Chapter 541: Qin Yu is a good man

Time flies, and it has been two weeks since Qin Yu ordered Pershing 155 in the blink of an eye.

Today should be the day that Pershing delivered the goods, but he did not see his ship at the dock.

"Mr. Qin, I am very sorry, because of your personal requirements, there is a time difference in the transportation of some materials required for internal soft packaging. I am afraid that the delivery time will be delayed for a few more days."

Hearing the answer from the other party, Qin Yu's eyebrows rose high: "So, blame me?"

Because of your personal requirements, it will take a few days...

Doesn't this mean, 'If you don't have that much shit, just place the order directly', then there will be no delay.

It was Qin Yu who forced you to agree to deliver in two weeks when co-authoring, instead of your own time? ?

For this reason, I smiled directly to Brother Yu: "I can't make it, right?"

"I'm sorry, I'm afraid it will take another week in time." The other party said.

"Okay, it's okay." Qin Yu left directly, stunned to the other party.

This young man is so easy to talk, he originally thought he wanted to say all the good things.

That's it? ?

But how can he think of it? Then is the beginning of the nightmare.

Just two hours after Qin Yu left, a bad news came from the company's headquarters. Their most important production base exploded. Fortunately, there were no casualties during the break.

However, the company has just completed construction and the three yachts to be delivered have turned into a sea of flames, and the order seems to be stale.

Not only a full refund, but also a large amount of liquidated damages.

As a result, the entire group was in chaos, and the public relations department took the lead.

See if we can reach an understanding with the customer, give a discount on the shipping price, rebuild it, and deliver it later.

After all, it was an accident!

No one wants this, and the company can make appropriate concessions and provide slightly more specifications.

Even if you accompany a little less, it is 10,000 times better than canceling an order!

Because if the order is cancelled, both the already placed order and potential customers will have doubts and resume the wait-and-see state.

It may even cause a large-scale breach of contract, and then a 'trust crisis!'

This is undoubtedly a disaster for any company...

If an understanding can be reached with the customer, then the problem will be reduced to an acceptable range.

Even if you don't make money, you can maintain a balance of payments, so that it will not cause too serious a blow to the capital chain and reputation!

But when the public relations department acted, another piece of bad news came.

From Barrow, the rich man who ordered Pershing 155, unfortunately died of illness that night!

His family decided to abandon the 90% completed 'Elk', and no longer pay the remaining money.

In other words, the direct loss caused by this order to the company is as high as 10 million euros.

This highlights the embarrassment of Pershing's not-so-rich capital flow!

The chain reaction brought about is a chargeback application, serious and direct lawyer's letter warning.

If you don't return the money, I will sue you until you go bankrupt...

The last thing Pershing needs is a lawsuit.

Therefore, every caller will try his best to keep it, and those who can't keep it can only be returned.

The Board of Directors of Boxing moved from glory to decline overnight.

Yesterday, I was proud of Pershing's brilliant achievements, and today I am facing the tragedy of bankruptcy.

Maybe this is the so-called: everything is unpredictable!!

The most important thing for Pershing now is to seek funding. The first thing they think of is the parent company.

But what is waiting is not good news, but an accountability!

What Donglu Heavy Industry wants is to learn from Pershing's success on yachts, not to take the blame.

Over the years of learning and reference, Donglu Heavy Industry already has its own team.

Pershing's failure was not what he wanted, but it has already happened.

So from the standpoint of Donglu Heavy Industry, is it also an excellent choice to let Pershing go bankrupt?

When Pershing went bankrupt, he swallowed it all and occupied the brand and sales channels.

To open up new profit points, no matter how you look at it, it is a good thing...

You must know that after swallowing Pershing, Donglu Heavy Industry won 70% of the equity.

But in terms of operation and management, there is not much right to say.

At that time, what they wanted was to learn from each other's style, technology and business philosophy, design ideas...

Now, what they want is brand new profit points and sales channels.

Pershing's brand and full controlling rights, time is different, needs are different, the choices made are naturally different.

Therefore, Pershing did not wait for the life-saving straw he wanted.

But they got the slaughter knife of their counterparts: "Dear, you don't look very good, do you want to help?

10 million euros, as long as you own 10% of the shares! It's okay for your design team to borrow it and use it!

You can consider it for your dear, don't take too long, you are going bankrupt! "

The Board of Directors of Pershing threw up on the spot, grabbed the custom-made leather shoes on the feet and smashed them.

I can go to your grandma to be the second uncle, worth 100 million shares, and only give 10 million.

I also want to dig out Pershing's family. Who doesn't know Pershing started its business by design.

The ability to lay down the current state of affairs depends on the design concept to be recognized by the market, especially the rich circle.

This is not a pitfall...

This is directly filling the well with sand, which is still mixed with gasoline. After burying it, light a fire. Be sure to confirm that it is dead!

The other companies are similar, some have to "borrow" the design team, and they have to "borrow" the technical team.

Everyone knows that this 'borrow' has no return, but it seems helpless!

The wall is down and everyone pushes it. Only when you are facing a desperate situation can you know whether you are a dog or a dog.

Most of the time, those who have high hopes tend to become dogs.

On the contrary, it is a general acquaintance, which may pull you by chance.

Just like the one who encourages you is always a stranger, and the one who hits you is always your own.

When Pershing's headquarters received a call from Watson, the management was dumbfounded.

Some customers want to buy Pershing, and they give a very 'fair' price, 600 million Euros, and pay in full!

Everyone can get cash, this type of transaction is really rare.

In the entire history of business, it is also an extremely rare probability.

Good guy, this is a good guy!

When Pershing was most desperate, he reached out to them.

It would be better if there were no follow-up conditions...

However, the other party only gave them 1 hour to discuss.

If no reply is received within 1 hour, the transaction will be automatically cancelled, and all conditions will no longer be counted.

Secondly, the other party must have a 100% controlling stake, which means that everyone present, including the two founders, will also be out together.

In addition, the core figures of the design and R&D teams have to sign new labor contracts.

The most critical ones are working hours and industry exclusivity.

No job hopping within ten years, such as voluntarily resigning and no longer engaging in related industries, etc., have made everyone arguing.

Free, we want to be free!

No one can make such a request. This is an aggression, this is shameless, this is...

Huh?

1% stock options, dividends at the end of the year, and 15% of annual net income R&D investment.

"I want to stay." Brad Felichs, the founder and chief designer of the previous table, made his choice.

If it is true as the other party said, the future Pershing will be the pinnacle of innovation, he wants to stay to achieve all this personally.

Another founding member also chose to stay. The other party promised to invest in technology research and development so much that he was heartbroken!

Moreover, he could not give up his feelings for the company.

This is a brand created by them personally, and is the focus of their lives for more than 20 years.

Lose it and leave here?

The moment of confusion caused the two of them to fall into contemplation. Is there any other place for them to go?

To be a fashion designer, to produce a car engine, or to start a cross-industry business again?

This is not what they want most in their hearts, the sea is the world they yearn for.

Only the man galloping above the sea is the real man...

Chapter 542: Yan 2's idea

In early April, the weather turned hot!

Qin Yu was swiping his mobile phone in the bedroom, and soon felt upset and irritable.

It seems that this dormitory cannot be accommodated, no wonder Shen Dong is coming back less and less.

The air conditioner is installed in his express delivery, and the breeze is blowing.

Recently, I recruited two little girls to receive goods and pack parcels...

Next time I meet, I'm afraid it's not going to be called Mr. Shen.

"Brother Yu, here comes, good stuff." Yan Er walked in with two lunch boxes, his face full of joy.

Qin Yu shrugged his nose and smelled a familiar smell.

"Lamb... mutton bubble bun?" Brother Yu was overjoyed.

"Yes, it's the mutton steamed bun, hurry up." Yan Er put the rice on the table.

As soon as the lid was opened, Brother Yu drooled.

The smell is quite fragrant...

"I lost it, and there are mutton spicy peppers?" Qin Yu was shocked when he saw the dried mutton spicy peppers in the small box.

Why didn't he know that Hudu still has such an authentic mutton pao-mo restaurant?

"I bought it on Zhongyuan Road. There are several stores. I think this is the best business. I bought it." Yan Er came to the mouth of the gum and garlic, and the taste went straight to his forehead.

He is a little uncomfortable with this smell.

But the mutton bubble is okay, it tastes sweet and delicious, snoring and snoring...

After a few big mouthfuls, a bowl of mutton soak is cleaned.

"Ah~" Yan Er patted his stomach and smiled as he wiped his mouth, "Half full."

Qin Yu put down the bowl and nodded likewise: "Same."

"how?"

"Go, what are you waiting for?"

Going out and driving straight to the Central Plains Road, a man's happiness is that simple!

When they found the pao-mo restaurant, the two asked for a share again.

Qin Yu added an extra pie, plus the previous portion, which would have weighed a catty.

"Brother Yu, I have taken your appetite." Yan Er laughed as he ate.

Don't look at Qin Yu's physique being thinner than him, but his appetite is bigger than him.

Shen Dong eats less in the bedroom, as for Hou Kun...

They haven't seen it for a long time.

"Speaking of monkeys, is he still on board?" Thinking of having never met him at school, Qin Yu doubted whether he had dropped out.

"We are not in the same department, and he deliberately hid, the person is still there, and he didn't drop out!" Yan Er said.

"What about you, don't you find something to do?" Qin Yu was a little curious about his plan: "Is he really planning to keep doing express delivery with Dongzi?"

"Not really." Yan Er put down his chopsticks, wiped his mouth and said seriously: "Actually, I have a little idea, but I haven't made up my mind yet."

"Talk about it." Qin Yu slowed down his meal, intending to hear his ideas.

Yan Er and Xia Bai's relationship has always been very good, and now she is basically sure to stay with Yaodu.

Then there must be someone who hopes not, Yan Er is thinking about going to the Yaodu side to develop in the future.

He also learned about Yaodu Market through various channels.

At present, all walks of life are actually making money.

He is not a poor boy with nothing, and the resources around him are enough to make him famous.

But what exactly do you do, that path suits you...

With his own channels, news, and online investigations, Yan Er wants to get involved in the field of online car-hailing.

