Chapter 251: For the old

Putting aside the problem of the second child first, Zhang Qili's report was not completed on time.

This is the top priority Qin Yu cares about!

"Where is Manager Zhang?" After asking for a long time, no one knew Zhang Qili's whereabouts.

Just when Qin Yu wondered if he could not stand the pressure and ran away.

Hong Zhongcai hurried over, "Qin Shao, I have contacted Laozhang."

"Okay, do everything you should do, I will tell Mr. Qin here."

To send the employees away, Hong Zhongcai mysteriously had to let him into the office and said.

When he entered the office and closed the door, Hong Zhong explained, "Lao Zhang is under too much pressure. He said that he was afraid that you would fool him again, so he had to make the report more detailed."

"I'm under pressure, can't make up my mind?" Qin Yu revealed his thoughts in one sentence.

Why should the report be detailed, but it's all evasive!

Hong Zhong was afraid that after telling Qin Yu truthfully, he would blame Zhang Qili and possibly implicate himself.

His little life now is happily!

There is no need to bear the main responsibility, and the salary and bonus are also a lot.

As long as he manages the company and keeps the company operating normally, he is good at this job!

You said, can Hong Zhong be willing to put such a good day?

Can you not be afraid?

"Hehe, I can't hide anything from Shao Qin, Lao Zhang is a bit scared, he can't make up his mind!"

Now that it has been dismantled, Hong Zhongcai will no longer cover up for him, with a grimace and a smile on his face.

Qin Yu's finger clicked on the table, as if dancing.

"You call Lao Zhang and I will see the report this afternoon. No matter what reason he has, he has to send things."

Qin Yu didn't say anything, he wouldn't use it if he couldn't send it.

If he really said that, with Zhang Qili's temperament, it is really possible that he would be burdened by too much pressure.

There are consequences for whoever is used!

With ambitious people, you have to be prepared to be backlashed at all times.

With people who lack responsibility, you must also be prepared for the other party to shrink or collapse under pressure.

Qin Yu was prepared, but he didn't expect Zhang Qili's psychological quality to be worse than he expected.

The reports he wants are all ready-made data, and Zhang Qili only needs to hand over the conclusions drawn from these data to himself.

How long can this kind of thing take? If you are a self-confident person, it can be done in at most one night.

Now, I gave him two days.

Judging from his performance and progress last time, two days are more than enough!

So don't use anything unprepared to perfuse him.

Zhang Qili was just too worried and didn't dare to hand over the report to him.

"I see, I will call Lao Zhang now."

Facing Qin Yu, who was obviously displeased with a calm face, Hong Zhongcai didn't dare to say anything more.

Now, it's up to Lao Zhang himself to explain it.

...

Noon, lunch time.

The company seemed quiet, completely different from the lively scenes in the past.

"What's the matter?" Zhang Qili, who rushed to the company, felt a little bit more uncomfortable.

Jiang Luo looked up at him, faintly yelled "Manager Zhang" and continued to eat.

The performance of smiling enthusiastically before is completely different.

Zhang Qiqi jogged forward, pulled him aside and said: "Zhang, the boss is in a bad mood, everyone is a little worried, you should go in quickly!"

"In a bad mood!" Zhang Qili naturally knew the reason.

Instinctively, I want to retreat. It's best to retreat before I go upstairs and turn around and go home as if I've never been here.

But everyone in this group has already arrived at the company, and Zhang Qili can only bite the bullet and walk towards the office.

"Come in."

Hearing Qin Yu's voice, after Zhang Qili cheered himself up in his heart, he opened the door and wanted to apologize.

But what he saw was a face full of smiles, "Lao Zhang is here, come and sit down, and taste how this Lapsang Souchong is."

Qin Yu pointed to the black tea that had just been brewed on the table, and there was no sign of any anger at all.

"Ah~ah." Zhang Qili nodded and sat on the opposite side.

Finally, he asked, "Boss, are you not angry?"

Stretch out one's head and shrink one's head.

It's better to give him a good time, Zhang Qili is not a mentally fragile person.

If Qin Yu can give him more time to adapt, to adjust his mentality.

Zhang Qili would not have such an appearance.

"Angry?" Qin Yu asked with a smile, "Why are you angry?"

"I, that... Lao Hong." Zhang Qili was really upset when he was asked, why he was angry.

Who says the boss is angry, is Zhang Qili playing tricks on herself, the boss clearly has nothing to do.

"Drink tea first!"

Qin Yu pointed at the black tea in front of him, picked up the teacup and tasted it slowly.

The way to distinguish between good and bad is also very simple.

Just drink it like it or not, no matter how expensive it is, it is useless if you are not used to it!

Lapsang Souchong is good, and Qin Yu likes the taste of black tea.

I heard that black tea can nourish the stomach, so I took two catties back to my parents.

After waiting for a cup of tea, Zhang Qili was still a little nervous.

With two cups of tea, Zhang Qili has calmed down.

Three cups of tea, he has no feeling at all.

Do whatever the boss wants!

Don't look at Qin Shao's youth, he really couldn't see his thoughts.

Putting down the tea cup, Qin Yu did not invite tea this time, and looked up at Zhang Qili, "Old Zhang, let's talk about it!"

"Boss, I'm all to blame for this..." Zhang Qili shook his head mockingly, "I've been courageous and adventurous...Don't say to do it, my legs trembled when I heard these words!"

"The last time the silver happened, to be honest, it was all about driving the ducks to the shelves. When I took the bonus, I felt guilty and ashamed!"

"You are here again this time, I'm really afraid of something wrong, when the time comes..."

Seeing him hesitating, Qin Yu took the slurs: "Afraid that I will trouble you then?"

"Right." Zhang Qili nodded fiercely, already thinking about what Qin Yu would do with him.

Fight back to Hudu Lixin, let yourself go to the three-point line again, and return to the role of marginal figures.

Zhang Qili breathed a sigh of relief in his heart, but another unwillingness that had never happened before emerged!

No matter how others can do it, you can't do it yourself.

Must be honest and willing to be an obscure social animal.

It's right to do it right. Salary and bonus have nothing to do with me.

If you make a mistake, you have to pack up and get out. For this reason, you will be stubborn every day, fearing that you will make a mistake!

Thinking about it this way, Zhang Qili suddenly found that his previous job didn't seem as easy as he imagined.

Those reports and data that need to be sorted out by him are not required to be accurate to the slightest.

Didn't he do it all?

Zhang Qili is a little anxious to think of here, is he really going to miss this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity?

In this lifetime, his chance may only be this last time.

"Do you want to understand?" Qin Yu's voice awakened Zhang Qili, who was in entanglement.

Looking at the wise gaze that flickered in his eyes, Zhang Qili felt ashamed of being speechless to face him again.

"Shao Qin Zhang Qili stood up and bowed suddenly, "It's my old Zhang who doesn't know how to promote it and disappoints you." "

"Get up and talk, it's not the old society...sit." Qin Yu smiled and beckoned him to sit down.

As long as Zhang Qili can figure it out, that's a good thing.

This person has the ability, but he is too courageous and has never taken any responsibility.

But no one is a natural leader, these can be cultivated.

A cautious and timid character, on the contrary, can wake him up in time after many successes.

Don't be confused by the praise and praise of the outside world and people around you, and lose yourself.

When Zhang Qili was seated again, Qin Yu looked at him seriously and said, "Old Zhang, there are so many people in Lixin, and there are many people who are better than you and Lao Hong. Do you know why I chose you two in the end?"

"Why?" Zhang Qili had long wanted to ask this question.

The facts are like what Qin Yu said, whether it is resume, performance or experience at Lixin.

Almost everyone is better than them, because they are transparent people in the company.

It's the kind of existence that I see every day, if I say hello, I might forget what to call, and finally come to say "brother".

What made Qin Yu choose these two marginal figures in the talented Lixin firm?

"Character, timid and introspective, knowing contentment, knowing one's own shortcomings, and not taking credit for being proud."

Qin Yu walked back and forth, looking at Zhang Qili with a surprised expression, and affirmed: "Old Zhang, in my opinion, these are all rare advantages!"

Chapter 252: Target: Petroleum

His eyes were red, his breathing was full of breath, and he could hear the sound from far away.

His face flushed red, like a worm's brain.

Zhang Qili left the office as if he was beaten up.

"Jiang Luo, let people go to the conference room for a meeting, let's do a big vote."

When he said this, Zhang Qili had never expected it.

This little front desk has transformed into his immediate boss!

Lixin Investment, Director of Investment Department, Jiang Luo.

"From today, Jiang Luo will be responsible for the company's investment direction." Looking at the stunned expressions of the people below, Qin Yu understood very well.

In the morning, it was the little girl at the front desk who was about to get up to welcome someone at the door.

In the afternoon, I became an investment director, which was too awkward.

How about you acting in a movie?

Facing everyone's questioning glances, Jiang Luo said two things.

"If you have any questions, you can ask me privately. I don't want to hear objections when doing things."

"Secondly, I want to declare that I am here to work, not to make friends, and the same is true for you."

"So don't think of me as a friend, thank you everyone."

Jiang Luo's speech calmed the group of guys who had just turned over.

No matter what she thought, she seemed to respect her a little bit more on the surface.

"Director Jiang is responsible for this investment. The rules remain the same. Now I will give you 5 minutes."

Hearing Qin Yu's instructions, everyone left and took out their mobile phones.

Send a letter to WeChat, call a call.

Once it disappeared, it would take half a month. If I didn't say hello to my family, I was afraid that I would blow up the nest.

Only two people did not express.

One is Qin Yu, this investment is handed over to Jiang Luo, he will only be responsible for issuing orders.

Of course he won't stay in the company for more than half a month, and he has to contact other people who want to invest.

Transfer the money to the designated account as soon as possible, not waiting for expiration!

That's right, it's so arrogant.

Now they are begging to make money with him, not Qin Yu begging them to invest in himself.

It's not as good as becoming famous in the first battle.

The earnings of silver futures last time have been publicized under Qin Yu's hint and Li Xiao's deliberate efforts.

Otherwise, how did Cheng Yaojin know.

The second one is Jiang Luo, she is now truly alone.

I just can't fight if I want to fight!

Seeing Jiang Luo's clenched hand under the table, Qin Yu whispered: "Don't be nervous, I will tell you what to do."

Jiang Luo nodded and responded: "I know, Qin Yu, I'm just afraid I might screw it up."

"Don't be afraid, there are professional traders for trading, analysis and summary, and Lao Hong and Lao Zhang for specific instructions."

