Chapter 51: Do You Have Proof?

“I wonder how old CeeM is and if he’s handsome...”

Mina had no idea what Connor was thinking. She muttered to Connor with a face full of anticipation.

“What if you go to that dinner tomorrow and find out that he’s a bald, greasy, middle-aged man?” Connor asked quickly.

“If he’s middle-aged, I’ll return the money to him. After all, he has given me so much. I definitely can’t take this money!” Mina said slowly.

After hearing what Mina said, Connor was even more speechless.

Mina’s intention was straightforward. If the other party were about the same age as her and had a decent appearance, she would date that person.

However, if the other party were older and middle-aged, Mina would return the money to him.

There was nothing wrong with what Mina said.

However, when Connor thought about it again, he realized that this whole situation was wrong. The money was Connor’s!

Although Connor didn’t care about the money, he was not ready to have that handed to a stranger for no reason. That person was a hacker, which made Connor feel very uncomfortable.

“Sigh...”

Connor took a deep breath and said to Mina softly, "Mina, there's something I haven't told you!"

"What is it?"

Mina blinked and asked him curiously when she saw that his expression had suddenly turned serious.

"I'm the real CeeM. I gave you those gifts!"

Connor revealed his identity.

Mina was surprised. She looked at Connor in confusion.

"Connor McDonald, what did you just say?"

Mina hesitated for a moment. She thought she heard him wrong. So, she frowned and asked again.

"Actually, I'm CeeM. The man using the account 'CeeM' today is a fake!"

To prevent Mina from being cheated, Connor had to tell her the truth.

H ii

Mina stared at Connor for a long while. Then, she burst out laughing.

Connor was rendered speechless when he saw Mina laughing.

He had expected Mina to react in such a way if he told her everything.

"What are you laughing at?"

Connor asked Mina helplessly.

“Connor, you are such a joker. You don’t have to make this kind of joke if you want to cheer me up...”
Mina said to Connor flirtatiously.

“Ma’am, I’m not joking with you. I’m telling you the truth!” Connor growled.

“The truth?”

Mina laughed at Connor before continuing, “Okay, I know you’re joking with me. How can you be CeeM? You must be joking because I’m in a good mood today, right?”

Connor was out of words.

He was worried that Mina would be cheated by some strangers, but here she was, thinking he was joking with her.

That hacker had brazenly stolen Connor’s account, so he must be planning to do something to Mina.

“Mina, I’m not joking with you. I’m very serious. I’m CeeM. I was the one who gave you the gifts before, but my account was hacked earlier. That guy is lying to you. Do you understand what I mean?”

Connor told Mina seriously.

Mina couldn’t help but feel stunned when she noticed Connor suddenly being serious.

She chewed her lip and said softly, “Connor, are you really not joking with me?”

“No!”

Connor shook his head.

“How is this possible?”

Mina suddenly became serious, too. She said gently, “Do you know how many gifts CeeM has given me these few days?”

Connor was speechless for a moment. Although he did often tune into Mina’s live stream channel to give gifts to her these few days, he did not keep track of how much money he had given her because he couldn’t care less about the money.

“Ceem has given me nearly three million dollars in gifts these past few days. Do you have this much money?”

“If you are really CeeM, why didn’t you use this money to improve your life?”

“Why didn’t you move to a better place?”

Mina looked at Connor and continued to question him.

Connor seemed even more helpless now.

He didn’t know how to explain everything to Mina.

He couldn’t just tell Mina that he had suddenly become rich because he had inherited ten trillion dollars.

At that moment, Mina couldn’t even believe that he was CeeM. She definitely wouldn’t believe it if he told her that he had inherited ten trillion dollars.

“Connor, since you claim that you are CeeM, do you have any proof?”

Mina suddenly asked Connor.

“Proof?”

Connor was stunned for a moment.

“Yes, if you are really CeeM, then you should have proof to prove your identity, right?” Mina gently nodded.

Hearing this, Connor seemed even more helpless.

The only proof he had was his ‘CeeM’ Twitch account.

But that account had been hacked. He couldn’t log in at all.

Mina smiled faintly when Connor stood there without a word, then she said, “Alright, Connor, drop the act. I know you must be joking with me. How can you be CeeM? CeeM is one of the most famous tycoons on Twitch. He could just give millions of dollars per pop.”

Connor was nothing more than a poor delivery boy in Mina’s eyes. He was nothing compared to CeeM!

“Forget it. Since you don’t believe me, there’s nothing I can do...”

Connor replied helplessly.

“It’s getting late. I’m going to leave now!”

Mina seemed to have sensed the atmosphere getting awkward, so she didn't continue the conversation with Connor. Instead, she turned around and was about to leave Connor's room.

"Wait!"

Just as Mina was about to walk out of the room, Connor suddenly called after her and reached out to grab her.

"What's up?"

Mina turned to look at Connor and asked, puzzled.

"I have something that can prove that I am CeeM!"

"What is it?"

"The username 'CeeM'. The capital alphabets are my initials. That is why I picked that username!"

Connor looked at Mina and explained confidently..

Chapter 52: Mina's Misunderstanding

"Connor, your proof sounds very forced!"

"Put aside the fact that many people have the same initials and that 'CeeM' has four alphabets, should I believe that everyone with those initials in their names is CeeM then?"

After hearing Connor's so-called proof, Mina rolled her eyes. It was evident that she did not believe him.

Connor was speechless. He smiled wryly and said, "Well, even if you don't believe that I am CeeM, I know that the person you're going to see tomorrow is a fake. So whatever it is, you shouldn't go and meet him!"

Connor looked at Mina and said in a deep voice.

"What makes you think he's an impostor? He used CeeM's Facebook account to add me as a friend, that means he is CeeM!"

Mina seemed to be a little upset now.

"I don't care how he added you on Facebook. Whatever it is, you shouldn't go and meet this person tomorrow!"

Connor was no longer in the mood to prove his identity, nor was he in the mood to explain to Mina the truth of this matter. He just didn't want to see Mina being deceived!

"Connor, what's going on with you today? Why can't I go to meet that person?" Mina looked at him and asked, puzzled.

"Because that person is a liar!" Connor snapped.

Mina was shocked. A trace of anger flashed in her eyes. She then said to Connor coldly, "Connor McDonald, aren't you pushing it a little bit too far?"

"How am I pushing it too far?"

Connor looked at Mina and asked with a puzzled expression.

"How can you say that he is a liar? CeeM has helped me so much, and he has given me so many gifts. How can you call him a liar? If he is a liar, I hope there will be more liars in this world then!" Mina shouted.

Obviously, Mina would not believe a single word that Connor said.

“Whether he is a liar or not, you cannot meet him!”

Connor was not in the mood to explain more to her, so he shut down the conversation firmly.

“Connor McDonald, who do you think you are? What does my meeting with him have to do with you? Aren’t you overthinking things?”

Mina shouted agitatedly.

“I am overthinking?”

When Connor heard that, he suddenly felt as if his heart had been stabbed hard.

Didn’t Connor do all this for Mina?

But in Mina’s eyes, he was just a busybody.

Connor looked at Mina in a daze. It was hard to describe his mood at this time. In Mina’s eyes, he did not think that everything he had done would look like he was a self-serving person.

