Chapter 1201: 1 words of life and death

"Fifth, you have to admit that you have done something wrong."

"Yes, men must be responsible. Since they are wrong, they should be punished."

"Ye Sheng, he speaks less and does more, and this time he will be a lesson for you."

"That's right, I'm raising it in the countryside. My Ye family doesn't lack a bite to eat."

'My Nima...' Ye Sheng wanted to kill himself.

These are one by one, and you don't have a backache when you stand and talk.

Would you like to have your limbs broken and sent to the country? ? ?

I don't want to change anyone, but I don't want to do it...

Now, Ye Sheng was pointing at his own Laozi.

If he can't handle the pressure and surrender himself, it will really be all over.

I have seen the prosperity of the world, and have been used to the suave life of young and old.

Let him go to the country and live in a pigpen and chicken coop?

He Ye Sheng would rather be killed on the spot than be affected by this bird's air!

"Dad." Ye Sheng begged Lao Tzu by the arm.

Seeing that the relatives around me didn't help me speak, they all wanted to use their sons to please the Qin surname.

A stern expression appeared in the eyes of the old fifth, and his tone was fierce: "Today, who dares to touch my son, I..."

boom.

A crunchy stick hit the back of his head and knocked him fainted.

Seeing the old Wu twisted, he turned around and lay on the ground fat and greasy.

A group of people are dumbfounded!

Looking at the second child who dropped the stick casually, Ye Sheng's mother fell on her man: "His second uncle, what are you doing?"

"What are you doing? Family law." Ye Ershu said with a cold face, righteously speaking.

Ye Ershu didn't take any kind intentions, he was pure revenge.

His own son was kicked out of the Ye family because he was guilty.

Now living outside, I don't know the life or death.

The rest of you can live better and better.

Today, Ye Sheng was caught, and he was going to be severed.

Not only did he not feel pitiful, but he was happy...

Ha, it's a catch.

Had it not been for the dignity of his elders, he would have planned to do it himself.

Two sticks, kept to him, both hands and feet were useless.

And this Haotian was not quite capable when he drove away his son.

How indecisive you are now, you are on it!

Second Uncle Ye lowered his eyes, full of bitterness inside.

If you don't have a son, it's best if everyone has no sons.

"What is the family method, what did our family make wrong?" Ye Sheng's mother cried.

These people are bullying and showing weakness.

Dogs look down on people and say they are relatives.

In fact, they are all unwilling, not a good thing.

Now, the son has made a little mistake.

They will break their hands and feet, and beat him into a waste.

"You guys~"

"You guys!~"

Ye Sheng's mother stared at Venus, and her body was about to fall when she squinted.

Ye Sheng's eyes were quick and his hands were quick, he held it back: "Mom, mom, you can't be okay..."

He yelled, and picked up his mother: "Get out, get out, driver, driver!"

Hurry up to prepare the car and go to the hospital. If my mother has a long and two shortcomings, I..."

People stopped him without saying a word.

The little guy has good acting skills and will run away when he picks up.

If your mother Ye Sheng doesn't tremble so much, no one can really tell.

"Okay, don't pretend it." Ye Haotian watched enough.

Enough of this farce!

Now that it has received the support of the majority of people, the opinions of the others do not matter.

If it drags on, this love will be maintained.

Also faded!

"Let's do it." With an order, a dozen or so tiger-like men rushed up.

He grabbed Ye Sheng and pulled him to the backyard.

Ye Sheng's mother lying in Ye Sheng's arms would not pretend to be dizzy.

"Don't move my son, let me see who dares... I fight with you, let go of my son."

After struggling, Ye Sheng was hollow after all.

Staggered under her feet, unable to stand firm.

She fell with her hands weakly, and Ye Sheng's mother was thrown out by such a bump.

He thumped to the ground, hit a few times and shouted, "It hurts."'

Unfortunately, no one cares about whether she hurts or not.

They all looked at Ye Sheng with their eyes open.

He was carried directly by the four men, and quickly led into the backyard.

Except for the two who followed in, the rest were guarded at the door.

It reads on his face: "No strangers enter," four big characters.

"Mom, mom, save me~"

"Dad, what are you doing, let go, dad, mom..."

Bang~

The sound was so strange that all the young and old in the front yard were taken aback.

There was also the sound of broken bones inside, which was clearly heard.

Then, there was a cry like a pig: "Ah~ my hand, ah..."

Bang, bang~

Three times in succession, someone came out from behind: "Master, everything is done."

"Send away now and find a doctor to accompany you."

I gave a random order, regardless of the fifth aunt who stayed in the yard.

Ye Haotian turned around and left, he still had to deal with the rest.

Qin Yu, who was on a Hudu trip, was afraid that he would be impatient to wait.

In fact, Brother Yu is not impatient at all.

He was feeding each other with little JK when Ye's troubled chickens and dogs were jumping.

One bite for you, one bite for me...

It was a pleasure to eat!

Little JK should have an internship this year, and Qin Yu intends to let her directly enter the Hive's genetic engineering project team.

"Shi Cui is the person in charge of the team, he has a very good personality, but he has strict requirements for his work!"

Qin Yu told the truth, Shi Cui's 'good old man' character was well-known in the research institute.

As long as it's not a major problem at work, he doesn't account for ordinary trivial matters.

After all, it is a 'personal design' that has been built for many years, and it must be carefully maintained.

"Then...Can I do it?" Little JK was a little unconfident.

This incident is also understandable, and the current limelight in Miracle Town is too strong.

You know, it does not directly recruit interns.

Regardless of what prestigious school you graduated from, you will first do miscellaneous work when you come.

Every year, there are thousands of resumes for top double one.

It's not from a prestigious school, and you can't squeeze in.

For internship, first go to the old research institute in Kuafu.

Do some basic topics, do miscellaneous tasks, sweep the floor, serve tea to the teacher, and write drafts.

Polished for half a year, the performance is good, it is a material.

Only then can I have the opportunity to join the official project, but it is only for observation and cannot get started.

It will be more than half a year before the formal contact experiment begins.

When the internship period is over, those who are qualified will stay, and those who are unqualified should go.

What is left is to slowly accumulate experience in the old research institute, work on topics, and achieve something.

Level by level of assessment and review.

After the knowledge and background meet the standards, he will be transferred to the miracle town.

This is the most sacred hall of technology in the minds of miracles.

What the Miracle Town does are all pre-requisite topics.

Genetic engineering, bionics, human mechanics, nano-engineering, regeneration, longevity...

In short, it was a completely different world from what ordinary people knew.

Before I graduated, I went through the 'back door' and entered the town.

Will it be squeezed out, and can the amount of knowledge keep up?

Will you be ashamed of Qin Yu, what if you don't know anything?

Little JK thought a lot, he really grew up.

"Who didn't start from nothing, don't be afraid, I will let Shi Cui take you personally."

Reaching out and touching her head, Qin Yu joked: "Who made you my woman!"

She bowed her head shyly, but little JK felt particularly favored in her heart.

'His woman, I am his woman. Jia Jingsi has been pondering this sentence, absent-mindedly eating.

Just about to continue feeding little JK, the phone on the desk rang.

Picking it up, Qin Yu smiled playfully: "Haotian, haha, why are you free today..."

On the other end of the phone, Ye Haotian made a few polite words and went straight to the subject.

"Don't mention it, something happened at home."

"Oh, what's the matter?" Qin Yu asked cooperatively.

"Hi~ * thing."

"My uncle's family is called Ye Sheng...just after handling it, he interrupted his hands and feet and sent him to the country to raise.

Whether he is dead or alive, depending on his own fate, I think he should not be able to live, what do you think? "

The matter is done, but it has nothing to do with Qin Yu.

Why Ye Sheng was interrupted? It was because he did stupid things at home and suffered from family law.

What Qin Yu has nothing to do with him.

As for the last sentence, Ye Haotian's heart suddenly moved, trying to fill his favor.

He had broken Ye Sheng's limbs, but it was hard to say that Qin Yu was dissatisfied.

Uncle Wu must have hated him all his life.

When he left just now, he could see the resentment in the eyes of the fifth aunt.

Now that you have offended people, it will be a waste to live in the future.

He didn't need to think about his brother and save him a life.

If you lose, you have to gain, to be fair!

"Hehe, the old Ye family really has strict rules. If you have a broken limb and don't heal it, I think it's hard to live!"

Qin Yu didn't have any kind thoughts, especially Ye Haotian broke his opponent's limbs, making him disabled.

In the past, a disabled man was raised in the country.

No matter how powerful he is, he can't beat the sky.

What's more, it is Ye Sheng, a waste who only knows how to eat, drink and play.

But now it's different, all kinds of different energies invade.

What counts as a severed limb, let alone a broken bone, it is possible to recover even if it is cut off.

If he really lets him seize the opportunity, Qin Yu is not afraid.

But so many women around him, sister-in-law, Jinlan, and Xing Lu are all in Shangdu.

And Lazy Cat and Teacher Zhou...

When the dance troupe was rehearsing, I stayed there for several months.

Qin Yu couldn't stand anyone who had something wrong.

So, the injury of the broken bone.

Ye Sheng's emptiness, who spends time and drinks like this, sings every night, is afraid that his bones will not be able to hold it!

On the other end of the phone, Ye Haotian was silent for a few seconds: "Haha, Qin Yu, you can definitely come to my place to sit down another day."

"Well, I really want to go there these days." After a few more words, the phone hung up.

Little JK also recovered and asked curiously: "Who?"

"A friend. Qin Yu said casually, and put a piece of kiwi fruit to his mouth with a fork.

"Ah, open your mouth~"

On a remote country road, a pitch-black Mercedes drove forward quickly.

In the car, the bodyguard responsible for escorting Ye Sheng put away his mobile phone.

He glanced at Ye Sheng who was lying on the doctor's leg in the back row, shaking all over, and his face was pale.

A trace of pity flashed in his eyes, and he reached out and took out a white pill from the inner pocket of the suit.

Nodding to the doctor, the other party took the pills.

"Ye Shao, it's time to take medicine, open your mouth~"

Without waiting for Ye's mouth to bloom, the doctor pinched his cheek and patted the pills in.

Then, squeezed his people abruptly.

