Chapter 691: The corners of the mouth are dirty

A good table!

It was all made by Teacher Shen himself, and the table was full of dangling, and there was no place to put the bowl.

No, after sitting down, one person is holding a bowl. If you want to drink something, you have to alternate your left and right hands.

"I just said that you are mother's relatives, and my daughter did not receive such treatment when she came back." Wen Yaxuan was full of resentment.

The gap between this and when she went home was too big.

Now she is busy with work and comes back once or twice a week.

Sometimes you can only come back once a month, but when did you see this kind of treatment?

Not to mention the table full of more than a dozen dishes, chicken, duck, fish, shrimp, crab and fruit.

That's basically three or two small dishes, and sometimes the leftovers are hot at noon, just take two bites.

Look at this again...

Sure enough, he must have been wrongly held.

I don't know if my biological parents are also thinking of her at the dinner table at this moment.

She is concerned about whether she is wearing warm clothes, eating well, and whether her life and work are not going well.

I really want to see them now! ! !

"You can't stop your mouth even when you eat?" Teacher Shen lifted his chopsticks, making a gesture to knock.

Wen Yaxuan was honest in an instant, and her mother's chopsticks fascinated her.

It hurts to knock someone, she should be honest!

"Mr. Shen, I'm going to participate in the lotus cup." Lazy cat looked at Shen Bing happily and reported the good news to her.

"Well, it's time to go." Shen Bing nodded and said: "There are some competitions, you should go when you start dancing. At that time..."

Shen Bing's words came out at once, saying that the person behind her is not her character.

Although the dance teachers are not professional enough.

But no one is qualified to stand on the moral high ground to judge her how to do and what to do.

"Ms. Zhou is a good teacher, follow her well, you will have something to gain." Shen Bing's tone looked a little strange.

Qin Yu deliberately looked at her twice, why did her tone become unnatural when she mentioned 'Ms. Zhou', as if she was hiding something.

Between these two people, is the old acquaintance once?

In fact, Qin Yu can let Qilin track down, but he doesn't want to easily invade Shen Bing's privacy.

She belongs to the past, but now she belongs to...

Well, it belongs to everyone, and is the teacher Shen that everyone knows.

Since she doesn't want to mention the past, then respect her opinion.

It's just that, judging from all kinds of suspicious places, Mr. Shen's identity back then is not simple.

I want to come too, to her such a brilliant achievement in the field of dance, but also a charming woman.

How could it be cultivated by ordinary families.

Not to mention, just her elegant and cold temperament can't be brought up by the environment of a normal family.

"Well, Teacher Zhou is very good to me...but it's Teacher Shen the best." Lazy cat's little head is still full of inspiration when necessary.

No, just a word to Teacher Shen exulted.

The face that was always cold in the past also showed an elegant and refined smile.

To Lan Yue, she is really like a daughter.

Sometimes I care about her more than Wen Yaxuan, so it's not surprising to be jealous.

"Eating vegetables and dancing still need strength. Although you are not a power dancer, strength is the foundation of all dancers. Skills also require strength to display."

Shen Bing used chopsticks to pick her up, while Lazy Cat was holding a bowl and looking at her happily with a smile.

"What a warm picture of a mother, kindness, and filial piety!" A sour tone came, and Wen Yaxuan was immersed in her meal.

It seems to have a grudge against that bowl of rice, to swallow it wholeheartedly, and grind it to pieces between the teeth.

Jiang Xiaoshan shrank her head, silently holding the vegetables in front of her, bowing her head to eat.

She would be willing to be a transparent person now, so she shouldn't get involved in the troubles of the true and false daughter.

However, those dexterous crystal feet under the table.

Become active again, not honest!

Qin Yu sat in a precarious position, keeping a slightly backward posture, scooping up vegetables and biting rice.

It didn't look like his gorging style in the past.

That is, Lazy Cat and Teacher Shen hadn't seen each other for a long time, and Wen Yaxuan, a stupid girl, was so careless, eating jealous all the time.

Otherwise, someone would have discovered his strange expression a long time ago.

Doraemon!

The metal knocking sounded, and Jiang Xiaoshan, who had been acting as a transparent person, smiled apologetically: "The spoon has fallen."

As he said, he bent down and got under the table to pick it up.

The lazy cat blinked curiously and looked down.

Jiang Xiaoshan had already got up with the spoon, and there was nothing strange.

"Is I too sensitive?" Lazy Mao apologized, and quickly turned his attention to the conversation with Teacher Shen again.

She is teaching herself some superb power-generating skills, the points to pay attention to in stage performances and the ideas for on-the-spot performance.

These are what the lazy cat needs and lacks, and it comes at the right time.

Wen Yaxuan looked at Teacher Shen and pretended to listen carefully.

Out of the corner of her eye, she noticed that Jiang Xiaoshan got under the table again: "Did her spoon fall again???"

...

...

After eating, Qin Yu offered to contract the finished work.

"The three of you haven't seen each other for a long time. Go to the room and have a good chat. I don't know when we will meet next time."

The three women, who wanted to help, looked at each other, feeling like they couldn't help it anymore.

Holding the melon and fruit plate on the table, Wen Yaxuan pulled the two of them upstairs all the way upstairs.

They are going to go back to the room and close the door for a private conversation that belongs only to their best friends.

Seeing the three people disappear at the end of the stairs, Qin Yu turned and walked towards the kitchen: "Mr. Shen, I will help you~"

Gee, tut~

Seeing that Mr. Shen put down the yogurt box that he had sucked in his hand, some white milk stains appeared on the corners of his mouth.

Qin Yu took a piece of paper and handed it to her, pointing to the corner of his mouth: "Something, dirty!"

Shen Bing hurriedly lowered his head and wiped it, and then looked weirdly towards the stairs, as if he was afraid of something.

When I found no one, I said, "Don't buy these next time."

The coffee table is full of various gift boxes and supplements brought forward at noon, which are very valuable at first glance.

The fact is indeed the case. Just the flower gum in the bottle on the table cost a lazy cat hundreds of thousands!

Fortunately, she is also a rich little woman now, otherwise she really can't afford it...

"Don't hold on to this. It's all Lazy Cat's intentions. If she doesn't let her send these, she will have to hurt her body."

Qin Yu felt that it was time to give gifts, and there was nothing wrong with gifts.

What's wrong is that some people distort the meaning of gifts.

Turn it into a shortcut, a stepping stone for entering the back door, always thinking about getting rid of the serious things.

He just painted a layer of colored glasses for what was supposed to be a proper courtesy.

"Don't take these as a burden, she is a little rich woman now Qin Yu said that she opened the small bottle of bird's nest: "I should eat, and I can't say how effective it is. I'm sure it won't hurt my body. "

Skin care products are anything that can stand the test of the market.

There are many benefits, benefits, beauty, nourishing yin and nourishing yang.

Anyway, it won't be harmful, the most is to spend a lot of money to buy sugar water, to give yourself a psychological hint and a little comfort.

Everything was bought temporarily, and it was Lazy Cat's gratitude and heartfelt gifts.

As long as things are not bad, then this is a good thing!

Take money to buy happiness, this money can't be more appropriate...

Hearing what he said, Shen Bing was not insisting on it either.

I licked the corners of my mouth with my tongue, and said that the yogurt was really delicious just now, how about... another box?

When the three lazy cats came down, Mr. Shen had already drunk two boxes of yogurt and went back to the room for a nap.

"Ms. Shen said she was a little tired, and she wanted to take a nap." Qin Yu explained with a smile.

"Then let's go out for shopping?" Wen Yaxuan took a day off, she must hurry up and make good use of it.

"Okay, where are we going?" Lazy Cat was excited.

She hasn't been shopping with her sisters for a long time, let alone accompanied by Qin Yu.

If only the stars were there.

It didn't take much time to discuss where to go. Seeing that they were undecided, Qin Yu directly decided to go to the National Finance.

If someone decides, they naturally don't need to have a headache anymore, just follow along.

As long as there is a place to hang out, and to be a sister again, it's fun enough.

As soon as they arrived at the National Finance, the three left Qin Yu behind.

The lazy cat stood in the middle, holding Wen Yaxuan and Jiang Xiaoshan with both hands, and walking forward side by side with a smile on his face.

Is there a woman who doesn't like shopping?

If it does, marry it quickly!

If it can last a lifetime, it must be true love.

Chapter 692: Really big guy, never overturned

IFC.

As Hudu's most well-known high-end shopping mall, it can definitely satisfy all one's fantasy and shopping needs for luxury.

No, as soon as she entered the door, Wen Yaxuan rushed straight to Hermes, rushing...

Since visiting shopping malls with Qin Yu several times, her consumption outlook has changed drastically.

Like Hermes, who didn't dare to look at it before, now going home is as natural as going home.

"Are there any new products?" As soon as Wen Yaxuan entered the door, she went straight to the display wall and asked the cabinet sister who was approaching as she walked.

"Yes, all the new products we just launched are here." The cabinet sister led the three to the new product display wall.

"This year, the design style of Hermès is minimalist, which aims to show the beauty of fashion and atmosphere of women in the new era in simplicity, and the colors are mainly elegant tones..."

Jiang Xiaoshan looked at the new products of the season for herself, but Wen Yaxuan didn't take it seriously, just looking for the products she likes.

She does the design herself, so she can naturally distinguish the good from the bad.

But to buy this kind of thing, shouldn't it be the most important thing to like?

If you don't like it, you don't like it.

Buying it back is just a stale ornament, it's not as easy to use as the long hand bag that I bought at the roadside shop for 120 yuan.

Only Lazy Cat looked serious, as if he was really listening to the other party's introduction.

In fact, she just didn't want the other person to feel left out, so she would feel impolite and feel guilty.

Soon, Jiang Xiaoshan chose a burgundy original customized cowhide horseshoe bag.

Simple and stylish, moderate in size, it coincides with the introduction of the cabinet sister!

The price is not expensive, as long as RMB...

With the addition of the word "customized" to this inexpensive price, you don't need to ask you to know that the goods are to be distributed.

Jiang Xiaoshan originally wanted to put it down, but Lazy Cat said: "Anyway, Xuan Xuan and I will buy it too, so I can distribute the goods to you."

Wen Yaxuan also found her favorite 39-inch Herbag, rose red, price: yuan.

This Herbag is an entry-level model and does not need to be stocked.

But it is very popular, especially popular with young customers, and it is in a panic buying condition all the year round.

