Chapter 497: A Friend's Birthday Party

The next day, at eight o'clock in the morning.

Connor took a taxi to Candance's house and then rushed to the Porthampton University with Sadie.

Sadie didn't object to him going with her to go through the admission procedures because it was Candance's order.

However, Sadie was still very cold and indifferent to Connor.

Today was the orientation for the freshmen of the Porthampton University, and classes only start the day after tomorrow.

Porthampton University was considered one of the top universities in Davenport. Basically, those who could get into this university would have good academic results.

When Connor and Sadie arrived at the entrance of the Porthampton University, they found that the entrance was already packed with people. Most of them were new students who were preparing to enter the school, and some of them were seniors who were responsible for welcoming new students.

"I didn't expect Porthampton University to be so big!"

Sadie looked at the gate of the Porthampton University and couldn't help but sigh.

"It's alright. When I first arrived, it felt quite big, but after I got used to it, I realized that it's actually not that big!"

Connor looked at Sadie and said calmly.

“I heard that you often deliver food outside the school. Is that true?”

Sadie hesitated for a moment before asking Connor softly.

“It’s true!”

Connor nodded lightly.

When Sadie heard Connor’s words, a strange look flashed across her eyes. It was unknown whether it was intentional or unintentional.

She gradually slowed down her steps and pulled away from Connor, as if she didn’t want others to see her following Connor.

After all, Sadie was considered a goddess in their high school. If her classmates found out that she was with a poor delivery boy, it would definitely affect her reputation.

When Connor saw Sadie’s action, he understood what she meant. However, Connor felt that based on Sadie’s personality, she had already given him face by not directly asking him to keep a distance from her.

Furthermore, Connor didn’t care about these things at all, so he didn’t say anything else and walked straight into the school.

Although Sadie didn’t usually stay in the dormitory and chose to stay at home, her parents still let her go through the accommodation procedures to prevent any accidents.

Fortunately, Sadie didn’t bring any luggage with her, so Connor was able to relax.

Because Connor was familiar with the Porthampton University, it took him less than an hour to help Sadie complete all the admission procedures.

After completing the procedures, Connor took Sadie around the school and introduced her to the school, including the school hospital and cafeteria. He took her to see everything so that she would know what to do if she encountered any problems in the future!

Sadie was touched to see Connor being so diligent and responsible. Her impression of Connor also changed.

Sadie felt that although Connor was a little poor, he did not take the money her mother gave him, so he still had some backbone.

Moreover, Connor had brought Sadie to do so many things today. Connor did everything for her and did not ask Sadie to do anything at all. If it was not for his help, these procedures would be enough to tire Sadie out.

Connor didn't complain at all, which made Sadie feel touched.

"Although Connor is not suitable as a boyfriend, he's still quite good as a friend!"

Sadie couldn't help but sigh. She walked to Connor and handed him a bottle of water. "Connor, thank you so much for today..."

Connor couldn't help but be stunned when he heard her words.

He didn't expect such a cold girl like Sadie to thank him!

"There's no need to thank me. I'm just helping out because of Aunt Candance!"

Connor replied lightly, then took out his phone and said to Sadie, "What's your phone number?"

Sadie was stunned for a moment. She looked at Connor and didn't say anything, as if she was reluctant to give him her phone number.

“Don’t think too much about it. I just want to give you my phone number so that you can find me if you need anything in the future. I know you mind that I’m a poor loser who delivers food, but if you encounter any trouble in the future, I might be able to help you solve it. After all, I’ve been in this school for a much longer time than you...”

Although Connor was not very interested in her, he was still very enthusiastic because of Candance.

“Alright, then!”

When Sadie heard Connor’s words, she reluctantly exchanged phone numbers with Connor.

“It’s getting late. Do you want to eat something?”

Connor asked Sadie softly after exchanging phone numbers with her.

“No, I’m going back to the dormitory to pack up and then go find my friends!”

Sadie refused.

“Alright then, I’ll be heading back now. If you need anything, you can call me!”

Seeing that Sadie had no intention of eating with him, Connor didn’t say anything more and turned around to leave.

Sadie looked at Connor’s back with some hesitation in her eyes. She stood there and hesitated for a couple of seconds before shouting softly, “Connor, it’s my friend’s birthday tonight. My mother asked me to bring you over. If you don’t have anything to do, come with me tonight!”

In fact, Sadie didn’t plan to invite Connor because she felt that he was too weak. Bringing him along would only embarrass her.

But today, she felt that Connor had worked very hard to help her. Moreover, it was just a small birthday party. It was not a one-on-one date with Connor, so it should be fine.

“Is it okay for me to go over?”

Connor didn’t agree like Sadie had expected. Instead, he turned around and asked Sadie.

“It’s okay. No one knows you anyway. Moreover, this is what my mother asked me to do. If I don’t bring you there, my mother will definitely scold me.”

Sadie whispered.

“Alright, then!”

Connor nodded in agreement.

“Then, come to the milk tea shop next to the school at seven tonight. I’ll wait for you there!”

Sadie called out softly.

“Okay!”

Connor nodded and turned to leave..