"Woo, hudong~" The bodyguard showed a faint smile when he saw the swallowing surging in his throat.

"Stop going to the village, go back to Shangdu, the crematorium."

The doctor in the back row ignored Ye Sheng, who groaned frantically, and asked what he had given him.

Calmly took out a wet wipe and wiped his hands.

"Inform Young Master, Young Master Ye Sheng is too weak and he didn't resist on the road, so he went."

"I don't want to die, I don't want to die, I don't want to die..."

The sad cry echoed in the car, floated out the window, and blew into the distance.

Chapter 1202: Doomed rebellion

"If I am young and do not feel inferior, my wife must be a lot..."

Humming a little song, Yang Chengjun walked out with a kind face.

Today is a big day.

Both for the Mars base and the Galactic Republic.

The team of the Mars Committee is going to make election adjustments today.

The size of 11 members remains the same!

In addition to the chairman, 10 committee members will be re-elected.

At the same time, the first phase of the livable area, the first section, was officially announced today.

After the subsequent selection is over, new citizens who meet the standards can move in one after another.

The people selected this time are the first group and the most demanding group.

It must be a contribution to the Mars base, with a skill.

It is best for those who have participated in the construction of livable land projects, the easiest to obtain the qualifications.

For the rest, no matter who it is, you have to go back.

Even the members of the committee, Han Zhong and Ma Han, came to him, wanting to let their family move in earlier.

They didn't make sense, so Yang Chengjun refused with a cold face.

As for whether they have any thoughts in their hearts, will they hate him.

Yang Chengjun doesn't care at all!

The entire barrel of Mars is in his hands.

Secondly, behind him is not only the Republic, but also the company's major shareholder.

On Mars, one acre of land, Yang Chengjun speaks well.

From top to bottom, policies to basic living security, all these require him to communicate and coordinate.

Yes, there are several cabinets on the committee.

People who belong to the Supreme Council today.

But if you can't see the light from your face, it's a dark line.

Spread news and make comments.

This is the best!

No matter how strong it is, can you stand up and say something like "I am the representative of XXX"?

What good is it for you to have this dark thread?

Therefore, Yang Chengjun's little life is comfortable!

Especially this year, I went to Neon before I came to fulfill my childhood dream.

Not to mention, the teachers are really competent in preaching and receiving karma!

In just a few days, Yang Chengjun leaned on his waist and walked.

Just like that, I took the medicine, otherwise I can't get up.

The only pity is that some teachers do not live up to their names, and the reality is too overwhelming.

long...

Forget it, the key is the skin, which doesn't look rough.

What's so smooth and tender, it's just technological weird!

"Chairman." Someone called.

Looking up, Yang Chengjun smiled: "Commissioner Bai, it's a coincidence."

"I'm looking to you to tell me, are you sure of this election?"

Bai Shuang belonged to the old Bai family, and belonged to half of his own.

The two get along well at work, and she is not small in her own ability.

Yang Chengjun hopes that she can stay on.

However, judging by the energy of the big guys standing behind Lao Bai, she should be pretty sure this time.

"Before it's over, who knows!" Bai Shuang's performance was rather calm.

I don't know if it is because I have a bottom in my heart, or I am really indifferent to fame and fortune, and don't care about it.

However, as the veteran of the original 11-member group of land reclamation.

Bai Shuang's prestige on Mars is very high, and it can be said that he is a representative of the female group.

I have also made a great contribution to the development of Mars, and I have also contributed a lot to women's rights and protection.

Naturally, it is also deeply loved and supported by women, so re-election is not a big problem.

"Chairman, have you heard of it?" Bai Shuang said abruptly.

"What did you hear?"

There are hundreds of things every day, big and small, and Yang Chengjun doesn't know everything.

"Unlimited re-election, there are opinions below." Bai Shuang said about the Mars Committee system.

Members can be re-elected without restriction, as long as they are elected.

"If you have an opinion, you can chant. We are a democratic society and we are allowed to comment."

Yang Chengjun responded with a smile, seemingly not taking it seriously.

This makes Bai Shuang anxious: "I have received news that someone below has already united and wants to... launch a rebellion!"

"You mean the revival meeting?"

Bai Shuang looked startled, and said to his heart, 'does he know?'

Speaking of this revival meeting, it is really a headache...

Everyone does not work well, just thinking about how to fight for power, annoyed by infighting.

According to Yang Chengjun's investigation, their ultimate goal is to take over Mars and control the committee.

Then, declare independence!

With this mind, Yang Chengjun didn't know what to say.

With this little power on Mars, I really dare to think.

They really use the fleet as decorations, thinking that those ships can only transport materials and people, and have no combat effectiveness?

Or do you think that by holding citizens on Mars as a bargaining chip, you can make the court and the company unable to start?

Or, do you treat yourself as a 'Governor' as rubbish? !

"Commissioner Bai, I'm not here on vacation."

Smiling, Yang Chengjun is not in a hurry at all: "I have my own plans for this matter, let's close the door and solve it!"

close the door?

Thinking of the first phase of the project, Bai Shuang thoughtfully.

Is he trying to send all those people into a livable place, close the door and beat the dog?

Is he not afraid of damaging the livable place and causing losses?

"There will be losses, but the necessary losses are worth it."

Yang Chengjun sighed: "The team is not easy to take!"

Seeing his old-fashioned look, Bai Shuang laughed dumbly: "Where are you now? You will have a headache in the future."

Now that all spaceships are in the hands of the company and the court, it is impossible to sneak in.

Large-scale armed forces cannot exist, Yang Chengjun who controls the mechanical legion.

It can be said that he is the only warlord on Mars who wants to overthrow him by armed rebellion.

Whimsical!

Bai Shuang wasn't worried, what could someone do to the committee.

The security forces around them are far stronger than those revealed.

But once a rebellion occurs, there will definitely be chaos below, and the people will suffer.

Bai Shuang also worried whether his hometown would overreact.

"Don't worry, I have already filed it."

Yang Chengjun stopped and pointed upwards: "We don't still have a supervisor, we are always paying attention!"

"Chairman, the other party has done it, and the surveillance target is going to the weapons depot in an attempt to seize weapons."

Electronic sounds sounded in his ears, Yang Chengjun pressed the earphones with his hands, and smiled: "I really will pick a day!"

Today is the day when the committee is re-elected and the project is completed.

All departments are busy with these two things, and citizens are also running to tell and celebrate together.

Naturally, there is much less attention to other aspects.

The opposing party chose a good timing, but unfortunately he was too blind and self-confident and didn't know the situation well!

I really thought that the concealment I had made would not be discovered by anyone.

I also want to mix into the weapon arsenal with my identity, "you can close the net and let the RRT take over the command."

"Under the command of the mechanical legion, the RRT members are in place, and the battle begins." Director.

As the AI intelligence of Mars, the supervisor controls the operation of the entire Mars base.

Here, no one can escape its eyes.

In the next moment, the rebels who rushed to the arsenal were handing over their shifts every day.

Because of tension, the palms of his hands were full of sweat.

The Mars base has a constant temperature all year round, unless you exercise vigorously, sweating is not easy.

The colleague who was working with him curiously asked: "Your kid has been overworked recently, and his body is like this?"

The rebel smiled awkwardly: "I just went to do something, I didn't have enough time, and I ran over."

The colleague nodded, turned around and continued to register the information, but in fact he has quietly pressed the warning.

Although he didn't know the whole plan, he knew that his colleague was lying.

Have you ever seen a runner who doesn't see a drop of sweat on his head, his face is not red, he is not breathing, only his palms are sweaty.

That was obviously too nervous, he was, puff...

My heart felt cold, my thoughts went blank, 'what's wrong with me?'

In the next second, the sight was swallowed by darkness, and his body fell backward steadily.

The rebels stepped forward to take up the tablet and saw that the silent alarm above was triggered at a glance.

"Damn it!"

Screaming, the rebel looked at the corpse unwillingly and kicked twice.

Only then took the tablet and walked quickly into the weapon arsenal.

He won't have time to deal with the corpse. Once the alarm is triggered, a combat team will soon come to inspect.

No matter how he hides it, it is impossible for him to handle a corpse in such a short period of time to ensure that it will not be discovered by anyone.

Therefore, the most important thing now is not the corpse.

Instead, get the weapon as soon as possible and arm yourself before the combat team arrives.

Raising his hand and making a few gestures, the rebel came to the door of the weapon store.

The camera above is aimed at him in front of the door to take information.

"Identity passed!" The iron door opened to both sides.

A large number of rebels immediately swarmed outside the security gate, rushing towards the iron gate that was opening.

The next second, everyone stayed where they were.

After the opened iron door, they were not greeted by the empty passage and the guard room with only one person on duty.

It was an elite RRT squad and a heavy machine gun aiming outside the door with a bracket.

"run."

"Fire."

Two voices sounded at the same time, and the rebel standing at the door turned and fled.

The speed is as fast as lightning, and he fled to the safe gate in an instant.

Then, he saw another RRT blocking the road.

What is even more desperate is that two teams of [assault] armed robots followed.

"It's over."

As a changer, he should have been the key point of this action.

Occupy the weapon arsenal and obtain the weapons and power armor in it.

The revival will gain the power to counter offensive, successfully occupy the living area, and make the opponent throw a rat.

Forcing more people to join the revival meeting, and then gradually eroding the remaining power of the committee.

Finally, completely rule Mars.

But now he just wanted to kneel down and beg for mercy and live humbly.

However, this is also a luxury for him now.

Chapter 1203: On the pole

The Martian rebellion was quickly suppressed.

After receiving Yang Chengjun's report, Qin Yu was full of emotion. He really didn't expect anyone to choose to rebel.

Work collectively above, and distribute according to needs and work.

Isn't it good that everyone is equal?

If you have to make trouble, for fear that the world will not be chaotic, the truth is already being investigated by Yang Chengjun.

According to the results of the current investigation, this is a typical civil unrest.

There is no involvement of external forces, but some people are dissatisfied with the distribution of their own interests.

It was used by careerists to unite these people to create a civil turmoil to seize power.

This careerist is a teacher.

Otherwise, people who understand culture think a lot!

However, what is the cause remains to be determined, is it true that the distribution is uneven, or someone is making trouble.

These must be investigated carefully...

