Chapter 131: Under Two Conditions

On the other side, in the classroom.

A student ran into the classroom and shouted at Rachel while panting, "Ms. Wallace, Connor might have already been expelled!"

When Rachel heard this, she suddenly looked at the student and asked with widened eyes, "How did you know?"

"I saw Mr. Waag from the archives department walk into the principal's office with a file in his hand!" the student replied.

"It's over. Connor might have been expelled!" Rachel muttered in despair.

As a lecturer at Porthampton University, Rachel naturally knew what the archives office was for.

There were only two possibilities if someone took out the files. The first was that a lecturer had resigned, and the second was that a student had transferred to another school or had been expelled.

"No, I have to go to the chancellor!" Rachel muttered softly, then turned around and ran toward the principal's office.

Eunice hesitated for a moment before following Rachel out.

When Brandon, Mandy, and the others heard the news of Connor being expelled, their faces suddenly bloomed with smiles. They had already begun to discuss where they should go to celebrate tonight.

Meanwhile, Dominic and Spencer were in despair. They never thought that Connor would really be expelled just like that.

Porthampton University, in the chancellor's office.

Jesse and Dylan kneeled before Connor and begged him to give them a chance.

Connor had been thinking about how to punish them.

After all, if they were expelled, it would not be easy to find a suitable chancellor in a short time.

However, if he didn't fire the two, he would be letting down the girls in the school who they had defiled because these two people were not qualified to be educators at all.

Therefore, Connor hesitated for a moment.

"Click clack, click clack!"

At this moment, the sound of high heels could be heard from outside the office.

After Connor heard this sound, he could not help but be stunned momentarily.

"Knock, knock!"

Then, there was a knock on the door.

"Mr. Zachman, are you there?" Rachel asked in a somewhat hurried tone.

"Why is Ms. Wallace here?"

After Connor heard Rachel's voice, a trace of shock appeared in his heart. Then, he realized that Rachel might have come to plead for him.

At this moment, Connor did not want to expose his true identity, so after hesitating, he whispered to Jesse, "Get up. When Ms. Wallace comes in later, don't tell her my identity. Do you understand what I mean?"

"Unde... Understood!" Jesse quickly nodded and stood up to sit down.

Connor stood in front of Jesse with his head lowered. He looked like a primary school student who had made a mistake.

Dylan and Thomas sat on the sofa at the side.

"Who is it?" Jesse calmed himself down and called out expressionlessly.

"Mr. Zachman, it's Ms. Wallace!" Rachel hurriedly said.

"Ms. Wallace, please come in!" Jesse said calmly.

After Rachel heard Jesse's permission, she quickly pushed open the door and walked into the office.

When Rachel saw the file on Jesse's desk, she was even more certain that Jesse was about to get rid of Connor.

"Mr. Zachman, I don't think Connor is a thief. I've known Connor for so long, so I don't think he's such a person!" Rachel looked at Jesse and said.

"That's right, Mr. Zachman. I lost the money, but I no longer want to pursue this. Can you not expel Connor?" Eunice added.

Even then, Rachel and Eunice were still pleading for him. Connor was very touched. He even wanted to lay his cards on the table with the two of them.

However, Connor was worried that Rachel and Eunice would think he had lied to them, so he suppressed his urge.

“Ms. Wallace, you don’t have to worry about whether Connor is a thief. We are still investigating. After we have investigated this, I will inform you immediately!” Jesse said to Rachel without smiling.

“But Mr. Zachman...”

“Ms. Wallace, don’t you trust me? If you can prove Connor is not a thief, I can let him go now. But if you can’t, then go back and wait!”

Jesse had been thinking about whether Connor wanted to fire him, so he didn’t want to dilly-dally with Rachel.

After Rachel saw Jesse’s attitude, she dared not say anything more. She turned to Connor and said, “Connor, you must cooperate with Mr. Zachman’s investigation, understand?”

“Yes, Ms. Wallace!” Connor replied in a low voice.

“Eunice, let’s go!” Rachel sighed helplessly, then turned around and walked out of the office.

Eunice hesitated for a moment before leaving with Rachel. At this moment, the two of them hoped that Jesse could prove Connor’s innocence.

After Rachel and Eunice leave, Jesse hurriedly stood up and said to Connor,

“Mr. McDonald, please take a seat. Did I do well just now?”

Connor sat on Jesse's chair and said softly, "Jesse, do you still want to continue being the chancellor?"

"Yes, Mr. McDonald. I beg you to give me another chance!" Jesse said anxiously.

Connor was planning to get rid of Jesse just now, but the appearance of Rachel and Eunice made Connor realize that if he fired Jesse now, it would arouse the suspicion of others. Moreover, the enmity between him, Brandon, and Harvey had not yet settled. He still needed Jesse and Dylan to continue helping him play the game.

Therefore, Connor changed his mind and said, "Alright, I won't fire you under two conditions!"

"Please name them, Mr. McDonald. I'll agree to ten conditions!" Jesse said enthusiastically.

"The first condition is that you can't tell anyone that I'm the president of the board of directors of Porthampton University. If anyone finds out, I'll fire you immediately!" Connor said slowly.

"Mr. McDonald, don't worry. Only a few of us know about this. I won't tell anyone else!"

Although Jesse didn't know why Connor wanted to do this, he still readily agreed.

"The second condition is that you and Dylan have to write down all the bad things you and Dylan have done in school and stamp your fingerprints. You have to promise that you won't do such things again. Otherwise, not only will I fire you, but I will also hand these things over to the police and let them deal with you!"

Connor knew Jesse had done many bad things in the past few years. He was worried that Jesse would do it again, so he needed something to control Jesse and Dylan.

"Uhm..." Jesse's eyes flashed with a hint of embarrassment.

"Otherwise, I'll fire you now!" Connor said slowly.

“Alright, alright. I will!” Jesse said anxiously and continued, “Don’t worry, Mr. McDonald. I’ll give you these documents tomorrow!”

“Good!” Connor nodded lightly, then turned around and said to Dylan, “Call Harvey over now!”

“Alright, I’ll do that now!” Dylan quickly agreed, then turned around and walked out of the office..

Chapter 132: Who Do You Think You Are

After dealing with Jesse and Dylan, Connor began to prepare to deal with Brandon, Mandy, and the others.

Now that Connor wanted to deal with Mandy, Brandon, and the others, it was very simple.

He only needed one sentence to get Jesse to expel them.

However, Connor didn’t do that because he hadn’t explained the matter of his stealing yet. If he didn’t explain it clearly, the entire school would think that he was a thief in the future. Then, how could Connor continue to stay at Porthampton University?

Therefore, he had to explain this clearly.

On the other side, Dylan was still shocked by Connor’s heaven-defying identity. Even when he arrived at the classroom door, his expression was still very shocked.

“Phew...”

Dylan took a deep breath and walked into the classroom.

“Mr. Wagner, why are you here? Is there a result for Connor’s thievery?”

When Rachel saw Dylan come in, she hurriedly asked Dylan excitedly.

“I’m here to retrieve someone!” Dylan replied expressionlessly. Then, he turned his head and shouted at Harvey, who was in the back row of the classroom, “Harvey McAdam, follow me!”