"The blank market in this industry is actually very large. Didi is now the only one, but the local brands behind are also catching up."

"Especially with the fast-paced society, restrictions on traffic, and the prohibition of non-local vehicles from entering the urban area, I think there is something going on."

Yan Er is very optimistic about the future car-hailing market. It is not popular. You only need to look at the growth of online car-hailing users.

Last year, Didi had an annual order volume of 800 million orders, leading the way. It can be said that it is the absolute big brother in the industry.

The second local brand's order volume is only 86 million.

Compared with Didi, it is of course not worth mentioning!

But you have to know that its order volume was only 32 million the year before last, more than doubled in one year.

Coupled with Didi's growth from 700 million orders to 800 million orders, we know how terrifying the overall market user growth is.

The entire industry is now divided into chaos, and the market will inevitably undergo a major reshuffle in the future.

To catch up with this feast, Yan Er must hurry up.

However, if you really want to do it, Yan Er doesn't have any suitable channels and candidates for the front-end funds and management talents.

If he wants to make a fortune like an unreliable company, it will be much simpler.

But Yan Er really wants to do it as a career, and develop into a local demon city in the future, and even one of the best brands in China.

This has to be done in a sensible way from the beginning.

If you want to accumulate reputation, day after day, year after year.

But if you want to ruin it, it only takes one time!

"Money, I can borrow some from home first, plus my own early stage is enough, mainly for talents..."

Yan Er smiled bitterly: "I still have to go to school, I can't run away and stare at the monsters, I have to find someone to take the overall situation, and I want to slip my lips."

"I really can't help with this." Qin Yu thought for a while, and there was no suitable candidate in his heart.

Yan Er lacks people, he is even more lacking than Yan Er.

Which company has no shortage of people?

There are really talents, and they are all hurriedly sent to their own companies.

I want to run, but the window will be welded to you!

"However, I do know a few friends in Yaodu, so why don't I help you ask."

For more than a year, Qin Yu has seldom cared about the trade union, let alone cared about it.

But with He Zhu's eldest brothers, there are often contacts!

These are all local businesses in Yaodu, and there may be a suitable candidate who can recommend them to Yan Er.

Or perhaps to promote a cooperation, who doesn't like making money?

Opened the WeChat account, Qin Yu found the trade union group, and when he entered, there were 10 red envelopes.

"I Gan, Qin Shao actually appeared?" Just happy.

"Miracle, this group is full of glory, sweeping the couch to greet each other!" Sage Time.

"Group owner, come out to pick up the guests!" Brother Yi.

The voice swiped the screen, and the big brothers were joking, making the otherwise deserted group lively.

He Shi: "The group hasn't been so lively for a long time, and Shao Qin won't come again, thinking you have forgotten the union."

Qin Yu was a little embarrassed when he heard it, he was almost forgotten.

Qin Yu: "Busy, mainly because my studies are too busy!"

Yan Er, who was on the other side of the excuse, rolled his eyes.

Brother, my brother, do you always remember where the classroom is?

He Shi: "It's better to be busy. Only when you are busy can you make money. It seems that Shao Qin is also a good student with excellent academic performance."

He Che: "When you are free, remember to come and see old friends!"

Qin Yu was embarrassed, and he was burnt when he heard it.

On the surface, he couldn't see it at all, and he replied with a serious face: "There must be a chance, we will have a long time in Japan..."

The reminiscence of you and me, polite for a long time, the strangeness gradually disappeared.

Qin Yu then introduced the main topic: "I have something I want to ask you big brothers, who has the way to online car-hailing?"

He Sheng: "Shao Qin wants to do it on the side of the demon city?"

Zhunyin Tu: "I."

Qin Yu: "It's not me. A friend wants to develop there and is optimistic about this business."

Qin Yu: "Viagra is doing this?"

The real name of Zhunyin Tu was Chen Wei, which Qin Yu remembered clearly.

Zhunyintu: "If you have an idea, if your friend doesn't mind, you can talk about it."

Qin Yu first asked Yan Er to see what he meant for cooperation.

"Chen Wei is a supermarket chain, and he is also a local snake in Yaodu. You judge for the pros and cons."

Yan Er is not a kid anymore, Qin Yu just explained the situation to him clearly.

As for whether to cooperate or not, it's all up to him.

After thinking about it Yan Er asked: "Brother Yu, what do you think of this person?"

"Not bad." This is the most pertinent evaluation Qin Yu can give.

Good guy?

Good people these days are often the most uncooperative. Doing business is not doing good deeds.

There is a world of difference between being a good person and doing business.

Moreover, it is often difficult for good people to do business well!

Unless there are noble people to help along the way, such examples are rare.

Rich lady, it's more reliable...

At least this, there are real examples around them.

Chapter 543: Mr. Shen's cooking skills

Lingling...

Qin Yu's phone rang when he was on the bridge with Yan Er and Chen Wei.

Watson called: "Boss, Pershing agreed."

Boxing accepts Qin Yu's conditions and agrees to the wholly-owned acquisition and all subsequent additional conditions!

At this time, Donglu Heavy Industry was still waiting for Pershing's destruction.

Although Pershing made it clear before that whether they gave up the right of first refusal, people were a little surprised.

But in the end they still think that Pershing is bluffing!

By waiving the right of first refusal, Pershing will have the right to sell all the shares, which was agreed in the previous contract.

It's just that, according to Donglu's purchase price at that time.

In the view of the board of directors of Donglu Heavy Industry, Pershing is a desperate threat and intimidation.

I want them to think that someone will take over this mess, which may lose Pershing and create a strong enemy.

But in such a short period of time, there should be no company that can spend tens of billions to save Pershing...

If yes, who would invest money in the pool of Pershing?

What Donglu Heavy Industry did not expect is that there really is such a person...

There is no other purpose for investing in Pershing, the main thing is to like the design and business philosophy of the other party.

It happens that I will inevitably play yachts in the future, and I have a shipyard.

Play as you want, eh, if you have money, just play!

When Donglu Heavy Industries acquired Pershing, its market value was 600 million Euros...

Calculated, it is more than 4 billion euros and more than 3 billion Xia coins.

Little money!

It's gone, now when it comes to money, the counting unit is all based on '100 million'!

I don't know, I thought Brother Yu was bragging!

Or, it's just game currency?

"The contract, let them send someone to Hudu to sign, and when the person arrives, let me know." Such a small matter, there is no need to make a special trip.

It's tiring to go abroad, and I'm not used to eating.

It's still a bowl of mutton soaked in...

After hanging up the phone and pulling two mouthfuls of steamed buns, Qin Yu looked at Yan Er and asked, "How are you thinking about it?"

Yan Er saw what he said on the phone earlier, and listened to his heart.

He is also in his 20s and a roommate in the same school.

The person has been measured by 'billion', and he is still thinking about thousands or tens of thousands.

The only profit that I can be proud of was also based on the relationship with Qin Yu's roommate.

The more I think about it, the less it feels in Yan Er's heart. He is not competing with Qin Yu, but with himself...

There is such a good roommate around me, if I don't make a few achievements, I am embarrassed to say it.

"Done." Letting go of his worries, Yan Er gritted his teeth and nodded: "Brother Yu, when will we arrange a meeting?"

...

...

Arrange a time for the two to meet, and Yan Er will fly directly to the window this Saturday.

At that time, Chen Wei, Viagra will pick him up at the airport, and it's up to the two to talk about it.

It happened that Yan Er could take advantage of this opportunity to hurry up close and intimately with Xia Bai.

Sending people to school, Qin Yu drove away again.

Looking at the disappearing taillights of the car, Yan Er was full of emotion.

"Second brother." Shen Dong, who had just finished lunch, happened to meet him, followed his gaze, smiled and asked: "Brother Yu is gone again."

"Well, let's go." Yan Er sighed and grinned: "A big business of several hundred million is waiting!"

"Hey~" Shen Dong said a little enviously: "When will I get to Yu brother...No, I will be satisfied with one tenth of him."

"There will be."

Yan Er patted him on the shoulder, as if to encourage him, and as if to say to himself: "As long as you work hard, God won't treat hardworking people badly."

...

...

Enter the bungalow through the back door and park the car in the parking space.

Qin Yu walked in while playing with her mobile phone, and there were several new application reminders in WeChat.

When I opened it, they all belonged to Qiu Zixin, "You bastard, scumbag..."

"My surname is Qin, I'm never finished with you, if you are just like that..."

"Scumbag, you pay me for my innocence, oh, you badass..."

"Shao Qin, I was wrong..."

The following are all application messages that admitted mistakes, and Brother Yu glanced at random.

Ignore all!

Xiao Niangpi has a big temper, what should I do, keep hanging!

After she recognized her identity and status, Brother Yu said two more words of comfort, and everyone was overjoyed.

what? Consolation is not good?

Impossible, that's because you don't understand the happiness of big brother.

The eldest brother comforts a woman, he has always been very good to coax, just a coax.

How about being a big brother?

Turning off the phone, Qin Yu opened the door and smiled: "Mr. Shen, Xuan Xuan, I'm back."

Shen Bing, who was cooking in the kitchen, leaned out, glanced at him and went back to the kitchen.

Now, here is the same as Qin Yu's own.

He has gotten used to it, and you just imply that he can't understand it.

Shen Bing just didn't want to get used to it. After so long, he had already ignored it by default.

It is the attitude of dealing with matters between the two people coldly.

Qin Yu didn't care, anyway, he didn't plan to marry...

Hehe, he didn't plan to get married either!

Wen Yaxuan is also young, so she should be busy with her career.

Regarding starting a family and starting a business, it is referring to the old society, which is no longer feasible these years.

In today's society, these four words have to be read upside down, eh, life suddenly becomes open-minded.

I immediately figured out the problem that I couldn't figure out after smoking all night.

Believe it or not, can you try it yourself?

"Qin Yu." Wen Yaxuan, who was drawing the room, ran downstairs and jumped into his arms excitedly.

"Cough cough~" A cough clearing his throat came from the kitchen.

Wen Yaxuan's cheeks were slightly red, and she immediately jumped out of his arms and dragged him to the living room.

"You go first, I'll help Teacher Shen." Qin Yu said, rolling up his sleeves.

"No, it's fine." Shen Bing's voice came from the kitchen with some eager embarrassment.