However, in recent years, Hermès has increased the amount of supply to Xia Guo, which makes Herbag a single product that occasionally stays in the store.

Only the lazy cat is still listening carefully to the various introductions and descriptions of the cabinet sister.

But the ones she introduced are not what the lazy cat wants...

Her positioning of bags has always been simple and practical.

The cabinet sister introduced it, expensive, expensive, expensive...

The two are not on the same channel at all, how could they like it.

"Yueyue, why don't you choose a horseshoe bag?" Jiang Xiaoshan pulled Lanyue, urging her to choose the same series as herself.

The horseshoe bag belongs to the upstart of Hermès. Compared with the predecessors who have been famous for a long time, it is still a pink and tender newcomer.

But with the popularity of Hermès, the entire Halzan series is still lukewarm.

Compared to other popular series, it is a small unpopularity.

But in the eyes of people who like it, it is the most suitable.

Lazy Cat glanced at the cabinet, then pulled Jiang Xiaoshan aside and whispered: "Will it be too expensive?"

"Do you like it?" Jiang Xiaoshan said.

"It looks very small, but I follow the dance troupe every day, and I often throw bags and the like on the stool..."

In the case of a lazy cat, she is not allowed to use these expensive luxury goods.

"Then carry it when you are resting!" Jiang Xiaoshan pulled her into the house, saw a pink one on it, pointed and said, "We want this."

Knowing that the pink one is 30,000 higher than her price, Jiang Xiaoshan resolutely said: "I want it."

Since the lazy cat has also chosen the horseshoe bag, the next thing is to distribute the goods.

"Don't buy these small accessories, let's go and see the coat." When Wen Yaxuan was there looking at various small pendants and accessories, Jiang Xiaoshan took her to the finished product area.

"Why look at coats?" Although it is not too early to buy coats this month, she thinks those small accessories are also very beautiful!

"Those things, you won't bring them when you buy them back. Instead, they are cashmere coats and diamonds and other watches and accessories, which will really have the opportunity to use them."

When you come to Hermès, if you don't need money, don't choose the dazzling array of small accessories and pendants.

Not only is it useless, but I might just leave it somewhere when I go back.

When the time comes, they will all be waste products, and the money will be spent for nothing!

It's not as good as ready-to-wear. Diamonds are valuable and have a higher usage rate.

First of all, Hermes has almost made earth-shaking changes in the style, color and overall design of cashmere coats in the past four years.

The taste is getting better and better, the quality and tailoring are even better, and the price-performance ratio is extremely high.

Diamond watches or accessories can be used in formal occasions to match wear.

Both the attendance rate and usage rate are very high, at least it reflects its value!

As for the small accessories that you just throw away and disappear, it's not bad to buy a filled jewelry box and pat a celebrity.

Double-sided cashmere material, soft and comfortable, casual and versatile. Look at the price and start decisively.

One more white and gray one The price is cheaper, as long as RMB...

"Sir, do you have one too?" Jiang Xiaoshan stepped forward and held his arm, pushing him forward.

The cabinet sister next to her looked a little dumbfounded. When the lazy cat was just picking a product, she didn't hold his arm to ask for advice.

Could it be that I was dazzled and misunderstood the wrong person? ? ?

impossible!

It's not from the assembly line. The beauty has its own merits, and the temperament is different. Can you change your face in an instant?

The cabinet sister is confused!

She has seen the third child, but they have to come in shifts one by one.

Right in front of me... Really big guy, one drag and three won't overturn the car.

The more she thought about it, the more ridiculous she got, she wanted to kneel to the boss on the spot, shouting 666.

Each of them had two coats, and chose a comfortable short one for themselves. The cabinet sister took a calculator and calculated: Yuan's distribution.

Plus two horseshoe bags, one yuan, wine red.

A lobster meal, RMB, plus a 39-inch Herbag, rose red, plus 20,000 yuan.

Total yuan.

"Swipe money." Qin Yu drew out his card and reported the customer information.

The expression of the cabinet sister changed almost in a second, and her enthusiasm was instantly radiated: "Mr. Qin, as a Hermès, there will be exquisite gifts for consumption in the store..."

"Thank you." Qin Yu retracted the card and nodded in response with a smile.

"You go slowly." Kneeling didn't kneel, and the force of the cabinet sister still has to be maintained.

In the eyes of most customers, they are also the masters who need people to fudge.

To achieve the ultimate, that is, to give gifts, take the things to the customer to the door in person, bow at 75 degrees and hand over the bag.

Fold your hands in front of your lower abdomen, and keep your bowed posture waiting for the other person to walk away.

"Sure enough, handsome and rich, you can really do whatever you want." Thinking of that face, the cabinet sister's elegant expression instantly turned into a idiot smile.

Chapter 693: Sexy Femme

After 3 hours of shopping, big bags and small bags have gained a lot!

The three of them were sitting in the milk tea shop, their faces exhausted from drinking milk tea.

But when he talked about "Where to go shopping next," people immediately became energetic.

Outrageous!

Back and forth, Hermès, Fragrant Granny, boutiques, and RIMOWA's retro trolley cases have all bought five.

Black, champagne gold, glacier blue, lemon yellow, dark green.

Qin Yu, Lan Yue, Jiang Xiaoshan, Wen Yaxuan, and Li Wanxing each, exactly five.

It is made of aluminum-titanium alloy, a special model for stars.

The price is not expensive, one is more than nine thousand, less than ten thousand yuan.

Let the other party arrange the delivery, the thing is too big to install.

This is not the most outrageous, they even did not let go of Versace's children's clothing store.

Going in with all kinds of cute little clothes, they seem to be teasing each other.

The service attitude of the clerk's lady is very good, even if it is seen that they are not like mothers.

They didn't have the slightest impatience. Instead, they smiled and patiently accompany them to introduce their brand advantages and design concepts.

After all, a girl who takes the initiative to walk into a children's clothing store like this and loves to laugh will definitely not be too pregnant!

Even if you are not pregnant, your relatives and friends around you always need to give gifts.

"Roger's shoes are really beautiful. I decided that I will be a loyal fan of their family in the future."

Speaking of Roger Vivier's boots that she had just selected, Wen Yaxuan became excited from a foodie girl into a prodigal little lady.

This is a niche brand from Huadu, known as the ladies and ladies in shoes.

The founder is also known as the most romantic shoe poet in France.

Listen, poet!

Putting these two words on the brand, the force of this shoe immediately rises to the atmosphere.

It also contrasts sharply with other luxury and coquettish * outside, "We are not shoes, but works full of art and romance.

Each pair has a different meaning, made by the craftsman Barabara..."

price?

Don't care about the price, tacky, we have to look at things.

Full of poetic and artistic genes, the price must not be doubled and doubled...

Or, can you be worthy of such a good thing? ? ?

In any case, foreigners will circulate money, and they are old capitalists as soon as they speak.

However, wearing the boots on her body has changed her whole person's image drastically.

The original Tie Hanhan suddenly became a bit more fatal temptation of a * snake.

Just for this, the money is worth it!

It's not that Yu brother likes it, but I want Wen Yaxuan to experience more different styles.

How about living in a western-style building tonight? ?

"Yeah, it's already 7 o'clock." Lazy Cat glanced at the time casually, and said with a surprised expression.

Thinking of Shen Bing alone at home, today's 'buy, buy, buy' came to an end for the time being.

When he got home, Shen Bing was sitting on the sofa watching TV.

It was a song and dance performance on the court stage. The performer was a stranger, and Qin Yu didn't know it.

There was a plate of cut fruits on the coffee table. Wen Yaxuan saw angrily and acted like a baby: "Mom, you only eat fruits again."

"Enough." Shen Bing said.

Her appetite is always small, except when a few of them come.

The daily diet is mainly fruit, and occasionally a small bowl of white rice.

The weight is probably just what Yu Ge looks like in one bite.

However, Shen Bing has his own scientific recipes and collocations for energy intake.

It's not like a skinny beauty girl who is so weak that she has to bend over to gasp after two steps, hum~ hum...

Besides, Qin Yu always comes to deliver supplements.

Those things finally got into her mouth, the flower maw soup, Shen Bing did not drink less this year.

On closer inspection, Shen Bing, who was wearing only shorts and loose bottoming, seemed to have a better skin.

The long, smooth, white legs have some green and red marks, which were made during dance practice.

Anyone who learns to dance is indispensable with injuries, and the same goes for a lazy cat.

Fortunately, small daily injuries like this will not last for a long time, and will disappear after a few days.

Even so, the inconspicuous scar is particularly eye-catching under the skin that is as white and tender as a baby and can be squeezed out.

Xu Ye noticed the gaze of Qin Yu who was standing quietly, and Shen Bing moved forward with his hands, put on slippers and got up and said, "Wait."

After a while, when she came out again, she had already changed into long-sleeved and trousers for home clothes.

Wrap your perfect figure under loose clothes.

"Have you eaten?" Shen Bing asked.

"No!" Wen Yaxuan said while holding Shen Bing.

Looking at her strangely, Shen Bingjue's daughter today is very clingy.

She usually came back alone, but she didn't do that.

"Mr. Shen, I'm here to get ready." Jiang Xiaoshan said and got up, rolled up her sleeves and walked to the kitchen.

"I'll help." Qin Yu followed.

Men and women match, work is not tired!

It would be boring to leave Jiang Xiaoshan busy in it alone.

"I'm coming too." Lazy Cat also wanted to help, but was stopped by Teacher Shen.

"You sit here and watch it well." Shen Bing pointed to the stage play on the TV and said: "Watch carefully, study hard, what's wrong with me."

Wen Yaxuan wanted to help, but when she thought that she was always unhelpful.

Not long after I entered, I was about to be blasted out.

Posing unwillingly, just pretend that you haven't heard anything.

Putting my arms around my mother, I accompany her to sit on the sofa and watch the show.

At this time, Lan Yue, who had been reminded by Shen Bing, had recognized that the royal dance troupe she was in was performing inside.

The C solo dancer is the chief of the dance troupe, Sister Tang, who is known as the strongest dancer of the new generation.

Although the other party is from Shangdu Art Academy, he is from Shanghai Opera.

However, the expert is a teacher, and as his predecessor, Lan Yue should call the other party 'teacher.'

She called it that way at first, but Senior Sister Tang refused.

Later, I found out that she was a very quiet and good girl in private, and her personality was a bit shy and introverted.

After realizing the real Sister Tang, Lan Yue became her best girlfriend in the dance troupe.