At noon, Qin Yu was preparing to have a meal with the staff in the canteen.

Rune called and said that NANA wanted to come to Chuo Ward.

To help her solve Ye Sheng's problem, Qin Yu was busy with the company and left Hancheng District.

This is really hard for NANA...

The boss didn't say anything, but just confessed to "It's okay, the trouble is solved" and left.

He neither stamped her nor gave her any other instructions.

The most important thing is that I didn't even think about it.

Now, don't talk about NANA.

Even Rune doesn't know, what is she?

He said it was Ouba's person, but Ouba did not touch her.

Say no...

If it were before today, Rune might still believe it.

But now...

Since I learned how extensive the incident is, how many big people have died.

Whether it's Yuna or NANA...

Or any normal person would not think that Qin Yu was simply doing good deeds.

Run'e and Sunny are a national combination, a big trend in the general trend, and an Asian legend that no one can surpass.

At the peak time, even the top men's team favored by SM has to avoid its edge.

This is also the reason why Rune and others are free from unspoken rules.

How hot is the thigh era in the real and cold society of Seoul.

Because it blocked the way of others, the company is a famous and typical patriarch, and it is pushing the season of the most popular boy group.

Throw the thigh directly abroad to play rankings, go to the hole to make money.

After experiencing the Black Sea becoming popular and the local popularity exploding, the company is not allowed to return.

It was even blocked by the Ministry of Culture and went straight back to the country. The reason was that you were too popular and blocked the way of the men's team.

It is in this case that the popularity of the thigh era remains high in the local area, and it will not be affected at all.

That's Seoul, the country with the highest suicide rate in the world, the most impersonal, cold, and realistic country.

The only combination of sound source, sales volume, and tubing that topped the list, and the only combination that successfully transformed.

The only idol group recognized at the national level has been invited to the Blue House for three visits and banquets.

Gaplow, Forbes, and Shake South Korea's three rankings, the most comprehensive group.

The debut song "The World Reunited Again" is a song that all girl group trainees must practice in Hancheng District.

Pioneers of women's groups, change the status of women's groups with their own efforts.

Before the thigh era, the girl group also wanted to win a record award? Go on a tour?

Want to fart!

See the predecessors make money, make pumps and stalkers.

Being played with, eating, drinking, singing with others when the company needs it...

Needless to say, this is the responsibility of the women's team.

Among them, SM is a typical representative.

It's no wonder that the thigh era became popular, and the company was kicked out of the local area and was not allowed to return to the show operation.

But even in this case, the thighs can still be on fire.

After being said to have been confused for 10 years, the satisfaction rate of the national survey still ranks among the top five.

The endorsement of the team, the fit has also become less and less since the service.

But as long as you look at the personal development of the members, you will find that everything is false.

Even people who don't pay attention to the entertainment industry, ask him what celebrities and combinations are there in Seoul.

Maybe he only knows one or two, one of which must be the thigh age.

As for becoming a national business card, that is the general trend.

The satisfaction of the citizens was so high that the country could not ignore it, and had to take out the thighs as business cards and put money on them.

Others are proud of being a national business card, and the thigh is a business card being taken out by the country to add luster.

Run'e is the best in personal development.

The news is not ordinary and well-informed, and it has already jumped out of the SM company's framework.

You don't have to wait for the company to tell yourself everything.

She had heard of everything that happened in Jiangnan that day.

The wall was blasted open directly from the outside, and no one was left inside, all dead.

The announced list is frightening, with a total of 17 people at the ministerial level of the consortium and branch presidents.

This list is like a storm sweeping across the Hancheng district.

It's just that the reason announced to the outside world was 'terrorist attack.'

The bald eagle fugitives in Beizhou are holding back for this...

I was wronged!

This also allows Rune to further understand the terrible influence of the miracle company.

In broad daylight, they launched an attack in Hancheng, bombarding a building and killing 17 high-level officials from different consortia.

In the end, the Seoul Yamen took the initiative to help it cover up the truth and deal with subsequent incidents.

According to Rune's inquiries, all the prosecutors and others who wanted to investigate this matter.

All received a clear warning and signed a confidentiality agreement.

Those who do not obey will be transferred from their original posts to the countryside to see the ponds.

Even a big figure in the central district was implicated and expelled from the house.

This kind of power made Rune's heart beat faster, fascinated and crazy.

At the same time, it also made Rune affirm that he was not doing good deeds.

NANA was also influenced by her. In the past few days, she tossed and turned, she couldn't sleep well, and she couldn't eat well.

Even the look is haggard!

Finally, Xin Yiheng decided to take the initiative to deliver the goods.

For NANA, after knowing the truth through Rungo.

Qin Yu was a great hero who descended from the sky, and turned Seoul upside down for her.

It is not an exaggeration to say that even the sky has been pierced.

Resist the pressure of several big consortiums to prevent her from becoming the plaything of the chaebol.

After so many years, has anyone done this for her?

Those so-called big seniors, big people in the eyes of the outside world.

In front of the real chaebol, he dare not even dare to come out.

I am used to the arrogance and domineering of the chaebol, and I am accustomed to the consolidation of the class in Seoul.

NANA never thought that one day someone would do it for themselves.

Nowadays, everyone who knows the insider regards her as a scourge.

But I am jealous of her good luck. From today onwards, she will be a forbidden existence in Seoul.

People who don't have eyesight will never hit her on the head.

After all, no one wants to be one of those corpses.

As for protest, compensation! ?

Someone tried, and the chief secretary of Miracle Company personally replied: "If you don't agree, call back!"

Miracles have always followed the rules at the poker table, but that doesn't mean they have no ability to shuffle the tables.

Some people are afraid that they have forgotten this point, knowing that Rune's intervention is still reluctant.

Dare to come to arrest people, what is this not slap in the face?

However, Qin Yu would do so absolutely.

One is to show force and remind Seoul.

As Seoul merged into the Republic, the small actions that had previously converged began to increase again.

Secondly, it was Brother Yu himself who couldn't understand the other party's style.

Finally, it depends on Rune's request.

For this little hedgehog who was cautious and desperately to please her to get affirmation.

Brother Yu still loves...

NANA's weight in this matter is probably the fuse.

It was just a coincidence that happened to make her run into it.

This is also the reason why Yu Ge returned to the company directly after solving everything.

Otherwise, there are so many things you can do in one night.

Just run the goose's small body, two hours to top the sky.

But he had already planned to let her go and take good care of the women around him.

But the other person has to take the pole to the door, "You are like this, Brother Yu is very embarrassed!"

Chapter 1204: 9 people

"It has been rumored that the nine of you have a plan to meet again. Is it true or not?"

He didn't get a response from Obama, but listened to him to mention his combination.

Rungo smiled and said, "It's true, Oppa, we are all waiting for Sika to come back."

She is always like this, always presenting the best, holding grievances and tears in her heart.

In fact, when she mentioned Sika, Rune was full of grievances, and tears were already rolling in her eyes.

"How about another concert at the Arena?" Qin Yu planned to help Run Go.

It can be regarded as fulfilling a dream about myself and all military service.

Although not a diehard fan, his thighs accompany him through the hormonal youthful years.

When nine people were jumping and jumping on the stage, he also watched dozens of...

Just a few hundred times!

Dongdan's "Reunion" is everyone's regret.

Finally boarded the stage of dreams, but one person was missing.

Qin Yu wants to meet the nine people again and sing "The World Reunited Again" together.

This time, she is going to see her legs on the spot.

"Really?" Run Go almost screamed.

Reuniting, this is the dream of all members...

They have been waiting for the contract to expire.

I hope that everyone will be there that day, and you can re-enter the stage to announce your return to the fans.

But with the passage of time, hopes become diminished.

Starting from the military service, Shenyin's Shenyin, fish-catching fish.

Because everyone's hearts are gone, there is no hope...

It is also expressing dissatisfaction with the company and fighting against its wrong decision.

Today, the thighs have not only received little support from the company, but they are often pulled back.

It even suffered a fatal back stabbing, causing the members to leave the team.

This kind of show operation can only be seen in a strange country like Seoul.

"Really, I'll arrange it." Qin Yu has a big deal, and he also has the strength and qualifications.

The 15-year contract between SM and Thigh has expired, and now they are just naming them in the company.

As for changing companies, transferring to a large company will only try to squeeze the value of the thighs.

Small companies can't support their development, let alone resources and channels.

It is difficult to maintain the current development of each member, so we can only hang on the SM and take a step by step.

This time, Qin Yu intends to take over his thigh and expand his reputation.

There is no need to worry about resources and the market. Although the reputation is small, the energy of rice is not small.

Besides, there is also the Ministry of Etiquette.

Nowadays, the Central District is very * the development card of Seoul idol.

Qin Yu directly helped the thigh open up the market, no way worse than it is now.

In today's Republic, the market is more than several times larger than before.

Besides, there is also the care of the Ministry of Etiquette.

"Thank you Oppa, Sarah..." Rungo jumped up happily.

When I turned my eyes, I saw NANA who looked at me with eyesight.

'Almost forgot. Rune asked quickly about the arrangement of NANA.

"Come with her!" Qin Yu ordered.

The thighs are arranged, is there still an actor?

The famous job is the film and television industry.

Learn Mandarin first, and let the rice show up in film and television dramas, and get familiar with it.

Follow-up fame can take advantage of NANA's popularity to counterattack the Seoul market.

It can be regarded as mutual benefit and achieve a win-win situation!

With Qin Yu's assurance, Rune waited for him to hang up and immediately told the members the good news.

Qin Yu also dialed Rice's number and asked her to send someone to deal with the matter.

"Coming again?" Rice is going crazy, fame is a serious company, and we are engaged in art.

"Don't you think about Seoul and the neon market?" Qin Yu threw the bait.

You must know that before the millennium, most of the Seoul market belonged to Hong Kong Island, as did neon.

The sticks are crazy obsessed with Fa Ge, Zu Xian Sister.

The Hong Kong Island stars of that era were super able to play in Asia and had no opponents at all.

After so many years, the Hong Kong wind has declined.

How many people regret this, if fame can re-emerge in the Asian market, a wave of turmoil will be blown.

"Sister Mi, what do you think about the fans going crazy from time to time?"

