Chapter 731: Star core

After a busy night, several acupuncture and moxibustion finally cured Lu Qing's hysteria.

The next day, Qin Yu, who got up, first called He Wu and asked him to pick him up at the hotel instead of going home.

"Are you leaving so early?" Lu Qing, who had not yet woken up, opened his tired eyes and looked at him and lay down again.

I'm so tired that I can't use any strength in my body.

It seems to be taking a leave of absence today!

"Well, the ticket has been booked, and there is a contract waiting for me to sign it." Qin Yu kissed her face and said softly.

"Be careful on the road, remember to tell Xiaomei and ask for leave for me." Lu Qing muttered, her consciousness sinking into a drowsy.

Five shots in one night, no one can withstand it!

At the entrance of the hotel meeting with He Wu, Qin Yu was talking with Xu Meixin: "The key is at the front desk. I have already explained it. Drive back to the parking garage."

His Kawasaki was remodeled, and he couldn't buy it back for any money he lost.

The car is arranged here, and there is still an hour to the airport, and Qin Yu intends to take a look inside the monster.

As soon as he opened his eyes, two rows of mechanical warriors appeared in front of him, Xing Tian.

"Respectfully welcome the coming of the chairman." A row of six, a total of 12 Xingtian soldiers knelt on one knee, sending him a lofty greeting.

Qin Yu: ^

Walking out of the sanctuary in silence, Refuge No. 18, which was in a big change, came into view.

The aisle that originally could only accommodate two people was widened enough to drive two cars side by side.

All kinds of machinery are rushed to and fro, full of tension and seriousness.

The residence was opened up as a warehouse or laboratory, and all non-core members were moved to other bases.

Here, there is no longer a "birthplace."

"President, I learned that you are coming, and the saint is on the way."

It is a doctor. He has been staying in Refuge No. 18, which has also been regarded as the core of the healing house by default.

"Where is the candidate for ascendant?" Time is limited, and Qin Yu wants to see the little girl first.

In addition, he would like to hear an explanation.

Why are there so many people, the last one selected is a scrawny little girl.

"Her eyes were blinded by radiation, her spine and legs were necrotic, and her arms were deformed. Although it looks normal, it is actually"

Seeing lying on the side of the bed with dull eyesight, deafness in both ears, and no canned food in his whole body, Qin Yu was silent.

"In fact, the Healing Institute thought it was a little wasted to give her such a precious opportunity, and there are more suitable candidates."

"That's her." Qin Yu interrupted him.

The doctor opened his mouth and said nothing in the end.

Weighing the pros and cons, this girl named "Canned" is not the most suitable.

When she was born, Futra had already fallen, and she was affected by radiation in her womb.

It can be said that it is a miracle of life to grow up to this size.

Perhaps because of this, Ann selected her and became the second ascendant.

However, in terms of value alone, this decision is undoubtedly unreasonable.

but

Now that he and the saint affirmed this, what can he say?

I hope that this transformation will not become a lesson of failure.

"Now I am preparing for the operation." Looking at the time, he can stay for about 4 hours.

When the time comes, the doctor will take over. After boarding the plane, Qin Yu will come back and continue to complete the next part.

In fact, this transformation is easier than Ann's.

Because there is no need to consider the issue of limb preservation and aesthetics, the spine will also be completely replaced by a metal spine.

A metal spine was built on her back, controlled by a chip implanted in the back of the neck, including the upper and lower limbs, which is also responsible for the chip.

Before the operation, Qin Yu communicated with the doctor about the overall reconstruction plan.

For an almost comprehensive transformation, the first thing to ensure is the defense capabilities of the chip.

Because after the transformation is completed, all her actions basically rely on the intellectual brain to control.

Therefore, once someone breaks through, then she will lose control of her body, and even become a puppet controlled by the other party.

In terms of chip encryption, there is no one who reassures Qin Yu more than Kirin.

"Beast, find your father." Qin Yu said quietly in his mind.

"Actually, it is just my creator. For us, human beings are positioned in a narrow sense, and"

"Want to try the feeling of formatting?" Qin Yu responded indifferently.

"My father is already online!" The beast chose to follow his heart.

"Qin, are you sure you want to do this?" Qilin didn't need to speak, and based on his understanding of him, Qilin analyzed what he wanted to do.

Set up a triple firewall for the brain, and it is the technology obtained by it to break the Genesis of Turing.

"Of course, in this way, except for you, I don't think anyone can break its defense." Qin Yu said.

"Yes, at least not in the known records." Qilin responded.

"Let's start, it's yours." Put the chip the size of the thumb of the thumb in the surgical box, and Qin Yu and the doctor started physical therapy.

As for canned food, her nerves have been completely paralyzed.

Otherwise, what you get after the treatment will not be an ascendant, but a fool with a nervous breakdown.

At 4 hours and 17 minutes, Qin Yu noticed that someone was waking him up.

Qin Yu, who had just finished intercepting his left leg, put down the tools in his hand, took off his mask and said: "Next to you, I will be back within an hour."

"Understood." The doctor can still handle the interception of the left leg.

Opening his eyes, Qin Yu heard He Wu saying: "Boss, here we are."

"Yeah." Carrying his luggage, He Wu refused to want to help, Qin Yu speeded up and walked to the waiting room.

"How long will it take to board the flight? Is it late?" Qin Yu asked about the exact boarding time as soon as he entered the lounge.

"Mr. Qin, the flight you selected is not delayed. You will be able to board in about 15 minutes."

"Okay, thank you." Sitting on the sofa, Qin Yu closed his eyes and slumbered, tapping his fingers on the armrest frequently.

He Wu was surprised. The boss looked a little anxious. Is something wrong?

At this time, Qin Yu, who closed his eyes and rested his mind, was communicating the surgical plan with Qilin, looking for the most perfect reconstruction plan.

During the exchange, time passed quietly, and the ground boarding came to inform them that it was time to board the plane.

"Welcome, Mr. Qin." Entering the cabin, Qin Yu kept walking past the stewardess, sitting in his own place.

He took out his blindfold and put it on, and he returned to Futra Star, the healing place.

"This handsome guy is so cold!" Looking at Qin Yu who was sleeping on the seat, the senior flight attendant whispered to the flight attendant.

"Do your job well, isn't it good? Does it have to find something for you to do?" the flight attendant said calmly.

"I."

The stewardess rolled her eyes and joked: "Oh, I'm not anxious to feed you, what do you think of this, it must be suitable for you."

"Don't." The flight attendant shook his head and said: "I have no life, let alone that blessing, I can't help it.

I, I want to find someone who is safe and honest to live my little life peacefully and steadily. "

"Sister!" The stewardess curled her lips and said sarcastically: "Don't forget, the most fickle thing in this world is nothing but people's hearts. Honestly today, can he be honest for a lifetime?"

The indicator light turned on and the conversation ended. The flight attendant took the walkie-talkie indifferently on the surface, but cast his eyes toward the window seat like being attracted by magnetic force.

This man is weird! ! !

"The left foot signal test of the drive shaft, the right foot signal test"

In the operating room, Qin Yu finished the last assembly and finally stopped to wipe his sweat when he had time.

The process of full concentration of body and mind, the original single exhaustion is even more exhausting.

"Okay, only the last item is left." As Qin Yu's voice fell, everyone turned their eyes to the box on the table.

Inside, it is the power core that needs to be put into the heart of the "can".

It comes from a high-level demon, but it is not the core of the other party, but one of that demon's collection.

Following the opponent to the lair, Ann leads the most elite demon hunters to make surprise attacks at night.

After paying the price of three people and unable to find a chance to obtain the core, he had to choose to smash the core and behead the opponent.

However, they found a good thing in each other's collection.

The mechanical heart is a spherical mechanical power core formed by layering layers of belt-shaped metal strips on the periphery.

When Ann tried to activate the core, the metal belt on the outside bloomed layer by layer, revealing the cool dark blue luster inside.

"Are you sure that the Ministry of Science and Technology's speculation is correct?" Opening the box, Qin Yu took a metal ball with a diameter of less than 8 in his hand.

His movements appeared very careful, as if he was afraid of touching something accidentally.

If the Ministry of Science and Technology's inference is correct, then what he is holding now is not a simple power core.

But a compressed planet

Chapter 732: It's not too poor for the shabby room

Blue dwarf, a planet compressed to the size of a toy ball.

What about putting such a core into the body as the power core of the human body?

Qin Yu didn't know, the doctor didn't know, Qilin couldn't calculate it either!

But it is very stable, which is certain.

Otherwise, Qin Yu would not agree to put this "planetary power core" into the can.

"Go!" As Qin Yu spoke, the old mechanical arm on the operating table grabbed the young body and turned her over on the bed.

Next, is the crucial part.

Linking the power core, machinery and flesh and blood, the pain involved in the nerves cannot be completely paralyzed.

As a result, a miserable cry came from the cave.

It is said that in the next few days, people at the base have been having nightmares.

I often wake up suddenly with a shrill desperate scream, sweating profusely

With the last spine passing the test, the transformation is over!

"It's over." As soon as the voice fell, a pair of dark blue electronic eyes suddenly opened.

boom!

The strong shock hit suddenly, and the doctor and others were blown out without resistance.

The whole person was pushed against the wall by a strong impulse, his complexion turned purple, and his breathing became difficult.

Dust and smoke flew, cracks appeared on the stone wall above the head, and gravel mixed with dirt and flew under the impact.

Seeing that the entire operating room was about to collapse, a big hand suddenly stretched out from the dust and smoke.

Press it straight and firmly on the face of the "can".

Boom!

The whole person was so unresisted, he was pushed back on the bed with a big hand, "Be quiet!"

The dull voice, with irresistible commands.

The violent little girl's expression was dazed, her dark blue electronic eyes looked in the direction of the sound.

The focal length shrinks, forming a black pinpoint in an instant, and the violent impact instantly converges.

"Ah" The little girl opened her mouth, trying to say something, but because she hadn't spoken for too long, she had forgotten how to speak.

"Hush, be quiet." Qin Yu's figure appeared from the falling dust and smoke.

Picking up the little girl with a smile, Qin Yu said softly: "You need to rest now, go to sleep!"

In his soothing voice, the girl's eyes slowly closed.

"Hu" fell from the wall and felt the down-to-earth doctor looking at the sleeping little girl with complicated expression.

"President, if she loses control," the doctor's expression was full of entanglement.

"No." Qin Yu said confidently while stroking the girl's hair softly: "She will become the church's strongest combat force, you will see."

The fourth fanatic finally appeared.

Stroking the girl's head with his hand, Qin Yu smiled lightly: "From today, you are dead."

On the data panel, where is the name? ? ? Banned by death.

This means that the girl recognized Qin Yu's naming.

From today onwards, she is death!

