Chapter 501: Mentality exploded again

Qin Yu is setting up a stage with a group of people. In fact, he is not even sure, who are these people?

classmate? Or a stage contractor hired by the college?

"Qin Yu, can you help me remove the sound?" The glamorous senior in a yellow dress asked him for help.

smiles brightly, if there is another light from behind.

That picture fits the first fantasy picture that any man wants to see when he opens his eyes in the morning.

It's just that Qin Yu has seen this kind of scene many times.

on different, excellent, and prettier women.

"Okay." Ignoring the scene created by the senpai deliberately, I deliberately added glamorous red lips.

Qin Yu easily lifted the speaker and placed it at the designated location!

After discovering that he is strong, helpful, and not as difficult to get along with as expected.

Qin Yu became very busy...

"Boy, can you help me remove that box? It's so heavy~"

"Senior~ I can't move this!"

"Boy, you are all sweating, wipe it off."

"Senior~ You look so handsome when you sweat, and people's heartbeats have accelerated..."

looked at the lively senior who was holding a towel on the left, and then at the green tea senior who was holding mineral water on the right, with a face full of worship.

Yu thinks...he would be happier if he changed school.

As he said before, the quality of school girls is really worrying!

"The class guide asked me to take the photo. I have to go get the camera and leave first." With an excuse, Qin Yu got rid of the entanglement of the school sisters and the school girls, and quickly fled the scene.

This scene makes the boys jealous...

Why did the girl take the initiative to embrace him, and she really refused.

I want to send warmth, and what I got is indeed, 'Go!'

Ok!

Although it's a bit exaggerated, the truth is almost the same.

The goddess who can't ask for it, why does it become a dog licking in front of others?

"Damn!" Throwing down the chair he was moving, the man with glasses cursed and exited the venue.

can't stand this grievance, I can't do the job! ! !

Outside the venue, Qin Yu waited for a few minutes and saw Yan Er and Shen Dong coming with cameras.

"Brother Yu, your fellow." Shen Dong handed him the camera bag and blinked with a pun.

"This is a hobby, do I need to rely on this to eat?" Qin Yu retorted solemnly.

try{mad1(\gad2\);}catch(ex){} "Yes, I know you are good, understand!" Shen Dong was full of disgust.

Seeing that Yan Er was not prepared for anything, he was wearing a sweatshirt with the zipper pulled to the neck.

Qin Yu asked curiously: "Second brother, what are you going to perform?"

"Bodybuilding!" Shen Dong grinned and said, "Second brother, today, is destined to be the man who detonated the audience, Brother Yu, you are going to be stolen."

"Have I been in the limelight?" Qin Yu looked at Yan Er encouragingly: "Although grabbing, the higher the key, the better."

"Go on, can you two be alone?" Yan Er was about to vomit.

MD, neither of the two friends is worry-free.

I know all kinds of things every day, can I take the time to talk and do some human affairs?

"The class guide is here." Qin Yu pointed back and said with a weird expression: "How do I feel that the girl following the class guide is a bit familiar?"

"Where, where?" Yan Er and Shen Dong immediately came to their spirits.

can eat melons from the class guide, how can this opportunity be missed.

Just as soon as he turned his head, Yan Er was dumbfounded, and then he laughed ecstatically: "Haha, Xiaobai, my wife..."

proudly nodded on the bulging chest with his thumb, Yu Ge visually detected B, and Yan Er rushed forward like a blue chimpanzee.

"Xiaobai~" Seeing the two people hugging each other, Xia Bai, 170+, was held in a circle by Yan Er easily, playing with romance.

Shen Dong's envious drool, MMP~

Now, the only one in the dormitory is that I am a single dog, which feels...too ridiculous!

"By the way, Brother Yu, show you something good." Shen Dong took out his cell phone, opened the WeChat account, and found a WeChat group called the 'Gentlemen's Club'.

After clicked on, there were all kinds of 'identity cards' inside. ' is that kind, with a photo on the left, and a nickname, name, height, occupation on the right...

The information including the visual measurements is in it, and there is enough information.

"...Be careful of being fished by someone!" The woman who can appear here will know her rank when she thinks about it.

Not to mention the countless number of Vietnam, at least he is also a high-ranking player.

Diamond...or platinum...

With Shen Dong, this little bronze slag, I'm afraid it's not enough.

"I don't look for a wife, eh... I just play." Shen Dong put his mobile phone away proudly: "It's not going to be a holiday tomorrow, I've already made a few appointments."

"How many?" Qin Yu was surprised. Is he going to be a prodigal?

"Yes, Xuan Xuan gets off the night shift at 6 o'clock in the morning and picks her up to the hotel... At noon, I have lunch with white-collar peanuts, and then watch a movie or something. The analysis said she likes romance, and the hotel should end in the early hours of the morning.

try{mad1(\gad2\');}catch(ex){} just picked up the last one, Ai Ai, dancing in the nightclub, and returning to the hotel after the end..."

Seeing his triumphant expression, Qin Yu thoughtfully said: "You don't just open a room and recycle it, do you?"

It is really possible for Shen Dong to do this, just like his style.

"Why not? The 2899 room rate, of course, should be used to the fullest!" Shen Dong said as it should be.

"... Dong Ge Niubi!"

"Brother Dong, I will call your brother from now on, you are such a...ghost!" Brother Yu didn't know what to say.

In saving money, Shen Dongzheng strives to make himself an expert.

Although Qin Yu is not sure, is the direction of his efforts a bit off track.

It's changed... how do you say, not serious?

but this is him

One-time use of the room three times...Sure enough, the best use of everything.

I hope he will not use the small umbrella repeatedly, which is not good for health...

"What did you two just say?" Yan Er asked curiously.

"It's okay, Dong Brother has a little business!" Qin Yu said with a blank expression, 'this business is not small at all, I am afraid it will take two Smurfs to solve it.'

"Small business? I just heard about the hotel, make the best use of it, what girl?" Xia Bai's hearing is surprisingly good, so he can hear it too.

"Uh...you got it wrong." Shen Dong would never admit his plan.

He didn't want to be a pervert in Xia Bai's heart...

Actually, he was expecting Xia Bai to introduce himself to his girlfriend.

After going to play, my girlfriend is still looking for.

Going out to play is filled with passion and body, and girlfriend, filled with spirit.

Although most of the time, the situation will be reversed at 720 degrees!

But Shen Dong still wants to have a relationship, as long as not like the last one...

Leave without saying goodbye, and break up on the phone.

These two acts are definitely more evil than 'fishing', and they are simply outrageous!

But when will he reach the realm of Brother Yu.

Shen Dongjue, he won't have any regrets in this life!

"Tell me, what's the matter?" When Xia Bai and the girls came to the side to chat, Yan Er bumped his shoulder and asked about the matter.

He has a hunch that the topic just now is definitely not serious.

So, hehehe...

Chapter 502: I really didn't want to be high-profile management" in a high-profile manner, and Yan Er exploded on the spot.

"Fuck, Brother Dong... You will be the second master from now on... Niubi, I will ask you to order whatever you want to eat and drink tonight."

Yan Er served, originally thinking that he was a winner.

Finally, the clown is myself?

Three consecutive games a day, the games are different, MMP~

Tell the truth, Yan Er is envious!

But he seems to have forgotten that his girlfriend is still there, and at this time he shows an expression of envy and madness.

What's worse is that Xia Bai's ears are very good, and he is eavesdropping.

"...Second brother, are you very envious?" A gloomy voice came, accompanied by gusts of cold wind.

Yan Er swears, the wind is really... icy cold.

"No, I don't envy, I really don't envy... Hiss~" The gorilla was lifted to the background by a little rabbit, pulling its ears.

啧啧, this time there is a good show.

Qin Yu, who had just arranged the camera, handed the box to Shen Dong for safekeeping, and followed the two to the backstage.

He went to the backstage to work, don't forget that Brother Yu is also a part-time photographer!

is definitely not for taking pictures of Yan Er's embarrassment, it can be used to mock and threaten him in the future.

As a brother, how can he do such a thing?

"Second brother, look here." After catching up with the little white rabbit carrying the big stupid bear, Qin Yu doubled the shutter when Yan Er was picked up by his ears and turned back funny.

Click, click...

17 continuous shooting, Qin Yu looked down at the results.

Ok, done!

"It's okay, you continue." Qin Yu quickened his pace and passed by the two of them.

At this time, Yan Er understood what had just happened, "Wait a minute, Brother Yu, ah, ah, it hurts..."

Hearing the softly begging for mercy of the big bear behind him, Brother Yu sighed and shook his head: "One thing drops one thing!"

came to the backstage and got the work permit.

Qin Yu followed a 'campus reporter' to visit and shoot everywhere!

Every team on the stage receives their attention.

