

10 Trillion 361

Chapter 361: Meeting an Old Acquaintance Again

After Eunice heard Connor's words, a look of astonishment immediately appeared on her face.

In her opinion, it was impossible for Connor to buy all the remaining houses.

Even if someone had a lot of money, they couldn't possibly buy so many houses at once.

She was about to say something to him when she saw Chloe running towards them with documents in her hand. She anxiously said to Connor, "Mr. Connor, I just verified with the sales department. We still have 350 unsold units in this development, worth a total of 1.05 billion. If you buy them all, I can talk to the chairman of the company and waive the remaining 80 million!"

"Yes, yes..."

Mr. Mason, standing next to Chloe, nodded excitedly.

After all, he was in charge of the sales department. If they could sell all the units in the entire development at once, he would definitely benefit greatly. So now he looked at Connor with admiration.

"Alright, go prepare the contracts quickly. I want all the remaining units!"

Connor didn't hesitate at all and nodded lightly at Chloe.

"Mr. Connor, please wait a moment. I'll go prepare the contracts right away. Please wait!"

After hearing this, Mr. Mason replied excitedly and quickly rushed towards the office.

"Mr. Connor, I'll also help prepare the contracts!"

After hesitating for a moment, Chloe also left with Mr. Mason.

Meanwhile, Eunice, who was standing aside, widened her eyes as her face filled with shock. She felt like she was in a dream, everything seemed so unreal.

She couldn't understand why Chloe and Mr. Mason believed Zhang Feng's words. After all, it was a staggering 1.05 billion!

Even if it was the richest person in Porthampton, it wouldn't be easy for them to come up with that much money!

But now, Chloe and Mr. Mason unquestionably believed Connor's words and were helping him prepare the contracts!

"Connor, do you really have enough money to buy all these houses?"

Taking a deep breath, Eunice asked Connor in astonishment.

"Of course!"

He didn't hesitate and simply nodded at her.

"Where did you get so much money from?"

She looked at him incredulously.

Until now, she still thought he was just joking with everyone.

"You don't need to worry about where I got the money. There's something else I need your help with..."

He casually said while sitting on the sofa.

“What... What do you need? You’re not trying to borrow money from me, are you? I don’t have that much money...” she whispered to him.

“Hehe...”

He smiled and then explained softly, “You don’t have to worry about money. That amount of money is nothing to me. As a reward for your help, I’m willing to give you five of these units. When I need these houses in the future, you can transfer them to me!”

“Connor, your joke isn’t funny at all!” she shouted at him.

“I’m not joking with you. I’m telling the truth. If I didn’t have the money to buy all these houses, why would the manager of the sales department believe me?” he explained helplessly.

“But even if you really have the money to buy these houses, why did you put them under my name? Don’t you know that the property transfer fee is very high? Why don’t you just write your name?” she questioned with a puzzled expression.

When he heard this, he smiled helplessly and said expressionlessly, “You don’t have to worry about the handling fee. This bit of money is nothing to me!”

When Eunice heard his words, she was instantly stunned on the spot.

On the other hand, because Connor’s order was too large and required many different procedures, most of the employees in the sales department were busy with this matter.

As a result, there was no one available to attend to the customers who were originally in the sales department.

Therefore, Mr. Mason walked directly to the center of the lobby and shouted loudly to the customers, "Dear guests, we are truly sorry. The houses of Evergrande Real Estate are now sold out. There are no more available units for you to choose from. So, please go elsewhere to look for houses! "

"What? Sold out?"

"There were many units just now. How did they sell out all of a sudden?"

"Yeah, didn't you say there were many units available just now? How did they sell out all of a sudden?"

After hearing his words, everyone was stunned, and they angrily questioned him with displeased expressions.

"We have paid the deposit, so we don't need to leave, right?"

At this moment, a middle-aged woman dressed in luxury stepped forward and shouted loudly at Mr. Mason.

"We will refund your deposit soon. Customers that haven't paid the full amount yet can leave!"

He had no mood to deal with these small mortgage customers at the moment and directly sold all the houses to Connor, which also saved him a lot of trouble.

"What? We have paid the deposit, and now you're telling me the houses are gone. What's going on?"

The middle-aged woman stepped forward with a furious tone after hearing this.

"Yes, when we paid the deposit just now, weren't there still available units? How did they all get sold out?"

A middle-aged man beside the middle-aged woman also shouted.

“I have already said that we will refund your deposit, but all the houses have already been bought by someone. If you can pay the remaining amount in one go, we can still sell the house to you!”

Mr. Mason said casually with an indifferent expression.

“We were told that paying the deposit would be enough. Why has it suddenly changed to requiring full payment? Aren’t you deceiving the consumers?”

At this moment, a sexy and glamorous woman rushed out from the crowd, her expression filled with anger as she shouted at Mr. Mason.

Upon hearing this voice, Connor felt a sense of familiarity and couldn’t help but turn his head to take a look.

“Cindy?”

After seeing the appearance of the beautiful woman clearly, he murmured softly.

At this moment, the family standing against Mr. Mason was none other than Cindy, the girl that Connor’s roommate Dominic had been pursuing all along..

Chapter 362: Who Told You I Don’t Have Money to Buy a House?

Due to Dominic’s relationship, Connor and Cindy can be considered old acquaintances.

However, he doesn’t have a good impression of this materialistic woman.

But he didn’t expect to encounter her again here!

Cindy’s family weren’t wealthy, and they also have a house in the city where they come from.

But in order to satisfy her vanity, she insisted that her parents buy her a house.

This way, after graduation, she would have her own house, which she could boast to her classmates.

At first, her parents didn't agree to buy a house, but she made a scene, and in the end, they had no choice but to agree to take a loan and buy a small apartment for her.

The family of three, Cindy included, visited several real estate projects in Porthampton, and finally decided to buy a house in this building because of its good location and complete facilities, with a promising increase in value in the future.

If Cindy wanted to upgrade to a larger house later, she could sell this one.

So, yesterday they paid a deposit of twenty thousand dollars, intending to come today and make the down payment.

But as soon as they stepped into the sales office, they heard Mr. Mason say that all the houses here had been sold out, and even if they paid the deposit, it was useless.

Although he promised to refund the deposit, Cindy and her family were upset. After all, the house they had chosen was gone!

"Can't your company keep its word? We had already chosen the house yesterday, and we paid the deposit. How can you say the houses are gone now?" Cindy shouted at Mr. Mason.

"I have already explained clearly just now. The houses are still available, and there are still many, but Mr. Connor intends to buy them all. If you can pay the remaining balance in full now, I can discuss it with him and let him sell the houses to you. But if you don't have the money, then I'm sorry," Mr. Mason replied impatiently.

After hearing his words, everyone finally understood what was going on.

The houses in the sales office had been bought up by someone, that's why they were kicked out.

