

Global Lord: 100% Drop Rate

Chapter 1

Legendary-Tier Lord Talent! 100% Drop Rate!

[Welcome to the High Continent!]

[Everyone chosen by the Supreme Will will carry the fate of the Cerulean Planet as Lords and participate in the competition for the title of Lord of

All Races on this continent!]

[Every Lord will have a Lord's wooden house and a Gate of Summoning!]

[In addition, some Lords will awaken their own Lord Talents!]

[Attention All Lords, please use this as a foundation to develop your territory and participate in the competition for the title of the Lord of All Races!]

[You can have everything on the High Continent — Treasures, opportunities, wealth, strength, status — anything you want!]

[Fight to your heart's content!]

[All of them can belong to any of you Lords!]

...

[You have awakened your Lord Talent!]

...

“The fight for supremacy as the Lord of All Races?”

Zhou Zhou roused, stood up and examined his surroundings.

An endless yellow desert that stretched beyond the horizon entered his sight.

Behind him was a simple wooden house and beside the wooden house was a white door of light that was more than three meters tall.

The hot wind blew onto Zhou Zhou's face, sending some sand in his face.

“The fight for supremacy as the Lord of All Races... So this should be my territory.”

“It’s actually a desert... Even water would be hard to find in this territory, right?” Zhou Zhou’s expression was a little ugly.

A Desert Territory!

This was undoubtedly a bad start for a Lord who needed resources to develop.

At this moment, a golden virtual screen appeared in front of Zhou Zhou.

[Honorable Lord!]

[As a Novice Lord, you will have seven days of Novice Protection!]

[During these seven days, your territory will be covered with a Novice Lord Protection Barrier to protect your territory from the invasion of the other Lords and monsters from the outside world!]

[Seven days later, the monsters of the Scarlet Fog will invade your territory as a Novice Lord Test!]

[Please work hard to develop your territory in these seven days and pass the Novice Lord Test. Otherwise, both you and your territory will be destroyed!]

Zhou Zhou had just finished reading when a squarish white light barrier appeared above him and covered his territory.

“This shield can only protect me for seven days!”

“In these seven days, I must develop to the point where I have the strength to fight against monsters or I’ll die here!” His expression was grave.

“Let’s take a look at my development foundation first.” Zhou Zhou looked at the Lord’s wooden house behind him.

A golden screen appeared.

[Building Name: The Lord’s Wooden House]

[Territory Level: Black Iron-Tier Elementary Grade]

[Building Effect: The Lord’s residence. At the same time, it is also the place where the Territory Token is kept.]

[Construction Upgrade: 200 units of wood, 200 units of fine sand, 200 units of metal, 200 units of stone, 100 units of Black Iron-Tier Mist Core!]

[Territory Construction: Lord's Wooden House (Black Iron-Tier Elementary Grade), Gate of Summoning (Black Iron-Tier Elementary Grade)]

[Lord Talent: 100% Drop Rate (Legendary)]

[100% Drop Rate: You can see the drop rate of the enemy's loot. There is a 100% chance of obtaining everything in the loot when looting the corpse.]

"I actually awakened a Legendary-Tier Lord Talent! Isn't this 100% drop rate too ridiculous?!" Zhou Zhou was pleasantly surprised.

He was a transmigrator who had lived two very ordinary lives without much luck.

He did not expect his luck to reverse in this High Continent!

After calming down, he came to the Gate of Summoning.

Zhou Zhou looked at the white door of light in front of him, and the golden screen appeared again.

[Building Name: Gate of Summoning]

[Construction Level: Black Iron-Tier Elementary Grade]

[Building Effect: Every day, five natives of the High Continent can be summoned from the Gate of Summoning to become subjects of the Lord. There is a chance you will be able to summon professionals.]

[Construction Upgrade: 100 units of wood, 100 units of sand, 100 units of sand metal, 100 units of stone, 50 Black Iron-Tier Mist Core!]

[Prompt: Do you want to summon immediately?]

“Yes!”

Zhou Zhou immediately said.

He did not possess much combat strength himself so he would have to rely on these subjects to deal with the monsters seven days later.

In the next moment, the Gate of Summoning suddenly blinded him with white rays of light, foreshadowing the arrival of five people.

“Greetings, my Lord!”

The five of them immediately knelt down and said respectfully when they came out and saw Zhou Zhou.

“Raise.” Zhou Zhou said.

“Thank you, my Lord!”

Zhou Zhou took a good look at them after they stood up.

Three of the five were men and two were women.

Amongst them, a man and woman were Black Iron-Tier Elementary Grade Chefs. They seemed to be husband and wife.

The other two men were not professionals and looked average.

The last woman, however, was an archer. She was the only professional among the five.

She was wearing the standard armor of the army, carrying a standard bow and arrows on her back, and a short sword at her waist.

She had a handsome face and sharp eyes.

Her attribute panel appeared.

[Subject: Bai Yi]

[Territory: Unnamed]

[Soldier Type: Archer]

[Strength Level: Black Iron-Tier Elementary Grade]

[Ability Overview: Stayed with a female hunter when she was young. Joined the army and became an archer when she grew up. She's good at archery.]

[Skills: Black Iron-Tier Elementary Grade Archery, Black Iron-Tier Elementary Grade Trap Arrangement]

[Loyalty: 72]

[Potential: White Silver-Tier Intermediate Grade]

[Soldier Type Subject!]

Zhou Zhou nodded. This was true combat power that could deal with the fog monsters and other Lords!

“My name is Zhou Zhou!”

“Welcome to my territory!”

“Since you have become my subjects and accepted my protection, you have to listen to my orders and work for me with loyalty.”

“There are monsters surrounding us. You don’t want us to have to deal with the monsters outside and deal with internal chaos on top of that, right? Are you willing to fight for our shared survival?”

“We’re willing!” The five of them said hurriedly.

Zhou Zhou nodded.

At this moment.

BANG!

BANG!

BANG!

A series of clashing sounds loomed not far away, accompanied by hissing sounds.

Everyone's expression changed.

“Let's go!”

“Let's go take a look!”

Zhou Zhou quickly calmed down with the knowledge that he had the novice Lord protection. He then led the five subjects to the source of the sound.

A lizard with yellow skin and blood-red eyeballs was constantly hitting the protective barrier from the outside, trying to bash its way in.

When it saw Zhou Zhou and the others arrive, bloodlust immediately appeared in its eyes as it roared at them.

“It's the Scarlet Fog Monster!”

Bai Yi's expression became serious. She took out the bow and arrow on her back and prepared to attack at any time.

Zhou Zhou looked at it.

A monster notification appeared.

[Monster Name: Desert Fog Lizard]

[Strength Level: Black Iron-Tier Elementary Grade]

[Monster Description: A monster from the Blazing Sun Desert, born in the scarlet fog. It is bloodthirsty and likes to kill all living creatures that appear in front of it.]

[Loot Drop Rate: two units of Black Iron-Tier Mist Core (Drop Rate: 100%), one unit to 20 units of Black Iron-Tier Elementary Grade Desert Mist Lizard meat (Drop Rate: 20% to 1%), one kg water bag (Drop Rate: 3%), one gradeless Sword Shield Soldier Class Change Certificate (Drop Rate: 0.1%)]