Harvey was still immersed in the joy of Connor being expelled from the school. When he heard Dylan’s order, he was stunned for a moment. Then, he stood up and asked, “Mr. Wagner, is there anything you need from me?”

“The chancellor wants you to go over!” Dylan whispered.

“Alright, I got it!” Harvey chuckled and agreed. Then, he followed Dylan out of the classroom.

“I didn’t expect Harvey to get something good in return this time. The chancellor must have called him over to praise him. He might even reward him!” Lily said enviously when she saw Harvey being called out.

“Yeah, if I had known that this would go so smoothly, I would have done it myself. Now, I even let that idiot Harvey take all the credit!” Brandon felt some regret.

After all, Harvey had contributed greatly to catching Connor, the thief. Perhaps the school would even give him the title of a model student.

“As long as we can get Connor expelled, it doesn’t matter if we get the credit!” Mandy was in a good mood. She had already thought of how to mock Connor later.

On the other side, Harvey seemed to think the chancellor had called him over to praise him.

Hence, he turned around and asked Dylan with a smile, "Mr. Wagner, do you think the school will give me a reward or something if I help the school catch Connor, the thief?"

"A reward?" When Dylan heard this, he could not help but sneer. He cursed the idiot in his heart. He wanted a reward! It would be great if the chancellor expelled him later!

"Mr. Wagner, let me tell you, people like Connor should be expelled directly and sent to the police station. The few cases of money theft in our school before should all be done by Connor. We can't be lenient toward such people!" Harvey looked at Dylan and continued.

"You'd better mind your own business!" Dylan replied coldly.

"My own business?"

When Harvey heard Dylan's words, he was stunned for a moment. Then, he asked with some doubt, "Mr. Wagner, what do you mean? What do you mean by my own business?"

"You'll know soon!" Dylan replied expressionlessly. Then, he reached out and pushed open the door of the principal's office.

Harvey was confused, but he still followed Dylan into the office.

When Harvey walked into the office, he found Connor sitting on the principal's office chair, and the principal, Jesse, stood beside him.

Harvey gaped in shock, looking at this scene in a daze, he was confused.

However, he quickly regained his senses and shouted, "Connor, you delivery guy, what right do you have to sit there? Get up quickly!"

"Thud!"

As soon as Harvey finished speaking, Dylan kicked Harvey's butt behind him without thinking. He shouted at Harvey, his eyes widened, "Who do you think you are? How dare you speak to Mr. McDonald like this?"

"Mr.... Mr. McDonald?"

After Harvey was kicked to the ground by Dylan, he was very puzzled.

He couldn't understand why Dylan seemed to have changed into a different person. He called Connor 'Mr. McDonald'. Moreover, even their school's chancellor was standing respectfully beside Connor.

Harvey was dumbfounded. He had no idea what was going on.

Connor slowly stood up and approached Harvey. Then, he narrowed his eyes and said, "Harvey, you've always been a clown in my eyes, so even if you've made things difficult for me repeatedly, I didn't hold it against you. Because I feel that it would insult my character to hold it against trash like you. But I didn't expect you to be so stubborn. You've even learned to accuse others and want to push me into the fire. You're vicious!"

"Accuse you?" Harvey was stunned momentarily, then shouted at the top of his lungs, "When did I accuse you? What evidence do you have to prove that I accused you?"

"Harvey, you're still not going to admit it now?" Connor replied softly.

"Why should I admit anything? What I said is the truth!" Harvey roared angrily, then looked at Jesse's position and sneered, "I understand what's going on. You must have used the stolen money to bribe the chancellor and Mr. Wagner, right? Connor, oh, Connor, you're cunning. You can even bribe the chancellor. How much money did you steal?"

Connor looked at Harvey and smiled helplessly. He didn't know what to say. Harvey's brain was indeed different from normal people's.

“Mr. Zachman, you have to explain what happened today. Otherwise, I’ll call the police now and say that you accepted bribes from students!” Harvey gritted his teeth and shouted at Jesse.

“Harvey, I forgot to tell you that I’m the president of our school’s board of directors, so I suggest you tell me the truth. Otherwise, I can expel you right now. Do you understand?” Connor looked at Harvey and said.

“Hahaha, Connor, why are you putting up an act with me? If you’re the school board’s president, then I’m the Director of Education!” Harvey hollered as if he had heard the funniest joke in the world.

“Mr. McDonald is not bragging. He is the president of our school’s board of directors. Moreover, he doesn’t need to bribe me at all. You claimed Mr. McDonald stole your class fee. I think with Mr. McDonald’s status, he wouldn’t do such a thing for a mere few thousand dollars!” Jesse said expressionlessly.

When Harvey heard this, he was instantly stunned. He was very shocked and seemed somewhat dazed.

Harvey might not believe Connor, but now that Jesse had admitted it, it meant that what Connor had said was true.

At this moment, no matter how stupid Harvey was, he could feel that Jesse was not joking with him just now!

Was Connor the president of the school board?

How was this possible?

Wasn’t Connor just a poor delivery boy?

Harvey’s eyes widened as he looked at Connor in disbelief..

Chapter 133: Do Not Expose My Identity

“Harvey, what exactly happened today? I need an explanation!” Connor narrowed his eyes and questioned Harvey.

“Today... Today’s matter...”

Harvey was completely shocked by Connor’s identity. A trace of fear flashed in his eyes, and he didn’t know how to answer Connor.

Originally, Harvey had planned to confess everything, but just as he was about to speak, he suddenly realized that if he admitted to accusing Connor, the principal would treat him as a thief, and he would still be expelled.

In other words, whether Harvey admitted it or not, he would face the risk of being expelled.

However, if he didn’t admit it, he might still have a chance of survival.

Harvey hesitated momentarily before saying, “Today’s matter has nothing to do with me. I didn’t accuse Connor!”

“You’re still stubborn at this point, aren’t you?” Connor looked at Harvey and said expressionlessly.

“I... I’m not being stubborn. This has nothing to do with me in the first place. I only found out about your theft by chance. I don’t know anything!” Harvey told Connor with determination.

“Harvey, I originally wanted to allow you to admit your mistake, but since you don’t know what’s good for you, don’t blame me for being mean!” Connor said coldly. Then, he looked at Dylan and said softly, “Dylan, if I remember correctly, cameras are installed in all the classrooms in our school, right?”

Hearing Connor’s words, Harvey’s eyes flashed with fear.

Only then did he suddenly remember the cameras in the school classroom.

“Mr. McDonald, our school has indeed installed cameras in the classroom, but these cameras are not turned on...” Dylan replied helplessly.

When Harvey heard this, he couldn't help but snicker. If these cameras weren't turned on, Connor wouldn't have been able to find evidence that he had accused him.

He could not do anything to him if he refused to admit it, even if Connor was the board of directors chairman.

“It's okay. Although the cameras in the classroom are off, the cameras in the corridor should be working, right? Get someone to pull out the surveillance video of the corridor for me now!”

After studying at Porthampton University for three years, Connor naturally knew that the cameras in the classroom were purely for decoration.

