Chapter 461: library

"Can you take it out?"

"Why... you see how cute it is."

"How is it possible, the whole body is wrinkled, black, and fierce, it looks so scary."

"It's still small."

"...It's not small anymore."

Song Yuqiao blinked innocently: "Do you have to say it is so evil?"

"You should really look at your expression." Taking the little bullfight from her hand, Qin Yu pointed at her smoky makeup and laughed brazenly.

"It looks the same as it." Pointing to the black pupil of the little bulldog, there was a 'bad beating'.

The little brother was beaten and swollen, crying miserably...

Song Yuqiao bought this little bulldog online, and she was still asleep when it was delivered, so Qin Yu collected it by the way.

So, there was the scene just now.

Song Yuqiao didn't expect it to look more fierce than the picture!

She has some regrets now!

Why should we listen to the advice of netizens and believe that the bulldog is a loyal guardian.

Really seeing it, it's more like a little monster that just kills people...

"Let's take a look at its life experience."

Qin Yu took out the background introduction in the box: "Ho~ It turns out that it is a hybrid with only French descent..."

"What else?" Song Yuqiao put on a loose cotton T-shirt and went to the kitchen to prepare breakfast.

Regarding what happened last night, the two behaved very naturally.

As if things should have happened like this, they just took advantage of the trend.

Or maybe they just want to avoid this topic!

"No, there are many training methods and techniques." Qin Yu put the card on the kitchen bar and tapped his finger: "Don't forget to read it."

Looking back at the little bulldog in his arms, Song Yuqiao said unsure: "I'm not sure if I want to keep it?"

"You will like it..." Qin Yu held the dog in front of him and smiled: "Is it, Black Bean."

"...Why is it called Black Bean? It is my dog. I should give it a name."

"Okay, what do you think of the name Black Bean?"

"Not bad! Song Yuqiao proudly nodded, and she couldn't help laughing.

The dark-skinned French crossbreed bullfighter with black eye circles, has a new name of his own: Black Bean!

"Breakfast is ready..." Song Yuqiao put the plate with bacon diced in the corner, and Xiao Heitou twisted and sniffed.

Ha ha ha ha...

When eating breakfast, Qin Yu had the opportunity to look at the layout of the room.

Simple, warm, young, nothing special.

The only difference is the custom-made bookshelves on the front and back walls of the living room and the triangular bookshelves everywhere in the corner.

The books on the top have traces of turning, and the bookmarks between them look very unique.

"Did you make these bookmarks yourself?" He took a book from the book stand on the corner of the restaurant.

Emotion management The degree of side folds should be turned frequently.

Turning over the book page, the bookmark illustration is a pencil sketch, the style is biased towards the ancient landscape of Xia Guo.

"Well, I studied for a while before." Song Yuqiao smiled and said, "Painting is a good way to decompress for me."

"The painting is good, why didn't you insist?" Qin Yu put the book back on the table.

Song Yuqiao retorted: "It's just a hobby, so I won't learn it if I don't want to learn it."

Her answer was sincere and irrefutable...

Personal hobby, I want to learn, but I don't want to learn. Is there any problem?

"Not all parents are so enlightened!" Qin Yu said.

Song Yuqiao's eyes were full of happiness, and she said with memories on her face: "Yes, I am very glad that I am the children of my parents and can be born in the current family.

If there is any deal that is most proud of, it must be the starting line for winning in life. "

Since childhood, Song Yuqiao has lived in a happy honeypot.

Mom and Dad are very strict with her, but they never use yelling as a means.

Since childhood, they treat themselves with patience.

The same question can be answered dozens or hundreds of times.

Even the children's innate curiosity is obliterated by this unimaginable patience, and eventually they have to seriously think about every word they say.

They never forced Song Yuqiao to cultivate interest.

It's just that every time she analyzes the choices she makes, the consequences may be triggered.

And confirm that she will not regret it!

In the end, they will respect all the decisions Song Yuqiao made, as long as she truly recognizes and is willing to bear the consequences.

What impressed Song Yuqiao most was the fact of raising parrots when he was young.

Before buying it back, Song Yuqiao promised his parents would do their best to take care of it.

Initially, she did what she promised.

But in the end, out of negligence, the parrot died.

For this reason, Song Yuqiao cried like a tiring person, unable to lift the energy for a whole month.

It also made her clearly aware for the first time that the cost of dishonesty and the meaning of life...

"I am very grateful to my parents for their education. To society, they are not the best.

But to me, they are the best, dedicated and competent parents in the world. "

Seeing her serious expression, Qin Yu held up hot milk and said, "Respect for the great parents."

"Puff..." Song Yuqiao couldn't help but smile, and cooperatively picked up the milk cup and said, "Respect to every pair of moms and dads."

This made Qin Yu think of Jiang Luo and her pair of superb parents.

If he shook his head, he looked at Song Yuqiao and said, "Not everyone is worthy of respect. Just like in this world, where there are good people, there are bad people, and where there is good, there are evil!"

"You seem to have experienced something, do you want to talk about it?" Song Yuqiao ate the flavored oatmeal in a bowl, interested in the deep meaning of his words.

Qin Yu thought for a while, shook his head and said, "Forget it, I don't want to destroy the beautiful happiness in your heart."

Qin Yu didn't want to remember it completely.

At the same time, he also believes that there are still more good people in this world.

Sometimes, by giving hope to the good, the world will return to hope.

A princess living in a fairy tale does not have to witness the ugliness of human nature.

People need some spiritual food, and those happiness that is so beautiful and unreal are the direction and motivation that guide them forward.

Hope is the most indispensable and important part of life.

In a life without hope, only an empty body survives, lingering, like a lonely ghost.

Therefore, Qin Yu hopes that she can maintain her inner happiness.

That would become one of Song Yuqiao's most precious treasures in life...

"One? Anything else?" Song Yuqiao looked at him with bright eyes.

"Here." Qin Yu pointed to the position of the heart, "You are also very important here."

Huh!

The cheek to the neck were instantly dyed pink, Song Yuqiao was about to bury his face in the bowl, and the spoon in his hand made frequent clashes.

Bang bang bang...

After breakfast, after Song Yuqiao washed the dishes, the two went out for a morning jog together.

In fact, this will already be shining brightly.

However, this did not affect their sports interest.

After running a dozen laps around the garden of the community, the two of them sat down on the benches beside the path.

With his hands behind him, his upper body leaned back to enjoy the warmth and moisture of the sun.

"Will there be anything else?" Qin Yu asked.

"No, how about you?" Song Yuqiao responded.

"shopping?"

"Do you like shopping?"

"I mean accompany you, not me."

"I don't like shopping... how about we go to the library?"

Compared to shopping, Song Yuqiao prefers to go to the library to kill time.

During the day only...

The night is the other side of her, the dark side of indulgence, pleasure, and corruption.

"Darkness?" Thinking of her 90+ freshness, Qin Yu has a new understanding of 'Darkness and Depravity'.

It turns out that this is the depravity in the eyes of a good girl.

Should she be too naive or she is too evil?

Perhaps the two coexist.

There is no happiness between angels and angels. The same * repels each other and the opposite * attracts each other.

So... a perfect match? ? ?

Silently praised his wit, Qin Yu responded with a smile: "Okay, go to the library."

However, Brother Yu had to think carefully on the road.

Based on the knowledge learned in the past, how is the plot of the library arranged?

Chapter 462: Huaiyang Mansion

SKP shopping mall, 9th floor.

RENDEZ-VOUS is a new type of reading space integrating bookstores, fashionable western food, life and cultural salons.

Here you can find the latest publications of well-known international publishing houses, including art, design, food, fashion...and also classic works of ancient and modern deposited with history.

Quiet and cozy!

Order a cup of coffee, sit on the comfortable sofa, and hold your favorite books.

Seeing the heat raging around, the lights hit the books, the scent of books smelled, and the sunlight outside the window was radiant.

Qin Yu is very satisfied with the environment here, but didn't expect that there will be a reading space like this in SKP, which has a lot of money.

"In fact, culture is also a luxury, but too many people don't understand this." Song Yuqiao chuckled softly.

"Well, let's dive into the ocean of knowledge now." Qin Yu responded with a shrug, and then asked unwillingly: "Is there no place here that is not a glass partition?"

Song Yuqiao glanced at him strangely, "No, this design is more conducive to the use of lights, and I feel good."

"Okay!" Brother Yu completely gave up, it seems that his script is going to die.

At the same time, this library has been given an X in his heart.

Red pen, bright, dazzling red... In SKPRENDEZ-VOUS, draw a huge X.

'system. '

Open the system panel, Qin Yu called out this morning's reward reminder.

He didn't have time to finish it.

'Ding, congratulations to the host for experiencing the pleasure of tightening and silky, triggering random rewards.'

'Reward: Sunlight +1.'

'Congratulations to the host for reaching 90 points and triggering specific rewards!'

Consumption discount card 3*, one.

Miracle Fun Umbrella Special Pack, 5 pieces.

Miracle Kidney Power, 5 tablets.

One Critical Cashback Card for Drinks Consumption 2*.

One Miracle Kidney Power Formula.

Qin Yu has already determined the purpose of the consumer discount card.

Buying the land needed to build the headquarters is just enough to be used, and by the way, it can also give the system experience.

Miracle Fun Umbrella... This thing is basically useless!

For individuals, you also need to worry about winning the bid, but Brother Yu can tell the truth at a glance. '

One hundred percent touch, conquest and possessiveness, and the final visual impact.

It is not that modern technology can solve the simple problem of banning!

