Chapter 371: I Still Have My Trump Card

After hearing Connor's words, Jonas immediately stopped in his tracks.

Then, he turned to look at Connor and asked, puzzled, "Mr. McDonald, what did you just say?"

"I said, you don't have to waste your time to verify this video. I was there. I can prove that this video is real. Moreover, I said those words myself. They didn't fake it..." Connor said calmly to Jonas.

Jonas was stunned when he heard Connor's words. He was indescribably shocked.

He never thought that Connor would actually take the initiative to admit this.

Thomas was on the verge of collapse. He whispered to Connor, "Mr. McDonald, why did you admit it?"

"Why can't I admit it? This video is real, so I don't have to lie to you!" Connor replied indifferently.

"But..." Thomas looked at Connor speechlessly, not knowing what to say.

"Mr. McDonald, even if you admit it now, we still have to verify this video. After all, we can't be sure if you were forced to say these words!"

As the head of Steven's legal team, Jonas adhered to the principle of fairness and justice no matter what he did.

Therefore, he could not tolerate any deviation from this. All the results had to be based on evidence.

Therefore, Jonas wouldn't jump to conclusions because of what Connor said.

Jonas picked up the hard disk and told Connor, Thomas, Yannick, and the others, "Our legal team needs to verify the authenticity of this video, so we'll have to trouble everyone to wait a moment!"

"It's okay. Take your time. I have plenty of time now!"

After hearing Jonas's words, Yannick said smugly as he led his subordinates out of the conference room.

Thomas hesitated, then whispered to Connor, "Mr. McDonald, let's go out too!"

"Alright..." Connor nodded, then got up and followed Thomas out of the conference room.

After leaving the conference room, Connor found Yannick sitting on the boss' chair in the office as if everything belonged to him from now on.

"Mr. McDonald, please come with me. I have something to tell you!" Thomas suddenly spoke to Connor.

Connor was stunned when he heard this. He didn't say anything and followed Thomas out of the office.

"Mr. McDonald, are you planning to give up on inheriting the inheritance now?"

After leaving the office, Thomas asked Connor with a solemn expression.

Connor looked at Thomas with a helpless smile and said, "It's already come to this. What's the point of telling me this?"

"Of course, it's important!"

Thomas said agitatedly and continued, "Mr. McDonald, you're still the heir of the former chairman. You still have the qualifications to inherit the inheritance, but if you give up on yourself, there's really no hope at all..."

“Even if I don’t want to give up, so what? It’s written in the contract that before Freya becomes my wife, I can’t expose my identity in front of her. But now that I’ve exposed my identity and Yannick has the evidence, what can I do even if I don’t want to give up?” Connor asked Thomas, frustrated.

“Mr. McDonald, I can understand how you feel now...” Thomas replied softly.

“Tell me if you can understand my feelings. I’ve already noticed Yannick’s trap, but I had no choice but to expose my identity to save Freya. The only thing I don’t understand is, since Steven wanted me to inherit his inheritance, why did he make so many useless conditions? Tell me, what is the meaning of these rules he left behind?” Connor shouted.

“The former chairman just wanted to see you with Ms. Phillips. He had no other intentions but didn’t expect Yannick to take advantage of him...” Thomas explained helplessly.

H ii

After Connor heard this, he turned to look at Thomas and said expressionlessly, “Forget it. Since things have already come to this, it’s useless for you to tell me so much. At most, I won’t want that inheritance. Anyway, I’ve already thought it through. I can still live well without money...”

“Mr. McDonald, things are not as bad as you think. Although your identity was exposed, you did it yesterday to save Ms. Phillips. I will explain the matter to Mr. Lozano later. Mr. Lozano and the others can give you a chance!” Thomas looked at Connor and said.

“Are you sure?” Connor was stunned for a moment and asked.

“We can only give it a try. Mr. McDonald, you’ve already prepared for the worst, haven’t you? If Mr. Lozano and the others still think you violated the will, then we won’t lose anything, right? We can only try our best now, so Mr. McDonald, you can’t give up now. If you give up on yourself, no matter how hard I try, it’s a waste of time!” Thomas told Connor emotionally.

“What’s the use of working hard?” Connor sighed helplessly. In fact, when Yannick showed the video, Connor already knew that he had no chance.

Thomas scanned Connor from head to toe and whispered to Connor, "Mr. McDonald, to tell you the truth, I still have a trump card in my hand. If it comes to a critical moment later, this trump card will have an unexpected effect, so you really can't give up!"

"You still have a trump card? Who are you kidding? What trump cards do you have now?" Connor looked at Thomas and asked disdainfully.

"Mr. McDonald, why would I lie to you? Why am I telling you these things here if I don't have a trump card? Shouldn't I go and please Yannick and the others now?"

Connor looked at Thomas before him and hesitated because he felt that what Thomas said made sense.

So he couldn't help but ask Thomas, "What trump card do you have?"

Chapter 372: Conspiracy Succeeds

Connor, who originally had no hope of inheriting the inheritance, instantly felt his hope reignited after hearing Thomas's explanation.

He did not expect that even then, Thomas still had a trump card that he had not used. This was indeed beyond Connor's expectations.

"Mr. McDonald, I can't tell you what this trump card is yet!" Thomas smiled mysteriously at Connor.

"Why can't you tell me? Are you trying to trick me?" Connor did not believe that Thomas still had any trump cards he had not used because the matter had already reached a dead-end.

"Mr. McDonald, I am not trying to trick you. It's just that I'm not sure if this trump card can be used, so I can't tell you what it is. But don't worry, if this trump card can really be used, then our chances of winning today won't be one percent, but fifty percent!" Thomas said to Connor seriously.

"What trump card is so powerful?" Connor could not help but mutter softly.

Thomas looked at Connor with a mysterious smile and didn't say anything.

"By the way, Thomas, there's one thing I don't understand. Why are you still helping me at this point? I don't usually treat you well. Why don't you side with Yannick now? Why are you still on my side?" Connor asked Thomas doubtfully.

"When this is over, and you are still the heir, I will naturally tell you why I want to help you!" Thomas replied mysteriously.

"Damn, you love keeping me in suspense all day!" Connor cursed with a dissatisfied expression.

Thomas chuckled and did not say anything.

"Mr. McDonald and Mr. Morgan, the video results are out. Please come back to the conference room!"

At this moment, a lawyer walked out of the conference room and said respectfully to Connor and Thomas.

"Yes!" Thomas nodded lightly, then looked at Connor and said, "Mr. McDonald, let's go in!"

"Right!" Connor agreed and walked into the meeting room.

When Connor and Thomas returned to the conference room, Yannick and the others had already gone in.

"Mr. Lozano, it's such an obvious matter. Don't waste your time here. Can't you disqualify the kid as the heir?" Yannick asked Jonas aggressively.