"You are responsible for delivering orders and news, it's not that serious!"

Qin Yu deliberately described the problem very simply to relieve her pressure.

The surface responded, but Jiang Luo was secretly cheering himself up in his heart.

'Jiang Luo, you have to come on! Never disappoint Qin Yu's trust!'

...

Lixin's investment funds began to enter the market, and Qin Yu also began to contact other people.

Li Xiao, Xu Hao and Yang Chengjun are naturally indispensable.

Liu Xing and Han Hu have the largest amount of funds, but Qin Yu did not give more quotas.

Including the newly joined Cheng Yaojin and the Cheng family.

A quota of 200 million for each family!

If there are too many, that's it for now, and the rest will be discussed later.

First inform Li Xiao's Hudu circle that everyone's money will be credited that afternoon.

Cheng Yaojin is also very happy here!

I just wanted to talk to my family, but the money arrived earlier than the others.

At noon, there were 200 million more on the account.

When Lu Qing arrived at the company in the afternoon, the company's book value rose from 800 million to 2 billion.

Among them, 300 million has entered the market, and Qin Yu also decisively uses the 'oil futures prediction card.'

In the next fifteen days, there will be border conflicts between the oil powers and neighboring countries.

The number of oil exports has fallen sharply, causing oil shortages in many countries.

The price of oil has skyrocketed, hitting the ceiling many times.

"Long." Standing in the command position in the middle of the trading room, Jiang Luo gave orders in a voice.

The five traders who looked back at her moved after the order was given.

There was no sound in the entire trading room, only the crackling of the keyboard.

Hong Zhongcai and Zhang Qili are like proctors in the school, walking around behind the traders with their hands behind their backs.

Stopping behind someone from time to time and looking at the screen.

Hanging on the five large curved screens at the top of the screen, real-time synchronized information data is also presented.

Jiang Luo, who looked as stable as Mount Tai, had a calm complexion and commanded the overall situation.

In fact, the palms of the clenched hands were full of sweat.

At this time, Jiang Luo would take advantage of no one's attention.

Spread your palms out and press the trousers on both sides of your thighs inward, up and down, up and down...

Rub hard!

After the sweat in the palm of his hand was wiped off, Jiang Luo returned to his previously calm and calm expression.

Small scene, calm!

In Shangdu, Cheng Yaojin made an appointment with Ye Jinlan for lunch.

At the dinner table, it happened to mention the investment matter, and learned that he had just beaten 200 million to the past.

Ye Jinlan looked a little surprised: "You just hit it like this?"

Cheng Yaojin responded with a smile: "Yes, it's hit."

Ye Jinlan said in surprise: "What do you mean by home?"

Cheng Yaojin has nothing to hide. Although this investment was made by the family, he meant it himself.

"I mean, the Li family, the Xu family, since the Yang family dares to vote, what can the Cheng family dare not?"

He didn't worry about money, which would be the most curious of Cheng Yaojin.

Is Qin Yu's goal chosen this time, and what will be the ultimate benefit of this investment?

"Don't you think it's weird that this person appeared suddenly?" Ye Jinlan smiled lightly, "It's also too genius."

"In every era, there will be several wavers who take advantage of the situation, but few can get to the end."

Cheng Yaojin thought for a moment, "According to the family investigation, his fortune should be related to Barrow. The situation there is too complicated, and it is both an enemy and a friend, and it is not easy to investigate further.

"He is very powerful in Barrow?" Ye Jinlan was really surprised this time.

Being able to let the Cheng family stop and not check down again indicates that the identity of the other party is not simple, and there is a risk of exposure if checked further.

Moreover, this risk may affect the Cheng family.

Only then is it possible for the Cheng family to stop.

Cheng Yaojin's eyes shrank, and he nodded solemnly, "It's very strong, it can be said to be too strong!"

"As soon as our people want to contact the target, the government people first come to the door."

"If it hadn't been for being deceived, I am afraid that now people have been put in prison."

Thinking of the news from my home, I found the other person's name.

As soon as he showed his inclination to make contact, the police came to the door and took the person back for questioning for two days.

Fortunately, there was no disclosure in the words, and the background identity was true and detailed enough.

This did not reveal the true identity.

But this line can no longer be used, only to withdraw people and send them elsewhere.

"The other party's background should be related to the government, and the family suspects..." Cheng Yaojin pointed upwards.

Ye Jinlan nodded, expressing his understanding.

The more you go up, the more secrets there are, especially the origin of Barrow, which was originally a mystery.

It's normal to have some secrets behind it!

White gloves and chamber pots are not only used by international institutions and families.

However, how did Qin Yu, a student who just went to college, get on line with the other party?

This is very curious. Ye Jinlan felt that after he went back, he should ask Grandpa.

His old man must know something.

In Ye Jinlan's heart, the Ye Family's old man, who was shocked even when he sneezed, was an omnipotent, funny little old man.

...

Someone wants to check his own information, but Qin Yu currently doesn't know it.

But even if he knew, he had nothing to worry about.

The magical power of the system is vast, beyond ordinary people's cognition.

It is simply impossible to explain it with science...

Or in other words, it is impossible to explain its existence with the existing knowledge of mankind.

So don't care about the Cheng family or the Ye family, just check it out.

When they hit a wall on Old Qiao, they will naturally fill in the information and close the loopholes.

This is the advantage of associating with smart people.

Don't bother to explain, the other party will justify it based on the information!

You can't deny it yet. The more you deny, the more you realize that what you have found is the truth.

Otherwise, what are you anxious to explain?

At this time, Qin Yu is watching the live broadcast in the office, and the little anchor has news to announce today.

Her food documentary is about to come out.

Today, we will conduct publicity during the live broadcast. Qin Yu's launch is naturally to promote her.

By the way, there is also a sense of existence!

The big brother is always not online, and some people think that the little anchor is going to be cold!

Chapter 253: Rich lady shot

When Lu Qing came to the company, he just showed up.

I bought some milk and put the fruit in the company to supplement nutrition for everyone.

She left after a short time.

Qin Yu now has time to fight his teeth and watch the live broadcast of the young anchor.

"Did it open? Okay, hello everyone, I am your anchor Drizzle and silent."

The little anchor came up with a formal introduction first, which seemed particularly grand.

Then, laugh in public.

"Gluck, I still don't adapt to this rhythm, it's cheerful and funny, it suits me better."

"Have the dogs eaten? Is there anything you want to eat? Tonight we will visit Hudu at night and continue to search for food."

Stormy nights hurt people to come to the live broadcast room.

Wind and rain hurts people and presents the anchor drizzle silent treasure map, the treasure chest is waiting to be opened~

...

Wind and rain nights hurt people and present the anchor Drizzle Silent Treasure Map X10, the treasure chest waiting to be opened~

...

Wind and rain nights hurt people and present the anchor Drizzle Silent Treasure Map X20, the treasure chest waiting to be opened~

There are 20 treasure maps that came up, and Qin Yu sent a bullet screen after the matter: first warm up the little anchor.

'Fuck, the boss is here again, big brother, big brother, I want to see the abdominal muscles.'

'I want to see it too, to see that my eldest brother's abdominal muscles are particularly motivated.'

'Boy, something is wrong with you!'

'See the lord, Cao's army rushed too hard last night and is recuperating.'

'Only the lord's order, all Cao's army must assemble and continue to rush~'

'Googling, you stinky men, you know Chong, male * male god, please make your debut!'

'Is the one on the chart who co-produced the video with the anchor on the note? {Mengxin Asking}'

'Yes, that's right, it's my male god, is there a computer expert, I'll pay 200 yuan to P drop the anchor.'

'The same beg, 300 yuan to drop the anchor, as long as the male god!'

"Hey, hey, you guys are enough!" Cheng Xiyu's mentality collapsed.

If you want to be so excessive, you have to p off yourself when you come up.

Can you figure out who is the anchor, and it's easy to cut?

Watch the male gods without me doing the live broadcast?

I don't even have a single dog, and I want to see a male god. Believe it or not that my old lady's dream scares you to death?

Storms hurt people: 'Watching the live broadcast, I'm just the background!'

Seeing her boss being so strong, Cheng Xiyu's expression became perverse and complacent, "Want to see the male god, don't you?"

Let's restore it neatly, 'want to see, want to see.'

'Not only watching, but also wanting to lick it!'

'The ooh little train starts.'

'Women's clothing, women's clothing.'

'Black silk, white silk, black and white silk.'

The style of painting was suddenly distorted.

This is the male fan making a fuss, obviously it is not too big to watch the excitement.

"Women's clothing is impossible for women's clothing, I don't dare to let the big guys dress."

The little anchor is pitifully cute.

"However, if you can see your male gods on the notes, this is my decision."

"In order to get my boss to agree to the shooting, I begged for a long time!"

"How can you thank me?"

The reluctant '666' and 'thank you' appear.

With the sporadic free gifts, Cheng Xiyu was anxious: "Just thank you with your mouth, is it too realistic?"

'I just want to know, how does the little anchor ask for it, do you ask with your mouth?'

'Cry, I can't look directly at the anchor's face anymore.'

'Cry the same, the goddess is depraved, Lord Qingjie!'

'Cao's family army... Mutiny!'

'I'm waiting for someone else to lead troops into... Sorry, I went to the wrong set.'

'I'm afraid it's more than just the mouth, I'm so envious!'

'Envy makes me totally unrecognizable, and another anchor is gone.'

'Basic exercise, calm, give a seat!'

The topic of barrage is getting more and more crooked.

Wind and rain hurts people: shouldn't it be thanks to me???

Huh!

The small gift swiped the screen, and the live broadcast started to freeze.

The little anchor almost scolded his mother in anger, do you want this, do you want?

No matter how you vomit, a gift is still needed.

"Thank you for the gifts, and thank my boss for your support." Cheng Xiyu was crying, and this gift was not happy at all.

Seeing the super fire on the screen, Qin Yu rubbed his chin in front of the phone.

Do you have bad money?

Well, it smells so good!

Waiting for a small gift, the super fire is over.

When the live broadcast room is not so stuck.

Wind and rain hurts people: Thank you all for your support and support the small anchor.

'Ah~ My husband returned my message.'

'The ugly guy upstairs crawled away, obviously he was returning to me, husband, I love you.'

'I'll support her in the future, can the male * be more productive.'

'I also support a super fire, and ask the gods to produce new works.'

A super fire drifted across the screen.

'10 shots are super hot, please show your face!'

'Fuck, please address the rich woman, I will do it.'

'Fishing for a rich woman, ask for support, decathlon, everything will do.'

