Chapter 201: Brother Wound is here to fry the fish pond again

After drinking until the evening, Gao Bo just got himself drunk, and the gathering was over.

"No, it's okay, Brother Yu." Gao Bo put his girlfriend on the shoulders, staggering to indicate that he was okay.

The lowered head suddenly lifted up and winked strangely at him.

Got it!

Understand everything.

"It's okay, the road is slow." Qin Yu sent the two to the door, watching them cross the road, and walked into the school gate amidst Wang Ziran's nagging.

"Shao Qin, where do you go next?" Jiang Feier behaved very well when he really saw Qin Yu.

From beginning to end, he behaves like a well-behaved baby, exuding an air of cuteness.

"Go back to the company first!" This will be the peak of the live broadcast, and Qin Yu wants to go back and have a look.

Sitting in the co-pilot on the way back to the company, Qin Yu received a WeChat account from several girls.

Messages were returned to Lu Qing, Lan Yue, and Wen Yaxuan. Qin Yu opened the Douya platform and cut into the live broadcast room of the small anchor.

"Ah, it's our boss who is here. Welcome home." Cheng Xiyu expressed his welcome openly for the first time.

A group of veterans chanted, 'Welcome to the lord, is the lord also in Yundian?'

The team of the little anchor and his party has just assembled, and they will be having dinner in a tavern.

The plan is to fly to Yundian at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, and the flight tickets have been booked.

"Boss, this is our team leader, Teacher Ayu..."

"This is our photography, Nana."

The photographer is a woman, which is a bit surprising.

The field survival expert and bodyguard introduced at the end turned out to be a woman.

Although she is wearing clothes, she can still see that her body is much stronger than ordinary girls.

The size is also very tall, at least 175.

Scanning analysis system:

Freshness: 91.

The system's body scoring is based on 'beauty'. A score of 65↓ is normal for a woman who pursues strength rather than beauty.

177, King Kong Barbie weighing 84kg.

The little anchor may have found a treasure this time.

Now that they are ready to set off, there is nothing to say.

Brush up the gift.

As usual, it was a big tiger shark, and it didn't seem to stop at the beginning.

Floating for 50 consecutively, the special effects are still going on!

The anchors on the platform also began to turn the topic to the eldest brother, Wind, Rain and Night.

Although the number of times the eldest brother goes online is not many, as long as he goes online, there will definitely be big moves.

Just like this time, there are 99+ tiger sharks.

"I lost it, it's 99...100, and it's still going on." Tian Ye squatted on the chair excitedly.

"Let me tell you, my eldest brother is really awesome and definitely has a brand name."

"If you want to say who has the most cards among the female anchors right now, it must be drizzle and silent. The sister-in-law forced the big brother to take off..."

Hearing him say this, someone on the public screen immediately asked, 'how do you like it, you've seen it.'

Tian Ye grinned silly: "I must have never seen it before, and I can't even think about it. Anyway, my elder brother must be different from ordinary people... Fuck, my eldest brother has come to the live broadcast room."

I brushed 200 big tiger sharks for the little anchor, wishing her a smooth shooting, Qin Yu jumped to the game area.

Just seeing Tian Ye's live broadcast room was in the first row, Qin Yu stopped by to take a look.

As soon as I entered, I heard what he said before.

It's right if you don't dare to think about it. It shows that your political consciousness is very high and you are rewarded!

Wind and rain hurts people and presents the anchor Field Treasure Map 1, and the treasure chest is waiting to be opened~

...

Wind and rain hurts people and presents the anchor Tianye Treasure Map 10, the treasure chest is waiting to be opened~

Sending 10 of them at once, Tian Ye jumped up and down on the chair happily, like a monkey.

He is not happy about gifts, at least not just gifts.

As soon as he arrived at the company today, he heard that the big boss had come in person.

Moreover, I will invite them to have a supper together tonight.

After finding out who the boss was, Tian Ye was surprised and delighted.

Brother Ye Shangren turned out to be the largest shareholder of the trade union, which is really amazing!

Tian Ye was still thinking about how to talk to the big boss during supper at night.

It's best to leave a deep impression on the other party, so that you can take care of it in the future.

This time, if you don't take the position of the first brother, at least you don't have to worry about getting colder if you have the care of the big boss.

But before he could figure it out, Big Brother Ye Huin Ren suddenly entered his live broadcast room.

One shot is 10 treasure maps, what is this?

This is a signal!

The big boss remembers himself and has a good impression of him.

Otherwise, it won't come up, and the first one will brush the gift to himself.

He didn't go to the live broadcast room where Xiaoyu doesn't eat cats, nor the live broadcast room of Zu Chongzhi, he came to his live broadcast room.

"Big brother Niubi, thank you for my big brother's treasure map."

"Brother, can I add a WeChat account? When do you want to play games, please find me at any time."
Tian Ye waited nervously for his answer.

'Send you backstage. 'Wind and rain hurts people at night.

"Okay, brother, I'll add it now." Tian Ye happily opened the background message.

Through Tian Ye's friend application, Qin Yu jumped into the Yan value area and wandered around.

Anyone who is an anchor of his own trade union must pay a few gifts before leaving.

If you're mixed up with fish eyes, naturally you have to choose a few anchors who are not Drizzle Lou as a reward.

Therefore, it didn't take long for the anchors in the Yan Value District to know it.

The wildest big brother on the platform, the wind and rain hurts people again to fry fish ponds...

'Brother Ye hurts, hug.'

'The hurtful night is the most memorable.'

'Brother Hurt, please pay attention, oh oh oh~"

'I want to be taken care of by the wounded brother!'

'I want to take care of the hurting brother {Pen Refill}'

The anchor in the Yan Value District can't do anything else, it's quick and slippery to change the name~

When Qin Yu was scrolling down, none of the names of the live broadcast room did not contain 'wounding'.

The head hurts!

"How many are you in the live broadcast room?" Qin Yu stopped brushing, stopping to look at Jiang Feier.

"Ah~Yes..." Jiang Feier was curious about what he was going to do.

I clicked on the live broadcast room and found that there was a black screen inside.

Qin Yu directly brushed 100 super fires, and then...

The fighting tooth platform exploded!

The anchor downloads, and the black screen gets 100 super fire, is this okay?

The little friends who saw this kind of operation for the first time were stunned. The eldest brother's show operation was really unexpected.

Jiang Feier's live broadcast room is also directly linked to the first column of the category, click to open the live broadcast.

The * screen makes everyone who fans watch stupid.

'One next? End of a hundred times?'

'Big brother is fast!'

'Big brother's happiness, you can't imagine.'

'Big brother's happiness, you can't imagine.'

'I want to be a big brother, do you have a rich woman?'

'You are only worthy to be a rich woman's licking dog. Big brother needs a rich woman?'

'Didn't the anchor go to relax?'

'Look, there's an honest man upstairs, everyone go and bully him.'

After Jiang Feier parked the car in the basement and took out the phone, she knew what was going on.

"Shao Qin, what are you doing?" Jiang Feier was both happy and scared.

"Don't like it?" Qin Yu asked back.

"Like it." Who wouldn't like the net income of nearly 100,000 yuan?

"Then say I like it. I will arrange the hotel later. I am used to living in a suite."

Hearing what Qin Yu said so blatantly, Jiang Feier felt a little uncomfortable.

But by the time the company came, she had already figured it out.

I've done everything to sing the live version for my eldest brother. Are you afraid of this little scene?

I've lost my face a long time ago, so I'm afraid of it!

When Qin Yu followed He Sheng to visit the live broadcast studios, Jiang Feier was already choosing a suitable hotel.

"Jiang Feier?" He Sheng seemed to be very interested in Jiang Feier's arrival.

"Why, do you want her to join the trade union?" Qin Yu asked with a smile.

"She has good conditions, not many fans, but they are all stable, and her spending power is acceptable!"

"Brother Sheng, that's okay, I did a good job of homework!" Qin Yu praised.

"I have nothing else, just good at doing homework...easy to learn!" After speaking, the two looked at each other and laughed.

This is meeting my confidant as diligent and studious as Yuge.

Nothing else, just for your own physical and mental pleasure!

Walking and stopping in front of each live broadcast room, Qin Yu also saw the field that was live broadcast.

The live broadcast style of dancing and dancing is very powerful.

"Tian Ye, the male anchor performed well. It's funny enough. In Secondary Two, he's very much recognized!"

"Where is the other one?" Qin Yu asked.

"The two have different styles, but Azu is in a professional and cold style."

"In comparison, funny is more popular than style. After all, for ordinary people, reality is cold enough."

Among these two male anchors, He Sheng is more optimistic about the style of teasing than interesting fields.

Chapter 202: Union dinner

At three o'clock in the morning, all anchors finished work.

He Sheng arranged the place at a music and light food bar not far from the community. The environment is good and the atmosphere is good.

Can talk about things and fill up your stomach!

Sitting down with a bunch of anchors, He Sheng looked at Qin Yu and smiled and said, "Order what you eat, Qin Shao pays the bill today."

"Yes, I will buy today's consumption. Don't be polite, everyone." Qin Yu

"Thank Mr. He, thank you boss." A group of anchors looked at Qin Yu with curious eyes.

It's not that they haven't seen the world, it's really that there are too many rumors about 'Wind, Rain and Night'.

Holding red in one hand, 'silent drizzle,' the phrase 'previous ranking' in the regional competitions is still often used up to now.

Especially the anchors in the face value area, when joking with the big buddies, they like to play this stalk the most.

'Brother, why don't we also be on the overall list, and everything we want will come true? ' Explicit expressions of * are not uncommon.

The face value area is getting more and more difficult to mix now. If you want to stand out on your own, without the big brother or the union, you have to be lying on your stomach even if you are an immortal.

Nowadays, the most indispensable thing in this society is beautiful women, and it is not too much to say that it is a lot.

In the words of notes: You are a bit of beauty, but as long as I pull down, you will be forgotten in 5 seconds.

Therefore, it is tantamount to talking about dreams if you want to rely on a face.

If that were the case, the small anchor would not be reduced to a salted fish.

It wasn't that the union executives and the eldest brother's suggestions had been rejected, and in the end it was almost completely cold.

There is one at the scene, who doesn't want to be the second of 'Cheng Xiyu'.

I didn't see the eyes of the female anchors looking at Jiang Feier, all with a bit of hostility.

Tian Ye is more courageous, so he has to come up and ask: Brother, can we stop being stuck like that in terms of gender?

