Chapter 461: Bordeaux Wine

Under normal circumstances, Yves would never allow them to order such a large number of dishes.

Even though this restaurant belonged to his family, the cost of fifty thousand dollars worth of food, even after deducting the profit, would still be around twenty thousand dollars. He would rather spend that amount of money on women.

How could he agree to spend this money treating everyone to a meal!

However, today was different. He was going all out to win over Mina. After all, a stunning beauty like Mina couldn't be won over with just ten or twenty thousand dollars.

So Yves nodded and agreed.

Furthermore, he felt that fifty thousand dollars was a bit too little, so he looked at everyone and said, "Since it's everyone's first time visiting Porthampton, I should be a good host. How about we open a bottle of red wine to celebrate?"

Upon hearing his words, everyone turned to look at him with astonishment on their faces.

They knew they had already ordered enough and were afraid he would be unhappy, so they were planning to order less!

But to their surprise, Yves not only didn't mind their large order, but he even wanted to open another bottle of red wine.

"The gap between rich heirs is truly immense!"

Sasha couldn't help but sigh softly as she observed him.

“Oh, by the way, add a bottle of Bordeaux wine...”

Just at that moment, Yves turned to the waiter and made the request.

“Bordeaux wine?”

Dustin, having some knowledge about red wine, was instantly stunned and his expression filled with shock upon hearing this.

“What’s wrong? Don’t you like Bordeaux wine? If you don’t, it’s fine, we can choose another bottle. We have quite a selection of red wines...”

Yves smiled and asked Dustin after noticing his reaction.

“Dustin, what’s the matter? Mr. Yves is treating us to a meal, and he even ordered wine. Yet you’re still complaining about this and that. Isn’t that a bit too much?”

Sasha turned her head and glanced at him, her expression showing displeasure.

“Yeah, Dustin, you’re asking for too much!”

Mavis chimed in as well.

These two girls didn’t know much about red wine, so they thought he was complaining because the wine Yves ordered wasn’t good.

“No... no, I didn’t mean that!”

He quickly waved his hand and continued explaining, "Bordeaux wine is a famous brand, and this kind of wine is not cheap. A bottle costs at least twenty to thirty thousand dollars, so I thought it's a bit expensive!"

Twenty to thirty thousand for a bottle of wine?

After hearing Dustin's words, everyone was dumbfounded, their gazes dull and their expressions extremely shocked.

No one expected Yves to order such an expensive wine.

"Mr. Yves, isn't that wine too expensive? We've already ordered quite a lot earlier, and if we order more wine, how much will this meal cost?"

Sasha turned to Yves eagerly, her expression filled with excitement.

"Don't worry about the money. It's just a bottle of Bordeaux wine. It's not that expensive. You're all Clara's friends, and as long as you enjoy this meal, it's fine!"

Yves replied arrogantly, no longer paying attention to these people. He turned to the waiter and said, "Alright, stop standing here. Hurry up and let the kitchen prepare the food. These people are all my good friends, so make sure the chefs in the kitchen do a good job. Don't embarrass me, understood?" "Understood, Mr. Yves!"

The waiter quickly nodded and left the private room.

Ciara had a proud expression on her face upon hearing his words. Yves' words made her feel very honored.

Compared to Connor's treatment, it was like night and day!

Yves was already treating Ciara so well, even before they were officially together. If they were to be together in the future, it would certainly be even better!

Looking at Connor, who couldn't even be bothered to get a membership card and even mocked Sasha, the difference between these two was just too significant.

Meanwhile, Connor and Mina paid no attention to them and continued chatting quietly.

As for the others, they surrounded Yves, actively flattering him.

After about an hour, everyone finally finished their meal.

It had to be said that the food at Yves' family's restaurant was truly excellent.

Although it couldn't compare to Immortal Lake Manor in terms of food, it was still considered one of the best in Porthampton.

Connor thoroughly enjoyed the meal. He didn't have to spend his own money and could still savor so much delicious food. He was in a great mood.

From beginning to end, he kept his head down and focused on eating, completely unconcerned about what others thought.

When Yves and Ciara observed Connor's demeanor, they became even more convinced that he wasn't a rich heir.

If Connor were truly a wealthy second generation, he wouldn't eat so messily.

He appeared like someone who had never been to such a fancy restaurant before!

Everyone else had finished eating and drinking, while Connor was the only one still holding his chopsticks.

“Where do you guys plan to go later?”

Just then, Yves suddenly asked.

“We’re planning to go to the villa that Mina rented for us. Tomorrow is my birthday, and we’re intending to have a birthday party there...” Ciara replied softly.

“Oh, that works out. I don’t have anything else to do, so I’ll accompany you guys to take a look later...”

Yves said with a smile.

“Great! With you around, we’ll have much more convenience in Porthampton!”

Sasha happily exclaimed upon hearing his words.

“Alright, since everyone is almost finished eating, let’s go and check out the villa. Where is it located? I’ll have the driver arrange the itinerary for you!” Yves casually suggested.

Upon hearing his words, everyone’s faces became even happier. After all, they wouldn’t have to hail a taxi if they followed him.

“The villa I rented is on Jackson Avenue.”

Mina, seeing Yves’ enthusiasm, naturally didn’t refuse.

“Alright, let’s go now!”

Yves readily nodded, then stood up and prepared to walk towards the exit of the private room.

“Oh, Yves, did you forget something?”

But just at that moment, Ciara suddenly called out..

Chapter 462: Let Connor Pay the Bill

“Forget what? Ciara, what are you talking about?” Yves asked, pretending not to know.

“It seems like no one has paid for this meal yet!” Ciara said with a smile.

After hearing her words, everyone was stunned.

Yves had already mentioned earlier that he was treating them to this meal, so no one remembered the idea of paying the bill.

But now Ciara unexpectedly mentioned it, and everyone couldn't understand what she was up to!

“Ciara, I'm treating you all to this meal, you don't need to pay!” He quickly smiled and replied.

At this point, he naturally understood the meaning behind her words, and his response was just playing along with her act.

“Yves, with so many of us here today, how can we let you treat us? If you can give us a discount, we'll be very happy. After all, you only know me, and you're not familiar with the others, so it's not your turn to pay!” she replied lightly, then turned her head to look at Connor and whispered, “And also, you probably don't know, but we also have a rich heir here that casually throws around millions. So, it's definitely not your turn to pay. If you pay today, won't it be embarrassing for him?”

Although Ciara didn't mention Connor's name explicitly, her words were very straightforward, implying that this meal should be paid for by Connor.

