Chapter 2: It's important to know

---

Press the key, and the antler-shaped LEC daylight lights up.

The sports surrounding atmosphere lights on the black background of the front of the car also flickered.

Pull up the scissor door, let alone, the eight million-plus sports car is comfortable to sit on.

is actually not so comfortable, mainly because of the psychological hints brought by money.

8 million+, Xia Feng Jinlong customized version.

The whole car smells of money and power, can it be uncomfortable?

"Mr. Qin, do you take the insurance procedures yourself or I will send it to you."

"I have time to pick it up." There is nothing wrong with the holiday, it's all like a car.

Besides sending it to home, how can I explain it to my parents?

"This side of the license plate?"

Insurance ok, Zhaoyang would like to ask what the license plate says.

Those who are capable are arranged by themselves.

doesn't matter, you can only go to the 4S shop.

Otherwise, spend some money to choose a slightly better one, to save face.

'Ding, the novice gift pack has been received, and follow-up rewards will be issued.

'Now rewards the title of the host [Old Driver]: In the wind and rain, the old driver will send you to you.

Safety and unimpeded travel. '

'Whether to wear this title. '

Still need to ask, it is naturally worn.

'Another reward vehicle comes with a set of license plates. The license plate number: West A: Q8Y88.

Ask the host to go to the Jiaolan Vehicle Administration and get the lottery. '

The arrangement of the system is more intimate than that of Lamborghini, and Qin Yu said that he would get the license.

This also confirms Zhaoyang's speculation, it seems that the family is indeed unusual.

took out the temporary license plate prepared in advance, Zhaoyang reluctantly said goodbye.

I was in awe when sending the car, and was very heartbroken when I said goodbye.

Big brother, the day you become famous, don't forget Xiao Zhao! ! !

Suburban blue car manages all points far away, and it is about to be abandoned.

The advantage is that because it is too far away, there are always not many people, so as to avoid the trouble of long queues.

As soon as Qin Yu parked the car at the door, it caused a lot of onlookers.

"Fuck, the new hurricane...it's not right, why is this a scissor door, the color is changed by yourself?"

"Huracan limited edition?"

"Huracan is not like this... I found it.

Fuck, private customized version.

Golden Dragon... Do you see the Golden Dragon logo on the scissors door, what family? "

You can buy a customized version, not just with money.

After all, luxury cars also have to remain compelling.

Today you want a customized one, and tomorrow he wants a customized one.

After two days, the street was rotten. The brand GG can't be bought back for much money.

Customized models most of the time.

is the brand recognition that car owners can bring great publicity and influence.

can elevate the level of the brand, and then raise the grade.

Like the tyrants and princes of oil countries.

Everyday international headlines, is it not easy to customize?

Of course, there is another situation.

madly throw money!

Three to five million cars are worth thirty to fifty million.

Then you are the brand father, don't talk about customization, you can change it when you say it!

However, there may not be such a person.

After all, no one's money came from the wind.

???

It seems that his money came from the wind.

So, is he equal to the brand's father?

"Hey, I'm really a clever ghost." Qin Yu stared at everyone's fiery gaze and walked inside.

"We can also see this kind of car in the abandoned city, hey!"

The old driver laughed at himself, and the development of Abandoned City over the years has gone back more and more.

Nanhu, which is known as the rich gathering together, is also declining.

The rich either go to Shangdu or Hudu.

Who still stays in such a place where the 1st line is not 1st line, and the 2nd line is almost meaningless.

Or else, why call it a waste city!

Entering the hall, there are only two or three people in front of the lottery machine.

Qin Yu stepped forward and saw that the two were chatting, and they had just finished the lottery.

'System, I'm here. '

The system remained silent and did not reply to him.

Qin Yu also bite the bullet, and 10 numbers appeared on the first page.

The first one in the upper left corner is West A: Q8Y88.

"This brand is good!"