The two of them have similar personalities, and they have the same hobbies...

It should be said that anyone who can join a dance troupe and become a pillar, no one is a mess, doesn't like dance, and doesn't regard it as a lifelong pursuit or career.

"Did you see what dance it was?" Shen Bing asked suddenly.

"Confucius." Shen Bing said.

She knew the performances in the stage too well, and even if she hadn't joined the Royal Dance Company, she had watched this stage play more than a hundred times.

Half of them were performed by Sister Tang.

"Do you see where the gap is between yourself and her?" Shen Bing asked.

"Speed, strength, proficiency in skills and control of the body..." Lan Yue said earnestly in her eyes: "All-round rolling."

Wen Yaxuan raised her head in surprise when she said that.

This was the first time she saw that Lan Yue admired a person so much in terms of her favorite dance.

And think that he is completely inferior to the other party, and has not been discouraged and disappointed.

This is not like her previous performance...

"Teacher, I have found the direction." Lan Yue tilted her head to look at Shen Bing, the weakness between her brows was swept away by her determination.

At this moment, she was still half-lazy and tender.

It is not an exaggeration to say that Hua Mulan is acting as his father in the army!

Seeing the firmness in her eyes and the sheen of having a goal, Shen Bing smiled with satisfaction.

This is the familiar Lan girl she knows.

A natural dance embryo and unparalleled talent in dance, she is definitely expected to catch up with the chief Tang and go over the top perfectly!

Just don't lose this pursuit, persistence and confidence.

"Axue, you really become a good dancer and a good teacher."

Thinking of the familiar and unfamiliar figure, Shen Bing's expression had a touch of complexity.

There are even more mixed flavors in my heart, which flashed through my mind one by one in the past.

She will never go back to that home, nor can she go back again.

It's just that Xuan Xuan is bitter!

Feeling agitated, Shen Bing couldn't help raising his hand and pressing it on Wen Yaxuan's head, rubbing her hair with love and guilt.

Wen Yaxuan raised her eyes, filled with question marks.

What's wrong with mom? The last time she was so close to herself was when she was very young.

How long has it been...Wen Yaxuan can't remember it for a long time.

In the kitchen, Qin Yu was sending text messages with her mobile phone, while Jiang Xiaoshan handled it neatly by herself.

"Master Is this how you helped me?" Jiang Xiaoshan joked coldly when he watched him bury his head in playing with his mobile phone.

"It's a trivial matter, I'm afraid I will forget it without notice." Qin Yu raised his head and smiled, and his fingers suddenly stopped.

"However, nothing is as important as our Shanshan." As he said, he had already installed his mobile phone and reached out to grab it...

"Don't make trouble, everyone is hungry!"

"I'm hungry too! I don't have much energy to work like this."

"Um~ just one bite."

"It depends on how long this bite is."

After eating most of the yogurt, Qin Yu wiped his mouth and started to help out with all his energy.

Cutting vegetables, garnishes, and preparing condiments, these are what he does with ease.

Especially his swordsman, Jiang Xiaoshan couldn't help but exclaim every time he saw him: "Why didn't you become a cook?"

Qin Yu's knife skills are simply amazing.

For example, the tofu he cuts is as thin as hair, scattered and uninterrupted. Putting it in water is like a perfect handicraft.

Jiang Xiaoshan will only make this Wensi tofu when he is there.

Among the people she knew, only Qin Yu had such exquisite knife skills and skills.

Apart from him, I have never seen a second person.

"If I were to be a cook, this would be another story." Qin Yu smiled.

For cooking, his attitude is actually not resisting.

But there is no interest.

Like Shen Bing and Jiang Xiaoshan, give them a shot.

Go back home to help my mother, he is very happy!

But if you want him to go around the kitchen, Brother Yu is definitely not happy.

How to say this thing...

When you turn an interest into a "compulsive system," your inner goodwill will instantly diminish by 1,000%.

Disgust +...

Chapter 694: Making quick money may not be a good thing

Parked the big par at the school gate, Qin Yu dragged the black suitcase to the bedroom.

He stayed in a western-style building last night.

This night, I went to several tables, and I was very busy.

Not tired, but also very exciting!

I just have to be careful every time, for fear of disturbing something that shouldn't be disturbed...

Woke up early in the morning and stayed up all night.

Qin Yu's mental head is particularly full, and his mood is extremely good.

When I saw my classmates, they took the initiative to greet people.

On the contrary, the other party is a little overwhelmed, and a little flattered!

I wondered if I did a great job, so that the senior elder who was hiding in the school was in the picture.

Big guy, my bed warmer is special 6, and women's clothing is also ok...

Qin Yu quickened his pace, feeling inexplicable.

Don't you just say hello?

Why are you giggling at me? Those who don't know thought there was a problem with our orientation.
nerve!

In front of the bedroom door, Qin Yu reached out and pushed the door.

Push again, push again...

Didn't push, the door was locked?

Qin Yu touched left and right, found the key and was about to open the door, and Shen Dong's voice came from inside: "Who!"

"I."

"Brother Yu, wait a minute."

Sissoso~

Shen Dong ran out in a mess, looking like the little sister-in-law who had just been ravaged.

"You..." Qin Yu pointed at him, not laughing or crying.

"Hey, you are not here. Xuan Xuan said that my quilt is comfortable, so I ran to sleep for one night."
Shen Dong scratched his head awkwardly.

By the way, his eiderdown duvets have been covered for three years, and they were snapped up at discounts in the supermarket, so where can they be comfortable now?

I'm afraid, it's not the quilt that is comfortable, it's the human...

"Well, did you sleep well?" Qin Yu joked.

"Not bad." Shen Dong said.

"I told you about it yesterday, how did you think about it?" Qin Yu asked.

Xuan Xuan was still inside, and the girl was thin-skinned when she talked about too many people, so she wouldn't be embarrassed to see each other in the future.

Turning the topic to business matters, Qin Yu was sending messages to him and Yan Er when he was in the kitchen last night.

For this trip, he was going to take the two again.

Actually, tell the truth!

Qin Yu really didn't want to take Shen Dong, not because he was afraid of making money, mainly because it was not good for him.

Money is a good thing.

But how to earn a lot of knowledge inside.

Take Shen Dong as an example. He now has a stable income and has bought several houses in his family. Although they are all monthly payments, this can actually stimulate Shen Dong's motivation even more. The work here is full of enthusiasm, earning hard money down-to-earth.

Turn around, snap!

A pie fell from the sky and picked it up for nothing.

You don't have to do anything, just pay some money and make money with money.

If you make too fast money, look at your hard-earned money.

The gap here is uncomfortable.

What a blow to Shen Dong's enthusiasm, and what kind of impact it will have.

Qin Yu didn't know, he was not Shen Dong, how could he guess it.

However, Shen Dong has been inquiring about investment.

Since there is action this time, if you don't take him once, it's not justified by reason.

Everyone doesn't look good on their face, and if they can't say they have to complain, there is a gap in their hearts.

Everyone is roommate. In the past, the eldest brother and the second brother yelled.

You have made money, and you two leave me alone.

Is this plausible?

No matter how thought it was, Qin Yu could only hope that he would not be affected too much.

"I'm ready, I kept 220,000, and I took out 200,000." Shen Dong said anxiously.

"Well, I will send you the account later, don't ask for the news, take care of the loss." Qin Yu said in advance.

This is the same as when you go to the hospital for an operation, and there may never be an accident in the promise.

But for the letter of commitment before the operation, you should sign it or you have to sign it.

Shen Dong nodded disapprovingly: "I understand, I believe Brother Yu you."

"Okay, then I won't go in, you help me put this under the bed." Qin Yu gave him the suitcase.

It was not clear what was going on inside, and it was natural that Qin Yu couldn't get in.

I was talking about Xuanxuan coming out, and seeing Qin Yu smiled embarrassedly: "Brother Yu."

"Well, I won't bother your young couple. Let's go first." Qin Yu lifted his foot to leave.

"Brother Yu, are you not in class anymore?" Shen Dong was curious.

He thought that when he came back, Qin Yu at least had to show up in the hall, name a name or something.

"No, I told the old car." Qin Yu just waved away without looking back.

"Tsk tusk, I really envy you!" Standing still, Shen Dong said enviously.

"If you are envious, everyone has a personal opportunity. I believe you will not be worse than anyone else in the future."

Xuan Xuan hugged his arm and said with a serious smile on his face.

"That is, I definitely can't be worse than anyone else, I will definitely let you live a good life." Shen Dong said confidently.

In addition to Qin Yu, Shen Dong is still very emboldened compared to other people.

The success and income of the courier point has greatly increased his confidence, and his speech has stood up.

You can't be a big guy like Brother Yu, but it's not bad at all compared to people of the same age, but it's better!

In the future, I am sure to live a good life, which is enviable.

Holding Xuanxuan in his arms, Shen Dong had another face in his mind.

But he was quickly pressed down, "Bad son, you should cherish such a good girlfriend, think of a der?"

After leaving the school gate, Qin Yu got on the bus again and drove directly to Luheng Group.

Stop the car on the ground and open the trunk.

On the left are half a box of Huazi, a few bottles of Moutai, and on the right are various cosmetics, big-brand silk scarves and small accessories.

The one on the left was prepared by Qin Yu himself, and the one on the right was the one that Jiang Xiaoshan "forgot" in the car.

"I can't use these things if I buy too much. Just leave them in your car, Mr. Jiang." Jiang Xiaoshan teased and sneered.

This is her old practice, knowing that Qin Yu will inevitably see other women after returning.

It's definitely not possible without a gift, but it's not so pleasant to let him pick it by himself.

Therefore, I took advantage of the fact that I was in the National Financial Services yesterday and bought more items that I can't use, but are suitable for gifts.

No, I will use it today.

Lifting two bags from it, Qin Yu went upstairs to the office.

When I meet familiar faces on the road, I will smile and nod and say hello.

On the fifth floor, the elevator opened and an acquaintance came in, Xia Ke.

"Yo, Shao Qin." Xia Ke looked at him grinningly and noticed the gift in his hand.

"Why did you mention two copies, do you have mine?" There was no one in the elevator, and Xia Ke joked moderately.

Qin Yu immediately retorted amused: "Why, your mouse exploited me, will you follow?"

"You are such a big boss, it is clear that he was exploited by you, okay?" Xia Ke said with a laugh.

"Then you have to ask him, the annual salary and shares are comfortable." Qin Yu said.

