Chapter 471: Let's Go to My Villa and Take a Look

When Ciara took out Yves' phone, everyone was stunned.

Mina was also stunned on the spot, and her expression became nervous.

At this moment, she thought about how to explain this later!

"Let me see what photo it is!" Sasha was naturally the one who wanted to see Connor make a fool of himself. After all, Connor had humiliated her in front of so many people at Immortal Lake Manor.

Therefore, Sasha quickly reached out and took the phone from Clara's hand. Then, she carefully sized up Connor in the photo and Connor who was standing beside them.

"This must be Connor. Although Connor was more of a loser at that time, this must be him!" Ciara said firmly.

"Let me take a look too..."

Mavis also hurriedly reached out to take the phone and carefully observed it. Then, she said softly, "That's right, this is Connor!"

Calvin and Dustin also looked at the photo on their phones and realized it was indeed Connor.

"Ciara, this is indeed Connor, but I don't think you can doubt Connor's identity just because of a photo, right?" Dustin did not want this to get ugly, so he whispered to Ciara.

"That's right, Ciara. This photo is just an ordinary headshot. It doesn't prove anything at all!" Calvin hurriedly added.

“Of course, the photo doesn’t prove anything, but any student of Porthampton University knows the person in the photo. This person is the famous poor loser of Porthampton University. He usually relies on delivering food to make a living. He can’t even afford his tuition fees and is often bullied by others. Since the person in the photo is Connor, and the two have the same name, this kid is the poor loser at our university!” At this moment, Yves suddenly stood up and pointed at Connor.

When everyone heard Yves’ words, they were all stunned. They were extremely shocked.

The photo just now could not prove anything, but if it matched what Yves said now, it could prove Connor’s true identity.

“I didn’t expect this Connor to be a poor loser!” Sasha covered her mouth and could not help but exclaim.

“Yeah, I was a little suspicious of his identity before. If Connor was really a rich heir, then he shouldn’t be so low-key. I didn’t expect this Connor to be a poor loser!” Mavis hurriedly added.

“Connor, you’re so disgusting. You pretended to be a rich heir. Why don’t you take a piss and look at yourself? You don’t look like a crown prince even if you wear a royal robe!”

“That’s right. You were even looking down on us just now. You’re so shameless. Mina, even if you want to find someone to pretend to be your boyfriend, you should find someone normal, right?”

After Mavis and Sasha knew Connor’s true identity, they naturally had nothing to fear. They mocked Connor in a very vicious tone.

Dustin and Calvin, who could still help Connor to speak up, did not dare to say anything at this time. After all, with so much evidence in front of them, they could not continue to speak up for Connor.

A smug look flashed in Clara’s eyes. After all, this was what she wanted to see. Since her birthday party would not happen anyway, no one would be able to have it easy!

“Mina, is there anything else you want to say?” Ciara walked up to Mina and asked her provocatively.

Mina stood where she was and took a deep breath. Then, she was prepared to admit that Connor was indeed an actor she had found and was not a rich heir at all!

Mina's reason for admitting these things was very simple. She couldn't bear to let these people continue to mock Connor because she felt that these people's words were simply an insult to Connor's character.

"Ciara, Sasha, Mavis, I..." Mina opened her mouth to speak.

Connor suddenly walked before Mina and said softly, "Mina, I just recalled I gave you the keys to the villa, right?"

Mina heard Connor's words and couldn't help but be stunned momentarily. Then, she looked up at Connor with a puzzled expression.

"Since your friends want to go to Royal Villas, let's take them there!" Connor looked at Mina and continued.

"But..."

Mina bit her lip and didn't dare to voice her assumption. If she did, these people would only laugh at Connor even more.

"There's no buts. That villa was mine, to begin with, and I said before that I would lend this villa to you, but I don't know why you suddenly changed your mind. Since this villa can't be used anymore, let's go to my villa and look!" Connor calmly said to Mina.

Mina's eyes were dull as she stood there, not knowing what to say.

"Connor, why are you still putting up an act with us? You're just a poor loser. How can you own a villa?" Ciara shouted at Connor.

“Won’t you know if I have a villa or not when you go over and take a look?” Connor replied to Ciara indifferently and then walked out of the villa.

When Mina saw that Connor was planning to leave, she quickly grabbed Connor, then whispered, “Connor, it’s getting late today, and your villa is quite far from here. Why don’t we go another day?”

“Why do we have to go another day? Aren’t they having a birthday party tomorrow?” Connor replied indifferently and then continued to walk out of the villa.

Everyone was already confused by Connor’s behavior and was very puzzled.

If Connor wasn’t the villa’s owner, why would he take the initiative to bring people over?

If they went over later and discovered that the villa was not Connor’s, wouldn’t he be asking for humiliation?

Mina became even more confused. She felt she had already given Connor a way out, so Connor had no reason to go over!

“What is Connor trying to do?”

Seeing Connor taking the initiative to bring them to the villa to take a look, they began to retreat because they couldn’t understand Connor’s current behavior..

Chapter 472: The Royal Villas

“Connor, why don’t we just forget about it? It’s a little late today, and Clara’s birthday party is only tomorrow night. We’ll go to the agency in the morning to take a look.” Dustin was timid, and he didn’t want to see Ciara and Mina make things too awkward, so he couldn’t help but persuade Connor again.

After Connor heard what Dustin said, he could not help but turn around and glance at Dustin.

Originally, in Connor's eyes, Dustin and Calvin were both snobbish people who would curry favor with whoever had money. But now, Connor's impression of these two people had changed.

However, Connor did not seem to want to change his mind. Instead, he continued to walk out of the villa.

After everyone saw Connor leave the villa, they were very puzzled. They couldn't understand why Connor was doing this!

"What is this Connor thinking? Dustin has already made it obvious just now, but he still wants to bring us to the villa..." Sasha sighed in confusion.

"Yeah, could the villa really belong to Connor?" Mavis frowned and said.

"Ciara, what should we do now?" Sasha hesitated before asking Ciara softly.

