Then I wrapped my arms around his neck and deepened the kiss. "I love you, Avery." Kayden professed amidst kisses. Passion and sexual tension flared in our system and I also sensed my heated arousal in the air.

But it was so different this time. Kayden must have smelled it too because he pulled back to look at me. "What's going on with you? Your arousal smells different." He sniffed the air.

"I think..I think..my wolf is trying to produce--" I stopped and bit down on my lower lip.

"What?" Kayden asked with a confused look on his face.

"My wolf decides to be in heat." I mumbled.

Well my heat season came late than every other wolves who experienced their first heat at eighteen or nineteen. Well if I had experienced mine at these ages then I would gotten intimate with my mate a long time ago. But why did my wolf decided to produce heat at this time? I wondered.

"We should stop before it becomes something we can't control." Kayden tried to lean up but I held him down to my body.

No doubt I won't be able to survive the night with this heat with him right next to me. Kayden furrowed his eyebrows. "There are medications to use to suppress it. You can take it till you are ready to get intimate with me." My mate was still considerate about my decision.

"Fuck me." I heard myself say with a serious look on my face. I was ready to have sex with my mate. Lust and desires filled his eyes at my words. I knew he was trying to hard to control himself.

"Avery, are you sure?" He demanded.

"I want you, Kayden." I pulled him down again and crushed my mouth against his mouth.

I parted my lips to grant him more space to devour my mouth. Kayden accepted the invitation eagerly, dipping his tongue into my welcoming mouth to explored every part which he has always wanted to claim. Kayden unhooked my bra while I fumbled with pulling off his top because of my right arm.

"Does it hurt so much?" He asked.

"A bit..but I am fine." I answered. Kayden helped me out and soon his clothes were flying in the air until they dropped to the ground. I ran my hand all over him, I explored and admired every defined muscles on his chest. We had complete liberty and privacy to explore each other. He slide his hand slowly to my belly button while his tongue flicked my brown nipples until I let out a moan. His strong arms grabbed my hips as his mouth moved down to my core.

He removed my pair of black lace panties. I held onto the sheet when he pressed kisses around my exposed thighs down to my center.

"Kayden--" Another moan escaped my throat when he sucked on my clit. My mate sucked me, tongue fucked me until I came. His mouth worked eagerly over every part of my body again.

After another round of slow and passionate kiss, he pecked the skin on my throat to my breasts. He nibbled his way down from my ribs to my thighs trying to make my arousal hit harder again. I moaned breathlessly at the pleasurable feelings that stirred with me. After exploring every part of my body, a groan rumbled deep in his chest as he leaned up and positioned his cock to my center which was already a dripping mess.

"Are you ready?" Kayden asked searching through my face to be sure.

I nodded. And I closed my eyes when he pushed himself gentle inside me but pulled out again. I groaned at the lost of contact. I reopened my eyes when the contact was totally gone.

"I am just trying to be careful so you won't--"

"I am fine." I interrupted him.

Kayden pecked my lips as he lowered himself slowly into me again as his cock tore away my virginity. I arched my back, closed my eyes and grabbed the sheet as pain ripped through me.

Kayden claimed my lips again to probably distract me from the pain. He thrusted in and out slowly until I could take his whole length. My nails clawed his back as I urged him to increase the tempo of each thrust.

We didn't fall asleep but I was snuggled close to my mate with my head resting on his chest. I could hear his heart beat clearly in my ears. I choose to toy with the beads of tiny hair on his chest while he played with my tender hair.

Everywhere was silent as we let time pass by slowly with neither of us speaking a word. The passionate moment, my first sex with my mate replayed in my head. I didn't let the fact that I was inexperienced get to me. All I wanted to do was satisfy my mate. And giving up my virginity would tightened our bond and reassure my mate that I never cheated.

Enough time passed until my mate disrupted the silence by clearing his throat.

"Are you asleep?" He whispered.

"No...I am wide awake." I muttered. Kayden paused for a few seconds as he tucked strands of air from my fave to the back of my ear.

"About your graduation, I can attend it right?" Kayden asked, sounding so unsure.

I raised my head to look at him. "Why are you asking?"

