to be Hanshuang.

With one hand frozen for nine days, Brother Yu almost lost his soul.

No comparison, no comparison!

However, there is still a lack of experience, and I have to continue training and training.

"Remember to come to learn the scriptures often, don't keep me waiting."

sent Xu Zixin away, Qin Yu dialed Bai Ze's number again.

"Old Qin, what? I agreed to give me the data." Old Bai opened his mouth and asked for the data.

is not only the upper head, he himself is also curious about Silver Wing Yaoguang.

"What Old Qin, I'm not 30 yet!"

"What does it matter? Anyway, sooner or later you will get old Qin, I said you should think about the data."

"No, I asked you to talk about another thing."

"Director Hanshuang came to me and wanted the company to donate a batch of materials to the Bureau of Foreign Affairs. I agreed."

"This is between you, there is no need to tell me, right?"

"Heh~"

Hearing what he said, Brother Yu was almost laughing to death.

has nothing to do with you. If he doesn't say hello to Lao Bai in advance today, file for the record.

Someone has to trouble Xu Zixin when she turns around. If she is a bureau chief, she can do whatever she wants.

Materials, it's not that you can ask for donations.

"Anyway, I told you about this. I will find you if I have any questions later."

"Eh, what does it have to do with me, I..."

Seeing that the picture disappeared again, the face of Bai Ze who was meeting in the Upper Capital Staff Head went dark.

Hang up directly every time, without even saying hello.

So many big guys are watching, am I shameless?

"Little Bai!" A kind voice sounded.

Bai Ze's black face healed instantly, with a smile on his face: "General Staff, you say."

"From what you know about him, what does this mean?"

Hearing this, Bai Ze's expression changed, a little complicated and weird.

What does mean, what else does it mean?

No, he took another woman!

It's just that Xu Zixin's identity is special after all, and he controls the special violent institutions of the Republic.

The intimate relationship between the two will inevitably make people think about it.

In this regard, Bai Ze also deliberately or unintentionally explained...

From the beginning, he was a 'sun,' and he has not changed much until now.

The only shortcoming of is this.

What happened to Xu Zixin was mainly because of the lack of supplies in the Dispute Bureau and serious casualties.

asked her to take the initiative to send it to the door, UU reading www.uukanshu. For such a good thing, Qin Yu will certainly not refuse.

In this way, the two of them naturally...

The company can donate such a large amount of materials, it must be Xu Zixin that made him satisfied.

Others, Bai Ze doesn't think there will be anything.

"So, it's pure...relationship, nothing else?"

"My personal opinion is this." Bai Ze responded.

You guys looked at each other and exchanged opinions whispering.

Finally, I decided to trust Bai Ze's judgment.

Furthermore, the cooperation between the two parties has been smooth.

Judging from their analysis, the facts may be like what Bai Ze said, Chief Xu, pleased that evildoer. got a generous gift in return as a thank you!

Recalling Xu Zixin's personal resume, the big guys are more and more sure of this speculation in their hearts.

It's just that the precautions that should be taken are still necessary.

Anomaly is not a shortage of people recently, it just happened that the girl from the Jin family graduated.

Sending her over to maintain the overall situation and assist Director Xu to manage the work of the abnormal situation is beneficial to both parties!

As for the Jin's personal opinion, now that I have chosen the path.

Then you should follow the dispatch, you can reserve your personal opinions in your mind, and you must follow the unified arrangement in your actions.

are all acting freely and cheaply, what else does the organization do?

Chapter 1139: Part ways

Shennongjia, genetic warrior preparatory training camp.

As one of the third batch of students who graduated successfully and completed the transformation, Jin Linger and other students returned to school for an exhibition match.

After performing a seemingly thrilling, but actually boring performance.

The unification journey ends here, and then they will go to their own forces to report.

Jin Linger chose the Ministry of War, and she also chose Zhou Yi and Ye Hao.

Ye Ting chose to join Miracle Company. As for Ye Tang...

He failed to survive the genetic modification, his thoughts were degenerate, and he never had a chance to get out of the operating room again.

"Ling'er, it's about to start." Zhou Yi shouted to Jin Ling'er, who was still looking at the training camp at the speed station outside the base.

took a deep look again, completely changing the place of her life, Jin Linger stomped forward with her right foot, and landed in front of the site.

"Let's go!"

"Oh, the control of power is more delicate." There was no trace on the ground, and Zhou Yi smiled and praised.

"Compared with Zhou Yi, it's still far behind."