The Miracle Kidney Power, keep this first, and when you don't need it at the end of the holiday, give the rest to Ye Lao first.

Beverage consumption crit cashback card...

Brother Yu had forgotten that he still had this card. If he knew it, he would have used it last night.

As for the final 'Miracle Kidney Power Formula,' this is the best reward in hand.

It's just that Qin Yu has been busy with dreams recently and has not had time to put it into place.

Apply for a license, find a venue, purchase equipment, recruit personnel, and start production.

This series of problems must be solved by him.

"It's better to keep a few people in front." Qin Yu thought for a while, and felt that it was better to share the benefits and risks.

Judging from Ye Lao's experience, Miracle Kidney Power is a magical medicine for kidney patients.

Even Ye Lao, who was going to see the Hades, was pulled back from the brink of death.

Now, both physical signs and personal conditions are performing well.

This miraculous medicine cannot be mass-produced and can only be supplied in small quantities or cannot be sustained.

Ye Lao can also block the gaze of prying eyes, once it can be mass-produced, it will have an impact on the pharmaceutical giants.

Qin Yu has a deep understanding of the consequences of moving people and money!

'Let Ye Jinlan become a shareholder, the stronger she is, the better for me.'

The interests of the two are linked together, and it can be said that they are people on the same boat.

Qin Yu provides technology and capital, and Ye Jinlan provides power, is responsible for solving troubles, and blocking the wolves and tigers who are coveted by the outside world.

As long as the two parties can continue to show their due value, their cooperation will be stable and firm.

As for the small circle with Li Xiao and others, he is the leader.

Naturally, you can't do things like eating alone, otherwise, it's tantamount to quitting.

Qin Yu decided to take out 1% of the shares and give them the qualifications to subscribe.

Price...100 million is not too much, right?

The effect shown by kidney power is worth tens of billions. It can be said to be very conscientious.

"Hey..." Qin Yu woke up from deep thought when his arm was patted.

Song Yuqiao was looking at him curiously, "What are you thinking? The book is taken down."

"Working matters may be busy recently." Qin Yu responded.

Song Yuqiao had a strange expression, wanted to ask something, but didn't know how to speak.

Perceiving the entanglement in her heart, Qin Yu did not take the initiative to explain, and asked, "Have you finished reading it?"

"It's already 1 o'clock." When he interrupted, Song Yuqiao also put his inner doubts behind.

Looking back at the direction she was pointing, the hand of the art wall clock stopped at 1 o'clock.

"I remember that there are Huaiyang cuisine, Cantonese cuisine and neon cuisine on it, what do you want to eat?" Qin Yu asked her for advice.

Song Yuqiao's choice is Huaiyang cuisine.

She doesn't eat raw food, and that's enough to make Neon Cuisine out of the game.

In Xia Guoren's cognition, neon cuisine is most famous for sushi and its use of raw food.

In fact, it is true.

Neon cuisine is about stimulating the original taste of the ingredients to the extreme.

"However, I have to admire the persistence of Neon people in inheritance."

Song Yuqiao said with admiration: "In 2008, there was a statistical activity on traditional shops in 41 countries around the world that were more than 100 years old.

According to survey statistics, there are more than 5,500 old stores in the world that have been in business for more than 200 years.

Among them, the number of old neon restaurants accounts for 80%, and neon cuisine is the most representative of them. "

The paranoia and persistence in the bones of neon people are worth learning.

More worthy of vigilance! !

Be prepared for danger in times of peace, and the fine traditions in your bones should not be lost.

Huaiyang Mansion·Visiting Garden Jingmeng.

Whether you can open a restaurant here, the environment naturally does not need to be said.

Walking into the restaurant, there are already many people dining at this time.

"Welcome to Huaiyang Mansion, how many of you have dinner?"

"Two people." With a big glance, he found that the dining table in the hall was integrated.

The long table is full of six people, and a few people can sit in a few places.

The space is large enough, but it lacks the safe distance required by modern people.

Whether it was auntie or Song Yuqiao, frowned involuntarily.

Qin Yu asked casually: "Are there any boxes?"

"Yes, but the box has a service charge of 15% of the consumption."

"Sit in the box!"

Seeing Qin Yu's default, the waiter took the two through the hall to a quieter box.

A long table for ten people, and the chairs are rattan square chairs.

Qin Yu and Song Yuqiao didn't sit on each other, and they had a meal several meters apart.

The two sit in the middle side by side, head to head looking at the menu in their hands.

The first is the appetizer, and Qin Yu chose Zhenjiang Crystal Meat.

Song Yuqiao chose the old Hudu smoked fish.

The starter is naturally the old Huadiao cooked drunk crab, which is surprisingly consistent between the two.

For hot food, I chose a few of the store's signatures, hand-made rice cakes with yellow croaker, Yangzhou chicken fire-cooked dried shreds, and fried Taihu white shrimp.

It is difficult to decide whether to choose black truffle abalone or radish for braised pork.

A high-end ingredient, a signature recommendation.

Finally, under the recommendation of the waiter, the stewed pork with radish was chosen.

"Many diners have been amazed by this dish!" The concise and clear introduction of the waiter is the reason for their determination.

Hard dishes, casserole fish head Buddha jumped over the wall.

Staple food, two bowls of rice.

For the final dessert, I chose glutinous rice * with fresh fruit and mash.

It is also a signature recommendation, and it is said that girls like it super.

Qin Yu wants to choose another soup, Huai'an Zhuqiao Turtle Soup looks very good.

It is also a signature recommendation in the store.

But Song Yuqiao insisted that it was enough, and it would be a waste to order any more.

Chapter 463: 1 question

"You can consider a case of stewed lion's head. The portion is small and the taste is delicious. It is just right for one person."

"Let's take an example, that's all." Qin Yu looked at Song Yuqiao after speaking, "I will taste it later and order it better."

The menu was closed, and the two waited for the dishes to be served while drinking tea.

Taking advantage of time, Qin Yu first dialed Ye Jinlan's number, "The medicine for Ye Lao can be mass-produced."

"Really?" There was a movement of 'ding' from the other side, Ye Jinlan gasped hard, still asking for details.

"The specific situation, I will discuss it later when we meet, one percent of the shares..."

"I want, I want as much money."

Qin Yu was dumb and laughed a moment later: "The valuation is the same as everyone else's, but you should know that this medicine can only maintain the status quo."

"I know, this is already very good." Ye Jinlan knows naturally, but this is already a good result for her and grandpa.

For an old man whose life comes to an end due to illness, every extra day he lives is considered a profit.

"I also want to inform others, then we will see you all."

"See you in the waste city."

After hanging up the phone, Qin Yu called Li Xiao, Yang Chengjun, and Xu Hao respectively.

As soon as Xu Hao received the news, he yelled to come, "Brother Yu, we have to set up a game first, I am almost gone."

"Long live true love?" Qin Yu remembered that he called this slogan at the beginning.

"Can we not mention it?" Xu Hao smiled bitterly: "It's good, but it's too strict. I won't have a chance to go out and drink a drink."

"Okay, come with my brother in two days, I am responsible for entertaining!" He has no time for these two days, I have not seen this busy!

"The valuation is based on tens of billions, whether you want to enter into your own discussion."

"Stop talking, I'll go over with the check...Should you transfer money now?"

Xu Hao didn't ask anything extra, and the project that Brother Yu did by himself was just right to keep up with the money.

"A lot of money, right? Buying a piece of land on the Bund?"

"What, Brother Yu, hello... hello... I can't hear it, this broken signal, toot..."

He shook his head dumbfoundingly, Qin Yu put away the phone and said to his heart, 'this guy is getting more and more precious.'

Seeing Qin Yu's return, Song Yuqiao asked curiously: "It's work again."

"Yeah." Qin Yu nodded.

"...What the * do you do?" Song Yuqiao still couldn't hold back.

She wanted to get to know this man, although she knew that doing so would trap herself.

But she just wants to do it, uncontrollably wants to... go deep...

Qin Yu turned to face her, propped one hand on the table and the other on the back of the chair, "My business is a student..."

Before the words fell, Song Yuqiao kept rolling his eyes.

He said he was a student, do you dare to believe it?

"There are many side businesses, finance, semiconductors, and new energy. Recently, I am going to sell some medicine and be a magic stick!"

In fact, Qin Yu's innermost position is the last magic stick.

However, in this age of technological supremacy.

The cost of being a * stick is too high, and it is too easy to show up, so it is better to make progress gradually.

"So... these industries are in the abandoned city?" Song Yuqiao had heard before that they were going to meet in the abandoned city.

If all the industries are not here, then there is no need to set the address here.

However, this incident also proved that Qin Yu occupies an important position and influence in it.

"So, you are the CEO of a famous university?" Song Yuqiao asked with admiration and teasing expression.

Qin Yu said non-committal: "If it is what you mean literally, I think it is."

"It seems that you are indeed a big man, so why would you be interested in someone like me?"

Song Yuqiao said it very directly, clarifying the awkward relationship between them.

Yes, very embarrassing!

After everything happened, Song Yuqiao didn't even know what he was.

Girlfriend, one-night stand, or stable runner?

"What am I?" This was the answer Song Yuqiao wanted.

When Qin Yu heard her question, he also answered: "Of course it's a girlfriend, what are you thinking about?"

"Then I can ask, how many girlfriends do you have?" Song Yuqiao asked.

"Only you." Brother Yu said.

Other women are either confidantes, fiancée, and princess appointed by the mother.

A fake fiancée is also a fiancée.

Xing Lu is the flight attendant who brought him a wonderful experience.

Li Shuangmeng is a hostess who can communicate happily.

