Chapter 501: Golden Bell Nightclub

The words Connor said to Levin earlier had already made many people present dissatisfied.

Now that they finally see Connor making a fool of himself, they naturally want to mock him.

Moreover, some cars were not even full, and there were still empty seats. They just didn't want him to get on the car.

When he heard the mocking laughter of the crowd, a touch of coldness flashed in his eyes.

Because this was not the first time Levin had caused trouble for him. The current Connor was not the same as before.

If Levin really angered him, even if it meant risking exposing his identity, Connor would teach him a lesson.

After hearing the mocking laughter of the crowd, Sadie's expression also seemed unpleasant.

After all, he was someone she had brought along, and Connor was her friend.

Even if she didn't have any other intentions towards him, she would still feel upset that her friend was being mocked.

"Levin..."

She was about to speak.

"Connor, you can sit in my car, there's room in my car!"

But at that moment, a girl suddenly spoke up.

Connor instinctively looked at the person who spoke. Surprisingly, it was Sadie's friend, Sabrina.

She was currently sitting in a pink BMW car, which must have cost at least a hundred thousand dollars.

She had just entered university, yet she was able to drive such a car. That meant her family background was definitely very good.

Levin couldn't help but turn his head and look at Sabrina, his expression showing a hint of confusion, because he couldn't understand why she would help Connor.

"Could it be that Sabrina has taken a liking to Connor?"

A bold thought flashed through Levin's mind, and he couldn't help but inhale sharply.

Although Sabrina currently didn't have a boyfriend, many people knew that she already had someone in her heart.

In a certain prominent family in Porthampton, there was a rich heir currently pursuing her, but she Muxue had never agreed to him.

But no one dared to compete with this rich heir for Sabrina. If she really took a liking to Connor, then things would get interesting.

While Levin was pondering these questions, Connor had already entered Sabrina's BMW car.

Upon seeing this scene, Yara couldn't help but sneer and whispered, "What is Sabrina thinking? She actually let such a person into her car?"

At this moment, Sadie was also very puzzled, but she didn't say much.

"Alright, since Connor is in the car, let's get going!" Levin said, clearly disappointed. After all, he had planned to humiliate Connor with this incident, but he didn't expect Sabrina to intervene in the end.

So he was feeling very unhappy at the moment. He started the car and headed towards the location of the nightclub, with everyone following behind.

Connor sat in the passenger seat of Sabrina's car, and the car smelled very pleasant.

"Thank you," he whispered.

"You're welcome!" She looked at him with a faint smile, then started the car.

Connor looked at Sabrina, who was driving attentively, and his opinion of her underwent a significant change.

He felt that although she appeared cold, her heart was actually very kind. At least she was much better than Levin and the others.

After about half an hour, they finally arrived at the famous bar street in Porthampton.

This bar street was filled with numerous bars, nightclubs, karaoke lounge, and restaurants. Basically, any entertainment venue you could think of could be found in this area.

After parking their cars, everyone hurriedly walked towards the Golden Jade Nightclub.

By this time, the nightclub was already packed with people. As soon as they entered the lobby, they saw a group of gorgeously dressed girls standing at the entrance, enthusiastically greeting Levin and the others.

Upon witnessing this scene, Sabrina, who came in with Connor, showed a trace of displeasure in her eyes. After all, it was her first time in such a nightclub, and she seemed to dislike the environment.

However, she didn't say much because she had come here today to celebrate Yara's birthday.

"Mr. Levin, you actually came in person!"

The manager at the nightclub's front desk seemed to recognize Levin and stepped forward with a smiling face to greet him.

"Mr. Trey, today is my girlfriend's birthday. I want to book a private room. Is that possible?"

Levin approached him, smilingly asking for his request.

"Since you have asked, of course, there's no problem!"

Mr. Trey quickly smiled and continued, "But Mr. Levin, our best private room has already been reserved. If you don't mind, we can arrange a slightly lower-grade private room for you, but the service and everything will be the same. Is that acceptable to you?"

Other people would struggle to even book an ordinary private room here, yet Mr. Trey was giving Levin priorities. This made him feel quite happy inside.

So he didn't waste any words and immediately shouted, "Alright, I won't trouble you, Mr. Trey!"

"Hahaha!"

Seeing Levin's readily agreed response, Mr. Trey couldn't help but burst into laughter, then led Levin, Connor and the others towards the private room.

After a while, they arrived at the private room.

Although this private room was not the best, the environment inside was still very good.

Levin had prepared for today's birthday party for a long time. After all, he had been with Yara for two months, and they hadn't been intimate yet.

So he planned to make her happy first, and then he could comfortably take her to a hotel room!

Therefore, Levin was prepared to spend a considerable amount of money today and ordered tens of thousands worth of drinks.

Everyone began to flatter him when they saw him being so generous.

Only Connor sat quietly on the sofa, feeling somewhat out of place among these people.

Sadie, Sabrina, and the others were chatting on the side and naturally had no interest in interacting with Connor.

Since he didn't know anyone else, he could only sit awkwardly in his place, thinking of finding an opportunity to leave this place because he really disliked the environment here.

Shortly after the drinks arrived, everyone started singing and playing games.

Connor, on the other hand, felt as if he was being ignored by everyone, sitting alone in solitude.

However, they hadn't played for long when the door to the private room was pushed open.

A beautiful woman wearing a tight black shirt walked into the private room with a smile..

Chapter 502: The Arrogant Levin

A beautiful young woman had a head of golden wavy hair, and her black tight-fitting shirt perfectly accentuated her full and perfect bosom.

She was wearing a pair of denim shorts, highlighting her enticing hip curves. Her long and fair legs were fully exposed in the air, and she wore a pair of black high-heeled shoes. She looked exceptionally sexy and charming.

Inside the private room, most of the occupants were energetic college students. Faced with such a tempting young woman, they certainly had no resistance.

So when the beautiful woman entered the private room, everyone's eyes widened, and their gazes were fixed on the woman's almost bursting bosom.

Only Connor remained calm, without any expression on his face.

After all, he had seen too many beautiful women and wouldn't have any thoughts about such a woman.

Sadie noticed his expression, and her impression of him began to improve.

Even Levin, who had a girlfriend, had a lusty look on his face. It was not easy for Connor to remain unaffected.

"Hello, everyone. I am the manager of the Golden Nightclub!"

After entering the private room, the beautiful woman introduced herself briefly and took a glass of wine from the waiter behind her.

Upon seeing this scene, everyone understood what was happening.

The beautiful woman must have come to toast everyone because of Levin.