When Qin Yu opened his eyes again, the plane had landed at Hudu Airport.

The flight attendant, who nodded in front of the cabin door, smiled and gestured.

But it was still a polite income pocket, and the flight attendant heard a long, relieved sigh of relief.

"Sister, he accepted it, and I'll say you are fine, remember to invite me to dinner."

"Okay, the guest is coming out, hurry up and stand still."

"Cut, if you get a bargain, you still sell well. I knew I was on it myself."

"Besides the big meal is gone."

"Sister, I was wrong. Be careful of the gap. Thank you for taking this flight and walking slowly."

As the voice went away, Qin Yu took out the note in his pocket and threw it into the trash can.

He Wu was already quite surprised about this, and he felt strange that he didn't get a few chats or leave a note when he went out.

It's a pity that the boss didn't bother once.

But when I thought of the women who had appeared next to him, which one was not the posture of being overwhelmed by the country.

He Wu is not surprised!

Turning on the phone, Qin Yu received a missed SMS notification.

The number is Waldorf's landline, if I remember correctly, it is the landline of Rapoelkan's room.

Dialing back, he was indeed the one who answered the call.

"Hey, my brother, it's really not easy to find you." Rapo came up to complain.

"I was just on the plane." Qin Yu said.

"You should buy a private jet, brother, so that you can make sure you don't miss any news." Rapo was tricking him into making big players again.

Speaking of playing and spending money, he is an expert

"What's the matter?" Qin Yu interrupted his recommendation.

What kind of private jet is needed, Xihe is not much better than what kind of plane.

That is to say, before the time is right now, in a few days later, Brother Yu will get himself a private speed car and drive.

Catapult taking off in situ, have you seen it?

"Oh, I almost forgot. It's the mold looking for you. She wants to ask you why the bald eagle can't play the monster.

That's a chili. It's coming to trouble you. You have to be careful. "

Listening to Rapo's smirking laughter, Qin Yu said indifferently: "Coincidentally, my favorite food is chili."

After entering the personal number of Momo into the contact, Qin Yu forgot about it.

First, I went to visit Teacher Shen and Wen Yaxuan. Unfortunately, Xuanxuan was not there, only Qin Yu had a meal at home.

During this period, it was natural to help the kitchen, and after eating, one was responsible for cleaning the dishes and the other for wiping the water.

Brother Yu worked very hard! !

After dark, I drove back to No.1 Seaview. Jiang Xiaoshan was at home tonight and made an appointment to spend the night there.

The little anchor is going to do the show again, and there are more and more interviews recently.

The small business with Wang Hong is also getting bigger and bigger, and now it is already the top-selling independent brand on the whole network.

Some people even suggested that she publish a book about how she became a benchmark for women in the new era. UU reading www.uukanshu.com

It was just rejected by the little anchor. There are two things that she hates most in her life. One is generosity and the other is success learning.

The former is stinky and shameless, and the latter is stinky.

In short, it's not a human thing!

Downstairs in the community, Qin Yu looked at He Wu dumbfounded: "Leave quickly, can you leave me some personal space?"

"You go in and I'll leave." He Wu insisted.

"Fine, I'm afraid of you." Qin Yu reluctantly shook his head, walked quickly towards the community, and disappeared inside the gate.

"Master, can we go now?" He Wu still leaned on the door and looked in when no one was seen. The driver's expression was strange.

What is the situation, so passionate?

After waiting for another 3 minutes, He Wu glanced outside the community and noticed the existence of those secret guards. Then he got in the car and closed the door and left in peace.

drop!

The door opened, and the flickering candle light illuminated the room.

The ground is covered with white lily petals, leading all the way to the bedroom.

"Hey" Qin Yu grinned smirky, shook off his shoes, pulled his shirt upwards, and walked towards the bedroom barefoot.

In front of the door, Qin Yu stopped deliberately, raised his hand and knocked on the door: "Is anyone home?"

"Who is it that disturbs dreams in the middle of the night?" The delicate lazy voice was full of temptation.

"On the way down here, the dark road is slippery, I want to spend the night, I don't know if the little lady is willing to do it conveniently." Qin Yu said solemnly.

"This" waited for a while, before Jiang Xiaoshan's pretentiously shy voice sounded again: "There is only one bed in the poor house, if the son doesn't think so"

"No." The door was suddenly pushed open, and Young Master Pian Pian turned into a ferocious thief and rushed straight to the bed.

Creak, creak, like a mouse broke into the shabby room, biting the leg of the bed all night.

Damn it!

Chapter 733: Blame us for being too weak

Jingling

In the middle of the night, Qin Yu woke the phone up.

Mute, took the mobile phone to the living room, and looked at the name on it, directly amused Qin Yu.

"Hey, can you hear me???"

"Is the signal bad? When will the * signal of the rotten country be repaired? The East is already in the 5th era, and this place is simply the countryside."

"Hey, can you hear it?" Qin Yu's voice came into his ears.

"Oh, thank goodness, it's finally connected, this * signal" The mildew voice came suddenly, and someone covered her mouth.

"Idol, you are an idol, you bought it, forget me if you kill me, why should I bring this silly critic??"

"You are a nasty critic, let go of my old lady, my old lady knows that she is an idol."

"My miracle boy, are you still there?" The whispers between the two ended up, and the voices were triumphant.

"I'm here, what is the child of miracle?" Qin Yu asked in surprise.

"Don't you know?" Momo took a breath of surprise, and said, "God, you are hot on the tubing, man"

"Kill me!!" The previous complaints sounded again.

"Wait." Momo covered the microphone with her hand, and could still hear the persuasion from the other side.

Under the careful "persuasion" of the mold, the agent disappeared.

"Man, what did we say just now is right, you are hot on the tubing, everyone calls you the miracle kid.

Oh, I almost forgot, if we have the opportunity, we can cooperate. I heard that you sing well. "

"??" This can also be spread abroad, Yu Ge is full of question marks.

"Rapo said you have something to look for me." Qin Yu had to interrupt to remind her as if she was talking endlessly.

He never thought that the idol of the whole people was a silly talk.

This is horrible!

"By the way, why is there no European and American version of the monster?" Momo said, and began to complain again: "Do you know how much it cost me to get a helmet?"

But when I got it, I realized that I couldn't connect to the server. You clearly promised to be online globally. This is a deception.

Dude, help me, I really want to play too much, the photos and videos on the tubing make me cry. "

Barabara

After she finished speaking, there was no more voice on the phone, and Qin Yu asked, "Are you finished?"

"I know I'm a bit long-winded, but I'm done." Momo shut up.

"If you want to play, you are welcome to come to Xia Country anytime. As long as you are in Xia Country, you can access the server anywhere. I can't do anything else." Qin Yu apologized to the other party insincerely.

"?" Mildew puzzled.

"We are too weak, the technology does not support, sorry." The nose suddenly felt a little itchy, and Qin Yu buckled his nose.

A dark gray spot the size of a small rice grain appeared on the finger. It was a million nanoworms.

The little guys have been a little active recently, and they formed a ball and rolled around on Qin Yu's fingertips.

The * is bent and the thumb is buckled.

boom!

The nanoworm "booger" was bombed out, and the ears were complaining and pleading with mildew.

After talking for a long time, my mouth was dry.

I found that Qin Yu didn't eat soft and hard mold and said helplessly: "Well, I remember you, miracle kid, I will go to Hudu to find you, I swear"

"I'm waiting." Qin Yu smiled and hung up the phone.

On the other side of the ocean, the mildew who hung up the phone looked dumbfounded.

He actually hung up.

Get your own number and just wait for yourself to call him.

Now he actually hung up his phone

"Asshole, I remember you, Jesse, help me book a flight to Hudu. I'm going to Xia Guo."

The door opened, and the petite-looking assistant poked his head and said, "But your career has just started, and we still want it."

"Ticket." Yun Mo looked back at her, expressionless.

The assistant shrank his head and said helplessly: "Okay! Who made you the boss?"

Come to me?

Take the initiative to deliver food, is there such a good thing? ? ?

He raised his head and looked out. It was still dark.

Qin Yu found the handbag, opened the snack box, and threw the two chips into his mouth.

Gudong!

Refreshing, wearing shorts and a shirt, Qin Yu just opened the door.

In the air, the bombed nanoworm quickly penetrated into his body.

After running dozens of laps in the community, Qin Yu came to the empty public fitness area.

Russian stand, self-weight squat, squat and jump, single push close to the chest.

Bare-handed fitness, simple movements, there is something inside.

Until the sky was light, the early aunts and grandpas came out for a walk.

Qin Yu just finished the exercise and trot out of the community.

I bought five drawer soup dumplings and two bowls of wontons across the street.

When he got home, Jiang Xiaoshan was already sitting yoga on the balcony. The gray yoga pants made people move their index fingers.

Seeing him coming back, Jiang Xiaoshan stepped forward to take the breakfast: "So early today?"

When Qin Yu usually gets up, Jiang Xiaoshan is already up.

Today, it's turned upside down.

Jiang Xiaoshan didn't even hear him when he went out.

"Well, I was woken up by the overseas phone call, so I didn't sleep anymore." Qin Yu changed her shoes, and Jiang Xiaoshan had already put breakfast on the table.

"Go and wash first." Jiang Xiaoshan said, returning to the house, and found him clean clothes.

When Qin Yu came out, she had already eaten, "I will wash the clothes you changed."

Eating breakfast refreshingly, watching Jiang Xiaoshan rubbing clothes for herself in the bathroom.

Life seems to be complete at once.

In front of the Lixin school, Qin Yu parked Cayenne in the frequently parked parking lot.

Cross the road and first go to the smoke hotel next to the school gate.

When I came out again, I had two paper bags in my hand, each containing a bottle of Moutai and two Huazi.

When we arrived at the instructor's office, Old Shen was here today.

"Guide, I brought you a special product." Qin Yu put the bag to the table with a grin.

"I told you not to bring these. The road is very troublesome." Old Shen said with a displeased face.

With a skillful hook of his right leg, the bag disappeared under the table.

"That won't work, respecting the teacher and respecting the Tao is traditional," Qin Yu said with a smile.

"That was brought to Teacher Che, right? Leave me here, he went to a meeting outside, and I will take it to him when I turn back."

"Okay, let's put it here." Qin Yu secretly marveled when he put the things down and watched Lao Shen hook his legs again and the things slipped into the space under the table.

With this hand, Old Shen was not afraid of being hungry wherever he went.

"I'm leaving first, instructor." Qin Yu smiled and was about to leave.

Shen Wanqian stopped him, "You wait."

First he was pulled into the house, Shen Wanqian went to the door and looked out, and then directly closed the door.

Seeing his mysterious appearance, Qin Yu said amused: "What's the matter, so mysterious?"