'185, 78...21, I understand that the private chat has been opened!'

Ten shots passed by, and the barrage crooked again.

'How do I play this, can I just recharge it? 'White, rich and beautiful girl.

'Yeah, yeah, just top up.'

The little anchor laughed and said: "Don't listen to them, it must be the most cost-effective noble. Miss sister can find the interface to understand..."

'Oh, let me see, the male * is waiting for me. 'White, rich and beautiful girl.

No one took it seriously, the little anchor was spreading positive energy to everyone.

Watch the live broadcast, please spend rationally, and don't take the game seriously!

She doesn't want to be blocked by crazy fans, thinking that she can do whatever she wants with a little money.

Talking about the topic, it turned to the annual peak game, and it was only a few days before the final competition for the top ten anchors.

Is the little anchor going to be No. 1 and the big brother has enough money?

Will you attend the red carpet at the end of the year?

Are there events such as fan meetings?

In short, it's the Chinese New Year, so you can figure it out!

"The red carpet should go, and the union has unified arrangements."

"As for the event." The little anchor smiled charmingly, "It depends on what our boss means."

'666, this is an official announcement?'

'It's been announced by the government long ago, so I know?'

'The little anchor wanted to be a big brother, but if he was not careful, he was accepted by the big brother.'

Congratulations to Bai Fumei for opening the emperor in the drizzle silent live broadcast room.

Congratulations to Bai Fumei for renewing the emperor's fee in the drizzle and silent live broadcast...

The same subtitle appears 10 times.

On behalf of the other party smashed more than one million.

Then there is Rocket Rain, 100 rounds of super fire shouting to the face!

The second place on the list is changed instantly, Bai Fumei.

This name, this strength, nothing wrong!

The little anchors were all smashed.

This is the rich woman shot???

Bai Fumi: "Can I ask for the contact information of the male god?"'

The little anchor immediately understood that the other party was here for his boss.

The sincere smile became playful and perfunctory, "This young lady has to find a way by herself, I dare not disclose the privacy of the boss."

'Little anchor: I'm afraid to do different things, this is not, that is not.'

'999, give a seat to my emperor Xiu Wang.'

'100 super hot talks, rich people, so unpretentious!'

Just when everyone is waiting to watch a good show, how the little anchor and Zhen Bai Fumei are the big brother on the list.

Big brother shot.

Wind and rain hurts people: When I didn't exist? ?

Wind and rainy nights hurt people and present drizzle and silent big tiger sharks, the treasures of the sea are waiting for you~~

...

Wind and rain nights hurt people and give away drizzle and silent big tiger shark X10, the treasure of the sea is waiting for you~~

...

Wind and rain nights hurt people and give away drizzle and silent big tiger shark X100, the treasure of the sea is waiting for you~~

With 100 big tiger sharks, I don't know if my eldest brother is tired or not.

Looks very enjoyable anyway!

The special effects are pretty good, but a little bit useless!

My heart is still a bit tired...too? Rich.

A lot of people will think in unison: Why don't you give me a lot of money if you are so rich?

Even if you give me money from a big tiger shark!

The whimsical thoughts are fleeting, holding the thought of eating melons.

The barrage is divided into two factions.

One faction supported Bai Fumi to continue, beat the eldest brother and accepted him.

One faction supported Brother Wounding, so he was swollen and swollen.

Take home and output hard...

Seeing LSPs drifting more and more, the little anchor was unable to complain: "What are you talking about? My boss is very simple."

'Fuck, where's the basin? The basin! Can't help it anymore.'

'Hurry up, drain my pool water, or it won't be enough for me to vomit.'

'My house is flooded, my parents still have 15 minutes to get home, ask: How can I save a family in 15 minutes?'

'The known swimming pool is 25 meters long ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ 11 meters wide, and it takes 180 minutes to fill a pool of water. How long will it take to let it dry?'

'Upstairs, the heifer stands upside down...'

'Uncle doesn't accept it, only you.'

'Good fellow, you are going to set the red carpet for the Summit Annual Meeting, I said.'

Talking for a long time noisily, did not see Bai Fumei talking again.

Everyone was discussing other topics with some interest, and the fan meeting was the one that asked the most.

Few anchors who left the camera can see people these days.

Is the appearance of the little anchors resistant or not, or is it a technological weird like the other anchors, who is not curious?

Dear, click in, give a good comment, the higher the score, the faster the update, it is said that the new full marks are found at the end of the beautiful wife!

Chapter 254: Slag Qin

Looking at the information in the background, Qin Yu scratched his head a little.

The woman insisted on adding him as a friend, and she put on a pitiful look.

That's fine!

Brother Yu, who pretends to be a poor woman, has seen too much, and has been softened?

But the other party just gave the little anchor 100 shots of super fire.

Do not look at the face of the monk and look at the face of the Buddha, so I just refuse it directly, not pushing my eldest brother out!

In the midst of the situation, Brother Yu also had to consider the problem from the standpoint of the union.

He doesn't care, but the little anchor, Zhuzi (He Sheng) can't care less.

"Okay, let's add one!" Speaking of Miaoqie's identity, Brother Yu sighed that the new machine was easy to use.

How else do people like the new and dislike the old?

This is not it!

Added the other party's WeChat account, and the name is 'Xiaobai is rich and beautiful.'

This woman is either narcissistic to the extreme, or she is innocent and stupid...

Qin Yu suddenly thought of another possibility, stinking to low self-esteem!

The more you lack, the more you care about.

It's like a barrel of explosives, burning at all.

Qin Yu thought for a while, and suppressed the urge to get a closer look.

Click to open the circle of friends!

Refined picture, beautiful~

After swiping down two waves, Brother Yu decisively chose to open the hang.

This refinement is really no one.

Scanning analysis system:

Ye Jinlan...

...

This is outrageous!

Qin Yu never dreamed that the other party looked like a silly Bai Fumei from the name.

It turned out to be Ye Jinlan from the Ye family.

What is she doing?

I don't seem to have much communication with her.

The only time I met, I just nodded and smiled, and it passed.

Qin Yu is not interested in provoke this kind of woman.

Trouble, a lot of things, and complicated forces behind it.

It can be said that it is more trouble than good for Qin Yu to find her.

Is he short of money?

Right, say something to your heart.

Brother Yu really wanted to stay away.

It's too much trouble. Isn't it good to be a top rich man?

He also knew that to do business in an environment like Xia Guo, in the end, he had to deal with power.

But the depth of friendship, the middle scale can still be grasped.

If you get entangled with Ye Jinlan.

The boundary of this scale will only be easily erased, and then...

I'm afraid it's not about beating the worker master? ?

Find out the origin of the other party, and then look at the silly voice in the chat box.

Qin Yu had an idea in his heart, "Since you want to act, let's play with you."

Speaking of acting, Yu has learned from his childhood without a teacher!

Qin Yu: "An appointment?"

Xiaobai is rich and beautiful: "What an appointment! Does it mean to have a date?"

Qin Yu: "Just two people in the room, studying some shameful things... It's also very interesting!"

Xiaobai is rich and beautiful: "...Do you do this to every girl?"

Qin Yu: "Women are like clothes to me, shouldn't they change them every day?"

Xiaobai is rich and beautiful: "..."

After waiting for a long time without seeing the other party to respond again, Qin Yu smiled triumphantly, "Finished!"

He didn't believe in this kind of scumbag, Ye Jinlan would look at such a girl of heaven who had such an above-the-top eye.

...

The fact is just as Qin Yu guessed, Ye Jinlan turned off the phone.

Going out is a garden that I planted myself.

Looking at the flower garden carefully taken care of in the past, Ye Jinlan, who was irritable, picked up the scissors.

Click, click~

With a random cut, the depression in my heart was relieved.

Recalling Qin Yu's frivolous words before, if Ye Jinlan has a clear understanding!

"He did it deliberately." Thinking that he had lost his former squareness because of a few words.

The disgust that Ye Jinlan had just had in his heart before turned into a strong interest in an instant.

What is he worried about?

In order to avoid himself deliberately, he shouldn't know that he is on the other side of the screen.

So, the scene just now is actually his real side?

In the midst of worrying about gains and losses, Ye Jinlan stood in the garden stupidly, utterly stupefied!

...

After getting the trouble of finding the door for no apparent reason, Qin Yu walked out with a small tune.

"The woman on the mountain is a tiger. You must avoid it when you encounter it..."

Seeing Qin Yu coming out of the office, Zhang Qiqi, who was in a daze at the front desk, quickly got up, "Qin Shao."

"Yeah." Smiling and motioning for her to sit, "How many times have you said that, I called me the boss in the company."

"Okay, President Qin." Zhang Qiqi nodded in response.

Seeing her sorrowful look, Qin Yu asked, "Why, what's the difficulty?"

From the facial expressions, one can most directly observe the changes in a person's emotions and mood.

Except for some hidden old foxes that are done by facial expression management, few people can completely remove their inner emotions from their facial expressions to achieve a perfect disguise.

Unless, he is specially trained.

These are too far away from ordinary people, so Zhang Qiqi must have something in her heart.

"No." Zhang Qiqi wanted to refute, but when she met Qin Yu's gaze, she bowed her head with a guilty conscience.

"I am unbalanced?" Thinking that she was fine before, Qin Yu probably guessed what it was.

Jiang Luo has only been here for two days, originally he was the same front desk girl as himself.

Suddenly, he made his way to success, and magically became the director of the investment department.

This is not as simple as a promotion and salary increase!

But ascend to heaven in one step!

Comparing Lixin Investment to a small society, Jiangluo is the food from the lowest end.

Shook his body and became a predator standing at the top of the food chain...

This change came too fast.

Now that she was dismantled, Zhang Qiqi no longer concealed it.

It is a bit difficult for her to balance her mentality, but she also understands that this is the boss's decision.

She has only respect for herself, and she should do her own job well.

Seeing Qin Yu sitting next to him, staring at him with a smile, Zhang Qiqi was nervous and shy at the same time.

There is still a little bit of hope in my heart.

'If he wants to kiss me, should I kiss me back, should I stretch my tongue... Is it too proactive? '

While thinking about it, my forehead suddenly hurts, "Don't think about it every day."

After waking up her imagination, Qin Yu continued: "Do you know what I like most about you?"

"Pretty? Good figure?" Zhang Qiqi felt that this was her greatest strength.

Seeing her 90-point figure, Qin Yu nodded and said: "This is also considered, but the most important thing is to understand introspection and to be able to correct one's mentality and position."

"Being greedy is not afraid of being greedy, but being afraid is not knowing contentment."