And those people who originally came to see the houses now gathered around him, showing a gossipy expression, wanting to see who was so wealthy and bought so many houses at once!

However, Cindy didn't care about this matter. She pointed at Mr. Mason and scolded, "Your sales office clearly has no integrity! I will sue you!"

"If you want to sue, then go ahead..." he replied indifferently and then walked away.

After seeing his indifferent attitude, she couldn't help but feel despair. She quickly turned her head and looked at her parents.

"Cindy, we don't have that much money now! We borrowed the down payment for the house, we don't have enough to pay for the entire house. How about we give up?" her father advised in a low voice.

"Yes. What's the point of you, as a girl, buying a house? When you get married in the future, let your boyfriend buy it for you!" her mother also chimed in.

"This is too despicable. So what if you have money? If you don't want to sell it, we won't buy it! Dad, Mom, let's go to other buildings to take a look..."

Cindy also knew the situation of her family, they didn't have enough money to buy a house in full, so she had to find a way to retreat gracefully.

"Mr. Connor, the contract is ready. Would you like to pay by card?"

At that moment, Chloe rushed over to Connor in high heels and asked softly.

"I'll pay by card!"

He casually replied and took out the platinum card that Thomas had given him!

Thomas had told him that this card had no spending limit. As long as the amount didn't exceed one trillion dollars, he could use it for any purchase. He had used this card when buying the car earlier.

When everyone saw him take out the platinum card, the crowds were shocked.

They never expected a young man like him who appeared to be in his early twenties could buy so many houses at once!

"This is too damn rich! He actually bought so many houses in one go?" "This is too damn rich! He actually bought so many houses in one go?"

"So young and already so wealthy, truly impressive!"

"This guy must be a rich heir who spends money without blinking!"

"Damn it, I worked so hard for the down payment, and he just bought the entire building without hesitation!"

The crowd began to whisper quietly among themselves.

Meanwhile, Cindy, who had already reached the entrance of the sales office, couldn't help but turn around and take a look when she heard about the wealthy person who bought all the houses. But when she saw Connor, her whole body froze.

"The person who bought all the houses is actually Connor?" she exclaimed with wide eyes.

"How is this possible? When did he become so wealthy?"

The more she looked at him, the more incredulous she felt. Then she hurriedly walked toward him.

Initially, she thought she might have mistaken, thinking that Connor couldn't be the one buying the houses.

But when she walked into the sales office and saw Chloe taking the bank card from him, she became certain that he was indeed the one who bought the houses.

"Connor!" Cindy shouted directly at Connor.

He turned his head to look at her and asked expressionlessly, "Do you have something to say?"

"What are you doing here?"

She walked up to him and asked him with a puzzled expression.

"I'm buying houses," he replied casually.

"Don't fool with me! How much money can a poor delivery guy like you make? How could you possibly afford to buy a house?"

"Miss, please mind your tone when speaking. This person here is a VIP of our sales office!"

Chloe reprimanded Cindy expressionlessly.

Upon hearing this, Cindy glanced at Chloe and then pointed at Connor, shouting, "Let me tell you, you've all been deceived by him. He's not some rich heir, he's just a poor delivery guy who likes to pretend to be rich. How could he have the money to buy all the houses here?"

"Who told you that I don't have the money to buy houses?"

If it were the old Connor, he would have chosen to ignore her, but now he wasn't worried about his identity being exposed, so he naturally spoke without politeness.

"Do you not know whether you have the money or not?" she replied disdainfully.

"I was originally thinking of giving you the apartment you just booked, out of respect for Dominic, but since you said that, then I'm sorry. You won't be able to buy any of the houses here. I'm taking all of them!"

He exclaimed with an exceptionally domineering tone, then turned to Chloe and said, "Swipe the card!"

"Alright, Mr. Connor!"

Chloe nodded quickly and inserted the bank card into the credit card machine.

Cindy was startled by Connor's sudden burst of dominance.. She stood frozen in place, her gaze dazed as she looked at him, not understanding where he had found the courage to say such things!

Chapter 363: Frozen Account

Inside the showroom.

When Chloe inserted his bank card into the credit card machine, the entire place fell silent.

Everyone widened their eyes and looked curiously at Connor and his companions.

Although they were upset that they lost their house, the thought of witnessing a rich heir spending billions to buy so many houses made their curiosity outweigh their disappointment.

Chloe was also very excited at this moment. She trembled as she entered the transaction amount on the credit card machine with her small hands.

After all, this was a large sum of money. She double-checked multiple times before pressing the confirm button.

“Please enter your password!”

The credit card machine emitted a prompt sound.

Upon hearing this, everyone’s gaze became more eager.

Even Cindy widened her eyes and looked at Connor. Until now, she still couldn’t believe that all of this was real.

“Mr. Connor, please enter your password!” Chloe handed the machine to him and respectfully said.

After taking the machine, he didn’t immediately enter the password. Instead, he turned his head and glanced at Eunice and Cindy behind him.

Previously, Cindy had always looked down on him, but because he was afraid of exposing his identity, he chose to ignore her.

But now, things were different. He no longer had any concerns, so this time he had to teach Cindy a lesson!

“Why are you looking at me, loser?” she disdainfully shouted at him.

“Hehe...” He chuckled upon hearing this, then directly entered the transaction password on the machine.

When Cindy saw him entering the password, a hint of surprise flashed through her eyes. She couldn’t help but wondered whether he actually had that much money.

The others in the showroom also stared wide-eyed at him, quietly waiting for the transaction result to appear.

Some even took out their phones to take pictures of Connor. After all, if he really bought all these houses today, it would undoubtedly become the headline news in Porthampton.

At that time, if news media came knocking on their doors, these photos would be precious and worth a lot of money!

Chloe saw Connor enter the password and immediately showed a trace of excitement on her face. She quickly took the machine from his hands and shouted to the people behind her, "What are you all still standing there for? Hurry up and bring the contracts to Mr. Connor!"

"Okay..."

The saleswoman nervously answered and then turned to run towards the office.

Seeing this scene, everyone was stunned, and their eyes revealed deep shock.

"Ten billion in total, just like that?"

"Yes, it's done so quickly?"

"Rich people are just like that, buying houses is as easy as buying vegetables!"

Everyone began to whisper among themselves.

Cindy, on the other hand, stood still with a dumbfounded expression, her face filled with indescribable astonishment.

Even now, she still couldn't believe that Connor had actually bought all these houses!

"Beep beep beep!"

But at this moment, the credit card machine in Chloe's hand suddenly beeped.

"Transaction failed, please swipe the card again!"

Upon hearing this prompt sound, Connor couldn't help but pause. He then turned to look at Chloe.

Cindy, on the other hand, seemed to see hope and suddenly looked up at him, then wore a disdainful smile, pursed her lips, and said, "I knew it. He could never afford the houses here. He can't even afford one!"

