Chapter 901: I forgot about "business"

In the core laboratory, Qin Yu put a piece of the bought pork bones on the countertop.

At the same time, in the glass cover on the left, there is the hand bone of the abnormal section for comparison.

"Really want to do this?" Zhu Ying took a deep breath a little nervously.

"Well, let's start!" Qin Yu nodded seriously.

With the tattoo needle in hand, Zhu Ying bent down and leaned over the pig bones, and seriously began to become a 'bone tattoo master.'

Buzzing~

The "ink" made of natural graphene began to embellish the pig bones with sporadic text-like lines.

As time went by, Zhu Ying's forehead was full of sweat.

Even if the biochemical suit has a constant temperature function, it cannot keep her body temperature calm.

Seeing the sweat tickling and tickling down from the corner of her eyes, Zhu Ying's eyes were extremely focused, without a slight wave of movement.

At this moment, her whole mind got in, and the 'ink' in front of her was like a microcosmic and Hongdae brand-new universe unfolding.

She seemed to see it inside, she saw...

Boom!

Zhu Ying was knocked to the ground by the power coming from her side, "What are you doing?"

Looking up angrily, Zhu Ying saw Qin Yu with a serious face, "Qin Yu, what's the matter with you?"

"Doctor Zhu, it's okay." Qin Yu nodded to the two assistants without explaining, "Take Doctor Zhu down to rest!"

"I'm okay, isn't this not finished yet, hasn't the experiment been done?" Zhu Ying seemed to have an unknown fire burning in her heart.

But she quickly adjusted her mood and cared about the progress of the experiment.

"No, that's it for today!" Watching her calm down, Qin Yu's eyebrows were relieved.

"Okay, then I'll take a rest first." Zhu Ying also felt that her emotions were not normal, which should be the reason for her exhaustion.

After thinking about it this way, Zhu Ying really felt weak in her body.

She is very tired, her physical fitness is getting worse and worse, should she exercise regularly in the future?

Seeing Zhu Ying leaving with the two assistants, Qin Yu didn't know what was thinking.

"Teacher, do you need special attention?" Jing Yuan stood beside him.

Qin Yu was silent for a moment, shook his head and said: "The girl will pay attention, don't be too deliberate."

"Okay, the previous changes have been recorded." Jing Yuan said, looking back at the two bones.

A trace of jealousy flashed in his eyes, this kind of 'texture' was more terrifying than imagined.

It is like a special virus transmission original body, before they have absolute certainty, they should not be so reckless to carry out re-engraving experiments.

"All the previous data is sealed, and similar experiments are not allowed. I still have something to go."

After explaining clearly to Jing Yuan, Qin Yu took the elevator to leave the hive.

"Kirin, is there any new progress?" Qin Yu said silently in his heart.

"There is... Kate's recent report." Kirin.

A report appeared in front of him, and Qin Yu watched it quietly until the elevator stopped on the first floor.

"Boss, what floor are you going to?" Until someone reminded him and asked him which floor he was going to.

Qin Yu reacted and nodded with a smile to the employee who was going to go upstairs: "I'm distracted, thank you!"

After Andrew was taken away, he was left in the lunar ecosystem.

From the beginning, he was only active on the spacecraft, and then he was brought into the ecosphere, and then he was exposed to the altar room.

Of course, just observing from the periphery, the changes are not trivial.

He seemed to be able to see some other people or instruments, things that he couldn't see or perceive.

I stand in front of the door of the altar room every few meters every day, looking at the star gate inside through the narrow window above. '

He said some inexplicable things in his mouth, as if he was communicating with someone.

However, so far, the "Star Gate" has not changed much.

But they found the direction to stop the spread of 'Chaos' energy from Andrew's whisper.

'Star Gate,' an important material for restraining the diffusion of chaotic energy, exists there...

There is no way to judge whether it is true or not, but Qin Yu already has plans to enter the Star Gate. '

Of course, not sending someone in.

This time I still have to work hard [the creator] to explore using VR remote control.

As for how to prevent out-of-control pollution from [the creator], Qin Yu has also discussed this point with Qilin many times.

At present, the most effective way is to use 'liquid spar' as a special protection layer around the core.

It is also wrapped with a titanium rhodium alloy coating. Together, the two can allow [the creator] to avoid pollution within 8 hours.

Although this is only the time for the pollution resistance that spreads out inside the 'star gate', it really enters the 'gate'.

Whether the concentration of energy will increase or whether there will be any special circumstances, these are not known.

But at least it is one direction, and it is precisely because of this that VR equipment was chosen to be remotely controlled by humans to implement this exploration plan.

"Selection criteria?" Qilin asked.

"...It's good to choose among the monsters and hold an internal game between players. Compared to others, they are more skilled in the operation of the equipment."

"Let the player intervene, can you?" Qilin.

"Special expansion, limited-time copy, is there a problem?" After turning his head, Brother Yu had an idea in his heart.

Your own game, don't you want to come and come?

At that time, make a special expansion, such as the rise of machinery, with a grander background setting.

Then open the exploration 'Star Gate' into a copy.

Only the lucky ones can enter the 'limited time copy,' whether it will be open for a long time in the future is unknown.

In this way, the honor and vanity of the player can be easily satisfied, and a sense of curiosity can be aroused.

As for the information inside the "Star Gate", all of them are in an unknown state.

This can be mentioned when setting up the data background, "In the future world with advanced technology, AI has been integrated into human society..."

A brand-new colonial star has discovered a mysterious light gate, full of dangers and opportunities...

The warriors who have been conscripted are about to control the robot to enter the light gate and explore a new unknown world..."

"This is the general trend of the information. You are perfecting it." Qin Yu formulated the general direction and left the rest to Qilin to supplement.

"Okay." Qilin.

At the same time, the Network Department received a new message: "The new expansion of the game is about to be opened. The background information is as follows: in advanced technology..."

"All personnel are requested to add details, enrich background information, and a limited-time copy is in the process of programming..."

The red countdown mark appears on the big screen, and the minute and second hands can be seen.

The position of the hour was two? ? Banned.

"Okay, everyone has received Kylin's notice. Now that the new expansion has already been planned, the time left for us is bound to run out.

Everyone is ready to work overtime starting today, and I want to see the first draft of the background before 6 pm. "

"Understood, President Tang."

The neat answer was full of enthusiasm, and I couldn't wait to hear the network employees working overtime gearing up one by one.

In fact, it is true to say that, the big guy hears overtime, and there is no trace of reluctance in his heart.

It's all excitement! !

Why?

This again has to mention the high overtime pay of the Miracle Group.

Although the administrative overtime pay is not as exaggerated as scientific research, the compensation is not so comprehensive.

But compared to other domestic companies, it is also top-notch.

Moreover, the network department can be regarded as the most leisurely and least overtime department of the whole company.

People's departments work overtime every three to five, so it's better to switch to the network department.

In addition to monitoring data, writing code every day, engaging in frameworks, updating data, etc., basically nothing to do.

Overtime? No need.

Go back to bed and talk about your girlfriend, or go out and hey, you don't need to...

It's cool to get off work on time, but when it comes time to pay.

In the company lobby, elevators, corridors, and cafeterias, when it comes to salary, it sounds like it's not much different from me.

Some people are less than themselves, which is good!

Then...

"Go away~ Who asked you about your salary? I asked about overtime. The salary is extra money. Who cares about that?"

"Oh~ the salary of the regular class?"

"Then what, twice as fast...More!"

"Yes, it doesn't add up to 30,000."

"Can be more..."

When I heard this to the network department, I vomited on the spot.

Co-authored during the day is part-time work to earn extra money, and working overtime at night is a regular shift?

Our network department are all temporary workers, right?

But when I heard about salary, I couldn't even mention how envious I was.

People are like this, you let him go from 9 to 5 every day, but there is not so much to do.

After staying at home for a long time, I feel a little at a loss.

Hearing that the overtime pay of other departments is higher than the salary, I feel so sad.

Wonderful overtime, when will it be my network department's turn?

Finally, finally!

Ahahaha~ finally it's my turn to the network department, wowhahaha...

The network department that was dumped by Kirin suddenly became so happy.

"Xiao Di, what's the matter?" Qin Yu received a call from Anadi in the parking lot.

"What's the matter, you still ask me?" Anadi said in a naive tone: "Don't you think you have forgotten something?"

Forget?

Turning my mind, UU read www.uukanshu.com Qin Yu remembered.

Hey, my own mind, come back to patronize these messy things.

I forgot to look at the rewards, what are these two things, fission-level power armor and high-level energy crystals?

"Boss, remember it?" Anadi whispered.

"Well, think of...probably!" Qin Yu suddenly thought, she didn't know this reward for Anadi, she didn't mean it, right?

"I know you forgot, Miss Mi asked you, you said you want to meet Zhang Zi."

"Ah yes, I have been too busy these days." Qin Yu suddenly realized.

Yes, he has forgotten the "business" all this, it shouldn't, it shouldn't be.

"In this way, I have time now, can I arrange it?" Qin Yu asked.

"Yes, the other party is waiting every day!" Anadi smiled happily: "I will ask Mi Sister to post the WeChat account to you. Please contact yourself!"

"Good." Qin Yu said with a smile.

"Wait, Sister Mi wants to tell you." Anadi handed the phone to Rice.

"Boss, our relationship is courtesy. There is not much hypocrisy. I only promised to meet you.

What can I do for you? Should I help you judge for yourself? Don't influence your judgment because of me. "

"Okay, I know it in my heart." Qin Yu responded.

"Yeah~ But, I think you should help with this job, long legs, it's rare!" Rice said strangely.

"Ah~ I am a serious businessman." Qin Yu felt a little flustered.

Can we not be so direct, can't we be tactful?

Communication is purely communication.

As for the depth and results of the final communication, it also depends on the other party's wishes.

The nine-character mantra is determined, but Yu Ge's magic weapon for winning in the world.

Fouls must not be committed. If the Lord does not take the initiative, then Brother Yu can't control it.

Chapter 902: Bargaining chip

"Hello, this is Zhang Zi, is this Qin Shao?" After verification by a friend, the opposite party sent a greeting.

The sound is not the kind of sweet sheep sound, it is a little bit magnetic.

Very recognizable, and the cautiousness in the tone is also obvious.

If you ask others, you will naturally appear to be very careful.

"Yes, it's me, where shall we meet?" Qin Yu.

"Where is Shao Qin now, it depends on your convenience." Zhang Zi.

Knowing that Qin Yu was in Lujiazui, Zhang Zi happened to know a good cafe, so he asked the place there.

Because I have been there several times, the privacy is good, which can ensure that the conversation will not be interrupted by any entertaining or boring people.

"Okay, wait for the meeting." Qin Yu closed the door of the car and planned to walk over when the address was not far from him.

Just a few steps away, just stroll around.

"Wow, so handsome!"

"This back...I'm dead, let me kill me."

"Sisters, whoever asks for a phone call, I will ask for a month's meal."

"Sisters, really... I don't have the courage to look like this."

"Me too!"

There was a lot of talk from passers-by, making Yu brother helplessly wearing a mask.

It seems that his appearance cannot be unblocked outside.

We have to think about the police uncle, if it causes traffic jams or safety hazards, it won't be great.

When he came to the cafe, Qin Yu reported Zhang Zi's name and was led to the second floor lounge.

There are two sofas with a coffee table in the middle, and there is a glass tunnel on the wall with stones constantly moving in it.

The sofa is surrounded by a curtain, which can be pulled up to protect privacy when needed.

"Sir, what would you like to drink?" the waiter asked politely.

"Is there any tea?" Qin Yu said.

"Yes, take a look, we have a lot of tea."

"One pot of black tea, one refreshment, that's it." Qin Yu handed the list to the other party and nodded with a smile.

"Okay, come right away." The waiter smiled and left.

Before the tea came, Zhang Zi, who had made an appointment with Qin Yu, arrived.

High-waisted jeans, gray casual T-shirt tucked into the waistband, and a pair of flat shoes on his feet.

Simple, generous and stylish.

The height of 180cm+ and the long legs of 110cm don't need high heels at all.