Look, there is nothing that can be labeled as "girlfriend", she is the first one.

So... is there any problem?

Qin Yu found a shameless reason for herself in her heart and erased the incident.

Knowing that he is his 'girlfriend,' Song Yuqiao was surprised at the same time: "So, are we officially dating?"

"Of course." Qin Yu nodded.

Just when she wanted to continue speaking, the door was pushed open.

Seeing the waiter orderly serving the dishes, Qin Yu secretly breathed a sigh of relief.

Going on, he doesn't know how he should be round...

"This is the recommended stewed lion head for you." The waiter put the small cup in front of him, and Qin Yu pushed it in front of Song Yuqiao: "Try it!"

After tasting the soup in his mouth with a spoon, Song Yuqiao said in surprise, "It's delicious!"

"One more example." Qin Yu finished speaking to the waiter and began to taste the dishes in front of him.

Rice cake yellow croaker is worthy of the store's signature, not just yellow croaker, absorb enough soup, the plump rice cake is almost like making the taste buds explode.

There is also radish braised pork, amazing, absolutely amazing!

The aroma is rich and full, with a hint of wine in the aftertaste.

Paired with braised pork, it is fragrant and refreshing, but it perfectly removes the greasy meat.

The faint sourness evoked the appetite, Qin Yu didn't even let the soup inside.

Pour it all into the rice and eat with it.

This meal can be said to be a good start, and Huaiyang Mansion deserves its reputation.

Qin Yu also left a deep impression on Huaiyang cuisine...

"It seems we chose the right one." Song Yuqiao was in a good mood.

Not only the food in front of her, but also Qin Yu's affirmation and commitment to her identity.

Yes, in her opinion, what Qin Yu said before was a promise.

They are officially dating, and he is Song Yuqiao's first love boyfriend in the true sense.

First love makes people drunk and loses the alertness and reason that they should be!

Therefore, Song Yuqiao didn't doubt what he said.

Or perhaps it should be said that the wing and yearning for love made her subconsciously forget the questions and questions.

Think of the side you agree with and want to see most as the real A woman in love with zero IQ, this sentence is definitely not a falsehood!

Just like Song Yuqiao now, he became clingy, talked a lot, easily moved and irrational.

"Qin Yu, this is delicious." Song Yuqiao held a small piece of chicken and fed it into his mouth.

"Try this, it's also very good." Qin Yu took a lion's head and gave her a taste.

A meal that looks sweet to outsiders and full of greasy lunch.

It ended smoothly when the two parties were unconsciously crying.

Chapter 464: film

After spending three days of pleasant and short happy life with Song Yuqiao.

Qin Yu had to say goodbye to her: "I have to go now, there is still something waiting for me to deal with it!"

"Then can I find you at any time?" After three short days, Song Yuqiao had learned how busy he was.

That phone...

Its screen has hardly been dimmed.

Every few hours, he has to charge the phone.

By the way, he also has two high-power power banks to ensure that his mobile phone is always on.

Oh, I almost forgot.

When shopping yesterday, he bought a new mobile phone.

If it were three days ago, Song Yuqiao would definitely think he had other purposes.

But now...she even has the urge to ask Qin Yu to buy more mobile phones.

"Of course, anytime." Qin Yu kissed her on the cheek, took the door and turned to leave.

...

...

At the airport, seeing Lu Qing and Lu Guohui and his wife, Qin Yu opened his arms enthusiastically.

Lu Qing behaved more positively. She left the suitcase on the spot and ran into Qin Yu's arms.

"Muma~ miss you so much." The kiss of a touch of water is the limit in front of the parents.

Although there won't be any embarrassing preaching scenes of parents, it is better to restrain yourself.

"Uncle, Auntie." Letting go of Lu Qing in his arms, Qin Yu took her hand and greeted Lu Guohui and his wife who came by.

By the way, I took the suitcases and took them in the car and left.

Just after the exhausting journey, Lu Guohui and his wife wanted to have a good rest.

At the same time, I want to give time to young people.

Therefore, the two declined Qin Yu's invitation to dinner and asked him to take Lu Qing to have fun.

"You young people need more time. Your aunt and I just want to have a good night's sleep at home." Lu Guohui took the suitcase and drove them out of the room.

Snapped!

The door was closed, and Qin Yu and Lu Qing who stood at the door looked at each other.

But he laughed again: "Let's go, take you to eat something."

"But I don't want to eat now." Lu Qing gave him a shameful glance, alluding to a clear glance.

After more than a month, he seems to have become more handsome.

There was still some remaining immature, completely disappeared on his face.

Masculine temperament, tough face and strong and perfect body shape are all tempting to her.

Do not.....

Not only these advantages, but also an inexplicable temperament.

It was like a magical magnetic field that attracted her deeply, like a moth fighting a fire, rushing to him desperately.

"I have booked a room in the hotel." At this time, what else can I say.

Xiaobie wins newlyweds, let alone two energetic young people.

When Lu Qing got out of the quilt again and took a deep breath, six hours had passed unconsciously.

Wrapped in the blanket, Lu Qing walked to the dining car, grabbed the already-cooled pizza and stuffed it into his mouth, "Well, it tastes so good after it is cold."

"Would you like some?" Lu Qing held up the pizza and looked at him.

"I have to drink something first." Qin Yu would only feel thirsty now, and the water in his body seemed to be lost.

On the contrary, it was Lu Qing, who looked so energetic and radiant.

Qin Yu took out a bottle of ice water from the refrigerator and dried it in one breath, then took the bottle and went to the dining car.

Feasting on cold food with Lu Qing.

The two have consumed a lot of physical energy, and this will be when they need to be supplemented.

"So, what do you do next?" Qin Yu looked at the sky outside, it was already early in the morning.

Except for nightclubs, there seems to be nowhere to go right now.

Take Lu Qing to the nightclub. Hipi?

This is not a good idea...I have nothing to do with Yu brother whether he will meet acquaintances!

"Just stay in the hotel, how about looking for a movie to watch?" Lu Qing asked eagerly.

She just wants to stay with Qin Yu now, no matter what she does.

"Of course...Would you like to order another midnight snack?" Qin Yu lifted his eyelids and looked at her while delivering the cold pasta to her mouth.

"You look so funny, haha..." Seeing him lift his eyelids and his pupils upturned, Lu Qing smiled sideways on the sofa.

The blanket on her body was completely gone, and she couldn't hide her increasingly proud figure.

So...

The plan to watch the movie fell through, and the new script of Yu Ge's improvisation started shooting.

...

...

The filming of "Perfect World" started. When Qin Yu received the news, he had just finished making a small movie that belonged only to him.

Of course, there is also his favorite heroine who can share this joy with him!

"What about the list?" Qin Yu heard the list he wanted, and Rice, Anadi and Gu Na all appeared on the list of actors.

In order to get Guna's agency, Rice made appropriate concessions.

At the same time, Guna herself also expressed her wish to star in the company.

Otherwise things will not go so smoothly!

As for the male protagonist, there are only a few scenes that actually appear on the scene, which is a metaphor that he is the final boss.

It is a pavement for the follow-up, if the film is earned.

It is very possible to make it into a series.

If this is the case, it is very important to be the lead actor in the second film.

With this in mind, Rice invited Akun to participate in the performance by virtue of his contacts.

The labor costs and expenses during the filming period are all borne by the crew, but Akun does not charge any fees personally, it is all for the sake of rice.

Of course, the next time the other party needs her platform, Rice should also stand up without hesitation.

"Then I wish the literary director a smooth shooting...Okay, I'm waiting for the celebration banquet, haha..."

We chatted with Wen Dao again, and waited for Qin Yu to take the line.

Lu Qing, lying on his chest, raised his head and asked: "Have you invested in film and television dramas?"

"Well, there is a chance, the script is not bad." Qin Yu rubbed her head.

This movement is getting more and more skilled, and it is about to become his habit.

"The hair is messed up." Lu Qing tossed his hair dissatisfiedly, and then said, "Well, will there be a lot of stars at the premiere? By the way, who are the actors?"

Qin Yu's heart jumped and he responded with a natural expression: "I don't care about such trivial matters, I only pay for it, but ask for the specific details of the shooting... It's not a good habit for laymen to lead experts."

"You're really relieved." Lu Qing didn't feel surprised when he glanced at him for nothing.

Lixin has such a large plate, not all of the tens of billions of funds are in his own hands.

He's the shopkeeper, what he has done is really competent...

"Is there a premiere event here? Will you participate?" Lu Qing looked at him a little expectantly.

"The shooting should end in March next year, and school has already started by then, and I should be flying in Shanghai."

Realizing that she was a little disappointed, Qin Yu answered again, "If there are activities and I am in the abandoned city again, how about going with you?"

"Okay, that's it." Lu Qing chuckled on his lips.

Qin Yu pointed to the left side that was not touched: "There is also..."

Huh~

Huh, huh, huh, the night is gone.

When the two woke up again, Father Sun had risen above his head.

"early."

"early."

Like a smile, the two got up to freshen up, changed their clothes and checked out and left.

After owing the bill at the front desk, Qin Yu drove Lv Qing home.

"Is the Flamingo's reception bill too much?" On the way back, Lu Qing asked about hotel consumption.

Those bills are all expenses of Talisa and are included in the company's normal public relations consumption.

"This is a small detail of cooperation. There is not much money for a year, so don't care!" Qin Yu explained with a smile: "Flamingo earns me the first pot of gold, not to mention, I am also one of the shareholders."

Lu Qing is not clear about the specific relationship between Qin Yu and Flamingo.

She only knows that the relationship between the two is not simple, but there is no idea of how close it is.