Brother Yu's bait was big and fragrant, and he didn't want to let go when he bit the rice.

"Can this be done?" After the excitement, Rice also had its own concerns.

You know these years, regardless of whether you admit it or not, the kimchi style is still the mainstream.

Received trainee training in Kimchi, the flow of development after returning to China, and the business ability is top-notch.

The other side's training system dare not talk about the whole world.

But it is definitely the best in Asia. Can they successfully counterattack the kimchi market and cause a new trend?

Rice is still a little unsure, before the ban.

Although companies often announce how their artists are doing kimchi.

But in fact, it is pure brand advertising.

Like 80 million faces, they rely purely on advertisements for publicity, supporting the scene, and putting gold on their faces.

In fact, none of the works can be circulated in the market.

"That was in the past, Bangzi always felt superior, the light of Asia, and the guidance of chaebols and the government."

"Now, not before." Qin Yu was confident.

Kimchi joins the Republic, whether he wants it or not, it can't be the same as before.

Degrade the republic and raise the white-skinned father.

Everything looks like a white skin, it's not a bad thing...

The education system and the fact that textbooks have been distorted and deleted have also been corrected and restored.

Especially kimchi once belonged to the kingdom of the celestial dynasty and paid tribute all year round.

As for the overthrow of orthodoxy, I went to heaven for help and ignored this paragraph.

Think tanks also argued about this for many days.

Finally, I decided to respect history and write truthfully.

But it also explained the situation of the Tian Dynasty at that time, the court was corrupt and the royal family was mediocre.

Internal troubles and external chaos, even if they want to help, they don't have that ability.

Change people's cognition with culture subtly.

Joining the Republic now is not surrendering, but acknowledging one's ancestors. It was originally your ancestor, but there was an accident in the middle.

Some rebellious sons were disobedient and rebelled.

Now, returning to the family of the ancestors is justified.

Political law and the public system have also begun to promote the concept of "family family".

In particular, chaebol companies have set this as a slogan.

Every day I have to shout slogans to cheer for myself and change my outlook.

It won't work if you don't do this!

The Republic is not a kimchi. It is the chaebol kidnapping the national economy, which is above the law.

Control the political, economic and social system and national development in one hand.

Don't say it's true, whoever takes the lead will die...

Immediately after the merger, the chaebols were warned, asking them to stand by themselves and abide by the law.

The business can be followed, and the previous things can be forgotten.

But what should I do in the future?

I hope they can think about it...

The Republic does not lack chaebols, let alone chaebols.

Now you are not actively moving closer to the Republic and cooperating with her work.

Help local yamen stabilize the situation and speed up unity.

When she frees her hands, one demon will all die!

The chaebols did too much to settle accounts after autumn.

Chapter 1205: Justice must be full

Why did Yuri come up and kill him, purge the seventeen senior executives of the chaebol at a time.

If you get the acquiescence from above, beat some people.

The Ye family's involvement in Seoul's economy forced the boss to take Ye Lao's affection into consideration.

Although the person is no longer there, there are still his old comrades, old buddies.

These people are still thinking about old feelings, thinking about Ye Lao's.

Ye Shengneng called the wind and the rain in Hancheng, not just because of his Ye family's identity.

However, the above originally wanted to take care of the Ye family and let them take the lead in Seoul.

Unexpectedly, the other party went, but disrupted the layout and started a historical reversal.

There is no one that needs to be corrected and suppressed.

He didn't care about the stability and order that the above wanted!

So, after learning that Qin Yu is going to Seoul.

After finding out that Ye Sheng was acting as a demon behind, Lao Bai said on the spot: "Just don't pierce the sky and do it."

Ye Jinlan's conveying of Zhou Lao's original words also had the same meaning.

Just after suppressing the unhealthy trends in Seoul, he ran to be a demon and backer for others.

If the rules were broken, I didn't talk about it, and treated the warning above as farting.

He didn't take it directly, he was already taking Ye Lao's face into consideration.

Thanks to Qin Yu's appearance, Ye Haotian made the right choice by mistake.

Otherwise, the Ye family will also be implicated this time.

These inside stories were revealed by Ye Haotian through the words of his own Laozi and Ye Jinlan.

I figured it out and analyzed it...

At that time, he was scared into a cold sweat.

I also understand Silver Wing Yaoguang, why dare to enter the airspace of Shangdu in an upright manner.

This is Qin Yu's threat, it is clear that the book is using MU's hand to beat Ye Family.

No matter how honest you are, even Ye Lao's Yu Yin can't protect Ye Family.

After listening to his son's analysis, Lao Ye still felt that he was making a fuss, and that smart people thought too much.

In this regard, Ye Haotian was exhausted.

With such a stupid dad, what else can he do?

No wonder grandpa said, "Shangshu's position, I'm not here, the boss can't sit still."

At that time, Ye Haotian felt that the old man was partial.

I always remember the good of my third uncle, even if the person is gone, and I want to leave all the family resources to my granddaughter.

There was no one else in his eyes, and he couldn't see the efforts of his own Lao Tzu at all.

Now, Ye Haotian wants to say: "You are right."

"Jin Lan, how about my Ye Family's eyes on Mars?"

The situation in Shangdu is too complicated, and after the Supreme Council City, not one family has the final say.

The Ye family is now in a bottleneck, and its power in North Korea has been greatly reduced.

Ye Haotian was worried that one day his stupid father would make a mistake and would directly implicate the entire Ye family.

It would be better to lay out early and transfer part of the family's power elsewhere.

At that time, even if you lose power in the DPRK, at least there is hope for a comeback.

Ye Jinlan glanced at him and smiled: "Isn't you still here?"

Ye Haotian smiled bitterly and shook his head: "Time waits for no one, even if there is Ye Family's help, I want to go to my father's position."

"At least it will take more than ten years. I'm afraid I won't have that much time for the Ye family."

What Ye Haotian said was from his heart, ten years is too long, who knows what changes will happen in the process.

Besides, even if he reaches the position of Shangshu, he is still one step away from reaching the summit.

This step is crucial, and the Ye Family can return to glory by stepping over it.

However, it would be nice to be able to hold onto the current family business.

"The future of the Ye Family is in Shennongjia...Who is the head of the Alien Group?"

Hearing what she said, my mind immediately opened up.

Yes indeed!

Not just the Ye Family, everyone's future is in the battle group.

Who is the leader of the battle group, it is Zhou Yi!

The grandson Zhou Lao loves the most is his approved successor.

When the subspace exploration fleet was about to return to rest, the court formed an alien group.

Also let Zhou Yi lead the team, the daily training items are also vacuum operations and ground raids.

This is clearly preparing for war. Where there is war, it is naturally subspace.

According to his information, Vulcan received a new order from the imperial court.

Twenty falcon-class cruisers, which are fully equipped King Kong-class starships.

In addition, an order was placed with Titan Heavy Industries.

5 [Titans], 100 fission-class power armors, and 500 [assault] armed robots.

1000 particle pulse guns, 200 saw chain swords, 10000 spare saw chains, and equipment related accessories.

The total amount of this order exceeds 2 trillion yuan.

Even for the Republic, it is a huge expenditure.

However, the province should be spent!

Justice-must be full.

1,000 particle pulse guns and 10,000 energy slots are prepared to ensure the lasting stability of the battlefield, isn't it too much?

The saw chain on the saw chain sword is a consumable item. It is reasonable to prepare 50 times the saw chain as a spare, right?

The remaining mess of bullets, artillery shells, and important accessories are the guarantee for the normal operation of the starship.

In order to prevent it from squatting in outer space and losing power, prepare more accessories. Isn't it wrong? !

Thinking of the parliament's recent large-scale efforts, the reported military expenditures were 36% higher than the previous year.

Ye Haotian felt more and more that his cousin's analysis was correct.

No matter it is the Ye family, or Shang are other families.

Their future is all in the alien warband, in the subspace...

In the future, who can have more voice.

It depends on who has the stronger power, the genetic warrior...

They are the future!

"Jin Lan, you are the one who awakened the dream with one word, thank you." Ye Haotian thanked his cousin.

"Why, do you want to withdraw the quota from each family?" Ye Jinlan guessed what he was thinking at a glance.

Of the 10 places in the Ye family, Ye Jinlan occupies one.

The remaining rooms, the second uncle, the fourth uncle, and the fifth uncle, each occupy two.

7 places have gone to this one.

In addition to the 2 of Ye Haotian's family, 10 places have gone to 9...

The last one is the bait placed in the pool!

This quota depends only on the ability, not on the body.

No matter who it is, it can compete. For example, Ye Haotian has four brothers.

The family's two places this year are recommended for the boss and the second.

The youngest wanted to go this year too, but was not convinced.

Then he can go to fight for the last place, as long as you can overwhelm a group of peers.

Get the top spot, this place is yours.

As for whether he could seize the opportunity, he turned over and jumped over the gate.

It's up to him, he can't compete!

Originally, Ye Haotian felt that such a distribution was quite reasonable.

Two places are enough for his own use, and he doesn't have more than a dozen brothers and sisters.

It is mainly used to recommend one's own people, which is completely enough.

But now, Ye Haotian felt that 2 places were too few.

Want to firmly control Ye Family's rights, current status and future.

Then there will be more places to win over people's hearts.

"My place can be loaned to you."

Ye Jinlan was talking about borrowing, not giving, the difference should be made clear.

Lending to him means that he can decide the recommender for this place.

But Ye Jinlan owns the right of ownership of the quota.

One day she didn't want to borrow, and she could take back her quota.

Ye Haotian was also grateful for just lending it to himself temporarily.

Although she knows that she did this because she just got 3 places from Miracle Company.

But Ye Haotian is not someone who doesn't know good or bad, this place is not only a qualification for recommendation.

It also represents Ye Jinlan's support for him.

With the support of Ye Jinlan, the economic leader, Ye Haotian is a little more sure about the next arrangements!

With Uncle Wu, Ye Haotian had just offended their family and his son died.

In the future, I am afraid that I will die of old age and stay away from each other.

My second uncle, my son was also driven out of the Republic by himself.

Only the fourth uncle and the elders of the family are left.

It seems that this matter must start from the fourth uncle's house, and then persuade the elders of the clan to obtain their support.

The reason Ye Haotian thought it over and took the quota back to the family.