Kayden hesitated for a moment before adjusting himself to sit up on the bed. "Freddie." He said.

I heaved as sigh before raising myself to sit up on the bed too. "I thought we already put things behind us."

Kayden nodded his head repeatedly. "I know. I know you are blaming me for his death. That's why I am concerned about my presence at your graduation." Guilt flashed in his eyes. "How can I make it up to him knowingthat he never did any wrong?" He asked.

I reached for his right hand. "Let us pay our respect to Freddie at his funeral." I replied.

"I checked the news last night His mom is awake now and he must have been buried this morning as planned." Kayden said with his head bowed.

"Like I said, we should pay our last respect. Let us visit the cemetery where he is laying in peace." I suggested.

He shook his head in agreement. "I am sorry." He apologized.

"I am heading back to school in two days time. I have to finish up my final year project. Will you come with me?" I asked in a low tone.

"Yes. I'll clear up my schedules and go with you. And I already have someone clean up your apartment. You damaged your phone that night so I got you a new one. It's in my office at the academy so you can have it tomorrow." Finally my mate looked up at me.

A small smile crept on my face. "Thank you." I leaned in to kiss his lips quickly.

Relief flashed on his expression as I sat back on the bed. "How sore are you?" His eyes drifted down to my naked chest region.

"Not too sore..I thinkI am fine." I answered.

"How about we--" He stopped talking to stare intently at me.

I know what he wanted to say as desires filled his eyes again. Kayden's back was resting on the bed headboard. I removed the bed cover and straddled myself on him.

"I want it too." I said.

His lips curled into a natural smile. "I want more of you." His hands slipped down to my hips to hold me closer to him. I was aware of the manly bulge touchingmy naked core.

"I want all of you." My arms went around his neck.

His gaze locked with mine. "We didn't use protection. Is that okay? Should we get pills when we get back to your apartment? Or I should get one from the infirmary?" His tongue licked my left nipples.

"Is that necessary?" I asked.

"I am just concerned about your studies." He bit down on it gently causing me to moan softly.

"Or you don't want to be a father yet." I teased him.

Kayden stopped and pulled away to look at me. "Have I been givingyou such impression?" He asked.

"No..No..."

He interrupted me. "All I ever wanted as a wolf is to find my mate and have plenty pups." Kayden said with a serious look on my face.

"Just teasing you. How many pups do you want?" I giggled when he tickled my side.

"Five pups at least, the first should be a male pup then the rest can be females." He answered.

"Not bad." I shrugged Kayden hands squeezed my boobs.

"We should start making pups now." I said.

"What about school?" He asked looking into my eyes.

"I just just few weeks left. So no need to get pills or even use protection."

His arousal became stronger in the air. "I want all of you." He mumbled.

"I am all yours, Love." I lowered my head to cover his lips with mine.

His hand grabbed my ass to draw me closer as I rocked him. I rocked him gently as he kissed me and I felt his member hardened. Kayden shifted our weight and I pushed him back so he could lay on the bed. Kayden put both hands behindhis head as he watched me grab his cock and stroke it gently. I haven't give a man a blow job but I could try it out with my mate after learning few tricks from my roommates and reading erotic books. I have always dreamt and imagined myself doing crazy things with my mate. The weirdest of them is having sex in the car.

A groan reverberated deep in his chest as I licked his thick head. I like that he didn't underestimate me by asking if I could do it. I would be so embarrassed. I think I would do a better job because I was focused on satisfying my mate. And I did a good hand and blow job on my mate until he came so hard in my mouth.

"Fuck..you are so tight." Kayden muttered as I lowered myself slowly on his fully erected member. He reached for me, making me lean over his chest and he kissed me so hard on my lips. "We should enjoy this ride." I broke off the kiss, placed my hand on his chest and ride us both till climax.

I stirred in my sleep when a finger tip trailed the bursted side of my lips. I peered my eyes opened to see a tear slide down my mate's cheeks.

"I am sorry..Avery." He mumbled.

I was too sleepy to even think of asking what went wrong. But it got me to see him wipe his face and sniff.

"Kayden..." I mumbled.

"Hey...sleep...okay..." He covered me up properly. I felt his hand patting my back gently and I drifted off to sleep.