Mina wasn't a fool either; she naturally understood the meaning behind Ciara's words and subconsciously turned her head to glance at Connor.

"I think Ciara is right. This meal should indeed be paid by Connor. After all, we all came here because of him. If you don't want to treat us at the Fairy Lake Resort, then treating us to a meal here is also fine!" Sasha quickly joined in after realizing the situation, speaking in a challenging tone.

"That's right, Connor, there shouldn't be a problem with you treating us for this meal. After all, you're so wealthy. You can casually donate millions in Mina's livestream. Treating us to a meal shouldn't be difficult, right?" Mavis was even more direct, standing up and shouting at Connor

Hearing this, Connor lifted his head lightly and glanced at Mavis, smiling faintly without saying a word.

At this moment, he already knew what these people wanted to do, but he didn't expect that Clara's motive for doing this was to expose his true identity. He thought she just wanted to take advantage of him.

Mina, sitting next to Connor, began to look nervous.

She knew that Connor definitely couldn't come up with that money, after all, she was very familiar with his situation.

"I didn't expect him to be a rich heir. It's true that I shouldn't be the one paying for this meal. But I can give you a 20% discount. What do you think?" Yves saw that his plan had succeeded and said to Connor with a smile.

"A 20% discount?"

Connor smiled faintly when he heard this, then said, "You're quite generous. Let's go with a 20% discount then. I'll treat you all to this meal!"

Ciara, Yves and the others did not expect him to agree. They were all stunned on the spot, and their expressions were abnormally shocked.

Under normal circumstances, even if this meal was 20% off, all the dishes and the bottle of red wine worth 60,000 dollars would cost nearly 100,000 dollars. Connor should not be able to take out this money, but they did not expect him to agree!

“Why did this he agree?”

Yves narrowed his eyes and looked at Connor. He secretly regretted saying that he would give a 20% discount. He should have asked him to pay the full amount!

However, he had already said those words just now, and if he were to take them back now, it would be quite embarrassing. So he could only grit his teeth and say, “Alright, since Connor is so generous, I won’t insist on splitting the bill with you today. Waiter, come and calculate the bill!”

“Okay!”

After hearing this, the waiter quickly took the invoice and entered the private room. Then, in a soft voice, the waiter said, “Mr. Yves, the total cost of this meal is 125,800...”

After hearing the waiter’s words, everyone was dumbfounded. They opened their mouths wide, their expressions filled with astonishment.

They never expected the dishes at Yves’ family restaurant to be so expensive. A table full of food cost 125,000. Even for a rich heir, that was not a small sum of money!

After all, they were all students, and at most, they received a monthly living allowance of 5,000 dollars. For an ordinary student, it was only 1,000 or 2,000 dollars per month.

So spending 125,000 dollars on a single meal was indeed shocking!

But they might not know that just the bottle of wine Yves ordered cost 60,000 dollars!

Ciara and Yves wore smug smiles when they heard the price. They knew very well that Connor couldn't possibly come up with that money!

"Do you want to check the bill, everyone?"

At that moment, the waiter spoke again.

"No need to bother..."

Connor casually replied when he heard those words.

After all, that amount of money meant nothing to him. Even if it were one or two million, he wouldn't care. So, of course, he wouldn't mind 100,000 dollars.

Mina, on the other hand, became even more puzzled when she heard his words. She couldn't understand why he seemed like a different person, completely indifferent to the money.

"So, who will pay the bill?"

The waiter hesitated for a moment and asked Yves.

"Do we still need to ask? Of course, it's Mr. Connor!" he replied with a smile, then looked at the waiter and continued, "These people are all my friends, so give them an 80% discount!"

"Alright, Mr. Yves!"

The waiter, knowing his identity, quickly responded and walked over to Connor, saying in a respectful voice, "Sir, the total cost of this meal is 125,873 dollars. After the discount and rounding off the remaining change, the total will be 100,600 dollars..."

“Oh, forget about the 600, just charge him 100,000!”

Yves quickly shouted after hearing this.

Clearly, he thought that even 100,000 dollars would be impossible for Connor to come up with.

“Alright... alright!”

The waiter hesitated for a moment, then nodded and said, “Mr. Connor, the total comes to 100,000 dollars. Will you be paying in cash or by card?”

Connor heard the waiter’s words and slowly raised his head to look at the waiter.

Meanwhile, Ciara, Yves and the others wore smug expressions, as if they were waiting to see Connor embarrass himself..

Chapter 463: What Else Do You Want Me to Explain?

“100,000 dollars?”

Upon hearing the waiter’s words, Connor couldn’t help but pause for a moment. Then he took out his bank card, prepared to let the waiter swipe it.

Although he knew that doing so might expose his identity, he believed he could explain it to Mina later. He didn’t think Mina would suspect him because of this 100,000 dollars!

“I’ll pay...”

Just as he took out his bank card and was about to speak.

“I’ll cover this meal!”

But before he could finish his sentence, Mina suddenly shouted and directly handed her bank card to the waiter.

She believed that he couldn’t possibly come up with so much money. If Connor really had 100,000 dollars he wouldn’t be sharing an apartment with her.

However, Mina had earned quite a bit of money from her recent livestreams, so 100,000 dollars was nothing to her!

“Mina, what are you doing?”

Upon seeing Mina’s offer to pay, Clara couldn’t stand it anymore. She stared at her and exclaimed in an agitated tone.

“What do you mean? You’re all my friends, and you came to Porthampton to hang out with me. So, this meal shouldn’t be paid by Connor, it should be on me,” Mina replied coldly.

“Oh, if Connor is so wealthy, just let him pay. It’s not like he can’t afford it, right?”

Clara didn’t want Mina to spend that money at all. Her purpose today was to expose Connor’s act to pretend to be a rich heir. If Mina ended up paying, her plan would be ruined.

“Just because Connor has money, he should treat us to a meal? Not to mention it’s a very expensive meal. Where’s the logic in that?” Mina’s tone was slightly displeased as she questioned Clara.

“Mina, just listen to me. Let him pay for this meal. There’s a reason behind my actions!”

Clara shouted at Mina with an exceptionally worked up expression.

Mina looked at Ciara up and down, her expression even more puzzled. She couldn't understand why Ciara insisted on letting Connor treat everyone to a meal!

"Ciara, why do you insist on having Connor pay for this meal?"

Mina sensed that something was off and quickly asked her.

"Oh, I can't explain this to you right now. Anyway, it's right to let Connor pay the bill!"

Ciara realized she had let something slip and quickly tried to explain.