After , we will decide which teams will be displayed on the 'Honor Wall' based on the team's performance that day.

The reason why Qin Yu agreed to be a photographer when he received the invitation without hesitation.

is to avoid becoming the 'glorious one!'

'When I'm on stage, I can't give myself an interview or filming, it's perfect!'

Brother Yu was tying Xiao Jiujiu in his heart, which did not affect his technique.

In fact, a portrait shot taken by instinct is perfect at any angle.

won the Hesai Portrait Award, Yu Ge is really capable!

Time passed, and a program was presented to the teachers and students of the school.

The atmosphere in the university is better than in the previous 18 years, especially after the post-90s.

Therefore, various improvisations and emerging raps have also been put on the stage.

school sisters, school girls * "self-dancing," was also licensed to join the program.

try{mad1('\gad2\');}catch(ex){ "What a pity~"

Brother Yu, who was in the background, had to shoot for the group behind, but unfortunately missed the previous performance.

Although the appearance is not good, he can only achieve an average score of 82.

But only looking at the * dance and figure will not affect the overall effect and pleasure of the show.

Just listen to the animals outside, calling like wolves in heat, and you know how hot the dance scene is...

"Qin Yu." The "reporter classmate" who had finished the interview walked up to him and reminded him: "The following is your show. How about let's have an interview first?"

"There are only words, how about it?" Qin Yu asked, "It's a special care for myself!"

The other party looked at Qin Yu with interest, "You don't like exposure or being noticed?"

"Why, most people of our age should like to be paid attention to by everyone, add glory, publicity, show off..."

Qin Yu shrugged and chuckled, "Just treat me as precocious."

His exposure is high enough, there is no need to post his photos on the school photo wall.

"No problem, can I ask some questions about work?" When the other party agreed to Qin Yu, he also put forward his own request.

Countless people want to interview Qin Yu to understand the way his business operates.

Now, with a godsend in front of her, how could she give up...

"Senior sister, you may have made a mistake. We are now in the hall of sacred knowledge." Qin Yu joked, and then readily agreed.

In fact, he knew he couldn't resist all the time.

resisted exposing some information, because it would only win endless entanglement.

Out of curiosity and mystery, people will 'follow him hard,' the more they cover up, the more they will be motivated.

Therefore, Qin Yu is also looking for an opportunity to release some news appropriately!

Since I'm not having a choice now, I simply agree to it.

The reports from the school will appear more authentic and reliable...

The interview lasted only seven or eight minutes, and it was time for Qin Yu to take the stage.

Therefore, this improvised interview can only end here.

However, she has already got what she wants... In fact, it can be said that it is far more than expected!

Looking at the back of the stage holding the guitar in hand, she became more curious about this guy...

On the stage, Qin Yu pulled the chair and adjusted the angle of the microphone.

lifted the guitar to his chest with a relaxed expression, raised his head and smiled: "Don't hesitate, give it to everyone!"

"Oh~" The sparse applause all came from girls.

The expressions of men are probably like this.

The name Qin Yu is hostile to the majority of boys in Lixin.

What girls discuss the most every day is about his genius, investment, assets, etc...

And boys, it's about 55 open.

50% jealousy, 50% hostility, 55 cars are right...

Music sounded, Qin Yu waved the strings.

try{mad1(\gad2\);}catch(ex){} The body leaned forward and swayed to the rhythm of the music.

His movements are not exaggerated, but they are very infectious.

For an instant, everyone's hearts seemed to be ignited by passion, and they couldn't help but sway on the drums.

"It's not easy to reach the ideal when I am bored and hesitate."

"Even if you have confidence, your fighting spirit is suppressed."

The magnetic voice hits the mind directly. At this moment, all distracting thoughts are driven out of the brain.

The mood fluctuates with the tune, and people can't help standing up, groaning softly in their mouths:

"Whoever decides me to go or stay, set the universe in my heart."

"I just want to wave to my ideal with both hands~"

The feeling of surging inside became stronger and stronger. As the syllables of the guitar were raised, a neat chorus sounded on the scene:

"Question Tianjigao's ambition is higher than that of the sky, and he has a self-confident mentality that he can't die to live until he gets old."

"OH...I have a story in my heart, and I write every piece of happiness, sorrow, and dream..."

"OH... Even if you are traumatized, your dream will come true and you will find the world of your dreams.

can finally be seen! "

again, again, again...

The hope for the future, the confident self-confidence, the happiness and joy of the past, gathered in the sky above the party.

It's a long time...

Backstage, "Miss Reporter" who took photos of everything with her mobile phone showed a satisfied and surprised smile.

It seems that this time, she has a more exciting and topical report. However, she still lacks a suitable photo!

Seeing Qin Yu on the stage holding a guitar in hand, jumping and playing as he walks, he is obviously playing with it.

Looking at countless people under the stage holding up their mobile phones, waving and shooting with the music, she seems to have found the source of the photo material.

I believe in enthusiastic classmates, especially those female classmates who screamed red and even crying.

would be happy to see the material that I took, appearing on the school intranet and the honor wall.

The honor of the male * has its own credit. Who can refuse such a sense of participation?

"...finally visible!" Fingers danced wildly, and the guitar sound stopped suddenly.

Crazy Qin Yu stood in the center of the stage, laughed and bowed: "Thank you!"

Before the audience calmed down from the surging blood, others had already trot and disappeared in the background.

Only a lot of school girls who have been teased to the heat of the whole body are left behind, the school girls, crazy shouting "male * don't go, let's have another song..."

It is impossible to come again, but the sound of 'ding, ding' in my mind brought Qin Yu a delightful experience.

The experience value is obtained, once again confirming the charm of miracles.

As for those cheers and applause, leave it to others to enjoy.

accidentally played and hi, robbed them of the limelight, Yu brother is still very sorry.

Next time, he promised to converge.

The normal performance seems to be a bit beyond the limit of ordinary people...

eh, I want to be a low-key ordinary person.

Why is it so difficult? ? ?

Chapter 503: Growth and harvest on vacation!

After a night of hangover, all the tension was let go.

"When are you leaving?" Qin Yu lay on the bed, doing sit-ups.

Today, he is sluggish, so he decides to do some exercise on the dormitory bed to replace his daily morning exercise.

"Tomorrow." This year, Shen Dong decided to go back to his hometown.

Actually, it is not his decision.

Shen's father and Shen's mother are going back to celebrate the Chinese New Year. What if he stays here alone!

Ordinary festivals, maybe young people don't care.

But during the New Year, this kind of reunion day integrated into the bones will still be valued.

Furthermore, Shen Dong's hard work and achievements this year.

Shen's father and Shen's mother can't wait to show off in front of relatives and friends, how can they give up such a good opportunity.

"My mother said that I want to buy a car... to save face, I don't think it is necessary, it is the time to spend money." Shen Dong has money in his hands, but he has his own plans.

Using the money to buy a car, in his opinion, it is completely unnecessary.

Save the money, what's wrong with doing something back?

The car is a depreciated commodity, and it will drop when you leave the house... It is not worth the investment at all.

"Would you like to lend you one?" Qin Yu wouldn't say that if it were placed in the past.

Because Shen Dong couldn't bear the responsibility at that time, lending him a car would only bring a burden.

Now, a Challenger should be enough for him to use for the New Year.

Shen Dong was a little moved, but after careful consideration, he refused, "Forget it, your cars are too high-profile. I really drove back. People thought I got rich overnight."

"Second brother, second brother?"

Seeing Yan Er's paralysis on the bed with an expression of indescribability, Qin Yu jumped out of bed amusedly: "Don't think about it, the show is over."

Shen Dong also jumped out of bed and turned on the computer: "Second brother is well-known."

Watching him open the school intranet, Qin Yu curiously leaned over: "What do you mean?"

"Look at this..." Open the top 'Ghost, Devil Muscle Man' post.

"Heh, heh, hey, heh..." In the video, Yan Er wearing a bodybuilder outfit appears in a weird pose shot from a strange angle, plus the dubbing of ghost animals.

"Puff~" Brother Yu, who had just put the toothbrush in his mouth, vomited.

This Nima...

Sorry, he really couldn't help it. The picture in the video is too spicy, and Yan Er is really hot.

He turned out to be the protagonist of the ghost animal video on the school intranet!

Even the video of Qin Yu's performance last night was overwhelmed by the popularity of his ghost video, and only ranked second.

"Heh." Raise your arms, press your right leg forward, bend your left leg back, and your inverted deltoid muscle bulges.

"Heh~" The arms droop inward to exert force, and the legs stand up straight in an outward figure, exposing strong calf muscles.

try{mad1('gad2');}catch(ex){} "Hey~" Lunge forward, arms raised like crabs, and Yan Er, with a raised neck, looks like an angry bull.