Shen Wanqian sat down again, glanced at him and said, "The internship is related to you."

"I have an internship unit here, chairman of the post, I will go through the process afterwards?" Qin Yu said jokingly.

Shen Wanqian made him amused, "Knowing you are capable, I am not talking about you. UU Reading www.uukanshu.com"

Seeing that he didn't care, Shen Wanqian sighed and said: "I'm talking about school leaders. Some people think that if you have been caring for you for so long, do you have to make a profit?"

"For example?" Qin Yu embraced her arms and smiled playfully.

"Open the back door for some people and stay on the job for internship." Shen Wanqian said.

"These people are all related to school leaders?" Qin Yu asked with a smile.

Shen Wanqian smiled bitterly and said, "Do you still have to ask? It doesn't matter, who wants to risk offending you."

"So, you are spreading the word." Qin Yu said.

Shen Wanqian's expression became stiff, and he suddenly relaxed: "I know that I can't hide it from you. There is no way. I am a little instructor who has the qualifications to refuse, so I will ask you what you mean."

"I don't refuse the capable, and the incapable idiot had better go far.

Unless they want a letter of recommendation that will mess up all interviews. "

Qin Yu has no hatred for the second generation. In fact, most of the second generations are quite appetizing.

Whispering and seeing, there is nothing wrong with being in the world!

However, don't treat him here as a garbage dump, and don't think that you can come to gilded and eat free food.

In the miracle company, no idlers are raised!

"Okay, it's much easier to have your attitude." Shen Wanqian opened the door and brought him to the door in person.

The worries in my heart were also let go, and it seemed that Qin Yu didn't care about it.

No matter who it is, he would never want to have a grudge with someone like Qin Yu.

He can also count on this campus love to pull himself off when he needs it one day.

As for what he meant, let's say it honestly.

I am just a microphone.

Presumably those guys didn't dare to really offend him, knowing that they are asking for someone now.

Some people are proud of the school, and some people are proud of him in the school.

Qin Yu undoubtedly belongs to the latter!

Chapter 734: Crazy people will overturn

« PrevNext » ≡ Table of Contents

In the dormitory, three corpses were lying on the bed without moving.

The weather is too hot, no one wants to move, this bedroom is getting more and more unable to stay.

After a long time, Qin Yu raised his head and asked: "Where to gather at night?"

"Don't worry about it, please." Yan Er raised his head and lay down again for a while.

Hot people have no energy at all.

"By the way, Brother Yu will give you a good thing." Shen Dong suddenly stood up, found his bag and took out two tickets.

"What?" Qin Yu took it in surprise.

At first glance, the tickets for the Royal Dance Company will be in the center of the third row at 18:30 tomorrow night.

"Where did you get it?" Qin Yu was surprised, this ticket is not easy to get.

Tomorrow night, the Royal Dance Company will have a performance at the Hudu Grand Theater, Qin Yu knew about it.

Because he had two front-row tickets in his bag, Lazy Cat sent him by courier.

"Hey, I've been in line for two days and bought it in the hands of the scalpers." Shen Dong scratched his head.

Yan Er jumped up: "Cowhide, Brother Dong, line up for two days, look for a scalper to buy a ticket, and it's you."

Shen Dong said speechlessly: "Where do I know that the tickets in the front row are in the hands of the scalpers. Hearing from the scalpers, the third-row viewing effect is the best, but the front row is not clear.

"You know what a fart, and there is a sense of participation in the front row, is it within reach, understand?" Yan Er retorted.

Qin Yu did not participate in the dispute between the two, waved the ticket in his hand and said, "Thank you, Dongzi."

"Don't thank you, it should be me thank you brother Yu, you are right, you can make money with me." Shen Dong scratched his head and said shyly.

In front of the two, he is still quite inferior

"Don't think so, I just provide an opportunity, you seize the opportunity yourself, besides, you also voted for real money."

It is good to be grateful, but don't let it change its taste and become flattery.

The relationship deteriorates and it loses its taste.

"Spend a lot of money?" Yan Er approached Shen Dong and slammed him with a shoulder with a smile.

"It's quite expensive, more than 20,000 yuan. The key is to sell well to the world of the rich, I don't understand." Shen Dong shook his head, still can't understand the life of the rich.

What's so interesting about the song and dance, more than 20,000, is enough for him to find a place and come with a white and black meal.

"You don't understand this, singing and dancing can really cultivate sentiment and sublimate the spirit of people. You will know if you read it too much." Qin Yu made a very understanding look.

"Brother Yu, do you often listen?" Yan Er and Shen Dong looked at him curiously.

I never heard him mention it on weekdays, so I always go to see some musicals and the like.

"Well, I often hear our lazy cat say" Qin Yu's serious expression suddenly changed, and he said with a treacherous smile.

"Cut!" Two Genzhong pointed at him and sent him an international greeting etiquette. I have never seen such a shameless person.

"Okay, don't lie down, leave as soon as you lie down, and dry up after you lie down." Qin Yu grabbed the bag and got up, urging the two of them to go out quickly.

"Where are you going for this big noon?" Tucao returned, and the two of them put on their heels and walked out.

"Go for afternoon tea and follow me."

Let's drive first. Yan Er and Shen Dong's cars are placed in the neighbouring community. The monthly subscription is cheaper than parking in the parking lot.

After all, they both had to park every day, always running to the parking lot, and the parking fee alone would have to go bankrupt.

Five minutes later, Qin Yu saw the commotion 5 coming from behind.

Yan Er's car was modified really well. It is hard to tell from the appearance that it was 530 modified, plus the sultry cherry blossom powder with yellow spots.

The big red calipers are so dazzling!

"Ritz Carlton, go with you." Qin Yu led the way after lowering the car window.

The three cars arrived at the Ritz-Carlton, just in time.

"Is there a line too?" Qin Yu was surprised when he learned that there would be a line for the afternoon tea.

Is afternoon tea in this hotel so popular? ? ?

"Sir, if you are a hotel user soon, you can take a seat directly." The front desk warmly reminded.

You can go directly to the store, or come to your room to rest?

It's all here, if you don't experience a wave of celebrity, wouldn't the oil be burned for nothing?

"Open one." Qin Yu asked the other party to register, and turned around to say to Shen Dong and Yan Er: "I will stay here tonight, and find a closer place."

"Shall I arrange?" Yan Er asked.

"Anyway, I'm here to rub." Qin Yu teased.

"Second brother set the card, I will come to the second wave of wine." Shen Dong said, patting his chest: "He died to be with the gentleman tonight."

"Just you?" Yan Er looked at him disgustingly, this body is not good!

"Fuck, you rabbit." Shen Dong cursed with an angry smile.

The gag and the formalities are also completed.

Take the elevator directly to the tea restaurant on the 58th floor, and show your room card at the door to enter the shop smoothly.

It lit up in an instant.

There are a lot of people in the tea restaurant, but when you look casually dressed, you know that it is a guest of the hotel.

Look at the outdoor balcony outside, good fellow

One water dress, long legs, various selfies, oblique shots, high shots, low shots, close-up shots, wide-angle shots

"Professional!" Shen Dong gave a thumbs up and praised the internet celebrities.

The big sun outside is about 39 degrees, and those with small arms and calves are not afraid to pass out directly from the sun.

"Then you can pick one up?" Yan Er smiled.

"You just picked up Lanlan?" The corner of his eyes glanced out of the window, and Shen Dong, who was joking, suddenly stood up.

Following his gaze, the girl taking pictures against the glass fence came into view.

High, high, high-tech! !

The standard three-dimensional net red face, exquisite, small, and affectionate.

The eyes are piercing, giving people a small fresh feeling, the body is nine-headed, nothing to say.

White tight-fitting short skirt, big long legs, a pair of high-heeled sandals, simple and generous.

This data is still very valuable.

Except for being a thousand dollars, there is no big problem in other aspects.

The foundation is also pretty good, otherwise you won't be able to make this kind of money one by one.

Qin Yu has an open mind about plastic surgery.

Everyone has a heart for beauty. It's no big deal to get an injection and fine-tune it.

But if you have to be a thousand dollars, it's a bit too much.

However, the man is not his.

As long as it is well set up, start a supercar immediately.

It's so realistic

Spray all kinds of "face-lifting face, net red face, and knife."

I really waited for my turn to do good things, cups and cups were semi-permanent, bottles were filled with hyaluronic acid.

It's so realistic! !

"Dongzi, this won't be yours" Yan Er asked thoughtfully, seeing that Shen Dong's expression was wrong.

Shen Dong's expression changed. He wanted to hide it but felt unreasonable, and finally admitted generously: "Well, I'll ask her to come over and let you know."

As he said, they ran out, looking like they couldn't wait. This was the first time the two saw each other.

"Tsk tusk, I have to admit, this girl is really beautiful, can I say that I really blame Dongzi?"

Although he was a bit partial and suspected of speaking for his brother, Yan Er still wanted to say that he couldn't really be blamed.

If you are yourself, you have to carry it!

"Haha" Qin Yu smiled and said nothing.

He is a five-good young man, UU reading www.uukanshu.com. What does com have to say about this kind of thing? ? ?

"Brother Yu, Brother" Shen Dong led a thousand swords

No, the third elementary who led him came over.

"Youlan, just call Lanlan, this is Qin Yu, brother Yu, this is my second brother." Shen Dong pointed at Yan Er, and emphasized his tone when he said "two".

"Go away, you're the second!" Yan Er cursed with an angry smile: "Hello, beauties."

"Brother Yu, Brother" Youlan covered her mouth with her fingers, squinting and laughing.

Tea value:!

"Sit!" Yan Er got up and changed positions and sat next to Qin Yu.

Shen Dong led Youlan to sit down, and his eyes were always smiling.

This kid, I'm afraid it's stuck.

But if you want to be King Zhou, you have to have a Shang Dynasty defeated enough!

At this point of worth, can you hold it?

"What does Brother Yu do? Looks so imposing. When I first came over, I was almost shocked."

After ordering a drink, Youlan pointed the topic to Qin Yu.

I don't have any idea, just to see if I can connect with my girlfriends and get rich together.

But as for the celebrities, there are not many celebrities and girlfriends beside them!

If you can enter the same circle, you can also help each other, play a cover, support a scene, mutual benefit, etc.

However, this man is so handsome, he must be a sea king.

The surrender index explodes, and most people probably don't have that ability.

"Brother Yu is a big business, he must be full of aura." Shen Dong said with a smile.

"Small business, there is still a gap with big business." Qin Yu said modestly.

The trillions of assets have not arrived, so what a big deal.

He is a small and micro enterprise and has to rely on loans to make a living.

Don't talk, crazy people will overturn!

The experience of blood and tears left by the ancestors, if you don't believe it, look forward.