This store has everything, not only a variety of fancy cocktails and imported crafts.

There is also a rich variety of dishes, focusing on cuisines without borders.

The girls have a variety of appetites, and they have everything to order.

Under He Sheng's guidance and Qin Yu's gentle attitude, everyone was no longer cautious.

More than a dozen kinds of special delicacies were put on the table, and the seven-to-eight-meter-long table was filled.

Then came the fancy cocktails. Numerous slender cocktail glasses like Medusa were inserted into the fixed frame made of steel wire, filled with long straws and then pulled in front of everyone.

"Come on, let's respect Qin Shao first, and welcome Qin Shao to the window."

He Sheng stood up with a beer, and everyone else put down their things and raised their glasses to stand up.

"Welcome Shao Qin to come to guide the work!" The female anchors who are arguing for beauty come out with the sweetest voices, all wanting to impress him deeply.

The scent of mixing perfume and alcohol is even more confusing.

"From now on, they will all be my own. If you have any difficulties, find Brother Sheng, he is our trade union's master." Qin Yu pointed at He Sheng, making the other party smile and shook his head.

It's like saying, 'Yes, I can't get away with this coolie. Did you see how Qin Shao squeezed and beat the workers?'

"The union anchor Qun Sheng brought me in. You can also come to me."

"However, it's better not to tease me, because there are more girlfriends and they are very busy."

Many of these were raised by other elder brothers, and these naturally have nothing to do with him.

The rest of the anchors, Yu Ge have no interest.

That's why I point out the seemingly joking sentence, 'There are many girlfriends and they're busy.'

I just want them to settle down and do their own live broadcast business, rather than thinking about which eldest brother's thigh they want to hug, so that they can ascend to heaven in one step.

Of course, it is also your ability to be able to tie up with your eldest brother.

Isn't the live broadcast industry relying on the big brother, how much money can you contribute by relying on the **?

But I also wanted my eldest brother. Qin Yu didn't find anyone interested anyway.

Don't say anything about rabbits who don't eat grass on the edge of their nests, their own company messes around.

At the beginning of the establishment of this union, it was the big brothers who wanted to support their own anchors.

Even if I do it seriously now, the core is still the word 'play'.

It's just that in the process of playing, everyone finds that it is still profitable, which gives a little more enthusiasm and interest.

Let alone Qin Yu, take He Sheng as an example.

It's normal to quit the Internet and play unhappy one day, and it's normal to say you don't do it.

No one really takes this live broadcast business seriously...except for those who want to make money in it.

"I'm telling you that our union can be established, and your current benefits are all obtained by Qin Shaohe platform. There is no taxation for cleverly established names, so you know how much you earn!"

As soon as He Sheng settled down again, he mentioned Qin Yu's contribution to Fengyulou and the reason for the establishment of the trade union.

"Brother Sheng, I don't dare to claim this credit."

"You are the one who paid the most since the establishment of the union. This is obvious to all."

It is necessary for business to talk to each other. After that, Qin Yu took the initiative to find him.

"Slow down, I have to eat something first. I didn't eat a bite in the afternoon!" He Sheng took a sip of beer and picked up the chopsticks to pick up the dishes.

"Don't be polite, everyone, move your chopsticks!" Qin Yu also greeted everyone to come together.

Jiang Feier got up from time to time to pick him up with vegetables, carefully inquiring about his taste, and pick more if he likes to eat.

For other people's weird eyes, she only regarded it as jealous of herself.

But soon Jiang Feier discovered that someone was rushing to do it with himself.

"Shao Qin, try this." Jiang Ren, who was sitting on Qin Yu's right, gave him a cold bullfrog leg.

He introduced the dish with a normal expression, "This is my favorite, I don't know if Qin Shaoxi likes it."

Qin Yu took a piece and put it in his mouth. The taste was sour and refreshing, the meat was chewy, and the aftertaste was fishy.

It's perfect for drinking...

"Not bad." Qin Yu said.

"I'll help you pick some more." Jiang Ren leaned forward with the plate to pick up the vegetables.

"Shao Qin, this fish is delicious, you can taste it." Jiang Feier was not to be outdone, and immediately caught him a piece of Duobao fish.

One left and one right, sit and enjoy the blessings of everyone!

This is envious of Tian Ye, when will he be as good as his own elder brother.

"Jiang Ren, don't patronize picking dishes, drink with Shao Qin!" He Sheng would be immersed in eating, giving Jiang Ren the task of drinking.

Since she is interested in Qin Yu, He Sheng is willing to create opportunities for her.

As long as she can get a share of the 100 million li in Qin Yu Douya's account, this investment will be a blood profit.

As for Jiang Feier, He Sheng asked her what she meant when she was at the company just now.

About her! Said to consider again.

Apparently, I felt like I was hugging my thighs and wanted to leave the union to study with Cheng Xiyu and become an independent anchor.

But these years as independent anchors, in the end, there are a few really popular.

It's not that He Sheng has to pour cold water on her, it is difficult to be an independent anchor in her style!

Cheng Xiyu was able to get hot, first, Qin Yu smashed money hard, holding it hard!

On the other hand, it is also because the live broadcasts she made have content, which allows fans to shift their attention from themselves to video content and food.

But you Jiang Feier is a good-looking anchor who breaks the last fantasies of fans, what else can you get?

It's not that He Sheng wants to belittle her deliberately, as can be seen from Qin Yu's performance and attitude alone.

It is still possible to get a share of the pie, but Cheng Xiyu will be the second...

It's hard!

He Sheng wasn't anxious, or he couldn't be so obvious if he was anxious.

Jiang Feier is in Yaodu, so he can talk about it anytime.

However, whether to talk about it now or later, the treatment is different.

How long Qin Yu's freshness can last, no one can say!

Maybe after these two days, he would forget Jiang Feier when he left the demon. This is very possible.

He Sheng hopes that she can recognize reality as soon as possible when she is still worthwhile.

After all, terminated the contract with the current union and transferred.

These all take time.

"Brother Sheng, what do you think?" Qin Yu saw him stop his chopsticks in a daze, and raised a glass with a smile: "Did you want to drink, come, let's do one more."

"Okay, do one more." He Sheng put down his chopsticks and focused on the party.

"I have good news to announce here." Qin Yu tapped the cup with his chopsticks, waited for everyone to calm down, smiled and said to Jiang Feier, "Jiang Feier decided to join Fengyulou, everyone is welcome."

He Sheng looked at Jiang Feier in surprise, and stood up with a big smile; "Come on, welcome to our Fengyulou to add another beautiful warrior. Let's toast together!"

"Thank you Mr. He, thank you everyone, and please take care of everyone in the future." Jiang Feier took the wine and bowed to everyone to express his gratitude, but did not show a condescending attitude.

Seeing her smile, He Sheng also laughed, 'I underestimated her means, and there is a reason why I can get hot.'

Chapter 203: It's good, but it's a bit of a waste

After twelve minutes, Jiang Feier sat down again and said, "Qin Shao, He always wants to invite me to join Fengyulou, do you think I should agree?"

"You have no idea?" Qin Yu asked rhetorically.

"I can't make a decision."

Jiang Feier was embarrassed: "The current trade union is just a platform issue. It is still very good to me, but I can't get the support of the trade union. I only rely on my own words..."

"What are you worried about?" Qin Yu went straight to the subject.

What kind of sentiment is false, the guarantee you want is true.

If it is really affectionate, when the union moved to the platform, it would not choose to stay in Douya and fight alone.

It's not because she understands that all her team are fighting their teeth.

If you abandon this fan, there is no difference between her and the newcomer on the new platform.

Duo is just a title of 'before fighting with teeth', what's the use?

When it is red, it is as hot as it is when it is cold.

In this false Internet age, this is the most real...

Jiang Feier didn't feel embarrassed after being dismantled by Qin Yu, "I'm worried that I won't be taken seriously. I have also learned about Fengyulou before."

The unshakable status in Fengyulou is naturally equivalent to the drizzle and silence of the "independent anchor".

Unless one day Qin Yu decides not to support her anymore, the relationship between the two will change.

This is difficult, even if you look at it from a woman's aesthetics.

Cheng Xiyu is definitely the kind of beauty that it is difficult for men to let go.

However, she couldn't guess her eldest brother's thoughts, anyway, it seems to be useless at present.

The second is the 'little fish don't eat cats' that the union is currently supporting. It is rumored to be a sister of the union.

There is no difference between the next female anchors, the union treats them equally, and the treatment and support are the same.

If you join Fengyulou, where is your position?

Does it get the most support like "Little Fish Does Not Eat Cats", or is it to be a second sister below her.

Or is it no different from other anchors, just a hitman who can be replaced at any time?

These Jiang Feiers have to figure out before they can decide whether they want to transfer to Fengyulou.

Maybe for the older brother, it means to transfer to another meeting or change the environment!

With you without you, my union should do it or do it.

But for Jiang Feier, this is related to her future development and even the issue of food.

As an anchor of beauty, I know that I have been eating a youthful meal for a few years.

It is lucky to find a big brother to fall in love and get married. There may be one or two out of 10,000.

With my elder brother's connections and channels, he has the means and ability to transform himself into a boss, and even fewer people do business.

Most of them just make some money, go back to their hometown, work, get married, and have children.

Live the ordinary life of ordinary people at three points and one line.

Of course, there are also people who have seen the world of flowers and flowers, and they are unwilling to go astray.

Such are not rare.

Therefore, being an anchor is not as beautiful as outsiders imagine.

It is said that anchors and Internet celebrities are good for making money, as if money is for nothing.

The few people who have been watching the top and being the hottest all day...

But if you look at other industries that are top-notch, you can find any one of these people and have a good time.

But few people saw the corpses that were trampled under their feet, how miserable they would be.

Jiang Feier didn't want to be a member of the corpse, especially when the opportunity was in front of him.

Even if she can't be Qin Yu's regular girlfriend, she will have to trade herself for something.

Because she knows very well that the most valuable thing about herself is this.

Seeing her serious expression with a bit of pleading, as if she was afraid that it would annoy Qin Yu, but she had to do so.

Should she be praised for being smart, or should she be said to be self-aware?

"Come to Fengyulou, you can get the same contract as Xiaoyu."

Qin Yu's answer caused Jiang Feier's heart to fall in an instant when she mentioned her throat, and immediately agreed to the transfer.