Instead, they are flat shoes, which can better set off her figure and temperament.

"Hello, Qin Shao, it's great to see you." Zhang Zi bent down and stretched out his hands to Qin Yu, with a bright smile on his face.

At this moment, she looked at Qin Yu, like the only savior in the world!

"Sit down first, sit down and talk." Qin Yu nodded in greeting.

"Okay." Putting the bag on the sofa against the wall, Zhang Zi also sat down.

Because the sofa is too low, a pair of long legs with nowhere to lay looks a little embarrassing.

In the end, he had to sit on his side, bending his legs and curling them between the coffee table and the sofa.

"Sir, your tea and refreshments are here." The waiter brought tea.

Thanks for the service of Absolute Fang, the curtain was drawn up, Zhang Zi poured tea for Qin Yu himself, smiled and said: "So Qin Shao prefers tea!"

"Compared with coffee, tea is more suitable for my taste." Qin Yu responded with a smile.

"Really? Then when I visit you next time, I will definitely bring the good tea treasured at home." Zhang Zi smiled.

"There is a chance." Qin Yu picked up the tea cup and took a sip.

Seeing Zhang Zi on the opposite side with a cautious expression, waiting restlessly, Qin Yu put down his teacup and said, "Ms. Zhang Zi, if you have anything to say now!"

"...Qin Shao, then I'll just say it straight." Zhang Zi smiled awkwardly and said his purpose this time.

The reason, Yu Ge has already known about it.

The purpose of her coming is also very simple. She wants Qin Yu to take her own hand.

Lixin Investment, this golden sign is very useful.

Although Qin Yu has never used it, it doesn't mean it has no weight.

In the financial industry, there are countless people who want to deal with Lixin Investment, and they have nowhere to go.

If Lixin Investment can help deal with it, Zhang Zi is willing to bear all the compensation, as long as he avoids prison.

"This is the purpose of your coming?" Qin Yu thoughtfully.

Zhang Zi nodded quickly and carefully observed his expression: "Yes, I know this request may be excessive, but I really have no one to look for.

Shao Qin, please help me...help our family. As long as we can overcome this difficulty, we will definitely repay you in the future. "

Seeing her urgent appearance, Qin Yu thought for a while and asked: "Say a realistic question, what benefit can I get from it?"

"Shares, although those shares are not worth much at the moment, but my husband believes they will definitely rise back.

We transfer all of them to Lixin at the lowest price. As long as the market volatility picks up, you will definitely make a lot of money for Qin Shao. "

Qin Yu nodded, agreeing with her statement: "Let me see, what shares are there, are you on the list?"

"Bring it." Zhang Zi took out the bound catalog from his bag.

Before coming, she was completely prepared, how could she forget to bring such an important thing.

There is not only a catalog in the purse, but also a series of things such as the profit curve of these years, the actual income statement, the asset certificate and so on.

In the mezzanine of the satchel, there is also a long list of 12 backup plans.

That is the last hope. Before the moment of despair, Zhang Zi doesn't want to use them.

The summary of the shares recorded in the catalog is very complete, and Qin Yu even saw the names of some giants.

If this investment is not a sudden accident, it will definitely make a fortune.

Now...

If you start at the current price, you won't lose money.

But whether you can make money depends on future trends.

From his point of view, a small profit is okay, but a big profit is impossible.

Because, with the tremendous changes in the global situation, the future world economic center will shift from the West to the East.

The world market will also undergo a complete transformation, coupled with the rapid development of Miracle Company, which will have an impact on various industries.

At least two-thirds of the names Qin Yu sees in the future catalog will disappear.

Including some giant industries, such as Oracle, madness and other IT industries, will be beaten to death by the ever-changing black technology.

Nowadays, their batteries are far behind the development of the times.

After the mass production of Kuafu's new generation of mobile battery, it will have a devastating impact on the entire mobile battery industry chain.

Its power is no less than that of Mars hitting the earth, and it is still unknown how many people will survive by that time.

But Qin Yu can be sure that the company that failed to get the order is not on the list of 'survival'.

Crazy is one of the companies not on the list.

Therefore, in Qin Yu's view, his shares are worthless.

"Miss Zhang Zi." After closing the catalog, Qin Yu put it on the coffee table.

The indifference between words and actions can already be felt by Zhang Zi without opening his mouth.

This made her inner urgency even stronger, 'the other party is not interested, it shouldn't be!'

"Its value is not as high as you think. In fact, none of the industries you gave have been included in the scope of Lixin's investment plan.

Our investment in these areas is almost zero. Not because of risk or profitability issues, but not because of optimism. "

"How come, Qin Shao, you are taking a look, it includes a part of crazy shares..."

"I'm not optimistic about Crazy, you and I are in different positions, so naturally you look at problems from different angles. I can understand this!"

Looking at Qin Yu's gaze seriously, Zhang Zi saw only sincerity from it.

He really didn't care, and he was crazy about being loved by himself as one of his trump cards.

The situation instantly broke away from Zhang Zi's control.

Even her fingers holding the bag became pale and weak.

"In addition to these, I want to know what else your bargaining chips have?" Qin Yu was extraordinarily calm.

Like an absolutely sensible cold-blooded animal, but in line with the style of a businessman.

Qin Yu didn't know her very well, and they met for the first time today.

There are not enough benefits as motivation, so the reason is to help her through this difficulty.

Yes, if Brother Yu is willing to help, he can solve it by selling his personal feelings.

This may be a big deal for Zhang Zi's family, and the sky is about to fall down.

But for Qin Yu, it was a simple matter of sending a message in the group.

But that's just for him...

Today, most of the problems are no longer a problem for Qin Yu.

Does every stranger come to ask him for help, he will help each other to solve it cheerfully.

What are you doing, is the earth ball long?

Equivalent exchange, everything has a price, even Brother Yu will consciously abide by this rule.

When you want to harvest, you must first give and give!

Why would someone think that if you say a word or two, you can solve everything with a pretty face.

Do you believe the pie in the sky?

"Shao Qin." Zhang Zi squeezed his shoulder bag, his drooping face full of struggling expressions.

"Why, UU reading www.uukanshu.com, let's talk about it in another place?" Lifting his head, Zhang Zi's expression was full of smiles.

There was a bit more charming and enchanting between her eyes, and she got up and invited Qin Yu to leave with her.

After checking out, Qin Yu followed Zhang Zi into her car.

...

The following day, the Waldorf Astoria.

Brother Yu woke up from the big bed room alone and laughed blankly at the clean room.

In the end, he agreed to help Zhang Zi out of the difficulty.

As for the mysterious bargaining chip she gave, Brother Yu expressed his satisfaction.

Keng Keng~

"Come in." Qin Yu got up in her nightgown, planning to clean up first.

"Shao Qin, before that lady left, she left you something at the front desk." Butler Yao walked in with a small bag in his hand.

"Oh, what is it?" Qin Yu asked curiously.

"...I think it's better for you to live the purpose yourself." Butler Yao pointed out.

"Okay, let it go!"

Qin Yu casually pointed and asked with a smile: "Old Yao, the leg of the single sofa in the living room is broken, please change another one for me.

By the way, don't take out this room anymore, I will pack it. "

"Okay, Shao Qin, I will go through the formalities for you." Butler Yao put the things on the table and politely backed out.

After the suite door was closed again, Qin Yu lifted the small bag on the table.

When I opened it, I saw several broken stockings entangled with each other, and there were small folded pieces of paper on them.

"133..."

Well, a simple and direct number.

No need to say anything, numbers are the most romantic and clear answer.

Brother Yu came to the bathroom happily, threw the note into the toilet, and pressed the flush button.

Wow~

He has clearly recorded the numbers above in his mind.

This 'criminal evidence,' for mutual harmony, it's better to disappear.

Chapter 903: Expedition

After taking a bath, Qin Yu sat in the living room refreshedly and ate the breakfast from the guest room.

Picked up the phone and found the group chat of Sanqinhui: "Who has business dealings with UTS."

"Brother Yu is early, is this to start with Zhongxin?"

"No, everyone believes in their own people."

"Brother Yu is looking for Zhongxin for something, who knows people?"

"I don't know him well, I know a few small leaders, but they will definitely not be able to get in touch with Brother Yu. The level is too low."

"I know." Li Xiaoxiao.

"Private chat." Qin Yu.

After pulling a group with Li Xiaoxiao, and then pulling Xu Hao in, Qin Yu started talking about business.

"I know this matter, it's not easy to handle, but I can ask." Li Xiaoxiao.

"Forget it if you are embarrassed, I will ask someone else to ask." Qin Yu.

He doesn't know whether Li Xiaoxiao's relationship is hard or not. If he makes the other party embarrassed, this is not necessary.

Anyway, he has asked Lixin to take over the shares, and it will take a lot of trouble to take care of it.

Put a few news, such as the obstruction of battery research and development, and extend the time to market indefinitely.

Or there may be difficulties in the resettlement plan, and large-scale transportation cannot be realized.

Such 'good' news will inevitably make many capitals once again pick up their confidence in the bald eagle.

Let the rumors spread for a few days, and wait until the shares are dealt with and the holes are filled before clarification.

As for the miracle company, it hasn't been listed yet. What impact is it afraid of?

It is nothing more than being caught and criticized by the bald eagle later, and most of the benefits that should have been obtained are reduced.

But Brother Yu cares, ha ha...

To him, the bald eagle's protest was like a swarm of flies.

It's nothing more than 'buzzing' that makes people annoying.

It really doesn't work, it's fine to shoot.

Just kidding, haha, kidding...

How dirty!

It is not good to pollute the environment.

Compliance or non-compliance sometimes depends on the situation.

Let's wait for Li Xiaoxiao's reply first, ding~

Here comes.

Opening the three groups, Qin Yu saw Li Xiaoxiao's reply: "It's done, as long as he can fill in the principal, he won't be held accountable later."

"Xiao Xiao, thank you, let's go to the group and say." Qin Yu.

During the Sanqin meeting, Qin Yu passed a copy of the list of shares he had on hand: "New actions, each claim according to the situation.

The old rules, don't say anything, don't ask, hold shares and other news. "

"Xiao Xiao, 1% of the crazy lovers belong to you." Qin Yu.

"Thank you Brother Yu, then I'm not welcome." Li Xiaoxiao.

The price Qin Yu gave was based on the current market price, which was the same as the price he personally got from Zhang Zi.

Qin Yu won't make a difference on this, it's boring, and it's not necessary.

It's so fun to earn a dollar, and it's so much more fun than pitting yourself.

Seeing that he has finished talking about all that should be said, Li Xiao came out to preside over the distribution of shares.

The specific details of the claim, how much each person should receive and how much can be claimed.

He is responsible for coordinating the distribution!

Later, the money was called directly to Zhang Zi, and she transferred it to the public account of Lixin Investment in the form of investment.

Xu Meixin, Lixin Investment and Li Xiao are responsible for the details of these work.

Qin Yu didn't care, and first gave Jiang Luo and Xu Meixin a call to explain the details.

...

...

At the same time, a new notice on the official website of "Hero" also ignited public opinion.

First of all, the port of the Smecta area is officially opened.

From today onwards, the game is not limited to Daxia, Barrow and Baimaozi players.

There is another Smecta, which makes many players geared up and can't wait to welcome 'new friends.'

Especially the Barrow Maozi, after taking two sips of vodka, they all smiled 'kindly'.

Smecta's sportsmanship has always been criticized!

The conflict between Barrow's players and Smecta players in the previous two years caused quite a stir.

The opposing team was a stepping stone and almost made the Barrow player's career abolished.

Although he was punished in the end, Bamozzi was also very vengeful.

They can remember this all the time, but they have nowhere to avenge their hatred.

Now it's alright, Smecta has also joined the league, and even ran into "Ghost".

Hehe~

Wait until I have two more sips and welcome our new friends with the warmest slap.

Don't let these guys stay in the garbage for two years, they don't know what Barrow Burst Bear is.

Another piece of news has attracted more attention than the addition of Smecta.

New expansion...

Although there is only a short and concise one, the description will open a limited time test copy.

But the players are already on fire.

This is the second official update since the game was released, and it is also a special expansion.