"No, you have to explain everything to me today. What is your motive for doing this?"

Mina exclaimed, staring with wide eyes.

The more Ciara and the others tried to conceal the truth, the more suspicious Mina became.

"Fine, Mina, I'll tell you the truth!"

She knew that the truth might no longer be hidden, so she reluctantly spoke.

"What's going on?"

Mina asked with a furrowed brow.

"Mina, let me explain. I had Yves' friend investigate Connor, and it turns out he's not a rich heir at all. He's just a poor student at Porthampton University, and he works as a delivery boy. I think he might be pretending to be a rich heir to deceive you. That's why I wanted him to pay for the meal. It's an expensive meal, 100,000 dollars, which is indeed a lot for us, but I don't think it's much for a rich heir, right?"

Ciara reluctantly revealed the truth.

After hearing these words, everyone present stood still in shock. Although they had suspected Connor's identity might be fake, no one expected it to be true. He was not only not a rich heir but also a poor delivery driver!

"I knew it! How could he be a rich heir? He doesn't even have a car, and look at how he's dressed. It's so funny! Even the securities at my school dresses better than him!" Mavis pouted and exclaimed.

"No wonder he was so excited when I asked him to get a membership card at Immortal Lake Manor. It's because he didn't have any money!"

Sasha also quickly added.

Upon hearing the mocking remarks about Connor, Mina was stunned, her expression filled with astonishment. She never expected Ciara and the others to actually investigate his identity.

"Ciara, you're not joking with me, right? How could Zhang Feng be a fraud?"

Mina tried to maintain a calm demeanor and stuttered as she spoke to Ciara.

"Why is it impossible for him to be a fraud?" she sneered.

"If Connor is really a fraud, then... how could he have sent so many gifts to my livestream? Can you explain that?"

Mina responded with a touch of helplessness.

"Mina, you're too naive. Just because he claims to be a local tyrant, you believe him? Can he open his Twitch account for us to see now? And in the current situation, as long as he can pay for this meal, it will prove his identity. Just let him pay for the meal, can't you do that?"

Ciara quickly shouted.

Upon hearing her words, Mina was instantly dumbfounded. She stood there with a vacant expression, unsure of how to refute Clara's words.

First of all, Mina didn't believe Connor could log into his Twitch account. After all, she knew he was pretending to be Hector and had called him over.

And then there was the idea of spending 100,000 dollars to prove his identity. Mina felt it was even more impossible. After all, he was just a poor student. How could he have 100,000 dollars?

Mina stood there in embarrassment, not knowing what to do.

"Mina, I know it's hard for you to accept right now. We weren't planning to tell you about this. We wanted to gather evidence first and then inform you. But now that you've asked, I can only tell you the truth!"

Ciara arrogantly shouted at Mina.

But at this moment, Connor suddenly stood up, walked to Mina's side, and whispered to her, "Can we leave now?"

"Why should you leave? You haven't explained the matter of you pretending to be a rich heir!"

Ciara loudly exclaimed when she saw that Connor seemed to want to leave.

He coldly glanced at her and said expressionlessly, "I've already paid for this meal.. What else do you want me to explain?"

Chapter 464: Proving Them Wrong!

“You’ve already paid the bill?”

After hearing Connor’s words, everyone present was stunned, their expressions filled with shock.

“That’s right, Mr. Connor did pay the bill just now...”

At that moment, the waiter suddenly spoke up.

Ciara, Yves and the others shifted their attention to the waiter, their eyes filled with confusion.

Because no one expected that while Ciara and Mina were discussing whether he was a second-generation rich person, he had already secretly paid the bill.

Connor’s actions at this moment undoubtedly proved everyone wrong!

Just now, Ciara stated that if he could pay the bill, it would prove that he wasn’t lying and that he really was a rich heir.

Now they stood frozen in place. Mina too froze in place. Everyone looked at him with strange eyes.

Just a moment ago, Ciara and Yves were confident, thinking that Connor was just a poor loser who delivered food and couldn’t come up with 100,000 dollars.

So they thought they could expose his true identity.

But what they never expected was that Connor actually had the money, and he paid the bill!

“How... How is this possible?”

Yves was completely dumbfounded now, standing still with a blank expression on his face, looking very puzzled. He couldn't understand where Connor got this money from.

"How can he have the money to pay the bill?"

Ciara also looked bewildered and hurriedly ran up to the waiter, shouting loudly, "Are you sure Connor already paid the bill just now?"

"Yes, Mr. Connor swiped his card just now, a total of 100,000 dollars!"

The waiter nodded in confirmation.

She turned to look at Connor and shouted incredulously, "Where did you get the money?"

"What does it have to do with you where I got the money?"

He replied expressionlessly, then turned to Mina and said, "I've already paid the bill. Shall we leave now?"

"Okay... okay..."

Mina stammered in response, then followed Connor as they walked out of the private room. Only Yves, Ciara, and the others stood in place, looking baffled. They still couldn't understand what was going on.

"Yves, didn't you say this guy was just a poor loser who delivered food? How could he have the money to pay the bill?" Ciara angrily shouted at Li Yan.

She had wanted to humiliate Mina through this incident, but she never expected it would turn out like this.

“My friend told me this he is just a food delivery guy, and he even skimps on meals. Could it be that my friend got it wrong?”

Yves was also visibly confused now. After all, if Connor was really a poor loser he couldn't have come up with 100,000 dollars?

“Yves, why don't you call your friend and verify? If this Zhang Feng is really a rich heir, it's not good for us to offend him like this. What if he retaliates against us in the future?”

Sasha said to Yves in a worried tone.

After hesitating for a moment, he felt that her words made sense, so he took out his phone and dialed his friend's number.

“Ring, ring, ring...”

After the phone rang for a while, the other party picked up.

“Mr. Yves, is there anything else?”

The other party asked in a casual manner.

“Hudson, you told me that Connor is a poor loser. Are you sure you didn't get it wrong?”

Yves frowned and asked in a low voice.

“Of course I'm sure. There's indeed a poor loser named Connor in our school.

He usually sends food out. Many students know him.”

The other party replied with certainty.

“Then why did this kid spend 100,000 dollars in my restaurant just now without blinking? If he’s really a poor loser like you said, then he shouldn’t be able to take out 100,000 dollars!”

Yves said helplessly.

When the other party heard this, he could not help but be stunned for a moment. With a puzzled expression, he said, “That doesn’t make sense. I heard that this kid usually doesn’t even eat to support his girlfriend. Why is he so generous now? Could it be that he won the lottery...”