He had a proud expression on his face and quickly raised his glass to drink with the beautiful woman.

After they finished their drinks, the beautiful woman exchanged a few words with everyone and then left.

After the beautiful woman left, the entire private room instantly became lively. Everyone's expressions were filled with excitement.

"Levin, that woman was so tempting. If I could sleep with such a woman, even ten years off my life would be worth it!"

A sleazy-looking young man with an oily face said to him with a smile.

"Heh, I don't think you'll ever have that chance in your lifetime!"

Another young man next to Levin couldn't help but sneer.

"Paul, what do you mean by that?"

The sleazy young man seemed a little unhappy as he shouted.

"Do you know who that woman's lover is?" he said casually.

"I don't know..."

"I'll tell you. That woman is Wilson Hayes' woman. Do you know who Wilson is?"

Paul said mysteriously.

Levin was quite familiar with the situation in Porthampton. After all, his family was in the hotel business.

“That’s right, Kyle’s nephew, Wilson!”

Paul responded to his own question, then continued, “You should all be very clear about the kind of person Kyle is in Porthampton, right? Wilson is the owner of this Golden Nightclub. Why do you guys think you can snatch a woman from him?”

Upon hearing his words, everyone involuntarily took a cold breath.

At this moment, they finally understood the identity of the beautiful woman who came to toast them.

“I never expected Levin to have such a great status. Even Wilson’s woman came to toast you!”

While discussing Wilson and Kyle, the crowd did not forget to ridicule Levin.

Upon hearing the words of the crowd, Levin’s expression seemed even more smug.

But he also noticed that Connor seemed to have no reaction at all, still sitting expressionless on the sofa.

In fact, Connor had heard everything they said just now, and now he realized that this gathering was actually related to Kyle’s nephew.

However, Levin and the others might not know that no matter how powerful Kyle was, he was just a worker under Connor!

“Connor, do you feel satisfied with the environment here?”

At this moment, Levin raised his glass and smiled at Connor.

“Levin, what kind of joke are you making here? Connor has probably never been to a place like this. Would he dare to say he’s not satisfied?”

Connor hadn’t spoken yet when the sleazy young man next to Levin shouted loudly.

After hearing this, everyone burst into laughter.

Facing the mockery of the crowd, Connor’s eyes flashed with a hint of anger, and he opened his mouth to retort.

But at this moment, Levin stood up and said to the people around him, “I need to use the restroom. Is there anyone coming with me?”

Upon hearing his words, everyone quickly raised their hands, and a large group of people left the private room.

After everyone left, Sadie glanced at Connor and persuade him to leave.

She was doing it for his own good. She knew that even if he stayed here, he would only be subject to ridicule and wouldn’t fit in with this group at all.

“Something’s wrong. Levin is getting into a fight with someone. Come out and help!”

But just at that moment, the door of the private room was suddenly pushed open by someone, and the sleazy young man from before shouted loudly.

The remaining boys in the private room quickly got up and rushed out of the room upon hearing this.

The girls, curious about what was happening, also followed and ran out.

In the blink of an eye, there was only Connor left in the private room.

After hesitating for a moment, he also got up and followed everyone out of the private room.

A moment later, he and the others arrived at the entrance of the restroom, only to find Levin and the others holding down a man and relentlessly beating him.

The man was outnumbered and already bruised and swollen, looking extremely miserable.

From the discussions among everyone, Connor heard that when Levin and the others went to the restroom earlier, they encountered a hot and sexy woman. One of the guys, after drinking a bit, couldn't control himself and touched the woman's buttocks.

In a nightclub like this, such incidents were quite normal.

However, no one expected that the woman would have such a temper and slapped the guy directly.

Levin and the others instantly became upset, and coincidentally, the woman's boyfriend came out of the restroom at that moment.

The two groups didn't exchange many words before they started fighting directly. However, because Levin's side had more people, they immediately pinned the guy to the ground and started beating him.

After a few minutes of beating, they realized that the man had lost the ability to resist, so they stopped their actions and returned to the private room.

"Kid, keep your eyes wide open from now on. In this world, there are many people you can't mess with!"

Levin arrogantly shouted at the man lying on the ground, then turned his head and gave Connor a fierce glare, as if he was also threatening him with those words..

Chapter 503: Come With Us

After beating up the person, Levin proudly returned to the private room with several guys.

However, they may not have realized that this incident had caused a significant impact.

Back in the private room, they continued drinking and singing as if they didn't care about what had happened. But Connor faintly felt that this matter was not that simple.

"Levin, what should we do if that guy comes looking for us later?"

At this moment, one of the young men frowned and whispered to Levin.

"Yeah, after all, this is not our territory. It could be troublesome if they actually come looking for us!"

Another young man echoed.

After all, Levin and the others were not locals of Porthampton. Their connections were mostly in Rockford, not Porthampton. If something really happened, even if these people had some connections, it probably wouldn't be of much use! "Maybe we should leave first. It could be troublesome if we get into trouble later!"

Sadie expressed her concerns and hesitated before speaking.

"Sadie, don't worry. Levin's dad knows a lot of people in Porthampton. Otherwise, the female CEO wouldn't have personally come over to toast him. Don't worry, nothing will happen!"

Yara, with a carefree expression, reassured them. "Sadie, don't worry. If something really happens, my dad can definitely handle it!" Levin felt even more proud after being praised by Yara.

Originally, he had thought of leaving, but since the topic had come up, if he left now, it would be like all his previous showing off had been in vain. So he pretended to be calm and said to Sadie.

Meanwhile, Connor worried that they might actually encounter trouble later.

Moreover, this matter had nothing to do with him. To be on the safe side, he whispered to Sadie, "It's getting late. Maybe we should leave first."

In fact, the reason why he chose to leave was not because he was afraid of trouble. After all, all he needed to do was to make a phone call to settle any matter.

After experiencing so many things, he had great confidence in Thomas and Kyle's abilities, especially since this scene involved Kyle's nephew.

However, Connor didn't want to get involved in Levin and the others' affairs, nor did he want to reveal his identity in front of Sadie. That was why he wanted to leave.

"What do you mean, kid?"

But as soon as he finished speaking, one of the young men stood up and pointed at Connor, shouting. "You can leave if you want, but what do you mean by taking Sadie with you?" Yara also shouted. "Heh..."

Levin looked at Connor and sneered, then said lightly, "Connor, if you're too scared to stay, that's fine. But if you want to take Sadie with you, it depends on her opinion, right?"

"That's right, Sadie, do you want to go with him or stay with us?" Yara pouted and asked her.