"What else can we do? Since Connor wants to take a look, let's go over and take a look. I want to see how Connor will explain when he can't open the villa's door later!" Ciara smiled disdainfully. At this moment, she was already certain that Connor was not some rich heir. Otherwise, Mina would not have been rendered speechless by her words just now.

"Mina, since Connor said so, let's go and look!" Mavis turned her head and called out to Mina softly.

Mina took a deep breath. She knew that even if she didn't go with them, she couldn't change anything. So, she could only smile bitterly and leave the villa with the others.

"Some people really won't shed tears until they see the coffin. I want to see if he lives in Royal Villas today. My driver is waiting outside." At this moment, Yves also stood up and said disdainfully.

"Yes!" Ciara quickly agreed.

Everyone followed Yves out of the villa.

After leaving the villa, Yves asked his chauffeur to drive Connor and the others to Royal Villas.

Ciara and the others had never been to Royal Villas before. They had only heard of Royal Villas before. They were very excited to see the most luxurious villa complex in Porthampton with their own eyes.

As for whether Royal No. 1 was Connor's house or not, they were not that concerned because they felt Connor could not afford such an expensive villa at all.

Mina sat in the car and looked at Connor anxiously. Then, she whispered, "Connor, Dustin gave you a way out just now. Why are you still bringing these people to Royal Villas? What if they find out that the villa isn't yours?"

"It's okay. We have the key to that villa. They won't find out!" Connor replied to Mina calmly.

"But..." Mina wanted to say something but was afraid that her words would hurt Connor's pride, so she swallowed the words on the tip of her tongue.

Mina was very clear that Connor had the key to the villa. Since Connor was so confident that he could bring them to see the house, it meant that the key that Connor gave Mina was real.

However, Mina felt Connor must have stolen the key from the showroom. If Ciara wanted to hold a birthday party in this villa, it would run for at least two days. How could she guarantee that no one would find out in these two days? How could he guarantee that the owner of this villa would not suddenly return? If the villa's owner found them, they might be chased out or even thought that Connor and the others were thieves. They might even be sent to the police station. By then, things might become even more troublesome.

However, Mina could not bear to expose Connor in front of so many people, so she could only think about what excuse she should use to get Ciara and the others out when they entered the villa.

This was because they were only going in to take a look. If they did not stay for long, they should not be discovered. Even if they were discovered, they should not be treated as thieves.

Just as Mina was thinking about these questions, the BMW slowly stopped before a luxurious villa.

When the crowd saw the words 'Royal Villas', their eyes widened in shock.

"As expected of the number one villa district in Porthampton. Looking at this door, it's not something other villa districts can compare to..." Sasha could not help but sigh softly after getting out of the car.

"That's right. If I can live in such a villa area, I'll die without regrets!" Mavis added.

"We definitely won't have the chance to live in such a villa area, but we can use Connor's key to go in and look!" Sasha said sarcastically, then turned to Connor and said, "Connor, don't you think so?"

A hint of displeasure flashed across his face when Connor heard Sasha's mocking.

Naturally, he could understand what Sasha meant by her words, so he ignored her and continued walking forward.

"I didn't expect this Connor to be so cold. He ignored me..." Seeing Connor enter the villa ground, she smiled faintly and turned to Ciara. "Ciara, let's go in too!" "Yes!" Ciara replied softly before she walked into the villa complex.

However, just as Connor was about to enter the villa area, the security guard from the security room suddenly rushed out and shouted at Connor, "Who are you? Why did you come in?"

After seeing the security guard rush out, Connor was stunned.

Previously, when Connor came here to look at the house, Chloe had always accompanied him. Connor had only come once late at night, so the security guard overlooked Connor.

However, it was different this time. It was exactly seven o'clock in the evening, the peak period for villa owners to return home.

Moreover, Connor and his group were too big a target, so it was inevitable that the security guards would be on guard!

Chapter 473: The Most Luxurious Villa

After hearing the security guard's question, Connor was stunned momentarily. Then, he looked up at the security guard and said expressionlessly, "I'm here to look at the villa!"

"Look at the villa? Are you an owner at Royal Villas?"

When the security guard heard Connor's words, he was surprised. Then, he scanned Connor and seemed even more puzzled.

Those who could live in Royal Villas were big shots in Porthampton. They were the top in Porthampton. Ordinary people could not afford to buy a house here.

The security guard saw that Connor's clothes were very ordinary. He did not look like a rich person at all, so it was normal for him to suspect Connor's identity.

"Mr. McDonald the Tycoon, we can't even enter the villa, right?" Sasha said disdainfully when she saw Connor being stopped by the security guard.

"Didn't you just say you wanted to bring us in to see your villa? Now, you can't even enter the villa. What's wrong with you?" Mavis added.

Ciara and Yves revealed a disdainful smile because they had already expected this situation. Even if beaten to death, they would never believe Connor would own a house here.

"Connor, why don't we go back!" Mina felt that something was wrong. After hesitating, she whispered to Connor.

"Go back?" Connor smiled faintly and said softly, "Since we're already here, why must we go back?"

After saying this, Connor walked to the security guard and said expressionlessly, "You can check now if there's a landlord named Connor McDonald in this neighborhood!"

When the security guard heard Connor's words, he was shocked. The expression on his face became awkward.

He felt that if Connor weren't the owner of this place, he definitely wouldn't be so calm when he stopped him!

So the security guard hesitated, then narrowed his eyes and asked Connor softly, "Are you really an owner here?"

"I told you, if you don't believe me, you can check it out now!" Connor replied again.

"You guys go in first. I'll look for a landlord named Connor McDonald later. If I find out you're lying to me later, I'll chase you out!" The security guard was worried that if Connor was really the owner and he offended Connor because of this, he might lose his job.

That was why the security guards agreed to let Connor and the others enter first.

When Ciara, Yves, and the others saw that the security guards had let Connor in, they instantly became puzzled. This was because they felt that Connor should not have been able to enter under normal circumstances!

However, Connor did not bother with these people and directly walked into the community.

"I didn't expect the security of Royal Villas to be so weak!" Yves could not help but sigh softly. Then, he followed Connor into the neighborhood.

After entering the neighborhood, everyone did not think much about Connor being stopped by the security guards. After all, they all felt that Connor's entry into the neighborhood did not mean that he was an owner in the neighborhood, nor did it mean that he really owned a villa here.