哐哐~

Something fell to the ground, showing her unrest in her heart.

"Mom, are you okay?" Wen Yaxuan hurried to see.

"It's okay, I accidentally dropped it." Shen Bing, who was washing the spatula, lowered his head, his cheeks covered by hair: "You can go to the living room and talk to Qin Yu, here is me."

Wen Yaxuan nodded happily: "Okay! I'll help you serve food later."

Looking back, she took Qin Yu to continue walking: "Mom said, don't help."

It's all like this, what else can Brother Yu do.

It's a pity, but I can only be a customer waiting to eat.

"...It's big again."

"Well, it's been several laps, I'm a little worried."

"What are you worried about, you will be beautiful when you grow up."

"But it's too heavy. The wind blows, shakes, for fear it will fall."

"Can you just buy a suitable cover and hold it?"

Holding the splendid flower bud with his hand, Qin Yu sprayed some water on it with a small watering can.

The bright and moist water drops on the buds, making it look more delicate and attractive, it is really fragrant!

"How is work?" Qin Yu asked, playing with her hair.

Wen Yaxuan leaned on his chest and murmured, "Very good, I am already a design assistant."

Seeing her happy little eyes, Qin Yu scratched the bridge of her nose funny: "That's not an assistant."

Wen Yaxuan wrinkled her nose and said angrily: "Although they are both assistants, the two positions are responsible for completely different tasks. Now I can directly participate in the design."

"Yes, if you make amendments, you are still a striker, and no one will pay attention to your own opinions."

There are also many design companies that Qin Yu has contact with. What the design assistant does is like a mirror in his heart.

After all, it's a mess for the designer.

Give some unimportant and tedious work to the assistant, record some data, and make some simple drawing changes according to the other party's wishes.

After all, he is really a tool man.

However, this is also an experience that every designer must go through, and it is also a learning process.

In the study and modification, learn the designer's style, concept, and ideas, and get in touch with and absorb the advanced level of relevant knowledge.

For a good point, you can also learn how to contact and communicate with customers.

How can we avoid repeated revisions and satisfy Party A's father once?

How can we avoid the mistakes that novices often make, prevent these mistakes from affecting their income in the later stage, and how can we avoid giving the other party an excuse for making mistakes.

"I have learned a lot during this period. Some things are really as the teacher said. Only when I step into the society and work can I really get in touch with and learn."

Wen Yaxuan said with feelings, with a bit of maturity in her tone that she had never had before.

"Being able to see your progress and growth is the biggest gain... I am proud of you." Qin Yu pressed her nose against her nose and said happily.

Wen Yaxuan squinted triumphantly, resting her head on his shoulders, her feet swinging and expressing joy.

Qin Yu's words are more important than all the approval and praise of the boss.

Happy.jpg

"Xuan Xuan, the meal is ready." Shen Bing's voice came from afar.

Wen Yaxuan jumped up, trotting and shouted: "Here."

Qin Yu also followed to help, and after a while, four dishes and one soup were on the table.

At the six-person table, Qin Yu sat in a separate position at the top.

Shen Bing sat on his left hand, with Wen Yaxuan on his right, and the atmosphere seemed pleasant.

"Ms. Shen's cooking skills have improved again." Qin Yu smiled and praised after tasting the celery fried pork.

"Mom often cooks at home now, and of course her cooking skills will get better and better." Wen Yaxuan picked him up a chicken leg and said happily: "Try it. Mom made it for you."

"Really?" Qin Yu looked at Teacher Shen in surprise.

The other party lowered his head to eat silently, and inadvertently could see his head sway slightly up and down.

If you don't observe carefully, you think it's the tremor caused by chewing...

Hey~

Taking a bite of the chicken leg, Brother Yu laughed and praised: "It's so delicious, I have to have another bowl of rice."

Wen Yaxuan shook her head happily: "Hehe~"

After eating three bowls of rice in a row, Qin Yu put down his chopsticks No matter where I go to eat, I still feel that the food at home is delicious. "

Wen Yaxuan cleaned the table, her smile never stopped.

See that Teacher Shen wants to get up and help: "Mom, I'll wash the dishes, and you will take a break."

Speaking, holding the folded bowls and chopsticks in both hands, he walked to the kitchen happily.

In the restaurant, only Qin Yu and Teacher Shen were left.

Sensing the hot gaze on her body, Teacher Shen sighed secretly.

She gathered up the courage and raised her head, looking directly at those bright eyes and complaining: "Xiaoyu, something is impossible."

Qin Yu smiled frankly and asked, "What more will Mr. Shen say?"

Picking up the teacup and sipping, Qin Yu smiled and said, "Should you go to the living room or sit? This will happen to be broadcasting the animal world."

"Spring is here, the earth recovers, and it's the season for animals to mate again." Qin Yu's eyes flickered, and he muttered in a weird tone: "This program must be particularly exciting!"

Chapter 544: Win Pershing

On April 6, the representatives and legal affairs sent by Pershing arrived.

Brad Felichs came to Hudu in person and signed a purchase agreement with Qin Yu in person.

For this acquisition, Qin Yu will pay Donglu Heavy Industry 420 million Xia Yuan, and then pay a symbolic amount of 1 Euro to the Board of Directors of Pershing.

But he has to bear all the debts of Pershing, including the previous losses and reconstruction caused by the shipyard explosion.

To build the most advanced shipbuilding base, the investment is about 200 million Euros, which is about 2 billion Xia Yuan.

This investment is also marked in the contract, which can be regarded as a promise of Qin Yu!

Buying Pershing is not a hostile takeover.

Instead, I really think of it as a career, even if it's just for myself.

That has to be the best, isn't it, how does low force grid deserve the identity of the big brother?

"Mr. Qin, the people from Donglu Heavy Industry will come tomorrow. I think they must regret it now." After signing the last deal, Brad showed a faint smile, worried for a long time.

"Unfortunately, there is a lack of regret medicine in this world." Qin Yu put down his pen, stretched out his hand and smiled, "I wish you a happy cooperation."

"Happy cooperation, you are the most decisive young man I have ever met, Qin, this is my honour!" Brad gave a compliment to his face.

Everyone likes to listen to good things, no one exception.

After discussing the business, the contract was signed, and Qin Yu asked someone to make money and invited Brad to have a meal.

Naturally, the other party will not refuse, and he will stay in Hudu for a few days.

First, communicate with the new big boss and build a good relationship. Second, after the full handover of the shares tomorrow, there will be a press conference to be held.

Pershing is also a standout in the industry, and many people pay attention to it.

It's just that they didn't expect someone to make a sudden move at this time.

Many organizations waiting to pick up the leaks are very sorry for this!

At the same time, I also remember the name Qin Yu, selling the generous and generous Xia Guoren.

In recent years, Xia Guoren has become more and more active in the international market, but he has money in his pocket.

Before the time reached the best time, he took the lead to cut his head, which caused a lot of bad business.

They are still helpless about this. Who makes money, you say irritating and not irritating?

Of course, this is only a one-sided word. Why does the businessman Xia Guo make a move in advance and would rather spend a big price?

That is not because of the international situation. If the same price is offered without any additional benefits, foreign businessmen will always take the lead in setting their sights on their own family members. '

Sometimes, even the hardest 'priority' is ranked before Xia Guo. Who will let the other party recognize a new master and be favored?

The class-solidified, obedient and well-behaved Asan dog is now the white master's pet dog.

Just look at today's emerging fields, how many Asan has served as CEO, senior management...

Not only obedient, but understand the master's mind.

In daily life, when there is nothing to do, I laugh at myself and diss my own country and civilization, and amuse the masters.

As long as you can give the masters a happy lick, it's very nice!

The top package can be thrown out at critical moments, and it is also honest to do what you want.

Such an easy-to-use good dog, of course, must be petted...

As for nothing to add to Xia Guo, this kind of country-to-nation wrestling is something important people worry about.

Let's just talk about Fengyue... Well, just talk about business, not about politics!

The dining spot didn't go too far, so I found a hot pot restaurant nearby...

When we go to the countryside, we have to eat hamburgers and steaks when we go outside.

You don't have to go to Xia Guo, too, choose hot pot, Brother Yu has already taken good care of him.

Unexpectedly, Brad's food was quite enjoyable: "Italy now has many such restaurants, but this is the most authentic hot pot I have eaten. It's so delicious!"

Qin Yu smiled and clicked on the emptiness with his finger. The foreigner was quite slapped.

Did you go to a class before you came?

"Tomorrow I will let the secretary come. See you and exchange contact information." Brother Yu's main job is a student.

Sometimes when learning a foreign language or something, it is inevitable that you will miss the call.

There are really important things, and I can communicate with Yan Xue in time...

Unless the two are learning foreign languages together, it's terrible!

"It's an honor to see you, Miss Yan." The next day, I saw Yan Xue with a radiant face and a delicate and beautiful face.

Brad looked at Qin Yu's gaze, with a sense of identity that was kind of like a fellow.

Having common hobbies and pursuits will allow them to have a lot of common languages, and the sense of distance between them will be a little closer.

Sure enough, the pursuit of beauty knows no borders.

Brad had already thought about what to use to please this new boss.

You know, it's not only fashion and supercars, but also countless beauties with various poses and charming.

After returning, he should prepare well and wait for the next time the BOSS comes back.

Give him a wonderful night of surprises, exotic, swinging first, Eriba der...

"BOSS, this is the representative sent by Donglu Heavy Industries, Tang." Brad introduced Donglu's Vice President Tang.

The other party is solely responsible for the handover this time, in fact, it is also here to negotiate.

"Little Friend Qin, you are young!" Vice President Tang took Qin Yu's hand and smiled: "When I was your age, I only knew chasing girls..."

"The literati are elegant and romantic, and Mr. Tang looks like a literati with pen and ink." Qin Yu responded with a smile.

"Haha, you are polite, you are polite." Vice President Tang laughed heartily.

When I came to the VIP room with a smile and talk, Vice President Tang mentioned his own difficulties: "This time, some people in the company cheated on top and bottom to do this kind of thing. We are actually very optimistic about Pershing. "

"Otherwise, I wouldn't spend a lot of money to buy it...Before I came, the chairman had a bad temper, and many people would be unlucky!"