Regardless of respect and inferiority, the capable ones go up, and the mediocre ones go down.

In this way, it is sure to get the full support of all branches, including the family forces that follow the Ye Family.

After all, for them, this is equivalent to having more opportunities to get ahead.

It's more fair too!

As for whether the final result is fair, the Ye family still has the final say.

And now, Ye Hua and Ye Haotian father and son.

It is the Ye Family at the helm!

Chapter 1206: Terrifying

With Ye Jinlan's support, Ye Haotian went to the fourth uncle's house the same day.

There are many children in Ye Sishu's family, and two places are not enough.

In addition, there are so many people who follow him waiting for arrangements, and they have long thought of arranging a few more places.

Ye Haotian assured him that as long as he supports his proposal at the family meeting.

At least three people will be recommended by him every year.

This is a real benefit to Ye Sishu.

Ye Haotian was not surprised if he successfully convinced the fourth uncle...

He is too narrow-minded, he is good at making small calculations, and has no vision.

As long as something is good for him, he will not refuse!

The next step is to persuade the elders and the elders to kiss.

Regarding the Ye family, with Ye Jinlan present, Qin Yu just didn't want to know it.

The main purpose of this trip is to arrange the 'high-level energy crystal column matrix.'

This matter has dragged on for some days, and many old men above are waiting eagerly!

According to the actual data collected, the benefits of the matrix are too much.

It not only strengthens the body, strengthens the will, and resists pollution.

It is more beneficial to longevity...

Like those with minor illnesses and pains, they will heal themselves in a short time under the coverage of the 'magnetic field'.

Residents living in the magnetic field are getting better and better every day.

The old man who used to have headaches and brain fever, weak limbs.

You can go to the fifth floor in one go!

This is a real deal, a benefit that can be seen clearly.

Because of this, many elderly people don't even live in their own homes anymore.

Roll up the bedding and rush into the shadow area. I would rather just find a bridge hole or park to build a ground floor, but also rely on the shadow area.

The local government had to announce new regulations...

Anyone who enters the 'core area' must show an identification barcode.

Those who do not have an identity barcode must have special requirements before they are allowed to enter.

It's not that we have to specialize, but we really don't.

The entire core area was about to be crowded, the roads were congested, and it was not driven for several hours.

Public transportation has been paralyzed, and subways, tunnels, and underground passages have been taken up by people who lay the ground.

Not only does it cause great troubles and obstacles to the residents of the 'core area', but also to their lives and work.

Huge potential safety hazards have also been buried, and conflicts may arise due to position grabbing at every turn.

For a week in a row, 12 people died in the conflict.

There are also people who play peek-a-boo directly with the patrol and hide XZ for one day, fearing that they will be found and driven out of the 'core area.'

In the end, it was Kylin who took over the 'eye of the sky' to accurately locate everyone and restore the order of the 'core area'.

But the consequence of this is to make the class positioning of the 'core area' more clear to the outside world.

"That's the privileged area, look at it!"

"In the future, people with power and money will gather together and move in. We people don't even want to go in if we try our best."

"I have to line up to get the number when I go to see a doctor. If there is a serious illness, it will be gone if I am not in line."

A passerby couldn't see it and said: "You old lady, it's not that there is no hospital outside."

When it's really terrible, you still don't want to go to the nearest doctor, what can you do if you have to get inside? "

"Hey, who are you? What's the matter with you... I think you are a rich man who lives in it, and you don't have a backache when you stand and talk."

The old woman has a fierce face, and a group of people around her are also the same haters.

Seeing the other person's unreasonable appearance, the man shook his head: "Okay, let me take care of my business, and you continue to curse."

"I'm not a rich person, just a good life." Stepping towards the station, the young man swiped his card and got on the bus.

'Verified, welcome home! '

Hearing the electronic sound, the old lady was even more jealous: "Let me get it right, nowadays young people are really shameless. When they are full, they don't care if others are hungry."

The young man sat in the car and glanced at her disdainfully: "I'm not a rich person, I just happened to pay a down payment."

"Now, there are 28 years of loan to be repaid, but I have never complained. That may be the case, God takes care of it."

The house you bought happens to be at the edge of the core area. Are you angry? "

The young man sighed with emotion: "I really didn't expect that I would have luck. Hey, God is fair occasionally."

He is not a bad guy, nor is he a bad guy.

He is an ordinary person who is diligent, down-to-earth, and fighting for the future.

I thought that this would be the case for the rest of my life, but I didn't expect that I had just bought a house for less than 2 years.

Tired and out of breath like a dog, I feel that life is not looking forward to.

kuang~

There is a big pie in the world...

No, it's a gold bump, right in the forehead!

It's just so lucky, I didn't say anything about it.

After all, he was so happy: "Haha..."

The door slid down, and the young man left in a speeding car laughing, leaving only a group of old ladies staring at each other.

He cursed unwillingly, and wanted to give his heart a breath of malice.

The speeding car ejected straight into the sky, and when it reached the standard height, it jumped at an angle and merged into the traffic flow and drove into the core area.

The invisible and colorless film in front spread silently after a speeding car hit.

When the speeding car entered, it quickly healed and formed a closed loop.

Arrived in the core area, the lane seemed busy and congested...

Indeed, as the outside world said, since the 'matrix' arrangement has been completed.

More and more powerful people are trying their best to move their homes into the 'core area'.

The advantage is that it is visible and realistic.

Who doesn't want to let their own family benefit, but the yamen can control it as soon as possible.

The happiest thing is that I bought an investment house, which happened to be included in the core area.

These people are simply making a profit!

Before spending 2 million to buy a house, now some people on the black market directly bid 50 million.

More people bid 100 million.

There is no need to transfer the house, and the house is still under the name of the other party, as long as you can live in it.

Many people heard this, and they all accused this man of being a fool.

Are rich people stupid?

The rich are not stupid, they are shrewd!

Go in first and take advantage of it.

As for who owns the house, it doesn't matter at all, the benefits of getting it in hand are the real deal.

For real rich people, this little money is nothing.

One injection of 2 million longevity injections, once a week, is not a problem for decades.

300 million for a kidney, bad money?

As long as you live a few more years, money counts.

What's more, like the core area, there is no need to experience any pain.

Eat, drink and drink every day, breathing and sleeping will improve physical fitness, prolong life and build a healthy body.

The rich are happy to spend more money!

Besides, can it be a simple character who can give 100 million at will?

Although there is no transfer of ownership, there are still some contracts that should be.

Transfer records, video recordings, and fairness, there are a lot of procedures that should be followed.

Turning over to deny, backhand you are a scam.

Day, there will be a contract right away!

Looking down through the window, there are booming constructions everywhere.

"Dude, which neighborhood do you live in."

"Hefeng, how about you?"

"Eh, by coincidence, I live next to you, Xifeng Garden."

The two opened their heads, and the other people in the same car also chatted.

"I heard that the buildings below are all led by the Yamen. They are a hundred stories high, and they are all used to house special talents.

You said that in the future, ordinary people like us will not be driven out, right? "

Those who are 'outside the city' admire those who are 'in the city', and those who are 'in the city' also have their own worries.

Nowadays, the official announcement of yamen recruiting special talents from the outside world can be seen everywhere in the news.

On the Internet, people from all walks of life are also interpreting the connotation of this new announcement.

All in all, it's just one sentence.

The future belongs to 'special talent'.

Genetic warriors, mutants, pilots, scientific research talents...

The attention these people receive is very different from the common people.

But it is unfair and unsteady.

But if there is a day, ordinary people like them will be driven out of the core area.

Whether it is or ordinary families in the core area.

I am afraid they will not easily agree!

"Don't worry, there are so many people, the yamen will naturally think about it."

An older brother patted his legs and said with a smile: "Besides, who said that ordinary families will be a few years later, or ordinary families?"

"We can be regarded as a person who has been soaked in energy all day. I dare not say that I become a superman, but for many years, it must be better than ordinary people."

"It's just that I haven't changed much. Is it easy to have a child?"

"If you want me to say, you are just worrying about everything, find a daughter-in-law and live your life!"

Look at Big Brother's extraordinary bearing, full of the aura of a superior.

Everyone could not help but nodded in agreement: "I feel right, even if I can't, there won't be my son.

Being born here and growing up here will definitely be extraordinary in the future. "

"Hey, let my brother say that, I have to quickly find a wife to have a baby!"

"Shhh, don't dare to talk nonsense about this, be careful to be beaten to death by random punches."

The young man's face changed, and he quickly covered his mouth: "Mistakes in the mouth, mistakes in the mouth."

Fortunately, there is no boxer in the car.

Otherwise, he would have to be beaten to death by random punches and dragged to the public to whip his corpse.

The majesty of the boxer is terrifying!

Chapter 1207: Wrestle

The large-scale construction of the abandoned city is booming, and the layout of the "matrix" of Shangdu has been slightly changed.

Where is the core placed? The above hasn't come up with a charter so far.

"Every thought, I want to take up more." In the old house, Ye Jinlan sat on the rocking chair and hit the nail on the head.

Aunt Ye came out with the freshly cut fruit in the room, and put the plate on the table next to the rocking chair.

Then he pulled a little Mazha and sat down, listening to the two of them talking.

Don't even think of her as a sister-in-law, but her "identity" in this courtyard is a bit shorter than Ye Jinlan.

Who made her come too late without reasoning!

Ye Jinlan was already very satisfied if Ye Jinlan could forgive her and let her enter the old house.

A woman, once satisfied, a sense of happiness emerges spontaneously.

Aunt Ye is very happy now...

"It's up to them to fight, is there no news from the council?"

Now the parliament is in charge, and it's futile to fight again.

In other words, the 'matrix' is arranged in Shangdu, and only when the vital interests are involved, each family has the right to speak.

"Actually, there is nothing controversial. It means to be in the imperial city. It is nothing more than the front and back feet."

"It seems to be fighting for position, but in fact different factions are wrestling, and the patience of the parliament is also limited."

Ye Jinlan sat up with Erlang's legs up, his arms spread out to support the arm of the chair, and his capital became stronger.

"It has something to do with you?"

Listen to her, here is the power struggle of Huangcheng roots.

When Ye Lao was here, the Ye family was also the leader.