As Yves had said, even the security of Royal Villas might not be very good.

“Isn’t this neighborhood beautiful?” Sasha took out her phone and began to take pictures of the scenery in the neighborhood.

The layout of Royal Villas was designed according to the medieval aristocratic garden, so after entering the community, it was as if they had traveled into an ancient Europe palace.

Sasha and the others had never been to Royal Villas before, so they were all shocked by the scene inside.

“Royal Villas is located on Spring Hills. As the highest hill in Porthampton, you can see the beautiful night view of Porthampton. Royal No. 1 is the most luxurious villa in Royal Villas. It not only has an open-air swimming pool, a mini golf course, a private football field, a rockery, a lake, sculptures, a basketball court, and other facilities but also has a private exhibition hall, which can be used to display the private collections of the villa owner!” Yves seemed to know a lot about Royal No. 1, so he started to talk to everyone.

When Connor heard what Yves said, he was a little surprised because he had never heard of what Yves said. Connor only knew that his villa was very expensive.

“I didn’t expect Royal No. 1 to be so cool!” Ciara could not help but sigh softly. Then, she continued, “I wonder who can live in such a villa!”

“There aren’t many people in Porthampton who can afford this villa. Thomas Morgan and Kyle Hayes are one of them, but neither bought this villa. They probably thought that the price of this villa was a little too high, so a mysterious rich man bought it. But I don’t know who that rich man is either...” Yves replied calmly.

“If you can sell such a house, you should be able to earn a lot of money, right?” Sasha blinked and said softly.

“Yes, this house was built by the CEO of Evergrande Real Estate, Hendrick Canfield. Canfield wanted to build a unique luxury villa community, but after the house was built, a problem embarrassed Canfield!” Yves explained.

“What’s the problem?” Ciara quickly asked.

“The problem is that the construction cost of Royal Villas is too high, so the price is naturally much higher than other villas. For a time, the villas here were unsalable. Hendrick had bet all his assets on Royal Villas. It took half a year to sell a few villas, and they were all small villas. As for Royal No. 1, the king villa of Royal Villas, no one cared about it at all. Not even many people came to ask for the price!” Yves said slowly.

When Connor heard this, he could not help but turn to look at Yves.

At this moment, he finally understood why Chloe Lawson was so excited when she sold this villa to him..

Chapter 474: Is That Villa Yours?

“What happened after that? How was Royal No. 1 sold?” Clara seemed to be very interested in what Yves said and quickly asked.

“Later on, the mysterious rich man from Porthampton appeared. It was said that this rich man first bought two townhouses in Royal Villas and then gave them to one of the sales ladies. Not long after that, he bought Royal No. 1!” Yves seemed very familiar with Connor’s matters and spoke as if he knew everything.

“This saleslady is so lucky! If you can give me these two villas, I’ll wake up laughing even in my dreams!” Ciara covered her mouth and could not help but exclaim.

“That’s right, this saleslady has such great luck...” Sasha hurriedly piqued.

When Yves heard Sasha and Clara’s conversation, he smiled disdainfully and said indifferently, “You two don’t understand. Not only is that saleslady lucky, but she also has a good figure and looks...”

“Huh?” When the girls heard Yves’s words, they were stunned.

“The saleslady is called Chloe Lawson. When I went to the showroom to look at the villas, she received me once. She was indeed very beautiful and sexy. The people in the sales department said that Chloe was the mistress of that rich man. That’s why he gave the villa to Chloe. Moreover, Chloe became the vice president of Evergrande Real Estate because she sold Royal No. 1!” Yves said with a smile.

“It’s easy when you’re good-looking. No matter what you do, you have the help of a nouveau riche...”

Ciara subconsciously glanced at Mina, who was not far away. Her eyes were filled with jealousy. She was very jealous of people like Chloe and Mina. After all, such women did not have to do anything. They could get everything they wanted just by their looks.

Mina knew very well what Ciara meant but was not in the mood to pay attention to Ciara.

“And? What happened to Chloe?” Sasha asked Yves.

“Hehe, two days ago, I heard that the tycoon bought Evergrande Real Estate and made Chloe the general manager of Evergrande Real Estate!” Yves replied with a smile and continued, “I have to say, this tycoon is indeed wealthy. He bought such a big real estate company just like that. Chloe’s really lucky. In less than two months, she went from a showroom to the CEO of Evergrande Real Estate!”

After Ciara, Sasha, and the other girls heard Yves’s story, they became even more envious.

This story was so dramatic!

“When can I meet such a rich tycoon?” Ciara sighed softly.

“Of course, it’s good to meet a tycoon, but I’m afraid of meeting a poor loser who impersonates a tycoon!” Sasha smiled.

“That’s right.” Ciara quickly nodded and smiled. “Even if I can’t meet a rich man, I don’t want to be tricked by a poor loser. If I get tricked by him, I’ll be in trouble...”

“Ciara, what do you mean by that?” Hearing Clara’s words, Mina finally couldn’t hold it in anymore. She frowned and shouted.

“Mina, don’t overthink. I wasn’t talking about you, I was just lamenting!” Ciara quickly replied. Then, she turned to Connor and asked, “Connor, where is your villa? Why aren’t we there yet!”

“That’s the one up in front!” Connor pointed at the most luxurious villa before him and replied very indifferently.

Everyone was stunned.

“Connor, are you joking with us? Are you saying this villa is your house?” Ciara’s fox-like eyes widened as she exclaimed in surprise.

“Do you think I’m in the mood to joke with you?” Connor said calmly.

“Hehe, Connor, what the f*ck are you pretending for? Do you know what that villa is?” Yves asked Connor with a sneer.

“What is it?” Connor turned and looked at Yves indifferently as he asked very calmly.

“You don’t even know what that villa is, and you dare to claim the villa is yours. You’re such a joker...” Yves said expressionlessly. Then, he pointed at the villa and said loudly, “For your information, that villa is Royal No. 1. A mysterious rich man in Porthampton has bought it. How dare you say that this villa is yours?”