“What lottery? Could it be that the Connor you’re talking about is not the same person as the Connor I’m meeting now?” Yves frowned and muttered.

“It should be possible!”

After thinking for a moment, the other party muttered softly.

After all, according to Yves’ description just now, he was not sure if the Connor that he knew was the same person from their school.

When Yves heard this, his expression turned ugly. After a moment of silence, he said in a low voice, “Hudson, can you help me get photos of Connor now? I want to confirm if this Connor is the same person you mentioned!”

“Uh...”

The other party seemed to be in a difficult position. After hesitating for two seconds, he continued, “I’ll try my best to help you find it. After all, I don’t know this Connor, so I’m not sure if I can find a photo of him.”

“Alright, try your best!”

Yves replied indifferently before hanging up.

“Yves, what did your friend say?”

Ciara saw that he had hung up the phone and quickly stepped forward to ask with a nervous expression.

“This matter is a little troublesome. My friend actually doesn’t know Connor. He just heard some things about him, so now there’s no way to determine whether he is a poor loser or a rich heir!” he replied helplessly.

“What kind of friend is this? He had just said that Connor was a poor loser. Why is he uncertain now? If Connor is really a rich second-generation heir, then didn’t we offend him just now?” Ciara pouted and shouted with a helpless expression.

“Don’t worry, I’ve already asked my friend to find Connor’s photo. As long as my friend can find his photo, we’ll know the truth.” Yves explained.

“Then what should we do now?”

Sasha seemed to be a little afraid as she asked.

She was worried that if Connor was really a rich heir and a local of Porthampton, he might take revenge on them if he got angry over this matter!

Chapter 465: Spring Blossom Manor

“Right, if Connor is really a rich heir, he will definitely seek revenge on us!”

Mavis and Sasha were clearly bullies who fear those stronger than them.

At this moment, they don't care about anything else, only their own safety.

"Don't worry. If he really wants to seek revenge on you, I will protect you!" After hesitating for a moment, Yves said to them.

"Moreover, Connor is Mina's boyfriend. I don't think he would go too far!" Ciara also added at this time.

Upon hearing this, Mavis and Sasha visibly relaxed, but deep down, they still felt regretful. They regretted why they had humiliated him in the first place.

"Let's pretend nothing happened when we go out later. After all, his identity has not been confirmed yet. When my friend finds Connor's photo and we confirm that he is indeed a rich heir, we can apologize to him. But if he is not a rich heir, then I will teach him a lesson!"

Yves stood in place, expressionless, and spoke to everyone.

After hearing his words, everyone nodded in agreement. After all, his suggestion was the best option at the moment.

And they had no choice but to rely on Yves. If Connor really sought revenge on them, only he could save them.

On the other side, after leaving the hotel, Mina and Connor noticed that Yves and the others had not come out yet.

They had no idea what they were discussing inside the private room. Mina didn't seem to care much about it either. She was constantly wondering where Connor got so much money from.

"Connor..."

She felt that speculating aimlessly was pointless, so after hesitating for a moment, she directly called out to him.

He turned his head and glanced at her casually, then smiled and said, "Are you going to ask me about the money?"

"Yes. Where did you get so much money from? Aren't you always poor?" she asked with a puzzled expression.

"Well..." Upon hearing her question, a hint of embarrassment flashed across his face.

But he quickly recovered and said expressionlessly, "This money is my tuition fee and the money I earned from working this summer. I paid the bill earlier to prevent your situation from being exposed..."

"That is your tuition fee?" Mina covered her mouth in astonishment, her expression incredibly incredulous. She never expected that he would use his tuition fee to pay the bill.

"How else could I have so much money? This money was what I earned from delivering takeout for half a year. Originally, I planned to use it to pay my tuition fees. But now, I've used it to treat your friends." He smiled and explained to her.

In fact, Connor had already planned what excuse to use to hide this from Mina, so his words came naturally.

"I see." She looked at him and felt deeply moved. She realized that how good a man treats you is not measured by how much money he spends on you, but by his willingness to spend all the money he has on you.

This sum of money might not be much, but it was enough to show his feelings for her.

His actions had deeply touched her at this moment.

"Connor, don't worry, I will definitely pay you back this money!" she promised him.

Connor couldn't help but pause for a moment after hearing Mina's words. He had no intention of asking her for the money back. After all, this amount of money meant nothing to him.

"Um, Mina, I... I think you may have misunderstood me. I didn't say those words to ask you for the money. I..." he quickly explained to her.

She looked at him with a faint smile and said softly, "You don't have to explain anything to me. I know what you mean. But rest assured, I will definitely return this money to you. After all, you work hard to earn it. I've earned a lot of money from my recent live broadcasts, and this hundred thousand is just half a year's savings for you, but for me, it may be the money I make from a single live stream. So, I will definitely give this money back to you..."

Upon hearing her words, his expression became extremely helpless.

For Mina, this hundred thousand dollars might be the amount she earns from a single live stream.

But for him, he could make ten times or even hundreds of times more money in just a second!

He had originally planned to continue discussing this matter with Mina, but suddenly he heard footsteps coming from the hotel.

Connor instinctively glanced at the hotel entrance and found that it was Yves, Ciara and the rest coming out of the hotel.

After hesitating for a moment, he didn't continue discussing this matter with Mina as he was worried that they might overhear.

"Mina, Connor, I'm sorry. I arranged for the driver, so it took a bit of time!"

Perhaps because Yves still couldn't determine Connor's true identity, he was still very polite when speaking to him.

“It’s okay,” Mina replied indifferently.

Yves glanced meaningfully at Connor but didn’t say much.

At this moment, three BMW cars directly parked in front of the hotel.

“My arranged cars have arrived. Let’s get in and go to the villa area!”

He said with a smile to Mina.

“Okay.”

Mina nodded.

She noticed that they didn’t seem to mention what happened in the private room just now, so she naturally didn’t bring it up either.

“Mina, where is the villa you rented located?”

Just then, Ciara suddenly asked her.

“In Spring Blossom Manor!”

Mina instinctively replied.

Upon hearing her words, Connor’s eyes flashed with surprise.

He had already given Mina the key to his own villa, but his villa was not in Spring Blossom Manor.

This meant that she didn't choose to rent his villa!

He couldn't understand why she suddenly wanted to change the location.. Was she dissatisfied with his villa?

Chapter 466: It's Not As Good As My Family's Villa!

Five minutes later.

Everyone got into the BMW and rushed to the Purple County Garden Villa Complex.

Although Ciara, Yves, and the others did not know if Connor was a real rich heir or not, because of what had happened in the private room just now, everyone was too embarrassed to approach Connor.