"Mr. Lee, Mr. McDonald is the only heir designated by the former chairman, so we must respect Mr. McDonald. Even if Mr. McDonald really violated the rules of the will, it can only be carried out under the circumstances of conclusive evidence, so please wait a moment!" Jonas replied seriously.

“Haha...” After hearing this, Yannick sneered disdainfully and said, “Now that the video is on the table, do you still think the evidence is insufficient?”

Jonas glanced at Yannick indifferently, then walked to the podium at the front of the conference room and said in an orderly manner, “Just now, after our legal team’s careful appraisal, it was confirmed that the video provided by Mr. Lee has not been edited and can be used as evidence!”

When everyone heard Jonas’s announcement, they all looked up at Jonas. In an instant, the entire conference room fell silent.

“According to Mr. Steven Lee’s will, if Mr. McDonald wants to inherit the inheritance, he must marry Ms. Freya Phillips and sincerely make Ms. Freya Phillips fall in love with Mr. McDonald!

“However, to prevent Mr. McDonald from using improper means to lure Ms. Freya Phillips into marriage, the will also states that before Mr. McDonald marries Ms. Freya Phillips, he is not allowed to reveal his identity and any information about his inheritance to Ms. Freya Phillips!

“If Mr. McDonald violates the will’s provisions, he will be disqualified from inheriting the inheritance. If there is a dispute, it will need to be re-negotiated by the lawyer team to determine whether Mr. McDonald is qualified to continue inheriting the inheritance!”

After Jonas finished reading this passage, he looked up at Connor and asked Connor softly, “Mr. McDonald, when you inherited the inheritance, Mr. Morgan explained the rules in the will to you, right?”

“Yes!” Connor looked at Jonas and nodded.

“Good!” Jonas took a deep breath, then looked at everyone and said, “Just now, our legal team also conducted a technical analysis of the video provided by Mr. Lee and confirmed the authenticity of this video. In the video, Mr. McDonald’s actions have violated the provisions of the inheritance contract, so our legal team unanimously believes that Mr. McDonald has violated the will and is no longer qualified to continue inheriting the inheritance!”

After hearing that, Yannick smiled proudly. After planning for so long, his scheme finally succeeded.

“Mr. Connor, you are no longer the heir of Mr. Steven Lee, so from now on, our legal team will verify all your expenses during this period. You need to repay all your expenses during this period. I hope you can cooperate with our work...” “Wait a minute!” Before Jonas could finish, Thomas suddenly shouted.

Jonas turned to look at Thomas, and a trace of confusion flashed in his eyes. He asked Thomas softly, “Mr. Morgan, do you have any objections?”

“When that incident happened last night, I was also with Mr. McDonald. Connor exposed his identity because someone was deliberately accusing him!”

Thomas said this at the risk of offending his future master, Yannick Lee.

If he could change the opinion of the lawyers today and make Connor the heir again, the situation would be fine. However, if he failed, Yannick would never let Thomas go.

After hearing Thomas’s words, Yannick couldn’t help but turn and look at Thomas, a trace of viciousness flashing in his eyes.

“What do you mean by that?” Jonas frowned and asked.

“Last night, someone deliberately kidnapped Ms. Freya Phillips and threatened to scratch her face to force Mr. McDonald to reveal his identity. If Mr. McDonald doesn’t reveal his identity, then Ms. Phillips would be disfigured. However, if he made a move, then Mr. McDonald would expose his identity. This was a trap, so I don’t think we can remove Mr. McDonald’s eligibility as the heir just because of this!” Thomas explained righteously.

The lawyers, Yannick, and the others in the conference room were stunned after hearing Thomas’s explanation.

After all, Thomas had been with Steven for the longest time, and Steven trusted Thomas the most when he was alive. Therefore, Thomas’s words still carried a lot of weight..

Chapter 373: I Have No Evidence

After hearing Thomas's words, Yannick suddenly looked upset.

He had never thought that Thomas would still choose to stand on Connor's side at a time like this.

Standing up to speak for Connor at this time was basically drawing a clear line with him.

In Yannick's eyes, Thomas had always been a man who understood the situation. He couldn't understand why Thomas was willing to take such a big risk to speak for Connor.

"Dear lawyers, I admit that Mr. McDonald did violate the rules of the will last night, but all of this was not Mr. McDonald's intention. After all, if Mr. McDonald did not save her last night, Miss Freya Phillips might have been disfigured. Even if she could recover her original appearance, there would be a huge estrangement between Mr. McDonald and Ms. Freya Phillips. He would never be able to be with Ms. Phillips again. The other party can use this against Mr. McDonald. This obviously makes it impossible for Mr. McDonald to inherit the inheritance. Therefore, I don't think we can cancel Mr. McDonald's eligibility as the heir just because of yesterday's incident!" Thomas continued when he saw that these people were silent.

Jonas looked at Thomas with a hint of hesitation because he felt that Thomas's words did make sense.

After all, the legal team also knew the relationship between Connor, Freya, and Steven. Why would Steven leave behind such a ridiculous will?

To put it bluntly, what Steven wanted to see the most was Connor and Freya inheriting his inheritance together.

"Mr. Morgan, you just said that someone wanted to frame Mr. McDonald, but as far as I know, not many people know the contents of this will. The other party only knew the contents of the will before framing Connor. So who do you think was framing Connor? Or rather, what was the purpose of the other party framing Connor?" At this moment, an older lawyer asked Thomas.

“Mr. Webster, the person who wants to frame Mr. McDonald is in this meeting room right now!”

Since Thomas had already said that, Yannick must have been extremely offended. Therefore, he didn't mind doing things more ruthlessly!

“Thomas, are you implying that I framed Connor?” Yannick asked with a sneer. “That's right. It was you!”

Thomas nodded and looked at Jonas. “Mr. Lozano, the woman who threatened Mr. McDonald in the video, is called Stephanie Lee, Yannick's half-sister. Suppose Mr. McDonald loses the qualification to be the heir. In that case, Yannick will inherit Mr. Steven Lee's inheritance as the first heir, so Yannick has every reason to frame Mr. McDonald!”

After Jonas heard this, he couldn't help but turn to look at Yannick, his gaze becoming complicated.

If Thomas didn't bring this up, Jonas would not have doubted his judgment. However, according to Thomas's words, Yannick was obviously using the loophole in the will to frame Connor. Things might get a bit complicated.

“Mr. Lee, do you have anything to say?” Jonas asked Yannick.

“...” Yannick sneered, then looked at Thomas and asked, “Mr. Morgan, oh Mr. Morgan, I didn't expect you to come up with such a mean move after holding it in for so long just now.

“I really admire you. As expected of the person my grandfather trusted the most when he was alive. But what you said just now was just your guess. Can you produce any evidence?”

“Evidence?”

Thomas was surprised when he heard this.