Yves felt Connor couldn’t even afford the cheapest villa here, let alone Royal No. 1.

“The mysterious rich man you mentioned just now is me. I bought this villa. Also, Chloe is not my mistress. Chloe and 1 are just friends!” Connor said to Yves expressionlessly.

“Would... Would it kill you not to brag? If 1 didn't mention that just now, you might not even know who Chloe Lawson is!” Yves's eyes widened as he shouted at Connor agitatedly.

Connor smiled coldly at Yves and did not explain anything.

He felt that he didn't need to explain this at all. As long as he opened the door of Royal No. 1, everything would be solved.

Everyone looked at Connor in a daze. They felt that all of this was really unbelievable.

“Is there something wrong with Connor's brain? He claims that Royal No. 1 was his?”

“Yeah, I think Connor must be crazy. Why else would he dare to say that Royal No. 1 is his?”

“Hehe, in my opinion, Connor is a madman!” Sasha, Mavis, and the others couldn't help but discuss softly.

Mina was worried because she knew from what Yves said that the owner of this villa seemed to be very influential.

She was now a little worried that if she really brought Ciara and the others into the villa, they would be in deep trouble if the villa's owner found out. After all, such a rich man was not someone ordinary people like them could afford to provoke!

“What is this Connor trying to do? 1 gave him a way out just now. Why did he have to bring Yves and the others over? What if something happened?” Mina muttered in despair..

Chapter 475: I Have The Key

After Mina heard what Yves had said, she started to feel a little scared.

After all, the person who could buy Royal No. 1 must be very powerful.

If Connor brought them into the villa and the owner found out, the consequences would be unimaginable.

So after thinking for a while, Mina felt she shouldn't just stand by and watch this happen. She had to do something!

However, at this moment, they had already reached the gate of Royal No. 1.

Just by looking at the main door of the villa, everyone could feel that Royal No.

1 was very different from other villas. It was much more luxurious than ordinary villas.

Ciara turned and glanced at Connor. Then, with a contemptuous expression, she said, "Connor, didn't you say that this villa is yours? So open the gate and let us in!"

"Yeah, I want to see if you have the key to this villa!" Sasha hurriedly shouted as well. Her eyes were filled with disdain for Connor.

Connor turned to look at Mina, and then lightly said, "Did you bring the key?"

"I..." Mina opened her mouth to speak.

"If you've brought them, open the gate and let them in to look..."

Connor knew that Mina had the key with her, so he didn't wait for Mina to finish her sentence before speaking.

Mina looked at Connor and hesitated before saying softly, "Connor, why don't we go back?"

"That's right, Connor. Stop acting here. If you admit this villa isn't yours now, we won't laugh at you!" Mavis said with a smile.

At this moment, everyone felt this villa couldn't belong to Connor.

If they didn't know the value of this villa, they might have thought otherwise.

But now, they all knew that this villa was the most luxurious in Porthampton. Not to mention that Connor was just a poor loser who delivered food; even if Connor was a rich heir, he would not be able to afford this villa.

"Since they're already here, open the door and let them in!"

Connor saw Mina standing there without saying anything and said to her indifferently.

"But..." Mina hesitated, then whispered, "Connor, I didn't bring the key. Let's go back!"

At this moment, no matter what, Mina could not let Connor bring these people into the villa.

If they went in, the nature of the matter would change. But if they didn't go in, at most, Connor's impersonation of a rich heir would be exposed. There wouldn't be any other consequences.

"You didn't bring the key?" When Connor heard Mina's words, he couldn't help but be stunned. He raised his eyebrows and said softly, "It's okay if you didn't bring the key. I did..."

After saying this, Connor took a spare key from his pocket and walked toward the villa's door.

Mina was stunned when she saw Connor take out another key. Her face was filled with shock.

She did not expect Connor to have a spare key with him!

What was even more difficult for Mina to understand was why Connor insisted on bringing Ciara and the others into the villa. Wasn't Connor worried about being discovered?

There were three keys to this villa. Two were in Connor's hands, and the other was with Chloe. It was convenient for Chloe to call someone to help Connor clean up!

Connor had lent his key to Mina, so he still had a key in his hand.

When Ciara and the others saw that Connor had taken out the key, they were all stunned. They seemed extremely shocked.

"Is Connor really the owner of Royal No. 1?" Sasha could not help but mutter softly. It was obvious that she was starting to waver.

"What nonsense are you talking about?" When Ciara heard Sasha's words, she could not help but scold her coldly. Then, she continued, "Look at Connor. He's so poor. Do you think he can afford Royal No. 1?"

"So why does he have the key to the villa?" Sasha replied helplessly.

"Do you believe him just because he said so? He hasn't opened the gate of the villa yet. How do you know if he took out a random key to fool us?" Ciara scolded coldly.

"Makes sense..." Sasha nodded thoughtfully and did not say anything.

Connor took the key and walked to the gate of the villa. Then, under everyone's gaze, he directly opened the gate.

When the door opened, everyone was stunned. Their mouths were wide open, and their faces were filled with shock.

They had never expected Connor to have the key to this villa!

Everyone was shocked.

No one expected Connor to open the gate of Royal No. 1.

“How... How is that possible?” Yves exclaimed, his eyes widened.

“Is... Is Connor really the owner of this villa?” Ciara hurriedly said.

Mina’s eyes flashed with despair because she knew very well that from the moment the door of the villa opened, this was already out of her control.

Everything would be over if anyone found out that they had sneaked in.

Mina really couldn’t understand why Connor would do this!

“What are you guys still standing there for? Didn’t you want to come in and take a look? You can come in now...” Connor walked into the villa but found that Yves, Ciara, and the others were standing rooted to their spots as if they had no intention of coming in at all.

“Conn... Connor, is this villa really yours?” Ciara hesitated, then couldn’t help but gasp. She asked Connor anxiously.

“What do you think?” Connor replied to Ciara playfully before walking straight into the villa.

Ciara turned to look at Yves and asked with a puzzled expression, “Yves, is your information accurate? Didn’t you say that Connor was a poor loser who delivered food? How could a delivery man afford such a luxurious villa?”

When Yves heard Clara's words, he was trembling.