Comfortable, naturally it is extremely comfortable.

Xu Hao's current treatment, if you say that you can envy a vote of foreign company executives.

Salary is still secondary, mainly benefits and shares.

There is also the identity of the vice-chairman of the Sanqin Society, and the investment shares of these things, which makes people jealous.

Xia Ke is naturally clear, but it's not easy for her to say this, and she doesn't have the capacity to say it.

The two of them didn't get the certificate to make a decision, joking, it would be good to be able to get a little distance.

"Ms. Qin, you are here, please first." When the elevator arrived, Xia Ke tilted his head and smiled and stretched out his hand, asking him to go first. UU reading www.uukanshu.com

"Well, when I look back, I have to talk to the mouse, and I'm really relieved to leave such a beautiful woman in Hudu."

Qin Yu wanted to probe her tone, if Xia could be transferred to the abandoned city.

It is naturally good for the two to be closer together.

There is Xu Hao in this, but there is also a selfish side.

If you set up a business, you will stand alive.

It's time to get married and take care of it, and take good care of such a big mess of Miracle Company.

Otherwise, this heart is always floating outside, who knows that one day I will encounter the mountain again, and what will happen to it.

When life is not at the end, no one dares to say that he will see the whole life forever.

It is true that a mountain is higher than a mountain.

The waves are too cruel, and they always have to stumble...

Brother Yu and Brother Yu are different.

Hanging out, krypton gold, understand?

"I still like the weather, friends and circles of Hudu." Xia Ke responded with a smile.

Qin Yu nodded and said that he understood that the other party had already told himself the answer.

It seems that Xu Hao's long-distance relationship has to persist.

The revolution has not yet succeeded!

When I first went to the office, I found no one at the door. I asked the little girl next door to find out that she was out for errands.

Open the door and put things down.

Qin Yu turned around and walked towards the Luheng office area and found Yalan's office.

Looking inside, he was immersed in writing something.

Keng Keng!

"Come in." Yalan said without looking up, and continued to work on the report.

Seeing entering the fourth quarter, only 65 percent of the target set this year has been achieved, and she is now distraught.

If this delay continues, I am afraid that everyone will not be able to get off the stage at the New Year meeting.

Just thinking about it, Yalan suddenly remembered that someone just knocked on the door and came in, why no one spoke?

Looking up, the handsome face with a hippie smile stood right in front of him, frightening Yalan and then backing away.

Chapter 695: I am human rights light, the incarnation of justice

Early October, autumn.

Lan Yue returned to the dance troupe again and followed the troupe to participate in competitions and performances.

Jiang Xiaoshan went to Shancheng to film a new drama. This time, it was Anadi who was partnering. The two of them are getting very close now.

Wen Yaxuan is still busy with her own design, and recently the design company took a big order.

Wen Yaxuan, who is still in her head, now has the opportunity to draw pictures and submit the qualifications for the proposal.

For the past two days, I locked myself in the room, soaking in the blueprints to indulge myself.

Let's talk about Brother Yu!

Either go to Teacher Shen's house to have a meal, or find Yalan to take Tongtong out to play.

No, I plan to go to sea together by boat today.

Yalan prepared two baskets of food at home, melons and fruits, snacks, everything.

Although Qin Yu said, she doesn't need to prepare, because there is everything on board.

But as a mother, when will you really feel relieved...

Didi~

The sound of a whistle came from the door, and Ya Lan looked out and saw Qin Yu's big handkerchief stopped outside.

"Dad, then I will take Tongtong there first." Ya Lan said to Jiang Hongsheng.

"Yeah." Jiang Hongsheng held the newspaper and coughed calmly: "Cough, that, pay attention to safety!"

With a pun, he believed that his daughter could understand what he meant.

As for what will happen later, the women's college will not stay!

For a person in his 30s, is he still a dad to restrain her?

"Yeah." Ya Lan's heart trembled, pretending to only understand him to make herself be careful about personal safety...

Be careful with yourself...Be careful not to make accidents...

The thoughts in my head were confused, and I felt color in everything I thought.

Anyway, be careful!

"By the way, Qin Yu told me that the matter will start soon, and it will be the result within a month or two." Yalan said casually before leaving.

This made Jiang Hongsheng unable to sit still immediately, got up and went to the window, watching Qin Yu get out of the car to help put things away, then picked up Tongtong and put him in the back row.

The child laughed so happily...

Jiang Hongsheng was both gratified and curious, who did he stare at this time?

Outside, a weird wind is blowing quietly in the financial circle, "Lixin Investment has a new trend, I don't know who will be the next hapless one."

On Palamela, Qin Yu also talked about this with Yalan: "Someone has been paying attention to Lixin's movements."

"Do you know who it is?" Ya Lan was curious.

"It's not clear yet." Qin Yu shook his head and said: "The other party just stared at Lixin and spread the news, but did nothing else."

All companies under the Miracle Company are monitored by Kirin in real time.

Keywords related to 'miracle, Lixin, Qin Yu', etc. are all monitored.

But so far, Qin Yu only knows that the IP that broadcasts the message comes from all over the world.

In addition, it is still unknown who is spreading this news, who is staring at Lixin and what he wants to do!

After all, Kylin is not omnipotent.

As long as the other party is cautious enough to interrupt the signal in time before it becomes aware.

So Kylin can only trace to the last place where the signal source appeared, and the rest is ignorant.

Someone is staring at Lixin, staring at him.

In this regard, Qin Yu is not surprised.

Since its development, Miracle Company has become an invisible giant.

Although the magnitude is still not comparable to the international giants, the hidden potential is endless.

As long as you really understand it, you know it all.

There are countless people who want to contact Miracle Company, buy shares, invest, and cooperate.

It's just that these things are at the top of Xu Hao's level.

Unless there is the possibility of advancement and cooperation, it will not be reported to Qin Yu.

Outside, I don't know how many cool eyes are staring at every move of the miracle.

It may not be all bad things. If you develop well, you want to eat meat and share a piece of the pie.

If there is something bad, then you can do it in time. Whether it is to give charcoal in the snow or take the opportunity to cut the meat, it depends on how the current situation is more beneficial to you.

All the pictures and thoughts are ultimately nothing more than benefits.

They are all businessmen, who do nothing to do?

Arriving at the Metropolitan Club, the ship is ready to sail, and the pair of Shen Dong and Yan Er, single dogs, have also arrived.

"Brother, where's the person?" Called Li Xiao, and learned that he would be there soon, Qin Yu first let him go on the boat and visit freely.

"Mom, hurry up, the big boat, it's so beautiful." Tongtong ran on the boat even more, giggling and running wild on the boat.

Yalan took off her shoes and went up with her bare heels to prevent him from being mischievous.

Just stay Qin Yu and Yan Xue, sitting in the dock leisure area and playing with their mobile phones, but in fact, their thoughts have long since been flying to.

There was an unusual atmosphere inside and out in this operation.

First, someone stared at it and leaked the news about the frequent movements of Lixin's funds to the outside world.

Then the gold masters behind the three cores did not move.

The titanium-rhodium alloy coating has been given to Li Zhen. If she hadn't lied, the things would have been there for more than a week.

No matter how it is tested and discussed, there should be a preliminary result.

Qin Yu is not very worried about being watched by the outside world about Lixin's funds.

Lixin's funds have flowed into the vast sea of international markets through different channels, like a humble stream.

I want to find them out again, unless the other party knows every operation, time and channel of Lixin.

Otherwise, there is no possibility at all, only one direction can be roughly estimated.

The most important thing now is the news from BlackRock.

As the world's largest asset management institution, any trend will be followed by inside and outside the industry.

As long as BlackRock announces the data and advanced level of titanium and rhodium alloys.

Then it's like throwing a heavyweight missile into the ocean, and it will immediately cause an uproar.

At that time, taking advantage of this wave, press the 'detonate button' at the right time to exert a fanatical influence on the market.

The situation Qin Yu wanted and the time Lixin was waiting for were all ready!

Why have to wait for BlackRock, this is also helpless.

Without the voice of foreign companies, just relying on the miracle company to declare to the outside world, the final result will only be all kinds of doubts.

Although in the end the truth will be in broad daylight, everyone will know that it is real.

But Qin Yu didn't have so much time to wait, what he wanted was results in a short period of time.

In fact, it doesn't matter how the result is, what's important is to make people believe that titanium and rhodium alloy materials are the future!

Asking the court to endorse, Qin Yu also thought about...

After thinking about it, I feel that the problem will only get worse.

The confrontation between the East and the West is not a day or two, it is a matter of the struggle for national destiny.

Allowing the court to endorse will only provoke greater resistance, and the human rights lamp will not be able to control the media to smear it.

I want to persuade the human rights lamp, yes, no problem!

Come on, take out the things, and we will cut them apart and study them together.

When I figured it out, I was convinced by you.

I didn't understand that is fake.

Who has my big human rights and knows science and technology better, so many top experts in my family have not figured it out, can that be true?

Fake, it must be fake!!

How about you take out the formula and drawings, let me see and discuss...

As for why domestic experts are also studying in this area, that is to expose lies and prove that they are lying.

Our human rights lights are just and we are obliged to announce the truth to the public.

This is the consciousness of my human rights lamp (serious face.)

In short, you can't wake up a * who pretends to be asleep and plays rogue...

The people of this country will believe it, maybe they will have to push it, and the national pride will rise again.

It's good, but it doesn't help Qin Yu's next actions.

What Qin Yu has to do is to make money in the international market, not to cut leeks in China.

It is useless to believe in the domestic market. He has to convince foreigners that titanium and rhodium alloy materials are a major turning point for human science and technology to the universe.

For this reason, BlackRock chose to support Li Zhen's replacement of the court, and even split the three cores. Why?

Where does the confidence come from, and where are the benefits?

In the end, the answer will point to this new composite material.

At that time, under the trend of interest, even if some people don't believe it, some people will jump in willingly.

How important is the truth about making money?

The important thing is how to get the money into your own hands and run before others.

I don't need to know the truth, I just need to know whether this single can make money, and how much it can make is enough.

Ringling~

When the phone rang suddenly remembered, Yan Xue put Qin Yu in front of her mobile phone and said, "Boss, President Li's call."

"Huh?" After receiving the phone, Qin Yu's expression was a little bit more expectant.

After waiting for so long, naturally there will be a little anxious, human nature: "President Li, is there any good news?"