In recent years, I have been weaker, but Yu Wei is still there, and I am afraid that he will also be implicated in it.

"What does it have to do with me? I'm just a lonely woman." Ye Jinlan said and gave him a sideways glance.

The enchanting and charming in it is not enough for outsiders!

After two minutes, Qin Yu came out of the room, slamming his mouth with a sense of excitement.

If you eat well, it just feels like it's almost meaningless.

Looking at Aunt Ye who is in the courtyard, Qin Yu knows what's wrong.

It's a pity that Ye Jinlan is so temperamental that he doesn't agree to serve them together, so he can only taste them one by one.

You said that if you want to eat seafood, you have to eat it separately for two tables.

trouble!

When he reached the recliner, Qin Yu could tell at a glance that Xiaogu Ye was pretending to be asleep.

The eyelashes tremble, just like the flash in front of the red carpet.

Fell asleep? Who believes it!

But women, should be reserved or reserved...

He stepped forward and hugged her 'lightly', Qin Yu hadn't stepped into the door of the house.

The jade in his arms, his nose is getting heavier...

The night is dim, and the sky is full of stars illuminating the courtyard of the old house.

Qin Yu was lying on the rocking chair alone, with a pot of hot tea on the table, and Fanbing standing beside him.

Back then, Ye Lao arranged a guard for his granddaughter.

She is still driving Ye Jinlan, loyal and loyal, and she is the most assured person.

"Sit, don't be restrained." Qin Yu pointed to Xiao Ma Zha and asked him to sit down.

Fanbing stood honestly and said dully: "Mr. Qin, I just need to stand."

Looking up at him, Qin Yu didn't force it.

These people are stubborn, but there is nothing to say about loyalty.

Otherwise, Ye Lao wouldn't put him next to his granddaughter.

"In the past two years, has the work gone well?"

Hearing Qin Yu mentioning this, Fan Bing looked helpless and fleeting.

It went well, how could it go well?

In the past, people like them didn't dare to say that they were equal to each other, killing seven in and out.

Among the armies, the enemy will be the first.

But it is also the elite of the elite, or it will not be their turn to protect the leader.

now...

Flying to the ground, calling the wind and calling the rain.

A car in one hand, juggling.

The whole body was beaten into a sieve, and he would recover within a few seconds... the stranger.

How to compare?

This reminded Fanbing of a sentence: My lord, the times have changed!

Had it not been for the young lady to need him, Fanbing might have been discouraged and found a place to live an ordinary life incognito.

Maybe, not bad!

"Are you interested in participating in training?" Qin Yu asked casually.

Fanbing's eyes lit up, and he said seriously: "Yes."

After speaking, Fanbing hesitated again. He wanted to participate in the training, but he was worried that he would not be able to pass the transformation.

As Ye Jinlan's most trusted person, Fanbing was afraid to be clear about the training process of genetic warriors.

But what are the risks and the success rate.

He knew all this in his heart.

He was not afraid of death, and terribly failed Ye Lao's entrustment.

Back then, he swore an oath in front of Ye Lao.

Unless she is dead, she won't let the young lady suffer any harm.

If I die, how can I explain to the old leader below?

"Your current strength really has any danger against Jinlan, you can't protect it."

Qin Yu didn't talk about any major principles, just put the facts in front of him.

To reason with such a stubborn * is purely asking for trouble.

As long as he finds his weakness, he will convince himself with a little bit of excitement.

Why bother to talk and talk to him!

"Mr. Qin, you can protect Miss well."

Fanbing knows that he can, if he can't even do it, no one in this world can do it.

But he was not sure whether the relationship between the two would last forever.

In Fanbing's eyes, he is good at everything!

Only in terms of women, it's too bothersome...

What kind of status is my lady? I am still not satisfied with her.

The young lady was so willing to wipe his ass.

And sister Ye...

Fanbing knew that he had passed, so he shouldn't think about his master's affairs.

But these things are right in front of you, can't you think about it if you don't talk about it out of duty? !

"My woman, of course I won't let her have an accident."

Qin Yu didn't take him seriously.

Otherwise, he wouldn't be loyal to Ye Jinlan and almost resigned his title.

"I go."

Fanbing is not an indecisive character, he knows that the longer he delays, the smaller his role will be.

Someday, if danger comes, what he can do...

I'm afraid that the only way to die is to die in front of the young lady, and he doesn't even have the ability to resist.

Anyone who came from the same place with him had a clear understanding of their own abilities.

In fact, his old partners have joined the training camp one after another.

It is to do the job better in the new environment.

Strengthen your strength and make up for your own shortcomings!

Fanbing had already wanted to go, but he couldn't rest assured.

Qin Yu asked for a promise today, and he should also make up his mind.

Seeing him turn around to leave, Qin Yu smiled and said, "Don't say goodbye to your lady?"

"No."

Fanbing stopped, his tone firm: "If it's done, there will naturally be time for goodbye."

"No, it's just that I failed Ye Lao's request, so what face is there to see the young lady."

After speaking, he left.

"Hey, it's really a stubborn donkey." Smiling and shook his head, Qin Yu put his head on the cushion of the recliner.

The center of gravity is down, and the recliner is swaying 'baby babble'.

Night, rest!

The meeting in the roots of the imperial city was still in full swing.

Many big bosses gathered together, the room was covered with hazy smoke, and the old smokers were spitting out smoke.

Seeing that there are not a few left in the cigarette case, everyone's face is tired.

But the brilliance in his eyes is undiminished.

They are all mature and sophisticated guys, and their brains turn faster than the radar.

Even if the body is tired, the brain is not stumbled at all.

However, after discussing it for a day, it did not come up with a charter.

Some people can't help but feel anxious, and if this continues, the parliament will not let them go crazy.

Don't forget, the parliament is not just the Central District.

Other people stare at this point eagerly, and fall into the hands of Chuo Ward. You have nothing to say about your own things.

But when things get into your hands, you don't rush to put them away, you have to hold them to show off.

This is not right!

Even the people who didn't make up their minds can't help but think more.

Ye Hua is also among these people, as the six big bosses, how could this kind of thing miss him.

However, he is no longer in the C position, he is also a support, playing cooperation, charging into the battle.

Perceiving the look in the boss's eyes, Ye Hua should have come forward to break the deadlock.

Lead the topic to an entry point that is beneficial to your own family.

But when he thought of his son's instructions before coming, he suppressed the impulse in his heart.

"We, Ye Jiashu, are very popular. Without the old man, we still occupy so many benefits."

"Seeing that there are too many people in our house that are not pleasing to the eye, it's just one stop..."

"Don't do things like this. Otherwise, if one is not good, the fire will be burned to our own heads."

"Where the matrix layout is not the layout, our family can benefit and let them fight for it by themselves."

Ye Hua also retorted at the time: "Doing so, wouldn't it be evil to make friends with our family?"

"Evil is evil, Dad, do you really expect something to happen to the old Ye family, they can help?"

"It's good not to pounce on it forever. Don't think about other things, keep our one-third acre of land, and wait for the next year..."

Thinking of his son Zhi's satisfaction and strategizing performance.

Ye Hua sits upright, with her hands folded, looking at the nose, nose and heart, heart...

Suddenly, a little sleepy!

Chapter 1208: Stupid dad can't take it

Before dawn, the location was finally determined.

In this contest, the reformists have the upper hand.

Therefore, originally pointed at the conservatives who charged the old Ye Family and waited for him a few times when they left.

Ye Hua smiled bitterly, but after doing everything, he wouldn't pull his face down to beg for forgiveness.

Lao Ye also wanted to understand, just like his son said.

Something really happened to the Ye family, can these old foxes stand up and help?

If you don't lie on their Ye Family's body and * blood, you should burn the incense.

Old Ye constricted his mind, ready to go home and talk to his son about the meeting.

See if there is anything missing.

Don't be dug, you don't know yet.

Old Ye has limited ability, but not bad memory, what happened at the meeting.

Who is dirty with whom, and who said what.

He remembered it clearly, so he could just go back and repeat it again.

Pushing away the chair, he was about to leave, when someone came to stop him.

"Leader Ye, I heard that Haotian has joined the company, and now it is highly valued. This is a joyous event worth celebrating."

The revolutionary young general took the initiative to show his favor.

Ye Hua can't help but ignore this signal...

Earlier, he ignored the hints of conservatives and saw the opposite.

The old guys who are wicked, on the contrary are good friends with the younger generation, a good thing!

"Haha, yes, this kid is still upbeat..."

Walking out of the conference room side by side with the other party, this scene was seen by everyone.

The few old guys who were waiting for Ye Hua outside, ready to ask questions, frowned.

When I got home, I told my son about it.

Ye Haotian was not good on the spot, is his father going to die? !

Seeing her son's sad expression on her face, Ye Hua felt a little uncomfortable.

"Why, it's not good to have a good relationship with the reformers, anyway, the old guys also have opinions on me."

"dad."

Ye Haotian yelled, feeling helpless with his indifferent attitude.

I'm a relative dad, you are really...

There is nothing wrong with the old man. With the background of the old Ye family, he just doesn't want to make this gun. Who can say anything?

In private, many people would still make injustices for the Ye family.

The old Ye family used to be the leader. Ye Lao had only left for a few years, so he used the old Ye family as a spear.

Charge into battle, what the old Ye family's identity can do?

Ye Hua just didn't do it, and no one could say one, two or three.

At most, two complaints in private.

Having said so much, on the contrary, he was sympathetic to the old Ye Jiala.

As long as the old Ye's buttocks are upright and standing in their own ranks, they are their own.

But now it's different. First, the old man was wicked, and then he left with the teenager chatting and laughing.

In the eyes of outsiders, this is clearly to change the door.

The * is crooked, this is to re-stand in line and run to the opposite side...

But the old Ye family clearly didn't have this plan, and their old Ye family could not withstand this kind of turmoil now.

When it comes to the issue of standing in line, it's not just a small storm.

A carelessness, no matter how big the ship is, it may capsize.

Ye Hua was not allowed to speak in order to avoid getting involved in the frontal struggle between the two factions.

Get out of this muddy water, close the door and live a good life at home.

now.....

Not only did Ye Hua didn't hide, but the standard 160-degree rotation made a sharp kick.