Hearing what he said, Lu Qing no longer held on to it anymore.

In fact, as the chief financial officer, she is more like a supervisor.

As long as there are no mistakes in the accounts, or someone is playing tricks in them, making things tricky.

Then the normal expenses, consumption, reimbursement and other matters.

I don't want her as the 'financial director' to nod and sign. Lu Qing is also happy to maintain this state.

If you really leave everything to her to be responsible.

Then Lu Qing had only one way to leave school, otherwise she would never be able to deal with it.

"I'm home, I'll pick you up tomorrow." Qin Yu promised to take her to the hot spring park tomorrow.

Half of the holiday has passed, and in the rest of the time, Lu Qing has to fight for more time that belongs to him alone.

Watching the car go away, Lu Qing used his fingerprints to open the door of the house. In the living room, her mother was watching TV, and when she heard the door opening, she turned her head back: "I'm back."

The smiled expression was full of jokes, causing Lu Qing to stamp his feet in dissatisfaction, and said shyly and angrily: "Mom, I won't let you know if you continue like this."

"Okay, I don't know anything, have you eaten? Do you want to make something for you?"

"No, I'm going back to my room to sleep."

"Why... Didn't you sleep last night? Young people still have to put their body first and exercise restraint..."

"mom....."

Chapter 465: Reach out

Blushing by his mother, Lu Qing went back to the room and lay down on the bed.

My thoughts gradually became clear, and I remembered my previous doubts.

He has other women...

Lu Qing is almost certain of this, although he hasn't acted too suspiciously.

But she just knew it, and she became more determined.

One thing has always troubled Lu Qing, that is... how can Qin Yu settle down.

'The miracle blooms, the power of the miracle is strengthened...'

'Issuing rewards: technology stocks foresight card.'

[Reminder: Select a technology stock and use it to predict the stock trend in the next 15 days]

Hearing the pleasant beep in the ear, Yu Ge felt that the feeling of helping others was really good.

Keng Keng~

Ye Jinlan knocked on the car window and said to Qin Yu who was smirking in the car, "What do you think?"

"Miss you." As soon as these words were spoken, Brother Yu felt a little regretful.

This teasing can be placed on anyone, except that Ye Jinlan should not say it.

However, I saw her sitting in the co-pilot with a smile.

Brother Yu decided to end this topic, and continuing to talk will only make it messier.

Within a few minutes, Li Xiao, Xu Hao and Yang Chengjun came out, "Brother Yu."

"Brother Yu, you are handsome again."

"Huh~" Yang Chengjun looked at him carefully, and asked solemnly: "Did you make a slight adjustment?"

"It is guaranteed that they are all original products...Second development, understand?" Qin Yu turned the steering wheel and drove towards the way he came.

"...Why does your second development seem to be endless." Xu Hao muttered softly.

Everyone is not a few years old, but the difference is so big.

So, this is the difference between free-range and rich?

He is the wild child outside. He is the protagonist of the destiny who is loved by God and held in the palm of his hand?

Pop~

Li Xiao slapped his head, and the other party smiled and said, "I told you to read less novels."

"What's wrong with the novel, what's wrong with learning?" Xu Hao rubbed the back of his head, his face full of dissatisfaction.

"Are you reading novels?" Li Xiao said in an angry voice: "I don't even bother to expose you."

All he saw were drag racing...No, all he drove was a plane that took off in situ.

"Hey, knowledge is diverse, and I am also a kind of learning." Xu Hao grinned slyly.

His idol is Kato, if you can learn from him.

Xu Hao still needs to worry about his waist? ? ?

By the way, his waist is getting worse and worse recently, Xia Ke's performance in private...

Make Xu Hao an eye-opener!

This incident once made him faceless facing Xia Ke, as well as the nutritious meals she prepared carefully every day.

Each of those nutritious meals seemed to ridicule him: "You can't, you can't..."

Damn, sa hurts!

"What's the matter, you don't want to stay away." Qin Yu looked at Xu Hao through the rear mirror, the expression on his face was particularly tangled.

It looked like... a Saint Seiya who hadn't settled on the toilet for two hours.

"It's okay... the stomach hurts." Xu Hao thought he found a good reason.

Qin Yu suddenly realized, "No wonder, don't worry, there is the service station in front... Jinlan, give him the paper."

"...???" Xu Hao was stupid, Brother Yu, you are really playing.

Stopping at the service station and letting Xu Hao solve his physical problems, naturally it won't happen.

It's just his embarrassed and innocent expression that became the talk of the rest of the crowd.

As for the idea that Li Xiao points to his heart, he will die directly!

Xu Hao, who was paralyzed in his seat, said that he was about to get used to it.

"Don't worry, I'll give you something good when I turn around." After getting off the car, Qin Yu hugged Xu Hao and said with a smile.

Xu Hao asked weakly, "What good thing?"

"What do you lack most now?" Qin Yu asked back.

Hearing what he said, Xu Hao was no longer sleepy in an instant, "Brother, brother...Is there any magic formula to say quickly."

He has a real headache now, and it should be said that any man encounters this kind of problem.

Will become like him, with a splitting headache, and... shame!

What a shame!

"Don't worry, I'm calling you here this time for this. You'll find out later."

Qin Yu comfortably patted him on the shoulder and strode towards the hotel.

The restaurant was ready for reception. After everyone took their seats, Qin Yu first welcomed them as the host.

"Brother Yu, there is no need for us to engage in these empty heads, right?" Xu Hao is still anxious to hear the news!

Qin Yu glared at him, and said sarcastically, "Am I welcoming you?"

"That's right, it is Miss Ye that Renyu welcomes." Li Xiao gave him a disgusting look.

Xu Hao rolled his eyes angrily, "Fuck me, why did I open my mouth? "

"Cheers." Yang Chengjun held the cup forward and held it high.

"Cheers."

Ding Ding~

The ambitions were staggered, and the words became more frequent.

The most curious thing about the big guy is the pharmaceutical business with a valuation of tens of billions as Qin Yu said.

"You should all know... The medicine Ye Lao took was provided by me." This news is not a new thing in the circle. A few of them have heard the rumors a long time ago.

It's just that few people know what the specific situation is.

"I heard that it is a magical medicine that can bring the dead back to life... dozens of versions, and I don't know which one to believe." Li Xiao shook his head with emotion.

Gossip is human nature, even if you are in a high position, you can't avoid it.

There are dozens of different versions in the circle of Ye Lao's recovery from illness.

The most exaggerated thing is to directly describe what Qin Yu gave as a "magic medicine," one medicine.

Ye Lao's stubborn illnesses, hidden injuries, and all the messy illnesses all healed.

Not only that, but also Ye Yushu's daughter, the golden gun can't fall...

This kind of rumor is naturally unbelievable, but it does not hinder its spread.

Moreover, because it is too exaggerated, with a sense of irony and playfulness, it spreads faster and more widely than other rumors.

Ye Jinlan's face was a little ugly, and she was somewhat restrained and shy.

After all, I heard a group of people talking about my grandfather's N-th spring, and granddaughters can't be normal.

"Alright, let's get back to the topic!" Seeing that Ye Jinlan was about to be stretched, Qin Yu interrupted their discussion and bluntly said that what he wanted to produce was the medicine to cure Ye Lao.

"This medicine is mainly aimed at the kidneys, and in other aspects... it has a slight improvement in body functions. The effect is very weak, or no effect at all."

"Can the drug test speed up the process? The normal process should be followed as usual, that is, we must pay close attention to the time. For example...cut in the queue?"

Finally, I don't have to hear Grandpa's "private life," Ye Jinlan was the first to respond, "That's okay."

The reason she was able to answer so positively was because the key person involved in the medicine was her father.

Ye Lao is still waiting for the medicine to save his life, but he just asks the drug supervisor to speed up the inspection and review. Who has an opinion?

Who dares to have an opinion? Then he had to experience it personally, the big slap of Ye Old Man Pu's fan was not strong enough.

Chapter 466: One mind only makes money

"What's the name of our medicine?" Ye Jinlan was very curious, what exactly was the medicine to cure Grandpa.

Xu Hao smiled and said, "I think it should be called Shenbao!"

"Vulgar..." Li Xiao looked at him disgustingly, and thought: "How about a super kidney?"

"..." Yang Chengjun didn't speak, but looked at him with a weird expression, and clearly said: "Are you kidding me, or are you mentally retarded?"

"Kidney power, this medicine is called kidney power." Qin Yu told them the name directly.

Although this is the name provided by 'System', it is at least much better than 'Shen Bao, Super Kidney'.

"This name is good, simple, clear and easy to remember!" Yang Chengjun said.

"That's it, Jinlan, waiting for your news?" Qin Yu looked at Ye Jinlan and wanted some time.

"Three days." Apply for a license, review various procedures, and follow the process.

You have to test the drug after you finish it, and it takes three days anyway.

"Waitress, trouble, scissors..." To bring scissors, Qin Yu will cut out five pieces of kidney power.

Then, give them all to Ye Jinlan.

"There are only so many at present, and I just got it." Qin Yu pointed to the single piece: "This is for testing, and the rest is for Ye Lao."

"Thank you." Ye Jinlan looked at him gratefully, her expression aching pain when she put away the pills.

This piece was wasted...

Compared with the "Kidney Power," which has a smooth surface and no markings, it makes Ye Jinlan feel more at ease.

Grandpa survived on it!

"This is a contract. Money will be credited into the account after the company is established." Qin Yu put the four contracts in front of several people.

Regarding the contract, several people take it seriously.

This is not only respect for myself, but also respect for Qin Yu.