Jin Linger said in an admiring tone, as the best student of the third period, Zhou Yi's strength is the strongest among them.

It's just that Zhou Yi, who was praised by her, fell silent, grinning reluctantly, "I, I'm still far away!"

No one knew, before leaving the base where they were undergoing remodeling operations.

Zhou Yi took the initiative to apply to the instructor, wanting to challenge the early genetic warriors, and want to determine how strong he is.

Then, he met the best student of the second period, Treco Ferrettos.

A complete abuse!

It took Zhou Yi half a month to adjust his mentality so that he would not be depressed.

But this incident also frustrated his self-confidence and made him no longer sure of his choice.

Maybe, if you choose to join the company, you can get better development.

is also a genetic warrior, the difference in strength between each other... is too big.

Zhou Yi naturally does not know that the genetic warriors who join the company will be better nurtured in all aspects.

The company's experience, technology and methods are unmatched by any outside organization.

As time goes by, the gap between each other will only get bigger and bigger.

Until he completely loses the qualification to catch up, he becomes a person in two different worlds.

How big is the gap between poor people, ordinary people, rich people, rich people, and super rich people.

The world where the mutants are, the gap between classes will only be more serious than it.

High-ranking mutants, and even the low-ranking ones are in control of life and death.

There was a disagreement. Things like the corpse in the wilderness happen almost every day.

Management agencies in various countries have also opened one eye and closed one eye for this.

As long as it does not involve ordinary people, the struggle between the mutants, and even the death struggle, are tacitly approved.

But if it causes public losses, it will threaten the safety and lives of ordinary people.

The nature of is completely different.

On the speeding car, watching the fully enclosed sci-fi interior, Zhou Yi reached out to touch the roof of the car with curiosity.

"Every time I see these, I feel like a dimensionality reduction blow, which is not one level at all."

Ye Hao's words were approved by everyone, and everyone talked about what they saw and heard.

Jin Linger quietly said to Zhou Yi: "Brother Yi, have you decided where you are going?"

"Not yet, why, are you set?" Zhou Yi asked curiously.

"Well, it's fixed."

Jin Ling'er looked at the quiet people and said: "Different Tune Bureau, Deputy Director."

Zhou Yi frowned tightly, "How can I let you go to such a place?"

The people with ordinary abnormalities are either scared to death or longing for the name of the abnormal situation.

It can be said to them who have graduated from training camp, undergone terrible transformation surgery, and become transformation fighters.

Different tunes, that's how it is.

However, Zhou Yi was not talking about this, but the deputy director.

What is a deputy director? It is a tool man used to assist the director in his work.

seems to have a high level of authority, but in fact it is unpleasant, and all aspects must be weighed and considered.

You can spend all your time and energy on the problems you need to face every day.

You need to explain to the top and lead the bottom.

There are basically no opportunities to go out to work, people, don't you want to abandon them if you leave them in this way?

In terms of Jin Ling'er's strength and performance, this position is really wronging her.

"I am okay."

Jin Ling'er herself has a different view. She thinks that the position of deputy director is better.

As long as she stands firm, she can directly challenge the director.

That's right, the first time I received the transfer order.

Jin Linger already has a goal, a different game.

Bringing the entire alien situation into her own control, this is her first goal.

"Yes, I have ideals, I support you."

Zhou Yi suddenly became interested. It is a good choice to be the director of the Bureau of Abnormal Harmony.

However, he can only give Jin Linger spiritual encouragement at present.

Your specific whereabouts and arrangements depend on what grandpa at home means.

Zhou Lao sent him to the training camp, naturally, he had a comprehensive consideration.

In the future, the Zhou family will be alone in the Republic, and will be in a high position.

depends on how much support and strength they can get in the coming days.

Anomaly is just an attempt. No matter how strong the alterer is, can the fleet be much stronger?

In the future, the air force will be the mainstream.

If nothing happens, I will be sent to Vulcan by the old man.

received the first batch of captain training to prepare for the establishment of the Star Fleet Academy in the future.

"Then you want to become the captain's instructor?"

Brother Zhou Yi really is the most powerful of them, maybe in the future he will be the one who has gone the farthest. UU reading www.uukanshu.com arrived at Shangdu smoothly. Everyone got off the bus in the urban area, but Jin Linger stayed in the bus.

"Come on, see you next time, I hope I can call you Chief Jin."

"Work hard together." Jin Ling'er raised her fist and waved, filled with an innocent smile.

Watching the speeding car take off again, everyone's hearts became heavy.

This farewell, I don't know how long it will take to see you again.