“That's right. What evidence do you have to prove that I planned this? If you have evidence, you can take it out now! You can't just claim I ordered Stephanie to force Connor to expose his identity just because she's my half-sister, right? So, if your son kills someone one day, can I also claim that you ordered him to do so? Also, I, Yannick Lee, am indeed the first heir, but if I wanted to take back this inheritance from Connor, why haven't I done it earlier? Why would I choose to attack now?

"And if I, Yannick Lee, really want to deal with Connor, do you think I need to beat around the bush?" Yannick snarled at Thomas.

After hearing Yannick's words, Thomas was dumbfounded and deeply shocked.

He had never thought Yannick to make such a fast comeback. He found the loophole in his words almost instantly.

Connor looked at Thomas and Yannick with a complicated look. At this moment, he finally understood how big the gap between him and Yannick was!

If not for Thomas's help today, Connor might not even be able to say these words. He could only be like a fish on a chopping board, waiting to be slaughtered.

Yannick and Connor were about the same age, but their ability to deal with things vastly differed. This might be the difference between an ordinary person and a rich kid!

Most of the time, people would think that rich heirs were just a little lucky to be born into a good family. However, sometimes, these rich heirs were not as simple as ordinary people thought.

"Mr. Lozano, I remember you told me before that your legal team has always been particular about evidence. No matter your decision, you must follow the evidence.

"Since Mr. Morgan has said these now, make him produce evidence. If he can produce evidence to prove that I did this, I can accept Connor as the heir of the inheritance. I have no objections. However, if Mr. Morgan can't produce evidence, he's just spouting nonsense here. I even have the right to suspect that he's saying this because he benefited from Connor..." Yannick pointed at Thomas and shouted excitedly.

After Jonas heard this, he couldn't help but turn to look at Thomas. Then, he asked Thomas, "Mr. Morgan, do you have any evidence to prove that Mr. Yannick framed Mr. McDonald?"

"I... I have no evidence!" Thomas looked at Jonas and hesitated. Then, he shook his head in despair.

Connor couldn't help but frown after hearing this. He knew that Thomas had tried his best this time..

Chapter 374: An Important Person

"Mr. Morgan, oh Mr. Morgan, I thought you had some evidence ready. So you're just spouting nonsense here!"

Seeing that Thomas couldn't produce any evidence, Yannick sneered at Thomas disdainfully.

Thomas suddenly glanced at Yannick, then said in a low voice, "Yannick, don't be too happy too soon. You can't own things that don't belong to you..."

"Mr. Morgan, what do you mean? I don't understand!" Yannick replied with a smile.

Thomas ignored Yannick. Instead, he quietly took out his mobile phone and sent the message he had prepared earlier.

After sending the text message, Thomas returned to Connor's side and whispered to Connor, "Mr. McDonald, I'm sorry. I didn't think it through just now!"

When Connor heard this, he turned to look at Thomas and whispered, "Actually, you don't have to help me. You'll only implicate yourself!"

"I just can't accept that Yannick and his men took away the inheritance left by the former chairman!" Thomas gritted his teeth and said.

Connor looked at Thomas beside him and sighed helplessly. Then, he said seriously, "No matter what, I have to thank you!"

Thomas was stunned when he heard this. Then, he slowly said, “Mr. McDonald, you don’t have to worry. I still have one last trump card that I haven’t used yet. We might not lose today...” Connor looked at Thomas, not knowing what to say.

When Jonas saw that Thomas did not speak, he said softly, “Mr. Morgan, since you can’t prove that Mr. Lee framed Mr. McDonald, nor can you prove that someone else deliberately framed Mr. McDonald, our lawyers will not accept what you said just now. The arbitration will proceed as before. Our lawyers believe that Mr. Connor has lost the qualification to inherit the inheritance from now on. The new heir will be Mr. Lee...”

“Wait a minute!”

At this moment, Thomas spoke up again.

When Jonas heard this, he looked at Thomas and asked with a puzzled expression, “Mr. Morgan, is there anything else you want to say?”

“Give me an hour. Can the result of the arbitration be announced in an hour?” Thomas asked Jonas anxiously.

“Why? Why should it be announced an hour later?” Before Jonas said anything, Yannick shouted.

“Because there’s still a very important person who hasn’t appeared, I hope the lawyers can give us another hour. I will not interfere with the lawyers’ judgment if that person doesn’t appear after an hour!” Thomas knew very well that everything would be settled once Jonas announced the results of the arbitration.

He could not change this outcome even if he could reach the heavens. Therefore, he was still helping Connor continue to stall for time!

“There’s still an important person who isn’t here?” After Jonas heard this, he was stunned for a moment. Then, he asked Thomas, puzzled, “Mr. Morgan, who exactly is this important person?”

Thomas stood there and hesitated, then said, “The person I’m talking about is the person involved last night, Ms. Freya Phillips!”

When Connor heard Thomas’s words, he stood up and looked at Thomas incredulously!

Only now did Connor realize that the last trump card Thomas talked about was Freya!

“Freya Phillips?” A trace of doubt flashed in Jonas’ eyes. He then looked at Thomas and asked, “Mr. Morgan, is there any point in calling Ms. Phillips over now?”

“Of course!” Thomas quickly replied.

“Mr. Lozano, they’re deliberately stalling for time. There’s no need for us to continue waiting!” Yannick didn’t intend to give Connor any chance, so he urged Jonas.

“Uhm...”

When Jonas was faced with this situation, he became a little awkward. For a moment, he didn’t know how to deal with it.

“Mr. Lozano, don’t forget that Ms. Phillips is also one of the heirs to the former chairman’s inheritance. Who would have inherited the inheritance if it wasn’t for the former chairman changing his mind?” Thomas also said to Jonas solemnly.

After hearing Thomas’s words, Jonas hesitated and then said, “Alright, then I’ll give you another hour. I’ll announce the outcome of the arbitration in an hour!”

“Mr. Lozano...” Yannick shouted as he was unwilling to give up.

“Mr. Lee, the purpose of establishing our legal team is to ensure that Mr. Steven Lee’s will is fully respected. Therefore, no matter what happens, Mr. Steven Lee’s will must be the basis. Ms. Phillips is also one of the heirs to the estate, so I think it's understandable to give Ms. Phillips a chance to be here!" Jonas replied softly.

Hearing that, Yannick didn't dare to say anything more.

However, there was a hint of anger in his eyes because he never thought that Thomas would go against him in every way.

Connor, on the other hand, was confused. He walked to Thomas and asked softly, "Thomas, the trump card you mentioned can't be Freya, right?"

"Yes, I've already explained the situation to Ms. Phillips yesterday and wanted to invite her to help you clarify things in front of the lawyers. However, Ms. Phillips wanted to consider it. I'm not sure if Ms. Phillips will really come over now. I've already sent a message to her just now. If she doesn't appear in an hour, she will never come over again!" Thomas explained softly.

"But why did you say that Freya is also Steven's successor?" Connor looked at Thomas and continued to ask.