“Connor, I know what you’re thinking. You feel jealous that I am going on a date with CeeM because you like me, don’t you? That is why you have made up such a story to trick me. You just want to stop me from meeting CeeM, no?”

Mina seemed provoked by what Connor said. She simply couldn’t tolerate someone speaking negatively about CeeM. So, she had started to shut Connor down.

“Me liking you? When did I say that I like you?”

Connor was angry now.

Although Mina was beautiful and had a very sexy figure, Connor was not attracted to Mina at all!

Even when Connor was tuning into Mina’s live stream, it was only because Mina was his housemate. He didn’t mean anything by it. He was only a good housemate.

“Are you still denying it now?”

Mina looked at Connor and sneered before continuing, “Connor McDonald, let me remind you to think too highly of yourself. Although I often chat with you these few days, I only treat you as a normal housemate. I don’t have any other intentions toward you. I initially had a positive impression of you, but what you said to me today is disappointing!”

“Hah...”

Connor looked at Mina and smiled helplessly. He had given up on persuading Mina not to meet the imposter.

After all, in Mina’s eyes, he was a terrible person. So even if the so-called CeeM deceived Mina, it had nothing to do with him.

“Whatever! I’ve already told you what I tell you today. If you don’t believe me, I can’t do anything about it. If you want to meet him, then go and meet him!”

Connor said to Mina disappointedly.

Mina was stunned for a moment. Then, she turned around and walked out of Connor’s room.

Connor helplessly watched Mina leave.

In the beginning, he had given Mina those gifts because he wanted to help Mina, but he didn't expect all of these to happen.

What Mina said earlier really broke Connor's heart, so he didn't plan to continue meddling in this.

After closing the door, Connor lay on his bed and closed his eyes, ready to sleep.

But for some reason, Connor couldn't fall asleep no matter how hard he tried. He felt uneasy.

He wasn't feeling that way because someone had impersonated him, but because of Mina's attitude toward him today.

"Maybe in Mina's eyes, a loser like me isn't worthy of being her friend, and maybe to her, I am out of her league!"

Connor couldn't help but sigh softly.

Although Connor didn't intend to pursue Mina, he still felt very uncomfortable after hearing how Mina spoke to him today.

Even though he was a wealthy man now, he felt that as long as a woman knew his identity, she would throw herself into his arms.

But those who didn't know about Connor's wealth would all despise him.

It was so with Mina, and it seemed to be the same for Freya Phillips and Maya Phillips!

"It seems that society nowadays is very materialistic!"

Connor smiled bitterly, then closed his eyes and went to sleep, having pushed thoughts about Mina aside.

The next day.

Eight o'clock in the morning.

After washing up, Connor was prepared to go to class.

However, just as Connor opened the door, he saw Mina walk out of her room.

Mina looked particularly attractive today. She was wearing a body-wrapping T-shirt. She looked busty, and a silver, chunky necklace rested strategically on her sexy collarbone. She seemed extremely dazzling.

She sported a short skirt that accentuated her seductive figure. Complementing her long and straight legs was a pair of black high heels. She looked extremely pleasing to the eye.

When Connor saw Mina's outfit, he could not help but feel stunned. He knew that Mina was definitely going on a date with the other 'CeeM' today.

He was a little disappointed. It seemed that Mina still didn't believe him.

So he ignored her and walked outside.

"Connor!"

Mina suddenly shouted.

Connor turned to look at her. Then, he asked expressionlessly, “What’s up?”

“About uhh... I’m sorry about last night. I overreacted and overstepped the line.”

Mina walked up to Connor and said softly.

Connor replied indifferently. He did not try to advise Mina not to see that stranger again. Instead, he walked out of the apartment..

Chapter 53: Something Is Missing

Half an hour later, Connor arrived at his class.

There were still over ten minutes before class started, so there weren’t many students in the classroom. Dominic, Spencer, and the others hadn’t arrived yet.

Connor found a seat at the back of the classroom and sat down. He took out his phone and researched ways to retrieve his hacked Twitch account.

However, he couldn’t figure it out even after studying it for a while.

Five minutes later, the number of students in the classroom gradually increased.

Brandon Guthrie, Mandy Hines, Lily Sullivan, and the others had arrived.

When Brandon saw Connor, a hint of ferocity flashed in his eyes.

Yesterday at New Century Restaurant, Connor had caused Brandon a lot of trouble, so he had been thinking about how to take revenge on Connor.

At this moment, Mandy was also looking at Connor resentfully. After all, Brandon's family business had been affected, so Mandy was also very unhappy about it.

Moreover, Mandy Hines had suffered losses at the hands of Brandon Guthrie one after another, which made her very unhappy.

As for May Young, there was no more to say. Previously, Connor had brought her to a hotel room and asked her to take off her clothes before he turned around and left.

Although Connor did not do anything, May felt that Connor might as well have done something to her.

After all, to have a man walk away after a woman took off her clothes was a great insult to that woman.

The bell rang soon after, indicating the start of the day's lessons.

Rachel Wallace wore a formal outfit. She had light makeup on and was wearing a body-hugging wrap skirt.

Her slender and fair legs sported a pair of black high heels. She looked exceptionally sexy and charming.

When Dominic saw Rachel walk in, he could not help but seem excited. He turned and said to Connor, "Our lecturer is so hot! If only I could marry a woman like Rachel Wallace!"

Dominic commented quickly and stared at Rachel without any reservation.

Meanwhile, Connor looked at Rachel's sexy figure on the podium and couldn't help but recall the scene when he saw her changing her clothes in the dormitory not long ago.

The image of Rachel's sexy and gorgeous curves was etched upon Connor's mind.

At this moment, Rachel, standing on the podium, seemed upset. There was a trace of anger in her beautiful eyes.

It was evident that she was not in a good mood today.

“Connor McDonald, step out with me now!”

Rachel glanced at Connor and said to him coldly.

Connor could not help but feel stunned for a moment. Then, he stood up and asked, “Ma’am, what’s the matter?”

“In this session, everyone will self-study. Connor, step out with me!”

She responded coldly and walked out of the classroom, her behind swaying.

Connor hesitated for a moment before following her out of the classroom.

After walking out of the classroom, Connor realized that Rachel didn’t intend to stop. Instead, she was walking toward her dormitory.

Connor followed Rachel, not daring to say a word.

He could only silently admire Rachel’s sexy and seductive legs. He silently wondered, just what did he do that warranted Rachel calling him to her dormitory to speak about it?

The students in the classroom were puzzled, too. No one knew what had happened.

“Spencer, do you think Connor offended Ms. Wallace?”

At this moment, Dominic seemed a little worried about Connor. He couldn't help but ask Spencer in a low voice.

"I don't know. I mean, Connor couldn't have offended her in anyway!" Spencer was as perplexed as everyone else.

"If Connor has really offended Ms. Wallace, he must be in trouble!"

Dominic knew that Rachel was not someone to be messed with. Therefore, he was very worried about Connor.

On the other hand, Brandon, Mandy, May, and the others were secretly thrilled.

Right now, they were hoping that Connor had gotten in trouble. It would be best if he was expelled from the university.