Will they run counter to each other due to different positions?

"Hope, it won't happen." He whispered softly, and the headquarters of the Bureau of Abnormal Harmony arrived.

Regarding Jin Linger's arrival, Anomaly has paid great attention to it.

not only arranged a welcome team, but Xu Zixin also came personally.

"Director Xu." Jin Linger, who was alone, put away her innocent smile.

Facing Xu Zixin's cold and capable, his whole body is full of military color.

"Welcome to work at the Bureau of Foreign Affairs, Deputy Director Jin, I wish you a happy future cooperation."

Xu Zixin is wearing a dusty gray coat with a pure black tight-fitting combat suit and high-heeled boots.

combines sexiness and heroism. She has been in this style since she went to the abandoned city and came back.

Some people have discussed this matter specially, but no one has the guts to ask the specific reason in front of her.

I can only guess secretly, what exactly is my boss going through?

That infamous man with constant scandals, wouldn't he really do anything to her?

Chapter 1140: I buy my brother Niubi

The email sent by Kirin, Yu Ge read after playing with Xu Zixin.

It's not a big deal.

is not very serious, it just makes people...tangled.

Buy brother deserves to be bought brother!

After the New Year, I went to Neon and did things that countless men wanted to do that they didn't dare to do or were ashamed to do.

Ginza Baihutang, I bought a monthly subscription.

Every three to five days, Baihutang will come to three popular teachers to help students who are kind and diligent and learn.

Now, Brother Mai directly wraps up the hall.

Mikami Fenghua Mingli, Yongmei Yucai Chana, Buying brother is working day and night, diligent and diligent.

learned a lot of real skills from the teacher.

Apart from anything else, the hand speed alone has improved several levels.

Seeing the news, Brother Yu called out: Good fellow!

I can only say, I am worthy of buying my brother, and it's done by shouting Niubi.

Compared to his private life, Qin Yu is obviously more concerned about the changes in the situation.

The other side transferred Jin Ling'er into the offending game, and he played the main game and the vice game, but it was nothing.

However, Jin Linger himself applied to be responsible for the business in the Northwest region.

This makes Yu brother interested, is she here for herself, or is she thinking too much?

Northwest has received much attention due to the rapid development of the company in recent years.

Other aspects will not be shown for the time being, and the safety specification is rising again and again.

How many black technologies and innovations are born and developed here, and the results are obtained.

The spies from all sides gather together, and from time to time someone will try to sneak into the company to obtain confidential information.

at every interval, if you didn't catch one or two spies.

The security department can all be suspicious and conduct a self-examination, "Is this whether someone got in? It succeeded."

Or else, how can there be no movement for three consecutive days, shouldn't it! "

How can the security arrangements be not strict in such a big environment?

Even the big environment of the entire city is also changing under the guidance of policies.

Tentatives, troublemakers, all are dealt with strictly.

Internet celebrities come to the company to take pictures of traffic, but now there is no such thing.

Photograph?

From here to the door, the camera has not been raised yet.

Let the security department take the person away, and eight generations of ancestors will check it out for you clearly.

There is a little problem, let's just stay inside and drink tea!

Besides, don't forget that there is a miracle company on it, making trouble?

The head of the dog exploded, and the Tianling Gai lifted it for you.

Besides, because of its location in the center and deep inland, most of the mutations that appear are shaped by "Silhouettes".

In the bones of these people, they still abide by themselves and obey the law.

has not been affected by radiation, and there will be no incidents.

The work of the Anomaly Bureau is basically a visit to the door.

Register in the register if they don't want to, report on time, and don't interfere with each other.

You are a sub-game in charge of fighting, what's the development here?

Don't talk about your own job, you don't even get credit for it, it's equivalent to a Shimizu Yamen, suitable for the elderly.

said she is here to add a resume, gilded.

Does Jin Linger believe this?

To say that she was suppressed and squeezed out, she was distributed to the northwest to sit on a cold bench.

Xu Zixin also said that she applied on her own initiative.

So, except for the reason Yu brother mentioned earlier.

He really couldn't think of any reason why Jin Linger could make the decision to come to the northwest.

Narcissism?

All those present here are from Yu Yan, so be confident.

Actually, the reason why Jin Ling'er chose to come to the northwest is exactly the same as Brother Yu thought.

She came for the company.

This does not conflict with Jin Linger's goal.

Because after taking office, she immediately discovered that the situation in the abnormal situation was different from what she thought.

Especially Director Xu Zixin, about her going to Hudu to change her style.

is not a secret in the Anomaly, and gossip rumors related to it can be heard everywhere.