"Mr. McDonald, back then, the former chairman was indebted to not only the McDonald Family but also Ms. Phillips. Originally, the former chairman planned to let you both inherit his inheritance together. However, he changed his mind later. He left behind such a rule that you must marry Ms. Phillips to prevent the two of you from fighting over the inheritance. The former chairman was trying to matchmake you and Ms. Phillips..." Thomas didn't want to hide it anymore and went straight to the point.

"I see!" Connor nodded in realization. He then turned to look at the entrance of the conference room.. He was not sure if Freya would come today!

Chapter 375: Freya Phillips' Dilemma

In Phillips Estate.

Freya was sitting on a chair alone, staring at her phone in a daze. She had a conflicted expression on her face because she had just received a text message from Thomas.

The content of the message was very simple.

'Ms. Phillips, there's less than an hour until the end of the arbitration council meeting. If you don't appear within an hour, Mr. McDonald will lose his right to inherit the inheritance!'

Freya looked at the message, not knowing what to do.

Although Freya's hatred for Connor had dissipated after Priscilla's persuasion last night, it did not mean she had forgiven Connor. On the contrary, she did not want to see Connor at all.

Furthermore, there was another important point. Freya could not accept the way she had helped Connor.

Freya felt that this was a little shameful.

"This is so annoying. Why does this have to happen to me? So annoying! It's so annoying..."

Freya threw her phone aside anxiously and walked to the window. Looking at the scenery outside, she did not know what to do.

'Knock, knock, knock!'

At this moment, there was a knock on the door.

"Who is it?" Freya asked, annoyed.

"Freya, it's me!" Priscilla answered from outside the room.

"Ah, Priscilla. The door isn't locked. Come in!" Freya was stunned for a moment before replying softly.

'Creak!'

Priscilla pushed open the door and smiled at the worried Freya. She said softly, "What's wrong? Are you still worried about whether you should help Connor?" "What does it have to do with me whether Connor needs help or not? Whenever I think of Connor lying to me for so long, I want to kill him. I won't save him!" Freya pouted and replied fiercely.

"If that's what you really think, then you wouldn't be so bothered now." Priscilla said with a faint smile.

"Uhm..."

Freya was surprised when she heard Priscilla's words. She blinked and asked, "Priscilla, do you think I should help Connor?"

"Whether you want to help Connor or not is your own decision. Whether you help him or not, I will always support you!" Priscilla replied indifferently.

"Well, I just wanted to hear your opinion. By the way, why are you here?" Freya asked Priscilla.

"I came here to tell you that Kyle is here and waiting for you at the courtyard house. Do you want to meet him?" Priscilla said softly.

"I won't see him. I haven't thought about whether to help Connor or not yet. Let's talk about it after I have thought about it!" Freya waved her hand in frustration. She knew that if she went out now, Kyle would try his best to persuade her to go over. By then, she would not be able to resist it, so she might as well not see him!

When Priscilla saw Freya's behavior, she couldn't help but sigh. Then, she said expressionlessly, "Freya, I feel that you're so conflicted now it's not because you don't want to help Connor..."

"So why then?" Freya froze for a moment before asking curiously.

“You just don’t want to forgive Connor so quickly. After all, he has lied to you for so long. To put it simply, you’re just angry with Connor now!” Priscilla knew Freya very well, so she could speak her mind.

Freya opened her mouth to refute.

“You don’t have to be in a hurry to refute me. I don’t want to care about the matter between you and Connor. I want to tell you that now is not the time for you to be angry with Connor. The other party set up a big trap to take away the inheritance from Connor’s hands. If you help Connor now, Connor might be able to get back this inheritance, but if you don’t, then Connor might have no chance at all!” Priscilla said to Freya seriously.

“Sigh, Priscilla... I didn’t say I wouldn’t help Connor. The thing is that I don’t know what’s going on with Connor. Moreover, I feel embarrassed when I think about using this method to help Connor. It’s so embarrassing...” Freya said frantically.

“What method?” Priscilla couldn’t help but ask curiously.

“What method can’t I tell you? You’d better get out quickly and leave me alone!” Freya called out softly.

Priscilla looked at Freya and shook her head helplessly. Then, she said softly, “There’s less than half an hour left. I advise you to think it through quickly. Otherwise, you might not even have the chance to regret it...”

“I know, I know...” Freya replied impatiently.

After a moment of hesitation, Priscilla turned around and walked out of the room, leaving Freya in a daze.

Meanwhile...

In Thomas' office on the thirty-eighth floor of the Empire World Building.

Connor and Thomas were waiting for Freya's arrival with solemn faces, while Yannick was very relaxed.

As Yannick felt that since Freya hadn't appeared yet, it meant that she definitely wouldn't come. Even if she did, she was an outsider. What could she do?

The lawyer in the conference room took advantage of this time to sort out Connor's expense list during this period.

In the blink of an eye, half an hour had passed.

Thomas began to become a little impatient. His gaze was fixed on the elevator exit, and he would look down at his phone occasionally.

Connor was also very nervous. He was nervous not because he was worried that he would lose this inheritance but because he was worried that Freya would not forgive him.

If Freya came today, it would mean that Freya had forgiven him. However, if Freya did not come, it would mean that Freya still could not forgive him.

"Mr. McDonald, why don't you call Ms. Phillips yourself?"

Thomas felt it was not a good idea to continue waiting like this. The one who tied the bell had to undo it. If Connor went to persuade Freya now, it might be effective.

Connor hesitated, then whispered, "Alright, I'll try!"

After saying this, Connor got up and was prepared to leave..

Chapter 376: Yannick Lee's Trick

At this moment, Yannick suddenly stood up and said to Connor with a gloomy look.

“What does it have to do with you whether I call her or not?”

Connor looked up at Yannick and asked coldly.

“It has nothing to do with me, but I know that Freya Phillips definitely won’t come!”

Yannick revealed a sinister smile as he spoke.

After seeing the smile on Yannick’s face, Connor instantly felt that something was wrong. He stood up and walked to Yannick, then coldly asked, “What did you mean by that?”

“Nothing much. I just wanted to tell you that Freya Phillips definitely won’t be able to make it today, so I advise that you give up on this idea and stop wasting your energy!”

Connor looked at Yannick and took a deep breath. Then he grabbed Yannick’s collar and shouted, “Yannick, did you do something to Freya?”

“Why are you so riled up? Who is Freya to you now? You can’t even protect yourself now, yet you still have time to worry about others,” Yannick said sarcastically.

It was obvious that Yannick was stalling for time.

He was worried that if Connor's phone call really worked and Freya really came, who could guarantee that she would not change the current situation?

Therefore, Yannick felt that the best result was to wait for half an hour. If Freya did not come, then this matter would be settled.

"Freya is my fiancée. Why don't I have the right to interfere? Tell me, did you do something to Freya?"

Connor opened his eyes wide and shouted at Yannick.