Eunice glanced at Connor, a trace of nervousness flickering across her face, as if she was somewhat worried about him.

Others also started whispering quietly.

"What's going on?"

Connor had planned to use this opportunity to teach Cindy a lesson!

But he didn't expect the transaction to fail, which made him feel somewhat embarrassed.

"Maybe there's a problem with our company. After all, it's the first time we've had such a big transaction!" Chloe hurriedly stepped forward to explain, then reentered the amount on the credit card machine and handed it to Connor, saying softly, "Mr. Connor, why don't you enter the password again!"

Upon hearing this, he glanced lightly at her but didn't say much. He directly entered the password on the credit card machine, but the result was the same, showing the transaction failed!

Seeing this scene, Chloe's eyes revealed a hint of helplessness. She frowned and asked him, "Mr. Connor, do you have any other bank cards? Is there a problem with this card?"

Upon hearing this, the crowd instantly erupted into murmurs, their eyes showing strange looks.

"Of course, his card has a problem because he's just a scammer. He can't even come up with a thousand bucks, let alone ten billion!" Cindy seized this opportunity to shout loudly.

Chloe turned her head and glanced indifferently at her, not bothering to respond, because she knew he wasn't a scammer.

"I don't have any other bank cards now, and this card is a platinum card. Under normal circumstances, it shouldn't have any problems!" Connor replied expressionlessly to her.

She couldn't help but pause upon hearing this and then said, "Mr. Connor, please wait a moment. It might be an issue with our company's finance. Don't worry, I'll go to the finance department right now to find out what's going on..."

"No need to trouble yourself. Since this card is not working, I'll just have Michael transfer the funds to you using my bank account!" Connor didn't want to waste time because of this card. He stopped Chloe and took out his phone, dialing Michael's number.

The people in the showroom all stared fixedly at Connor and Chloe. They were now wondering whether the so-called super-rich heir in front of them was a scammer or not.

"Ring, ring..."

After two rings, Michael answered the phone.

"Michael, use my company's account to transfer ten billion dollars to Evergrande Real Estate!" he said calmly.

“Um, well, Mr. Connor, I can’t help you with that transfer...” Michael said helplessly.

“Why?” Connor asked, stunned.

“Because all of your accounts have been frozen!”

Upon hearing this, Connor froze, his face showing an indescribable shock..

Chapter 364: The Legal Team

“All the accounts frozen?”

Upon hearing Michael s words, Connor’s expression immediately turned ugly.

Although he knew that after revealing his identity in front of Freya, Yannick would definitely use this against him.

But he thought that even if Yannick had already taken action, the lawyers responsible for managing the late chairman’s estate had not arrived yet, and no one had notified him that he had lost the eligibility to inherit the estate. How could his accounts be frozen?

He took a deep breath and asked in a deep voice, “Michael, what’s going on?”

“Mr. Connor, I’m not sure. But this morning, Mr. Thomas personally called and instructed me to freeze your account!” Michael replied in a low voice.

“Thomas froze my account?”

Connor took a deep breath and said in a low voice, “Alright, I know what’s going on. That will be all for now!”

After saying this, he hung up the phone directly.

“Connor, what’s going on?!” Chloe asked anxiously.

After all, they had already offended all the customers, and if Connor had any problems and didn’t buy the property at this time, she might get into big trouble.

“I don’t know what’s going on either, but don’t worry, let me make a phone call!” He took out his phone and walked quickly towards the exit of the sales office.

“Connor, why are you still pretending? Weren’t you going to buy all the houses here? Why aren’t you buying now?” Cindy sneered when she saw him about to leave.

“Shut your mouth, or I’ll throw you out!” He turned his head, glared at her fiercely, and scolded in a cold tone.

“Do you dare?”

She shouted, then stepped forward and continued, “Others don’t know your identity, but I do. You’re just a poor loser who delivers takeout. What are you pretending to be a rich heir for? You just think the female manager looks pretty and want to fool her into sleeping with you, don’t you?”

“Get lost!”

At this point, Connor was not in the mood to continue arguing with her. He directly pushed her away, then walked away quickly.

In no time, he walked out of the showroom under the gaze of everyone, then took out his phone and dialed Thomas’ number.

“Ring, ring...11

After two rings, Thomas answered the call and asked, "Mr. Connor, is there something you need?"

"Thomas, did you instruct someone to freeze my account? Didn't you say I'm still the heir?" Connor asked in a low voice.

"Mr. Connor, I'm not the one who froze your account. It's the old chairman's legal team!"

Thomas explained helplessly and then continued, "Now, the legal team is flying to Porthampton. They will probably arrive in a few hours. However, before that, they need to calculate all the expenses after you inherit the inheritance. Once they determine that you are not qualified to inherit the inheritance, you will need to return all the expenses. That's why the legal team instructed the finance department to freeze your account so that they can calculate how much you have spent during this period of time! "

Connor was stunned when he heard Thomas' words.

"So you're saying that I can't spend a single cent now?"

He gritted his teeth and asked in a low voice.

"Mr. Connor, if you are short of money now, I can use my private account to transfer some to you, but the amount can't be too big. If it's too big, the finance department will find out!" Thomas explained.

"Is one billion dollars considered a lot?"

"Uh..."

Thomas was speechless when he heard that.

"Forget it, I don't want the money!"

Connor shouted in frustration and then continued, "By the way, did you just say that the lawyers are already here?"

"Yes, they'll probably arrive at my company in two hours. Yannick and the others should be on their way too. They're here to decide whether you can inherit the inheritance or not!" Thomas said.

When Connor heard this, he could not help but take a deep breath. He did not expect the lawyers to arrive so quickly.

"Mr. Connor, there's one more thing I need to remind you of. If you lose the right to inherit the inheritance this time, then all the money you spent during this period of time will have to be repaid..."

"What if I don't have the money to repay it?" Connor was stunned for a moment and asked.

"If you don't have the money to repay it, you can also take out the things you bought previously as collateral. After all, the bank has a record of every sum of money you spend. To put it bluntly, if you really lose the right to inherit the inheritance, then everything you had before will have to be returned!" Thomas continued to explain.

After Connor heard his words, he was extremely speechless. He did not know that there was such a rule.

Since that was the case, even if he bought all these houses now, it wouldn't mean a thing. After all, they will eventually be taken back.

"Do I need to come over and see you later?" Connor hesitated for a moment and asked in a low voice.

"It would be better if you come over. That way, you can explain to the lawyers why you exposed your identity. Maybe the legal team will handle the matter with some discretion and give you a chance!" Thomas replied in a low voice.

"What do you think is the probability of me inheriting the estate?" He quickly asked as he felt there was a glimmer of hope.

“Less than one percent,” Thomas replied with a serious tone.