Qin Yu snapped his fingers, "Were you happy when you got the 100,000 yuan bonus last time?"

Zhang Qiqi nodded quickly, "Happy, I've never been so happy."

"Shao Qin... Mr. Qin, let me tell you, I still want to laugh happily when I think about it now."

"Happy, just want to laugh!" Qin Yu patted her shoulder with his hand, "So, when I can't think about it, think about the 100,000 yuan."

"Then think about the next ten thousand..."

Whenever the number changes, Zhang Qiqi's eyes brighter, "Ms. Qin, I understand."

"Rest assured, I will do my job well." Nothing is more inspiring than reality.

Unbalanced mentality, it's okay!

Think about how much money you took, and how many years it would take to make this money in a different place.

How hard it is and how much it has to pay.

Qin Yu assured that his mentality would be balanced right away, at least in Lixin Investment. ;

If you have money to make money together, as long as you can make money, Qin Yu is not afraid of going out.

On the contrary, what he is afraid of is that there will be so much money that only the changes and accumulation of numbers are left.

But by his side, there is no one who can share this wealth and joy.

At that moment, how sad it will be!

Seeing Zhang Qiqi cheering up again, Qin Yu came to the trading room and opened the door.

"Sell all, and rest for 15 minutes after closing the position."

This will be about to break time, Jiang Luo is ordering traders to end the trade.

Buy and close positions like this one.

It has been repeated countless times in the trading room today, and all of Jiang Luo's thoughts have been devoted to it.

The unprecedented concentration is also a gift from [Mad Believers]!

That was an order from Qin Yu, whenever he thought of him standing behind him.

And he holds a huge amount of funds in his hand, and the heavy burden on his shoulders is his trust and trust.

Jiang Luo's brain is clearer and more focused than ever before!

So that Qin Yu walked behind, she didn't notice it either.

Seeing Hong Zhongcai and Zhang Qili who wanted to say hello, Qin Yu raised his hand to be quiet.

Wait for Jiang Luo to finish all transactions in an orderly manner.

Then he said softly: "Good performance!"

Hum!

Jiang Luo, who was still a little tired, was like a shot in the heart.

Turning his face red with excitement, "Thank you Qin Yu... Mr. Qin, I will go all out."

Dear, click in, give a good comment, the higher the score, the faster the update, it is said that the new full marks are found at the end of the beautiful wife!

Chapter 255: Go short

The next day, six o'clock in the morning.

There is one hour for transaction settlement, and the market will open on time at seven o'clock.

During this period, the trading room did not relax.

Half an hour of meeting, 10 minutes to solve personal hygiene.

The last 20 minutes is the rest time.

When the clock on the wall still has 30 seconds to 7 o'clock.

Everyone had regained their spirits, staring intently at the second hand on the clock.

Boom!

The moment the bell rang, the fingers on the keyboard snapped and moved.

Compared with yesterday, Jiang Luo's performance became more calm and confident.

She, who gave the order in advance, is waiting for the responses of five traders at this time.

Build a warehouse, build a warehouse, build a warehouse...

In short, it is to open a position, and then all data will be updated on the big screen in real time.

Jiang Luo only needs to stare at the five big screens diagonally above and the big screen hanging on the wall at the end of the room.

You can always grasp the process and results of the entire transaction!

...

Qin Yu, who did not personally participate in this transaction, did not leave the company.

Except for spending a few hours with Lu Qing every day, all the rest of the time is spent in the office.

The computer in front of him is also connected to the big screen in the trading room.

The above information will be updated in real time to ensure that there will be no losses caused by mistakes in this transaction.

Qin Yu at this time is more like an insurance in the transaction process.

Once there is an error, he will correct it in time and bring the transaction back on track!

After all, Jiang Luo experienced such a scene for the first time.

At this time, the transactions are all in accordance with the predetermined plan, without any twists and turns.

Her performance is remarkable.

But any transaction will not be smooth sailing.

Compared with her performance at this time, Qin Yu cares more about her reaction and mentality when dealing with the crisis.

Just like playing a game, you can do whatever you want with the wind.

It doesn't matter if you see who kills whom, even if you die.

A good group of minds.

But once you encounter a headwind, your mentality instantly collapses.

Swinging around, he didn't know what to do, and finally realized that the economy had already taken a distance.

Can only wait to die!

Even if this kind of person has good skills, it is completely useless if he is immediately forced by setbacks.

Only those with a strong heart can become principals.

Qin Yu just wanted to see if Jiang Luo had this potential!

...

On the eleventh day of the transaction, Qin Yu no longer provided Jiang Luo with information that was accurate to the hour. '

"The price of oil will fluctuate today. I have received news that oil countries and neighboring countries have reached an armistice agreement to ensure the supply and transportation of oil."

Jiang Luo's expression tightened, "Brother Qin Yu, is there any definite news?"

If it was just a rumor, she would not be able to make a foresight like the previous few days.

Then, she can only rely on her own judgment to make a decision.

"No."

Qin Yu shook his head and said with a regretful look: "I can only get so much news."

Seeing his guilty expression, Jiang Luo quickly apologized.

"Brother Qin Yu, it's good to know this news in advance, you don't need to blame yourself."

"??" Qin Yu looked up at her, "I'm not blaming myself either, what's the point of blaming myself for this kind of thing?"

Realizing that he was making a fuss, Jiang Luo blushed and bowed: "It's okay, I'm going out to do something first."

After grabbing the door, Jiang Luo stood at the door and waited for a while.

Looking back at Qin Yu's office, Jiang Luo walked back to the trading room with a smile.

...

At 1:32 noon, Jiang Luo held a box of lunch in his hand.

Mechanically use a spoon to poke the rice into his mouth, staring at the big screen above without blinking.

On the table in front of her, there were two empty eye drops bottles.

The degree of eye use in the past few days is more serious than that of her college entrance examination...

Since childhood, Jiang Luo has not been as serious and focused on anything as he is today.

Lingling~

"Hey, this is Jiang Luo!" With the microphone between his shoulder and cheek, Jiang Luo continued to stare at the screen.

But the next second, she suddenly stood up.

The boxed lunch in his hand also fell to the floor 'pop'.

"Close positions, all long positions are closed, now."

Hearing Jiang Luo's anxious voice, everyone immediately put down the box lunch in their hands.

Then, the lines that were still climbing fell rapidly.

In the blink of an eye, it dropped 5 percent.

This scene made everyone's heart touch their throats, and even the rice in their mouths didn't even bother to chew.

Amidst the crackling percussion, the price of oil continued to fall!

Immediately after the real-time scrolling news on the side, a brand new message pops up.

Petroleum countries and neighboring countries have reached a new armistice agreement with the intervention of the Bald Eagle countries...

The detailed inside story no longer needs to be clicked.

The truce between the two sides means that the transportation route will be opened again, and the previous dilemma will be resolved soon.

Global oil supply and demand have reached a balance again!

The soaring oil is about to fall.

...

Outside, many institutions are also selling their long positions.

No one will hesitate at this time, once the armistice agreement is signed.

The soaring oil will soon return to the previously stable standard price.

At that time, there may be a small decline and rebound, the decline will not be very large, and the time will be very short.

The combination of these information represents: there is no room for operation and value!

It's just that they seem to have forgotten that everything is variable.

...

After the emergency liquidation, Jiang Luo suppressed his irritability and other complex emotions.

The thoughts regained their calmness and let people sort out their previous losses as soon as possible.

"Director Jiang, because the response is fast enough, we have already started to liquidate the position before most institutions and retail investors react, so the loss is not serious!"

Hearing Hong Zhongcai's summary of evasiveness, Jiang Luo reached out and grabbed the information.

This volatility caused them to lose 32.7 percent of their vested gains, which, when converted into losses, amounted to more than 20 million.

U.S. knife.

Hundreds of millions of dollars!

This is also called the loss is not serious, then what is called serious?

Others may comfort in their hearts that the money was originally earned.

Even if it loses part of it, it doesn't matter, they have made more than that.

Besides, this is an unexpected situation, and no one has received any news before.

Their response is fast enough.

Jiang Luo didn't think so in his heart.

In her opinion, when the money became numbers, it was already the property of Qin Yu and the company.

Now, because they were careless, they did not respond in advance.

Let Qin Yu suffer a loss of hundreds of millions of Xia coins...

"Is anyone shorting?" Jiang Luo raised his head, looking forward with firm and stern eyes.

Her mind was turning rapidly, recalling every word Qin Yu said.

Every word, the tone of the time, his expression.

Jiang Luo didn't know what he wanted to discover from it.

But doing so can make her calm down quickly and make the right decision again.

Several traders responded after checking and confirming: "No, no one is optimistic about shorts, President Jiang, shall we wait?"

"Can't wait." Jiang Luo said with a firm gaze: "From now on...sell with all your strength!"

With an order, the five traders started working without any hesitation.

In the first transaction, it was because Qin Yu hesitated when he gave the order.

After looking at each other a few times, he scolded a dog-blood spray.

"If there is another time, I don't need to talk about it again, pack up my things and go back to Hudu!"

At that time, Qin Yu's audible warning was still imprinted in everyone's mind.

They don't want to just lose the bonus they are about to get, and pack up and go back to Hudu...

Leading the former dead wages, be a poor and happy social animal!

That taste, I have experienced enough in this life.

At this moment, Qin Yu was sitting in the office, quietly looking at the computer screen in front of him.

At the end of the liquidation, there was no action for a few minutes.

Qin Yu thought about countless possibilities, Jiang Luo came to apologize to himself and asked what to do.

Resolutely short, but have reservations.

Undecided, hesitant to worry in place.

Or there may be conflicts with Lao Hong and Lao Zhang, and the two sides have fierce arguments.

Seeing a minute of time a minute of passing.

Just when Qin Yu was about to be unable to sit still, new actions appeared on the screen.

Short ~

The act of placing hundreds of orders at a time made Qin Yu feel Jiang Luo's determination.

She wants to go short with all her strength, leaving no room for it!

Very good, this is exactly what Qin Yu wants to see.

After more than ten days of training, she now has the embryonic form of Meiyu.

It only takes time and energy to polish it carefully.

By then, the formed Baoyu will finally shock the world!

Dear, click in, give a good comment, the higher the score, the faster the update, it is said that the new full marks are found at the end of the beautiful wife!

Chapter 256: My  are broken

November 26.

Petroleum countries and neighboring countries publicly announced that the two sides have signed an armistice agreement.

Make a great contribution to ensure global oil supply and peace!