"Connor, I realize that there's really something wrong with your brain. You see Freya as your fiancée, but does she see you as her fiancé? If Freya really cared about you, would she not be here by now? Is your brain filled with sh*t? Don't you understand by now?"

Yannick said to Connor with disdain.

Connor was stunned when he heard Yannick's words.

"This is the first time I've ever seen a bootlicker like you. As expected of a loser..."

Seeing that Connor did not respond, Yannick continued to mock him.

"Cut the crap. I'm asking you; did you do something to Freya?"

Connor shouted at Yannick with red eyes.

After seeing Connor's expression, Yannick deliberately revealed a playful smile, then looked at Connor provocatively and said, "Do you think I did something to Freya Phillips? If you don't want to see her get into an accident, you better get your dirty hands off me. Otherwise, if something really happens to her, you'll regret it..."

Hearing Yannick's words, Connor was stunned for a second. Then, he slowly loosened his grip on Yannick's collar and looked at Yannick with red eyes.

After seeing Connor admit defeat, Yannick revealed a disdainful smile. Then, he straightened his clothes and said to Connor with a smile,

"Connor, you better have some self-awareness. A loser like you can't beat me! And just because someone called you Mr. McDonald, did you really think that you are worthy of that? Without my granduncle's inheritance, you're lower than a dog to me. You actually have the time to worry about the safety of others. You're really..."

Bang!

Before Yannick finished his sentence, Connor raised his fist and punched Yannick's face.

Yannick suddenly felt his vision go dark. He staggered back two steps and then sat on the ground.

Bang!

Connor then ran over and stepped on Yannick's head. Then, he shouted, "What did you do to Freya? Where is Freya now?"

"Connor, how dare you hit me? Are you crazy?"

Yannick didn't expect Connor to be so crazy.

"Cut the crap. What did you do to Freya?"

Connor shouted.

“Connor, you’d better move your feet off of me. Otherwise, I’ll make you spend the rest of your life in a wheelchair...”

Yannick had never been humiliated like this before. His eyes were filled with anger as he shouted at Connor in a vicious tone.

“Answer me! What did you do to Freya?”

Connor didn’t seem to know that this was Yannick’s scheme to delay time. He shouted at Yannick with an angry expression.

“Mr. McDonald...”

Thomas Morgan saw that something was wrong, so he quickly stepped forward and grabbed Connor, trying to pull him away from Yannick.

“Let go of me. This person must have done something to Freya. Otherwise, how would he know that Freya definitely won’t be able to come today?”

Connor turned his head and shouted at Thomas.

“Mr. McDonald, Yannick is lying to you! I’ve already asked Kyle to bring people to the Phillips Estate to protect Miss Phillips. If Miss Phillips really encounters any danger, Kyle will definitely tell me immediately, so you don’t have to worry about her safety...”

Thomas explained to Connor helplessly.

When Connor heard Thomas’s words, he turned to look at him and could not help but ask, “Is what you said true?”

“Of course, it’s true!”

Thomas quickly nodded.

Connor looked at Yannick on the ground and took a deep breath, then slowly moved his right foot away.

Seeing Connor move his foot away, Yannick stood up and shouted at Connor, "Connor, just you f*cking wait. When I take back my granduncle's inheritance, you'll see how I'm going to deal with you! I want to kill you with my own hands!"

After knowing that Freya was fine, Connor's mood eased up a lot. He ignored Yannick and turned to Thomas, "I'll call Freya now..."

"Mr. McDonald, there's no need..."

Thomas looked at Connor and shook his head.

"Why?"

Connor was stunned for a moment and asked.

"There's less than ten minutes left. Even if you convince Miss Phillips, it's too late!" Thomas said to Connor with a helpless expression.

When Connor heard Thomas's words, he was stunned, and his face darkened.

He didn't realize that Yannick was just stalling for time.

Although Yannick was beaten up, he still looked arrogant. He wiped the blood from his mouth and looked at Connor with a smile.

At this time, Yannick was already planning in his heart how to take revenge on Connor after he got back the inheritance!

Chapter 377: Invite Miss Phillips Up

Connor returned to Thomas's side with a disappointed expression, then whispered to him, "I'm sorry. I was too impulsive just now..."

"Mr. McDonald, you shouldn't have gone over just now! Yannick was just trying to provoke you and delay time!"

Thomas replied helplessly. Then, he looked at the elevator and said in a low voice, "Now, we can only leave it to fate!"

Connor took a deep breath, then sat beside Thomas and slowly closed his eyes.

In an instant, the entire office fell silent, as if only the ticking of the clock on the wall could be heard.

Time passed by slowly.

Thomas kept staring at his phone. When the last half hour was over, he revealed a helpless smile and sighed softly, "Maybe this is fate!"

Connor, who was sitting next to Thomas, also realized the outcome of the matter after hearing this sentence.

At this moment, Connor did not feel sad because he was about to lose this inheritance. However, he was heartbroken because Freya did not appear. He did not expect that at this critical moment, Freya would still choose to not forgive him.

"Mr. Lozano!"

Yannick Lee shouted at Jonas Lozano excitedly when he saw the time was up.

H 11

Jonas turned and glanced at Yannick, then slowly stood up and said to Thomas, “Mr. Morgan, the hour is up, and Miss Phillips isn’t here yet. I should be able to announce the outcome of the arbitration now, right?”

H ii

When Thomas heard this, he instinctively looked at Jonas.

He originally planned to have Jonas wait for another half an hour, but later he felt that it was no longer necessary.

After all, if Freya really wanted to help Connor, an hour was definitely enough.

However, if Freya did not care about Connor’s life or death at all, she would not come even if she had a day.

“Mr. Lozano, let’s not waste any more time. Hurry up and announce the results!”

Yannick shouted at Jonas impatiently.

Jonas turned and glanced at Connor and Thomas. After seeing that neither of them had any objections, he said softly, “Alright, then I will announce the result of the arbitration. According to the evidence provided by ATr. Yannick Lee, our lawyers unanimously believe that Mr. Connor McDonald has violated the provisions of the inheritance contract, so from now on, we will cancel...”

Ding dong!

Before Jonas could finish speaking, the elevator suddenly sounded.

When Thomas heard the elevator, a hint of excitement flashed across his face. He hurriedly shouted, "Mr. Lozano, wait a moment!"

Jonas turned and glanced at Thomas, but he didn't say anything.

Connor and Yannick also turned their heads to look at the elevator. At this moment, Yannick began to feel a little nervous. He was worried that Freya would suddenly appear.

The elevator door slowly opened!

Everyone widened their eyes and stared at the elevator door.

However, when they saw the person walking out of the elevator, they were all dumbfounded!

The person who walked out of the elevator was not Freya, but the lobby manager of the Empire World Building, Scarlett Moore!

When Connor saw Scarlett, a trace of disappointment flashed across his eyes. Then, he shook his head helplessly and smiled bitterly.

"Miss Moore, what are you doing here?"