He was starting to doubt whether his friend was telling the truth!

Chapter 476: Confess to Mina

After seeing Connor open the door of the villa, everyone present went silent.

They felt like they were dreaming.

The people who had previously suspected Connor's identity no longer dared to suspect Connor the moment the villa's door opened.

To be able to buy such a villa that was worth hundreds of millions, what else could he be but a tycoon?

"Is the mysterious tycoon in Porthampton Connor?"

Yves muttered with a puzzled expression.

"Yves, is your friend reliable? If Connor is really a rich heir, then we have greatly offended him today!"

Ciara shouted at Yves as if she was a little afraid.

"I... I don't know either..."

Yves gritted his teeth and replied helplessly.

"Alright, don't just stand there. Go in and take a look!"

Since Connor had already opened the door to the villa and had already developed to this point, even if Mina left, it wouldn't change anything.

Therefore, she wanted Ciara and the others to go in and take a look so that they could leave this place as soon as possible.

When Ciara and the others heard Mina's words, they could not help but hesitate for a moment. Then, they walked into the villa one after another.

After entering the villa, everyone present, including Mina, was shocked by the interior decoration of the villa.

This was because they had never seen such a luxurious villa in their lives. The floor was paved with black marble, the tiles were as bright as mirrors, and the gorgeous crystal chandelier emitted a dazzling light. The magnificent design and the golden decorations made the owner of this villa look even more brilliant.

Moreover, Yves knew that the antique paintings hanging on the walls of this villa were all priceless. Any one of them would cost tens of millions!

Just imagine, how rich must a tycoon be to be able to live in such a villa?

They really couldn't relate the shabbily dressed Connor to such a luxurious villa.

In an instant, everyone was stunned. No one dared to move casually.

They were all worried that if they broke the things in the villa, they wouldn't be able to afford it even if they sold themselves.

However, Connor looked relaxed. He sat on the sofa and said calmly, "This villa has four floors. Haven't you always wanted to come in and take a look? Now you can look around freely!"

When everyone heard Connor's words, they still did not have any reaction. They stood at the door with their mouths agape and did not dare to move.

"Co... Connor, this villa... Is it really yours?"

Ciara hesitated for a couple of seconds before she stuttered and asked Connor.

"You've asked me this question before. Now that I've already opened the door for you, don't you believe that this villa is mine?"

Connor said lightly.

Everyone looked at Connor with extremely shocked expressions on their faces. They were so shocked that they were even somewhat speechless.

They felt that the things that happened today were too unbelievable.

"How is that possible?"

"This is the most luxurious villa in Porthampton. The price is at least 300 million dollars. Those who can live in this villa must be worth at least 1 billion dollars. You're just an ordinary person, so how could you afford to buy this villa?"

Yves felt as if there were 10,000 wild horses galloping past his head. He really could not believe that Connor was actually the owner of the villa!

Sasha Stein, Mavis Cage, Dustin Ward, Calvin Young, and the others all widened their eyes and mouths in shock!

Dustin's family was in the real estate business, so he knew very well how much this villa was worth.

Connor, who was dressed so ordinarily, could actually live in such a shocking villa. They simply could not believe it!

“Since things have already reached this point, we can only let nature take its course!”

Mina was also very shocked, but she could still maintain a trace of calmness because only she knew that Connor was not the owner of this villa.

Connor was only able to come in because he got the key from the showroom.

After saying this, Mina directly walked into the villa.

Ciara and the others hesitated for a moment before following Mina into the villa.

Sasha, Mavis, and the others did not even have the courage to take out their phones to take photos when they saw the magnificent decorations in the villa. They were very careful with their actions because they were worried that if they broke something, they would not be able to afford it even if they sold themselves.

Mina hesitated for a moment before looking at Connor who was sitting on the sofa and said softly, “Connor, can you come out with me for a while? I have something to tell you...”

Connor couldn't help but raise his head to look at Mina. He knew what Mina wanted to say to him at this time.

After all, Mina didn't know about his relationship with this villa. Connor had suddenly become the owner of this villa, so Mina might not be able to accept it. Connor felt that he could take this opportunity to explain everything to Mina.

In any case, Freya Phillips already knew Connor's true identity. The reason why Connor was still hiding his identity from others was because he was worried that if everyone knew that he was a very rich heir, it would have a huge impact on his life.

But now, since things had already developed to this point, even if Connor wanted to hide his identity, he probably could not hide it anymore. Therefore, he might as well make things clear.

“Okay!”

Connor looked at Mina and nodded lightly. Then, he stood up and followed Mina out of the villa.

“Ciara, Mavis, you guys can take a look around here. I’m going to talk to Connor about something!”

Mina turned her head and whispered to her friends before following Connor out of the villa in her high heels.

After leaving the villa, Connor stopped at the entrance of the villa and turned to Mina. “Mina, even if you don’t ask me, I’ve already been planning to make things clear with you. Actually, I’ve been lying to you for a long time...”

Chapter 477: Actually, This Villa Is Mine!

At the entrance of the villa.

When Connor knew that he couldn’t hide his identity, he then decided to tell her his identity.

Connor looked at Min and said sincerely, “Mina, I’ve been lying to you these past few days. I’m not...”

“Of course, I know you’re lying to me. In fact, this villa doesn’t belong to your friend, right?”

But what Connor didn’t expect was that before he could finish, Mina’s big watery eyes opened wide, and she shouted at Connor.

When Connor heard Mina’s words, he was instantly stunned, and a trace of doubt flashed across his face.

“Connor, I know your situation very well. You’re just a poor student. Moreover, you usually have to rely on delivering food to make a living. You don’t have the money or ability to buy this villa at all, so this villa definitely doesn’t belong to you...”

Mina looked at Connor and continued to speak loudly.

“Mina, 1...”

Connor opened his mouth, wanting to explain.

“Connor, there are only the two of us now. Are you still planning to lie to me?”

Mina frowned and asked Connor softly.

“Lie? What did 1 lie about?”

Connor frowned and asked Mina.

He was clearly confused by Mina’s words, because Connor originally planned to confess everything to Mina, but he never expected Mina to question him first!