Sign directly without looking at it, that's not trust.

is an attitude of 'even if you want to play tricks, I have a way to fight back'.

Now, what they have shown is the cautious attitude that their collaborators should have.

After signed his name, the entire cooperation was successfully reached.

Everyone toasted to celebrate, but Qin Yu said there was still something to say...

"There may be action in the near future, you are all ready, wait for my notice."

Hearing his mention of the word 'action', everyone's eyes lit up.

This is a real gain. It is real money, and it is also a good way to improve your status and importance in the family in the short term.

"No problem, Brother Yu, how much is the share?" Xu Hao rubbed his hands and looked at him with a wretched smile.

"It's too early to say this, you just have to know it!"

Qin Yu just said hello first, and the specific share will not be confirmed until the formal action.

Not only the four of them were shortlisted this time, but also Liu Xing, Han Hu, Jiang Hongsheng...

Lu Guohui?

Qin Yu thought about it, but decided to inform Lu Guohui.

Although his plate is not big and the capital chain is relatively tight, it depends on his own intentions whether to take a ride or not.

After the gains from the previous operations were revealed, it is difficult for Lixin to keep a low profile.

The layman may not pay too much attention, but the colleagues in the financial industry are all staring at it.

Not to mention the financial media, I can't wait to stand at the door of Lixin like a watchdog.

Turning back to the end of the action, the wind must be leaked and exploded.

If he didn't even say hello to Lu Guohui, he would be too bad for him to be his "his family".

This is not Qin Yu's self-acquaintance, the two families are now short of letting them handle the affairs and obtain the certificate.

Make a few more lives and prosper the door.

However, Brother Yu won't compromise so easily.

Marriage will certainly happen, but it depends on his own wishes.

As for the death of people...

Miss, your faith in miracles is not religious enough!

The atmosphere on the table is very good, and the topic unknowingly turns to the international situation.

Li Xiao mentioned the most disgusting twists and turns of the past two years, "The ruling party has * in its head, and it treats the people as fools every day."

"It's the paws of the bald eagle, or would it dare to jump like this?"

"Oh, I don't know when this historical problem will be solved."

"Unless one day I can press the bald eagle to admit it, otherwise...difficult!"

"Eat jujube pills... the sun never sets is an example!"

"Yes, just a few days after the bald eagle's good days, the tendency of ethnic divisions became more and more obvious, and the second north and south backstabs...hehe."

"Fuck, I want to see it."

"Isn't that so...free!"

Several people showed malicious smiles one after another, as if they couldn't wait to see the unfolding of the second north and south backstabs with their own eyes.

"However, Wanwan's dancing in the past two years has been a bit joyful, and it hasn't had a big impact. It's disgusting."

Li Xiao felt aggrieved when he thought of the embarrassment of mentioning the matter in the yamen.

No harm, not very insulting!

But it's like a fly shit, a disgusting person.

"Eating vegetables, no more appetite." Qin Yu picked up the chopsticks and clamped the vegetables with a smile, but had some thoughts in his mind.

"Talk about Godson, with 5nm technology, is there a chance to develop 3nm... or even 2nm?"

Semiconductor giants are already deploying 2nm.

Now it seems that 5nm is already a huge achievement, causing a sensation in the upper layer, even more like a tsunami.

Otherwise, Bai Ze would not come to see Qin Yu in person.

But in fact, if you stop moving forward, it only takes one or two years.

Godson will disappear like a meteor, becoming a short-lived weeder.

This is also the biggest reason why the bald eagle merely protested against this and did not take any further action.

Its high-tech city walls around the world are still strong.

Two Asian giants that can step into the 3nm or even 2nm era.

Taiwan Power and Sanpointing are still in the hands of the Bald Eagle.

Taipower, in particular, occupies 56% of the global market share. It can be said that it has a bird's eye view of the entire industry.

But even such a behemoth still can't get rid of the control of the bald eagle.

Not to mention that its largest shareholder is Citibank, just those advanced instruments and parts that rely on the Bald Eagle.

just let it throw a mouse, and can't straighten up when talking.

And now Godson wants to upgrade its technology and enter independent research and development, which lacks key precision instruments and parts.

cannot be obtained by normal commercial procurement at all. This is the most worrying and distressing.

The progress of semiconductor development is getting faster and faster, one step faster, step by step is not a joke.

want to catch up, unless there is a revolutionary change.

...Or if a miracle comes, it is possible to change.

It's just like the previous efforts to support local research and development, when Xia Lian reached 7nm technology stability.

Taipower and Sanpoint have entered the 3nm era, 2nm is also on the way, and will be officially put into production soon.

It felt as cruel as climbing over a large mountain and seeing two more desperate mountains.

While he is improving, his opponent is also improving.

The real situation is that the other person used to run while the other person used to walk.

Transcendence?

Even catching up is a difficult problem, how to surpass it?

Not to mention the huge amount of funds required for research and development.

The annual technical input of Taipower is 8-9% of the annual revenue.

Converted into capital, it is 3-4 billion dollars, or about 20 billion dollars.

Remember, every year...

What kind of support is Godson now? Even if Qin Yu is willing to invest all of Lixin's income, it is only a drop in the bucket.

This information is well known to several other people.

Actually, they have been called to ask related questions at home recently.

The elders also mention points openly or secretly, UU reading www. uukanshu.com asked them to try Qin Yu's tone.

Does he have any plans for the future of Godson Technology?

Is there a solution to the 'mysterious team' behind it?

If not, would you consider introducing more capital in exchange for technical support?

Seeing that his topic condensed the atmosphere, Ye Jinlan felt a little helpless.

She doesn't want to mention it at this time, but if there are some things she doesn't ask herself, others will ask.

For example, Bai Ze...

"Independent research and development must be done, the lack of precision instruments and parts..."

Qin Yu actually considered this matter. The existence of flamingo is a good channel.

Its place of registration is in Wudu, and most of its investors are dignitaries in corrupt countries.

Although the country has fallen over the years, it has not fallen behind in cutting-edge technology, especially the semiconductor industry.

The force can't do it, and the long standby time will change the strategy.

The old lady stopped using force, anyway, there was a 'sword' hanging on it, and it probably ended up in the same fight.

Let's shrink our heads, and just pay for it.

Maybe one day you will be obsessed, and you will consume the bald eagle above your head?

Chapter 467: The bird is big, any forest can enter

So, there is something to live a long time!

Only corrupt nations can compete with the bald eagle in the entire semiconductor industry.

Through the flamingo line, the instrument was introduced into Barrow.

Re-transit into the country...

This plan is not feasible, and Qin Yu has to wait for Qin Yu's life and death acquaintances, and Lao Qiao can't confirm it.

"...I'll talk about it in a few days, I will only drink today!" Qin Yu ended the topic.

Who did Ye Jinlan ask for? He had a good idea.

The more attention he can get, the more at ease Qin Yu feels.

At the same time, seeing Xia Guo take off is also a small long-cherished wish outside his dream!

After all, who doesn't want their country to be good?

Satiated with wine and food, Qin Yu arranged to relax in the hotel...

In the SPA, several people were lying on the massage bed in disposable bathrobes, joking and laughing with each other.

"Brother Yu, what is the situation with you and Ye Jinlan?" Xu Hao felt that the two of them seemed to be more and more in harmony, and their relationship was getting closer.

Isn't this meant to be a real act?

Li Xiao lifted his head from the hole, and looked at him curiously.

He was also curious about this question.

"My friend... still." Qin Yu responded.

Hearing his affirmative answer, several people secretly breathed a sigh of relief and joked: "A beautiful woman like Ye Jinlan has top-notch family background, identity, and background.

... Brother Yu, are you really indifferent at all? "

"You can manage the small head well to sort out the big head... You have to study more in management." Qin Yu's tone of 'taking care of you as a teacher' made people laugh and cry.

Xu Hao curled his lips, laughed helplessly, and buried his head again to enjoy the loneliness.

After finishing the professional Thai luxury SPA, one afternoon has passed.

Several people were lying in the lounge, feeling all over.

Every inch of muscle in the body seems to be completely relaxed.

Comfortable!

Ye Jinlan, who came out later, had exposed arms and feet like transparent crystals.

The capillaries buried under the white skin are clearly visible.

Under the illumination of the light, it is even more dazzling like a reflection.

Li Xiao and others can only see the surface, Qin Yu sees more transparently and deeply...

Specialty: Flawless as jade.

She should be talking about her current performance, as well as the 'face value' that has risen to 93 ↑ and the 'figure of 94 ↑.'

Since the "awakening" of this woman, she has always been making herself better!

Woman... It's hard for me to do it like you.

...

...

In the next few days, Qin Yu spent all his time with the "prince concubine." '

Little Pumpkin's parent-child activity course can only be entrusted to Lao Qin to participate in it.

But when Lao Qin came to the activity center with his little son, he found that the mothers took a bite of "How is Xiaoyu?" "Why didn't Xiaoyu come?" and "When did Xiaoyu come?"

???

Those mothers just asked him directly, 'Is Xiao Yu cold, hungry, thirsty, do you want to feed him...'

What the * did he eat for these women!

Lao Qin hadn't understood what a piece of mouthwatering fat his son was for a woman.

Even mothers who think of women will have some wonderful fantasies about him...

Just think about it, it should not violate ethics and the law!

After all, the bird is big, any forest can enter! !

There are some things you can't hide, especially in places like hot spring parks where you can only wear swimming trunks.

I don't know if it is the reason for his own growth, or the excessive 'kidney power'.

In short, his size is directly crushed by Asian men.

It is against the bald eagle and the man at the top of the carnivorous chain.