Chapter 696: Ilibera

Indeed, as Qin Yu thought, Li Zhen brought good news.

After many days of discussion, BlackRock agreed to provide support and asylum to Li Zhen.

To support her in changing the gate, Sanxin Semiconductor and The Shilla Hotel will independently form the Sanxin Group, led by her.

But the name cannot be changed, and the current name must be used, Sanxin.

"What do you think?" It doesn't matter how Qin Yu thinks, what matters now is what Li Zhen thinks.

She is the actual operator, and Qin Yu is a hitchhiker.

Although the money was given, the steering wheel was still controlled by Li Zhen.

She had to refuse to load, drive to the cliff with the broken car, or decay in place.

Can Brother Yu forcefully get in the car? Not so much!

Li Zhen took a deep breath, as if to calm his boiling emotions: "I agree."

The situation was much better than she had expected. Before she got the answer, she hadn't even thought that she would succeed.

During this time, Li Zhen was under tremendous pressure.

The elder brother in the prison palace frequently mobilized people to conduct all-round containment and surveillance on her.

Yes, even if Li Zhen had been extremely careful, he still received the news.

If the final answer is "No," Li Zhen will lose his capital in Smecta.

Because of her good brother, she will definitely be driven out of this country with his own hands.

Never set foot in your life! ! !

"Congratulations." Qin Yu smiled calmly.

"Thank you... Another thing, they may need your endorsement." Li Zhen briefly explained the situation.

BlackRock sees the huge potential in it, but it is in Qin Yu's hands, and they only have an experimental body the size of a palm.

Although Li Zhen gave an explanation, he should look for the right time to cooperate in the future.

At least let the court let go of opinions, otherwise Qin Yu would not be able to gain a foothold in the country, let alone make a fortune together.

But this kind of thing can't be guaranteed by her alone, and Qin Yu has to personally promise that the other party can rest assured.

Endorsement does not require any paper documents.

Qin Yu would not be stupid enough to agree to such a thing, unless he is a five-pointer...

But after checking and collecting information over and over again, I didn't see that he had a tendency of five cents!

So, make a call and get his personal promise. This is what BlackRock asked for.

"No problem, Sir Qin is the most trustworthy." Qin Yu responded.

Thinking with his * and knowing, the other party can't just leave evidence such as recordings as a threat to him.

If Qin Yu fails to say something, it will be much easier to make hands and feet with his original voice.

bring it on!

Who is afraid of grandchildren, Brother Yu offered to provide them, I'm afraid you won't be able to use it!

"Thank you." Li Zhen said a few more words and went to work.

In the next period of time, she will stay busy with her feet.

However, the busyness is worth it, and Li Zhen is full of energy.

The only thing she felt sorry for was half a year later.

Can she spare time to restore her body, complete her grand plan of borrowing seeds, combining strong forces, and continuing her bloodline genes.

Not long after the line was closed, Yan Xue's phone rang again.

International lines, encryption!

The moment Qin Yu pressed the answer button, Kylin, which invaded the satellite with the signal, had already taken over all control of the entire line.

"Hello, this is Mr. Qin." Qin Yu said with a smile.

A clear female voice came across: "Qin, I am Isabella Fink, a member of BlackRock's non-executive director..."

Fink, a member of the BlackRock founder family?

Qin Yu became interested, and it didn't matter whether the other party was a woman or not.

Scanning analysis system:

Isabella Fink.

Age: 17.

Height: 171cm.

Weight: 55kg.

Specialty: Digital analysis, language charm, IT engineer.

[Reminder: The target has a number of professional expertise and has great potential in the IT field, please treat it wisely]

Face value: 96-.

Body: 96-.

Mood value: 76↑↓.

Favorability: 65↑.

Freshness: 93.

Miracle belief value: 80.

Hiss~

This data is a bit small!

"Ilibela, nice to meet you, is Mr. Larry yours?" Qin Yu said.

"He is my father, Qin...Can I call you Qin?" Ilibela's mood increased slightly.

In the simple office, Ilibela, with a graceful figure and delicate face, sits behind a red cedar desk.

On the desk in front of her, there was Qin Yu's data file with photos. The lethality brought about by that side face is irrespective of nationality!

This is the trouble of being handsome, even just a photo can make a good first impression.

Sometimes the ending is doomed from the beginning.

"Of course, Ilibera." Qin Yu said.

"You can call me Bella, Qin." Ilibela said first.

"Well, Bella, should we talk about business?" Qin Yu decided to end the conversation soon when he saw Li Xiao coming by the door.

"Of course, Qin, BlackRock needs your commitment, and shareholders also need a bargaining chip to make them feel at ease."

Ilibera Fink came up to clarify the problem without any basis, and there was always something left to be reassuring.

Although BlackRock is in charge of huge resources, it is only in charge.

If you want to influence the decisions of these companies and impress the management, BlackRock also needs to pay a lot of money.

Those capital giants don't know what politeness is!

BlackRock paid a price that was visible and tangible, and you, Qin Yu, just made a promise.

Which one is lighter and heavier, I believe you know it for yourself.

The subtext is: Don't complain, I paid real money.

What BlackRock said was right, even Brother Yu couldn't refute it.

But this is to look at the problem from its standpoint, if it is from Qin Yu's standpoint.

The other party wants the technology and materials in his own hands, but now he just pays a small down payment to show his sincerity.

You have to pinch yourself in your hands and let the other party at the mercy.

In the end, the titanium rhodium alloy fell into the opponent's hands, and Qin Yu was certain that the opponent would kick him away without mercy.

Because of him, the inventor and founder, he will only get in the way at Belledry.

More because of his complexion, he is not trustworthy!

Just like Qin Yu would not trust the other party either, this kind of rejection and estrangement are embedded in his genes and cannot be eliminated.

"Hehe, I understand BlackRock's concerns. So, what do I need to do and promise to provide BlackRock with sufficient goods under appropriate conditions without external interference?"

"It's a titanium rhodium alloy. We need rough... It would be better if we can get the formula. I think everything in this world has its value."

Ilibera is not young, but his ambition is not young.

From the data point of view, she is afraid that she can also dominate the world...

"It's better for us to talk about the immediate matter first. At the right time and without interference from external forces, I will provide BlackRock or its designated institutions with enough titanium and rhodium alloys..."

"Raw stone." Ilibera Fink emphasized again.

"Rough titanium rhodium alloy, is this okay?" A soft voice came to Ilibera Fink's ears.

At the same time, it was put in the recorder on the table, and someone took the recorder to the next room.

Soon after, when the other party came back again, he nodded affirmatively at Ilibera Fink.

"I see your sincerity, Qin, I hope that next time we can face to face and talk in person, I am very interested in you."

"I also look forward to it." When that soft, smirking voice disappeared.

A mocking indifference flashed across Ilibera Fink's face, and she dropped the phone on the table.

The previous clever posture disappeared. She put her legs on the table in a short skirt and looked out the window with her head tilted: "How?"

"No problem His voice is almost the same as I thought." The gray-haired man said mockingly.

"If you have the ability of the other party, of course you can be the same as him, do you have it?" Ilibera suddenly looked back.

She hates the arrogance of incompetent people, even if the other party is a pervert, at least he has created one miracle after another.

Now, BlackRock has to give in and take the risk of cooperating with it.

This achievement alone, no matter how many women he possesses, it will only be enviable.

And this idiot in front of him, besides playing with women and spending money, what contribution does he have?

"Oh." Ilibera patted his head and suddenly said: "I forgot, you have continued enough blood for the family, countless * bastards."

The man's expression froze for an instant, and he said ugly: "I'm your uncle, Bella!"

"Don't call me that, we are not so familiar. If it were not for this blood relationship, I would definitely apply for a prohibition order to the court..."

In fact, I have made many suggestions to my father to get you out of the family. Unfortunately, his head is a bit broken and he turned down my kindness. "

Ilibera Fink's face was full of disgust and disgust, and anyone who was not blind could see it.

"Also, take your dog's eyes away from my crotch, do you want me to separate so you can see more clearly?"

The ridicule and disdain between the words, the anger that was dismantled, turned into anger, so that the other party was no longer left behind, and ran out of anger.

哐!

The door was heavily closed, and Ilibera brought her legs together again.

Indifferent sneered: "Useless garbage... what does Xia Guo say?"

After tilting his head and thinking for a long time, Ilibera's fingers on her head suddenly abruptly, and her eyes gleaming and said: "Incompetent barking, good dog, haha..."

Chapter 697: On the top of the caterpillar

Ilibera's bad personality, good at disguising falsehoods.

Qin Yu, who was ordering the captain to pull out of the sea, knew nothing about it.

The last passenger arrived just now, Rapo Erkan, who was running around the boat with excitement like a fool.

It seems that he should be able to play with Tongtong, they are as innocent and romantic as they are.

As for Brother Yu, he was listening to Li Xiao's complaint at the moment. It has been two months since the ship came back before he remembered calling everyone to get together.

"My fault, I will explain to the club later, Li Shao comes here and just use it."

Seeing Yang Chengjun pretending to be calm, facing Class A at the stern, the corner of his eye crazily hinted.

Qin Yu said amused: "There is also Young Master, you can use it anytime."

It's comfortable!

"Brother Yu, this boat is too big." Shen Dong returned with Xuan Xuan around.

"The boat is so beautiful!" Xuan Xuan said with eyes full of stars.

Such a luxury yacht worth more than 30 billion yuan, who will come and who will not be confused?

"Introduce you, Li Xiao, brother, Yang Chengjun, just call Brother Jun." When Qin Yu spoke, Li Xiao and Yang Chengjun both stood over.

The two of his characters are also considered to be understood, and those who can be brought to the boat must be his own people that he recognizes in his heart.

Regardless of whether there is interest, this point of face is always given: "I am Brother Yu's roommate, Shen Dong, this is my girlfriend, Xuan Xuan!"

Shen Dong introduced himself and shook hands with the two of them. "How did Brother Yu and Brother Yu meet?"

"This is a long story." Li Xiao smiled, and took him aside, seeming to be telling Shen Dong the story.

Xuan Xuan also followed, Yang Chengjun stayed and sat beside Qin Yu.

With a straight face, there was a faint smile at the corner of his mouth: "Cough, Brother Yu, do you know what the younger brother is up to lately?"

"Where do I know." Qin Yu curiously said: "Don't file a lawsuit, let's talk about it, let's have a good time together."

Good brothers must have blessings and share, and be in trouble!

If you have any fun, don't say it, let's have fun together...

