

Pinnacle 511

Chapter 511: Rapo Ercan

The small gift to Ma Lin obviously made her a little too excited.

So that Ma Lin finally flashed her waist and had to find someone to replace her.

Fortunately, the situation is not serious, just lie down and rest!

"Qin, I really hope to see you again next time." Knowing that he was going to Ferrari town, Ma Lin could not send his blessings, so she could only tell him her inner thoughts.

After living here for a long time, the residents are not consciously affected by the battle between cows and horses.

Began to become tit-for-tat, a bit of contempt for each other.

Despise the chain, there is no way to avoid it...

In fact, Sant'Agata Bolognese is just a small village under the name of Modena. Unfortunately, this is never recognized by the proud Bolognese.

Your family is a small village, and your whole family lives in a small village...

This is incredible to outsiders, but it is not impossible!

The environment is the easiest to change a person, not to mention the base camp with such a solemn cultural atmosphere.

He promised that if she had another chance to come to Bolognese, she would definitely come to her.

Qin Yu walked out of the room, closed the door, and returned to his room.

Liu Zhizhi, who had been bored all day and night, finally saw him again.

"Add WeChat first!"

Liu Zhizhi didn't want to experience what she had experienced before. She was bored and broke in the room.

If it were not that the room had not been returned, she had not been driven out of the hotel.

She thought she had run into a scam! ! !

So that she didn't sleep well last night, always wondering if she was deceived.

The other party is a pseudo-ho, ruthlessly holding the gun, lifting his pants and ran away...

Fortunately, this kind of tragedy has never happened, and Liu Zhizhi can still maintain his good mood.

Agreeing to the friend's request, Qin Yu said with a smile: "Pack your things and take you to a place."

Pack the luggage of the flight attendant. After checking out, take the online taxi and head straight to the capital of the Prancing Horse.

More correctly, it should be called the "supercar capital" and "engine capital"

Ferrari, Maserati, Pagani, including Lamborghini, their headquarters are in Modena.

It can be said that the entire mainstream supercar of Italy, standing on the ceiling, has established its headquarters in this 'paradise town.'

In the Italian language, Modena represents 'gourmet heaven.'

The same is true for car fans, yes!

This is a paradise where they can eat spiritual food and satisfy all their inner desires and fantasies.

Entering the town, the supercars that can be seen everywhere are dazzling.

A variety of avant-garde and aggressive designs can be seen everywhere, many of which are private modification.

Here, the modification of the appearance is not illegal!

Designers can inject their own unconstrained ideas into their favorite cars at all times.

Maybe one day, when you drive on the road, you will be favored by a certain brand and get a handsome reward.

Maybe it will be a job that pays amazingly, you will be successful, marry the boss' daughter, and you will reach the pinnacle of your life...

Okay, this probability is a bit small, but it's the most real thing to talk about money.

The president's daughter is basically useless, unless he can become the president's successor, is it true that a foreigner engages in free love?

As long as you enter the upper class, free love can only be seen in fairy tales.

Right.

The requirements for family background, heritage, glory and inheritance are even more than those of Xia Guo!

What kind of race, bloodline...

MMP, simply mentally retarded!

"No, what do I want to do?" Qin Yu shook his head and immersed himself in the hustle and bustle of the city again.

There are so many sports cars on the street, don't they look good?

Soon, the street turned red, and festive red was everywhere.

The driver smiled and said: "We are coming, this is Ferrari's world, the red carnival day."

"Is it a special holiday?" Liu Zhizhi asked curiously.

The driver turned his head mysteriously, shook his head and said, "No, I'm talking about every day..."

The ground was sprayed into brilliant red, red walls, red flags, and red carpets.

Fortunately, the Prancing Horse's museum is not red, or Brother Yu should have thrown up.

Single color faint...

Always look at only one color, it is really easy to be offensive.

However, after buying a ticket to enter the museum, that disgust for red faded instantly.

Handsome...

Cool...

Hyun...

Qin Yu did not choose to go to the small museum next to the railway station in the city, but went directly to the main museum in the town, which was only one step away from the factory.

From the car frame originally created by Ferrari to brand innovation, various changes have taken place with the development of the industrial revolution.

The difficulties encountered can be seen on the wall.

There was also a special brochure, but Qin Yu didn't know where he left it soon.

He now only sees the prancing horses still on the stand, especially the new models...

Although the history is very interesting, Qin Yu still wants to see the manic beast that can be thrilling and passionate.

The most attractive to tourists is naturally the F1 area.

And its essence is called "Victory Palace," which is a glorious visit area specially created to celebrate Ferrari's victories in recent years.

In the "Victory Palace," you can see the overview of the world championship cars from 1999 to 2008, as well as more than 110 trophies and the helmets of 9 Ferrari champions.

It feels... really amazing!

The most surprising area is naturally the red campus, where more than 4 F1 cars are fixed on the shelf at a 75-degree tilt.

Visitors can sit in the car and experience the purest speed and passion through practice and simulation!

Yes, Ferrari is not only a car, but a brand.

But a kind of culture, a kind of faith, a kind of pilgrimage...

It lacks the so-called personality, but retains the purest speed and passion that anyone can intuitively feel.

These two things are exactly what the sports car culture originally pursued, always stick to the same, and never forget the original intention! ! !

Ferrari's success is the foundation of...

Without the company of the president or executives, Qin Yu walked around like an ordinary tourist.

From time to time, I stopped in front of the introduction card and looked at the text on it.

Liu Zhizhi...

She couldn't stop running, and she had a thought in her heart: These cars are too handsome, right?

However, such leisure time was quickly interrupted.

Qin Yu didn't expect that he was already so low-key, and he was still recognized.

An inch, a trimmed beard, a three-dimensional face... a typical Italian dully handsome guy!

The dress is very ordinary, with a red casual shirt over the tights, a pair of red five-quarter pants underneath, and a pair of slippers on his feet.

The beach style, when worn on him, is in harmony with everything here.

"Rapo Erkan, Qin Yu, is my pronunciation still standard?" It was really a wonderful fate to meet the prince of the Fiat Empire here.

"Your pronunciation is very standard, Mr. Elkan." Qin Yu shook the opponent's hand and responded with a smile.

"I think it must be fate that makes us meet here... Do you like it?" Rapo Erkan looked at the red prancing horse around him, his face full of pride.

"Have you ever seen someone you don't like?" Qin Yu asked back.

Rapo Erkan smiled, then laughed: "That's right, no one will dislike red prancing horses, haha..."

Qin, talking with you is very interesting, we should find a place to have a drink and have a good chat! "

Nothing to show courtesy, to steal if you do it!

As the man at the helm of the Fiat Empire, a **** who wanders the upper class in Europe and America, Qin Yu couldn't think of what he was interested in?

The only thing I can think of, is Lixin Investment Is this top **** also starting to lack money to spend?

Fiat's financial situation does not seem to have caused any scandals, or is there something inside?

All kinds of thoughts flashed in Qin Yu's mind, but they couldn't get the correct answer.

In the end, he agreed to Elkan's invitation and went to the cafe outside the museum with him.

In fact, there is a place to rest in the museum.

But at this moment, some people have recognized Elkan, who cares about Dali or the whole of Europe, he is a frequent visitor on the headlines of major media.

Anyone who is concerned about fashion and gossip cannot fail to recognize Elkann.

You need to know how fast he changed girlfriends, but he was only so much slower than Xiaoli~

When he was young, he had been in the fashion circle. In this way, the paparazzi who was born with a golden spoon in his house had no choice but to live directly at his house.

Chapter 512: Turned out to be a fellow

Speaking of Fiat, people's impressions are mostly 'just like that...'

A brand that is not outstanding, a bit familiar, but has no impression.

If I ask more about the specific points, I just don't know!

A car, from abroad, this is it...

But the Fiat Group is a real behemoth.

One of the top ten auto companies in the world, it can almost be said that it monopolizes the mainstream auto brands of Italy.

Its names include Fiat, Chrysler, Jeep, Dodge, Ferrari, Maserati, Alfa Romeo, Lancia...

Last year's annual revenue was 36.5 billion Euros. Rapo Ercan, who has such a huge business empire, should not be short of money.

You must know that in addition to these brands, there are also industrial and agricultural vehicle brands that also occupy a place in the market.

The most unfamiliar domestic vehicle in the field of civilian vehicles is definitely Lancia...

Don't say this brand is famous in China, almost no one has heard of it, because it has not been introduced at all!

But in fact, this is the group's high-end car series named after the founder of Fiat, and it is still very influential in the European and American high-end markets.

Alfa Romeo, the typical applause is not popular!

Submerge the sports car driving experience to the civilian market, there is cheers on the Internet, and no one cares about it in reality!

After all, the performance is king when you know the car's keyboard, but the brand is comfortable when you actually buy a car...

I ridicule BBA every day. When I buy a car, I become "driving a BMW and riding a Mercedes."

This is true of the national conditions, and it is not a day or two.

There are so many people on the Internet who know Che Di, how many of them are there? ? ?

For other series, Fiat also focuses on the European and American markets, and sales in Africa and other places are also good.

Jeep and Dodge have set off a wave of craze in China in the past two years!

Wrangler, modified entry model, loved by petty bourgeoisie and off-road youth...

The elders are more trusting in dominance, and those who are not bad are the eternal gods!

What... You said Land Rover?

What do you say about that stuff, the ones you like blow to the sky, the ones you don't like, "Made in India." '

Anyway, this year, as the value of appearance is just, there are always people who like...

Came to the coffee bar outside with Elkan, several security guards appeared at the door, blocking the sight of the prying eyes.

At the same time, several Maozi drew closer, folded their hands in front of their lower abdomen, staring intently at the bodyguard in front of the coffee bar.

"My people." Qin Yu explained to Elkan.

"KGB?" Elkan seemed to recognize their origins, to which Qin Yu just smiled and did not answer.

After calling a nervous security captain and explaining the situation to the other party, the tense confrontation outside eased.

"Qin, can I call you that?" After ordering a good coffee, Elkan began to get close.

Qin Yu didn't point out, and cooperating kindly called the other party "Lapp!"

Soon, the other party's topic shifted to the foreign exchange market, judging from his understanding of Lixin and himself.

I did a lot of homework before meeting...

Qin Yu and Lixin are now well-known in the financial market.

Especially in the last Taiwan Power Disturbance, a lot of inside information was exposed over time, and his information once appeared on the desks of investment bank leaders.