Meanwhile, Connor followed Rachel out of the class.

Connor noticed that Rachel didn't seem to have any intention of stopping. Instead, she was walking toward the university's dormitory.

Connor followed after her, confused. He couldn't understand why Rachel had led him to the dormitory.

However, Connor had to admit that he enjoyed the view behind Rachel.

This was because he could admire Rachel's slender and fair legs.

In Connor's eyes, Rachel was very attractive.

"Ma'am, why did you ask for me?"

Connor hesitated before asking Rachel softly.

“You’ll know in a while!”

Rachel replied expressionlessly and continued to walk toward the dormitory, her heels click-clacking against the floor.

Soon, Connor followed Rachel into the dormitory.

After entering the dormitory, Rachel sat on the bed, her fair legs gently crossed.

She then said to Connor, “Connor McDonald, you should know why I have brought you here, right?”

After hearing that, Connor was stunned for a moment. He said helplessly, “Ma’am, I really didn’t peep at you changing your clothes the other day. Didn’t I already explain it to you?”

“I’m not talking about that!” Rachel replied coldly.

“So what is it then?”

Connor asked, puzzled.

“Haven’t you noticed that something is missing in my dormitory?” Rachel asked.

“What is missing?”

Connor seemed completely confused.

After all, he had only come to Rachel's dormitory to help her move the teaching materials. He didn't take anything from the room. So, how could something be missing?

"Ma'am, what did you lose?"

Connor hesitated before asking her.

"Are you still trying to deny your wrongdoings now? Go to the balcony and take a good look at what's missing!"

Rachel pointed at the balcony and shouted at Connor coldly.

Connor subconsciously turned to look at the balcony and still couldn't figure it out.

The only thing missing was the sexy hollowed-out pajamas that were hanging on the laundry hanger on the balcony.

"Ma'am, what exactly is missing from your balcony?"

Connor hesitated before asking in puzzlement.

When Rachel saw Connor looking confused, she couldn't help but sneer at him.

Then, she said softly, "Connor, I've already put it so bluntly.. Are you still pretending to be innocent now?"

Chapter 54: Rachel Wallace's Interrogation

"Ma'am, I really don't know!"

Connor McDonald said helplessly.

“Sigh...”

Rachel Wallace took a deep breath to calm herself down.

Then, she said, “The pajamas that I hung on the balcony are missing. No one else has entered this room except for you. If you claim that you didn’t steal my pajamas, who did?”

Connor felt as if he had been struck by lightning.

He did not expect that the thing that Rachel had lost was those sexy pajamas.

Right now, Rachel had mistakenly thought that Connor had stolen the pajamas!

It was true that Connor had gone to the balcony because of those pajamas.

However, he wasn’t perverted enough to steal Rachel’s pajamas.

“Ma’am, although I went to the balcony the other day, I didn’t steal your pajamas!”

Connor explained to Rachel helplessly.

“You were the only one who entered my dormitory room. If you didn’t steal it, who else could have done it? Tell me!”

Rachel stared at Connor and shouted at him in shame and anger.

“Even if I came to your dormitory room, that doesn’t prove that I stole your pajamas, right?”

Connor paused and then continued, "Oh right, Ma'am, when I came to your dormitory room, I noticed someone else on the balcony. That was why I went to the balcony. Could that person have stolen it?"

Since things had come to this point, Connor could only make up an excuse to fool her.

However, Rachel did not seem to fall for Connor's trick.

She stared at him, her eyes filled with anger as she said, "Connor McDonald, didn't you say you went to the balcony to help me kill cockroaches?"

"Besides, even if someone else entered my dormitory room, my pajamas were still there when you left. I only realized that my pajamas were gone when I came back at night!"

Rachel exposed Connor's lies.

"Ma'am, since you claim that your pajamas were still there when I left, what makes you think I stole them?"

Connor found a loophole in her logic and quickly defended himself.

Rachel was taken aback for a moment. Then, she said in a low voice, "Maybe you came back and stole my pajamas?"

"Ma'am, you are wronging me. I have come to your dormitory room so many times. I would have done it long ago if I really wanted to steal your pajamas. Why should I have waited until now?"

Connor explained in desperation as he inched closer to Rachel.

Rachel looked at Connor and suddenly realized that his words made sense.

After all, if Connor had wanted to steal her pajamas, there was no need for him to do it only now!

“Besides, Ma’am, I am already so close to you. If I stole your pajamas, I would be the first suspect. So why would I take such a big risk to do it?”

Connor struck while the iron was hot and continued to explain.

Rachel’s eyes narrowed as she scrutinized Connor. It wasn’t easy to read what she was thinking.

Connor was very nervous, too. He didn’t know if Rachel would believe him. However, either way, he didn’t steal Rachel’s pajamas.

Therefore, he definitely wouldn’t take the blame!

“So you didn’t steal my pajamas?”

Rachel hesitated before asking Connor softly.

“No, definitely not!”

Connor shook his head without thinking.

“Well, I’ll believe you this time. You’d better not lie to me. If I find out that the pervert is you, I’ll teach you a lesson!”

Rachel said to Connor coldly.

“Don’t worry, Ma’am. I didn’t steal your pajamas. Why would I steal your pajamas?”

Connor said confidently.

“Don’t you know what you boys do when you steal my pajamas?”

Rachel blinked and said with a faint smile.

Then, she licked her lips and continued, “Oh Connor, don’t think I don’t know what those boys in class are thinking. Their eyes light up when they see me. You guys must be talking about me behind my back!”

“Uhh...”

Connor was surprised. A surge of heat surged up to his head from the bottom of his heart.

He did not expect Rachel to be so direct as to talk about these things with him.

When Rachel saw Connor’s expression, she could not help but smile charmingly. Then, she took off her coat.

Rachel wore a formal shirt that was body-hugging. She looked very attractive.

“Oh Connor, why are you standing so far away? Get over here and have a little chat with me...”

As Rachel spoke, she reach out and patted the spot next to her.

Connor was astonished. He seemed to be in a daze.

He didn’t know what kind of game Rachel was playing with him.

“Oh Connor, what are you still standing there for? Quickly come over here!”

Rachel said to Connor with a coquettish smile.

“Well, Ma’am, I’ll just stand here...”

Connor replied awkwardly. He had no idea what Rachel, the seductress, was planning to do to him, so he didn’t dare to sit next to her.

“Alright then!”

Seeing that Connor had no intention of coming over, Rachel lifted her sexy legs and leaned her body slightly backward, getting into a charming pose, then, she asked Connor softly, “Oh my dear Connor, what do the boys in class say about me?”

“They all praise you, Ma’am, for your beauty, good personality, and interesting lectures...”

“Oh Connor, we are already so familiar with each other. You don’t have to be so polite to me. Why don’t you tell me something that I usually can’t hear?”

Rachel interrupted Connor and said charmingly.

“Something that you usually can’t hear?”

Connor looked at Rachel and hesitated. Then, he whispered, “Ma’am, you know that I don’t have many friends in the class, so I’m not very sure what they say about you, Ma’am...”

“Then what kind of woman do you think I am?”

Rachel licked her alluring red lips and asked curiously.