“Then it’s basically over!” Zhang Feng’s hope was instantly shattered, and he said in a low voice, “Okay, I’ll come over to see you now. Even if it’s only one percent, I still want to give it a try.”

“Okay,” Thomas replied and then hung up the phone.

After hanging up the phone, Connor turned around and glanced at the people in the showroom. He had originally planned to show off today, but he didn’t expect it to turn into such a mess.

He took a deep breath and then walked inside.

He felt that no matter what, he had to explain these things to Chloe today, otherwise, it would seem quite rude.

As Cindy saw Connor return to the showroom, she immediately spoke in a sarcastic tone, “Connor, you’re back? Where’s your ten billion? Hurry up and show it to everyone!”

He glared at her expressionlessly, then walked up to Chloe and said in a low voice, “Chloe, I’m sorry. There’s been an issue with my account. I may not be able to buy the houses....”

Chapter 365: You Are A Loser

“Woosh!”

After hearing Connor’s words, there was an instant uproar among the crowd!

Everyone looked at him with a peculiar gaze.

Eunice, on the other hand, looked disappointed as she stared at him. In fact, she had already guessed this was going to happen!

From the beginning, she felt that he was just joking with everyone.

As a poor student who couldn't even afford tuition fees, how could he possibly buy so many houses?

Especially in such a sudden situation.

However, after seeing Mr. Mason and Chloe's attitude towards Connor, she began to doubt whether she had underestimated him. She had thought about the possibility of him being a low-key rich heir?

But when she saw his card being declined, she felt that her previous thoughts were ridiculous.

The people present suddenly felt like they had been fooled by Connor and were very angry!

"Mr... Mr. Connor, what's going on?"

At this moment, Mr. Mason was also dumbfounded, stuttering as he asked.

After all, he was in charge of this sales department. If he offended so many customers today because of Connor, he would be in big trouble!

The location of this real estate project was already very good, and the price was reasonable. There was no worry about not being able to sell it. Many customers had paid deposits before, but he returned all the deposits after hearing that Connor planned to buy all the houses.

But now, if he didn't buy these houses, those customers who had paid the deposits would definitely not continue to buy. Moreover, this incident would definitely spread, making it difficult to sell these houses in the future!

"Yes, Mr. Connor, what's going on?" Chloe couldn't help but question as well.

She didn't think that he was pretending to be rich, as she was well aware of his financial situation.

Connor bought a villa worth over 200 million dollars without even looking at it so it shouldn't be a problem for him to spend 1 billion dollars to buy the houses here.

"There's a problem with my account now, I can't buy these houses anymore," Connor explained apologetically to her.

Upon hearing this, she couldn't help but froze for a moment, then whispered, "So it's a problem with your account. It's okay, Mr. Connor. I can have the sales department hold the houses for you. Whenever you have time, you can come over and pay and sign the contract!"

Up until now, she still hadn't realized what kind of problem he was referring to when he said there was a problem with his account. She thought that Connor just had temporary funding issues.

"You don't need to hold these houses for me. I might not be able to afford them in the future!"

He didn't want to continue deceiving her and replied in a calm tone.

"Not be able to afford them in the future? What does that mean? Did something happen to your company?" Chloe asked with a puzzled expression.

"Well, sort of!"

Connor nodded slightly and then walked straight out of the sales department.

"Hey, Connor, weren't you quite imposing just now? Weren't you going to buy all the remaining houses? Why are you leaving now? Hurry up and buy the houses."

At this moment, Cindy suddenly stood up, sarcastically shouting at him.

When he heard her words, he couldn't help but raise his head and glance at her. He gritted his teeth and didn't say anything.

He originally planned to take advantage of this opportunity to teach these people a lesson, but now it seems that he no longer has this chance!

“Connor, did you become mute? Why aren’t you saying anything? Have you been pretending too much that you have no face to speak now?”

Cindy continued to mock with a cold voice, pursing her lips.

“Move aside,” he said in a low voice to her.

“Why should I move aside? Aren’t you a rich heir? Aren’t you very wealthy? Hurry up and buy the house so that we can all see!”

“Connor, don’t think I don’t know who you are! You’re just a poor loser who delivers takeout. I know you feel extremely inferior, that’s why you like to pretend to be rich to seek everyone’s attention, right? But your actions today are too low. What’s the meaning behind all these things you’re doing?”

She spoke with a venomous tongue, every word like a thorn, piercing deep into his heart.

He glared at her, gritted his teeth, not knowing how to retort. After all, the facts were laid out before him, and anything he said would seem feeble and powerless.

Eunice looked at him, her eyes filled with disappointment.

Although she didn’t look down on him because he was poor, she couldn’t accept him pretending to be a rich heir.

She couldn’t understand why he would do such a thing.

When Connor spent seventy thousand dollars treating everyone to a meal at the Brasserie Le Bernardin, she couldn’t comprehend his actions.

Although he explained at the time that he had won the lottery, she couldn't understand why he didn't use that money for something more meaningful.

Instead, he acted like a clown, satisfying his own vanity with the money!

It made her question whether pride was really that important to him.

Moreover, even though he treated the entire class to a meal, no one remembered his kindness, and afterwards, it could only be said that there was something wrong with his mind.

"Kid, so you've been fooling us all this time, huh?"

"What's wrong with you? Why are you pretending to be a rich heir here?"

"Didn't you say you were going to buy all the remaining houses? Why aren't you buying now?"

After hearing these people's mocking, Connor couldn't help but tremble all over, and his right hand involuntarily clenched into a fist.

It had been a long time since he had heard such ridicule and been despised like this.

Now, hearing these words still felt piercing and unbearable.

Obviously, the current Connor couldn't adapt to such feelings anymore.

"I think this person is a fraud. We should call the police and take him to the station. Let's see if he dares to deceive people in the future!"

Even at this point, Cindy refused to let go of Connor. Her expression unusually agitated as she stared at him and she shouted at everyone.

“Yes, this kind of person should be taken to the police station. Let’s all join hands and catch him!”

After she finished speaking, everyone echoed her sentiments. Some people even rushed directly towards him.

“Stop it, all of you!”

Just at that moment, a woman’s scolding voice suddenly came from the showroom..

Chapter 366: A Kind Side

In the showroom.

After Cindy instigated the situation, everyone felt that they had been played by Connor, so they were trying to send Connor to the police station.

However, just as they were about to make a move, a beautiful figure suddenly rushed in front of Connor and said excitedly, “If anyone dares to touch Mr. McDonald today, don’t even think about leaving this place!”

H 11

When everyone heard this, they were all stunned. Then, they stared at Chloe who was standing in front of Connor.

Chloe looked sexy and charming, and her figure was also very good. Moreover, everyone knew that she was from the showroom, so when they heard her words, they were all stunned.

For a moment, the entire showroom fell into silence.

Connor looked at Chloe, who was shielding him, and a trace of doubt flashed across his eyes. Not even Connor himself could've expected Chloe to stand up for him at this time!