Therefore, Connor and Mina sat in one car, Yves, Dustin, and Calvin sat in another car, and Ciara, Sasha, and Mavis sat in the third car.

After the car started, Connor was still a little puzzled as to why Mina didn't choose his villa. After all, Connor's villa could be said to be a priceless mansion. It was not comparable to an ordinary villa.

There was no reason for Mina to choose another villa over his own!

"Why didn't you go to the villa I lent you? Is my villa not good enough?" Connor asked Mina softly.

After Mina heard Connor's words, a trace of embarrassment flashed across her eyes. She then smiled and said, "No... I just felt that the villa you lent me was too luxurious. I was worried that my friends would destroy the things in the villa, so I rented another one..."

"Oh, oh!"

Connor heard Mina's explanation and nodded lightly. He didn't say anything because he felt that Mina's words made sense.

After all, his villa really was too luxurious; any one piece of furniture in it would cost a few million. Ordinary people would definitely feel uncomfortable living in it.

Mina saw that Connor didn't say anything, so she quickly looked at Connor and added, "Connor, I don't mind the villa you lent me. Don't think too much about it!"

"No, I wasn't..." Connor said with a smile.

"That's good..."

Mina nodded lightly and did not say anything more. She turned her head to look at the scenery outside the car.

Connor saw that Mina didn't say anything, so he didn't say anything either. Instead, he closed his eyes and started to rest.

However, Connor might not know that Mina had chosen another villa not because his villa was too luxurious. On the contrary, Mina did not go in to see what it looked like.

That day Mina followed the address given to her by Connor and found the residential area where the villa was located. She was shocked by the environment inside. Although she didn't know that this villa was the king of the residential area, she could feel that the price of this villa was definitely not affordable by ordinary people. The person who could live here was definitely one of the top figures in Porthampton!

However, Connor said that this villa belonged to his friend. Mina couldn't understand how an ordinary person like Connor could know such a rich man.

Therefore, Mina vaguely felt that something was not right, so she did not enter the villa. Instead, she found the security guard in the community and asked about the situation of the villa. She wanted to ask who the owner of this villa was and whether it could be Connor's friend.

However, the security guard told her that the villa had been sold a long time ago, but no one knew who the owner of the villa was. No one had seen anyone living in the villa. Only some housekeeping staff or people from the showroom came to clean the house every day.

After Mina heard the security guard's words, the doubt in her heart became even stronger.

She felt that Connor should be working in the showroom of this villa during the summer vacation. This way, Connor would have a chance to get the key to this villa.

Moreover, Connor knew that no one lived in this villa at all, and the owner would not come back. That was why Connor said that this villa belonged to his friend and gave him the key so that he could bring his friend over.

After all, only this explanation could explain why Connor had the key to the villa.

If Connor really knew such a rich man, Mina would never believe it. After all, to be able to buy such a villa was not something that an ordinary rich person could do. Such a person had to be worth at least tens of billions of dollars!

Mina knew that this villa didn't belong to Connor, nor did it belong to Connor's friend, so she naturally didn't dare to bring her friends here. If the owner of the villa found out, they would call the police and arrest them all.

Which was why she'd rented a different villa.

However, the kind-hearted Mina did not intend to tell Connor about this because she felt that since Connor had stolen the villa key for her, if she told him about this, it would definitely hurt Connor's self-esteem.

Thus, Mina could only find a random excuse to temporarily fool Connor.

The Purple County Garden Villa Complex was not far from the hotel. About 20 minutes later, the three BMW stopped in front of a neighborhood with a good environment.

“We’re here!”

Mina stretched out her hand and gently pushed Connor who had fallen asleep in the car.

Connor opened his eyes in a daze, then turned his head to look at the environment outside. He whispered to Mina, “This villa doesn’t seem to be as good as the villa I lent you!”

“Yeah, it’s definitely not as good as that one!”

Mina looked at Connor with a faint smile, then directly reached out to open the car door and got out.

After Connor saw Mina get off the car, he didn’t say anything and directly followed Mina out of the car.

After he got out of the car, he realized that Yves and the others had already entered the neighborhood.

“The environment of this villa is quite ordinary!” Yves looked around and said disdainfully.

“Yeah, it looks a little shabby!” Ciara quickly added.

After Mina heard the conversation between the two of them, her expression seemed a little awkward. She said softly, “The villas that can be rented in Porthampton right now are considered to be quite okay. The environments of the other villas might not be as good as this!”

“Why didn’t you tell me earlier that you wanted to rent a villa? I could’ve also lent you a villa. My villa is much better than this!” Yves shouted loudly.

After Dustin heard this, he hurriedly asked Yves with a smile, “Mr. Lynn, where is your house?”

“It’s in the Tomson Luxury Villa Complex!” Yves declared proudly.

When everyone heard Yves's words, they were all stunned on the spot.. Their expressions were extremely shocked!

Chapter 467: I'm Renting A Room With Someone Now

"Tomson Luxury Villa Complex?"

After Dustin heard this, the expression on his face seemed to be even more shocked.

Ciara and the others looked at Yves with envy.

Tomson Luxury Villa Complex could be said to be the most famous villa complex in Porthampton. Any villa in it was priceless.

Those who could live in Tomson Luxury Court usually had a worth of more than 100 million!

"Mr. Lynn, you're amazing to be able to live in Tomson Luxury Villa Complex. You're too amazing!"

At this moment, Sasha's eyes were already shining as she looked at Yves. However, Sasha actually did not know how expensive a house in Tomson Luxury Villa Complex was. She only judged it from the expressions of Dustin and the others.

"What is a mere royal court?"

Yves shouted arrogantly. Then, he looked at everyone and asked, "Do you know what the best and most expensive villa in Porthampton is?"

"The best villa in Porthampton?"

When Dustin heard this, he could not help but be stunned for a moment. Then, he said in a low voice, "I heard that the most expensive villa in Porthampton should be the Royal Villas villa of Evergrande Real Estate. It is said that the most expensive and luxurious villa in Porthampton is in the Royal Villas complex. It's worth hundreds of millions, but it seems that it hasn't been sold yet. Such an expensive villa must not be easy to sell!"

"I didn't expect Dustin to be so knowledgeable!"

Yves smiled faintly after hearing Dustin's words.

"My family is in the real estate business, and I'm also interested in things like houses, so I know a little more than ordinary people. However, compared to you, Mr. Lynn, I might still be far behind!"

Dustin smiled and flattered.