"Ha, ha ha ha..." Shen Dong smiled and slapped his thigh straight, and Qin Yu couldn't stop thinking about it.

Damn, it's wonderful!

Sorry, he is swearing again, but the picture in the video is really funny.

"Second brother, second brother is coming soon, your video has been moved to Xiaopo Station, and the click has broken 10,000." Shen Dong suddenly found the link to Xiaopo Station, and Yan Er went on fire at Xiaopo Station.

In the barrage, people affectionately call him the 'Da Ji Ba' brother, "Second brother, look, a lot of people want to face you, and some want to test your muscle strength..."

Before Shen Dong's voice fell, Yan Er had rushed to shut the computer forcibly.

"Hey..." Shen Dong couldn't laugh or cry: "Second brother, as for?"

"As for!" Yan Er replied very positively, unloved, and threw his body on the bed like a salted fish, muttering boredly: "The reputation of the buddy for a lifetime is gone, no more."

Now, if he is killed, he will no longer agree to the requirements of the class guide, what kind of team honor and dedication...

Tell others to go!

didn't grab a sheep so hard, he was going to be bald!

"Come on, you don't have a good reputation, lsp...what kind of sheep?" Qin Yu put the daily necessities into the handbag, and said with the duffel bag in his hand, "Go now, see you later!"

"See you at the beginning of school." The two waved, and began to pack their luggage.

This year, whether it's a bumper year or not, it's going to have a good time!

...

Seaview No. 1, Qin Yu met the little anchor who hadn't seen him for many days.

She has been staying in Hudu for the past half month, mainly responsible for shooting some short clothing videos, and cooperating with Wang Hong for brand promotion and promotion.

Throwing the handbag in the hall, Qin Yu has heard the lively movement in the living room.

"The corners, the corners are pulled up...with a pin, it can't be so loose!"

"Don't move that...that's our hot style of the season, it belongs to Sister Xiao Yu."

"The silk scarf over there, give me two red, blue and green and white..."

"The stockings, why haven't the stockings arrived yet?"

Standing in the living room, Wang Hong exudes a strong professional female aura.

She is a strong woman in the workplace.

This impression directly reflected in his mind made Qin Yu realize that the little cook is also making progress over time.

She is no longer the self she used to be, but has become better, stronger and more confident!

"Sister Hong!" Qin Yu crossed the obstacles and walked towards Qin Hong.

Between them, the place that should have been vacant was filled with boxes full of clothes and accessories.

The furniture in the entire living room is basically emptied.

are all clothes racks, resume dressing mirrors, various curtains and various small stages of the store.

About half an hour later, a total of nine leading Internet celebrities will be broadcast live on a small stage to promote the products they are responsible for.

Cheongsam, Chinese clothes and various costumes with ancient styles...

Obviously, their business has expanded to light industry related to high-end garments such as silk satin.

This made a lot of money for Wang Hong and Cheng Xiyu, and also made their names appear on various news headlines and lists.

Like young entrepreneurs, young leaders, Internet celebrity incubation, etc...

"Boss." Wang Hong asked several assistants to take charge of the follow-up progress, and he accompanied Qin Yu to the restaurant.

It was a mess in the living room, and there was no place for them to talk to.

"Where is Xiyu?" Today is a large-scale event held by the brand. On such an important occasion as UU Reading www.uukanshu.com, it is difficult for Qin Yu to imagine that something she has will be more important than this.

"She is on the way, and there are some problems with the third video clip, and she needs to go to deal with it in person."

"Sister Chi Ni went with her, I think I'll be back soon." Wang Hong glanced at his watch and said that Cheng Xiyu came in from the hall.

Behind her is her King Kong Barbie, Chi Ni!

Her muscles look stronger, a lap stronger than before.

It seems that the superior living environment does not make her lower the standards for herself.

Qin Yu should feel gratified for this. Only those who can find people who make him uncomfortable in a comfortable environment are the real winners.

Obviously, Qin Yu is one of the outstanding and successful!

His thinking was quickly interrupted, because Cheng Xiyu took a standard graceful catwalk and came to him full of temptation.

reached out and grabbed his hand, leading him to the second floor without rush.

The s-curve of waist is exposed in front of her eyes. Today, she is wearing a * cropped outfit, underneath is a more * gray yoga pants.

Sometimes, a woman is more tempting to wear than not to wear...!

is like Cheng Xiyu in front of him at this time, her back satisfies all male fantasies.

And when they finally entered the room, Cheng Xiyu flicked her hair, looking back and smiling...

Language becomes pale and weak at this moment, and only powerful actions can express the passion of the two people.

Continuous bio-impact is the best way to tell repayment and miss!

Chapter 504: A beautiful journey starts from flying flight. After experiencing the baptism of violent storms, Cheng Xiyu is full of peach blossoms, and the spring is like water.

Feeling...Ah!

"Who will accompany you in Iduli?" Enjoying the beautiful aftertaste, Cheng Xiyu was dishonest again.

These women start to be naughty after a long time.

is not as clever as he was at the beginning, and will come to tease Brother Yu at every turn. "

I can't stop you from being a home from all over the world, playing tricks, is it okay to earn a few more seconds, right?

"Go alone, and I won't be back a few days there." Qin Yu's fingers walked on her smooth back.

is like a naughty elf, but also like playing a beautiful piece of music.

"Then you are not very lonely, otherwise, I will let Sister Hong accompany you?" The little anchor began to be a monster again.

Qin Yu didn't say anything, and reached out and patted her on the back bridge.

"Ah!" The little anchor rubbed the back bridge grievously, his collarbone inverted, and he shrank his neck and got into the quilt.

Hum~

can't cure her own master, can she still cure Xiaoyu?

If you don't beat him today, he will be dizzy and foamy at the mouth.

This matter is not over!

The little anchor finally got what he wanted, so he foamed up Xiao Yu, and he was half tired.

tilted his head and fell asleep, and when he woke up, the Spring Festival hot sale event was over.

"Sister Hong, I'm sorry, I was too tired to fall asleep." Cheng Xiyu was lying on the sofa with a red face, and she couldn't see that she looked tired at all.

Wang Hong didn't take her words seriously either, and she was used to it every time Qin Yu came.

In normal work, Cheng Xiyu is an iron man who sleeps four hours a day without crying sleepy.

Tired, I'm afraid it's because of overworked in bed...

"The event went smoothly. Today, 6,753 pieces of high-end Chinese clothes and cheongsam were sold in total, 2,461 pieces.

After five days of the entire event, it is estimated that one hundred thousand pieces will be sold."

About the income, Wang Hong counted ten to twenty million.

Qin Yu expressed surprise, and he made a total of 10 to 20 million yuan a day. No wonder everyone said that clothing is profitable.

This is more than just a big profit. Brother Yu is already thinking about switching to light industry!

I will find a few more college students to do some professional papers like "Character in * lingerie eye design...Emotional expression".

Qin Yu felt that he might be able to create the first Victoria's Secret Special in China...

"I am a little rich woman now!" Cheng Xiyu deliberately tilted her head and pointed at herself with a smile.

Seeing her deliberately pretending to be cute, Qin Yu squeezed her cheek and smiled: "Yes, rich lady, when I don't want to work hard, I must be the first to tell you."

try{mad1(\gad2\);}catch(ex){} "Is anyone going to have a supper?" Qin Yu was a little hungry and decided to order a takeaway to treat himself.

Go back to sleep after eating, and catch the earliest flight tomorrow morning.

"No, I'll go to bed first, I'm too sleepy." Wang Hong said and walked to his room.

She was in charge of all the activities today, she was too tired to open her eyes.

I don't have any appetite right now, I just want to get back to bed quickly...

The little anchor also shook his head and refused. In the middle of the night, eating midnight snack will make her edema. If you set your makeup tomorrow, it will be ugly to be on the camera, so bear with it.

.....

The next day, Brother Yu went out before dawn.

The online taxi has been parked downstairs, and the driver carefully prepared breakfast milk and sandwiches.

So, when Brother Yu got off the car, he generously tipped 500 yuan!

Boarding and taking off, this is Qin Yu's first time abroad...

It was the first time in his memory, and it was the second time in the record.

Because, according to the arrangement of the system, he also went to 'the non-existent Barrow,' encountered some kind of crisis and saved Old Joe...

This time Qin Yu went to Idali and took Window Airlines.

On the Internet, the flight attendants of Window Airlines have always been called 'benchmarks.'

At the same time, Window Airlines has been named the "World's Most Beautiful Flight Attendant" many times. Although it is a bit self-entertaining, there are still honors...

Especially its international routes, I saw it with my own eyes today.

On a flight, two 90+ black silk stewardesses.

Blue V-neck cheongsam uniforms make passengers feel the breath and vastness of the sky in advance!

Beautiful scenery is always fascinating, but also easy to be mobilized.