Originally, in Connor's eyes, Chloe was a woman who took the initiative to approach him for money, so he didn't like her very much. Moreover, Connor had already made it very clear to Chloe just now that there was a problem with his account, so it was impossible for him to have the money to buy the house here.

But what Connor didn't expect was that Chloe would still stand up for him.

"Mr. McDonald is a distinguished guest of Evergrande Real Estate. Even if he has financial problems and can't buy a house, Mr. McDonald is still a distinguished guest. He's not the liar you people are claiming he is, so please move aside now. Otherwise, don't blame me for being rude!"

Chloe eyes widened as she shouted excitedly at the people in front of Connor.

Cindy knew that Chloe had brought Connor over, so she stepped forward and said aggressively to Chloe, "Who are you? Did Connor invite you here to lie to everyone?"

"I'm the deputy general manager of Evergrande Real Estate. Do you think I'll lie to you?" Chloe shouted at Cindy with a displeased expression.

H H

Cindy was stunned when she heard Chloe's words.

"What are you guys still standing here for? Didn't you hear what I said just now? If you dare to touch Mr. McDonald, I'll get the security guards to chase you all out!"

Chloe saw that Cindy didn't say anything and continued to shout.

At this moment, a man in a suit shouted, "We're customers! Is this how Evergrande Real Estate treats its customers?"

"Our showroom has already sold all the houses to Mr. McDonald. What kind of customer are you?" Chloe shouted coldly.

"Sell it to this kid?"

The man in the suit smiled disdainfully when he heard this. Then, he pursed his lips and said, "Even if you want to sell it to this kid, does he have the money to buy it?"

"Whether Mr. McDonald has the money to buy it has nothing to do with you. Moreover, even if he doesn't have the money, so what? At most, I will give all the houses to Mr. McDonald. I will not sell them to you!" Chloe shouted domineeringly.

When everyone heard Chloe words, their mouths were wide open. Their expressions were abnormally shocked. No one expected Chloe to say such words for Connor.

Eunice stood rooted to the ground, her face filled with confusion. She couldn't understand the relationship between Connor and Chloe. Why was Chloe protecting him?

"Mr. McDonald, let's go!"

Chloe said as she grabbed Connor's arm and walked out of the showroom.

Everyone watched in a daze as Chloe and Connor left hand in hand. No one dared to stand up and stop them.

After all, the vice president of Evergrande Real Estate had already spoken. Ordinary people like them naturally did not have the courage to continue to stop Connor.

After Connor followed Chloe out of the showroom, he turned to look at Chloe and whispered, "Chloe, thank you so much for today, but you shouldn't have said these things to them. I might not be able to buy these houses!"

"If you can't, then so be it. Besides, Mr. McDonald, you've already helped me a lot by helping me buy that mansion. It's fine even if you don't buy these houses!" Chloe said casually.

"You might not understand what I mean. What I mean is that I might become a pauper in the future. At that time, you won't talk to me like this, right?"

Connor said in a low voice.

H H

After Chloe heard Connor's words, she couldn't help but look at Connor and then said with a smile, "That's right, I, Chloe, am indeed a snobbish woman. In my eyes, money is the most important. I plan to find a rich man to marry in the future!"

"Mr. McDonald, you're my best choice, but I know that you're not interested in me, and you won't like a woman like me, so I wouldn't dare to ask for a chance to marry you!"

"As for you saying that you will become a pauper in the future, it doesn't matter. Anyway, I won't marry you. You've already helped me enough, so I don't dare to ask for anything more. Whether or not you have money, you're still Mr. McDonald in my eyes. Even if you can't afford these houses, the two of us are still friends, right?"

Connor looked at Chloe in front of him and suddenly fell into deep thought.

Sometimes, he felt that he had always misunderstood girls like Chloe. Although some girls were very realistic and would do anything for money, they just wanted to make their lives easier in the future. They were not really without feelings. They would also have a kind side.

"Mr. McDonald, did you encounter any problems?"

At this time, Chloe was still a little curious in her heart. What happened to Connor that could make this rich heir, who spent money like water, become like this?

“You can say that!”

Connor nodded and continued, “If I can solve this problem smoothly, then even though I can’t marry you, I can let you live the kind of life you want. At the very least, you can have the right to choose your own partner instead of marrying a random rich man!”

Connor replied indifferently, then walked straight to the parking lot.

A moment later, Connor drove the Ferrari and quickly disappeared from Chloe’s sight.

Chloe looked at the back of the sports car with a faint smile, then turned around and returned to the showroom.

Connor had just left the showroom when he received a text message from Thomas Morgan. The content of the text message was very simple. The legal team responsible for managing the old Chairman’s estate had arrived.

Connor was about to face the most important judgment of his life.

This verdict would affect Connor’s entire life!

Chapter 367: Meeting Scarlett Moore Again

After leaving the showroom, Connor drove straight to the headquarters of the Empire World Corporation.

When Connor showed up in his Ferrari, he instantly attracted the attention of countless people. After all, the sports car that Connor was driving was worth tens of millions. It was the only one in the entire Porthampton.

Under everyone's envious gazes, Connor slowly opened the car door and got out of the car. Then, he looked at the Empire World Building expressionlessly and walked into the building.

When the building's receptionist saw Connor, she was instinctively stunned for a moment. Then, she shouted excitedly, "Hello, Mr. McDonald!"

"Hello, Mr. McDonald!"

The other receptionists also came out to greet him after hearing this sentence. They bowed deeply to Connor and shouted in unison.

Connor looked at these people indifferently and didn't say anything, instead directly walking into the building.

Connor had only been to the Empire World Building twice, including this time.

The last time Connor came here was to obtain the old Chairman's inheritance, but this time, Connor might lose this very same inheritance.

Although Connor hadn't come many times, almost all the employees in the Empire World Building knew him because they were afraid that Connor would suddenly come to the company like last time. They didn't know Connor's identity and offended Connor.

"Clack clack..."

Just as Connor was about to enter the elevator, the sound of high heels tapping on the ground suddenly came from the lobby.

When Connor heard the footsteps, he instinctively looked back.

He saw a beautiful office lady in a black uniform walking over to Connor in her high heels.

Connor recognized this beauty: she was the front desk manager of the Empire World Corporation, Scarlett Moore.

When Connor came here to inherit the inheritance, he had a conflict with Scarlett. Later on, Connor had made Scarlett a janitor for a month. However, looking at Scarlett's current state, she was probably back to her original position.

Scarlett's figure was still very good, and her appearance was also very charming. Her pair of slender and fair legs was smooth and delicate, making people unable to take their eyes off her. Her black high heels knocked on the ground, making a crisp sound.

"Hello, Mr. McDonald!"

Scarlett walked in front of Connor and shouted at him with a smile.