Therefore, there was the next scene where Qin Yu announced in public that Jiang Feier was about to join the Wind and Rain Building.

Here comes another resource division, and the following newcomer anchors will inevitably have complaints in their hearts.

But this kind of thing is not useful if you complain.

They are all adults and can no longer simply seek fairness in everything!

Just like a good-looking person, there will always be some preferential treatment in daily life.

Do you say it is fair?

Therefore, unfairness occurs from birth. What kind of fairness do you want?

Although something unexpected happened, the overall atmosphere of the dinner was very good.

At five o'clock in the morning, the well-worn talents returned to the company under the leadership of He Sheng.

Only Qin Yu and Jiang Feier were left. Jiang Ren seemed to be struggling, but He Sheng was dragged back.

"Mr. He." On the way, Jiang Ren looked at him with a red face and a little aggrieved.

"Stupid." He Sheng said angrily: "I have an idea to hold back, the timing is wrong!"

"When is the timing?" Jiang Ren asked unconvincedly.

"Jiang Feier is still there, what are you going to do, give it away for nothing?" He Sheng was stunned by her.

"But I...I'm not much worse than her?" Jiang Ren, who had been drinking, would be dissatisfied.

What's so great about her Jiang Feier, isn't it just a little bit hotter than me on the platform!

He Sheng glanced at her earnestly: "You won't be able to send it like you, and it will be for nothing if you go."

"Don't underestimate Jiang Feier, you are not an opponent, just get back to sleep."

"But I..." Jiang Ren wanted to say something else.

He Sheng raised his foot and gestured to give her a kick, so that Jiang Ren hurriedly ran to the room with his hand behind him.

"Stupid woman." He Sheng shook his head dumbly. "It's a miracle that she wasn't sold like this."

In front of the studio, Qin Yu entered the password.

drop!

Open the door and turn on the lights.

From the beginning to the end of the chase, the pattern of the room separated by the scenery comes into view.

Pulling Jiang Feier into the room, he hooked with his toes.

Click~

The electronic lock was closed, and there were only two people's breathing and heartbeats in the silent room.

Really reached this moment.

Jiang Feier was nervous as if his heart was about to fly out, 'dang-dong-dong' kept beating.

"The environment here looks pretty good." Qin Yu turned around and looked at her clothes.

Off-white pleated backless miniskirt, black silk, black Martin boots.

The overall * style, the breath that radiates from the inside to the outside is also 'sao in the air. '

Reaching out to put a hand on his waist, Jiang Feier's whole body suddenly straightened, her waist shrinking by an inch.

"That's right." Qin Yu looked around and found a belt with matching colors.

Tied to her waist, the body and overall sense of hierarchy immediately rose to a higher level.

The immediate effect surprised Jiang Feier looking in the mirror, 'So I'm like this? '

"How did you do it?" Jiang Feier smiled and turned to look at him.

"I have a pair of eyes that are good at discovering beauty." Qin Yu pointed his eyes with a pair of pointers, and said with a smile: "When you are ready, let's start! Time is running out."

It's almost bright in this meeting, so don't hurry up.

Before Gao Bo and Wang Ziran came, their filming would not be finished.

Jiang Feier walked towards the set with some expectation, and even wondered for a moment, 'Is it because I made a mistake, he really just wanted to take a picture of himself?'

...

Two hours later, Jiang Feier threw away her innocent thoughts.

Sure enough, she knew it was not that simple...

"Are you okay?" Qin Yu put down the camera and wanted to help her up.

"Don't... my waist." Jiang Feier slumped on the sofa, his waist hurting like he was about to break.

The previous difficult shooting of "bow" was because of Qin Yu's high professional standards.

She can only adjust the angle frequently and back and forth as required.

The waist stayed in a "bow" state for a long time, which made her almost think that she was going to be broken by playing.

Fortunately, Qin Yu held her waist with his hands in time.

Let the fragile part of the volley regain the fulcrum to avoid the occurrence of tragedy.

Otherwise Jiang Feier really feels that she is now being pushed to the ICU.

It's a problem to not get out in the future!

"Thanks, this thing is more difficult than imagined." Qin Yu helped her adjust a more comfortable posture and let her lie down and rest like this.

[Reminder: Bowing automation is a combination technique, difficulty 3*, easy to damage the waist and abdomen, do not repeat the operation!]

Qin Yu, who has personally witnessed and experienced it, finally understands why the system has to give special [hint].

Bowing automation is good, it's definitely a must.

It's just a bit too wasteful, maybe that really is going to cause a big problem!

Chapter 204: Flamingo Representative

Everything that should be done is done, whether it's official or private.

He Sheng is responsible for both Juying and Jiang Feier. After all, he is the nominal general manager of the union.

Therefore, after taking the last group photo of Gao Bo and Wang Ziran, Qin Yu said that he would return to the abandoned capital.

"I've booked all the air tickets." Qin Yu has to settle the matter of setting up the factory when he goes back this time.

What brand to find for cooperation, this matter can be considered slowly.

Set up the factory first, and market the brand of 'Great Wall Battery'.

However, this name needs to be changed.

Who developed this battery specifically, and the system is all based on? ? Instead.

It is impossible for Qin Yu to use this name again, otherwise, the outside world would think that his battery is a subsidiary of a certain car brand.

Kuafu's ambition goes beyond tens of thousands of miles.

Qin Yu thinks it's good to use the name "Kuafu Technology".

It not only has Xia Guo's characteristic romanticism, but also has the beautiful meaning of "lasting and long-term".

"That's OK, knowing that you are a busy person now, I won't keep you." Gao Bo originally wanted to practice it for him, but he gave up when he was tight on time.

"There will be time to gather in the future. Our life has just begun." Qin Yu responded with a smile.

At the time of the Mood for Love, the sail of life has just been raised, and the future can be expected!

He Sheng has something to do with him. There are too many preparations and detailed considerations for the cooperation with "Juying".

The others are now out of the window market and are on their way to 'Juying'.

Jiang Feier was still sitting in the car. The woman knew he was leaving, so she insisted on following him to see him off.

"Brother Yu, you can come often when you have time in the future, there are many fun places in Window City!" Feng Yi said to him winking on the road.

"Well, let's get together again!" Qin Yu didn't make any promises, his time management was very strict.

If there is nothing unexpected, the next period of time will become more and more busy.

Just come to the window market purely for fun? I'm afraid there is no chance.

"Shao Qin, can I go to Hudu to find you?" Jiang Feier frowned when he saw him, and quickly explained, "I won't go to school."

"Don't come to Hudu, I will contact you when I have time." Qin Yu's tone was a little cold.

He doesn't mind that women are ambitious and enterprising.

But don't be smart about him, want to play some surprise surprises, official announcements and regular routines.

Even if it was an official announcement, Jiang Feier would not be her turn.

Lu Qing, Lan Yue, no one is more stable than her!

"Be your anchor, don't think too much about other things." Before getting out of the car, Qin Yu's warning let her know that she has no hope at all.

Waiting for people to walk away, Feng Yi started the car again and detoured away.

"Jiang Feier, have you negotiated the contract with Brother Sheng?" Feng Yi asked about her contract casually.

"No, I haven't had time to contact the current labor union." Jiang Feier replied absently.

"Then talk about it as soon as possible. With Qin Shao's face, Brother Sheng will definitely give you a good contract." Feng Yi said with a smile.

"Ok!"

Seeing her unwilling expression and her eyes rolling around, Feng Yi felt that he should open up her words.

"Being a human being! There are two most important points. Don't be greedy... do a good job positioning yourself!"

"What kind of family background can put out a billion yuan to play on the platform, and what are the means for such a person."

Feng Yi looked at Jiang Feier through the rear mirror, and found that her expression was dodging, and smiled with satisfaction; "Use your best imagination to guess, don't be afraid...The limit of what you can guess is about the same."

"For the sake of getting to know one, I advise you not to be smart."

"There is an old saying: cleverness is mistaken by cleverness!"

...

Two hours later, the plane landed at the Deserted Capital Airport.

It was Hong Zhongcai who came to pick him up, and he drove the old Qin and Han Highlander.

Qin Yu previously meant to sell the car, and Qin Han also agreed.

But I didn't have much time to deal with it. It happened that the company wanted to use a car, so I drove it over first.

"Shao Qin, why did you come back early?" Hong Zhong asked nervously on the way back to the company.

Before he left, he took Zhang Qili's pit not lightly, and now people are carefully calculating and researching every day.

His scalp was about to be scratched and bald, saying, 'Qin Shao only gave him one week, and he will definitely make big moves when he comes back.'

When the others heard it, they became nervous.

It's a good thing that the company has made big moves right after its establishment.

But for the people below, it is inevitable that they will be a little nervous in time, and they are also worried about whether their performance will affect the follow-up work.

Originally, time was not enough, but now Qin Yu suddenly came back early.

Don't be nervous, who believes it?

"Don't worry, I'll talk about that in a few days. This time I come back. It's something else." Qin Yu leaned on the seat and closed his eyes to rest, thinking about the battery factory in his mind.

The first is the land, and then the qualifications and license issues, all of which inevitably have to deal with the local government.

Furthermore, after learning of the technological leadership, will the six be alarmed?

There is a high probability that it will.

Now that all six have been alarmed, there must be someone who wants to get a piece of the pie.

Can you stop those who reach out with your own strength alone, and the forces behind it...

"Shao Qin, your house is here." Hong Zhongcai parked the car in front of the Nanhu Manor and looked at the tall bronze rivet door in a daze.

What is the view behind such a magnificent gate?

"Thanks, Lao Hong, I will arrange a few more cars for the company when I look back. You can drive away first."

Let Hong Zhongcai drive away and continue to use the bus, Qin Yu returned home and dialed Lao Qiao's number.

"Hey, old Joe, I have something to tell you..."

...

Two days later, Qin Yu received a representative from the Flamingo Fund at the airport.

"Hello, I'm Talisa Childowski, the investment representative from Flamingo." Talisa stretched out her hand to Qin Yu and introduced it with a smile.

"Qin Yu, hello." Qin Yu naturally held her hand, a tingling sensation in her palm.

It was Talisa who drew a circle in his palm with her finger, this hateful exotic fairy.

"What is this beautiful lady?" Released her hands, Talitha turned her gaze to Lu Qing beside him.

"Hello, I am Qin Yu's girlfriend and the financial director of Lixin Investment." Lu Qing aggressively reached out to say hello to her.