However, when he came to the principal's office just now, Connor noticed that the camera in the corridor was turned on. Moreover, the camera in the corridor could not only capture the situation in the corridor but could also see into the classroom.

Thus, Connor had already considered how to deal with Harvey and the others.

“Yes, Mr. McDonald!” Dylan quickly agreed.

Meanwhile, Harvey sat on the ground in despair.

At this moment, his emotion was like riding a roller coaster. One moment it went up, and the next moment it was down. When he heard what Connor said, he was about to collapse.

How could Harvey have thought that the cameras in the corridor could capture the situation in the classroom?

A few minutes later, Dylan returned to the office with a hard disk. Then, he handed the hard disk to Connor and said softly, "Mr. McDonald, the videos you want are all here!"

After Connor took the hard drive, he had no intention of opening it because he knew what the video was.

"Harvey, it has all come to this. Are you still not going to tell me the truth?" Connor waved the hard disk in his hand at Harvey and asked softly.

Harvey was completely out of it now. After hesitating, he begged, "Connor, I know I was wrong. I was blinded. Please don't expel me. I know I was wrong. I shouldn't have accused you. I'm not human..."

"Now you admit it!" Connor looked at Harvey and sneered. Then, he said playfully, "I can let you stay at Porthampton University, but you have to promise me three things!"

"What is it?" Harvey quickly asked.

"First, don't expose my identity!"

Harvey looked at Connor and was stunned. Then, he nodded and said, "Alright, alright, I definitely won't tell anyone!"

"The second thing is, come back to the classroom with me and admit to what you've done before. Then, tell me who instructed you behind the scenes!" Connor continued.

Harvey's eyes flashed with hesitation.

"If you don't agree to that, you can get lost now!" Connor said lightly.

"I agree... I promise you!"

Although Harvey did not want to betray Brandon, Mandy, and the others, he had no choice but to obey Connor to protect himself.

Harvey's intestines were about to turn green with regret. Who would have thought Connor had been pretending to be a poor kid all along?

As a super-rich heir, not only did he usually wear tattered clothes, but he also delivered food in his spare time. He was simply asking for it!

"Alright, let's go!"

Connor took the hard disk and turned around to walk toward the classroom.

"Connor, what about the third thing?" Harvey asked after Connor.

"I'll tell you the third thing later!" Connor replied indifferently and then walked out of the office.

Dylan, Jesse, and Harvey quickly followed Connor and left. As for Thomas, he didn't follow Connor back to the classroom.

Because once Thomas appeared, Connor's identity would be exposed.

On the way back to the classroom.

Dylan, Jesse, and Harvey had been looking at Connor with reverence. The three of them were filled with curiosity and confusion.

They couldn't understand why a person like Connor would pretend to be poor in school and even specifically told the three of them not to expose his identity. What was the meaning of Connor doing this?

In fact, it was all very simple. If everyone knew that he had inherited a ten trillion dollar inheritance, then Connor would no longer be able to live an ordinary life. He would also have no way to distinguish between those around him who were sincere to him and those who were only for his money.

It was like someone who had won a five-million-dollar prize wouldn't brag about it.

Once his relatives and friends knew about this, it would bring a lot of trouble.

Connor had also thought of this..

Chapter 134: The Classmates' Reaction

Five minutes later.

Connor and the others returned to the classroom.

However, when the students in the classroom saw Connor return, they looked at him with disdain. They hated thieves like Connor from the bottom of their hearts.

Rachel and Eunice didn't know what had happened in the chancellor's office, so when they saw Connor and the others return, they thought they were there to announce Connor's expulsion.

"Connor, oh Connor, are you finally going to be expelled from school? Let's see how you can still be arrogant this time!"

Mandy looked at Connor and sneered. Then, she said to Connor in a strange tone, "Hah, if it isn't our class' thief, Connor McDonald? Are you returning to beg everyone to forgive you and give you a chance to turn over a new leaf?"

When Connor heard this, he looked up at Mandy.

"Why should we give this kind of person a chance to change? He should be expelled!"

“Yes, sc*m like him should not be forgiven!”

“It’s already good that we didn’t call the police to arrest him!”

The students in the classroom shouted indignantly.

“Everyone, stop talking. Connor stole the money for a reason. After all, he’s so poor and likes to act tough. If he doesn’t have money, he can only rely on stealing money to maintain his reputation!” Brandon spoke up.

“Can’t he behave himself if he doesn’t have money? He likes to act tough and steal other people’s money to pretend to be a rich kid. He’s so shameless!” Mandy quickly said.

Connor looked at Mandy and Brandon expressionlessly. Not only was there no anger in his heart, but he even wanted to laugh.

Connor was very curious about how they would react after they knew the truth!

When the students in the classroom saw Connor and the others return to the classroom, they thought that Connor must have admitted his mistake to the chancellor. After returning to the classroom, he probably wanted to beg everyone to give him a chance to turn over a new leaf.

Therefore, most of them stood up and cursed at Connor.

Connor’s popularity in the class was not very good, to begin with. Now that he had been suspected of having stolen money, the students in the class despised Connor even more.

Dominic and Spencer were stunned. Until now, they still could not believe that Connor had stolen the money.

Dylan and Jesse wanted to go to the podium to clarify this, but Connor stopped them.

“Mr. McDonald, I’ll explain on your behalf now!” Dylan whispered to Connor.

“There is no need. I just like to see these people gloating. I’ll make them pay the price later!” Connor said coldly. Then, he walked up to the podium and narrowed his eyes at the students below the podium.

Connor felt that it was only at this moment that he could see a person’s true appearance. He had to remember every student who had once mocked him and then take revenge.

When Dylan, Jesse, and the others saw that Connor did not want them to intervene, they said nothing and stood quietly at the side.

But at this moment, Rachel felt that something was wrong. If Connor had really been expelled, then Dylan should have announced this immediately. Why was he standing at the side and not saying anything?

“Mr. Wagner, what’s going on?”

Rachel hesitated for a moment before asking Jesse softly.

“You’ll know in a while!” Jesse replied indifferently.

After Rachel heard this, she seemed to be even more puzzled.

When the students in the classroom saw Connor walk up to the podium, they immediately became agitated.

“Connor, how dare you still come back to the class? For our class to have a thief like you, it’s a disgrace to our finance faculty!”

“Yeah, I thought you were an honest person. I didn’t expect you to be such a person! I was wondering why you suddenly became rich. It turns out that you were stealing other people’s money!”

“Using other people’s money to pretend to be a rich kid is shameless!” the students shouted excitedly at Connor.

Connor stood on the podium indifferently, accepting everyone’s criticism without any intention of refuting it.

“Connor, what’s going on?”

At this moment, a beautiful person ran in from outside the classroom and asked Connor in confusion.

“I’m fine...”

Connor turned and saw that it was Natasha and Cindy.

Natasha and Cindy had been waiting in the cinema for too long, and Dominic didn’t pick up their calls, so they came to the classroom to see what was happening.

However, as soon as they entered the classroom, they saw Connor being criticized by everyone.

When Dominic saw Natasha and Cindy, a trace of panic flashed across his face.

He felt that if Natasha knew Connor had stolen something, she would leave Connor again.