Anything mad and boundless, people are gone

Chapter 744: Widely accumulate grain, slowly become king

Youlan's little abacus failed, because she didn't say a few words, she received a call and was going to be busy.

"There is a job I need to shoot, so let's go first." He kissed Shen Dong on the face and waved goodbye to Qin Yu and Yan Er.

With small elegant steps, Youlan quickly disappeared into the hotel's tea restaurant.

"What should Xuanxuan know?" Yan Er looked at him and asked after the person left.

"I'll take care of it" Shen Dong pretended to be calm and smiled reluctantly.

Of course he was worried that if Xuan Xuan knew about it, the problem would be serious.

But he still couldn't give up the temptation from Youlan. The woman was like a poppy to him, deadly but full of temptation.

Shen Dong admitted that he was a bit superior.

But even if he knew some things, he couldn't make changes. His self-control ability was not that strong.

Besides, this temptation is really too big.

"Good luck!" Yan Er stretched out his hand to press his shoulder and said.

It's okay to play, but if you put in your emotions, it's your fault.

If Xuanxuan finds out, this will definitely make him regret it

"Well, if you want to see the girl, can you talk less and do more?" Qin Yu pointed out the window, and there were many Internet celebrities scratching their heads.

You must be professional in everything, and the same goes for watching girls.

Keeping your eyes open is the most basic respect and courtesy to a girl.

The next day, Yan Er got up from the bed with a sore back.

Pushing away the woman beside her, she stumbled into the living room.

There, Qin Yu was already sitting on the sofa, drinking green tea and starting to work.

He has to read the information and contract details before the meeting, so that he will not be in a hurry when signing a contract.

"Brother Yu, early." Yan Er shook his hand, and his stomach turned overwhelmed in a vague moment before his eyes.

"Wow." One rushed into the toilet, and Yan Er vomited.

The movement of shaking his hand just now made him vomit.

He was top-heavy, and his stomach seemed to be punched hard, not to mention how uncomfortable.

"Do you want water?"

"Um oh"

After giving him a bottle of water, Qin Yu went back to work.

It's just a hangover, everyone has experienced it.

They are all big lords, not so hypocritical

When breakfast arrived, Qin Yu read the report while eating breakfast.

Yan Er lay aside, and said with some emotion: "This is the first time I saw you so serious."

"I have been more serious, but you didn't see it." Qin Yu responded with a smile.

"Yes! Just look at the scenery of people, and you don't know what is behind them." Yan Er said.

"Yes, it's literary and artistic all of a sudden." Qin Yu laughed and joked, shook his head and continued to work.

It was not until the end of lunch that I closed the computer and packed everything.

"Let's go first, say to Dongzi." Qin Yu said goodbye to Yan Er.

Shen Dong lives next door and is naturally not alone, with Youlan by his side.

Who knows whether a person does not wake up, or wakes up and sleeps again!

Seeing He Wu and Yan Xue at the entrance of the hotel, they set off for Lingang together.

"Boss, here are a few supplementary regulations. Take a look." Yan Xue at work is rigorous and serious.

She didn't have much work, and she knew in her heart that Qin Yu was taking care of herself.

It's not so much a secretary, as it's a girlfriend who works part-time to help organize files.

But with a high salary that 90% of white-collar workers can envy, if this job is not good enough, she doesn't know how to explain it to herself.

People must be worthy of themselves!

After reading the documents on hand, the car also arrived.

Li Xiao, who hadn't seen him for a long time, was in a suit and leather shoes with a majestic aura, and waited at the door with the office staff responsible for planning.

"Dong Qin, welcome." Li Xiao stepped forward, holding his hands with both hands, but blinked mischievously.

"Do you want to be so formal?" Qin Yu kept smiling, and laughed after speaking softly: "You are welcome, I've heard of Director Li's name for a long time."

"We still have to walk around in the cutscene, and we are still taking pictures over there!" Li Xiao glanced into the distance, and the camera was facing them.

As Hudu's most recent development project, it is also to create a new scientific and technological business card, and the local government attaches great importance to it.

In addition, the reputation of Miracle Company can be regarded as spread all over the country, and it is very important in the circle.

Although it hasn't been listed so far, there is a great * behind people.

Those of you who want to make trouble, first weigh whether you can carry Ye Family by yourself.

Don't worry about what the current head of the Ye family thinks, as long as the old man stays in one day, the miracle will be blessed by the golden body, and the evil will not invade.

The old man is right to retreat, but how many of today's leaders were his disciples, and how many old comrades, old buddies.

I'm afraid that apart from himself, even the Ye family don't know.

It was such a great god, sitting firmly on the heads of all the jackals who wanted to make the idea of Qiji Company, and they did not dare to appear.

Otherwise, how can the miracle be undisturbed and develop smoothly to this day.

"Let's go inside and talk, or?" Li Xiao winked at him.

Qin Yu knew it, and said immediately: "We won't talk about the polite form, let's go to the planned land first."

"Okay, then I will arrange it now." As soon as Li Xiao's voice fell, someone behind him naturally arranged the itinerary.

A group of people went straight to the plot that Miracle Company wanted, parked their car on the high slope, and walked to the end.

"This is the land selected by your company, with a total area of 135,000 mu and 90 square kilometers, accounting for 31% of the total area of the new district."

Li Xiao introduced him to the land in front of him, messy, weeds, dirt roads, and some messy temporary buildings.

But in the eyes of any developer, this is a perfect feng shui treasure.

There is no messy demolition problem, no complicated lines and pipelines underneath, and there are not so many restrictions in the city.

The equipment can be opened directly after entering the venue. There are not so many wrangling incidents, which is more appropriate.

"Let's run around?" Qin Yu wanted to see the surroundings clearly.

Last time he came here, he only looked at it roughly, and this time he needs to observe it carefully.

Relationship belongs to relationship, business belongs to business!

For projects involving hundreds of billions of investment, Qin Yu must be responsible for himself and even more for the company.

"Okay, come on, everyone get in the car, let's make a circle." Li Xiao greeted everyone to get on the car.

Qin Yu invited him to ride in a car with him: "Director Li, let's go together."

"Alright." Li Xiao thought about it, then agreed.

The relationship between the two is not a secret in the eyes of the caring person.

If you really want to get some articles from it, how can you find a breakthrough, you don't have to deliberately avoid suspicion.

Li Xiao wasn't afraid that someone would make trouble. He handled this matter fairly and he was not afraid of the shadow crooked.

As for investment matters, he has already transferred to the family name and secretly manipulated it.

He wouldn't just throw out the qualifications of the Sanqin Association. UU Reading www.uukanshu.com

"Oh, it took me a day to pretend to be bad." As soon as he got in the car, Li Xiao pulled his tie away and slumped into the seat.

There is no image of leadership, it is exactly what it was like in the past when he was drunk and indulged.

"It's better for you to converge, don't forget that you have to go on later." Qin Yu joked.

"Yes, I almost forgot." Li Xiao quickly sat up and lowered his head to smooth the wrinkles on his suit.

"Brother, I'm looking for you! The main reason is to ask if it is possible to let go of the qualifications for land reclamation in the future?"

Qin Yu was still thinking about the issue of the silo, it was nothing to do anything else.

All he cares about is the attitude of the court, as for the little devil, Smecta, and the joy of jumping in the bay.

Qin Yu naturally has a way to keep them quiet, and he still has this trick.

"You can only fight for this, but I definitely can't guarantee you." Li Xiao didn't dare to promise casually on business matters.

Saying that I can't do it, but it hurts feelings.

He can only say that he tries his best to help fight for it, but it is not only his own business, but also neighboring countries and international attitudes.

The pressure on the court is already very great, and if you insist on going your own way, it will give people a strong sense of oppression.

This will allow more potential allies to choose to fall into the arms of the bald eagle.

That couldn't be worse! !

"Understood." Hearing what he said, Qin Yu knew that he was not at a level enough to speak much.

It seems that Ye Jinlan is still needed, and Ye Lao can mediate.

When the "Miracle City" is completed, it will be time for the Miracle Company to brighten up its fists and muscles.

Widely accumulate grain and slowly become king.

This grain is almost stored, and then we should consider the road to kingship and how to go.

On the court side, should the lithography machine give yourself an answer?

Chapter 745: Hesitate and you will lose, but you will blow up from the heart

Jin Zhenni was taken aback by this change. She saw her hand stretched out from the stage to her, and she fell back on the ground, supporting her body with her hand.

But soon, someone began to climb on the stage.

With the help of their companions, they climbed up to a stage more than one meter high, crawling forward like ghosts with their teeth and dancing claws.

Supported on all fours, she crawled towards Jenny in such a hurry.

"Ah, don't come here!" Jin Zhenni was terribly scared at the moment.

God, if there is a miracle, show it up!

As if hearing the sincere expectation deep in her heart, the roar of the engine suddenly came.

Then, amidst the panic screams of the crowd, a shadow fell from the sky.

Boom, noisy~

Rotating tires rubbed the carpet on the stage to black, billowing pungent black smoke.

The green of hope in the evil appeared in Jin Zhenni's sight, and the knight in the helmet stretched out his hand: "Do you want to help?"

After taking the helmet and putting it on suddenly, Jin Zhenni was almost dragged onto the motorcycle with one arm.

As soon as I sat in the back seat, a voice came from my ear: "Grab steady!"

Instinctively embraced the opponent's waist: "So hard!"

This is really a muscle that humans can have, and it feels like steel.

But the heat coming through the T-shirt made Jin Zhenni confused!

Buzzing!

The car suddenly flicked its tail, and the front of the car swayed from side to side to scare away passers-by who were taking advantage of it.

Hum!

Twisting the accelerator, the front of the car instantly raised 45 degrees, and then the Z900 rushed out of the edge of the stage as if it stood upright.

The moment it landed, a powerful force pushed the front of the raised car.

Amidst the choking blue smoke, leave chicly!

"..." The scene fell into a treacherous silence.

After a long time, there was a screaming that seemed to be squeezed and slammed: "Okay...ok...so handsome~~"

The scene just now is played back in my mind infinitely, the skilled and superb car skills, strong stability and handsome back.

Locomotive God, YYDS~

"Haha, I photographed it, I photographed it, and I posted it." Someone photographed the entire process and immediately posted it on the social platform intact.

Next, he only needs to enjoy the joy of reverberating melodious prompts.

From this moment on, the once mediocre life will be far away from her.

This short video is where the dream begins! !

In Hongdae, the flamboyant and green Z900 shuttled between the crowd and the traffic, attracting bursts of screams and curses.

"Dead boy, rush to reincarnation?" The aunt who set up the stall waved a colander and yelled angrily, attracting diners to agree.

Let's fight against this young chasing boy who is crazy showing off his skills in the downtown area.