A great * opened an analysis post and conducted a series of honey analysis on the information in the notice.

And it is important to note that the opening of this copy must be 'small and selective'.

The number of people who can join will definitely be limited, and the best players among them will be selected for testing.

For a limited time, the copy will be closed again later.

As for the adjustment and opening up, or just as an episode of enriching the game content, it depends on the game company's plans and activities.

Players have left messages below, expressing their full support for the development of the 'new dungeon' and the first game dungeon.

And hope that more instances will be open in the future, allowing players to truly embark on the vast journey of the sea of stars.

Nowadays, although the fleet is already being formed, fierce star wars are being launched in space.

But the actual number of players participating can be described as one in a million.

Most players can still only look at the starry sky and are excited about the 'fireworks' that suddenly exploded above.

And guess whether it was the opponent's fleet or the human fleet that won. ;

Able to join Star Wars and enter the fleet.

It has become the highest glory for players to compare with each other, and even affects the status of reality and the right to choose a spouse.

It is said that there is a great * who joined the fleet and is entangled by various girls every day, asking him to follow the detailed history of the Star Wars.

The point is that the girls who tell him stories every night are different.

From then on, not only embarked on the journey of the stars and the sea, but also never returned on the road of sexual happiness.

The single dogs in front of the device are almost blinded with envy.

This event is an opportunity for them.

Even if you can't join the fleet, if it's really like what the Great God said in the analysis post, this time it's 'Selected Best Record' to enter the dungeon.

The selected person can also be called a 'human elite'. Wouldn't it be possible to hug the girl and tell stories every night?

In this regard, embark on the glorious journey of chasing sexual happiness.

Gee, this place, I want XXX.

...

...

Su Jiang, Menglan.

Qin Yu drove his familiar big par, driving on the small road to the countryside.

This time he wanted to travel low-key, but when he came to the country, Palamela's Porsche license plate was still a bit too high-key.

Brother Yu considered whether to prepare two low-key cars in Hudu.

For activities like visiting classes, the less noticeable, the less people know the better.

Nowadays, the development of the countryside is really good. Like Menglan, where he came this time, the roads are no worse than the urban elevated and express highways.

Qin Yu walked through the village according to the navigation guidance, and followed the road up the mountain to the gate of the resort.

The crew lives here, there is a small pond, a small piece of fruits and vegetables are planted in the small yard, and the hollow wall is covered with ivy.

The environment looked really good. Qin Yu parked his car in the open space outside the courtyard and dialed Anadi's number.

"Boss, are you there yet?"

"Well, here it is."

"Where are you, I'm waiting, Guna is resting in the room, I will let her pick you up."

"I'm at the gate."

After hanging up the phone, Qin Yu saw Gu Na running out of the yard through the rear mirror.

"Here." Qin Yu got out of the car and put on a mask, and took the initiative to greet him.

The distance between the two was getting closer and closer, and Guna had already unconsciously opened her arms, but she still stopped in front of Qin Yu.

No, you can't hold it.

On the third floor in the small courtyard behind, a few heads in the window were looking out curiously, with a sense of excitement in their eyes.

The lens of the mobile phone in his hand is aimed at the location of the two people.

"Um, I'll take you to the room first." Guna resisted the excitement in her heart and turned and walked towards the courtyard.

Qin Yu followed without saying anything, walked into the courtyard, and went upstairs to the second floor.

Guna opened a door and deliberately said loudly: "Xiao Di lives with me, why don't you come in first and wait!"

"Good." Qin Yu said cooperatively, and walked into the room.

The moment the door closed gently, Guna could not wait to hug him: "Do you know how much I miss you?"

Holding her soft body tightly, Qin Yu put her head on her shoulder and said softly against her ear: "Me too."

"Woo~" After a deep kiss, the thoughts in Guna's heart turned into desires.

The straight legs were weakly bent, and the body fell down and knelt on the floor.

...

...

When Anadi finished filming and hurried back.

There is only Guna in the room, sleeping soundly in the bed.

The face is radiant, the skin is tender and glowing, and the expression of sleeping is even more undiminished. At first glance, I put on the mask.

This skin is dripping under the sun!

The boss is also true, and toss people as soon as he comes.

There are so many people here, he is not afraid of being discovered.

I don't know how Guna can endure her without making a sound.

"Nana, Nana, where's the boss?" Anadi pushed her impatiently, wanting to know Qin Yu's whereabouts.

"Huh?"

Opening her eyes blankly, Guna pointed to the next door: "Over there, don't mess with me, I'm so sleepy!"

"Who got you?" Anadi said dubiously, turning around and closing the door to the next room.

At a glance, I saw Qin Yu lying on the bed and swiping his mobile phone.

Anadi's previous internal questioning of Guna was completely vanished at this moment.

I just want to rush into Qin Yu's arms, snuggle tightly with him, and enjoy all his love.

"Boss~" Lying in his arms, Anadi's voice became soft like a sheep.

"Do you miss me?" Qin Yu asked with a smile, touching her head.

"What about you?" Anadi raised her head mischievously and put her hand on his chest.

Strong muscles are accompanied by a strong heartbeat, which makes her heart jump faster.

The gaze looking at Qin Yu was also blocked by the hazy mist.

Breathing, unconsciously aggravated and faster, as if to herald some kind of sign!

Chapter 904: The original call of nature

When the rice came back from work and saw Qin Yu, the Anadi had already been abandoned.

A lipstick hung on the corner of Hua Hua's mouth, and her small mouth opened slightly, making a mosquito snoring sound of 'huh, huh'.

She is so tired!

"Can't you learn to pity and cherish jade?" Rice slapped him angrily.

The cute baby voice, coupled with her smile, is more like a silent encouragement.

So, after receiving Anadi, the rice was also discarded.

Next day~

As soon as Qin Yu turned over to get up, Rice woke up.

There was her role in this morning, and in the area of dedication, the people in the reputation are just like her boss.

I will never delay the shooting process because of my personal reasons.

As long as you join the group, you can not ask for leave without asking for leave!

Unless it's something big, it can't be avoided.

"Not many breaks, or ask the director for a leave?" Qin Yu asked with a smile around her tight devil waist.

Even today, he still can't believe that this is the waist of a woman with a cub.

It is better than the little girl, and there is no fine line on the belly.

I don't know how much effort and price it took to keep my figure better than the little girl.

"Don't even think about it." Angrily nodded his head with a finger, rice kissed him and said: "Xiao Di and Nana are shooting the evening scene today, let them accompany you!"

"Aren't you afraid of people talking gossip?" Qin Yu sat on the side of the bed, admiring the grace of rice.

"Afraid, is it useful?" Rice gave him an angry look and said, "You are here, can I stop you?"

"That's true." Qin Yu nodded triumphantly.

"You, when can you stop being so narcissistic." Rice smiled and waved, stepping on her little black short boots and was about to leave.

Reaching out and pulling her into his arms, Qin Yu kissed her pink lips in the voice of rice's "makeup".

Until the assistant outside the door urged that everyone else had arrived, he waited for the rice to depart.

Qin Yu let go of her reluctantly, and said with a joking smile: "Sure enough, a young woman is very good, Sister Mi... I'll be waiting for you at night."

"Fuck you." Xiao Mi pushed under his shoulder, and rice quickly ran out of the door.

Click!

Hearing the sound of the room lock being fastened, Qin Yu put his hands behind his head and lay down arbitrarily.

"Young women are good in every way?" There was a ridicule in the ear.

Qin Yu was clever and said, "Well...Is it such a coincidence?"

"Yes, everything is good." Qin Yu said to himself, turning his head to the sleepy Anadi.

"Just know that you like this tune, huh, bad guy!" Anadi coquettishly snorted.

As he spoke, his body leaned in his arms very honestly, resting his head on his chest and shoulders.

Friction, friction~

Find a comfortable angle and position, and put his thighs on his stomach.

Satisfied with a smile, murmured: "So comfortable!"

Look at her, this is going to sleep again.

"But no matter how good a young woman is, she is not as good as our Didi, she is the brightest one in this dazzling starry sky."

The love words in the ear made Anadi's smile especially bright.

"When did you talk like this, it's the first time I heard it." Anadi reached out and hugged his chest, muttering sweetly in his heart.

"Is there? What I said is what I said in my heart." Qin Yu responded, holding her shoulder with his backhand.

"...I don't want to be the brightest star in the starry sky, I just want to be your little woman." Anadi responded happily.

"You are my little woman, the little woman I love the most." Qin Yu silently stroked her hair sideburns.

He whispered inwardly, "One of the little women I love most."

With the increase of age, Yu Ge's heart has also upgraded, like a sea of stars, vast...

The sea of stars is vast, so how many stars must be filled to fill it up?

He only has a few stars now, just feel free to swim inside, there are positions in the sea of stars!

Even if Brother Yu can take it to heart, there are not many that really worry about it.

Thinking about it carefully, there is still a little vacancy in this heart.

Eh~

As a man yearning for the stars and the sea, Brother Yu is really a bit difficult.

At this moment, the happy Anadi did not know that Brother Yu's heart had drifted towards the sea of stars, and he counted the number of stars dotted with.

Looking at his handsome profile, the emotions in his eyes can't help but be intoxicated.

Pulling the quilt upwards, the beautiful body retracted into the quilt.

"Little girl, it's very bold!" With a ridicule, the free time in the morning passed quietly.

At the point, Guna ran over.

When I came in, Anadi was still lying in bed lazily, and couldn't help but laughed: "Are you going to sleep in bed for a whole day?"

Anadi stretched out his arms and said, "What's the matter, I have been filming for several days, and I haven't slept well. Can't I get some sleep?"

"Make up for sleep?"

Guna slyly stretched out her hand to pull the quilt, and shouted: "That's how you made up your sleep."

"Ah~ Guna, I hate it." Anadi quickly grabbed the quilt and wrapped her body.

"Who makes you dishonest, this is the price of lying." Guna raised her eyebrows triumphantly.

Anadi said angrily: "Believe it or not, I fight with you, tear all your clothes out?"

"Tear out?"

Guna ridiculed and said, "Miss, have you made a mistake? Now that I am in the upper hand, you can..."

Pointing at her, Guna's expression was full of teasing.

"Huh, I don't know you as much." Anadi stubbornly turned away.

Seeing the two men fighting, Qin Yu said amused: "You two are like this, have you taken into account my feelings?"

Only then did the two realize that there was Qin Yu next to him, and if they made a fuss, neither of them could escape.

How vigorous the boss is, it has been verified by actual combat time and time again.

With one enemy and one hundred, running through the night is just a routine operation for him.

So, don't beat his anger here.

Otherwise, no one will want to go out today.

"Stop it, let me get up... Where are we going to play today?" Anadi got up to clean up.

Looking at Guna on the side, she decided to paint a beautiful first love makeup today.

Humph, mad at her!

Hehe...

Sitting at the table humming triumphantly, Anadi handed over the task of site selection to the two of them.

Gu Na was thinking about what is interesting nearby, and Qin Yu turned on her mobile phone to search.

"Otherwise, we will climb nearby mountains and see the scenery."

Seeing nothing special, or too far away, Qin Yu smiled and said, "By the way, I can take pictures of you."

"Huh?" Guna blinked and said, "Then I'm going to put on some makeup."

Qin Yu took her hand and said, "You are already beautiful like this."

"No, I don't want to be on the mirror without makeup!" Guna kissed his face and sprinted to her room quickly.

Seeing the friendly competition between the two, only Brother Yu himself was helpless.

This time, I don't know how long it will take to waste!

By the time it really set off, it was already 2 hours later, at three o'clock in the afternoon, when the sun was poisonous, the three of them went out together.

Wear a mask, a simple sun hat, and sun protection clothing.

Holding a beautiful parasol in his hand, he walked into the mountains step by step.

"Hiccup~"

Anadi hiccuped, embarrassedly smiled with her hand over her mouth: "I ate too eagerly just now."

"Are you in a hurry to eat? You are a starving ghost reborn." Guna said.

"You are starving to death, I am hungry!" Anadi retorted.

"Cut, when are you hungry?" Guna mocked.

