Chapter 762 Vincent's Dilemma

[At Sakura District Hospital...]

Mia lost so much blood during her accident that she needed a blood transfusion. Jane didn't hesitate to offer her own blood for her daughter. This was the least she could do to save her daughter.

Mr. Hiroshi and Vincent waited outside the operating room, both not saying a word. Despite witnessing Vincent's violent behavior toward Speed, Mr. Hiroshi couldn't ridicule his actions.

As a father, he could understand Vincent's rage. There was no doubt that Vincent cared so much about Mia. He won't hesitate to kill his loyal subordinate as punishment for her failure to protect his daughter.

"She's going to make it," Mr. Hiroshi finally spoke up, breaking the silence. He could see the fear and anxiety in Vincent's eyes as he waited.

Vincent turned to Mr. Hiroshi, nodding his head as he acknowledged his words. "Mia is a strong kid. I know..." He folded his fingers into fists, trying to calm his raging emotions.

Their conversation was interrupted when Vincent's phone rang. His expression turned grim upon seeing Monica's caller ID.

He decided to ignore it. However, Monica kept calling his number.

"Go and answer it," Mr. Hiroshi urged him.

Vincent had no choice but to answer it. He stood up and left, finding a place where he could talk to Monica alone.

"What do you want?" Vincent was not able to control his emotions. He acted so cold upon answering the phone.

"Babe? Is there something wrong? Are you mad at me? I just want to ask if you are flying home today." Monica sounded upset because of Vincent's cold treatment.

Vincent had no time to entertain her antics and he was not in the mood. "Stop acting like a spoiled brat, Monica."

Monica's eyes widened in disbelief. She didn't know why Vincent was acting this way.

"What the hell are you talking about? Is this really you, Vincent?" Monica started to raise her voice.

"I will only ask you this once. What did you do to my father? Did you kidnap him without my permission?" He confronted her directly. He couldn't wait to fix this issue. He promised Jane that he would search for Old Man Xu.

Monica was losing her temper as well. She hated the way Vincent was treating her today.

"Yes! I kidnapped the old man! Why? Will you get mad at me? I'm just doing you this favor so that he won't destroy your plan. Don't you dare question my actions? Everything I did is for you! I don't deserve this kind of treatment from you, Vincent." Monica talked back, expressing her displeasure.

"I told you not to touch him!"

"I have no choice! He already knew the truth that I'm not Ethan's mother!" Monica spat back at him.

Vincent was rendered speechless when he heard that. 'I thought my Uncle had already intervened with the DNA samples?'

Little did he know, Monica confessed the truth to Old Man Xu herself. He hadn't seen the results of the DNA test because the samples were stolen from the facilities.

"So now, tell me that I just did the right thing!" Monica mocked him.

Vincent couldn't refute that. Nathan and Ethan must not know the truth about Ethan's real mother. Because of this, Vincent was put in a dilemma. How could he let go of Old Man Xu if he already knew a secret that Nathan must not know?

He was torn between keeping his promise to Jane and his desire to hide the truth.

'Damn! Why do I have to choose now?' Vincent clenched his jaw.

[At Country M...]

Old Man Xu's whereabouts were still unknown. The kidnapers hadn't contacted the Sparks Family yet. The situation was a bit complicated.

"If they do not want money, then why did they kidnap my father? Is this a revenge plot?" Nathan massaged his temples. He hadn't gotten enough sleep as he was busy searching for Old Man Xu.

"Dad! I'm afraid... What if they already hurt my grandpa? Will we be able to see him again? I don't want him to die." Ethan immediately emerged from the back of the door. It turned out he had been eavesdropping on Axel and Nathan's conversation.

"Ethan?"

Both Axel and Nathan were surprised at his sudden appearance. "Young master, we are doing our best to find Chairman Xu. Don't worry." Axel tried to console the young boy.

"Dad! Please find Grandpa as soon as possible! What if they are torturing him?" Ethan became more worried about Old Man Xu.

Nathan rose from his chair and walked toward Ethan. He knelt to meet his gaze as he held his son's shoulders. "I can only promise you one thing... I'll bring back your grandpa. Do you trust me, son?"

Ethan immediately bobbed his head. "I trust you, Dad."

Nathan patted his head. The debut release occurred at N-ov 3l-Ne(x)t.

"Dad..." Ethan put on a pitiful look as he gazed at him.

"Yes?"

"I missed Miss Jane. She said she's coming back today right? However, I haven't heard anything from her. She's not answering my call. Do you think she is just fine?" Ethan raised another concern.

He had been calling her but he couldn't reach her. "It's unusual for her not to answer my call. I'm worried," Ethan added.

Nathan was taken aback when he heard that. He just realized that Jane had not messaged him. In their last conversation, she told him she was returning today. She also wanted to join him in searching for Old Man Xu.

"Let's wait for her. She might be dealing with something in Country J." Nathan wanted to ease Ethan's worry. But deep inside, he was also bothered by Jane's current whereabouts.

"I'll try contacting her. I will update you as soon as possible."

Ethan became at ease now because of his father's words. Soon, he stepped out of Nathan's study room, heading to the garden.

While on his way, he ran to Butler Li.

"Young Master, why are you sad?" Butler Li asked him worriedly.

To his surprise, Ethan suddenly hugged him. "Uncle Li... I miss my Mommy Jane. And I am worried about my Grandpa. I want to see them soon." The young boy confided his feelings with Butler Li.

Butler Li stroked his hair, feeling sorry for his young master. "Your mommy will be here soon. And don't worry too much about your grandpa. Your father is doing his best to locate him."

"I pray that someone will protect my grandpa from harm. Butler Li... they said... Grandpa's secretary betrayed us. He is a traitor. I hate traitors. When I grow up, I will punish people who try to hurt my family." Little Ethan swore to himself.

Then he gazed up at him. "Uncle Li... please don't betray us, okay? I know you won't. You are the only person I trust in this household aside from my father and Uncle Axel."

Butler Li was touched by Ethan's words. "Thank you, Young Master." He smiled faintly as he embraced Ethan.

"Don't cry anymore, Young Master. Your grandpa will be safe." Butler Li rubbed his back, consoling him.

"Yes, Uncle Li. I will wait for my grandpa to come home. I will behave and show him how much I love him.