"Auspicious, buddy, are you out?"

The people who saw him hurriedly congratulated, and some people said they would buy his brand for 5,000 yuan.

But Qin Yu refused directly.

Millions of monthly salary, 5,000 yuan for you?

Besides, to others, this is the Leopard, but it is different to him.

QY, represents his name, how can it be sold.

Hurricane's last-generation Mavericks were particularly embarrassed to install license plates.

Because there is no front license plate holder.

either crookedly installed in front of the air intake, or find a pleasing place to drill...

My heart is horizontal, my eyes are closed, and the pretense is over.

When Qin Yu was sure to install, the car owner's heart was bleeding.

Golden Dragon is customized according to the customs of Xia Country.

With the installed license plate holder, I feel more and more intimate and meticulous of the system.

On the way back when he drove back, Qin Yu enjoyed the attention from passers-by.

When the vehicles on both sides saw him passing by, they silently turned outwards.

I can't afford to provoke us to stay away.

A female BMW owner took off her sunglasses and kept blinking at him.

Qin Yu also wants to try the soul-locking leg of a female BMW owner.

is that her husband who is worried that the co-pilot is asleep, disagrees!

"Is this unobstructed?"

Back in the city, Qin Yu had nowhere to go after thinking about it.

It's better to get the insurance first.

called Zhaoyang, and the other party said he was waiting in the store.

There is no trouble taking the procedures.

When he arrives in the store, it has been sorted out, put it in the portfolio and handed it to him directly.

"You drink something and just take a look?"

Zhaoyang was busy arranging, looking at Qin Yu with hot eyes.

If the other person fancy other models, it will be more friendship.

"Okay." Qin Yu was not timid, walking around admiringly.

Brother Yu has no more than 15,000 worth of possessions, plus the 10,000 yuan given by my father in the morning.

But there is a custom-made golden dragon outside, who dares to say more than a word!

"Xiaoli, listen to me, this car will definitely be a new model next year, let's buy a Porsche first.

718 That car is super cost-effective, and has a good appearance, just suitable for you to drive! "

Qin Yu was a little familiar with the voice, and when he looked back, he couldn't help but smile.

Isn't this the Xiaokai and Banhua of their class?

Are these two together?

Zhaoyang next to him is a bit embarrassed, and it's hard to say anything.

You said you want to buy a Porsche. UU reading www.uukanshu.com doesn't give it away when you go out. Why are you bluffing in the store?

The other party can buy Porsche.

is his own potential customer, so he can only pretend not to hear anything.

"Qin Yu."

Li Xiaoli was walking forward angrily, looking up just in time to see him.

"Hi, Banhua, haven't you reported yet?" Qin Yu greeted generously.

"you."

Li Xiaoli pointed to the car on the booth and looked at him again, as if she couldn't believe he would be here.

Three years of high school, I never heard of Qin Yu's superior family background.

How dare to come to Lamborghini, where is the courage?

"No, I'll do something."

Qin Yu once said that he is indeed here to do things.

Taking insurance is not just doing business. As for the car, it is not bought here.

"I thought."

Li Xiaoli breathed a sigh of relief, hypocritically said: "I have no other meaning, the school is not open, let alone the abandoned city."

Li Xiaoli applied for the foreign affairs college, general two.

I wear fashion on weekdays, but I like to dress up in high school.

The essential thing in the school bag is the cosmetic bag.

"Xiaoli, why did you talk to him, don't we still buy a car?"

Xiaokai Wang Hao has quite a wealth of assets in his family.

I looked down on other classmates in school, always feeling that I was superior to others.

Especially Qin Yu.

is friendly, a little handsome and charismatic, and is usually more popular with his classmates than him.

Wang Hao kept seeing him unpleasant, always feeling that he would steal his limelight.

"I said Qin Yu, you should leave when you are done. Can you stay in this place?"

"A person must know himself." Wang Hao said that he was full of superiority.