Therefore, Dominic hurriedly stood up and walked up to Natasha. He then pulled Natasha aside and said, “Cindy, Natasha, why are you two here?” “Because the three of you never showed up and didn’t pick up your calls. That’s why we came straight to you...” Cindy pursed her lips and replied. Then, she turned to look at Connor and continued to ask, “Dominic, what happened here? Why are they all criticizing Connor?”

“Uh... It’s just a small misunderstanding. You two should leave now!” Dominic casually replied.

“A small misunderstanding? Why doesn’t it look like it? Did Connor do something bad?” Cindy replied with a frown.

“No, why would Connor...”

Before Dominic could finish speaking, Mandy suddenly stood up and shouted, “You guessed right. Connor did something bad. He stole our class fee and was caught red-handed. We’re now discussing how to deal with him!”

Mandy had long wanted to break up Connor and Natasha. Previously, when they were at Phillip’s Signature, Mandy was very unhappy when Natasha confessed to Connor.

Now that Natasha had taken the initiative to come over, Mandy naturally wouldn’t let go of this opportunity.

“Connor, you stole money? How could you do such a thing?”

After Cindy heard Mandy’s words, she shouted at Connor in disbelief.

Connor glanced at Cindy without saying anything.

Natasha felt that her brain was not working properly. How could a rich heir like Connor steal money?

Could Connor have stolen the money to buy the villa?

This was impossible!

How could a super-rich heir who could easily buy a mansion worth 200 million do something like steal money?

Even if Natasha were beaten to death, she still wouldn't believe it!

Chapter 135: Who Gave You The Orders?

"Well? What a shocker, eh?"

When Mandy saw Natasha standing rooted to the ground, she became even more smug as she said, "I told you before not to get together with Connor because he's a poor loser, but you didn't listen. Do you regret it now? Connor is a thief, and you want to be with a thief. This is so funny!"

"How could Connor be a thief?" Natasha replied, puzzled.

"How is that possible? The class fee is hidden in Connor's desk now that the evidence is conclusive. The students in the class have also seen it, but you still don't believe it?" Mandy asked coldly.

"Impossible, this is impossible!"

Natasha knew Connor's identity. She knew that Connor would never steal such a small amount of money.

"Looks like this Connor has cast a spell on you..."

Seeing that Natasha still didn't believe Connor was a thief, Mandy shook her head helplessly.

"Alright, stop talking nonsense with people like Connor. Hurry up and expel him!"

"Right, hurry up and expel this trash! He must have committed the previous thefts in our school!"

"That's right. We have to make him hand over all the money he stole before!"

The students in the classroom completely ignored Natasha and shouted excitedly at Connor.

After Mandy saw everyone's angry expression, she looked at Connor and said with a playful smile, "Connor, do you still want to continue pretending now?"

"Are you all done?" Connor looked around at everyone in the classroom and asked calmly.

When everyone heard Connor's words, they were instantly stunned.

"Since you've finished speaking, let me say a few words. I've already remembered those who stood out to criticize me. Later, you'll have to pay the price for what you said just now!"

Connor looked at everyone and continued.

The students who had stood up to criticize Connor looked confused when they heard this because they didn't know what Connor meant.

Connor looked at Dylan and said softly, "Mr. Wagner, tell them everything about this!"

"Sure!" Dylan nodded and walked up to the podium. He walked to Connor's side and said expressionlessly, "After Mr. Zachman and I investigated, we discovered that today's matter is not as simple as everyone thought. The thief is not Connor, but Harvey himself!"

"What?"

When the students in the classroom heard this, their eyes widened in disbelief.

"Harvey stole the class fee while everyone had P. E. class and hid it in Connor's desk. Then, he framed Connor for it. Classic!" Dylan continued.

As soon as he finished speaking, the entire classroom fell into a dead silence.

Everyone's mouths were wide open. Mandy, Brandon May, and the others were completely dumbfounded.

Rachel and Eunice were also shocked.

Natasha heaved a sigh of relief. If this was the case, then everything made sense. Why would a super-rich heir like Connor steal the class fees?

Was this a joke?

"Mr. Wagn... Mr. Wagner, are you sure that the thief is Harvey himself?" Brandon hesitated for a moment and asked Dylan.

"Yeah, Mr. Wagner, are you mistaken? How could Harvey be a thief? Has Connor bribed you? The money was found in Connor's desk. If he's not a thief, who is?"

Mandy knew that it had been exposed then, but she still retorted with conviction.

"That's right, Mr. Wagner. Connor must be the thief. Connor couldn't have bribed you, right?"

A few of Brandon's lackeys also stood up and shouted.

"Bang!"

After Dylan heard the words of Mandy, Brandon, and the others, he suddenly slammed the table before him and shouted, "All of you shut your mouths. What do you mean Connor bribed me? Do you think Mr. Zachman and I were bribed?"

After hearing Dylan's words, Brandon's lackeys became completely quiet.

Dylan turned to look at Harvey and said coldly, "Harvey, what are you still standing there for? Hurry up and apologize to everyone!"

Harvey hesitated momentarily, gritted his teeth, and approached the podium. Then he said in a low voice, "Mr. Wagner is right. I was indeed the one who did this today. I stole the class fee and deliberately placed it in Connor's desk to frame Connor!"

"Clang!"

Mandy, originally fearless, immediately took two steps back after hearing Harvey's words. Then, she sat down on the chair, her eyes filled with panic.

Brandon looked at Harvey with bloodshot eyes. He really couldn't understand why Harvey would admit to it!

May looked at Harvey and smiled bitterly. May had opposed this plan before. She had always felt that something was wrong. As expected, things were exposed in the end.

After the students in the classroom saw Harvey admit it, they were shocked.

They had never thought that Connor was not the thief. The real thief was Harvey himself!

Dominic and Spencer were extremely excited.

"That's great. Connor is not a thief!" Dominic shouted happily.

"Yeah, I already said that Connor would never steal anything!" Spencer quickly added.

"We've already investigated this thoroughly. The real thief is Harvey, and Connor is the victim. So, I've discussed this with Mr. Zachman just now. We'll let Connor decide how to deal with Harvey!" Dylan announced to the students below the podium expressionlessly.

After Harvey knew that his fate was in Connor's hands, he quickly turned his head to look at Connor's position and said nervously, "Connor, I know I was wrong. I shouldn't have framed you. I beg you. As long as you don't expel me, I'll do anything you want. I beg you..."

When Mandy, Brandon, and the others saw Harvey's begging, their hearts instantly turned cold.

Who would have thought that Connor, who was about to be expelled, would come to be the decision-maker of this case?

Until now, Brandon still couldn't understand why Harvey admitted to it. If Harvey didn't admit it, even if he couldn't frame Connor as a thief, it couldn't prove that Harvey did these things!

"Harvey, do you remember the second thing you promised me?" Connor asked Harvey expressionlessly.

"I do..." Harvey quickly nodded.

"Tell me, who is the one who instigated you behind the scenes!" Connor prompted.

After Brandon heard Connor's words, he was instantly shocked because he never thought Connor knew someone was instigating Harvey behind the scenes.

Brandon started to hyperventilate. He was worried that Harvey would expose him.

