Chapter 500: Connor, Where's Your Car?

Although Sabrina greeted Connor, it was just a polite greeting. She did not want to continue the conversation.

After greeting her, Sabrina turned away and continued to admire the scenery outside the window.

Seeing that Sabrina was not talking to him, Connor took out his phone and started playing with it.

As for Yara and Sadie, they seemed to be talking about something, but their voices were relatively soft. Connor couldn't hear what they were talking about, and he didn't care what they were talking about.

Everyone waited in the milk tea shop for about ten minutes before a large group of handsome men and beautiful women dressed fashionably walked into the milk tea shop.

"It's Levin and the others!"

When Yara saw the group of handsome men and beautiful women, she shouted excitedly. Then, she turned to Sabrina and Sadie and said, "Let's go over!"

"Okay!"

Sadie agreed, then stood up and walked toward Levin and the others.

Connor hesitated for a moment before following them.

Yara was Levin's girlfriend, so when she saw Levin, she threw herself into his arms.

Levin was tall and handsome, and he was dressed very fashionably, it was obvious that he was a rich guy!

Since Sadie, Sabrina, and the others had met Levin before, they exchanged some simple greetings.

Levin turned to Connor and asked Yara, "Baby, who is this person?"

"This person is Sadie's friend. Her mother asked him to come..."

Yara gave a simple explanation, then whispered a few words into Levin's ear.

However, Connor was quite far away from them, so he couldn't hear what Yara and Levin were talking about.

But even if Connor couldn't hear it, he could guess.

After hearing Yara's words, Levin's eyes flashed with disdain.

Then, he walked to Connor and extended his right hand. He said in a very arrogant tone, "Hello, I'm Levin Strong, Yara's boyfriend!"

"Hello!"

Connor looked up at Levin and replied calmly. Then, he slowly extended his right hand.

"I heard that you want to pursue Sadie. I don't know what your family does, but how dare you pursue the school belle of our school!"

Levin was obviously mocking Connor because Yara had already told him about Connor's situation.

The reason why he asked this now was obviously to make Connor lose face in front of everyone.

Connor had intended to shake hands with Levin, but when he heard Levin's words, his expression suddenly changed. He retracted his right hand and walked out of the milk tea shop.

When Levin saw that Connor had ignored him, a trace of embarrassment flashed across his eyes.

Levin did not expect that Connor would choose to ignore him.

Everyone looked at Levin in disbelief.

"Sadie, your friend is quite interesting!1"

Levin turned to look at Sadie, then slowly withdrew his right hand and said with a gloomy face, "Alright, we'll all be at the Porthampton University in the future anyway. Just wait and see!"

When Sadie heard Levin's words, a trace of worry flashed across her eyes.

She knew very well that Levin had always been a petty person.

If Connor offended Levin, Levin would definitely take revenge!

Back in high school, there was a student who offended Levin and had his leg broken by Levin.

Moreover, Levin even said that he would continue to beat him up when the student was discharged. Later on, the student had no choice but to drop out of school.

Because Levin's family owned a chain hotel, his father was also very powerful in society.

Even if this student called the police, he would only be compensated with some money. He couldn't do anything to Levin.

However, no one took Levin's words to heart. Yara asked Levin sweetly, "Hubby, what are our plans for today?"

"Let's go to a nightclub and have some fun. After we're done, we'll go to my family's restaurant for dinner. I've prepared a luxurious private room for you. We can enjoy to our hearts' content. Everything's on me today!"

Levin exclaimed proudly.

When everyone heard that Levin was going to treat them to a meal, they were naturally very happy and instantly erupted into cheers.

"Levin, I heard that there's a new Golden Bell Nightclub in Porthampton. The place seems good, and it's packed every day. Why not we go there and have some fun?"

At this moment, one of the boys shouted at the top of his lungs.

"The business at that nightclub is really good. If we don't have a reservation, we probably won't have any seats even if we go!"

A coquettishly dressed girl said coquettishly.

"It's okay. My dad is friends with the owner of the Golden Bell Nightclub. They will give me face when the time comes!"

Levin said with a very proud expression. Then, he waved at everyone and signaled for them to get on their cars.

Those who could hang out with Levin were very rich, so these people all drove here.

Everyone got on their cars like a swarm of bees. In the end, only Connor was left standing on the spot.

After all, Connor came by taxi and did not drive. The other cars seemed to be full.

Just as Levin was about to leave, Yara suddenly pointed at Connor outside the car window and shouted, "Hubby, that guy hasn't gotten into his car yet!"

Levin was stunned for a moment when he heard this. Then, he shouted at Connor with a playful look, "Connor, where's your car?"

"He took a taxi here!"

Sadie was also sitting in Levin's car and said expressionlessly.

"Oh!"

Levin smiled faintly, then looked at Connor who was outside and continued, "Connor, look, my car is full. The other cars are also full. Why not you take a taxi there yourself? When you tell the driver that you're going to the Golden Bell Nightclub, they should know where it is!"

"Hahaha!"

Everyone burst into laughter when they heard Levin's words..