Yves smiled again, then looked at everyone and said, "Just now, Dustin was right. The best villa in Porthampton is indeed the mansion in Royal Villas. It is known as the priceless treasure of Porthampton. However, there's something Dustin said that was wrong. The villa has been sold for several hundred million. My father originally planned to buy that villa, but he had no choice."

"So that's how it is!"

Dustin nodded his head lightly. The way he looked at Yves had obviously changed.

Yves had explained so much because he wanted to tell everyone that his family had the ability to buy that villa. It was just that someone had beat them to it.

Ciara, Sasha, and the others looked at Yves with even more excitement. If he was willing to buy a villa worth hundreds of millions, then how rich was Yves's family?

Mina didn't say a word from the beginning to the end because the villa in Royal Villas and Royal Villas that Yves mentioned was actually the one that Connor had lent to her. Mina finally realized the true value of the villa at this moment, and she was even more certain that Connor definitely didn't know the owner of the villa.

“Mr. Lynn, is your family actually so rich?”

Sasha said to Yves with her charming eyes.

“It’s alright. If it weren’t for the fact that someone beat me to it, I would probably be living in Royal Villas now!” Yves replied smugly. He knew that his words had achieved his goal.

Meanwhile, Connor kept smiling at Yves as if he was looking at a fool.

Others might not know if what Yves said was true or false, but Connor knew very well in his heart!

First of all, Royal Villas was Connor’s property. Connor had bought two villas in Royal Villas, but he had given them away at that time.

Moreover, Connor had heard from Chloe that Royal Villas was too expensive and that no one could afford it. At most, only the likes of Thomas Morgan and Kyle Hayes could afford it.

However, since Thomas and Kyle already had houses, they would not waste their money on this place.

Yves had said that her family wanted to buy this villa, but there was no such thing!

“I don’t know what kind of person is so rich as to be able to buy such an expensive house!” Ciara could not help but sigh softly.

“I heard that he seems to be a mysterious rich heir, but I don’t know who he is exactly...”

Yves said indifferently.

“If only Mr. Lynn had bought the mansion back then. We would have had a chance to take a good look at it...” Sasha whispered.

“Haha, there will be plenty of opportunities in the future. Porthampton is developing rapidly, and there will definitely be a villa better than the Royal Villas in the future. I will buy it then.”

Yves grinned.

“Then, we can use you, Mr. Lynn!”

Dustin said with a smile.

“Yeah, we probably won’t be able to afford such an expensive house in our lifetime, but if we can borrow your light to stay in for a night, it’s also very good!” Calvin quickly followed up and said,

“I didn’t expect your family to be so rich, Mr. Lynn. You’re really amazing...”

Sasha wished she could strip herself naked and throw herself into Yves’s arms. So what if Yves was a little ugly? As long as Yves was rich, it would be fine.

However, at this moment, Ciara suddenly noticed Connor, who had been standing silently at the side, and asked Connor with a smile, “By the way, Connor, where do you live?”

“Where do I live?”

When Connor heard Clara’s words, he couldn’t help but be stunned.

Mina couldn’t help but feel her heart tighten. She was worried that if Connor spilled the beans, then the fact that he was pretending to be her boyfriend would be exposed.

As expected, Connor did not think too much and directly replied, “I’m renting a house with someone now!”

“Renting with someone else?”

When everyone heard Connor’s words, they were all stunned on the spot. Their expressions were extremely shocked.

No one had expected Connor to say that he was living in a rented house, and that he was sharing it with someone else!

If Connor was really a rich heir, why would he share a room with someone else?

Mina also looked at Connor with a broken expression, because after Connor said this, all her plans might be ruined.

“Connor, can you stop joking with us? How can you share a room with someone else when you’re so rich?”

Ciara said to Connor with a look of interest.

“What’s wrong with sharing a room?”

Connor replied to Ciara calmly..

Chapter 468: He’s a Liar!

When everyone heard that Connor was rooming with someone else, they all revealed shocked expressions.

Because they felt that if Connor was really a rich second generation, how could he have fallen to the point of sharing a room with someone else?

Even if Connor didn’t live in the villa, he should have a house of his own, right?

But Connor had actually admitted that he lived in the rented house in front of so many people. This was really unbelievable.

After Ciara heard Connor's words, she couldn't help but laugh and said to Connor with a playful expression, "I didn't expect you to live in a rented house, Connor. I thought you lived in the villa too!"

"Yeah! A rich heir? Living in a rental house now? It's really too funny..." Sasha hurriedly shouted.

Mina was worried that Connor would reveal the truth, so she quickly frowned and called out, "Connor, what nonsense are you talking about?"

Connor looked at Mina indifferently, then said in a very casual tone, "I live in a rented house, but I also have a villa in Royal Villas..."

"Hahaha!"

After Yves and the others heard Connor's words, not only did they not stop mocking Connor, but they even laughed even more heartily. In their eyes, Connor's words were clearly trying to justify his actions!

Yves was just trying to show off that he was rich. That was why he said he wanted to buy a villa in Royal Villas. However, he knew very well that the villa in Royal Villas was not something that ordinary people could afford. Even if his family was very rich, it was impossible for them to spend hundreds of millions to buy a house in that place.

The others laughed at Connor because he said that he lived in a rented house, yet he had a villa in Royal Villas. This was obviously impossible.

If Connor really had a villa, then why didn't he live in the villa instead of renting a room with someone? This was obviously illogical!

"Connor, can you stop joking with us? If you have a villa, why don't you stay in the villa? Yet you're saying you're renting a room with someone else?"

“Yeah, I’ve never seen a rich heir like you who doesn’t want to live in a good villa and instead rents a room with someone else?!”

“What do you know? Maybe Connor probably just likes to keep a low profile. Look at the clothes he’s wearing. You can’t tell that he’s a rich heir at all, but he says he’s rich. What can you do?” Ciara said with a sneer as she sized up Connor.

When Mina heard the crowd mocking Connor, her expression immediately turned ugly. She felt that even if Connor was indeed bragging just now, these people shouldn’t humiliate him like this, right?

“It’s getting late. Let’s go in and take a look!” Mina took a deep breath and shouted at the crowd with a cold expression.

Ciara and the others could feel that Mina was a little unhappy, so they stopped mocking Connor and walked towards the villa.

Connor sighed helplessly and walked in. Although Connor was pretending to be Mina’s boyfriend, what he’d said just now was the truth. Although he lived in the rented house, Connor also had his own villa outside, and it was not just the one.

However, these people did not believe Connor’s words, so he was not in the mood to explain to them.