From then on, Rapo Erkan noticed him.

This meeting was not due to fate, but was deliberately arranged by Rapo Erkan.

After learning that Qin Yu had appeared in Rambo Village, Erkan was preparing for today!

"Fiat encounters difficulties?" Qin Yu has always hated the twists and turns in the clouds.

Now that the other party has pointed out his intentions, let's get to the point...

"It's not Fiat." Elkan awkwardly spread his hands: "Qin, I actually need your help."

Elkan has no money to spend...

He has made a lot of investments in the past two years, and the results have all been lost!

I've heard a lot of noise, making money...

I didn't even see the shadow.

One by one, the sky was falling, and in the end, all TMs were scams.

As for the Wall Street investment bank, Elkan has been a little scared since Ray, who broke the Ponzi scheme last time.

...Well, at that time, the Elkan family was scammed, and it was also on the list of "sand sculpture investors".

It's just that no one will admit to this kind of thing. Losing money is miserable enough, and will be ridiculed by all kinds of things and become a sand sculpture in the eyes of the public.

Elkan can't stand this grievance...

After successive defeats and a large loss of wealth, the family's expenses gradually tightened.

This makes Elkan very uncomfortable.

How to have a party if you don't have money, how to date a girl, how to be hilarious...

So, there is the initial investment! !

Unfortunately, Erkan's bad luck, not only did not make a profit, but lost a lot of money.

Especially the New Zealand currency, he still feels liver pain when he mentions it!

To maintain a luxurious and luxurious life, daily expenses are not small at all.

An ordinary person's salary for a year may only be enough for him to open a bottle of wine.

So, Elkan needs to find a way for himself and earn some pocket money...

"What about your dividends?" Qin Yu didn't quite believe what he said.

"Qin, don't you know Fiat?" Elkan said dumbfounded: "My annual salary is only $1, for that **** advocacy..."

Dividends belong to the family, and my personal wealth will not increase as a result.

If this is not the case, how could there be so many people choosing to start a second business? An example of seeing the sideline more important than the main business! "

Elkan also chose to start a business, and Italia Independent is the fashion brand he created.

Word of mouth and sales are very good, but far from enough to maintain his expenses.

This buddy is so capable...

"The annual rate of return is 15%, except for this, I can't give you any guarantee!" Although Pei Zhuxian had gained something before, he didn't want to promise anything.

Everyone is willing to speak out about making money.

The only guarantee Qin Yu can give him is a stable return on investment, and the rest...

It depends on his own choice.

"No problem, I want to give you part of the money to invest first." Elkan said.

"Can I know how much it is?" Qin Yu asked with a smile.

"Not much, 60 million..." Elkan responded calmly.

"..." No money, no money, 60 million dollars to throw away.

Is your understanding of lack of money a bit wrong?

No wonder Qin Yu looked at him very pleasingly, because he turned out to be a fellow man.

This is Versailles...

"When the contract is signed, the money will arrive immediately." Elkan fully showed his trust in him. It would be like wishing to give him the money directly and run away.

Qin Yu smiled and said: "No hurry, I will let the company open an account in Switzerland, and then transfer it directly to the Swiss account."

"That couldn't be better." Elkan's last doubt disappeared.

It was not that he didn't believe in Qin Yu, but he was concerned about his identity and the environment the other party was in.

These 60 million dollars are one-fifth of his family's wealth. If there is another accident, Elkan can only go home, honestly bow his head and admit his mistake, and accept the help of his family.

Otherwise, he can't even guarantee the capital chain of Italia Independent.

This is undoubtedly an insult to Elkan!

I want to use the money to make Elkan lower my head... get the price...

"Your business is over, should it be my turn next?" Qin Yu was still thinking about his Rafa, and was worried about what might be wrong before.

This time I just met the master, if I don't make two limited editions and return to China, wouldn't I be sorry for this god-given opportunity?

Don't worry that Rafa has been sold out, Qin Yu deliberately asked someone to understand before coming.

Rafa is a model on sale, and the price of 22.5 million is not a Chinese cabbage.

There are not so many people who can afford it and are really willing to buy it.

Not to mention the demanding qualifications to purchase Rafa, Ferrari had no intention of dumping from the beginning.

Set up numerous obstacles, in order to maintain their own compulsive standards, to prevent being overwhelmed by others and becoming a commodity for sale if you have money.

Secondly, it is also to prevent the emergence of bad streets. When it comes to hunger marketing, Ferrari is definitely the top team.

And is never aimed at the general public, but only at a small group of people at the tip of the pyramid.

Otherwise, how can it have the godhead that now surpasses many luxury brands, and it is even more known as a 'place of pilgrimage.' '

"You want Rafa, no problem, but the price..." The friendship is the friendship, the business is the business, and Elkan doesn't mean to take the initiative to lower the price.

It's like he never mentioned that Qin Yu should take care of himself.

"At the public price, I want two sets, one hard top and one convertible." Qin Yu said indifferently: "The money can be credited today..."

Money is not a problem, the question is when can the items be delivered?

If you don't bring two horses back, isn't this trip in vain?

When I go back, people ask what they have gained, sleep and sleep throughout the whole process...

Who will not, what can I say.

No one really wants to hear this, right? ? ?

Chapter 513: Fly a plane

Qin Yu wanted two Rafah's requirements, and Elkan promised to help him solve it.

But how long can the car be handed over to him, and it will take Elfa to communicate with the company before he can give him an answer.

In terms of price, the hard top version is 2.78 million euros, and the convertible is 5.6 million euros...

This is the whole car price, including luxury car tax (displacement tax), customs, value-added tax and other expenses.

Qin Yu just needs to wait for the car to be collected!

Although not talking about prices, Elkan still made appropriate concessions.

Otherwise, the price cannot be lowered, and the total tax of up to 140% eats up all profits.

It can be said that Elkan doesn't make a penny, and he may have to post some more...

This intention will be clearly shown on the accompanying tax bill to ensure that Qin Yu knows it.

Do not leave a name for good deeds, sorry, the school never taught...

Ding, ding!

The phone rang frequently, Qin Yu opened the WeChat account and found that it was Liu Zhizhi...

The woman walked around the museum several times and finally calmed down.

Looking back, I found that the man was gone...

Seeing a dozen voices in a row, Qin Yu didn't listen, and directly replied, "I'm at the cafe at the door, come to me."

After a while, Liu Zhizhi's figure was seen outside the glass curtain wall.

Elkan nodded to the security guard and let her smoothly enter the empty cafe room.

"Shao Qin..." Seeing outsiders there, Liu Zhizhi acted as a special lady.

The lady's personality is not like her at all, and she cast her curious eyes on Elkan.

"Elkan, the boss of Ferrari boss." Qin Yu smiled and introduced the identity of the other party to her.

o(???)つ!

Liu Zhizhi was dumbfounded. She just went around the museum a few times and saw countless classic red prancing horses.

Then, the boss of the boss appeared? ? ?

Also, why would Qin Yu know the boss of Ferrari boss...

what is that? ? ?

In Liu Zhizhi's cognition, Ferrari is Ferrari.

On behalf of the bombing, awesome, high-profile, bombing the street, the rate of return is 1000%...

The rest... are expensive?

"You just need to know, here... everything you see belongs to his family." Qin Yu briefly explained the identity and status of the other party.

Intuitive and effective!

Liu Zhizhi's sitting posture is more elegant and well-behaved, and the smile on his face is stiff and somewhat flattering.

This is a normal reaction. Any normal person will behave like him after learning the identity of Elkan.

Or behaved worse than her...

Kneeling and licking on the spot is not embarrassing.

Ordinary people can't lick it if they want it!

After licking it, I got a house...Is there such a good thing?

Shame, face, dignity...

what?

"Hello, beautiful lady." Elkan bowed in greeting gracefully, turned and left with his bodyguard.

He had to arrange the two jumping horses Qin Yu wanted.

I hope that on the day of the San Remo Music Festival, he can give Qin Yu a satisfactory answer!

...

...

For the next few days, Qin Yu stayed in Modena.

Enjoying the holiday, meeting with individual independent designers, and visiting their 'factory.'

Or in their own warehouses or garages, there are also small teams that work with other people.

The talents of these people are amazing, and there is almost nothing they dare not think of.

After getting acquainted with them, Qin Yu even saw a Ferrari 488 mounted on a small hand-made jet engine.

Can you imagine Yu Ge's surprise at the time?

(⊙o⊙)...

He wanted to scold his mother again.

This little day... really exciting!

Liu Zhizhi's transfer is over, and if she continues, she will not be able to withstand the subsequent shifts.

"Will you forget me?" Thinking of the 100,000 yuan in his WeChat account, Liu Zhizhi's tone became even more reluctant.

In six days, one hundred thousand yuan, this money is too easy to make!

What's more, traveling with a male **** in Europe, it feels like a dream.

To satisfy her dream and make money, Liu Zhizhi wonders if she can have a second chance.

"Of course not, I think we will see you again one day." Qin Yu's eyes responded sincerely.

Seeing Liu Zhizhi getting in the car and looking back, Qin Yu put down his waving arm and took out his mobile phone.

Select-Liu Zhizhi-click-delete!

Tomorrow is the day when the festival begins, and it's time to leave for Turin.

This time, Qin Yu no longer needs to think about traffic.

Elkan's helicopter is already waiting, as one of the most famous music festivals in Italy.

As a fashion figure and a **** who plays coffee, Erkan will naturally not miss such an event.

However, before boarding the plane, Yuri said with some worry: "BOSS, we cannot guarantee that you will not be photographed."

This kind of crowded and chaotic place is full of music, hormones and alcohol.

They need to spend all their energy on safety, no one, it is impossible to worry about his sex.

In other words, Qin Yu will definitely be photographed.

The premise is that if someone recognizes him...

Yuri thinks this is unlikely. The foreigner is not so boring and will pay attention to a rich man in Xia Guo.

Except for those who have no desire or have ulterior motives.

Of course, the premise is that he will not appear with that idol...

If that's the case, no matter how many people they have, there is no guarantee that Qin Yu will not appear on the headlines of entertainment news.

"I'll make an idea, Yuri!" Qin Yu patted him on the shoulder, and Qin Yu signaled that he could close the door.

"Hey, buddy... do you want to drive yourself?" The propeller started, and Elkan yelled in the headset, "We can find you a place on the road."

Qin Yu is quite interested in driving helicopters: "It's okay to do this?"

"Of course, it's Italian." Elkann's laughter was full of pride.