With lingering fears in his heart, Vice President Tang shook his head with emotion, but kept his eyes on Qin Yu.

He wanted to see Brother Yu's reaction, what kind of attitude he was.

Whether there is any talk about this matter, if the transaction can be terminated, Boxing will be taken back from Qin Yu's hands.

For Vice President Tang, it was a great achievement.

After returning, the 'deputy' position in front of his boss can also be removed.

However, looking at Qin Yu's performance of smiling and not speaking, he was afraid that he would not be able to get this credit.

Seeing Vice President Tang waiting for himself to speak, Qin Yu raised his wrist and glanced at the time, then smiled and said, "Mr Tang, I have something to do this afternoon. Let's sign the contract first?"

The opponent's body language and attitude indicated that this time he was a star.

Vice President Tang sighed helplessly. After going back this time, the company was afraid that there was going to be a major cleansing in the company.

It's time for the bosses who made the plan to move.

Although it was a bit sad, but it was more joyful and calm.

They were all old foxes, so they didn't follow their good intentions.

This time they chose the wrong one, so they have to bear the consequences of the mistake.

In the adult world, there is no word for 'sympathy'.

What's more, there are people above who have moved their positions, so those people who are below can climb up.

All in all, no matter whether it is successful or not, he will remove the previous "advanced" name after going back this time.

This trip is mainly 'gold-plated', presided over the handover, and don't lose face to Donglu Heavy Industry.

Therefore, Vice President Tang is not aggressive.

Just ask a few casually, after Qin Yu expressed his attitude, he happily signed and sealed.

"President Qin, I hope there will be opportunities for cooperation in the future." Vice President Tang pointedly.

First there was the lithography machine, and then the news of the "mysterious machine tool" came out.

Vice President Tang felt that there would always be a day when they would meet again, and that day might not be too long.

"Hope to have a chance, please." Qin Yu responded with a smile, and now it's time to go to the press conference.

"President Qin please first." Vice President Tang smiled sideways.

Donglu Heavy Industry is also a giant in the industry in China.

A little proud and complacent That is also a very normal person, but Vice President Tang is very humble and has no domineering attitude at all.

Brad Felichs was the happiest to see both sides and peaceful situation.

The smooth handover will allow Pershing to gain the trust of funds and customers as soon as possible, and re-turn public opinion.

Set sail again!

For Brad Felichs, it's the most important thing right now.

He gave up his shares, honors and rights for this. It is conceivable how much Pershing is valued.

After giving so much, Pershing occupies a heavier position in his heart than before!

The more you give, the more you cherish.

Brad Felichs now regards Pershing as precious as life...

Therefore, when approaching the press conference, Qin Yu specifically said: "I will let people transfer the money to the account now, so that you can rest assured."

Chapter 545: The happiness of white prostitution

Upon arriving at the press conference, Brad Felichs finally saw the message that he was waiting for.

The money has arrived!

As a result, a bright smile hung on his face, and he was sitting on a chair vigorously, and announced the good news to the outside world!

In comparison, Vice President Tang's face was ugly and terrifying, as if everyone at the scene owed him money.

This attitude, Vice President Tang must show...

If he had a hippie smile at the press conference, someone would have made trouble against him when he went back.

The company rolls over, you seem to be very happy?

If you really want to, you can also go to the 'deputy', and stop doing it with the 'general' at the back.

"Pershing suffered a painful blow this time. At present, the specific cause of the accident is still under investigation.

...We are also waiting for the police's investigation results. Boxing believes that the police will solve the case as soon as possible.

Of course, we hope this is just an accident... The cooperation with Mr. Qin is very happy this time, and the future Pershing will incorporate the elements of Xia Guo...

No, this is not to please anyone, haha...Xia Guo has a long history and culture. I believe that Pershing will become even better after integrating into this unique culture. "

"Mr. Qin..." Someone finally set the target on Qin Yu, who was a reporter at his court.

"Excuse me." Qin Yu looked at each other blankly.

Seeing his indifferent expression, Wang Bing burst into a bright healing smile: "Hello President Qin, I am Wang Bing, I have always admired you... My question is, do you have anything to say about your success? ?"

Seeing the other's smiling face full of healing, Qin Yu's attitude eased slightly.

After thinking about it, he asked, "I want to know what success is?"

"If you say that most people now define success by using the standard, rich... then I am undoubtedly successful."

Brother Yu doesn't need to be self-effacing at this point. Anyone who knows him doesn't know that he is rich.

For Lixin investment, you can definitely find it if you look for it carefully.

What's more, there is nothing to avoid if there is money alone. These days, there are a lot of money.

Lao Wang's small goal is set a year.

Lao Ma doesn't love money anymore, so what is it for Yu brother to have such a small amount of money? What's there?

"Do you have any different opinions on the definition of success?" Wang Bing felt that this is a topic that can be digging deeper.

A pair of gentle eyes looked at Qin Yu with expectation, wanting to hear if he could speak amazingly.

"Success is a neutral word, and its definition is very simple and clear: achieving the goal is success.

I think everyone who achieves their goals is successful...

No matter the goal is small and great in the eyes of outsiders. People are small, and there is no rule to be a great man, right? "

These remarks sounded a bit negative, but Wang Bing felt that he meant something else: "Mr Qin meant that people should do what they can?"

"...That's okay. Another definition of success is to gain recognition. But some people care too much about the identity of strangers. Ask yourself, is the identity of those strangers really important?"

Seeing some commotion from the reporter below, Qin Yu narrowed the corner of his mouth and said with a smile: "The building is crooked, let's look around and return to today's topic, please ask the next one."

The digressions of the two were quickly forgotten, and all the focus was still on Pershing.

Qin Yu also answered several related questions: how did he get in touch with Boxing.

Why choose it, what are your plans for its future, whether you will intervene in management and operation...

There are friendly and unfriendly ones.

After the CNN reporter stood up, the question asked...

No, it should be said that she is here to pick things up: "The bald eagle has been protesting that all your technology is stolen from our country's advanced laboratories. What is your response to this?"

"Why didn't you dare to be investigated? Is it out of a guilty conscience?"

For this kind of idiot question, Qin Yu just smiled contemptuously: "I suspect that SpaceX's recoverable rocket technology is an inspiration to steal myself. Who can help me call the police for investigation?"

"It's impossible, you're talking nonsense, you don't have any evidence..." CNN's foreign girl was anxious.

"Then excuse me, what evidence is there for your suspicion?" Qin Yu asked, spreading his hands.

"We have evidence!" The foreign girl is irrational and wants to insist on her point of view.

But before Qin Yu could refute, someone screamed: "Don't be ashamed. Your country's congressmen have already admitted that this is just a guess, without any substantive evidence!"

"So what, the power of the bald eagle is obvious to all, and only we have the possibility of realizing this technology."

CNN's foreign girls are no longer arrogant, they are just messing around.

Hearing the righteous rebuttal from the other party, Brother Yu almost vomited her face.

Worthy of being a bald eagle, the old double mark!

"Which house is this, next time remember not to put it in, I'm afraid of rabies!" Qin Yu waved to the security guard in the distance: "Please go out."

"You can't do this, I have the freedom to interview." The other party was still yelling, but was pulled out by the security guard.

Brad Felichs whispered with some worry: "Boss, is this not so good?"

"has a problem?"

Qin Yu said calmly: "No matter what I do, the other party will not make true and positive reports..."

Since the result will not change, why waste time? "

The more you care about the mad dog, the more proud she is.

Because she just needs to bark, and you may be bitten by a dog if you are not careful.

Even if it wasn't for you, you would have to get a sickness, and it would make you sick to death.

Thinking of the freshness of the other party, Qin Yu felt that the air was polluted.

Pushing the table with both hands, he got up and said, "That's all for today's press conference."

Brad was a little caught off guard, but he still said in a note: "Thank you for coming. We will announce new news in time."

Although the press conference ended a bit sloppily, all the news I wanted to convey was delivered.

Pershing has changed its new owner, has the capital and the ability to deal with this crisis!

The dark clouds above the head have passed, and Pershing will only get better and better in the future.

Now, Brad needs to make a few calls to stabilize important customers.

The previously lost orders can be contacted again to see if they can regain the trust of the other party.

New orders and potential customers must also be fully maintained!

The biggest bargaining chip in his hand was naturally the money Qin Yu had promised.

250 million Euros have been paid in full.

This money is Brad's greatest confidence and his bargaining chip to convince customers.

Although the money is used to build a new base, the money does not have to be paid all at once.

Before completion, half of the funds can be used for turnover, thoroughly revitalizing Pershing and pulling it out of trouble.

He doesn't need to explain this point, customers can naturally distinguish!

Just tell them that Pershing wants to build a new shipbuilding base, and they will naturally make the right choice.

Qin Yu's 'Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu' has been integrated into 'Ma-Jitsu', and the name has become Lotus Ma-Jitsu.

The basic salary becomes 4 yuan per second, which is 345,600 yuan a day and 10.368,000 yuan a month.

Qin Yu remembered that two years ago, he was still excited about earning ten million in the year.

In a blink of an eye, there is already a monthly income of tens of millions and an annual income of over 100 million!

"Being the CEO, marrying Bai Fumei, and embarking on the pinnacle of life." The previous one and the latter one, Yu Ge should be regarded as having reached.

As for 'marry Bai Fumi,' if Brother Yu thought, he would go to the bridal chamber with a certificate every minute!

However, he was just thinking about it. He had a pretty good life, and he was anxious to jump in.

It's just that if you make more than 100 million yuan this year, it's... really fragrant!

White prostitution is of course a good thing. Is there anything in this world happier than white prostitution?

Chapter 546: Super Silver

The business is finally finished, but Brother Yu's private affairs have not been resolved yet!

He hasn't seen his yacht until now, this matter must be resolved first...

"BOSS, in fact, this kind of thing is very common in the customization process, and customers generally choose to understand." Brad hasn't left yet, he has to wait until the BOSS's yacht arrives before leaving.

"What if you don't forgive me?" Qin Yu asked back.

This can be questioned for Brad, naturally there is trouble if you don't understand!

But everyone is doing this, who would fight for a little thing, give a little gift, just say a few good things.