Their enthusiasm makes people feel at home, and almost every passenger has a satisfied smile on their faces.

Especially Yu brother...

The enthusiasm he received after receiving a series of greetings from four flight attendants.

The entire first-class passengers know it!

"Mr. Qin, do you need another drink for you?" The stewardess, who squatted sideways by the chair, smiled and raised her head.

lowered his head and looked at the stewardess's eyes, V-shaped abyss...so white!

Liu Zhizhi.

"Water, thank you." Qin Yu smiled back. She is one of the two 90+ young ladies.

The appearance value is 92↑, the figure is 94↑, and the freshness is 89-.

This value makes Yu brother believe that she will be the best companion for relieving boredom during her journey.

It takes about 13 hours to fly from Hudu to Idali, which is a long time.

Also, because this flight departed very early, most people did not wake up.

So, soon the first-class passengers put on blindfolds and fell asleep.

With the exception of Brother Yu, he didn't sleep as soon as he got on the plane today.

Instead, he turned on the entertainment system and watched cartoons with earphones.

cat and mouse, the happiest memories of childhood.

At that time, he always thought Tom was bad and liked the smart and mischievous Jerry.

feels that this little mouse is just like himself, with inexhaustible energy every day, all kinds of novel ideas and the courage to meet any challenge.

After grew hair, after seeing the mouse sticking to the sticky board with my own eyes.

The image of as a child collapsed instantly and was ruined!

However, it's still fun to watch it now, it always makes him laugh animation, there is no need to be true.

After all, Brother Yu is not a bargainer.

"Sir, do you need anything else?" Liu Zhizhi appeared next to the seat again.

This is the fourth time she has appeared. If Qin Yu reads it correctly, her neckline seems to have been stretched deliberately, and the arc of the V shape expands outward by an oblique angle.

"No." Qin Yu said as if thinking of something: "By the way, where is the bathroom?"

Liu Zhizhi's expression was taken aback, and a somewhat charming and charming appearance appeared in his eyes: "Mr. Qin, I will take you there."

The 12-hour journey is pleasant because of Liu Zhizhi's company.

Especially the exclusive service she personally provided, which made Yu Ge truly feel what it means to be at home.

The feeling of going home is so warm!

Bologna Airport, Qin Yu saw Lamborghini employees and executive vice president who came to pick him up at the exit.

'Ding. '

'Detected that the host is in a different place, in order to provide a great experience, rewards: proficient in Italian and English! '

'I wish the host a good mood and journey experience'

Such a caring dog suddenly made Brother Yu a little uncomfortable. ;

It has been a long time since he realized the care of the dog, what happened today?

took it out to play, and saw the exotic scenery, so he was in a good mood, and he became a thoughtful and clever ghost again?

Of course, the premise is that it has a so-called heart...

If the system is a machine, the chip seems to be considered a "heart"!!!

Chapter 505: It's very hot

"Mr. Qin, this is Alessio Russo, welcome to the beautiful Italian Dali..."

Russo finished speaking and turned his eyes to the interpreter, waiting for him to explain his meaning to the guest from the East.

Then, he heard the most standard Italian language: "Thank you, I think I will spend a wonderful holiday here!"

Alessio Russo looked surprised and said with surprise: "Mr. Qin, your idiot is really good. If it weren't for the information, I would have thought you lived here for a long time."

"Italian is a beautiful country, but I like my country better!" Qin Yu responded with a smile, and several people walked outside the airport.

There was a Pikachu yellow Lamborghini Urus parked by the road, and the headquarters made a special arrangement to pick him up.

"The hotel has been arranged. Let's go to the hotel for a short rest. Tomorrow morning, you will visit the Lamborghini Museum first, and then go to the headquarters to meet the chief engineer..."

Alessio Russo described the detailed arrangement of the journey to him, and at the same time, he also sent the address of the hotel to his mobile phone.

Qin Yu pressed his thumb and sent it out again.

Liu Zhizhi...

In the next few days, he needs someone to accompany him instead of wandering around in this strange city alone.

At least until he does not have a brand-new main course, this game can be eaten for a few more days.

On an airplane, the narrow space brings strange excitement.

But it is also limited in action and skills. Yu Ge still has many ways to taste dishes that are useless.

I believe that Liu Zhizhi also has a lot of extraordinary skills, which he could not fully display.

The journey from the airport to Sant'Agata Bolognese takes about an hour.

The journey is not boring, because Qin Yu has been talking about this luxury SUV with Alessio Russo.

Lamborghini Urus...

Since its listing, it has been well received by consumers around the world.

was once crowned with various honors and became one of the most popular luxury SUV brands in the world.

Even after the first batch of new cars were sold, the reputation surpassed the well-tested and conservatively acclaimed Cayenne.

Of course, this is the bonus of the Lamborghini brand and the successful publicity strategy!

But if the product itself is not good enough, it will only be short-lived in the end.

After time has passed, the success of Urus has been laid!

try{mad1(\'gad2\');}catch(ex){} sold more than 5700 cars in a year.

More than 7,000 units sold in 9 years, more than 10,000 units sold in 20 years...

After increasing production in two years, more than 2,000 vehicles produced have also been sold out.

It can be said that from the beginning, Lamborghini Urus has no worries about selling, just worry about not enough.

But Lamborghini is not proud and complacent, they put more energy on the performance improvement of Urus.

makes it have stronger power and performance.

Better driving experience, more luxurious, extravagant, enjoyable...

"In tomorrow's visit, you will see all Lamborghini's collections and production models. I personally and the company are full of expectations.

At that time, President Hunter will personally welcome you at the headquarters and show you the glory and history of Lamborghini! "

Qin Yu is also full of expectations for this, and at the same time, he is also full of expectations for this city.

Although so far, what he has seen is a quiet town.

The ancient buildings on the street, people dress casually, comfortably, and simply. It is rare to see elites in suits and shoes appear.

Of course, there are also Lamborghinis who have frequent appearances on the streets!

The number of Lamborghinis in this small town is obviously far more than other cities.

Finally, they stopped in front of a building with arches.

Entering the archway, there is no hall that is a few meters away. The luxurious crystal chandelier is bright and brilliant, and the decoration is magnificent.

Everything looks like a family hotel. If you really think so, you would be wrong!

This building has only two floors, with a small garden in the middle, with benches and wooden promenades.

Guests can pass the time here and enjoy the scenery. It's no problem to stay in a daze or take a nap.

can also be used to meet and receive guests, and the hotel can adjust the layout according to requirements.

Qin Yu's room is on the second floor facing the street. You can see the street by opening the window, and experience the innocent and dull style.

The layout of the room is full of exotic style, handmade products can be seen everywhere, shell necklaces hanging on the head of the bed...

There is also the texture and history of the building itself, which is interesting!

"This hotel is not the best in the town, but it is the one that best expresses the Italian style.

In addition, the food here is the best, you will like it here. "

After making an appointment with Qin Yu to pick him up tomorrow, Russo took the people away, leaving time for Qin Yu to experience the beauty of this small town.

try{mad1(\gad2\');}catch(ex){} Apparently, Russo did not know that a stewardess arrived at the hotel by car shortly after he left.

dragged Qin Yu's understanding of Italian culture and humanistic landscape.

.....

Two hours later, it was dark outside.

Qin Yu just walked out of the room, planning to go outside and just walk around and see...

"Are you going out?" The front desk of the hotel saw him smiling and asked.

"Yes, any suggestions?" Qin Yu asked.

It's absolutely right to have a good relationship with the front desk of the hotel when you travel.

You will therefore get the most valuable local simple guide, provided that it is free or individual travel.

There is no need to follow the group, the front desk will only give you all kinds of promotional cards. By the way, add a nonsense "You have to ask the tour guide".

"Now, there are no people in the town. If you want to go out for a drink, you can choose a nearby bar."

a shawl with thick brown hair, tall, slender, deep-set eyes, delicate skin, elegant makeup, fashionable dress.

Qin Yu suddenly reacted, the receptionist was a beautiful woman.

is at least a beautiful woman with oriental aesthetics, "Someone once said, are you like Monica?"

Ma Lin smiled and said, "You are the first to say that."

"Then the men who have seen you should have their eyesight checked. They should wear a new pair of glasses."

Qin Yu's praise made Ma Lin exuberant, and her eyes became more and more direct.

So, Qin Yu was originally going to experience the dazed night.

only took the first step and was blocked by a stumbling block named Ma Lin.

Miraculous Umbrella, finally has a chance to officially debut.

also witnessed something... big and small... screaming, and then begging for mercy in pain.

The East-West dispute ended perfectly with Yuge's great victory!

The only regret is that until Russo came to pick him up the next day, he didn't have a chance to walk through the hotel alone.

So, when Russo asked about his experience last night, his thoughts and experiences about the town.