“A talented, beautiful, and kind-hearted woman!” Connor hurriedly replied.

“You think I’m beautiful?”

Rachel asked happily.

“Yes, very beautiful, and very sexy!” Connor nodded gently.

“Then, tell me honestly, have you secretly fantasized about me?”

Rachel looked at Connor and continued to ask..

Chapter 55: Tricking Mina Into Bed

“Okay...”

Connor McDonald was stunned by what Rachel Wallace said.

He didn’t know what Rachel was trying to do by telling him all this.

“Yes or no?”

Rachel looked at Connor and asked.

“No!”

Connor shook his head without thinking.

“You’re lying. I can see it in your eyes!”

Rachel smiled faintly and continued, “Actually, I wouldn’t be angry with you even if you did. But no matter what, you couldn’t have stolen my pajamas, right?”

“Ma’am, I really didn’t steal your pajamas!”

Connor was feeling very frustrated now. So, he had raised his voice in agitation.

Rachel carefully sized up Connor. She had initially planned to divert Connor’s attention and then extract the truth from him.

However, she realized that Connor was not so easily distracted, so she gave up interrogating him.

“Alright, since you didn’t steal it, I’ll let you go now. You can leave!” Rachel waved her hand dismissively at Connor.

“Alright!”

Connor immediately heaved a sigh of relief after Rachel had agreed to let him go. Then, he turned around and walked out of the room.

“Oh right, Connor, my friend is having an opening ceremony for his bar the day after tomorrow. Don’t forget to go to the bar to work your part-time shift!”

When Connor was about to leave, Rachel hurriedly reminded him.

“Don’t worry. I won’t forget!”

Connor replied softly.

“Also, you can’t tell anyone about what happened today, and you can’t tell anyone that I wear those pajamas. Otherwise, you’ll be dead for sure!” Rachel warned.

“I know. I definitely won’t tell anyone!”

Connor replied helplessly. Then, he turned around and left Rachel’s room.

Rachel then sat on her bed alone. She narrowed her eyes, and her thoughts were difficult to read.

“Phew!”

After leaving Rachel’s dormitory room, Connor let out a heavy sigh. His initial nervousness had also eased quite a bit.

Since Connor had inherited a ten trillion dollars inheritance, his life had also undergone a considerable change.

The only thing that could not be changed was that every time Connor met a woman like Rachel, he would feel an indescribable nervousness. No one knew why he was nervous.

Five minutes later, Connor returned to the classroom alone.

It was already break-time. The students were all chatting in the classroom.

When Dominic saw that Connor had returned, he quickly ran to him and worriedly asked, “Connor, why did Ms. Wallace ask for you?”

“It’s nothing. She just asked me to help her move some things!”

Connor naturally did not dare to tell Dominic what had just happened. Otherwise, Rachel would not let him off.

Dominic and Spencer knew that Rachel had indeed asked Connor to move some things before, so they did not suspect anything.

“Oh right, Connor, are you free today after class?”

Dominic suddenly asked Connor.

“Yes, why?”

Connor asked back.

“If you are free, let’s go to Dusk and have a drink?” Dominic looked at Connor and smiled mysteriously.

“A drink?”

Connor was a little confused. He had never been to a bar as he couldn’t afford it before.

This time, it was unclear what was up, but Dominic had taken the initiative to invite Connor to a bar.

“That’s right. Didn’t you break up with Mandy Hines? I noticed that you haven’t been in a good mood recently, so I asked Cindy to ask a few girls from her dormitory. That way, we can get to know them better!”

Dominic Turner explained cheerfully.

Connor knew that the ‘Cindy’ Dominic was talking about was the girl he had been pursuing. Connor didn’t know what kind of relationship the two of them had.

“Bro, I don’t like going to bars. Why don’t the two of you go instead?”

Connor hesitated for a moment before refusing again.

“No. I’ve already arranged that with Cindy. The other two girls in her dorm are also single, and there happen to be three of us here. Moreover, Cindy’s dorm has a gorgeous girl called Natasha Scott. I’ll be your wingman. Maybe the two of you will end up together!”

Dominic said enthusiastically.

Seeing Dominic’s enthusiasm, Connor was too embarrassed to refuse. He could only nod and say, “Alright then, I’ll go with you. But I don’t think she will like me!”

“How do you know that Natasha won’t like you?”

Dominic grinned and then took out two thousand dollars from his wallet and handed it to Connor.

Connor was puzzled for a moment. Then, he asked, confused, “Why are you giving me money?”

“Girls nowadays like rich kids. Take this money. You can pay at Dusk tonight. When the girls see you pay, they will have a good impression of you!” Dominic explained with a smile.

H ii

Connor looked at the two thousand dollars that Dominic gave him and suddenly felt touched.

After hesitating, he didn’t say anything more. Instead, he put away the money that Dominic had given him.

“Dominic, do you still remember that CeeM who gifted a million dollars on Twitch a few days ago?”

At this moment, a boy sitting in front of Dominic turned to ask him.

Connor couldn’t help but look up at him when he heard that. This boy was called Zack Jensen, the gossip in their class.

Zack Jensen knew everything that was happening in the university. Zack was also the guy who spread the gossip about Rachel being someone's mistress.

Although Zack made up a lot of gossip, some of them were true. Therefore, the students in the class kind of acknowledged his 'knowledge' as 'facts'.

"I remember him. What's up?"

Dominic nodded.

"I know who that CeeM is!"

Zack smiled mysteriously at Dominic.

The students sitting in the back row of the classroom inched closer to Zack after hearing his claim.

"Zack Jensen, who is CeeM?"

A charming girl asked him curiously.

"Let me tell you, CeeM is a student of Porthampton University, but I don't know exactly which year he is in.

"But as far as I know, CeeM said that he will get that female streamer, Mina, into his bed. When the time comes, he will even live-stream that on our uni's forum!"

Zack said to the crowd with a smile.

When Connor heard that, he felt as if he was struck by lightning and instantly froze.

If what Zack said was true, then Connor's guess was right.

Someone must have hacked his account and pretended to be him to trick Mina into sleeping with him..

Chapter 56: Fulfilling All His Requests

"Zack, are you telling the truth?"

"CeeM is really a student of Porthampton University?"

"Are you just bragging? How could I have missed a rich kid at Porthampton University?"

After hearing what Zack said, the students in the back row of the classroom were all invested in the gossip.

They felt that even the wealthiest kid at Porthampton University wouldn't be able to spend so much money in one go!

Moreover, that money was given to a mere female streamer.

"You guys have no idea how rich this CeeM is. It is beyond the imagination of ordinary people like us!"

Zack raised his voice and said seriously.

"That's right. He's a rich kid with more than a million dollars. He's not an ordinary person!" Dominic Turner added.

"These one million dollars might be a huge sum of money for us, but for a rich kid, it might just be his pocket money for a month... Moreover, rich kids like to have fun with female streamers. When they get tired of them, they can pick another one. They don't lose anything spending these one million dollars."

“Anyway, CeeM’s fame has already spread. When the time comes, as long as he says something, many female streamers would jump into his bed!”

Zack looked at the crowd and continued.