This has always been the case, isn't it the same before the boss?

If he knew it, all the 'accidents' that happened to Pershing before came from what he called 'small problems,' I don't know if he would take this as a routine.

"Maybe you should learn from Xia Guo entrepreneurs, what is integrity first!" Qin Yu felt it necessary to remind him.

Brad disagreed until Qin Yu brought up the topic again.

He reluctantly said: "I will arrange new strategies and rules after I go back."

"Now let's talk about my yacht." Qin Yu reminded him again that the business has not been done yet.

"Tomorrow, tomorrow morning at the latest, you will see her, she is so beautiful, I promise you BOSS, you will fall in love with her." Brad promised him with a smile.

"I hope I won't be disappointed this time." Qin Yu smiled non-committal.

...

...

The next day, early morning.

Qin Yu and Li Wanxing appeared at the pier together, and what stood in front of them was an elegant, noble, and * super-fast yacht.

Pershing 155, Super Silver...

This is the name Qin Yu gave it because it is super fast and silver.

There is no deep meaning, it is so simple and rude!

"Go up and take a look." Qin Yu supported Li Wanxing's hand, took off his shoes and walked onto the deck together.

The high-grade wood used on the deck makes it easy to scratch the oily wax and beautiful surface textures on hard objects. At the same time, it is easy to slip and cause danger to leather shoes and the like.

Therefore, shoes are not allowed on the yacht.

The texture of the instep is the best anti-slip mat. '

The 39-meter-long "Super Silver" has a sharpened bow. To ensure speed, the entire yacht is not very wide.

Therefore, she looked a little thin, pulled up and looked down, like a sharp blade, always ready to split the sea...

In fact, you don't feel that way on a boat.

The one-person wide corridors on both sides, the relaxing soft bed on the rear deck, the concealed space for the storage of motorboats, the diving platform, and the interior master cabin is simple and luxurious.

The electronic control room is located on the left side of the main cabin. After two people are seated in the cabin, only the small aisle in the middle can leave.

Two crew members will be here to ensure the normal operation of electronic equipment and keep in touch with the shore.

The top console is also the area with the best view.

When driving the yacht, you can enjoy the most beautiful sea view and have a drink with the beauties.

The entire yacht took a turn. As soon as Qin Yu came out of the cabin, he heard Xu Hao's shout: "Brother Yu, is this too handsome?"

He kicked the shoes off with two kicks. He didn't care about falling into the water, so he boarded the boat directly: "Fuck, I want to buy it too."

"If you want to buy it, I will give you a discount!" Qin Yu was particularly refreshing.

He hasn't billed as the boss yet, so he just happens to get some performance for his company.

It's not that Xu Hao's current worth can't afford it.

"...Forget it, I'll just play with my car on the ground!" Thinking of the expensive maintenance costs in the later period, Xu Hao reluctantly stifled his impulse.

This is a bottomless pit, no matter how hard it is filled...

Unlike Qin Yu, he has so much money that he can't spend it all.

He has invested money in several projects in the family recently, and his life is tight.

It costs hundreds of thousands a month. Where does the money come from to buy a yacht?

"Brother, Brother Jun." Qin Yu greeted the two with a smile, and Qin Yu was accustomed to thinking of him as a temperament.

"Brother Yu, this yacht is not bad!" Li Xiao looked enthusiastic, but he didn't plan to buy one.

One is that his work does not allow him to be so high-profile, and the other is that he doesn't have much time to go to sea.

Occasionally come to follow Qin Yu and borrow from him for two days when necessary. Can he still borrow?

"No!" Brother Yu rolled his eyes and answered very decisively.

"It's okay, I'll go to your house to get the key by myself." After taking a trip to the soft bed, Li Xiao squinted and said, "Captain, it's time to start."

"Brother Yu, let me drive two laps to go to sea." Yang Chengjun had no interest in anything else.

But as soon as he wanted to start the boat, he was full of energy.

He has driven a lot of speedboats, but he has never driven a super fast yacht that can reach 55 knots per hour.

This big arrow-like guy, riding the wind and waves on the sea...

Just think about it!

"Go, go up first." Qin Yu took Li Wanxing to the top-level control cabin. Yang Chengjun followed, followed by Li Xiao and Xu Hao.

The space in the top control cabin is not very large, and the front console is the driver's seat.

There is a row of three-person sofas in the back, just enough to seat three of them.

Qin Yu asked Li Wanxing to sit in the captain's position with him, picked up the walkie-talkie and said, "Go."

In the electronic control room, two crew members control the yacht to leave the dock...

The top console belongs to the 'secondary control system.' The two crew members below are the ones who really control the ship.

After the open sea, they use radar to confirm the safety of the surrounding area, and then they will release control.

Then, is the performance time of the host and guests.

They can personally experience what kind of pleasure it is to drive this ultra-fast luxury yacht speeding on the sea.

"No wonder so many people like to go out to sea, it feels... cool!" Xu Hao stretched out his arms and yelled, "Oh roar..."

Li Wanxing also opened her arms excitedly, smiled happily, holding Qin Yu and kissing me from time to time.

The three people in the back just didn't see it, it was the excitement in their hearts, how could there be a little bit more loss and sorrow.

Didn't we say that we will come out to play without family members?

"Am I a family member?" Li Wanxing raised her brows and looked at Li Xiao and said, "I came as a friend today."

"Do you call this a friend?" Xu Hao pointed to the way the two of them hugged each other, wishing to jump off the boat directly.

I vomited!

Li Xiao waved his hand in a dubious manner: "Okay, it's not the first time to eat dog food. I should get used to it."

The air was instantly quiet, as if the sea breeze had weakened a bit.

Looking forward, Li Wanxing was looking at herself with squinting eyes.

Li Xiao's heart trembled, and I lost it, as if he had said something wrong.

"It's not the first time, brother, do you seem to know a lot?" Li Wanxing smiled and groaned, propped up the back of the chair with her hands, and asked, lying forward, "Tell me, I can hear who else is there."

While talking, Li Wanxing looked back at Qin Yu, making his heart beat wildly: Oh, it's the feeling of heart...muscle infarction.

Looking at her calmly, Qin Yu looked at Yang Chengjun and said, "Brother Jun, why didn't you bring it today?"

Li Wanxing looked at Yang Chengjun in surprise, and looked back at him again, showing no guilty conscience.

In my heart, I was greatly admired, and I just came to this mouth, and there was no one who had the ability to smash the pot.

Li Wanxing didn't know what Qin Yu was like.

It's just that all the little fairies of their own have also got on the thief ship, and their names are not right.

The second child does not say that the boss ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ no one is a chaste woman.

Don't pretend to be white moonlight, stand on the commanding heights and ask for a channel of blame.

Just have a good time, why think so much.

As for what to do in the future, Li Wanxing doesn't want to think about it now.

The big deal is to talk about the love of a lifetime, and it doesn't have to be evidence to have feelings.

If the certificate is really guaranteed, where do so many second marriages come from?

She didn't want Qin Yu's money, besides, he had spent money on himself since he met him.

Therefore, Li Wanxing really hasn't worried about this problem!

Perhaps from the bottom of her heart, she just minimized her worries infinitely, and kept hinting that it didn't matter whether she was married or not.

Because I really wanted to get there, Li Wanxing didn't have any confidence to be the most special choice.

Just out of guilt, she couldn't grab a lazy cat...

Therefore, being able to maintain the status quo is already the best result for Li Wanxing.

Li Xiao had talked to her about this question many times, but was finally gagged by Li Wanxing with the same answer.

"Do you think I can compete with Lan Yue?" This name, even Li Xiao, is like a thunder.

When he usually came out to play, he heard Qin Yu mention it too many times.

Whether it's the smile on her face or the pampering in her tone, it shows her uniqueness.

Then Li Xiao also gave up, acquiescing to Li Wanxing's choice.

But, how can she explain to her parents when she can't keep it up?

Thinking of this, Li Xiao's head is as big as a fight!

Chapter 547: Accident at sea

When the coastline disappeared completely, there was only the boundless sea all around.

Qin Yu took over the rudder of the 'Super Silver' and steered the yacht forward.

The waves torn by the bow of the boat slapped on both sides, and the splashes of water were blown by the sea breeze, bringing cool and moist air, refreshing.

The blue ocean is like an undeveloped virgin land, waiting for Brother Yu to explore and discover...

"Brother Yu, Brother Yu, it's me." Xu Hao yelled to drive the Super Silver.

Qin Yu ignored him and directly handed the 'rudder' to Yang Chengjun: "Brother Jun, you come."

Xu Hao, who was thinking of getting up, was pushed back by Yang Chengjun.

When he stands up again, Yang Chengjun has already taken over the rudder. '

"Brother Jun, don't bring this, every time you catch me a bullying in the past." Xu Hao grieved.

"Owed." Yang Chengjun's summary was concise and straightforward.

This guy always has a hippy smile, and he doesn't have a righteous deed. Doesn't bully him?

"I'll go down and take a look." Qin Yu took Li Wanxing to the lower deck.

When he arrived in the master cabin, Qin Yu opened the closet, which was filled with all kinds of swimsuits.

The number of bikinis is four or five times that of swimming trunks...

"The preparations are quite complete?" Li Wanxing said angrily.

"This is a gift, not prepared by me." Brother Yu is very innocent, and he didn't give a special explanation.

It can only be said that Pershing understands yacht culture very well. There is no girl in bikini, what kind of sea party?

Picking and choosing in the closet, Qin Yu liked a set of pure white one-piece bikini.

Crescents appeared on both sides of the waist, just showing the condensed willow waist.

The crossed shoulder straps were tied around her neck, tightening Li Wanxing's broad chest tightly.

"Beautiful." Reaching out and patted the rear bridge, Qin Yu happily hugged her and walked out.

The boat had stopped, and when the two came out, Li Xiao was driving the motorboat out.

Xu Hao put his hands together on the side, crying and pleading: "Brother, brother, do your best, I can't always be the bottom!"

He is so difficult, everything has to be ranked behind, not like this.

"Let it to you." Li Xiao smiled sternly: "This month's wine..."

Before he could finish, Xu Hao patted his chest and promised: "It's packed, I'm all packed."