Yara's question clearly meant that she wanted Sadie to make a choice between them and Connor.

After hesitating for two seconds, she said softly, "Since none of you want to leave, of course, I can't leave first." Obviously, Sadie still felt that these friends were more important than Connor.

After saying this, she turned to him and whispered, “Connor, if you want to leave, then you can leave first.”

When Yara heard this, her expression became very proud. She turned her head to look at Connor and said in disdain, What are you doing here? Yara told you to scram. Didn’t you hear her?”

She purposely used the word ‘scram’ as if she wanted to anger Connor.

When everyone heard this, they began to laugh, as if they were mocking him.

“Why are you still sitting here?”

Yara was already upset with him. Now, she could take this opportunity to humiliate him even more.

Sabrina turned to look at Sadie, as if she wanted her to say something to stop these people from laughing at Connor. However, Sadie took a deep breath and kept quite.

She knew that if she spoke up for Connor now, it would be equivalent to offending Yara and Levin

In her eyes, they were obviously more important than Connor.

When he saw the look on her face, he knew that she had no intention of leaving with him at that moment.

So he took a deep breath and turned around to leave.

Originally, he intended to leave with Sadie, but since she didn’t want to go, he had no choice.

But just as he was about to get up and leave, the door of the private room was kicked open from the outside. Dozens of burly men in black suits rushed into the room in a frenzy.

Upon seeing this scene, everyone stood up with and didn't know what was happening.

"What... what do you want?"

Levin stammered when he saw these menacing men.

The black-clad men lined up and stared at him without speaking.

"Is it these people, Mr. Campbell?"

One of the burly men turned his head and asked the man standing behind him.

And when everyone saw this so-called Mr. Campbell, they understood what was going on.

Because he was none other than the Connor's intuition was correct. This man's identity was indeed extraordinary!

"Yes, it's these guys!"

The battered man shouted with excitement, clutching his bruised face and raising his voice. "Please come with us, gentlemen. Our boss wants to see you!"

The leading burly man waved his hand, and in an instant moved Levin and the others' position.

The scene instantly descended into chaos, and everyone's faces were filled with fear. "What... What do you want? Do you know who I am? Are you all crazy?"

Levin was also filled with fear at this moment, trembling as he shouted at the burly men..

Chapter 504: Wilson Hayes!

"Who are you?"

When the leading burly man heard Levin's question, he couldn't help but pause for a moment.

Then he signaled his subordinates beside him to release Levin.

After all, Porthampton was a huge city with many rich heirs, and there were indeed many rich heirs who frequented the Golden Bell Nightclub.

So the leading burly man was worried that Levin might have some powerful background. If they accidentally offended someone influential, it would be troublesome for him. Therefore, he decided to first clarify his identity before making any decisions.

"My father is Jamie Clover, the owner of Stellar Hotel. My dad knows Wilson Hayes, the owner of this nightclub!"

Levin hesitated for a moment and shouted in a low voice at the leading burly man.

"Jamie Clover?"

Upon hearing these words, the leading burly man was momentarily stunned. Then he said expressionlessly, "I don't know the person you're talking about, and the order I received was to bring you people to meet my boss!"

Levin took a deep breath. He felt that this person was just a thug, so it was normal for him not to know his father.

So he directly said, "Alright, let's go meet Mr. Wilson now, but can you release me and my friends first?"

"Sure, but you can't run away!"

The leading thug furrowed his brow and said.

"This is your turf. Even if we run, you can find a way to catch us, right?" Sun Lei said expressionlessly.

"Hehe, I didn't expect you to be quite sensible. Then come with us!"

The leading thug sneered and turned to leave.

Upon seeing the thugs leave the private room, the people inside became visibly nervous.

"What should we do now? Should we use our connections to get us out of this trouble?" Yara anxiously asked Levin.

"Don't be afraid. My dad knows Wilson, and they have a good relationship. I don't think he will do anything to us. Today, I want to see what he wants!" Levin said confidently, followed by addressing everyone, "Don't be afraid. There are so many of us. Even he can't do anything to us. Let's go now!"

After saying this, he directly walked towards the exit of the private room, and everyone followed closely behind him.

Originally, Connor planned to take this opportunity to leave, but later he realized that Sadie was also following Levin and the others.

In case something happened to her, he didn't want to explain to Candace.

So after hesitating for a moment, he also followed them out of the private room.

A moment later, Connor and the others entered an office.

The office was very large, even bigger than the private room they were in before.

The decoration inside was also very luxurious. Just by looking at the valuable paintings on the walls, one could tell their worth.

Inside the office, there was a genuine leather sofa, on which sat a man in his thirties. The man had some resemblance to Kyle, wearing a white suit and a gloomy expression. Connor could tell that this person should be Wilson, whom Levin and the others had mentioned.

But there were also several beautiful women sitting beside him. These women were top-notch in terms of their figures and looks, and they were quite young. They were dressed provocatively and were very alluring.

And behind the sofa stood a row of brawny men in black suits, looking very imposing.

In Wilson's arms was a charming and beautiful young woman. The young woman nestled sweetly in his embrace, allowing his hands to caress her body.

Connor recognized her. She was the female manager who had served drinks to Levin before.

The manager had heavy makeup on her face, looking extremely enchanting. She had a great figure, and her extremely short shorts barely covered her round buttocks, revealing a pair of long and fair legs.

After seeing the scene in the office, Connor couldn't help but smile faintly.

It had to be said that Wilson was living a more comfortable life than Kyle. Even Connor, who was Kyle's boss, felt somewhat inferior.

But he didn't rush to speak to Wilson because he wanted to see if Levin could handle the situation today.

If Levin could resolve it, Connor wouldn't need to intervene, and he wouldn't have to worry about exposing his identity.

"Mr. Wilson, hello!"

Levin walked up to Wilson and respectfully greeted him.

"Are you the one who hit Mr. Campbell?"

Wilson looked Levin up and down, expressionless, as he asked.

Levin was momentarily stunned upon hearing this question.

Then he turned his head and glanced at the young man beside Wilson, whispering, "Mr. Wilson, I did have a little conflict with this person before, but I didn't know he's your friend at that time..."

"The Golden Bell Nightclub won't tolerate anyone who cause trouble. Regardless of whether Mr. Campbell is my friend or not, it is wrong for you to hit someone," Wilson said calmly.

Upon hearing his words, the expressions on everyone's faces became visibly tense.

After all, he was a powerful figure, while they were just ordinary people. Even if they had the courage, they wouldn't dare to provoke him.