Not mentioning the role the bald eagle plays in it can make the bald eagle angry.

The influence and deterrence of the bald eagle over the years has been under the Japanese drama.

Just relying on the mouth can't stop the little brother below!

In pursuit of hard work, the little boys are shoulder-width-round and waist-round.

It's no longer the former weak and helpless, sorrowful look of being slaughtered by others...

The bald eagle can only strongly protest and condemn this.

But some people want to use this to brighten their muscles and demonstrate the great military power of the great free federation.

It's a pity that the fathers of the gold masters do not agree.

All the leeks have been cut clean. It is a good day to take a rest and cultivate the next wave of leeks.

You will jump out of the old troubles, do you want to smash Dad's pot?

The father of the gold master showed a fatherly smile, and the boy Sam shivered.

Just 8 hours after the two countries announced the news.

The Ministry of Energy of Barrow announced a new piece of news: Xia and Pakistan have discovered a new oil field in the border exploration.

The estimated crude oil reserves are 985 million tons, and the natural gas reserves are 196.5 billion cubic meters.

Currently, the two countries are negotiating a joint exploitation plan for cooperation.

It is expected that early next year, the project will officially start to invest in the construction of two mega-ton mining special zones.

While alleviating the pressure on the use of oil within the two countries, it will also crack down on capitalist monopoly on oil resources.

The news was confirmed by Xia Dynasty 15 minutes later.

From a high of 127 US dollars/barrel, it fell to a crude oil price of 57.43 US dollars/barrel.

It is showing a downward trend again.

This time, the magnitude of the decline far exceeded the estimates of international financial institutions.

In just a few hours, it fell below the price of US$50/barrel and hovered in the range of US$45~48/barrel.

November 27, the next day.

Just when financial institutions and retail investors believe that this crazy roller coaster-like thrilling moment is over.

The oil countries suddenly announced to the public that from now on, the oil exports of the oil countries will increase by 10%.

Underpants price of 40 dollars/barrel was smashed through!

November 28.

The 'good news' announced by the oil countries has allowed the price of oil to fall below $40 per barrel.

Stably hovering in the ultra-low price range of 33 to 37 US dollars per barrel.

The crude oil futures market fell into a brief period of calm, but privately it was an undercurrent rush.

The national players have gathered enough energy to brew a new wave of huge waves.

At that time, who will ride the waves, who will be shot to death under the waves.

It's up to their own abilities!

At this time, it is located in the abandoned capital Nanqu Luheng Commercial Building, A Dong 12-1 Lixin Investment.

The door of the closed trading room was pulled inward.

Looking at the corridors on both sides, Jiang Luo felt a sense of alienation in a daze.

She seemed to spend countless days and nights in it, not just 14 days and 9 hours and 43 minutes.

"It's finally over."

"Congratulations, everyone, successfully completed the task!"

Five minutes later, Lixin Investment became silent again.

I saw that every office was full of sleepy figures stumbling.

Jiang Luo, who was lying on the table in the conference room, also made a faint snoring sound!

The high concentration of spirit these days is far more exhausting than physical exhaustion.

But their harvest is rich and gratifying.

This sleep lasted more than eight hours, and Jiang Luo woke up with the smell.

I opened my eyes and saw that the two self-serving brothers in the store were putting a variety of delicacies on the table.

The conference table, which was empty before, is almost full.

The other colleagues were also awakened by Zhang Qiqi, excited, and walked into the meeting room with each other.

"President Jiang wakes up, is he smelling something?"

Seeing Jiang Luo's eyes still a little confused, Hong Zhongcai covered her face with the cold towel in his hand.

The coldness soaked into the skin, making Jiang Luo clever and awake!

I wiped a few towels on my face with a new towel soaked in cold water, and his dizzy brain was completely awake.

"Whatever you ordered, it smells so good!"

Jiang Luo put the towel on the armrest and looked forward with a stunned nose.

Stir-fried crayfish, longer than the forearm, palm-sized Aolong.

One per person!

The plump hairy crabs are simply steamed.

The crab butter was dripping out, and people could not stop swallowing saliva.

There are a lot of hard dishes, rice, soft cakes, dumplings.

Strive to satisfy everyone's taste and make everyone feel comfortable and have a good meal.

When I fell asleep before, I didn't feel that I would wake up and see so many delicious foods again.

One of the people present counts as one, and the saliva in his mouth is secreted like incontinence!

Qin Yu didn't let these hungry wolf heroes wait too much.

The two little brothers put all the packing boxes and opened the lid when they left.

Qin Yu also walked into the meeting room.

There is nothing else to say, pointing to the food on the table, "Just one today, don't waste it."

"Began to eat!"

Following Qin Yu's order, everyone stretched out their hands to catch the lobster in front of them.

The shell of this thing has been cracked, and I pressed my thumb against the crack.

Silly~

Jiang Luo was not at all polite, and grabbed the lobster with his hands like a man.

Hold the breaking pliers in your hand, and then break off the frontmost section from the joint.

Use the slender tip at the front to poke into the thick knuckles at the back.

A few tricks one in and one out.

The white, tender and fragrant shrimp meat was stabbed out.

Suck it with your mouth, slippery~

Enjoyable!

...

The next day, noon.

Qin Yu was planning to go to the company, and the phone rang when he went out.

It was Dad Qin Han who called, "Dad, why would you call this?"

It's rare to call yourself at noon!

"Ah, Xiaoyu, where would you be?" Qin Han's tone was not normal.

"At home, I am planning to go to the company!"

"Something is going on!" Qin Han seemed to let out a sigh of relief.

"Well, the company settled today, I plan to go to the company to have a look."

"So, okay, then you go quickly... it's okay."

"Okay, you're busy with your... Don't worry, I'll talk at home."

Qin Han hung up the phone while talking to himself, acting very well.

Qin Yu guessed that there were people around him, and they came for himself.

Ding!

Dad: 'The vice president of Jianfa found me and said he would treat you to dinner!'

Qin Yu: 'Why don't you come to me directly?'

As the vice president of C&D, it is not easy to find his number.

Open the background information and find the phone dial.

It's done in two steps, it's not easy, just say it!

Qin Han: 'I found it. I changed more than a dozen mobile phones and I didn't call in. See your information.'

Qin Yu opened the SMS, but there was no new news!

Think again, yes.

It seems that I have set permissions, and all non-contacts are blacklisted.

All phone calls and SMS are blocked!

Since the card has more money, so have phone calls and text messages.

All kinds of junk SMS, advertising and promotion.

Selling insurance, selling cars, selling houses, loans, small advertisements are endless.

Although we talk about privacy and security every day.

But personal privacy is just like layers of film.

As long as you are willing to work hard and lightly a bucket, it will be broken!

If there is no bloodshed, it will be as if it doesn't exist.

The person who pierced it had to shout grievances in a curse: What is it called blood without hell?

After searching for a long time, Qin Yu found the blocked spam SMS.

Good guy~

The number of 999+ is prohibitive, look a ghost!

Qin Yu: 'Dad, you tweet me to him on WeChat.'

The other party and Qin Han are a system, and Qin Yu doesn't want her father to be embarrassed.

If you have anything, just talk to yourself directly.

The only thing that can get the other party to come to the door is nothing more than money.

Banks are the most realistic, and they are the most disgusting with the poor and the rich.

When you are short of money to help your life, he will ignore you.

When you are not short of money, he is like a mangy dog, pestering you behind your * every day.

What about loan + wealth management + investment package?

There are more than one billion in Qin Yu's personal account, and the company's account bank is also C&D.

It is just the year-end impulse, and local branches are at a critical juncture for performance.

It's clear at a glance what the other party wanted to do when they came to the door!

When he arrived at the company, Qin Yu saw an application from his friend.

Click through to send greetings immediately across from you.

Mr. Qin Yu, hello, I am Qu He from your account opening branch. I want to meet you. I don't know when you will be free?

Qin Yu: "I have something to do today, I will let you know when I finish my work."

First, I went to the office to meet Hong Zhongcai and Zhang Qili, and the three checked the total proceeds of the operation.

Looking at the messages sent by the other party in WeChat, Qin Yu didn't mean to reply.

"Old Hong, let people gather in the conference room. Let's arrange the bonus first."

Two big actions in a row are a great test for both the body and the spirit.

This time the bonus was given, and Qin Yu planned to give everyone a few days off to let them relax.

Dear, click in, give a good comment, the higher the score, the faster the update, it is said that the new full marks are found at the end of the beautiful wife!

Chapter 257: Kind of great

The capital invested by Lixin Investment this time is 2 billion.

The final income was 8.6 billion, and the return on investment reached an astonishing 430%.

Simply outrageous!

This time, Citibank took the initiative to reduce the service fee from 7 points to 4 percentage points during settlement.

The 3% reduction is a small goal worth two and a half in this transaction!

That is 250 million big summer coins, more than 30 million US dollars.

At the same time, the senior partner of Citibank, Jared Smith, personally called.

Congratulations to Lixin Investment and Qin Yu himself, and show him the friendship of Citigroup.

Citigroup wants to reach a deeper level of cooperation with Lixin Investment in the futures market.

In the future, as long as the investment needs of Lixin, Citi can provide hundreds of different professional-level consulting and analysis services for Lixin.

In short, Citibank is very optimistic about the future of Lixin Investment.

I want to make friends as soon as possible to lay a solid foundation for future cooperation.

Let go of the $30 million gain in exchange for the close cooperation between Lixin Investment and Citibank in the future.

In Citi's view, this deal is not a loss!

The call was answered by Qin Yu himself, after expressing his gratitude to the other party.

Qin Yu said that he is currently satisfied with Citi's services and is willing to continue to be responsible for settlement by the other party.

As for the future...

It depends on which one is more sincere.

It is easy to hurt money when talking about friendship in the capital market, so it is better to talk about money.

It's like between Brother Yu and Miss Sister.

Talk about money if you don't have feelings, and go your own way.

No one feels owed.

good for everyone.....

It is a bit great to return limited resources to an infinite society.

8.6 billion, after deducting service fees, 8.256 billion actually arrived.

Li Xiao, Xu Hao, Yang Chengjun, Liu Xing, Han Hu, the total income of the five people was 4.128 billion.

Including the principal, this sum of money exceeds 5 billion.

The service fee charged by Lixin this investment is 25 million, and the profit margin is 619.2 million.

Service + pumping revenue was 644.2 million.

The five people ended up netting 696.7 million yuan, with a return on personal investment of 348%.

Cheng Yaojin's income is the same as the five of them, not counting the income of 700 million yuan in principal.

crazy!