A moment later, Mina brought everyone to the front door of the villa she rented and took out the key to open the door.

After entering the villa, Ciara and the others briefly scanned the interior of the villa.

Although the villa looked very ordinary from the outside, the interior decoration style of the villa was unique. At the very least, Ciara and the others were very satisfied.

Ciara sat on the sofa and whispered, “Mina, thank you!”

“It’s okay, as long as you’re satisfied!” Mina replied indifferently.

“The environment here is quite good. I’m going to decorate this place briefly later, and then I’ll ask my friends to come over to my birthday party tomorrow!”

Ciara said with a smile.

The main reason why she asked Mina to rent a house in Porthampton was that some of Clara’s friends were studying here. In the past, Ciara had always celebrated her birthday in her hometown. However, this time, she wanted to show off in front of her friends.

“Ding, ding, ding...”

At this moment, Mina’s phone suddenly rang!

Mina glanced at the name on her phone and said softly, “The landlord called me. I’m going to answer the call!”

After saying this, Mina turned around and left.

“Ciara, how do you plan to decorate this villa?” Sasha walked to Clara’s side and asked her softly.

Ciara thought for a moment and said, “I haven’t thought about how to decorate it yet, but we still have to buy some things. We can come back and think about how to decorate it; after all, a birthday party has to look like a birthday party!”

After Yves heard Ciara’s words, he quickly said, “Sure, I’m more familiar with the situation in Porthampton, and my chauffeur is still waiting outside. Tell me what you want to buy, and I’ll take you there!”

“That’s great!”

Ciara naturally would not reject Yves. After thinking for a moment, she said softly, “I think that although this villa’s interior is not bad, but the lighting facilities seem to be quite ordinary. Why don’t we go and get some colorful lights first?”

“Leave the lighting to me. I’ll call my friends now and ask them to send some lanterns over!” Yves replied casually. Then, he took out his phone and was about to make a call. However, just as Yves took out his phone, he saw a message.

Yves quickly opened the message and realized that it was a photo. The person in the photo was Connor!

“Mr. Lynn, this kid is the poor loser from our school. I don’t know if you met this Connor!” Immediately after, a message was sent. When Yves saw the message, a sinister smile flashed across his face. He then turned around and walked towards Ciara.

Now that he had this photo, it could prove that Connor was not a rich heir at all, but was rather a complete liar.

“Ciara, I found the photo!”

Yves whispered to Ciara.

When Ciara heard Yves’s words, a hint of excitement flashed across her eyes!

Chapter 469: The Landlord’s Phone Call

“Really?”

When Clara heard Yves’s words, a hint of excitement flashed across her eyes.

“Yes, the photo that my friend sent me is Connor. This means that Connor is not some rich heir at all—he’s just a poor loser from our school...”

Yves quickly nodded. Then, he took out his cell phone and handed it to Ciara.

Ciara reached out and took Yves's phone. She looked at it seriously and confirmed that the person in the photo was Connor.

Although this photo was taken when Connor first joined the Zither Club, Connor was still a freshman at that time. However, one could still tell that the person in the photo was indeed Connor.

"I didn't expect this Connor to be a fake rich heir!"

Ciara looked at the photo on her phone and could not help but sneer. Then, she continued, "Connor had the nerve to say that he had a villa in Royal Villas. That's hilarious. Why would someone not live in a good villa and instead rent out a room with someone else?"

"Ciara, let's go find Mina and expose Connor!"

Yves said excitedly to Ciara.

"Right!"

Ciara felt that she already had evidence in her hands. She would definitely not let go of such a good opportunity. She immediately picked up her phone and walked towards Mina.

At this moment, Mina had just finished her phone call, but her expression was a little ugly. She didn't know what the person on the phone had said to her.

"Mina, we have something to tell you!"

Ciara called out to Mina.

When Mina heard Clara's words, she sighed helplessly and whispered, "Ciara, I also have something to tell you..."

“You have something to tell me too?”

When Ciara heard Mina’s words, she was stunned. However, when she saw that Mina’s expression seemed a little off, she quickly asked, “Mina, what do you want to tell me?”

“Ciara, the owner of the villa called me just now. He said that he won’t be renting this house to us for the time being because his parents will be coming back from overseas tomorrow.”

Mina said to Ciara with a helpless expression.

“What?”

When Ciara heard Mina’s words, she was stunned on the spot, and her expression was extremely ugly.

“Ciara, I’m so sorry...”

Mina said apologetically to Ciara.

Ciara stood rooted to the ground with a blank look on her face. For a moment, she did not know what to say. After all, she had already informed her friends in Porthampton to come to her birthday party tomorrow. If the landlord wanted to take back the villa now, then Ciara would have no place to hold her birthday party.

“Mina, are you joking with me?”

Ciara was not in the mood to tell Mina about Connor now. After all, if she could not hold a birthday party tomorrow, it would be a fatal blow to her.

“Ciara, I’m not joking. The landlord just called me and said that he’s not going to rent this house anymore...”

Mina was also embarrassed. After all, she knew how important this birthday party was to Ciara.

“Then can’t we give him more money now?”

Ciara bit her lips and whispered.

“I told the landlord just now. I said that I would give him double the price, but he refused...” Mina replied helplessly.

When Ciara heard Mina’s words, she was completely dumbfounded. Her eyes instantly turned red, and her expression was very aggrieved.

It was almost seven o’clock in the evening now. Even if they were to look for a new house, it would definitely be too late. However, now that the house was suddenly not going to be rented to them, it meant that they might not be able to hold Clara’s birthday party.

Ciara, who had been so smug just a moment ago, suddenly had an ugly expression on her face! She was a girl with a strong sense of vanity. In order to make her birthday party look more presentable, she had specially asked Mina to help her find a villa in the city. However, she had never expected things to turn out this way.

At this moment, Sasha ran to Clara’s side and asked with a puzzled expression, “Ciara, why are your eyes red?”

“It’s all my fault. Just now, the landlord called me and said that he’s not renting this villa to us!”

Mina looked at Sasha helplessly and explained softly.

“Not renting it to us?”

When Sasha heard this, she was stunned for a moment before she shouted, "Then what about Ciara's birthday party? Ciara has already informed her friends in Porthampton. If they can't hold this birthday party tomorrow, how is Ciara going to explain it to them?"

"That's right. Ciara has been planning this birthday party for such a long time. We can't just not have a birthday party just because this villa won't be rented to us anymore, right?"

Mavis hurriedly shouted.

"Mina, can you communicate with this landlord again?" Dustin took a step forward and whispered to Mina.