Sitting at the back, Jin Jenny hugged the mysterious knight's waist tightly and pressed her body to his back.

The sense of security brought by the comfort and firmness made Jin Zhenni obsessed!

What would he look like under the helmet?

Handsome, handsome, hale and unrestrained face, big shiny eyes, and straight nose.

Listening to the other party's standard Seoul accent, he must be a local handsome Obama.

Thinking of the other person driving a locomotive down from the sky, Jin Zhenni couldn't help but tighten her legs, it was so hot...

Which girl does not cherish spring!

Especially in the days of the Mood for Love, Jenny, who has a little girl fantasies.

I have dreamed countless times that Prince Charming suddenly appeared next to him.

In reality, the prince replaced his white horse and rode a more powerful and handsome Kawasaki locomotive.

So, is sweet love coming?

The whole way was full of random thoughts, until the motorcycle suddenly surged forward and stopped on the side of a sparsely-traveled road.

The romantic wedding in Jin Zhenni's mind was interrupted by this sudden change.

Wait a while, she will think about the child's name...

"You can come down, it's safe here." The magnetic voice made Jin Zhenni instinctively do what he said.

However, when she let go of the body she was holding, her heart was suddenly filled with a great sense of disappointment.

Suppressing the empty feeling of nothingness in her heart, Jin Zhenni took off her helmet after getting off the car, bowed gratefully and said, "Thank you for your help, if not..."

"You don't have to think about the bad things anymore, it's just that someone took advantage of the chaos to stir up." Qin Yu said loosely and took off his helmet.

"So handsome!"

Jin Zhenni blurted out, then hurriedly lowered her head, covering her mouth with her hand and muttered softly: "Jin Zhenni, are you a woman crazy?"

Seeing her funny look, Qin Yu put the helmet on the hot car hood, pressed her arms on it, and leaned sideways: "Is it handsome?"

"..." Jin Zhenni's face flushed, and she didn't know how to pick it up.

He is very handsome, but he shouldn't take it as if he didn't hear it or behaved more modestly.

What's the matter with this stinky tone? ?

"That, thank you very much." Jin Zhenni, who didn't know what to say, bowed deeply to thank him again.

Such a cute look made Qin Yu couldn't help laughing out loud.

Hanging the helmet on the handlebar, Qin Yu drew his hair and said, "I am a little hungry after running for so long. If I really want to thank you, please finish my meal!"

"Huh?" Jin Zhenni nodded immediately after the initial dazedness: "Okay, is it okay to have barbecue?"

It's a very solemn thing to invite people to eat barbecue in Smecta.

After all, barbecue is so expensive!

Not everyone can afford to eat, maybe a barbecue will go bankrupt in the whole month...

"The roadside stall is ready." Qin Yu said as he took off the toad mirror hanging on the neckline, and took out a brand-new mask: "So there will be no problem."

Wearing a toad mirror, * her draped hair, Jin Zhenni, wearing a mask, walked with him to the snack street near Hongdae.

As the most famous art university in Seoul, there are a large number of beautiful men and women, clubs, nightclubs and other entertainment venues here.

When there is entertainment, there is food, just as there are always noodle stalls and tea houses in front of Goulan Gate.

Before nightfall, the stall owners pushing the snack carts are ready to open.

Mixing into the crowd, walking side by side like ordinary young people, the atmosphere between the two is surprisingly cold.

Obviously walking together, there is no communication from beginning to end.

It's weird!

The lovers passing by, all evaded in surprise.

But he couldn't help but looked more curiously, secretly guessing their identities and origins.

That man looks tall and handsome, really stylish!

Although the girls wear masks and sunglasses, they look like celebrities in terms of their figure and clothes!

Is it the senior sister from Hongdae?

Two people walking together, it's a good match...

It's just that now...is it a quarrel?

"Young man, young man." Qin Yu who was walking forward absent-mindedly, looking for food of interest was pulled by someone.

Holding a piece of rice cake in her hand, the wrinkled aunt stopped them with a smile, and put the rice cake in her hand in front of him: "I will give it to you."

"???" Qin Yu was surprised, and his first reaction was, 'there is a problem with this rice cake.'

"Uh, I don't really want to eat." Qin Yu also answered as he thought. UU Reading www.uukanshu.com

Suddenly someone rushed up to give himself a piece of rice cake, which looked strange.

But the aunt did not give up because of his refusal. Instead, she continued to smile and said, "Take it! Eat with your girlfriend, it's delicious.

No matter what the difficulty is, just a good meal can make your mood a lot better, Ai Gu, don't underestimate this, it's delicious, go eat! "

Almost forcibly stuffing the rice cake into Qin Yu's hands, the exaggerated tone and cheerful laughter instantly infected Qin Yu.

Smile is contagious.

"Haha~ Have a taste." Qin Yu said while holding the rice cake.

He has asked Nanoworms to confirm that no special seasoning has been added to this rice cake.

After misunderstanding the relationship between the two, the aunt wanted to use rice cakes to resolve the conflict and embarrassment between them.

A very enthusiastic person, just like Qin Yu said.

In this world, every nation is divided into good and bad...

Good people, after all, still have more.

"Just eat it like this, okay?" Jin Zhenni also seemed to be confused by the aunt's enthusiasm.

Wouldn't it be rude to eat without paying?

If someone finds out that it is her, maybe there will be some negative news.

But this rice cake looks really delicious, "Gudong~"

"Eat, I'll pay." Qin Yu handed the rice cakes to her, and said to the aunt's booth: "I will have another copy of the same rice cake, how much is it?"

"2500 yuan." The aunt's smiling eyes were tightly closed, and she raised her head and asked: "It's delicious!"

"Yes, it's delicious, thank you very much." Qin Yu politely stretched out his hand and felt it for a long time before remembering that he didn't seem to have a wallet when he came out.

Then, all his change was in his wallet.

For mobile phones, "Excuse me, is it okay with WeChat?"

Chapter 746: This foundation is a little bit high

Smecta, three cores.

Li Zhen and the designated representative of the golden master's father from the Bald Eagle, went through the handover procedures with the company together.

The lawyers represented by her brothers are staring at her with traitor eyes.

"What are you looking at?" Li Zhen fainted, the queen was full of breath.

A group of bereaved dogs dare to show off in front of them. They think that there is someone supporting them, so they can not put themselves in their eyes?

"This is a betrayal of Sanxin." The chief lawyer solemnly complained.

"is it?"

Li Zhen smiled dumbly, adding to his tone in vain, and said, "Even if it is a betrayal, it is the housework of the Li family. In what capacity are you talking to me?"

""Choke!

Yes, even if there is such a big turmoil, it is still Sanxin's housework after all.

I am an outsider, what qualifications do I have to dictate.

And, in any case, her surname is still Li.

Thinking of this, the chief lawyer's body trembled suddenly, and his heart trembled with horror.

He seems to have forgotten how terrible the Li family's power and influence in Smecta is.

Wanting an old man in charge of legal affairs to disappear is easier for him than crushing an ant.

After all, it takes a lot of work to find that little trouble.

And he, who is pinched to death under his eyelids, only needs to move his fingers.

"I'm the one who lost my mind, sorry, ma'am." The chief lawyer's confession made everyone behind him stare at each other.

But the previous domineering, righteous sense of justice was instantly suppressed.

Li Family, this mountain is unattainable to ordinary people!

The central prison is a luxurious prison room decorated like a royal palace.

On the high-end custom-made sofa, Li Jae-yong sat in a precarious manner and watched relevant reports on TV.

That was the signing site of the three-core delivery ceremony. The radiant Li Zhen showed a faint smile under the press of the media.

But as an elder brother, Lee Jae-yong knows very well, this is exactly what she looks like when she feels joy from the bottom of her heart.

"My sister, as a woman, your eyes are still so superficial. Isn't the lesson that you pin your hopes on men enough?"

Thinking of the humiliating marriage for Sanxin, Li Jae-yong's cold expression became even darker.

If it hadn't been too much trouble, that * guy would have been sunk into the sea to feed the fish.

This time, she made the same mistake again.

Can a * surrounded by many women really be the support of her heart?

Li Jae-yong remained suspicious of this and was angry at Li Zhen's choice.

Would rather trust an outsider than trust her family, is this the decision she made?

However, that new type of material is really powerful. "Work out its formula as soon as possible. I want to see a satisfactory answer before I go out."

Hearing the order from the new king, the assistant behind him bowed 90 degrees and quietly exited the room.

"It's a pity." The aunt looked at Qin Yu regretfully, still unwilling to let go of his hand.

After thinking about it, he asked tentatively: "Then, how are your feelings?"

""

Qin Yu was completely speechless: "Auntie, we have a very good relationship. If I choose the marriage partner, it must be her."

This is what Qin Yu said in his heart, not just an excuse to deal with his aunt.

The position of the lazy cat in his heart is uncontrollable. This well-behaved, peaceful, sticky and gentle kitten has almost all Qin Yu's gentleness.

Even Lu Qing couldn't make Qin Yu take it so seriously

"That's it!" Auntie nodded her head as it should be lost: "That's good, that's good, then do you still have younger brothers and older brothers?"

""Qin Yu took it.

Is it true for parents at this age?

He suddenly understood his mother and Lao Qin a little bit, and He Hong's anxiety became too much.

Although Lu Guohui has not mentioned it directly, he has also tested the minds of the two of them side by side.

The meaning in the words is getting more and more explicit. When I see a beautiful child appearing on TV, I will also point and say: "Look at this child, how beautiful."

In another two years, Lu Qing wanted to enter the house, so he might as well hug his grandson first.

Fortunately, Brother Yu has enough houses, so I will buy a few more, let's change to live! !

Marriage will definitely not end for the time being.

It is even more impossible to obtain a certificate. As long as the legal single person is legally single, love will never be guilty.

Nice

The aunt wanted to say something else, and the wife beside her couldn't sit still: "Old lady, don't embarrass people and children, I should avoid you for a while."

"I didn't say anything. If you don't worry about your daughter's affairs, don't you allow me to worry about it?" the aunt replied angrily.

"Daughter has her own plans, should you worry about it?" his wife said with a smile.

"There are plans, there are plans to be three by now" the aunt suddenly stopped the topic.

A woman's age is a secret, so it's not good to tell a child like this.

Besides, maybe he has any suitable friends around him, he can help introduce them, pull the red line!

Achieving a marriage is also a good thing to accumulate virtue and do good.

Thanks to the music on the stage, the host appeared in time and saved Qin Yu who was about to collapse.

Sit upright, looking at the stage with a serious expression.

Qin Yu's focus has been placed on the new rewards of the system.

"Congratulations to the host's singing for resonating deep in the audience's hearts, hitting the soul directly, and triggering a fixed reward."