“Connor, can you just tell me the truth? Where did you get the key to this villa?”

Mina shouted at Connor anxiously.

“Didn’t 1 make it very clear to you before? This villa is...”

“Connor, are you still treating me like a fool?”

Mina shouted at Connor with her big watery eyes, then continued, "Are you still trying to tell me that this villa belongs to your friend? Then tell me, who is this friend of yours? Why does he not want to live in such a luxurious villa?"

H H

Connor looked at Mina and was instantly speechless.

Connor knew that it was impossible for Mina to believe that he was a rich heir.

Because Mina didn't even believe that Connor knew a rich friend, let alone that Connor was a rich heir himself.

"If this villa doesn't belong to my friend, then why do I have the key to this villa?"

Connor asked Mina with a smile.

"You must have worked in the showroom during summer vacation, so you could secretly get the key to this villa, right?"

Mina shouted excitedly at Connor.

"Uh..."

Connor looked at Mina and suddenly didn't know what to say. He didn't expect Mina to think that he had a stolen villa key.

"If that's what you think, then there's nothing I can do!"

Connor replied to Mina expressionlessly.

Originally, Connor had planned to explain this matter to Mina, but at this time, her words made him very disgusted, because he did not expect her to think that he had stolen the key to the villa!

“Connor, I know that you stole the key to the villa to help me, but do you know how dangerous it is for you to do this? You’re from the showroom, so you should know very well how rich and powerful a person must be to be able to buy such a villa. Now that you’ve let my friends into this villa, if someone finds out, we’ll definitely be arrested as thieves, do you understand?”

Mina shouted at Connor.

“What if I tell you that this villa is actually mine?” Connor said to Mina expressionlessly.

“This villa is yours?”

Mina smiled helplessly after hearing Connor’s words, then said in a low voice, “Connor, what kind of situation is this? You actually still have the mood to joke with me here? Do you know how much this villa costs? How could you have the money to buy this villa?”

“Haha...”

Connor looked at Mina and smiled but didn’t say anything.

In fact, Connor also knew that it was normal for Mina to suspect him now. After all, the price of this villa was indeed very shocking. If Connor had not inherited Steven Lee’s inheritance, he probably would not have been able to afford a toilet in this villa with the money he earned in his lifetime.

“Connor, I’m really grateful that you can help me. I know that you stole the villa key for my own good, but if others find out that we sneaked into the villa, we’ll definitely be in trouble, so the two of us have to think of a way now!” Mina frowned and shouted at Connor.

“Think of a way?”

Connor looked at Mina blankly for a moment, then frowned and asked, "Think of what way?"

"Think of a way to get my friends out of this villa. Because when we came in, those security guards have already seen us. They will definitely investigate your identity. If the security guards find out that you are not the owner of this villa at all, they will definitely arrest all of us."

Mina said anxiously to Connor.

"I understand..."

Connor looked at Mina and nodded lightly.

"So when we go back later, you can just let my friends have a simple tour. Don't tell them that you're lending this villa to Ciara for her birthday party, because if they do, it'll take too long, and the owner of the villa might find out!" Mina looked at Connor and continued.

Connor stood there and hesitated for a while. Then, he gently nodded and said, "Alright, I got it!"

"When we go in, don't say anything. I'll do the talking. Do you understand me?"

Mina seemed to be a little worried as she looked at Connor and continued to remind him.

"Don't worry. I've got it..."

Connor replied to Mina with a helpless expression. In fact, Connor knew that Mina's worries were unnecessary.

After all, the real owner was Connor. He was not worried about what she was worried about.

But Connor felt that if he revealed his identity to Mina now, she probably wouldn't believe him.

Therefore, he might as well follow Mina's wishes and do what she wanted. He didn't have to explain so much to Mina..

Chapter 478: Can't Leave Even If We Want to

When Mina was done, she opened the door of the villa and returned to the villa.

However, when Mina and Connor returned to the villa, they realized that Ciara, Yves, and the others had not gone to take a look around the villa. Instead, they were all sitting on the sofa, as if they were waiting for Connor and Mina to return.

Mina quickly calmed herself down, then smiled at everyone and asked, "What are you all sitting here for? Aren't you going to take a look around? I heard from Connor that there's a garden behind this villa. Why don't we go to the garden and take a look?"

"Mina, are you planning to send us away after showing us around?"

Ciara sneered and asked Mina in disdain.

When Mina heard Clara's words, she couldn't help but be stunned for a moment. A hint of confusion flashed across her pretty face. Then, she asked Ciara softly, "Ciara, what do you mean by that?"

"Don't you know what I mean?"

Ciara looked at Mina and sneered. Then, she smiled and said, "Mina, we heard what you said to Connor outside!"

When Mina heard this, she could not help but frown. Then, she shouted, "You guys actually eavesdropped on my conversation with Connor?"

"I was eavesdropping on you two?"

Ciara looked at Mina with a disdainful smile and said lightly, "Mina, do you think we're that despicable? Do we have to eavesdrop on your conversation with Connor?"

"Then, how did you know?"

Mina hurriedly questioned.

"Look at that thing!"

Ciara pointed at the monitor on the wall and said calmly.

Mina looked at the monitor on the wall and was dumbfounded. She didn't know that there was a surveillance system in the villa. Moreover, this surveillance system could not only see the situation in every room, but also the situation outside the villa. Therefore, the words that Connor said to Mina just now were clearly heard by these people sitting in the villa!

As the owner of this villa, Connor himself did not know that the villa had such a function.

"Mina, is there anything else you want to say?"

Ciara looked at Mina and smiled disdainfully.

Mina stood rooted to the ground with a blank expression. She knew very well that it was too late for her to explain herself.

"Previously, when we suspected Connor's identity, you kept defending him. I still don't understand why! So, you already know that Connor is a poor loser. He is just an actor you found!"

Ciara looked at Mina and sneered.

“I knew it. How could a poor loser like him afford such an expensive villa? It turns out that this villa doesn’t belong to him at all. He stole the key!” Yves also shouted.

“Mina, the two of you have gone too far today. If the villa’s security guards really find out that we have sneaked in, we will all suffer...”