When receiving Qin Yu's call, Cheng Yaojin was shopping with Ye Jinlan.

In recent days, she has appeared more vivid than before, like a living person.

It is no longer the "illusory doll" that came out of the painting, but it made Cheng Yaojin feel pleasantly surprised!

"700 million? Qin Shao, this kind of joke is hard to play." Cheng Yaojin's hands on the phone began to tremble.

Outrageous, too outrageous!

If this is not a miracle, what else can it be?

In half a month, the income is more than what the Cheng family earned in a few years.

Is this guy a human or an evildoer!

Confirming that the principal is close to 900 million, Cheng Yaojin can't wait to laugh out loud, "Qin Shao, it's not an exaggeration to call you a wicked evildoer, and you will just look for me in the future."

Throughout the ages, wealth has been a powerful resource.

It depends on the person who holds this resource, whether it can be used, and whether it can be used wisely.

The Cheng family is naturally a master in the upper capital.

With this money, the old Cheng family wants to take a step closer and more perfect!

Qin Yu was very calm, "Thank you Brother Jiner, let me transfer the money first!"

How to distribute this is the old Cheng family's own business.

He just returned it the same way, whose name and which card was transferred, and then transferred to that card after the end.

The service fee is 2.5% and the profit margin is 15%.

Coupled with the company's income, the final income of Lixin's investment is 4.921 billion.

The return on investment is 615 percent.

This is a miracle!

In the conference room, everyone gathered together again.

The excitement that can't be concealed on the face, and there is no need to conceal it, even the air becomes hot!

"I think everyone knows what it is for you to come here."

Qin Yu smiled and looked at everyone, including the new girl at the front desk.

"Send money."

"give out bonus."

"Here comes the money."

"Boss atmosphere!"

"Boss is majestic!"

"The boss is awesome!"

Hearing noisy yelling, Qin Yu raised his hand and pressed it down.

"It's still positive to send money!" jokingly.

Qin Yu went straight to the topic: "It's been a hard time during this period. Now, let's make money."

"Hong Zhongcai, 1 million."

Wow~

The first one on stage made everyone cry from ear to ear, 1 million.

That's 1 million!

In the abandoned city, a small apartment is just in hand.

The eyes are hot, and the two eyeballs are about to stick out like congestion.

Boss atmosphere!

Although he said this in his heart, it was much more sincere than the slogans he had chanted before.

Don't draw big cakes, don't talk about feelings, don't play fake routines!

As long as you work hard, just use two words: send money.

Who doesn't want to die when he meets such a cheerful boss?

"Zhang Qili, Lao Zhang... 1 million."

"Jiang Luo, Director Jiang... 1 million."

"The rest of the team all have 500,000 bonuses."

Handing the check to everyone, Qin Yu looked at Zhang Qiqi and the new front desk who were standing on the edge.

She seems to be called An Xue...

Scan: An Xue.

That's right, it's called this name.

"Zhang Qiqi, yours." After sending it to Zhang Qiqi, there are still two checks in her hand.

The one that was the same as Zhang Qiqi was sent to An Xue.

An Xue looked at the others in fear, waved his hand and said, "Mr. Qin, I can't ask for it."

"I just came here and didn't make any contribution. How can I get the money?"

Qin Yu looked at her and smiled, "Just hold it for you. Although our company is small, there are not many people in the team. But as long as you join, you are your own person, and the benefits are also a handful."

The bonus given to An Xue is the least, only 50,000.

Zhang Qiqi is twice hers, 100,000.

But just like that, An Xue almost shed tears too moved.

Bowed to Qin Yu one after another, stating that he would work hard and absolutely obey the company's arrangements.

Finding that everyone had sent it out, Qin Yu still had a cheque in his hand.

Everyone guesses: Who is this for again!

"Is it Director Lu? The only thing everyone can think of is Lu Qing, who rarely shows up in the company.

I just don't know the amount of this bonus, if it's too much...

"Are you curious about the last check?" Seeing everyone nodding, Qin Yu turned his eyes to Zhang Qili.

"Old Zhang, come on!" Passing the check to him, Qin Yu applauded first, "This 1 million is yours!"

Zhang Qili was surprised at first, and then pointed to himself in disbelief, "Mine?"

"Yes, that's you." Qin Yu nodded and said with certainty: "This 1 million is a reward for your report."

"The two actions are based on your report analysis, so we can make money here."

"You deserve this money!" What Qin Yu said confirmed that Zhang Qili was the company's number one hero.

Both actions were based on his analysis report.

Otherwise, where these two actions came from, naturally there would be no bonuses.

Seeing that Zhang Qili was still a little uncomfortable in his excitement, Qin Yu put his arms around his shoulders and faced everyone, "I want to say that you should all invite Lao Zhang to eat after get off work and eat well."

"Manager Zhang, I invite you!"

"Count me in."

"Stop fighting, let's ask Manager Zhang to eat the best."

"Yes, dinner after get off work."

"AAB, everyone is flat, is Zhang manager free?"

"This AAB is good, better than paying for a woman!"

The two female traders became displeased, chasing them and shouting: "What do you mean, where does the woman offend you."

After playing around for a while, Jiang Luo interrupted the pleasant atmosphere with a cold face, "It's still working time, what you should do, go!"

"Disappointment!" The crowd murmured in their hearts, leaning to express their gratitude to Qin Yu and leaving the meeting room.

When there was only Jiang Luo left, she suddenly handed the check to Qin Yu, "Brother Qin Yu, I can't ask for this."

Qin Yu frowned, looked at her and asked: "You deserve it, everyone has it."

Jiang Luo insisted on shaking his head, "Too many...but I didn't refuse for this."

Raising his head and looking directly at his gaze, Jiang Luo said word by word: "The money you gave to my parents before must be counted here."

It turned out that she remembered the 900,000 paid by Qin Yu before.

Qin Yu almost forgot just such a small amount of money, it is really not worth his brain to remember.

Not enough to waste brain cells.

But anyone can forget, Jiang Luo, as the party involved, can't forget, nor dare to forget!

She has been thinking about when she can pay off the money.

I didn't expect to get a huge bonus so soon!

In that case, use this money to offset the previous 900,000 and other expenses.

Besides, she felt that if she accepted the money.

Feel ashamed!

Chapter 258: I'm still a kid!

Genius remembers this site address in one second: []The fastest update! No ads!

Jiang Luo knew it in his own mind, as did the other members of the team.

What she did was to make the boss's order to be executed perfectly, it was such a simple thing.

But a company, even a country!

It's not the same from top to bottom. Before Qin Yu was here, Hong Zhong didn't do the same as her.

Ashamed?

According to her, Hong Zhongcai's bonus is not taken?

"Since it is delivered to you, you deserve it."

Qin Yu looked at her dumbfounded, "There are also employees who suspect that the boss company has sent too many employees, you!"

That is Jiang Luo.

If you are a normal person, you won't think that your job is too high.

"Brother Qin Yu, if you don't promise me, I will feel uneasy in my heart for the rest of my life."

Jiang Luo insisted on his opinion, and the two couldn't help but choose a compromise.

The 900,000 that Qin Yu had previously paid out was deducted from this bonus.

Jiang Luo took the remaining 100,000 and did whatever he wanted next time.

"You girl, what are you doing so stubbornly?"

Qin Yu rubbed her head and sighed.

Jiang Luo is more pleased with him, but it is not the kind of love between men and women.

On the contrary, it develops in the direction of family affection.

It's not that she is not good enough, her looks! Body shape!

Is there anything that Brother Yu doesn't like.

It's the wrong timing and way of the two meeting.

Qin Yu felt more distressed and pity for her, but the feelings really didn't exist.

When walking out of the meeting room and passing by the front desk.

Sitting An Xue stood up in a panic, "Good for Mr. Qin, boom."

When the woman bowed too hard, her forehead was directly on the table.

What a big ring!

"Is it okay?"

Qin Yu looked at An Xue who was rubbing her head with a smile, and said to her heart: These are all treasures from where she found, and the days to come can be considered fun.

...

Inform the company to have a holiday for the next seven days and lock the door when you leave tonight.

By the way, say hello to the property, the water and electricity are shut down first.

Avoid accidents when there is no one in the company!

When Qin Yu returned home, he saw parents' shoes at the door.

"Huh? Come back so early today?" Qin Yu took off his shoes strangely, and walked towards the living room.

"Mom, why come back so early today?" There was no one in the living room, and Qin Yu turned around on the first floor.

The restaurant, recreation room, front yard, back garden, and sun room did not see a half-person figure.

Standing in front of the stairs leading upstairs, Qin Yu looked up.

In broad daylight, what did the two of them do upstairs? ?

Raising his foot on the steps, Qin Yu suddenly nailed to the spot.

See no evil, hear no evil, don't... guess?

As a child, how could such a complicated matter be possible.

I'm leaving now, sorry to bother you!

After changing his shoes and going out, Qin Yu drove a big G and ran away.

Send a message to Lu Qing that she is shopping with her best friend.

Qin Yu: "Send me where I am, and I will pick you up."

...

In Xiaozhai, Lu Qing, who was shopping with his roommate, made a position.

Jiang Jiahui took her arm and asked with blinking eyes: "Why, your male * is coming?"

Lu Qing nodded and said, "Well, he said come over and invite everyone to dinner!"

Fang Mei jumped up and applauded: "Qingqing, this time I finally caught the big business. Don't blame the sisters for being cruel and cruel."

Seeing her exaggerated expression, Lu Qing responded with a smile: "You can eat whatever you want, but I will apologize when I go back!"

"Ouch!" Jiang Jiahui slapped her hand in front of her, frowning in surprise: "Why is it so sore all of a sudden?"

Fang Mei stared at Lu Qing with a vague expression, "It's not just the sour smell of love, it's so sour, I'll forget it."

The two were in their youth, but there was not even a boyfriend around them.

Pursue what you don't like, what you like...

Either you already have a master, or you just don't look down on yourself.

The dormitory sister beside her, and a fairy boyfriend, this day is really impossible.

One hour later, Qin Yu's big G finally stopped in the top-level rotating parking lot.

Driving to Xiaozhai, nine roads lead to one, but no way!

I knew he would do the subway already, and it arrived half an hour ago.

"Qin Yu." Seeing him from a distance, Lu Qing ran all the way into his arms.

The small face couldn't stop smiling, his hands naturally took his arms, and he didn't want to let go one step.

"Meimei, I'm leaving now, this meal won't be enough, it's too sour!" Jiang Jiahui curiously pulled Fang Mei to leave.