The problem is that he not only has to wear oversized swimming trunks, but he also has to put a towel around his waist.

Of course, this is under normal circumstances.

If he is standing, even if he is surrounded by towels, he has to accept the scrutiny of passers-by.

The look in the men's eyes, 'boy, what's hiding in it, it's pretty capable of pretending?'

Women score two points, one is unbelief and contempt, thinking the same as men.

One is the ecstasy of astonishment, anticipation and undisguised longing of fanatical enthusiasm...

"Every time I come to a place like this with you, your attraction is always stronger than me!" Lu Qing said speechlessly.

Regarding this phenomenon, she didn't know whether she should cry or laugh!

"This doesn't just set off your excellence, just like the hot girl next to an old man." Qin Yu's self-ridicule gave Lu Qing a little comfort.

As a hot body, charming-looking big beauty, she was stole the limelight by a man.

The key point still comes from the specialties that should only belong to me...

This is very unpleasant!

Even if this man is his own, there will still be a little unwillingness in his heart.

It is a woman's nature to show the limelight and desire to pay attention, especially for a girl like Lu Qing, who has a strong heart, has received Western education, is open-minded, and is good at presenting herself.

Wherever you go, you must become the most glamorous one, which has been integrated into her habit.

Become a part of life and even instinct.

Fortunately, this situation quickly dissipated in joy.

See the Hurricane Tower again!

It is precisely because my heart has a more intuitive understanding and experience of it, this time the fear is stronger than the first time.

The reason why he came up was definitely not because of somebody's persecution.

"Huh...conquer fear!" Qin Yu folded his arms and folded his shoulders after finding a legitimate reason for himself.

Close your eyes, shoo~

Soar into the air, and then sprint forward close to the slide...

The water splashed and realized that the speed was about to stagnate, Qin Yu opened his eyes again.

Sitting up and wiping the drops of water on his face, Brother Yu looked at the surrounding scenery, "It's good to be alive."

Beeswax cream, surgeons often use it to protect their hands.

It prevents the skin from losing moisture due to repeated washing, and it is also a good moisture-locking skin care product.

After applying Lu Qing evenly, the two lay in the sun loungers in the nursery area.

Children play in the shallow water area, and laughter is the best hypnotic music.

Before not knowing it, Brother Yu fell asleep.

When he woke up again, the sun was about to set.

Lu Qing also took a short nap, but woke up earlier than he did, "Do you want to continue playing?"

There are performances in the artificial wave pool at night, and there is no problem if you want to continue.

"No, let's go back." Lu Qing looked at his lower body and said, "It's time to buy you some clothes."

...

...

At SKP shopping mall, Yu found that he was quite destined here.

This is the second time since his holiday, and a different person.

Because of his physical signs, he has high requirements for the comfort and looseness of clothes.

What kind of tight-fitting, plastic and other clothes are not within his consideration.

Especially the leggings, for him is a product of another world!

"Qin Yu, what do you think of this one?" Lu Qing unfolded the cotton trousers in his hand.

"It looks okay!"

"Try it."

Pushing him into the dressing room, Lu Qing continued to pick and choose in the store.

Not only is Qin Yu very 'critical,' her vision is also very critical, but these things are not good enough in front of her.

In fact, she only found the pair of trousers that looked a little bit earlier in this store.

"Are you all there?" Lu Qing did not conceal his disappointment in words.

As a famous fashion brand flagship store, the design here is really disappointing.

"Madam, your boyfriend is in good shape. He will look great in everything he wears. He is a natural hanger."

Sales want to use marketing strategies to change the opponent's critical vision.

Maybe she would succeed if she changed people, but Lu Qing was obviously not in this list.

Because, sales frequently glanced at the fitting room, with obvious signs of courtship.

I believe that if she weren't there today, she is now close to the fitting room.

Maybe there will be a 'SKP door' turmoil.

This makes Lu Qing very upset.

Therefore, even if Qin Yu came out, the pants looked very suitable.

The answer is still 'No.'

"Isn't it appropriate?" Stepping out of the street fashion store Qin Yu's expression is a little puzzled.

In fact, there are obvious surprises in the shopping logic of men and women.

When a man buys something, he sees-good-places an order.

A woman's logic is: OK-try-pick a thorn-find better-okay-try-pick a thorn-better...

Therefore, few men like to go shopping with women.

Especially when choosing clothes for himself, because it is basically equivalent to putting his habits and logic into the drum washing machine and repeatedly torturing him.

Chapter 468: Believe in me

Two pairs of pants, three hours.

When the mall was about to get off work, Qin Yu finally heard the signal of 'end'.

If he followed his old style, the first store he walked in would take less than five minutes.

When you go out, you must have your favorite clothes in your hands, and it will take no more than 15 minutes before and after...all done.

Thinking of each store, I tried hundreds of them one by one.

In the end, I bought these two in my hand. Brother Yu was exhausted physically and mentally, 'I'm too hard.'

However, seeing Lu Qing's happy smile is worth it.

In the next few days, Qin Yu stayed with Lu Qing wholeheartedly and took her to every corner of the ancient city to check in.

When going out every day, Qin Yu likes to personally put on her coat.

"Since when did you become such a gentleman?" Lu Qing joked.

Qin Yu leaned close to her ear and said with warm moisture, "Do you know how beautiful the moment you put on your coat and lift your long hair from under the coat?"

This kind of leisurely and relaxing leisure time lasts until Xu Hao calls: "Brother Yu, the place is promising."

When leaving the hotel that day after finishing the SPA, Qin Yu handed Xu Hao the address of the drug delivery factory.

Find suitable addresses for "Kwafu Technology" and "Loongson Technology" successively.

This matter, he is professional.

I kissed Lu Qing on the cheek and told her that she might be busy these days.

Qin Yu walked out of the room with the car key, and Old Qin downstairs was fighting wits and courage with Little Pumpkin.

The little guy has recently started to resist milk powder for some reason!

"Little ancestor, don't toss...this milk powder is expensive." Old Qin shook the bottle in his hand, wanting to deliver it to the little pumpkin.

But he just kept shaking his head, avoiding every attack accurately.

The little eyes are like saying, "Climb away, don't want to take things to make me mouth..."

"Don't eat it again?" Qin Yu tied the black starry sky at the wrist as he walked towards the two of them.

Old Qin smiled helplessly, and was about to open the bottle in his hand and disappeared.

Then, I saw the pacifier 'roughly' inserted into the little pumpkin's mouth.

Innocent is still written in the little guy's eyes, 'I'm here, what happened?'

"Taking milk obediently, dare to spit it out and put the bottle in your mouth." Qin Yu squeezed his younger brother's tender face with his eyes indicating that Dad would take over.

With a gentle smile... It's probably like, "You're dead if you dare to spit it out!" !'

Seeing the little pumpkin grunting and sucking the liquid in the baby bottle, Lao Qin's whole body is not good.

I am here to beg grandpa and grandma to coax you for a long time.

Can't withstand your brother's threat, right?

If the fart is bigger, then you will learn to look at the food...

"As expected of my son." Lao Qin's small expression was triumphant.

Brother Yu was already unable to complain about this, rolled his eyes and walked outside the door.

In fact, he felt that his brother's rather enchanting performance was entirely due to himself...

The miraculous light on the body, or the effect of the title.

Just like the halo in the game, it can have a certain weak effect on the people around you.

For example, Mr. Shen's body gradually improved.

For another example, Jiang Xiaoshan's psychological trauma from childhood is slowly disappearing.

Or...

More than a month old, he crawled fast and was able to support his head with his neck independently.

Compared to other babies, it can be called a 'freedom of movement' little pumpkin...

Of course, these all come from Qin Yu's self-observation and guesswork.

As for what you really want, you still need to continue to observe to make an accurate judgment.

However, all those who befriend him are showing signs of transfer.

It's an exaggeration to say that it's what I want to accomplish, but I really start to have good luck.

Including Li Xiao, Xu Hao, and Yang Chengjun, they are the three that have changed the most.

This naturally also has the role of 'money capability', but it's hard to say whether there is a 'miracle' boost.

Anyway, these are good things.

Qin Yu hopes that his younger brother can be smarter, better, and grow up as soon as possible.

When his hair grows up, the bullet is loaded!

Brother Yu can talk to him about life and the greatness of ideals...

Lao Qin's family always wants to open branches and leaves, and I'm afraid it's unreliable here.

It's true, and I don't know how old it will be.

At this time, he naturally asked his old brother to stand on top, 'don't worry, brother will find you a beautiful daughter-in-law, and keep the one that satisfies you, and you don't even want to get out of bed.'

The little pumpkin, who was drinking milk silently, trembled suddenly.

I feel the malice from the world, 'Did the people dare to harm me?'

...

...

Following the navigation to the location, Qin Yu saw a dilapidated house.

"Brother Yu, do you think this place is like this?" Xu Hao was squatting at the door of the shop on the opposite street, asking with a cigarette hanging in his fingers.

Qin Yu squatted beside him and looked up at the narrow, dirty alley: "This kind of place is not easy to demolish, right?"

Demolition is always a hassle, the poorer you are, the more you think about pie in the sky!

Whenever you get hit by a pie, you are not letting go, and you can't wait to take a bite of the richest man in the world.

Xu Hao smiled and pointed to the dangerous house in front of him and said, "Don't worry, this matter has been resolved."

Under his explanation, Qin Yu learned about the situation of this dilapidated house.

The area in front of it is part of the urban reconstruction project. The demolition and relocation is led by the Yamen, so they don't need to worry about it.

After the demolition is over, as long as the land is taken, it is not his final say what to repair.