Dustin, who spoke up for Mina previously, seemed to be standing on Ciara’s side now.

“Mina, what are you thinking? Even if you really wanted a sugar daddy, we wouldn’t laugh at you. After all, having a sugar daddy is your right. But why did you find a poor loser like Connor to pretend to be a sugar daddy?”

Mavis called out in a strange tone.

“Yeah, look at him. He doesn’t look like a rich heir. Just now, he actually shamelessly said that this villa was his. He’s really too shameless. I’ve never seen such a shameless person like him in my life!” Sasha also shouted.

Although everyone suspected Connor’s identity, they had never found any conclusive evidence, so they did not dare to be too certain.

However, it was different now. They already knew that Connor was not a rich heir, and this villa was not his. Connor had only stolen the key to this villa from the showroom.

Therefore, these people naturally wouldn’t be polite when they spoke to Connor. They were all mocking Connor, wishing they could drown Connor with their saliva.

Mina took a deep breath and calmed herself down. Then she said in a low voice, “Since all of you already know what’s going on, then I won’t hide anything from you. That’s right, Connor is an actor that I found, and he’s not some rich heir.

This villa doesn’t belong to him either. I just don’t want you to know about my livestream!”

“Mina, why are you doing this? Even if you really have a sugar daddy, we won’t laugh at you. After all, society nowadays laughs at the poor, not the prostitutes!”

Ciara was very happy to see Mina admit to these things and said sarcastically.

“That’s right, Mina, we’ve been friends for so many years, you really didn’t have to do this...” Sasha hurriedly shouted.

“Sigh...”

Mina took a deep breath and whispered, “Whether you believe me or not, I don’t have a sugar daddy. Now that you know what’s going on, let’s not stay here anymore. Let’s hurry up and leave!”

“Alright, since you’ve already admitted it, we won’t make things difficult for you. Let’s hurry up and leave. Otherwise, we’ll really be discovered later. At that time, we won’t be able to leave even if we want to...”

Ciara had achieved her goal. Naturally, she would not stay here any longer, so she got up and was ready to leave.

“Wait a minute!”

But at this moment, Yves suddenly shouted.

When everyone heard Yves’s words, they all turned their heads to look at him.

“Yves, what is it?”

Ciara asked Yves with a puzzled expression.

“We can’t leave yet...”

Yves replied expressionlessly.

“Why can’t we leave? Are you going to wait here until the owner of the villa finds us before we leave?”

Ciara shouted at Yves with a frown.

“Do you think that no one will know that we’ve been to this villa if we leave now?”

Yves said with a gloomy expression.

When everyone heard Yves’s words, they were stunned. Their expressions were filled with doubt..

Chapter 479: Hand Connor Over

They planned to leave Royal No.i after Mina told them the truth.

After all, this villa did not belong to Connor. If they entered now, they would be trespassing. If they were caught, the consequences would be unimaginable!

However, just as they were about to leave, Yves suddenly stopped them from leaving.

Everyone could not understand what Yves was thinking at this moment!

“Yves, what are you thinking? If we don’t leave now, do you want us to sit and wait for death?”

Clara’s big, watery eyes widened as she shouted at Yves.

“Do you people even have brains?”

Yves shouted helplessly. Then, he pointed at the monitor on the wall and said loudly, "Didn't you see the surveillance camera?"

"What about it?"

Mina was stunned for a moment and asked with a puzzled expression.

"There are surveillance cameras everywhere in this villa. When we came in, we were definitely captured by the camera at the door. Even if we leave now, people will know that we were here. The security guards at the door also saw us come in. If we leave now and something is missing from this villa, won't we be the ones to blame?"

Yves shouted.

When everyone heard what he said, they finally understood why Yves did not let them leave.

After all, the things in this villa were very expensive. Any painting could cost millions. If something was really lost, they would be the ones accused of stealing.

"We... We didn't take anything. It shouldn't be on us, right?"

Dustin Ward hesitated for a moment and said in a low voice.

"Even if nothing is gone, when the owner of the villa checks the surveillance video, he will find out that we were here. If he calls the police, it will be considered trespassing. You might be fine, but I'm from Porthampton."

Yves said loudly.

After hearing Yves's words, everyone became nervous.

Because they had now realized the seriousness of this matter. Whether it was losing something or trespassing, these consequences were not something they could afford.

“Then...Then Yves, what... what should we do now?”

Ciara was obviously a little flustered. She asked Yves with a very nervous expression.

Yves took a deep breath and turned to look at Connor. He said calmly, “Actually, it’s pretty easy to handle. Let’s call the villa’s security guard now and ask the security guard to take Connor away. We’ll also make it clear that he lied to us about today’s matter. He said that this villa belongs to him, so we came in. But in fact, he stole the key. The few of us came in without knowing it. The security guard shouldn’t make things difficult for us. Then, Connor will be the one who is held responsible!”

When Mina heard Yves’s words, she was instantly stunned.

Mina had never expected that Yves would hand Connor over to the security guards and let him bear all the responsibility.

“Mr. Lynn, isn’t it a little inappropriate for us to do this?”

Dustin hesitated for a moment and asked Yves softly.

“That’s right. If we hand Connor over like this, it seems a little cruel...”

Calvin Young hurriedly added.

“If the two of you think that way, then you can stay and bear the responsibility with Connor. Anyway, I won’t bear this responsibility with him. Moreover, I entered this villa without knowing anything!”

Yves replied expressionlessly.

“I think Mr. Lynn is right. If it weren't for Connor saying that this villa belongs to him, why would we come into this villa?” Sasha Stein hurriedly added.

“That's right. Since Connor stole the key and let us in, if anything happens, Connor should bear all the responsibility. After all, he lied to us!”

Mavis Cage also stood up and expressed her stance.

Ciara stood where she was and did not say anything. However, she did not stop Yves either.

This was because she agreed with Yves's decision. After all, no one wanted to be implicated by this. Moreover, they all knew that the owner of this villa must be a big shot. If they offended him, the consequences would definitely be very miserable!

“Yves, I beg you, don't call the security guards, okay? If something really happens, I'll take responsibility, okay? If you really make the call, they will definitely treat Connor as a thief and arrest him...”