Who knows that Fang Mei shook her hand off, ran to Lu Qing's side, held her and said, "Qing Qing, I must be on your side."

Then he raised his head to look up at Qin Yu, and said with a cute expression: "Good male god!"

"..." Jiang Jiahui, who experienced the back stabbing of his teammate for the first time, stood in place irresistibly.

Would you please let her die now, immediately and in place?

Holding the little sister's arm again, Lu Qing walked in the middle, and Qin Yu followed all the way.

In this regard, Lu Qing could only give him an apologetic look.

"Just go home at night and make up for me." Qin Yu's straightforward words made Lu Qing blush instantly.

Jiang Jiahui and Fang Mei even made strange calls of "Oh~oh~".

Staring at Lu Qing with a weird smile made her even more unable to look up.

Qin Yu said immediately: "All adults, normal needs, understand?"

Jiang Jiahui asked boldly, "Are your needs normal, handsome?"

Fang Mei blinked her big eyes, staring at him with a cute expression of "I am a baby".

Qin Yu shrugged casually and hugged Lu Qing and said, "It's a good match anyway, and I won't reveal the specific details."

Seeing him take Lu Qing away, Jiang Jiahui immediately snatched the person back, "Today Qingqing belongs to us... during the day, I will return it to you at night."

"Yeah, I'll give it to you tonight." Fang Mei nodded in agreement, and then the two of them sandwiched Lu Qing from left to right.

The three heads were brought together, and they whispered to discuss the inconvenient details just now. '

Lu Qing's cheeks were red and just shook his head.

When they were asked anxiously, they said, "Anyway, he can toss for hours, think about it for yourself!"

^O^

Jiang Jiahui and Fang Mei were stunned!

For several hours, the old scalpers of the landlord's house were not so capable.

Jiang Jiahui is even more envious of 'tears!'

Originally, I wanted to find some shortcomings from the male god, so that I could dispel unrealistic illusions about him.

It's better now...

Ask: What should I do if I am greedy for the body of a good sister's boyfriend, and I can't help it?

Ask the tea master to go to the tea art, people are waiting online, very anxious!

...

In the end, the three of them didn't choose a big meal, so they sat down at the Teppanyaki shop in the mall.

"The taste of this store is not bad, the price is close to the people, everyone can accept it."

It is not the first time Jiang Jiahui has come, and talked to them about the characteristics and prices of this store.

The menu is in hand, sitting in front of the teppanyaki table.

The chef cooks and eats in front of him.

Because this would be a restaurant, every table was full of people.

A table can seat eight people, so they are sitting at the same table with another couple and two young girls.

When I saw their line, the four people who arrived first had a weird expression!

Men are handsome, women are beautiful!

What kind of fairy group is this, isn't it a star who hasn't debuted, right?

Especially the little brother sitting in the middle, so handsome!

The little girl sitting next to Jiang Jiahui couldn't hold back, patted her and asked curiously: "Sister, is that little brother a star?"

Jiang Jiahui glanced at Qin Yu weirdly, saying, 'He is much more handsome than the current star.'

"No, we are passers-by." Replied politely, but the little girl was even more curious.

"Passerby? So handsome!"

"Yeah, yeah, I also think he is so handsome, can I have a group photo?"

The little girlfriend next door was eager to tease her sisters, and went up to take a photo with Qin Yu.

Jiang Jiahui rolled her eyes angrily and amusingly, 'what a red face is a disaster, but a blue face is almost the same.'

This is not so good, the two little girls are already confused.

Look at the school uniforms on them, this is in high school!

Are the little girls now so courageous?

After the two cheered each other up, they actually ran to take a photo with him.

It's a pity that Qin Yuyi's politely rejected their requests.

What a joke, my own Concubine Lu was sitting next to her.

Can JK be messed up?

However, today's JK is so direct and bold?

Qin Yu considers whether to recruit a few JKs for internships at the company, at least not worrying about being deceived and deceived by himself.

He has always paid graciously. He did a good job of 10,000 and a good job of 20,000.

If the performance is particularly good, it is not impossible to pay a little higher.

Whoever makes him feel soft, he likes to be helpful.

Chapter 259: Sour yogurt

JK and JK are not important, mainly because I want to give girls who work-study a chance.

Studying is hard enough, no matter how hard it is, it's not good to be tired!

Just forget the boy.

Only by accepting the beating from the society early can you understand that life is not easy!

After eating a meal for two hours, I tried all kinds of dishes.

There are many tricks and average taste.

Four people spent more than 600 on drinks, with an average consumption of 150 yuan per person.

It is not cheap for ordinary people, but it is normal in Xiaozhai.

After eating, the three of them still wanted to go shopping!

"Have you not bought anything before?" Seeing the three of them empty in their hands, Qin Yu remembered that they were here to go shopping.

Lu Qing pursed his lips and chuckled, "We just arrived when you called."

"What are you waiting for?" Qin Yu took her hand and walked forward.

As soon as he stopped after two steps, Lu Qing was held back by the two little sisters.

Seeing the two men's stubborn expressions of 'time is not up', Qin Yu gave up helplessly.

You can't see it, MD is absolutely!

Stopped and walked around, but didn't see anything to buy after visiting two floors.

But the three of Lu Qing went shopping with a sense of taste, and were extremely happy!

"Aren't you here to buy things?" Brother Yu couldn't bear it anymore.

Jiang Jiahui responded with enthusiasm: "Who said you need to buy things when you go shopping?"

Fang Mei nodded in agreement, "It's also very interesting to see, not to buy everything!"

Although Lu Qing did not speak, the expression on his face was clearly saying, 'Yes, that's right!'

Qin Yu is really a little hard to understand, just can't see what rhythm is buying?

Isn't the purpose of shopping, not to choose your favorite products, pay the bill and leave, that's the end?

"Shopping is to kill time and enjoy halfway fun."

"You can also cultivate your sentiment and be happy!"

"If there is anything unhappy, just walk around in the mall."

Seeing their serious expressions, Brother Yu clasped his fists and turned his head.

Sorry, I was interrupting.

Goodbye!

...

It is impossible to say goodbye and go to the cosmetics shop on the first floor.

When Lu Qing tried several color numbers and decided to leave the Saint Laurent counter.

Qin Yu finally couldn't help it, "All the color numbers I tried just now are all wrapped up."

The shopping guide had no hope, and I was still complaining about my missteps.

I wasted more than 20 minutes, and my mouth was dry.

The three girls who thought they were big customers didn't even consume one of them!

Hearing Qin Yu's words, the shopping guide who had just been depressed was instantly excited.

All color numbers?

These three beauties have tried a lot of color numbers before, and they add up to twenty or thirty.

Although the single price is not expensive, it only looks like three to four hundred.

Can't stand the large number!

One is three or four hundred, and twenty is seven or eight thousand.

This is much better than the result of talking for a long time and not selling one.

In order to make sure that I heard it right, the shopping guide asked: "Sir, are all the color numbers I tried just now?"

Qin Yu said affirmatively: "Yes, it's all color numbers."

When thinking of consumables such as lipsticks, there must be a variety of choices. "In addition, take one of your classic color numbers."

This was bought separately for Lu Qing, and he didn't forget who was his girlfriend.

"No way, no way, Fang Mei and I don't need it, you just buy it for Qingqing."

Jiang Jiahui hurriedly said, "The two of us don't need it, so wrap up this beautiful woman."

Qin Yu looked at Lu Qing and found that she had nothing to say, "As I said."

The shopping guide who had just hesitated had a sense of speculation, and the actions under his hands became more and more diligent.

"Qin Yu, we really don't need it." Jiang Jiahui looked embarrassed and looked at him with a complicated mood.

Of course someone is happy to give a gift, but if the person giving the gift is the boyfriend of a good sister! !

Could something be wrong?

Fang Mei also declined, she didn't want to be alienated from Lu Qing because of this incident.

"Don't refuse you two. These gifts are just my thanks for asking you to take care of Qingqing."

Touching her hair tenderly with his hand, Qin Yu said with a smile: "Qingqing is going to school here, and I'm in Hudu. Long-distance love will inevitably have something that I can't take care of."

"If Qingqing has any needs, you two should help me take care of her a lot."

Distant relatives are not as good as neighbors, and children don't always tell adults about everything.

If Qingqing has a headache here, he will be upset.

It's better to have two more close-fitting eyeliners to inform you, rather than knowing nothing about yourself.

Qin Yu said everything for this reason, and the two of them didn't know how to refuse.

Looking at Lu Qing again, he would be leaning his head in his arms with a happy face.

She's a silly woman who loves Zhixi.

"Then, thank you, Qin Yu."

Jiang Jiahui said he was grateful to him, but it was Lu Qing who watched, "Don't worry, Qingqing will be my child in the future."

"It's also mine..." Fang Mei felt something was wrong after she finished speaking, and turned her head to look at Jiang Jiahui: "Huh?"

Lu Qing also awoke from the touch, and raised his hand to hit Jiang Jiahui: "Who is the child, Jiang Jiahui, stop for me."

"I stop, do you dare to come?" Jiang Jiahui stopped at the same place.

Holding hands in claws forward, Jiang Jiahui stared at her squintingly: "Beauty, you are here!"

Lu Qing ran back behind Qin Yu in a smoke, and said with a probe: "You * girl, you can't be saved."

Jiang Jiahui looked indifferent, "I am the * girl, and the * girl of the spot-color beauties."

"You'd better not go back to the dormitory tonight, otherwise, I will let you know how good * is!"

Returning to peaches, since receiving Qin Yu's benefits, Jiang Jiahui naturally wants to create opportunities for him.

I don't know how crazy the two will be at the hotel tonight?

Thinking about it, Jiang Jiahui was crazy!

"Jiahui, Jiahui?"

Fang Mei shook her, surprised: "Jiahui, are you okay? The things are packed."

After looking back at the gift box bag Fang Mei handed over, Jiang Jiahui wiped the corner of her mouth with her hand: "It's okay!"

The corners of my mouth seemed to be moist.

Fortunately, no one saw it, otherwise her face would be ashamed today.

The three people had a total of more than 20,000, and the big head must be Lu Qing's.

A total of 17 thousand, the basic popular classic colors are all bought.

What round tube, square tube, small gold bar, small vermicelli, clarinet...

There are really a lot of gimmicks, and they all look pretty.

No wonder it is said that women make the best money!

It's just a bit of pain, and I pick up the few taels of silver that I have saved by searching for them on weekdays.

Give it to these counters every New Year and New Year!