Exquisite and full face, tall figure, thin waist, bee hips, straight and slender legs.

The whole person is like the lipstick she put on, with a hot feeling.

Lu Qing felt a strong sense of threat from the opponent, especially the look she looked at Qin Yu.

There is a kind of provocation and temptation like watching prey!

"Hello, beautiful lady, it's nice to meet you." As if she didn't notice her hostility, Talisa enthusiastically took her hand and praised: "You are so beautiful. Like dripping water?"

Hearing the compliment from the other party, Lu Qing was a little dazed for a while.

The hostility in the heart subsided naturally, and a smile appeared on his face: "You are also very beautiful, and your Daxia official language is very good."

"Oh~ Really? I have studied for a long time, and besides, I have a very good teacher." Inadvertently, Talitha looked at Qin Yu meaningfully.

Persuaded!

Brother Yu smiled at this meeting, looked ahead, and walked forward without hearing anything outside the window.

From the appearance alone, no one can see anything.

However, Qin Yu was thinking, 'I should have asked Lao Qiao more if I knew it earlier. He is not the most precious daughter of his beloved, how can he send her to Xia Guo?'

If he stood in front of Old Joe at this time, he would definitely be spit on his face.

Why did Talisa appear in the abandoned city, and for whom?

Is there no point in someone's heart?

If it weren't for Talissa's insistence, how could he agree with him for a whole day of cold war with Old Joe?

"Talisa The hotel has been arranged, this is your room card." Qin Yu handed her the room card of the business suite.

The hotel Qin Yu arranged for them was the W Hotel which opened in Nanqu last year.

It is also the most luxurious hotel in Nanqu at present. The price of a luxurious business suite is RMB 5,888 per night.

In terms of living, it can be said that the arrangement is full of sincerity.

"Thank you, why don't you come together!" Talisa invited them in public, making them both stunned at the same time.

'What do you mean?' Lu Qing.

'This woman is going crazy?' Qin Yu.

"Oh, sorry, you have misunderstood. I mean you can start formal negotiations now. I don't like to waste time." Talisa turned around and walked towards the elevator with amorous feelings.

The twisting S-curve attracted everyone in the hotel, 'this is what the so-called fairy is alive, right?'

Chapter 205: Battle angel

W Hotel, luxury business suite.

Standing in front of the bay window in the living room, you can see the beautiful scenery of Nanhu Lake.

The space and decoration in the suite were very satisfactory to her. Before starting contact, Talisa asked the front desk for a bottle of vodka.

When the wine was delivered to the room, I poured myself a glass, shook it, and sniffed it in front of his nose.

Talisa looked up and smiled: "Are you going to have some?"

"No need, thank you." Lu Qing refused.

"What about you? It seems that I don't want it." Talitha decided for him without waiting for Qin Yu to speak.

Then the conversation changed, "Let's start now!"

This time, the representative sent by Flamingo was to invest in the 'Lixin Investment'.

The registered capital of Lixin is one billion Xia Yuan, and its own capital is 277 million.

Except for the remaining money to buy Nanhu Manor, Qin Yu personally took away 80 million.

"Flamingo is willing to inject 150 million yuan to obtain 50% of Lixin's equity." Talitha was open to the lion and wanted to swallow half of the equity.

"40%, we will make big moves in the near future, which will give the flamingos a sufficient return." Qin Yu naturally disagreed.

"The so-called rewards only exist in the future you mentioned. You can't guarantee you now, Qin." Talisa shook her wine gently, with a high posture.

"Then this is good. Since neither side is willing to give in, you can bet with your usual pair."

"In the next six months, if Lixin cannot double its investment, the Flamingo will get 50% of the shares. Otherwise, it will only get 40%, and it will not be involved in management, only dividend rights."

"Qin, don't you think your request is too excessive?" Talitha sipped her drink amusedly, and whispered, "We have only one benefit, and you have...three."

"Yes, dare you to bet, if you win the bet, 50% of the shares are enough to give you control of the company."

Lu Qing pulled his hand with some worry, clearly implying that he should not be impulsive.

Losing 50% of the shares, with the other party's capital level and means, can completely gain control of the entire company.

At that time, he, the founder, is likely to face the embarrassment of being swept out.

"Don't worry, I'm sure!" Qin Yu smiled confidently as she put her hand on her.

when.

The thick-bottomed square cup fell heavily on the coffee table, and Talisa said coldly: "Okay, I'll bet with you!"

The two parties immediately drafted documents with the assistance of their lawyers. Flamingo invested 150 million U.S. dollars and temporarily obtained 40% of the shares, and was not allowed to interfere in the management of the company.

At the same time, the gambling agreement was signed. If Qin Yu loses, the Flamingo will become the biggest winner.

"Next, let's talk about the battery!" After signing the last name, Talisa dropped the pen on the table, and looked at Qin Yu with ease again.

...

The whole negotiation process lasted from noon to afternoon, and Lu Qing left because of school.

The entire negotiation process will not be concluded until the final cooperation plan has been signed.

"I wish we have a happy cooperation." Talitha stood up and smiled and stretched out her hand.

"Happy cooperation." Qin Yu held her hand and smiled.

"You can go out first. Mr. Qin and I have something to discuss separately." Talisa said to the staff.

"Yeah." Qin Yu nodded to his lawyer.

Click!

With the door closed, Talisa shook the little liquid in the cup and chuckled, "How does it feel to be acting?"

"Not bad." Qin Yu smiled, the scene was much easier than expected.

Flamingo invests in Lixin, Lixin invests in Kuafu Technology, and has the foreign background required.

Next, Qin Yu will invite Li Xiao, Xu Hao and Yang Chengjun to invest in Kuafu Technology.

To be more accurate, they invited the Li family, Xu family, and Yang family behind the three.

Among them, Qin Yu attaches great importance to the Yang family, because Yang Chengjun has the most stable position in the family.

Why do you need to set up a foreign background? It is not only a protective shell, but also a bargaining chip for him and the three companies.

After realizing the importance of the 'Kuafu battery pack', Li Xiao and Xu Hao will be replaced by someone else in the family.

This is a gilded job, how could it be handed to them easily.

At that time, Qin Yu would naturally support Li Xiao and Xu Hao, not only because they met first.

There are also two people's personalities, status and identity in the family, these are all Qin Yu values.

Change to an arrogant idiot, Qin Yu can't serve this kind of uncle, and in the end he must have gone unhappy.

The personalities of Li Xiao and Xu Hao made him very comfortable, in Qin Yu's opinion, he could be made friends as friends.

In addition, the two are not very much taken seriously at home!

With Qin Yu's support, they will gain more voice and a higher status.

Will this be grateful to Qin Yu, when principles and survival issues are not involved?

Would it be more biased towards him to speak, rather than stand on the stand of the family entirely.

Qin Yu has considered all these issues.

Besides, isn't the friendship deepened and consolidated in this way?

The more he supports the two of them, the heavier their right to speak in the family, and they are inseparable from his support.

The two sides are naturally tied together to form a solid alliance of interests!

If the Li family and Xu family want to benefit from Qin Yu and share a piece of the pie in 'Kuafu Technology', they have to pay attention to the relationship between the two.

At that time, Li Xiao and Xu Hao will also clearly realize that helping Qin Yu is helping themselves.

I believe they will clearly realize what is best for them.

Only someone who understands how important it is to have a person in the partner can understand it.

These thoughts flashed quickly in his mind, and Qin Yu suddenly noticed something rushing toward his face.

It's Talisa.

She saw her stepping forward with her long legs and stepping on the coffee table. Miao Man's posture swooped in the air and knocked him down on the sofa.

"You * bastard." Talitha opened her mouth and bit on his shoulder amidst her anger.

Just after Qin Yu was ready to be "drawn", she suddenly let go of her mouth.

"If you bite it down, your little girlfriend will find out, damn... why should I worry about her." Talissa rubbed her long golden hair irritably.

Qin Yu didn't say anything, just wrapped her arms around her body and let her lean against her chest.

"I knew you would forget me." Talisa said bitterly.

He knelt down and sat on him suddenly, "It doesn't matter, even so, I will take all of you... now."

Talisa never believed in true love forever!

She also doesn't want to think about these issues at this time, now she just wants to release her inner * as much as possible.

Bathe yourself in the holy light!

As a fighting angel who is proficient in fighting, yoga and various fighting techniques.

Talisa's combat effectiveness is extremely amazing, so the consequences are.

Qin Yu wanted to pay the hotel a sum of damages of more than 30,000 yuan, including a sofa, a coffee table, a small round table, a chair and two vodka glasses.

And the TV that was smashed...

It can be seen from the expressions of the hotel staff that they are full of suspicion.

Is this a fierce war just now?

But why the atmosphere is so harmonious is really hell.

"When do you decide to talk to the local yamen? Do you need me to come forward?" Talisa took the vodka and stood in front of the French windows looking at the lake in the distance.

When I was in Barrow, I didn't notice that she was also a drunkard.

Since arriving at the hotel, the cup in his hand hasn't been put down, and he has to take two sips even during the battle.

Otherwise, how did the two cups be played?

"No, I'll talk about it myself." Qin Yu actually didn't plan to show up.

Now that it has been decided to let the Li family, the Xu family and the Yang family share a piece of the pie this kind of thing is naturally discussed by them.

To reap, you have to pay. Asking them to join the game does not mean sitting back and enjoying the gains.

Qin Yu picked up the mobile phone on the ground and dialed Qin Yu's number immediately: "Go ahead."

Turning his head and waving to Talitha, Qin Yu left the room and walked outside the hotel.

Snapped!

Hearing the sound of glass breaking behind him, Qin Yu smiled and shook his head, 'her character is hot enough.'

"Hey, brother, there is a good thing for you..."

Inviting Li Xiao, Xu Hao and Yang Chengjun to the abandoned city, Qin Yu plans to talk to them in person.

As for tonight, he has to get rid of the rest of the drawing first.

Otherwise, there is nothing to say about it, so what will you use to negotiate terms?

Chapter 206: Maybach is really fragrant

The next day, October 19th.

As soon as Qin Yu woke up in the morning, he felt a numbness in his wrist.

"Xiaoyu, are you up?" Liang Chuyu knocked on the door, rubbing hands and feet.

"Here." Qin Yu pulled out his arm and walked out of the room.

"Did Qingqing get up?" Seeing his son, Liang Chuyu first cared about Lu Qing.