"Mr. Wilson, I am Jamie Clover's son. Can you spare me for the sake of my father..." Levin tried to bring up his father, hoping to appeal to Wilson.

“Jamie?”

Upon hearing this name, Wilson sneered disdainfully. Then he said in a calm tone, “Are you talking about Jamie from Stellar Hotel?”

“Yes, yes!”

Levin hurriedly nodded.

Hearing this, Wilson chuckled coldly and looked at him, saying, “Who do you think Jamie is? Do you think I will let you go just because you’re his son?”

Upon hearing his words, everyone present was stunned in place, their expressions filled with extreme fear.

After all, they had placed all their hopes on Levin. They thought that since his family ran a hotel business and knew some influential people in Porthampton, Wilson wouldn’t dare to do anything to Levin.

But no one had expected that Wilson not only didn’t care about his father, Jamie, but also looked down on Jamie.

At this moment, Levin himself was dumbfounded. He looked at Wilson with a mix of awe and fear on his face, completely shocked.

Because he had never expected Wilson to react like this!

Chapter 505: The Three Girls Stay

“Mr. Campbell, how do you plan to handle this matter today?”

At this moment, Wilson turned his head and looked at Mr. Campbell behind him, smiling as he asked.

Upon hearing his words, Mr. Campbell couldn't help but pause for a moment.

He then walked up to the man who had harassed his girlfriend earlier, lifted his leg, and delivered a fierce kick to the man's stomach.

The man fell to the floor and his face showed extreme pain.

Instinctively, he looked towards Levin, seemingly hoping that Levin would help him plead for mercy.

However, Levin understood that his father meant nothing to Wilson.

He was currently in a vulnerable position himself, so how could he help this person plead?

Even if he did plead, there was no guarantee that Wilson would give him face!

So he could only stand helplessly on the side, not daring to say a word.

Mr. Campbell continued to rain punches and kicks on the man, relentlessly attacking for over ten minutes.

Finally, he stopped, panting heavily, and pointed at the man lying on the ground, cursing, "Weren't you arrogant just now? Why aren't you talking now?"

"I know I was wrong, please spare me. I really know I was wrong!"

With Levin no longer protecting him, the young man naturally didn't dare to further offend Mr. Campbell who obviously had a powerful background.

So he could only cower on the ground, begging for mercy, hoping that Mr. Campbell would let him go.

“Let you go?”

After hearing this, Mr. Campbell couldn't help but sneer and playfully said, “Heh, alright, if you want me to let you go, have your girlfriend spend the night with me. Then 1'11 let you go. What do you think?”

Upon hearing these words, the expression on the young woman's face instantly turned panicked, and she couldn't help but take two steps back.

As Yara had a good relationship with this girl, she looked up at Levin, hoping that he would speak up.

After all, everyone was well aware of what would happen if Mr. Campbell took the girl away.

Although Connor had the ability to stop Wilson and the others, his relationship with these people was not good.

Moreover, the girl had mocked him before, so he had no intention of intervening.

“Mr. Wilson, today's matter is our fault. I apologize to you, but it has nothing to do with this girl.” Levin hesitated for two seconds and finally mustered the courage to step forward and say in a low voice.

After hearing these words, Wilson glanced at him indifferently, then said expressionlessly, “I've met your father a few times, and I won't trouble you today. You can take your people and leave!”

“Thank you, Mr. Wilson!” Levin was overjoyed upon hearing this and quickly shouted to the people behind him, “Let's go!”

The others were also pleasantly surprised by his words, and their expressions were filled with joy. Everyone started walking away.

“Wait!”

But at that moment, Wilson suddenly shouted.

They paused and turned to look at him, their expressions filled with confusion.

“Everyone else can leave, but those two must stay!” He pointed at the young man who had been beaten and the girl next to him.

It was obvious that Wilson still had no intention of letting the two of them go.

Levin knew very well that if he left now, he would definitely become a joke in the eyes of others. No one would dare to be friends with him in the future.

“Mr. Wilson, what are you doing?” Levin’s eyes flashed with helplessness.

Yara rushed to Wilson and shouted, “Who are you? Why should the two of them stay just because you say so!”

After Levin heard Yara’s words, his expression immediately broke down.

He never expected her to speak to Wilson like that.

One had to know that her current behavior was no different from courting death!

When Wilson heard her words, he couldn’t help but laugh out loud.

The rest of the thugs also laughed.

“You’re asking who I am?” Wilson smiled and asked her.

“That’s right, even if you’re the owner of this nightclub, you don’t have the right to keep them!” Yara shouted loudly.

“Alright, today I’ll let you see whether I have the right to keep them!” Wilson shouted, then directly said, “I originally intended to keep these two, and the rest of you could go, but since it’s like this, none of you can leave, all of you stay!”

Upon hearing these words, the expressions on the faces of the crowd became even more fearful.

Levin seemed to realize that something was amiss and quickly walked up to Wilson, stuttering as he spoke, “Mr. Wilson, this is my girlfriend. She hasn’t seen much of the world and doesn’t know any better. Please don’t lower yourself to her level. Just consider it as giving my father face!”

“Smack!”

Wilson backhandedly slapped Levin across the face, glaring at him and shouting, “Who do you think your father is? Go back and ask him if he dares to speak to me like that!”

Levin stood in place, holding his face, not knowing what to do for a moment.

“The three of you girls, stay with me, the rest of you get lost immediately, or else no one can leave!” Wilson shouted expressionlessly.

The three girls mentioned were none other than Sadie, Sabrina, and Yara.

In fact, Wilson had already taken a liking to these three girls from the moment they entered the office.

Now he had the perfect excuse to keep them.

After hearing his words, the expressions on the faces of the crowd were visibly shaken. After all, they didn’t want to offend him over such a small matter.

“Then let’s leave first!”

Just at that moment, a girl anxiously said to her boyfriend.

Although loyalty was important, at this moment, it was not about loyalty anymore.

Wilson turned his head and glanced at the thugs by his side. They immediately understood his meaning and walked towards the three girls..

Chapter 506: I’m Someone You Can’t Afford to Offend!

When everyone saw this scene, their eyes widened in shock.

Initially, they thought that Wilson only wanted to keep the young man who had a conflict with Mr. Campbell and his girlfriend behind, then this matter would be over.

However, no one expected Yara’s words to anger Wilson. At this moment, not only did Wilson want the young man to stay, but he also wanted Yara, Sadie, and Sabrina to stay.

Everyone knew very well what they were staying for.

A few strong men in black suits walked aggressively toward Sadie and the others.