"Chasing the girl." Yang Chengjun said, the corners of his mouth twitched upwards a few times.

Thinking of Li Xiao's recent performance, he, a professional, almost broke the score.

"??" Qin Yu asked his face.

What's so funny about chasing girls, isn't he chasing girls every day?

"The expression is inaccurate, it should be said to be...doing a dog licking!" Yang Chengjun said the point this time.

Licking the dog, expressing clearly, hit the nail on the head!

Brother Yu vomited on the spot: "Lick the dog, brother? Brother Jun, let's not be kidding."

His slogan is not "live till old, play till old," how could it be a dog lick.

"Remember the last time we went to the bar, the little brother said that when he saw a friend, he asked you to go first." Yang Chengjun asked.

Qin Yu immediately remembered, "Just the time when the mouse said he also had a friend?"

"Yes, just that time... the little brother came up and chased that girl." Yang Chengjun nodded.

Thinking of the flashing red dots on the map, Qin Yu understood a little bit.

After all, it's a 90+ lady, she's definitely okay in terms of appearance and figure, but let's say that Li Xiao becomes a licking dog...

Qin Yu is still full of doubts, how good is that woman, and it is worth Li Xiao to put down her body and do dog licking?

Yang Chengjun went on to talk about the girl's long hair fluttering, but just standing there gave people a particularly gentle feeling.

In Li Xiao's words: "I want to get married when I see her."

"Fuck!" Qin Yu was shocked, and asked quickly: "Really, did he say it himself?"

"I only had your expression at the time, but I didn't show it." Yang Chengjun's mouth sank, this was his expression with a wry smile.

If it hadn't been for a long time, I thought he was unhappy.

"That girl is Ye Mingzhu..."

"Wait, Ye Mingzhu?"

"No, the inscription of Mingcha, the bead of the bead."

"...You explain, how do I taste the smell of green tea?"

"Good intuition, it's not green tea, but it's pretty much the same."

"This kind of brother is still on?"

"How about calling the head??"

Yang Chengjun said, "What kind of brains are you talking about, if you still have brains, can you call them?"

"Missing your night?" Qin Yu said with a weird expression.

"What?" Yang Chengjun's expression was taken aback, obviously he didn't understand.

"It's okay, you continue to say..." Qin Yu waved his hand when nothing happened.

"Soldier, what are you talking about there?" Li Xiao suddenly turned around and shouted at Yang Chengjun: "Cheating on the roots of your tongue, nothing is tinkering."

"Who is chewing the tongue?" With the brothers together, Yang Chengjun was obviously more active than usual.

"I'll tell the truth, your brain has been eaten by Michaela."

Li Xiao laughed angrily, got up and rushed over, grabbing Yang Chengjun and dragging to the deck, "I think you have to go to the water to calm down."

"I'm telling you, you can't beat me with your hands, be rational." Yang Chengjun grabbed his wrist with one hand and said sternly.

"Hey (octave high) ~ I'm irrational today." Li Xiao scolded with a smile: "Anyway, you said it, I let the worms bite my brain."

Shen Dong and Xuanxuan stood beside Qin Yu, and asked a little worried: "They two, are you okay?"

"It's okay. Do daily work, just get used to it." Qin Yu lay lazily on the sofa, not worried at all.

In fact, Qin Yu felt that as long as the girl didn't have any bad thoughts, she could follow her little brother steadily.

It doesn't matter even if you are a tea master!

Who hasn't clicked it yet? Besides, people only need to follow Li Xiao and live their lives steadily.

Be a little careful, it doesn't matter if you worship money.

Brother has gold to lose, but it's not that it's impossible to unravel...

Why not find a better one, who makes him like it?

One is willing to fight, the other is willing to endure, you are not superfluous.

Besides, I didn't see anyone, before the real contact.

Qin Yu wouldn't make a final conclusion either, maybe she is a good girl who loves to laugh, and that is not impossible.

I was afraid that she would not feel at ease in her heart following the little brother.

Just like when you buy a car, you are not afraid to buy a second-hand luxury car. After you pack it up, we can still drive it, and it is very smooth to use.

I'm afraid that the former car owner still keeps the spare key, and runs around from time to time to drive.

You have to take care of yourself because of the high fuel consumption.

This is not right!

Just thinking that Li Xiao and Yang Chengjun were back, no one put them in the water.

The boat is driving, do you put it down and beat the meat sauce?

"Brother Yu, don't listen to the nonsense of the soldiers, I know it in my heart." Li Xiao sat next to him and took the initiative to talk about him and Ye Mingzhu.

"Girls are actually pretty good. It's okay to love to play. Who didn't like to play when they were young?"

I'm almost running three times now, my thoughts are different from before, and some things can be seen. "

"It's so open, why don't you go to become a monk?" Yang Chengjun wiped honey with a small mouth today, saying that the thief was nice.

"You have to be embarrassed with me today, right?" Li Xiao also couldn't laugh or cry.

This guy is hitting himself!

"I can't understand your...look. UU reading www.uukanshu.com" Seeing that Shen Dong and Xuanxuan are still there, Yang Chengjun definitely saves him some face.

The word licking dog still didn't say it.

"You don't want to see me settle down?" Li Xiao asked back.

This gave Yang Chengjun a stunned statement. The brother wanted to settle down, get married and start a family, and have children and daughters. How could he not be happy for his brother.

can...

"Soldier, this is the first time I have the urge to marry." Li Xiao looked at him seriously: "Some people can't be treated with reason."

"Do you really want to get married?" Qin Yu asked.

"Yes, seeing her is like seeing the future." Li Xiao thought for a while, and then said: "Even if the risk value is too high, I want to try."

"Don't blame my brother for not reminding you that the prenuptial agreement is to be done." Qin Yu gave him a piece of advice without saying anything else.

Since even he himself mentioned 'the value of risk is high,' the necessary risk aversion plan is still to be done.

Otherwise, in the end, both people and wealth are empty, and it is him who suffers the most.

"I know." Li Xiao nodded, even if Qin Yu didn't remind him, the family would let him do it well.

Otherwise, no matter how persistent he persists, he will not be able to pass the hurdle at home.

Xuan Xuan sat aside and listened quietly, unconsciously holding Shen Dong's hand getting stronger and stronger.

"What's the matter?" Shen Dong asked softly in his ear.

"It's nothing... It's just that I'm not used to it." Xuan Xuan grinned reluctantly, biting in his ear and said.

Regarding marriage as a business, there is still a risk assessment.

Is it true of rich people?

"Don't worry, the others are others, and I am me." Shen Dong said with a light smile.

Xuan Xuan looked at his serious expression and nodded heavily, his eyes again showing expectation and happiness.

She really felt that she had chosen the right one this time.

Chapter 698: Brother, please stop talking

"Qin, this boat is amazing, oh my god, I love her to death." Rapo Erkan exaggerated, who came out of nowhere.

He was still holding the running crazy Tongtong in his arms. This kid was holding Elkann's neck, hooking his shoulders like a buddy.

"I can introduce Blohm+Voss to you." Qin Yu smiled.

"Farewell, I can't afford this extravagant big toy." Rapo Erkan put Tongtong down, and the familiar one greeted the others.

"Prince Fiat, Rapo Elkan, you guys know each other."

Qin Yu introduced his identity, and the rest of Li Xiao and Yang Chengjun naturally knew how to create topics.

"Dongzi, Xuanxuan, go, take you to the sunshine room." Qin Yu said, clapping his hands to Tongtong:
"Take you to see the scenery."

"Oh!"

With his hands up, Tongtong stepped on the sofa and jumped into his arms, yelling happily: "Chong, Chong Chong..."

So aggressive at a young age, this kid is a big talent!

"Where is your mother?" Qin Yu asked curiously as he walked to the top sun room with Tongtong.

"Mom slept in the room and said she was tired." Tongtong said.

"Did you not rest last night?" Qin Yu said.

"Well, I heard my grandfather said that in order to bring Tongtong to play, my mother worked overtime to finish the work last night." Tongtong looked around excitedly, her face showing no apology and distress.

Boys of this age are at the wildest time.

In another 10 years, I may not know how to feel sorry for people, let alone now...

"You kid, you have to know how to love your mother. As a little man, you have to take care of her. This is what a man should do, don't you know?"

Rubbing the boy's head, although Qin Yu was smiling, his tone was serious.

Tongtong raised his head and looked at him strangely. After hesitating, he asked suspiciously, "Didn't you have a brother?"

"..." The hand touching his head stiffened in vain, and then the force became gentle.

Gently helping him to get his hair done, Qin Yu sat on his shoulders with him, killing him all the way to the sun room.

"Wow~" Tongtong cheered as soon as he entered the door, the beveled corners on both sides, like arrows.

The sun shattered, illuminating the room into a warm golden color...

When I came to the glass and looked down, the waves from the sea surface splashed on both sides when the bow broke open.

Suddenly, two dolphins jumped out of the sea more than ten meters away, and then led the way in front of the bow like a navigator, jumping up and down like lightning.

"Dolphin, it's a dolphin!" Tongtong clapped his hands excitedly.

Next to him, Shen Dong hugged Xuanxuan, letting her put her head in her arms, and watched the dream scene of the line of Tianshui with dolphins as the companion.

When the ship stopped, the sky was already dark.

The lights of the entire ship were all turned on, and the 360-degree infrared tracking searchlights at the top of the bow and stern were on.

It can automatically target humans, capture and follow, and ensure that there is sufficient light in the water at night.

At this time, the sun had just set.

The sea water was still warm. After the boat was parked, Rapo Erkan, Li Xiao and Yang Chengjun, who were already well-acquainted, immediately decided to go racing.

Two motorboats were automatically pushed out from the side of the hull, and the card slot bounced after falling on the water: "There are only two, you can figure it out."

After Qin Yu said that he was holding Tongtong to the diving deck, the little guy kept clamoring that he wanted to go into the water.

Ya Lan also woke up at this time, sitting on the sofa looking out at the sea in a daze.

"Dongzi, why didn't you see your second brother?" Qin Yu was a little curious. He hadn't seen him since he got on the boat. Where did he go?

Shen Dong teased, "Stop looking, he is soaking in the pool below!"

"...Where are you going to take a bath?" Brother Yu threw up when he saw Shen Dong sighing and nodding.

You really came to play on a boat. Is the sea less attractive to you than a swimming pool?

This pattern is smaller.