Shaking his head funny, Li Xiao got off the motorboat: "Yours."

Xu Hao happily jumped onto the motorboat and patted the back seat: "Brother Jun, do you want to take you?"

Yang Chengjun glared at him, and Xu Hao followed with a shiver, turning the throttle and rushing out: "Bye bye you, me, puff..."

The inertia brought by the sudden forward is beyond imagination, and the body seems to be pulled back by a ruthless big hand.

Then the sky turned around, his head knocked on something, his vision gradually became darker, until he lost all consciousness.

The motorboat rushing forward stopped abruptly, and the floating waves returned to calm. Only Xu Hao on the motorboat also disappeared.

There is a big bubble behind the motorboat...

"Mouse." Li Xiao looked nervous, and ran to the stern of the boat to get into the water.

Yang Chengjun's movements were not slow, and he ran to the stern without hesitation, bending his legs into the water.

It's just that there is a figure that is a bit faster than them.

Boom~

With his legs lifted into the air, he leaped into the water with a leap.

The body is like a vigorous fish, flying forward with the surging undercurrent.

In the blink of an eye, I arrived at the back and bottom of the motorboat. As far as my eyes could go, I saw Xu Hao who was spitting bubbles and sinking his arms.

With his arms paddling and his feet kicking backwards, the person rushed directly to the fainted Xu Hao and reached out to grab his floating wrist.

"Puff~" Qin Yu dragged him to the yacht after spitting out the water in his mouth.

"Brother Yu..." Yang Chengjun had already returned to the boat, helping Li Xiao to take Xu Hao up together: "Mouse, mouse?"

He patted him on the cheek and found that there was no response. The two of them were desperately anxious.

"Fainted, get out of the way." Pushing the two of them away, Qin Yu knelt next to Xu Hao on one knee and began to give him CPR.

Swing your head to the side first, open your mouth to check if there is any debris in your mouth.

Found that there was nothing, then pressed the palm to the lower position of the heart, and pressed frequently according to a fixed rhythm and strength.

After a few times, Qin Yu tried to snort, but still didn't respond.

Seeing Xu Hao's lips turn purple, his face turned pale.

Qin Yu didn't care about other things either. After pressing again, pinched his nose to perform artificial respiration.

"Ha...Puff..." A big gasp, the water sprayed out of Brother Yu like a small fountain.

Xu Hao opened his eyes panting and coughing, and the fresh air accompanied by the smell of the sea filled his body, making him clearly aware that he was still alive.

"Fuck it, you want to scare us to death." Li Xiao said irritably, but carefully dragged his head with his hands.

Even if it was him just now, his scalp numb when he was worried at the same time.

Not to mention that if Xu Hao really had an accident, how could this be explained to the Xu family?

Li Xiao couldn't accept the feelings between them alone.

Fortunately, Qin Yu is here.

He swims really fast in the water...

Although Yang Chengjun didn't speak, his eyes were full of concern and worry when he looked at Xu Hao.

Fortunately, people are okay, it was a false alarm at last.

"Hiss~" As soon as his breathing stabilized, Xu Hao covered the back of his head with his hands and took a breath: "It hurts, Brother Yu, is my head rotten?"

Putting his hand in front of him, the blood-stained palm was another jerky jump, and Xu Hao's head was cut out. When the motorboat rushed out and overturned, his head just knocked. On the corners of the pedals behind.

At this time, a hole about forty to five centimeters in length was bleeding continuously.

"Wanxing." Qin Yu said.

"I will let them sail." Li Wanxing turned around and ran back into the cabin with great tacit understanding, to inform the crew to return.

The two also informed the shore of the accident that happened on the ship, and the ambulance had been contacted there.

The first responders at the wharf are also ready, holding the medicine box tightly in their hands, and only wait for the ship to get to the shore to give first treatment.

"Here." There were still dozens of centimeters from the shore, and the first aid had jumped onto the boat from the dock.

Seeing Xu Hao who was still bleeding on the deck, he knelt down beside him to stop the bleeding.

About five minutes later, the ambulance arrived...

Seeing Xu Hao being carried away on a stretcher, Li Xiao and Li Wanxing followed.

Qin Yu's heart fell slightly: "Brother Jun, let's go there too."

"Key, I'm going to drive, you hand over the boat first." Yang Chengjun took the car key and drove first.

When he came, he was in Li Xiao's Land Rover. All the people in this group had left without leaving the key. Naturally, he had to drive Qin Yu's car to the hospital.

Qin Yu signed and asked the two crew members to hand over to the dock. By the way, remember to let someone reclaim the motorboat.

The situation was urgent just now, and I didn't even bother to take back the motorboat. This meeting can only take another trip.

As for the fact that the gas cost for another trip is enough for him to buy several new motorboats.

Can only be remembered by the crew, with a wry smile: rich, willful!

Chapter 548: The living  of wealth

"Brother Yu, fortunately you are here, otherwise Mouse today..."

Thinking of the previous thrilling scenes, Li Xiao still felt scared.

His water is not very good, and Yang Chengjun is also dissatisfied with a bottle, swaying blindly.

If you really need to rely on him to save people, you still have to say whether you can find them.

"They are all my own brothers." Qin Yu patted his arm so that he had time to organize his image.

He was still wearing wet swimming trunks, and his clothes were slimy.

The hair was soaked in sea water like a hedgehog: "Go and wash first, there is me here!"

Xu Hao's situation has stabilized, and he will be resting on his stomach in the ward.

There were 16 stitches stitched on the back of the head. Fortunately, no bones were injured, so I only need to rest for a few weeks in peace.

However, thinking of his round head.

Qin Yu couldn't help but want to laugh, never thought his brain shape was pretty good...

After leaving the hospital, I went to the roadside and bought a set of clothes.

Brother Yu went to the boutique opposite and quickly opened an hourly room and took a hot bath happily.

Put on your clothes and come out again.

Shaking the drops of water on his head in front of the mirror, the corners of his mouth were slightly tilted: "Still so handsome!"

"Puff~" Li Wanxing couldn't help it, wiped her head with a towel and said, "That's you, so narcissistic!"

"Have you made a mistake?" Qin Yu pointed towards himself.

He is too honest, what's wrong with being honest?

"Yes, that's right." Li Wanxing couldn't help but laugh.

Her non-teaching attitude made Brother Yu very unhappy.

It seems that she has no education for some days, which makes her feel a little ridiculous.

Huh, wait for me to serve...

Unlocking is a technical job of the door, and it is definitely impossible to open a big lock with a small key.

If you can't say that the key has to fall in, it is gone.

But the big key can open...Forced to open the small lock, although it is difficult, it is not impossible.

It's a bit of a waste lock!

"I'm not going, you bastard, you don't know Lianxiangxiyu..." Li Wanxing was lying on the sofa, aching all over.

Both knees are even more red, as if tortured.

White skin, where can it withstand that weight.

Fortunately, the maintenance is done on weekdays, so that it will not turn black and folds, Li Wanxing picked up the phone and prepared to make an appointment for tomorrow's SPA maintenance.

This kind of thing can't be delayed for a day, if you want to be beautiful, you have to work hard.

She spends at least 40 hours a week on making herself beautiful.

"Aren't you women afraid of trouble?" Qin Yu put on her clothes and came to the bed full of energy and kissed her on the cheek.

Li Wanxing gave him a white look and vomited: "Inner beauty, do you want it?"

Brother Yu thought for a while, smiled without saying a word, turned around and walked out.

"Heh, man~" Li Wanxing was still the proud queen with a cold face.

Until Qin Yu stopped and squinted back and said, "Or, I will stay for a while?"

Hua Rong paled, Li Wanxing immediately kowtow to the 'Emperor' to greet him, and Gongshou went out: "Your Majesty, go slowly, and Gongshou."

Stay a while, do you expect him to be honest?

She doesn't want to have a ghost if she doesn't toss, she doesn't want to have the burning tingling sensation again.

It will break...

Two weeks later, Qin Yu saw Xu Hao who was discharged from the hospital.

He wears a hat on his head, and when he takes it off, his brain is still smooth, shiny as if he is waxed.

"Mouse, you can keep your head bald in the future, and your spirit...looks particularly vigorous."

Qin Yu is telling the truth, Xu Hao, who is wearing a big bald scoop, looks much more stable than before.

There is also a penetrating aura...

"Really? Brother Yu, I also think it's handsome, hehe!" Xu Hao rubbed the big bald scoop with his hands, took out the sunglasses on his chest and put on his face: "So, Brother Yu, is it more imposing?"

Seeing the smirk at the corner of his mouth, with the toad mirror covering half of his face, a big bald scoop on top of his head.

Guo Nicholas Zhao Si's sense of sight immediately caused a burst of laughter.

Qin Yu admitted that he was wrong, his aura, these two words had nothing to do with him.

When he grows old, he is still that funny, hopeless!

"Hey, I'm still here, can you respect me?" Xu Hao took off his sunglasses, looking helpless.

When he said this, everyone laughed happily.

The yellow hair sitting at the other end of the table joked and joked: "Brother Mouse, your image has been deeply rooted in the hearts of the people."

"Go away, your kid is itchy, believe it or not, I'll smoke you."

Xu Hao smiled and scolded: "And you, each of you talks a lot."

Lifting his head, extending his thumb and pointing back, Xu Hao said arrogantly: "Me, Xu Hao, Brother Yu is the leader."

"..." Brother Yu was stupid.

Brother, don't tell me!

You are so powerful, I can't cover...

This is the Huangpu Mansion, and here are the brothers and sisters mentioned by Li Xiao.

There were only a few familiar faces, and Han Hu and Liu Xing had to be counted as two brothers.

"Quiet, all quiet." Brother Li Xiao was still the boss to maintain order.

Yang Chengjun looked like a black evil gate, and walked behind Qin Yu, staring at everyone present with a pair of plain eyes.

Not to mention those elder brothers, sister... Xu Hao is a little scared.

In this case, the scene quickly calmed down.

Li Xiao went on to say: "There are 59 people who arrived today, and they know what they are doing.

But whether you can enter depends on your own conditions. Funding is on the one hand, and there is one point that cannot have a record. "

This sounded strange, but which one of them was still lacking energy.