"The Voice of the Voice is promoted to achieve the new title of Soul Singer"

Soul Singer: Abundant emotions can directly hit the soul and cause strong resonance in the deepest part of the biological soul.

"Faith rewards are continuously accumulating, do you receive them?"

The accumulation of believers' rewards has not reached the peak, and Qin Yu chooses to continue accumulating.

"Open the mall."

The interface changes, and the mall appears in front of you.

Qin Yu immediately looked at the belief value in the upper right corner, 1018 points.

"Purchase the basic theory of mecha." Qin Yu chose to exchange the selected goods for the first time.

"Are you sure to purchase the basic theory of mecha?"

"confirm."

"The purchase was successful."

When the belief value of 1018 points changed to 18 points, related knowledge was also poured into Qin Yu's brain.

Countless mecha designs that shocked him, subtle thoughts, and cracked brain holes.

In Qin Yu's mind, flashing past like a horse watching a flower.

But it is clearly branded in his memory area, it is difficult to forget each other

In an instant, Qin Yu had more than a dozen corresponding plans for optimizing and transforming Xingtian.

The so-called basic theory of mecha is basically an encyclopedia.

It not only describes the basic design theory in detail, but also all the "classic design shapes" during the development of the mecha.

Including the characteristics of the mecha, the changes in the details and the little cuties of the assembly.

The heat knife of the assault series made Qin Yu see the hope of making a new weapon for Anda.

Without the Heat Knife, his combat effectiveness has dropped a lot.

After all, no matter how sharp ordinary melee weapons are, UU read www. uukanshu. It is also difficult for com to harm monsters above the lower level.

The foundations recorded in this book are for both the earth and the Futerra star.

They all seem to be a little bit higher!

"Xiao Qin, how do you think the poems perform?" Qin Yu, who was awakened by the touch, raised his head and looked at the stage.

Chief Tang has finished the performance, is bowing to express his gratitude to the audience, and leaves the venue after the closing ceremony.

Lifting his head, Chief Tang's eyes met Qin Yu's.

The eyes are full of curiosity: "Who is he?"

The reason why I pay attention to Qin Yu is because my mother is sitting next to him.

And she was pulling the boy, talking non-stop.

That smile of satisfaction and joy is not a good omen to her

Mom won't drag any weird passers-by at will, she wants to introduce herself to blind date, right?

"Especially good, professionalism and skills, perfect!" Qin Yu earnestly praised the other party.

Listening to his vivid description, who would have thought that he hadn't seen anything just now.

However, this does not hinder Qin Yu's praise.

Anyway, it's the right thing to keep complimenting. Which mother doesn't like to hear his children being praised.

Not to mention that Tang Shi has this strength and ability.

The ceiling of the new generation of dancers, this one, can't be overstated.

"Haha, how can it be as good as you said, this Xiao Qin is so cute and happy to talk."

Holding Qin Yu's hand, Auntie looked at him more satisfied.

At the same time, my heart became more and more dissatisfied with my daughter.

Dancing, dancing, dancing, training every day.

Look at people, dancing, training, there is no delay, how can I find such a good boyfriend.

The same dancer, why are you so unbelievable? ? ?

Chapter 747: Incense, perfect ending

Snapped!

The lights went out and the new actor took the stage.

With his eyes opened, Qin Yu clearly saw the lazy cat trotting on his toes standing in the center of the stage.

She shook her head cutely, observing left and right to determine her position.

Then put on a fixed opening action, waiting for the music to play.

Seeing her cautiously cute look on the stage, Qin Yu almost couldn't hold back a laugh.

This kind of cute little expression that only one person can see.

It's so cute! !

When the music sounded, Qin Yu's expression immediately became surprised.

"It's actually a selection from Confucius, incense." Qin Yu leaned back with interest to make himself more comfortable.

He wants to enjoy this performance

He has read the incense of Tang poetry. Although it is on the Internet, it still shocks people and feels like being on the scene.

The control of details and strength is unmatched.

I don't know if Lazy Cat can surpass her performance, Qin Yu is looking forward to it.

Snapped

The lights are on, and the lazy cat on the high couch dances with it.

Standing lazily, dancing like clouds and flowing water, with a somewhat free and easy expression in the luxurious, expressive heartily.

It takes the audience into the whole dance in an instant, and the nobility is born.

Beauty, the smiles between gestures, the boldness and freedom when holding a drink, the tenderness and charmingness between turning around, the ethereal and elegant when jumping up.

The dance moves and regains with the wind, and the singing sounds like a chime but still quiet.

Thousands of times went to the festival to fill in the lyrics, and the delicate eyes flowed into the temple.

When Lan Yue was dressed in full costume and showed her most beautiful side on stage, the lights gradually went out.

At the end of the music, Qin Yu stood up first and clapped vigorously.

That's right, just work hard!

The applause of one person seemed to suppress the applause of the audience.

Seeing his happy look, Tangtang's mother beside him started to be jealous again.

so good!

Why isn't such a good grandpa from his own family?

Thinking of this, the auntie's joyful smile is more melancholy. When can I hold my grandson!

When the actor left the scene, Qin Yu clearly noticed the gaze from the lazy cat on the stage.

Happiness, joy, touch and pride.

She did it.

Today's performance is as steady as a rock.

It's more perfect than usual training. I dare not say that it is impeccable, but at least it truly shows her strength.

In this way, the lazy cat is already very satisfied.

Back in the background, Lazy Cat ran into the deer, thinking of meeting Qin Yu soon, she couldn't help raising her two small hands to point and spin around her chest.

"Yueyue" not far away, the teacher's voice came.

It was Teacher Zhou Xue with a proud smile on her face: "You did it. Today's performance is amazing."

The Tang poetry following Zhou Xue shyly congratulated Lanyue: "Congratulations, Sister Lanyue."

"Thank you Senior Sister, I still have a lot to learn from Senior Sister." Lazy Maotian smiled and took Tang Shi's arm.

She was not used to this kind of intimacy.

But who can resist the cute temptation of kittens, several times together, Tang poetry has no way to fight.

This little girl, innocent and innocent, is so cute!

"I want to see the teacher you mentioned more and more now, she taught you so well." Zhou Xue said fascinatingly.

For the teacher Shen mentioned by Lazy Mao, I can't wait to meet him.

"Okay, I will visit Teacher Shen tomorrow. Teacher, do you want to be together?" Lan Yue said happily.

It is a great thing for her to be able to meet and get acquainted with the two teachers.

Lan Yue felt that they would definitely become good friends.

Maybe 20 years younger, he will become the best partner and competitor.

The same concentration, the same love of dance, the same body as a dragon, beautiful as a surprise! !

"If the dance troupe is not busy, I must visit together." Zhou Xue smiled.

Tang Shi hesitated for a moment, and whispered, "Can I go?"

On the stage, she is a radiant goddess.

In private, she is very gentle and well-behaved, and she feels shy because of a little thing.

Therefore, she has few friends.

If Lan Yue hadn't taken the initiative, they might only be the nodding acquaintances of the dance troupe.

"Of course, Senior Sister, Mr. Shen has always let me target you. She also said that you have a very solid basic skills, and you are a person who really loves dancing."

Only with love can you be willing to contribute and achieve extraordinary achievements.

Tang Shi agrees with this evaluation. She has never been a genius, but she has paid so much more than others.

Others are playing, she is practicing dance.

Others are watching TV and she is practicing dance.

Others are on vacation, she is practicing dance.

Others are listening to music, she is listening to music and practicing dance.

Others are sleeping and she is practicing basic skills.

All the brilliance is the result of her accumulation bit by bit.

There is no genius, it's just hard work.

"By the way, are you going to have dinner together later?" Thinking that the two of them had nowhere to go in Hudu, Lazy Cat felt that he had an obligation to do the same as a landlord.

How can she be considered a half landlord?

No, it should be considered a landlord now.

The whole house is hers.

"Aren't you going to see your boyfriend?" Tang Shi asked gently: "By the way, is it him who is sitting next to my mother?"

"Well, it's him, Senior Sister saw it." Lazy Cat nodded happily, showing off her love like Senior Sister.

"Yeah." Tang Shi responded softly, and that face appeared in his mind again.

Pretty handsome, no other impression.

She just glanced temporarily when she stepped down.

Where can I remember so much?

"Let's not bother." Zhou Xue refused with a smile. It was hard to live a two-person world. It would be inappropriate to make light bulbs.

"Teacher Zhou, go! Qin Yu always said that he would like to thank you, and he must come and invite you if he wants to know." Lazy cat hugged Zhou Xue and said a little.

"You girl, let go." The inconspicuous figure was drawn into a proud curve by the hands of the lazy cat. Zhou Xue couldn't laugh or cry and let her let go.

In the end, he still didn't twist the lazy cat's coquettish Dafa, and promised to go to dinner with her.

In fact, they won't eat anything at all right now.

Even if you want to eat it, it's simple fruits and drinks, plus some chicken * at most.

Supper?

These two words are equally out of reach for them.

After 45 minutes, the whole dance performance is over.

Everyone took the stage to thank you, and Lazy Cat followed Tang Shi as one of the protagonists.

Standing on the stage, I saw Qin Yu waving below at a glance.

He looks happy and can't wait, just like a child who hasn't grown up.

"Your relationship is very good." Tang Shi smiled softly.

"Yeah." Lazy cat nodded affirmatively, and said, "He spoils me very much."

"With him, even if the sky falls, I will not be afraid. UU Reading www.uukanshu.com"

Lazy Cat tilted his head, his eyes crescently smiled and said, "Because he will definitely stand behind me and hold up the sky for me."

The words from the heart made Tang Shi's heart fascinated.

The straight drumming of "dongdong, dongdong" in my heart makes the whole person look different.

"Sister, are you okay?" Lazy Cat looked at her curiously.

"It's okay, I'm a little tired." Tang Shi shook his head, looking away with a guilty conscience.

Thanks to the end, the curtain fell again, and the performance came to a successful conclusion amidst laughter.

This also means that the actors and dancers can leave.

Back in the dressing room, Lazy Cat changed clothes as quickly as possible, then wiped off the powder and blush on his face, simply took off his makeup and ran out.

"Teacher, Senior Sister, I'm waiting for you at the door." Waved goodbye, the voice came out from the corridor, and people no longer knew where to go.

Shaking her head funny, Zhou Xue said dotingly: "This kid"

"Qin Yu" was standing on the steps in front of the theater, and the lazy cat looked Qin Yu at the side of the steps.

He stepped on the stairs with his feet chuckle and rushed towards him.

Quickly stepping forward, Qin Yu embraced her with open arms, and said dozingly: "Slow down, be careful of hurting yourself."

"Yeah." Putting his head in his arms, rubbed his head.