Levin’s friends no longer cared about brotherhood at this point. They turned around and ran out of the office.

In the blink of an eye, only Connor, Levin, Sadie, and Yara were left in the office.

The reason why Connor didn’t leave was simple: it was because this matter already involved Sadie.

Connor couldn't leave her here alone, otherwise he wouldn't be able to explain himself to Candace.

Sadie turned her head and looked at Connor beside her, feeling a little surprised because Levin's friends had already left, but Connor was still here. This was something Sadie didn't expect.

However, Sadie knew that even if Connor stayed here, he wouldn't be able to solve any problems.

However, she did not feel afraid because of this, because her father worked in an organization and more or less had some connections. Even though Wilson had a lot of connections, he wouldn't dare to go against the people from the government.

Therefore, Sadie knew that she wouldn't be in any danger today. As for whether Sabrina, Yara, and the others could leave this place safely, she wasn't sure.

Sabrina's expression was very calm, as if she was not too afraid. Only Yara was scared silly. She hid behind Levin and didn't even dare to breathe loudly.

Levin was no longer as arrogant as before as he kept apologizing to Wilson.

However, Wilson didn't even look at Levin. After all, in Wilson's eyes, even if Jamie Clover was the one pleading for mercy, Wilson might not give him face.

Wilson was Kyle Hayes's nephew. He had followed Kyle for many years and was quite well known.

Although he wasn't as scary as Kyle was, most people in Porthampton City respected him.

At this moment, the black-robed man had already walked up to Sadie and the others. He reached out his hand and wanted to grab Sadie.

Sadie was about to say her father's name, but just as she was about to speak, a hand suddenly stopped her.

This person was none other than Connor.

When everyone saw Connor stand out, their eyes widened. They looked at this scene in a daze, and their expressions were extremely shocked. They did not expect that Connor would actually stand up at this time!

“Connor...”

Sadie frowned at Connor, but he didn't pay attention to Sadie at all. Instead, he walked up to Wilson and said calmly, “These mo girls are my friends. Give me some face and let them go now!”

Because Connor didn't want to expose his identity in front of Sadie, he said this very tactfully!

“Connor, are you crazy? What nonsense are you talking about?”

After Sadie heard Connor's words, she instantly broke out in a cold sweat. She quickly reached out and pulled Connor back, frowning and scolding him in a low voice.

After all, Sadie had yet to realize how scary Wilson was. She felt that as long as she said her father's name and apologized properly, this matter would probably be over.

But now that Connor suddenly stood up and said such a sentence, this matter might become very troublesome.

Wilson also noticed Connor, who had never spoken a word.

Wilson looked at Connor from head to toe and said in a disdainful tone, “Who do you think you are? Why should I give you face?”

At this moment, Wilson was actually very angry in his heart. After all, Levin and the others were the ones who'd started this incident.

Moreover, Yara's words had made Wilson very unhappy. Now that Connor had stepped forward, Wilson was even angrier.

"Who am I?" Connor looked at Wilson and was stunned for a moment. Then, he said coldly, "I'm someone you can never afford to offend!"

After Connor said this, everyone present was dumbfounded. Their mouths were wide open, and they felt that everything was too unbelievable. No one expected Connor to actually have the guts to say such a sentence.

The way everyone looked at Connor at this moment was as if they were looking at a madman.

"Connor, what nonsense are you talking about? Do you know that your words might kill all of us!"

Levin stood behind Connor and shouted at him excitedly.

At this moment, Levin was fully prepared to die. If he knew that Connor would be so brainless and say such words, he would never have brought Connor here!

Originally, it was just a small conflict, but now that Connor had caused such a ruckus, things might be different.

"You said that you are someone I can't afford to offend?" Wilson looked at Connor and smiled. Then, his eyes flashed with ruthlessness. He squinted and said coldly, "I've never seen anyone in Porthampton that I can't afford to offend!"

"Then you've already seen it!" Connor replied to Wilson lightly.

"Hahaha!"

When Wilson heard this, he laughed maniacally. He pointed at Connor and shouted, "Alright, kid. Today, I'll let you see if you and I can afford to offend you!"

“It’s over. This matter has blown up today!”

After hearing Wilson’s words, Sadie’s eyes flashed with fear.

She knew very clearly that Connor’s words had completely angered Wilson!

“What is this Connor thinking? He was still trying to show off at a time like this! Even someone like Levin didn’t dare to offend Wilson, so what right did Connor have to offend him?”

Sadie couldn’t understand what Connor was thinking.

At this moment, Wilson pointed at Connor’s position and ordered his men.

“Cripple this kid!”

Chapter 507: You Know Kyle Hayes?

“Okay, thank you!”

When the thugs heard this, they hurriedly agreed and then walked towards Connor’s position.

These thugs were all tall and strong, and their faces were extremely fierce. Their bulging muscles almost tore through their suits.

They walked in front of Connor aggressively, as if they really wanted to kill Connor.

Sabrina seemed to have never seen such a scene before. There was a flash of panic in her eyes. She asked Sadie nervously, “Sadie, what do we do? Hurry up and think of something!”

“What can I do? Connor was practically asking to die! I originally thought that as long as I told Wilson about my father’s identity, Wilson would let us off for my father’s sake. But Connor had to provoke Wilson... He doesn’t have any background, so how could Wilson let he off so easily?”

Sadie stood there and replied helplessly.

When Sabrina heard Sadie’s words, she started to hesitate. She bit her lips tightly as if she was about to say something, but she didn’t know if she should say it.

At this moment, those thugs had already walked in front of Connor.

One of the brawny men sneered at Connor and said indifferently, “Brat, since you want to die so badly today, we’ll fulfill your wish!”

Connor looked up at the thug and said to Wilson calmly, “Before your underlings make a move, I have a request!”

“Request?”

Wilson looked at Connor and asked in confusion, “Do you have any requests? Tell me about it...”

“Let my friend leave. The two of us will settle the rest!”

Connor said calmly.

“Let your friend leave?”

Wilson sneered disdainfully and said in a mocking tone, “Who do you think you are? Why should I listen to you?”

When Connor saw that Wilson didn’t agree to his request, the expression on his face became awkward.

If he called Kyle Hayes in front of Sadie, his identity would be exposed.

So after Connor considered for a moment, he chose to walk towards Wilson's position.

"What are you doing?"

One of the brawny men reached out his hand to stop Connor and shouted fiercely at him.

"Don't worry, I won't do anything. I just have something to say to him!"

Connor replied helplessly.

"Let him come over!"