Qin Yu could only respond vaguely and politely: "The people here are very enthusiastic."

He absolutely didn't talk nonsense about this, he said that only after experiencing it personally.

Brother Yu has always been an honest person.

Anyway, this year's Italia...It's very hot!

Chapter 506: Thanks for miracle

Qin Yu's passion soaring, and seeing his spirited look.

Alessio Russo thought he couldn't wait to start the journey, so there was no verbose relief, so he got in the car and set off.

First stop: Lamborghini Museum!

For any boy who likes cars, this is heaven.

The 'exhibits' of the Lamborghini Museum are not fixed. Except for those important and historical models, other models may be replaced.

Lamborghini will also put the latest concept cars and limited-quantity and mass-produced cars on display in the museum, hoping to better showcase its brand positioning and future technology to the public.

The entire museum is not big, it is constructed of steel frame and glass, and the whole is patchwork with irregular slopes.

The sense of design gives people an abstract sense of sight, which is very dull...

Entering the museum, the various models are dazzling, and the wall is an introduction to the brand's history.

can make every visitor clearly understand how Lamborghini grew out of nothing, and then developed to its current scale...

The first thing that attracted Qin Yu was the luxury off-road model launched by Lamborghini in the 1980s.

LM002.....

Compared to its close relatives and descendants, LM002 is like a cumbersome big fat man.

But when viewed from the side, it has a somewhat dexterous mechanical feel.

This car was supposed to respond to the Chrysler brand, Cherokee Wagner of JEEP.

The most successful luxury off-road vehicle in the history of the Bald Eagle has dominated the market for more than 30 years. In the 1980s and 1990s, being able to own a Wagner was a manifestation of the pride of a man and the strength of a family.

The four-wheel drive capacity that a sedan cannot match, and the higher chassis, can cope with most complex road environments.

Comfortable and spacious off-road space, and the adjustment of vehicle performance bias, still defines an important standard for SUV models to this day.

LM002 cannot be said to be unsuccessful at the beginning, in fact it is favored by many wealthy people.

Especially the ultra-modern sci-fi feel of the front, the protruding shape of the grille intake holes on the hood, and the flat and wide body structure are all so different.

'S V12 engine makes it a mechanical monster with strong muscles.

Even if the body weight reaches 3 tons, the body is large and heavy, it only takes 8 seconds to accelerate to 100 meters, and the top speed can reach 200km/h.

The large displacement and the weight of the body make it full of power and become a monster of gold swallowing at the same time!

The fuel consumption is 33L per 100 kilometers. This big toy is really not affordable for ordinary families.

try{mad1(\'gad2\');}catch(ex){} is to be able to afford it. After a few feet of oil, you will get myocardial infarction, 'what will I do when I buy it back?'

In that era, the cost of LM200 was very expensive.

Coupled with the various factors mentioned before, it is destined that only gold owners with mines at home can afford it.

Therefore, almost all LM200 orders come from the Middle East and the Bald Eagle.

After realizing that the sales were not good and there would be no more potential customers, Lamborghini announced that it would voluntarily stop production and put it on the honor board.

barely earned the glory of a 'theoretical top SUV pioneer' for it.

If this was the case before, then after the emergence of Urus, the LM200 became a true pioneer.

is also worthy of Lamborghini's painstaking efforts, and finally opened a breakthrough in the SUV field.

"Mr. Qin, there is a Lamborghini concept upstairs to participate in the F1 glorious car..." Russo personally acted as a guide and introduced him to the situation in the hall.

At this time, a tall girl with a hat and a toad mirror was following them.

looked up from time to time, and then hurriedly lowered his head to look away, as if he was afraid of being discovered by them.

Qin Yu didn't notice anyone behind him, until the head of the bodyguard came over: "Sir, someone is following you, do you want to solve it?"

After meeting last time, Qin Yu specifically told him to ask for instructions before doing anything.

Unless his life is involved, there is a clear threat.

For example, someone takes a gun!

Turned around and looked at the woman who was reciting 123 in brand history on the wall, Qin Yu said amusedly: "It's okay!"

[Reminder: The target itself has a high degree of attention, and the bonus points of the occupation have been included in the data!]

When he saw the other party's name, Qin Yu knew who he had met.

As long as it is a musical note player, I believe they have seen her videos.

Smecta's girl group idol, Qin Yu doesn't think that such a petite and cute woman is going to have a backstab with him!

scumbag, go to death and be stabbed by my righteous back!

The picture is beautiful, but it's impossible.

try{mad1(\gad2\);}catch(ex){} Qin Yu is very sure that so far, he has only had a brief in-depth relationship with a Smecta DJ.

The process was beautiful, and the end was decent and pleasant.

So, these funny situations will not exist.

From the overall data performance, she should have followed up out of some curiosity.

Is it because of Alessio Russo, or is it yourself? ? ?

"Hello, Sister Pei." Qin Yu's sudden appearance shocked Pei Zhu.

"Ah~" Pei Zhuxian's high coldness instantly turned into embarrassment when he learned that the other party had discovered his actions.

There was a bit of red rouge on his small face, and he lowered his head and kicked his feet, looking a little at a loss.

I was smashed by someone suddenly and I was following each other, which was too embarrassing.

Pei Zhu is following them right now, but he is not only curious.

As a popular idol, her itinerary is not limited to Smecta.

Therefore, Pei Zhu is now very concerned about 'International Entertainment and Fashion' information.

Among them, it includes the previous lace news about Qin Yu out of curiosity...

Ok!

Pei Zhuxian admitted that he got his face in the first place.

So handsome, with that sunny temperament, tough guy, and a face that gives people a sense of security.

Pei Zhu now really has this kind of appearance, so she searched a lot of information about Qin Yu.

Although there are no new highlights, most of them are rumors that cannot be realised.

But it also made Pei Zhuxian remember his profile, and had a 'sufficient surface' understanding of him.

followed them before, just to make sure that Qin Yu is not him.

Now, there is no doubt.

It's him!

It's just that this is different from what Pei Zhuxian imagined.

She imagined it would be a high-end party, met by chance, and became friends after having a good chat...

She hasn't thought of the latter, but she has already thought about the end.

The beach, the waves, the small bridge in the wooden house, three or two children around them, running and laughing wildly on the beach.

She almost has a name...

"If you don't mind, visit together?" Qin Yu didn't point out her tracking of her behavior, but instead invited her to visit with her.

Brother Yu didn't have any attempts, it was purely to satisfy her inner curiosity.

In an ivory tower, a pure-thinking college student, what can be wicked?

"Thank you, Mr. Qin, it's nice to meet you." Pei Zhuxian was unexpectedly fluent in Italian.

One has a ghost, the other pretends to be reserved.

Chapter 507: brand history

After being invited by Qin Yu, the journey of the two people was a little bit more gloomy.

The harmony of yin and yang makes the magnetic field of this small team more harmonious and easier to get close to.

Therefore, Alessio Russo remembered this 'knowledge point' in his heart.

Maybe sometime, it might be used...

As the tour continued, Russo was a competent tour guide. Under his vivid language description, the images of Lamborghini after its birth in 1963 were slowly unfolding in their minds.

The classic models on the first floor cover the most representative models of Lamborghini from the sixties to the nineties.

Speaking of this, naturally I have to mention 350GT, Lamborghini's first production car.

It took only one year from R&D to production, and if such a miracle can be created, some shortcuts must be taken in the middle.

To speed up the process, the easiest way is undoubtedly to 'borrow' people, which is also the most common method in the market.

The engine of the Lamborghini 350GT came from a former Ferrari engineer, and the chassis engineer came from Maserati. In this way, Lamborghini's first production car was born.

At that time, it sold more than 120 vehicles, which is a good result for a new brand.

It also ensures the survival of the Lamborghini brand, brings appropriate profits and soil, and gives the brand a little confidence.

Then came the GT series, the gold and emerald green of GTS, the convertible design...

The 400GT in response to market demand is just a transition, allowing the brand to survive at the time.

Until the appearance of Miura, its appearance changed the definition of super sports cars in the entire world.

The mid-engine and the charming body designed by Marcello Gandini are named after the famous trainer. At the same time, in the bullring, Miura also represents the strongest, smartest, and most fierce.

And it also deserves the name Miura. When it was unveiled at the Geneva Motor Show, it immediately made a sensation around the world.

The horizontal 4.6-liter V12 mid-mounted engine has a sharp output of 350 horses and a top speed of 280km/h, which was the fastest speed of a mass-produced car at that time.

Miura has countless innovations, whether it is its exterior model, its horn door, and the barrier-type air component behind the roof.

Of course, the most amazing thing is that it breaks the tradition of the front engine.

At this point, Lamborghini officially started its own 'cattle raising' industry.

In the end, it was cultivated into a "golden bull" that can bring huge profits, and it also has the honorable achievement that is dubbed the bullpen today.