“Sigh... why do I not have such good luck? If only that CeeM had taken a fancy to me!”

At this moment, the charming girl couldn’t help but sigh softly.

Connor’s expression was extremely unsightly. If what Zack said was true?

Then, this person pretending to be him might have already brought Mina to a hotel room.

“Zack, do you know CeeM’s real name?”

Connor hesitated and asked Zack anxiously.

“How would I know? Why? You didn’t have enough money to treat everyone the last time. Do you want to be a toyboy?”

Zack said to Connor mockingly.

“Hahaha!”

When everyone heard what Zack said, they all began to laugh.

Connor treated everyone to a meal at Brasserie Le Bernardin the last time, which had changed their perception of him a little.

But no matter what, Connor was still a penniless loser to them. This was not something that could be changed with just a treat to a meal.

A hint of disappointment flashed in Connor's eyes.

He had initially planned to ask Zack about the hacker's name and then ask Kyle Hayes to investigate it.

In this way, not only could Connor get his account back, but he could also prevent Mina from being deceived.

Unfortunately, Zack didn't know CeeM's real name.

If he wanted to find the hacker just by relying on the information that the hacker was a student of Porthampton University, it would be like looking for a needle in a haystack.

After the class ridiculed Connor, they began to discuss CeeM again.

However, they were only talking about trivial things. There was no clue that could lead Connor to the hacker's identity.

No one noticed Connor's expression.

When Connor gave Mina those gifts before, he didn't expect his account to be hacked after.

After all, that account was insignificant to Connor.

However, after hearing what Zack said, Connor realized the gravity of the problem. Perhaps Mina would not be the hacker's only victim. He might make a move on other innocent girls in the future.

Although many girls became streamers because of their interests and hobbies, most streamers did it to make money.

CeeM was like a gold mine to streamers like them.

As long as the hacker took the initiative to contact them with CeeM's account, the streamers would satisfy any request of that hacker.

Even if they were asked to sleep with him, they probably wouldn't refuse.

'Who would have thought that things would come down to this because of my negligence of not connecting my account to my phone number?'

Connor sighed helplessly, wondering how to solve the problem.

"Ring..."

The bell for class rang.

The students surrounding Zack returned to their seats, waiting for class to begin.

Dominic noticed Connor looking a little strange. He couldn't help but ask in a low voice, "Connor, why do you look so sulky? Do you feel hurt because everyone laughed at you earlier?"

"No..."

Connor shook his head lightly and explained no further.

Even if Connor told Dominic what he was worried about, Dominic probably wouldn't believe it.

Last night, Connor researched ways to get his account back, so he slept very late.

In addition, this class was finance, so he couldn't help but feel a little sleepy. After trying to pay attention for a while, Connor rested his head on the table and fell asleep.

When Connor opened his eyes again, the class was already over.

"Connor, wake up. Let's go to the bar outside the school. Cindy and the others are waiting for us there!"

Dominic patted Connor's shoulder and whispered.

"Okay..."

Connor rubbed the sleep from his eyes and followed Dominic and Spencer out of the school.

"Connor, you're the one who's treating today. Don't let your tongue slip today!"

"I have already given you some money earlier. Later, just pretend to be generous in front of the girls. Just spend that money..."

Dominic reminded Connor in a low voice as he led Connor out of the school.

"Okay, I know what to do!"

Connor nodded and didn't say anything else.

"Connor, as long as you act nice today, I think you will land Cindy's roommate. After all, Cindy's roommates are not students of Porthampton University. They don't know much about your situation..."
Spencer looked at Connor and continued.

"Spencer, what are you talking about?"

Dominic seemed upset by Spencer's words.

"No... nothing..."

Spencer replied awkwardly.

"So what if they knew Connor's situation? There is nothing wrong with Connor besides being a little poor, right?"

"Moreover, a man's youth is his capital. Even if he's poor now, he can't be poor forever!"

Dominic looked at Spencer and said.

"I was just saying. Why are you so agitated?"

Spencer did feel that he had gone overboard earlier, so he quickly defended himself.

"You'd better not say things like that again. Connor only has two friends. What will other people think of him if even you think of him that way?" Dominic said to Spencer seriously.

"Bro, it's okay. Spencer was just messing with me. I didn't take that to heart..."

Connor felt touched by his friends' words.

He knew that Spencer did not mean any harm with what he said.

"Yeah, I was just joking. Connor, please don't take it to heart!" Spencer said.

Dominic glanced at them and didn't say anything. He then walked out of the school..

Chapter 57: Cindy's Insult

A moment later, Connor and his friends arrived at the gate.

“Dominic, I’m here!”

A girl in a white T-shirt and jean shorts waved at Dominic as she called out with a smile.

Connor looked up at the girl. He knew that this girl was Cindy Stone, whom Dominic had chased this whole time. Connor was not very sure if the two were officially in a relationship.

Cindy wasn’t considered someone who would catch others’ attention at first sight. She was more like a girl-next-door type.

However, Cindy was very good at dressing up. Her clothes and accessories were branded, so she looked pretty youthful and beautiful.

Cindy and Dominic were high school classmates. Now, she was studying at Porthampton Academy of Art.

Before, when she had no classes, Cindy would go to Porthampton University to hang out with Dominic. Therefore, Connor had seen her a few times and considered her an acquaintance.

However, Connor did not have a good impression of her because he knew that Cindy only took the initiative to come to Porthampton University to hang out with Dominic at every end of the month when she did not have any money left to spend.

When her family gave her allowance at the beginning of the month, Cindy would seem as if she had disappeared without a trace.

To put it bluntly, in Connor’s point of view, Cindy merely treated Dominic as her ATM.

Connor and Spencer, however, knew exactly what was happening.

However, as Dominic was right in the thick of it, he had no idea what Cindy was doing.

Connor and Spencer were too shy to expose her, so they could only pretend not to notice.

“Hey, Cindy!”

Dominic saw Cindy standing at the gate, so he quickly walked up to her excitedly.

“Why are you late? I’ve been waiting for you for more than an hour...” Cindy pouted and said coquettishly.

“Class just ended. I rushed over here as soon as I could!”

Dominic was worried that Cindy would be upset, so he quickly explained.

“Okay, since you were in class, I would let it go this time!”

Cindy replied indifferently, then continued, “Let’s go. My roommates should have arrived by now. Don’t let them wait...”

“Okay!”

Dominic nodded and walked toward the bar near the university.

However, at this moment, Cindy suddenly turned to look at Connor and said in disgust, “Dominic Turner! Why is this delivery guy following us? Tell him to go away quickly. What if my roommates see him? I don’t want my roommates to know that I hang out with a loser of a delivery guy!”

Dominic was stunned. He seemed to feel awkward. No one had expected Cindy to be so direct. She literally had zero EQ.

Due to what she said, Dominic, Spencer, and Connor became extremely embarrassed.

“Cindy, what are you talking about? Please show some respect!”

Spencer shouted at Cindy unhappily.

“I wasn’t talking about you. Why are you so agitated?”

“Moreover, I am going to Dusk with Dominic to have fun with my roommates. What has that got to do with the delivery boy? I don’t want to bring a delivery boy with me to Dusk. Is there a problem with that?”