Gu Na was really envious and jealous of her appetite.

No matter how you eat, you won't get fat, and you won't be fat. It's the welfare of the goddess.

Unlike myself, it's obvious if you eat a little bit, even passers-by can see it in snap shots.

"Now, here you are, do you want to eat?" Anadi took out his snack again, yogurt pimple.

"Hmm~" Guna quickly backed away and shook her head.

She really can't stand this, even if the two are fellow villagers, not everyone likes yogurt pimple.

"Don't eat it, boss, ah~" Anadi turned to Qin Yu and delivered the snack to his mouth.

He opened his mouth to bite the yogurt lumps, and the soft and moist fingertips made Anadi feel like an electric shock.

"I hate it." Anadi patted him lightly and walked forward with his head bowed.

That happiness, even a blind man can see it.

"How long will it be?" Guna asked painfully as he walked up the mountain step by step.

From the highway to the mountain road, they have climbed for an hour and a half.

Why is it still not at the top? When looking down, the mountain is not very high?

"It's almost here, it should be the mountain in front." Anadi panted on her knees, looking almost unable to hold it.

Standing in the middle of the road, Qin Yu looked at the two with a flushed face, and said amusedly:

"With your physical strength, how does UU reading www.uukanshu.com usually complete difficult movements?"

"It's different, the tiredness of climbing is completely different from that tiredness." Guna waved her hand and said.

Anadi nodded in agreement and said, "Shall we not rest?"

"Okay, then take a break." Qin Yu nodded in agreement.

I looked around, and there was an open space in front of me. There were a few stones on it, which should be used to rest my feet.

"Go, go there." Qin Yu took the two to the platform with one hand in hand.

Finding a flat stone to sit down, Anadi and Guna unanimously let out a sigh of relief: "Your legs are so tired!"

The two of them frowned, and said with their fists curling their aching calves: "It seems that you will have to climb more mountains in the future, otherwise you will lose points if you receive this kind of scene."

"I should climb more and breathe the air from the mountains, so I feel comfortable." Qin Yu took a deep breath.

The air brought by the fresh cool breeze seems to wash away the turbidity in the body.

"Well~ it's very different." The two nodded in agreement.

"Boss, my leg hurts." Anadi moved his leg in front of Qin Yu and shook his body coquettishly.

"I'll take a look." Put her leg in her arms.

Today, Anadi wore a pair of yoga pants, which completely set off her tight and sensual legs.

Kneading and beating lightly, the atmosphere suddenly became weird.

Guna was the first to find out, carefully trying to retreat, trying to escape the disaster.

Unexpectedly, at the moment when she was about to get up, Qin Yu suddenly grabbed her wrist and pulled it into her arms: "Little lady, where are you going?"

"Ah~" Tilted into Qin Yu's arms, the birds took off for a while.

Between the mountainside, intertwined gentle singing rang.

Also like the most primitive call of nature, alternately lingering, immortal~

Chapter 905: Mother-in-law sees son-in-law

When I went down the mountain, it was almost dark.

Qin Yu held one in his arms and one behind his back, which led the two with weak legs down the mountain.

"Next time I go to climb the mountain, I should prepare a trolley, two people." Putting the two at the intersection, Qin Yu joked.

"It's not all to blame you." Anadi frowned.

Then he looked at Qin Yu curiously and found that his face was not red, and he secretly wondered: "Boss, how do you make your body so strong?"

"I'm hanging up, can't it?" Qin Yu replied.

"Huh~ forget it if you don't want to say it." Anadi turned her head away, and walked forward with enthusiasm.

Gu Na took Qin Yu's arms and relied on him to walk forward unhurriedly.

When there are people, such treatment will only belong to Anadi.

Therefore, she wants to enjoy the sweetness and happiness before she reaches the farmyard.

"Hey, over there, it seems to be back." In front of the farmyard, the car to pick up the actors has been waiting for a long time.

Today's scene is suddenly advanced, but the two protagonists are missing when they come to pick up people.

This can be anxious to ruin the scene, looking for people everywhere.

"Ahem~" Anadi also saw the scene running towards him, and promptly coughed to remind the two behind him.

"Miss Anadi, alas, I finally found you. The scene has been advanced. The director is waiting on the set!"

"Ah~ I'm sorry, we went up the mountain to take pictures, I'm really sorry." Anadi bowed and apologized quickly.

This performance actually made it impossible for the fire in his heart to deal with the scene, opened his mouth, and the fire in his heart instantly disappeared.

"Well, don't be so polite. Actually, it won't be too late. It's just right that this will go down." Chang Wu scratched his head and said.

"Okay, let's go now!" Anadi smiled back and said, "Guna, hurry up."

"Here." Guna ran over from the shadows and ran to the minibus with Anadi.

Qin Yu stood in the shadow, and didn't walk out until the two left.

Shaking his head funny, Qin Yu planned to go to the set to see if nothing happened.

After driving along the minibus to the studio, Anadi and Guna hurried to touch up their makeup, while Qin Yu parked the car aside and leaned on the car door to look at the studio.

"Well, you are Miss Anadi's?" The scene who had taken over before came over and smiled curiously.

"Boyfriend." Qin Yu responded with a smile.

"Ah, I said yes...Well, do you want to go there for a break?" The clerk pointed to the chair next to him and said.

"No, you are busy with you, I will just take a look." Qin Yu smiled politely.

"Okay, okay, then you can watch it." After the field affairs left, he turned his head and ran to the rice side and said something.

This is how I returned to my job!

Qin Yu also understood why the other party suddenly came to greet him.

Waved to the rice in the distance, Qin Yu saw her walking towards him.

"Why, so reluctant, I still have to follow it." Rice teased and laughed.

"Yes!"

Qin Yu whispered: "I can't bear the ever-changing queen of our family."

"Who belongs to your house." He said that he didn't care, but rice's pride was written on his face.

"Of course it's you." Noting that no one was paying attention nearby, Qin Yu reached out and grabbed a handle on her rear bridge.

"Tonight, I am yours." Listening to the love words in her ears, Rice's calm heart was like being dropped by a stone, and waves were swayed continuously.

Tonight, doomed to sleepless!

...

...

Three hundred kilometers away, a quarrel is happening in a secluded mansion that is quiet in the noisy area.

Looking at the anxious man, Zhang Zexin's expressionless face was bleeding.

"What the * did you do? Do you know what you did? Those stocks are my comeback, and I bought it back with my life."

"You sold them all at the price of cabbage. Are you crazy?"

"Do you know that all the assets in the family are invested in it, and without those shares, there will be nothing."

"Talk, talk! What are you talking about to me, ah~" the man's roar was close at hand.

That calm and indifferent face made the anger even higher.

What kind of attitude is she, she has no money now, she has fallen!

So, she ignores herself now, when she is the air, all she says is bullshit.

She doesn't even bother to respond now, does she?

"Say, did you have a leg with him? Did you do this deliberately to sell all the assets while I was away. This is illegal. I don't understand the law?"

Shaking off the hand holding his arm, Zhang Zi said coldly: "You are drunk, so go to bed early!"

"I'm not drunk, you tell me honestly, say, you, slap!"

A loud applause made the quarrel suddenly come.

Seeing his expression of astonishment covering his face, Zhang Zi only had disappointment and heartache in his heart.

How much did it cost to get him out of it, and let this family escape.

Although the money is gone, at least the people are still there, and the home is still there.

And he!

The first time I came out was not to comfort myself, not to care about how well I had been during this time, and how much I was wronged.

Instead of accusing yourself of spending all the money and transferring property?

Ha, Zhang Zi's heart is bleeding!

If she really wants to do this, just let him stay in jail and do nothing.

What are you doing these superfluous things?

So, what did you do, why did you let him out, why did you want to...

Thinking of that crazy time, Zhang Zi's heart should have been saddened.

It is strange to ignite a trace of sweetness and new hope!

So strange~

For an instant, Zhang Zi was distracted by this, recalling the madness that day.

As for the crazy man in front of her, she had no hope in her heart.

Just let him go crazy here alone.

If he feels that there is no need to continue, then it will end like this!

Everything I have done is enough, really enough! !

...

...

After living in the mountains for three days, the first time Qin Yu returned to Sujiang was to visit Lazy Cat's house.

"Who, here comes." When she heard the knock on the door, Lan's mother opened the door with a smile.

Seeing Qin Yu standing at the door, his expression was so shocked that he burst into laughter: "Ah, it's Xiaoyu, why are you here, Xiaoyu?"

The child's father, Xiaoyu, is Xiaoyu here, is Yueyue also back? "

"No! Auntie, I'm the only one." Qin Yu said with a smile, "Is it too abrupt to come on the door suddenly?"

Ma Lan hurriedly waved her hand and said, "Don't be abrupt, not abrupt, not abrupt at all, come in!"

"You said you come as soon as you come, why do you still bring so many things, don't bring anything next time you come."

Putting the gift in his hand by the wall, Qin Yu said with a smile: "It's okay, auntie, this is what I should do."

"Xiaoyu is here, sit down." Dad Lan walked out of the room, his clothes obviously changed.

No one is at home, wearing a shirt, trousers, and a pair of new socks.

The label stuck on it... he seems to have forgotten to tear it!

"Hello, uncle." Qin Yu greeted him with a smile and nodded.

"Well, come sit down and have tea together." Dad Lan put his simple tea set on the coffee table.

Then he went to the closet and turned over the cabinets, "Where is my tea? I bought it specially last time, where did I put it?"

"Then it's on the top, just open it up... isn't this right here?" Lan Ma pushed him away, and reached out to take out a new pot of tea in the cabinet.

"Huh? Why didn't I see it?" Dad Lan held the tea can, his face full of doubts in life.

He had just seen this layer clearly, didn't he?

Why did the wife come over, reached out and grabbed into the cabinet, and it appeared?

"Ahaha, drink tea, drink tea." Seeing Qin Yu's same stunned expression, Dad Lan no longer entangled this detail.

"Xiaoyu, save it for lunch for lunch!" Lan's mother brought hot water from the kitchen.

"Okay, trouble Auntie." Qin Yu nodded and said.

"It's not troublesome, it's not troublesome at all. Yueyue doesn't come back very often. Just the two of us, we have no appetite for eating every day.

It's enough to get enough to live and eat. It's great if you are here, I'll prepare now! "

Mother Lan started to work as soon as she said, the enthusiasm in her heart was just like seeing her own son.

Seeing Qin Yu getting up as if he was going to help, Dad Lan grabbed him and said, "Just let your auntie do it, drink tea!"

"Okay, uncle, I'll come." Qin Yu took the tea cup to brew.

"well..."

Dad Lan always had something to say, and he kept pouring tea into his mouth.

Until Qin Yu actively asked: "Uncle, do you have anything to say?"

"Huh? Huh?" Dad Lan smiled embarrassedly, put down the tea cup and asked in deep thought: "That...I just want to ask, you...the Yueyue's matter."

"We! We are fine. Although Yueyue is relatively busy, UU reading www.uukanshu.com, but I support her pursuit of her dream.

She who pursues her dream looks the most dazzling, and also my favorite look. "

Qin Yu began to talk about the matter between the two and pointed out that he was also very busy at ordinary times.

But both of them cherish the time together, and I believe it will be the same in the future.

Qin Yu couldn't guarantee that there would never be a conflict between them, but he could guarantee that Lan Yue would be happy for the rest of his life.

"Xiaoyu!" Dad Lan put his hand on his knee and pressed the button forcefully, "Uncle believes in you, I must make the girl happy!"

"Well, I promise." Qin Yu nodded seriously.

This conversation between men was serious and sincere.

"Uh, what are you guys?" Ma Lan was standing at the door of the kitchen, looking at two serious-looking men, and asked, wanting to laugh but not funny.

"what!"

Dad Lan quickly retracted his big hand on his knees, pretending to be calm and said: "It's okay, I and Xiaoyu talk about the agreement between men."

"Yes, the agreement between men." Qin Yu responded with a smile.

"Have you agreed?" Mother Lan said with a laugh: "I'll come to eat after the agreement is made, and everything is done."

The two of them saw that the table was already full of rich dishes, just waiting for them to be on the table.