So, near Cassine, the helicopter landed on a flat lawn.

Under the driver's melancholy gaze, Qin Yu took his place, and the driver's chattering teaching came in his ears.

How to start, how to lift, where is the throttle...

In fact, the moment Qin Yu grasped the sense of manipulation in his right hand, everything came to his mind.

[Old driver]: In the wind and rain, the old driver will see you off.

Safe and unimpeded!

"Hey, don't touch me, I..." In the pilot's bewildered expression, Qin Yu expertly checked all the helicopter's equipment.

Then the propeller started again.

Toot toot...

The fuselage took off smoothly, followed by a sudden pull back.

The driver was about to pee out in shock, his hands tightly grasped the handrail that could be grasped, and his face was horrified against the cabin door.

"Man, slow down, take your time, ah..."

The dive descended sharply and the ground got closer and closer, and when the pedal was only two or three meters high from the ground, the height instantly remained at this level.

The entire helicopter tilted forward 75 degrees, flew 100 meters close to the ground, and suddenly pulled up again.

"Ahhhhhhhhh..." The driver's screams one after another, but Elkan, who was standing below waiting, looked dumbfounded.

With his hands on his eyes, he looked at the helicopter playing acrobatics, and his eyes were full of envy.

This new friend brought him more surprises! ! !

Chapter 514: Champagne battle, Lao Fan is a master

Toot toot...

The Sikorsky S-76 helicopter landed in the suburbs. Pei Zhu, who had been waiting for a long time, pressed his hat to prevent it from being blown away by the wind blown by the propeller, and his eyes were full of curiosity.

Why is there a helicopter here? The black glass blocks her sight.

Until Qin Yu opened the hatch, jumped down and ran towards her.

"You never said that you have a plane!" Boarding the plane with Qin Yu's help, Pei Zhuxian was no less curious than the assistant beside him.

No wonder he let himself wait in Turin.

So, are they going to San Remo by plane now?

"Elkan, we were on his plane." Qin Yu pointed to Elkan, and the other party ran his hair from front to back with his hands, like a long-haired monkey keen to perform.

You must show your sexiest side in front of women. This is the professional ethics of playboys.

Elkan is obviously very professional: "Your female partner is very beautiful, Qin."

Pei Zhuxian's guess is only a little worse than reality...

The helicopter landed at the pier, and a pure white yacht was making final preparations.

"White-headed whale, my favorite..." Elkan pointed to the yacht with a happy smile from the heart.

PERSHING, a local Italian brand.

With only 20 years of history, it has inherited the advantages and traditions of European and Italian yachts.

It is famous inside and outside with its unique design, speed and noble appearance.

The luxury of the interior is essential, as long as customers can request, they can do it.

"I like its innovative spirit and the courage to break industry conventions. This is rare!"

Aboard the three-story Whitehead Whale, Elkan was very active.

He will personally drive the yacht to San Remo to participate in this musical event...

It has been the practice of San Remo since its inception that each song is sung by two singers.

A local singer and an invited international singer.

Pei Zhuxian also came to Idali for this reason. She was one of the singers invited to perform.

"Amazing age!" Elkan praised casually.

I don't know if Pei Zhu will take this kind of polite remarks seriously, anyway, Qin Yu didn't take it seriously.

There is no shortage of women around Elkan, whether it is hundreds of billions of ladies or celebrities...

Just like the woman who appears on the yacht now, "Kirin, turn on facial recognition!"

"Zi...Information gathering..."

Alexandra Daddario, occupation: actor.

Birthday: March 16, 1986.

For two consecutive years, he was named the 100 most beautiful faces in the world, and he starred in "The Beach Ranger" with Bald Qiang...

The information about Alexandra was completely displayed in front of Qin Yu.

Qin Yu only glanced at it, then turned off the more than a dozen pages of detailed information.

He didn't come on a blind date, so what was he doing in such details?

It is enough to know the name and identity of the other person.

As for the power of 'Kirin ai Assistant', Qin Yu has a preliminary understanding these days.

It's like a 'personal smart terminal' that only exists in Qin Yu's mind. The small functions just now are of little use to it.

The order Qin Yu gave it was to collect knowledge related to semiconductors on the Internet and learn independently.

As for whether 'ai' will rebel, Qin Yu has also considered this.

"Kirin Assistant" is a reward issued by the system.

Therefore, as long as there is a system, it will evolve into a 'Skynet' or a younger brother.

You can't turn over when you turn over. It's just a change of face to bask in the sun!

Alexandra is the female companion invited by Elkan to accompany him to this musical event.

Warming the bed is definitely indispensable, this fleshy figure, it's a pity not to warm the bed...

It's just that Qin Yu doesn't quite get her face, there always seems to be a rough sluggish feeling.

No matter it is the expression or the look in the eyes, there is a lack of agile luster!

Face value 86↑, figure 84↓, freshness...

Slightly, nothing wrong!

"Dada, introduce to you... Qin, a friend from the East."

"Dada, a rising star from Hollywood!"

Elkan's mouthful of nonsense made Alexandra smile, said hello to Qin Yu, and rushed towards the captain with her 36E.

Seeing the extent of her running, Qin Yu deeply understood the reason why Elkan invited her!

How did the man resist it? Yezi...

The yacht set off and headed towards its destination, the waves slapped against the hull, making a pleasant sound.

The world is blue, the sky and the sea are in a line...

The scenery is intoxicating, and Qin Yu has the urge to go into the water.

Elkan parked the boat in the open sea like a heart, "Hey, guys, let's get upset."

Holding champagne in hand, Elkan slid down from the third floor and aimed the champagne at Qin Yu.

One hand was pressed on the cork, and then Elkan felt that his palm was empty, and the champagne reached Qin Yu's hand.

"Oh~ Bo..." Shet was blocked by the jet of champagne, and Elkan ran to the stern with both hands indiscriminately.

Qin Yu turned to Pei Zhuxian, who was lying on the deck enjoying the scenery.

"Pig!" Qin Yu pressed the mouth of the bottle with his thumb and shook it vigorously.

"???" Pei Zhuxian turned his head to look at him, and then sprayed white liquid.

Wow...

The sight was blocked by the liquid, and Pei Zhu was now sprayed.

d(? ` ω'?d*)

"Ah~Ouba!" Pei Zhuxian yelled and ran towards the cabin. She remembered there was a lot of champagne there.

Then Elkan ran back from the stern.

Holding a bottle of enlarged 5L champagne in his hand, "Hey, man, come and try the taste of a cannon!"

Laughing presumptuously, Elkan shook the giant champagne in his hand vigorously.

"...I'm gonna?" Brother Yu was dumbfounded, you turned on the physical hangup.

Fortunately, Qin Yu hid directly behind Alexandra and treated her as a human shield.

As a result, Alexandra ushered in the "Cannon on Earth," sprayed with champagne all over her body: "Ah~ Rapp..."

A furious Alexandra chased him with a violent punch, and their figures gradually disappeared from the stern of the boat.

"Ouba, look here." Pei Zhuxian's voice came, and Qin Yu looked back.

puff.....

In a flexible position, Qin Yu bent over to avoid the champagne pillar, his backhand shook violently.

Puff~

The champagne in his hand aimed at Pei Zhuxian again, and the screams sounded.

Soon, the voice changed to begging for mercy: "Ouba, I want to surrender... Haha, don't do that, itchy... Don't spray my face, ah~ Makeup is going to take..."

The Champagne War lasted for an afternoon, and the champagne worth nearly 100,000 turned into a pile of bubbles and wet wine stains on the deck!

Now, Qin Yu really understands why Elkan is short of money...

"Man, did you bring a tape recorder with you?" When Elkan came back again, the female companion beside her had disappeared, and she was lying on the stern plate to rest.

And Elkan circled Qin Yu curiously, as if to find out his recording machine.

"What?" Brother Yu was surprised.

"I mean just... 2 hours, impossible." Elkan looked at him unconvinced: "It is immoral to cheat in this kind of thing."

Qin Yu understood, got up and pointed to his six-pack abs amusedly: "Do you think I need it?"

Why not eight pack abs, because Yu Ge only has 3 tendons.

What eight-pack abs can't be done by you if you want to.

The human rectus abdominis is actually a whole muscle, separated and connected by 3 to 4 tendons.

The muscles of this tissue are called tendons, which are lines that divide the abdominal muscles.

There are several abdominal muscles, depending on the tendon on the rectus abdominis, which is destined by nature...

Instead of opening your mouth with eight pack abdominal muscles, you can't get out of training if you don't have it.

"I, no, believe it!" Elkan said through gritted teeth.

Seeing his childish look, Brother Yu pointed towards the sea: "Bibi."

After talking about it, before Elkan can speak, people have already walked to the bow. Hey, man, I'm a beach expert. "Elkan raised his arms full of body, and assumed a bodybuilder's standard posture.

"In the water, I only compete with dolphins!" Qin Yu responded calmly.

Elkan people are stupid...Fak, listen to this Fanxue's speech, Lao Fanxue is a master.

Crossing the guardrail, Brother Yu moved his joints and plunged into the sea without warning.

Puff...

The figure disappeared on the water, and Elkan looked down, only to see a shadow emerging from the water.

Instantly disappeared from sight, 'so fast...'

Elkan, who often goes out to sea, spends half a year on vacation at the seaside in a year, is shocked.

At the speed just now, he had only seen it on dolphins.

What is that, shark man? ?

Chapter 515: Freehand diving

"Brother, you have to teach me this!" When Qin Yu came back, Elkan grabbed him to learn from him.

"It's in the water, swinging the body like a fish, it's very simple..." Qin Yu shook the water drops on his head, and took the towel that Pei Zhu now handed.

When she first got up, she would still feel soft and numb, leaning lazily on the railing.

"Don't you go down to play?" Qin Yu asked, wiping his head with a towel.

Pei Zhuxian shook his head, just looking at him with a smile.

He was soggy, he seemed to be shining in the sun...

In Smecta, he used to have the figure of the Song predecessors. He thought it was the standard of the public aesthetics.

Now... Pei Zhu now knows that he was wrong.

It is true that Qin Yu's body is directly scumbed in seconds compared to professional fitness players.

But what the professional players do is to feed on their muscles.

In the fitness competition, you will find that the players have small dimensions and well-proportioned muscles.

But in reality, it is an enlarged version of the little giant.

Their muscles have long been separated from the mainstream aesthetics of the masses, and only a small group of people can appreciate them.