The Marzal concept car, Lamborghini's first foray into a four-seater utility model.

Oh, right.....

It must be mentioned that its door turned out to be a flying wing.

It turns out that as early as more than sixty years ago, flying wing doors have appeared...

At that time, the mass-produced model Espada was inspired by it.

It was also built by Gandini, and his previous success has brought him great honor and status.

The three generations of Espada gave the world a clear understanding of Lamborghini's high design standards, and it was also the brand that sold better in that era.

"It was also the financial pillar of Lamborghini in that era. Without it, maybe Lamborghini would have gone bankrupt."

The second-generation Espada is the best-selling model of the three generations, and it is also one of Russo's favorite models.

"I remember I saw in the news before that Lamborghini has plans to revive the Espada series." Qin Yu was very interested in the 4-seater Espada concept car that appeared at the 2008 Paris Motor Show.

"Yes, but it may take some time." Russo did not explain the reason, which involves the overall operating direction of the brand.

Objectively speaking, it can be regarded as a trade secret.

"You should know that we have been competing with Ferrari for a long time..." Russo has a modest seldom seen by foreigners.

Long-term competition? ? ?

More than that, Lamborghini and Ferrari are simply rivals.

Both sides can't wait to kill each other, but they can't count how many times they face each other.

In the beginning, Ferrari could be said to be unilaterally rolling in all directions, until the emergence of Countach.

Countach, which was born in the late 1970s, has been loved by more people, and posters and movie propaganda also favor its 'scissor door' design.

As it is now, owning a Countach is the brightest boy in this gai! ! !

Countach's name comes from Italian slang. When a man sees a beautiful woman, he can't help but marvel at 'Coon-tash!'

This is exactly what Mr. Lamborghini exclaimed when he saw it, so Countach appeared.

It is also one of the few sports cars of Lamborghini, and there is no sports car named after the bull.

Gandini's simple and exaggerated design gives Countach an infinite sense of the future.

The avant-garde, bizarre to exaggerated design and violent power instantly captured the hearts of countless car fans.

People are shocked by it, and it is beginning to appear in Hollywood blockbusters.

Because the scissor door is so cool, no matter when it appears, it is so unique and impressive.

Ability to attract eyes...

At that time, a Countach was more exciting for men than any bikini beauty.

woman?

A super sci-fi sports car with scissor doors, doesn't it smell good? ? ?

Most movie fans even think that they are just movie props, and there is no such super sci-fi sports car in reality.

This brought more honor and aura to Countach, which made the Lamborghini flourish during this period, reversing the situation for the first time and overwhelming its old opponent.

The battle between cows and horses turned over for the first time. For Lamborghini, this period is a period of pride and deep meaning.

"In my opinion, it is the appearance of Countach that gives Lamborghini the real courage to challenge everyone..." Russo's pride comes from the heart.

Even Qin Yu and Pei Zhuxian were deeply infected, as if they had blended into that era, feeling happy that Lamborghini defeated their old rivals for the first time and won the attention of the world.

It can only be said that Russo's commentary is too contagious.

Based on this, he deserves to be the executive vice president, and being able to make others agree with his own point of view is the most brilliant sales strategy.

Then we must mention the turbulent years, Mr. Lamborghini mismanagement, resulting in the brand being included in the Chrysler brand.

The arrogant bald eagle began to point fingers at the company, and after Gandini submitted the new design drawings, he appointed the Detroit design team to make drastic changes to it.

This also made Gandini furious and decided to leave his old club.

It was not until two years later that the new car modified by the Bald Eagle team was officially launched, and it was the flagship product that has continued to this day: Diablo (ghost).

Diablo, which combines the advantages of Italia and Bald Eagle, looks more rounded and smooth, without the avant-garde transcendence of the past, but it is more in line with the public's aesthetic taste.

The iconic scissor door can't be absent, it has become a symbol of Lamborghini supercar.

"The power of the ghost has not been restrained by the change of masters. The 5.7-liter naturally aspirated V12 engine has a maximum power of 492 horsepower, a maximum torque of 580 Nm, and a maximum speed of 325 km/h..."

Russo proudly introduced the original model and the later improved models, one after another, as if watching a real documentary.

However, Lamborghini during this period is really not so good.

The intricate modification, production, and the appearance of many versions confuses car fans who are used to 'single'.

However, finally withstood the test and achieved unprecedented success.

It also left a strong mark in Lamborghini's brand history!

When he followed Russo to the second floor, the sense of history gradually faded and replaced by a sense of the future full of science fiction.

At the same time, Qin Yu also saw the purpose of his trip.

Lamborghini, the sixth element...

Deep as the black of the night, the two bright red spots in front of the windshield are like the crazy eyes of a bull on the field.

Brilliant red seats, combat steering wheel, simple and powerful interior design...

Sitting inside, when holding the steering wheel with both hands, the fingers are slightly sag elastic, allowing the driver to have a more stable grip.

Close the door and look through the front windshield to the wall that blocks the line of sight.

Brother Yu now has a kind of urge to step on the accelerator and break all obstacles to flying to freedom and distance...

Chapter 508: deep impression

Freedom is ultimately blocked by reinforced concrete!

After visiting the F1 car, Russo took them to the assembly factory on the right side of the museum.

Qin Yu also met the current president of Lamborghini, Hunter: "Mr. Qin, welcome to the beautiful Lamborghini town."

Like the small town of 'Ferrari', Lamborghini also emerged here.

As the current president, Hunter inherited the spirit of the ancestors, and the habit and determination of the prancing horse to smash to the end...

"This is my honour." Since it's here to visit, it must be given to the right person.

The presidents have all come in person, and there is no reason to talk about each other without a wave of business.

Before Qin Yu came, Lamborghini had done enough homework!

Compared with the information learned by the outside world, Lamborghini, standing at the top of luxury cars, naturally has a wider range of news channels and sources.

For example, Lixin's investment income, the relationship with the flamingo, etc., Hunter is clear.

Qin Yu did not deny it, nor did he deliberately conceal this information.

At the same time, it also covered up all his sources of funds.

In the face of funds that cost more than 100 million yuan at every turn, the basic salary issued by the system no longer attracts attention.

However, the information leaked from Hunter's mouth shocked Pei Zhu.

In the little head, the sledgehammer was banging!

80, 80, 80...

What tens of billions, hundreds of billions, are they talking about game currency?

The topic soon turned to the car, and Qin Yu also said on the spot that he was a fan of the Bulls, making Hunter smile!

As far as he knows, there is no Ferrari under Qin Yu's name.

On the contrary, there are many self-branded models, including the 100th birthday and poison.

This fact undoubtedly makes what he said more authentic!

Being able to surpass that horse in customer recognition, even if it is just a customer, is enough for Hunter to be physically and mentally happy.

"Nickon is already waiting for us, here..." Qin Yu met the chief designer Nickon in the assembly area of the factory.

Long Yang Long Yang, polite...

After the greeting, Qin Yu became a model again. '

A staff member measured his body shape and observed his driving habits and small movements.

Including some subconscious minds that Qin Yu himself hadn't noticed!

The entire test took a long time, and Qin Yu and Lamborghini's staff also had a deeper exchange.

And mixed with a work meal, it tastes really good!

Most of the designers here are full of passion, they are enthusiastic, and they are full of all kinds of fantastic ideas when they talk about their work.

Those seemingly unbelievable ideas were perfected in discussions that seemed like a joke again and again.

Finally, come up with a brilliant idea.

Such a working atmosphere impressed Qin Yu, who rarely sees such discussions in China.

Because at first, the idea sounded reliant on absurdity.

If it is a domestic company, it has been stifled by countless ridicules and denials as soon as it exports.

No one will go to jokingly discuss with you, perfect.

On the contrary, I will stay far away from you, as if I am afraid of being infected with some disease!

The assembly line has nothing to talk about, it's nothing more than the same training, mechanical repetitive operations.

Rigorous, demanding and high standards, so that they need to devote themselves to their work.

Such episodes of jokes and jokes only happen after breaks and after get off work.

Pei Zhu now also knows that Qin Yu's purpose this time is not to visit and vacation, but to customize the sixth element.

Until the completion of the whole process, Pei Zhuxian was still a bit weird.

20 years old, owns a Lamborghini sixth element.

It sounds so false, so dreamy! ! !

"What I do best is to create miracles." Qin Yu said with a smile.

"Yes, Prince Miracle."

This is the nickname that Pei Zhuxian gave him, because his experience and achievements are really miraculous, and perfect like a prince.

Qin Yu didn't comment, remembering the music festival she had mentioned before, and asked: "What is the number of the music festival you mentioned?"

"February 3, there are still 7 days." Pei Zhuxian snickered.

Qin Yu thought about it, and decided to stay together to participate in this festival.