Cindy rolled her eyes and replied disdainfully.

“You...”

Spencer was rendered speechless, not knowing how to counter that.

After hesitating, Spencer grabbed Connor and whispered, “Connor, let’s go. We don’t have to go!”

“Okay!”

Connor didn’t like the noise in the bar, and Cindy didn’t seem to welcome him anyway, so he did want to leave.

“Connor, Spencer, wait!”

Seeing that Connor was about to leave, Dominic quickly reached out to stop him. After all, he had asked Cindy to bring her roommates today because he wanted to match Connor with someone.

If Connor were to leave now, what was the point of going to the bar then?

“Bro, Cindy’s words were so offensive! Since she looks down on Connor, why are we still going to Dusk?”

Spencer shouted at Dominic, flustered.

Dominic seemed awkward after what Spencer said as he replied in a low voice, “Actually, Cindy didn’t mean that. She may have a sharp tongue, but she has a soft heart. Don’t take it to heart. Do this for me as a bro, okay?”

H H

Looking at Dominic’s earnestness, Spencer hesitated.

After all, it was Dominic who invited them today. Even if they didn’t want to go because of Cindy, they should do it for Dominic.

“Dominic, isn’t this loser a delivery boy? Why did you bring him? Isn’t it embarrassing enough?”

At this moment, Cindy rolled her eyes and sneered.

“Cindy, can you stop talking for a moment!”

Dominic shouted, somewhat a little embarrassed and annoyed. Then, he walked up to Cindy and dragged her aside. “Cindy, come with me for a moment. I have something to say to you...”

“What more is there to say? I definitely won’t let this delivery guy go to Dusk with us today. If my roommates find out, won’t I be a laughing stock then?”

Cindy said loudly and emotionally to Dominic.

“Today, Connor will treat us to drinks at the bar. If he doesn’t go, who will pay?” Dominic asked helplessly.

“He is treating us to drinks at the bar?”

A trace of surprise flashed in Cindy’s eyes as she asked with a puzzled expression, “How can a poor chap like him have the money to treat us to drinks at the bar? Besides, didn’t you say that you wanted to introduce my roommate to your friend? That friend isn’t Connor, right?”

“That’s right, it is Connor!”

Dominic nodded.

“Dominic, are you crazy? Connor is a broke chap, how could my roommate like him?”

“You’d better ask him to leave immediately! Don’t embarrass yourself, okay?”

When Cindy found out that the so-called friend Dominic mentioned was Connor, she immediately became angry and started screeching.

She was very, and she didn’t care about Connor’s feelings at all.

When the students passing by heard Cindy, they all looked at her, Dominic, and the others curiously.

“Cindy, can you keep your voice down? Connor is my best friend. He just broke up with someone not long ago, so I only wanted to comfort him. What’s wrong with that?”

Dominic gritted his teeth and said to Cindy in a low voice.

“Dominic, why are you friends with a broke chap like Connor?”

Cindy asked in confusion.

“Cindy, aren’t you pushing it a little too much today?”

At this moment, Spencer finally couldn’t hold it in anymore and shouted at Cindy.

“How am I pushing it too much? I’m just telling the truth. Isn’t Connor just a broke boy who delivers food?”

“Whatever it is, I don’t care. If Connor comes to Dusk with us today, I’m not going. I won’t introduce my roommate to someone like him!”

Cindy pouted and said arrogantly.

“Bro, why don’t you guys go? I don’t want to join anymore!”

Connor, who had been silent all this time, finally spoke.

After saying this, Connor walked away without looking back..

Chapter 58: I Have One Condition

“Connor, don’t leave!”

Seeing that Connor McDonald was about to leave, Dominic Turner quickly reached out to stop him.

Then, he turned to Cindy Stone and said, "Cindy, if you don't want Connor to join us at the bar, you can go on your own!"

Cindy was stunned. She seemed to be in disbelief.

"Dominic Turner, what did you just say to me?"

Cindy asked Dominic with a slightly angry expression.

"I said, if you don't want Connor to join us at the bar, you can go on your own. Besides, Connor is treating us to drinks today. If Connor is not coming, then I won't go either!" Dominic gritted his teeth and growled.

"Dominic Turner, are you out of your mind? You are picking a broke chap who delivers food over me?"

Cindy's eyes widened in disbelief.

"Cindy, I've told you many times. Whether Connor is a poor man, he is my best friend. I indeed like you, but that doesn't mean that you can humiliate my friend like this. If you think we don't have the right to drink with you, you can leave!"

Dominic, silently tolerating Cindy before, finally exploded and growled at Cindy.

"Alright, Dominic Turner, you are asking me to leave? Fine, I'll leave. Do you think I'm afraid of you?"

Cindy shouted in return and then turned around to leave.

After Connor saw that Cindy had really left, he felt a little apologetic. He took a step forward and said to Dominic softly, "Bro, you didn't have to do that. I don't really want to go to the bar. Moreover, even if I did go, the girl might not like me anyway. Why don't you go and ask Cindy to come back?"

“She really went too far today. How dare she talk to you like this? I can’t keep giving leeway to her!”

Dominic said softly.

Connor stood where he was, not knowing what to do.

After all, no one had expected this whole thing to escalate to this point.

“Forget it. You two should go to the bar. Don’t let me ruin your fun!”

Connor had been worried about Mina being tricked into someone else’s bed.

Cindy’s departure gave him a reason not to go to the bar, so he turned to leave after saying that.

“Without Cindy, can’t the three of us go to the bar anyway? There are plenty of other pretty girls in the bar. I’ll be your wingman!”

Spencer quickly reached out to grab Connor.

Meanwhile, Cindy was about to leave Porthampton University when her phone suddenly rang.

Cindy hesitated before answering her phone, “Tiana, what’s up?”

“Cindy, where are you now? Natasha and I have already arrived at Dusk near Porthampton University. Didn’t you say that you wanted to introduce a handsome guy to us? Why aren’t you here yet?”

The girl on the other end of the phone asked with a charming smile.

“What handsome guy? He’s just a delivery boy. How could Natasha fall for someone like him...”

Cindy couldn't help but mutter in a low voice.

"A delivery boy? What delivery boy?"

Cindy's roommate, Tiana Johns, was puzzled.

"No... nothing... Today's outing has been canceled. Let's go back to the dormitory!"

Cindy was infuriated by Dominic. She simply didn't want to go to the bar anymore.

"What? The outing has been canceled?"

When Tiana heard that, she immediately cried out in surprise, then she continued, "Cindy, are you kidding me? Natasha and I have ordered our drinks. Moreover, the drinks have been served. Who will pay the bill if the outing is canceled now?"

"Why did you order the drinks so soon?"

Cindy was stunned for a moment and asked angrily.

"Didn't you ask us to order our drinks? You said that there will be a rich kid coming later. He's your side boy. You told us to spend as much as we want, and the rich kid would come and pay for it..."

Tiana said helplessly.

"How much did you order?" Cindy asked

"Not much. This booth costs at least two thousand dollars. We only ordered two thousand dollars worth of drinks!" Tiana said slowly.

When Cindy heard that, she immediately frowned.