"This way..." Qin Yu suddenly realized, no wonder there were 'construction signs everywhere on the way he came.'

"It's okay to change to commercial land?"

"No problem, this is all outside the third ring road. Residential buildings should take up a part, but economic development must also be taken into consideration."

Xu Hao had already inquired about it before calling him, and this place was not meant to be used as a living area.

It is also necessary to take into account a certain amount of industrial plants, emerging industries and technological industries.

Including several technology companies currently in the abandoned city, they will also build new production plants here in the future.

The conditions given by the yamen were good, and all Xu Hao had to do was to get them a place in it.

Qin Yu only knew that this place belonged to the Eastern Suburbs, but he was not very familiar with the specific circumstances.

Don't think he lived in the eastern suburbs before, but he is really unfamiliar with the third ring road.

Moreover, this place does not belong to the east in the full sense.

To be correct, it should be the fan-shaped area at the junction of the southeast suburbs, and he didn't even understand it.

"Go, get in the car." Pulling Xu Hao into the car, Qin Yu drove around.

The road is pitted and sloping, and there are a lot of slopes.

The communities are all very old, with few newly built high-rise buildings, shopping malls, vegetable markets, shopping streets and street shops.

It seems that the age will have to be more than ten years at least...

Think of the great transformation of the eastern suburbs, the comprehensive modernization of the city, and the relevant propaganda and news reports on the Internet that have been mentioned in these years.

Qin Yu felt that the demolition should be reliable, after all, the eastern suburbs have been falling behind in recent years.

The first renovation zone that year has now completely failed to keep up with the pace of the times.

People in the eastern suburbs are also looking forward to catching up with the pace of urban development. There are so many examples of a family of five in an old house of 40 or 50 square meters.

I believe that not many people will resist the good thing of 'Housewarming', besides, there will be Yamen taking the lead.

"Do you know how long it will take for this piece to be demolished as planned?" After turning around a corner, Qin Yu parked the car on the side of the road again.

Xu Hao sat sideways and looked at him, speaking with a deep voice of the information he had learned.

Tell Qin Yu all, let him judge for himself, "Brother Yu, this must be true, but it will take a few months to wait."

This piece will have to be dismantled within half a month. After dismantling and cleaning up the follow-up matters, it will take two months.

Then go through the formalities, get the land, and finally invest in building a factory.

It will take eight to ten months at the fastest. UU Reading www.uukanshu.com follows the Yamen style of doing things...

This time will be postponed for another six months, not much.

Then it is nearly a year and a half, "16 months, will it be too long?"

Qin Yu doesn't care about this, and can build the factory in one step to reach the initial estimated output.

This is naturally a good thing!

But he was afraid that Ye Jinlan could not wait there because of her persistence and urgent need for 'kidney power'.

Comparable to everyone, including Qin Yu, who used it... is countless times stronger!

Chapter 469: It's time to work hard to spend money

"16 months?" Ye Jinlan, who received the news, quickly calculated the gains and losses.

It's not hers, but whether Grandpa's medicine is enough to last that time.

Soon, she had the answer she wanted in her heart.

not enough!

Ye Lao takes 1 tablet every two months, and he has already taken 3 tablets.

Even if you add the 4 tablets Qin Yu gave her a few days ago, there are only 7 tablets of 'kidney power'.

In other words, just looking at it in terms of time, it is two months away.

However, this matter is naturally difficult for Ye Jinlan.

Time, like a valley, will always be crowded.

The procedures are completed in one day, and after the subsequent demolition is completed, the area required by the pharmaceutical factory should be cleared out.

The rest are in the back row.

In addition, the factory project was replaced by an old acquaintance, 13 Divisions!

This time and again, the time has been saved in half, and it can be completed in only 8 months.

"The ordinary construction team is a building madman, and the thirteen divisions must be of the demon king level. However, they generally don't accept projects outside the court. This time it must be Ye Lao to say hello."

"No matter who greets you, it is a good thing to reduce the time consumption of eight months." Qin Yu opened the brand-new license and nodded with satisfaction looking at the big words "Miracle Pharmaceutical" on it.

"Be low-key this time and wait for the official launch before the press conference."

Hearing him say this, Li Xiao curiously asked: "Then...what about the pricing problem?"

"Can pricing be divided into two situations?" Qin Yu has been inconclusive on pricing.

It's not because he can't decide the price in his heart, but because he wants to try different situations and give different prices.

For patients with kidney failure and kidney disease, the price of medical insurance can be set lower.

The purely use of 'kidney power' as a blue pill, the price must be high in order to achieve the black and thick strength.

This kind of leeks, Yu brother is not ashamed of cutting it!

"This..." Li Xiao was also a little dumbfounded when he said that.

Looking at other people, there are also blank expressions on their faces. I don't know if this is compliant or not.

Is there any precedent?

"If you don't know, then ask!" Qin Yu helplessly spread his hands, can he have an answer while sitting here?

Li Xiao and Xu Hao set their sights on Yang Chengjun, it seems that he has the resources in this regard.

Soon Qin Yu got the answer he wanted, although it was a bit troublesome.

But if the 'kidney power' is really as magical as he said, it's not impossible to set a precedent.

After all, the drug that he told him that could target two completely different situations did not exist before.

One is for "life is dying," the other is for men to restore their true colors.'

These two effects...the gap is a bit too big.

After the inner doubts are settled, the pricing is much simpler.

First of all, patients in need of life-saving are priced at 899 yuan per box.

The normal sales price is 2,999 yuan.

...

...

In Shangdu, Ye Lao was greeting the guests in the yard of his cultivation.

"Lao Ye, have you heard about that?" The man sitting across from Ye Lao asked with a stern smile.

He is making tea for the two of them. The tea is the big red robe of Wuyi Mountain he brought.

Produced on authentic mother trees.

"You mean pricing, haha, I heard." Ye Lao responded with a smile.

The middle-aged said with emotion: "I don't want to take advantage of the court, and take the initiative to save money for the court... This is the first time I have seen such a young man."

"This does not exactly mean that the court has done a good job these years."

The middle-aged shook his head, and said with a calm expression: "Not enough...sickness is hard to cure!"

Ye Lao tapped his fingers on the table, and he straightened up and said forcefully: "There are some doctors who are difficult to treat, and so many difficulties have come over these years. Are you afraid of this?"

"Haha, what Ye Lao said." The middle-aged man seemed to be infected by his ambition. He laughed and put the brewed tea in his hand: "Try it."

"Yeah..." After taking a sip of tea, Ye Lao said with a chuckle: "However, it needs to be done step by step. Just like the young man said, the steps are too big and it is easy to get eggs!"

Seeing his old naughty snicker, the laughter that sounded like Hong Zhong spread out of the courtyard.

...

...

July 29.

All the procedures were completed, and the dangerous building I saw last time has been reduced to rubble.

More than a dozen muck trucks are going in and out to transport waste. Qin Yu and the person in charge sent by the Shisan Division are on the side of the road, discussing the follow-up construction issues on the spot.

"The factory area is over there...Here, the door opens here...According to the planning drawings, this will be a main road from now on, and the door will open here to facilitate the entry and exit of vehicles."

"The warehouse is in the east. After the vehicles come in, they can directly bypass the production area and arrive at the door of the warehouse. After loading, they will detour around the warehouse and leave."

According to the current plan, the car enters from the gate and arrives at the warehouse through the right side. After loading, it will go around the factory area and leave the door on the left.

In this way, the entry and exit do not interfere with each other, which can save time to the greatest extent.

The door of the production area is facing the front door, and the warehouse stands horizontally behind the production area.

There is a direct connection between the two production workshops and the warehouse, which is convenient for storage.

The administrative building and laboratory are placed on the left side of the gate, where you can directly overlook the entire factory area.

The right side can be used as a dormitory, canteen, and activity room.

Of course, if necessary, the parking lot can be divided out without needing.

These can be adjusted before the official start of construction. "I have already mentioned the specific details with the design institute. When can I produce the final draft?"

This time, Qin Yu handed over all the design drawings to the Thirteen Division.

Wen Yaxuan is studying interior design. For such a project from scratch, she still needs a long period of experience to get in touch with such a case.

Qin Yu wanted her to study in the Thirteenth Division, but unfortunately, this was not in compliance with the rules.

Besides, she has already found a job as an intern in a design studio in Hudu.

Let Wen Yaxuan leave Teacher Shen, and work as an "assistant designer" from Hudu to Abandoned City for eight months. There is no future to talk about.

Therefore, this is not a wise choice no matter how you look at it.

It also asked Qin Yu to give up the decision to call Wen Yaxuan and ask her opinion.

"Tomorrow night at the latest...I will send it to your mailbox." The other party responded.

"Okay, that's it." Qin Yu got on the car and drove towards Miami after seeing the time.

Tonight, he is here to entertain Li Xiao and the others, as a celebration of their completion of the preliminary work of "Miracle Pharmaceutical".

However, Qin Yu's nature does not seem high.

Because there are more than 'three conjoined babies,' and Ye Jinlan is present tonight.

The only good news is that tomorrow he will have an expenditure of 300 million yuan, which is one step closer to the system upgrade.

89 mu of commercial land, the unit price is 3.48 million mu, and the total transaction price is 309.72 million yuan.

Ok!

This is just a self-deceiving statement, even if you add this expense, it is a drop in the bucket for the upgrade.

It still needs more than 4.2 billion to reach LV8 from the system.

According to the law of increasing experience value, the next increase of LV9 will be 25 billion.

If you want to upgrade to LV10, this number will have to reach more than 100 billion.