Mandy, May, Lily, and the others also subconsciously avoided Harvey's gaze..

Chapter 136: Kneel!

Harvey hesitated, then gritted his teeth and said, "The person who instigated me behind my back is Brandon! Brandon has always wanted to find an opportunity to take revenge on you. This was all Brandon's idea. I'm only responsible for executing this!"

"Woah!"

After hearing Harvey's words, the students in the classroom exploded. Everyone turned to look at Brandon.

No one would have thought that the mastermind behind this was Brandon!

"Harvey, what nonsense are you talking about? When did I order you to do that? I'm warning you not to slander me!" Brandon shouted angrily.

"You were the one who planned this. I still have the Facebook message you sent me. If you don't admit it, I can show them to everyone now!" Harvey quickly retorted.

After Brandon heard this, his face instantly turned pale, and sweat appeared on his forehead. For a moment, he didn't know how to explain himself.

"Connor, since the two people who framed you have been found, how do you plan to deal with them now?" Jesse walked to Connor and asked him seriously.

"What the two of them have done should be enough to expel them, right?" Connor said slowly.

"Enough!" Jesse quickly said.

Connor turned and looked at Brandon coldly.

After Brandon saw the expression on Connor's face, he instantly panicked.

In the past, Brandon's father had spent a lot of money and connections to get Brandon to study at Porthampton University.

If Brandon were expelled from school now, his father would beat him to death!

Therefore, Brandon was also very afraid that Connor would expel him.

“Connor... i shouldn't have framed you. I beg you, give me a chance. If you don't get me expelled, I'll do anything you want!”

Brandon, who had always been domineering in class, finally lowered his head before Connor and spoke very humbly.

As for the students in the classroom, after seeing Brandon's servile appearance, they were a little stunned. They felt that all of this was too unbelievable.

Who would have thought that the richest kid in the class would beg a poor delivery boy, Connor?

“Brandon, you don't have to beg him. Who does he think he is?”

Mandy seemed unable to accept that Brandon had lost to Connor, and she shouted at Brandon nervously.

“Connor, I beg you, give me a chance! If you don't get me expelled, I'll do anything...”

Brandon ignored Mandy. To retain his student status, he could only give up his dignity and beg Connor.

The students in the classroom were all shocked.

No one had expected that today's matter would have a shocking result!

The real thief was not Connor but Brandon and Harvey.

There were two reasons why Harvey only mentioned Brandon. The first reason was that he didn't want to betray May. The second reason was that he only had evidence that Brandon had instructed him to do so. There was no evidence that anyone else had contacted him, so it was useless to say it.

"Connor, how do you plan to deal with these two?"

Jesse knew Connor's identity, so he naturally left dealing with Harvey and Brandon to Connor.

"You two don't want to be expelled, right?" Connor hesitated before narrowing his eyes and asking Brandon.

"Yes, as long as you don't expel me, I'll do anything!" Brandon said without thinking.

"Alright, since you have said so, I will let you off..."

Hearing Connor's words, Harvey and Brandon immediately heaved a sigh of relief.

But Connor's following words made the two frown hard.

"However, I want the two of you to kneel outside the classroom until seven o'clock at night. Then, I'll let you go!" Connor said expressionlessly.

The students in the classroom gasped when they heard Connor's words.

"Connor, aren't you going a little overboard? Don't push your luck. Let me tell you..."

Mandy stepped forward and shouted at Connor with a pair of fox-like eyes.

"If you think I'm going overboard, you can choose not to kneel and be expelled!" Connor turned to look at Mandy and said coldly.

“You...”

Mandy was at a loss for words. She did not know how to answer Connor.

As for Brandon, he glared at Connor. He felt Connor’s request was too much and simply couldn’t accept it.

But if he didn’t accept it, he could only face the risk of being expelled.

“Connor, we’re all classmates. There’s no need to be so ruthless, right?”

“Yeah, isn’t asking Brandon to kneel outside the classroom a bit too much?”

“Connor, you’re going a little overboard!”

After the students in the classroom heard Connor’s request, they stood up one after another to defend Brandon and Harvey.

“I went overboard?”

After Connor heard everyone’s words, he could not help but sneer. Then, he said expressionlessly, “When the two of them framed me as a thief, why didn’t you say anything? Now I’m the one who has gone overboard?”

Everyone looked at Connor with some embarrassment. After hesitating, no one spoke up for Brandon and Harvey anymore.

“Will you kneel or not?”

Connor walked up to Brandon and asked coldly.

“Connor, you win! I’ll kneel, I’ll kneel, alright?” Brandon gritted his teeth and said.

After Harvey saw Brandon agree to Connor’s request, he quickly said, “I will kneel too, I will kneel too...”

After the students in the classroom heard Brandon’s words, they were stunned and shocked.

They had never thought Brandon and Harvey would agree to Connor’s unreasonable request.

Rachel narrowed her eyes and looked at Connor, but she said nothing.

She felt Connor was so ruthless because Brandon had bullied him for too long, and Brandon had stolen Connor’s girlfriend.

The combination of old and new grudges made Connor do such a thing.

Therefore, Rachel did not say anything.

After punishing Harvey and Connor, Connor turned to look at the other students in the classroom.

The students who had insulted Connor before seemed terrified when they saw Connor’s gaze.

They knew that after Connor dealt with Brandon and Harvey, he would make a move on them.

“Do you still remember what I told you before?” Connor said to the students in the classroom expressionlessly..

Chapter 137: Apologize for Your Recklessness

Hearing what Connor said, the students in the classroom were stunned.

“If you’ve forgotten, then I’ll help you recall. I’ve said it before, all of you have to be responsible for what you’ve said!” Connor said firmly.

“Connor, we’re classmates. There’s no need to be so ruthless!”

“Yeah, we’re not the ones who framed you. Why are you holding on to us?”

The few boys who stood up for Brandon before shouted at Connor nervously.

“Hah, classmates? Why didn’t you say you were classmates when you humiliated Connor earlier?” Spencer quickly stood up and snorted when he heard what these people said.

“That’s right. Didn’t you say that you wanted Connor expelled just now? Why didn’t you guys think that you were classmates then? Have you forgotten that Connor invited you all to the Brasserie Le Bernardin for a meal?” Dominic also shouted.

“I... We didn’t know that Connor was framed. We all thought Connor was a thief then, so we said that...”

A boy explained nervously.

“You guys don’t even know the truth, yet you dare to humiliate others so casually. Is it because Brandon is rich, and I’m just a delivery boy? There are so many unjust cases in the world. It’s because of people like you that black and white are reversed, and good people become bad people!” Connor said coldly.

“Connor is right. Students like you who insult others casually are no different from Brandon and Harvey. If we hadn’t investigated the matter today, you people might have forced Connor to drop out of school. Therefore, I must punish you properly and let the entire Porthampton University understand that you have to be responsible for every word you say before we figure out the truth!” Jesse’s ability to bootlick was quite good. After knowing that Connor wanted to deal with these students, he hurriedly stood up and spoke righteously.

When the students in the classroom heard Jesse's words, their eyes widened in fear.

They weren't afraid if Connor wanted to deal with them because many people had mocked Connor just now. Connor couldn't do anything to them.