And Qin Yu's figure is the highest standard line that fully conforms to the public's aesthetics, with dimensions, body shape, and muscle strength that are completely maintained within the appreciation level of normal people.

Pei Zhu now doesn't know how much effort he put in for this, but he can tell from his figure.

He is an extremely self-disciplined person...

Qin Yu didn't know what Pei Zhuxian was thinking.

Otherwise, he would smile and say, "Miss, figure it out, I'm taking drugs!"

Self-discipline is also quite self-discipline, mainly because [time management] requires him to maintain self-discipline.

Morning exercise has become a habit! ! !

However, Qin Yu never picks up on sports, whether he goes out to exercise, at home, or in bed.

As long as there is exercise, he doesn't pick it!

After receiving Qin Yu's 'true transmission' Elkan, he dragged his female companion to toss in the water.

The speed is not fast, but the water is not less...

Qin Yu was like a flexible dolphin in the water, swinging his body to separate the water and rush forward.

Elkan is a fat man with only 200 catties of fat, and looks like a fat-headed fish waiting to be slaughtered on a sticky board.

Head and feet swinging up and down... dying struggling! ! !

After staying in the water for more than ten meters, he was still standing there.

?o~o?

He obviously has swam a long way, why does it look like he hasn't moved?

Elkan is full of question marks...

Three illusions in life: She/he likes me...I can kill...The shark almost can catch up with me.

Elkan is in the last category, and the flood feels like he is fast.

Drilling faster than the sharks, to participate in the World Championships gold medal start, the goal is to break the record.

When it comes out of the water, take a look...

The operation is as fierce as a tiger, look up at 1.5 meters!

I am...

Elkansan lay on an inflatable bed irresponsibly, this wave of learning was a waste!

Staying till late at night, Elkan asked to take out the prepared ingredients and engage in BBQ on the deck...

"Aren't we going to rush over in advance?" Qin Yu asked curiously.

Tomorrow is the music festival, and he doesn't want to delay Pei Zhuxian's performance.

"Don't worry, my friend, when all this is over, the boat will drive to the pier overnight, open your eyes tomorrow morning and you are already there."

Elkan turned over the beef on the iron plate, and it sizzled and looked delicious.

Pour the red wine on the iron plate from time to time, so that the beef can fully absorb the aroma of the wine and get rid of the greasy feeling.

Although the technique is rough, the posture and movements are always very handsome!

It doesn't matter whether it is good or not, it is mainly handsome.

Eating is just one meal, and it's a lifetime thing to be handsome or not.

Have you learned which one is more important?

Qin Yu asked people to find a sea pole and sat on the deck to fish with Pei Zhuxian.

Put the bar in, the two lie on the deck looking up at the stars!

It is rare in China to see such a prosperous night sky with stars and dust, with sea breeze blowing, and firelight and sizzling barbecue not far away.

This arbitrariness, he will get drunk whoever changes it.

The close relatives of water make Yu Ge always have the urge to jump into the sea.

Depressed for 40 minutes, Brother Yu took off the T-shirt and threw it on the deck, jumping into the sea like an arrow.

The sea water at night is very cold, but only on the surface.

About three meters down, the sea water began to become warm, especially comfortable.

Various fishes passed by from time to time, and Qin Yu came out of the sea to face Pei Zhuxian and shouted, "Pig, I will go down and take a look."

"Ouba, is there any danger?" Pei Zhu was worried.

It was already night, and her instinctive fear of the sea always made her feel uneasy.

"It doesn't matter, I'll be back soon." Qin Yu took a deep breath and dived again after raising his head and smiling.

About ten meters or so, he saw the seabed, and there were shrimps and crabs running through the sand and rocks.

Seeing a stopped sea prawn, Qin Yu stretched out his hand to catch it.

There is no resistance to water pressure, and 'water affinity' allows him to walk on the ground and move freely here.

Soon, Qin Yu got a crayfish and two sea crabs.

With a full harvest, carrying something out of the water, Qin Yu braggingly raised the seafood in his hand: "Pig, look here."

"Wow~Ouba, you're great, I'll find someone to help." Pei Zhu laughed in surprise, and found the crew to pull the sea cargo onto the ship with a net, while Qin Yu lay on his back leisurely on the sea, rising and falling with the waves. .

"Qin, did you catch this with your bare hands?" Erkan carried the net with the seafood that Qin Yu caught just now, with question marks all over his face.

Did he meet the son of the sea, or did he have the experience of going out to sea when he was a child?

It's not something you can do to catch seafood in the sea with your bare hands.

One careless...open the table!

Look at the crawfish he caught, at least five or six catties.

Changao is more powerful than bullets in the water, penetrating people's palms without even folds.

"Yes, I used to do this in the countryside when I was young." Qin Yu gave him an acceptable reason.

If this excitement continues, he is afraid that Elkan will have a nervous breakdown, self-doubt: Am I a trash? ? ?

He wants to experience the little days of sleeping on the sea for a few more days!

"So..." Elkan finally breathed a sigh of relief.

Although he thinks something is wrong, Feidu seems to be an inland city without sea...

Maybe it's an inland lake, or some tributary!

Elkan forced himself to calm down and no longer pursue the loopholes in it.

Ask, he is the son of a fisherman, experienced!

Waste is impossible to waste, who dares to say that Fiat Prince is waste...

"My car, when can you give me the answer?" Back on the boat, Qin Yu asked about his two horses.

The music festival totals three days, after which he will go to Rambo Village again.

Then, you have to return immediately.

Otherwise, it will not be able to catch up with the New Year's Eve.

"Qin, stay patient, trust me, there will be news soon!" Elkan said lightly, but he was forced in his heart.

He is not alone in the Elkan family. Fiat's eldest brother is in charge.

Rapo was already working on this matter, but he still let his elder brother John receive the news.

He must now give John a legitimate reason to agree to bypass the numerous requirements and obstacles set up and directly deliver the two Rafas to Qin Yu.

However, it is not easy to do this.

Rapo's personality is free and undisciplined, picking up girls, cross-border, and partying, how to get high-profile.

His brother John's character is just the opposite, low-key, humble, Gu Jia...

And very old-fashioned, like their grandfather!

'Damn moral restraint, **** John. Rapo cursed in his heart, and poured half a bottle of red wine in his hand on the beef Zizi, boom...

The fire broke out, Rapo took a few steps back, and smiled at the sight of the crowd: "Red wine steak, it's all right."

Smoky, the steak tastes a bit delicious.

Perhaps because of being hungry, Qin Yu killed two yuan by himself.

Then there are crayfish and sea crabs...

The crayfish were cut into pieces and boiled for soup, and two sea crabs were thrown on the iron plate and grilled.

A lot of shrimp soup is prepared, and everyone can taste a small bowl.

Sea crabs were forcibly occupied by Qin Yu and Elkan, but they both brought a snack food to be fed with each.

Waiting for them to open the hard shell and ask for the tender white meat inside.

Tsk tuts one after another, and the night is getting deeper!

Chapter 516: Photos and recent status

In the early morning, Qin Yu came to the deck wearing beach pants and a vest.

It was found that the Bald Whale had been parked at the dock, as Elkan said...

"Hey, buddy, morning!" Elkan's head was full of chicken coops, and his eyes were black haha.

He didn't sleep well last night. Now that the ship has docked, he has to find a hotel to get a good night's sleep.

Qin Yu's condition looks pretty good!

However, Elkan has lost his thoughts, 'this new friend from the East is not as strong as a normal person.'

"Morning." Qin Yu responded with a smile.

After learning that Rabo was going to the hotel to make up his sleep, Qin Yu asked him about the location of the manufacturer of the 'whitehead whale', Pershing Yacht.

"Man, it's in Venice."

Pershing has been acquired by the yacht giant Ferretti Group a few years ago, and the factory site has been moved to a new location.

However, the Ferretti Group was acquired by Donglu Heavy Industry in 2012 by 75% of the shares.

Incorporating Italy's most powerful yacht group and Pershing, known as 'Ferrari on the Sea', into its own business at the same time.

It can be said that the current Ferretti Group belongs to Xia Guo.

"...Donglu Heavy Industries." Qin Yu hadn't heard the name, but it was normal.

There are more companies he has never heard of, and there are so many hidden predators in the mall, not so bad.

However, since it is a domestic enterprise, Qin Yu does not need to make a special trip to the headquarters.

In particular, it was found on the Internet that Ferretti Group has an Asia-Pacific distribution point in Hudu, and it is not too late to talk about it when returning to Hudu.

Qin Yu intends to buy a super-fast yacht similar to the 'whitehead whale', which can be parked directly in front of his house when he turns back.

Like the so-called luxury yachts, it is impossible to accommodate ultra-luxury yachts like the Eclipse.

It is a super fast yacht like Pershing that can be driven into a private waterway and parked at the private dock in the backyard of the mansion.

Knowing that Qin Yu had plans to buy 'Boxing', Elkan was immediately relieved of sleepiness!

Started to talk to him about Pershing's latest flagship model, Pershing155.

Single body, the length of the ship is 129f and the width of | 6.6m.

The overall length is longer than the Whitehead Whale, and the width is about 50cm shorter.

However, this does not mean that its space is small.

In fact, as the new generation flagship of Pershing, it is equipped with a turbojet system, and the speed reaches an astonishing 55 knots.

Not the so-called speed measurement and gimmicks, but the actual maximum speed.

This is also an important breakthrough and milestone in ultra-fast yachts!

The hull weighs 132 tons and the pool water is 1.54m.

The fresh water tank capacity is the same as the previous generation flagship version, 115, which is 3000 liters.

But in terms of interior materials and design, overall luxury and speed, it has far surpassed Pershing 115.

"If you want to buy a 155, remember to let me drive once before driving away."

What it feels like at 55 knots, Elkan has never experienced it either.

At least he has never experienced it on a yacht of this specification, but he has played a few times on a small speedboat.

Can drive a big guy, a speedboat like a kayak, can it be the same?

"I haven't seen anything yet, it's too early to say this." Qin Yu responded with a smile.

He couldn't guarantee this, if he really bought it, he would definitely have to deliver it to himself first.

Qin Yu must be cool first!

Who doesn't want to be a noble family that can sleep on the sea, this noble... is really expensive!

The Pershing 92 in Elkan is priced at over 11 million Euros, which is about 80 million at the current exchange rate...

There are also two models 108 and 115 on it, and the prices have already exceeded 100 million!