"I've already begged the landlord several times just now. I said all kinds of good things, but he just refuses to rent the house to us, or his parents won't have a place to live..." Mina replied helplessly.

After Connor heard the conversation between these people, he seemed to have guessed what had happened, but he still stood quietly in place and did not speak.

"It's almost seven o'clock in the evening now. If we go out to look for a house, we definitely won't be able to find one. Moreover, we might not be able to find a suitable one!"

Dustin whispered as he looked at Ciara, whose eyes were red.

When Sasha heard this, she was stunned for a moment. Then, she hurriedly looked at Yves's position and shouted, "Mr. Lynn, didn't you say that you have a villa? Why don't you lend us your villa?"

Yves did not expect that this matter would involve him. He was stunned for a moment, then said with a troubled expression, "Well, my family stays in my villa. If I suddenly bring you back now, my parents will definitely not agree..." "Mr. Lynn, your family is so rich. You should have more than one villa, right?" Sasha quickly continued.

"Uh..."

Yves was a little speechless by Sasha's words. He said helplessly, "I do have other villas, but none of them have been renovated, and they are all dilapidated. Even if you go over, you won't be able to do anything!"

When everyone heard Yves's words, they were all stunned on the spot. Actually, they could also tell that Yves just did not want to lend them the house..

Chapter 470: Stop Acting!

"Then what should we do now?" Sasha shouted.

But at this moment, Mavis suddenly shouted, "By the way, other than Mr. Lynn, doesn't one of us have a villa?"

When everyone heard this, they turned their heads to look at Connor. Connor was also instinctively stunned.

Just now, Connor did say that he also had a villa, and this villa was in the most famous villa district in Porthampton, Royal Villas!

Of course, the most unbelievable thing was that Connor actually said that his villa was the mansion in the area. The mansion was the most luxurious villa in the whole of Porthampton, worth hundreds of millions. Ordinary people were not qualified to live in that villa.

When Connor said that, everyone thought that he was bragging and even laughed at him.

But now, the landlord wanted to take back Mina's rented villa, and Yves obviously didn't want to lend them his villa. They could only pin their hopes on Connor.

Although everyone knew that the words that Connor said before were probably just bragging, if that villa really belonged to him, wouldn't the current problem be solved?

"Connor, is that villa yours or not?" Sasha shouted at Connor anxiously.

“Yeah, Connor, if that villa is really yours, then you can lend it to us for a night. Ciara has been preparing for this birthday party for a few days, and we’ve come all the way here. If we go back just because we don’t have a suitable villa, it’s not worth it, right?”

Mavis also hurriedly shouted.

At this moment, the two girls had not seen the photo in Yves’s hand. They did not know if Connor was really a rich heir, so they begged Connor so earnestly.

However, after Connor heard Sasha and Mavis’s words, he ignored them.

Connor felt that Mina must have a reason for bringing these people to this villa instead of the one in Royal Villas.

But Connor didn’t know why Mina did this. He was worried that if he agreed, it would affect Mina. More importantly, Connor did not have any good feelings for girls like Ciara and Sasha. Why should he lend the villa to them?

Connor couldn’t wait for their birthday party to fail so that he could go home earlier.

“Connor, what are you doing there? Say something? Is that villa yours or not? If it’s not yours, you should have told us earlier. We’ll think of another way. If it’s yours, then lend us the villa!” Sasha shouted at Connor excitedly when she saw him standing there without saying a word.

Connor couldn’t help but hesitate when he heard Sasha’s words. He then looked up at Mina’s position, wanting to ask for her opinion.

After all, the key to the villa was in Mina’s hands, and these people were all her friends!

At this moment, Mina’s expression was very conflicted. She did not know if she should agree or not.

Mina still felt that this villa didn't belong to Connor at all. She thought Connor was just working in the showroom and had stolen the key to the villa.

If she really brought Ciara and the others over, they would no longer suspect Connor's identity. However, if the owner of the villa found out, they would probably be in deep trouble. This was also a problem that Mina had been struggling with.

"Mina, it's already this time, stop acting with us!"

But at that moment, Ciara suddenly called out.

The others were still waiting for Connor's reply, but Ciara already had an answer in her heart. Because she knew that Connor was not a rich heir at all, and that villa could not belong to Connor. Whether Connor agreed or not, it would not affect him at all.

Therefore, Ciara planned to expose Connor's true colors in front of so many people. Since her birthday party was ruined, no one would have a good time!

"Acting?"

Mina looked at Ciara with a puzzled expression. She didn't know what she meant by that, so she asked, "Ciara, what kind of show did you put on?"

"You know very well what kind of show you're putting on!"

Ciara smiled disdainfully and walked up to Connor. She looked at Connor with disdain and said coldly, "Just now, Yves found a photo of Connor. He's not some rich heir at all. He's just a poor loser who delivers food!"

"Mina, I think you should also know Connor's identity, so you've been covering for him, right? This Connor shouldn't be your boyfriend, right? You brought him here to lie to us so that you can cover up the fact that you're being kept by a rich man!"

Ciara was in a very bad mood at the moment, so she naturally did not leave any room for negotiation.

When Mina heard Clara's words, she was stunned. Other than the fact that Mina was being kept by a rich man, Ciara was right about everything else. This was what shocked Mina the most, because she did not expect Ciara to really find out Connor's true identity.

The others were also shocked. They stared at Ciara with wide eyes.

They knew very well that since Ciara had already said so, it meant that Ciara must have obtained very important evidence.

Connor, on the other hand, stood where he was calmly. After all, Connor knew very well whether he was a rich heir or not.

Even if Ciara had any evidence, it was impossible to change the fact that he was, in fact, a rich heir!

"Ciara, don't be so agitated. After all, Connor is Mina's boyfriend. Isn't it a little inappropriate for you to say that?"

Dustin was still a loyal person. He felt that Ciara's words were too overboard, so he could not help but stand up and speak softly.

"Not appropriate?"

Ciara sneered, then turned to look at Mina and shouted, "It's not appropriate for me to say that? Then is it appropriate for Mina to lie to us? Everyone knew that she definitely has a sugar daddy, but she just didn't want to admit it. Now, she actually got a poor loser to pretend to be her boyfriend. Isn't what she did even more overboard?"

"Ciara, it's not what you think!" Mina couldn't help but stand up, wanting to explain herself.

"If it's not what I think, then what is it like?"

Ciara smiled disdainfully.. Then, she took out Yves's cell phone and shouted at the crowd, "You can take a good look at this photo to see if the person in it is Connor!"