A hint of disappointment flashed across Thomas's face as he asked Scarlett angrily.

"Mr. Morgan... I..."

Scarlett seemed to be frightened by Thomas's tone and stammered as she tried to explain.

"What is it?"

Thomas shouted as he stared at the woman, then continued, "Didn't I tell you this morning that I have a very important meeting today? No one is allowed to come in and disturb us."

"Mr. Morgan, I... I know you have a very important meeting today, that's why I came up..."

Scarlett said with a trembling voice.

"What are you doing up here?"

Yannick felt that Scarlett might be stalling for time for Connor, so he shouted impatiently.

When Scarlett heard this, she couldn't help but be stunned for a moment. Then, she asked Thomas with trepidation, "Mr. Morgan, can I tell you now?" "Hurry up and tell me!"

Thomas replied coldly.

"Alright, then..."

Scarlett quickly nodded and whispered, "Mr. Hayes brought a woman over. They're downstairs at the company now. They said they were here to look for Mr. McDonald, but you had previously instructed that no one was allowed to come in and disturb your meeting, so I didn't let them come up. Mr. Hayes got a little angry, so I had no choice but to come and ask you if you want to see them!"

When Thomas heard Scarlett's words, a hint of excitement flashed across his face. He quickly asked, "Mr. Kyle Hayes, right?"

"Yes!"

Scarlett nodded lightly.

"Then, the woman that came with him is called Freya Phillips, right?"

Thomas continued to ask.

“I don’t know the woman’s name, but Mr. Hayes did call her Miss Phillips...” Scarlett hesitated for a moment and said softly.

“Then, why are you still standing here? Hurry up and invite them up!”

Thomas shouted excitedly.

“Invite them up?”

“Stop talking nonsense. Go down and bring the two of them up...”

Thomas reached out and pushed Scarlett into the elevator. Then, he walked quickly to Jonas and said loudly, “Mr. Lozano, Miss Phillips is already downstairs. She will be up soon. Can you wait for another minute?”

When Jonas heard this, he hesitated for a moment and then said lightly, “Alright then. Since Miss Phillips has already arrived, let’s wait!”

After saying this, Jonas sat back down.

Connor stared at the elevator with an extremely excited expression.

Regardless of whether Connor could still inherit the inheritance or not, at least he would not feel too sad about it. Fie felt that as long as Freya could appear, it meant that everything was worth it.

“Mr. Lozano, the agreed time has already passed. Why do we have to continue waiting?”

Yannick shouted at Jonas.

“Mr. Lee, you’re just a whistle-caller for the Arbitration Council this time. How the arbitration is conducted is our business, so you don’t have the right to interfere with our business now!”

Jonas turned and glanced at Yannick as he said calmly.

“Why you...”

Hearing Jonas’s words, Yannick’s eyes flashed with anger. He then gritted his teeth and said, “Alright, I’d like to see how you plan to mediate Connor today!”

Jonas glanced at Yannick indifferently and didn’t say anything.

In fact, Yannick could also feel that Jonas was biased toward Connor and Freya. After all, he wasn’t a fool. Jonas could tell what was going on with just one glance!

But he couldn’t judge Connor based on his own feelings. He had to act according to the evidence no matter what.

Thomas couldn’t bring out the evidence that Yannick had framed Connor, but Yannick did bring out the evidence that Connor had exposed his identity in front of Freya.

Therefore, Jonas could only follow Yannick’s suggestion and hold this arbitration.

Ding dong!

At this moment, the elevator doors finally opened again.

Kyle walked out of the elevator first.

After Kyle walked out of the elevator, he bowed slightly and raised his right hand.. He said softly, "Miss Phillips, this way!"

Chapter 378: The Third Rule

A beautiful woman walked out of the elevator.

Freya was wearing a short white skirt today. Her tall and sexy figure looked even more alluring under the contrast of the short skirt. Her entire body exuded an irresistible temptation.

Her fresh and refined face was covered with light makeup. Her bright eyes were crystal clear, and her sexy lips were covered with orange-red lipstick. Her short skirt was wrapped around her seductive buttocks, and her slender and fair legs were exposed to the air. She was also wearing a pair of black high heels. She looked extremely sexy and beautiful.

When Connor saw Freya appear, a hint of excitement flashed across his face. He hurriedly stood up and ran to Freya. He said softly to Freya, "Freya, you're here."

When Freya heard Connor's words, she looked at him indifferently but ignored him. Instead, she walked directly to Thomas and said softly to him, "Mr. Morgan, I'm really sorry for being late..."

"It's okay!"

Thomas replied with an excited expression. He then stood up and gave his seat to Freya. He chuckled and said, "Miss Phillips, please take a seat!"

Freya didn't stand on ceremony and directly sat on Thomas's seat.

"Hello, Miss Phillips. I'm the person in charge of Mr. Steven Lee's legal team, Jonas Lozano!"

Jonas said to Freya very politely.

“Hello, Mr. Lozano!”

Freya nodded her head lightly before turning to look at Connor. She said expressionlessly, “Mr. Lozano, as Connor’s fiancée, I should also be qualified to participate in this Arbitration Council, right?”

“That’s right. Not only are you Mr. McDonald’s fiancée, but you’re also mentioned in Mr. Steven Lee’s will, so of course you’re qualified to participate in this arbitration!”

Jonas hurriedly replied.

“Then Mr. Lozano, I would like to ask you, how does your legal team plan to deal with Connor’s matter?”

Freya seemed to have changed into a different person as she asked Jonas with a very serious expression.

Connor stood beside Freya. He could feel that Freya was a little different from before.

Jonas looked at Freya from head to toe, then whispered to her, “Miss Phillips, the current situation is like this. Because Mr. McDonald had previously exposed his identity in front of you, this behavior has violated the third rule of Mr. Lee’s will. Therefore, we need to revoke Mr. McDonald’s right to inherit the inheritance according to the contract!”

Jonas said to Freya in a serious tone.

Freya smiled faintly when she heard this. She looked at Jonas and asked, “Mr. Lozano, how did you know that Connor violated the third rule?”

When everyone heard Freya’s words, they were all stunned. Their faces were filled with disbelief because they did not know what Freya meant by those words.

“Miss Phillips, what do you mean by that?”

Jonas also asked Freya with a puzzled expression.

“It’s very simple. I just want to ask how you are sure that Connor violated the third rule of the will?”

Freya repeated expressionlessly.

“Miss Phillips, have you seen Mr. Lee’s will?”

Jonas asked softly.

“Mr. Morgan told me about the will yesterday, but I haven’t seen it with my own eyes...”

Freya replied indifferently.

“Alright, then...”

Jonas nodded his head lightly, then looked at Freya and said, “Alright, since you haven’t seen this will with your own eyes, Miss Phillips, let me briefly explain the third rule in the will to you!”

“Go ahead.”

Freya looked at Jonas and nodded lightly.