The 115 is the flagship version of the previous generation, and the price is as high as 180 million. The new generation 155 is better than it, not to mention the material selection and interior.

Armored plates and bullet-proof glass are installed around the cockpit and the master suite, and in case of danger, it will immediately become a small refuge safe house.

Let the passengers on the yacht have enough time to wait for the arrival of rescue.

The whole ship has a 24-hour smart alarm system, and under the master suite, there is a small submersible speedboat that can accommodate two people, which is extremely safe.

For the rest of the features, there are thousands of options. All in all, in short...As long as the price, what you want!

As for its price, the standard version has reached an astonishing 250 million.

What more personality features = no cap on top!

This is only the price of buying a yacht, and the maintenance of the latter is an astronomical figure.

You know, the cost of raising a yacht for ten years is enough to buy a building in Hudu.

The astronomical figures needed here are just right to think about.

Is it worth spending 250 million to buy a super fast yacht?

Qin Yu didn't consider this question, it's not worth it to him, only whether he wants to...

Now, he wants to buy a speedboat like this to use for fun in the coastal waters.

It's okay to go out and blow the sea breeze, and go fishing with friends, it's that simple!

As for the superyacht that has not yet received the design drawings, it is for future voyages.

Using it as a daily ship is a bit too luxurious and high-profile even for Shuangma.

Chasing away the chattering Elkan, Qin Yu and Pei Zhu head to the hotel in a low-key manner.

Her itinerary is 'semi-public', and for celebrities, no itinerary is truly sexy.

Therefore, Qin Yu did not stay in the same hotel as her in the end.

Instead, he lived in a B&B and inn opposite her. After experiencing this style of hotel in Rambo Village, Qin Yu liked its relaxed atmosphere a bit.

Grounding... you don't need to do anything, you have to hold it, comfortable!

Today Pei Zhu doesn't have time to accompany him, and when he returns to the hotel, he will immediately start preparing for the evening performance.

Make-up, costumes, rehearsals, and a series of messy chores, all piled up on this day to solve.

Who told her to keep inking until the performance today, for this reason the agent made a lot of fire.

Of course not to Pei Zhuxian, she is now very popular and will perform again at night.

If you mess up the evening performance because of your mood, the responsible agent can't afford it.

Thus, the little assistant became his punching bag!

"How do you become an assistant, don't you know to remind the artist to pay attention to the time?"

"Also, what on earth is she going to do, why I call and no one answers? Do you still want to do it, ah..."

The agent raised his hand frequently, if it weren't for abroad, it wouldn't look good to hit a woman.

His slap has already gone down, Asi~ Asi!

The assistant just bowed and apologized. I don't know how many times I have said the three words 'I'm sorry'.

Others, the assistant is a bit afraid to say!

She didn't want to offend Pei Zhuxian after offending the agent.

The life of these two days has left her in a dream, and she has always felt that it is not real.

Perhaps, one day Pei Zhu became a new generation of emperor and queen with the support of that man.

If I offend her at this time, how can I follow her into the future? ? ?

The little assistant's head turned very bright, so the agent naturally had no way of knowing that his own cabbage had been taken away by someone.

However, this is not the point. Even if he doesn't know it now, he will know it soon.

Neither Qin Yu nor Pei Zhu found out that the car was parked in front of the hotel when Pei Zhu got off the car.

The scene of Qin Yu sitting in the car waving to her was captured by a Smecta fan who came to attend the music festival.

At this time, the photo of the two traveling in the same car has been sent back to Smecta.

I believe that soon, the agent will receive a call from the company, and he will be exhausted when he scolds the assistant.

How embarrassed when scolded, as the leader of this operation.

No matter what happened big or small, the tall man (leader) was the first to jump out of the pot.

Correspondingly, Pei Zhu, who was the party concerned, was inevitably reprimanded.

As for the corresponding punishment and response, the company will naturally decide when she returns to China.

At this time, Qin Yu didn't know that the whereabouts of the two had been exposed, and it was sent back to Smecta, and it was about to be published in the newspaper!

He would be lying on the big cozy bed, talking on video calls with China.

"Wanxing, do you know Pershing's headquarters in Hudu?" Qin Yu and Li Wanxing talked about their desire to buy a yacht.

This holiday, Qin Yu may not have time to go back.

Therefore, he intends to let Li Wanxing understand the situation first.

If it is appropriate, place the order directly, and if soon, when the holiday is over, you will be able to see your boat dock at the pier. Isn't it beautiful?

"Didn't you have booked a yacht?" Li Wanxing said helplessly while eating boiled fruit.

He spends money too improperly. It's such a tossing every day, is the wind blowing?

"The purpose is different, one for daily use, it's okay to go out to the sea with friends to blow hair, fishing, one can sail long distances, hold some important banquets and parties at sea..."

Simply put, a daily use is about comfort.

One is face, which emphasizes ostentation and multi-functional use.

The gap here has widened, how could it be the same? ? ?

"Okay, I'll check it tomorrow... It's not very far from me." Li Wanxing searched the address on the map, and got a general impression in her heart.

"What is your brother up to lately?" I haven't seen Li Xiao in this period of time, let alone, I miss him a lot.

"It's not about the work. My brother said yesterday that you ran away just after the holiday, and you don't arrange a few days to gather with your brothers..." Li Wanxing pursed his lips and chuckled.

Listening to Li Xiao complain about him, or if he complains about Li Xiao, is a great source of pleasure in Li Wanxing's daily life.

"Come on! Just like him..." Brother Yu didn't want to say anymore.

Be a good person, you must be obsessed with online dating.

The lesson last time obviously didn't give him a long memory.

On the contrary, after the next few tastes of sweetness, he became more and more interested.

Besides, Xu Hao... lick the dog steadily!

I have been busy with Xia Kexiu all day long and kept my mouth shut every day, 'how do we drip cocoa, our cocoa talks, our cocoa likes to eat, our cocoa...'

I cocoa cocoa... endure it!

In the words of Brother Yu, the two got married quickly and got buried in a pit.

The province is so tired and crooked every day, all day long to give pure milk dog food, you eat, you will not get angry?

"That's right." Li Wanxing leaned forward and smiled mysteriously: "Do you know what Brother Jun has done recently?"

"You know?" Qin Yu asked back.

Li Wanxing was unconvinced, "Of course I know, he went on a blind date... OK, Qin Yu, you do something with me again."

"Blind date?" Qin Yu only assumed that he didn't understand what she was saying, and turned the topic to blind date.

Yang Chengjun went on a blind date, what an international joke.

Brother Jun, where is your pride?

What about your persistence?

What about your principles?

It's not a good idea, love is just a business, you buy it and sell it.

Why did you meet on a blind date all of a sudden...

This 180-degree turn almost flashed Brother Yu's waist.

Under what circumstances, I haven't seen each other for more than half a month, making people brainwashed?

"Brother Jun, there is no way. The old man forced him to do so. He is not young anymore... It's not a trivial matter to inherit the family from generation to generation."

The single biography of Yang's family, such a precious grandson, of course the old man was very impatient.

If there is something wrong with Yang Chengjun, the Yang family will be the last.

For the aristocratic family, what could be more serious than this?

If you lose money, you can earn again, if you lose power, you can fight again. As long as the people are there and the background is still there, there is nothing terrifying.

But if the person is gone, then there is really nothing.

Mr. Yang has a wish now to hug his grandson earlier...

Yang Chengjun's family knows about his family affairs, and his circumstances cannot tolerate him to refuse.

Besides, accepting the convenience and care brought by the family, naturally also have to bear this responsibility.

So, after Mr. Yang asked him to go on a blind date.

Yang Chengjun just hesitated for a few seconds, then nodded and agreed.

"You don't know, Brother Jun is a hot item in the celebrity circle during this time, and every celebrity is waiting in line for self-recommendation..."

Thinking of the turmoil in the circle these days, all kinds of gossip spread all over the sky.

What does Yang Shao like to eat, what is his personality, what his hobbies are, what style he likes, and what his preferences are.

Where do you go often, what do you like to drink, whether you like to play a car or watch, what are the specialties...

It's just a matter of getting on the horse and measuring the length.

"Ahem..."

Seeing her talking more and more, Qin Yu cleared her throat and reminded: "Are you doing this now?"

After Li Wanxing spoke, she realized that she seemed to have exposed something, "Ah, I'm so sleepy, I won't tell you, I wish you a good time, bye!"

After speaking quickly, Li Wanxing directly hung up the video.

Looking at the screen and returning to the chat box, Qin Yu shook his head dumbfoundedly, exited, clicked another avatar, and selected-video call!

Beep-beep-beep!

"Boss~" The face of the little anchor Hu Mei appeared in the video. Looking at the scene in her background, this is another live broadcast of the goods.

"What are you up to?" Qin Yu asked, really preparing to start broadcasting.

As the new year is approaching, it is a busy day.

The public with tight hands in the past will also become spendthrift, and they want to reward themselves during the Chinese New Year.

Anyone who does business in the territory of Xia Guo will be a fool if he doesn't pay much attention to it for years!

The small anchor and Wang Hong's team did not rest for a day during this period.

Not only does it live broadcast the goods every day, but also shoot short promotional videos to increase promotion and publicity.

The two have just set a small goal for themselves, this year... earn it 500 million!

As for the rest, let me think about it next year.

What is the relationship between me next year and me this year? How can I be so ignorant? ? ?

Chapter 517: The prince is not up to it?

asked Cheng Xiyu to continue to work on her.

then went on to switch on the video with a few other women, including Jia Jingsi, the little jk also did not fall...

"Uncle, I haven't seen you for a long time." Jia Jingsi lay on the bed, kicking the air with two legs. The quilt on        was kicked off by her, this quirky little fairy!

"I'm abroad, I will look for you when school starts." Qin Yu said.

Jia Jingsi curiously asked: "It's work again, uncle, are you too busy?"

"How can I make money to support you when I'm not busy?" Qin Yu smiled.

Jia Jingsi curled his lips and said: "People don't need you to support me. I have Mr. Jia to support me."

"A lot of people spoil you, isn't it okay?" Qin Yu retorted.

Jia Jingsi tilted the boss for a while and said proudly: "Very good..."

Dad belongs to father, and father belongs to father. Don't get confused!

It's just that I haven't seen the uncle for a long time, she is not familiar with the process anymore.

When can I have a longer and shorter time with him again!

After all the women are calmed down, most of the time has passed, and the music festival is about to begin.

Ling Ling Ling...