Ma Lan also deliberately took out a bottle of Feitian Moutai that Dad Lan couldn't bear to drink, "Can Xiaoyu drink it? If you can drink it, I will have a drink with your uncle."

Qin Yu smiled and nodded, "Well, yes, drink less."

"Well, drink less, don't you know, when I am alone, your aunt never let me drink!"

"Then have a few more drinks with Auntie today!" Qin Yu nodded jokingly, "Be sure to let uncle have fun."

Seeing the two talking and laughing, Lan's mother laughed.

This Xiaoyu!

How come the more you look at it, the more pleasing it becomes?

Chapter 906: 5 trillion

After a drink, Qin Yu left in the voice of Lan's mother.

As for Dad Lan, he was lying on the bed 'huhu' asleep, drinking too quickly, he would have been drunk.

"Old He, I have to trouble you to come and pick me up..." After reporting the address, Qin Yu found a driver and drove the car to the hotel.

"Ah~" Lie down comfortably on the big bed, Qin Yu took out the phone and swiped the notes.

Seeing that Little Pumpkin's birthday was approaching, the kid was talking every day, asking himself to take him to Sanya for his birthday.

According to last year's standards, it is best to change a batch of young ladies!

By the way, is this kid a little floating?

Little kid in the kindergarten, the bird skin hasn't grown smooth yet, crumpled...

Just want to go to heaven?

Or, find someone to take him this year.

But with a flick of a finger, big data grabbed Yu Ge's heart.

The quality of these new ladies seems to be pretty good! !

In other words, the music notes have been getting better and better in the past two years, and the speed of new music has been getting faster and faster.

How about the copywriting from last year?

Just do it if you want to. The old copy does not contain any difference, and I send it again.

In an instant, several new messages popped up in the background, and the message changed from 0 to 27.

"Is it fast enough?" Brother Yu opened the message and looked at it a few times, then swiped away to look at other things.

Wait until the first two or three days to choose again, and the time can fully keep up.

Ringling~

He Sheng, why do you think of calling yourself?

It's been a long time since Qin Yu is really curious about the development of the guild.

"Brother Che, haha, long time no see!" Qin Yu said loudly.

"Brother Yu, I can be remembered by a busy person like you, my heart is like honey..."

"Wait... Didn't you go to Thailand recently?"

"It's too much, it's too much! I'm expressing my longing, not all young people nowadays say that love should be boldly said."

"Fuck~Gender is male, loves female, you let me go a little bit longer." Qin Yu asked with a smile, "Why do I have time to call at this time?"

"Ah, I almost forgot." He Sheng patted his forehead and said, "Brother Yu, is there still room for your rich birthday party? I have to buy some tickets."

"What kind of rich birthday party...Is it for my brother to have fun, someone from the guild is coming?" Qin Yu asked in surprise.

"Good my brother Yu, who doesn't want to go! You really don't know?" He Sheng was confused, and asked in a puzzled tone.

"Know what?" Qin Yu asked back.

He Sheng explained to him how popular the "big family birthday party" is today.

For those who are new to the industry, or those who have not been popular for many years.

This is a shortcut to explode!

At the end of the last event, those Internet celebrities who dared to explode their deeds realized the flow of traffic in just two months.

Some people are willing to listen to one thing repeatedly.

Even packaging and incubation companies came to the door, and they became "high-quality women" and mixed into all kinds of circles.

There are also those scheming girls who seem to want to hide, but in fact deliberately sell loopholes for people to guess.

Neither admit nor deny, a set of people who want to refuse but also welcome to play is proficient.

Aroused the attention of a lot of big brothers, the business ability has been increased several times!

Fertilizer does not flow to outsiders' fields, and if this is a good thing, you can't leave a few places for your family.

"Is the guild so messed up now?" Qin Yu asked amusedly.

"Brother, my dear brother, how can you mess with me if you love me!"

He Sheng explained: "Besides, if our guild can be called chaos, there will be no chaos in this circle."

"Big brother can't spend money in vain, you have to do something. Whether you want to keep your big brother is entirely up to you.

The guild certainly wouldn't sell you as a commodity, but it can't hold back someone dreaming of a wealthy family, imagining that they can fly on a branch and become a phoenix. Are you right? "

"Let's talk about connecting with the entertainment industry, and having a scandal with the top stream. It must be the fastest to realize traffic, right?

Then you borrowed other people's traffic, and they can't receive any return...Equivalent exchange, don't you? "

Qin Yu nodded and said, "This is true. There is really nothing right or wrong about you.

However, you still have to worry about it, don't make any toothpicks, it's pretty ordinary. "

"That's... we have very strict requirements on the management of minors, and there is no way for the outsourcing side.

You know, there are one by one, and I really want to worry about that, let alone making money... you have to be scolded if you lose money! "

"Well, as much as possible."

"Yes, as much as possible, haha... Brother Yu, haven't you told me how many places there are?" He Sheng was still thinking about the admission ticket.

"How many people do you want to send over?" Qin Yu asked back.

"There are three newly hatched this year. The little girls are beautiful and clean. One focuses on singing, one dancing, and the other chatting.

Emotional radio is getting more and more popular now, and this young man is more and more confused.

If you don't chase love, take money and chat with sister-in-law over hundreds of kilometers in anger every day, isn't this counted as "alternative Plato?" '

"Then you can send them all! Adult ones."

"Sure, am I such an unreliable person?"

"Um, Brother Yu, there is something to tell you... Mayfair wants to go there too, look..."

On the other side of the phone, He Sheng glanced at Jiang Feier, who was suddenly tense next to her, and motioned her to be quiet.

Although he also wanted to help Jiang Feier reconnect, but it depends on Qin Yu himself.

"...She's alone?" Qin Yu's voice came after a few seconds of pause on the phone.

During this time, Brother Yu had already seen the data he wanted.

With a freshness of 95-, her body has been well restored recently.

However, every time I saw this data, Brother Yu still felt a little strange.

She doesn't cause freshness wear, so from a data level, Jiang Feier is still a pretty girl.

Is this in the river?

"Okay, let her come together. Those three newcomers also need someone to bring them. I don't have time to take care of them."

Hearing Qin Yu's consent, Jiang Feier on the other end of the phone immediately jumped up.

Excited and cheered silently, "Yeah, yeah~ it's great." '

"Okay, I must arrange it properly, and Brother Yu, when will you take care of everyone, don't forget us all."

"There will be opportunities in the future, now...it's all for research, the plate is too big." Qin Yu said with a wry smile.

"Yes, we really can't play with your plate." He Sheng also smiled bitterly.

They really couldn't keep up with Qin Yu's main business now.

It's just bankruptcy, maybe it's not enough for the other party to do an experiment.

Fortunately, success, failure means nothing.

It's a big bet every time, and it's all lost after playing once.

This kind of plate...Which normal businessman would dare to pick it up?

"Brother Che, take the big buddies to play when you have time..." Qin Yu hung up after a polite talk.

...

...

It was early in the morning when Qin Yu and He Wu arrived at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel.

"Old He, stayed here tonight." Qin Yu said to Steward Yao: "Steward Yao, you can arrange it."

"Okay, I will arrange for Master He." Steward Yao said, leading him to the hotel: "Guests are in the bar."

"Bar?" Brother Yu was a little surprised.

When he saw a familiar back at the bar, he was really drinking.

"Okay, it's okay, you're busy with you." Asking steward Yao to leave, Qin Yu came to the bar.

Raising his hand to slap Lao Bai's shoulder, he smiled and said to the bartender: "Give me a martini."

"You are scared to death." Lao Bai said angrily.

"Eat more sea urchins to replenish it, you are so courageous..." Qin Yu joked while pinching the tip of his little finger with his thumb.

"Fuck off!" Lao Bai smiled, his expression serious again.

Just by looking at him, you know what's on his mind.

"Let's say, what are you looking for me in such a hurry?" Qin Yu sat down, picked up the adjusted Martini and drank it.

"One more cup." Putting the empty cup on the table, Qin Yu waited for Bai Ze to speak.

"I'm here to send you money." Old Bai smiled.

"Yes?"

Brother Yu's expression brightened. This is a good thing he likes most: "What project this time?"

"500 billion, 10%." Bai Ze said.

"..." Brother Yu's expression was startled, and he realized that he was talking about the Miracle Group after seeing his serious expression.

"With a market value of five trillion yuan, you can really look up to me." Qin Yu was really surprised.

Five trillion, if this news spreads out, I am afraid he will not be the only one who will be shocked.

"This valuation has also been disputed for a long time. UU Reading www.uukanshu.com was won by Zhou Lao for you, five trillion... five trillion!"

Lao Bai sighed with emotion, and shook his head with a complicated expression: "Five trillion, I have to earn enough for years without eating or drinking."

"27, 777, 777, I will save the decimal point for you." Qin Yu responded.

"Twenty-seven million years..." Lao Bai raised his fist abruptly and punched him * the shoulder: "Please today!"

"It's as if you have paid for it any time." Qin Yu retorted speechlessly.

"How about it, give me a word!" Lao Bai asked.

"The shares are under your name?" Qin Yu said.

"How is it possible, you too value me, hang up our unit." Lao Bai replied with a speechless expression.

"500 billion in cash." Qin Yu said.

"...I want to ask about this. The above means 250 billion cash, and the other is offset by instruments and shares."

"The instrument can be discussed again, the shares... of the four major groups?" Qin Yu looked at Bai Ze with interest.

If it is from the Star Group, it is not impossible to negotiate.

Others, forget it!

Brother Yu didn't have that interest, and he was too flustered to wipe his butt.

"... Let's talk about cash!" Bai Ze refused without thinking.

The four major groups can be reached by ordinary people.

A background review alone will take several years, and the strict requirements will soon catch up with the review by the six chief officials.

Qin Yu didn't feel surprised either. The above obviously thought that the current plate of Miracle was too big, and he couldn't grasp it.

Only then did they propose the idea of a shareholding, which is considered to be included in the Fifth Group.

There are advantages and disadvantages.

But overall, there are still more benefits.

If the miracle wants to continue to develop, it will not be subject to any constraints and restrictions, and even come to a vigorous big division.

Today's situation is bound to happen.

Chapter 907: cosplay

Letting miracles grow savagely and wantonly expand, it is impossible to change to any country today.

Trillions of tickets, Miracle Group got the most important ticket today.

500 billion capital investment, 10% of the shares...

This means that it has the qualifications to continue to grow, and it also means that the domestic commercial pattern needs to be filled with a new player.

And it is also the only giant capital with the simplest equity and structure behind it in China.

Qin Yu personally holds 97% of the equity, and the forces behind Xu Hao, Li Xiao and Yang Chengjun each hold 1% of the equity.

Now, the forces behind Bai Ze will enter the game.

After getting 10% of the equity, the structure was changed to 87% for Qin Yu, 10% for Bai Ze, and 1% for Xu Hao, Li Xiao, and Yang Chengjun.

However, this equity replacement will be the last time, and Qin Yu will clarify the uniqueness and priority of equity in the new contract.

With an 85% equity ratio, no matter how much Qin Yu's shares will be reduced in the future, his equity ratio will not be less than 85%.

It is not a precedent or big news for a company that leads the company to the world with 0.X shares.

So, nothing to fuss about.

Qin Yu's approach is more in line with the development needs of an enterprise with comprehensive industries and global markets.

Shares can be given, equity...no!

"As long as it doesn't affect this share purchase, you can figure it out by yourself. What you want is just an attitude, not to grab your company.

Mr. Zhou asked me to tell you, do it hard... With this attitude, whoever wants to do or say something is asking for trouble! "

"Thank you Zhou Lao for me...when can I see him?" Qin Yu was very curious about this Zhou Lao.

I saw a lot on TV, but he was quite curious about what kind of person he was in reality.

"Let's talk about it when it is right! There are too many people staring at you now. If you don't mind being affected, I can arrange it."

Bai Ze was obviously teasing him. If he really wanted to meet, the Miracle Group would be like choosing to stand in line.

"Forget it, thank him for helping me." Qin Yu waved his hand and stopped the topic.