When Mina saw what was happening, she quickly stood up and shouted at Yves with an excited expression.

“Mina, it's not that I'm being unreasonable today, but it's because this is not a small matter. If you have anything to say, you can explain it to the owner, but I don't want to be implicated by Connor, so I have to call the security now!”

Yves definitely wouldn't change his mind just because of Mina's words. After all, he didn't call the security guard over just to prove his innocence, because he could also take the opportunity to humiliate Connor.

After saying this, Yves took out his phone without any hesitation and found the phone number of the showroom of the Royal Villas.

“Yves, I'm begging you. Don't call them, okay? If Connor is really taken away by the security guards, then his life might be ruined...”

Mina didn't expect Yves to be so heartless. He was really going to make a call, so she quickly reached out to stop him.

"Mina, I'm sorry. I don't want to be implicated because of Connor. I think the others have the same thoughts as me. Since Connor dared to do such a thing, he should bear the consequences!"

Yves coldly replied to Mina. Then, he pushed Mina away and pressed the showroom's phone number on his phone.

However, Connor sat on the sofa calmly. He did not say a word from the beginning to the end because he was not worried that Yves would make this call.

Chapter 480: What Right Do They Have to Arrest Me?

"Connor, why are you still sitting there? Hurry up and say something!"

Connor didn't seem to care about what was going on, so Mina shouted at him.

"Why should I?"

Connor calmly replied to Mina.

When Mina heard Connor's words, she couldn't help but be stunned for a moment, a trace of confusion flashing in her eyes.

Because Mina really couldn't understand, how could the usually weak Connor dare to say such words at this time, because under normal circumstances, Connor would have been scared speechless!

"Connor, if you don't ask Yves to stop, your life will be ruined, do you understand?"

Mina's eyes were wide open as she exclaimed.

“This villa is mine to begin with. Why should I be afraid of him calling someone over? Since he wants to make a call, let him!”

Connor looked at Mina and said calmly.

Mina looked at Connor in front of her with an expression of shock. She really couldn't understand where Connor got the confidence to say such words!

“Mina, you heard what this kid said, right? He's still saying that this villa is his. I'll call the security guards now. I want to see if this villa is really his!”

Yves shouted. Then, he picked up his phone and dialed the showroom's number.

Mina stood on the spot with a face full of despair. She didn't know what to do. She couldn't understand why Connor was still lying. When the security guards of Royal Villas arrived, they would definitely treat Connor as a thief and arrest him.

However, if Connor was willing to lower his head and beg Yves for mercy, Yves might still give Connor a chance.

However, it was a little too late to say anything now because Yves was already making the call. However, because it was late at night, no one picked up the phone.

Ciara, Sasha, and the others stood at the side and watched coldly, as if it had nothing to do with them.

These people would definitely not plead for Connor because their relationship with him was not good to begin with. They could not wait to see something happen to Connor. Moreover, they felt that what Yves said just now was very reasonable. If they did not report Connor now, once something happened, they would very likely be implicated.

Now, as long as they handed Connor over, they could guarantee everyone's safety. Everyone knew what to choose.

Mina just didn't want to see anything happen to Connor.

"Hello?"

At this moment, someone from the showroom finally picked up the phone.

"Hello, is this the showroom of Evergrande Real Estate?"

Yves looked at Connor and asked expressionlessly.

"That's right, we're Evergrande Real Estate. May I help you?"

Because it was already nine o'clock in the evening, the sales staff of the showroom had left. Only a few security guards were still on duty.

I want to report that someone sneaked into Royal No. 1 in the Royal Villas. Come and take this person away now!"

Yves said.

When Mina heard Yves's words, a trace of despair flashed in her eyes.

"What... What did you say?"

The security guard on the other end of the phone was obviously stunned for a moment and asked with a very puzzled expression.

"I said someone stole the key from somewhere and have entered Royal No.i. Do you understand me?"
Yves repeated helplessly.

“Is what you said true?”

The security guard still did not quite believe Yves’s words. After all, it had been so long, and this had never happened before.

Someone had stolen the key to Royal No.i and sneaked into the villa!

“Why would I lie to you? I’m in Royal No. 1 now. The person who sneaked in has been captured by us!”

Yves shouted impatiently.

“Then... You have to help us keep him there. We’ll rush over now...”

The security guard replied with a trembling voice. There was a hint of panic in his voice.

After all, Royal No. 1 was a landmark building of Evergrande Real Estate, and Royal Villas had always claimed to have the best security system. If someone really sneaked into Royal No. 1, the security guards would not be able to bear the consequences.

Most importantly, this matter would have a very bad impact on Royal Villas. It might even directly affect the sales of the villas.

“Alright, I’ll wait in the villa now. Bring someone over quickly!”

Yves replied indifferently before hanging up.

Mina was stunned. She sat on the sofa with a hopeless expression and looked at Connor with a dull gaze.

After hesitating for a couple of seconds, she whispered to Connor, “Connor, what are you still sitting here for? Hurry up and leave now. In a while, those security guards will come and catch you...”

“Catch me?”

Connor lightly smiled, then lightly shook his head and said, “What right do they have to arrest me? I’ve already said that Royal No. 1 is mine. No one has the right to arrest me!”

“Connor, can you stop bragging at a time like this? Just take it as me begging you, okay? Hurry up and leave!”

Mina shouted at Connor.

“I’m not bragging. Since you don’t believe that this villa is mine, won’t you know when the security guards come?”

Connor replied to Mina with a calm expression.

“Haha...”

Yves looked at Connor and smiled disdainfully. Then, he widened his eyes and said, “Connor, you really don’t know how bad the situation is right now! Things have already reached this point, yet you still dare to say that this villa is yours. You’re really shameless...”

Connor raised his head and looked at Yves indifferently without saying anything.

“He is being stubborn now. When the security guards come later, I’ll see how he can still be arrogant with us!”

Ciara pouted and called out.

“When the security guards arrive, Connor will probably be so scared that he will kneel on the ground and beg for mercy...” Sasha said disdainfully.

“Hehe, just you wait!”

Yves smiled lightly and looked at Connor provocatively..