A call from the assistant? Not Qin Yu's, but Pei Zhuxian's.

Qin Yu presses the answer button: "Something?"

"Mr. Qin, it's like this... Zhuzhu, please leave your attention to MiDa News,... Your photos have been exposed!"

"Asi, Asi, **** bastards, this damn, what the **** is going on..."

You bastards, Asi...what's the use of you, Asi, Asi..."

From the background sound on the phone, the embarrassment of Brother Yu was guilty.

Because the other party speaks stick language from beginning to end, he only understands 'Asi... Asi... Asi...'

is outrageous!

"I see, what's the matter with Zhuzhu, please communicate with me in time!"

Hearing Qin Yu's worry, the assistant whispered: "Pigs will be fine, she is a legitimate cash cow!"

Just when I was going to use her to make money, how could it be possible to anger Pei Zhuxian because of this little thing.

Besides, that photo can only prove that they were in the same car and not in the same hotel.

This is what makes the company most grateful. Fortunately, they did not enter a hotel.

Otherwise, now it's not as simple as refuting rumors!

Qin Yu asked the hotel to arrange a car and take him to the music festival, Qin Yu received a call from the assistant again.

It's just that Pei Zhuxian called this time: "The company will deny our relationship, it's just pure friends.

You only have a side face, you are not recognized..."

Pei Zhuxian's voice stopped suddenly, and then a helpless tone came again: "Ouba, someone recognizes you."

"Your company is already dealing with it, right?" Denied Sanlian, and took out 'just friends,' the artist personally said.

This kind of scandal basically has no soil for survival, but Pei Zhu is not reconciled at present.

She expected that Qin Yu would reject the company's arrangement and choose to announce the relationship with her.

Looking at it now, she has other plans!

"We are still young, and now is the time when your career takes off. Don't affect your future just because of this."

Qin Yu not only considered herself, but also considered from the standpoint of Pei Zhuxian.

For her, there is no harm to her without proclaiming it!

Since this is the case, why do you still announce it?

Besides, they are still too young. They have a long way to go in the future, and there are many choices to make.

A decision made under impulse is not a good idea.

.....

.....

Pei Zhu now accepts Qin Yu's suggestion and chooses to conceal the relationship.

At the concert, he announced to the 'fan' that he had no love affair, it was just a friend who sent him back to the hotel.

After getting acquainted with Qin Yu, Pei Zhu now uses the word "cocktail party" to answer.

The three-day music festival, a variety of weird activities, performances, countless.

Anyway, it's crazy, very hi!

Pei Zhu is now on the second day of the festival, leaving with the team.

She has to rush to the announcement. The time is one week later than expected, so she can't delay it any longer.

Then, Qin Yu was the only one left, alone with Elkan's dog food.

Elkan wanted to introduce him to the girl, but every time he spoke, he was interrupted by Qin Yu.

Follow each other's various shortcomings, daily performance, and work situation.

Qin Yu seems to have conducted the most thorough investigation and understanding of each of them!

The fact is true. There are 'kylin's. As long as they leave a trace on the Internet, they will be found out.

Even some old almanacs from the past have been turned over!

"Man, you should have a fun attitude, are you looking for a wife?" Elkan was very helpless to his 'conservative'.

try{mad1(\gad2\);}catch(ex){}      Qin Yu despises his 'unscrupulous,' he is really not picky!

"I just want to know now, how is my car?" The festival is over, and he hasn't got a satisfactory answer yet.

Is this prince okay?

Brother Yu has all the money ready, just waiting to pay the bill!

"Twenty days, Qin...I promise you will see them." Elkann had his own plan.

If he can't convince John, he is going to transfer his collection to Qin Yu.

Anyway, since I promised him, Elkann will do it anyway.

"Waiting for your good news!" Qin Yu said and got on the helicopter.

"Qin, don't forget that you promised me." The propeller turned, and Elkan retreated and waved and shouted Qin Yu rolled his eyes, he was talking about yachts, and the ghosts had agreed to let them. He was the first to drive.

Arrived at Rambo Village, Qin Yu saw Hunter who was waiting.

"Qin, welcome back!" Hunter opened his arms warmly and patted his back hard.

Qin Yu backhanded him twice, coming and going without being indecent!

"Ah..." Hunter was photographed staggeringly.

Good fellow, this kid is going to shoot himself to death?

"Qin, I am not young anymore..." Hunter looked melancholy

"I didn't see it, the little girl will scream for you!" Brother Yu smiled and said with a smile.

When he came to the office area next to the museum, Qin Yu saw the formalities of all the vehicles.

The sixth element, Diablo and an LM002 purchase qualification!

"Qin, this is the kindness of being a friend. If you want, you can choose what you want by yourself..."

In order to ensure that Qin Yu has more Lamborghini than Ferrari, Hunter also took great pains.

not only took out his ancestor of the SUV, but after learning that the 90% new Urus had been given away by him, he immediately suggested that he buy another one.

If Qin Yu agrees, Hunter can guarantee that it will be shipped with the sixth element at the same time.

"Hunter, I will be drained by you." Qin Yu joked.

Hunter laughed and shook his head: "Qin, excessive humility is not the attitude that young people should have..."

"Let me take a look at my car first, Hunter. Nothing else matters." The two got up and walked towards the factory behind.

Chapter 518: Take an unusual step

and it also established Lamborghini's unique wedge-shaped body style in the future.

is going through bankruptcy, being acquired by Chrysler, reselling Audi and so on.

Because of Diablo's own classics, several versions have been released in 11 years, including VT, SE30th Anniversary Edition, SVV12, second-generation SV, second-generation VT and VTRoadster.

The last swan song is the DiabloGT track version launched in 1999, which is also the fiercest one in the entire series.

The enlarged front track, the convex wheel cover, and the standard large rear wing at the rear make the whole car full of domineering and grim killing intent.

DiabloGT is also the most powerful in terms of power. Based on the 5.7LV12 engine, the cylinder stroke has been increased from 80mm to 84mm, and the displacement has reached 6.0L.

The maximum power can reach 583 horsepower and the top speed exceeds 335km/h. That year was 1999...

During the entire period of its sales, it has been favored by many celebrities.

Including boxing king Tyson, the car favorite among the four kings, Tian Wang Guo, and Zhang Shihao, the gangster who tied the eldest son of the richest man in Hong Kong.

NBA superstars, trapeze Joe, etc...

Qin Yu also fancied the fierce thug in the Diablo series, DiabloGT.

Hunter agreed to sell this car to him for 1.46 million euros and more than 11 million Xia dollars.

When the car was launched, the price was only 390,000 Euros, which was a 3.7 times increase in 20 years.

That's it, you have to buy it only if the other party is willing to sell it.

Things are rare and expensive. Qin Yu naturally understands the truth...

The car is in 90% new condition. It only ran 200 kilometers and hardly moved.

The overall car condition is perfect...

LM002, of which two versions are the most precious, one is the bald eagle military version that was used to fight with the Hummer in the same year and win the military contract.

is the LM002Estate version. Simply put, it is the most luxurious version. It has a longer wheelbase and an independently closable rear space. It focuses on luxury and comfort, and is more inclined to the traditional style of the Bulls.

What Qin Yu values is the bald eagle version, which is violent, rough, and cumbersome.

The picture is comfortable, who buys this car?

I bought this car for fun. Buying rice, noodles, oil, vegetables and the like are most suitable for putting them in the cart.

The interior decoration of the sixth element has not been completed, and it will take some time to ship.

Qin Yu took advantage of this time to let Hunter modify the LM002 he chose...

Some obsolete equipment, especially electronic equipment, need to be updated.

The appearance also needs to be changed appropriately, the interior is replaced with red + black seats, the interior is still decorated with wood grain, air-conditioning and audio...

try{mad1('\gad2\');}catch(ex){} change!

Automatic window lifting function, such small problems needless to say, long shock absorbers, strengthened horizontal/longitudinal linkage, pretending to judge the lever, steering assist, non-independent hard axle suspension.

This car, just finished!

After the change, the whole car will be hard to sit on, and even harder to drive.

But this is what Qin Yu wants...

According to Qin Yu's requirements, all accessories are used with the most suitable and best standards. The delivery price of the whole vehicle is about 890,000 Euros and 7.12 million Xia Yuan.

The Urus, who was previously 90% new, was given to Ma Lin by Qin Yu. Hunter gave a super discount price: 112,000 Euros.

In addition, Qin Yu ordered a brand-new Urus, and the total cost is 2.667 million euros.

21 million big summer coins, all cars will be delivered to the door of Nanhu Manor together with the sixth element, without any additional tax or transportation fees.

It doesn't seem to be very expensive if you count it like this...

Responsible swiping the card, the last time Lixin paid out 2 billion in dividends, and spent 1.1 billion on its investment reputation, and the remaining 900 million, and now there are still 700 million on the account.

Loongson, Yuanguang, Miracle Pharmaceuticals and headquarters funds all go to the public account of Lixin Investment.

Although the money was sent from Yuge's account, it was still counted as Lixin Investment Holdings.

In the future, other investments will also go to Lixin Investment, which will become the financial pillar of the 'miracle system'.

Enterprises need to walk on two legs to walk steadily!

This is for ordinary companies, and Miracle Group has not taken an ordinary path from the beginning.

To be an eight-legged spider, weave a large web in the northwest, covering all the 'prey' that you like with eight legs.

At present, Miracle Group is involved in the financial industry, new energy, semiconductor, military communications and pharmaceutical industries.

Five of the eight legs have been collected... No, it should be said that it is six!

Qilin ai intelligent assistant is only used to serve him alone, which is too overkill.

After conducting preliminary tests on it, Qin Yu has a detailed plan for its future!

There are good things to know to share. The application of virtual reality technology to the game field is the ultimate dream of every game fan.

Qin Yu used to have no choice but now with Qilin ai, he thinks he can make some attempts.

However, all these will be done after he goes back.

"Qin, all the procedures are completed..." Hunter passed the documents received from the employees to him.

The relevant certificates, receipts and tax stamps of several vehicles are all here.

Wait for the car to be transported into Xia Country, register for tax return, and apply for the big book...

"Thank you, Hunter...I should go." Qin Yu packed all the materials into his handbag and got up to bid him farewell.

"Now? I still want to invite you to be a guest at home, and we can have a drink in the evening!" Hunter's stay did not shake him. What is good for getting together with an old man.

try{mad1('\gad2\');}catch(ex){} If he has a beautiful daughter, maybe he can discuss it again!