In this regard, Qin Yu is no longer surprised.

"Okay, don't worry about it, go to work!" Qin Yu pushed her downstairs, "Qingqing thought you didn't know she was there. It was so embarrassing to meet."

"What's so embarrassing, she is my daughter-in-law!" Liang Chuyu replied confidently.

"Yes, daughter-in-law, daughter-in-law, aren't girls thin-skinned!" Qin Yu is one head and two older.

I didn't know what was wrong with my mother, so I stared at Lu Qing every day.

The guards outside thought that Lu Qing was the daughter of this family, and she was just a little white face.

Thinking of the last time Lu Qing drove him back on 911, the security guard looked at his eyes...

I vomited.

To buy a car, you must buy a car.

After the company and the factory are officially put into operation, he will definitely have to go to the abandoned place often.

Not having a car is too inconvenient, and the company's reception car must be arranged.

Mercedes-Benz S and Qin Yu have already thought about it.

In addition, buy a big G for your own use, and watch Dad's big G come in and out every day.

Qin Yu is greedy!

"Then you send her to school on the way, remember to buy her breakfast, the girl must eat well in the morning." Liang Chuyu did not forget to remind him when he went out.

"I see, I must take care of it." I accompanied my mother all the way to the garage and personally put her in the car.

After closing the door and watching the car go away, Qin Yu returned to the living room.

"Puff~" There was a smirk from the stairs.

Qin Yu looked up and saw who else but Lu Qing could be.

She was wearing a checkered bear pajamas, sitting behind the stairs and laughing.

"When did you wake up?" Qin Yu walked upstairs helplessly.

"You woke up when you came out." Lu Qing looked at him with happiness.

"Have you heard what my mother said?" Qin Yu sat next to her, spitting out: "You are about to become her own daughter now, so I want to go to Uncle Lu, or we can change it!"

"Okay! Sooner or later, it's the same anyway." Lu Qing said without shyness, holding his arm.

"Yes." Brother Yu took it.

Back in the bathroom of the room, Qin Yu took a shower and Lu Qing brushed her teeth.

After a while, there was a laughter and slapstick in the room...

"Haha, don't..."

"Let you hide again and see if I don't paint your face."

"Ah~ no, I just wiped it off."

"This is better than water, it is naturally pollution-free, come on!"

"Haha, I don't believe your nonsense...Go away, woo..."

"Puff~"

"Now you know it!"

"Bad guy, it's not good at all, I'm going to tell..."

"Tell who?"

"Look at me killing you, ahh~"

"Hiss, wrong, wrong..."

The two of them fought in the bathroom for half an hour, then walked out disheveled.

...

"Bull me next time...bite it off!" Lu Qing, who was sitting in the co-pilot, had blushing cheeks and a waxy tone.

It is not so much a threat as it is a harmless white rabbit.

The shivering and shy look makes one's mouth water...

Sending Lu Qing to the school, Qin Yu turned around to the Mercedes-Benz 4S store.

The 911 is still very popular, and someone greets it as soon as the car stops.

"Sir, what car do you want to see?" Sales seemed like a freshman.

Last time I watched the car, Qin Yu didn't remember who received him.

"Look at the car, S series."

Listening to him pointing directly to the S series, the sales attitude became a bit enthusiastic: "Sir, let's look at the car directly."

However, Qin Yu soon discovered that he had made a mistake in a small detail.

The S series does not represent Maybach. Although they belong to Mercedes, they are two brands.

Just like the original and second wines, they belong to the same winery, but don't think they are the same.

"Sir, do you want to see Maybach?" The attitude of sales at this time is several times more enthusiastic than I heard before.

Ordinary S series, it is one or two million to die.

The new Maybach S has to double the starting point, and the difference is not as big as usual.

The real Maybach has been completely discontinued in 2013, and today's Maybach is the only Mercedes-Benz Maybach S.

It is no longer the so-called Maybach.

"First introduce." Qin Yu said while looking at the double M mark in front of him.

"Maybach S680, 6.0T in power, twin turbocharged engine."

"V-shaped 12-cylinder, 630 horsepower, 1000 Newton meters, powerful rear drive."

"The side door logo has a background light, a rear seat belt push device, and a double color paint. These are not available on the 2020 model."

"The magic carpet is suspended, and the speed bump is like a flat ground, electric suction door, minus the trouble of manually closing the door."

"Noise reduction and sound insulation effect, you can feel it." Said the salesman, turning on the music in the car.

After tuned to 28 tones, close the door.

Quiet, basically no sound can be heard. Although it is affected by the noise in the daytime environment, it can be regarded as the top sound insulation and noise reduction.

"Price!" Qin Yu has always been very decisive in choosing a car, with only one focus.

Like VS dislike.

Buy if you like it, or change it if you don't like it.

"Brother, the entire vehicle has landed less than 5 million yuan. I have to figure it out for you, or else you should go to the rest area for tea first." Said the sales.

"You count yours, I'll take a look." Qin Yu still wanted to look at other things.

"Okay, then you look at it first."

The salesman walked quickly to the office area after he finished talking, and when he passed Qin Yu, he immediately changed to running.

The money is up, so what are you waiting for?

When he came to the big G booth, Qin Yu found that there was a matt black show car.

Open the door and sit in and feel it.

I don't know if something went wrong, Qin Yu actually felt a little... crude?

After thinking about it, he knew where the problem was.

The Porsche Cayenne selected for Jiang Xiaoshan is so fragrant!

The luxury and comfort of the interior is really a world of difference.

If it is the basic entry model, the difference will not be much.

But after I have a good understanding of the selection, I feel that something is wrong with sitting in a big G.

However, whoever buys a big G is not for comfort!

Appearance, off-road, anti-manufacturing, suitable for modification, giving a sense of primitive and wild sight.

These are the reasons why car owners will choose Big G.

Really talk about comfort, how fragrant the S-class is!

"Brother, do you want to see another big G?" The sales came back, with the price of S680.

The whole vehicle is calculated down to 4.96 million, and three free maintenance and a fuel card will be given.

Keychains, foot pads and some gadgets.

To sum it up, there are only two words: worthless.

"Is there an existing car for the matte black G63?" Qin Yu wanted to mention the car directly.

"Yes, there happens to be one." The salesman also hoped that he would directly mention the car, and he liked this kind of non-inked and refreshing customers.

It takes less than an hour from entering the store to buying a car. What is efficiency? What is time is life?

This is...

"I want both of them, take the company account!"

Qin Yu forgot, an old Highlander for daily use, and a Maybach S680 for business reception.

The last is the big G that he uses, which can be used when Hong Zhong is away when he is away. Anyway, it is a built-in resistance car that he bought.

In this case, the company's car should be enough.

"By the way, do you have a driver in your store?" Qin Yu will have to pick up people and arrange a meeting with the boss for the little brother.

"Yes, brother, you need me to do it." The salesman immediately patted his chest and told him to arrange it at will this afternoon.

The Maybach S680 is 4.96 million. The matte black G6 is five thousand cheaper than the last time he bought it, and the difference is earned back from the Maybach.

Qin Yu gave an integer 10,000.

Okay, now transfer the money and drive away with a temporary card. If it doesn't work, he will go to another house again.

You don't need to read it, and you can directly pick up the car by calling the price.

The salesman said that he could not be the master, and went back to ask the manager for instructions.

When Li Xiao called back and forth, he would be at the airport, ready to board the plane.

"Go to the parking lot first when you get off the plane. I will arrange for a car to pick you up and the mouse, Brother Jun."

I hung up the phone and the sales came back.

The manager agrees, but the brand must be put on their side.

One brand three thousand, two six thousand, basically pure profit.

The left and right sides are also to be listed, and Qin Yu has no special ideas, so he nods and trades on the spot.

After brushing the sales, he went through the formalities as quickly as possible, and put everything in front of him.

Chapter 207: This note is absolutely poisonous

Deserted city, international airport.

The brand-new matte black G63 and the double color Maybach S680 drove into the parking lot one after another.

Sitting in the car, Qin Yu considered the next negotiation.

This time Qin Yu will not directly expose the real data of the 'Kwafu battery pack', and first vote for Jin to determine the number of people.

Let them know that there is such a thing, go back to tell the family.

Once and again, the operation on the silver futures side should have been completed.

When the funds are returned, with enough money and technology on hand, I will come and have formal talks with the three companies.

Capital and technology are both implemented, all cooperation details are finalized, and production is officially put into production.

Before and after, Qin Yu was jealous for two to three months.

As for the land, it is believed that under the dual stimulation of technology and capital, the local government will pass the review as quickly as possible.

After making detailed plans for all the conceivable and anticipated problems, Qin Yu finished thinking.

"Little brother, just take a picture, how about we invite you to dinner?" Qin Yu, who had recovered from his senses, raised his head and saw two girls pestering Xiaohe.

Xiaohe, the salesman who received him before, just learned that the last G63 was also bought by him.

The reason the two girls bothered him was that they wanted to make a short video with his Maybach!

The two girls are good-looking, and if Xiaohe drove out by himself, he would definitely agree.

But he would be a driver, the boss is watching him!

"It's not good, I'm a driver, or you can ask the boss." Xiaohe was really entangled and had no choice but to sell Qin Yu.

"Xiaohe, let them take the picture and move faster." Qin Yu didn't want to waste his tongue, lowered the window and raised the window again, leaning on the seat and swiping the notes.

First click on the only small anchor who pays attention to, drizzle and silent.

There are not many works, half of them are co-produced with Qin Yu, the number of fans is 130W+

The little anchor is really hot, no wonder so many people have jealous eyes red.

The comment area is also really lively, and Qin Yu found several big yin and yang homes.

With a 'key,' the gods are unstoppable, everything can be destroyed.

Broad fear, broad fear...

There are indeed a lot of female fans, all kinds of people calling 'husband'.

Everyone wanted to set up a monkey, and wanted to pull him out of the screen and tie him around.

There are fancy show off their wealth.

'In 1998, Yaodu people, a Porsche, a Ferrari, two villas, without relying on their parents, a nine-figure deposit! As long as you come to me, these are all yours, and I am also your drizzle silent#husband. '

'No smoking, no drinking, no dancing, no fish, can cook, can yoga, can dance, can do the splits, be good at it, just want her husband to hug. Drizzle silent#老公#Good girl. '

There are so many similar comments, and one comment area just turned into a 'blind date' mode.

Qin Yu almost vomited.