However, things would be very different if Jesse wanted to punish them. Jesse was the chancellor of Porthampton University. He could punish them however he wanted. No one dared to go against the chancellor's wishes.

"Connor, what do you think about giving each of them a major demerit?" Jesse turned his head and asked Connor.

"Everyone will be given a major demerit?"

Everyone was dumbfounded when they heard this. No one had expected Jesse to be so heartless.

Just because they had humiliated Connor, they had to give each of them a big demerit. This punishment was a little heavy.

Rachel looked at Jesse and Connor, her beautiful eyes filled with confusion. She really couldn't understand why Jesse treated Connor so well.

Even if these students had insulted Connor before, it was not to the extent of giving everyone a big demerit, right?

"Connor, I don't think they're targeting you on purpose. You're all classmates. It's better not to make such a big deal!" Rachel hesitated for a moment before softly speaking to Connor.

"That's right, Connor. We didn't do it on purpose. Hurry up and plead with Mr. Zachman. Don't let him punish us!"

“We’re all classmates. We still have to get along in the future. There’s no need to make things so difficult, right?”

At this moment, the students were anxious. They looked at Connor and begged softly.

“Connor, why don’t we forget about this?”

The kind-hearted Eunice walked to Connor and advised him softly.

Connor originally planned to follow Jesse’s suggestion and give each of them a big demerit.

However, after hearing Eunice’s words, Connor’s heart softened. He looked at everyone expressionlessly and said, “You don’t want to get a major demerit, do you?”

“No!”

“Of course not!”

Everyone hurriedly shook their heads and mumbled.

“Alright then. I will give you a chance today because of Eunice and Miss Wallace. I can ask Mr. Zachman not to give you a major demerit, but all of you have to apologize to me! Apologize for your recklessness earlier!” Connor said.

When the students in the classroom heard this, they finally understood that Connor was now retaliating against them.

Not only did they have to apologize for what they said today, but they also had to apologize for what they said to Connor before!

The poor loser Connor, who everyone had always ridiculed, finally revealed his fangs. He was showing everyone that he was not easy to bully!

Everyone looked at Connor with a hint of confusion in their eyes.

They had never expected that Connor would not even let go of the students who had not spoken. He had asked everyone who humiliated Connor to stand up and apologize.

“We didn’t frame you just now. Why should we apologize?”

“Yeah, we didn’t do anything wrong. There’s no need to apologize!”

Although the students in the class already knew that Connor was not a thief, they were still unwilling to stand up and apologize to Connor.

Even though they had bullied Connor with Brandon!

“It’s fine if you don’t apologize. Then, I’ll give you all a huge demerit!”

Connor was not in the mood to continue talking nonsense with them. He turned his head and said to Jesse.

“Yes!” Jesse nodded without thinking.

“Connor...”

A girl who had mocked Connor before quickly stood up and said to Connor in a low voice when she realized Connor was going to punish her.

“Yes?” Connor replied indifferently.

“I’ll apologize to you. But can you not record it?” The girl bit her lip and said in a low voice.

Connor looked at the girl without saying anything.

“Connor, I’m sorry. I shouldn’t have mocked you just now!” the girl approached Connor and whispered to him.

“This person doesn’t need to be given demerit!” Connor said to Jesse after the girl apologize to him.

“Alright!” Jesse nodded again.

“I also apologize...”

“Connor, I apologize too!”

Although no one was willing to apologize to Connor, they were even more unwilling to be given demerits because of this, so they all stood up and apologized to Connor.

Connor smiled a little as he looked at these people’s expressions playfully. He could not help but feel a little amused.

“Connor, I’m sorry!”

“Connor, I’m sorry. i shouldn’t have slandered you before!”

For a moment, the classroom was filled with mumbles of apologies.

Regardless of whether they had mocked Connor, they all stood up and apologized to Connor..

Chapter 138: Spare Me Some Dignity

Seeing the students apologizing, Connor was very calm.

Meanwhile, Dominic and Spencer two looked at Connor and sighed silently.

Connor had been with the students in the class for three years. No matter how they bullied him in these three years, he never retaliated. Only Dominic and Spencer and the other two would stand up for him.

In many people's eyes, Connor was a poor loser who could be bullied easily.

But today, Connor seemed to have changed into a different person. His entire being emitted the domineering aura of a superior. Moreover, he had returned all the humiliation he had suffered before.

Natasha was also looking at Connor in shock, her beautiful eyes filled with confusion.

She really couldn't understand why a super-rich heir like Connor would hide his identity.

If Connor revealed his true identity, he would probably scare all the students present to death.

Rachel was still calm. Although she didn't know Connor's true identity, she could understand Connor's actions today.

Previously, the students in the class had always looked down on Connor and thought he was a poor delivery boy. They often used this to humiliate Connor. Rachel knew all these, but she couldn't change anything.

Today, Connor finally found a chance to be a new person. Of course, he had to return all the humiliation he had suffered.

Any normal person would do this.

Mandy, Harvey, Brandon, and the others had ashen expressions. They never thought the trap they had carefully planned for so long would end up like this.

Originally, they wanted to use this to get the school to expel Connor. However, no one expected that in the end, not only did Connor not get expelled, but they almost got themselves expelled.

“What’s up with Connor? Why did Mr. Zachman help him?”

Mandy was still unable to accept the fact. She gritted her teeth and spoke up.

Brandon turned and glanced at Mandy. He was not in the mood to care about these things because he was worried that he would have to go outside the classroom door to apologize to Connor.

If he really kneeled and apologized to Connor at the door of the classroom, how could he continue to walk with his head held high at Porthampton University in the future?

A few minutes later.

The students who had humiliated Connor before stood up and apologized to him.

After Connor heard these people’s apologies, he remained calm.

In fact, he didn’t ask these people to apologize to take revenge on them. He just wanted them to understand one thing.

He, Connor, was not that easy to bully.

“There’s no need to give these people demerits!”

Connor turned and said to Jesse. Then, he approached Brandon and Harvey and said coldly, “What are you two still standing there for? Hurry up and kneel at the classroom door!”

“Connor, can we do this somewhere else?” Brandon gritted his teeth and whispered to Connor.

After Connor heard what Brandon said, he sneered and said coldly, “Do you think you’re in a place to negotiate with me now?”

“You...”

Brandon was stunned by Connor’s question.

“I’m not in the mood to talk nonsense with you now. Do you want to kneel or not?” Connor asked Brandon.

Brandon stood in place and hesitated for two seconds, then nodded at Connor.

Connor saw Brandon nodding and couldn’t help but laugh, “I thought you had a backbone, but it turns out that you’re just a coward!”

“You...”

After Brandon heard Connor’s mocking, he glared at Connor.

“Let’s go!” Connor turned around and walked toward the classroom door.

Brandon stood in place and hesitated for two seconds, then gritted his teeth and followed Connor out of the classroom.

Harvey turned to look at May, took a deep breath, and then followed Connor and Brandon.

The students in the classroom were all very curious. Would Brandon and Harvey kneel and apologize to Connor?

Therefore, everyone followed Connor and the other two to the classroom door with the thought of watching the drama.