"Hello," Connor replied indifferently.

Although he was about to lose his right to inherit the inheritance, this matter was still a secret to the other employees of the Empire World Corporation.

Even an employee of Scarlett's level didn't know, so her attitude towards Connor was still very polite. "Why didn't you tell me in advance that you were coming? I could have gone over to welcome you!"

Scarlett winked at Connor coquettishly, then walked to Connor's side in her high heels.

When Scarlett approached Connor, the alluring fragrance on her body directly surged into Connor's nose, causing Connor's heart to ripple.

It had to be said that Scarlett was a charming woman. Every casual movement of hers carried a seductive aura.

Connor turned his head and glanced at Scarlett indifferently, not saying anything.

“Mr. McDonald, you’re here to look for President Morgan, right?” Scarlett asked sweetly.

“Yes!”

Connor lightly nodded.

“Then let me bring you up!”

Scarlett hurriedly replied. Then, she pressed the elevator button without caring if Connor agreed or not.

Connor looked at Scarlett with a helpless expression. After hesitating for a moment, he did not say anything. He was not in the mood to pay attention to Scarlett at all.

Seeing that Connor did not reject her, Scarlett revealed a smug smile.

Actually, she had always regretted offending Connor in the past, so after that incident last time, she had been waiting for Connor to appear every day. She wanted to perform well in front of Connor.

However, ever since Connor left last time, he had never come to the Empire World Building again.

This time, Scarlett had finally waited for Connor. She naturally would not let go of such a good opportunity.

“Ding dong!”

At this moment, the elevator reached the first floor.

“Mr. McDonald, please step in!” Scarlett made an inviting gesture at Connor.

Connor hesitated for a moment before walking into the elevator.

When Scarlett saw Connor walk into the elevator, she revealed a smug smile and followed him. It was still working hours, so there weren't many people using the elevator. Only Connor and Scarlett were there.

Scarlett hesitated for a moment, then said to Connor sweetly, "Mr. McDonald, do you feel hot? I don't know what the security guards of the building are doing. It's such a hot day, but they turned the air conditioner down so much..."

"It's alright..."

Connor looked at Scarlett helplessly.

At this moment, not only did Connor not feel the heat, but he also felt that the temperature in the elevator was actually too low. Connor was a little cold.

"It's really too hot..."

Scarlett deliberately fanned herself with her small hand and then made an action that Connor did not expect.

She actually took off her coat, revealing the white shirt underneath. After taking off her coat, Scarlett seemed to think that it was not enough and actually unbuttoned the top two buttons of her shirt.

At this moment, Connor finally understood what Scarlett wanted to do!

Scarlett was actually seducing him!

Connor hurriedly took a deep breath and then hurriedly shifted his gaze to the side, not looking at Scarlett beside him.

When Scarlett saw that her plan did not succeed, a trace of unwillingness flashed in her eyes. Then, she directly walked to Connor's side and placed her hand on Connor's shoulder. She asked Connor in a delicate voice, "Mr. McDonald, what are you thinking about? Are you hot? Do you want me to help you take off your clothes?"

"There's no need..."

Connor hurriedly took two steps back and waved at Scarlett.

"Alright then..."

After Scarlett heard this, a trace of disappointment flashed across her face. However, she did not choose to give up. Instead, she took out her phone and sent a message when Connor was not paying attention.

"Hmph, this lady will see how long you can last..."

After sending the message, Scarlett looked at Connor and smiled faintly. She snorted coldly in her heart..

Chapter 368: Mr. McDonald, Are You Free Tonight?

In the elevator of the Empire World Building.

After Scarlett saw that her plan had failed, she did not continue to seduce Connor. Instead, she stood quietly at the side.

When Connor saw that Scarlett did not continue to seduce him, he finally heaved a sigh of relief.

However, Connor did not know that Scarlett had always been a woman who would not give up until she achieved her goal. Meeting up with Connor was already a difficult task, so how could she let Connor off so easily?

“Ding dong!”

At this moment, the elevator suddenly stopped on the eighth floor.

“Rumble!”

As soon as the elevator door opened, a group of employees in formal attire rushed in.

The originally spacious elevator instantly became crowded.

Meanwhile, Scarlett took this opportunity to rush to Connor’s side. Then, she turned around and asked Connor softly, “Mr. McDonald, do you want me to chase these people out?”

“No need...”

Connor replied indifferently.

“Alright then!”

Scarlett nodded lightly and did not say anything else.

Connor looked at Scarlett in front of him with an awkward expression.

Because the distance between Scarlett and Connor was less than a centimeter, Connor could clearly smell the fragrance on Scarlett’s body. Moreover, as long as he lowered his head, he could see Scarlett’s round and plump body.

Such a scene was too exciting for a little virgin like Connor. Connor felt his cheeks start to heat up.

In order to avoid awkwardness, Connor could not help but take two steps back, then close his eyes and try not to think about these things.

After Scarlett saw Connor close his eyes, a trace of anger flashed across her face. Then, she turned her head and glared fiercely at the girl behind her.

After the girl understood what was going on, she pushed Scarlett hard.

“Ah!”

“All!” Scarlett cried out in surprise, then directly threw herself into Connor’s arms.

Before Connor could react to what was going on, he felt a fragrance assaulting him, followed by a lump of fullness directly pressing against Connor’s chest.

Since it had already come to this, Scarlett naturally did not hold back. She directly reached out and hugged Connor’s waist.

In order to prevent himself from falling, Connor instinctively hugged Scarlett. However, Scarlett was wearing high heels today, and the two of them were about the same height.

Therefore, Connor reached out and hugged Scarlett’s slender and soft waist. Through Scarlett’s shirt, Connor could clearly feel the temperature of Scarlett’s body.

After Scarlett sensed Connor’s strange behavior, a trace of shyness flashed in her beautiful eyes. She didn’t know if it was intentional, but she actually snorted softly in Connor’s ear.

This voice was too stimulating for Connor, and his reaction became even stronger.

Connor originally wanted to take a step back, but there was no space behind him, so he could only let Scarlett lean on him.

At this moment, the two of them were in a very ambiguous position. Moreover, he did not know if Scarlett was doing it on purpose. From time to time, she would move, which slowly drained Connor's restraint.

The two of them remained in this position for about half a minute. The elevator reached the 26th floor, and the people Scarlett called over also got off the on this floor.

After Connor saw these people get off the elevator, he finally heaved a sigh of relief. Only Connor and Scarlett were left in the elevator.

Scarlett seemed to be a little reluctant to take two steps back. Then, she looked at Connor with a blurred gaze and said softly, "Mr. McDonald, I didn't do it on purpose just now..."

"I know..."

Connor replied helplessly.

"But it felt so comfortable when you hugged me just now! If it weren't for the fact that there were other people in the elevator, I might have called out..."