It's not a big thing, it's not like a playful thing at the end of the case...

But this also shows that if there is a case, it must be a major issue, and absolutely not required.

This kind of backing resources can all be foolish to die, and rush far away as soon as possible.

Don't mention fairness, is there fairness in this world?

Before being born, this fairness is gone.

In ordinary people's homes, those who look good and ugly, are healthy, and are naturally deformed.

Where is the fairness of the eugenics and the abandoned children?

Besides, there are those who are not as good as dogs...

"Brother, everyone who can come knows the basics, I think there should be no problem." Leaning on Han Hu, the white and fat little fat man smiled.

Yang Chengjun leaned forward to introduce him to the identity of the little fat man.

Cao Rui, a member of the Ministry of Industry, is a man of righteousness and has a good reputation, but he is more playful.

This is nothing wrong. It's the turn to be playful. Which one is not playful?

"Brother Yu, can I ask a question?" Li Xiaoxiao stood up.

Seeing her, Qin Yu smiled and nodded: "Sister Xiaoxiao said straight."

"Everyone has heard the rumors, I just want to know, are those rumors about Lixin true?"

Li Xiaoxiao hit the key with a single blow, asking everyone the question they most wanted to ask, but they couldn't speak up.

It is true that Lixin's rate of return is too amazing to be personally involved in it.

It's really hard to believe that this is true. After all, it's really uncommon for investment companies to misreport their finances and make false accounts.

If Qin Yu also exaggerated, as long as the number is not too outrageous, it would be fine.

"It's all true." Today, Qin Yu admitted in front of everyone: "The rumors you have heard are all true... If you say there are errors, there are indeed."

There was a real error, and this made everyone's shock a little bit relieved.

It seems that I guessed right, so how can a sturdy record be achieved by a newcomer.

It's like a miracle, every step is counted.

Unless he can tell the prophet, how could it be such a coincidence?

Seeing everyone looking at him, Qin Yu smiled calmly: "They count their income as less."

"Lie..." The other party was so shocked that he covered his mouth and almost breathed out fragrance to rap.

"Brother Yu, you will be this from now on." Someone gave a thumbs up. UU reading www.uukanshu.com

Someone admired him and greeted him with a pleasing smile...

Don't blame them for reality, where is a person sitting in front of them!

This is the living God of Wealth, and you don't have to worry about losing your roots for a lifetime.

In ancient times, a little bit of stone became gold, but nowadays there is a lot of money.

Roughly speaking, Lixin Investment has made more than a thousand dollars so far...

Sitting across from the long table, Xiao He was full of enthusiasm. He didn't expect to have such a great harvest today.

Originally, he just didn't want to offend Shao Cao, so let's take a look.

Think of it as a show.

Who knows, Dangdang~

A golden mountain just fell on his head, making Xiao He dizzy.

Looking at it now, this Cao Shao is simply his second parent, who would dare to say that he is not good in the future, Xiao He and him are at odds!

Take a look at the young and old ladies on the left and right, everyone in Xiao He's eyes is a golden mountain shining with golden light.

Behind them all represent unlimited resources and connections. As long as they can stay, wouldn't they be able to walk sideways in Hudu?

There is also the opposite Qin Shao, who is a legend in the past two years.

If you can stay, join this small circle, and if you see the other side in the future, you will be able to make a lot of tickets.

The more you think about Xiao He, the more excited he becomes. The one who is careful, puffing and puffing will jump out.

Let him press his chest with both hands, and desperately pressed it back.

If you can't die, you will have to wait for him to get the quota and go home and explain clearly before you die.

Take the opportunity first and explain clearly, is he at least worth his death? ?

Chapter 549: Form a new organization

There are not a few people who have the same idea as Xiao He, but they have different demands.

After all, he still wants to make money, and Qin Yu's record in the financial market is too brilliant.

The one with the highest profit, no one got tens of billions...

It seems that there is no concept to say a number alone, but it is 115 tons in weight, and it needs to be transported in cash when it is changed into cash.

Haha, the tens of billions of cash reserves are already a big cash reserve in China.

Back then, the mad bandit kidnapped someone for a price of 2 billion.

Li Chaoren is worth tens of billions of dollars, and he has made up more than 1 billion. The remaining stocks, real estate, and bonds will all take time to cash out.

All kinds of examples should be enough to explain what the concept of tens of billions of cash is.

Li Xiao can now hold important positions, and Xu Hao can intervene in the family business and own investment shares.

These are all inseparable, the last time I fought tens of billions of crazy profits!

Including Yang Chengjun, the family who was not convinced by his favored favor before, all bowed their heads after that.

Even if I am not convinced in my heart, I dare not do any more thorns...

This amount of money is enough to keep the Yang family prospering for a century, and it can extend its tentacles to various fields, and straighten up in finance.

The benefits are much...

Therefore, the three of them are now supporting Qin Yu more and more, and they are even more obedient to him.

The rumors outside the specific profit may be biased.

But the promotion of their rights, status, and voice in their respective homes can't hide from countless eyes in the circle.

Apart from other things, in this short half a year, the most heard from each family is: Look at other people Li Xiao (Xu Hao, Yang Chengjun), you are looking at you, what are you friends with?

The grievances in the hearts of the young and old, don't mention how aggrieved.

Anyway, it's Lanshou...

Now, the huge ship is parked at its door, and the ticket is also in hand.

Whether they can board this big ship depends on their respective performance and value.

There is one person present, and no one naively thinks that the other party should make money by themselves.

That kind of fool couldn't get into the eyes of Li Xiao's trio, and he had already let him cool down and play.

Before coming, Xu Hao also received a call from Ge Qingtou.

This kid wanted to get on the boat too, but he just wanted to save face and couldn't show his face.

I want Xu Hao to set up a line for him, so that the previous unpleasantness will not happen, and such a small matter will pass away.

In response, Xu Hao would give them two words: "Haha!"

He doesn't have such a big face, you Ge Qingtou has the ability to find someone else.

You want to make money, and you want to be an uncle. Why are you taking advantage of the good things in this world?

Why, when you are the chosen son of heaven, what about the dragon and phoenix in the world?

That's true, it must be Brother Yu...

Hey~

If you say that Xu Hao is the leader, this is the realization, there is it!

"Brother Yu, you come to say a few words to everyone." Li Xiao has also said everything that should be said. There is basically no problem with everyone here, and I have read the information before the invitation.

Qin Yu also nodded too much, otherwise he wouldn't be called here.

"Then I'll just say a few words." Qin Yu sat up straight and smiled slightly: "The hustle and bustle of the world is for the benefit, and the world is for the benefit. It is the same for us to sit here today!"

"However, a gentleman loves money and takes it in a proper way. Since he has decided to eat in a pot, the rules are clearly stated first."

Qin Yu didn't make any detours, set out his cart and horse, and said straightforwardly: "Everyone in the room will receive news about Lixin's actions in the future.

However, if anyone leaks the news, he is smashing everyone's pot and leaving everyone out of food.

This kind of thing really happened, don't blame the big guy for turning his face and not being affectionate..."

Everyone, you look at me and I look at you, with some approval and warning in their eyes.

Although the words are a bit blunt, the truth is such a truth.

What the market is all about is poor information, and Qin Yu can make a profit every time.

Then his source of information must be extremely accurate, if someone spreads the news to his family, friends, lover, etc. for his own selfishness.

It must leak the wind, and cause any changes, everyone will have to suffer along with it.

In that money, they all have their own share.

This wicked thing that cuts the way for people to make money and breaks people's bills is just looking for death.

If there is one in the room, it will definitely not let him go.

"Brother Yu, don't worry about this. If anyone doesn't understand the rules, we must teach him to be good!" Yang Chengjun began to sing and cooperate with Li Xiao.

Before he sang red face and finished all the good things that should be said, everyone happily waited to pay and divide the money.

Now, Yang Chengjun sings a pale face and has to let the big guys know the seriousness of the problem.

This is not a playhouse, it is often a large list of hundreds of billions of dollars, and one or two points is a matter of killing people.

If anyone takes this seriously, he should leave as soon as possible.

Don't cause trouble to yourself, and don't cause other people to trouble...

Everyone, you say, I patted my chest with one word to promise that this will not happen.

All the news I heard here would be rotten in my stomach when I went out. My parents, wives and children didn't even mention a word.

"Well, let's talk about the share again." Qin Yu tapped on the table with his fingers: "Wait for the little brother to pull a group, and later actions will be notified in the group.

The specific share will be sent to your mobile phone before the action. I have discussed with Brother Hao, Brother Jun. There are currently two types of members in our circle. "

"One is the core members. The candidates are Li Xiao, Xu Hao, Yang Chengjun, Ye Jinlan, and Xiao Xiao sister." Qin Yu finished speaking, and nodded to Li Xiaoxiao who was pointing at him with surprise.

"The rest are all ordinary members, and they will naturally have different levels in terms of share. Who has an opinion on this?" Qin Yu wanted to glance around.

Everyone was aware, understood, unwilling, and envious, but no one said anything.

Negotiations need to be negotiated. What bargaining chip do they have?

Except that there is no money, does Qin Yu seem to be short of money?

So, after all, they have no bargaining chips at all.

The only thing there is a good family background, you can help one or two when you need it.

But Hudu, like them, has no more than a thousand and several hundred. Who would refuse this opportunity to pick up money?

No one wants to be replaced by someone outside, and Li Xiao himself can't tell if he has a chance to come in.

In the end, you still don't have to look at the 'talker in the middle.'

As long as you figure this out, all the negative emotions in your heart will be soothed.

Nothing is unacceptable.

People have been together for so long, and at the very beginning they valued their betting, when they were with Qianlong.

Now I want to pick up the ready-made ones, and I want to get the same treatment, how is it possible? ?

"Since everyone has no opinion, this is the case." Qin Yu said to Li Xiao: "Brother, you build a group to pull everyone in."

"Okay." Li Xiao moved to the side table and asked them to come over to add friends and group together.

Among these people, not all of them have WeChat accounts.

Seeing everyone running to the next door, Xu Hao leaned in and asked in a low voice: "Brother Yu, we have so many people now, should we also have a nice and prestigious name?"