This gave Jin Linger a guess, and Xu Zixin was supported by the company.

After using family connections and inquiring.

Jin Linger knew that her guess was correct.

This means that if you want to become a director, you must not only look at the meaning above.

has to obtain the support and understanding of the company, so that the other party will change the goal of support from Xu Zixin to himself.

For her, it will undoubtedly increase the difficulty of 'taking over' as the director.

Jin Linger decided to start with the difficult points and figure out who Xu Zixin's supporters are.

She has a skeptical candidate in her heart, but she doesn't want her guess to be correct.

So, after Jin Linger arrived in the abandoned city and took office, the first thing was to visit Qin Yu.

"Sorry, Deputy Director Jin, the boss has returned to Shanghai."

"when?"

"This morning."

"I called in advance and told me that I would visit today."

Facing Jin Linger's question, Feng Shuyi whispered softly: "Sorry, I can't decide the schedule of the boss."

Does the other party deliberately want to hang himself, disarm or warn?

Looking at the gentle female secretary in front of him, Jin Ling'er was angry and couldn't spread it.

Besides, this is not a place where she can go wild.

Qin Yu didn't want to hang Jin Ling'er, nor did she want to give her a horse.

is simply not interested in her visit.

Besides, JK is still waiting for him.

Still choosing to prescribe poison, Qin Yu parked the car at the gate of the Fenglin campus.

After waiting for about a few minutes, he saw Jia Jingsi who was learning to dress up.

The white shirt is covered with a down jacket, the striped pleated skirt is underneath, and the black tights are tucked into Martin boots.

"Isn't it cold?" Qin Yu asked Jia Jingsi as he opened the car door.

"It's not cold." Jia Jingsi rubbed her hands and replied insincerely.

"Where to go?"

The engine started, and the roar made everyone look at it.

Little JK deliberately lowered the car window halfway, and happily dangled two ponytails: "Go to a big meal, I said I want to invite you."

As passers-by watched and whispered, the poison drove towards the destination Jia Jingsi said.

Turn on the car lights, the sky is already dark.

"Why, I'm here to show off, aren't you afraid that someone will gossip?"

"Just let them see."

Little JK pursed his lips and said: "Uncle, life is really full of rivers and lakes, you don't know how boring those girls are!"

Little JK people are beautiful, fair-skinned and beautiful. After the development and secondary growth of brother Yu, they are naturally impeccable.

Just seeing her, I was already thinking about it again and again.

Not to mention her daily dress, she likes JK clothes the most.

The three characteristics are delicate, soft and easy to push.

With that face, the ceiling of pure desire is here.

Jia Jingsi like this not only attracts bees and butterflies, but also gets jealous of the same sex.

Every day there is a girl in the bedroom, introducing her to a boy, either by handing things or sending love letters.

Even if Jia Jingsi has said it countless times, I have a boyfriend to no avail.

"You should be spoiled for any girl, and it won't matter if a few more people hurt."

"Said it was a sisters dinner, I went to a group of boys, and took me to a bar, thinking I was silly and sweet and wanted to get me drunk."

"Sure enough, since ancient times, the enemy of women is only women."

Thinking of these bad things, Jia Jingsi was full of anger.

are all women, even if they can't be friends Is it okay to have nothing to do?

They only feel happy and happy only if they are getting worse.

The last time Qiao An tricked her to go to the bar, Jia Jingsi had to drink when she went in, or the pure foreign wine was poured in advance.

Ha, I really think of her as a fool who doesn't understand anything.

If she really drank it, she might as well know where it is now!

uses the video on the note every day to brainwash her, forward feminist articles and short videos.

Otherwise, it is to imply that a woman should treat herself better.

"I will solve it."

Qin Yu put his hand on her head, rubbed it and stroked it down, and tried the length and silky smoothness of the ponytail.

Yes, Not Bad!

As for her superb roommate, Brother Yu glanced in the rearview mirror.

'It's very tight. With the corners of his mouth rising, Brother Yu can't wait to perform a good show.

"No, they are just jealous. Let them be jealous."

Jia Jingsi hugged his arm and said happily: "Uncle, can you stay with me for a few more days?"

"Okay." Qin Yu nodded nonchalantly.

As for what she said, don't worry about those roommates.

Qin Yu doesn't matter, little JK is following the bodyguard, he is also a villain.

With their little tricks, inferior tea art also wants to dig a hole for her?

But the key is sometimes, people who can't hold back take the initiative to come to the door for death.