Wilson felt that Connor was just an ordinary student. With so many underlings protecting him, Connor probably wouldn't do anything to him, so he shouted at Connor with confidence.

Hearing Wilson's words, the burly man hesitated for a moment and slowly let go of Connor's right hand.

Connor directly walked towards Wilson, while Sadie, Sabrina and the others looked at Connor with puzzled expressions. At this moment, they didn't know what Connor was going to do.

"What the hell is this Connor doing? Could it be that he really wants to kill all of us before he'll be happy?"

Levin looked at Connor and shouted with a broken expression.

Sadie turned her head and looked at Levin with disdain.

Although Connor's actions were very reckless in her eyes, no matter what, his actions today were indeed more responsible than Levin's.

At the very least, Connor would stand up for them while Levin was thinking about how he could leave this place!

When comparing the two, Sadie felt that Connor was more responsible than Levin today.

On the other side, Connor walked to Wilson's side and whispered something into his ear.

When Wilson heard Connor's words, he raised his head and looked at Connor with a strange look in his eyes.

"Is what you said true?"

Wilson whispered to Connor.

"If you don't want to make a big deal out of this matter, you can let my friend go now. I'll stay and the two of us will settle the rest!"

Connor calmly replied to Wilson.

Wilson stood there and hesitated for two seconds. Then, he said to his subordinate, "Release these people!"

"Alright, President Hayes!"

The leader nodded hurriedly.

When Sadie, Yara, Levin, and the others heard Wilson's words, they were all stunned on the spot. Their faces were full of confusion; no one expected that Wilson would let them off because of Connor's words.

When Levin, Yara, and the young man who had offended Mr. Campbell heard Wilson's words, they immediately felt relieved.

Without any hesitation, they turned around and ran out of the office.

Meanwhile, Sadie and Sabrina stood there in confusion. They couldn't understand how Connor did it!

"What are you two still standing there for? President Hayes told you two to leave, didn't you hear?"

When the leader saw that Sadie and Sabrina did not seem to have any intention of leaving, he hurriedly shouted at them.

"Connor, you..."

Sabrina could not help but shout at Connor.

"You two go first. I'll take care of the rest!" Connor turned to look at Sabrina and said calmly.

"But..."

Sabrina looked at Connor and wanted to say something.

"You guys can leave. I'll be fine!"

Connor interrupted Sabrina.

When Sabrina saw how determined Connor was, she could not help but turn to look at Sadie who was behind her.

“Connor, will you really be fine?”

Sadie frowned and asked Connor.

“Of course!”

Connor nodded expressionlessly.

“Alright, Sadie, let’s go outside and wait for him!”

Sadie could feel that Connor was not joking, so she thought for a moment and prepared to leave.

Sadie’s current thoughts were very simple. After she left, she could contact Tony immediately.

If Connor really encountered any danger, he could call Tony and ask him to come over and help.

Sabrina looked at Connor worriedly. After hesitating for two seconds, she turned around and left the office with Sadie.

After the two girls left, Wilson pushed the beautiful young woman in his arms away and walked to Connor. He carefully sized up Connor and asked calmly, “Just now, you said that you know Kyle Hayes.

Is this true?”

“When Kyle Hayes sees me, he has to call me Mr. McDonald!” Connor replied to Wilson expressionlessly.

What Connor said to Wilson just now was actually just a simple sentence implying that he knew Kyle Hayes!

Chapter 508: I Just Wanted to Hit You

After Wilson heard Connor's words, his face revealed a trace of surprise.

He frowned and asked Connor, "Brat, do you know what consequences your words will bring you?"

"Then do you know what the consequences of saying this to me will be?"

Connor replied calmly.

"You!"

Wilson opened his mouth and was about to speak when

"Smack!"

However, before Wilson could finish his sentence, Connor did something unexpected.

He raised his right hand and slapped Wilson's face!

"How dare you hit President Hayes!"

"Brat, you're asking for death!"

When the strong men in the office saw Connor slap Wilson, their expressions suddenly became angry.

After all, there were so many thugs watching. Who would have thought that Connor would dare to hit someone directly? And it was a big shot like Wilson, no less!

Even the beautiful young woman sitting on the sofa couldn't help but reveal a shocked expression when she saw this scene. She covered her mouth with her small hand, and her eyes widened in shock.

Although she hadn't been by Wilson's side for a long time and had only become his mistress for the past six months, she was still very familiar with Wilson's character and temper.

The last time, someone had said something bad about Wilson, and he was almost beaten to death by his men.

At this moment, Connor had actually slapped Wilson. This beautiful young woman didn't even dare to imagine how miserable a state Connor would end up.

Wilson's men were shocked for a moment before they rushed towards Connor.

"I advise you to keep your subordinates away from me, or you will regret it!"

Connor shouted at Wilson expressionlessly when he saw the burly men rushing over.

"Don't move!"

Wilson felt that something was wrong and quickly shouted. He wasn't a fool; He felt that Connor should be very clear about his current situation, and yet Connor still dared to hit him. This meant that Connor might not be afraid of him. In addition, Connor said that he knew Kyle Hayes. Wilson began to suspect that Connor's identity was not simple, so he quickly stopped his subordinates.

He was prepared to figure out Connor's identity first before coming to settle the score with him.

Connor was here anyway. If it turned out he had nothing to do with Kyle, it wouldn't be too late to teach him a lesson.

After Connor slapped Wilson, he walked straight to the sofa and sat next to the sexy and beautiful young woman.

The beautiful young woman looked at Connor with a trace of helplessness in her eyes. She quickly got up and walked behind Wilson.

“Do you know why I hit you just now?”

Connor sat on the sofa with his legs crossed and asked Wilson calmly.

“I don’t know.”

Wilson gritted his teeth and replied in a low voice.

“It’s good that you don’t know. Because I don’t know why, but I just want to hit you!” Connor looked at Wilson and smiled faintly.

“Do you want to f*cking die?”

Wilson shouted.

Connor sat on the sofa and said to Wilson casually, “Don’t be so agitated. You can call Kyle Hayes now and tell him that a person named Connor McDonald slapped you.”

“Grr...”

Wilson looked at Connor and frowned. He rubbed his face and whispered to Connor, “Kid, I’ll call my uncle now. If my uncle doesn’t know you, I’ll definitely kill you myself!”

“President Hayes, I think this kid is just fooling us here. How could he know your uncle?”

One of the thugs shouted excitedly at Wilson.

“That’s right, President Hayes. Stop talking nonsense with this kid. Just kill him!”

The other thug also shouted.

“Shut up!”