Knowing that others were on the boat, Qin Yu did not spoil his interest in taking a bath.

Come out and play, as long as you are happy.

What to play, how to play is up to you...

"Hold me, don't let go." Qin Yu asked Tongtong to put his arms around his neck and led him down the stairs into the water.

Yalan stood up on the sofa, walked to the edge of the deck and asked worriedly, "Xiaoyu, can you?"

"No problem, I'm good at water, and he still carries this." Qin Yu pointed to the floating sleeve on Tongtong's arm and the floating board on his back.

There is a small fluorescent green flag on the floating board, which can be seen even if it is far away.

Safety is his top priority, how could he take Tongtong into the water without preparing for anything.

"Then be careful." Seeing Qin Yu's preparations, Ya Lan also agreed to let him go to the party.

However, the two are still required not to leave the ship too far.

This is my mother, who will always have the heart to fuck, and you will never be able to convince her to let it go.

Wow~

Pulling aside the water, Qin Yu drew out against the water like a seal.

Tongtongza was lying in his arms, sliding his head up against the water.

The shapes of the two really resemble the appearance of the father and son of dolphins...

"Fun, giggle~" Tongtong laughed happily.

"Do you want to play something more fun?" Qin Yu asked.

"Yes." Tongtong shouted.

Which kid can refuse fun games?

Asking him to relax his arms around his neck, Qin Yu's body sank slightly, turned over, facing the water, and let Tongtong sit on his back.

Lifting his head and looking forward, Qin Yu said with a smile: "Go."

Taking a deep breath, the person immediately disappeared into the water, keeping a distance of about 5cm from the surface.

Tongtong stood on the surface of the water, his knees were submerged by the water, and as soon as he grasped his shoulders, his whole body flashed backwards suddenly.

Fortunately, his hand was tight enough, after being flashed down, he immediately sat upright and watched himself rush forward like an arrow.

"Fuck~" is racing on the water...

No, it was Yang Chengjun who was on the speedboat who was shocked. He tilted his head and looked at the child like taking off on the water.

As for the underwater, only an arrow-like white wave can be seen breaking the water surface, and two small waves spreading on both sides of Tongtong.

It is like a petal made of water, caring for his safety and escorting him.

Perceiving that Yang Chengjun stopped, Rapo Erkan stood up happily, trying to show off his victory.

The Tongtong who was sitting "flying" on the sea brought him into his eyes: "F-K, oh Leishet~"

Mom, I found Superman Kid!

Rapo Erkan people are stupid, what's the situation, is that child the son of Poseidon?

Buzzing~

Dragging a series of waves to the stern, Yang Chengjun asked with a dull face, "What's the situation?"

Knowing that Qin Yu was below, Yang Chengjun nodded suddenly.

Then the expression became more horrified in an instant, "This, are you kidding?"

Next is Brother Yu, not a high-horsepower underwater propeller Are you making trouble with me, right?

Knowing that it is indeed Qin Yu, Yang Chengjun's whole person is not good.

The speedboat's mind immediately faded.

What are you soaring? People swim faster than you in the water, so fart!

Rapo Erkan also returned, his face in a trance, fearing that he would be hit hard.

When Qin Yu came back with Tongtong who was happily calling out, all he saw were faces with weird looks and 'monsters' written in the bottom of his eyes.

"What's the matter?" Qin Yu asked casually, draping a towel over her ears.

"What's wrong? (An eighth degree high Li Xiao pointed at him, looked at the crowd and said, "Listen, this is human speech?"

"Brother Yu, be a man!" Yang Chengjun couldn't help but complain.

This is too embarrassing, because the mouse is not there, otherwise it will be a full sentence!

Behind the crowd, Xuan Xuan asked with a look of fear: "Brother Yu has always been like this..."

The word abnormal sounded ambiguous, and she was not embarrassed to say it.

Shen Dong smiled bitterly and nodded: "You can treat him as a Superman."

In fact, he also added two big double quotes in his heart.

"metamorphosis!"

The scene just now was really outrageous. Have you ever seen a swimmer faster than a motorboat?

Eh, you saw it today.

It's so unreasonable...

"Don't look at me with that strange expression. In fact, the speed of sailfish can reach 120 kilometers per hour.

As long as we learn how fish use their power, humans can also break through their limits. There is science..."

"Brother, brother." Li Xiao was next to her body, pressing his arms with both hands and begged: "Please, stop talking."

You also said that it was a sailfish.

You swim alone like a swordfish, and you turn your head and tell me that you want to believe in science...

me.....

Chapter 699: Stop fighting, I choose Red Bull

The night is quiet, futuristic-Rhapsody Paradise.

Blowing in the cool night breeze, my mood was like being touched by a pair of gentle hands, becoming tranquil.

Everyone also lost the initial excitement, holding snacks or drinks in their hands, each looking for a corner to chat and laugh with each other and wait for the meal.

Yan Er also came out of the "bathroom", his skin was still jet black, and he didn't see him turn white.

"Come up without taking a shower?" Qin Yu joked.

"Hey!" Yan Erjian smiled: "I'm not embarrassed to think about it."

Brother Yu gave a thumbs up and took it.

"Brother, I still want to eat." Tongtong licked the spoon and put the small clean dish in front of his eyes.

"Okay, I will take you there now." Qin Yu took his hand and walked to the restaurant.

It will be very late, although the lights are on everywhere, but if a wave comes, accidents will happen if you are not careful.

Little children, if you have a temperament, it is better for someone to follow.

This bear kid is not a fuel-efficient lamp!

"Dongzi, what are you talking about?" After Qin Yu left, Yan Er raised his head in the direction he was leaving with a smile on his face.

"It should be a friend, the child is so old." With a guilty glance at Xuan Xuan next to him, Shen Dong decided to hold his hand firmly.

"What's the matter then." Yan Er is alone today, waiting to be thrown away with a basket of Sao talk!

"The football still has a goalkeeper! Don't you still score goals?" With a grin, Yan Er drew off the champagne in the glass, "I'll have another glass."

On a luxury private yacht worth tens of billions, drinking a glass of Don Perignon Champagne King worth thousands of dollars.

Yan Er's mentality is not calm anymore...

Should I hurry up and work hard to live the leisurely life after retirement?

Just rely on the current car rental business, let alone this crazy paradise.

He couldn't afford the Pershing 155, the high-speed yacht named Super Silver.

I just heard them say that the annual maintenance fee for that yacht will cost 26 million yuan.

...It takes a few years for a person to earn money for maintaining a yacht for a year.

Yan Er admitted that his salted fish mentality was broken.

It's too shocking! !

"What were you talking about just now, football, goalkeeper, goal?" After Yan Er left, Xuan Xuan looked at Shen Dong with a smile.

Although she hasn't obtained a driver's license for a long time, she is still a naive novice.

But I have never eaten pork, I have always seen pigs run.

You must know that she was a recognized jokeman in the dormitory when she was in school.

It's hard to pretend that you don't understand the obscure hint.

"I don't know, I didn't understand, it's not me." Shen Dong chose to be honest, he didn't understand the hint.

Wouldn't you say something directly?

His EQ is not high and he can't do sorrowful work...

On the second deck, in the dining room.

Rapo Erkan is arguing with Li Xiao whether it is a strong jumping horse or a strong bull.

"Stop fighting, I choose Red Bull!" Qin Yu, who brought Tongtong for dessert, interrupted the dispute between the two and gave the final answer.

Your death is beyond imagination!

There are those two blood cows, what horses, cows, leopards, sheep.

All stand aside...

"Brother Yu, we are talking about cars." Li Xiao helplessly.

"Why, Renault is not a car?" Qin Yu replied: "Red Bull Four Champions, can't it?"

"I prefer the Tutu Tutu rally of Bayati." Elkan made a two-handed grip, twisting the throttle and sprinting.

"I'll do that car, let's have a game when it gets ashore." Yang Chengjun interrupted.

"Brother Jun, I am not attacking you, he is a professional F1 driver." Qin Yu pointed to Elkan and said.

Don't look at him as if he doesn't do business all day, but he has a lot of skills.

"Really." The two were shocked, F1 drivers, it's not that you can be a good car.

Training a driver is more difficult than building a car.

Just manipulating the steering wheel can stump percent of the people and get rid of it.

At extreme speeds, 30kg of power is required to control the steering wheel, which is a job with the same high standards of technology and physical strength.

Yes, there is no help.

This is considered in terms of weight, speed, handling and demand.

Those who like Senna should know that after a game, Senna's fingers were so numb that he needed the staff to break off the steering wheel one by one.

Big heart, when the body accelerates laterally, the driver's heartbeat can reach 190+

And this process will continue for 90 minutes until the end of the game.

Perhaps it does not reflect its difficulty in this way, so in terms of the comprehensive qualities of reaction, observation, judgment, and the ability to bear the G value.

The quality of F1 drivers can be considered the strongest among all athletes.

Some people joked that there are more than 200 countries in the world, and there are more than 200 heads of state, but F1 racers have never exceeded 100, which is rarer than the heads of state.

Drivers in other races are not comparable to F1 drivers.

To exaggerate, it is a dimensionality reduction blow!

The easiest way to gauge whether a person is a F1 driver is to look at the neck.

When you find that his neck and head proportions are similar, and he has a strong body and a strong body, then he may be a real driver.

Why look at the neck?

Because when turning corners in F1 races, you have to withstand a lateral acceleration of more than 3.5G. At this time, your neck is equivalent to being pulled by a 50-kilogram weight.

Imagine if your neck is like a Budao clan, the moment you turn...

Tear it!

F1 will turn into a realistic version of the * hurricane, with flesh and blood flying all over the place.

Observing carefully, the two of them believed what Qin Yu said.

Elkann's neck is really thick.

Although not as exaggerated as an F1 racer, it is also a bit stouter than normal.

Earlier, the two really didn't pay attention to this.

"I have never participated in a competition, I just received systematic training, and later learned that my neck would get thicker and thicker, so I gave up."

Rafa Elkan said with a smile. What he didn't say was that, in addition to strength training, other focus and reaction training.

He has kept it over the years, which helps him concentrate and make himself more focused and outstanding.

Qin Yugang said that he is F1 professional, referring to technique, control, reaction and focus.

"Although this guy is a foreigner, he is good at pretending to be a pig and eating a tiger. He can't believe a word of what he says."

Asking Tongtong to sit on the sofa to eat his cake, Qin Yu sat down next to Elkan, laughing and bumping him with his shoulder.