Jonas took out Steven’s will, then looked at Freya and said, “Miss Phillips, the third rule of the will states that if Mr. McDonald wants to inherit the inheritance, Miss Phillips must fall in love with Mr. McDonald out of your own will. Mr. McDonald must also marry Miss Phillips!”

“I know that!”

Freya turned to look at Connor and said indifferently.

“However, there is a prerequisite to this rule. To prevent Mr. McDonald from using improper means to force Miss Phillips to marry him, before the two of you get married, Mr. McDonald is not allowed to reveal his identity and any information about the inheritance to Miss Phillips!” Jonas looked at Freya and continued.

H 11

Freya nodded thoughtfully and did not say anything else.

“Just now, according to the video provided by Mr. Yannick Lee, it has been confirmed that Mr. McDonald has already revealed his identity to you before fulfilling the third rule. Therefore, according to the will, we have the right to revoke Connor’s right to inherit the inheritance!” Seeing that Freya didn’t say anything, Jonas continued.

“In that case, I would like to ask you a question, Mr. Lozano. The third clause in the will states that I must sincerely fall in love with Connor, or that Connor must marry me. Which of these two conditions is more important?”

Freya asked softly.

Upon hearing Freya’s question, Jonas was obviously stumped because he did not know how to answer the question.

Was it more important for Freya to marry Connor, or was it more important for her to sincerely love Connor? Other than Steven Lee, who left this will, no one would be able to answer this question.

“Miss Phillips, I’m only the executor of the will, so I don’t know how to answer you. Because these two conditions are written in the will, neither can be missing!”

Jonas hesitated for a moment and said softly to Freya.

“I just want to know which of these two conditions is more important!”

Freya smiled faintly, then looked at Jonas and continued, "There should be a sentence in the third clause of the will. In order to prevent Connor from using other means to force me to get married, Connor must hide his identity before the two of us get married, right?"

"Yes!"

Jonas nodded lightly.

"Then, Mr. Lozano, the will stipulates that Connor must hide his identity from me to prevent him from tempting me with the money. This way, it can ensure that I don't like Connor for other reasons?"

Freya asked in an orderly manner.

"You can see it that way!"

Jonas nodded again.

"In that case, if Connor exposed his identity after I fell in love with him, and it wasn't because he wanted to expose himself, but because he wanted to save me, then can your lawyer team handle this matter appropriately?"

Freya looked at Jonas and continued to ask.

When Connor heard Freya's words, he was stunned, and a hint of surprise flashed across his eyes.

He could tell that Freya was implying that she had already fallen in love with Connor before his identity was exposed.

Therefore, even if Connor's identity was exposed yesterday, he did not violate the third rule of the will!

Chapter 379: I Have Evidence!

“But...”

When Jonas heard Freya’s words, he was stunned. He was very conflicted.

He did not know how to answer Freya’s question.

“Mr. Lozano, if I remember correctly, the old chairman should have such a rule in his will. That is, if there are special circumstances, the legal team can handle it at their discretion, so I hope that Mr. Lozano can reconsider!”

At this moment, Thomas Morgan also spoke up.

“Reconsider what?”

Yannick stood up and shouted. He then glared at Thomas and Freya and said, “What are you two trying to do? Connor violating the will is already a matter of certainty. Now, the two of you actually want to harp on when exactly Connor exposed his identity? What are you guys trying to do? Do you think my granduncle’s will is something to play with?”

“Mr. Lee, this has nothing to do with you. Please be quiet!”

Thomas shouted at Yannick.

“Thomas Morgan, who the hell do you think you are? You actually dare to tell me to shut up?”

Yannick shouted at Thomas with a ferocious expression.

“Yannick, you’re not the inheritor of the inheritance now. I’m the one who is supposed to inherit everything. I have the final say in the Empire World Corporation. If you dare to talk nonsense again, I’ll ask the security guards to throw you out.”

At this moment, Connor said in an unusually domineering manner.

“Why you... Fine, you two are ruthless. When the Arbitration Council is over, I’m going to get back at you!”

Yannick gritted his teeth and shouted at Connor and Thomas.

Thomas glanced at Yannick indifferently but didn’t pay attention to him.

Instead, he said to Jonas, “Mr. Lozano, I think what Miss Phillips said just now is right. The reason why the old chairman didn’t let Mr. McDonald expose his identity is because he didn’t want Mr. McDonald to use other means to force Miss Phillips to get married. However, if Miss Phillips has already fallen in love with Mr. McDonald, then even if Mr. McDonald has exposed his identity, it shouldn’t be considered a violation of the will, right?”

“Thomas Morgan, stop spouting nonsense here. How do you know whether Freya has long fallen in love with Connor?”

“Just because this woman said that she has fallen in love with Connor, should we believe her? What if she’s just saying that for the inheritance? What if she is already in cahoots with Connor?!” Yannick shouted.

When Jonas heard Yannick’s words, he couldn’t help but be stunned for a moment. Then he whispered to Thomas, “Mr. Morgan, what Mr. Lee said makes sense!”

“I think that this is how we should move forward. If Miss Phillips can prove that Mr. McDonald’s identity was indeed exposed after she had fallen in love with him, then our legal team will handle Mr. McDonald’s matter as appropriate. However, if Miss Phillips can’t produce evidence, then we will proceed according to the original arbitration result!”

Thomas couldn’t help but turn to look at Freya.

“That’s right. As long as you can produce evidence now to prove that Connor’s identity was exposed after you had fallen in love with him, I also agree that the lawyers can handle this matter as they see fit.”

Yannick shouted at Freya proudly.

He felt that only the person involved knew whether she liked a person or not. There was no way to prove it with evidence. Therefore, Yannick felt that Freya would definitely lose today.

“Mr. Lozano, as long as I can produce evidence to prove that Connor’s identity was exposed after I had fallen in love with him, you will consider this matter?”

Freya bit her lips and asked Jonas in a low voice.

“Yes!”

Jonas nodded slightly and continued, “But Miss Phillips, you have to produce substantial evidence to convince our legal team!”

When Freya heard this, she fell into deep thought. She was extremely conflicted.

“Freya, can you produce any evidence? If you can’t, don’t waste everyone’s time here, okay?”

Seeing that Freya wasn’t saying anything, he curled his lips and shouted.

In actual fact, Yannick was very nervous. He was worried that if Freya could really produce evidence, then things would get complicated.

Freya slowly raised her head and glanced at Connor. She bit her lips and said, “I have evidence!”

“You do?”

After hearing Freya's words, Yannick was stunned for a moment. Then, he walked up to her and shouted, "Freya, we won't believe you just because you say it. You have to show us something substantial, you understand?"

Freya turned and glanced at Yannick, then asked Jonas, "Mr. Lozano, as long as I can produce evidence, will you restore Connor's identity as the heir?"