Soon, the classroom door was filled with students.

Connor looked at Brandon and Harvey calmly.

“Hurry up and kneel. I don’t have time to waste with you!” Connor looked at the two and said casually.

“Connor, it was my fault for framing you previously, but I’ve already admitted my mistake. Can’t you let me off the hook?”

Harvey saw that students surrounded the classroom door. He seemed to be backing out. He didn’t want to kneel like this.

“I’m already letting you off by asking you to kneel and apologize!” Connor said coldly.

Harvey looked at Connor and hesitated for a moment. Then, he gritted his teeth and said softly, “Connor, I can kneel and apologize, but can we return to the classroom? There are so many people here. Can you spare me some dignity?”

“Spare you some dignity?”

When Connor heard this, he couldn’t help but laugh. Then, he said in a playful tone, “When you framed me back then, why didn’t you think of sparing me some?”

“Kneel!” Connor roared coldly.

“Thud!”

Perhaps Harvey was frightened by Connor’s imposing manner, but when he heard this roar, his legs immediately went soft, and he kneeled before Connor in front of everyone.

When everyone saw Harvey kneeling in front of Connor, they gaped, and they were shocked.

Harvey’s kneeling dealt a heavy blow to his personality!

However, the humiliation he suffered now was not even a ten-thousandth of the humiliation Connor suffered back then.

In the past, Harvey had followed Brandon to bully Connor, but now, Connor made Harvey kneel in front of him.

The expressions of the students standing at the side and watching the show changed drastically. It was only at this moment that they realized that the current Connor was no longer the Connor they knew before.

After Connor saw Harvey kneeling before him, he smiled coldly and turned to Brandon, “He’s already kneeling. What are you still standing there for?”

Brandon looked at Connor with a dull gaze, and his expression was very conflicted.

He knew that if he kneeled before Connor today, he would never be able to live his life as before anymore.

Brandon was very unwilling!

He was unwilling to lose to someone like Connor.

“Brandon Guthrie, don’t kneel. I don’t believe that Connor can do anything to you!” Just as Brandon hesitated, Mandy suddenly stood up and said to Brandon..

Chapter 139: Does He Dare to Get Up?

Porthampton University, at the entrance of the classroom.

Many students gathered near Connor, Brandon, and Harvey. A large number of them were students from other classes.

These people all knew Connor was a poor delivery boy, but they didn’t know why Harvey was kneeling before Connor.

When Brandon saw Harvey kneel to Connor, his expression was very ugly, and he did not know if he should kneel down or not.

If Brandon and Harvey knew that things would turn out like this, they wouldn’t have dared to frame Connor even if they were beaten to death.

At this moment, their intestines were about to turn green with regret!

As for the culprit of this matter, May, she looked as if it had nothing to do with her.

She expressionlessly looked at Harvey kneeling before Connor, her heart very calm.

May had warned them not to offend Connor, but they didn’t listen. Now that things had turned out this way, May had no choice.

“Brandon, don’t kneel before Connor! I don’t believe that Connor can get you expelled today! Doesn’t your dad know someone from the Education Bureau? Hurry up and call them!” Mandy quickly walked to Brandon and said to him. If Mandy didn’t say that, Brandon might not kneel to Connor for his dignity.

But when Brandon heard Mandy say that, he didn’t think about it and kneeled before Connor.

After everyone saw Brandon kneel, they all inhaled sharply, deeply shocked.

Who would have thought that Brandon, the rich kid from Porthampton University, would kneel before a poor loser who delivered food for a living?

Didn't this only happen in television dramas?

Even Mandy was shocked because she couldn't understand why Brandon suddenly kneeled before Connor.

Mandy might not know that Brandon was able to enter Porthampton University because his father had been looking for connections everywhere, licking boots and bottoms everywhere. It was not easy for him to build a relationship with the people from the Education Bureau and send Brandon to study at Porthampton University.

But now, if Brandon was expelled from the school, his father might kill him. Brandon's future would not be good if he didn't kill him.

Therefore, he was so worried that he kneeled before Connor.

The surrounding students watching the show began to discuss after seeing Brandon kneel.

"Why would Brandon kneel to someone like Connor?"

"I remember that Brandon went to a hotel with Connor's girlfriend a few days ago. Moreover, Connor caught them there. What's going on today?" The students from the neighboring class asked in confusion.

"You guys still don't know, right? Brandon and Harvey framed Connor for being a thief, and the chancellor found out. Now they are apologizing to Connor!" a girl in Connor's class replied carefully.

“Ah! So that’s what happened!”

“I didn’t expect Brandon and Harvey to be so shameless. They framed Connor as a thief. They’re so shameless...”

“Although Connor is a little poor, you can’t bully him like this!”

Everyone stood on Connor’s side, criticizing Harvey and Brandon.

Brandon gritted his teeth and kneeled. Listening to the voices of these people accusing him, his face turned red. He had never suffered such humiliation since he was young.

“Brandon, why are you kneeling to Connor? Hurry up and get up...”

Mandy couldn’t accept such a thing and shouted at Brandon hysterically.

“Mandy, don’t worry about this anymore. Go do what you have to do!”

Brandon felt he was already embarrassed enough and did not want Mandy to continue making trouble.

“Why? You’re my boyfriend. Why can’t I tell you what to do?” Mandy shouted at the top of her lungs.

“It’s my fault for framing Connor. Kneeling and apologizing to him is also what I promised Connor before. Hurry up and leave!” Brandon said helplessly.

“Brandon...” Mandy looked at Brandon, her eyes full of confusion.

She really couldn’t understand how the always arrogant Brandon could be willing to kneel to Connor now.

“Connor, quickly ask Brandon to get up!” Mandy turned and shouted at Connor.

“Who are you? Why should I listen to you? Besides, he wanted to kneel!” Connor said coldly.

“You... How can you be so shameless?”

Mandy was so angry that she didn’t know what to say. She glared at Connor and scolded him.

“I’m shameless?” Connor could not help but sneer. He did not want to continue talking to Mandy.

He looked at Brandon and Harvey and said, “The two of you can kneel here until seven o’clock in the evening. If I find out that the two of you have left early, you will bear the consequences!”

“We... We will!” Harvey looked at Connor and hurriedly replied.

Brandon did not speak.

“Alright, let’s go!”

Connor looked at Dominic, Natasha, and the others and shouted. Then, he turned around and was about to leave the school.

“Connor, stop right there!” Mandy saw that Connor was about to leave and quickly reached out to grab him.

“Is there anything else?” Connor asked Mandy calmly.

“Connor, don’t think you can do whatever you want just because you have the chancellor’s support. Let me tell you, Brandon is not someone you can afford to offend. You’d better let Brandon get up quickly. Otherwise, I’ll make you regret it for the rest of your life!” Mandy frowned and said excitedly.

“If I ask him to get up now, will he dare to?” Connor said to Mandy mockingly.

“You...”

Mandy was so angry by Connor’s words that her entire body trembled. She pointed at Connor and screamed, “Don’t think I don’t know why you’re doing this. Because I’m with Brandon, and you can’t swallow this, so you want to take revenge on Brandon, right?”