Now, are we an organization? You have to have an external name and address, right? "

Xu Hao's words make sense. It should be a name. Qin Yu looked at him scratching his head and said with a laugh: "What name do you have, let's listen to it?"

"Hehe, Brother Yu understands me." Xu Hao grinned, hands on hips and said: "Let's call Qianqianbang."

Yang Chengjun lifted up and kicked, staggering Xu Hao, leaning on the chair and shouting: "Brother Jun, why are you kicking me?"

"Don't like money help?... How do you think rights help you?"

"Besides, let's go outside and talk?" Yang Chengjun looked at him with a black face.

Xu Hao shut up in an instant, he had a serious shadow of the words "talk outside".

Thinking of it, the chrysanthemum is tight and the scalp is numb!

Seeing him sitting down with his head down and no longer babbling, Yang Chengjun sighed tiredly: Oh, I'm too difficult.

Reluctantly shook his head, making it clear that I hate iron but not steel.

Money Gang, it looks like it is extremely Dao, he is afraid that the outside impression of the children of the family is too good, he jumped out and made a big death, playing himself to death?

What kind of society is now, full of tattoos, and the big brothers with arms and legs are honestly wearing suits, tightly covering the tattoos, wearing a watch, and holding a bag to be the boss.

All day long I talked about business, fun, eating, drinking and having fun.

Just you, want to get some money to help...

And the right gang behind...said, what do you want to do?

Yang Chengjun didn't bother to continue thinking, the more he thought about it, the more angry he became.

If it were not for playing with him for so many years, Yang Chengjun would have to suspect that he was an undercover agent from outside.

I specifically came to pull them hatred and kill them...

Chapter 550: System dad, Sarah

"Three Qin Clubs."

The sudden voice made Xu Hao and Yang Chengjun, who were facing each other with their eyes, turned their heads and looked at them.

What I saw was Qin Yu's smiling face: "I come from the abandoned capital, the land of Sanqin, and the industry is also located there, including Lixin...It is more appropriate to call Sanqin Club."

"Yes." Yang Chengjun nodded first.

Sanqin Hui, this name is much better than money help, power help.

Xu Hao was a bit unwilling, what a domineering name he gave!

But under the pressure of Qin Yu and Yang Chengjun's eyes, they reluctantly accepted this decision.

The Sanqin Club will be the name of this new organization from today.

"If you lose everything, you will lose everything. If you become a traitor, I will not be the first one to spare him." Although Xu Hao is unreliable, he is categorical when he says this.

One spit and one pit made everyone dare not ignore his threat.

The Xu family was originally a local snake in the Hudu, and now they are on a higher level, forming a united front with the Yang family and the Li family.

What Xu Hao said was equivalent to what Li Xiao and Yang Chengjun were behind him.

Who dares to ignore?

"Okay, relax. We are all businessmen. We are talking about fighting and killing." Qin Yu smiled and patted Xu Hao on the shoulder: "Don't be so hostile, eat and eat."

With both hands patted, butler Yao, who was waiting at the door, brought people in.

The long table was filled with various kinds of rich food, but Qin Yu was checking the rewards that had just arrived.

'Ding! '

'Congratulations to the host for establishing his own power and triggering specific rewards.'

'Reward: [Thousands of people go home]'

[Reminder: This title has a strong infectious power, can influence others unknowingly, and generate trust and loyalty to the host]

[Reminder: This title covers the scope, members of the Sanqin Club]

[Reminder: The effect of this title is irreversible, exempt, resist, and cancel]

[Reminder: Causality triggers, existence is reasonable]

"This..." The law of causality, existence is reasonable, which is a bit daunting.

After watching and watching, Brother Yu can only say one thing: "Big Brother 666."

He is a big brother in front of outsiders, but in front of the system, he is a younger brother.

'Ding! '

'Congratulations to the host for developing a shallow believer, with an experience value of 10,000 rewards, trigger rewards!'

'Ding! '

'Congratulations to the host for developing a shallow believer, with an experience value of 10,000 rewards, trigger rewards!'

'Ding! '

'Congratulations to the host for developing a believer. The experience value is rewarded with 100,000, and the reward is triggered!'

'Ding! '

'Ding...'

The pleasant reminder sound echoed in my mind, and the members of the Sanqin Club sitting in front of them looked up and found that Brother Yu had become delicate and delicate, especially kind.

The bottom of my heart is full of trust in him, and I can't wait to step forward and pull him to talk about the wine and talk about everything.

Those secrets that are hidden in my heart and cannot be told to the outside world.

When facing him, it no longer matters. "That's Brother Yu, what can't you say?"

Everyone has similar thoughts in their hearts, and no one feels strange.

As if from the beginning, they were the closest relatives to Qin Yu...

The rewards triggered by the believers are still accumulating. At the beginning of the period, Qin Yu suspected that it was going to make a big explosion for himself.

But now, he suspects that the system has hacked his reward!

How much has accumulated, at least dozens of jumps a day, at least hundreds of reward accumulations for such a long time...

"After accumulating like this, are you going to explode yourself?" Qin Yu whispered, suspecting that he was hacked.

"Brother Yu, what are you talking about?" Li Xiao thought he was talking to himself, and asked casually.

"It's okay, I..." Qin Yu opened his mouth, his eyes suddenly lost and dull.

It looks like something is irritated suddenly, stupid!

The fact is also true. Qin Yu, who had just complained about the system, immediately received a reward for being hacked.

The prize that he thought was bound to explode, appeared...

"Ding!"

"In the distribution of accumulated rewards, the light of miracle blooms, and the second bloom..."

"Issuing rewards: Atuling Genesis-All."

Fuck, * XN.

Qin Yu was shocked, it turned out to be Aturing Genesis-Quan.

Haha, this is really sleepy and there is a pillow, system dad, Sarah!

If you don't blow the system dad, I'm sorry to take care of itself.

"Ge Yu, Ge Yu..." Li Xiao's tone became more and more urgent, and her body was shaken suddenly, which made Qin Yu wake up from the shock.

'Exit the panel. "The loose eyes returned to focus, and Qin Yu looked at him and said, "I just wandered away, thinking about something...what did you say?"

Li Xiao breathed a sigh of relief, he thought Qin Yumo was startled.

If you don't wake him up, you have to call an ambulance: "It's okay, I thought you were drinking too much."

"Drink too much?" Qin Yu was surprised.

Picking up the cup and sending it forward: "When did you see me drinking too much?"

Looking at the wine glass brought in front of him, Li Xiao's eyes were shocked: "Cao Rui, old Cao..."

Fortunately, he was clever, and immediately thought of looking for a rescuer.

Little fat man, white and white, with a flexible pace...

A few of them came to Li Xiao's side, smiled at him, yelled "Brother," and said hello to Qin Yu: "Hello, Brother Yu."

"Well, I'm fine." Qin Yu nodded.

Li Xiao immediately answered: "I'm not good, come sit here and drink with Qin Shao."

Fat Xiaobai is a little confused, what's the situation?

After doing it for a long time, I came to accompany the wine...Are you rich?

"Haha, you little fat man, yes, please slap me tonight." Li Xiao said with a big smile.

The little fat man didn't say anything, he just picked up the cup and did it: "Brother Yu, I'll drink first, you are free."

After a meal, Cao Rui was happily making hundreds of millions.

What he cares about is not Chuaner, but the meaning of Li Xiao's invitation.

Who do you follow in the evening?

Who doesn't know that Li Xiao, Xu Hao, and Yang Chengjun are inseparable when they come out to play?

In private, many people are joking, saying what to do when the three of them get married?

Buy a townhouse directly and get it through from start to finish? ?

If that were the case, Cao Rui wouldn't be so excited.

This isn't that Brother Yu is also here today. Isn't it just a gathering of core members at night? Did you break into the core circle?

As soon as his mind got hot, the little fat man drank faster. The white face was not just excited, but he drank too much and became hot and flushed.

"Brother Yu, I will toast you again." The little fat man squinted, blushing as if to drip blood.

His skin looks better than women, and people always have the urge to pinch.

"It's dry." Qin Yu raised his head straightforwardly, his face unchanged.

From the beginning to the present, he behaved like drinking cold water...

No, it's more exaggerated than drinking cold water.

People drink cold water and feel bloated, and he doesn't even have a reaction.

Seeing Qin Yu behaving so fiercely, the drink below almost couldn't sit still.

"Brother Yu, I respect you."

"Brother Yu, I want you to take care of me in the future."

"Brother Yu, just say if there is anything you need, although we can't do it by ourselves, we have father on it!"

Seeing the yelling second generations who are slightly drunk, they really understand how to behave. U U Reading www.uukanshu.com

If you can't do it yourself, let's fight father, who will let us have a good father!

Things are clear and bright!

"From now on, they will all be my own brothers. Come and drink one together." Qin Yu stood up.

"Okay, let's respect brother Yu together."

"Brother Jingyu!"

Li Xiaoxiao also yelled out loudly, her cheeks flushed with excitement.

At first glance, he knew that he was drinking too much. Although his expression was smiling, the eyes that looked at Xu Hao showed loss and faint tears.

Since ancient times, love is the most hurtful, eh...

"Mouse, Xiaoxiao drank too much, you send people away." When the scene was over, Li Xiao asked Xu Hao to arrange for Li Xiaoxiao to be sent back safely.

A girl, drunk and unable to open her eyes, how can she let her go alone?

"Hiccup, hand it over, hand it to me." Xu Hao propped the chair with his hand, tilted his head and waved.

Seeing that he was going to fall at any time, groggy and drunk, Qin Yu frowned and said, "Don't go back, arrange the room to live here, and come back tomorrow when you wake up."

Everyone is like this, and I don't feel relieved on the road. It's better to wait until I wake up.

"Then I won't leave, so I fell asleep...tonight and continued to drink." Yang Chengjun suddenly raised his hand, his head was raised halfway as if it was down, and it fell down again.

Looking at this scene dumbfoundingly, Li Xiao and Qin Yu dragged them upstairs one by one.

"Housekeeper Yao, there are four rooms. There is a man named He Wu in the hall, and one is for him." Qin Yu supported Xu Hao with one hand and Li Xiaoxiao with the other into the elevator.

Those who can work harder, who makes him strong and capable?