After talking too much, a system warning will come after a while.

No matter how much information is released, it is just to induce. It is better to have less trouble or less.

"Who should I talk to over there?" Bai Ze got up to leave, his day schedule was not easy.

After this meeting with Qin Yu, he would fly to Wanwan, and afterwards he would fly directly to Neon.

Seeing that Barrow, Baimaozi, and Smecta approached Daxia successively, they chose to join the new alliance.

Bay Bay and Neon, it's anxious!

Especially in Wanwan, after the last blow, the domestic IT semiconductor industry has grown by leaps and bounds.

Miracle Group takes the lead to catch up and let the world witness the power of Daxia.

Now, it is already a joke to try to pinch Da Xia's neck.

The bald eagle is too busy to take care of itself, leaving a group of gangsters hanging around outside, can it be in a hurry?

A few of the happiest dancers are now lonely.

I was thinking about how to escape from Wanwan and ran to Ye Dad to be a grandson, so I could escape!

It's strange to say that there are some things that a good person does not do, and they have to be grandchildren and lick PY, tusk...

"Look for a mouse, go quickly, busy people." Qin Yu pushed him, snapped his fingers to let the bartender continue to add wine.

Today he wants to drink a few more glasses, by the way, waiting for a sudden affair!

"Hi, handsome guy, are you alone?" The hot figure in a gray vest, yoga pants, and black trench coat instantly amazed the entire bar!

"Is it alone, what would you like to drink?" Qin Yu motioned to the bartender and said with a smile.

"Same as you." The beauty was sitting beside him, her eyes were charmingly teasing and said: "Isn't it boring to drink alone?"

"It was a bit boring before, now... isn't there you?"

Seeing the bartender pushing the wine in front of the beauty, Qin Yu held up the cup: "Cheers."

"Cheers? Why do I think you want to get me drunk." The beauty leaned forward and lingered in his ear.

"Is it so obvious?" Qin Yu smirked: "Just take it, so, drink it?"

The beauty held the cup, raised her crooked calf, rubbed his thigh with her calf: "Long night at night, isn't it lonely to be alone!"

"cheers!"

Ding~

Under the envious watch of the bartender, the two drank three glasses in a row.

The beauty fell into the arms of the boss, and was left with his arms around the willow waist that was as tight as a snake.

"What are you looking at?" The companion in charge of the other half of the bar bumped him and raised his eyebrows and looked towards the door.

"Nothing... It's another day to envy Big Brother. If I were a rich man, it would be great." The bartender laughed at himself and shook his head.

"You, still think about how to make more money, and An Anxin can find a wife. Big brother's life is not something you envy."

"Why, can I not even be envious?"

"Okay, that's not good. Envy it, maybe when you save enough money, you will be eligible to pick up Big Brother's plate."

"Go away, you just have to pick up the plate."

"Hey, I think, look at that figure and looks, the skin is much better than the celebrities...but I'm afraid that the dishes are not happy!"

"...Ha, it's so real!" He laughed bitterly, and the bartender picked up the glass on the table and cleaned it.

...

...

In the middle of the night, there was a fierce battle in the messy room.

The paint is scattered everywhere, but fortunately, plastic paper is prepared in advance to cover the floor and walls, avoiding the cumbersome re-installation of the entire house.

"How did you get out of going outside this time?" Qin Yu asked Shaman about her gains from this trip.

That's right, the beauty before is her.

The two made an appointment at the bar, and there was a passion like a sudden encounter.

Equivalent to a simplified version of role-playing, Qin Yu's role is a bohemian wanderer.

It's a true appearance, but it's more tense than usual.

Sha Man's role is a female artist seeking inspiration from all over the world.

Under the surging collision of 'love', searching for the spark of passion in the depths of the soul is exactly the inspiration that art needs.

"It is very rewarding. The creators from country to country, region to region have their own style.

Many unknown painters, the dexterity full of love, the rich emotions presented on the drawing paper..."

"Compared with the works of some masters, their works should be hung in the exhibition hall for people to appreciate."

Hearing the low tone in her tone, Qin Yu stretched out his hand and hugged her tightly in his arms, and said softly: "Art is inseparable from capital."

"A dead artist is a good artist, isn't it?" Sha Man glanced back at him.

She knew it wasn't Qin Yu's fault, but what was going on with his righteous tone.

Even if it is a fact, can't it be coaxing people.

I didn't hear how lost she was at this time. Art shouldn't be like this, it should be purer and more inclined to love...

Instead of becoming a plaything of capital, succumbing to the market!

"Everyone has to eat, not everyone can become a master. Is it wrong to cater to the market and eat by one's ability?"

"When a person is about to starve to death, do you talk about dreams with him?" Qin Yu squeezed her face.

Under Sha Man's anger and coquettish glaring, she whispered softly: "Dreams are the most unattainable luxury."

"But some people have worked hard all their lives for their dreams, not forgetting their original intentions."

"Yes, he is great, but for his family and those who regard him as a support and support, how sad it is!"

This is a topic that is difficult to make a conclusion. Different perspectives, different ideas, and different environments will naturally draw different conclusions.

Qin Yu admires those who can give up everything for their dreams, but he himself never wants to be such a person.

He thought he could not afford that kind of greatness, and he never wanted to be such a great legend.

All he wants is to illuminate the people around him.

It is enough to let family members and the people they care about can live a happy and fulfilling life.

Others, do your best within your ability.

This is the real him!

"Would you like something to eat?" Seeing Shaman's tangled expression, Qin Yu chose to divert the topic.

"Well, I'm a little hungry, but I'm so sleepy." Sha Man said with a yawn.

"Then finish eating quickly, and then get a good night's sleep together." Qin Yu picked up the phone.

"Is it really just sleeping?" Sha Man looked at him suspiciously.

"Of course, unless you want to do something else." Qin Yu said while dialing.

Sha Man wanted her head like a rattle, she didn't want it.

Today's happiness is enough, and I'll die again.

"By the way, I remember you said before, if you want to open your own exhibition hall, is your work enough?" Qin Yu asked after ordering a good meal.

"It's coming soon~" Shaman hesitated, and said with a smile: "Well, if I use my family's performance art as the treasure of the town hall, is it okay?"

"Are you okay?" Qin Yu said.

"No problem, UU reading www.uukanshu.com wants to appreciate it with an artistic perspective, and no one knows who made it any more." Sha Man's voice became smaller unconsciously.

"Okay, you decide for yourself. Have you chosen the venue address?" Qin Yu worried that she didn't have enough money.

In Hudu, where there is a lot of money, it is not easy to own a painting gallery of your own.

"Well, I'm already optimistic. It's over in Hongkou... The price is under negotiation. If the house is mortgaged, the loan I got is enough."

"Why do you want to mortgage the real estate, I'll give it to you." Qin Yu looked at her in surprise.

Sha Man shook his head and said, "No, this is my own business. You are not allowed to interfere."

"Is it so clear between us?" Qin Yu asked her amusedly with his arms around her.

"It's because of our relationship that we have to make a clear distinction." Sha Man turned her head and looked at him seriously.

"I don't want the relationship between you and me to be mixed with any interests, so that I won't feel inferior when facing you."

"You don't want to remind myself every time I see you how much I owe you, become cautious and try to please..."

"Okay, okay, if you understand, I'll listen to you." Qin Yu smiled bitterly and begged for mercy.

She has already said so, what else can Yu brother say.

If it really becomes like this, where is the happiness and beauty nowadays...

"If you can't hold it someday, you must tell me, you know?" Qin Yu whispered against her cheek.

"Otherwise, if I find out, your little PP will suffer." Qin Yu's smile became strange and full of charm.

The charm of a bad man is vividly displayed in him.

"...What kind of suffering, without actual experience, people wouldn't be afraid?"

"Huh? Then let you have a good experience."

Slap~~

Happiness is that simple!

Chapter 908: Distortion experiment

Shangdu, Chaoyang!

Xing Lu is busy with her coffee book bar, the place has been selected, and the design drawings are ready.

608 square meters, due to limited space, Xing Lu asked the design studio to improve the original draft.

However, she changed several studios before she found someone willing to accept it.

In the words of the previous designers: "This blueprint... is limited in capacity, it really can't be changed."

The first draft of the original drawing was so well done, not only in terms of mechanics and aesthetics.

Among them, space science, applied science and psychology are all masters...

Until that moment, Xing Lu realized the true value of this drawing.

Seeing that the foundation is well established and the entire framework is rapidly taking shape, Xing Lu's heart is full of pride and satisfaction.

When the coffee book bar is completed, she will be the master of her life.

There is no need to look at the faces of the guests, no need to consider the world, no need to do some tedious and useless surface engineering.

Don't worry about attendance, schedule, route, calculate the itinerary in minutes!

At this moment, the stale air deep in my heart seemed to dissipate with my breath...

"Boss Xing, Boss Xing." The foreman who was working on came over.

"Well, what's the matter?" The longing Xing Lu returned to her senses and looked at the other person in surprise.

What's wrong in such anxiousness?

"Boss Xing, the person from the city management came and said that we didn't go through the approval procedures and should be fined!" The foreman said anxiously.

"Approval procedures?" Xing Lu's expression was startled.

Seeing her performance like this, it was the foreman's turn to be dumbfounded, "Boss Xing, are you really out of formalities?"

"Um, what is the procedure?" Xing Luren were all dumbfounded.

Those procedures are not handled by the studio or the contractor, you only need to pay for it.

"I, if you didn't go through the formalities, at least tell us in advance, I'm fine...now it's troublesome, there must be a fine, and the project has to be postponed."

The foreman is really stupid, seeing the other party's performance before, he thought he had encountered a knowledgeable one.

It is certainly not the first time that the other party has done business, and every aspect of the issue must be considered.

Look at the design of this blueprint, the words are also full of confidence.

no problem...

Looking at it now, it turns out that her confidence comes from the weight in her pocket.

Now, the plan is going to be disrupted.

"That, can't it be done?" Xing Lu was a little anxious.

"Cough~" The foreman coughed, looked around and said, "Well, it's not impossible to do it again, but you have to have a hard relationship."

"I do have channels on my side that can help you handle it, but in terms of costs..."

"How much?" Xing Lu asked.

Seeing her indifferently, thinking of the previous conclusion, the foreman felt that he could take the opportunity to make a fortune.

Gray income, which industry can not have it!

As for earning more and earning less, it depends on personal conscience.

"If a project like yours is fined, it will cost at least 30,000 to 50,000 yuan. I can help you handle it.

The money is almost the same, but it will not delay the progress of the project and save time and cost. "

"You also know that this delay is a day's money, and everyone can't wait for you so idle, right?"

At thirty to fifty thousand, Xing Lu bit her lip, looking like she was about to compromise.

"Um, I'll make a call first!" The words that can be said are different from the foreman's imagination.

"Okay, then you fight first." The foreman was not in a hurry.

A lot of money does not mean there is a way. There are so many rich people these days, but the way is not so easy to find.

Looking at her young age, she doesn't seem to have a way out.

Or... just the wealthy eldest lady who innocently ran out to start a business?

In this case, the family must hope that she will be hit a little bit.

For such people, money is of secondary importance.

Experience and experience are what the family wants her to learn.

So, it's not a big deal to spend some money on experience.

What do you think, the money must be settled, and the foreman has already noticed the pleasure of his purse!

"Hey, husband~" The coquettish tone made the foreman's body crisp.

Oh my god, it's unbearable for the little girl now to play coquettishly.

...husband?

Looking at the smile on the other's face, the previous worries were relieved, and the foreman also awoke from his conjecture.

The bulging satisfaction in my pocket...

"Um, my husband said it was okay, he came to solve it, it should be fine soon." Hanging up the phone, Xing Lu said confidently.

"Really?" The foreman didn't say, he was already complaining about the man's unreliability.

It will be fine soon, who does he think he is?

This kind of thing can be done if he says it is done, and he must not prepare materials, submit, approve, and invite people to dinner. Thank you.

Anyway, I must not be able to do it today...

"Um, boss Xing, then we will come back tomorrow, today..."

"Who is the boss, the boss?" The foreman's words interrupted the shouting. Looking back, it was the person who had stopped work before.