"It's time to finalize the headquarters." After the on-site inspection, Qin Yu felt that the Southeast Suburb region has great potential in the future.

To the east is the international port area for future development, and to the south is the CBD center of gravity that has never been shaken by the abandoned capital over the years.

The current development trend tends to move northward, but those who control these assets still have a preference for Nanqu.

Nowadays, it happens to meet the old city reconstruction plan.

Qin Yu felt that this was a good opportunity to allow him to choose a suitable plot to build the headquarters of the "Miracle Group".

This time, Qin Yu needs to talk to the Yamen in person.

...

...

"Have you really decided to put the company headquarters here?" During the drinking process, Qin Yu mentioned his plan, and Ye Jinlan seemed to have different opinions on this.

"What do you think?" Qin Yu asked with a smile.

The restless music made her a little unclear, and she took the initiative to approach Qin Yu and said loudly, "What did you say?"

"I said, what do you think?" Qin Yu said against her ear.

Ye Jinlan pondered for a moment with a complicated expression, but decided to express his thoughts.

She believes that the future "miracle group" will grow into a real behemoth, whether it is placed in the south, or in Shangdu, or in developed areas such as Yaodu.

For it, it is better than the current choices. UU Reading www.uukanshu.com is because in terms of supporting facilities, talents, information circulation and development.

Abandoned City and these cities are not in the slightest comparable, and the gap between the two sides is huge.

"I just consider it from the company's standpoint. Of course, everyone wants to do something for their hometown, but you should also look at the problem from the perspective of the company's future development!"

Ye Jinlan can say that he is not selfish, because no matter where he puts the company, the holding company has nothing to do with her.

At least this is true for a short time, Qin Yu still resists her identity and background.

As for the future, who can be sure!

Chapter 470: Ye Jinlan's active invitation

"I think there is a lot to do in the abandoned city in the future!" Qin Yu responded with a smile.

The development strategy of the economic city cluster is destined to become the central axis driving the development of the entire northwest in the future.

Instead of going to Shangdu, Hudu, or Yaodu where there are already predators, go grab food with the predators.

It is better to stay in the abandoned city and take advantage of the opportunity of the Northwest Development to take advantage of the wind...

"It's a good idea!" Ye Jinlan agreed with his idea.

At the same time, he also knew that he had considered this matter for a long time, not just a blind decision made under impulse.

Therefore, there is no need to waste words on this!

"Do you want to dance?" Ye Jinlan looked at him and said.

Now that you are already in the nightclub, always have some fun, sit here and drink dryly?

"Good." Brother Yu just moved his lower body.

The last time I performed a mechanical dance, it caused a sensation in the bar.

This time Brother Yu didn't show up anymore, just twisted his body with the music.

But under the blessing of [Wu Lin Zhizun].

Every movement of the body, the frequency of stuck points and the natural arc when twisting.

"Do you still say that you are not the Sea King?" Seeing his pleasing and natural movements, Ye Jinlan once again confirmed his 'identity'.

Qin Yu smiled back. He didn't intend to deny it, but he didn't intend to admit it either.

Doesn't she still understand that Jiang Taigong is fishing... what is his intention?

"Don't touch me, I said I have a boyfriend."

"I know you didn't... don't want to lie to me, why can't you accept me, what can I do not good enough?"

"I just want you to stay away from me."

"But I like you, I want to pursue you..."

The quarrel coming from beside attracted the attention of Qin Yu and Ye Jinlan.

A young woman with long black hair and a workplace outfit is being entangled by a handsome young man.

The woman exudes a capable and determined temperament, and she knows she is in a high position at a glance.

As for that handsome guy... The first time I saw him, Brother Yu thought of rap...basketball...

The same feminine temperament, the complexion is pink, and at first glance it is pink.

Qin Yu does not believe that makeup is a woman's patent, nor does he oppose men's makeup.

It's just, why can't you take the masculine route? You have to turn yourself into a little white face.

Every detail seems to be an announcement: Auntie, I don't want to work hard! ! !

"I said, I don't want to accept your likes...Now can you let it go?" The woman said very helplessly and full of disgust.

"No, you never knew me, it's not fair..."

The endless entanglement made Ma Lin go crazy, why the little boys now have no self-esteem at all.

At this moment, she saw Qin Yu who was looking at her.

His eyes were full of playfulness, with a cheerful and pleasant smile, and the slightly upturned corners of his mouth set off his handsome and tough edges.

"Sorry, my boyfriend came to pick me up." Ma Lin thought of a suitable reason for an instant, and ran to Qin Yu quickly, holding his arm in his dazed expression.

"My dear, why have you only come now? You have been waiting for you for a long time." Ma Lin spoiled Qin Yu in a sweet and greasy tone that she had never had before.

The tone made her herself almost vomiting, and her eyes were full of admiration when she looked up at him.

At this time, she is no longer the vice president of the company.

But an infatuated little girl who fell in love, blindly impulsive, and worshipped her lover.

Xiao Bai's expression instantly stiffened, and Ye Jinlan was even more ugly than his expression.

Pointing at the two blankly, Ye Jinlan felt that he needed an explanation.

"Beauty, although I would love to have a girlfriend like you, I must say...We are not familiar.

In addition, I also hate being used by others, especially when it comes to relationship issues..."

Smiling and pulling away the hands of the other party holding his arms, Qin Yu said to the overjoyed little white face: "Buddy, there is no grass in the end of the world, you can't do it!"

"...Who is licking the dog, I am pursuing love." Xiao Bai's face blushed, but after noticing the size of Qin Yu's raised biceps when he raised his arm, he pressed back the little temper that he wanted to explode.

Measure the value of the force between the two parties, the other party can probably press him to death with one hand.

Of course, he would never admit this.

However, it is better not to take the initiative to provoke, at least the other party does not have a dowry is Ma Lin's boyfriend.

This gave him another chance to pursue her again, 'great, I knew Marlene would not give up on me.'

Regarding the inner self-comfort of Xiaobai's face licking the dog, even though Brother Yu doesn't have a mind reading skill, he can still guess the same.

Licking the dog is best at finding excuses for himself and the other party.

And take this as comfort, and give yourself a steady stream of motivation...

"..." As for Ma Lin, she's not all right now.

A beautiful woman like her, with good temperament, figure, and appearance, was ruthlessly rejected when she took the initiative to deliver her.

... She admits that the woman opposite is a bit pretty, but she looks too immature.

Could it be that this handsome handsome guy likes tenderness?

If this were the case, then he would be very wrong.

With a complicated expression, he patted Xiao Bai's shoulder on the shoulder, 'the licking dog is called licking dog because I don't give up when I reach the Yellow River.'

Taking Ye Jinlan back to the deck, Ma Lin actually followed.

Behind her was, pitiful, like a little white face followed closely by a pug.

"Little brother, I'm interested in you." Ma Lin lay on the back of the deck, leaning forward and said in his ear.

Looking at her data, Qin Yu said calmly: "I am not very interested in you."

The face value is 92-, the figure is 93↑, the favorability is 71↑... There are so many face dogs.

Sure enough, he was handsome and enjoyed it everywhere he went.

As for the freshness of her 87, I can only say that it is neither high nor low.

It can also be seen that she is only deliberately showing a coquettish side, trying to get rid of the entanglement of the little milk dog.

If Ma Lin is really interested in him, there is no little milk dog chasing after him.

Qin Yu might be so interested in her.

After all, her workplace atmosphere can easily arouse men's desire to conquer.

"Qin Yu, send me back to the hotel!" Ye Jinlan stood up with a calm expression.

The best way to get rid of entanglement is to not give the other person a chance to get close.

She knew very well how amazing Qin Yu's damage to women was.

Therefore, before the woman who ran into it inexplicably, she had to take Qin Yu away and cut off the possible connection between them.

the reason?

Of course it was for Lan Yue. As a friend, she had the obligation to look at him for Lan Yue.

"No problem!" Qin Yu said to Li Xiao, and left the bar with Ye Jinlan.

Ma Lin tried to catch up, but was pulled by the little milk dog, "Ma Lin, listen to me..."

"open!"

"I do not....."

The coquettish tone with a long tone, vomit!

Quickly walked out of the bar, the cold wind blew, and the urge to vomit was suppressed.

Terrible, terrible.

If this continues, men in this world will become extinct in a few years.

Because there is a new species that will occupy the world.

They have a shocking and vulgar title: Niang Pao!

"Let's go, take you back to the hotel first." Qin Yu waved to the driver on the side of the road and walked to the parking lot together.

When Ma Lin got rid of the entanglement of the little milk dog and ran out of the nightclub.

The figures of the two have long since disappeared, only two taillights disappeared at the end of the street.

On the way back to the hotel, Ye Jinlan kept his chin on his hand and looked out the window.

Seeing that the hotel was close at hand, Qin Yu's hand on the cushion was grasped by cold and trembling fingers.

"Be with me for a while." Ye Jinlan screamed like a mosquito.

At this time, she was surprised at her initiative and boldness, when did she have such courage.

Actively ask men to stay at night...hotel...lone man and widow...

As each keyword popped up in his mind, Ye Jinlan's expression became more weird.

Her cheeks are hot Her body is hot and itching makes her fidget, twisting her body uneasily.

Because of being overly excited, the spontaneous nerve spasm made her body tremble slightly.

Every signal is expressing to the outside world how nervous she is at this time...

So, after sensing these signals, Brother Yu started 'Happy Hour.'

The slightly rapid breathing gradually eased, and the inner shyness and anxiety were banned by inexplicable joy.

The happiness in her heart made her uncontrollably clasp the five fingers of Qin Yu's palm tightly.