The activity lasts for three days. It ends on the evening of the 6th, the plane arrives home on the 7th, and the 9th is New Year's Eve.

There is one day of flexible time in the middle, which is just enough!

"Is it in Turin?" Qin Yu said.

Pei Zhu now nodded and said: "Yes, Turin's Music Square, when are you going to go?"

Seeing that Qin Yu looked at herself with a smile but a smile, Pei Zhuxian quickly explained: "If it is early, I can invite you to visit the rehearsal."

Pei Zhuxian was invited to participate in this music festival this time. Of course, it is no problem to open the back door for him to visit the backstage rehearsal!

"I will try my best..." There is also Liu Zhizhi on Brother Yu, who has to go back and get rid of before heading to Turin.

This is a basic question of politeness. He doesn't have the habit of taking off his pants and going to bed, wearing pants and scolding his mother.

This is not something that humans can do, and what they do is definitely not a human being.

"Qin, the work here is over. To celebrate, Alessio and I have prepared a dinner for you and tell me you have time!"

Hunter, who had finished communicating with the chief designer, Niken, was like seeing his half-brother, and his attitude towards him was too good.

However, considering that Qin Yu is about to own a sixth element.

He has obvious interest in Lamborghini Hermes, and Hunter thinks he can be more enthusiastic.

Lamborghini has no plans to sell Hermès, only one Hermès will only stay in the museum for people to visit.

What Hunter values is Qin Yu's loyalty to Lamborghini and future consumption potential.

The rumored price of 300 million cars did not stop his love.

Which CEO would dislike such potential consumers?

If it weren't for him to be older and a straight man, he would want to hug Qin Yumeng to express his excitement.

Qin Yu readily agreed to Hunter's invitation, and the two parties agreed on the time and address, and Alessio arranged a car to take him back to the hotel.

Pei Zhuxian, who also lives in a small town, took the opportunity to take a ride.

"Do you want to bring a female companion to the evening party?" Qin Yu suddenly asked Alessio in the car.

He looked at him in surprise, and then at Pei Zhuxuan.

The old driver Alessio understood in seconds: "You guessed it, Qin, everyone needs to bring a female companion to the show!"

Qin Yu laughed helplessly: "This really stumps me, you know, I came alone."

Alessio said to Pei Zhu: "I think Pei is very suitable, maybe you should ask her for her opinion!"

Alessio asked so clearly, how did Qin Yu refuse: "Are you interested in going to the dinner party with me?"

Pei Zhu nodded voluntarily, and then thought that she didn't seem to have the right clothes.

All her luggage and dresses remained in Turin.

It was entirely her own decision to go here, in order to visit Lamborghini's museum and production line.

I have to say that the various events that have taken place are impressive!

Chapter 509: Upgrade: ai smart assistant

'Ding!'

'Congratulations to the host for developing a shallow believer, with an experience value of 10,000 rewards, trigger rewards!'

'Sexy, the prize has been put in a duffel bag.'

The forcibly inserted sound in my mind made Brother Yu feel exhausted...

Since his information was exposed on the Internet, it may be too legendary and exaggerated.

People often feel the power of 'miracle' from it, and then become new believers.

It was a good thing...

However, most of the rewards provided by these people are not serious!

What is "glowing shoe polish", "super soft shampoo", "just very moisturizing lubricant", and "a mouthful of smoke"

And the "sexy*" just now...

I suspect that my system is messing with me, and I have evidence!!!

But there is evidence for a fart, and there is no complaint window...

Tired and slumped on the car seat, Pei Zhu asked curiously: "What's wrong?"

Seeing his unlovable expression, Pei Zhuxian thought it was his own problem.

Looking down at his dress, it seems that there is nothing wrong with it?

"It's none of your business." Brother Yu didn't know how to explain it, so he simply didn't explain it.

Throwing aside the psychological helplessness, Qin Yu pointed to the scenery on both sides and chatted with Pei Zhuxian.

Qin Yu has always been curious about the life of idols...what is the real side.

"It's very hard. Sleeping 4 hours a day is the best gift for trainees... After debut, everything, what to eat, what to wear, where to go, and how long to sleep, are all arranged by the team.

It looks very beautiful. In fact, we wear whatever the assistant gives it... You must have heard of it. The girl group always likes to dress very explicit, because it's not up to them to decide..."

Pei Zhuxian said that the happiest moment of the day is the short moment of gathering in a circle with the little sisters, holding a lunch box and chatting.

There is a time limit for eating, and when the time comes, you must train and work immediately...

Popularity is an endless channel. No one pays attention to it. It is even harder to use the residual heat to squeeze the last drop of oil and water before being completely abandoned.

In short, being a celebrity is not so beautiful. Every year people who dream of celebrities are like a school of fish.

But there are very few who can really jump through the dragon gate.

Even if they leaped over, it wasn't just Guangming Dadao that greeted them.

"However, compared to those who choose to understand themselves because their dreams are shattered...we are much luckier."

The topic suddenly seemed a bit heavy, and you can tell by looking at Pei Zhuxian's expression, which caused her bad memories.

Fortunately, at this time, he has arrived at Hunter's manor.

There was a security guard at the front door, and the driver was released after he lowered the window to show his face.

Along the road lined with flowerbeds on both sides, a white building is brought into view.

In the front is a turntable composed of fountain statues, and the car turns around the turntable and stops in front of the red carpet.

"We're here." Qin Yu got out of the car first, and the gentleman stood aside and stretched out his hand to help Pei Zhu get out of the car.

Raising his arm, Pei Zhuxian took his arm, and the two walked towards the front door together.

Before the porch, Hunter was welcoming the guests.

Seeing Qin Yu and Pei Zhuxian coming, Hunter took a few steps forward: "Qin, Ms. Pei...you look beautiful." Hunter held her hand and smiled.

"Thank you, Mr. Hunter, this manor is beautiful." Pei Zhuxian said lightly.

She is not the kind of personality that can talk about in any situation, but rather cold temperament.

The cold expression suits her very well, but Qin Yu still prefers her smile from the heart.

The corners of the mouth are slightly upturned, and the upper teeth are slightly exposed.

There is no uncomfortable face-to-face kiss, and the relationship between the two parties is not so good.

In this era when everyone pays attention to * and personal comfort, the etiquette and habits of foreigners are also changing.

Especially when communicating with implicit Orientals, they will try to avoid overly enthusiastic etiquette that makes the other person feel uncomfortable.

Shaking hands and greetings, Hunter ordered them to be taken to the banquet hall.

The banquet hall is on the left side of the house, with a high roof, about seven or eight meters.

On the ceiling is an abstract mural, although I don't understand it well.

But after staying with Shaman for a long time, Qin Yu can at least tell which faction it belongs to.

If you care about dullness, rich people have no artistic flavor, and they will be despised by friends and neighbors.

Art, unconstrained thoughts and eclectic freedom and debauchery are the characteristics that are integrated into the bones of the Italians.

Here, if you don't talk about art, it's just like a husky mixing into the flock.

Out of place!

"Let's find something to drink first." Qin Yu took Pei Zhuxian to the cold table, poured a glass of champagne in his hand, and let himself into the atmosphere of the banquet.

"Qin..." Alessio came over with a laugh, "I finally found you."

"How about the banquet, are you still used to it?" Hunter was receiving guests, and Alessio served as the half host, responsible for satisfying the guests at the banquet.

Among them, Qin Yu is the target he needs to focus on.

Because this banquet was held for him, although he knew no one except himself.

"The atmosphere is good." Qin Yu took a sip of champagne and said, "The wine is also good."

'Ding! '

‘Congratulations to the host for tasting the rich taste of top champagne, triggering random rewards!’

‘Reward One: [Ever Occurrence Turns Goodness]’

[Hint: A miracle is enveloping you, and any threat that involves the safety of the host will be reversed under the watch of the miracle.]

PS: Good people, life is safe!

‘Reward 2: Skill promotion card.’

Seeing the label under [Prompt], Brother Yu felt that the system was cursing.

However, for the sake of rewards, forgive it this time.

Qin Yu did not hesitate to choose the target of the skill promotion card: Kirin R&D assistant.

‘The promotion is complete, and the Kirin ai smart assistant is being generated...The countdown smart assistant, is it the kind that can communicate with yourself?’ Ge Yu has a sense of anticipation in his heart.

What happened quickly passed in my mind.

On the surface, Qin Yu just picked up the bottle and glanced at it...

Dom Perignon, Dom Perignon, one of the world's top champagne brands.

The Oenotheque series is the best rosé champagne brand under Dom Perignon. The rosé champagne refers to champagne that is made from red wine and has a pink color.

It is usually made from a blend of Chardonnay and Pinot Noir/Monier Pinot. The taste is more suitable for novices, and it tastes richer and sweeter, rather than sharp and sour.