She initially thought that if Tiana hadn't ordered too much, she would go over and foot the bill.

But she never thought that her roommate would be so generous and spend two thousand dollars in one go.

She didn't even have five hundred dollars on her now. It wasn't enough to pay the bill.

"Cindy, are you pulling our legs?" Tiana asked suspiciously when she didn't get a response from Cindy.

"Why would I be pulling your legs? I'll bring some people over later. Just you wait!"

Cindy whispered and hung up the phone.

After hanging up the phone, Cindy calmed herself down and turned to look at Dominic and his friends.

Although she felt conflicted, she still turned around and went back to Dominic and his friends.

At this moment, Tiana and Natasha were still at the bar. If she didn't bring someone to save the day, how could she face them in the dormitory in the future.

Therefore, even though Cindy despised Connor, she could only helplessly accept bringing him to the bar.

"Cindy, why are you back?"

When Dominic saw that Cindy had returned, he smiled and asked, pleasantly surprised.

“Didn’t you want to bring this poor chap to the bar? Let’s go then!”

Cindy said to Dominic very reluctantly.

Dominic froze for a moment, then looked at Cindy in surprise and said, “Cindy, I knew you were kind-hearted!”

“If it weren’t for the fact that he is your friend, I wouldn’t have agreed to let him tag along with us to the bar. After all, he is just a delivery boy. How can he mingle with people like us?”

Cindy sized Connor up and said with disdain.

When Dominic was happy that Cindy had agreed to bring Connor along to the bar, so he said to Connor and Spencer happily, “That’s great! Spencer, Connor, let’s go to the bar!”

Although Dominic didn’t know Cindy’s true color, it didn’t mean that Spencer and Connor were blind to it.

They knew that Cindy definitely didn’t just have a change of heart. So, Spencer took a step forward and looked at Cindy, saying, “Why is Connor not allowed to go when you say so? Now you are allowing him to tag along, so he should go now? Who do you think you are?”

“Spencer, what are you talking about?”

Cindy stared at Spencer and shouted at him.

“I will go to the bar with Connor, but I have one condition!” Spencer said slowly.

“What is it?”

Cindy frowned and asked..

Chapter 59: Dusk

“If you treat us today, the three of us will go. If you don’t treat us, we won’t go!”

Spencer knew why Cindy had suddenly changed her mind. To her, they were just rich kids who were her ATMs.

Therefore, he would use this opportunity to teach Cindy a lesson.

Cindy was instantly stunned. She seemed a little awkward.

“Spencer, aren’t you going a little overboard? How could you ask a girl like Cindy to treat us to drinks? Moreover, there’s no reason for us to let a girl treat us to drinks when we’re out having fun!”

Dominic felt that Cindy was already giving him a lot of leeway by agreeing to let Connor tag along.

But now Spencer was asking Cindy to treat them to drinks. This was really going a little overboard.

“Why can’t girls treat us? Didn’t you guys always say that men and women are equal? Now is our chance. We were the ones who treated when we went out the previous times. Cindy didn’t even spend a single cent. What’s wrong with asking her to treat us this time?”

Spencer replied impolitely.

Previously, because of Dominic, Spencer had treated Cindy to many meals.

After all, Spencer was from a pretty well-off family. Moreover, Dominic had always been pursuing Cindy. Spencer felt that it was only right to spend some money for his best friend.

However, Cindy had humiliated Connor in front of many people today. So, Spencer felt very uncomfortable.

Therefore, he naturally would not make it easy for her either.

“Spencer, why are you such a stingy man?”

Cindy shouted at Spencer unhappily.

“I’m not stingy, but I’m giving you an opportunity to feel gender equality. Since you want me to go, are you not going to show some sincerity?”

“You said so many mean things to Connor before. It’s not a problem to treat us now, right? It’s okay if you don’t have the money to treat us. As long as you apologize to Connor, we’ll let this be water under the bridge!”

Spencer seemed to have made up his mind. He wanted to teach Cindy a lesson, so he spoke with a very firm tone.

“Spencer, you...”

Cindy glared at Spencer, feeling very helpless.

Cindy could not bring herself to apologize to a person like Connor. However, neither did she have the money to treat them either.

Therefore, Cindy had her backed up against a corner. She could only look at Dominic, hoping he would help.

“Didn’t we agree that I would treat today? Cindy probably didn’t mean the things she said earlier. I think we should just let it go this time!”

At this moment, Conner suddenly said.

Cindy quickly looked at Connor, surprised.

She did not expect Connor to speak up for her this time.

In fact, Connor only didn't want to continue wasting time. He wanted to finish drinking with Dominic and the others as soon as possible and then go home to check on Mina.

Now, Spencer was too embarrassed to continue making things difficult for Cindy. So, he walked toward Dusk.

However, Dominic looked at Connor with gratitude. Connor didn't lower himself to Cindy's level. He was doing Dominic a favor.

After all, if this continued, Dominic would be in a very difficult position.

A few minutes later, everyone arrived at the bar, Dusk that was near Porthampton University.

Dusk was the most prominent bar near Porthampton University. Since it had just opened, the interior design was very new, so students liked to come here to hang out.

However, when Connor and the others entered the bar, Cindy suddenly stopped in her tracks.

While Spencer and Dominic were not paying attention, she turned her head and said to Connor, "Connor, when you see my roommates later, don't tell them that you're a delivery boy. I don't want my roommates to know that I know someone like you, understand?"

Cindy seemed to have forgotten who had helped her out as she spoke to Connor rudely.

"Understood!"

Connor didn't want to waste more time with Cindy, so he replied nonchalantly.

"By the way, you'd better not have any thoughts about my roommate. My roommate will never fall for a poor chap like you. You'd better know your place!" Cindy continued.

Connor couldn't help but be stunned for a moment.

Then, he stopped walking and said expressionlessly, "Cindy Stone, if it weren't for Dominic, I wouldn't have come here with you. Moreover, I already have a fiancée, and I'm not interested in your roommate, so you don't have to worry!" "You have a fiancée? What are you bragging about? Who would take a fancy to a loser like you?"

Cindy rolled her eyes at him and said disdainfully.

Connor ignored Cindy and walked straight into the bar.

As Dominic and Spencer had already entered the bar ahead of them, they didn't hear the conversation between Connor and Cindy.

In the bar, under the dim lights.

Men and women dressed in bright and beautiful clothes, accompanied by loud and ear-splitting music, were twisting their bodies on the dance floor, the hormones of youth floating in the air.

It was seven o'clock in the evening. Although it was still early, this time was just the start of their exciting night for people who liked nightlife.

There were a lot of people at the bar today. Most of them were students of Porthampton University.

It was Connor's first time here, so he was shocked by the scene inside as soon as he entered.

When Cindy saw Connor acting like a country bumpkin, she couldn't help but smirk disdainfully.

However, because Dominic and Spencer were still standing next to Connor, she didn't try to make any remarks.

"Cindy, over here!"

At this moment, a coy girl wearing heavy makeup waved at Cindy and the others.

She was wearing a tight black T-shirt that perfectly accentuated her body. Her legs were slender and fair, and her golden wavy hair was casually draped over her shoulders, giving her an extremely youthful aura.