Wilson was very angry after being slapped by Connor. However, he had always been very cautious. He felt that many people with high status and background in Porthampton were very low-key.

If this Connor really had some background and he ended up offending Connor, then things would be troublesome.

In the eyes of ordinary people, Wilson was a very powerful big shot. Ordinary people would not dare to provoke him.

However, Wilson was different from Kyle Hayes in that he didn’t have much power at all. He just relied on his relationship with Kyle to get by in Porthampton.

Moreover, if Kyle knew that he had offended someone important, he would definitely teach Wilson a lesson and might even take back some of his power.

Therefore, Wilson felt that it was better to be more cautious today.

Wilson took a deep breath, then took out his phone and dialed Kyle’s number.

“Beep, beep, beep...”

After the phone rang twice, Kyle picked up the phone and said calmly, "Wilson, what's wrong?"

"Uncle, is it convenient for you to talk now?"

Wilson asked respectfully.

"It's convenient. If there's anything, just say it!" Kyle said lightly.

"Uncle, today, a few students beat up AAr. Campbell at my place!"

Wilson said slowly.

"The son of Mr. Campbell of the Campbell Corporation?" Kyle asked.

"That's right, it's the Mr. Campbell that you told me to treat well!"

"And then?"

Kyle asked in confusion.

"Among these students, there is a person called Connor McDonald. He said that he knows you!"

Wilson turned his head to look at Connor, who was sitting on the sofa, because Kyle's answer would directly affect Connor's fate.

"Connor MsDonald?"

When Kyle heard the name, he couldn't help but gasp. Then, he quickly asked Wilson, "What does the Connor you mentioned look like?"

Wilson could feel something wrong from Kyle's tone, so he quickly described Connor's appearance.

Everyone looked at Wilson's seat. They could feel that when Wilson first made the call, the expression on his face was very relaxed and peaceful.

However, after Wilson finished describing Connor's appearance, his expression became very nervous. His eyes also became a little scared, and his forehead began to break out in cold sweat.

It was obvious that Kyle had said something to Wilson.

Meanwhile, Connor sat on the sofa and actually picked up his glass to drink. The expression on his face was very calm.

When everyone saw this scene, they were all dumbfounded. Their expressions were extremely incredulous.

Because according to common sense, the person who should be nervous now should be Connor!

Chapter 509: A Terrifying Existence!

After the phone call, Wilson's expression changed. He looked extremely nervous.

Everyone knew that Kyle Hayes must have said something to Wilson over the phone, otherwise, Wilson wouldn't have reacted like this!

After about five minutes, Wilson finally put down the phone in his hand and walked shakily to Connor. He stuttered, "M-Mr. McDonald, my uncle has something to say to you!"

At this time, Wilson's attitude towards Connor had changed drastically.

Previously, Wilson had always addressed Connor as "that brat," but now, he had addressed him in such a polite manner. And most importantly, Wilson had actually referred to him as "Mr. McDonald," which meant that Wilson was very respectful of Connor in his heart.

Connor took over Wilson's phone in an orderly manner and said softly, "Yo, Kyle, what's wrong?"

After Connor said this, everyone present was dumbfounded. Their mouths were wide open, and their expressions were extremely incredulous.

They knew that the person who was calling Connor at this time was not someone else, but Wilson's uncle, Kyle Hayes!

These people had been with Wilson for a long time, so they knew how terrifying Kyle was!

In the entirety of Porthampton, apart for a few people, many bosses had to call Kyle Hayes as "President Hayes" when they saw him. However, Connor had actually called Kyle by his first name!

It was the first time that the crowd had seen Kyle Hayes being addressed as such. They found it unbelievable.

At this moment, even the beautiful young woman in a pair of shorts looked at Connor with a huge change in the way she viewed Connor.

Everyone knew deep down that Connor's background was definitely not ordinary.

"Mr. McDonald, I'm really sorry. My nephew accidentally offended you just now. It's all my fault for not disciplining this kid properly!" Kyle said nervously.

"It's okay. Your nephew has never seen me before, so it's normal for him not to know me. Just ask him to restrain himself in the future!"

Connor replied indifferently.

Kyle Hayes had always played a very important role by Connor's side. Basically, all of Connor's affairs that leaned towards the gray areas were managed by him.

In addition, Kyle and Thomas Morgan didn't betray Connor during the incident with Yannick Lee. Connor was very grateful to them.

Although Kyle and Connor were subordinate and superior respectively, Connor had always regarded Kyle as a friend. He had never thought of making things difficult for Kyle because of such a small matter today.

"Thank you, Mr. McDonald. I will definitely discipline this kid well in the future!"

Kyle said gratefully.

"You're treating me like an outsider when you say things like that. Although your nephew offended me today, he didn't do anything overboard to me, so you don't have to worry!" Connor said lightly.

"Alright, then Mr. McDonald, you can deal with the rest yourself. As long as you leave this kid alive, you can do whatever you want!"

Kyle was a very sensible person. Seeing that Connor had already said this, he naturally didn't continue to press the issue.

"Right," Connor replied softly and then hung up the phone.

After hanging up the phone, Connor returned the phone to Wilson, who was scared to death.

Wilson looked at Connor in horror. After hesitating for a moment, he made an action that made everyone present feel incredulous!

“Thud!”

Wilson knelt in front of Connor.

“Mr. Hayes!”

“Mr. Hayes!”

When Wilson’s thugs saw this scene, they all went forward to pull Wilson up.

Previously, after Connor slapped Wilson, everyone was guessing how Connor would die.

After all, they had never seen anyone so bold as to slap Wilson.

However, no one expected that Wilson would kneel before Connor in the end!

Everyone couldn’t help but think of what Connor had said before, and at this moment, they finally reacted. The guy who looked like a loser sitting in front of them was actually such a terrifying existence —so terrifying that even Wilson couldn’t afford to offend him!

“Get lost!”

When Wilson saw the strong men trying to help him up, he quickly widened his eyes and shouted at them excitedly.

The muscular men retreated one after another, looking at Wilson with fear in their eyes.

Wilson raised his head and looked at Connor. Then, he said to Connor respectfully, “Mr. McDonald, I’m really sorry. I was blind just now and accidentally offended you. I hope you can give me a chance to earn your forgiveness!”

When Wilson said this, his tone was very sincere. Now he knew that Connor was actually Kyle Hayes’s boss, which meant that Connor was also his boss. How could Wilson have the guts to provoke him!

Connor narrowed his eyes and looked at Wilson, then said lightly, “You didn’t know my identity just now, and your uncle has already pleaded with me, so I can let you off today!”