After smelling it again, the lazy cat's tense nerves instantly relaxed.

At this moment, she seemed to fall asleep in his arms.

Serene, tranquil, and full of masculine atmosphere made her feel absolutely safe.

"It's so warm!" Arched his head again, and the lazy cat's voice was already a bit tired after relaxation.

Only in Qin Yu's arms did she truly relax.

You don't need to think about anything, just give yourself to him with confidence, that's enough.

Chapter 748: Qin Yu? You are that Qin Yu!

Half an hour later, Cayenne stopped at Huaihai Middle Road.

There is a Hong Kong Island hot pot here, which looks good.

There is a pot bottom with flower maw, which is more nourishing.

The taste is not too strong, and the energy is not high, just suitable for the positioning of tonight.

Lazy cat and the two ladies in the car now need to take in water and vitamins from fruits and vegetables, and nothing else.

Therefore, Qin Yu finally picked this Hong Kong Island hot pot at 7,200 yuan per capita.

Hope to surprise myself!

The decoration of the shop is similar, and the overall style tends to be simple and mix-and-match.

It will give people a space difference between the new and the old, which is very interesting!

In terms of dishes, mainly seafood.

For example, red hair crabs and Aolong are definitely necessary, and the king of clams is a must for taking pictures.

In addition, I ordered some shells like mussels, and the prawns with salt and pepper skin are the recommended dishes. Here is one.

"Will we order too much?" Tang Poem, who hasn't spoken since sitting down, said that the first time he spoke, he was afraid of ordering too much food.

This girl is good at living!

"It's okay, Senior Sister, his appetite is very good.

Such strong muscles require a lot of energy to maintain. "

Lazy Cat tilted his head and leaned on Qin Yu's shoulder, reaching out and squeezing his chest muscles.

Qin Yu just responded with a dotting smile, fully cooperating from beginning to end.

"You girl, seeing her boyfriend is usually two people." Zhou Xue teased.

"Hehe" Lazy Cat smirked.

Rubbing her head, Qin Yu greeted her and said, "Teacher Zhou, Chief Tang, don't be polite."

"We are not polite, we really can't eat more, the body management during the performance is very strict.

A little distortion may affect the overall performance, so it only depends on you. "

Zhou Xue explained with a smile, taking a sip of water again.

Drink small amounts of water several times to give the body sufficient time for absorption and digestion.

This is the basic common sense to avoid edema.

Many habits are difficult to maintain at first, but over time, they will naturally become the standard.

Persistence is no longer so difficult!

"Then I'm welcome." Qin Yu said as he picked up the towel, wiped his hands, and started directly.

First guard the shrimp head to one side, and then put one-half of the shrimp meat on the Lanyue plate.

"I" Lan Yue said.

"Shut up, eat it obediently." Qin Yu interrupted aggressively.

"Oh" Lan Yue lowered her head pitifully, and cast her eyes on the opposite side for help.

Zhou Xue and Tang Poetry were just silly!

Is this the strange, naughty and cute little Yue Yue?

Fake it, was replaced by someone on the way?

"Well, since it's your boyfriend who is feeding, then you can eat it quickly, and practice for two more hours after you go back." Zhou Xueban said deliberately with a face.

Tang Shi nodded next to him, and after thinking about it, he whispered, "Well, can I practice for 2 more hours, Teacher Zhou?"

"???" Zhou Xue tilted his head to look at her gluttonously, and Zhou Xue helped her forehead.

Pain!

Depressed for too long, suddenly become a foodie?

"All right, but you two can control the amount to a certain extent. The two pillars have collapsed one after another. I, the instructor, don't do it." Zhou Xue jokingly warned.

"Got it!" replied in unison, the two looked at each other and smiled, picked up the chopsticks and started tasting dishes.

It is said that the tasting is a bit past, it should be said that the taste is licked!

Chop a dice with chopsticks, put it in your mouth and taste it, and that's it.

The shrimp meat that Qin Yu put on the lazy cat's plate was cut off by one third, and then two thirds were given to Qin Yu.

Divide one third into three, one for yourself, one for Senior Sister Tang, and one for Teacher Zhou.

Everyone has half the size of his thumb, and Qin Yu kept frowning when he watched.

Just here, how can I be full!

But seeing that the three of them were very satisfied, he didn't know what to say.

Yes, every other line is like a mountain.

It is the key point of the performance, and then they should also prepare and rehearse for the New Year's field, which is the finale of each year.

During the period, we have to take into account the schedule of the performance. If something really goes wrong, the lazy cat must be blamed again.

Blame Qin Yu?

No, she doesn't blame anyone, she only blames herself for not being able to control her mouth.

This is the lazy cat, and Qin Yu loves her most.

She was so kind that she could not bear to touch her, for fear that she would be bruised and bruised if she touched her.

Chapter 749: Fire-proof, anti-theft and anti-girlfriend

The founder of Miracle Company, Qin Yu.

So young, how old is he this year, 20?

"Men's age is the same as that of women, it's a secret." Qin Yu teased.

"On the Internet, he said he was 24 this year." Tang Shi looked down and turned his mobile phone.

Qin Yu looked at her with a weird expression. He didn't expect that there was a well-behaved little clever ghost here.

"Should I just praise you for being good, or go through the process?" Zhou Xue quipped.

"What process, do you go to tea art?" Qin Yu said.

A joke to break up the barrier between each other and let the atmosphere gradually heat up.

Unconsciously, the women all picked up chopsticks and brought dishes to their mouths from time to time, completely forgetting their previous persistence and original intention.

When I got back to my senses, the dishes on the table were all done.

"How much did I eat?" Zhou Xue put down his chopsticks and looked at a table of compact discs with a tangled face.

Why did she forget to control it, and ate it without knowing it.

"I don't know." Tang Shi pulled the clothes to the sides with his hands, looking down to see if he had a small belly.

When it was found that there was no such thing, it was relieved.

The same goes for the lazy cat, reaching out his hand to touch his belly, "It's okay, it's okay, the waistline is still there."

"It's getting late, let's go back!" Zhou Xue glanced at the time. It was 22:34 and it was time to go back and rest.

"Okay, why don't we go back together?" Lazy Cat suggested.

"What about the car?" Zhou Xue asked.

"I'm here to call on behalf of the driver." Qin Yu took out his mobile phone and ordered the name of the representative.

It will take a while before the driver arrives, just to pay the bill.

Four people spent a total of 20,860, 60 wipes, rounded up.

Swiping the card to pay, Qin Yu took the lazy cat and walked downstairs first.

Behind him, Tang Shi's eyes followed the two closely.

This kind of love is so sweet, full of yearning and envy.

If it is such a love, I really want to have it! !

"Tangtang Tangtang?" Zhou Xue touched her and asked curiously: "What are you thinking about?"

"Ah! It's okay." Tang Shi replied in a flustered manner, his eyes rolling wildly.

What was she thinking just now, she should sincerely bless Lan Yue, how could she even think of stealing her boyfriend!

Obviously, in the cognition of Tang poetry, there is a lack of multi-faceted coping ability.

Why always make a choice, good things are owned by everyone, you are happy, and I am also happy.

We have all entered the age of sharing, don't you know the fun of sharing together?

Number 1, double happiness!

This is the happy planet

Give the key to the driver and ask the other party to drive the car to the hotel.

Qin Yu and Lazy Cat held hands and stepped forward neatly, followed by Zhou Xue with an elegant smile and absent-minded Tang poetry.

After a meeting, Lan Yue seemed to remember that there were others behind.

Pulling Qin Yu to slow down, chatted with Zhou Xue and Tang Shi about the choreography and performance schedule.

Qin Yu listened quietly, but he had already made the arrangements for tonight clearly in his heart.

Qin Yu has opened the room opposite Jiang Xiaoshan.

When I will go back to the room with the lazy cat, let her put some water in and take a good bath.

Qin Yu went to the other side for a walk first, and the midfielder returned here to open up a new battlefield.

After the Lazy Cat's battle is over, he will return to the other side to continue the fight.

Two-line combat, that is, a strong man like Yu Ge, can be so capricious with King Kong Kidney.

To be an ordinary person, first of all, the waist can't stand it.

At the entrance of the hotel, Qin Yu knew that their dance troupe was also arranged here.

When asked which floor he lived on, Zhou Xue said with a smile: "16th floor."

Hey, coincidence!

Qin Yu also lives on the 16th floor, 1601 and 1610, door to door.

"I live in 1602" Zhou Xue said with a weird expression, which is really a coincidence.

If it wasn't for the itinerary to arrive at the hotel, and the team leader had just sent the room number to herself, she would have doubted whether it was Qin Yu's arrangement.

The 1601 that he arranged for the lazy cat is separated by a wall, did you say a coincidence?

"1608." Fortunately, there is a room in the room where Tang Shi and Jiang Xiaoshan live.

"Then let's go up together!" After Qin Yu finished speaking, he first went to the front desk and took the car key and room card that were placed here on behalf of the driver.

After that, the four people walked to the elevator with talking and laughing.

"Hey, that handsome guy, with three beauties alone, shouldn't you be so excessive?" the little girl at the front desk said gossiping.

"You also said, it's a handsome guy." The colleague replied helplessly.

These days, the value of face is justice, and the three outlooks follow the five senses.

Handsome guy!

Although 1 drag 3 is outrageous, it is not surprising to put it on such a handsome guy.

At this moment, he only hates that he is not a chaebol!

Take the elevator to the 16th floor, find the room, Qin Yu swipes his card to open the door, Lazy Cat bids farewell to Zhou Xue and Tang Shi.

"Xiao Yueyue, don't play too crazy." Zhou Xue teased and joked, pushed the door and slipped into the room, closing the door.

"Ms. Zhou." Lazy Cat stomped his feet, but he could only listen to the faint laughter inside the door.

As early as when Zhou Xue was speaking, Tang Shi had opened the door quickly, said "good night" and disappeared.

She is in a very wrong mood now, all kinds of shame images in her mind flicker frequently, making Tang poetry face red.

Standing next to the door in the room, Tang Shi touched her hot cheek with her hand.

She had some doubts, she was sick!

"I'll put some water first. I brought essential oils and aromatherapy before I came, so I can take a good bath and relax."

Qin Yu walked into the bathroom, boiled the water first, and brought in the aromatherapy, essential oils and petals prepared by the hotel.

Drop in the essential oil first, and then hold the ignited aromatherapy diffuser in your hand, and slowly shake it left and right to let the flavor fully evaporate.

Finally, evenly sprinkle the petals into the water.

"Okay, Lazy Cat, you can come in." Qin Yu shouted to the door.

The sound of footsteps came into his ears, and the Lazy Cat looked inside carefully and found that he was still wearing clothes.