Connor looked at Mandy and smiled helplessly. He didn’t know what to say.

“Connor, let me tell you. When I broke up with you and chose to be with Brandon, it was not because Brandon snatched me away from you. Do you know why I wanted to be with Brandon?”

Connor looked at Mandy and remained silent.

“Because, in my opinion, you’re a complete garbage. I don’t see any hope in you at all. You’re a poor wretch who only knows how to deliver food all day. I’ve never been happy with you, do you know that?” Mandy did not consider Connor’s feelings and shouted in an extremely sharp and mean tone.

Connor was still looking at Mandy calmly. In Connor’s eyes, Mandy was really funny.

Connor wondered if Mandy would still have the guts to say such words if she knew his true identity..

Chapter 140: The Person Who Should Regret Is You

“What nonsense are you spouting?”

Of all the people present, only Natasha knew Connor’s true identity.

Therefore, when she heard Mandy’s words, she couldn’t help but step forward to argue with Mandy.

“What I said is the truth. Let me tell you, Connor is a poor loser! If you continue to be with such a person, you’ll regret it sooner or later!” Mandy turned her head and shouted at Natasha.

At this moment, Mandy’s pretty face looked a little ferocious because of anger.

Connor felt that it was fortunate that Mandy had left him back then. Otherwise, spending the rest of his life with such a woman would be scary.

“Will I regret it?”

Natasha couldn’t help but laugh. She secretly sighed that Mandy was really funny. Even in her dreams, she was thinking about how to be with Connor.

And Mandy said that she would regret it. To Natasha, this was simply a huge joke.

However, Natasha was still very grateful to Mandy. After all, if Mandy hadn’t taken the initiative to leave Connor, she wouldn’t have had the chance to get with Connor.

“It’s up to you whether you believe it or not. Anyway, I’ve already told you. By the time you regret it, it’ll be too late. Because a person like Connor doesn’t deserve a girlfriend at all!”

At this moment, Mandy had gone crazy and humiliated Connor without reservation.

Connor looked at Mandy and hesitated for two seconds. Then, he walked to Mandy and said in a low voice, “Mandy, let me tell you, the one who should regret it should be you. Sooner or later, you will realize how stupid your current actions are!”

“I should be the one regretting?”

When Mandy heard this, she sneered disdainfully and then said with a pout, “What will I regret? Do you think I’ll regret breaking up with a delivery guy like you?”

“Who said I’m a delivery guy?” Connor roared angrily. He finally could not control the anger in his heart. He wanted to reveal his identity and then ruthlessly slapped Mandy’s face to let her understand who was standing before her now!

“If you’re not a delivery guy, what are you? Connor, I’ve been with you for so long. Do you think I don’t understand you? You can pretend to be a rich heir in front of others, but in my eyes, you’re a completely poor loser. Your identity as a rich heir is all an act...” Mandy looked at Connor and shouted disdainfully.

“I...” As Connor was about to speak, Natasha suddenly stopped him and said, “Even if Connor is a poor loser, it’s not up to a woman like you to say that. Besides, whether Connor is rich or not, I still like him. I don’t care about those things and won’t regret it!”

Natasha was a little agitated when she saw Connor just now. She was worried that Connor would reveal his identity.

At that time, all the students at Porthampton University would know that Connor was a super-rich heir.

At that time, there would be more girls who wanted to compete with Natasha, which was why Natasha stood out and interrupted Connor.

Connor looked at Natasha and calmed down a little. Then, he swallowed the words he wanted to say.

“What does it have to do with me, whether you regret it or not? Brandon, get up quickly. Let’s go!” Mandy didn’t want to continue discussing these things with Natasha, so she dragged Brandon and left.

“Mandy, can you stop? Haven’t you embarrassed yourself enough? Do you still want me to continue embarrassing myself?” Brandon shouted at Mandy angrily.

Initially, there were not many students surrounding the classroom door. However, more and more students gathered to watch after Mandy’s commotion.

Brandon wanted to slap Mandy to shut her up.

After Mandy heard this sentence, she was completely stunned. She looked at Brandon foolishly and said aggrievedly, "I... I just don't want you to kneel here. I don't mean anything else!"

"Hurry up and get lost! You don't have to care about my matters. Get lost!" Brandon vented all the anger in his heart at Mandy and shouted extremely angrily.

"Brandon, you..."

Mandy did not expect that Brandon would insult her at this time. She had tried her best to protect Brandon just now but was insulted by him.

Mandy couldn't hold back her tears.

"What about me? I told you to get lost. Didn't you hear me?" Brandon looked at Mandy and continued to shout.

"Mandy, hurry up and leave. Don't you think we're embarrassed enough?" Harvey, kneeling on the ground, shouted helplessly.

H ii

Mandy stood where she was and hesitated for two seconds. She never thought her good intentions would be treated like nothing.

"Why aren't you leaving? What are you looking at?" Brandon gritted his teeth and shouted coldly.

"Alright, I'll leave! I'll leave now!" Mandy shouted and ran away with tears in her eyes.

Connor looked at Mandy as she left and sighed helplessly.

Mandy, who he had treated as a goddess, was now a plaything in Brandon's eyes.

"Let's go!"

Connor turned his head and said to Dominic, Natasha, and the others before turning around and walking out of the school.

Dominic, Spencer, and the others looked at Brandon kneeling on the ground. They didn't say anything and left the school with Connor.

"Connor, you're so cool today. You finally taught Brandon a good lesson!" After leaving the school, Dominic said excitedly.

"That's right. When I saw you being taken away by Dylan today, I was scared out of my wits. I thought you were a thief!" Spencer said.

"I would never steal!" Connor looked at Spencer helplessly and said unhappily.

"Connor, how did you explain it to the chancellor? Why do I feel like the chancellor was a little afraid of you earlier?"

Dominic thought of Jesse's attitude when he spoke to Connor just now and asked Connor with a slightly puzzled expression.

"He's the chancellor of Porthampton University. Why would he be afraid of me? Mr. Zachman feels I've been wrongly accused and wants to fight for me!" Connor replied with a smile.

"I didn't expect Mr. Zachman to be so kind. It's not like what the outside world says!"

Dominic also felt that he might have sensed wrongly and then continued to ask, "By the way, Connor, how did you prove that you're not a thief?"

"I asked Dylan to look at the surveillance video in the corridor and found that Harvey stole the money and hid it in my desk, so I proved my innocence!" Connor explained softly.

"I see!" Dominic nodded, put his arm around Connor's shoulder, and said, "I knew you wouldn't steal anything. How could you be a thief?"

"Alright, can we not talk about this anymore? Because of this, Natasha and I have been waiting for the whole afternoon. Are we still going to watch the movie?"

Connor was cleared of suspicion and humiliated Brandon and the others. Dominic and Spencer were naturally happy, but Cindy was not.

She thought she had something on Connor and could use this to humiliate him.

However, he did not expect that Connor was not a thief at all.

"I'll buy the tickets now. Let's go to the cinema..."

When Dominic heard Cindy's suggestion, he quickly took out his phone and prepared to buy tickets.

But at this moment, Connor's phone suddenly rang.

Connor took out his phone and realized that it was Rachel..