Boom!

The waves are going to drown many people, and even he himself may not be able to get out.

I really thought that the teenager who asked him to talk to him was showing good intentions, because they deliberately pulled Ye's house into the water.

Before people do anything, the conservatives are messing up first.

"Can't you?"

Old Ye knew in his heart that his son was right.

Can he admit that he is an idiot in front of his son?

This old leaf can't do...

Seeing his stupid father's stubborn look, Ye Haotian became even more tired.

This bunch of bad things made Ye Haotian's forehead blitz.

Teammate pig, can't bring it together!

It didn't take long for his uncle's sorrow operation to reach Ye Jinlan's ears.

She didn't want to pay attention, but she couldn't hold back someone approaching her to tell her.

You can't write two leaf characters in one stroke.

You Ye Jinlan controls the economic power of the Ye family, saying that you have nothing to do with the Ye family.

Do you believe this?

"This uncle is really..." Ye Jinlan shook his head speechlessly.

Let him toss like this, if he can't let the old people dispel their doubts, confirm that the old Ye's family is still in his own team.

Some of the people behind the Ye family suffer...

However, Ye Jinlan is not afraid, she is not leaning against the Ye family now.

As the facade for the contact between court politics and the Miracle Company, she also has people above her.

As long as Ye Jinlan doesn't intervene in these things, the fire will not burn her head no matter how big it is.

Besides, there is still his own man.

Last time, the performance of Silver Wing Yaoguang was seen by everyone who was qualified to know at home and abroad.

The threat of hovering on Shangdu shocked everyone even more.

Although everyone felt that this was a threat, Qin Yu didn't dare to do it no matter how bold it was.

But just in case!

She was angry and crowned as a beauty, the last thing was because of a woman's trouble.

He was still a star in Seoul, and for this reason, the old Ye's family was forced to break a junior.

Miss Ye family, the father's favorite daughter.

Is the head of the family economy not as good as a small star?

Regardless of family history, identity, or appearance alone.

Ye Jinlan is no worse than anyone else.

A little star fell out, if Ye Jinlan...

How much does he have to make trouble? !

Therefore, anyone who knows the inside story really doesn't dare to provoke Ye Jinlan.

This is also the reason why Fanbing can leave with confidence, he just sees through this.

"How is Fanbing?"

Since knowing that he had gone to the training camp, Ye Jinlan's heart has been up and down.

Speaking of heart-wrenching words, Fanbing is her confidence.

This person was left to her by the old man, and he swore in front of the old man to protect her well.

And he did.

No matter what Ye Jinlan wants to do, as long as he gives instructions, all soldiers will do it properly.

Don't ask right or wrong, just talk about loyalty.

In ancient times, he was a loyal dead man.

How could Ye Jinlan not care about him.

Employing people is not something that everyone can use. The more you are in a high position, the more you have to be careful of the people around you.

Everything in the world is not complicated than people's hearts.

No one can guarantee what the people who flatter you on the surface are thinking in private.

This shows the value of ordinary soldiers.

Since he left, Ye Jinlan has had a few more formalities to do things here.

Not only is it cumbersome, but some things have to be done by yourself.

No one can rest assured that she can explain...

"Yes I think he can pass it." Qin Yu gave her a reassurance pill.

However, Fanbing wanted to choose the 'Almighty Gene'.

Qin Yu concealed it quietly, and waited until everything was over before he could tell Ye Jinlan himself.

The "Almighty Gene" from Jing Yuan is not like a super * gene, docile and peaceful.

Profound, powerful, and elusive!

This is the characteristic of the Almighty. If you want to successfully pass the remodeling operation, the success rate may not be high.

So far, there has not been a successful Almighty.

One is that there are too few people to choose, and only two graduates have chosen it before.

Secondly, it is too strong, and the load on the body and will is too high.

Those two graduates who wanted to become 'Almighty' died on the stage of remodeling surgery.

In Shi Cui's theoretical conjecture, the 'Almighty' will be the most powerful of the six protoplasmic genes.

Whether it's Qin Yu or Shi Cui...

Including Jing Yuan, they all want to witness the birth of the first 'Almighty'.

In terms of will alone, ordinary soldiers are much stronger than ordinary people.

This is why everyone is unanimously optimistic about him.

Hope, he will not disappoint everyone.

Chapter 1209: Work hard and a little bit of miracle

Imperial City, Baohe Hall.

It was noon when I walked out of the main hall, and I glanced at the slowly closing door behind him.

Qin Yuxin said, 'from today, there is one less room that can be visited.'

Originally, the Hall of Baohe was opened to the outside world.

But starting today, it is impossible to open up again.

'but...'

After activating the nanoworm, his eyes glowed red, and Qin Yu looked upward.

The invisible energy magnetic field has begun to spread outward.

When the limit is reached, it will stop.

After tossing for a day, I finally divided the shadow area.

Holding the marked map, the visitor hurriedly thanked Qin Yu and Ye Jinlan, turned around and left with them.

Next, is the busiest time.

The uneven distribution of benefits has more serious consequences than the dead.

"Are you really free?" Qin Yu looked at Ye Jinlan, her eyes full of appreciation.

This time, she gave herself a big surprise.

"It's not good for me to live my own little life by myself, so why have to ask for trouble."

Ye Jinlan gave him a white look and said, "Money and Quan, when are they heads?"

She didn't want to open it anymore, feeling that these foreign objects were not important.

It doesn't matter, she can live in the old house of Huangchenggen.

It doesn't matter, she can get in and out of the luxury car to pick her up. Everyone must say 'Miss Ye'.

It doesn't matter, she can have a stable life now.

It's not unimportant, Ye Jinlan is just satisfied...

The days now are enough for her.

In fact, she had a thought in her mind now.

child!

Hearing him mention the child, Qin Yu's expression was natural: "As you know, we have never taken protective measures."

Ye Jinlan felt depressed when he said that.

Qin Yu was right. He hadn't taken any defensive measures a year ago.

Although he has only a few days to come, he can be tossed every time.

After making the day and making the night, there is no movement.

Could it be that you have a problem with your body?

Ye Jintan didn't doubt him, just the posture that could break the sky, could he have a problem?

Seeing her gloomy expression, Qin Yu knew that she wanted to be worse.

Just a little misunderstanding, this kind of thing is no joke.

If a woman thinks she has no choice to have a child, she will have psychological problems.

"It's not your problem." Qin Yu decisively vetoed it.

Ye Jinlan glanced at him curiously, and asked concerned: "Qin Yu, can you...can cure it?"

"..."

Brother Yu really wanted to stop her mouth: "It's not what you think."

"What's wrong with that?" Ye Jinlan was dumbfounded.

Isn't it nonsense that the two of them are fine, but can't give birth to a child?

In this regard, Brother Yu had already prepared.

"...According to the laboratory's report, this is the case."

After listening to his explanation, Ye Jinlan was even worse.

Small tadpoles have strong vitality and should not be more conducive to fertility.

How can it be difficult to conceive? This... unscientific!

"So to tell you, have you seen it before?"

"I have seen it."

"What would happen if the noodles were posted?"

"Put the lid open and overflow."

"Yes, just break the lid directly."

With this explanation, Ye Jinlan probably understood it, and the reconciliation was still his own problem.

The basin is too small and there are too many noodles to bear.

Exploded!

Ye Jinlan's whole person is not good, what's the matter?

In other words, I have no hope of having a baby anymore.

In an instant, the gloss on Ye Jinlan's face dimmed.

She is not DINK, and she does not hate children.

On the contrary, Ye Jinlan always dreamed of the life of a husband and a child.

It's just that the situation changed too quickly later. First, the parents disappeared, and they had to support the sky on their own.

Later, I fell in love with this bastard.

Later, Grandpa also left.

The little days of keeping oneself in peace are gone.

It doesn't mean that she doesn't want a child, even if she has her own surname.

"What do you mean by your last name? Of course the child has to follow my last name." Qin Yu responded aggressively.

Ye Jinlan didn't make trouble, but laughed happily.

But the thought of what he just said made me feel distressed.

"Don't be afraid, it can actually be solved."

Qin Yu pondered and said, "The company's longevity plan... as long as it succeeds, plus a little miracle, it will definitely work."

Ye Jinlan still felt that the words 'Longevity Plan' above were quite reliable.

But after hearing him say by 'miracle,' his expression immediately changed.

Can such a thing be a miracle to bet on luck?

Angrily twisted his body, leaving him with a back, uneven and exquisite.

Brother Yu was not in a hurry, but watched with gusto.

Jin Lan's figure is getting better and better, not in vain to farm hard and frequently fertilize.

Secretly looking around, he found that he was not in a hurry at all, but his face was hue.

Ye Jinlan turned around and slapped him angrily and funny, slapped her small hand on her shoulder, even the massage was not vigorous enough.

He hugged her into his arms, Qin Yu whispered something.

After a while, Ye Jinlan blushed.

"Really do it?" He stared at him with a fluctuating expression, but believed his words in his heart.

Although it is a little unscientific, the world has become such a ghost.

Inhuman mutants and monsters have all come out, so what is impossible.

"Can I lie to you?"

Qin Yu's expression is serious: "As long as you persist, you will be able to succeed in at most one or two years."

"Okay, I listen to you."

Ye Jinlan nodded solemnly, even though he knew there was his evil taste in it.

I am not a love brain, I have the sensibility to distinguish right from wrong.

But Qin Yu so solemnly assured her that it would definitely be effective.

For one or two years, if you can't get pregnant by that time: "Huh, if it doesn't work, you will be pretty."

After speaking, Ye Jinlan blushed and pulled him into the house.

Ten minutes later, Aunt Ye who was taking a nap in the side room opened her eyes, staring silently at the shaking beam.

Is this an earthquake? !

When I listened to the corner again, Miss Ye understood everything.

The helpless case spit out: 'Really, let people not sleep, and I'm not afraid that the room will collapse.'

With such a big movement, the ashes on the beams of the room shook downward.

Aunt Ye was really afraid of a shudder, and the beam of the house would fall.

Moving to the side of the bed, avoiding the beams and dust above, Miss Ye was dazed.

When the door was suddenly pushed open, she suddenly woke up...

At this look, his eyes widened.

How come these two people came here together! ?