"Miss Phillips, I don't even know what the evidence you're talking about is, so our legal team needs to make the next judgment based on the evidence you've presented. If Mr. McDonald's identity was indeed exposed after you had fallen in love with him, then we'll consider handling this matter as appropriate..." Jonas replied softly.

"Alright..."

Freya nodded her head when she heard this. Then, she took out her phone and made a call.

Ring! Ring!

The phone rang twice before the other party picked up.

"Priscilla, please come to the 38th floor!"

Freya said expressionlessly.

"Alright!"

Priscilla Marcus replied lightly and hung up.

When Freya had hung up the phone, a trace of confusion flashed across Yannick's face. He then frowned and shouted at Freya, "Freya, what the hell are you doing? Where is your evidence?"

H H

Freya turned and glanced at Yannick without saying anything.

“Mr. Lozano, I think these people are deliberately stalling for time here. How can she have evidence to prove this? I request that the lawyers announce the result of the arbitration now!”

Freya didn't say anything, so Yannick turned to shout at Jonas.

“Mr. Lee, our legal team has always been particular about evidence. Since Miss Phillips said that she has evidence to prove it, we naturally have to give Miss Phillips a chance to produce evidence. If you are in a hurry, you can leave now.”

Jonas replied expressionlessly.

After hearing this, Yannick looked at Jonas viciously. He didn't expect that these people would speak up for Connor.

He really couldn't understand why Thomas, Jonas and the others would rather risk offending him to protect Connor. If Connor's identity as the heir was really revoked today, then the person who would inherit the inheritance was him.

Yannick would also become Jonas and Thomas's boss. It was obviously not smart to offend their future boss for a poor boy. Thomas and Jonas must be aware of that, so why are they still doing that?

While Yannick was still puzzled, the elevator door opened again.

Priscilla gracefully walked out of the elevator in her high heels and walked to Freya's side..

Chapter 380: Priscilla Marcus Is Here

“Priscilla, you’re here. I might have to trouble you this time!”

Freya turned and said to Priscilla.

Priscilla smiled faintly.

“Mr. Lozano, Priscilla Marcus is my witness. She can prove that Connor’s identity was exposed after I had fallen in love with him!”

Freya looked at Jonas and said.

When Jonas heard this, he could not help but be stunned for a moment. Then, he turned his head to look at Priscilla and asked softly, “Miss Marcus, do you have evidence to prove that Miss Phillips had already fallen in love with Mr. McDonald before his identity was exposed?”

Hearing Jonas’s words, Priscilla instinctively turned to look at Freya.

“Priscilla, don’t worry about me. Just say whatever you have to say!”

Freya whispered.

“Alright!”

Priscilla nodded lightly and looked at Jonas and the others. “Previously, when we were at the Phillips Estate, Connor told Freya that he wanted her to be his real girlfriend, but Freya had been hesitating whether she should agree to it. Later, Freya called me and explained her troubles to me over the phone. I could tell that Freya had already fallen in love with Connor at that time, but she was just a little hesitant about agreeing to it so quickly. She decided to agree to it before we left the Phillips Estate and to be together with Connor, so I’m very sure that Freya had already fallen in love with Connor then!”

When Connor heard Priscilla's words, he was stunned. He looked at Freya with disbelief.

He had never thought that Freya had already agreed to be with him even then.

This was also the reason why Freya had refused to come over to help!

Because as long as Freya appeared here, she had to admit that she had long fallen in love with Connor.

After finding out that Connor had been lying to her, Freya did not want to admit it. She did not want to admit it in front of Connor. She felt like a fool who had been deceived.

When Jonas heard Priscilla's words, he could not help but be silent for a while. Then, he turned and asked Freya, "Miss Phillips, is what Miss Marcus said true?"

Freya's eyes flashed with hesitation. She then turned to look at Connor and said softly, "That's right. Priscilla is telling the truth. I had indeed decided to be with Connor back then. However, because of what happened later, I changed my mind, so I didn't agree to it..."

"Impossible, you guys must be in cahoots! How could there be such a coincidence? Connor has just exposed his identity in front of you, and here you are saying you had already fallen in love with him before it happened?"

Yannick couldn't help but shout when he heard Freya's words.

"Mr. Lee, please don't interfere with the work of the legal team!"

Jonas turned and said to Yannick, then looked at Priscilla and asked, "Miss Marcus, may I know the exact time of your call with Miss Phillips?"

"It was last Friday night, the day before Connor's accident!"

Priscilla replied without thinking.

“Then, do you have any evidence to prove that you said these things to Miss Phillips?”

Jonas continued to ask.

Priscilla took out her phone and said softly, “Last Friday at 10 pm, I told Freya this. There’s a call record on my phone, you can take a look!”

Jonas took Priscilla’s phone and looked at it carefully. Then, he handed the phone to the other lawyers.

A moment later, Jonas returned the phone to Priscilla and asked, “Miss Marcus, other than this call record, do you have any other evidence?”

“Other evidence?”

When Priscilla heard Jonas’s words, she couldn’t help but be stunned for a moment. Then, she shook her head and said, “Mr. Lozano, I don’t usually record my phone calls with others, so I don’t have any other evidence!”

Jonas looked at Priscilla and nodded. He said in a low voice, “Since Miss Marcus doesn’t have any other evidence, we can’t determine whether what you said just now is true or false. Although you are sure that you spoke to Miss Phillips on the phone on Friday night, no one can confirm the content of the call!” “Mr. Lozano, what do you mean by that?”

Freya was stunned for a moment before she asked Jonas.

“Don’t you understand what Mr. Lozano means? It’s very simple. It was true that the two of you called on Friday night, but who can prove what the two of you said that night? Unless the two of you can take out the recording now and prove that what the two of you said before is true, the evidence provided by the two of you is useless. After all, verbal evidence is not actual evidence.”

Yannick shouted proudly at Priscilla and Freya.

When the two girls heard this, they were dumbfounded. After all, Freya's call with Priscilla was just an accident. They didn't think that they would have to record the call as evidence!

Freya's eyes flashed with anxiety, and she did not know what to do for a moment.

Priscilla also looked helpless.

Connor saw that Freya, Priscilla, and the others were so anxious about him, while he could only sit on the side and watch without saying a word. A strong sense of defeat arose.

Sometimes, Connor felt that he was too cowardly. If he did not inherit this inheritance, he might only be able to live his life as a delivery boy.

"Mr. Lozano, since they can't produce any evidence, let's just announce the results. There's no need for us to continue wasting time here!"

Yannick sat on the sofa and shouted at Jonas casually as if he had already won.

"Miss Phillips, Miss Marcus, are you sure you don't have any other evidence? If the two of you have chat records, that's good too!"

Jonas asked Freya and Priscilla softly.

Freya shook her head in despair and said in a low voice, "Priscilla and I were on the phone at that time. There's no chat record at all..."

"If the two of you can't find the chat records, then our legal team won't change the outcome of the arbitration against Mr. McDonald!"

Jonas replied lightly, then stood up to announce the results..