Wilson never dreamed that Connor would be so easy to talk to. He suddenly looked up at Connor and shouted with an excited expression. “Mr. McDonald, is what you said true?”

“Do you think I would joke with you?”

Connor replied indifferently.

“No, not at all...”

Wilson was stunned for a moment before he quickly shook his head.

“But from today onwards, you better restrain yourself. Otherwise, if you really encounter any trouble, even Kyle Hayes might not be able to save you, understand?” Connor reminded Wilson seriously.

“I-I understand!”

Wilson nodded without thinking.

Connor looked at Wilson indifferently and didn’t say anything. He turned around and walked out of the private room.

“Mr. McDonald, let me send you off!”

At this time, Wilson already knew Connor’s identity, so he naturally had to suck up to Connor.

When he saw that Connor was about to leave, he hurriedly stood up and prepared to send him out of the office.

However, Connor directly rejected Wilson and said softly, “No need. I don’t want anyone to know my identity yet, so don’t tell anyone about me. At most, tell them that I’m friends with your uncle, understand?”

“Understood, understood!”

After Wilson heard Connor’s words, he hurriedly nodded.

Connor walked out of the room expressionlessly, as if what had happened just now was just a trivial matter in his eyes..

Chapter 510: Things Are Not That Simple After Wilson watched Connor leave the office, he heaved a sigh of relief after a long time. He reached out and wiped the sweat off his forehead, as if he had narrowly escaped death.

Mr. Campbell, who had a conflict with Levin and the others before, was also dumbfounded. After hesitating for a few minutes, he mustered up his courage and stammered to Wilson, “Mr. Hayes, what’s going on today?”

“Mr. Campbell, you've caused me a lot of trouble today!” Wilson walked to Mr. Campbell’s side and looked at him helplessly. His face was filled with despair.

“Mr. Hayes, who is this kid? How can he scare you like this? Is there really a relationship between him and your uncle?” Mr. Campbell asked with a frown.

“Of course, Mr. McDonald and my uncle have a relationship, and it’s not an ordinary one! He’s my uncle’s boss, and my uncle is my boss. Now you can understand why I’m so afraid of him, right?”

“This...”

When Mr. Campbell heard Wilson’s words, he was obviously dumbfounded. He stood rooted to the ground with a dumbfounded expression on his face.

He had suspected that because someone in Connor’s family knew Kyle Hayes, Wilson was so afraid of Connor. However, he never expected Connor himself to be so terrifying. He was actually Kyle Hayes’s boss!

Even Wilson’s mistress couldn’t help but reveal a shocked expression when she heard this.

She had thought that Kyle Hayes was already the biggest boss of the company; but she didn’t expect that there was someone else behind him. Moreover, this boss looked to be around 20 years old.

“Mr. Hayes, are you sure about this? | think that kid...” Mr. Campbell seemed to be in disbelief and could not help but frown. “My uncle told me himself. Do you think I can make a mistake?” Wilson replied in a low voice.

Mr. Campbell looked at Wilson in a daze and was silent for a long time. Then, he sighed and said, “I didn’t expect that our Porthampton would be so small. For such a big shot to look so ordinary... If you didn’t tell me, I wouldn’t have believed that this Mr. McDonald has such a terrifying background!”

“In the future, when you meet Mr. McDonald, you must not provoke him casually. If it weren’t for my uncle pleading for mercy for me today, | think both of us would have lost our lives!” Wilson replied helplessly.

Mr. Campbell looked at Wilson, who was still unable to calm down for a long time, and felt a lingering fear in his heart.

If the two of them really offended Connor today, the consequences would have been unimaginable!

On the other side, Connor walked out of the Golden Bell Nightclub after leaving Wilson's office.

However, when Connor walked out of the Golden Bell Nightclub, he saw two familiar figures at the door!

He didn't expect Sadie and Sabrina to wait for him at the entrance of the nightclub instead of leaving like Levin and the rest! Although Connor didn't have a good impression of Sadie, he was still a little touched that she didn't choose to leave him here. Connor walked towards the two of them. At this moment, Sabrina seemed to be talking to Sadie.

After Connor walked over, he could hear the conversation between the two people clearly.

"Sadie, you should call your father. It's been so long, but Connor hasn't come out yet. Something must have happened!" Sabrina said anxiously to Sadie.

"Alright then!" Sadie agreed helplessly. She took out her phone and found Tony's number, ready to call him.

However, before she made the call, Sadie did not forget to say, "I really don't know what this Connor is thinking. This matter could have been easily resolved today, but he insisted on provoking Wilson anyway. Why does he like to show off so much?"

"If I didn't show off, would Wilson let you off so easily?"

Connor walked behind Sadie and said calmly.

After Sadie heard Connor's voice, she turned around and looked at him with a shocked expression. "Connor, you actually came out?"

Sabrina's face was filled with shock as she stammered and shouted at Connor.

Connor did not answer Sabrina's question. Instead, he looked at Sadie and said calmly, "Uncle Tony has just arrived in Porthampton, so his connections have not expanded yet. Even if you tell Wilson about Uncle Tony's identity today, he will at most let you go, but he would definitely not let the others go!"

Sadie calmed herself down and asked Connor in disbelief, "You... How did you get out?"

"I told Wilson that I knew his uncle, Kyle Hayes. Then, I knew him. After that, he let me out!" Connor explained.

"You know Kyle Hayes?"

After Sadie heard Connor's words, her expression became even more incredulous.

"What's so strange about that?" Connor asked calmly.

"Kyle Hayes is a big shot in Porthampton. How could you know him?" Sadie asked in confusion.

"When Kyle Hayes got into a car accident, I saved him and took him to the hospital, so we know each other. I'm his savior. I think he's very willing to help with such a small matter!"

Connor had already thought about how to explain his relationship with Kyle Hayes to Sadie.

"I see. No wonder you were so calm today. Sadie and I thought you were crazy!" After Sabrina found out the truth, she shouted excitedly at Connor.

Meanwhile, Sadie looked at Connor in confusion. She seemed to have some but she couldn't find any reason to refute Connor.

She hesitated for a moment before asking Connor softly, "Connor, is what you said true?" "Of course it's true. Otherwise, why do you think Wilson would let me go?" Connor replied with a smile.

"I don't know why Wilson let you go, but I feel that things are definitely not as simple as you said. I'll go and ask Wilson now!"

Sadie felt that what had happened today was really strange. She wanted to personally verify whether Connor's words were true or not.

After saying this, Sadie turned around and walked into the Golden Bell Nightclub..