"If you have a chance to come to Xia Country, I invite you to taste Xia Country's special delicacies. You will want to swallow your tongue." Qin Yu said.

Hunter laughed nonchalantly: "Haha, I look forward to such a day..."

.....

.....

Pack light when coming, and the same when leaving.

On this flight, Qin Yu did not see the 'familiar 90+' face, b fell asleep!

When I got bored to the abandoned city airport, Qin Yu saw Lu Qing who came to pick him up.

After a long time no see, Lu Qing has become more beautiful.

The newly made hair is big burgundy waves, it looks big and wavy...

Look at her data again, all of them are ↑ perfect! !

"Baby, let's talk in the car first." Holding Lu Qing's waist, Qin Yu walked towards the parking lot with a smirk.

He has been in a 'sage' state for the past few days, and his underwear has been stretched by one size.

is simply outrageous!

On the way home Lv Qing has been'sleeping,' Qin Yu carefully drove the Porsche to the door.

Lu Qing will go back later, there is no need to park the car in the garage.

When the car stopped, Lu Qing pulled her Prada away and took out her mouthwash!

Gululu...

sprayed mouthwash in the flower bed, and the two walked to the house side by side.

Open the door, Lao Qin and Liang Chuyu are not there.

The two will be on vacation tomorrow. At this time, only the nanny and aunt are at home, listening to stories with Pumpkin on the sofa.

Tmall Elf + Amazon membership is the biggest playground for children!

Little Pumpkin held the puppet in his hand, and smashed the sofa with a 'boom boom'.

'S **** eyes rolled back and forth, and he was not at all lively like a seven-month-old child.

However, everyone has gradually got used to this.

Don't talk about my family, even Aunt Qiao and Aunt Sun, the babysitter, have accepted the setting of Little Pumpkin's 'extraordinary talent'.

Just playing with him every day, the two of them can be tossed to death.

Speaking of this, originally Aunt Sun was the only one to look after him, but finally found that he couldn't stand it!

This kid is extremely energetic all day long.

Finally, Aunt Qiao used her free time to take the initiative to replace Aunt Sun with Pumpkin.

After Liang Chuyu knew, she asked her to continue working as a part-time nanny, and gave her an extra salary, and Aunt Qiao also agreed.

Anyway, she is also a temperament who can't be free, and she stays in the room in a daze without children.

It's better to spend time with your children. You can have fun and earn an extra share. Why not?

Chapter 519: Add rice, add rice...

Smashing the little pumpkin of the doll on the bed, I finally saw Qin Yu and Lu Qing as his eyes turned.

Seeing that it was 'Brother' was back, Little Pumpkin smiled first, then quickly threw the doll away, feeling as though his buttocks were lying on the sofa.

Moving backward, he slipped off the sofa.

Limbs on the ground, his body swayed towards his brother...

Duang~

Hit Qin Yu's leg with one head, and the little pumpkin was shaken and fell back to sit on the ground.

He blinked blankly and laughed out loud.

"You little monkey, can't you be honest?" Qin Yu picked him up and nodded on his nose.

Little Pumpkin was still laughing endlessly, and didn't know what he was silly about?

Putting him on the sofa, Qin Yu talked to Aunt Qiao, and walked upstairs with Lu Qing.

As soon as the left foot stepped out, I felt that the right foot sank suddenly.

Looking back, Little Pumpkin opened his hands and hugged his legs, and was about to hang on his legs in the air.

Really~ hold your thighs!

"Little guy, I have something to do with my sister, and stay obediently." Pulling him off his leg, Qin Yu stretched out his finger and clicked on his head.

The small body was overturned on the sofa, and Qin Yu took the opportunity to pull Lu Qing away.

"Don't be like this..." Lu Qing's face was scorching hot when he thought of the two aunts' eyes looking at him.

He didn't always teach him to 'play ball' just now, so why would he be so anxious?

"You don't know the young man, are you angry?" Qin Yu closed the door and walked onto the bed without saying a word.

咚咚~

"Little ancestor, don't knock, let's go downstairs and play." Aunt Qiao's voice came faintly.

"Ah, ah, ah..." Lu Qing heard a high-decibel scream through the door.

"It's a little pumpkin, don't make trouble!" Lu Qing straightened his clothes and sprinted forward to open the door.

At the door, the little pumpkin was sitting on the ground, her mouth open.

Behind him, Aunt Joe wanted to hug him helplessly, but was often slapped away by him.

This little guy is not big, so it hurts to shoot people...

"Little pumpkin, sister hug!" Lu Qing squatted in front of him, reaching out to hug him.

Unexpectedly, like a little monkey, he slapped his **** and flung out from Lu Qing's side.

When I look back, this kid is already on the side of the bed and is about to crawl on the bed...

Qin Yusheng, who was paralyzed on the bed, looked at the ceiling imperceptibly, what kind of evil did I do?

...

...

In the end, Little Pumpkin's little wish to "make up a lesson alone" with Miss Sister was forcibly disrupted by Little Pumpkin.

When Lu Qing left, there was a snicker in the corner of her eyes.

When Old Qin and Liang Chuyu came back, Little Pumpkin was willing to walk away from his arms and crawl to Liang Chuyu's legs with his **** "dududu".

Holding up her son, Liang Chuyu was also dumbfounded: "Who learned this kid, crawling on the ground every day."

Lao Qin threw the bag on the table, untied his tie and said, "Not all children are like that, Xiao Yu crawled around when he was young."

"He is almost two years old, can it be the same?" Liang Chuyu gave her man a white glance.

Sure enough, a man is still unreliable, for him a child...

Just stay alive, right?

After the meal, Qin Yu talked about his trip to Italy.

"What kind of cars are they? Why did you buy so many cars?" Liang Chuyu said angrily: "That car is a means of transportation, you can't eat or drink."

"Mom, this car is a limited edition, value-preserving..." Telling her how many times the 'ghost' has been over the years, Qin Yu clearly ignored a fact.

Hidden car play cafes put their cars in the garage and occasionally drove them out in the sun to prevent aging.

You can't drive 100 kilometers in a year...

And he really used it as a contemporary tool.

That Urus was simply ignored by him.

Less than 200,000 euros, isn't that just an addition, as to pull it out and talk about it separately?

"By the way, I am going to buy a yacht recently. When the time comes, please go to the sea with my dad for vacation." Qin Yu gnawed on the ribs and said with a vague.

Liang Chuyu glanced at Lao Qin, and Lao Qin also looked at her, both of them were a little uncomfortable!

A year ago, their family was well-off.

A little deposit, no debt, a suite, a car, and a comfortable life.

In the blink of an eye, supercars, luxury houses...

Even the yacht has been arranged, what's the situation? ? ?

"Xiaoyu, don't float, you have to stumble, when will you straighten your heart." Liang Chuyu warned uneasy.

The achievements of her son today are better than those of her life.

But no matter how strong it is, he is also his own son.

People are like that kite, and others are praising him vigorously, complimenting him, complimenting him...

Let him fly off.

But someone has to pull the cord to let him know when to keep his feet on the ground.

If the thread is off...

How high you flew, how miserable you fell!

"I know, Mom, don't worry." Qin Yu explained with a light smile: "Do you look at me like you are overwhelmed?"

Although he has achieved his current achievements through his own efforts, Brother Yu really doesn't know who his last name is.

Instead, I always remind myself in my heart, to be low-key and humble!

Don't forget the original intention, firm up your dreams and ideas, and start unswervingly toward your goals.

As for the other...adding heads, all adding heads!

For the dream to die, this is the ideological consciousness that a promising young person should have.

"Hey~what do you think?" Watching him lower his head and smirk, Lao Qin tapped his head with chopsticks.

"It's okay~" Qin Yu rolled his eyes and grinned.

"Look at your stupidity, do you have to go to your Uncle Lu's house for the New Year? Have you bought anything?" Liang Chuyu asked with a smile about his plans for the New Year.

"Buy it now, it's not the first time I went there." Qin Yu said casually.

"This is Chinese New Year, can it be the same?" Liang Chuyu put down the bowl and hugged the small pumpkin that was holding the bowl in the children's chair.

He is now able to eat at the table, and Aunt Qiao specially made supplementary foods such as batter and noodle soup for him.

Little pumpkin has to eat a bowl every time, and sometimes it's not enough!

Just like what he did just now, he would pull the bowl and say, 'add more rice, add more rice...'

Pumpkin: Regardless of my young age, I am serious about doing food.

Unfortunately, it is impossible to add food...

The role of supplementary food is more for the child's stomach to adapt to the intake and absorption of food.

If you eat a little bit more at first, it will burden your stomach!

Otherwise, you will get sick, and the root of the disease may be left behind, causing all year round discomfort and fragility of the intestinal tract in the later stage.

Therefore, the intake of complementary foods must be increased with age.

Rather than if the child wants, just give, if want, just give...

In the end, the whole family suffers along with it.

Listening to the maternal master's words, Qin Yu asked curiously: "Mom, I was like this back then?"

"You?" Master Mother raised his eyelids, and said disdainfully: "What did you eat at that time, and what did you not eat? You were hungry if you didn't eat."

"...I picked it up, right?" Qin Yu whispered.

Old Qin's mouth twitched, and he smiled: "Forget about when you were a kid, and ask your mother where you came from. Your mother said that you got X2 from...the river flooded with a net."

Qin Yu and Lao Qin said in unison, this stalker's family has been talking about it for many years.

Because of this, when Qin Yu was a child, every time he passed the river when he went to school, he would stop by the embankment and look down. He wanted to see when there was a flood in the river and whether there would be children with them. Like myself, floating down from the river, by the way, he was picked up and taken home as a child.

In fact, he was still a little bit cautious in his heart.

When you want to wait for the flood to catch the children, get yourself a younger brother or younger sister to take home to play.

When I was young, I saw two children from other people's family, not to mention that Brother Yu was envious.

When I grow up, my mind gradually fades.

I thought that there was no drama in my life, but I didn't think that it would be rounded up as an adult.

I really have a brother!!!

Look at his mellow forehead, his fleshy face, dark eyes, and pretty nose.

Qin Yuxin said, 'this will also be the life of a fisherman in the future.'

I just don't know if he fishes or casts a net...

Chapter 520: Will it be too exciting for the Chinese New Year?

Year 30...

It is the most important thing early in the morning to put up lanterns and festoons, and stick couplets.

After breakfast, Lao Qin and Qin Yu went out with the couplet.