"Qin, you are slandering." Elkan stretched out his arm around his shoulder and laughed.

"No, this is compliment." Qin Yu retorted.

"Boss, dinner is ready." Yan Xue, who was in charge of preparing the dinner, showed up at the restaurant with a team of chefs.

In a white coat, behind one hand, dragging a silver dinner plate with his right hand, standing neatly on both sides of the table waiting for the guests to serve.

The dishes have to wait for the guests to be seated ~ www.mtlnovel.com~ a particular batch!

"Hey, I have dinner." Qin Yu stood on the second deck and shouted to the three people Shen Dong below.

"Here." Shen Dong waved his hand and brought Xuan Xuan up with Yan Er.

"Sit all, Dongzi, you sit here, second brother, you sit next to me." Seeing the three of them was a little restrained, and didn't know where to go, Qin Yu directly arranged.

Let Yan Er sit next to him, Shen Dong used to be, and then Xuan Xuan.

On the other side, Li Xiao asked Rafa Erkan to sit opposite Yan Er. The visitors were guests. We must be the host with good wine and good meat.

The jackal is coming, hehe...

No matter who he is or how big he is, he can't get on this boat.

Li Xiao was next to Erkan, and Yang Chengjun was not sitting beside him, he was lined up behind Yalan.

Yan Xue was sitting next to Xuanxuan, Tongtong was being held by Qin Yu.

This kid was a little clingy, and he didn't want to leave Qin Yu's side for a minute. Yalan's call didn't work.

It's rare to get together today, happy, let this bear kid presumptuously once!

The dishes are on the table, and the waiters pour the wine.

It wasn't Don Perignon that I drank at this time, but it was replaced by Shaoxing Huadiao.

The wine was brought by Yang Chengjun, an authentic old-fashioned flower carving.

In order to get this jar of flower carving, he went all out and 'lent' the old man's collection.

After the trip was over, he had to hide for a few days.

These two old flower carvings are the lifeblood of the old man's treasure. If he does not go out for two days, he is afraid that his leg will be broken.

Of course, this can't be told to others.

This is not the case when Li Xiao asked him "This wine is really good," Yang Chengjun responded particularly nicely: "Go."

In fact, my heart is 'suddenly' jumping non-stop.

It's even more joyous than the three jumpers in the rally, and it's almost straight out.

Chapter 700: This data, Nice~

Qin Yu stayed on the ship for three days, and the outside world stared at the institution invested by Lixin for three days.

Doesn't this mean that Lixin has actions?

For three days in a row, there was no sound at all, and Qin Yu floated to the sea until he lost contact.

According to the information summarized after the fact, every time Lixin Investment takes action, he will personally sit down.

There are no exceptions for several trades. What happened this time?

Or is it... the news is fake?

Some people began to retreat, while others continued to wait patiently.

More often they sneered: "It's just a few good luck hits. I really used him as a golden boy."

After staying in this business for a long time, you will know that all geniuses are false.

Anyone who can persist in this business for more than ten years, there is no amazing show operation when he enters the business.

Just like someone who hasn't been praised as a genius.

What happens in the end? It's not like everyone else is reduced to the dust and reduced to the parts of the big machine.

So don't take genius too seriously.

Those who can step on the drumbeat of the wave of the times are the real sons of heaven.

There is no way out of mountains and rivers, and there is another village in the dark.

Every time there is a reversal of a predicament, there must be divine assistance in doing things. This is the real protagonist of the times, the waver.

The young man from Lixin walked so smoothly.

This kind of person can't withstand the storm, a wave is photographed, the person is gone, it is not worth mentioning.

The disturbances in the outside world have nothing to do with Qin Yu. He was on the boat, fishing leisurely.

The sea breeze is blowing waves, and in the distance is the laughter of friends playing in the water.

Whatever!

"Boss, Mr. Jiang's call." Yan Xue's voice was somewhat soft and inertia.

In the past two days, she has been tossed so hard that every time Qin Yu was beaten with blood.

Yan Xue always felt that this had something to do with the one called Yalan.

There was still a little bit of resentment in my heart, "You want to toss her, why do you keep getting angry with me? Go!"

"Aluo." Qin Yu held the pole in his hand and pressed the phone to his ear.

"Brother." Jiang Luo said with a smile: "According to your instructions, everything is ready."

"BlackRock's news should also come. Sanxin will definitely pay a lot of attention, but experts will focus on the stock market. Has anyone entered the market recently?"

"Yes, the other party was very careful and scattered hundreds of households to enter the venue. If we hadn't been staring at it, it would be difficult to find.

"What about the price?" Qin Yu asked.

"Non-ferrous metals rose 1.7 percent, and the others were all around 1 percent."

"Well, stay calm and wait for my message!" Qin Yu closed his eyes and leaned on the chair after hanging up the phone.

"Kirin, look up the source of funds." Qin Yu issued detailed instructions to Kirin.

Three minutes later, Kirin found the man behind the scenes, Wall Street giant, Citibank.

BlackRock, Qin Yu first thought of it.

Except for BlackRock, no one should be able to guess Qin Yu's purpose.

The other party can use Lixin's capital mobilization, combined with recent business trends, to analyze his purpose.

It seems that I underestimated BlackRock's energy.

The other party not only wants to take a bite on him, the other party will not give up any opportunity to make money.

The news has not been announced.

Perhaps it was because the other party discovered his intentions and was gaining enough preparation time for Citigroup.

In a lake, lurking two giant crocodiles with sharp teeth and long claws, waiting for the opportunity to move.

Fortunately, this lake is big enough...

This is this wave of leeks, I am afraid it is a bit miserable!

Lixin and Flowering will naturally not be small fish and shrimps.

But there are no eggs under the nest, and the aftermath is enough for retail investors.

I don't know how many people are going to lose their fortunes because of this.

Those who listen to the rumors, have no idea about stocks, futures, and securities, and are fooled into the market.

Who do you cut without cutting? ? ?

Bell Bell Bell...

The phone rang again, this time it was Qin Yu's cell phone.

Caller: Auntie.

Qin Yu frowned, and the moment he pressed the answer button, there was a burst of laughter: "Auntie..."

"Xiaoyu, it's really hard to make calls to you, a busy person."

"Busy, mainly because it's too busy."

"It's better to be busy, and it's better to be busy." I said, but I didn't agree with it in my heart.

It's not that she didn't miss the news that Qin Yu went to sea on a yacht.

When he hung up, he looked as tired as he had been in a battle.

"Tell President Jiang that there will be a 2 million capital guarantee that will be credited before two o'clock in the afternoon." Qin Yu waved weakly.

He doesn't mind taking his family with him to make money. Outsiders can bring it, but there is nothing in the family that they can't bring.

Anyway, Lixin will not lose money, and the cost is as much as it should be. No one can touch this line.

But this kind of regards money as life and does not understand the performance of satisfaction.

Qin Yu finds it difficult to adapt...

Seeing his exhausted look, Yan Xue felt empathetic and full of sympathy.

She was almost forced to commit suicide by jumping off the building by some uncles.

Since then, family affection has been like poison to her.

"Mr. Jiang said I received it." Yan Xue sent a message, and the other party responded in seconds.

"Huh, huh?" Qin Yu opened his eyes and turned back: "Have you received the money?"

"Well, it's already paid." Yan Xue nodded.

"..." Silently shaking his head, Qin Yu lifted the bait and waved forward again.

Click!

The fish floats steadily falling into the water undulate in the ripples, drifting with the waves.

Xu caught two tiger head fish in the morning because of his mood.

It looks ugly, grinning, and the dorsal fin is full of spikes, which makes people look disgusted.

Qin Yu did the same. He threw the hook back into the sea and cursed: "Unlucky!"

The fish didn't want to catch it anymore, so the crew members took the fishing rod, and the people walked to the stern of the boat.

Leaning on the stern and watching Tongtong playing with Yalan, she just saw his displeased look:

"What's the matter? Someone makes you unhappy now?"

"Huh..." Chang Shu let out a sigh of relief, and Qin Yu said with a smile: "The trivial things at home are upset."

"People are so worldly, who can be alone." Ya Lan said with a smile.

"If you are poor, you will be good by yourself." Qin Yu said amusedly.

"Yeah, who made you not a poor person!" After Yalan finished speaking, she thought about it and asked, "How long shall we stay at sea?"

"Why, tired?" Qin Yu sat beside her, saw a glass of champagne on the table, picked it up, and gave it to her mouth.

Ya Lan raised her hand, her mouth wide open to stop it.

But before it had time, the wine was drunk by Qin Yu.

"What's the matter?" Qin Yu asked in surprise, seeing her weird expression.

"...Mine." Yalan pointed to the cup unnaturally, and a faint blush appeared on her face.

"Oh, I don't dislike it." Qin Yu said with a natural expression.

Of course he knew that it was Yalan's cup, so he would drink a glass of wine instead of being so stingy.

Ya Lan was angrily laughed, "If you want to dislike it, I dislike you."

"How is it possible, I rely on my face to eat." Qin Yu rubbed his chin and said narcissistically.

"Your cheek is getting thicker and thicker." Ya Lan said, her eyes flowed.

He...seems to be handsome again.

Can't tell the specific changes but it just makes people feel very comfortable.

Looking closely, Yalan's heartbeat speeded up inexplicably, her body became too hot and hot, and a faint sweat rose on her forehead.

"Huh~"

Don't overdo it in a hurry, Ya Lan fanned the wind with her hand, and said eloquently, "What's the matter with today's weather, it's hot and stuffy!"

"Is there?" The person who looked at the ends of her hair being blown by the wind and the cool sea breeze in the air was relaxed physically and mentally, and didn't feel the heat!

"Of course, you men are dull." Ya Lan fanned him with a hand and got up and walked into the cabin with a sideways glance.

She is going to blow up the air conditioner to cool down her mood.

By the way, stay away from Qin Yu...

This little man is like a poison filled with hormones, with a lethal temptation.

No, no, can't think about it anymore!

If she thinks about it this way, she will not only have to blow air-conditioning to cool down.

You have to take a shower and change your clothes...

Looking at the last [Analysis of Data], how did Qin Yu feel that this is the system forcing himself to play?

Come, come, you come out of the system, I promise not to kill you.

We always do color, are we where we do color?

That's right, here it is, hehehe...

After enduring it for so long, Brother Yu still couldn't hold back to look at Yalan's data.

And this data did not disappoint him.

To sum it up, just two words: Nice~