Quit the attention, Qin Yu wants to pass the time by refreshing the video.

As soon as I reached the first one, I found out that I was co-shooting with the little anchor again.

The two women inside were watching the notes, turned to the drizzle and silent work, and stopped.

When the music sounded, white smoke appeared first, and then two figures suddenly appeared.

The white shirt, the perfect body line, the sassy right hand swinging back the corners of the clothes and the exposed abdominal muscles.

The little anchor who clings to his chest is glamorous and charming, with his palm pressed against his abdominal muscles.

"Ah~" The two women swayed exaggeratedly, as if they were about to faint.

Fingers are crazy on the screen like an electric shock, loving, loving, loving...

"..." Me?, vomit!

Continuing to decline, a Maybach appeared on the screen.

Qin Yu breathed a sigh of relief, and finally read other content.

'What's the point of having more than one person. Maybach is tired of driving. Why should I sell it for another one? '

In the video, two girls walked towards the Maybach on catwalks.

Turned around and moved his long hair.

Sit in the back row across the long legs, cocked his legs, and lifted his sunglasses with his hands, with a look of 'I'm a celebrity'.

Brother Yu swiped his finger, and then slid back.

'No, this car looks familiar? 'Not only the Maybach, but also the one next door...

Isn't this your own big G?

Tilted his head and looked out, fucking...

This note is absolutely poisonous!

Was it intentional, right?

"Handsome guy, thank you for lending the car to us for the video." The two girls ran up and knocked on the car window to express their gratitude.

"No thanks, as long as you don't sell my car." Qin Yu shook the phone and couldn't complain.

"You're really funny, handsome guy, just copywriting, don't take it seriously!" the two said happily.

Seeing that he just laughed and didn't speak, the long-haired * the left asked: "You handsome, are you here to pick up someone?"

"Yes, pick up someone." The phone rang while talking, "My friend is here."

Pressing the answer button, Qin Yu just walked towards the entrance.

The two girls curled their lips helplessly, "I still want a WeChat, are you so cold?"

"Come on! This is not yours or me, let's go."

In the distance, Qin Yu had received Li Xiao, and saw Xu Hao dressed up in a fancy dress, "What kind of look are you?"

"Tide guy!" Xu Hao said embarrassedly.

"It's quite trendy, this raincoat looks good." Qin Yu reached out and touched the transparent plastic coat he was wearing outside, looking no different from the words printed on the raincoat.

"Haha~" Li Xiao laughed in public, "Brother Yu, don't irritate him anymore."

Xu Hao would wear such a suit, it turned out that he lost a bet with others.

The other party's request is very simple, let him wear this dress for a month, and he is not allowed to change it.

"That's not smelly?" Qin Yu asked curiously.

"Papa!" Yang Chengjun patted the suitcase being dragged by Xu Hao: "Five sets, the same."

Xu Hao's appointment lifted the box and shook it vigorously, and the sound of "clang clang clang" came. That was the sound of the iron chain on the ripped jeans he was wearing now and the box crashing. Not to mention, just his look.

Twenty years ago, he must have been a leader of the township, and at least he had to be an elder.

"Let's go, the car is arranged, the three bosses." Qin Yu pointed to Maybach, and Xiao He standing in front bowed and smiled with great eyesight.

"Brother Yu, it's okay!" Xu Hao put down the box and ran to the Maybach car, wiping the body road with his hands: twin-turbo, 630 horsepower, maximum torque of 1,000. "

"4 sets of different car atmospheres, with different aromatherapy scents, luminous frames, backlit car logos, Berlin Voice surround sound, top-level noise reduction can be adjusted manually, magic carpet site..."

Listening to him reporting all the data like a few treasures, Li Xiao said funnyly: "I admire the mouse the most. I know everything, but I can't afford it."

Xu Hao could hear this, and looked back at him dumbfoundedly and said, "Brother, don't hit someone in the face!"

Li Xiao shrugged and said, "I just told a fact."

Xu Hao shook his head helplessly and said, "However, I still like the big G next to Maybach better. This is a man, like what we should look for when looking for an older young man."

Hearing what he said, Qin Yu took out if he pressed the unlock button: "This car seems to belong to me."

...

Sitting unloved in the cab of the big G, Xu Hao couldn't figure out what sin he had done!

He was driven from the Maybach by Li Xiao and Yang Chengjun, "You are inconsistent with the temperament of a Maybach, you should go sit on the big G!"

That's fine, anyway, Brother Yu agreed to let him drive, and Xu Hao felt that he had made a profit at the time.

But now...

Looking at the motionless traffic in front, Xu Hao just wanted to return to his Maybach, surrounded by soft and comfortable seats, listening to the cross talk of the Great Berlin Voice.

"Brother Yu How long will this have to be blocked?" Xu Hao pressed his chin against the steering wheel, looking forward desperately.

"It would be estimated that the traffic police has arrived, and should be coming soon." As soon as he finished speaking, the brake lights of the front car went out and slowly slid forward.

Qin Yu also wondered how it would be blocked at such a high speed, and gambled for nearly half an hour.

When I drove to the front, there really was an accident!

Three cars collided in a row. The BMW at the front didn't look much damaged, the Toyota in the middle was a bit miserable, and the BYD at the back was okay.

Fortunately, there are no casualties, just accidents and vehicle damage.

"The quality of this BYD is pretty good." Xu Hao joked casually as he drove past.

"The domestically produced cars are also doing well, but they started too late." Qin Yu looked back at BYD who was going away.

If you remember correctly, it is a local brand of Waste City. Isn't this a potential big customer of Kuafu Technology?

Chapter 208: Brother Yu's realm can't be guessed

BYD's holding company is Yaodu, but the base camp of the auto industry is in the abandoned capital.

There is its most important R&D base and production line here, and it is also strongly supported by the local government.

In fact, it was just a company that started as an electrical company.

It can be said to have reached the world's leading level in the battery field, and it can be said to be the world's leading company in the field of commercial electric vehicles.

It's almost a domineering situation, even Tesla can only eat ashes behind the ass, beyond the dust.

At the same time, its parent company has a closed-loop new energy vehicle industry chain.

From the production of parts, to the assembly of complete vehicles, to export, there is no need to rely on the outside world.

If you have any knowledge, you should know that its three-electric system is the top head company, and even a certain battery pack safety report will ask for its opinions.

To simply describe its strength: foreign sales are more expensive than domestic sales, and foreigners recognize it.

Every time a new car is released, auto manufacturers in major auto-industrial countries such as Europe, the United States, and Neon are willing to buy one and go back for dismantling and research.

However, this does not mean that there is no business to do.

It is precisely because the other party's battery technology remains at the level of international leading companies that it will pay more attention to technological breakthroughs and innovations.

The advantage of 'Kuafu Battery Pack' is not only the battery capacity, but also the advanced battery management system, faster charging efficiency, safer and more reliable stability...

Only a low-temperature-resistant charging technology is enough to make the global giants heart.

I believe that many car owners have encountered the embarrassing situation of not being able to charge up in winter.

With the physical hanging, please ignore the city that is like spring all year round.

The next time northern car owners show off it is snowing, they can respond with a full battery and give humiliation.

Loving and killing each other in a group of riders can enhance the relationship between each other.

Since then changed its name: Love each other family.

Go to the hotel first and arrange accommodation.

Qin Yu transferred 500 yuan to Xiaohe as labor expenses and asked him to take a taxi back to the company.

A new driver from Lixin will come to take over and take charge of Li Xiao's three-person trip these days.

Sitting on the sofa, Li Xiao said: "Let's talk about it, what's the matter?"

Qin Yu took out his mobile phone, "I will send you some information first."

Pulled a WeChat group, Qin Yu posted the information in the group, "This is a new generation of battery pack, technically surpassing all similar products on the market."

Li Xiao zoomed in and closed the drawing.

Let him see that it is no different from the heavenly book, but first listen to what Qin Yu said.

Xu Hao was more decisive. He didn't even need to zoom in. He glanced at the drawing that was full of lines and annotations, and turned it off directly.

"Brother Yu, just say you have any plans!"

Yang Chengjun observed the drawings seriously, and nodded in agreement with what Xu Hao said.

Qin Yu said immediately: "I plan to set up a factory in the abandoned city and invite you to buy shares."

Li Xiao said sternly: "Are you serious?"

Countless thoughts flashed in his mind, and in the end he couldn't be sure what Qin Yu said was true.

Qin Yu responded: "Naturally it is true. In addition, I hope that the three of you will keep this matter secret first, and don't give the drawings to your family first, and buy shares in your own name."

Looking at the expressions of the three of them, Qin Yu smiled and said, "It's a position."

Xu Hao held his phone and thought: "You mean...it takes time?"

Qin Yu nodded in approval, "Yes, at least until the end of this operation, don't reveal the details!"

Yang Chengjun turned off the drawing, looked up at him and said, "I agree."

Li Xiao curiously asked: "Soldier, do you understand?"

Yang Chengjun shook his head and said sternly, "I don't understand, but I can see that the drawing is real."

He wasn't afraid to offend Qin Yu, so he said it in front of him, "In the end, the family must come forward to confirm the authenticity of the drawing so that I can speak."

Qin Yu nodded with understanding, and said, "I understand, brothers have to settle accounts clearly, so they should."

Xu Hao scratched his head and said blankly: "But I don't have that much money!"

The investment of this battery factory is huge, even if it is just a start, it will cost billions to make the bottom line.

If it is distributed to everyone, there must be more than a dozen small goals!

What makes Xu Hao a headache is, where did he get such a large sum of money?

Qin Yu looked at him with a weird look, "You don't even know the risks inside, so you start to have a headache with money?"

Xu Hao, scratching his head, raised his head, looked at him and asked, "Is there a risk?"

"..."

Qin Yu shook his head negatively, and Xu Hao said clearly: "That's not the end, but money is more important."

Both of them expressed their views, but Li Xiao did not rush to express his views, "Brother Yu, can I ask how much you plan to invest in this project?"

Qin Yu roughly forgot, he will not invest too much money in the construction of the factory this time.

It can be said that it is almost equivalent to the empty glove white wolf, but the total investment will not be less than 5 billion, and may even reach the level of tens of billions.

Even if it is a tens of billions of factories, compared with the demand of the entire new energy market, it is only a drop in the bucket.

Considering these circumstances, Qin Yu responded: "There is a tens of billions level."