The foreman looked at each other with a surprised expression, and reached out his hand: "Here it is! This is the boss..."

"Ah, hello, is it Miss Xing?" A smile immediately bloomed on his face, and the other party opened the bag and took out the spare form.

"We have already understood the situation. We forgot because we were not familiar with the requirements. We now emphasize humane services.

If you are like this, fill in the information now, and when I go back, I will help you get the permit, and someone will send it to you tomorrow..."

"Huh?" The foreman was stupid again.

Humanized service, can you explain it this way?

Why don't you see such a 'humanized' at other times?

Look at the little girl's expression again, with a sense of righteousness, which should have been so natural.

The foreman was stunned, and said, "It's sloppy!"

I thought I was a veteran, but I didn't expect to be a rookie.

But the rookie's background is surprisingly big, this time it is really hasty.

"Then what, boss Xing, let's go to work first, just ask if you have anything to do."

Dealing with the three teachers and nine liu every day, it is not an exaggeration to say that the foreman is Qiqiao Linglongxin.

The representative immediately became much more polite than before.

Honorific words are also used between words, for fear of dissatisfaction with the other party.

Who can offend and who cannot offend.

When to speak loudly and when to speak quietly, the foreman knew in his heart!

Now, it's time to keep your voice down...

"I said Qin Yu, let me help your little woman solve these problems, don't you think it is too much?"

Ye Jinlan, who was in the office, looked out the window with a smile while holding the phone.

Qin Yu, who was far away in Hudu, stood in the hive and watched the progress of the project in the core laboratory. He chuckled and said, "Will you?"

"...Should I say yes or no?" Ye Jinlan asked rhetorically.

"You have to ask yourself." Qin Yu kicked the ball back again.

This is a proposition, no answer is possible.

Therefore, it is up to her to answer, and Brother Yu will never make mistakes in such matters.

"If you have anything next time, just call Fan Bing directly."

"So, do you mind?"

"Yes, you know what to do?"

"...Call Ye Haotian?"

"you dare!"

"Forget it, next time I find someone else, there seems to be a lot of Shangdu members in the Sanqin Association."

"No...you can only find me."

"Hey, you said you mind."

"Then you can only find me, I don't care, if you dare not find me, I will go over and kill you."

"Is it the disassembled one?"

"Fuck, Qin Yu, are you still shameless?"

"In front of you? How about trying..."

During the quarrel, Ye Jinlan hung up the phone abruptly, so that Brother Yu's molesting ended.

The sorrow in my heart was suddenly interrupted, and the person fainted in an instant.

Ah, so unhappy!

It feels like it's just a short shot, but the people are gone...

"Well, do you want to stop talking about fifty cents?" Qin Yu.

After waiting for a long time, I didn't see Ye Jinlan's reply. Brother Yu could only turn off Xinwei and focus on the experiment itself.

The progress of the dissection of the aberrant body has reached the end, Shi Cui proposed the idea of conducting a live experiment.

All the team leaders had a meeting together, including Zhu Ying, who had returned to normal.

Finally voted to pass this experiment, the subject is a rabbit.

The use of primate experimental bodies requires various approvals and the procedures are too cumbersome.

It should have started with the white mouse first, but Shi Cui couldn't wait to see the result.

Through his research and analysis, the changes in aberrations are reproducible.

As long as the balance of distortion is found in replication, then a solution to the problem can be found.

If you compare the experiment to an expedition, they are now standing outside the door.

You only need to find a gap, and there is hope to break the door.

Of course, it is best to be able to find the key.

But Shi Cui didn't have much hope for this. The complexity of the aberrant cells was beyond his ability.

They can only explore the gap in the door by experimenting again and again.

After finding it, he will try his best to conquer the gap, then break the door and explore the secrets of the aberrant cells.

"Everything is ready, start implanting." Shi Cui took a deep breath, letting his emotions return to a calm state.

Next, is the most important place.

The stripped tissue was implanted into the test body, and after the position was determined to be correct, suture was performed.

This is followed by long-term observation.

Outside the laboratory, Qin Yu raised his right hand with his index finger and * upright, and hooked it forward twice.

This represents increased vigilance and the need to guard against changes in the laboratory at all times.

Two [Creators] were placed in the corners of the laboratory, acting as security personnel for this experiment.

After the suture was over, the subject was placed in a cage.

Various instruments were spinning around the cage, and each item of precise data was recorded.

Under the naked eye, the experimental body has also undergone amazing changes.

First, a bulge grows on the neck, and then a distorted rabbit head gradually takes shape.

It is also not correct to say that the rabbit head is covered with pustule-like sarcomas.

There was still pus pouring from above, ticking, and falling.

Zizi~

The place where the pus dripped gave out a burst of eyes, and the pus was extremely corrosive.

A large number of tumors began to appear on the surface of the body, and the fur on the surface of the tail fell off, as if it was torn off roughly.

The * tail grows wildly, and the surface also grows like a spike-like tumor.

Slap~slap~

The weird new tail knocked around the box, as if testing its sturdiness.

The original red pupils had a turbid and evil dark gray.

Rather than staring at each other, there is a shuddering sense of fear that is rising from the bottom of my heart.

Chapter 909: Isn't the astronaut just planting the flag?

Boom~

A ball of fire, the distortion experiment body was cleaned up.

"The amount of implant is too much, and it takes repeated experiments to find the balance."

"Fortunately, the self-healing ability of the aberrant body is very strong, and the teachers have enough organization to carry out the experiment."

"The rabbits don't seem to be enough, I need to apply..."

"I heard that the teacher's application for primates was rejected..."

During the conversation, the two employees began to check the cleaning of the incinerator. The overall cleaning and testing were the standard procedures after each incineration.

After all, what they are studying is too weird.

Only by ensuring that there are no loopholes in every link can the safety and stability of the laboratory be guaranteed.

This is already the first few times of incineration, eleventh, twelfth...

"Ah, it's the fifteenth time." One person opened the record and said, looking at it.

"Fifteen times?" the other person was surprised.

I went to the record book and checked it before I believed it was true, "Is it so fast?"

While talking, the door opened again.

"Squeaky~"

A meat dumpling caught by a trap screamed frantically and was escorted in by two [creators].

"Fuck~" The two staff members were taken aback.

Why is this thing still alive? Didn't all the things that came before died?

"Perform incineration procedures."

The trap directly sent the subject into the incinerator, and piercing and strange screams echoed in the ears.

When the [Creator] reminded for the third time, the two staff members reacted.

"Ah, good!" rushed to the control panel, and the two started the incineration according to the standard process.

"Cuckoo~Ah~"

The weird screams continued, reverberating in the incinerator.

That sound is clearly not what a rabbit should have.

The grotesque fear felt in my heart, making my whole body tremble, and every cell was emitting dangerous signals.

"You can leave now, and I will take over the inspection work." The door opened and Shi Cui himself walked in.

"Teacher." The two bowed quickly and left with Shi Cui impatiently waving.

"The boss, I want to see him." Standing in front of [Creator], Shi Cui said with a serious face.

The creator did not respond. After Shi Cui asked several times, he said, "He is not here."

Hearing the female electronically synthesized voice, Shi Cui said dissatisfied: "Kylin, I know you are here, I'm looking for a boss."

"This time the experimental body is the most perfect. Why should it be destroyed? I need an explanation!"

The creator's electronic eyes shrank inward, and an emotional, gentle voice came: "It's over the safety cordon. I'm just following the regulations."

"The rule is dead, you should give me more time." Shi Cui retorted.

"You have no right to challenge the regulations." Qilin.

"I want to see the boss." Shi Cui said angrily.

This * machine will only act according to the rules of death.

If you give him more time, there will be greater gains.

"Reject!" Qilin.

"Why?" Shi Cui was stunned, it turned down himself.

"High-level instructions, non-emergency contact is forbidden." Qilin.

Hearing his explanation, Shi Cui knew that it was impossible to contact the boss for the time being.

Because the so-called high-level instructions are the orders issued by the boss himself.

This means that he himself is doing very important things.

During this period, unless there is an emergency, such as experimental leaks, vicious incidents, etc.

No one can contact him!

In fact, Qin Yu is indeed doing an important job.

Proclaim miracles to Lu Qing!

After the wonderful performances of up, down, left and right, Lu Qing's belief value continued to grow.

Brother Yu was in a complicated mood about this. He hoped that her faith value would increase, but also worried that she would become a fanatic.

Kid~

Thinking of the little pumpkin, Qin Yu is even more determined to temporarily give up the great mission of 'creating life'.

The child of miracle or something, let's let it go first!

"Are you happy here?" Qin Yu raised his head and looked around, although the environment was much better than the previous dilapidated house.

But to be honest, compared with Lu Qing's life, it is simply a sky and a land.

To her, it's very simple, right?

"Happy." Lu Qing's smile from the heart is the best answer.

She is really happy here. She is with the children every day, as if infected by their innocence and liveliness.

Seeing the children sitting in the brand-new classroom, they have surprised and happy smiles on their faces.

The satisfaction revealed when eating, the earnestness when learning knowledge, the light in the eyes when talking about dreams.

"Husband, do you know? It turns out that there is really light in people's eyes." Lu Qing rolled over and hugged him.

Putting his head on his chest, he murmured, "Those kids, the light from the eyes when they talked about dreams is still imprinted in my heart."

"Also, there are many children in our class who say to be astronauts. Do you know what's the most interesting thing?"

"What?" Qin Yu asked dotingly, pulling away the broken hair on her forehead.

"I asked them what the astronauts did, and they actually said they went to plant red flags on every planet, hahaha..."

"Kanazawa, the most diligent child in the class, he said that in the future, he will plant red flags on all planets so that the whole universe will fly red flags."

Lu Qing said hopefully, as if he was really looking forward to that day.

She takes care of every wish and dream of the children.

In the future, these little dreams will give birth to a great generation and give them motivation and direction to move forward.

"Great ideal, then he has to cheer." Qin Yu said with a light smile.

"He will definitely become a great aerospace scientist." Lu Qing raised his head and said in anticipation: "My husband, I want to discuss something with you!"

"What, talk about it!" Qin Yu said.

"I want to support Jin Ze and let him fulfill his ideals." Lu Qing said coquettishly, hugging his waist.

"Just a Jinze?" Qin Yu teased and asked back.

"If you can, there are a few other kids." Lu Qing said, shaking his body sweetly.

"Are you referring to all the children in the class?" Qin Yu saw through her careful thoughts, reached out and clicked on her nose.

"Hehe, I know I can't hide it from you." Lu Qing shrugged her nose cutely, and said, "They are all good children and deserve better treatment."

"I see, you can see these things done." Qin Yu had no opinion on this.

Miracle Charity has been officially established.

Besides, it is not just about taking care of the same place. So far, there have been 1231 projects funded by Miracle Charity.

The total investment of 300 million yuan, more than 86 million internal donations, and 500 million yuan of self-investment.

If a few talents can be cultivated, it is also the honor of the Miracle Group.

It is equivalent to a bronzing business card, and the heart will be satisfied.

"Thank you husband, I know you are the best." Lu Qing kissed his face and kicked and kicked happily.

She looks like this, where is the calmness of being a teacher in the past.

It's just a child who hasn't grown up...Kid King!

Look at her now, she is really about to become the king of children.

"By the way, the summer vacation is coming soon, do you have any plans to go there?" Qin Yu asked about her summer vacation plan.

"I want to go to Sanya!" Lu Qing said happily.

Brother Yu's heart trembled, and his expression naturally said: "Sanya, haven't you been there? Is there anything else to look at, it's better to run away this time."

"Is it safe?" Lu Qing worried.

"Just go to a safe place, Phuket, how about Phuket? Now even the visa has to be cancelled."

Qin Yu felt relieved, as long as he didn't go to Sanya, he could go anywhere.

"Ah, isn't Little Pumpkin celebrating his birthday again? I heard Auntie say that you are taking him to Sanya, so it's time to go together."

Lu Qing thought of Sanya again, as if possessed by it.

Brother Yu's heart just dropped and floated again, always so frightened, even with a strong heart, it's hard to stand up!