Hearing Scarlett's words, Connor was so frightened that he almost fell into the elevator.

When Scarlett saw Connor like this, she hurriedly walked in front of Connor and looked at Connor with a coquettish gaze. "Mr. McDonald, are you free tonight? My friend just brought me a bottle of red wine from France. Do you want to go to my house to try it?"

"There's no need. I have something on tonight..." Connor refused without thinking.

“Is that so? Mr. McDonald, if you’re not free, then another day is also available. I’ll leave my phone number with you. When you’re free, call me!”

As Scarlett spoke, she reached into Connor’s clothes and took out Connor’s phone, then dialed her own number.

Scarlett returned the phone to Connor and said to him with a smile, “Mr. McDonald, this is my phone number. Remember to call me when you have time!”

“Alright...”

When Connor heard this, he nodded helplessly and hurriedly took his phone back.

When Scarlett saw Connor like this, she could not help but smile faintly and ask softly, “Mr. McDonald, are you still a virgin?”

“Uh...”

Hearing Scarlett’s words, Connor was stunned.

He did not expect Scarlett to ask him such a question.

“What do you mean by that?” Connor asked in confusion.

“I don’t mean anything. I’m just a little curious. It’s really rare for a rich heir like you to be so innocent...”
Scarlett said with a smile.

“I’m not some random rich heir. You don’t have to waste your time on me!”

Connor knew why Scarlett was doing this, so he went straight to the point.

“Mr. McDonald, don’t joke with me. If you’re not a rich heir, then who is? How many people in Porthampton can compare to you?” Scarlett said to Connor with a charming smile.

Connor smiled helplessly when he heard Scarlett’s words and did not say anything else.

He knew that as long as he lost the right to inherit the inheritance, a woman like Scarlett would hide far away, so Connor did not need to explain anything to such a woman.

“Ding dong!”

At this moment, the elevator finally reached the 38th floor, where Thomas Morgan’s office was located.

“Mr. McDonald, President Morgan told us not to enter his office casually, so I won’t send you off. Remember to call me when you have time!”

Scarlett said to Connor with a smile.

“Yeah...”

Connor nodded and walked out of the elevator.

Thomas had long received the news that Connor had come in, so he had been waiting at the elevator door.

When Thomas saw Connor come out, he quickly went up to him and said softly, “Mr. McDonald, the lawyers have arrived. They are all waiting for you in the conference room!”

“Can we start the meeting now?” Connor asked Thomas expressionlessly.

“Not yet. Everyone is waiting for one person!”

Thomas shook his head gently.

Connor was stunned for a moment and asked, “One person? Who is it?”

Chapter 369: Yannick Lee Arrives

“Mr. McDonald, have you forgotten who is behind this?”

Thomas reminded Connor softly.

When Connor heard this, he could not help but be stunned for a moment. Then, he whispered to Thomas, “You mean the Lee family will be here too?”

“Yes. Yannick Lee spent so much effort on this, plus Stephanie Lee is still in your hands, so they will definitely come!”

Thomas nodded lightly.

Connor hesitated for a moment before asking, “Then do you know who will be coming today?”

“It should be Yannick Lee himself!”

Thomas answered truthfully.

“Haha...”

Connor couldn't help but frown when he heard this. Then, he said expressionlessly, “I think he is anxious to take this inheritance from me...”

Thomas looked at Connor without saying anything.

“Alright, since they’re already here, let’s go over and take a look!”

Connor was already very calm; after all, the worst outcome would be to lose the qualification to inherit the inheritance. Connor had long seen through these things, so he had nothing to be nervous about.

However, Thomas’s expression was very solemn. No one knew what he was thinking.

Connor walked straight into the conference room at the end of the corridor.

At this moment, the meeting room was already filled with people. More than a dozen men in suits were sitting in front of the computer and checking the information. The information was all of Connor’s spending records during this period. If it was confirmed that Connor had really lost his inheritance rights, then these lawyers would ask Connor to compensate all the money spent during this period.

When everyone heard Connor’s footsteps, they turned their heads to look at the door. Then, they stood up at the same time and shouted at Connor, “Hello, Mr. McDonald!”

“Hello!”

Connor replied expressionlessly, then walked straight into the conference room and sat down on a random chair. Connor was still the legal heir of the old Chairman, so these lawyers were very respectful to him.

Thomas walked to Connor’s side and stood quietly behind him.

Connor hesitated for a moment before asking Thomas softly with narrowed eyes, “Just now you said that Yannick Lee called these people here. Could they have colluded with him?”

“Mr. McDonald, you don’t have to worry about that. These people are the old Chairman’s confidants like myself. Moreover, they are mainly responsible for the inheritance of the old chairman. They won’t have any dealings with anyone for benefits, so they will also uphold a fair and just attitude in this meeting about whether you can inherit the inheritance..."

Thomas whispered to Connor.

"Oh, I see..."

Connor nodded lightly after hearing this.

"These people are all professional lawyers. They won't favor any party, so you don't have to worry about this!"

Thomas looked at Connor and continued.

"Even if they won't side with Yannick Lee, I probably won't be able to inherit the inheritance..."

Connor sighed softly.

"This still depends on the opinion of the lawyers!" Thomas added.

When Connor heard this, he couldn't help but turn to look at the lawyers in the conference room with a complicated expression.

At this moment, a middle-aged man wearing black-rimmed Spencer walked over to Connor and said calmly, "Hello, Mr. McDonald. I'm the head of Mr. Lee's legal team, Jonas Lozano."

"Hello, Mr. Lozano!" Connor replied indifferently.

"Mr. McDonald, here's the situation: last night, our legal team received a report from the grandson of the old Chairman, Mr. Yannick, who is also the first heir according to the law. He said that you had violated the provisions of the inheritance contract. Therefore, we rushed to Porthampton overnight to verify the situation with you. However, before the arbitration results are out, we will temporarily freeze all your assets. If we can confirm that you didn't violate the contract, these assets will be unfrozen!" Jonas whispered to Connor.

"I understand..." Connor lightly nodded.

Jonas looked at Connor and continued. "Mr. Yannick hasn't arrived yet, so I'll have to trouble you to wait for a while!"

"Alright

Connor nodded again.

"Do you have any questions for me now?" After Jonas saw Connor's calm expression, he couldn't help but feel curious. After all, if it was just an ordinary person, they would not be as calm as Connor when they encountered such a thing. However, Connor was acting as if nothing had happened.

"I don't have anything to ask. Go ahead and do your thing. I'll cooperate with your legal team's investigation!" Connor said lightly.

"Alright!"

Jonas nodded his head lightly, then turned around and left.

After Thomas saw Jonas leave, a trace of helplessness flashed in his eyes, and then he said in a low voice, "Mr. McDonald, you should explain it to Mr. Lozano. After all, there was a reason why you exposed your identity last night. If you communicate with Mr. Lozano now, there might be a chance!"