Li Xiao rubbed his chin and thought, "I will definitely find someone at home to evaluate the technology first. Is there any deletion of the key technology?"

Qin Yu nodded in response, "Actually, this is only a part, as well as the battery management system, cold-resistant charging technology, and energy enhancement and application technology."

Knowing that what he was talking about was a complete series of technological innovations, Li Xiao no longer hesitated, "Now we will determine a few investment quotas."

Qin Yu looked at the three and said, "The three of you, and one foreign company."

Li Xiao frowned and said, "Foreign investment? Why should foreign investment be involved?"

Qin Yu explained: "The investment fund of the Barrow family is also a major shareholder of Lixin...wrapped in a layer of skin."

Li Xiao nodded thoughtfully, already guessing why he did it.

If he guessed correctly, Qin Yu, the Barrow Fund, has a shareholding.

And the shares are not in the minority, and it may even be controlled by him.

This is not only protecting the factory, but also protecting himself, not only by adding a protective shell.

Using technology to occupy a certain amount of shares, through the name of the Barrow Family Fund, let Lixin enter the market and control part of the equity.

To achieve the purpose of holding the factory, while appropriately weakening their own importance.

It will not appear too greedy, but will save face for the family, will not hurt each other's harmony, and create a good start and cooperation environment.

Furthermore, with the help of foreign investment status, targeted preferential treatment and support can be obtained.

It is even possible that he is already preparing for going abroad, and the name of the joint venture will make them encounter less resistance and obstacles in the international market.

Look, we are also an enterprise with a foreign investment background, and there is nothing special about it.

As for the deeper meaning, Li Xiao couldn't think of it or guess it.

At this moment, Qin Yu's slightly immature smiling face became tall and mysterious in his heart.

'If I miss this opportunity, I will regret it for life.'

There seemed to be a voice in his heart that kept reminding him to make a decision as soon as possible.

Li Xiao always believed in his own perception, and hit his right fist in the heart of his left palm, "It's done."

The specific details still need time to negotiate. The door was closed and the four people stayed in the room all night.

When Talisa came to the door the next day, what she saw were the Red Bull jars piled up on the table, the leftover dinner plates, and the ashtray stuffed with stubbed out cigarette butts.

There are also four men lying on the sofa and the floor in their clothes and falling asleep soundly.

Squatting next to Qin Yu, looking at his messy hair and his profile face peacefully falling asleep.

Talisa couldn't help but kissed it softly. UU reading www.uukanshu.com

"Beautiful lady, do you know that it is impolite to attack a gentleman like this?"

The closed eyes trembled slightly, and Qin Yu's voice was a bit of laziness just waking up.

Talisa pursed her lips and smirked: "That's for a real gentleman, not a hypocritical little bastard."

Qin Yu opened her eyes, stretched her waist and looked at her with a smile, "Know that * are more attractive than gentlemen, and at the same time more dangerous."

"Ah~"

Suddenly turned over and stood on the ground, stretched both hands to hug Talitha, Qin Yu domineeringly blocked what she wanted to say with her mouth.

In a struggle of 'uuuuu', the figures of the two disappeared in the next room.

The awakened Li Xiao looked helpless, turned over and fell asleep.

I'm still wondering, 'what's this guy's remedy for nourishing the kidney and he's never tired?'

Chapter 209: Don't delay my business

When it was almost noon, Qin Yu walked out of the room.

His face was full of red light, and his eyes were like torches.

Pushing open the door of the next room, I saw that the three of them were still lying in their original positions, unwilling to move, "Shall I ask someone to bring lunch to the room?"

Xu Hao raised his hand like a dying struggle, and shouted feebly: "Long live Yu brother!"

Li Xiao and Yang Chengjun also nodded in agreement, and didn't even bother to say anything.

The three of them are not physically weak, but mentally tired!

The number of brain cells consumed last night was more than that of the previous ten years combined.

The brain is still in the 'strike' stage, and there is no intention to go to work at all.

Qin Yu first walked to the window, drew the curtains, and opened the window.

The cool and fresh air blows away the dirt in the room, which shocks people.

Xu Hao, who was lying on the floor, shrank and said, "Cold."

Li Xiao sat up with his head, "I knew I wouldn't touch the cigarette."

He smoked all the two packs of cigarettes last night, Yang Chengjun followed them, and Qin Yu and Xu Hao basically smoked two-handed cigarettes.

Yang Chengjun went to the bathroom to wash his face, and said soberly: "It's most uncomfortable to breathe after borrowing, don't breathe."

"I can't help myself when I think about things."

Li Xiao rubbed his face with his hands, got up and took a shower in the bathroom, only then completely awake.

As for Xu Hao, he would still be paralyzed on the ground, unable to live or die!

"How to say?"

Li Xiao took a sip of strong black coffee, and frowned at Qin Yu.

'This thing is really awful, but refreshing is really useful.'

Qin Yu pointed to Talitha and introduced: "You have all met Talitha, the representative of the Flamingo Fund."

Talissa greeted them friendly, but she was not polite at all: "The battery factory, we want 20% of the shares."

Li Xiao silently glanced at Qin Yu, "Brother, don't look at me, how to talk and how to talk."

"10%, 30% for three companies, and I want 10% of the shares for management."

Yang Chengjun took over the right to speak and rushed to speak before Li Xiao.

Seeing the exchange between the two eyes, Li Xiao's eyes changed from cold to soft, and finally relieved.

I am afraid that the Yang family is not only able to speak in the Ministry of War!

Qin Yu invested with technology and got 40% of the shares, while Flamingo and Lixin together held 20% of the shares.

How the two families are divided is their own business.

The three Li Xiaos each took 10% of the shares, and the remaining 10% was used to manage the dredging.

"With the three of us alone, Shou is able to stand it, but it must be restrained!"

"The other party is not going to be so good. It is the declaration and review. If it can be delayed, it will delay. It is required that things be done within 20 days, and it will not be completed a day earlier."

"To disgust you within the system and rules is to make you uncomfortable. It is better to pull them to grow bigger together instead of doing this."

What Li Xiao was referring to was Shangdu. As the administrative center of Xia State, you can never avoid it completely.

"At that time, you have to go to Dudu with me."

Li knows that he will take him to the door, and whether he can make it in the end depends on Qin Yu's performance.

This time he was looking for the third-generation leaders of the second-rate family in Shangdu.

Everyone seems to be of the same age, but the circle and status of the mix is completely one day and one place.

No comparison!

The Li family is considered the other's brother-in-law, but that's all about the older generation.

Nowadays, apart from walking around during the New Year, the relationship has long since faded.

Prepare this 10% of the shares to make up for this shortfall.

"Brother Yu, don't worry, the shares should be as much as they are. Whether it comes from that family or my family, it must be someone else."

As soon as Li Xiao's voice fell, Yang Chengjun said again: "I will go too."

Xu Hao looked up at him curiously, "Aren't you unwilling to take care of their house?"

Yang Chengjun kept his face straight as usual, "It doesn't matter if you don't talk to you or don't do things!"

What Qin Yu heard was Yunliwuli, and he knew that the "Shangdu Family" they were talking about seemed to have something to do with the Li family and the Yang family.

It sounds like the Li family wants to flatter, the Yang family doesn't want to talk, the Xu family...

He didn't hear anything from Xu Hao's mouth, this guy didn't just listen, but was the least exposed.

"Can you make it clear?"

Since he wanted to follow along, Qin Yu didn't want to go up with his eyes darkened.

Shangdu Cheng family, the older generation is a military background.

The second generation of politics, leading figures to achieve the position of Shangshu in the Ministry of Households.

The third generation is also in politics, currently serving in the staff department, it seems that they want the old Cheng family to go one step further.

Li Xiao looked at him and said earnestly: "As long as the household department can be cleared, other aspects will be fine!"

Seeing that Qin Yu had been looking at him, Yang Chengjun sighed: "My grandfather and the Cheng family are comrades-in-arms. However, the second generation had a grievance for some reason, so there was little contact."

In this way, Qin Yu roughly understands that it is another horrible drama of the rich and powerful.

"Understood, there is nothing else to say, brother, just let me know when the time comes."

Qin Yu didn't bother to understand these rich gossips, as long as he didn't delay his business.

"Then shall we celebrate first?"

Seeing that everything was over, Xu Hao jumped up instantly full of blood and resurrected.

When it comes to playing, he doesn't accept anyone!

This time he came to the abandoned city, but he hasn't gone out yet!

"I have arranged everything for the evening, Miami, there are enough drinks and water pipes."

Qin Yu greeted Xiaojie yesterday, and tonight is still the same place.

"Niu~haha, it's good to drink, good to drink."

Xu Hao originally planned to ask, "Have you arranged for the girl?" Seeing Talitha immediately shifted the subject.

Just as she looked at Brother Yu's eyes, it was affectionate and undisguised.

Saying that there was nothing between the two, Xu Hao buttoned his eyeballs on the spot as a cannon, and let everyone hear~

...

Black bare back miniskirt, black silk, Chanel boots.

With red lips and long curly hair draped behind him.

There is a small shawl with mink on the shoulders, which is hot, * and charming.

Talisa's makeup and dress perfectly explain what is meant by the word 'sexy'.

At this time, she is the spokesperson of 'sexy'.

At the moment when she got off the big G, all eyes on the scene were focused on her.

with no exceptions!

"Shao Qin." Xiaojie, who saw Qin Yu, was stunned and led several people into the bar.

"It's still our old position, what else do you think you need?"

Introducing the person into the deck, Xiaojie was not in a hurry to place an order, but instead sent a fruit plate to him first.

"Qin Shao, this is my little heart."

Xiaojie is trying to fill Qin Yu's scene, so he rushes to this point, this kid has a boundless future!

Qin Yu didn't look at the wine list, just two sets of six-color dragons.

After clicking, he looked at Xu Hao: "Mouse, XO is up?"

Xu Hao's face changed as soon as he heard it, and he waved his hand and smiled bitterly: "Brother Yu, please forgive me!"

He was muddled during that time, and XO didn't vomit him to death.

Now as long as he thinks of the word XO, he wants to retching!

Li Xiao picked up the wine list and looked at it, and said, "Will there be a girl later?"

"What do you think?"

Qin Yu pointed forward, and the girls all over could not see it.

"Then have another set of Champagne King, snacks..."

Qin Yu answered, "Today is to entertain friends, Shao Li, Shao Yang, Shao Xu, look at the arrangement."