"Qin, you also like rosé champagne." Alessio was naturally very happy to find that the guests liked the same things as himself.

The topic, this will open up...

Yan Xue did a survey before coming, and found that the most popular rosé champagne at Italian banquets in recent years.

And selected the detailed information of several wines for Qin Yu to use when needed.

Tang Perignon was one of them, so Qin Yu could talk freely at this time, and her preparations were not in vain.

When Hunter appeared, the two had already talked a lot about Dom Perignon's history, alcohol and development.

"Hunt, can you believe it? Qin is also a big fan of Dom Perignon." Alessio said with a laugh.

Seeing Hunter pretending to be surprised, joined the topic.

Qin Yu said in his heart, ‘Actually, I only bring salt for myself...’

The overall content and process of the banquet is the constant greetings and drinking Xia Ji Bachu!

Don't think that rich people don't brag. Vanity doesn't distinguish between rich and poor. The vanity of rich people is sometimes better.

So, at the end of the talk, under the stimulation of alcohol, the people present became omnipotent and omnipotent.

Waving a lot of banknotes, I almost bought the entire Milky Way to build a garden for my family.

However, from the conversations of these people, he still heard a lot of useful information! !

During this period, Pei Zhuxian stayed by his side, seldom spoke, but drank a lot of wine.

When Hunter arranged the car to take the guests back.

She is already a little drunk and can't stand still...

"Qin, don't mind, you can stay here with Ms. Pei to rest for one night." Hunter said, having asked the housekeeper to prepare the guest room.

Seeing that Pei Zhu's eyes were blurred and she was about to fall asleep, Qin Yu nodded and said, "Thank you, Hunter."

Chapter 510: This girl is so happy

I don't know if Hunter's explanation is not clear enough, or the housekeeper has misunderstood something.

In short, they only prepared one guest room.

The room is very large, it is a suite, the outside is a small living room, and the inside is a bedroom.

The bedroom...like Qin Yu said, it's huge.

Big space, big chandelier, big carpet, big bed, big bathtub...

Stone is a kind of stone, it feels very comfortable, and it is cold and thorough!

Putting the 'drunk' Pei Zhu on the bed now, Qin Yu turned on the faucet to release the water.

Wow...

The water splashed everywhere, and Qin Yu inadvertently saw that Pei Zhu on the bed was now secretly opening his eyes to look towards the bathroom.

In fact, it is the space separated by two large pieces of glass.

Through the glass in the bedroom, you can see everything in the bathroom at a glance, including the bathtub being filled with water...

At this moment, Pei Zhu is struggling internally. In the end, she pretends to be drunk and let the situation develop.

Still pretending to be drunk...

Yes, Pei Zhuxian's head is not sober.

This will be full of entanglement, hesitation and anxiety, 'what should I do? How to do? How to do?'

Without understanding the mind, the person has been picked up.

Pei Zhu is now grouping herself into a quail, waiting with blinking eyelids...

Boom!

The warm comfort was immediately replaced by the implicated feeling of clothes sticking to the body.

Pei Zhu opened her eyes dumbly, wiped the water droplets off her face with her hand, and looked at Qin Yu who was smiling by the bathtub.

"Wake up!" Brother Yu handed her the towel: "Let's wash, sleep better."

He is an expert this way, and Pei Zhuxian is not the first to pretend to be drunk.

It's a pity that Brother Yu never does anything after drinking...

Taking the initiative is impossible to take the initiative... I want it, come up and do it yourself!

As a girl group idol, lead the dancer.

Twisting and swinging over such a small matter, shouldn't it be troublesome for her?

Facts have proved that this little trick does not stop the girl group idols.

Not to mention that she is the lead dancer in the group...

Yu Ge has only two words to comment on her performance: professional!!

"Qin, it seems that you slept well last night." Seeing Hunter in the restaurant, he was already eating breakfast.

"Come on, let's have something to eat together." Hunter winked at the maid, who quickly offered a breakfast.

"Thank you." To express his gratitude to the maid, Qin Yu asked while eating: "You always get up so early?"

"Of course, the morning air can help me think better. One day... the plan is... Yu Chen, right?" Qin Yu gave an amazing thumbs up when he heard Hunter's Daxia language.

"Your language is too difficult, the meaning of this sentence is very good, so..." Hunter shrugged and smiled with a sense of accomplishment.

As for the whereabouts of Pei Zhuxian, he didn't question from beginning to end.

The soundproofing of the manor is very good, but it is limited to a few specific rooms, such as study room, baby room, private conversation room.

But there are absolutely no guest rooms...

Besides, the sound inside last night was a bit crazy.

Hunter has always believed that Easterners express emotions implicitly, introverted, and shyly.

But now, he wants to completely change his inherent views.

Judging from what happened last night, not only the West is changing, but the East is also changing.

Change from the inside out...

Whether this is a good thing or a bad thing is a good thing for Hunter.

Because there are more and more high-profile guests from the East, he likes bold guests.

Just like Qin Yu, people come after making appointments and making payments in full.

Don't waste each other's precious time because of a little thing!

"Qin, I like you... I think we can be best friends." Sitting in the garden, Hunter was drinking coffee and admiring his aquarium fish.

In the small pond of the flower garden in front of him, there were a group of koi carps.

Xia Guo is not the only one who likes koi, foreigners also regard koi as a symbol of luck.

They also like to raise these beautiful, smart, lucky little guys. Hunter threw fish food into the pond, and a group of koi carps slapped the water and rushed together.

Seeing this scene, Hunter smiled happily, and he always felt good at this time.

"Yes, I think we will become friends... as long as you don't mind if I go to see next door." Qin Yu pointed towards Ferrari town.

Hunter smiled happily. "Of course not. I'm still thinking about when you will be interested in the Prancing Horse."

Although he was a little upset, Hunter knew such players.

They will not be satisfied with the products of one family, they will be able to satisfy their inner needs and desires.

Qin Yu became interested in the Prancing Horse sooner or later, but he thought he would be a few days later...

However, he didn't expect the other party to be so frank.

Now he is more certain that he and Qin Yu will become very good friends, "Assure me, Qin, your Lamborghini will always exceed the Prancing Horse."

When sending him and Pei Zhuxian away, Hunter jokingly asked him for a promise!

Qin Yu agreed very easily, because he personally didn't think he would buy so many prancing horses.

Ninth Five-Year Supreme, Centennial Birthday, Poison, Sixth Element...

He already owns four Lamborghini, and at the same time, Qin Yu wants to buy a ghost.

The premise is that Hunter agrees to sell, and he also agrees to the other party's offer.

"I will call you back as soon as possible, Qin!"

"Hope it will be good news."

Letting go of the opponent's hand, Qin Yu got in the car and closed the door, and the Urus with a yellow Lamborghini logo slowly drove towards the town.

"Oba, I'm leaving." Pei Zhuxian leaned on his shoulder in a depressed mood, expressing her dismay.

She has just completed an important transformation for a woman and is about to leave her new pillar.

This makes Pei Zhuxian very uncomfortable. She is glamorous in appearance, but in her heart she yearns for romance and innocence.

This can be seen from her belief in miracles.

Realistic people would not be so sure about miracles...

"When I finish my work, I will go to Turin to find you." Qin Yu took her hand and comforted.

"Tomorrow?" Pei Zhu couldn't wait.

What she desires most is that Qin Yu can leave with herself now, but she also knows that this is unrealistic.

Men have their own careers and space, and Pei Zhu now doesn't want to become an ignorant girl from the beginning.

"In two days at the latest, how's it going?" He clearly had a cold face, but his words and deeds were all in a cute and shy style.

I really want to love her again...

First, Pei Zhu was sent to the airport before Qin Yu asked the driver to return to the hotel.

When he arrived at the door, he left the car directly: "Tell Mr. Hunter and let him send me the bill together."

Qin Yu is saying that he is bound to win over ghosts, and he is also reminding Hunter how generous his client is!

Really, not bad for money. UU Reading www.uukanshu.com

After making a phone call, the driver left the keys and all the documents.

For the rest, the company will naturally send someone to solve it.

Entering the hotel, the first thing I saw was Ma Lin with a bright smile at the front desk: "Give you a gift!"

"What... Oumaika, Qin, are you serious?" Ma Lin covered her face with her hand and said in surprise: "If this is a joke, you must take it back within two seconds."

Snapped!

Covering the key with the palm of his hand, Ma Lin took it back and said, "I gave you a chance, and now it belongs to me, oh~ Karma, I should have a Lamborghini."

Seeing Qin Yu just standing there smiling, Ma Lin locked the key in the drawer and pulled him to the storage room behind the bar.

"Oh Karma~ Ouma Karma~ Oh yeah..." The girl shouted with excitement one after another, and the girl was so happy.