Although the girl's attire was very sexy and charming, her appearance was only average. She was not even as pretty as Cindy.

However, even so, her figure was very hot. Her legs were slender, and her chest was ample. It was not that of what a normal female university student should have.

"Tiana, I'm coming!"

Cindy turned her head and replied. Then, she said to Dominic and the others, "That is my roommate, Tiana Johns. Let's go over!"

"Okay!"

Dominic hurriedly nodded.

Cindy then turned her head and glanced at Connor. She said in a low voice, "Connor, don't spew nonsense when you meet my roommate later. Don't expose the fact that you're poor..."

“Cindy, can you stop?”

Dominic couldn't help but frown and scold her.

“I didn't mean anything by it. Didn't you want me to find Connor a girlfriend?”

“If my roommate knew that he was a loser who delivers food, she probably wouldn't even want to talk to him. I'm just giving him a friendly reminder for his own good!”

Cindy explained disdainfully and then walked to the booth..

Chapter 60: The Inevitable Clash

A moment later, everyone arrived at the table that Tiana had reserved beforehand.

The few of them introduced each other before sitting down.

Although Tiana looked average, she did not lack male friends because she was usually dressed sexily.

She knew that Dominic had always been after Cindy, and although Dominic's family was quite wealthy, his looks were too average.

Connor was quite good-looking, but Tiana naturally didn't have much interest in Connor because of his shabby outfit.

Initially, Tiana thought that Cindy would bring a few decent rich kids over this time.

However, she didn't expect Cindy to bring people like Connor and Spencer. Tiana immediately lost interest and sat alone on the sofa, playing with her phone.

“Tiana, where did Natasha go? Didn't she come with you?”

At this moment, Cindy suddenly asked Tiana softly.

“Natasha went to the restroom!”

Tiana replied absent-mindedly as she continued paying attention to her phone and flirting with some handsome guys nearby on Bumble.

Since the two men that Cindy brought were not up to Tiana’s expectations, she would not waste her time with them.

Therefore, she was ready to hook up with the handsome men nearby whom she found on Bumble. Who knows, she might even hook up with a rich man.

“Oh, then let’s wait. I reckon that Natasha will be back soon!”

Cindy said indifferently.

However, just as she finished speaking, she saw a tall and beautiful woman in high heels walking toward them.

“Natasha, over here!”

After seeing the beautiful woman, Cindy hurriedly called out to her.

Then, she stood up and greeted her, leading the beautiful woman back to their table.

“Let me introduce everyone. This is one of the top ten campus belles of Porthampton Academy of Art, Natasha Scott!”

Cindy dragged the beautiful woman to her side and introduced her arrogantly.

When Connor heard that, he couldn't help but raise his head to look at the woman next to Cindy.

It had to be said that the campus belle of Porthampton Academy of Art was indeed much more beautiful than Cindy and Tiana.

Moreover, Natasha also seemed noble and cold at the same time. Be it her figure or her appearance, she was pretty high-class.

Natasha wore a cross-shoulder dress. Her jet-black hair flowed naturally over her bare shoulder. She was tall and had a calm temperament. There was no makeup on her face, but she had a different kind of charm.

Under the dim light, she seemed covered in a pleasant, dreamlike glow.

"Natasha, these three are my friends, Dominic, Spencer, and Connor!"

Cindy turned around and introduced her to Connor and his friends.

"Hello!"

Natasha greeted them softly.

"Hello, beautiful!"

Dominic grinned at Natasha and continued, "Since everyone is here, let's get going. Order whatever you want. Connor is treating us today anyway..."

When Tiana heard that, she could not help but turn to look at Connor. Her eyes were filled with surprise.

That was because Connor was just an ordinary student. His outfit was, in her eyes, very shabby.

However, she never expected that Connor would be the one treating them this time.

Therefore, Tiana's opinion of Connor had changed a little. Perhaps Connor was the kind of rich kid that liked to pretend to be poor!

Tiana hesitated and was about to find an opportunity to sit next to Connor and flirt with him.

However, Tiana didn't expect that before she could make a move, Dominic pulled Natasha to Connor's side and said with a smile, "Natasha, you can sit here!"

Natasha couldn't help but feel stunned for a moment before sitting down next to Connor anyway.

Although Connor looked a bit of a loser, he was still quite handsome.

Moreover, he was the one who would be treating them today. This meant that he had some money, so Natasha naturally did not reject him.

Tiana immediately frowned and felt a little unhappy.

However, she was too embarrassed to say anything and could only stay put and fume.

Cindy did not expose Connor because she understood Natasha enough to know that she would avoid Connor once she knew that he was a pauper.

Therefore, Cindy tacitly agreed to Dominic's plan to set Connor up with Natasha.

After everyone sat down, they began to drink and chat.

Natasha might look a little cold on the surface, but she was not introverted.

She took the initiative to chat with Connor.

After all, today was the first time they met. She definitely wouldn't develop any feelings for Connor.

However, Natasha's impression of Connor was still pretty good. It shouldn't be a problem for them to be friends.

When Connor saw that the girl was so enthusiastic about getting to know him, he naturally felt embarrassed to continue being cold, so he responded enthusiastically.

Just as Connor and Natasha were chatting enthusiastically, a group of people walked into Dusk.

This group of people was none other than Brandon Guthrie, who had been humiliated by Connor many times.

Behind Brandon Mandy Hines, May Young, Lily Sullivan, and a few other students from the same class.

In the bar.

Brandon and his companions walked into the bar. Then, they found a table that started at three thousand dollars and sat down.

"Mr. Guthrie, why does that guy look so familiar?"

At this moment, Charlie Bones, next to Brandon, noticed Connor.

"Isn't that Connor? Why is he here?"

Lily Sullivan also saw Connor chatting with Natasha, not far away. She was confused.

“Hehe, I didn’t expect this loser to have the money to come here. Moreover, he is sitting at a table that costs the same as ours. What’s up with Connor recently? Why does he seem like a different person all of a sudden...” Charlie curled his lips and said in a low voice.

After hearing what Charlie said, Brandon’s expression instantly darkened. He felt as if he was sitting on pins.

After all, he had brought them to Dusk and sat at a table that started at three thousand dollars. Brandon had already felt that he had spent enough. However, he did not expect Connor to afford the same table as his.

Mandy narrowed her eyes and looked at Natasha, chatting happily with Connor not far away.

Be it her figure, appearance, or clothes, Natasha was better than Mandy. This made Mandy feel very uncomfortable.

She had only just broken up with Connor recently, but Connor was already out and about. He even found a girl who was more beautiful than her. This ultimately ignited Mandy’s jealousy.

“Connor must be on a date with that girl!”

May suddenly commented.

“May Young, what kind of joke are you making?”

“Connor is a stinking loser who delivers food. Everyone at Porthampton University knows that! Other than Mandy, who else would be willing to date someone like him?”

Lily replied sarcastically as if she had long forgotten that Connor had once saved her from Todd Knowles.

May looked at Connor and hesitated without saying anything.

After all, May had never told anyone about the incident at Seven Days Hotel.

After experiencing that, May believed that Connor was not as simple as the stinking loser they claimed him to be..