If there is no order, I will give a big fruit plate first. Xiaojie's road is widened by Brother Yu.

"Okay, brother, don't worry."

Xiaojie went down to make arrangements, and by the way, someone came to pay by credit card.

'Beverage Critical Strike Consumption Card 2*: After spending 100,000 yuan, get 1~100 times the crit cashback.'

'Are you sure to use it?'

'confirm.'

Two sets of six-color dragons cost 137,776 yuan, Qin Yu bought 140,000, and the others were used to arrange snacks and the like.

This little money, Yu Ge has not paid attention to it.

Buying Nanhu Manor makes the system rise to LV6, and the daily basic salary rises to 260,000.

During this period, the basic salary alone was nearly 3 million...140,000. Is that a lot?

What's more He still has a 'consumption card' here!

Swipe to pay the bill, and the system prompts immediately appear in front of you.

'Ding, congratulations to the host for getting 100 times cash back and getting cash back amount of 10,000 yuan. The source of funds has been revised...'

Yu Ge is physically and mentally happy when the critical strike is full.

Today, the drink is comfortable, and he will drink two more glasses later.

'The source of funds is Flamingo Hedge Fund, the source of channels...'

The phone buzzed twice, and 10 million was successfully credited.

The music was restless, the lights flickered, and the corner of Talisa's mouth raised up and asked: "Do you come here often?"

Qin Yu replied with a natural expression: "Very rarely, when there is a need."

The light signs lit up in the distance were raised, the hot girls in hot pants stood in a row, and the DJ's music gradually weakened!

Chapter 210: Sitting on 5 oceans

"Let us welcome Shao Li, Shao Yang and Shao Xu from the V16 deck to Miami, where you will hear the most dynamic music, see the hottest girls, and feel the hottest atmosphere~"

"Cheers, shouts, sound, where???" MC knelt on one knee on the stage, raised his head and raised the microphone, hoarsely roaring at the V16 card.

"Oh~ah~" The audience at the scene gave a lot of face, especially the atmosphere group standing on the atmosphere lampstand.

He put his hands in front of his mouth and screamed at the V16 card.

This salary is really white-collar!

"Welcome, Shao Li, Shao Yang, and Shao Xu to visit Miami." A row of long legs jumped up and down, the liquor cards in his hands were neatly circled, and they took turns to put the liquor on the table and then exit the deck.

Xu Hao poked his head and gave a thumbs up: "Brother Yu, this... is too good."

"Xiaojie, make arrangements for Shao Li, Shao Yang, and Shao Xu."

Qin Yu is also very satisfied with his arrangement. This is a public relations talent. Can you consider digging to do it with yourself?

But after thinking about it again, I don't seem to need public relations anywhere.

Forget it, let's keep it for the big brothers to have fun!

Without such a caring wine sale, big buddies have much less fun!

Xiaojie nodded and smiled to the three of Li Xiao: "I'll take a look, there seem to be a few newcomers today, they look good!"

Talisa frowned as if evaluating the goods.

Qin Yu delivered the champagne to her, "He is just doing his own job... To gain the respect of others, you must first learn to respect yourself."

"Those girls, do you think they were forced?"

Talisa immediately refused to accept and wanted to argue, Xiaojie had already led the gorgeous girls to come up.

Looking at the smiling, active and enthusiastic girls in front of them.

Talisa silently raised her wine glass, took a sip, and said, 'Men and women in the world are the same.'

Fortunately, no girl came to Qin Yu's side, which made her feel better again.

Seeing Qin Yu's face like a knife, Talitha murmured, "Do you like her very much?"

Qin Yu turned around and asked: "What?"

Talisa repeated: "Do you like her very much? Your girlfriend."

Qin Yu nodded and said, "Yes, I like her very much."

Talitha bit her lower lip and said with an unhappy expression: "Can't you lie to me?"

Qin Yu was surprised: "What good is this for you and me?"

Looking at the dance floor, Qin Yu put his hand in front of her: "Go dancing and having fun is the most important thing."

Put your hand in his palm and let him lead himself onto the dance floor.

Talisa's body began to sway with the rhythm of the music, and every movement was full of sexiness.

Shaking his head and looking back, the look in Qin Yu's eyes can only be described in two words: fascinating.

Qin Yu, who served as the flower protector, once again smashed the wretched man who wanted to get stuck.

Qin Yu can't remember how many this is.

Since Talisa appeared in the center of the dance floor, the men who wanted to get stuck went up one after another.

The wretched fat boy just stretched out the salty pig's hand, if it weren't for his quick response.

That hand was not on his ass, but Talisa's.

Although some people felt dissatisfied with Qin Yu's domineering behavior, they only dared to leave in a low voice.

The wretched man who can do this kind of thing only dared to get stuck while drinking.

Not to mention that he took the initiative to meet Qin Yu, even if he didn't dare to put a harsh word in person.

At this moment, Qin Yu's expression was not friendly.

With a cold face, his arms and sleeves were piled on his shoulders, revealing strong arms.

He seems to know that he is not easy to mess with!

These vignettes did not affect Talitha's mood. The more Qin Yu showed care, the happier she danced.

Seeing her mood value soaring all the way to 89↑, Qin Yu, who stood on the dance floor as a 'bodyguard', felt it was worth it.

After jumping for nearly half an hour, the happy Talitha returned to the deck holding his arm.

There are a few men who have been waiting for the opportunity to come and strike up a conversation.

See the deck where Talisa returned, and the ace of spades on the table.

Knowingly choose other goals, this woman is not something they can touch.

"Shao Qin, Miss Talisa danced so well."

Xiaojie held the cup in both hands, leaned over and said to Talisa, "Miss Talisa, I respect you."

At this time, Talisa returned to her usual elegant posture, raising her wine glasses to make a clink, "Thank you."

After a sip of the wine in the glass, Xiaojie went to Xu Hao again.

This young man has the best character, he has fun and is a good drinker.

If you don't ask him to drink a few more glasses, Xiaojie's wine will be sold for nothing.

Talisa drank the last sip, her clear eyes became drenched and moisturized.

Leaning into Qin Yu's arms, he spit out slightly, "I'm so dizzy!"

Sister, you just twisted and fell on the dance floor, dancing more joyously than a rabbit.

Half a bottle of vodka will go down without changing the color, this will be three glasses of champagne, drunk?

This is outrageous!

Li Xiao clings to Qin Yu's ear with a weird face, and said, "Someone can't wait anymore, should you withdraw first?"

Qin Yu shook his head and smiled bitterly: "Wait, I have to go home tonight."

Lying in her arms, Talisa suddenly sat upright, got up and pulled him to the depths of the bar.

Xu Hao would be overwhelmed by Xiaojie, and was looking for Qin Yu to block the wine.

Looking back, there are no more people, "Where is Brother Yu?"

Li Xiao lifted his chin to the distance, "Over there, let Talisa take it away."

Xu Hao lifted his * and looked in front of him, and said in doubt, "That seems to be a bathroom, right?"

Yang Chengjun, who was playing with his sister at fifteen or twenty, reached out his hand and pressed him back on the sofa, "If you know, ask, drink!"

Seeing the two disappear into the passageway, Li Xiao shook his head with envy, and made a 'tsk tusk' sound in his mouth.

Brother Yu deserves to be Brother Yu, he doesn't even need to take the initiative.

The little girl suddenly jumped out of his mind, and Li Xiao, who was still a little envious, instantly extinguished.

My little sister, wouldn't she have done something like this to Qin Yu?

Thinking of her being carefree, more true tempered...

Li Xiao really couldn't guarantee whether the scene just happened between the two.

However, she didn't live in Yan Xuena all this time, saying that she wanted to help her through the difficulties.

There must be no time to meet Qin Yu.

'No, I have to find a way to make her understand that Aquaman is not a good home!'

Li Xiao thinks he can be a Bohai Sea King, Qin Yu...

That must be the Dragon King who sits on the five oceans, rich in seafood, and countless favored concubines.

Only the ones Li Xiao had seen were more beautiful than the others.

In terms of vision and taste alone, Brother Yu is definitely a role model among men and a model of Sea King.

But as Li Wanxing's eldest brother, from the perspective of eldest brother...

Sinister!

Li Xiao sat in the same place with entanglement and sadness, thinking about how to make the little girl give up on Qin Yu.

Yang Chengjun seemed to have eyes behind his back, turning his head back and putting his hand on his shoulder.

He said with heartfelt comfort: "Your girl is gone, drink two more glasses!"

Li Xiao raised his head in dissatisfaction and said: "Why is it gone? I asked, she has nothing to do with Qin Yu, and why should I drink two more glasses?"

Yang Chengjun stared at him with the look of a fool, "Do you believe women's words?"

Li Xiao asked angrily: "Then why should I drink two more glasses?"

"Think of it myself."

After speaking, Yang Chengjun turned around and continued to play games with the little girl.

This little girl has clear eyes, and her facial features are just on the points he likes, which is the type that Yang Chengjun likes.

So, he decided to take a full set tonight, just as the game has been completed.

When Qin Yu came back, the wine on the table had been emptied.

The few girls that Xiaojie looked for were quite good at drinking, and he and Xu Hao had been fighting for more than a dozen cups, so they couldn't open their eyes, and it was normal to drink all of them.

Seeing the time is still early, Qin Yu beckoned to Xiaojie and asked him to do the same as just now.

Rejuvenated and revitalized, Talisa shook her hair back and forth, "I want vodka, now I can have a good drink, huh~~"

Four sets of big dragons and two bottles of vodka were all emptied.

When walking out of Miami Talisa was hanging on Qin Yu's body.

She was really drunk this time!

Xu Hao raised his hand vaguely to stop him: "Brother Yu, come to the hotel and drink again!"

Li Xiao, with his head drooping, heard him say this and slapped him on the head, "Drink, drink, drink, and drink to death sooner or later."

Yang Chengjun seems to be the most sober one, "Brother Yu, you go first, the driver is here."

The low-key Maybach S680 slipped silently to the side of the road, and the driver walked around the front of the car and stood beside the co-pilot, waiting for a few seniors to board the car.

This piece of noodles is pretty tight.

Nodding to the driver, Qin Yu put his arms around Talitha who was unconscious with one hand and went to the big G.

There is no need to look for a car on behalf of the driver, there are all standing on the side of the road.

He casually called something that seemed reliable, and the big G slowly started and drove towards the W Hotel.