After staying in the old house for another week, Qin Yu left the old house.

This week, the three of them didn't go out much, so they stayed in the yard to eat and drink.

It was the old tree in the yard that suffered, somehow the leaves fell so fast, and even the branches were broken.

By the time Brother Yu left, he was already struggling!

"Master, come here." Let the driver follow the navigation, and the car stopped in front of the flight attendant's reading bar.

After paying, let's go to study along the arch bridge.

Qin Yu saw from a distance, Xing Lu sitting by the window on the second floor reading a book.

Long hair fluttering, elegant makeup is full of extravagance.

The scent of scholarship radiating from the inside out, the dusty temperament, is exactly the fairy who walks out of the painting.

It seems that when she ran the study bar, she did not read less to improve herself.

Stupid woman, just thinking about clinging to others.

Smart women will seize any opportunity to strengthen themselves.

In this way, I have the confidence to grasp what I have.

Will also have more...

Obviously, Xing Lu is very smart at this point.

She never thought that she could attract Qin Yu with her beauty for a lifetime.

Because people will get old after all.

The traces of time will smooth everything out.

Only the inner strength of oneself will not be taken away by time.

Why do some women only become demon old women when they are old, which makes people look sick.

And some women are full of mature charm even when they are old, even more seductive than when they were young.

Effective maintenance is one aspect, and one of the reasons is a refined life and a good mood.

But the most important thing is to have a confident and powerful heart.

Since Ye Jinlan's visit, Xing Lu has changed.

"Xing Lu." On the second floor, Qin Yu came to the window with two cups of coffee.

A hint of excitement flashed through her eyes, but Xing Lu pretended to be very indifferent: "Everything that should be run is over, do you think of me?"

Listening to the tone, she knew that she was still angry.

Qin Yu smiled and put the coffee in front of her: "They are important, and so are you."

Seeing him just confessing so magnificently, Xing Lu really wanted to hit him a few times with anger.

But think about the muscles on his body, I am afraid that only his hands hurt after the fight, but he feels comfortable!

"Rogue." Xing Lu twisted her face puffingly and looked out the window.

An aggrieved expression was hung on his face, what kind of curse was he in order to fall in love with him.

Chapter 1210: Xing Lu's Plan

The little stewardess was angry, which was natural.

But what Yu brother is best at is exhaust...

The car is not easy to drive when you are angry, you have to get it right in one step, start in third gear, and blast your fuel!

Give her the fire first, then lower to the first gear, and start slowly.

But the time can't be long, the fire will be extinguished when the confession is long, and it is easy to lie down.

The first gear starts here smoothly, so lubricate it.

Immediately up to third gear, and then go straight to fifth gear, the floor oil blasted to death.

Don't give her a chance to react, just give her a dash, just dash...

When the speed is up, everything will be fine.

Even if a driver is a bit useless, most people can't learn it.

In terms of ability, it's far worse!

This pass, finally smoothed the anger.

Not to mention, a smooth car is just lubricated when driving...

The next day, Xing Lu didn't go to school.

Following Qin Yu straight to Wangfujing, she is going to consume with revenge today.

The anger is gone, but the grievances in my heart are still there.

When I was with him, I knew in my heart that Qin Yu, how could there be no woman by his side.

Otherwise, Ye Jinlan would come to help her solve the trouble, by the way, when she backstabbed.

Can Xing Lu accept it so easily?

Just be small!

But you can't make a small one, and let people come to tell me about it.

Besides, she is also a fiancée.

Fiancée, fiancée, can carry the word 'unmarried' in front of it.

If you don't get married, you will come to give yourself offense. If you really get married, do you have to?

Don't look at Xing Lu's recent reading of many books, writing and drinking coffee, her mentality is quite stable.

But she took this matter in her heart!

Women, it's not such a big measure...

Xing Lu knew in her heart that the probability of being Qin Yu's marriage partner was so small that she was almost impossible.

And, who knows how many women there are outside her.

Going deeper, will there be a bunch of illegitimate children...

She doesn't have the energy and brain, and she handles these things in a perfect way.

Instead of struggling to get a headache and sulking every day, it is better to stay small.

Someone else has it, but others don't.

You can also act like a baby so that you have a little temperament.

Is it better to get over yourself, isn't it better than getting angry every day?

But if Ye Jinlan were to be an eldest woman, she would not be happy in her heart.

Recently, Xing Lu is not just reading.

She also searched for information about Qin Yu everywhere on the Internet, and found out all relevant reports about the scandal with him.

The photos are gone, all let Kylin take care of them.

Although Xing Lu didn't know what was going on, she was also stunned secretly.

The capabilities of Miracle Company were more exaggerated than she thought.

Now in the Internet age, I can't find a picture of Qin Yu in a daze.

Except for a few apparently indiscriminate refills, the resolution is so poor that the dog makes up photos of the "real hammer" that he feels uncomfortable after seeing.

Not even a side shot.

But there are texts, all kinds of gossips are flying all over the sky.

There are even posts, forums, groups dedicated to gossip...

Like the famous Liangban, Xing Lu entered the privacy group.

The chat content inside really opened her eyes.

Graduated from technical secondary school, looks ugly...

It's a bit rude to say that, and it should be more euphemistic to describe it as 'skeletal surprise'.

Anyway, people are quite euphemistic.

With a monthly salary of 3,500 yuan, I feel that only Qin Yu is worthy of her in the world.

"If he can find a good woman like me, he will burn a lot of incense."

"Unfortunately, there is no chance to meet, after all, not everyone is so lucky to have the opportunity to meet me."

It was so outrageous that Xing Lu's three views burst.

There was a group of people down there who followed and asked Xing Lu to call 'good guys.'

However, it took so much thought.

It did let her find something, for example, a dancer from the Royal Dance Company broke the news.

Many of them knew that Qin Yu was the second boyfriend of Lan Yue in their dance group.

Moreover, he often participates in dance troupe performances.

The performance is naturally incidental, and the main purpose is to see the girlfriend.

The two met when they were in school, and Qin Yu was very kind to this girlfriend.

Not only did she sell her a house and a car, she also carefully prepared various health-care massage equipment and nutritional products.

Others broke the news that Qin Yu even gave his girlfriend his secondary card.

Let her brush it casually, she won't be spoiled!

The comments are naturally questionable.

But there are several people below, claiming to be members of the dance troupe, to prove that what the landlord said is true.

Xing Lu also fell in love.

I deliberately went to the dance group performance site, or rehearsal out of photos and videos.

Hey-hey...

The camera flashed past, sitting in the first row of men wearing masks.

Others can't help it and won't care.

After all, the shot passed in a flash.

But Xing Lu specifically freezes the frame, watching it frame by frame.

She really made sure that Qin Yu was right...

In other words, the public opinions previously seen on the Internet may be true.

A dancer with a kind and weak personality.

After finding this information, Xing Lu immediately decided in her heart, 'isn't this the most suitable candidate?'

So, this time when I came out to go shopping.

She suddenly mentioned the Royal Dance Company, "Last time a friend invited me to see it, it is indeed the National Dance Company..."

As soon as Xing Lu mentioned the dance company, Qin Yu suspected that she knew the existence of Lan Yue.

However, he couldn't guess Xing Lu's real plan.

She wanted to find a good mistress for herself, and she would really make trouble in the future.

There is a kind-hearted and weak lady, and the problem is easy to solve!

"It's not bad, I have also watched airport performances." Qin Yu responded with a light smile, leading her to the next stop.

I just swept a currency at Donkey's house, and the VIP rooms filled the VIP room with large and small packages.

The sister of the cabinet is still packing boxes in it, and she is very busy!

Qin Yu is the company's top VIP. This time he came to scan the goods and bought more than five million in a generous amount.

It's the donkey card, and I dare not neglect such customers.

"The chief of the dance troupe, Teacher Tang is so good, I really admire her for persisting for so many years."

Xing Lu didn't mention Lan Yue directly, but first defeated Chief Tang.

After getting Qin Yu's approval, Lan Yue was mentioned only after a turn of the conversation.

"This Lanyue second seat is also very good. I read the Internet and said she is a dancing genius. She graduated from the Shanghai Opera Academy and became the second seat soon after joining the dance troupe."

"Also designated as the chief successor."

"Moreover, she herself looks so beautiful and gentle."

"I have followed her on Weibo, and by watching her usual sharing activities, I know how difficult it is to dance."

"Bumps are common every day, and from time to time someone breaks down and cries bitterly."

"Injuries are even more commonplace... There are even people who get habitually dislocated."

Xing Lu frowned distressedly: "Once Lan Yue had a second time, I felt pain when I watched it through the screen.

She was such a weak and weak girl, without a grunt, she sat down and broke with her hand and continued training. "

Hearing what Xing Lu said, Qin Yu felt more and more unhappy.

Although she didn't know Xing Lu's plan, Qin Yu listened to what she said.

Lazy cat doesn't take his body seriously, it seems to be dealing with himself.

However, she actually has Weibo to share daily?

He was too careless, and didn't even know this kind of thing.

Qin Yu was both sad and self-blaming, and his boyfriend did a terrible job.

'It's a jerk. With a curse in his heart, Qin Yu decided to leave tonight.

I wanted to spend two more days with Xing Lu, but now...

He is really not in that mood, and all he thinks are lazy cats.

Seeing the tangled guilt in Qin Yu's pupils, Xing Lu was envious and confirmed her guess.

Sure enough, he was very different to this Lan Yue.

Regarding the authenticity of the online revelations, it has been further confirmed.

However, this is good news for Xing Lu.

This is what she wants. If the lazy cat is not valued by her man, Xing Lu will really have a headache.

If it doesn't matter, how can you compete with Ye Jinlan for the mother-in-law?

"Humph, this time, I want to see how calm you are."

After the excitement, Xing Lu felt aggrieved and sad again.

What is the picture in this way? !

"Wait, go to this house." Seeing Prada in front of him, Xing Lu took him and walked in.

Today, she is going to be a gold shopaholic.

She will not leave unless she feels comfortable.

Qin Yu didn't feel distressed, this little money was nothing to him.

Accompanied Xing Lu into Prada, wherever she stayed for more than 5 seconds or touched it with her hand.

Just one sentence: "Wrap it up."