"It's boring to accompany him. It's running around on the beach and staring at him..."

Watching Lu Qing pick up the phone and find the long-term video of last year's birthday party, Brother Yu's expression instantly stiffened.

"It's boring... Running around... It doesn't look like this!" Lu Qing said in a playful tone.

"Ah, this is not to make him happy, you know, he only likes beautiful big sister." Qin Yu said helplessly.

"Puff~"

Lu Qing could not help covering her mouth, saying: "That's right, his favorite is the beautiful big sister. UU reading www.uukanshu.com"

Turning his eyes, he pointed out: "Like some people!"

"Is there?" Qin Yu asked in surprise.

"Of course there is, isn't it?" Lu Qing said with a snicker, holding the phone to his face.

"It turns out that my image in some people's hearts is like this." Qin Yu nodded with enlightenment.

The big hand slid down and said, "Since you can see through, you don't need to hide it anymore, roar~"

"Ah, haha, spare, spare!"

"Hahaha, itchy, huh, huh..."

The deep night seemed to reflect each other with the heavy breathing, becoming extremely charming.

In the small mountain village, it seemed that he was also broken by this sudden passion.

The next day, the chickens raised at the back of the school began to crow half an hour in advance.

I don't know if it has anything to do with listening to the corner last night and being too excited.

Gu Gu Gu~~

Qin Yu got up to go for exercise, and Lu Qing followed up: "I will get you cleansing water. You are not familiar with it here."

He took the washbasin to the door, gave him face wash, and boiled the cold water for later use.

Lu Qing wiped it briefly and began to prepare breakfast for him.

"It doesn't need to be so early." Qin Yu wanted her to sleep again.

"It's okay, it's time to get up at this time, and the children should also come later." Lu Qing said softly.

After making breakfast, the cooking aunt should also come, and she will help prepare breakfast for the children.

By the way, prepare lessons, check the classroom, the circuit.

Although they are well prepared, there are still power outages from time to time.

Because of the panic in electricity use, priority should be given to supplying cities and factories.

Fortunately, the daylight is very good, but there is no way to use some electronic equipment, which brings inconvenience to teaching!

In addition, gas cans can be used for cooking, which is not inconvenient.

Chapter 910: Popular rivals?

After a lap around the hill behind the school, Qin Yu was in a particularly good mood.

The air in the mountains, especially the morning air, is cool, fresh and thorough, like drinking cool dew.
so comfy!

At this time, I feel that I am in a small courtyard in the countryside, and I will definitely enjoy living in it.

When he came back, the campus was full of excitement, and students came in twos and threes at the door.

With a happy smile on his red face, he rushed towards the classroom impatiently.

In the empty room, two side dishes, a plate of steamed buns and a bowl of rice porridge were placed on the four-corner table.

It is covered with gauze and there are more mosquitoes in the country.

Opening the gauze net, Qin Yu saw the note lying next to him.

"I'm going to class. I made breakfast by myself and I have to finish it all."

Smiling faces and love are painted on the back, which is warmer than the breakfast on the table.

Picking up the steamed buns and eating side dishes, Qin Yu slurped porridge.

One bowl of porridge, three steamed buns, two side dishes.

Qin Yu ate cleanly without leaving a drop.

Looking at the bowls in the sink next to him, Qin Yu washed the bowls he was eating.

After cleaning the table, Qin Yu stayed in the small room with nothing to do.

The main purpose of this trip was to accompany Lu Qing and sign the equity transfer contract back to the company by taking the Xihe.

The negotiation between Xu Hao and Bai Ze has ended, and the transfer document is just about to be officially signed.

The final investment plan negotiated is 390 billion in cash and 110 billion in remaining.

The capital is mainly offset by various precision instruments, and there is also a part of state-owned bonds.

Qin Yu is already very satisfied with this ratio!

Next, there is a candidate for the president of Vulcan. I haven't bought my brother until now...

Ringling~

Sanqin local evil, say Cao Cao, Cao Cao arrived.

"Hey, Brother Jun!" Qin Yu connected the number.

"Brother Yu, your candidate has not been decided yet?" Yang Chengjun asked with a smile.

"Undecided, this is not waiting for you all the time." Qin Yu said.

"Now it can be decided. I'm going to Mars. Brother Yu, let's say it first. Come back at least once a year..."

"An Xin, An Xin! I won't leave you on Mars, otherwise, your father won't be able to find me desperately."

"It's fine if you know. I told the old man that whether the Yang family can receive Zen reception depends on whether I can come back."

"You said that, should I consider changing my choice?"

"Don't, don't... Brother Yu, it's me, it's settled."

"All right, I think about it!"

"Brother Yu, don't think about it, I'm wrong... How can the Yang family's incense inheritance count on you? No, definitely not."

"Well, I feel the same way, or it's a big deal."

"...Get out!" Yang Chengjun recalled that he was taking advantage of it.

Qin Yu smiled and changed the topic: "Okay, now that you have made a decision, you can take your time here to participate in the training."

"I still need training? My body needs training?" Yang Chengjun slapped his chest on the phone.

"It has nothing to do with whether you are strong or not. You are going to space and living on Mars, not a bodybuilder."

Qin Yu said with helpless expression: "Do you have any misunderstandings about the astronauts? Are they all enhanced versions of the governor?"

"Ah, is this?" Yang Chengjun said angrily.

"If I can come in a few days, I will ask someone to pick you up." Qin Yu asked.

"Give me one day and arrive tomorrow morning... Are you at the headquarters?" Yang Chengjun asked rhetorically.

"It must be at noon tomorrow," Qin Yu said.

"That's right, ask the mice to gather together. Is there a new venue?"

After talking about the free time, the phone was hung up, and Qin Yu's thoughts were missing one more thing.

Now, I'm missing the news from my brother.

It is estimated when the land for building the "Mars imitation ecological center" will be released.

Qin Yu greeted Watson in advance and kept her staring.

The detailed selling price and terms and conditions will be informed before you have accurate information.

However, Qin Yu was worried about money before, but now he doesn't have to worry anymore.

With Baize's 350 billion cash, no matter how big the project is, it can be put to work.

There is no need to worry about money. The next step is the design aspect. Qin Yu intends to invite well-known design institutes to produce drawings.

The four design institutes of Shuangjing, Zhonggui, and Ministry of Education worked together to complete the design.

It's not that Qin Yu insists on catching all the masters and scholars in one fell swoop.

It is the design of this time, the scope and area of the generalization is too huge.

It is very difficult for any family to win this project alone.

Furthermore, he has limited time here.

After waiting for a few years to release the picture, the day lily is cold.

The maximum time is six months, and the manuscript must be driven out in half a year.

When the time comes, let's talk about whether they are dissatisfied, as long as they don't feel embarrassed by pouring water in their yard, Brother Yu is really fine.

The four top design institutes gather together, and whoever catches the fish and releases the water will have to let the other three first line up to the end of the chain of contempt.

Only on this point, those scholars and bigwigs can sit still.

I must go to death and use all my milk-feeding energy. I can't wait to take care of all the work by myself and strive for perfection!

Some things need to learn how to use force, how can you do it with brute force?

After Qin Yu got all things done, he made a few more calls, and the morning passed without knowing it.

The school bell rang, and the children ran wild and laughed on the playground.

The basketballs, rubber bands, and skipping ropes in the equipment room were also turned over by the children.

"Oh~" Cheers and laughter were intertwined, and Qin Yu also opened the door and walked out.

"It's really lively." Qin Yu leaned against the door frame and laughed.

Something was moving in the corner of his clothes. Looking down, it was a little girl who was shaking the corner of his clothes by hand.

"What's the matter? Kid?" Qin Yu asked with a smile after squatting down.

"Uncle, who are you? Why did you come out of Teacher Lu's room?" the little girl asked timidly, her big shiny eyes full of curiosity.

"Well me! I'm Teacher Lu's fiance." Qin Yu explained.

"What is your fiance?" The little girl didn't quite understand.

"It means Ding Ding, do Ding Ding know?" Qin Yu asked.

"Oh~ I see." The little girl clapped her hands happily, and after looking at him carefully, she ran towards the playground quickly.

In sight, the little girl ran to the playground to find the little boy who was playing.

He pulled the opponent, then stretched out his hand and pointed at him, and said something in his ear.

Then the child slammed the basketball in his hand on the ground and ran towards Yu Ge angrily.

"What are you doing? Say, is it a thief who wants to enter Teacher Lu's room to steal things, classmates, there is a thief in Teacher Lu's room."

Hula~~

The students in the entire courtyard gathered around at once, glaring at Qin Yu angrily, as if they were looking at an enemy.

Qin Yu couldn't laugh or cry for a while, waved his hand and said: "Classmates, I am not a thief, I am Teacher Lu's man, and I have made a kiss with her."

"Lying, Teacher Lu didn't have a marriage, I will marry her when I grow up." The little boy who took the lead said fiercely, and he was about to push him away when he came up.

But after a few pushes, he found that Qin Yu didn't move at all, and couldn't help kicking his leg in annoyance.

Qin Yu lifted his leg, and stepped the toe of his shoe under his foot: "It's wrong to hit someone. Did your teacher Lu teach you that?"

"You are not allowed to speak ill of Teacher Lu!" The little guy, like a stubborn cow, slammed his head into his arms.

"Don't talk bad about Teacher Lu~"

"Bad boy, believe it or not, we will kick you out."

"Say, what the * do you do?"

"Teacher Lu didn't make a decision. I will marry Teacher Lu in the future."

"Go away, Teacher Lu is mine, I want to marry her!"

"I want to marry her~"

"I want to marry her, you all get out of it."

Looking at a group of little guys who are not waist-high and still have snot hanging under their noses, they are screaming to * their wives from them.

Brother Yu really can't be jealous, this scene is too exaggerated.

"What are you doing, what are you doing?" Lu Qing's voice came from a distance, and the children became quiet in an instant.

"All scattered, stand in line... stand at attention!" Lu Qing commanded the children, which was forbidden.

There was no one who dared to resist, she did what she said.

Within a few minutes, the children who were noisy just now lined up on the playground.

"Xiaofang, what's the matter for you?" Lu Qing only then called to understand what happened.

"Yes, teacher!" The girl with big eyes stepped out.

Looking at the little girl standing in front of the team and telling Lu Qing what happened, Qin Yu teased and laughed.

Isn't this the little girl who just went to complain to that stubborn bull?

After listening to what Xiaofang said, UU reading www. uukanshu.com Lu Qing didn't know whether to cry or laugh for a while.

Looking back at Qin Yu, with an apologetic smile, Lu Qing said in front of all the children: "This is Uncle Qin. He is a kind-hearted person who sponsored you to go to school and built this school for you, so that you can eat and dress warmly. ."

"Also, he is also my fiancé, yes, we made a kiss..." Lu Qing continued to say.

Suddenly there was a howl on the playground: "Ah~ I don't believe it, hoooo~ I've said that when I grow up, I will marry Teacher Lu, ooh, I don't want Teacher Lu to be married."

"Wow~ I don't want Teacher Lu to make a kiss. Teacher Lu, if you make a kiss, don't you just want us."

"Ah~ Teacher Lu, don't leave, we must study hard and listen to you."

Inexplicably, the topic changed from dating to Lu Qing.

The situation got worse now. The little guys who had no opinion on her dating before started crying with long mouths.

Especially those little girls who didn't understand what was going on, they knew "Ms. Lu is leaving."

The wailing people started crying, and there was a lot of crying on the playground, one by one screaming worse.

"What's up, what's up, what's up?" The other teachers, as well as a few cooks, and nurses all let the crying cry.

"Teacher Lu is leaving, wow~~" The crying doll pointed to Lu Qing and said.

"Teacher, are you going to leave?" The other teachers were shocked, and their hearts became confused.

Why did Teacher Lu suddenly want to leave? Is it because they didn't do a good job somewhere? It makes people angry.

Still can't bear this suffering, and plan to go back to the city.

But what about the school this time?

The stall had just been supported, if she left, and another unreliable one, all her previous efforts would be in vain.

This, isn't this going to be a bitter again in the end, children?