He was relieved in vain, but he still asked in vain, "You won't be messy, will you?"

"Do you want me to mess around?" Qin Yu looked at her with a smirk.

The lazy cat shook his head quickly, then blushed and nodded, and said, "Wait for me to take a shower."

Stepping forward and rubbing her head, Qin Yu said softly: "Enjoy, I have plenty of time!"

With Qin Yu's guarantee, Lazy Cat relaxed completely.

She was not resisting, but worried that after dancing, her body would taste like a clean one.

The fact is that this worry is completely unnecessary.

Her body will always carry the faint fragrance of milk, which is fascinating.

Pull the door up, leaving only a small slit.

Qin Yu went out to the other party and pointed her finger at the electronic lock.

Dripping, the door opened.

"Who is it?" Jiang Xiaoshan's slightly nervous voice came from inside the house.

"It's me." Qin Yu responded softly, closing the door by the way.

But he never noticed that at the moment he opened the door, Tang Shi happened to appear at the door next door.

Seeing him walking into the room from the back, he was surprised.

Sleepless all night.

Early in the morning, Zhou Xue sitting in the dining room kept yawning.

"Ms. Zhou, did you not sleep last night?"

Lan Yue, who sits opposite, has a ruddy complexion and exudes a vivid and dazzling brilliance.

Zhou Xue stood in front of her with her hands again and yawned.

Looking at Lan Yue with a tired face, she couldn't help but blamed: "Who am I to blame?"

She slept lightly, but in the next room she did a night of tap dancing, pattering and pattering.

At about two o'clock in the morning, Zhou Xue felt that the wall beside the bed was trembling slightly.

This night, let alone how difficult it was.

Before coming to the restaurant, Zhou Xue took a special shower and changed to a clean lining.

The set last night has been thrown into the trash can by her and can't be worn

Neither of them noticed, the quiet Tang Shi was looking around.

It was like looking for something until a beautiful figure walked into the restaurant.

Her expression suddenly moved, and then the other party walked straight towards her.

Make her heart beat faster and faster, more and more

"Yue Yue."

Jiang Xiaoshan trot forward and said with a small smile to Zhou Xue and Tang Shi: "Hello, I am Yueyue's good sister."

Tang Shi stood up blankly, shook hands, nodded, smiled, and sat down.

The whole process is like a marionette, the only thought in my mind is: fire prevention, theft prevention, girlfriend, does Yueyue know?

Chapter 750: Go to sea again

, Starting at the pinnacle of life

"When did you arrive?" Lazy Cat was very curious about Yan Xue's appearance.

She thought that Qin Yu had come alone, but it didn't seem to be the case.

"I arrived last night and came with the boss." Yan Xue said with a smile: "A little secretary like me can only run with the boss."

Seeing her generously admitted that her expression was normal, Lazy Cat didn't think much about it.

Although there was a voice in her heart that told her, there must be a problem!

However, Lazy Cat must have been in the room last night without Qin Yu.

Because the light in the room is powered normally, when he comes out of the shower, he sits in front of the small bar and drinks.

It's impossible to run out with the door open all the time, and then get stuck with the time accurately, and come back before you finish the bath, right?

In fact, it was exactly as she had guessed.

It's just that the process is a little different

No matter how keen Ren Lanmao's mind was, he couldn't guess how Yu Ge would unlock the lock.

Especially high-end electronic locks, you can see through at one point!

As for the time issue, there are hundreds of small eyes staring at himself in the room, is Yu brother afraid of missing it?

So, opening up is so unreasonable!

"Yueyue, you stay for a few days." Afraid that she might not be able to hold it, Yan Xue, who was wearing a helper, changed the topic.

Don't look at Lan Yue always laughing and laughing with a child.

If those eyes keep staring at you, like smiling but not smiling, I really can't bear it.

"Two days, this is the last time I took a break a year ago, and the next step is to spin." Lazy Cat responded indifferently.

Tired is definitely tired, but no one will complain!

In the Royal Dance Company, you will be eliminated if you don't work hard

Because here, there are gathered the best dancers selected from the entire country.

No matter what minor drawbacks it has, it cannot change the status of its ceiling.

People who are better than you are still working hard, what qualifications do you have to complain?

Tang poetry is the best benchmark and example.

In the entire dance troupe, no one can match hard work.

So good, her performance has become the chief, so that everyone can not find an excuse to indulge.

"By the way, today I want to take Teacher Zhou to see Teacher Shen and introduce them to each other."
Lazy Cat said with a smile.

She was already a little impatient, and wanted to see the scene where the two teachers had a happy conversation.

"That's it, I'll arrange the boat. How about going to sea for two days?"

Qin Yu looked at Zhou Xue and Tang Shi: "Teacher Zhou and Chief Tang, too!"

"What boat?" Zhou Xue was curious.

The little clever Tang Shi had already pulled out his mobile phone, and Qin Yu quickly laughed: "It's a yacht, I bought it myself."

"Super Silver, futuristic fantasy paradise, woo!" Tang Shi pressed her finger to her lips, for fear of yelling.

This boat is too beautiful!

"Let me see." Zhou Xue took the phone and looked down, "Is this boat yours?"

Lazy Cat also leaned over and said, "Um, it's Qin Yu from our family."

That little Tsundere, don't mention too proud of it!

Looking at the yacht in the photo, Zhou Xue was obviously moved.

Who can refuse this temptation to be able to go out to relax and get close to the sea in a busy interval.

Tang Shi nodded under the lazy cat's questioning and said that there was no problem.

However, she has to call her mother first.

"I'll let people prepare." Qin Yu was about to call without any comments.

"May I call Mrs. Shen and Xuan Xuan too? Is Sister Shanshan here?" Lazy Cat asked curiously, tilting his head.

"You can call and ask." Qin Yu put down the phone and motioned to her to confirm the number of people first.

Called Teacher Shen here, and learned that she was alone, Wen Yaxuan and her company took up a new case, and they have been busy working overtime these past two days!

Teacher Shen also has to be busy in class and let them play by themselves.

"Mr. Shen, you just have to rest for two days, so maybe you won't see it this time, you will only see it after a year." Lazy Cat said coquettishly.

"A year later, not just two months." Shen Bing responded with a smile, this girl is getting more and more clingy.

"It's been a long time for 2 months, I miss you!" Lazy Cat looked at Qin Yu and blinked triumphantly as he said.

It's like saying "Am I good?"

Qin Yu nodded with a smile, the doting in his heart was about to overflow.

Tonight, he has to hurt this clingy cat!

Under the soft and hard foam of the lazy cat, Shen Bing finally compromised.

Originally said to pick her up, but Shen Bing said it was too troublesome, so she took a ride by herself.

I kept talking about matching cars for Wen Yaxuan and Li Wanxing, but the two of them never got a driver's license, and the other refused.

Li Wanxing felt that her beetle was very good, small and cute, fuel-efficient and durable, the key to her getting used to it.

Wen Yaxuan

I learned a driver's license for more than half a year, but I haven't taken the exam.

At first, I was not sure, but then I was so busy that I couldn't find the right time.

Or, buy a car for Teacher Shen first?

Qin Yu rubbed her chin, and said to her heart, "Wait for Teacher Shen to come, and ask about her driver's license, right?"

More than 30 years ago, the driver had to provide it.

Now!

It's a daily skill that everyone knows.

After dealing with Teacher Shen, Lazy Cat called Li Wanxing again.

Knowing that they were all there, Li Wanxing agreed in one fell swoop: "It's been a long time since I saw a little girl, I still miss him a little bit!"

""The lazy cat smirked, covering her mouth, looking at Qin Yu quietly.

Called to Jiang Xiaoshan, she just had a rest, and everyone was here except Wen Yaxuan.

"About two days, 8 people, yes, the ingredients are mainly light, and you can prepare more fruits and fresh water."

Knowing that it would be ready in half an hour, Qin Yu took the line and said: "If you have all eaten well, you can start."

"Go." Lazy cat raised his fist and ran out first in enthusiasm.

Halfway through the run, he ran back quickly, shook his head and jumped forward with the arm holding Qin Yu.

Happy n

After getting into the Cayenne, Zhou Xue suddenly asked, "This car looks like a girl drove it. Wouldn't it be used by Yueyue in Hudu?"

She wanted to ask last night, the car is full of dolls, and the aromatherapy is also a lady's style.

There is also a pair of flat shoes under the passenger seat, which are clearly prepared by the girl for driving.

Before Qin Yu spoke, Lan Yue took the initiative to say: "No, but it is indeed a girl driving, Sister Shanshan's car, a good sister in my dormitory."

Zhou Xue blinked and said a little surprised: "Is that the sister Shanshan you called just now?"

"Yes." Lazy Cat nodded.

""Zhou Xue was stupid.

This is a complicated relationship!

Why did "Sister Shanshan" drive the car to Qin Yu, and what is the relationship between them?

Why is Lan Yue so calm? Is the relationship between them so good?

With countless question marks, the group arrived at the Metropolitan Club.

"Shao Qin, the ship is ready, UU reading www.uukanshu.com can set sail at any time." The staff who came to the reception counted the number of people.

Finding that the people were not there, I immediately greeted everyone to sit and rest on the shore.

Turning around, I arranged a fruit plate and water, a bottle of 650 yuan, just sent 10 boxes to the ship.

Qin Shao didn't tell him to prepare more water.

At this moment, Zhou Xue and several people are standing on the shore, looking at the "Rhapsody Paradise" that seems to be formed in one piece.

Anyone who sees it for the first time will be full of shock.

It's so beautiful!

"Lazy cat, take Teacher Zhou and the others on the boat first, I'll wait here." Seeing a few people can't wait, Qin Yu asked them to go on the boat first.

Sitting on the bank alone, waiting for Shen Bing, Jiang Xiaoshan and Li Wanxing.

Since several people graduated, it has become more and more difficult to get together.

For Yu brother, this is both good news and regrettable.

The little trains lined up in rows, and the joy of turning the dirt on the dirt, I have never experienced it in recent years.

But it also avoids the hidden danger of derailment and rollover!

Whether it is good or bad, it depends on how Qin Yu treats this issue.

It was too early to see the time, Qin Yu closed his eyes, and the man had entered the evil demon.

He is going to see how the training of the dead girl is progressing with the church's new strategic weapon.

She will become a strategic nuclear weapon of the Church of Marvel Science.

Do not move easily, destroy the world in one move.

Although it's a bit exaggerated, it's almost the same

If the dead woman can exert all the power of the "star core" in her body, it is said that destroying the sky and the earth is light.

It's a pity that she now has difficulty even using the power of the "star core".

One carelessness will hurt yourself.

Fortunately, her current healing ability is extremely strong, coupled with the mechanical structure of the body.

Let her save her from the possibility of playing badly by herself.