This year, their family will post more than 100 million couplets...

Yard gate, side gate.

The front door, back door and side door of the house.

The garage door, the door from the garage to the room...

"Dad, can't you change the content of this couplet in your unit?" Qin Yu complained with disgust on his face when he saw the inscription on the couplet.

Repeated a few words over and over again, since I was young and saw the big, everyone has to throw up!

"It's not bad if you have it. Are you still picky?" Qin Han scolded with a smile: "Why don't you buy it yourself."

"Forget it, I'm too lazy to run." Qin Yu muttered, and glued the horizontal batch.

...Farewell to the old and welcome the new.

It's quite suitable. This year the Qin family is not just saying "Farewell to the old and welcome the new."

Especially for Brother Yu, life in the past seems to be the thing of the last century.

"Your aunt's family will come over at noon." Qin Han said.

"Why are you here?" Qin Yu was surprised.

"New Year, the whole family is lively and lively." Qin Han responded.

"Where are my uncle and aunt?" Qin Yu asked.

"I didn't say..."

"..." Well, where is this place for fun.

After clapping his hands, Qin Yu said straightly, "I have something to do at noon, so I have to go out."

Qin Han expected him to say this: "Then you have to tell your mother..."

Qin Yu seemed to have not heard it, so he smeared the soles of his feet and turned into the garage:

"Dad, you remember to tell my mom."

"Hey, you stinky boy cut first and then play?" Qin Han scolded, but didn't stop.

Not to mention Qin Yu, even his wife can't understand what his eldest sister does!

The elders are not like elders.

Since her son has a good future, he has given her things during the holidays, various shopping cards, and stored-value cards have been given to her.

Not to mention the money she 'borrowed' under various excuses, the wife didn't plan to ask for it.

how? This is not enough, have to support yourself?

Qin Han had no place to say this, but his family knew it all in their hearts...

When he first came out to post the couplet, Liang Chuyu asked him to remind his son that the eldest sister was coming at noon.

Knowing her son Mo Ruomu, does she know how Qin Yu will react.

This is reminding him to flash people.

It's just that, in the end the wicked have to be themselves...

Watching his son wave his hand in the car, 'run away,' Qin Han pushed open the door and shouted: "My wife, your son said he won't be back at noon."

"Why didn't you stop a bit, running out on New Year's Eve, there are still people from home!"

"I can't help but dad, do I say it works?"

"Then you let him go, and just told your eldest sister to come, you said you..."

"Yes, yes, it's all my fault..."

"I told you..."

"Yes, yes... my son is crying, I coax my son to go."

"Old Qin, you come back to me..."

Driving into the ring road, Qin Yu dialed Tanghe's number: "Bao, what are you doing?"

"Internet, wait for dinner." Tang He said calmly.

What can I do during the New Year? Isn't it just going to relatives and eating...

Eat all kinds of food, then eat and eat.

"Come out to get together, have a couple of drinks?" I haven't seen him for more than half a year, and just get together while I'm free.

"I'm going out now, where can I go?" The harsh sound of the chair rubbing against the ground came.

"Mom, I'm going out and I won't come back to eat at noon."

"I will definitely come back for dinner in the evening, okay, come back early..."

When he left the door, Tang He could smile and said, "Brother Yu, where are we going?"

"Do you remember the old hot pot behind the school, that's it..." Qin Yu said.

"Come on, I think I've been thinking about it for half a year." Tang He said with a big smile.

I gave Gao Bo a phone call, and the other party said he would go out now.

Qin Yu was the first to arrive, parked the car on the side of the road, closed the door and walked into the store.

There are no people in the shop today, and there are only two waiters, "Hello, how many are you?"

"Three, I'll sit here." Qin Yu chose a position by the window and saw his alma mater through the window.

This position is their old seat. They used to like to sit here and watch the girls coming in and out of the school.

"Butter saucepan, very spicy!" Qin Yu ordered the bottom of the pot and looked at the other person.

Habitual movements are as if he chooses a good position as soon as he enters the door. They are all years of old habit.

At the 30th year of the year, the school gate was closed.

Even the boarding students have all gone home, so naturally there is nothing to look at.

After a while, Tang He and Gao Bo arrived.

"Brother Yu, old seat!" Tang He smiled and sat on the opposite side of the window seat.

Gao Bo directly pulled a chair and sat in the aisle, looking directly at the school gate across the road.

The three people sit down and start ordering!

"First, let's have a box of green dry, iced." Tang He ordered the wine and looked at the two of them: "I have been used to drinking this recently.

"Why do you stay in the mountain city and eat hot pot every day, why are you so addicted?" Gao Bo couldn't figure it out.

In the land of hot pot, I haven't eaten enough every day, come back to eat hot pot?

"You don't understand this." Tang He explained: "The hot pot over there is authentic, but I really can't get used to it!"

Although there are hot pots everywhere, they are similar, but there are still some local characteristics, in order to cater for changes in local taste preferences.

Tang He felt that the hot pot here was delicious, nothing strange.

"Come on, let's do one first." The beer came up, and one person touched each bottle one by one, and took a few sips first.

"Ah~" The cold and thorough temper poured into his stomach along his throat.

There is a cool air inside and outside, which makes the whole body transparent.

Cool!

Although it's only a few degrees outside, the beer still has to be drunk on ice.

"Brother Yu, what have you been up to for half a year? Tell us..." Gao Bo asked curiously while eating.

They also watched the news, what are the sons of technology, innovative leaders, influential young leaders...

Although it is self-appointed by the media, it also represents how intense Qin Yu's attention is.

For a while, as long as you open the news, you will inevitably discover something related to him.

I saw a piece of news a couple of days ago, saying that the Smecta girl group idol was suspected of being exposed.

Isn't the man inside Qin Yu the same?

Others may have to confirm, but they both recognize it at a glance.

"I called Baozi at the time, and I was so shocked that I couldn't speak." Gao Bo said.

"Yes, I was stupid at the time..." Tang He did not deny at all, exaggeratingly said: "Brother Yu, you know how I was in my mood at the time..."

I'm jealous! Your little life is too moist, and Smecta idols are all available. When will it be the thigh age? "

"Is it cold in the thigh era?" Gao Bo despised: "Now it is the world of the new generation."

"Who says it's cold, I love the thigh age, that's a memory kill, you know a der." Baozi retorted.

"The old are old, and I still remember to kill, is it okay to dream of returning to 80?" Gao Bo stopped after speaking, and emphasized: "Except for the facade!"

"Cut~" Tang He sarcastically dismissed: "You are just a glutton."

"I'm greedy, I admit it." Gao Bo looked at him and asked, "Can you do it?"

"..." Tang He stopped talking, of course he...can't.

It's stamped, and it doesn't work now.

"Fortunately, I will sponsor the Smecta tour for the two of you, to see if you can have an affair?" Qin Yu added a yellow throat and put it into his mouth with a smile.

"Brother Yu, are you planning to go to Smecta?" Their eyes lit up, and if Qin Yu was going, they could follow.

"No plan, I'll talk about it later." There are still a lot of things in hand. After thirty, I have to be busy, where is the time to go to Smecta.

When you are done with the work at hand, the rest will be decided!

By the way, he hadn't told Watson when he came back from this trip.

Qin Yu thought about it, it's better to wait until the end of the New Year's Eve, so that she can have a good harvest.

"Uncles and aunts during the New Year didn't think about taking the opportunity to go out for a tour?" Gao Bo said.

Qin Yu thought for a while, and said: "I haven't heard of it, but I'm focusing on the trumpet and work."

"When will I meet your brother? I really want to see it." Tang He smiled.

"Have a chance!" Qin Yu said.

A meal is two hours, the meal takes forty minutes, and the rest is drinking.

A total of more than two drinks, this small gathering is over.

"I haven't met an acquaintance. Those who celebrate the Chinese New Year are staying home." After leaving the hot pot restaurant, Gao Bo was still complaining.

I used to eat hot pot. Looking at the girls coming in and out from the opposite side, I was happy to eat two more bowls of rice.

Now, the fun is suddenly gone...

"I want to call! You don't have a number." Tang He squinted, his face flushed like a monkey butt.

He would have floated this time, and his voice was a few pitches higher when he spoke.

"Just hit it, I'm afraid of you?" Gao Bo blushed and shouted with a thick neck.

"Fight!"

"I'll fight and wait..."

"You fight."

"I don't need a mobile phone!"

Seeing that the two are getting better, Gao Bo takes out his phone and shakes the other person.

Qin Yu pressed his hand and said, "Those who are in their 30s, don't make trouble, and go back to each house as soon as possible."

The two of them drank, suddenly a little excited.

When Qin Yu stopped, there was nothing like that.

If you really call to contact your high school classmates, it's really unlikely that someone will come.

The premise is not to mention that Brother Yu is also there, otherwise, the whole class gets all.

"Brother Yu, I will convince you, you are now holding the flag, you are bullish... Don't forget brother in the future." Tang He said to his heart while taking advantage of Jiu Jin.

Tucked them into the back seat of the car, Qin Yu said, "I can't forget you two."

Called a substitute driver, Qin Yu got into the co-pilot.

"Bath center." For those who are celebrating the New Year, it would be inappropriate to send them back.

First find a place, take a bath, and massage to wake up.

"Brother Yu, are you serious about the bathing center?" Tang He tilted his head and smirked.

Gao Bo raised his hand and said with a smirk: "Seriously, who is going...I won't go."

...

...

The car parked at the entrance of the bathing center, and the magnificent door looked very serious.

After receiving the sign and holding disposable towels, the three followed the waiter and walked inside.

5 minutes later, in the irregularly shaped bath.

Qin Yu Tang He, Gao Bo each occupy a corner soaking.

Taking a bath is really comfortable. The pores all over my body seem to be opened. While taking in the moisture, I breathe the air in the water freely.

After soaking in the sauna, I already washed my head when I rushed to the body.

Then wipe your back, push...milk salt, knock your back, pinch your arms and shoulders.

Then steam it, let the salt be absorbed by the body, sterilize and detoxify!

Flushing, after this set is over, it is time to rest in the lobby on the second floor.

"Open a box and find two massagers... to be more beautiful." Qin Yu said to the waiter in the lobby.

Hearing what he said, the sobered Tang He and Gao Bo secretly looked at each other.

There was a strong curiosity and excitement in his eyes, and he was a little bit embarrassed.

Is it a bit too exciting for the Chinese New Year? ?