Licking goddess also needs capital, and neither set of lipsticks can be given away.

Goddess: What do you say you love me?

After driving Jiang Jiahui and Fang Mei to the school gate, Qin Yu turned his head and went straight to the hotel.

Seeing him driving in the opposite direction of Nanhu Lake, Lu Qing asked curiously, "Don't you want to go home?"

Qin Yu twitched the corners of his mouth, "It is not convenient to have guests at home today!"

Lu Qing asked, "Are relatives at home here?"

She also knows the situation of Qin Yu's house.

Uncle Qin Han's hometown is in the Central Plains, and there is little contact.

There are only Aunt Liang's brothers and sisters, there are just a few people in total.

As far as she knows, they get along pretty well, at least not as superficial relatives.

However, she only has a rough idea.

Seeing what Qin Yu meant, he didn't want to go home. Could it be that some of the best relatives came?

Lu Qing was not surprised at all.

No one asks the poor in the downtown area, and the rich has distant relatives in the mountains!

These years, who has few best relatives, who do you look down on?

"No!" Qin Yu shook his head, saying in his heart, 'the best relatives didn't come to the door, but the bear child is coming soon.'

Drive all the way to the hotel, park the car in the parking lot, and check in.

The two went outside to buy some food and drink, and then they carried them back to the room.

As soon as he walked in, Lu Qing wanted to eat yogurt bars.

Stir in the yogurt with a stick, dip the yogurt into your mouth and suck...

One in and one out, unique flavor!

It's just that the quantity of this stuff is quite large Every time Lu Qing eats by herself, there is a rhythm of eating up!

"Oh~"

Seeing Lu Qing rushing into the bathroom covering her mouth, Qin Yu followed with a smirk.

"Why, did you eat it again?" Lightly patted her back, reducing the barriers to movement one by one.

Lu Qingjiao turned her head shyly, patted his chest and said with a smile: "Also, it's not all you..."

Wow~

The sound of water splashed everywhere, and there seemed to be something slapped in the bathroom with a beautiful rhythm.

It's a bit like the tune of the old Hudu period, slap, slap, slap, slap~

Beautiful and beautiful, extremely melodious!

Chapter 260: 2 golden flowers

Genius remembers this site address in one second: []The fastest update! No ads!

Jianfa, Yinghua Road Sub-branch.

Qu He, who had just finished his routine morning meeting, called the two key account managers under his hands to the office.

"Xu Yue, Shen Chuxia, you two will get ready to go out to socialize with me at night!"

Looking at the two people looking at each other, Qu Hexin said, 'Is this all right?'

Don't care if you like young or older.

I have to make arrangements for him tonight.

6pm.

Nanqu Chang'an International, where Qu He made an appointment is upstairs.

Private clubs, one-stop dining, bathing, and karaoke, familiar with the road!

Qin Yu reported his name all the way to the 11th floor, and opened the Chinese hand-carved hollow door.

The three people who heard the movement immediately stood up, "Mr. Qin Yu?"

A gleam of light flashed in Qu He's eyes as he looked at the young faces that came by.

A 19-year-old boy, he knew this.

But after seeing Qin Yu's young face, Qu He realized what it means to be 19 years old.

Young, energetic, infinite and exciting!

Think of the achievements of the other party, deposits in the bank.

Qu He sighed secretly: This young man, don't give the old guys a way to survive!

"Qin Shao, please sit down. On the way here, I was thinking what kind of young talent it would be. When I saw a real person, I found that my old Qu thought was out of date."

Qu He had mixed feelings in his heart, but on the surface he didn't delay the entertainment at all.

When he was seated again, Qu He took the initiative to introduce: "This is the key account manager of our bank, Shen Chuxia and Xu Yue."

"Shao Qin is good." The two smiled and greeted Qin Yu.

"Yeah." Qin Yu nodded calmly, knowing the information of the two of them well.

Scanning analysis system:

Shen Chuxia:

Age: 32.

Height: 167cm.

Weight: 57kg.

Specialty: One-line sky, violent extraction, electric hip dance.

Face value: 91↑.

Body: 86↑.

Mood value: 72↑.

Favorability: 68↑.

Freshness: 86↓.

Miracle belief value: 0.

Analyze the data: so heresy, draw your sword!

...

Xu Yue:

Age: 26.

Height: 166cm.

Weight: 42kg.

Specialty: Crazy extraction, snake waist, fatal sucking.

Face value: 90↓.

Body: 91-.

Mood value: 79↑.

Favorability: 90↑.

Freshness: 84↓.

Belief in miracles: 0.

Analyze the data: If there is a succubus in this world, congratulations, you have won the prize!

Weird explanation...

According to the information of both of them, they have long-term partners.

Shen Chuxia's information is still normal, Xu Yue...

I got a 90-degree favorability right after we met, huh~

It's 92, and it's rising fast enough!

If she comes alone today, Brother Yu suspects that the battle has already begun.

"President Qu, why did you ask me out for?"

The specifications arranged today are not low, and the other party came prepared.

The purpose!

Naturally it is the ticket in his pocket.

In fact, for Qin Yu, wherever the money is placed is the same.

He personally has a good impression of C&D, because he is close to home and his first bank card was also C&D.

A man is a habitual creature of nostalgia!

Just like Qin Yu, the first time I went to LV to buy something, I would keep going if I thought it was good.

Instead of looking at what brands there are today, compare this and that tomorrow.

Unless one day is really disgusting by LV.

Otherwise, he will definitely patronize it all the time. What brand to buy is not to buy, as long as it is easy to wear.

Picking and picking, won't you waste time?

The same is true for C&D, as long as the other party doesn't mess around and deliberately engages in the Yu Ge mentality.

Then he basically doesn't have the idea of changing a bank.

Inside and outside are just socializing and eating.

Gifts, greetings and the like during the holidays.

My father is in the system, and Qin Yu couldn't be more clear about this process.

Seeing Qin Yu's young age, the face of the two golden flowers in the line did not change.

Without half a point, Qu He was filled with emotion, "Qin Shao, you are a major customer of our bank. It is my job to care about major customers."

"In addition, I also want to arrange a key account manager for you to be responsible for daily communication!"

What can Qu He do? Of course, he wants to keep Qin Yu, a major customer, in C&D and in his own hands.

At noon today, Lixin Investment under Qin Yu's name recorded nearly RMB 5 billion.

This incident alarmed the governor of Qinchuan Provincial Bank.

If it hadn't been for Qu He's package ticket, he would definitely be able to keep Qin Yu in the line.

The governor of the province must come to meet this young and promising young man in person.

Qin Yu glanced at Qu He with a faint smile, "That's how you arrange large customers in your business?"

Qu He's expression was stunned, and the other party seemed to be dissatisfied with his arrangement.

Just then the food delivery person came, letting Qu He, who didn't know how to answer the conversation, heaved a sigh of relief.

Taking advantage of the serving time, Qu He winked at Shen Chuxia and Xu Yue frequently.

After receiving his hint, Xu Yue immediately got up and walked around the table and sat on Qin Yu's right hand, "Qin Shao, I am Xu Yue from the Yinghua Road Branch."

"It's a great honor to meet you in person. I want to toast you. Wouldn't you mind?"

Xu Yue opened the Maotai on the table and poured two glasses of wine in front of him.

Picking up one of them and handing it to Qin Yu with a smile, his expression of enthusiasm was not aggressive, appropriate!

After receiving the wine glass, Qin Yu responded: "A beautiful woman makes a toast. It's hard for people to refuse!"

Hearing Qin Yu calling herself a beautiful woman, Xu Yuexiao's flamboyant gesture, the willow waist swinging with her body, showing amazing flexibility.

"Shao Qin, you are so good at talking, I will do it first!" Xu Yue raised her neck, revealing her beautiful collarbone.

Out of the corner of her eye, seeing Qin Yu really looking at her collarbone, Xu Yue thought triumphantly: The old lady is also a bit charming, Qu He, this unsightly old fellow.

Xu Yue was angry that he not only called herself, but also Shen Chuxia.

When Qin Yu didn't come just now, the two already knew Qin Yu's specific situation.

Personal deposits are over 100 million, and the company's cash flow is 5 billion.

Putting it anywhere is not a small sum, for a key account manager like her.

That is the actual performance!

As long as such a large customer can be maintained well, within two years, he can be promoted to the position of vice president.

Without real power, it's good to put a name on it.

Whether it is salary or administrative level, it is not the same as it is now!

Another point, Xu Yue has always been uncomfortable with Shen Chuxia's style.

Obviously, they all came out to entertain themselves, and they also acted like chaste women.

The last time Mr. Ma touched her thigh, Shen Chuxia was just as stung by a scorpion.

Everyone can't get off the stage!

Mr. Ma even transferred his account to the business side the next day, and Xu Yue almost scolded his mother in anger.

That performance has to be counted on her.

That's how Shen Chuxia was so distracted, can Xu Yue not be annoyed?

Besides, this is not the first time.

Xu Yue couldn't figure it out. Women came out to entertain men, not just such a mess.

Is it normal to open a meat joke and get a little cheap?

If you feel that you can't accept it, don't do it!

They are all married old women, pretending to be chaste women.

Seeing Xu Yue and Qin Yu talking, Shen Chuxia, who was sitting aside, still did not move.

Qu He didn't feel annoyed, and said in a low voice, "Xiao Shen, I know you have principles. Many customers like you."

"When we come out today, it is normal communication. Qin Shao has such achievements at such a young age, and the future will definitely be limitless."

"You are really willing to give your performance to others, you know, you are not young anymore."

Qu He is reminding her that if she doesn't climb up, her life's progress will end here.

He loves and hates Shen Chuxia, this woman really has the means.

One person holds one-sixth of the major customers in the industry, and several of them are important customers.

I like her capable and principled personality!

Customers who are handed over to her, as long as she wants to, have never been able to deal with. But sometimes she is too self-conscious, so she can't get off the stage at every turn.

If it weren't for her abilities and the customers in her hands.

Qu He had expelled her from the key account department early so that she could go wherever she fell in love.

This time, in order to keep Qin Yu, Qu He also laid down his blood.

As for whether it is Shen Chuxia or Xu Yue in the end, it is the same for Qu He.

As long as he can keep Qin Yu, the God of Wealth, the credit will naturally have his share.

Seeing that Qin Yu's attitude towards Xu Yue was not enthusiastic, Shen Chuxia sighed secretly and stood up with a drink.

Qu He was very witty and stepped aside, and then let's watch the performance of the two golden flowers.

Who can win the God of Wealth, who is the great hero in the industry.