"But didn't you say that these lawyers won't favor any party?" Connor asked indifferently.

When Thomas heard Connor's words, he could not help but be stunned for a moment. Then, he sighed helplessly. For a moment, he did not know what to say.

After Connor saw that Thomas did not speak, he sat on the sofa and closed his eyes to rest.

In the blink of an eye, more than half an hour passed.

“Thump thump thump...”

Footsteps suddenly sounded from outside the conference room. When everyone heard the footsteps, they turned to look outside the meeting room.

A young man in a suit slowly walked towards the conference room while being escorted by a driver and some bodyguards.

The young man was very handsome. His facial features were as sharp as a knife, and the outline of his face was even more distinct. However, Connor could feel a trace of ruthlessness from the young man’s eyes. Connor had never seen such a gaze come from his peers.

“Mr. McDonald, this man is the old Chairman’s grandson, Yannick Lee!”

Thomas whispered to Connor.

“I know!”

Connor nodded slightly, then continued to sit quietly on the sofa. He didn’t have any intention of going out to welcome Yannick.

Anyway, now that Connor and Yannick were at loggerheads, Connor felt that there was no need for him to pretend to be a good guy.

Soon, Yannick walked into the conference room. When he entered the conference room, he directly set his eyes on Connor..

Chapter 370: A Video

In the conference room.

After Yannick appeared, the entire conference room became quiet.

All the lawyers stood up and looked at Yannick.

“Mr. Lee.”

Out of politeness, Thomas walked up to Yannick and greeted him.

Yannick glanced at Thomas expressionlessly, then walked to Connor and asked him casually, “You are Connor McDonald, right?”

“Yes, that’s me!”

Connor glanced at Yannick indifferently. His tone was also casual, and his aura was not inferior to Yannick’s. After all, a barefoot person was not afraid of a person wearing shoes. Connor was now that barefoot person.

“Where is my sister?”

Yannick gritted his teeth and shouted at Connor.

“I don’t know where your sister is either. She was taken away by the Tiger Commander’s men. If you came to look for your sister today, you might have come to the wrong place!”

Connor whispered to Yannick.

“You...”

After hearing Connor’s words, Yannick’s face flashed with anger because he didn’t expect that Connor actually still had the guts to go against him at this point.

At this moment, Jonas suddenly said to Yannick, “Mr. Lee, we received your call earlier. You said that Mr. McDonald has violated the rules of the inheritance contract. Now that you and Mr. McDonald are here, can we start the arbitration meeting?”

After hearing this, Yannick took a deep breath and whispered to Connor, “I’ll deal with you after I finish my business!”

Connor looked at Yannick with a disdainful smile and didn’t say anything.

Yannick turned his head and said to Jonas with a serious face, “Mr. Lozano, I now have evidence that Connor McDonald violated the will, so I request the legal team to cancel his identity as the heir!”

After hearing Yannick’s words, Jonas turned his head and glanced at Yannick, then asked in a low voice, “Mr. Lee, what evidence do you have?”

“Mr. Lozano, don’t worry. I, Yannick Lee, will never do anything that I’m not sure about. Now that I called you here, it means that the evidence in my hand can absolutely prove that Connor McDonald has violated the contract!”

Yannick smiled confidently, then turned around and glanced at his bodyguards. Seeing Yannick’s expression, the bodyguard hurriedly took out a hard disk from his pocket and handed it to him.

Yannick picked up the hard disk and said to Jonas with a smile, “Mr. Lozano, this is my evidence!”

Jonas hesitated for a moment, then reached out and took the hard drive, ready to connect it to his computer.

At this moment, Yannick suddenly shouted at Jonas, “Mr. Lozano, there’s no need for you to look at such a good thing alone, right? I think you should let everyone here see it.”

After Jonas heard this, he turned his head to look at Thomas and said softly, “President Morgan, since Mr. Lee has said so, please show this video to everyone...”

“Alright...”

Thomas nodded gently, picked up the hard disk, and walked to the projector in the conference room.

Connor sat on the spot expressionlessly. The expression on his face was very calm. Because Connor didn’t need to think to know what was in this hard disk. This result was already expected by Connor, so he was still very calm at this time.

After Thomas got the hard disk, he stood in front of the projector and tapped on it casually. Then, he quickly found the video stored in the hard disk.

After watching the video, Thomas turned to look at Jonas and asked him softly, “Mr. Lozano, are we starting now?”

“Yes, you can show it now!”

Jonas nodded lightly.

Thomas took a deep breath and clicked the mouse.

The projection screen quickly began to play the scene of Connor and Stephanie talking last night. From the angle of the scene, someone must have found a good position to take the video.

The video was very clear, and the conversation between Connor and Stephanie could be heard clearly. Most importantly, the person who filmed the video would point the camera at Freya from time to time. The purpose was to tell everyone present that Freya could hear Connor and Stephanie’s conversation.

After watching the video, the lawyers in the conference room were all shocked. Their eyes were filled with disbelief, especially Jonas's. While he was watching the video, he had to record every word that Connor said to Stephanie.

Connor, on the other hand, looked indifferent as he sat on the sofa and watched the projection screen.

Obviously, Yannick had planned all of this in advance. Whether it was Alvin's provocation or Stephanie's appearance, it should have been arranged by Yannick. Otherwise, it would be impossible for someone to record this video.

After all, in the eyes of ordinary people, this video had no value at all. However, if Yannick got hold of this video, things would be different.

In the blink of an eye, half an hour had passed.

The video finally ended.

When Yannick saw the end of the video, he revealed a very proud smile and then asked Jonas in a low voice, "Mr. Lozano, if I remember correctly, the will left behind by my grandfather has a very clear rule: if Connor McDonald wants to obtain my grandfather's inheritance, he must marry Miss Freya Phillips. Moreover, before he officially marries her, Connor cannot expose his identity in front of her!"

After Jonas heard this, he quickly took out the inheritance contract and carefully checked it, then said in a low voice, "Mr. Lee, you're right. The old Chairman did leave such a rule in the contract!"

Yannick looked at Jonas and asked, "That's right! Connor McDonald has not married Freya Phillips yet, but he has exposed his identity in advance. Isn't this considered a violation of the contract?"

Jonas hesitated for a moment, then said in a low voice, "Mr. Lee, as long as we can confirm that the video you have shown is completely true, we can confirm that Mr. McDonald has violated the provisions of the contract. He should also be removed from his status as heir!"

“Good, very good!”

After hearing this, Yannick burst into laughter with an excited expression and said, “Mr. Lozano, you can take this video of mine and check it now. I can guarantee that this video is completely true. It has not been edited or modified at all...”

“Alright!”

Jonas nodded slightly and walked toward the computer.

“There’s no need to go through so much trouble. I can prove that this video is real!”

But at this moment, Connor suddenly shouted..